Christmas Message from Slovenian Consul General

Dear Slovenians and Friends of Slovenia,

December is the darkest month of the year. Therefore, light takes on a magnificent importance in our lives. Light is life. In the presence of light, we, as people, gather together to converse, sing and pray. Light unites and invigorates us. Christ's birth gives ultimate meaning to the victory of light over darkness, good over evil. We celebrate light, birth, new beginnings.

The day following the celebration of Christ's birth, therefore, gave way to the birth of Slovenia's independence. Slovenian national unity had never before, or since, exhibited the strength it did during those days and months. Appropriately, the national holiday is newly named this year - Day of Slovenian Independence and Unity.

Dear Friends, you are a vital, living part of the Slovenian national body. I sincerely thank you for all that you have done to support and solidify democracy, independence and international recognition of our Slovenia. I congratulate you all on this precious national holiday, Day of Slovenian Independence and Unity.

During this Christmas season, I wish you and your loved ones a profound celebration of Christ's birth, of the victory of Light over Darkness. May the New Year endow you with abundant health, personal satisfaction, good will and enthusiasm; in hopes that we may all work together to rejuvenate and maintain Slovenian cultural identity in the United States of America.

-Dr. Zvone Žigon,

Consul General, Republic of Slovenia
and Mrs. Irena Žigon

Euclid's Sveti Miklavž Tree

On December 3rd, the tree on the stage of the Slovenian Society Home on Recher Avenue in Euclid, Ohio was decorated with a Sveti Miklavž (St. Nicholas) theme.

The decorations were those used by Santa Papers by Hunter, Inc. last year for a tree at the Cleveland Playhouse Festival of Trees. Karen Hunter and Mary Jane Riddlebaugh, a member of the Slovenian Art Guild, designed the tree.

Karen, the artist of the duo, decoupage a picture of Sveti Miklavž enlarged from the cookie decorating paper she designed. She hand-painted the two angels on the wings of the wooden triptych tree topper that was cut and assembled by her brother, Steve (Mary Jane's husband).

Large wooden hearts with small mirrors were dyed red and then piped with a paint mixture to resemble a traditional frosted cookie. Miniature wooden sleds were painted by Karen with a flower motif around a red heart. Little wicker baskets with tiny wooden "nut" beads, artificial fruit, and small Sveti Miklavž cookies were hung from the branches.

Walnuts that had been spray-painted with gold paint, straw ornaments, and star shaped cookie ornaments were tucked among the boughs.

Old World charm was added by wooden dowel candles assembled by Steve and pained, glittered, and hot glued by his wife, Mary Jane. Silk cranberry red carnations and wooden 5½" Sveti Miklavž decoupage ornaments resembling gingerbread cookies continued the theme.

Under the tree, a large round basket full of oranges, nuts, and wooden "cookies" was placed. The basket was of the style Sveti Miklavž was rumored to carry.

These tree decorations were donated to the Slovenian Society Home by Santa Papers by Hunter, Inc., which will be closing its business at the end of this year.

The Star of Bethlehem

by RUDY FLIS

The Star of Bethlehem has shone for a few thousand years. Oh, you can't just look up and see it. Maybe when Jesus was born you could, but now you must believe in the birth of Jesus, Son of God, and the Virgin Mary.

The shining star is like a ray of hope for mankind. You and I and all around are affected by it, not always in the same way, but we are affected, believe me.

Is it magic that the Star of Bethlehem from so long ago and so far away yet shines on me to this day? In the 1930s, as a young child, secure in my family setting, thanks to my mom and dad, and brothers and sisters, blessings from God, under the rays of the Star of Bethlehem, Christmas was heaven here on earth. The 1940s, '50s, and through the rest of the 20th century and including this Christmas, it is again heaven. My mom and dad, most of my brothers and sisters are gone, or are they?

They are with me. They shall always be. As the star of Bethlehem shines again on me this joyful Christmas, I will turn back and look to the birth of Jesus. But the rays will not be blank, for they will be pulsating with the images of my loved ones, present and past, bathing my soul in what was, what is, and what will be. How much better can it be? I ask for no more.

But I sit here in ecstasy, in Christmas spirit and warm memories of loved ones, and listen to traditional Christmas music. What has become traditional for me is the beautiful CD produced far from Bethlehem, long after the bright star appeared over the manger where Jesus lie, but in time for me to enjoy the fruits of our Slovenian community of the parishes of St. Mary's on Holmes Ave., and St. Vitus. Every note and song that is sung on Sveta Noč I treasure.

This Christmas again, I will eat, and laugh and enjoy life and remember years gone by, all pleasant memories. I pray our children will be blessed with a treasure of Christmas memories such as mine.

May each of you have a Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year and that include our beloved American troops around this troubled world.

Rev. Sample is next Bishop of Marquette

Rev. Alex K. Sample will be the next Bishop of Marquette, Michigan, the diocese of which was founded by Slovenian missionary Frederic Baraga. In his acceptance statement, Father Sample said:

"It is with a great sense of unworthiness that I have accepted this appointment of Pope Benedict XVI to be the next bishop of the Diocese of Marquette. I am most grateful for the trust and confidence that the Holy Father has placed in me, and I hope, with God's grace, to faithfully fulfill this office which he has entrusted to me."

I congratulate Bishop Garland on his retirement, and I am tremendously grateful to him for all his guidance and example during my time working with him in the Chancery. We all thank him for his 13 years of faithful and fruitful ministry as our Bishop. I thank him for the opportunities he has given me which have helped prepare me for this day.

I am, of course, very indebted to my family for their love and support over the years, especially as I have tried to faithfully live out my priestly vocation...

To the faithful of the whole Diocese of Marquette, I am humbled to be appointed your shepherd, and I promise to do all in my power, with the help of the Holy Spirit, to be a good, faithful and loving shepherd of the flock entrusted to my care. I wish to minister in the spirit of our Lord Jesus Christ, who came "not to be served, but to serve." I beg your prayers for me as I prepare to assume this ministry, and I will count on those prayers throughout my years of service as your bishop...

Finally, and most importantly, I thank God for the gift of life and salvation and for my vocation. May he ever guide me as I continue to strive to faithfully serve Him in the likeness of Jesus, His Son and the Good Shepherd. Consecrating myself to the Mother of God, Mary Most Holy, and relying on the prayerful intercession of the first bishop of Marquette, Frederic Baraga, I hope to be an effective instrument of Christ's love, mercy and salvation for the people I am sent to serve.

Father Sample
in Slovenian Cultural Garden on Sept. 3.

Members of the Bishop Baraga Association know Father Sample as the Administrator of the association. He was in Cleveland, along with Bishop Garland, in September for the Labor Day Bishop Baraga two day celebration, participated in the Slovenian and English Masses, and conducted the Baraga Association meeting on Sunday, Sept. 4 in St. Mary's new parish center. At the previous Baraga celebration in Cleveland in 1986, he also joined the Slovenians at Slovenska Pristava along with Archbishop Rode from Slovenia.

Congratulations to Father Sample, 45, who will become the youngest bishop in America.

100 Words More or Less...

Christmas in time of war and a hope for peace

by JOHN MERCINA

American Revolutionary War – "On Christmas Day, 1776, Washington crossed the Delaware River and attacked a garrison of 1,600 Hessian troops. In a bold daylight attack, 2,400 American troops with 18 cannons subdued the Hessians within an hour. One hundred Hessians lay dead, 900 were captured and the rest fled into the New Jersey woodlands."

Civil War – Christmas 1864 – "This is Christmas, and my mind wonders back to that home made lonesome by my absence, while far away from the peace and quietude of civil life to undergo the hardships of camp and maybe the battlefield. I think of the many lives that are endangered and hope that the time will soon come when peace, with its innumerable blessings, shall once more restore our country to happiness and prosperity."

WWI – "The words heard were these, "Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht." British troops immediately recognized the melody as "Silent Night," and quickly neutralized all hostilities. One by one, British and German soldiers began laying down their weapons to venture into no-man's-land, a small patch of bombed-out earth between the two sides. The truce ended just as it had begun, by mutual agreement. The war was on again."

WWII – Silent Night, Holy Night was instrumental in suspending the fighting on many fronts while people around the globe turned to their radios on Christmas Eve to hear opera star Ernestine Schuman-Heink sing Stille Nacht. She had one son fighting for the Axis, and one for the Allies.'

Korean War – "We had a communication receiver tuned to Armed Forces Radio playing Christmas tunes loudly and some of the boys were trying to teach the Korean kids to sing hymns with them. Every box of C rations had cookies and the guys gave those to the children for Christmas presents."

Viet Nam War – "On the first day of Christmas, the VC gave to me: Some plastic in a Dauphine. On the 2nd... two hand grenades. On the 3rd... three punji stakes. On the 4th... four fallen flowers. On the 5th... five claymore mines. On the 6th... six satchel charges. On the 7th... seven birds a shrieking. On the 8th... eight bar girls drinking. On the 9th... nine Saigon teas. On the 10th... ten tanks of napalm. On the 11th... eleven Montagnards. On the 12th... twelve butterflies."

Operation Desert Storm 1990 – 101st Airborne Division Commander, Major General J. H. Binford Peay III in his Christmas message: "This great division is ready and willing to go to any length to carry out our assigned mission. We have taken our stand in opposition to aggression with full faith and confidence that our service is needed and appreciated. With courage and commitment, we follow our convictions in quest of 'Peace on Earth' as wise men have always done."

Christmas 2005 – Let us pray in this Season of Peace for those of our brothers and sisters who are serving in far away and lonely places. May the Lord of Peace bless their efforts and bring them safely home to their loved ones.

A blessed Christmas and a peaceful 2006 to all the readers of American Home.

--John Mercina

Gripes and Gladness from Joe Snyder

Since 2004, there have been very few articles that related to anything but obituaries from people who were remembered from St. Lawrence parish in Newburgh section of Cleveland. The beat goes on as we have lost Eddie Skufca, a feisty ombudsman of the Slovenian National Home that kept the interest of the underdog his forte. A veteran, a leader in volunteer organizations, and a true supporter of all National Home festivities. He is missed.

Andy Scinkovec was a Laurentian, a veteran, a remote control aviation enthusiast, an Eagle, an exceptional humorist, and an all around good guy. Sadly, many friends of St. Lawrence have passed away.

I have been inundated with e-mails that are too numerous to list. This age has brought about a lessening of personal letters, which were a mainstay and source of warm feeling. Computer generated, pre-printed, greeting cards are less personal than a written note from a friend. This effort has been lost. I hope only temporary.

I have been a lifetime fan of the Indians and Browns (Cleveland baseball and football teams). However, the past score of years, except for the 1990s, flash of brilliance from our baseball team, there is little to cheer for, or even hope for, especially the Browns. I have been upset with the Browns since they fired Paul Brown over 50 years ago. The Indians are in a poker game with a crisp $10 bill; unfortunately, they are up against sharks with a wad of C-notes. The Browns are trying to find themselves. For me, wait until next year just does not make it anymore.

The entertainment industry has become somewhere between insipid and disgusting, and that goes along with the TV networks and their phony news reporting. Thank God for the old movies, mostly black and white, that are available.

Aside from the Slovenian parishes in Cleveland, has the liturgical music been conducive to enhancing prayer and any spiritual experience? A list of the top 20 hymns by some research organization has shown that none of them are available for regular singing at most modern Catholic Churches. Christmas time gives an old timer at least a taste of music they enjoy.

The Slovenians are fortunate to have a solid polka base which entertains us daily as an oasis from whatever is being sent through the airwaves. Tony Petkovsek has been a consummate promoter and his annual Thanksgiving weekend is a gift to Cleveland. At the Slovenian National Homes, either at Recher Hall, East 80th, West 130th, E. 152nd, or St. Clair, we find many opportunities to dancing to a good polka band.

Finally, the American Home has been a blessing to our home. We enjoy Ray Mlakar's column, the writings of Rudy Flis, an occasional article from Joe Glinsek, John Mercina, an occasional editorial from Jim Debevec, plus many other fine contributors. The calendar of events keeps us updated. Each paper is enjoyed by many readers.

I wish everyone a Very Merry Christmas and a Blessed and prosperous 2006.

-Joe Snyder

A husband was in big trouble when he forgot his wedding anniversary.

His wife told him, "Tomorrow there better be something in the driveway for me that goes from zero to 200 in 5 seconds flat."

The next morning the wife found a package in the driveway. She opened it and found a brand new bathroom scale.

Mlakar Walks Down Memory Lane

by RAY MLAKAR

To begin with, here is wishing all of our readers a very Happy and Blessed Christmas and hope Santa fills your stockings to the brim. With my luck, he will pass me up since I have holes in the toes of my stockings.

Speaking of the holidays, on Sunday, Dec. 4 I did get the chance to go to the E. 80th Slovenian National Home for the K.S.K.J. meeting and Christmas Party. I got there late since I had to snow-blow the driveway before I could get out. By the time I got there, the lodge meeting was over and they were headed for the bowling alleys where the Christmas Party was to be held.

A couple of the members came up to me and said, "Congratulations!" I said, "Congratulations for what?" I thought, "What did I do now?" or "Did I win a door prize?" They said no, "You have been elected as Vice president of the lodge." It seems that even when I am not there on time and keep my mouth shut, I get elected. What can I say, "Dennis Kucinich, eat your heart out." I will certainly endeavor to do my best.

I moved into the bowling alley and it was the first time I was there and I must say they have neat, well maintained bowling alleys. They had all the 12 lanes open with the little tots doing their thing trying to get strikes, and I must say they had some great young bowlers there. I used to bowl in my younger days, some 50 years ago for the SNPJ Slovenian lodge, and still have a couple of prize trophies I keep in the basement for posterity. When posterity will show up to claim them, I have no idea. I think that now in my old age the alley at the E. 80th Slovenian Home were made for guys like me for in lanes one and two they had air filled tubes laying in the gutters on each side of the alley so that in no way could a bowler get a gutter ball. That's what I need, "All the help I can get."

The kids were really in their glory. They were having a lot of fun. There was plenty of food for all. You name the snack food and it was there, chips, dips, corn curls, pretzels and plenty of hot dogs that were kept going at "full steam," along with sloppy joes with all kinds of soft drinks.

Before long, Ho, ho, ho came in carrying his heavy bags and before long the kids were lined up to see Santa, sit on his lap, get their photo taken and given bags of candy, toys and each kid got their own greeting card from Santa with a crisp five dollar bill in there.

As the line dwindled down, Josie Snyder said, "Ray, go sit on Santa's lap. I'd like to take a picture of you with Santa." What can I say, I had not had a picture taken with Santa in well over 70 years. I was bigger than Santa, but he let me sit on his lap. Somehow I think that Josie Snyder knew Santa personally to have him let me sit on his lap for the photo shot.

A little while later, one of the little tots came up to me and said, "I seen you sit on Santa's lap. What did you say to him?" I told him I wanted a choo-choo electric train for Christmas. She smiled and said, "I think you are too big for a choo-choo train." I said, "I know but I asked anyway. Guess she knows Santa better than I do, but then I don't really have my hopes up for an electric train. Now that I think of it, Santa has by-passed my house for well over a quarter of a century. What makes me think this year will be any different. Besides, it is the birth of Jesus that is what we should focus on.

Santa was good before he left; he gave Josie Snyder a wrapped Christmas box to give to me, perhaps a consolation gift since he did not have a choo-choo-train in his toy bag.

To all of our readers, members of SNPJ Slovenian lodge as well as the members of KSKJ lodge, here is wishing you all a very Blessed and Happy Christmas. May Jesus rein in your hearts throughout the coming year.

Well, before I sign off, let me look into "my joke bag" to cheer you along. Well, I have to admit I owe thanks for this joke to my brother Frankie Mlakar of Erie, Penn. Thanks, Frank.

Police officer pulls over a speeding car. The officer says, "I clocked you at 80 miles per hour, sir." The driver says, "Gee, officer, I had my cruise control on at 60." Not looking up from her knitting, the wife says, "Now don't be silly dear; you know this car does not have cruise control." As the officer writes out the ticket, the driver looks over at his wife and growls, "Can't you please keep your mouth shut for once?" The wife smiles demurely and says, "You should be thankful your radar detector went off when it did."

"As the officer makes out the second ticket for the illegal radar detector unit, the man growls at his wife and says through clenched teeth, "Darn it woman, can't you keep your mouth shut?"

The officer frowns and says, "And I notice that you are not wearing your seat belt, sir. That's an automatic $75.00 fine." The driver says, "Yeah, well you see officer, I had it on, but took it off when you pulled me over so that I could get my license out of my back pocket."

The wife says, "Now dear, you know very well that you didn't have your seat belt on. You never wear your seat belt when you are driving." As the officer is writing out the third ticket, the driver turns to his wife and barks, "Why don't you please shut up!"

The policeman looks over at the woman and asks, "Does your husband always talk to you this way, "Ma'm?"

"No, only when he's stone drunk."

With that, it is time to sign off wishing that the Good Lord will bless and keep you all safe and healthy. See you next year.

Visions of Christmases Past

by JOE GLINSEK

As I ripen, thoughts of Christmas are less about new things, and more about old things that remind me of people I love. After he taught me the rudiments of the game when I was in the eighth grade, Dad and I had our annual chess match on the Sunday after Christmas. He died in 1958. Fifteen years, and I'd never won a game. Yet I treasure every one.

We ignored the three-minute rule, and I often had time to make sandwiches while he contemplated his next move, and several beyond. Very impatient with the slow pace of the game, I became less so as I grew older. And now, I understand how much he looked forward to our game. The chess board, now a little table, sits next to my computer. I see it every day and think of him.

Mike was my bachelor uncle, Mom's brother, and along with my grandfather, had always been part of our extended family. Grampa was gone, and soon after, I'd married and moved away, Dad died. Now it was just the two of them in our old house. For years, Mike had been bringing home lopsided Christmas trees, and was teased unmercifully. My very patient father always managed to cover up the defects and made them look good. But now it was Mike's job, and his tree became the anticipated Christmas joke.

After he died in 1974, I was clearing out the junk in the coal bin of our old house. Reaching up to pull the chain on the light bulb, I noticed something between the joists, above the door. I called Mom down from the kitchen to show her my find.

Tucked in the dark recess was a dusty bundle of irregular round sticks, and I pulled one out. A short length of a small tree trunk had little nubs where branches had been snipped, and it had a definite piney smell when I brushed off the dust. Written on the end, with indelible purple pencil, was '1971.' There were more than a dozen others; one for every year from 1958 through 1973.

Visions of quick-shedding, short-needed, crooked fir trees flashed through my mind, and it took Mom but an instant to connect the dates. Dad died in 1958, and 1973 was Uncle Mike's last Christmas. These pieces were cut from the Christmas trees that Mike had brought home and decorated.

We never realized he was such a softy. Only a sentimental souls would save these, and we felt tinges of guilt for teasing him. Thoughts of Mike and Dad had Mom and I misty-eyed. A bundle of dusty sticks to remind us of Christmas past, and people we love.

For centuries men have kept an appointment with Christmas. Christmas means fellowship, feasting, giving and receiving, a time of good cheer, home.

*Slovenian
Christmas
Eve
Customs*

When Slovenian people came to America, they brought with them many faith-based customs which are observed throughout the year such as the blessing of Easter foods on Holy Saturday afternoon, and the blessing of homes on Christmas Eve. These customs are not just folklore but rather actions which carry deep spiritual meaning for believing Catholics.

The blessing of homes on Christmas Eve, for example, takes place soon after dark when the family is finished with all the busy work of preparing for Christmas Day. Family members gather by the nativity manger to say the entire 15 mysteries of the Rosary in honor of God's salvation of His chosen people. One person begins to bless the manger with holy water while another lights the charcoal and burns the incense.

The person with the incense starts the procession followed by the person with holy water and other family members following single file and reciting the Rosary. Every corner of the home is thus blessed.

The purpose of this two-fold action of blessing and incensing the home is to bring peace and harmony to all in the family and to honor Christ the Savior, who was born into the Holy Family.

Following this ritual, families usually eat together, sing Christmas carols and prepare to go to Midnight Mass, Gifts are usually opened only upon returning from church. Many Slovenian people still observe the custom of going to another Mass on Christmas Day and to the litanies.

St. Vitus Church - Cerkev Sv. Vida

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Christmas is without doubt the most joyful time of the year. The Manger and the Tree, the lights and the music add a special glow to the season.

All these beautiful external things remain outside of us, unless our understanding and appreciation proceed from a deep sense of contentment reaching to the depths of the soul.

This true spirit of Christmas can only come about if one realizes the real message of the Feast - God became man - the birth of Jesus - God with us.

Do try to make your Christmas Christian. Come to Christmas Mass as a family and receive Our Lord in Holy Communion.

Then, will the Peace which Christ brings and His blessings last throughout the New Year.

Your priests at St. Vitus
Father Joseph Boznaš
Father Victor Cimperman

Dragi bratje in sestre!

Prazniki Gospodovega rojstva so gotovo najlepši v letu. Jaslice in božično drevesce, luke, zvonjenje in petje božičnih pesmi daje tem praznikom poseben sjaj.

Vendar so še tako lepa dejanja in stvari zgolj zunanjost brez vsakega vpliva na dušo, če jih človek ne dojema v vrednoti v svojem srcu.

Pravbo božično razpoloženje podoživlja samo tisti, ki pravilno razume sporocilo svete noči: Bog si privzame človeško naravo - Jezus se rodi - Bog z nami!

Zato se potrudite, da bodo vaši prazniki res krščansko doživeti v vsakem oziru! Udeležite se prazničnega bogoslužja in prejmite Jezusa v svetem obhajilu!

Kristusov mir in njegov blagoslov naj bosta z vami v Novem letu 2006.

Ursula Kuhar, mezzo-soprano soloist on Dec. 3rd with Prof. Dr. Erik Stark, director of the Indianapolis Symphonic Choir and music professor at Butler University.

Ursula Kuhar, mezzo-soprano soloist on Dec. 3rd with the composer of the premiere piece Mary with Jesus, Dr. Frank Burch Brown, performed the song for the first time on Saturday night. Ursula is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Bogomir Kuhar of Powell, Ohio.

Ursula Kuhar Soloist for World Choral Premier

On Saturday, Dec. 3rd, in stark contrast to the cold icy drizzle outdoors, the 150 voice Indianapolis Symphonic Choir, accompanied by members of the Indianapolis Symphony, performed its annual "Festival of Carols" concert before a sold-out crowd of over 1000.

Besides Christmas carols, the program offered classical choral music, both traditional and modern. The Symphonic Choir's programming embraces contemporary choral literature without neglecting the classics. Representing that trend was the world premiere of Frank Burch Brown's Mary with Jesus.

Set for choir, mezzo soprano, flute, cello, and piano, the piece is an intimate portrait of a specific mother and child. Powell resident, Ursula Kuhar, was the soloist for this premiere performance.

Whitney Smith, arts columnist and critic for The Indianapolis Star, wrote in her review that with her beautiful voice, mezzo Ursula Kuhar, sang the solo with a sense of awe and the rich, dark hues of her voice blended impeccably with the orchestra and choristers.

Ursula is a 2001 graduate of Village Academy in Powell and a 2005 graduate from Butler University where she earned bachelor degrees in Art Administration (vocal performance) and French. At present, she is a graduate student at Butler University.

Later in December, Ursula will be the featured mezzo soloist for Handel's Messiah at the Symphony's annual "Rejoice" Concerts. She is a member of the Indianapolis Opera Company and can be seen in its upcoming production of Puccini's Turandot in February.

Christmas waves a magic wand over this world, and behold, everything is softer and more beautiful.

Hidden Meaning of a Christmas Carol

There is one Christmas Carol that has baffled many readers. What in the world do leaping lords, French hens, swimming swans, and especially the partridge who lives in a pear tree have to do with Christmas?

From 1558 until 1829 Roman Catholics in England were not permitted to practice their faith openly. Someone during that era wrote this carol as a catechism song for young Catholics. It has two levels of meaning: the surface meaning plus a hidden meaning known only to members of their church. Each element in the carol has a code word for a religious reality which the children could remember.

The partridge in a pear tree was Jesus Christ.

Two turtle doves were the Old and New Testaments.

Three French hens stood for faith, hope, and love.

The four calling birds were the four gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John.

The five golden rings recalled the Torah or Law, the first five books of the Old Testament.

The six geese a-laying stood for the six days of creation.

Seven swans a-swimming represented the sevenfold gifts of the Holy Spirit: prophesy, serving, teaching, exhortation, contribution, leadership, and mercy.

The eight maids a-milking were the eight beatitudes.

Nine ladies dancing were the nine fruits of the Holy Spirit: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness, and Self Control.

The ten lords a-leaping were the ten commandments.

The eleven pipers piping stood for the 11 faithful disciples.

The twelve drummers drumming symbolized the 12 points of belief in the Apostles Creed.

Surprise, surprise for Jim and June Slapnik

On Saturday, Nov. 12 Jim Slapnik was on the receiving end of a "Surprise, surprise" for his birthday given by his wife, June at the Slovenian Workmen's Home on Waterloo Rd. All the "angels" helped surprise him, too.

Not to be outdone, a week later, on Saturday, Nov. 19 the tables were turned on his wife, June for her birthday by husband, Jim.

What a wonderful way to show their love for each other. We all wish them well and many more pleasant surprises in the future.

Glasbena Matica celebrates diamond jubilee

by MARA CERAR HULL

"Our singers hope you will enjoy this evening's Diamond Jubilee concert..." said Joseph Valencic in the introduction to the November 19th concert of Glasbena Matica on Saturday, Nov. 19 in the Slovenian National Home in Cleveland.

We did enjoy it.

The evening fulfilled all the promises. The singers raised their voices until the walls of the Slovenian National Home echoed with joyous sound of Smetana's opera, in soulful and joyous melodies of the Slovenian folk songs, with Verdi's Nabucco's prayer of Hebrew slaves, majestic Schubert, the provocative voice of Bizet's dark Carmen.

Listening to the concert I sat with the classy and gracious Kapel sisters, Vida Zak, Sophie Matuch, and Marion Slepko, along with Albert and Pat Amigoni. We reminisced about times past when we would come to the Slovenian National Home in great anticipation to hear the most famous Slovenian choir in Cleveland, Glasbena Matica. Of course we looked forward to the dance afterward, but the concert was what brought us to the hall. The event was the annual highlight of the cultural life in Cleveland. When Anton Schubel raised his baton we knew we were in for a treat.

My mother, who always felt an affinity with Mr. Schubel, because they originated from the same town, Domzale, took me to my first concert in 1955 soon after I came to the United States. I immediately felt at home. Those were my songs and melodies. I had sung them and listened to them all my life. Memories of Sunday afternoons at the Opera House matinee performances in Ljubljana, flooded back to me.

There are combinations of notes filling our ear, that flood our brain like a dance — there is no other word for it — and we feel that dance, that certain something that makes us smile and cry and shiver. Our hearts swell and tears welled up in our eyes: this music, this sound, this beat, this beauty that is ours. I think music is the most mysterious of all artistic expressions — yet we submit to its allure most readily. Why is that? We all like to sing — well most of us — but we don't know why. We only know that it feels good when we sing. Or we sing when we feel good.

The Music Program Committee with Cecilia Dolgan as its Chair, arranged a superb program. Heart-felt song Po jezeru, Oj večer je že, Lastovki in Zdravica, tugged at our hearts' strings because we had heard those songs so often, so long ago, at such tender times, with so many memories connected to it, that we know them by heart and held them there all of our lives. Shirley Ivancic Stall and Frank Ivancic sang solos beautifully.

Though classical music was not performed only by Matica and under director Schubel — as Joe Valencic has traced in the short history in the introduction, it was much earlier than Zarja, from which in 1930 Glasbena Matica emerged, produced Slovenian folk operetta Gorenjski Slavček and Ivanusch's own Rasamund of Turkaj — it was by the newly formed choir that full length classical operas became popular in the Slovenian National Home. Mr. Schubel, with his Metropolitan Opera experience, especially excelled with his difficult international musical programs. Soloists of the jubilee, Eileen Ivancic, Michael Cercek, Cecilia Dolgan and Daniel Hrvatin, proved that their voices can still transport us into the magical world of legend and venture.

The first section of second part of the program was dedicated to American music: Rogers and Hammerstein, Kern and Harbach, Howe and Steffe. Again, the soloists were superb: Carol Zofchak, Steve Royer, and Julie Tragon, who is the new director, have the spirit of the American beat.

In the second and last quarter, the singers transported us back to our roots, to Slovenian songs of Ipavec, Kernjak, Avsenik and Foerster. With songs I Am a Slovenian, To Mother, The Sun has set, and medley of Gorenjski Slavček, The Highland Nightingale.

The singers of Glasbena Matica have given us the last gift of the evening to take home and savor for many days. Marie Engstrom, Lisa Hupfer, Lori Sierputowski, Matt Dolenc and Dan Ivancic performed solos in these songs — did we hear three Ivancic family members? Their voices still strong, their enthusiasm undiminished.

Actually, I must say the same for all of the 30 singers of the beautiful and enjoyable evening. 75 years is a long time for a choir to live and work, and 20, 30, and 50 years — Sylvia Plymeser is counting 61 years of singing in the choir, is commendable and worth every accolade and praise.

The Glasbena Matica chorus poses for a picture prior to the beginning of the second half.

The Frances and Jane S. Lausche Foundation presented a $5,000 grant to Glasbena Matica for continuing operating support prior to their 75th anniversary concert on Saturday, Nov. 19 in the St. Clair Slovenian National Home. Glasbena Matica president, Dan Hrvatin, center, accepts the check which was given by Madeline D. Debevec, Secretary-Treasurer of the Foundation, and James V. Debevec, right, president.

CHRISTMAS 2005

Dear Parishioners,

May the peace and joy of Christ fill your hearts and your homes!

In the midst of trouble in the world, discontent in our nation, the only source for peace and joy is still the Word Made Flesh – Our Savior Jesus Christ. As you celebrate His holy birth, imitate his life. Live as his representative in this world. For you are. Live as if your life must say to others, "Jesus Christ is Lord." For it must. May Christ, through Mary, give you and your loved ones an abundance of happiness, contentment and health during these days of Christmas and in the New Year 2006.

Earth has been touched by Divinity. Christ is born! Glorify Him!

God's blessings through Christ our newborn King,

Fr. John Kumse – Pastor

Dragi farani,

Naj mir in radost Kristusa napolni vaša srca in vaše domove!

Med vsem nemirom v svetu in nezadovoljstvu v naši deželi, edini vir miru in radosti je še vedno Beseda, ki je meso postala – naš Odrešenik Jezus Kristus. Ko praznujete Njegovo sveto rojstvo, posnemajte njegovo življenje. Živite, kot njegovi poslanci v tem svetu. Zato ker ste. Živite, kot da vaše življenje mora govoriti drugim: "Jezus Kristus je Gospod." Zato ker je potrebno. Naj Kristus po Mariji, vam in vašim dragim podeli obilo sreče, zadovoljstva in zdravja med Božičnimi prazniki in v Novem letu 2006. Božanstvo nebes se je dotaknilo zemlje. Kristus je rojen. Slavite ga!

Božji blagoslov po Kristusu, novorojenemu Kralju!

Fr. Janez Kumse, župnik

Christmas Stockings

For many children, the first stop on Christmas morning is the fireplace, to see what Santa has left them in their Christmas stocking.

St. Nick has been filling stockings for quite some time. In the days of St. Nicholas, in the fourth century, there also lived a family that at one time had been very well-to-do. But according the story, the mother of the family succumbed to illness, and the father wasted all his money in despair. His three daughters were unable to marry because they had no dowry to give to their would-be husbands' families.

One night the daughters had hung up their stockings by the fireplace to dry. And as it happened, St. Nicholas came by that night, and dropped pieces of gold down the chimney, and into the stockings.

The tradition lives on today, although with a twist in some countries. For instance, in Italy, children set out their shoes on the night before Epiphany, to be filled with goodies. And in Holland, children fill their shoes with hay and a carrot for St. Nick's white horse.

MORNING NEWSPAPER

- VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE -

Hrabro Pergerjevi miklavži in parklji

Znani slovenski medičar, lekar in svečar Hrabro Perger iz Slovenj Gradca, mojster domače in umetnostne obrti, se je z vso obrtniško družino dobro pripravil na slovesni december. Od 3. decembra je lectove miklavže in parklje, velike od pet centimetrov do metra, mogoče kupiti na Miklavževem sejmu na Čopovi ulici in Veselem decembru na Cankarjevem nabrežju v Ljubljani.

Pergerjevi, katerih obrt sega v leto 1757, so za letos naredili več tisoč figur dobrega škofa in zraven parklja, ki so, poleg tega da jih je mogoče pojesti, prave male umetnine.

Hrabro Perger ima več kot dvesto let star recept, kako se naredi miklavž ali parklev lik. Medeno testo zamesijo že dva tedna, preden se začne pravo delo. Vseh več tisoč Pergerjevih miklavžev in parklev je narejenih ročno, vsi so okrašeni z živilskimi barvami in odeni vsak v svoje "oblačilo". Mojster Hrabro Perger ima v Ljubljani tudi stalne stranke. Gotovo bo letos imel kaj posebnega zanje.

V Ljubljani ministrsko zasedanje Organizacije za varnosti in sodelovanje v Evropi (OVSE)

Pretekli teden je bilo redno letno zasedanje te organizacije, v kateri sodeluje kar 55 držav in sicer na ravni zunanjih ministrov, ki pa vsi niso prišli, npr. ne ameriška državna sekretarka Condoleezza Rice, udeležilo se jih je pa 45, med njimi ruski zunanjji minister Ivan Lavrov.

OVSEju je letos predsedovala Slovenija oziroma njen zunanji minister Dimitrij Rupel, ki je tako bil gostitelj na zasedanju. Zasedanje je potekalo v glavnem na prostoru Gospodarskega razstavišča.

Ivan Lavrov se je bil srečal tako s premierom Janezom Janšo in predsednikom Slovenije dr. Janezom Drnovškom.

Zabavišče v Novi Gorici za kar 700 milijonov dolarjev – Če bo vse uresničeno

Novogoriško podjetje Hit in ameriška družba Harrah's International sta se dogovorila za razvoj igralniško-zabavničnega centra v Novi Gorici (Šempeter ali Ozejjan), vrednega 700 milijonov dolarjev (pol Hit, pol Američani).

Če bo slovenska vlada izdala vsa potrebna soglasja in izpolnila druge pogoje (50-odstotno lastništvo, zdaj dovoljeno le 20-odstotno, manjša obdavčitev igralništv), bo Nova Gorica dobila prestižne hotelske zmožljivosti (okoli 1000 sob), kongresni center, konkretno dvorano s 3000 sedeži, terme in druge zabaviščne površine. Slovenski "Las Vegas" naj bi odprli leta 2009. Slišati je kritika, da bo ta igralniški center predvsem za zabavo tujcev, ne Slovencev.

Inflacija dokaj nizka

Slovenski državni statistiki so ugotovili, da je bila inflacija letos skozi november na letni ravni 2,1-odstotna, povprečna letna inflacija pa 2,6-odstotna. Cene življenjskih potrebščin so bile zaradi nižjih cen blaga novembra kar 0,5 odstotka nižje kot oktobra.

Lopovi pri največjem ropu v Sloveniji še na prostem – oškodovanci bodo začeli dobivati odškodnine

Po največjem ropu v Sloveniji, ko so lopovi sedem ur nemoteno praznili sefe banke SKB na Bavarskem dvoru v središču Ljubljane, je predsednica uprave SKB Cvetka Selšek napovedala, da bodo prvi oškodovanci dobili odškodnine še konec tega meseca ali v začetku januarja 2006.

Oškodovanci so oziroma bodo morali dokazati, kaj so bili izgubili pri ropu, to pa naj bi bilo za nekatere težko ali celo nemogoče.

Policiji še ni uspelo odkriti identitete lopov, kaj šele jih prijeti.

ČAS PRIČAKOVANJA

Z vsakim adventnim časom začenjam novo cerkveno leto, novo leto božjega usmiljenja, njegovega obiskanja. V bogoslužju Cerkve se tako vsako leto znova začenja tisto, kar smo obhajali že prejšnja leta. Cerkve se nikoli ne naveliča ali ne utrudi stropati po tej krožni poti božjih skrivnosti, ki se pred nami odpirajo od adventa do božiča, od po-sta do velike noči, od praznika do praznika. Je že tako, da moramo tudi v svojem človeškem, posebej še v svojem krščanskem življenju vedno znova začenjati. Kljub vsej naši dobri volji ni v enem samem trenutku vse urejeno in dovršeno. Koliko-krat se zgodi, da klub odločitvam, za katere smo prepričani, da so dokončne, v življenju odpovemo in se ne izkažemo za junake. In moramo spet začeti od kraja. A kot kristjani ne omagamo, saj verujemo, da se s tem sicer naš zunanjí človek uničuje, se pa zato naš notranji od dne do dne obnavlja.

In prav za to gre pri vsakem adventu, ki ga doživljamo, prav to je glavni namen naše priprave na božič. Kristusov prihod: da začenjamo na novo. Da odmiramo staremu, grešnemu in s slabostmi obdanemu človeku, ter se trudimo za boljše, lepše, predvsem pa Bogu predano življenje.

Pri tem je pomembno, da svojih src ne navezujemo na gmotne stvari, da niso obtežena z le-nobo in s skrbmi tega sveta, kajti lahko se zgodidi, da pride tisti dan ne nadoma kakor hišni gospodar in nas najde speče ter nepripravljene.

Če malo bolj premisljujemo te besede, pa se lahko včasih zgrozimo, kaj vse najdemo v naših srcih! Nikomur izmed nas niso prihrajnjene skušnjave tega sveta. Vabljive reklame, s katerimi danes polnijo naše poštne nabiralnike, naše oči in ušesa, zapo-slujejo naše čute, da pozabljamo na tisto, kar je edino pomembno, za kar je edino vredno živeti in se truditi – naše odrešenje.

Tudi Cerkev nas v adventem času vabi, pa ne s trobili in stovatnimi zvočniki, ne z blešečimi neonskimi napis, temveč z vso resnostjo božje besede, z vijolično, spokorno barvo oblačil in z resnimi, umirjenimi pesmimi.

Vabi nas, pa ne k čemernosti in solzavemu ob-jokovanju napak, ampak k veselemu, vedremu pričakovanju in hrepenenju po odrešenju.

Dragi rojakinje in rojaki, Slovenke in Slovenci, prijatelji Slovenije!

December je najtemnejši mesec v letu in prav zato postane svetloba – luč v tem prazničnem času za ljudi ena najpomembnejših stvari. Luč pomeni življenje, ob njej se zbiramo k skupnemu petju, pogovoru, molitvi. Luč nas poživilja in združuje. Navsezadnje je praznovanje Kristusovega rojstva tudi v simbolnem pomenu predvsem zmaga Svetlobe nad Temo, Dobrega nad Zlim.

Praznujemo rojstvo, nov začetek.

26. decembra 1990 je bil v slovenskem parlamentu objavljen izid referendumu, na katerem se je ogromna večina Slovencev odločila za začetek poti do neodvisne države, ki je uradno nastala šest mesecev pozneje, 25. junija 1991.

Dan po rojstvu Jezusa je bila torej "rojena" tudi slovenska samostojnost. In ker naš narod nikoli ni bil tako enoten kot ravno v tistih dneh in v mesecih, ki so sledili, se ta državni praznik od letos dalje imenuje "da samostojnosti in enotnosti".

Spoštovane in spoštovani, kot živemu udu slovenskega naroda se vam iskreno zahvaljujem za vse, kar ste storili za demokratizacijo, osamosvojitev in mednarodno priznanje naše Slovenije! Hkrati vam čestitam ob državnem prazniku – dnevnu samostojnosti in enotnosti Republike Slovenije!

Seveda vam in vašim najbližjim želimo tudi doživeto praznovanje Kristusovega rojstva, zmage Svetlobe nad temo, v letu 2006 pa predvsem trdnega zdravja, osebne sreče in veliko volje za nove skupne podvige v dobro slovenstva!

- ADVENTNI VENEC -

Vpletel sem vate svoj mali svet, vpletel sem vate svet božjega stvarstva, vpletel sem vate svoje neizpete pesmi, svoje veselje in notranja spoznanja, neizjokane bolečine in zavrnjene ljubezni.
Zdaj si pred menoj kakor oder—
za ples hrepenenja in radovanja, s štirimi plesočimi nevestami, čakajočimi na ženina,
s štirimi vetrovi, ki v krogu molijo Stvarnika.
Si kakor prva igrača nad zibelko ali kot hleb kruha, ki diši po materini ljubezni.
Prepoznam te kot razkuštrano glavo otroka, polno sanj in domišljije za prihodnost, primeren si za venček na nevestino glavo ali pa za ženinov veliki prstan zvestobe.
Zdiš se kakor zemlja, razcefrana od groženj in bomb, ali pa kot vesolje z nevidnimi prebivalci.
Si kot srce, ki čaka večnost v čas, včasih kot oko, ki gleda v neskončnost,
in kot rožni venec, ki niza skrivenosti.

Domač si kot babičino vreteno za prejo topnih oblik, drugič boliš kot trnjeva krona na Jezusovi glavi.
Spominjaš me na trebuh matere, ki čaka na porod,
in vidim te kot monštranco, pripravljeno za hostijo.
Ti zmagovalni venec adventnih kolednikov!
Si kot majhna stajica za ovčke in pastirje in kmalu se boš spremenil v zibel:
iz tvojih štirih plamenov se bodo razlike tisočere svetilke božične luči;
zelenje se bo spremenilo v slamo
in pentlje bodo Novorojenemu pleničke, vrvi bodo povoji in storži prve Otrokove igrače.
O, kako se jih bo veselil, kako se bodo smejaše njegove oči, ko bomo pristopali s kadilom
in z blagoslovljeno vodo,
z adventno dušo in božičnim srcem.
Že sedaj bi ti rad v venec zašepetal:
"Radi te imamo, veselimo se te,
ker boš naš advent spremenil v praznovanje!"

(NADALJEVANJE s str. 14)

Drugo svečko smo prižgali na adventnem venčku. Ali nas je svetloba dveh plamenov že prebudila, zdramila iz sivine vsakdanjega pehanja za nečem, za biti, imeti? Adventni čas je preizkusni kamen življenjskosti naše vere – če v nas ničesar ne spremeni, če nas ne zmore nagovoriti, potem je z našo vero nekaj narobe, potem je naša vera hladna.

Kako torej preživeti advent? Stopimo na pot z Marijo, ki je v polnosti doživelila prvi advent, ko je po angelovi besedi sprejela pod svoje srce čudoviti božji dar – Jezusa Kristusa. Ta Kristus mora priti tudi med nas in v nas, v naša srca. Pa ne zgolj na vlijudnostni obisk, ne za kratek klepet ali bežno slavje, marveč tako, da prinese luč upanja v naša zatemnjena bivališča, da nam navdihne radost nad življenjem in vero v popolno preobrazbo, dopolnitev zgodovine. "Bog se ne skriva tistim," pravi Teilhard de Chardin, veliki krščanski mislec, "ki ga iskreno iščejo. Bog se nad svetom dobrotno sklanja kot mati nad svojim novorojenč-kom." Sklanja se nad slehernim izmed nas in nas vabi, da ga sprejmemmo.

Ko bomo na adventnem venčku prižigali svečke, naj nas plamen spomnijo na pomeinbne stvari, za katere si moramo prizadevati. Najprej je to obisk svete maše. Naj ne bodo naše cerkve v teh dneh puste in mrzle - mrzle zato, ker ne bo ljudi, ki bi jih s svojo navzočnostjo ogreli. Drugi plamen na v adventnih večerih zopet vrne molitev med zidove naših hiš in stanovanj, v naše družine, med vse družinske člane.

Tretjo svečko prižgimo s svojimi dobrimi deli, za katere imamo nešteto priložnosti, le iznajdljivi moramo biti. Sveti Miklavž nas posebej spodbuja k pezornosti do bližnjih. Z dobroto in toplino lahko druge presemetimo in se pustimo presenetiti.

In četrta svečka naj zagoni, ko bomo opravili dobro spoved in tako položili pred Dete v jaslicah vso svojo revščino, ki jo bo Jezus spremenil v orodje našega zveličanja.

Torej: maša, molitev, dobra dela in spoved - štiri svečke, katerih plamen nikoli ne ugasne. Želim, da bi te svečke v teh dneh večkrat prižgali na adventnem vencu svojega življenja. Le po takšnem adventu bo namreč Gospod zares lahko prišel v naša srca.

Gradnja dvorane na Slovenski pristavi

CLEVELAND, O. – Kakor se je odbor Slovenske pristave odločil, smo takoj po "Kolinah" začeli podirati staro dvorano. Najeli smo velik žerjav in začeli razdirati od zgoraj navzdol; najprej streha, potem konstrukcijo strehe ("trusses"), zidove, nazadnje še cementni pod znotraj in zunaj dvorane.

Ko smo podirali streho, smo šele opazili, kako slaba je ta bila, kar zadnji čas pač, da se nekaj naredi. Ves material smo odstranili in tako pripravili zemljišče za novo gradnjo.

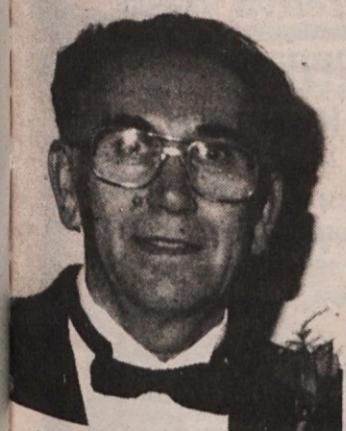

A je prvi sneg že zapadel in slabo je kazalo, da začnemo kopati za klet in temelje. No, pa nismo obupali. Najeli smo zasebnika, da nam je izkopal klet in jarke za temelje.

Vreme je bilo zelo neprjetno: dež, veter, ali naši zidarji in delavci tudi niso obupali. Jože Grčar je obljudil Tomažu Žnidaršiču, ki je prevzel in vodi projekt, da naj ne

In tako je bilo! Klet, ki meri 20 x 50 čevljev, je bila res dokončana. Frank Kogovšek in Stane Rus sta delala in inštalacijah (voda, plin, elektrika in sanitarije), temelji so bili zabetonirani. Ostalo zidanje je bilo dokončano v treh tednih.

Naši pristavski "udarniki" so dali vse od sebe in storili najboljše, najkvalitetnejše delo v kratkem času in vsi smo hvaležni za ves trud. Poleg že omenjenih delavcev so pomagali še tile člani:

zidarja Branko Pišorn in Lojze Debeljak, Jože Cerer, Ivan Župančič, Albert Frank, Tony Čampa, Jože Radišek, Marjan Ovsenik, Lojze Brumen, najmlajši član Matthew Rus (ki že vozi buldožer), in še več drugih članov, ki jih boste videli na slikah na Pristavski noči ali pa na website:

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1585. Misijonar jezuit p. Lovro Tomazin, ki deluje v Zambiji, se je oglasil Celestinovi in g. Krajniku ter pisal dolgo pismo o njegovi poti, polletnem sobotnem potovanju in vrnitvam na delovno mesto:

"Dragi mi! Moje potovanje je obsegalo v Argentini tri meseca, v Rimu en mesec in en mesec v Sloveniji. V Argentini sem bil med jezuiti Slovenci in Argentinci, v Rimu v Russicum, kjer sem se seznanil z jezuiti z vsega sveta, v Sloveniji pa tudi med našimi jezuiti in v domačem kraju, kjer so me zelo lepo sprejeli. V Sloveniji sem že dobil sporočilo, da bo moje delovno mesto v misijonu Kisisi.

Leta 1905 junija sta prišla dva misijonarja v severno Rodezijo, kar je sedaj Zambija, in ustanovila prvi misjon na jugu v Chikumi, nato je drug misijonar odšel proti severu 350 km daleč, se ustavil v Kisisi in tudi tu ustanovil misjon, kjer je zdaj nadškofija Lusaka. Tako so v avgustu praznovali v Chikumi in 29. oktobra v Kisisi.

Kasisi je bila velika župnija, iz nje so ustanovili tri nove župnije: Chisamba, Chomwe in Kasisi. Sam Kasisi ima 27 podružnic, nekatere z velikimi razdaljami.

Za pripravo na stoletno slovesnost je bil ustanoven poseben odbor. V av-ne in posvetne dostojsvenike, stole in klopi za ljudi.

Slovesnost je bila v soboto, 29. oktobra. Za v četrtek in petek so prihajali romarji iz daljnih krajev, za katere so kuhalni kar zunaj, prenočili so v bližnji šoli, v razredih so spali.

V soboto so zgodaj zjutraj pričeli prihajati bližnji romarji. Ob devetih se je pričela sv. maša in vse je bilo napolnjeno. Petje so vodili trije zbori, sodelovanje je bilo lepo. Po maši je bila še liturgična govoranca, ki je trajala štiri ure. Za tem je bila pogostitev. Dobili smo tri goveda in veliko zelenjave, da je bilo za vse dovolj, tudi za uboge Lazarje.

Ob petih popoldne se je v glavnem že razšlo in sledilo je pospravljanje, ki je trajalo tudi v nedeljo in v ponedeljek. Stoletna slovesnost je bila končana in s tem velika zahvala Bogu za vse v nebesih in na zemlji, ki so nam pripomogli k lepemu uspehu.

Ker je župnija Kasisi velika, je bilo sklenjeno, da se jo razdeli na dvoje in novi del sem dobil jaz. Moral bom poiskati novi prostor za cerkev in župnišče in oboje zgraditi. Ko bo zgrajeno bo vse oddano škofiji v Lusaki.

Za vso pomoč, tako v molitvi, kot tudi v darovih, prav iskrena zahvala MZA, saj se vsak dan pri sv. maši spominjam vseh dobrotnikov, ki mi pomagate pri mojem misijonskem delu. Vse prav lepo pozdravljam.

P. Lovro Tomažin"

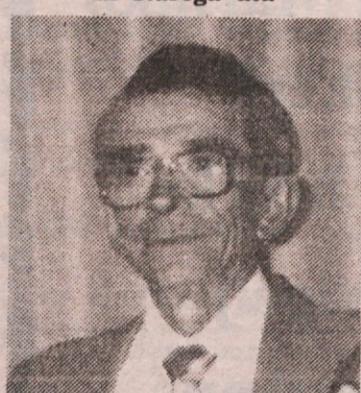

Pismi sta bili pisani zelo zgoščeno in sem objavila precej skrajšano, a vse važno je podano. Zopet bo pater potreboval pomoč, tako gmotno kot duhovno, da bo sprejet delo lahko dokončal. Daj mu Nebeški Oče zdravja, da bo delo dobro izpeljal.

V imenu vseh sodelavcev vam vsem bralcem teh vrstic želimo obilo veselja v teh božičnih dneh. Naj Novorojeno De te vse blagoslovi, da bo ste z veseljem sodelovali pri misijonskem delu tu di v Novem letu 2006. In prav lep misijonski pozdrav!
