NO. 36 — STEV. 36

CLEVELAND, O., 7. SEPTEMBRA (SEPTEMBER), 1938

LETO (VOLUME) XXIV.

Newyorški kardinal Hayes nanaglomoma umrl

New York, N. Y., 5. septembra. — Število štirih kardinalov v Združenih državah ameriških se je večeraj z nenadno smrtjo newyorškega kardinala Patrika Josipa Hayesa zmanjšalo na tri. V letovišču in sanatoriju sester dominikank pri sv. Jožefu blizu Monticello, N. Y. je namreč ta cerkveni knez sinoči preminul med spanjem. Zjutraj, ko ga je hotel njegov tajnik Msgr. Casey poklicati za sv. mašo okrog osme ure, ga je našel mrtvega ker ga je zadela kap. Ker je zjutraj še gorela luč v kardinalovi spalni sobi, se lahko smatra, da je moral umreti kmalu ko se je vlegel k počitku.

Pokojni kardinal Hayes je bolehal že odkar se je vrnil z mednarodnega evharističnega kongresa v Dublinu leta 1932, svoje poletne počitnice je vedno prebil v označenem letovišču.

Rooseveltovo sožalje

Washington, D. C., 5. sept. — Ko je predsednik Roosevelt zvedel o nenadni smrti kardinala Hayesa, je omenil, da mu je jako žal ta smrtni slučaj. S pokojnikom je bil več let intimen prijatelj. Kardinalovo duhovno vodstvo je imelo vedno blagodejen vpliv na našo sedanjo generacijo, zato ga bodo gotovo vsi oni, ki so ga poznali zelo pogrešali.

Izjava newyorškega župana

New York, N. Y., 5. sept. — Newyorški župan La Guardia smatra smrt njega eminence kardinala Hayesa za veliko izgubo mesta New York ker je bil ne samo zaslužen cerkveni knez, ampak tudi velik Američan, ker si je vedno prizadeval izboljšati položaj ljudstva da bi bolj srečno in bolj zadovoljno živeli.

Kardinal bil sin delavca

Pokojni kardinal Hayes je bil sin preprostega delavca Daniel Hayesa in Mary Gleeson. Oba sta mu umrla v zgodnji mladosti. Rojen je bil 20. novembra 1867 v New Yorku. S pridnim učenjem je do-

REKORD ZRAKOPLOVCA

V tridnevni zrakoplovni tekmi od 3. — 5. t. m. vršili se v Clevelandu, O. je tudi letos zmagal znani avijatik Colonel Roscoe C. Turner. Razdaljo 300 milj je preletel v približno eni uri, ozir. 283.419 milj na uro; s tem je dosegel svetovni rekord. Njegova skupna denarna nagrada znaša $22,000.00.

SIN BIVŠEGA ŠPANSKEGA KRALJA SE UBIL

Miami, Fla., 6. sept. — 31-letni grof Covadonga, sin bivšega španskega kralja Alfonza se je danes zjutraj z nekim dekletom v avtu vračal z neke zabave. Med vožnjo je pa zadel v brzjavni drog, kar mu je povzročilo takojšnjo smrt vsled izkrvavljenja; njegova spremljevalka je bila pa samo lahko ranjena.

vršil bogoslovje v Troy in bil 1892 posvečen v mašnika; zatem je postal doktor bogoslovja in bil dodeljen kot tajnik pokojnemu kardinalu Farleyu. Leta 1914 je postal pomožni škof v New Yorku, leta 1924 pa kardinal. V šolo je hodil skupaj z chikaškim kardinalom Mundeleinom.

Pokojnik je imel v oskrbi največjo in najbogatejšo škofijo na svetu, ki šteje 1,275,000 vernikov. Bil je izredno darežljiv za sirotne mladino, tako tudi zelo naklonjen delavcem. Njegovo truplo bo prepeljano v New York, kjer se vrši slovesen pogreb prihodnji petek in ga bodo položili v kripti pod altarjem katedrale sv. Patrika.

HIMEN

Indianapolis, Ind. — V ponedeljek na delavski praznik 5. septembra sta se v tukajšnji slovenski cerkvi Presv. Trojice poročila ženin Mrs. Joseph Gačnik in nevesta Mrs. Mary Donas. Svatovanje se je vršilo zvečer v dvorani Presv. Trojice. Oba spadata h K. S. K. Jednoti. Bilo srečno!

Dobro delo boste storili ako pridobite kakšnega novega člana (co) za našo Jednoto.

Važen govor duluthskega škofa Welch-a

Dne 17. avgusta zvečer se je vršil za časa naše minule konvencije v mestnem avditoriju na Evelethu, Minn. sijajen banket, ob udeležbi okrog 700 delegatov in gostov. Bolj obširno o tem nepozabnem banketu poročamo prihodnjič.

Za danes hočemo navesti le nekaj bolj važnih stavkov slavnostnega govornika tega večera Most Rev. Thomas A. Welch, duluthskega škofa, ki je omenjal sedanje slabe razmere v naši deželi in današnje razburkane čase.

"Amerika potrebuje dandanes pomoč in rešitev s pomočjo sv. Cerkev. Svet je v sedanjih socialnih, političnih in verskih zmedah pozabil pravi pomen sv. vere, vsled tega je vse plemenite ideale zavrgel. Hudobija se vedno bolj in bolj širi, ker je mnogo ljudi zavrglo Boga iz svojih src, od svojih družin in iz javnega življenja, da bi se uničilo novodobno civilizacijo, pred vsem pa sv. Cerkev, ki je mati civilizacije.

"Vsakega katoličana je dolžnost, da stopi v vrsto katoliških križarjev, da brani sv. Cerkev proti zlobnim napadi od strani njenih nasprotnikov in sovražnikov. Vse glavne ameriške politične tradicije so bile posnete iz nauk svetih mož in učenjakov katoliške Cerkev in te glavne točke ameriške ustave so še danes veljavne in merodajne ker se opirajo na zlati rek, ki je glavni pogoj tudi za svobodo ljubečih narode.

"Zato sovražniki naše moderne družbe, najprvo in radi napadajo našo Cerkev, treba je torej, da so katoličani vedno pripravljeni zagovarjati temeljne nauke sv. Cerkev, tako tudi glavna načela naše vlade."

LISTNICA UREDNIŠTVA

(Popravek)

V zadnji izdaji Glasila je bilo v konvenčnem zapisniku zaključne seje nakratko poročano o izvolitvi duhovnega vodje Father Butala.

Pravilno se ima dotična točka glasiti: "Za duhovnega vodjo sta bila predlagana Rt. Rev. J. J. Oman in Rev. Math Butala. Ker je pa sedanji duhovni vodja Father Oman nominacijo odklonil, je bil v ta urad soglasno izvoljen Rev. Math Butala."

Jako veliko zanimanja pe zbujal priprost farmerski leseni voz s konjem (last Modicevih iz Kurje vasi na Evelethu), ki je predstavljal prve naše priseljence v železni okraj Minnesote. Za voznika je bil brat Fr. Gospodarič, s harmoniko zadel je pa br. John Germ. Oba sta v družbi mladih slovenskih farmerskih deklet. Modicev konj ima pristno vojaško čelado na glavi.

KONVENČNI PABERKI

Piše urednik

Eno polno torbo ali bisago konvenčnih paberkov sem privlekel domov. Zdaj je treba iste samo izbirati, da pridejo po vrsti ali polagoma v to kolono. Nekaj istih je precej regimentnih. Moji konvenčni reporterji mi še niso vsi izročili svojih poročil, posebno sestre reporterice, če se je kaj važnega med delegatinjami ta čas pripetilo. Pred vsem se zanašam na delegatinjo Tilko Ropret in Zdešarjevo Reziro, ker sta vedno skupaj hodili, se natihome pomenkovale in nekaj pisale. Torej začnimo:

Prvi konvenčni ptič, kateri je priletel iz Pena. je bil delegat Martin Taucher od št. 21 v Presto, Pa. Videl sem ga ono soboto že v Jolietu, Ill. blizu Union postaje ko je prišel gledat novi Jednotin dom. Misli sem ga vprašati, če ima seboj kaj okusnih prest, da bi jih trgali na konvenciji, pa nisem imel časa, ker se mi je mudilo na vlak. Za njim je prišlo v Joliet še nekaj pittsburskih delegatov.

Ono soboto sem opazoval ob dveh popoldne na La Salle postaji v Chicagu, kako ponosno je delegat Leo Kushlan korakal pred svojo skupino clevelandske delegacije, nekaj nad 30 po številu. Niti gen. Radecki bi se ne mogel s tako lepo skupino ali družbo postaviti!

Z navedene postaje je vse naše konvenčne romarje in romarice Parmalee družba v svojih avtih zastoj potegnila na North Western postajo, kjer nas je že čakal posebni konvenčni vlak z lepim napisom. Jaz sem imel čast v avtu sedeti med štirimi Jolietčankami (Genovefami), inče bi moral capljati za drugimi avtomobili ker jih je že zmanjkalo.

Canonsburg, Bridgeport Meet In First Of Intercity Affairs

Canonsburg, Pa.—The Canonsburg Boosters have again crossed the borders of the State to spread the good work of KSKJ. Last Sunday the booster softball team travelled to Bridgeport, Ohio to meet the KSKJ softball team there in a double header. Canonsburg was victorious in both games.

The Canonsburg boys certainly were glad to make their acquaintances with Bridgeport KSKJ membership. The hospitality displayed by Bridgeport was of the very best, and the Canonsburg Club expects to do the same when they come to Canonsburg.

In Bridgeport there are great possibilities of developing some latent KSKJ activity. Canonsburg is all set to give this group its heartiest support in creating a new activity in KSKJ especially among the younger element. Their leaders are of the finest type, and we know that they will come through with a real program for 1939. The incentive for the organizing of a Booster Club is great and the Canonsburg delegation will be down very shortly to help give this idea a boost. So Bridgeport, be prepared to see a lot more of Canonsburg than you have in the past. You can expect 100 per cent cooperation from our group.

CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

By Frances Jancer

Cenjeno zbornica, sobratje in sosestre! Thus began the 19th quadrennial convocation of the K. S. K. J. After the special train pulled into Eveleth, it was all delegates. Delegates here and delegates there. Even the old brass band with the Honorable George Brince was there to meet the gang.

After a hearty breakfast on Sunday morning, the delegates were ready to embark for Eveleth Lake Park for the big picnic, and the highly touted 'bujas.' It is understood that for breakfast Sunday morning a case and a half of oranges were used as well as 400 rolls and 400 doughnuts and the delegates must have had a coffee urge for there were eight pounds used during the morning.

Continuing about eating, it must have been quite a job feeding the delegates. Mrs. A. Muhich and Mrs. R. Intihar who were in charge of preparing the food for the hungry delegates said that they used about 200* pounds of meat a day, four bushels of potatoes every day, about 12 loaves of bread for each meal, and soup came to about 18 gallons for

DELEGATES VS. EVELETH

As a convention sidelight, the delegates and the Eveleth baseball players had a special game on Tuesday evening at the high school athletic field. The result was a 18-to-13 tie at the end of the fifth inning and, all being tired out, they decided to toss a coin for the winner, with the result that "Dodo" Ahlin claimed the victory for Eveleth.

For the home-towners the line-up was Ahlin, Shukle Primozich, Postudensek, Miroslavich, B. Ahlin, Kvaternick, J. Shukle, Babe. For the delegates, John Tezak of Steelton, Pennsylvania, John Bevec, Canonsburg, Penna., Mike Opeka, Waukegan, Ill., Louis Schedw Waukegan, Ill., Ludwig Kuhar, Rockdale, Ill., Louis Schuster, Cleveland, Ohio, Frank Glavan, Lockport, Illinois, Matt Verbisec, Joliet, Illinois, Rudy Kosela, Ambridge, Penna., Rudolph Skul, Joliet, Illinois and Edward Kompare, South Chicago, Illinois.

JOHN GERM Supreme President-Elect

By Frances Jancer

Opportunely, the KSKJ has found a man to take over the reigns of the K. S. K. J. government,—a man who is serious minded and as clear a thinker as any member of our Supreme Board and entire organization. At a time when the office of Supreme President was open, due to the illness of our beloved Mr. Opeka, the delegates to the 19th convention chose John Germ as their leader, and they certainly have made no mistake.

Our new Supreme President has served on the Supreme Board for 17 years. This alone gives him the preference over others, being that he is well versed in the duties of that office. Ever business-like when business matters are at hand, yet when time comes for a little play and merriment, popular demand is always for John Germ and his accordion, plus his mellow and rich voice. For many years he has entertained K. S. K. J. members all over the country with his fine singing and playing. His everlasting smile is another one of his assets.

Our new president was born in Yugoslavia, and came to this country directly to Pueblo in 1907, where he has lived ever since. Since that time he has risen high in the estimation of his fellow-men, enjoys a splendid reputation as a man of unquestioned honesty and integrity, and is a very conscientious worker.

Charitable to all, he is the exemplification of the true fraternal spirit. This coupled with the intelligence and zeal which he carries out the duties of a supreme officer will, without a doubt, make him an ideal president, leader of our organization. WE ARE PROUD OF OUR NEW PRESIDENT.

CARD PARTY TO AID SCHOLARSHIP

Pittsburgh, Pa.—International Institute will be the scene of a card party to be presented by the Yugoslav University Club there, Friday evening, September 16, at 8:30. Miss Theresa Mravintz is general chairman of the event. She will be assisted by Dorothy Bunovich, Ann Milanovich, Virginia Unkovich, Helen Zelceznjak, Dorothy Musulin, Peter Vukmanich, William Fekula and Charles Lipanovich.

Bridge and "500" will be featured and prizes will be awarded.

EVELETH REMEMBERS CONCLAVE

Eveleth, Minn.—Streets in Eveleth are still resounding with the merry good times the delegates had here—especially 'round the Elks Hall. I wonder how those Colorado Cow-boys survived here all week without their rattlesnake soup. Perhaps our famous buja was a good substitute.

Particularly do we remember how we poked out our heads Monday nite after the ball game when the delegates came parading from the ball park singing "Hej Slovenci" so happily. We were all Slovenians for that nite. Those delegates certainly were generous, especially one Rudolph Maierle of Milwaukee, who invited us girls to the Elks Club for a rip roarin' time after the ball. Mr. Matthew Verbisec of Joliet had a whistle which went everywhere he went, and screamed especially when Julie Baraga sang at the banquet. That whistle didn't retire until early Sunday morning—or was it late. I wonder if Mr. Zurich had enough change on the way home to Detroit. How we all cried when the train left Sunday afternoon. We sang "Adio, pa zdrava ostani." A Waitress

Knights Prepare Winter Program Bowling, Basketball to Head Bill

Brooklyn, N. Y. — Bowling be the chief form of recreation for the Knights of Trinity this coming winter, and the task of rounding up a winning team will again fall on the shoulders of 'capt. John

A. Ribic it was decided at the last meeting.

The outlook for a good strong, winning team is very bright and the task of weeding out will begin in another week or so. Challenges will be sent out to all local KSKJ societies and several inter-city games will be realized also. The "Far East" Bowling Tournament, which this writer has yet hopes of putting over, will be worked on so that this dream becomes a reality.

The once famous undefeated basketball team of the Knights has finally come out of hiding and is again ready to try its hand at another record.

Young blood, which will in a couple of years develop into crackerjack material, is being sought and two or three prospects have already been cornered. The prospects of making them members of the Knights are very favorable if not certain.

A member of the Knights, Steve Mohorko, now residing in Milwaukee, Wis., is the proud daddy of a baby boy.

Immediately after the meeting the boys were treated to home made "potica" and coffee served by August Kavie's mother and a very enjoyable evening was had by all.

FOR GOD, HOME AND COUNTRY.

By FATHER KAPISTRAN

Social justice with regard to the laboring man was not unnoticed by Mark Twain, who tells us the story of an "incorporated society" which hired a man to blast a rock.

Please note the significance of "incorporated society," now known as a "corporation."

The hired man drilled his holes and began punching powder into the rock. This he did with a crow-bar because he was neither a professional powder-puncher nor an experienced soup-tuffer. He was merely a hired man and he had to take the tools given him.

The "upshot" of the whole business was that he was blown some 200 feet into the air when the powder prematurely exploded.

Mark Twain takes great pains to explain that the hired man, when he finally arrived on the ground and resumed his work, was firmly forewarned by the timekeeper that he would be "docked" in his payroll for the time lost during his "ascension."

The Wagner Act, the minimum wage law, the National Labor Relations Act, and other legislation is awakening what soul there is in a corporation to exercise a little human consideration for the workman.

But legislation is only the mechanical half of social rebirth.

The other half is religion.

The Holy Father points out in his encyclicals that social justice depends upon two elements: the reform of social institutions and the reform of morals.

The National Labor Relations Board can make mistakes. It can even SIN.

Because it is human.

The same is true of any union organizer.

That is why the Pope urges Catholic unions.

Other organizations he calls "neutral" unions.

If there was a Judas even in the holy college of Apostles, may we not expect racketeers and sons of violence in various unions?

Let us not condemn the need of unions, the principle of unionism, or even any particular union because of accidental evil within it.

The Pope wants all working people to unionize. Msgr. Haas points out that we must never forget the import of this principle: "any group that is working for too low wages, injures every other group." Thus unorganized and underpaid Negroes, children, women militate against the family wage which other groups should be earning.

An all-unionized country is a return to the Catholic world of the middle ages when every craft was enrolled in the Catholic protection of the guilds.

Convention Sidelights

By Ed Kompare,

Delegate From No. 44

(Continuation)

The big banquet held on Wednesday evening unfolded a few surprises, especially from the entertainment angle. The choir society, under the direction of Miss Ahlin, was very good. The Shukle brothers displayed fine form in their rendition of Slovenian songs. Miss Mary Polutnik of Lorain, O., sang the classical "Metuljček" beautifully. But it took Miss Julia Baraga of Chisholm to tantalize and yet gratify our love for Slovenian songs by swinging out in real swingy fashion. A Slovenian swingstress is what I'd call her.

The delegation was treated to a very interesting tour of several Iron Range cities on Wednesday afternoon prior to the banquet. Some 75 cars formed a motor cavalcade that visited Hibbing's world's largest ore pit; the Memorial Hall, so large and beautifully constructed that it is paramount to many structures in metropolitan cities. Their million-dollar high school can be classified as one of the outstanding educational institutions anywhere in the country! We passed model towns of Buhl, Chisholm, Frazier, McKinley and Virginia, all with public and educational facilities second to none. The landscape on the Range was especially stimulating to us Midwest and Eastern visitors. The open vistas revealed pearl-like lakes in far off distances, whole towns and villages nestled on the hillsides, surrounded by groves of pine and birch. As little as we saw of the great Mesaba Range with its primitive beauty and climate, will always fill us with a greater appreciation and love for the northern country, and for our people who live there.

Due credit for organizing the interesting trip goes to the Junior Chamber of Commerce, composed of ambitious and enterprising young men of Eveleth, of which our own John Bajuk, brother of the local convention chairman, Ed Bajuk, is president.

Take it from some of the old heads on the Range, that KSKJ parade on Thursday night in Eveleth was the tops. Never have I seen greater enthusiasm and preparation for such an event as on this occasion. It was a grand tribute to our Union. School bands, American Legion Bugle and Drum Corps from all over the Range were in the line-up. All the KSKJ lodges in upper Minnesota were represented. Over 20 floats depicting various phases of Slovenian advancement, both civic and fraternal, scored with high approval. The KSKJ visiting delegation, marching in a column of four, before they dropped out in front of the Park Hotel, created an impressive sight. The parade was easily more than a mile long, and very colorful.

Probably the most original and humorous sight in the entire parade was the horse-drawn farm wagon depicting our KSKJ in its infancy in 1894. The horse was genuinely Slovenian because that's all it could understand. "Cookie" Gopodarc was the driver, while Dr. Oman and our new president, John Germ, were also on board attired as old-fashioned farmers. Of course, they were accompanied by several of the Slovenian beauties of Eveleth.

Another eye-filling float which won everyone's approval was the big basket filled with pretty KSKJ juveniles, each representing one of the 48 states of the Union.

A big dance was held after the parade in the Recreation Hall, a spacious place, where Tiny Specht's Orchestra played for our delegates and friends. The feature part of it was that they were very versatile, playing the Slovenian numbers equally as fine as the American tunes. Credit can be given to John Bayuk, who is the piano stylist and arranger for the band.

Confessions of a Globetrotter

DORIS MARIE BIRTIC

My visit to Rome would scarcely have been complete if I had missed the impressive remains of the old Flavian Amphitheater known as the Colosseum.

This forerunner of our modern stadiums was gigantic in size and covered an area of about five acres. Here were held the gladiatorial combats, aquatic sports, chariot races, wild beast chases and the important triumphal festivals.

The guide whom we had hired rattled off other facts about this edifice which might be interesting, but, then, more accurate details can be found in ancient history books, for often the guide told us a carload of fiction-facts in order to impress upon us his great historical knowledge. But, as these practiced speeches rolled readily from his tongue, I excused him, for he probably had recited the same string of facts so often that he felt he had to color it up a bit to relieve the monotony.

As we were leaving the Colosseum, I spied some of my American friends, fellow-passengers on the Exochorda. I can't tell you how glad I was to see them. I had missed the "happy-go-lucky" American spirit more than I realized, and the sound of our American language spoken correctly and in our way was soothing to my ears. True, I love the musical language of the Italians, in fact, I hope to study it some day; but I never truly appreciated our tongue until I hadn't heard it for awhile.

My friends were "doing" Rome, too, and so after a few minutes of conversation we parted again. This world isn't so large after all.

A visit to Trajan's Forum took but little time since only Trajan's column, constructed of marble, remains. Around it are many fragments of columns, but that is all.

Our tour of the ruins of imperial Rome was concluded as we walked under the Triumphal Arch of Constantine—walked from the glorious remains of an old world into the rising glory of a new.

The Eyes of Faith

Christ's assurance that His delights are to be with the children of men is most wonderfully realized through His real presence in the Blessed Sacrament. Through His constant presence in our tabernacles, He has given us a most consoling fulfillment of His promise to be with us all days even to the consummation of the world. The evident object of Christ's unending love is that our divine Lord wishes to perpetuate for our sakes all the advantages which His visible presence among men achieved. Might we not see through faith in His loving presence that, like in the days He walked the earth: "The blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead rise again, the poor have the gospel preached to them" (Matt. xi, 5)? Here Christ is with us to enlighten and instruct our minds, to heal our failings, to encourage and strengthen us in the pursuit of virtue. Our faith, enlivened by love, will prompt us to visit Him frequently. Such divine benevolence must elicit a hearty response to requite such boundless love with a reciprocal love without measure.

The Living Bread

In devout visits to the Blessed Sacrament we can seek light and guidance in the matters that pertain to our soul's welfare. "They that approach to His feet shall receive of His doctrine" (Deut. xxxiii, 3). Through simple, child-like faith, we learn how to listen to the heart-to-heart teaching of the Master. St. Thomas Aquinas, when perplexed in his studious endeavors, frequently visited Christ in the Blessed Sacrament to gain the necessary help to understand the solution of his difficulties. With sturdy faith in the fact that our God in the tabernacle is near to our every petition, we gain the needed strength to carry our belief into our manner of living. When we labor and are burdened by the vicissitudes of life, we have on our altars Him Who said: "Come to Me . . . and I will refresh you" (Matt. xi, 28). Not only in the avoidance of evil, but in our advancement in virtue, we can go to Him Who said: "Learn of Me." Not only the memories of Christ's virtues remain to spur us on, but we have the Living Bread, the model of actual virtue, such as obedience in Christ's coming upon the altar at the words of the priest, and mercy, whereby the Good Shepherd feeds us still and keeps us as His very own.

Our Life and Christ's Presence

An ardent faith will enable us to realize best all that the presence of Christ on the altar means to us. "Ask and you shall receive" (John xvi, 34). This is Christ's promise. It is fulfilled in a very special way through approach to Him abiding in our midst. Each of us has but to ask himself—how much have I made use of the expedient of frequently visiting Christ in the tabernacle? Have I made the most of that Presence? With Jesus as our truest Friend, we have but to go to Him with the same faith and confidence as those Who pressed near to Him in the days when He walked the earth that they might be cured of bodily ills, or be strengthened in the life of the soul, or to hear the lessons that fell from His lips, in a word, to be helped by Him Who went about doing good. Let us go to Him in our trials for the Blessed Eucharist is a memorial of the Passion of the Man of Sorrows. Let us share our joys with Him for, through His sufferings and death, He is the Cause of our capability for true happiness. Let us go to Him in our every want and for our every advantage, for He is the Dispenser of graces to meet every human need. Let us visit Him daily so that when our day of life is toward evening, He will hearten us by the hope of seeing Him face to face.

Buy a can of pears, drain off the juice, and to 1 cup of juice, add 1½ cups sugar, 1/3 cup vinegar, and about 10 whole cloves.
