LETO (VOLUME) XIX.

NOVA MAŠA V CHICAGU

V nedeljo 20. avgusta bo v cerkvi sv. Štefana v Chicagu, Ill., daroval prvo slovesno sv. mašo naš rojak in sobrat Rev. Trink.

Rev. Trink je sin Mr. in Mrs. Michael Trink, ki ves čas svojega zakonskega življenja živita v Chicagu. Poročil ju je takratni sv. Štefanski župnik blagopokojni Rev. Krašovec.

Ko je sin, sedaj novomašnik, dovršil farno šolo, ga je Rev. Kazimir Zakrajšek poslal v St. Joseph College v Teopolis, Ill., pozneje pa v Quigley preparatory Seminary v Chicagu. Noviciat je dovršil pri poljskih frančiškanih v Pulaski, Wis., modrosvorne študije v frančiškanskem semenišču v Green Bay, Wis., bogoslovne šole pa je dovršil v Ljubljani, kamor je odšel pred tremi leti.

Pri sv. Štefanu, ako se prav spominjam, so že bile nove sv. maše. Rev. A. Schiffer, sedaj v Milwaukee, je daroval prvo slovesno sv. mašo v cerkvi sv. Štefana, kamor ga je povabil njegov sošolec in dobr prijatelj blagopokojni Rev. A. Sojar. Toda Rev. Trink pa se odlikuje v tem, da je prvi, ki je v tej župniji zrastel in bo sedaj po tolikih letih pel novo mašo.

Pri sv. Štefanu se vse z radostjo pripravlja. Naš preč. g. župnik; Rev. Aleksander Urančar bo preskrbel velikodušno vse potrebo. Tako bo Oltarno društvo krščanskih mater predilo banket. Navzočih bo več duhovnih sobratov od bližu in daleč. Novomašnik je tudi član naše dnečne KSKJ.

Dal Bog, da bi novomašnik uspešno deloval za blagor neumrjočih duš in za blagor slovenskega naroda v Ameriki. Iz src vseh pa prihaja iskreni: Novomašnik bod' pozdravljen!

Poročevalec.

Trockij pribel v Francijo

Marselj, Francija, 24. julija. — Semkaj je prispel s parnikiom "Bulgaria" bivši vodja boljševikov in diktator Rusije, Leon Trockij, ki je zadnje mesec živel na Turškem kot izgnanec. Z njim je došla tudi njegova žena.

Da bi ne nastalo na pomolu kakde demonstracije, so Trockija že pred pristaniščem spravili na neki mali parni čoln in skrivoma odvedli v bližnje, 15 milij oddaljeno mestece Castille. Od tam sta se oba podala proti Parizu.

Francoska vlada je Trockiju dovolila, da lahko ostane v Franciji za nekaj mesecov, toda mora se zadržati povsem mirno.

Streljanje in umor v sodniškem posloju

Chicago, Ill. — Ko so dne 24. julija tirali bančnega roparja John Schecka glede odsode v kriminalnem sodniškem posloju, se je Scheck iztrgal stražniku in zbežal po stopnicah proti izhodu. Pri tem ga je hotel 32 letni policijski John Sevick ustaviti, za kar je moral žrtvovati svoje življenje. Ropar je oddal dva strela na stražnika, ki se je hipoma zgrudil mrtev na tla. Na prvih stopnicah pred vhodom je nek drugi stražnik ustavil roparja in morilca s tem, da ga je dvakrat dobro v prsa pogodil. Ustreljeni policijski Sevick je že petič žrtev, katere so ganegi tekmo julija v Chicagu umorili.

Rooseveltovin se zopet poročil

Burlington, Iowa, 23. julija. 22letni sin predsednika Rooseveltta, Elliot, ki je dobil še pred nekaj tedni razporoko od svoje prve žene Elizabeth Browning-Downer, se je danes v tem mestu poročil z Miss Ruth Googins iz Fort Worth, Texas.

Starci plavači

Pueblo, Colo. — Tu živeči H. Briggs iz Oklahome, ki je že 101 let star, se gre v hudi vročini večkrat kopat v Minnequa Beach. Mladina ga občuduje, ker zna še tako dobro in hitro plavati.

REKORDNI POLET OKROG SVETA

New York. — Willey Post je s svojim monoplanom "Winnie Mae" dne 22. julija ob 10:59 zvečer pristal na Floyd Bennett zrakoplovščišči ter s tem dovršil najhitrejši polet okrog sveta, ki ga je poleg tega napravil popolnoma sam.

Post je dosegel sem iz Edmontona, Kanada, več ur poprej kot se je pričakovalo. Zadnji del poleta, ki je bil 2,200 milij dolg, je napravil v malo več kot 13 urah. Polet okrog zemlje, tekom katerega je preletek 15,400 milij, je Post dovršil v 7 dneh, 18 urah in 49 minutah. S tem je za malo več kot 21 ur posekal rekord, ki sta ga napravila pred dvema letoma on in avijatik Harold Gatty.

Post je takoreč kar padel na zrakoplovščišče. Njegovo letalo je bilo brez luči, zato množica ni vedela, da je dosegel, dokler ni letalo že pristalo. Teden pa se je silna množica vsula proti sredi polja, in policija je imela veliko posla, predno je napravila pot, da je mogel avijatik iz letala.

Post je bil ob pristanju čisto izčrpan. Od zadnje sobote, ko je od tu odplul okrog sveta, je imel le nekaj ur spanja. Najprej je prosil za obvezno za levo okno, na katero je spel, in pa za vodo. Njegova žena pa mu je prinesla steklenico gorke kave, katero je spel, nakar se ga je peljal v neki hotel, kjer je šel takoj spat.

Sodnik obsodil samega sebe

Chicago, Ill. — Ko je sodnik Eugene J. Holland opravljal svojo službo v dvorani policijskega sodišča, je med drugimi sodniški klerk prečital med obtoženci tudi njegovo ime, seveda na njegovo veliko začudenje. Na obtožilni listini je bilo označeno, da je sodnik "parkal" svoj avto na neki tako prometni cesti.

Sodnik je nato to zadevo rešil s sledеčo obtožbo: "Ker je danes ravno moj rojstni dan, se kaznujem na $1. denarne globe in $1. sodniških stroškov."

Nagrobeni kamen padel na dečka
Dne 24. julija je šla Mrs. Stella Wilson na Evergreen pokopališče v Chagrin Falls, O., da zalije rože na grobu svojega moža. Seboj je vzela svojega 5-letnega sinčka Jamesa.

V nevednosti matere je mladi James začel plezati na neki bližnji, nad 300 funтов težak nagrobeni kamen, ki ni imel več močnega podstavka. Kamen se je vsled tega nagnil in zvalil na dečka, kateremu je strlo prsa in zmečkalo glavo.

Kruh v Clevelandu se je zopet podražil

Razne trgovine in pekarne v Clevelandu so z dnem 24. julija kruh zopet za en cent pri štruci podražile. Manjše štruce kruha stanejo sedaj 8c, večje pa 12c. Že drugo podraženje kruha v enem mesecu je nastalo vsled novega zveznega davka na moko.

ANGLEZI SO ZA BOJKOT NEMSKEGA BLAGA

London. — Narodni svet delavskega gibanja, ki reprezentira strokovne unije, delavsko stranko in delavsko stranko v parlamentu, je izdal svoj manifest, v katerem se zahteva bojkot vsega nemškega blaga.

London. — Londonško, pariško in jugoslovansko časopisje se v zadnjem času mnogo bavi z vprašanjem zblizanja med Italijo in državami Male antante. To zblizanje je treba spraviti v zvezo z dogovori in pogodbami o definiciji napadalca, katere pogodbe je sklenila Sovjetska Rusija z več državami, med njimi tudi z državami Male antante.

Manifest poziva vse one, ki se z angleškimi delavci vred zgražajo nad grozo, barbarizmom in zatiranjem človeške svobode, pravice in državljanstva, kar se izvaja v Nemčiji, na bojkot proti nemškemu blagu.

"Mi apeliramo na vse delavce, da odločno povedo svojim trgovcem, da katerih kupujejo, da ne marajo kupovati blaga dejave, katere vlada je izvajala proti sebi ogroženje vsega sveta," je označeno v tem manifestu.

Temeljni motiv bojkota je, da se "predoči nemški vladni ljudstvu način za dejavnosti, ki je zavzemajo vse delavce, da je silna množica vsula proti sredi polja, in policija je imela veliko posla, predno je napravila pot, da je mogel avijatik iz letala.

Dalje je omenjeno v manifestu, da nihče ne smatra nemškega ljudstva krvim za dejavnosti vlade, "ki je ursupirala politično silo in socialno svobodo." Manifest pravi, da se nemško ljudstvo najbrž ne zaveda, v koliki meri je nemška vlada izgubila mednarodno simpatijo in dobro voljo. Bojkot ni proglašen zato, da bi se z njim škodovalo nemškemu narodu, marveč zato, da bi se z njim pokazalo, da svet obsoja zločinske čine nemške vlade.

Manifest poziva angleško delavstvo, naj z vsemi silami bojkotira nemško blago, tako da bo nemško ljudstvo izprevidelo, kam ga je pritiral Hitlerizem, in da bo z njim čimprej pometyl ter se zopet vrnilo k vladni svobodi in demokraciji.

Pet indijanskih otrok zgorelo
Sarin, Ont., Kanada. — Dne 24. julija je na bližnji indijanski rezervaciji ogenj uničil hišo Indijanca Thomas White. Petero njegovih sinov v starosti od 4 do 12 let je vsed telesne nesreči našlo smrt v plamenih. Ogenj se je takoj hitro razširil, da očetu ni bilo mogoče rešiti svojih otrok; rešil se je pač sam, njegova žena in najmlajši otrok.

Nezadovoljni delavci tekstilne industrije

Washington. — Ker je zvezna vlada v svojem pravilniku za tekstilne delavce po predložitvah predstavnikov je določila $13. minimalne tedenske plače in največ 40 ur dela na teden, so se unijski delavci te stroke po svojem predstavnikom pri vladni pritožili. Označena unija zahteva minimalno $18 tedenske plače za 30 ur na teden.

Recept za srečno življenje
1. Mirna in čista vest. 2. Zdravo telo. 3. Smisel za poslošno veselje. 4. Primereno pravilo. 5. Zajamčena bodočnost. 6. Ljubezna žena oziroma mož. 7. Neomajdeževana policijsko službo. Eden je izjavil, da bi bilo to v nasprotju z dolobčami pariške pogodbe.

DOPISI

Waukegan, Ill.—Prosim malo prostora v Glasilu, da sporočim program piknika, ki se bo vršil 6. avgusta, katerega priredi društvo Marije Pomagaj, št. 79 KSKJ. Piknik se bo vršil na Wire Mill prostoru, začetek bo točno ob 12. uri opoldne.

Od 1. do 3. ure bodo razne tekme: dve za moške, dve za žene, ena za fante in ena za dekleta. Za dečke in deklice bo po posebji še potate race, pie eating contest. Točno ob 3. uri bo po žogu igra med Waukegan in Milwaukee KSKJ kluboma. Razdeljene bodo tudi nagrade od zadnje kegljaške tekme KSKJ, katera se je vršila 29. in 30. aprila v Chicagu.

Igrali bomo tudi horse shoe; tudi v tej tekmi bosta dobila nagrada ona dva, ki bosta dobila največkrat zmago. Bodo pa tudi raznovrstne zabave, katere pa danes takoj ne smem povedit, ker je še skrivnost.

Dragi rojaci in rojakinje iz Waukegan in North Chicaga in okolice, kdor hoče za par ur pozabiti skrb v vsakdanjega življenja, naj pride na naš piknik, kjer bo dosti užitka in zabave celo popoldne in za vse. Vas pa, dragi mi bratje in sestre društva prosim, da se udeležite polnočestilno, ker imamo vse enake korist, moramo imeti tudi vse enake dolžnosti. Recite: nočem, da bi samo drugi delali in zbirali za društveno blagajno, ker bom tudi jaz dobil podporo v slučaju potrebe.

Ker pa leto ni nobene kazni, se bo pa najbolje pokazalo, kdo ima kaj ljubezni in spoštovanja do društva. Zato vas še enkrat vlijudno vabimo na prijazni prostor, kjer se bo piknik vršil.

Vse hvalevredno je tudi to, ker so se združila vsa slovenska in hrvatska društva iz Waukegana in North Chicaga in zvolila za svojega pogrebniča našega rojaka Slovenca, Joseph Nemanicha, kateri se je preselil pred nedavnim iz Jolietta.

Sobralski pozdrav vsem članom in članicam KSKJ,
John Cankar, predsednik.

S pota.—Srečnim naj se šteje brat ali sestra KSKJ, ako ni že prejemal ali prejemala bolniški ali operacijski podpor. In ni na mestu, katerega potrebi gledati, češ, ti si prejeli že toliko podpore, jaz sem pa že leta pri KSKJ, pa še nobena centa.

Da to zapišem, imam pred seboj bridke, težke in polnih bolečin izkušnje. Pred par leti, ko sem z nekim strahom čakal težkih operacij, šel sem bil kot omotično, nervozno bolan tje v Red Lake, Minn. Petdeset let bo že, kar tam misjonari in nadaljuje indijanske misijone naš gorenjski rojak, katerega je kot mladeniča pripeljal v to deželo zadnjini Baragov delavec, pokojni Msgr. Buh, in to Janez Lampe, ter sedaj po redu OSB Simon. On v družbi mladega Ločnikarja misjonari in uči več sto mladih Indijancev. Indijanke pa uče sestre Beneštinkine. Tam, v indijanski rezervaciji jih ne uči samo pisati in brati itd., ampak vsakojačnih ročnih del in poljedelstva, ker imajo poleg lepih gozdov precej lepo farmo, kjer sem bili tudi jaz, predno sem odšel v bolnišnico. Tam sem videl kraj, kjer je l. 1858 zmrznil na misijonski poti rojak in misjonar Lavtičar. Stara Indijanka mi je priporovala o tistem večeru, ko je nevihta dohitela Lavtičarja. Indijanci so ob obeh krajih jezera kurili ognje, da bi kazali Lavtičarju pot, pa ga je nevihta premagala.

Tukaj je velika indijanska rezervacija in mlađi Indijanci bi radi rezervacijo prodali, a stari jim ne pustete.

Sedaj, ko to pišem, sem sam ogoren od sonca kot praveči Indijanec, ker vsled zdravnih nasvetov sem v gozdu, bližu Chisholma, Minn., ob nekem jezeru. Zdravniki pravijo, da sončna topota je najboljša zdravilo za moje bolne ude, kar je tudi res. Kak mesec sem sedaj v prosti naravi in se mnogo bolje počutem.

Krog mene skačejo veverice in razne ptice mi prepevajo lepe pesmice. Kuham si kar na prostem, zase in za mojega oskrbnika, ki je bil vsaj za prve dni moj oskrbnik. Ko sem prišel sem in začel kopelj v jezerškem pesku, me je oskrboval Centov Jože. Bil sem tako slab, da se še obleciti nisem mogel sam. No, sedaj pa že telovadim ob drevju in z dišečih borovih in smrekovih dreves rosi dišeč-medeni balzam.

Ko pišem o jezerski in gozdnih lepotih, naj me nihče ne zavida, ker bolezen me še tare, zlasti od zadnje nesreče z avtomobilom, me je precej pobilo, posebno rame me še močnobole in kvarijo vso opisanu naravno lepoto in dobrote.

V sredini julija je bilo v moji mirni naravni krasoti precej živahnih. Na Chisholmu in Evertetu je bila birma in po birni so se tukaj botri in botrice s svojimi birmanci poveselili. Na Chisholmu se je mudila tudi predsednica Slovenske Ženske Zveze, Mrs. Marie Prisland, ki je obiskala več podružnic ter ustanovila več novih. Obiskala je tudi bolno Mrs. Baraga in Grzin na Chisholmu.

Drugače pa samotarim, si nabiram drva, trgom cvetlice in ko zakurim, da si skuham kosilo, pa s k a c e j o veverice okrog mene. Zlasti ugaja tem živalicam zjutraj, ko kuham kavo. Kar pod nogami se mi mešajo te lepe živalice. Najbrže se jim dopade kavin duh. In še dolgovni zajčki od daleč gledajo na valeči se dim po gozdu. Centov Jože pa pridno dela in čisti porobke ter zemljokrog primativno, a dobro napravljene gozdne hišice. Ko se kaj bolj pozdravim, bom šel na daljšo pot. Pa sedaj še nisem dovolj trden za na pot. Mnogim sem tudi dolžan pismenega odgovora, kar pa vse uredim, ko se preselim iz primitivega gozdnega življenja.

Matija Pogorele.

Milwaukee, Wis.—Vem, da mi ne boste odrekli prostor v listu za ta mali dopis. Na obisk sem bil v Willard, Wis. Kako presečenje je bilo, ko smo si podali roke po dolgih 28 letih. Nazadnje smo se videli v Pueblo, Colo. Ko so začeli podirati rudotoplilnice, smo se podali vsak v svoj kraj, s trebuhom za kruhom. Tisti, ki so si znali poiskat srčo, so kmalu dosegli, kar so želeli.

Omenil bom nekaj imen, s katerimi smo bili dobri prijatelji ali sošolci v starem kraju.

To so: Frank Boh ali Peskar.

Drugi Frank Hribar, katerega pa že krije črna zemlja nad pet mesecov. Ni mi bilo dano videti ga, kakor tudi ne njegovo prvo ženo Manco. Sedaj z drugo ženo se Hribarjeva družina vabi na zopetne obiske na prijazen gric.

Popoldne je imela domača župnika svoj piknik, ki smo se ga udeležili tudi mi rovarji. Tako smo se mogli z mnogimi našimi tamošnjimi rojaki seznaniti in spoznavati njihove želje in njihove razmere.

Kar težko nam je bilo, ko je čas tako hitro mineval.

Tretji je Frank Volk, ki ima tudi veliko družino. Četrти je Joe Lužar, ki ima tudi precej veliko družino. Peti je Joe Perko, tudi precej velika družina. Tako staršem teh družin ni prav nobene sile; samo malo pokomandirajo, pa je vse opravljeno. Stroji jim veliko pomagajo pri poljedelstvu. Količki sem se jaz prepričal, so vši Willardski farmerji dobro podkovani.

Vsi gori imenovani so prišli na Willard pred 25. leti iz Pueblo, Colo. Tam je tudi dosti drugih Slovencev, ki so prišli iz vseh krajev Združenih držav. Lahko trdim, da se nikjer drugje v Ameriki ne dobi tolički slovenskih farmerjev skupaj, kakor jih je na Willardu. Pa vši se dobro razumejo med seboj. Politike ni opaziti med njimi. Njih glavni dohodki so od mleka. Skoro vsak ima od 20 do 50 krav. Mleko jim ni treba daleč voziti, skoro na vsaki dve milji imajo sirarno. Njih dohodki so povprečno po sto dolarjev na mesec.

Pred 25. leti, ko so se naselili tukaj, ni imel noben več kot 80 akrov zemlje, pa še tisto vše v štoreh. Kakor se vidi, jim ni bilo z rožicami posuto. Dosti so pretrpeli, predno so izčistili zemljo. Potem so pa pomalem prikuševali zemljo, tako da ima sedaj vsak po 100 do 200 akrov zemlje.

To sem napisal, da bodo tudi drugje vedeli, kaj so slovenski farmerji na Willardu. Pa tudi dobro živijo tam. Kamor sem prišel, takoj je bil na mizi primanjkoval, ker je še skrivnost.

Prav lepo se zahvalim gori omenjenim za prijazno postrežbo, zlasti pa Frank Bohu in njegovim soprogim za vso postrežbo, ki sta mi jo nudila in za brezplačno vožnjo. Lepo se zahvalim tudi Mrs. Hribar za postrežbo. Še posebej pa se možahvaliti Mr. in Mrs. Janežič, zato pa lepo domačo zabavo, katero so nam napravili na 4. julija zvečer. Pozdravljeni vši skupaj!

Drugače pa samotarim, si nabiram drva, trgom cvetlice in ko zakurim, da si skuham kosilo, pa s k a c e j o veverice okrog mene. Zlasti ugaja tem živalicam zjutraj, ko kuham kavo. Kar pod nogami se mi mešajo te lepe živalice. Najbrže se jim dopade kavin duh. In še dolgovni zajčki od daleč gledajo na valeči se dim po gozdu. Centov Jože pa pridno dela in čisti porobke ter zemljokrog primativno, a dobro napravljene gozdne hišice. Ko se kaj bolj pozdravim, bom šel na daljšo pot. Pa sedaj še ni-množica, ki nas je pozdravljala. Razveseli smo se Very Rev. Benigna, ko smo jih po velikih letih zopet mogli pozdraviti.

Iz Clevelandja je dospel Mr. Anton Grdina s svojo soprogom in z nekaj romarji. Utrjenim od dolgega pota so kuharice poskrbeli okusno večerjo. Po kratkih pozdravih sem in tja smo se moral podati k počitku. Prijazni johnstownski rojaki in Slovenci so nas vzel pod svojo gospodljubno streho. V nedeljo zjutraj in dopoldan, ko smo se moral podati k počitku, smo se moral podati k počitku. Prijazni johnstownski rojaki in Slovenci so nas vzel pod svojo gospodljubno streho. V nedeljo zjutraj in dopoldan, ko smo se moral podati k počitku, smo se moral podati k počitku.

Pri obedu v cerkveni dvorani je bilo izrečenih obojestranskih pozdravov in napitnic, da smo se počutili nad vse dobodošle, posebno še, ker nas je prvo ženo Manco. Sedaj z drugo ženo se Hribarjeva družina vabi na zopetne obiske na prijazen gric.

Tretji je Frank Volk, ki ima

zemljišč na razpolago. Federalni urad, ki upravlja ta irigacijska zemljišča, je Bureau of Reclamation v Washingtonu.

Pred enim mesecem je ta urad razpisal oddajo treh velikih poljedelskih okrajev v državah Wyomingu, Washingtonu in Idaho. Nove irigacijske pokrajine se v prihodnjih letih odprejo v državah Oregon, Kalifornija in Nevada. Zlasti zanimivo je irigacijske ozemlje v zvezi z gradnjo velikanskega jeza Boulder Dam na reki Colorado. Ta jež ustvari velikanski rezervoar, 115 milj dolg in obsegajoč čez 30,000,000 akrov. Pod rezervoarjem je približno 1,800,000 akrov zemlje, primerne za irigacijo. Ta zemljišča pa bodo na razpolago ne prej ko leta 1937.

Irigacijska ozemlja so na razpolago tudi drugod, ali vsaj so vodne gradnje v teku. Kdor-koli se zanima, naj piše na Bureau of Reclamation, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

Ta urad ima po zakonu pravico izbirati izmed prosilcev one, katerih pridnost, izkušnja in značaj nudi precejšnje jamstvo za uspeh. Prosilec je povabljen, da se priglasi pred komisijo, kjer mora dati potrebne informacije glede sebe, družine in izkušnje. On mora biti zdrav in imeti vsaj dveletno izkušnjo v poljedelstvu. Irigacijski farmar se mora zares naseliti na dotočnem zemljišču in tam stanovati gotovo vrsto let, predno si pridobi lastninsko pravico. Za vse to je treba imeti precej začetnega kapitala. Material za gradnjo hiše in hlevov, za ograjo, itd. utegne stati do $1,000 in potem je treba imeti denarja, da se naseljenec preživi do prve letine. Zato se od prosilcev zahteva, da imajo vsaj $2,000 na razpolago. Na nekaterih irigacijskih ozemljih, kjer farme ne znašajo več kot 30 akrov, utegne biti $1,000 v gotovini zadosti. Za manjše farme do 20 akrov morda tudi $500 začetnega kapitala zadostuje. Predno se prosilec sprejme, si mora ogledati zemljišče, ali pa more dobiti vse potrebne informacije of reklamacijskoga urada, kar se tiče podnebja, primerenega poljedelstva, prevoznih priprav, tržišč, šol, itd.

Vsak naseljenec mora plačati za vodo, ki se vporablja za irrigacijo. Plačuje se po produkciji letine in znaša od 50 centov do $1.25 na aker. Plačila za vodne pravice se raztezajo na 20 ali celo na 40 let. V gotovih krajih farmar konča plačevati za vodo, čim so bili likvidirani stroški za izvirno vodno grad-

Federalne irigacijske gradnje so se začele leta 1902. Ideja pri tem je bila, da se pridobijo za poljedelstvo obširna ozemlja v vlastih pokrajinah, kjer je manj dežja. Irigacija je doživela velikanski razvoj in tam, kjer je bila nekdaj puščava, se sedaj nahajajo najbogatejše njive na svetu. V zadnjih letih je nadaljnje irigacije vsled poljedelske krize nekoliko zaostala. Sedaj imamo 28 federalnih irigacijskih projektov, ki se nahajajo v 15 državah, in ki so stali približno 300 milijonov dolarjev. Tam, kjer je bila pusta ozemlja, je sedaj kakih 40,000 farm in živi 150,000 ljudi. Zrazen pa se je razvilo 212 mest s skupnim prebivalstvom kakega pol milijona ljudi. V zadnjih letih se seveda tudi irigacijski garnarji očutili krizo. Ali v nem samem letu, leta 1929, je skupna vrednost letine z zemljišči, ki dobivajo vodo od 16,500 milijiririgacijskih kanalov znaša 10% skupnega stroška za vse, potedaj izvršene irigacijske gradnje.

Doba brezplačnih zemljišč od akrov na razpolago vsakega, ki se je hotel tam naseliti, minula. Ali kdor ima poleg tega zdravja na razpolago še $2,000 in ima dejansko dobrodošnjo v poljedelstvu, ima še priliko dobiti del zemlje, ki federalni irigacijski nalogi.

n. Ali večinoma je to pušča-ki, ki je primerna le za pašo.
Malo dobrih zemljišč je nena-jenih in le oni, ki so vajeni za koga življenja v puščavi in zemljišča. General Land Office

v federalnem poljedelskem de-partmentu upravlja ta javna zemljišča.

Začutila se je samo in zapuščeno od vsega sveta, siroto brez varstva in pravice. Ko je stopila iz hiše in videela, kako Rogljan in Bende stikata glave, jo je zapeklo še bolj, pa sama ni vedela zakaj. Spomnila se je, kako rajna mati Rogljana ni imela za dovolj zanesljivega in kako je tudi Bendetu tem manj zaupala, čim bolj se je družil z Rogljonom . . . In Bende je boder in od gospose ji postavljen za variha in oskrbnika . . .

Ana se je umaknila, nazaj v vezo; soseda je nista bila niti zapazila. Zvonovi pa so zvonili in zvonili . . . Žalosten je glas zvonov, kadar zvoni mrljič.

Ko pa so zakopali staro Bočantačko, tedaj šele se je naseila v majhno hišico prava sasmosta in žalost! Kako je bilo vse prazno po kotih! Kako se je slišalo le tiktakanje ure, ker ni bilo nikogar v hiši, da bi bil govoril in motil tišino . . .

Potem ni bilo dolgo, ko se je oglasil sosed Bende in rekel:

"Ana, zdaj si sama. Dolgčas ti je po materi, je-l?"

"Gotovo," je rekla Ana, ter bila naenkrat vsa solzna. "Kako ne bi jokala! Svoje slabosti je imela rajna mati, res! Včasih je bila sitna, a kar je rekla, je bilo modro in premišljeno. A sedaj je ni več! Oh, kako bo še pusto in dolgočasno na svetu!"

Ana se je sklanjala globoko doli na svoje ročno delo. In prav ji je bilo, da pride sosed Bende in se pomeni o materi.

"I, kaj bi—" je tolatal Bende, ki je bil mehkega srca. In skorod da mu je prišlo na mar, da je on vendarle boder in da bi moral skrbeti za Anine koristi. "Kaj bi jokala! Jokati ne pomaga. Rajna je oslabela in šla je, kamor bomo šli prej ali slej vsi . . . No, pa toliko ti je le zapustila, da se pošteno prezviš. Malo lažje ali malo težje—da se človek le prezvi. Poglej mene! Jaz imam otroke; a sveta skoraj nimam drugega kot hišico . . . Pa kaj sem že hotel reči: hotel sem te posruti, več kaj, ko bi mi odstopila polovico parcele tam ob moji hiši. Otroci skačejo okrog hiše in dopevaj jim človek, ako moreš, da po tujem ne smejo. Prav tam, kjer bi ne smeli, ti poskačejo in ubijejo rušo. Nerodno je to. Kaj, Ana, ko bi mi prodala tistih par metrov sveta?"

Ana je sklonila glavo še nižje in težko ji je bilo pri srcu. Ura je tiktakala na steni. Mimo okna je vozil voznik in pokal z bicem. Iznad gora je vstajalo nekaj meglic, ki so se zbirale v oblake . . . Po sobi je hodil Bende in čkal na odgovor.

"Kaj boš rekla, povej!" se je ustavil pred njo. Mislil si je pa: "Taka bo, kot je bila rajna: ne bo se dala kreniti."

JayPublisher Claims Apologetics Over-Simplified as Preached Today

Mr. Frank J. Sheed, noted Catholic Evidence Guild leader and publisher of London, England, was one of the feature lecturers of the Apologetic Institute at the summer session of the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C., recently.

In his lecture, "False Lines in Apologetics," Mr. Sheed said, "Apologetics, as preached today, is a vacuum, is over-simplified, too defensive and too logical."

"The purpose of apologetics," he said, "is twofold: to establish the truths which the Church teaches, and to win people outside the Church to accept these truths and at the same time prevent people inside the Church from discarding them."

"A teacher of apologetics must analyze and comprehend the prevailing atmosphere, and must see and understand the attractions that draw people away from the Church in order to strengthen them against these attractions."

"Do not answer a question by a direct answer," said Mr. Sheed. "It is your duty to explain what the doctrine of the Church means, before you begin to prove it. If they understand the doctrine, then they will be convinced, whereas your proof would leave them unconvinced."

Stressing the necessity of presenting Catholic doctrine in its totality in his lecture, "The Living Apologetics and the Dead," Mr. Sheed said: "Catholic doctrine must not be treated piece-meal. Such treatment is absolutely fatal. To the non-Catholic his doctrines are simply items on a list. Catholic doctrine is part of an organism, a living whole. You can't throw out the doctrines you don't like. All are related to one another in such a way that you can't reject any without rejecting all — you must accept the lesser in relation to the whole."

"People today are not really atheists at heart; they simply do not have sufficient interest in religion to doubt the existence of God," according to Mr. Sheed in the third of his series of lectures, "God in Apologetics." "The teacher of Apologetics must build up this lack of interest. The detailed discussion plan and the idea that everything must have its maker no longer convinces an audience. The line of proof, however, is simple. Unless God exists and has communicated with us, there can be no intelligent living. We cannot use any article without injury to ourselves, unless we know its purpose. Likewise, we cannot spend our lives wisely until we know the 'whys' and 'wherefores' of them."

In his final lecture, "The Framework of Apologetics," Mr. Sheed said, "The whole trouble is that with the reformation, the principal thing lost was the supernatural life and people have gone on talking about Hell and Heaven in that manner and without any theological knowledge of the next life. Heaven, to them, was a place where you were happy and Hell a place where you were unhappy. The solution of this whole state of mind is the doctrine of supernatural life."

"Now, the question is, why

OSTEOPATHY APPLIED TO AILMENTS OF ATHLETES

DR. FRED J. MAKOVEC, D. O.

Osteopathy is becoming more and more recognized as having a definite therapeutic value in the treatment of injured athletes; for example, Gene Tunney underwent osteopathic manipulation to his shoulder before the first of his memorable fights with Jack Dempsey. Bill Tilden, national professional tennis champion, is an enthusiastic osteopathic fan, likewise Johnny Weissmuller, swimming champion, as well as hundreds of more or less other renowned athletes.

The Chicago Cubs last year probably would not have won the pennant in the National League if some of their ailing athletes had not been put back into the game quickly through an osteopath's skill. Their biggest stars such as Charley Grimm, Gabby Hartnett and Charlie Root (to mention a few), would probably have been out of the game a good while longer than necessary, without treatment. The St. Louis Cardinals have been quick to recognize the value of an osteopath to the team, with the result that they have an osteopathic physician in full charge of their ball players' physical condition.

In football injuries, osteopathy has been acclaimed by college coaches throughout the country because of shortening the period of injuries to a minimum, such as tackle shoulder, "charley horses," "wrenched ankles, knees and arms only too well known to those of you who have played football.

In basketball championship teams, particularly on the West Coast, have utilized the services of osteopaths in putting their injured players back into the game as soon as possible and by keeping their more fortunate teammates in tip-top condition.

Athletes who participate in other sports such as polo, hockey, prize fighting, swimming, soccer, etc., who happen to incur injuries, all have derived definite therapeutic value

MAD DOG!

When the cry goes out in the stifling summer "Mad dog!" parents hasten to gather their children in off the streets. No one would think of giving them a Carnegie hero medal for their action because it is the most natural thing in the world.

Unfortunately there are things on the street worse than mad dogs that parents are not so watchful in guarding their children against. There are harmful moving picture shows and vicious books and magazines that should frighten fathers and mothers more than any rabid canine.

The future of loose spectacles and lascivious reading matter lies with the parents of America. If they guard their children from them as carefully as they do from mad dogs, both will go out of vogue. It will resolve itself simply into an economic question of supply and demand. Pornographic producers and publishers aren't in the business for their health. Destroy their profits and you destroy their business.

The apparent prosperity of these objectionable concerns shows that parents are not exercising proper supervision over the books their children read and shows they see. This is one of the glaring mistakes in American life today. It should be remedied forthwith and Catholic fathers and mothers must be in the forefront in correcting this lamentable error.—Catholic Universe Bulletin.

Recollections of Jugoslavia

By Col. Edward Davis, U. S. A.

My recollections of Jugoslavia are based upon two years' residence in that beautiful country, from 1927 to 1929. They go back even farther than that, for in 1916 I served with the old Serbian army on the Macedonian front during the World War. My impressions, therefore, cover the heroic qualities of Jugoslav soldiers in time of war as well as the sterling qualities of the people in time of peace.

I recall vividly the great gallantry of the Serbian soldiers when they took the towering heights of Kaimackchalan and when they achieved the striking victory at Gornicevo one September afternoon in 1916. I was with them on the bleak, rocky ridge of Malka Nidje, where the "trenches" were merely stone walls and the "dug-outs" only heaps of brush and strips of canvas among the big boulders. The whole world knows how these same soldiers broke the Bulgarian lines at Dobropolje in 1918 and did not stop until they reached the Danube and beyond.

My first presentation to the Prince Regent Alexander was a very informal meeting at Ver-

TOOTH TALKS

Toothbrushes of Old

The ancients used a twig about the size of the present toothbrush handle. One end of this twig was beaten to a soft fibrous condition. This was known as the "chew-stick."

The "chew-stick" was used much in the same manner as the present-day toothbrush is used. Its fibers would in all probability quite effectively clean the surfaces of the teeth, reach into the interproximal spaces and also give the gums a gentle massage.

The "chew-stick" was discarded after once being used and a new one made for the next occasion. The ancient Indians of the East were said to have used a "chew-stick" in somewhat similar manner. It took at least 15 minutes for one to clean his teeth with a "chew-stick." Nowadays we probably spend on the average of one minute for each cleansing.

We seldom if at all sterilize our brush between uses, while the ancients used a new brush each time.

Mohammedans used a "chew-stick" known as a Siwak.

Mohammed prescribed both the proper grasp for holding the Siwak and also the exact method of its use. Pious Mohammedans went about this oblation in regular form as prescribed, accompanying this ablation with appropriate prayers.

Records show that the toothbrush of the hair-bristle type was introduced about 125 years ago. The initial brush was a crude affair. From time to time it was developed and improved so that today toothbrushes are made to meet expert professional requirements as to their shape, size and quality of materials used.

Under the skilled osteopath's fingers, backed up as it is, by his anatomical knowledge of normal joint relations and their functions.

Every subject imaginable—from a splitting headache to a sylvan landscape—has been caught by the eye of the camera for the International Photographic Salon at A Century of Progress—Chicago.

Thousands of visitors daily are viewing the collection of 735 photographs from 25 nations in Pavilion 2 of the General Exhibits Group.

The entire life of camera craft is revealed by the salon—from Daguerre down to Eastman and the present-day of the talking picture, or the taking of photographs by heat radiation alone.

There is an X-ray photograph of a headache—not a fantastic bit of symbolism, but the truthful report by photography of an actual physical condition. Another unique subject is that of a manhole cover, partly covered with snow, an artistic triumph called "Pavement," by Jaroslav Payrek.

The salon is sponsored by the Chicago Camera Club and the Photographers' International Association, with George High, president of the Camera Club, chairman of the committee.

The importance of the exhibit is due to three main factors, according to Dr. Allen D. Albert, assistant to President Rufus C. Dawes of the Fair, who assisted in the development of the salon. First of all, Dr. Albert points out, there is a compact and authentic presentation of the history of photography; second, the exhibit is truly international in its makeup; and third, there is set forth the technical and artistic triumphs of photography during the past 100 years.

The exhibit was selected from the work of hundreds of photographers, more than 5,000 entries having been judged for admission. Professional and amateur artists have been admitted while the work of the astronomical observatories at Yerkes and Mount Wilson forms an important contribution to the technical subjects.

Charge Bruno was Burned for Looking Through Telescope False

A full-page advertisement for Liberty magazine appearing in a recent issue of Time contains the following assertions:

"They Burned Bruno for Looking Through a Telescope."

"The Lord may have created the heavens and the earth, announced astronomer Giordano Bruno to Sixteenth Century Venice, but they're a mere drop in the bucket of creation . . . There are innumerable worlds floating about through space. Many of them are far greater than our own."

"Graybeards glowered. This was heresy. The Bible admitted of only one heaven, one earth."

"Rubbish! fired back Bruno, the Bible is a moral work, not scientific one."

"They threw Giordano Bruno into prison."

"After eight years' solitary confinement, they burned him at the stake."

According to the Catholic Encyclopedia, Giordano Bruno, an "Italian philosopher," died at Rome in 1600. The same reference work, crediting Galileo Galilei with the "virtual invention of the telescope," says that it was not until 1609 that Galileo, hearing of the work of a Dutch optician named Lipperhey, constructed a telescope.

The Encyclopedia also states that Bruno early attracted attention "by the originality of his views and by his outspoken criticism of accepted theological doctrines." "Bruno was not condemned for his defense of the Copernican system of astronomy, nor for his doctrine of the plurality of the inhabited worlds," the Encyclopedia adds, "but for his theological errors, among which were the following: that Christ was not God but merely an unusually skillful magician, etc."

In 1576, only for years after his ordination, "things reached such a pass" that formal accusation of heresy was brought against Bruno," the Encyclopedia says, adding that within a few months after his arrival in Rome, Bruno "fled the city and cast off all allegiance" to the Order of St. Dominic to which he belonged. Following this, the Encyclopedia says, Bruno "was excommunicated by the Calvinist Council on account of his disrespectful attitude toward the heads of that Church" and was obliged to leave Geneva.

The Encyclopedia says that Bruno went to England in 1583 and enjoyed favor there for "a time at least," but was refused the privilege of lecturing at Oxford, in 1584, and following this published a bitter attack on the Oxford professors and returned to France. While in Paris, the Encyclopedia says, Bruno made several attempts at reconciliation to the Catholic Church, "all of which failed because of his refusal to accept the condition imposed, namely, that he return to his Order."

"In Germany," the Encyclopedia adds, "whither he went in 1587, he showed the same spirit of insolent self-assertion as at Oxford. In Helmstadt he was excommunicated by the Lutherans."

Bruno's system of thought, the Encyclopedia says, was "an incoherent materialistic pantheism." The reference work adds that "the exaggerations, the limitations, and the positive errors of his scientific system; his intolerance of even those who were working for the reforms to which he was devoted; the false analogies, fantastic allegories, and sophisticated reasonings into which his emotional fervor often betrayed him have justified, in the eyes of many, Bayle's characterization of him as 'the knight-errant of philosophy.'

The conductor and a brakeman on the Montana railroad differ as to the proper pronunciation of "Eurelia."

The Eurelia passengers are often startled upon arrival at this station to hear the conductor yell:

"You're a liar! You're a liar!"

And from the brakeman at the other end comes the cry: "You really are! You really are!"

"Why, Johnny, you've got a lump on your head. Have you been fighting again?"

"Fightin'! Not me!"

"But somebody struck you."

"Nobody struck me. I wasn't fightin' at all. It was an accident."

WILL STAGE EXHIBIT OF HISTORICAL MATERIAL OF FATHER BUH

Chisholm, Minn., July 27—Tuesday of this week was the 50th anniversary of the ordination of the late Father Joseph F. Buh as a priest.

Father Buh was well known in northern Minnesota as one of the earliest Catholic missionaries to the Indians, coming to this country from Slovenia, then a part of Austria-Hungary. He was induced to come to America by the late Bishop Baraga and for many years served churches in northern Minnesota, including those at Tower, and even serving for a while the Chisholm Catholic church.

The priest had as one of his closest friends Matt Pogorelc, with whom he was associated in the printing business. Mr. Pogorelc, who has been engaged in the sale of Slovenian language books, will give a talk this fall at an exhibition of books, papers and other historical material gathered in his association, covering many years, with the priest.

The date of this exhibit has not been set as yet, but is to be held at the library, Mr. Pogorelc said. Many books, letters, pictures, maps and newspapers of the late Father Buh are now in possession of Mr. Pogorelc, who held the priest in the highest esteem and considered him his best friend. Mr. Pogorelc never tires of telling about his late friend and has many interesting stories to tell.

Local and range Slovenians as well as all Catholics will be interested in the coming exhibition as will all people generally of this section.

THANKS

Joliet Jays Make Merry at Annual Get-together

Joliet, Ill.—Over 200 Joliet KSKJ boosters set out July 23 for Gibson Camp in Troy to make merry at their second annual picnic.

The day was spent in swimming, dancing, steak fries and various games. In the feature baseball game of the day the single men defeated the married men by a score of 8 to 7.

Ann Vertin and Frank Zupanic placed first in the running races, while Ann Vertin also won the shoe race. In the three-legged race Agnes Govednik and Anton Mutz won first place. A real champion, Mrs. John Churnovich, repeated her feat of last year by winning the rolling pin contest for married ladies. Agnes Govednik outshone the single girls in the contest. Matthew Kobe won the ball throwing contest.

The evening was spent in dancing to the music furnished by two of our members, Matthew Kobe and Frank Zupanic.

All of the scores had not been reported at this time.

A special meeting is being called for Tuesday, Aug. 8, to arrange for an all-day outing soon. Members are urged to attend this meeting. RECOLLECTIONS OF JUGOSLAVIA

During each spring and summer of our years in Jugoslavia we had occasion to make long automobile trips throughout the entire kingdom. In this way we saw much of Serbia, still bearing deep scars of war; of Bosnia with its mighty waterfalls and forests, and of Herzegovina with its crystal clear stream in deep cleft gorges cut through barren, rocky plateaus. The highly colored Moslem quarters of Sarajevo and of Mostar leave a pleasant picture deeply etched upon the memory. Montenegro, a bleak, barren stretch of broken billows of stone, is, curiously enough, the breeding place of a race of people rich in character, brave, dignified and of magnificent physique.

Our travels took us more than once to that beautiful little city, Dubrovnik, the former city-republic of Ragusa, the pearl of the Adriatic littoral.

No matter how long one stays in Dubrovnik he wishes to stay longer. Its massive walls which, in olden times, resisted the enemy whether he came by sea or land; its picturesque gates; its narrow, flower bedecked streets; its attractive little shops; its palms and oleanders; the sheer, gray-blue mountains which rise above it, and the unrivaled blue of the Adriatic sparkling before it, make a picture seldom equaled anywhere.

The Bay of Kotor, or Cattaro, down the coast from Dubrovnik, made a deep impression upon me. In this great coastal indentation, shaped like an immense four-leaf clover, all the fleets of the world could ride at anchor. Austria used it as a great naval rendezvous. Jugoslavia, with greater foresight, plans to make it a great commercial port, connecting it with the Danube basin by a standard gauge railway, most of which is probably completed by now.

Croatia, passing the wonder chain of lakes and falls at Plitvice and on to Zagreb, the beautiful and busy capital. Beyond Zagreb, toward the Austrian frontier, are charming little towns such as Maribor, Kamnik and Celje.

Few memories of Jugoslavia, or of any other country, equal in pleasure those of the little town of Bled on a lake of the same name in the foothills of the Julian Alps where Slovenia projects to the west between Austria and Italy. Bled is one of the beauty spots of the world. Here quiet little valleys, gently rolling hills and rugged foot-hills, all clothed in soft green, have for a background the great sharp peaks and massive bulk of the snow-clad Julian Alps. Everywhere are mountain streams with unbelievably clear, blue-white water fresh from the snow and ice of the mountains. This beautiful scenery and the peculiarly soft, fresh atmosphere of the region make Bled an ideal place. It is the summer capital of Jugoslavia. Here, each summer, come the royal family and the court, many of the government officials and most of the diplomatic corps. From the cities of Jugoslavia, from Vienna, Budapest and other capitals come throngs of people for week-end visits.

At one end of Lake Bled an immense column of rock rises to a height of about a thousand feet and on its summit is an old castle dating back beyond the Roman period. It is amazingly picturesque. At the other end of the lake, on an island, stands a little Catholic church—the Pilgrims' Church. Here people go to church in boats during the summer and in sleighs and on skates in the winter.

Trinity Knights Launch Summer Social Card

Brooklyn, N. Y.—On Friday night, July 21, the Knights of Trinity met on the corner of the Cypress Hills swimming pool and from there proceeded to Dexter Park to enjoy a night baseball game, the cost of admissions drawn from the club's treasury. As mentioned last week, it has been the first eyeful of a night arclight game for majority of the members. The knights occupied an entire box. With the exception of three, who were unfortunately unable to attend, all the rest were there with cowbells on.

From all indications, the boys had one swell evening. The weather was ideal, the cool evening breeze soothing, lighting about the field unbelievable, the atmosphere Knights of Trinity-like, peanuts fresh, and the game good. The boys in the first front rows got such a continuous shower of peanut shells that they were beginning to believe they were part of the Balbo fleet.

After the game the boys tramped into Weismantel's Garden not far from the ball field. One long table was set up for the boys, making it so much the more one grand, big party. The place was wonderful, having the atmosphere of a genuine garden in Deutschland, the kind that you see in the movies often filled with college students. The garden was illuminated by colored bulbs under numerous large trees. There was a dance floor in the center, kept busy through a swell orchestra seated on an elevated platform.

In about an hour, if it took that long, the boys were off on a spree of harmonious melodies. They harmonized the old-time balads so wonderfully that they were applauded lustily by the patrons after each number. Our gang always has a grand time when together, somehow or other. This was only one of the good times the boys have outlined for the rest of the summer.

TO THE KNIGHTS AND LADIES OF BARAGA

On Sunday, July 23, we combed with your lodge in Milwaukee. We tried to get a breathing spot and a resting place to your hospitality and courtesy, but we were so overcome with them that we find it well nigh impossible to say more than a few words to you, and they are these: Although we had to leave your beautiful city and wonderful hospitality with our rare fraternal memories, with the unquestioned evidence of the fact that who labored in Milwaukee in the early days makes very little difference now, for there has been left, and there is among you, a group of real boosters, not only in name but in spirit.

You may rest assured that the few hours spent with you will be thought of and filled with pleasure of your hospitality and courteous treatment, and we thank you.

crops of corn and smaller grains are raised and hops grow plentifully. Dalmatian wine is famous. In Slovenia, Croatia and Bosnia there are great lumber producing forests. All the vegetables and fruits of the temperate zone grow here. Plums are especially abundant and from these a great and powerful brandy, called slivovitz, is made. During recent years very important mineral resources have been developed in Jugoslavia.

I recall the Jugoslav army with great admiration. It is one

Baragas Fete St. Florians After Deciding Game

Prominent Out-of-Town Jays Attend Reception; 100 Florians Attend

When the St. Florian Boosters traveled to Milwaukee recently to win the game that meant the Midwest KSKJ championship, they didn't suspect that the reception which was extended them would have the ear marks of a real Kay Jay jamboree. There were several surprises awaiting them in the form of Kay Jay boosters from other cities.

Miss Frances Jancer and her cohorts came all the way from La Salle, Ill., to attend the game and the festivities. Also present from Sheboygan, Wis., was Johnny Stubler and his pals. To top it off, the St. Florian enthusiasts were represented 100 strong, and with the Baragites in full representation, there certainly was a grand KSKJ party. Yes, sir, it's always fair weather when Kay Jay boosters get together.

SLOVENIAN LASS TIES FOR FIRST IN SWIM MEET

Miss Anne Govednik brought fame to Chisholm and Minnesota when she practically tied for first place in the 220-yard breast-stroke event in the national women's swimming meet at Jones Beach, Long Island, New York.

In writing of the race, Miss Helen Manson, who stayed East for a visit, said:

"The race is over and it was a classic. I still believe it was a tie, for the judges held a five-minute meeting before the winner was announced. It was the closest contest of the four days' competition."

"Anne swam gorgeously and most everyone believes that she is the coming national breast-stroke champion. It took the judges a long time to make up their minds who to give the race to."

of the most efficient armies in Europe. Its very thorough system of training and the natural military qualities of the people, including especially a high morale, make it a very formidable force.

One remembers Jugoslavia, therefore, as an exceptionally beautiful country with splendid natural resources, peopled by a race of fine physique and excellent morale, who, though of a very kindly nature and friendly inclinations, have the
