Letošnja konvencija Narodnega bratskega kongresa

PIŠE ANTON ZBAŠNIK, GLAVNI TAJNIK

Letošnja ali 22. redna konvencija Narodnega bratskega kongresa se je vršila od 26. pa do 29. avgusta v Pittsburghu, Pa. Po zatrdilu nekaterih pionirjev je bila to največja in najbolj aktivna konvencija v zgodovini bratskega kongresa. Navzočih je bilo 329 delegatov in delegatkin iz raznih krajev Združenih držav in Canade.

Na programu, katerega je bil priredil predsednik kongresa, sodnik John C. Karel (Čeh), je bilo manj referatov kot običajno, in sicer zato, da je imela delegacija več časa razpravljati o stvareh, ki so prišle pred kongres.

Sodnik Karel, kot predsednik konvencije, je bil v vsakem oziru kos svoji nalogi in nekateri starejši delegatje so izjavili, da ni imel kongres še nikdar v svoji zgodovini takega voditelja kot je sodnik Karel. Mož je ekspert v parlamentarnem pravu in veščak v fraternalističnih stvareh.

Prvi dan je konvencija zborovala v sekcijah, to je, da so imeli svoje separatne seje predsedniki, tajniki, zdravniki, aktuariji, pravni svetovalci in uredniki glasil raznih podpornih organizacij, ki so vključene v Narodnem bratskem kongresu. Pisec teh vrstic se je udeležil konference tajniške sekcije, kjer se je po večini razpravljalo o izboljšanju upravnega sistema in knjigovodstva. Ker se je konvencija vršila v Pittsburghu, kjer se nahaja urad našega vrhovnega zdravnika, se je konference zdravnikov in zborovanje kongresa udeležil tudi dr. Arch.

Prvo sejo konvencije je otvoril sodnik Karel 27. avgusta ob 10. uri dopoldne. Med zastopniki, ki so pozdravili delegacijo, je bil tudi pittsburski župan, William C. McNair. Njemu je sledil Caimile Manseau, predsednik canadskega bratskega kongresa in za njim je nastopil zavarovalniški komisar države Pennsylvanija, Owen B. Hunt, ki je obenem zastopal governorja Earla iz Harrisburga.

Silno zanimiv je bil govor komisarja Hunta in dvomim, da je kateri izmed govornikov ali referentov na konvenciji žel večjo pozornost in večji aplavz kot ga je bil deležen komisar Hunt. To zaslužno priznanje je dala konvencija komisarju Huntu zato, ker je bil baš on v največji meri odgovoren, da je bil pri letošnji zasedanju pennsylvanske legislature sprejet nov zavarovalniški zakonik, ki je pravi model za bratske podporne organizacije in katerega se bo skušalo uveljaviti tudi po ostalih državah naše velike Unije. V svojem govoru je komisar čestital bratskim podpornim organizacijam na njih plemenitem delu in je obenem izrazil željo, da bi se skušalo pravila vseh podpornih organizacij nekoliko bolj izenačiti in da bi se izenačilo ali unificiralo tudi pogoje naših članskih certifikatov. Komisar Hunt se je dotaknil tudi nekaterih važnih vladnih problemov, poudarjal je potrebo večjega zanimanja za razne vladne zadeve in ob sklepu je še dodal zagotovilo, da bo pennsylvanski zavarovalniški departament tudi v bodoče vedno rad sodeloval z bratskimi podpornimi organizacijami.

Delegacijo je za tem pozdravil pennsylvanski zvezni senator James J. Davis, ki je obenem generalni direktor velike podporne organizacije "Loyal Order of Moose," h kateri spada tudi veliko naših rojakov. Senator Davis je star in izkušen fraternalist in v njegovem skoro eno uro trajajočem govoru nam je povedal marsikaj zanimivega in koristnega. Rekel je, da trdno veruje v fraternalizem in bodočnost istega in da je bil vedno pristaš organiziranja in ko-operacije.

Konvencijo je prišel pozdravit tudi zastopnik zveze ameriških zavarovalniških družb, Col. Charles B. Robbins iz Philadelphije, ki je izrazil mnenje, da bo skoro prišel čas, ko bodo zavarovalne družbe in podporne organizacije prisiljene skupno nastopiti, da zavarujejo njihove pravice in koristi.

Na vse pozdrave je odgovoril na prav mojstrski način dosedanji podpredsednik in novoizvoljeni predsednik kongresa Peter P. Gilroy iz Denverja, Colo.

Pri popoldanski seji so bili imenovani razni odseki konvencije in na to je Norton J. Williams, podpredsednik Equitable Reserve Association imel zanimivo predavanje o "Life Insurance and Inflation." Zanimivo je bilo poslušati tudi zastopnika od vladne Federal Housing administracije, ki je predaval o "Insured Mortgages as Investments" in priporočal investiranje našega prebika v enake "mortgagee."

Temu je sledilo čitanje poročila kongresovega tajnika, kjer je obenem rečeno, da je tekom leta pristopilo h kongresu pet novih podpornih organizacij, odstopila pa ni nobena.

Sodnik Karel, kot predsednik kongresa, svojega poročila ni čital, ker ga je smatral preveč obširnem, vključen pa je v konvencijem zapisniku. Med svoja priporočila je sodnik Karel vključil tudi sledeče: 1.—da bi vsak član eksekutivnega odbora načeloval enemu izmed kongresovih posebnih komitejev; 2.—da bi se določilo enega izmed članov eksekutive, ki bi imel nadzorstvo nad državnimi fraternalističnimi kongresi in take kongrese organiziral, kjer isti še ne obstoje; 3.—da bi vsak državni kongres imel svoj poseben legislativni odbor, kateremu naj bi se določilo definitivni program; 4.—da se dovoli predsedniku kongresa 500 dolarjev v svrhu kritja njegovih stroškov. Vsa predsednikova priporočila so bila sprejeta in odobrena.

V sredo dopoldne je poročal John S. Tolverson, dosedanji vodja oddelka za informacijo o bondih in investicijah. Tolverson je priporočal, da bi se ta služba v bodoče vodila iz glavnega urada kongresa, kar je bilo pozneje sprejeto.

Na konvenciji je bilo zopet opaziti nervoznost vsled strahu pred morebitnim obdavčenjem bratskih podpornih organizacij. Temu vprašanju se je dalo veliko pozornosti in baš to je bil vzrok, da se je reorganiziralo glavni urad kongresa. Gotovi predstavniki na kongresu so strogo obsojali dosedanji sistem v glavnem uradu in slišalo se je očitke, da je baš glavni urad kriv, da so bili v državah Oklahoma in Arkansas sprejeti zakoni, ki so podpornim organizacijam naravnost škodljivi. (Naj bo na tem mestu povedano, da je bil nominalni načelnik glavnega urada do sedaj tajnik-blagajnik kongresa, ki pa je bil istočasno predsednik neke velike podporne organizacije, aktivna ali eksekutivna tajnica v glavnem uradu je pa bila neka ženska.) Govorniki so trdili, da se glavni urad kongresa ni dovolj brigal, kaj se pripravljalo v raznih postavodajah in da bi se bilo sprejem dotičnih zakonov v državah Oklahoma in Arkansas lahko preprečilo, če bi bile organizacije, ki so vključene v kongresu, o nameri pravčasno obveščene. Ta neaktivnost in brezbriznost v glavnem uradu kongresa je bila povod predložitvi resolucije, glasom katere naj bi v bodoče upravljal glavni urad takozvani "manager," ki naj bi bil v vseh stvareh kompetenten in kvalificiran in ki naj bi ves svoj čas posvetil izključno interesom Narodnega bratskega kongresa. Debatna o tej resoluciji je trajala zelo dolgo in nekateri zagovorniki starega sistema, med njimi dosedanji tajnik-blagajnik kongresa, so zahtevali, da se jo referira odboru za resolucije, (kjer so jo upali zakopati), toda ta maneuver sta jim preprečila sodnik Karel, predsednik kongresa in konvencije, in predsednik odbora za resolucije, ki je izjavil, da je resolucija preveč važna, da bi njegov odbor sam razpravljal o njej, in da jo naj vsled tega vzame konvencija sama v pretres kot odbor celote. Predlog, da se konvencija rezolvira v odbor celote je bil na to sprejet in po skoro tri ure trajajoči debati je bila sprejeta tudi resolucija. To je bil najvažnejši sklep konvencije in pričakuje se, da bodo imele organizacije, ki spadajo h kongresu, veliko koristi od njega. Novi manager bo moral s pomočjo svojega štaba skrbno zasledovati, kaj se namerava predložiti legislaturnam raznim državam ali zveznemu kongresu in če bo opazil kaj škodljivega, bo moral to takoj sporočiti vsem organizacijam, ki spadajo h Narodnemu bratskem kongresu. Obenem bo moral tudi kolektirati podatke o raznih krajih, ki so defilirali v plačilu obveznic ali obrestih in nabrane informacije staviti organizacijam na razpolago.

Na konvenciji se je skušalo narediti še nekaj drugih sprememb v ustavi in pravih kongresa, pa se je stvar na podlagi kompromisa izročilo posebnemu odboru v pretres, ki naj poda svoje poročilo in priporočila prihodnji konvenciji.

Na konvenciji je bilo tudi več ali manj govora o naših sedanjih tabelah, National Fraternal Congress Table in American Experience Table, na katerih temeljijo assessmenti za smrtnino. Večina organizacij ima tabele, ki predvidevajo investiranje smrtninskega sklada na 4% obresti, česar pa ne bo več mogoče storiti, ker prvovrstni bondi že danes ne donosajo več kot 3%. Nekateri navzoči aktuariji so priporočali adopcijo 3-odstočne tabele, ki bi sicer dovolila nižjo rezervno vrednost certifikatov, a bi ne bilo treba zvišati assessmentov. (Pri nas zaenkrat tega še ne bo treba, ker naše povprečne obresti znašajo okrog 5%, prišel pa bo čas, ko se bomo morali resno ukvarjati tudi s tem vprašanjem.)

Na konvenciji smo imeli tudi slovanski blok, toda v eksekutivno smo izvolili samo eno članico, naš drugi kandidat pa je pogorel, ker nam je neki zdravnik (Slovani) prekrizal račune, ko je po lastni iniciativi (?) kandidiral proti svojemu kolegi.

Imeli smo tudi običajni banket, za katerega je vsak delegat plačal dva dolarja iz svojega žepa, toda banket ni napravil na mene nobenega povoljnega utisa, ker je bilo opaziti preveč formalnosti in razkošja. Moški so bili sicer O.K. (opazil nisem nobenih visokih cilindrov ali frakov), toda nekatere ženske so bile bolj podobne ženam bančnih predsednikov in magnatov, kot ženskam preprostih delavcev. Na konvenciji smo se obnašali kot siromaki, na banketu pa kot aristokrati. Pa naj mi naše dobre ženske ne zamerijo na tem.

Oni dan sem slišal na cestnem vogalu potujočega evangelista, ki je pridigoval, da je pot v nebesa strma in da so ljudje pripravljeni mnogo več žrtvovati za posvetne prijetnosti in zabave, kakor pa za za služenje na onem svetu. Nekaj ima mož prav, sem pokimal, ko sem se domislil strme poti k pikniku na Church Hillu v Pennsylvaniji.

Vsak se je lahko že prepričal, da ima lep na ameriških poštah znamenjak sladke okus. Temu je vzrok dejstvo, da je lep po večini sestavljen iz sladkorja. Vsebuje namreč en del a-brabskega gumija, en del škroba, štiri dele sladkorja in primerno količino vode.

V Washington, D. C., je pretekli teden dospel g. Konstantin Fotić, novi poslanik Jugoslavije v Zedinjenih državah.

Samostojni pevski zbor "Zarja" v Clevelandu, O., bo v nedeljo 3. novembra pripravil izredno lepo opero "Marta." Zbor "Zarja" nam je tekom zadnjih let dal že lepo število krasnih koncertnih in opernih prireditvev, toda izmed vseh je bila nedvomno najlepša opera "Marta," ki je bila vprizorjena pred par leti in bo ponovljena letos 3. novembra. Živahna in vesela opera se odlikuje z melodičnim petjem in krasnimi kostumi. Pevski zbor "Zarja" je nedvomno najmočnejši slovenski pevski zbor v Ameriki, saj šteje okrog 80 pevcev in pevk, med katerimi je nekako polovica tu rojenih fantov in deklet. Ta zbor ima fine pevske moči, ki se za vsako prireditev vežbajo mesece in mesece, zato so njegove prireditve take, da so bile deležne laskave ocene že od ameriških glasbenih kritikov.

Mnogi rojaki v manjših slovenskih naselbinah te dežele, kjer ni prilik za tako dovršeno slovensko pevsko umetnost, bi se gotovo šteli za srečne, če bi se mogli udeležiti prireditve, kakršne od časa do časa podaja "Zarja." Posamezni ljubitelji slovenske pevske umetnosti pridejo od daleč na vsako prireditev "Zarje," naselbine v primeru bližini Clevelanda pa so navadno vedno dobro zastopane. Clevelandčani, ki ljubijo slovensko pevsko umetnost, gotovo ne bodo zamudili "Marte" v nedeljo 3. novembra. Le v srcu Slovenije, v beli Ljubljani, bi mogli slišati kaj tako dobrega ali boljšega.

Prireditve se bo vršila v avditoriju Slovenskega Narodnega Doma na St. Clair Ave. in se bo pričela ob treh popoldne. Nedelja, 3. novembra, bo spet praznik slovenske pesmi v srcu ameriške Slovenije, v Clevelandu. In najlepše, kar imamo Slovenci v Ameriki, je nedvomno naša pesem!

sreč izhaja iz zastrupljenja krvi. Mala rana ali praska, za katero se morda prizadeta oseba ne zmeni, omogoči zastrupljenje krvi in, ko pride pomoč, je večkrat že prepozno. Nekatere ubije električni tok, nekatere se utopijo v kopalnih banjah. V več slučajih je oče povozil lastnega otroka, ko je karo ritensko vozil iz garaže. Nadalje ne nesreče v domovih povzročijo eksplozije, strelno orožje itd.

Veliko število smrtnih nesreč na domovih v mestu Clevelandu, pa ne predstavlja kakšne izjeme v primeru z drugimi kraji. Mr. Green navaja v svojem poročilu, da se je lansko leto v državi New York pripetilo 4.787 nesreč s smrtnim izidom, in od teh jih odpade 34 procentov na nesreče v domovih, 38 procentov pa na avtomobilske nesreče. To dokazuje, da je prometna cesta le za spoznanje bolj nevarna, kakor dom, kjer mislimo, da smo najbolj varni. Število nesreč more zmanjšati le večja previdnost, bodisi na cesti ali doma.

AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

CURRENT THOUGHT In Arrear

Time and again secretaries of various SSCU lodges appeal to the members, through the official organ, to pay their assessments on time, pointing out that the monthly report to the home office must be fully made out by the 25th day of each month.

Time and again the secretaries remind delinquent members that their obligations are met temporarily by the local lodge treasury, such money to be reimbursed by the members who are in arrears with their assessments.

Section 500 of our by-laws stipulates that "every member who fails to pay his assessments by the 25th day of the month, or who fails to pay his fines within the fixed period, may be suspended from the SSCU."

Yet every month the local secretary is confronted with the task of deciding whether to "carry a certain number," since most of these members do not willfully intend to get behind in their assessments, it being an oversight on their part.

We have others who promise to pay within a few days, or a week or two, but who, for some inexplicable reason, get into the habit of forgetting the whole matter until they are two, three and several months in arrears.

"I am sorry I did not pay my dues," is the usual story, "but I will see you next week sure and straighten out the whole matter."

Comes next week, and all that the secretary has from this member is still only a promise, which, unfortunately, as a negotiable instrument is of no value.

In the meantime the lodge treasury dwindles down to a low figure, and then it is a case of either pay up or be suspended. There arises an ill-feeling between the delinquents and the secretaries, who are being made the target of unfair criticism, as they are merely fulfilling their line of duty.

There have been extreme cases where the lodge secretary accepted the promise to pay for a period of several months, after which the member conveniently decided to withdraw and let the lodge "take the rap."

However, should the delinquent member become ill, and provided he carries sick benefit, he gets in touch with the secretary at once to report his condition of health.

No time is lost to meet all past obligations to the lodge which was kind enough to tide him over when he could not meet his assessments.

Unfortunately, there have been instances where a member became ill during the period of suspension, and according to Section 505 of our by-laws "no officer or member of any subordinate lodge is authorized to accept any moneys from suspended members if it is suspected that such suspended members within the period of suspension became ill or sustained bodily injuries."

This particular member may have been in good standing for several years, and it is a pity that he is not eligible to receive benefits when he really needs financial assistance.

Fortunately, the greater majority of members meet their monthly assessments on time either at the lodge meeting hall or at the home of the secretary.

An outsider who would chance to read the foregoing paragraphs might come to the conclusion that most of the members permit their obligations to lapse. Such is not the case, as most of our members are prompt with their payments.

If we have but 10 per cent of members in a lodge who are habitually forgetful, the local is bound to suffer a financial loss at the end of the year as experience will show that a certain per cent of dues in arrears are never collected.

All of which means that the burden of the loss is shouldered by the diligent members who have the lodge and the organization at heart. It is they who are penalized and made to pay the other fellow's obligations, for outside of the lodge activities that yield an income, the regular monthly lodge dues must be used for this purpose. The monthly dues vary 15 and 20 cents a month for each member, and the purpose of this income is to meet the officers' salaries, hall rental, and incidental expenses necessary to maintain the lodge.

On some occasions the lodge has "carried a member" for a period of a year and even two. The unfortunate member extended his predicament to the lodge, which, always ready to lend a helping hand within reasonable limits, extended a loan to cover his assessments. During the course of the following year the member would pay a part on his old debt and the balance to meet the current assessments.

In such cases the member affected invariably reports once a month either at the meeting hall or at the home of the secretary to meet his current and past obligations.

The economic depression has been the chief factor in forcing many of our members to become in arrears with assessments. However, since things in general appear to be taking a turn for the better we can reasonably expect to have such delinquencies met in full in the near future.

Cupid Scores a Perfect Hit

Springdale, Pa. — Saturday morning, Oct. 19, a beautiful and heart touching wedding was performed, uniting in marriage Miss Donnie Kern and Frank J. Progar.

The bride wore a lovely white satin colonial touch dress with an El Dolores hat style veil, trimmed in lace and wrist-length, lace edge gloves. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of lilies of the valley and johanna hill roses.

Miss Emma Zuzek as maid of honor and Mrs. Anthony Progar as matron of honor appeared in ocean blue, seamed faced transparent velvet with silver imprinted lace sheen dresses. Silver crowns and slippers completed their ensemble. Their flowers were arm bouquet of briarcliff roses.

The bridesmaids, Miss Mary Oset and Miss Rose Marie Ritcher, wore deep wine-colored dresses of seamed faced transparent velvet with silver imprinted lace sheen. Silver slippers and ruby studded silver crowns completed their outfits. Their flowers were arm bouquets of talisman roses.

Stan Progar was his brother's best man and Anthony Progar, Frank (Beef) Progar and John Bevec, as ushers, completed the bridal party. The men were all attired in tuxedos.

Ernest Rahorn led the procession attired in a Prince Albert tuxedo, carrying the rings on a white satin pillow. He was followed by two lovely flower girls wearing taffeta dresses with silver slippers and crowns. "Boots" Graham wore a pink dress and carried a basket of pink talisman roses, while Betty Ann wore a blue dress and carried a basket of pink talisman roses.

Following the ceremony, dinner was served at the Krivan Hall. Here the day was spent in merriment as many friends and relatives celebrated to the lucky pair till the wee hours of the night.

The newlyweds are now at home to their many friends in Acmetonia, Pa. Good luck to them!

Living Images

This brings up the repeal fable of two men who were hanging pretty heavily on one of the local bars. Soon they fell into conversation, and one introduced himself; said his name was Blank.

"That's funny," said the other. "My name's Blank, too. Where do you live?"

"West 51st Street."

"That's amazing! So do I. What apartment?"

"Fourteen-B?" Why, listen—I live in that apartment!"

The two weaved out of the place arm in arm. Another customer asked the bartender who they were.

"Twin brothers," said the bartender.

New Version

Dinner was being served in a London boarding house in which an American was lodged. The proprietress, bringing in a dish of soup for the American, remarked, "It looks like rain."
"Yes, it does," replied the American, "but it smells a little like soup."

BRIEFS

New enrollments in our SSCU totaled 104 new members during the month of September. According to the report obtained from the home office, 73 were admitted into the adult division and 31 in the juvenile department. Of interest to our members may be the fact that 60 lodges were active in September, each of which secured at least one new member. The encouraging factor is the number of local branches that took an active part last month, which indicates a renewed interest among our members to see the SSCU grow with the passing of each month.

John Kumse, chairman of supreme trustees, SSCU, represented our Union at the SDZ 25th anniversary held at the Slovene National Home of Cleveland Sunday, Oct. 27. Other organizations represented were the CFU, KSKJ, SNPJ, SSPZ and ZSZ. Mary Jerman was chosen as the SDZ jubilee queen.

Pathfinders and St. Joseph lodges, No. 222 and 89, SSCU, respectively, of Gowanda, N. Y., will hold their autumn dance next Saturday evening, Nov. 2, in the Slovene National Home. Members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Singing Society Zarja of Cleveland will stage the opera, "Martha," Sunday, Nov. 3, in the Slovene National Home with a cast of 80, half of whom are American-born Slovenes. As a singing club, Zarja enjoys the reputation of being the best of its kind among the Slovenes in the United States. Critics of local dailies have heaped words of praise on the society's past performances, devoting columns in the Cleveland Press, Cleveland Plain Dealer and the Cleveland News. The opera will commence at 3 p. m. next Sunday.

Western Sisters Lodge, No. 190, SSCU, of Butte, Mont., will hold a minstrel show, Slovene play and dance next Sunday, Nov. 3, in the Narodni Dom, 300 Cherry St. Elaborate preparations have been made to entertain guests in attendance. Program will begin at 8 p. m.

Slovene National Benefit Society (SNPJ) will hold its first conference of English-conducted lodges Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 2 and 3, in Chicago. The conference will discuss fraternal problems and ways and means of better promotion in the organization.

Nick Deanovich, a Serbian, is the outstanding lineman on the Wisconsin University football squad. This year makes it his third on the varsity.

Several Cleveland Slovene candidates will run for city councilmen at the elections to be held next Tuesday, Nov. 5. William Kennick and John Novak are candidates in the 23d Ward, George Travnikar in the 2d Ward, Edward Pucel in the 10th Ward and Anton Vehovec in the 32d Ward. Kennick and Vehovec are running for reelection, as is Emil Crown, a Croat, in the 31st Ward.

Pathfinders-St. Joseph Dance Nov. 2

Gowanda, N. Y.—A great deal has been written in the Nova Doba reminding you of the Pathfinder-St. Joseph fall dance which takes place this coming Saturday night. Hence, I will not go into any detail concerning this dance.

My main object in writing this is to invite all our Buffalo and Cleveland friends. We are sure that your presence will result in a good time for all.

All those who desire tickets at the low rate of 25 cents may secure them from Martin Matkovich of St. Joseph's Lodge, or from the writer of this article. Tickets are being disposed of at a nice rate and we are looking forward to a record crowd, judging by the way Jennie Anderson and Martin Matkovich lead in the ticket selling contest.

Don't forget to be present at the Slovene Hall this Saturday night, Nov. 2, and be sure to bring along your friends.

Be a Good Mother

Editorial Note: This is the 10th and last of a series of articles prepared by the Cleveland Child Health Association.

Babies are partnership affairs, a fact which some prospective fathers may overlook. The mother, of course, receives the greatest amount of attention. Everything is planned for her comfort.

There seems to be no way the father can fit into the picture. He feels helpless and ill at ease at a time when he should be most helpful and sure of himself.

The prospective father can help much to keep the mother in good mental and physical condition. She needs someone near her upon whom she can depend, someone to talk with and make plans for her baby's future. Naturally, she will turn to the baby's father.

The prospective father should put his wife under the care of a competent doctor and should encourage regular follow-up examinations. He must help her secure proper rest and recreation and aid her in following the doctor's advice.

In the months before the birth of her child, the mother is under great emotional strain. Her health and physical condition is likely to be affected, and consequently the health of her baby. The father must be cheerful, kind and considerate of her feelings.

He must strive to keep her from worrying. At no time should he do things which he knows she does not like. During these months the mother is likely to be irritable and impatient. The father must do all he can to see that every reasonable request is complied with. He should avoid argument.

The father should study the suggestions made to the mother by the doctor. He should consult the doctor himself about his own health and that of his wife. He should follow to the letter the advice he receives.

The father should arrange for hospital and nursing care. He should either undertake to do some of the housework him-

Cleveland SSCU Bowling League News

Cleveland, O.—Feminine bowlers in the local SSCU bowling league appear to have a merry time kegling for individual top honors. Last Sunday Augusta Guzik wrested the lead from Mary Perdan by rolling 183 for a single game, thus displacing the latter into second place with Leona Kolman enjoying undisputedly third position with a game of 153.

The boys are having anything but a dull time in their fight for top honors in the team divisions. National Stars took two games from the first place Pathfinders, and the result is a tie for top place between the two teams. Happy-Go-Lucky made it two at the expense of the Arrowheads as did Center Ramblers from Pittsburghers, and Indians from Cardinals.

Next Sunday will complete the first round of the current season's bowling. Schedule of games is as follows: National Stars vs. Pittsburghers on alleys 5 and 6; Cardinals vs. Center Ramblers on alleys 7 and 8; Happy-Go-Lucky vs. Pathfinders on alleys 9 and 10; Arrowheads vs. Indians on alleys 11 and 12.

Team standings to date appear below. Schedule, percentages, and standings are prepared weekly by Frank Jaklich, league secretary, for publication in the Nova Doba.

G. W.'s to Play First Basketball Game Nov. 6 at Bathhouse Gym

Members Urged to Be Present at Meetings

Cleveland, O.—Every Saturday afternoon, between 4 and 5 p. m., the George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU basketball team will be found busily going through practice paces at the St. Clair Bathhouse gymnasium floor. — Wednesday, Nov. 6th, the team will play its first game in the Interlodge League which officially opens its season that evening. The game is scheduled to start at 7:45 p. m. with Clairwoods as the opposing team. Bukovnik's studios are co-backers of the team, which is going under the name of GW, SSCU-Bukovnik's studios.

Roster of the basketball aggregation consists of the following:

Louis Skoda, Eddie Zalelal, Eddie Zgone, Sam Richter, Al Fleisman, Tony Zakrajsek, Anton and Al. Golobic and Frank Cimperman. Temporary co-captains are Sam Richter and Eddie Zgone. J. "Bub" Kardell, lodge vice president, is the business manager.

A number of member-and-friend-rooters are expected to be on hand next Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, at the St. Clair Bathhouse, to boost and cheer the team in the first game of the season.

The lodge will hold its regular monthly meeting Friday, Nov. 8, in Room No. 2 of the new Slovene National Home building. All members are urgently requested to be present at this meeting as a number of important items will come up for discussion and passage.

A social scheduled to follow the December annual meeting is being planned by the lodge, and will be held in the spacious lower hall of the Slovene National Home. Admission to the social shall be ten cents.

On February 15, 1936, the G. W.'s will hold a dance in the upper hall of the S. N. Home. Hence, with the ambitious plan undertaken by the lodge it is imperative that all members attend the coming monthly meetings as co-operation of each individual member will be highly conducive towards making both the social and the dance, together with other activities, a grand success.

Constant and sympathetic attention of the father will do much more than is generally realized to maintain the mental and bodily health of his wife.

Ramblers' Feather Dance

Center, Pa.—Hello, folks! The Center Ramblers Lodge, No. 221, SSCU, at its last regular meeting carried a motion to hold a dance on Nov. 23 at the Center Slovene Hall.

A committee of three members was appointed by the president. They are Joseph Sober, John Harvat and Frank Previc. We will do our very best to try and make this dance a huge and gala affair. We are inviting all the other members of SSCU lodges to our dance, and so we ask them to please keep that day open for our dance. We want everyone to come and take part in this evening of frolic with the Ramblers from Center, Pa.

What do you say, Claridge, Pittsburgh, Export, Cheswick, and all other lodges in the neighborhood. Remember that winter will soon be here, so just meet once more at Center, Pa., before the year of 1935 runs out on us. Come and see your old friends and get acquainted with new friends. Bring your father, mother, sweetheart and the rest of the family.

Now the question is what is a feather dance? I would like to tell you what it is all about, but I hardly know what it is myself. Some say that you dance on feathers. If that is a fact, then we have no fear of hurting ourselves if we happen to fall on the dance floor. I don't know, so why not come to the feather dance and feather your nest with the Center Ramblers?

An orchestra has been secured that will be pleasing to the older folks and the younger set. I am sure you will hear more from the other committees and they may have more to tell you.

Frank Previc.

Gossipin'

With Little Stan

Ely, Minn.—Newspaper office? Yeah! The clatter of the Ely Shopper press died away, and the last edition is in the streets, as Little Stan settles down to a quiet session before banging the typewriter in a nice, soft easy chair to write a column of weekly chatter to the Nova Doba. A couple of young fellows, in the Shopper circulation department, just finished scanning some "deep" words in a dictionary, looking up every now and then, giggling to themselves. Heh, heh. Interesting; it seemed that they were trying to learn some of the deep secrets of life. Tsk! Young and willing, yeah!

Yes, folks, your Little Stanley feels like gossiping today, so just put on your readin' glasses and take everything in. A fellow operating a lunch shoppe in town has just introduced a new sandwich. Addis Ababecue. Delicious, they tell me. Came back from Tower last Monday and Tony Stefanich (remember him, juveniles?), the fellow who was the guide on the lake trip over Lake Vermilion during the convention. Well, Tony starts to razz Little Stan a bit, saying: "Yea, you write all about yourself, why not give the Tower-Soudan lodge a break?" Well, Little Stan blushed in bashful beauty and thought he would make things right. You remember when the Tower-Soudan lodge first heard tell of many juveniles who would spend a day at the pioneer lake city they didn't leave anything unturned in trying to show the juveniles that they, too, were alive. Joe Gornik and the whole gang got together and appointed Tony Stefanich official guide. And you folks remember his lively instructive chatter, don't you? Little Stan tosses orchids to the Tower lodge!

And, folks, surprise! Last Tuesday Little Stan received a package all the way from Springdale, Pa., from a correspondent and bridegroom. I mean groom. Yes, dear people, Little Stanley received that "ceegar" all dressed up in a cylindrical package. Clever, and original. Congratulations, Frankie Progar! Oodles and oodles of them! The cigar was tasty, mellow and sweet. The aroma will remain with your Little Stanley forever.

Ah, the strains of music from a delightful Negro band coming from that powerful Cincinnati station. When that big dark fellow draws in a voice as deep as last year's bass fiddle, "Den, Dats Good!" Heh, heh! That music inspires Little Stanley to kinda type in musical rhythm. In other words, music hath charm!

Launching on a tremendous campaign the first time undertaken by any local lodge group, the Arrowheads, under the plugging of Louis Kompare and a hard working committee, and the Gophers, who have yet, at this writing, to get together, are intent upon making that dance which is to come off within a few weeks successful. Those gals will start selling tickets in an effort to win the prize of making a trip with all expenses paid to see the big, husky Minnesota Gophers sweep onward toward another championship. Little Stan will keep you informed on how the preparations are going and will announce the prize winners as soon as they are named.

You know, these Gophers are certainly getting a wee bit lost! . . . is that the word? I wonder. Perhaps Little Stan should say passing into a new whirlpool of life. Marriage? Yes, Dan Cupid struck some of the best Gopher pluggers. Chick Knapp, Tony Klun, Joe Mestick, and loads of others. Pauline Mrack, although not married yet, is in Cleveland. Notice the "yet"? Yosh Mikolich and Angels Glavan are in the CCC camps, and yet that means the fall round-up will not be so successful. Those back at the helm are trying to stimulate lively interest. New basketball uniforms are to be purchased. The joint Arrowhead-Gopher dance is being brought about. Maybe this will kinda bring us to . . . who knows?

Mr. and Mrs. Gradisher and sons, Tony Obluck and Joey Gradisher, visited at the Banks and Zgonc homes last week. Yep, they're Betty Boop folks, too, but Betty Boop couldn't come up at this time. But they tell Little Stanley that Christmas is just around the corner. Little Stan and Rudy Krall drank a toast the other night. One meant for Cleveland and the other for Milwaukee, which ended up in the smart remark, "Den Dat's Good!"

Friday evening. Here it is tomorrow, Little Stan will be on his way to Virginia to get on with another newspaper conference, and see Gilbert and Ely high schools tangle in a football battle royal. Little Stan expects to meet George Kobe, whose picture appeared in the papers a number of times recently. Reason: he was best man. And Johnny Velacich, John Dreshar, who is on the Gilbert School Board, and a number of other Gil-Minn Lodge members. Will tell you how everything turned out.

And now before closing, Little Stan will write a little note to juveniles:

Deah, deah Juveniles! X X X! (Wonder what the X's are for?)

This is your Little Stanley speaking. (Good thing this isn't a radio, I may be turned off!) What are you doing with yourselves? Say (wipe, wipe), why don't you write a fellow sometime? Little Stan is busy with the news, yes, but aside from that he misses the laughter and fun seen and heard and even felt at the last juvenile convention. Juvenile issue is to reappear soon. Why don't you all sit down and drop a little line of chatter to the Nova Doba? Notice the drawl? Heh! You'd better, or else you

YUGOSLAVS AND YUGOSLAVIA

By Richard J. Zavertnik

The population by profession and trade is divided as follows: Agriculture 76 per cent, industry and trade 9.4, commerce 3.2, public service 3.5, pensioners and private individuals 2, traffic 2.5, day laborer 1.5, army 0.3, others 1.5 per cent. Yugoslavia is wealthy in minerals of all kinds—iron, copper, manganese, lead and coal. One-third of its area is covered with forests and ranks seventh among the European countries in regard to forest products. A certain per cent of the income from the forest industry is set aside and used for replanting new trees.

Land Reforms

Under the Austro-Hungarian rule, the land was mostly owned by large land holders. Yugoslavia seized the land from its former owners and divided it up among the people. The former owners receive a yearly cash payment of rent through the government until the final liquidation of the Act of the Agrarian Reform is settled. Families up to 10 members received 5 hectares per head. The total surface divided amounts to 1,356,253 hectares, in which 369,156 families were given a share in this land.

Education

Schools in Yugoslavia are divided into general and schools for professional education. The former are under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Public Education, the second are under that of the Ministries of Commerce, Industry and Agriculture. One thousand and sixty elementary schools existed in year 1929 and enrolled were 893,972 pupils; 356 infant schools then existed with 28,515 pupils; 15 art schools for music, painting, sculpture, etc., then existed with 176 professors and with 2,643 pupils; 14 theological schools then existed with 151 teachers and 1,478 pupils. There are three Universities in Yugoslavia, located at Belgrade, Zagreb and Ljubljana, with branches in Subotica and Skopje, then having 556 professors and 14,525 students.

There were nearly 2,000 people's libraries in Yugoslavia in year 1929 distributed throughout the country so that the people can enjoy the wealth that they contain. Over 100,000 pamphlets have been distributed free of cost by the libraries to increase the store of knowledge in the humble Yugoslav.

Slavic Script

There were four distinct type of Slavic script that have been used by the Slavic people. The oldest form of writing was the Glagolica. The Cyrillic, which was introduced among the Serbs in the ninth century by Monk Cyril, is still used today in Yugoslavia. Then you have the Latin script which was used by the Slovenes, Croats, Czechs, Poles. It also is used today in Yugoslavia. Then there is the Russian script, which is used in might break Little Stanley itsy bitsy heart.

P. S. Little Stan notes that most of you are more than juveniles now. Young ladies and gents, and that's where a lively chatter and razzing should formulate (whatta word, whatta word, formulate, Tsk!). Well, Little Stan will be awaiting for the good old razzle dazzle. And now before he does get "that" way . . . he is just tweeting nighty night to the daisies. What, they're all gone! Good night, peoples!

Stan Pechaver,
No. 2, SSCU.

Russia. These factors have also contributed to the disunion among the Yugoslavs and among the Slavs.

Other Facts

Yugoslavia is an ideal country from climatic viewpoint. Along the Adriatic Sea, the climatic conditions are just like in Florida or California. You find the palm tree, the orange, the olive, the lemon. In fact, it is a vacation land and a wonderful winter resort. A few hundred miles inland you have the Slovene Alps, with their wonderful scenery and Lake Bled, an ideal land in every sense of the word. The country is rich in minerals, but undeveloped. Although, according to records, in Yugoslavia there are huge coal deposits amounting to more than 5,000,000,000 tons, Yugoslavia today still imports coal.

You can travel anywhere in Yugoslavia and speak the English language. It is my understanding that English is a secondary language and is taught in all the high schools and universities. South Slav Herald is published in the English language at Belgrade.

Zadruga

The Slavic institution—the Zadruga—that the family is the economic unit still exists in many parts of Yugoslavia today. You find four and five generations of the same family living together, in separate rooms, in the same house. They work together the land owned by the Zadruga and all share in the fruits of their toil. The Yugoslavs still carry on many of the Slavic traditions. They still maintain an open house to their guests. Being an agricultural people, they are still strongly attached to their land and three-fourths of the population derive their livelihood from the soil.

Conclusion

We have learned that the greatest contribution of the Yugoslavs in the past has been that of guardians and protectors of European civilization; being a peaceful race, an altruistic people, who withstood the onslaught of Germanization and Magyarization; a people who possessed a highly developed civilization of their own which was blended with that of the Greek and Rome, and a people who have come into contact with Eastern and Western civilizations; and being a people who do not reason by abstract deductions from the cause to the effect; but being a people whose reasoning is governed by their soul, by a form of intuition and sentimentalism; we can safely say that they never will spread their doctrines by sword; but if left alone and allowed to develop, their greatest contribution to mankind and civilization will be a social philosophy which will be sound in theory and practice, which will guarantee to every individual the greatest degree of freedom and liberty together with a just and equitable distribution of wealth to those that toil, as the doctrine of these people has always been that of brotherhood, which is so well expressed in a few words by Prešeren, the greatest of Yugoslav lyric poets:

There will we find the way,
where their sons
Shall freely choose their faith and law.

All men are brothers, brothers are all nations.

DOPISI

Gowanda, N. Y.

Kar hitro se je poslovilo od nas gorko poletje in prišla je hladna jesen. Skromne pridelke z naših vrtov smo pospravili. Grozdje je sicer slana nekoliko prezgodaj obiskala, toda smo si ga vseeno nabavili, ker je bilo precej poceni. Kakor kaže bo grozdni sok za zimski čas bolj-ši kakor pivo, ki je tudi za naš skromni zaslužek predrag.

V preteklem poletju smo imeli tudi v naši naselbini nekaj zabav in piknikov v prosti naravi, toda zaradi slabih zaslužkov in velike draginje, ne toliko kot druga leta. Od početka jeseni je bilo prirejenih v Slovenskem domu že par veselje, in sicer ena v korist Slovenskega doma, druga pa v korist angleško poslujočega društva Boosters SNPJ. V soboto 2. novembra pa priredita skupno plesno veselico društvo sv. Jožefa, št. 89 JSKJ, in društvo Pathfinders, št. 222 JSKJ.

Kakor za piknik, ki je bil v korist društvenih blagajn omejenih dveh društev prirejen v preteklem poletju, se tudi naši člani veliko trudijo, da bi bila ta veselica ena najboljših, da bi bila v zadovoljstvo vsem, ki jo bodo posetili, in da bi dobro podprla blagajni obeh društev. Pri tem delu so posebno aktivni naši mladi člani in članice. Upam, da bo njihov trud poplačan z dobrim uspehom.

Vstopnice so v predprodaji po 25 centov za osebo, pri vratih pa bodo po 35 centov. Za društvo sv. Jožefa, št. 89 JSKJ jih ima v zalogi tajnik sobrat Martin Matekovič. Kolikor mi je znano, so naši mladi člani razprodali že precejšno število vstopnic, pa gotovo ne bi bilo prav, da bi mi stari zaostajali in se ustavljali žrtvovati tistih 25 centov za društveno blagajno. Nekdo bo pri tej veselici tako srečen, da bo s svojo vstopnico dobil pravega živega purana. Sobrata urednika opozarjamo na to priliko: Preteklo poletje ga je na našem pikniku čakala in pričakala bela mačica, zdaj ga čaka pa puran; naj torej pride na našo veselico, morda ga ravno v Gowandi čaka vsa sreča. (Vabilo je mikavno, toda ne smem prepopogostiti prihajati v Gowando, da se me sreča ne naveliča. Nadležnost ni dobra nikjer, posebno pa ne pri izizvanju sreče, ki je muhasta kakor sploh ženske! Op. ured.) Na to veselico so seveda vladno javljani vsi tukajšnji rojaki in rojakinje. Pozabimo za en večer vsak svoje križe in težave in se skupno poveselimo. Seveda bodo iskreno dobrodošli tudi vsi gostje, ki pridejo od zunaj. Godba na veselici bo gotovo zadovoljila tiste, ki se bodo želeli malo zasukati. Razume se tudi, da bo za notranje zadeve dobro preskrbljeno. Torej, na svidenje v soboto 2. novembra ob 8. uri zvečer v Slovenskem domu v Gowandi! — Za društvo št. 89 J. S. K. J.: Karl Sternisha, blagajnik.

Lorain, O.

Poročati nama je žalostno vest, namreč da je 15. septembra 1935 za vedno zatisnil oči najin brat John Stembal. Pokojnik je bil rojen dne 23. maja 1890 v vasi Škrilje pri Igu ter je prišel v Ameriko pred 23 leti in sicer v Lorain, O. V tem času je bil dvakrat v Elyju, Minnesota, pa se je obakrat vrnil nazaj v Lorain. Poleg dveh sester zapušča več drugih sorodnikov tukaj in v starem kraju. Pokojnik je bil član društva sv. Alojzija, št. 6 JSKJ, istotako član KSKJ in SDZ.

Na tem mestu se najlepše zahvaljujemo vsem tistim, ki so se pokojnika spomnili z venci in mašami zadušnicami, vsem, ki so ga prišli kropiti, in vsem, ki o pokojnika spremenili na njegovi zadnji poti oziroma dali svoje avtomobile na razpolago za posolzavi plini niso izkadili.
