VOL. V. 83 NO. 17

Solnčna stran življenja.

Dobrote in udobnosti življenja so solnčna stran istega. Razume se, da nam življenje prepogosto pokaže tudi svojo senčno stran, posejano s trnjem najrazličnejših neprijetnosti. Včasih se nam zdi življenje, samo solnce, včasih sama mrzla senca, največkrat pa se sence igrajo in prepletajo s solničnimi žarkovi. Ni čuda, če pravimo, da je življenje pisano.

Nespametno bi si bilo zakrivati oči pred življenja senčno stranjo, ki vsebuje neprijetnosti, skrbi, proti nam naperjeno hudobijo in škodoželjnost in najrazličnejše nevarnosti. Prav je, da sovražnike in nevarnosti poznamo, ker le na ta način se jih moremo uspešno braniti. Nikakor pa ni pametno gledati črno stran življenja tako vztrajno, da potem ne vidimo ničesar več dobrega in lepega na svetu. S tako črnogledno trmo si nič ne koristimo, pač pa zagrenimo življenje sebi in drugim.

Na svetu je, poleg napak in neprijetnosti, poleg sovražnikov, izkoriščevalcev, škodoželjnikov, domisljajcev, poleg teme, blata in trnja, tudi marsikaj lepega in prijetnega, mnogo odkritosrčnih prijateljev, mnogo dobronamernih in pošteno mislečih ljudi, mnogo svetlobe in cvetja. Mi pa dostikrat pozabimo na vse to, in se pogrezamo v temne skrbi in slutnje, tonemo v žalovanje, v ponovno obujevanje sovraštva in mržnje do vsega, kar dela življenje v resnici lepo in človeka vredno.

Naše duševno življenje pa potrebuje jasnih, sončnih misli prav tako, kot potrebuje naše telo svežega zraka in solnčnih žarkov. Ako se izogibljemo solnca in svežega zraka, zašli bomo kmalu v temno oblast mučnih bolezni, ako odganjamo iz srca jasne in solnčne misli, naselila se bo tam pajčevina, plesnoba in gnoloba.

Dostikrat nam naši javni ali prikriti nasprotniki store krivico ali nam povzročijo neprimliko. Da jim ne bomo za to poljubljali rok ali jim nastavljali še drugo stran lica, da nas oklofuto, to je samoumevno, nikakor pa ni potrebno, da bi s kuhanjem sovraštva škodovali samim sebi. Zapomni si take "prijatelje," da se bomo znali v bodoče čuvati njih ljubeznivosti, pa hodimo vzdignjenih glav in živčajočih svoja pota. Svet je dovolj velik, in ni treba, da bi bili drug drugemu na poti. Dokler lahko naštejemo na vsakega sovražnika deset prijateljev in sto ali tisoč dobro in pošteno mislečih ljudi, ni nam treba tarnati in obupavati. Odvrtno svoj pogled od teh temnih strani življenja in glejmo tja, kjer se solnčni žarki igrajo s pestrim cvetjem.

Ako bomo bolj cenili in vpoštevali solnčno stran življenja, premagovali bomo lažje vsakdanje skrbi in neprimliko, in naše jasno duševno razpoloženje nas bo ohranjalo tudi telesno živahne in zdrave. Poleg tega ne bi smeli pozabiti, da je človek jasnega in solnčnega razpoloženja dobrodošel povsod, kar v življenju tudi mnogo šteje.

V društvih J. S. K. Jednote, katerim pripadamo, skušajmo odpraviti ali vsaj ublažiti vse zadržbe, prepire in malenkostna osebna sovraštva, in gojimo prijateljstvo, bratstvo in solnčno razpoloženje. Tako društvo bo kot magnet in bo pritegnilo v svoj krog vse poštene in dobromisleče rojake dolične okolice.

Kdor prizna in pohvali zasluge in dobra dela drugih, pri pametnih ljudeh prav nič ne izgubi na lastnem ugledu, pač pa s tem celo poveča svoj ugled.

Dober, odkrit prijatelj je vreden večkratne svoje teže v zlato; hinavec, ki samo hlini prijateljstvo, pa ni vreden niti dihurjevega pozdrava.

ALI SE NAM "ŠIKA"!

(A. J. TERBOVEC)

V teh težkih dneh prohibicije se marsikdo nekako s težkim srcem spominja časov, ki so bili. Nobenega pravega spoštovanja nismo imeli do tekočin, ki so štele od pet do sto procentov alkohola. Zdad se nam pa to zaničevanje "prufov" plačuje. V naših bosoputih letih so nas stariši dostikrat svarili ne taptati drobtin, da ne bomo kruha stradali. To so bili preroški nauki. Nismo teptali drobtin in nismo stradali kruha.

Zdad pa pomislimo, kakšno spoštovanje smo v nekdanjih dobrih časih izkazovali pristni sto-procentni rakiji, za katere pristnost je jamčil U. S. kolek! Cena je bila od pet do petnajst centov kozarček, napredaj je bila skoro na vsakem cestnem križišču, pa kdo se je menil zanj! Da bi ti bil prijatelj v avtomobilu, garaži, na hodniku ali v kakšni zasenčeni sobi ponudil požirek žganja, bila bi zamera. V obednici rakija sploh ni imela domovinske pravice. Če te je tovariš v salunu hotel "tritati" za rakijo, si rajši vzel cigaro. Sploh je bilo žganje le bolj za lree in za črvičenje v želodcu.

Spominjam se "tritanja" v nekem salunu na zapadu. V kozarčke je tekla "California-brandy" po 15 centov, in jaz sem ga zill vsaj 15 kozarčkov v poteček, ki je tekla po žlebu v vnožju bare, potem pa s praznim kozarčkom v pesti delal geste kot da pijem. Da je bilo to krvavo norčevanje iz dobrega blaga, ki ga danes čelo za črvičenje v želodcu pogrešamo, se prav zavedam šele zdaj.

Pa še hujšega žganjekletstva se zavedam in ga zdaj prepoznem obžalujem. Na mojih trgovskih potih sem se marsikje spoprijateljil s slovenskimi salunariji tistih časov. Posebno hud osuševalac sodov nisem nikdar bil, in menda zato mi je pred odhodom večkrat kak salunar potisnil v žep pajnt ali kvort dobre rakije, češ, da je dobre kak takega imeti pri sebi za slabo sapo, zoper slabo vodo ali za črvičenje v želodcu. Pa sem hvalježno sprejel tekoči izraz prijateljstva in ga spravil med perilo v ročnem kovčku. Ker črvičenja in slabe sape ni hotelo biti, se je rakija starala v kovčku.

Nekoč sem pozno v noči dobil prenočišče v hotelu malega mesteca. Komaj pa sem se bil priporočil boginjam sanj in ugasnil luč, napadla me je armada rdečekožnih Amazonk, ki jih v vsakdanjem življenju imenujemo stenice. To so edine zastopnice ženskega spola in imena, ki so me imele že od nekdanje rade, res, tako salamensko rade, da bi me najrajši požrle. Če je bila le ena zastopnica tega rdečega plemena v hiši s tridesetimi navadnimi boarderji, prišla je gotovo k meni v poset Kajpak po noči — malopridnica! Tisti večer jih je prišlo legijon. V skrajnem obupu sem se poslužil demona-alkohola. Dal sem rdečim sestram piti do mile volje, polil rjuhe in blazine, in še sam sem se našminkal po rokah, nogah in obrazu. Učinek "šnopsarije" bil čudovit. Zaspali smo vsi, namreč jaz in stenice. Po približno dveh urah so se rdeče-kožice vzdramile in pričele s puščanjem krvi. Pa sem jim zopet dal piti rakije in zopet smo sklenili dnevno premirje. To se je ponavljalo do jutra, ko je bil kvort prazen, domovina, oziroma moja rojstna koža pa rešena. Na tak način sem pozneje še dostikrat premagal krvoločne rdečekožce.

Zdad vem, da je bilo to žganjekletstvo, za katero nas usoda kaznuje. Danes ne bi več dajal piti stenicam dobre rakije. Postregel bi jim z near beerom, da bi jih šcipalo v želodcih.

Kar se pa tiče urejevanja uradnega glasila JSKJ, bi morala radovedneži in dvomiljivi najbolje storiti, če bi najprej prečitali člen XIX. ustave in pravil, posebno točki 4. in 7. Po tej predpripravi se svobodno pritožijo na pristojno instances, če mislijo, da ga je urednik kaj lomil s pravili. Tistim, ki so upravičeni vprašati, bo potem urednik drage volje na razpolago z odgovorom. In za enkrat se čuti še toliko pri moči, da tozadevno hvalježno odklanja vsako zunanjo pomoč.

Na banketu Gridiron kluba, katerega tvorijo časnikarski korespondenti v Washingtonu, so navzočemu predsedniku Hooverju povedali med drugim tudi to, da je Hooverjeva administracija pravzaprav administracija ribičev. Hoover da je osem let ribaril za nominacijo in jo je dobil; pet mesecev je ribaril za izvolitev in jo je dobil. Po par mesecih pa bo že vrgel trnek, da ujamemo nominacije leta 1932. Končno da Mr. Hoover rad lovi tudi navadne ribe. Predsednik Hoover se je šalim smejal in mislil svoje.

Zvezni prohibicijski komisar Doran poizveduje za kaj se porabi vsako leto stotisoče ton kalifornijskega grozdja. Mr. Doran mora biti zelo mlad ali pa se dela silno nevednega. Naj mu vendar kdo pove, da se grozdje porabi samo za "želi" in potice.

Gosh, ali postaja svet modern! Danes zjutraj sem videl tri krave (štirinogate), ki so se udobno peljale na tovornem avtomobilu in prežirljivo gledale na nas plebejske pešce, ki smo cepetali po občestnih hodnikih, vsaki za svojimi opravki.

V restavraciji na vogalu sem nato pri pihanju kave v naglici pregledal jutranji list. Prva novica, ki sem jo opazil, je bila, da se je Charles Lindbergh v aeroplantu podal preko Rio Grande na obisk svoje zaročenke v Mexico City. To se pravi, da je romantično vasovanje. Če gre Lindbergh obiskat svojo izvoljenko, ga nihče ne more vpraševati drugo jutro: "Kod si hodil, kje si bil, kod si škorence rosil?" A. J. T.

TEDENSKI PREGLED

V WISCONSINU je nižja zbornica državne legislature za veliko večino glasovala za predlog, ki odpravlja državno prohibicijsko postavbo. To se je zgodilo, da se ugodni sentimentu splošnega glasovanja, ki se je z veliko večino izreklo za odpravo omenjene postavbe. Sodi se, da bo tudi državni senat posnemal nižjo zbornico.

ZRAČNA TRAGEDIJA, ki se je pripetila 21. aprila nad mestom San Diego, Cal., je zahtevala šest človeških žrtev. Mali vojaški aeroplan se je zaletel v potniško zračno ladjo 2000 čevljev visoko v zraku, in posledica je bila, da sta oba hudo poškodovana padla na tla. Pri padcu je bilo ubito vse osobe obeh letal.

POMOŽNI MORNARIŠKI tajnik, David S. Ingalls, pod katerega upravo spada avijatika, je bil v nedeljo 21. aprila na poltu iz Washingtona v Dayton, O. Blizu mesta Uniontown, Pa., je bil v hudem viharju prisiljen pristati. Pri tem se je njegov biplan prevrnil in precej poškodoval, Ingallsu pa se ni ničesar zgodilo.

VIHARJI IN TORNADI so koncem pretečenega tedna zahtevali 24 človeških žrtev v državah Arkansas in Mississippi.

Med te niso všteti oni, ki dobivajo pokojnino od svojih industrijalnih ali trgovskih delodajalcev niti oni, ki dobivajo penzije kot vojniki, učitelji, ognjegasci, redarji itd. Postarpi nepreskrbljeni ljudje izvirajo iz vseh slojev prebivalstva, dasi hišne gospodinjice in delavci imajo po številu pretežno večino. Seznam njihovih nekdanjih poklicev sega od gledališkega igralca, godbenika in skladatelja do ladijskega težaka, kočijaža in nočnega čuvalja. Približno 36 odstotkov izmed njih je bilo rojenih v Ameriki, ostali so priseljenci iz raznih dežel, največje skupine med njimi pa tvorijo Nemci, ruski židje, Irci, Italijani in Angleži.

United States Bureau of Labor Statistics je izdelal zanimivo statistiko o načinu, kako so mezdni delavci in drugi preskrbljeni v svojih starih letih. Preiskava se je raztezala na vso deželo. Federalna vlada, države, občine, bratske organizacije in razna verska združenja so rešila problem nepreskrbljenosti v starosti potom ustanovitve zavetišč za stare ljudi. V Združenih Državah imamo kakih 1200 "domov za starce". Med te spada 9 federalnih domov za vojake in mornarje, 46 državljanih domov, 101 domov vzdrževanih od bratskih in podpornih organizacij in 408 domov, vzdrževanih od verskih organizacij.

Koncert pevskega društva Zvon je uspel povoljno. Vse priprave od strani delničarjev našega Doma so se izvršile v najlepšem redu. Vsem gospodinjam in dekletom je treba izreči najlepšo zahvalo za darove, posebno za potice in lepe domače paje.

Pevsko društvo Zvon je dospelo v naselbino pravočasno, da so si pevci še lahko ogledali naše mestce na hribočku. Udeležba od strani občinstva je bila povoljna, kajti prišlo je staro in mlado, saj pri nas ni kaj takega vsaki dan. Društvo Zvon je pričelo s programom okoli 8:30 zvečer. Prva pesem je bila "Slovenec, Srb, Hrvat", ki je dobila živahen aplavz. Tudi nadaljne točke so bile všeč občinstvu, ki ni štedilo z aplavzom. Najboljše pa se je menda obnesel ženski zbor s pesmijo "Kaj ne bila bi vesela." Ploskanje je bilo tako vztrajno, da so morala dekleta pesem še ponoviti. Duet in kvartet sta bila tudi kos svoji nalogi. Angleška pesem "Whispering Hope" je posebno med mladino vzbudila aplavz.

Pevsko društvo Zvon je bilo skozi in skozi kos svoji nalogi. Fantje so pokazali, da so res od fare. Sešli smo se prijatelji, s katerimi se nismo videli že več let in so danes pri Zvonu. Zato naj bo pevskega društva Zvon na tem mestu izrečena najlepša zahvala za poset. Ko se nam bo zopet zahotelo lepoto slovenske pesmi, povabili bomo Zvonovec ponovno. Seveda pri nas je težko prijateljem postreči tako, kot bi mi radi. Posebno glede pijače se moramo držati zelo blizu vode, kajti nekateri zagrizenci bi nam najrajši vedno gledali v lonce in kozarke. Naš tukajšnji sodnik se je že poslužil nove Johnsove postavbe.

Hvala lepa rojaku A. Kikelju iz Youngstowna za prijazen govor, rojakom iz Warrenja, Girarda, Sharonja in Bessemerja za udeležbo. Prihodnja zabava se vrši tukaj 27. aprila. AMERIŠKA JUGOSLOVANSKA ZVEZA V MINNESOTI

Ena izmed najvažnejših točk v načelni izjavi Ameriške Jugoslovanske Zveze v Minnesoti je, pripomoči našim rojakom pri nabavi ameriškega državljanstva. To nalogo so lokalni klubi Zveze deloma vršili, toda ne tako pridno in agilno, kot bi jo morali. Težko je pa tudi bilo pronajti, kdo se nima državljankega papirja, kajti govorilo se je vedno, da med Slovenci v Minnesoti je zelo malo rojakov, ki bi ne imeli državljanke pravice.

Da bi pa zamogli izvedeti število Jugoslovancev v raznih slovenskih naselbinah v St. Louis okraju, ki še nimajo volilne pravice, so lokalni klubi Zveze pričeli popisovati jugoslovanski narod v raznih naselbinah naše države, in to z namenom, da se pronajde, kdo še nima volilne pravice, in da se takim rojakom pripomore do ameriškega državljanstva.

Do sedaj so izvršili popisovanje Jugoslovancev trije lokalni klubi Zveze, in sicer, Eveleth, Biwabik in Buhl. Statistika popisovanja našega naroda v omenjenih treh naselbinah je zelo zanimiva. Toda lahko pa tudi razočara človeka, ko iz nje pronajde, da v nekaterih mestih je komaj nekaj čez 60 odstotkov Slovencev, ki so naturalizirani državljani. Ako pa računamo skupno Jugoslovane, jih je pa komaj 50 odstotkov naturaliziranih državljanov.

Ker bi pa vzele preveč prostora v listu, ako bi na tem mestu podal statistično poročilo o številu Jugoslovancev v vsakem prej omenjenem mestu, hočem podati le poročilo glede Jugoslovancev v mestu Eveleth, Minn., ki je ena izmed največjih in naprednih slovenskih naselbin v St. Louis okraju Minnesote.

1. The Sport Fund shall be used to assist in the support of J. S. K. J. athletic teams based on the highest standards of sportsmanship.

 4. The Supreme Executive Committee shall elect a commissioner or administrator who becomes duly responsible for the above committee for his actions.
 5. The duties of the athletic commissioner shall be:
 - a) To act as adviser for all sport groups, constantly promoting good sportsmanship in behalf of our organization.

 - c) To recommend financial assistance to all lodges he sees fit, abiding by any regulations made by the Executive Committee in regard to such grants.
 - d) To make official reports of the management of the athletic teams to the Executive Committee.
 6. Each lodge must agree to abide by the rules of the J. S. K. J.
 7. Membership of our teams shall consist of members of the J. S. K. J. only.

 11. The expenses for individual equipment shall be kept to the minimum and all extravagance avoided.
 12. Any lodge found guilty of illegitimate use of the sport fund, (for a purpose other than the maintenance of a team) shall be automatically refused any further use of the fund. The matter from then on in respect to such a lodge shall be at the discretion of the Executive Board.
 13. The J. S. K. J. comes into possession of all equipment in case a lodge or athletic group disbands.
 14. "Importing" or hiring of players to represent a lodge could not be allowed.
 15. One hundred dollars is the maximum amount the commissioner may recommend for any one lodge during the playing season.
 16. The athletic Commissioner shall have power to issue such additional rules as he may deem necessary provided, however, that they do not conflict with the foregoing rules and regulations.
- The foregoing draft was prepared by Brother Anthony L. Garbas, editor of the English section of Nova Doba, with a few changes and amendments made by the Supreme President. It will be remembered that Brother Garbas had submitted his suggestions regarding the administration of the Athletic department to the January meeting of the Supreme Board, but the proposed plan was referred back to him for revision.
- My recommendations with reference to the administration of the Athletic department of the JSKJ and the adoption of the foregoing rules and regulations are as follows:
1. That the rules as proposed by Brother Garbas be adopted as of January 1st, 1929.
 2. That Brother Garbas be appointed Athletic Commissioner of the JSKJ with an additional compensation of Twenty dollars per month for the first year, beginning May 1st, 1929, and compensation to be paid out of the Sport Fund.
 3. That in cities, towns and villages, where the JSKJ has more than one subordinate lodge, the members of such lodges, desiring to engage in any kind of athletics permissible under the foregoing rules, should form a joint athletic club which shall represent the combined lodges of their community in competition with lodges of other cities or towns. This does not apply to the City of Greater Cleveland and Ely, Minnesota.
 4. That a fair honorarium be paid to Brother Garbas for the preparation of the above rules.
- Each member of the Supreme Board is respectfully requested to send his reply to the foregoing recommendations later than May 10th, 1929.
- Fraternalty yours,

ANTON ZBASNIK,
Supreme President JSKJ.

Current Thought.

WHY NO AMERICAN-SLOVENE CHORAL LODGES?

Thus far no English-conducted lodge exists to express the musical inclinations of members of our organization. The routine of business which is absorbing our attention is more or less of a grind and there is nothing that will more effectively relieve the strain and put new life and hope into us than a choral lodge. In every community no matter how large or small there are a small number of its inhabitants who can sing.

Therefore isn't the organization of a choral lodge worth while if it would develop musical activity, if it is a means of interesting, delighting, and elevating a large number of youth at a very small expense. In this manner kindred minds would be brought in close touch with one another at rehearsals and formal concerts and the result of cooperation would be something beautiful. Such a lodge could well be sustained by giving concerts to a public that has the propensity to hear singing direct from singers.

In every town there are a few, sometimes many, who appreciate and like to sing good music and who would devote a portion of their time to rehearsals of the lodges. If one or two of the more popular persons with the people would round up all the singers of the community, there is no reason why with united efforts of these few persons and a director of ability, such a lodge couldn't have a well defined place in a community.

Musical organizations if conducted properly are of extreme value to youth and the community since aside from improvement in a musical way members of a choral lodge would also acquire self-control, concentration, power to work effectively with others, and the confidence and assurance that comes from public performances. It also gives the members an added pride and interest in their lodges which they represent.

Since music is a distinct and independent art having its own reasons for existence let's organize lodges which would provide the musical life in our communities. A musical lodge in public appearances is an excellent advertisement for any organization. Let the first English-conducted choral lodge be a J. S. K. J. lodge.

INDICATIONS OF THE MEMBEROMETER

Perhaps no lodges deserve greater praise than the ones of recent origin. The newest lodge, "Western Stars" have acquired about twenty-six members in less than two months. It is an achievement worth commenting favorably upon and it is justifiable to encourage greater efforts in strengthening the personnel of their lodge. It is very evident that the members of "Colorado Sunshine" are combining their energies to keep in pace with the best of the lodges in our organization and no doubt even live in the supreme hope of merging ahead of the so-called more notable ones. The "Pittsburghers" are not asleep by any means. They are tackling every problem confronting them with the greatest zest imaginable. Their immediate response in regard to baseball vindicates this contention.

Congratulations "younger lodges" for being constantly on the heels of the older and better established lodges, we hope that you have enough gumption and reserve energy to overtake them.

JUGOSLAVS AND CZECHS CLOSE FRIENDS

President Masaryk of Czechoslovakia, recently received in audience at Prague Castle Budislav G. Angjelovic, the newly appointed Minister of the Kingdom of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes. M. Angjelovic said it would be his endeavor to strengthen the cordial bonds of friends which had long united the two countries. The policy of the present Government of King Alexander was, in respect of foreign affairs, entirely at one with its predecessors, and its whole effort was directed to maintaining international peace.

President Masaryk in reply recalled the fact that the troops of the two countries had fought side by side for a common cause, and that their politicians had cooperated in securing their unity and independence, and were now endeavouring to attain the same peaceful and moral ideals.

The Yugoslav nation had, through its era of trials, proved itself worthy of a future and he rejoiced at the progress it was making in social, economical and intellectual life. The external policy of Czechoslovakia, like that of Yugoslavia, was directed towards maintaining the peace of the world on the basis of the post-War treaties.

NEW ABC'S FOR TURKS

The whole Turkey is at present engaged in learning to read and write a new alphabet which became the official national alphabet April 1. The most popular book which Turkey has ever known is that which is now being sold for ten or twenty piasters (a coin worth about five cents) in the streets of Constantinople and being given away in every village of the interior of Anstolio—a book containing the new alphabet, with pictures of birds, horses, cows and hundreds of other things to demonstrate meaning of words after the letters have been mastered. Ever since the constitutions of the House of Osman, the chosen writing of the Turks, has been comprehensible to only a very minor portion of Turkey's population. When Mustapha Pasha, the present ruler, came to power he realized that this condition was interfering with the progress and the Westernizing of his country, so he decreed that the old Arabic characters should be abolished. Thus the reason for Turkey suddenly starting to read and write.

A few months ago only twenty per cent of the entire population of the country could read. It is Keman's ambition to make his countrymen one hundred per cent literate.

PICTURES OF ELY'S CITIZENS

Pictures of citizens, views of first mines, and buildings of Ely's infancy appeared on the picture page of last Sunday's Duluth News Tribune.

Bare Facts.

Ice-cream. To "Dolly" Madison, wife of the President of the United States, is sometimes given the credit for inventing ice-cream. It is further asserted that it was another woman, Nancy Johnson, wife of a young naval officer, who invented the ice-cream freezer. Truth, however, must not be sacrificed to gallantry. Ice-cream was introduced to the English aristocracy of the eighteenth century by a London confectioner named Gunton, who may or may not have been its inventor. It is quite possible, of course, that among the many mistresses of the White House Dolly Madison may have been the first to serve ice-cream at the presidential reception, and thus have popularized in this country a delicacy that had been known for at least half a century in England.

Chewing Gum. From 1890 to 1900 was the greatest era in the history of chewing gum in the United States. The press, the pulpit, and the medical profession were largely occupied in denouncing the habit all through the decade. Said the New York Sun, in the latter part of 1890: "Cynical critics point out that no fancy of the American people had become such a craze as the public indulgence in the gum-chewing habit, and that no craze has flourished so in the face of public odium. The habit, as a matter of cold fact, has reached a stage now that makes it impossible for a New Yorker to go to the theater or church, or enter the street cars or railway train without meeting men and women whose jaws are working with the activity of the gum chewing victim. And the spectacle is maintained in the face of frequent reminders that gum chewing, especially in public, is an essentially vulgar indulgence that not only shows bad breeding, but spoils a prettily countenance and detracts from the dignity of those who practise the habit. Cynics who observe it have sighed for the return of the sturdy discipline of their youth, when the schoolmaster used to spank everybody caught chewing gum in public. Since 1900 the craze has declined, especially among the young women of the cities, but to some extent it maintains its popularity in the smaller towns and villages.

The best gum is that made from the chiclezapote tree in Mexico. In its crude state this gum was long used by the Mexican Indians for a similar purpose. When they went out on the plains they found that it kept their throats from becoming parched if they could get no water. But it was unknown to Americans until 1870, when a lump fell into the hands of Thomas Adams, a Staten Island photographer. He was on the lookout for some quick way of making a fortune. His first idea was that the substance might be made to take the place of gutta serena, or soft rubber, but after experiments extending over a period of two years, he was forced to give up the idea as impracticable. A lot of the useless stock was left on his hands. One day he happened to break off a bit and chewed it. He found it was pleasant to the taste. That hint was sufficient, he would manufacture the article into chewing gum. A prominent manufacturer assured him that the substance was no good for the purpose, but, nothing

HOWS AND WHYS OF HUMAN BEHAVIOR

By George A. Dorsey Ph. D.

In a sensible, conversational question-and-answer way, Dr. Dorsey deals with the endless enigma of human behavior—Why do we do this? How do we get this way? Why do we fall for, or out with each other? How can we be happy though married? Why do we sleep so much? Why should we control our emotions?

Some of the conclusions reached by this student of human nature are likely to be disputed, but his main positions are too well founded not to give many of those who assimilate them the needed "jolt" in the right direction. The whole book is pervaded with a spirit of optimism sure of itself to work wonders.

This book is neither a scientific nor a moral treatise; it is an absorbingly interesting explanation of why certain human matters are as they are, and how they can be, if desired, improved upon. "The author of 'Why We Behave Like Human Beings' has 'done it again'—he has given vitally useful knowledge in applied human science to the laymen who need it."

CHISHOLM TO HEAR SUBELJ

Plans are being arranged for the concert to be given in Chisholm, Minn., Sunday April 28th, by Anton Subelj, operatic-bari-tone of the Royal Opera of Ljubljana, Yugoslavia. The concert which is under auspices of the Chisholm Kiwanis club will be held in the Junior high school auditorium.

Help!

"Daughter has disappeared," groaned mother.

"I am not surprised," retorted grandma. "I always knew no good would come of her using so much of that vanishing cream."

daunted, Adams set to work on his own account, and sold his article on a small scale to dealers. Orders began to pour in—the thing was a success. By 1890 Mr. Adams was employing two hundred and fifty hands in a factory six stories high. When he died he left each of his four sons independently rich.

Chewing gum of an inferior grade is still made from the gum of the new England spruce tree, and from paraffin, which is the residue of crude petroleum in process of refining. But the Mexican gum has nearly succeeded in driving all competition out of the market.

Physicians are not quite agreed as to the wholesomeness of the gum-chewing habit. Some have denounced it in unmeasured terms, declaring that it was the frequent Sources of dyspepsia, stomach trouble, mental weakness, and even insanity. Others have claimed that the habit is beneficial when practised in moderation. Gum chewing, they assert, opens the salivary glands, thus causing an abnormal production and flow of saliva. Swallowing the saliva gives material aid to the discharge of green and starchy foods. Nature created it for that purpose. Hasty eating prevents a sufficient quantity of it from assimilating with the food. People who eat in haste can repent at leisure by chewing gum.

THROUGH JUGOSLAVIA

IRINA KHRABRAFF

Every year a flood of American tourists sweeps over Western Europe—France, England, Switzerland, Italy. A few whimsical ripples reach as far as Berlin, Prague and Vienna, but the most adventurous waves stop short when they come to the western shore of the Adriatic or the eastern peaks of the Alps. Beyond lies a land unexplored yet by the American travelers, and when one crosses this natural boundary of American tourism, one feels like a person who, after the jostle and din of a crowded amusement park, strays into the country beyond, draws a deep breath and wonders at the beauty, spaciousness and quiet of the world.

Of course, Paris is unique; Florence and Venice are beautiful above comparison; the Swiss Alps are the loftiest and whitest mountains in Europe. But those of us who in this democratic age have not entirely lost the very human longing for exclusiveness, will understand the thrill of joy that comes from looking at a beautiful thing without being conscious of a thousand pairs of other eyes staring at it almost simultaneously. Even a very modest sort of beauty can be made very precious to us if we feel that we are among the few chosen ones to see it. But Yugoslavia, the first land beyond the mysterious border line encircling the familiar area, has more than modest beauty to show us. It has magnificent natural scenery; it has relics of a fascinating varied history reaching back to the times of the Roman empire; it has the unparalleled human picturesqueness of a country where the peasants stick to the costumes their ancestors wore for centuries, and every small district has a variety of its own.

Only a few years ago Yugoslavia did not exist. It is a new country, born during the war, conceived six centuries ago when the Serbian Czar Dushan dreamt of a mighty kingdom which would unite all the Slavic tribes of southern Europe. The great war made this cherished dream of the Slavic race come true, and now the north-western section of the Balkan peninsula, instead of being a mosaic of small independent states and provinces belonging to Austria or Turkey, is a large unit—Yugoslavia, meaning the land of the Southern Slavs. The political unity makes traveling easier, but does not take away from the distinct character of each of the many sections which have in common only their racial ancestry and a close language similarity. Every time one crosses the border line between two provinces, one plunges into an entirely different world, and in a comparatively small area there are so many of these worlds. Serbia, Vojvodina, Macedonia, Bosnia, Hercegovina, Montenegro, Dalmatia, Croatia, Slovenia, each holding itself a wealth of new experiences for the most adventurous tourist. A New Way

Bill was discussing automobile experiences with a friend. "Every time we have a breakdown I get my wife to keep saying, 'Auto, auto, out,'" he said. "Yes," put in his friend. "And what she says goes," Bill ended.

GEORGE KOZJAK

Slovenian Janissary,
Fifteenth Century Story Of The Slovenian
Home-Life.

By JOSEPH JURČIČ
English Version By John Movern

When the peasants saw the Turks upon the walls they began to retreat. At last there was only John Macerol and his small band of brave men who, with great difficulty, still held back the enemy from entering the cemetery, when God sent them aid. Small though the reinforcement was, it was angry and bitter. The Turks had thrown down from the tree the picture of Holy Mary and thus disturbed and enraged the hornets in the hollow tree. The hornets now came buzzing out of their nest in such great number that they made everything around them yellow. They began to sting the Turks under the tree. Seeing the eruption of the hornets, the peasants behind the walls took courage and the Turks, who now had to defend themselves not only against the peasants, but also against the enraged hornets, were forced to retreat and defend their swollen faces against the enraged insects.

The sun set and it grew dark. That the Turks would not leave the poor Slovene people alone, could be plainly seen, as they had erected their camps upon the hillock before the church. However, the Slovenes behind the walls were saved for the time being. But they hardly had provision enough to last them for that night, and they had scarcely any drinking water, because the majority of them had been driven behind the walls by the Turks from the plain, and consequently could not take anything along with them. "What shall happen tonight if the Turks attack us? What shall be tomorrow?" they all thought to themselves.

The gloomy night came and spread its darkness over unfortunate and devastated Slovenia. In the sky not a single star was seen; they were all hidden behind the thick clouds, as if they could not bear to gaze upon the desperation and mournful condition of the Slovene people.

Nevertheless, the night was lighted up for the Turks set many fires throughout the country. Whichever direction one turned, he saw nothing but fires burning and dense and blazing smoke slowly creeping toward the sky. Here and there whole villages of the peasants' log houses, the roofs of which were covered with straw, were burning with full blaze, and there was not a soul at hand who might extinguish the fire, because everyone had left his home and gone to look for refuge, where he might save his life. Some people escaped into the woods; some came into the Lord's stone castle, and others found their refuge in the church.

The Turks spread their tents upon the plain and eagerly waited for the approach of dawn, so that they could again massacre the Slovenes and bind those whom they might capture. Two kinds of cries were heard throughout the country and echoing up to heaven's clouds. One was the savage cry of the truculent Turk, who was yelling as he cleaned his sword, stained with Christian blood. The other cry was the mournful and mild prayer of the oppressed and forlorn Slovenes, who perhaps did not pray to God so fervently to spare their lives as they did pray that He might save their native land from the Turks and preserve the Holy Religion for their children and posterity.

CHAPTER XII.

As stated in one of the preceding paragraphs, Peter Kozjak had escaped into the woods. Not long after he reached the woods he found himself alone. He would have liked best to go home into his strong fortified castle surrounded by high walls, where the hand of an enemy had never reached yet. But he was very poorly acquainted with his country and did not know the road leading through the woods up to his castle. To go home by the open field was impossible, as the Turks might see and capture him. It is also likely that, owing to fear and excitement, Peter did not know where he was or where he was going; so that when it grew dark he was completely exhausted though perhaps not far from the spot where he could turn in the direction of his home.

By a small river in the midst of the woods, about two miles distant from the church where the peasants were waging their battle, there stood an old house. It was a flour-mill. The owner of this flour-mill was known as "Birchman," just because his home was in the midst of the birch forest. The house was locked. The wheels at the mill were trigged. Everything was deserted and silence prevailed thereabout. The only noise to be heard was the bubbling of the water over the dam as it flowed forward with commotion in its narrow channel. Under the veranda beside a rudely built wagon was a pile of dry leaves, in the same position as it had been placed there by the owner "Birchman."

Peter came here completely exhausted. Darkness had fallen. He went to bed in the dry leaves under the veranda. Surely it was a poor bed for the Lord from the Castle, but peril and misfortune usually adjust inequalities between peasant and nobleman.

He had scarcely covered himself in his dry bed, when he beheld another man emerging from the thick woods. This man had blood-stained sleeves and carried a long knife in his right hand. First he took a peep into the house through the window, but seeing the house deserted he left the place, going to the hay-barn. Peter at once recognized this man to be the gypsy. At first he thought he would get up and speak to his old acquaintance, but the gypsy's look from under his eyebrows caused Peter to tremble with fear.

"Supposedly he should take vengeance upon me for refusing to help him out of the dungeon in twenty-four hours as he requested me to do? God only knows whether the blood that stained his weapon came from a Turkish or a Slovene heart!" thought Peter to himself as he lay there very quietly and breathed very softly.

OTOK ZAKLADOV

Angleško spisal R. L. STEVENSON
Poslovenil J. M.

(Nadaljevanje)

K temu dvojnemu strahu pride še skrivnost, ki je še vedno obdajala obnašanje mojih prijateljev, njihov nepojasnjen odhod z ostroga, njihova nerazumljiva izročitev zemljevidov ali kar je še težje razumeti, zdravnikovo poslednje svarilo Silverju: "Pazite na vihar, kadar ga boste našli!" in radi mi boste verjeli, kako malo mi je dišal zajutrek in kako nemirnega srca sem šel s svojimi gospodarji iskat zaklad.

Čuden prizor bi se nudil onemu, ki bi nas videl. Vsi smo bili v umazanih mornarskih oblekah in vsi razen enega oboroženi do zob. Silver si je obesil dve puški okoli rame—eno spredaj eno zadaj, vrhu tega je imel veliko sabljo okoli pasu in samokres v vsakem žepu svoje suknje. Da izpopolni nje govo čudno zunanost, mu je sedel kapitan Flint na rami in govoril vse mogoče in nemogoče. Jaz sem imel vrv privezano okoli pasu in pokorno korakal za kuharjem, ki je držal za drugi konec sedaj s svojo prosto roko, sedaj s svojimi močnimi mi zobmi. V resnici, vodili so me kakor kakega medveda.

Ostali so bili oboroženi na različne načine; nekateri so nosili tudi lopate in krampe—kajti to so bile najbolj potrebne stvari, ki so jih prinesli s Hispaniole na suho—drugi so pa nosili svinjino, kruh in žganje za popoldansko kosilo. Vsa ta živila so bila iz naše zaloge, kakor sem opazil, in uvidel sem resničnost Silverjevih besedi iz prejšnje noči. Ako bi ne bil sklenil kupčije ali pogodbe z zdravnikom, bi bili on in njegovi uporniki sedaj, ko so bili brez ladje, primorani živeti ob sami vodi in lovu. Mornarji navadno niso dobri strelci in vrhu vsega tega, da so bili tako na slabem z življenjem, ni bilo verjetno, da bi bili dobro preskrbljeni s smodnikom.

No, tako opravljeni smo odrinili—celo oni z razbito glavo, ki bi bil moral gotovo ostati v senci—in korakali raztreseno drug za drugim proti obrežju, kjer sta nas čakala čolna. Cele na teh je bilo videti sledove brezumnosti pijanih roparjev; v enem je bila polomljena klop, oba pa polna blata in vode. Morali smo jih radi varnosti vleči seboj in potem, ko smo se razdelili med njima, smo se napotili proti sidrišču.

Ko smo veslali čezenj, se je vnel razgovor glede zemljevida. Rdeči križ je bil seveda prevelik, da bi mogel služiti kot navodilo, in opazke na zadnji strani so bile nekoliko dvoumne. Kakor se utegne čitatelj spominjati, so se glasile tako-le:

"Visoko drevo, greben Daljnogleda, eno točko od SSIJ proti S."

"Otok okostja — IJI proti I."

"Deset čevljev."

Neko visoko drevo je bilo torej glavno znamenje. Ravno pred nami je bilo sidrišče, obdano od planote, ki je bila dve do tristo čevljev in združena na severni strani s strmim bregom Daljnogleda in ki se je proti jugu zopet dvigovala v divjo in skalnato goro imenovano Gora srednje jambore. Vrh planote so rastle smreke različne velikosti in povsod so se dvigala druga drevesa štirideset do petdeset čevljev nad svoje sosedje; katero je bilo potopno ono posebno "visoko drevo" kapitana Flinta, se je lahko dognalo samo na mestu in s pomočjo kompasa.

Po Silverjevem navodilu smo veslali počasi, da se ne bi prezgodaj utrudili, in po precej dolgi vožnji smo stopili na suho pri izlivu druge reke—one, ki teče po gozdnati grapi Daljnogleda. Odtod smo krenili na levo in začeli stopati po hribu navzgor proti planoti.

V začetku so težavna in blatna zemlja in divje močvirnatost rastline zelo ovirale našo pot; polagoma pa je bil hrib bolj strm in kamenit; gozd je postal bolj redek. V resnici je bil zelo prijazen del otoka, kamor smo sedaj prišli. Močno dišeče bodičevje in množice cvetočega grmovja so nadomeščale travo. Gosto drevje zelenega muškarnega oreha je bilo tu in tam pomešano s smrekami.

Družba se je razprostrla, vpila in skakala semtertja. Nekako v sredi in precej daleč za ostalimi sva hodila Silver in jaz — jaz privezan k svoji vrvi, on pa s težavo stopajoč in globoko hropeč. Od časa do časa sem mu moral podati roko, ker bi mu sicer izpodrsnilo in bi padel vznok po hribu dol.

Na ta način smo hodili nekako pol milje ter mo se bližali robu planote, ko je začel mož na skrajni levici glasno in prestrašeno vpiti. Klic za klicem je prihajal od njega in so stekli ostali proti onemu kraju.

"Vendar ni mogel najti zaklada," je rekel stari Morgan in hitel z desne mimo nas. "Kajti to je čisto zgoraj."

Ko smo dospeli tudi mi tja, je bilo v resnici nekaj drugega. Ob vznožju velike smreke in sredi zelenih ovijalk, ki so celo dvignile nekoliko manjših kosti, je ležalo človeško okostje z nekoliko raztrganimi kosci obleke po tleh. Mislim, da je vsakega izmed nas za trenutek obšla zana.

"Mornar je bil to," je rekel Jurij Merry, ki je bil bolj pogumen kakor ostali, in stopil bližje ter preiskoval obleko, "saj to je dobro mornarsko blago."

"Da, da," je rekel Silver, "bo že tako; mislim, da vendar nisi pričakoval najti kakšnega škofa tukaj. Kako pa leže te kosti? To ni naravno?"

In v resnici se je pokazalo pri natančnejšem preiskovanju, da je bilo nemogoče, da bi ležalo truplo v naravni legi.

"Nekaj mi je prišlo v mojo staro glavo," je opomnil Silver. "Tukaj je kompas in tamkaj vrh Otoka okostij, ki štrli v zrak kakor zob. Določite, prosim, lego tega okostja."

In zgodilo se je. Truplo je kazalo naravnost proti otoku in kompas je kazal čisto IJI proti I.

"Sem si mislil," je zaklical kuhar, "to tukaj je kašipot. Ravno tamkaj pa drži naša pot proti severni zvezdi in lepim denarjem! Toda, grom in strela! Kar mraz me spreletava, kadar se spominam na Flinta. To je ena njegovih šal. On in ona šestorica so bili edini tukaj; pobil jih je vse po vrsti; tega tukaj pa je privekel semkaj ter ga položil po kompasu, da! Dolge kosti so to in lasje so bili rumeni. Da, to bi utegnil biti Allardye. Ali se spominjaš na Alardye, Tom Morgan?"

"Da, da," je odvrnil Morgan, "spominjam se ga; dolžan mi je bil in je vzel seboj moj nož, ko je šel na suho."

OBNOVLJENI SLOVENSKI LISTI V ITALIJI.

Na Veliki petek je izšla v Gorici prva številka novega slovenskega tednika pod imenom "Novi list". Po večmesečnem presledku, odkar so bili ustavljeni slovenski listi v Trstu in Gorici, so italijanske oblasti dovolile bivšemu poslaneu dr. Engelbert Besednjaku, da začne pod svojim uredništvom izdajati dva slovenska in en hrvaški list. Poleg "Novega lista", ki je politično informativen tednik, bo sta izhajala še poučni in zabavni mesečnik "Družina" in hrvaški tednik "Istarski list". Vsi trije bodo izhajali v Gorici.

Prvi številki "Novega lista" je napisal dr. Besednjak uvod, v katerem pravi med drugim: "S pričujočo številko 'Novega lista' se pojavlja po večmesečnem presledku spet slovenski časnik v deželi. Našemu omikanemu ljudstvu je bilo hudo, da ni moglo več zasledovati domačih in tujih dogodkov. Čutilo se je prikrajšano v svoji potrebi po izobrazbi, zadeto v svojih gospodarskih koristih. O tem stanju smo poročali po ukinjenju slovenskega tiska v Rim in obrnili nanj pažljivo osrednje vlade. G. Mussolini je uvidel in se odločil, da dovoli Slovincem en mesečnik in en tednik in ravno tak en tednik Hrvatom."

PETDESETLETNICA JOSIPA MURNA-ALEKSANDROVA

Sla je tiho mimo nas, kakor so tihe njegove pesmi. Neopažen jubilej, ki ga ne more slaviti, kdor je v grobu. In kdor živi, ga slavi s težkim srcem, če ljubi življenje in mladost.

Josip Murn se je rodil 4. marca 1879 v Ljubljani kot nezakonski sin lepe služkinje s kmetov — Gorenjke. Njegova mladost je bila žalostna, in če je čutil v prezgodaj ugaslem življenju kaj nasladi, je bila iluzorna: bila je idealna ljubezen, bile so pesmi, bile lepe sanje in fantovski ideali. Živel je v stari cukrarni, rojstni hiši moderne slovenske lirike, študiral gimnazijo, pisal pesmi, dvoril dekletom in zahajal na dolge izprehode tja proti Devici Mariji v Polju, kjer je užival lepoto njiv in "blesk gora in dolin". Doštudiral je srednjo šolo in korajžno krenil s tovariši na Dunaj, toda glad ga je prisilil k povratku. Ponosen, a tih in bolehav je hodil po ljubljanskih ulicah, mislil na lepo Almo in pripravljati pesniško zbirko, pisal prijateljem vesela pisma, v vsej svoji bedi in boleznih prešerno veroval v življenje.

Takrat potrkam Damijan ti na zid, takrat bom mandeljnov in življenja sit.

Prišla je ta ura in usoda služkinjinega sina se je dopolnila v oni isti cukrarni, kjer je živel kot dijak, in oni isti sobici, kjer je dve leti pred njim izdihnil Dragotin Kette. Umrl je dne 18. junija 1901. Zdaj je na pokopališču Sv. Križa združen s kostmi Ketteja in Cankarja, v hramu slovenske kulture z najboljšimi duhovi, ki so spregovorili z našo ljube besedo.

To je skoraj vsa vnanja zgodba Murnovega življenja, življenja brez burnih dogodkov, življenja, ki se je izgubilo pod tiho travo, kakor potček na livadi. Njegov tovariš in prijatelj Ivan Prijatelj je izdal 1. 1903 pesmi Aleksandrova pri Schwentnerju ("Pesmi in romance") in jim napisal uvod, ki je še danes osamljen v naši literaturi; uvod, kakor ga je zaslužilo pesnikovo delo.

V vseh naših šolah se danes uče Murnove pesmi in vsak učitelj slovenskega jezika pripoveduje o njem, da je bil "pesnik slovenske zemlje". In je bil res in vsi, ki so pozneje opevali našega kmeta, našo vas, so se malce učili pri Murnu. Njegove pesmi so še vedno brevir dojmljivih duš, ki ljubijo moderno, čustveno razgiban pesniški izraz slovenskega kmetstva.

Spisal si je epitaf, ki ga dovolj označuje:

Zivljenje celo sprt, nestalen, miru resnice, sreče je iskal; njegov bil smoter temen, daljen, umel ga ni, zato je pal.

Murn-Aleksandrov je imel, ki bo vedno živel v našem jeziku in naši kulturi.

GLASOVI Z RODNE GRUDE

Na velikonočno nedeljo je v Tunjicah pri Kamniku pogorela znana romarska cerkev sv. Ane. Bržčas zaradi odvrgenega cigaretnega ogorka se je vnelo suho mahovje na strehi pri zvonikih in je ogenj kmalu objel vso streho. Domačini s kamniškimi gasilci so požar komaj še omejili, uničil pa je medtem vse ostrešje in notranjost. Škoda še ni ocenjena in preiskava tudi še ni dognala, kdo je z brezobzirno zanikarnostjo povzročil uničenje znamenite farne cerkve tunjske.

Priprave za sprejem ameriških letoviščarjev v Primorju. Na Sušaku se je mudil te dni ravnatelj centrale Putnika iz Beograda g. Perše, ki je prispel, da pripravi vse potrebno za sprejem ameriških letoviščarjev in njihovo potovanje po jugoslovnski rivijeri. Američani posetijo jugoslovnsko Primorje v 20 večjih kupinah. V eni skupini bodo naši izseljenci, ki posestijo svoje rojake. Jadranska plovidba je dala ameriškim izletnikom na razpolago nekaj parnikov, da si bodo lahko ogledali vse hrvaško Primorje in Dalmacijo. En del ameriških letoviščarjev prispe v Jugoslavijo preko Italije, drugi pa preko Grčije. Tudi v Avstriji se pripravljajo večje skupine letoviščarjev, ki hočejo preživeti počitnice v jugoslovnskih kopališčih in letoviščih.

V Svečah na Koroškem se je nedavno vršila velika pevška prireditev, pri kateri je sodelovalo deset pevskih zborov iz Roč in krajev ob Vrbskem jezeru. Slovenski kmečki fantje, ki sestavljajo te zore, so peli samo koroške narodne pesmi.

Komisariat v Kranju. Ljubljanski veliki župan je imenoval dosedanjega župana g. Cirila Pirca za komisarja mestne občine kranjske. V svetovet so imenovani vsi bivši člani razpuščenega občinskega odbora.

KJE JE?

Kje se nahaja moj mož John Pedri? Zanj bi rada zvedela njegova žena Savarino Pedri. Bivala sva skupaj v Wyco, W. Va. Lansko leto je bila moja sestra v Minnesoti na smrt bolna in mož mi je dovolil, da sem jo šla obiskat. Odsla sem 17. avgusta 1928, moj mož pa je odpotoval od tam 23. avgusta 1928, neznan kam. Tako mi je sporočil brat mojega moža, s katerim sta bila skupaj na hrani. Potem je bratu pisal iz C. 106, Union City, Indiana. To je bilo oktobra meseca lanskega leta. Njegov brat mi je pismo poslal, in jaz sem mu takoj pisala registrirano pismo, katero je prejel, a odgovoril ni nič. On je rodom Italijan, pa je član JSKJ. Zato prosim cenjene sobrate, če je kateremu kaj znano, kje se moj mož nahaja, naj mi sporoči, za kar mu bom zelo hvaležna, ker se nahajamo v veliki bedi jaz in dva njegova otroka. — Mrs. Savarino Pedri, L.
