Reaganova kampanja za odobritev podpore protisandinističnim gverilcem v težavah

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Predsednik Reagan skuša pritiskati za zvezni kongres, naj odobri sto milijonov dolarjev podpore nikaragveškim gverilcem, ki se borijo proti marksističnemu sandinističnemu režimu. Večina tega denarja bi bila za vojaško opremo. (O tej zadevi pišemo na uvodniškem mestu, op. ur.). Kot kaže, Reaganova pobuda je v težavah predvsem v spodnjem domu, ki ga kontrolirajo demokrati. Liberalci in drugi so jezni, ker menijo, da Reagan in drugi člani njegove administracije napadajo patriotizem tistih kongresnikov, ki so proti predlogu o podpiranju nikaragveških gverilcev. Včeraj je odbor za zunanje zadeve v spodnjem domu z večino 23:18 glasoval proti predlogu, kar pa ne obvezuje celotnega predstavniškega doma, kaže pa, da vsaj trenutno izraža razpoloženje tega kongresnega doma.

V nekaterih izjavah ta teden, so Reagan in drugi člani njegove vlade dali vtis, da ako propadajo nikaragveški gverilci, ni mogoče izključiti možnosti uporabe ameriške vojske zoper Nikaragvo. Včeraj je pa Reagan dejal, da so ga novinarji in politični komentatorji napačno razumeli. Poudaril je, da nima nobenega načrta, po katerem bi poslal vojake ZDA v Nikaragvo. Zanimal je tudi, da dvomi o patriotizmu tistih kongresnikov, ki nasprotujejo njegovi politiki do Nikaragve.

Proti ameriškemu podpiranju gverilcev so tudi skoro vse latinskoameriške države. Pretekli mesec se je državni tajnik George Shultz srečal z zunanjimi ministri 8 teh držav, ki so apelirali nanj, naj ZDA opuste podpiranje tako imenovanih »contras«. Nnaklonjena sta tudi Honduras in Costa Rica, državi, ki mejita z Nikaragvo.

Kongres sovjetske komunistične partije potrdil vodilno vlogo Gorbačova — Novi obrazi v najvišjih partijskih telesih MOSKVA, ZSSR — Včeraj je generalni sekretar sovjetske komunistične partije, 55-letni Mihail S. Gorbačov, uradno zaključil 27. partijski kongres. Med drugim je tudi prebral imena tistih, ki so bili izvoljeni v najvišja partijska telesa, v politburo in sekretariat. Novi član politbiroja je 62-letni Lev Zajkov, bivši vodja partijske organizacije v Leningradu. Zajkov je tudi član sekretariata. Med novimi člani sekretariata je opazovalce sovjetskih političnih razmer najbolj presenetilo imenovanje 66-letnega Anatolija Dobrinina, ki je bil zadnjih 25 let veleposlanik ZSSR v ZDA. Drugo presenečenje je bilo imenovanje 57-letne Aleksandre P. Birjukove, ki je tako prva ženska v najožjem partijskem vrhu v zadnjem četrtstoletju. Birjukova je imela vodilno vlogo v sovjetski sindikalni organizaciji. Odstranjena iz vodstva sta bila dva stara sodelavca pokojnega Leonida Brežnjeva, eden star 81, drugi pa 86 let.

V svojih nastopih na kongresu je Gorbačov zahteval razne reforme, ni pa začrtal nič posebno novega. O kakih temeljitejših sistemskih reformah ni bilo govora. Analitiki sovjetskih razmer poudarjajo, da čeprav je Gorbačov že zamenjal skoro vse vodilne osebnosti iz časa Brežnjeva, funkcionarji, ki so zasedli izpraznjena mesta so sami že priletni, stari od 55 do 66 let. Ti novi nosilci najodgovornejših funkcij so res bolj izobraženi in agilni kot njih predniki, od njih pa tudi ni mogoče pričakovati kakih radikalnih novih zasukov. Svoje mesto v politbiroju je dobil tudi predsednik države, 76-letni Andrej

A. Gromiko, ki je, po nekaterih vesteh, v sorodstvu z Gorbačovovo ženo Raiso.

Sodišča bodo najbrž odločala o Marcosovem osebnem premoženju

MANILA, Fil. — Nova filipinska vlada nadaljuje s prizadevanji, katerih namen je ugotoviti, koliko denarja je bivši predsednik Ferdinand Marcos ukradel in spravil na varno v tujini. Včeraj so na primer objavili, da naj bi Marcos prejel več deset milijonov dolarjev od ameriškega podjetja Westinghouse kot podkupnina za dovoljenje temu podjetju, da gradi jedrsko elektrarno na Filipinih. Zaslišujejo razne bivše funkcionarje Marcosove vlade in druge osebe, ki vedo o početjih Marcosa, njegove žene Imelde in drugih članov njegove družine.

Marcos in njegova družina naj bi veliko investirala v nepremičninah po ZDA. Zato so odvetniki, ki predstavljajo interese nove filipinske vlade, že vložili razne tožbe, v katerih zahtevajo vrnitev tega premoženja filipinski državi. Marcos in njegova družina ter nekateri sodelavci so še na Havajih, Marcos pa baje trdi, da je še vedno filipinski predsednik.

James Fletcher imenovan za novega vodjo NASA — Danes javno zasedanje komisije, ki proučuje nesrečo Challengerja

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Včeraj je predsednik Reagan imenoval 66 let starega Jamesa Fletcherja za novega administratorja NASA. Fletcher je vodil NASA od 1971 do 1977. Dosedanji vodja James M. Beggs je svoje mesto zapustil, ker se mora braniti pred sodiščem. Obtožen je nepravilnosti v času, ko je bil zaposlen pri podjetju General Dynamics.

Danes bo javno zasedanje posebne preiskovalne komisije, ki ima nalogo ugotoviti, zakaj je prišlo do eksplozije Challengerja. Komisija bo zaslišala več prič.

— Kratke vesti —

Johannesburg, J. Af. — Danes je južnoafriška vlada ukinila izredno stanje v državi. Vladna izjava trdi, da so se razmere dovolj ustalile, da opravičujejo ta ukrep, ki so ga že pohvalile ZDA.

Stockholm, Šve. — Včeraj je policija zadržala in zaslišala 12 oseb v zvezi z atentatom na ministrskega predsednika Olofa Palmeja, a jih vse izpustila. Med njimi sta bila vsaj dva Hrvata. Neka umetnica, ki je atentatorja videla od blizu takoj po atentatu, je narisala njegovo podobo, vendar preiskava še ni veliko napredovala glede identitete atentatorja. Policisti pa menijo, da je bil profesionallec v svoji stroki ter da je imel vsaj enega pajdaša.

Washington, D.C. — Senadni odbor za zvezni proračun je včeraj zavrnil proračunski osnutek, ki ga je bil zveznemu kongresu predložil predsednik Reagan. Za predsednika je glasovalo celo le šest od 12 republikanskih članov. Predsednikov proračunski osnutek nima skoro nobenih branilcev na kapitolskem hribu.

New York, N.Y. — Danes zjutraj so začele štrajkati zoper letalsko družbo TWA stevardese in nekateri drugi uslužbenci. Piloti pa ne štrajkajo in TWA trdi, da bo mogla z rednim poslovanjem nadaljevati. Neštrajkaajoči uslužbenci TWA sedaj nameščajo štrajkajoče.

Kako daleč naj gremo?

Ta teden je Reaganova administracija začela kampanjo, katere cilj je prepričati zvezni kongres, naj odobri 100 milijonov dolarjev gmotne podpore protisandinističnim gverilcem v Nikaragvi. Največ tega denarja naj bi šlo za orožje in strelivo, nekaj pa za druge potrebščine kot so hrana, zdravila, oblačila itd. Razporeditev kongresnikov ni naklonjeno tej pobudi. Nekateri menijo, da je takšna politika nečastna, da krši osnovna ameriška načela, da je v vrstah protisandinističnih gverilcev veliko zločincev, ki da pobijajo, mučijo in posiljujejo itd. Drugi Reaganovi politiki do sandinističnega režima v Nikaragvi nasprotujejo preprosto zato, ker so mnenja, da bo propadla, ker sandinistov ne bo mogoče premagati. Po zadnjih poročilih poznavalcev političnih razmer na kapitolskem hribu, manjka Reaganu vsaj 20 glasov v predstavniškem domu za odobritev omenjene vsote denarja. Do glasovanja bo prišlo čez dobra dva tedna.

Reagan pa je odprl oziroma poostiril debato o tem, kako daleč lahko gre demokratična država v svojem nasprotovanju nedemokratičnega ali nevarnega režima v drugi državi. Reagan in njegovi somišljeniki dejansko zagovarjajo stališče, da imajo ZDA pravico pomagati upornikom v kaki drugi državi, v pričujočem primeru Nikaragvi, tudi z orožjem. ZDA naj oborožujejo in podpirajo torej ljudi, ki bodo orožje uporabljali v napadih zoper obstoječi režim, zasidran v njih domovini. Pri tem bodo seveda žrtve. In naj ZDA podpirajo na ta način gverilce, ki bodo skušali ubiti preko atentatov vodilne predstavnike tistega režima, ki bodo nastavljali bombe ipd. To je namreč način gverilskega bojevanja.

Načelno nimam nič proti taki politiki ZDA. Drugo vprašanje pa je, ali je taka politika umestna v perečem nikaragveškem primeru. In tudi, če je taka politika umestna v primeru Angole in Afganistana. Upoštevati moramo ne samo tega, kar je v ožjem interesu ZDA, ali, bolj splošno, v interesu tako imenovanega svobodnega sveta, marveč tudi, ali je v interesu ljudi, ki v Nikaragvi, Angoli ali Afganistanu živijo. Preveč na splošno o teh stvareh ni mogoče govoriti. Vsak primer mora biti pretehtan ločeno, vendar pod načelom, da imajo ZDA kot država pravico podpirati tudi z orožjem gverilška oziroma uporniška gibanja, o katerih smo lahko prepričani, da želijo po morebitni zmagi uzakoniti demokratičen politični sistem. O protisandinističnih gverilcih so mnenja deljena in je zaradi ideoloških stališč poročevalcev oz. ocenjevalcev položaja težko ugotoviti resnico. Za Reaganovce in vse, ki kažejo zanimanje podpirati vsako tako gibanje, samo da je protikomunistično, so gverilci borci za svobodo in demokracijo. Za številne liberalce in druge pa so isti gverilci zločinci, plačanci. Meni se zdi sumljivo, da so gverilci tako odvisni od zunanje podpore, od zunanjih oporišč, da menda ne morejo izvesti nobenih večjih akcij v notranjosti dežele, da si menda ne morejo prisvojiti oz. zapleniti orožja niti od lokalnih miličniških in policijskih enot, ki jih je organiziral sandinistični režim, kakor to delajo na primer afganistanski uporniki, ki že šest let kljubujejo krutim sovjetskimi vojaškimi akcijam. Pripravljen sem podpreti Reaganovo politiko glede

Glasbena Matica in njen dirigent

CLEVELAND, O. — Poročali smo že o pomladanski prireditvi Glasbene Matice, ki bo 22. marca v Slovenskem narodnem domu na St. Clairju. Zbor ima bogato zgodovino, srečo je imel predvsem v tem, da so bili njegovi glasbeni dirigenti nadarjeni. To velja tudi za sedanjega dirigenta Vladimir Malečkarja, ki je aktiven na clevelandskem slovenskem kulturnem področju več kot 40 let.

O njem pišem danes, ker bo menda naslednji koncertni nastop Glasbene Matice obenem zadnji, ki bo pod njegovim vodstvom. Vladimir Malečkar gre namreč v pokoj, preseliti se namerava z ženo na farmo, ki jo lastujeta v hriboviti Zahodni Virginiji. Z njegovim odhodom bo zelo prizadet zbor Glasbena Matica, prav tako pa vsa slovenska skupnost.

Lepo in nadvse primerno bi bilo, če bi se poštvovalnemu V. Malečkarju na kak organiziran način zahvalili za njegovo veliko delo med Slovenci, ob tem poročanju pa ne vem za nobeno tako pobudo. Vsaj to pa lahko storimo, da se udeležimo koncerta 22. marca, ki bo za njega poslovilni, in mu z aplavzom pokažemo, kako visoko ga cenimo.

Da je še veliko nas Slovencev v Clevelandu je splošno znano. Ogromna udeležba na dveh prireditvah preteklo nedeljo (kosilo za Slovenski dom za ostarele v Collinwoodu, in za Slovensko šolo pri Sv. Vidu v tamkajšnjem avditoriju) je bila najnovejša potrditev tega. Težava je v tem, da organizacije postajajo bolj in bolj okostnjaške. Dovolj je še takih, ki so pripravljeni sodelovati v pevskem zboru, malo pa takih, ki se zanimajo in so obenem sposobni prevzeti vlogo dirigenta. Precej je takih, ki radi berejo slovenski list, malo pa takih, ki želijo ali znajo zanj pisati. Luknje pri teh in drugih naših ustanovah za silo še zamašujejo, vprašanje pa je, kako dolgo še. Radi tega je odhod takega kulturnega delavca, kot je Vladimir Malečkar, tako težko sprejeti.

Vstopnice za koncert, združen z večerjo in plesom, so po $12.50 in jih imajo vsi člani Glasbene Matice. Lahko pa tudi pokličete Johna Vatovca na 621-7151 do 4.30 pop. od ponedeljka do petka, v soboto in nedeljo pa na 524-4053. R.M. Susel

V spomin rojaku Franc Rozini

MILWAUKEE, Wis. - Bela in neusmiljena smrt je v petek 21. februarja 1986 objela s svojimi koščenimi prsti našega znanega rojaka Franc Rozina, ponosnega Slovenca in zavednega katoličana.

Rodil se je pred 77 leti v središču današnje lepe Slovenije, v Šmartnu pri Litiji. Mladost mu je tekla v domačem kraju. Pozneje, v zrelih letih, si je izbral poklic strokovnjaka na gostinsko-turističnem polju; zaposlen je bil v največjem hotelu na Bledu, kjer se je zbirala mednarodna petična gospoda. Znanje par tujih jezikov mu je zelo koristilo v odgovornem in kočljivem poklicu.

V tem lepem življenju je izbruhal druga svetovna vojna. Franc Rozina je bil prisilno mobiliziran v nemško vojsko. Z njo je v veliki nevarnosti koračil po raznih državah Evrope, dokler se mu ni nudila prilika, da je pobegnil iz vojske in sicer blizu domačega kraja, ki je takrat pripadal italijanski vojski in v katerem so bili aktivni komunistični partizani.

Tudi tukaj naš Franc ni našel zaželenega miru. Ker je bil zaveden katoličan in protikomunističen borec, je razumljivo, da je tudi on s tisočimi drugimi moral na trnovo pot emigracije, najprvo v Avstrijo in pozneje v razne logorje v Italiji. (Njegovi spomini o tem obdobju ravno sedaj objavljamo v torkovi AD. Ti sestavljajo njegov zadnji prispevek našemu listu. Op. ur.)

pomoči nikaragveškimi gverilcem, potrebujem pa veliko več zanesljivih podatkov, kot jih je sedaj na razpolago. Slišati je namreč, da celo v Reaganovi administraciji, v Pentagonu in drugod dvomijo, da imajo ti gverilci sploh kaj možnosti uspeha. Služijo naj kot pritisk na sandinistično vodstvo, da se demokratizira ali pa vsaj, da ne nadaljuje z uvajanjem dejanskega komunističnega oz. totalitarnega režima.

Če smo pripravljeni pomagati tem gverilcem, kakor tudi afganistanskim in angolskim — kot želi Reaganova administracija — z orožjem in strelivom, kako daleč smo pripravljeni iti po tej poti? Pred 30 leti je Eisenhowerjeva administracija, ki je veliko govorila, da bo ne samo zavrnila napredovanje komunizma, ampak temu gibanju odvzela nekaj že zaslužjenih dežel, odklonila podporo madžarskim upornikom. Velika razlika med besedo in dejanjem. Sedaj pa trdijo nekateri najbolj vneti zagovorniki Reaganove politike, da ako zvezni kongres ne bo odobrila omenjenih 100 milijonov dolarjev, in ako bodo gverilci propadli, se bo lahko zgodilo, da bo treba ameriške vojske poslati v Nikaragvo. Reagan sam trdi, da je govoričenje o taki invaziji nesmisel, vedno pa pripominja, da mu ni nič žal, ako o tem niso sigurni sandinistični voditelji. Osebnostno ne verjamem, da bo do take invazije prišlo, tudi ne, če bi sandinisti enostavno proglasili nekakšno »ljudsko republiko« in se povezali z ZSSR tako tesno, kot je to storila Fidel Castrova Kuba. Mislim, da bi politične razmere v ZDA kaj takega preprečile.

leta 1949 srečno stopil na ameriška tla in se malce kasneje naselil v našem lepem Milwaukeeju, se je zanj pričelo novo življenjsko poglavje. Zaposlil se je takoj v tovarni Allen Bradley Co., kjer je zvesto delal vse do svoje upokojitve.

Kot veren katoličan je postal delavni član slovenske fare sv. Janeza Evangelista; ostal je silno aktiven vse do svoje smrti. Bil je tudi član KSKJ in požrtvovalen tajnik Misijonskega krožka v Milwaukeeju. V teh letih se je tudi oženil v Kanadi s slovensko rojakinjo Marico, z njo pa ustvaril v Milwaukeeju dom in družino. V zakonu mu je žena Marica povila tri sinove in zalo hčerko.

Leta 1950 je bil pokojni Franc Rozina eden od ustanoviteljev slovenskega društva Triglav in bil večkrat izvoljen za predsednika. Bil je tudi član dramskega odseka in večkrat nastopil v raznih vlogah. Tako je bil na primer graščak Benjamin v Desetem bratu v režiji Alois Galiča, izvrsten je bil kot plačilni natak v veseligr Pri belem konjičku, katero je režiral Vlado Kralj.

S kančkom sreče je po zaslugi pok. Franca društvo Triglav kupil 15 akrov zemlje v okraju Racine. Pridni člani in članice Triglava so zemljišče očistili, uredili in ga preuredili v današnji krasni Triglavski park. V tem Parku si je Franc postavil na gričku lepo gozdno hišico, kjer je s svojo družino v poletnem času užival čisti slovenski zrak in slovensko družbo.

Pokojni Franc je rad prebiral knjige, rad je na društvenih prireditvah govoril, zelo rad je deklamiral slovenske pesmi. Rad je poslušal tedensko slovensko radijsko uro in bil mnoga leta zvest dopisnik Ameriške Domovine. Bil je visoke in pokončne postave ter dobrega srca, zato so ga otroci imeli radi, ko jim je kot sv. Miklavž vsako leto v decembru razdal lep darila in prav tako lepe nauke.

Rajniški Franc je bil resnični poštenjak, mirne narave, obenem pa veseljak in prijeten družabnik. Čestokrat je sanjal o velikih in visokih življenjskih podvigih, kateri pa se mu niso nikdar uresničili. Zelo je bil priljubljen tako med novimi kot starimi naseljenci. Vsi ga bomo ohranili v najlepšem spominu.

V pogrebem zavodu Tebo-Peppey-Klemmer smo se v ponedeljek, 24. februarja, zvečer z vsem spoštovanjem poslovili od našega Franca. Z molitvijo rožnega venca se je poslovil od njega njegov svak, Rev. Franc Jan. Z lepim govorom v angleškem jeziku se je slovesu pridružil župnik fare sv. Janeza Evangelista Rev. Lovrencia Grom, za društvo Triglav pa tajnik Franc Menčak.

Naslednji dan, 25. februarja, se je vršil pogreb ob zelo veliki udeležbi rojakov in rojakinj iz pogrebnega zavoda v cerkev sv. Janeza, kjer sta sv.

Kupiti yugo ali ne kupiti — to je vprašanje

Znana in zelo cenjena ameriška revija Consumer Reports je v svoji februarski številki objavila zelo dolgo in natančno oceno jugoslovanskega vozila »Yugo«, ki ga zadnje mesece prodajajo na ameriškem trgu. Po vesteh, objavljenih v ameriškem časopisju, gre prodaja kar dobro. Vendar je bila revija Consumer Reports v svoji oceni zelo kritična in je celo odsvetovala nakup. Zanimivo pri tem je, da so vsebinsko te kritične ocene objavili v ljubljanskem Delu 22. februarja (str. 27). Pisec članka je neki Peter Starič iz Ljubljane. Ker smo objavili o Yugu nekaj laskavih poročil, naj se bralci seznanijo tudi z drugačno oceno. Ur.

Veliko se govori o tako imenovanem poslu stoletja, to je o prodaji Zastavinih avtomobilov yugo v ZDA. Načelo, da moramo prodajati na konvertibilni trg, da bi se čimprej rešili dolgov, in pripravljenost Crvene zastave, da pri tem pomaga, je treba vsekakor pohvaliti. Vendar pa velja v Srbiji tudi pregovor »ne čini razanj dok je zec u šumi«, ki ga pri tem poslu ne gre prezreti.

Ameriški trg je zelo zahteven, saj ima tamkajšnja avtomobilska industrija vse drugačno tradicijo kot naša. Tja niso mogla prodreti mnoga evropska podjetja, ki so po kakovosti in natančnosti daleč pred Crveno zastavo.

Brali smo, da bo zaslužek v ZDA dober. Skrbno so izbrali in še dodatno šolali delavce, ki sestavljajo avtomobile, trdno so privili dobavitelje sestavnih delov, zlasti glede rokov in kakovosti, in še bi lahko naštevati. Na vozilu so opravili več kot sto sprememb.

Prav je, da so Zastavo oprostili plačevanja carine za tiste sestavne dele, ki bodo šli potem v izvoz. Toda hkrati se Crvena zastava brani plačevati obresti domačim kupcem, ki so avto že plačali in čakajo nanj. Kragujevčani razen tega zahtevajo še druge, dodatne olajšave.

Pri tem se zastavlja vprašanje: ali hoče Crvena zastava v ZDA kaj zaslužiti, ali pa jim gre le za to, da bi se Američani na vsak način vozili tudi v naših avtih, pa naj (nas) stane kar hoče? (močne črke moje, op. ur. AD.)

Malo dobrega, veliko slabega

V zadnjem času so naši časopisi pisali, da so v ZDA časno ustavili prodajo yugov. Nekatera vozila namreč niso imela pravilno pritrjenih varnostnih pasov. Zaradi tega bodo pregledali vsa, tudi že prodana vozila. To je slišati lepo in pošteno. Jugoslovanski bralec lahko iz tega sklepa: končno smo postali bolj natančni!

Venda pa vsa zadeva ni tako preprosta. V reviji Consumer Reports so februarja letos objavili izide poskusov juga. V poročilu je omenjenih precej napak, le o vijakih pri varnostnih pasovih niso nič napisali.

Zato bi bilo prav tudi širšo javnost seznaniti s tem preskusom.

Iz tega poročila je mogoče razbrati, kakšne so resnične možnosti za prodajo yugov v ZDA oziroma kako so pri Zastavi poostriili kakovost in nadzor pri sestavljanju teh avtomobilov. Ker bi podrobnosti (tri strani dolgega poročila) sodelile bolj v posebno avtomobilsko revijo, bomo navedli samo kratek povzetek. Preskusi neodvisne organizacije so ugotovili, da je pri našem yugu:

ZELO DOBRO

- izogibanje v kritičnih situacijah (sprednji pogon ima pač svoje odlike);
- zavore;
- odčitavanje s plošče z instrumenti.

DOBRO

- zagon in tek;
- poraba (za ameriške razmere, kjer stane liter supra približno 26 centov ali 82 dinarjev).

KOMAJ ZADOVOLJIVO

- sprednji sedeži so slabo oblikovani (prevleka spominja na frotir) in neustrezni za dolgiine; dobra opora za spodnji del hrbtišča;

- skromna ventilacija: samo dve odprtini v višini obraza;

zrak iz ventilatorja se slabo ogreva, zadnji dve stekli se odpirata samo za dva prsta.

- pospeševanje je zadovoljivo, vendar je na klancih avtocest treba vključiti nižjo prestavo;
- vožnja je hlastna in sunkovita na stranskih cestah ter groba in »avtobusna« na avtocestah; dobro prekorači večje vzbokline; če je polno obremenjen, je vožnja nekoliko mehkejša;

- hrup je utrujajoč, motor premočno brni, slaba cesta pa hrup še poveča;

- položaj voznika je izredno neroden, volan je previsoko in preveč horizontalno, stebel volana je nagnjen proti desni, pedali so preblizu drug drugega, sklopka je nerodna in preveč proti desni, za noge je premalo prostora;

- gretje je slabo in vsiljivo, zadostno jeseni in komaj zadostno pri temperaturah, ki so malo pod ničlo;

- prtljažnik je premajhen, zadnja sedeža je mogoče le delno premakniti naprej in še to le, če sprednje sedeže močno porinemo naprej; dvigalka in rezervno kolo sta pripravno nameščena v motorskem prostoru;

- v knjižici nič ne piše o vleki počitniške prikolice, tega najbrž ni mogoče storiti.

ZELO SLABO

- menjalnik je nenatančen in trd, v ZDA že dolgo niso videli kaj takega;

- zadnja sedeža sta neprimer-na za odrasle;

- pri nakazovanju smeri zlahka vklopiš še dolgo, oziroma kratko luč, z vzvodi za ventilacijo in gretje je nerodno upravljaliti;

- odbijača sta prešibka in slabo varujeta vozilo; pri trkih s hitrostjo 3 mph (4,8 km/h) je bilo na sprednjem delu vozila za 620 dolarjev škode, zadaj pa za 461 dolarjev.

Pri preskušanju so ugotovili 21 napak, ki so nastale zaradi površnosti pri sestavljanju vozila. Najbolj zoprno je bilo, ker je iz motorja kapljalo olje, ki je močilo dno karoserije. Kadar je olje kapnilo na vroč izpuh, se je duh po smodu razširil po notranjosti vozila. Tega niso mogli odpraviti niti po večkratnih popravilih v delavnici, ki je pooblaščen za popravila yugov.

Sklopka je šklepetala. Zavore so cvilile in včasih blokirale (!), tako da vozila po ravnem ni bilo mogoče pognati več kot 80 km/h. Pokrov motorja se je odprl (!), merilnik hitrosti je cvrkotal. Radijski sprejem (na vgrajenem radio-kasetofonu) je bil tako zanič, da so raje poslušali kasete, pa tudi tu zvok ni bil kaj prida. Na menjalniku sta bila odvita dva vijaka itd.

Consumer Reports

odsvetuje nakup

Če se je vozilo s tako številnimi napakami kljub vsemu

Kako daleč naj gremo?

V zadevi podpiranja gverilcev v Nikaragvi sem torej sicer naklonjen, in če bi moral v kongresu glasovati, bi glasoval za Reaganovo stališče. Zahteval bi pa sprotno nadzorovanje in ocenjevanje akcij gverilcev, predvsem pa zahteval, da se vrnejo v Nikaragvo in se tam bojujejo in usidrajo. Če tega ne zmorejo ali nočejo, potem bi ne nadaljeval s pomočjo. To ni igra; če hočejo biti gverilci in borci, naj bodo gverilci in borci v resnici in ne le »na papirju«.

Pohvale vredno v Reaganovi zunanji politiki je to, da zagovarja načelo podpiranja tistih, ki želijo v zaslužjenih domovinah uvesti demokratičen politični sistem. V nekaterih primerih je ta pomoč lahko izključno ali predvsem političnega značaja. Najnovejši primer so Filipini, deloma pa tudi Haiti. Ko gre pa za totalitaren, še posebej pa za komunistični režim, načelno ne smemo izključiti tudi podpiranja oboroženih gverilcev. Tisti, ki taki politiki načelno nasprotujejo, češ da ni v skladu z našimi najosnovnejšimi principi, naj se seznajajo z našo lastno, ameriško zgodovino za časa naše revolucije in tudi z vsebino naše »Deklaracije neodvisnosti«.

prebilo skozi poostreni nadzor, kakšni so potem šele avtomobili, ki jih Zastava dela za domačega kupca!

Ker je yugo za zdaj še novost na ameriškem trgu, ni mogoče veliko reči o njegovi zanesljivosti. Domnevajo, da yugo ne prekaša Fiatovih avtomobilov, za katere v ZDA pravijo, da so pod povprečjem, zato jih skoraj ne uvažajo. (Ko sem bil v letih od 1967 do 1970 v Oregonu in včasih tudi v sosednjih državah v ZDA, sem videl precej Volkswagnovih hroščev, le dva fička in enega fiata (1300).

V reviji Consumer Reports tudi uvozniku yugov Malcolmmu Bricklinu ne zaupajo preveč. Doslej je poskušal na ameriški trg spraviti že več tujih avtov, toda vsakokrat brez uspeha. Prvič je poskusil leta 1969 z avtomobilom subaru 360, ki je podoben nekoč znani iseti. Vozilo je bilo neprimerno, predvsem zaradi var-nosti, zato so ga prepovedali že predno so ga sploh začeli prodajati. Pozneje je Bricklin začel proizvajati športne avtomobile, toda tudi ta posel je propadel. Nato je prevzel uvoz in prodajo ponesrečenega Fiata XI/9 in spiderja. Avtomobili so šli slabo v promet.

Čeprav so prve avtomobile yugo v ZDA razgrabili, revija Consumer Reports odsvetuje nakup, in to ne glede na ceno. Ugotavljajo namreč, da bo lastnik s časom za popravila plačal več, kot pa (skupaj z nabavno ceno yuga) stanejo podobna vozila (na primer Chevrolet Sprint, ki ga prodajajo po približno 5570 dolarjev).

Na avtomobilih yugo še niso opravili vladnega preskusa z zaletom (tako imenovani Government Crash Test). Če se yugo pri tem ne bo obnesel, bodo zagotovo prepovedali prodajo, ko so to že storili s subarujem 360. Pa še en Damoklov meč visi nad yugom — protidumpinški postopek. Če bo yugo postal trn v peti ameriški avtomobilski industriji, se utegnejo avtomobilska podjetja započeti v borne osebne dohodke delavcev, ki sestavljajo te avtomobile v državi, ki se ponaša z geslom »delu čast in oblast«. Tu bi potem zagotovo pogoreli.

Ko je ladja s prvimi yugi odplula proti Ameriki, so jo pospremili s poskočnimi koračnicami. Ne bi bilo slabo, če bi godba v Baru začela vaditi tudi drugačne melodije, na primer drugi stavek z Beethovnov Eroido, morda Brahmsovo tragično uverturo ali kaj podobnega. To utegne priti prav, če se bodo začela površno sestavljena vozila — kot je na primer tisto, ki so ga preskusili — vračati v Jugoslavijo.

Razsodba o idrijskih izgredih

Slovensko javnost so razburili izgredi, ki so bili v Idriji konec lanskega septembra. Spopadli so se mladi slovenski fantje in pa delavci, ki so prišli v Idrijo »s trebuhom za kruhom« iz južnih predelov SFRJ. Sredi februarja je sodišče v Idriji zadevo obravnavalo in izreklo kazni. O tem je poročal v Gorici izhajajoči Katoliški glas sledeče:

Po šestdnevni obravnavi je sodišče v torek, 18. februarja, izreklo razsodbo v zvezi z izgredi, do katerih je prišlo 28. septembra lani v Idriji, ko so se spopadali slovenski mladinci in delavci iz notranjosti države.

Vseh obtožencev je bilo 21. Od njih je bilo šest oproščenih (tri iz republike Bosne in Hercegovine in trije iz Idrije), šest delavcev iz omenjene republike ter en Idrijčan so bili obsojeni od enega meseca in dvajset dni do štirih mesecev in dvajset dni, preostali Idrijčani (osem po številu) pa so prejeli le denarne kazni od 30 do 40 tisoč din. ($US = 315 din) Sodišče je v razsodbi poudarilo, da je upoštevalo olajševalne okoliščine kot so mladost obtožencev, dosedanja nekaznovanost in vpliv alkohola. Zato so kazni mile.

Sodnica je nato opisala potek izgredov: v prvi skupini naj bi sodelovalo devet delavcev, ki so pred Modno dvorano napadli štiri Idrijčane (to naj bi bil odgovor na neki prejšnji pretep); v drugi skupini naj bi sodelovalo kakih 20 Idrijčanov, ki so po pretepu pred Modno dvorano telesno obračunali z delavcem z Juga; tretja skupina, še številčnejša, pa je vdrla v idrijski grad in tamkaj strahovala speče delavce iz Makedonije. Ob spoznanju, da pravih napadalcev ni bilo med njimi, se je nato razšla.

Zagovornik Bosancev je bil Stevo Vojinović. Ta se je obregnil ob delo miličnikov, ki po njegovem mnenju niso ustrezno ukrepali in opozoril na dejstvo, da mladina v Idriji razen gostiln nima kje prebiti prostega časa. Kar se tiče delavcev iz drugih republik, se pa ti težko prilagajajo, ker imajo nižjo izobrazbo.

Domačine je branil Bruno Krivec. Tudi on je dejal, da razmere v Idriji niso naklonjene in da so tudi one na zatožni klopi. Sodni postopek naj bi bil tak, da »bo z resnico izbrisal madež, ki ga je neresnično pisanje ustvarilo v javnosti o idrijskih dogodkih«. Predlagal je, naj ob pomanjkanju trdnih dokazov sodišče oprostí vse obtožence.

You Can Succeed — If You Try

by Stane J. Kuhar

In the Saturday edition (Feb. 23) of the Plain Dealer under the "Metro Life" section on page 3 an interesting article on the results of an eighth grade project in Solon, Ohio was written. The article pertained to the possible results from business and schools cooperating together.

Off the shores of Lake Erie you need only venture approximately one mile south and you'll find the same occurrence at another elementary school.

For the past few months the eighth grade students at St. Vitus (Roman) Catholic School, located at 6019 Glass Avenue and in the Cleveland neighborhood referred to as "St. Clair Heights," have been receiving instructions on the basics in business.

Topics have ranged from supply and demand, taxes, credit, job applications and interviews, and a host of other business concerns.

This instruction has been made possible through a pro-

Thanks

The family of Jack Winter of Concord Township wishes to thank all the wonderful friends and relatives for all the prayers, flowers, gifts and the beautiful cards which he received during his long illness. It would be impossible to send out individual notes to each one, but be assured that we will never forget you.

Just as this was going into print we received word that Jack Winter passed away and his battle with cancer is over. He will sure be missed by his devoted wife Gerrie and their three children that Jack was so proud of and for good reasons. He also leaves his grieving mother Josephine and four brothers and two sisters who with their families did everything they could to ease his suffering. May God rest his souls in peace.

gram known as "Project Business." Project Business is sponsored by Junior Achievement in cooperation with local businesses across the country. Ameritrust Co. N.A., a financial banking concern headquartered in Cleveland, Ohio, is the business sponsor at St. Vitus.

Project Business really gives students an opportunity and initial introduction into various business careers and opportunities.

The program is usually 13 weeks in duration with a time limit of 45 minutes per class. A consultant is generally provided by the sponsoring company.

So what does this all mean to these students at St. Vitus?

The practicality from these classes was experienced in December 1985 when these same students sponsored a bake sale. The students bought stock in their own company to purchase supplies. They also formed a company and elected officers.

The end result? Approximately $300 to $400 was raised. A portion of the proceeds was designated to the Food Bank at St. Vitus, indicating from the students that business has an obligation to be responsible for the social welfare of less fortunate persons.

But perhaps the most important lesson learned by these St. Vitus students is that cooperation and teamwork can and will accomplish almost anything; the real success in business is in dealing with and resolving people problems.

This particular class will end within two weeks. But the lessons learned will be lifelong.

(Note: Mr. Kuhar has been a consultant at St. Vitus School for three of the past four years. Mr. Kuhar is a supervisor for the Transportation Management Operations department at Ameritrust Co. N.A.)

TUNA EGG FOO YOUNG

1 - 7 oz. can tuna
6 eggs beaten
1 No. 2 can bean sprouts well drained
1 small green pepper chopped
1/2 cup finely shredded onion
1/8 tsp. pepper
shortening for frying

Add pepper to eggs and beat well. Add remaining ingredients. Melt shortening in skillet. Add as much mixture, depending on size of omelet that you want, leveling vegetable evenly over entire surface. Brown on both sides turning once. When done sprinkle with soy sauce.

MACARONI OMELET WITH CREOLE SAUCE

Cook 1 cup elbow macaroni in boiling salted water, drain. (I use the Creamettes 7 minute macaroni). Combine with 1/2 cup finely diced sharp process American cheese. Beat 4 egg yolks until thick and lemon colored and add to macaroni mixture. Fold in 4 beaten egg whites. Melt 1 tbsp. butter or margarine or cooking fat in 10-inch skillet; when hot, pour in egg mixture.

Cook over low heat about 20 minutes or until lightly browned on bottom. Loosen. I cut mine in quarters and turn over for just a short while. Place on hot platter and serve with Creole Sauce.

Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Creole Sauce:

Cook 1 small finely chopped onion and 1 medium chopped green pepper until tender but not brown, in butter or margarine. Add one 8 oz. can tomato sauce and 4 oz. can mushrooms or 1 cup chopped fresh mushrooms. If using canned, drain the mushrooms. Add a little pepper and simmer 10 minutes.

Dance of the 40s, 50s

A dance will be held at Waterloo Road featuring the music of the 40s and 50. It will be held on Saturday, April 5th with the Johnny Vadnal Orchestra providing the nostalgic sounds.

Donation is $5 and tickets can be found at John's Fun House 684 E. 185 St., or call Louise 943-0553, or Emily 585-2462, or stop in at Tony's Polka Village, 971 E. 185 St.

This is the third year in a row the event will be held. It has been a smashing success in other years and this year promises to be no exception.

VEGETABLE AND CHEESE MAIN DISH

8 med. potatoes cooked and mashed
1/4 cup margarine
1/3 to 1/2 cup hot milk
1/2 tsp. majoram
1/4 tsp. pepper
1 large onion, sliced
1 bunch broccoli, trimmed and cut up
2 medium carrots, sliced thin
1 cup sliced fresh mushrooms
3 tbsps. margarine
1 cup shredded mozzarella cheese (or more)

Mix 1/4 cup margarine, milk and seasonings into hot mashed potatoes. Spoon into a lightly greased baking dish or casserole. In medium skillet, sauté vegetables in remaining margarine for 10 minutes or until carrots and broccoli are crisp-tender. Turn mixture out evenly over top of potatoes. Sprinkle with cheese. Bake uncovered at 300 degrees 10-12 minutes. Serves 6-8.

These recipes are all favorite meatless dishes from the kitchen of Mary Postotnik Pangonis, an expert in the culinary arts and also our dedicated office gal at the American Home.

Wants Eckart to become pro-life

Editor:

I'm not surprised that Dennis Eckart seeks re-election in the 11th District of Ohio (A.H. Feb. 21 edition).

Despite the commendable things he has done or promises to do in Congress, Mr. Eckart fails to reveal his voting record on abortion.

This young man, a graduate of St. Joseph High School and Xavier University, in 16 opportunities to vote in defense of the innocent unborn, voted favorably but 3 times, which is not quite as bad as Ed Feighan's record on the same amendments.

I would remind the Catholic Slovenians in the 11th District that Dennis has frequently voted contrary to what his church teaches. It is my opinion that Mr. Eckart often votes, not his conscience, but what his party dictates.

Dennis, I sure would love to see you on the pro-life side of law making.

QUICK 'N' EASY WHOLE WHEAT ROLLS

1 cup milk
1/4 cup plus 1/2 teaspoon sugar, divided
6 tablespoons butter or margarine, cut into pieces
2 packages active dry yeast
1 cup warm water (110°F.-115°F.)
1 teaspoon vinegar
3 cups all-purpose flour
3 cups whole wheat flour
1 1/3 cups cold water
2 teaspoons salt

Grease 24 2 1/2-inch muffin-pan cups. In small saucepan heat milk, 1/4 cup sugar and butter or margarine over medium heat until butter melts. In small bowl mix yeast and remaining 1/2 teaspoon sugar. Stir in warm water; set aside in warm place. Stir in vinegar.

In medium bowl combine flours. In large mixer bowl combine hot milk with cold water. Add 1 1/2 cups flour mixture. Add yeast and beat 2 minutes. Add remaining flour mixture and beat 5 minutes more. Add salt and beat 1 minute more. Spoon by tablespoonfuls into muffin-pan cups until 3/4 full. (Dough will be sticky.) Smooth tops with a wet spatula. Place pans in cold oven; heat oven to 325°F. Bake 1 hour or until lightly browned. Cool on wire rack. Makes 24, about 170 calories each.

Circle 1 Bake Sale

For a carefree holiday when it comes to baking, let the Progressive Slovene Women of America, Circle 1 Ladies, under the watchful eye of Mary Dolsak, fill your orders for potica, sweet bread, donuts (krofe), and noodles.

The bake sale takes place on March 24, 25 and 26 at the Slovenian Workman's Home on Waterloo Rd. Phone orders will be gladly accepted by Jennie Kapel at 486-6245, Fran Mauric at 531-6393, Celia Wolf at 261-0436 or any other PSWA Circle 1 member. Early ordering will be greatly appreciated. Support the ladies who in turn support many worthwhile charitable endeavors.

Memo From Madeline Slovenes Mined Stone for Miss Liberty

by MADELINE DEBEVEC

A combination of Slovenian pride and Statue of Liberty inspired patriotism recently caused Cleveland resident Jennie Fenc to think about the past.

Jennie wrote us that an American Home article by Charlie Tercek on being proud to be Slovenian made her reminisce about her youth in Pennsylvania.

Jennie wrote: "When I was about 6 years-old I had to take lunch to my father at the stone quarry, and I remembered hearing that stone from the quarry in Forest City was used to build Ellis Island. But was it real or did we kids make it up?"

As it turned out, Jennie was right on the mark. After she wrote a letter to the Forest City News, the paper printed the following answer in a story reprinted from Aug. 11, 1898:

"Contractor Frank Carlucci has secured a big contract from the government to supply cut stone to be used in the erection of the Ellis Island Landing Station in New York harbor. The stone will be taken from the Forest City quarry. This is a contract which approximates a quarter of a million dollars, and Mr. Carlucci was only one out of many who bid for the job."

As Forest City News publisher John P. Kameen wrote, it's nice to know that Slovenians are a part of our nation's cultural heritage, especially in this year of celebration for the Statue of Liberty's restoration.

By the way, Jennie tells us that John is a relative of the late John Komin of Cleveland and Chris Zivoder. Thanks, Jennie, for keeping us up on our fellow Slovenians, as well as the rich heritage of our nationality.

Travel News

Jo Ann and Ed Kaifesh of Kirtland along with Josephine Klemencic and Mary Lou Ambrose enjoyed a cruise from Acapulco to San Francisco. They were celebrating Jo Ann and Josephine's birthday with 30 of their friends aboard.

Gary Bukovnik Reception

Watercolors, monotypes and lithographs done by Gary Bukovnik of San Francisco, a Painesville native who was educated at the Cleveland Institute of Art, will be displayed through April at the Cleveland Play House Gallery, 8500 Euclid Ave. A reception for Bukovnik is from 5 to 7 p.m. Sunday.

(We have spotted Bukovnik's vibrant paintings in restaurants in Florida and South Carolina.)

Beres-Troha Wedding

Fairport Congregational Church in Fairport Harbor was the setting for the wedding of Joyce A. Troha and Matthew R. Beres. The Rev. Robert Sandham officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Troha, 7260 Williams Road, Painesville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beres, 5546 Vrooman Road, Painesville.

Richard Brienik of Crestline, brother-in-law of the bride, and Mark Beres of Sarasota, Fla., brother of the bridegroom were ushers.

A reception at Meximilian's in Mentor honored the couple before a wedding trip to Kane, Pa. They will live in Fairport Harbor, Ohio.

The bride is a graduate of the Academy of Court Reporting in Cleveland and is a court reporter for Linda Skok Court Reporters in Painesville. Her husband is a graduate of Kent State University and is a recreation specialist at Deepwood Center in Mentor.

Get Wet — Keep Fit

Eleanore Rudman has announced the forming of Water Exercise Classes at Quality Inn 28600 Ridgehills Dr., Wickliffe, Ohio. The classes will be held Monday afternoons for eight weeks in March and April from 1 to 2 p.m. The cost is $24 for eight weeks. First class is March 10.

(Editor's note: March 6 marked the 10th anniversary of Madeline D. Debevec's "Memo to Madeline" column. Since 1976 — in sickness and in health — Madeline has produced more than 500 columns, most of them enriched by what she considered her mandatory attendance at literally hundreds of social events each year.

With an objective to report the news and accomplishments of Slovenians throughout the world, Madeline's column has far exceeded all expectations in terms of readership and popularity. But now she's looking to share some of the weekly

"There comes a time when attending four of five events on a Saturday night becomes too much," she says. "Now I feel it's necessary to utilize more of my time with book-keeping and accounting procedures of the American Home."

As a result, Madeline would like to cut down her column-writing chores to once or twice a month and share her regular space with interested contributors, perhaps high school and college students or senior citizens willing to attend local functions and report on the Slovenian scene.

Anyone interested should give her a call at 431-0628.

St. Vitus Pancake & Sausage Breakfast Sunday, March 9

The 27th annual "Pancake and Sausage Breakfast" sponsored by the St. Vitus Holy Name Society, will take place this Sunday, March 9, at the St. Vitus Auditorium, E. 62 St. and Glass Ave., one block south of St. Clair Ave.

Breakfast will be served continuously from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The menu will include pancakes, sausages, orange juice, butter, syrup and choice of coffee or milk. All this will be yours for only $3.00 for adults and $1.50 for children under age 12. Last year over 900 breakfasts were served.

Tickets will be available at the door this Sunday.

Ponderings from Steve Shimits

Here the weary traveler from the bustling, sweltering city finds solitude, quiet and cool breezes. Here, where life is primitive with only an occasional touch of the ultra-modern — a fairyland of fantastic shapes and bizarre figures — the wayfarer discovers at least the perfect vacation-land. Pitch your camp here; breathe deeply of the strangely aromatic atmosphere; explore the strange terrain where interesting, sometimes valuable souvenirs may be picked up for the taking. For an unusual vacation at almost cost — come to the city dump!

When the golfer felt he was too old to play golf, he took up the harmonica. Now he still plays 36 holes a day.

A man who went to confession was told to drink the juice of five lemons as penance. "Will that take away my sins?" he asked. "No," said the pastor, "but it will wipe that smile off your face."

I have a cassette that starts automatically when I look at it, stops automatically when I don't look at it, that can play forward and backward, quickly and slowly, entirely at my pleasure.

Food Drive for Needy nears End

The campaign to collect food for the hungry continues this week, but ends next Thursday. Food items can be dropped off at The American Home, 6117 St. Clair Ave., or at Tony's Polka Village, 971 E. 185 St.

Checks may be made to the Catholic Hunger Fund or to the Greater Cleveland Inter-church Council.

Polka groups honor Kenny Bass March 23

Girard, O. — There is much that separates Cleveland and the greater Mahoning Valley but there is also much that suggests both are personalities of the same parents. Although Cleveland has a decided edge in size and population, both were and are obsessed with the passion of steel, the halo of their heritage, their struggle for survival and their strong desire to preserve and extend ethnic music.

The Penn-Ohio Polka Pals (POPPS) is an organization highly skilled in entertainment, deepseated in culture and a custodian and librarian of "happy music." In language and habit, it could be likened to a League of Nations.

POPPS understands it does not have sole possession to the jewels of sharps and flats, so it showcases a prominent musician each and every year. The honorees must have massive credentials in the area of musical longevity, people interests, and public response and exhibit a cooperative spirit and effort within their community.

POPPS has decreed that Cleveland's Kenny Bass possesses all these attributes of musical citizenship, so they have set aside Sunday, March 23 as Kenny Bass Day. The festivities are scheduled for the Georgetown on Youngstown's Southside. Movement will begin at four o'clock with the Wojtila Bros. band of Cleveland featured later in the evening.

There is a long symbolic polka corridor, embossed with the music of our forefathers, connecting Cuyahoga and Mahoning Counties. Kenny Bass will walk that trail on that day and at that time to accept the applause and gratitude of a host of admiring friends and enthusiasts.

It must be said that Kenny Bass is a survivor. He listed such musical giants as Frankie Yankovic, Johnny Pecon, Eddie Habat, Johnny Vadnal and Georgie Cook, not only as close associates, but also as friendly musical adversaries. To succeed among such an array of personalities is to suggest that Kenny's talent and ability was heavily and frequently tested in every category.

As with many other phases of life, the adventure into polka land was strewn with hardship and obstacles. Radio station managers looked upon polka music as an oddity that belonged in a museum. It wasn't until the Frankie Yankovic-Johnny Pecon "Just Because" record sold a million copies that a station manager consented to offer Kenny a 13 week trial as a polka disc jockey. It was also then that Peter Bastasic became known as Kenny Bass.

Kenny has witnessed the horizons and sunsets in his musical journey. He has amassed an unbelievable 38 years as an active polka disc jockey and that has given him the privilege of viewing the polka field from the mountain top.

His musical production numbers are impressive. With 17 albums and more than 200 singles, Kenny and his Polka Poppers ranked high among the polka bands in the country. Among their biggest sellers were "My Polka Lovin' Gal" and "Lake Erie Polka." Once again Cleveland produced another favorite son.

While Kenny is no longer hopping, he is still popping. The musician, composer, bandleader and veteran polka broadcaster is still conducting his Happy Time polka program from Chardon, Ohio over radio station WBKC, 1560, 1560 AM on Sundays from 9 a.m. until 10:30.

Bass has acquired a vast assortment of memories. His road trips are history. His string bass lives the respected life of a retiree. His booking calendar has been inactive since 1970 when a radio show became more persuasive than a road show.

While Bass emerged on the picturesque polka scene as a diamond in the rough, he departed as a sparkling gem. He could have chosen to watch the landscape on the Lake Erie shores but opted to paint pictures of polka music. A vast army of friends and boosters applaud his choice and ambition.

His wife, Ronnie, and his five offspring shouldered the sacrifices and surely, they are entitled to share in his successes. POPPS offers a salute to his productive past, his energetic present and best wishes for a positive future.
