RAZNO IZ AMERIKE IN INOZEMSTVA

TRGOVSKA AVTIVNOST
 Federal Reserve Board naznaja, da se je trgovinska aktivnost v tej deželi tekoma meseca septembra zelo dvignila in da prav malo zaostaja za tozadevno višino v letu 1937. Kupčija se vrši večinoma med domačimi tvrdkami, in sicer v glavnem za izpolnitev domačih zalog ter v pričakovanju večjih naročil iz inozemstva. Tudi banke beležijo večje investicije, kar se pripisuje gradnji novih tovarnih in povečanju obstoječih. Zaposlenost se je znatno dvignila in istotako so se dvignili dohodki dežele v splošnem.

ZA VARNOST PACIFIKA
 Pretekli teden je iz Los Angelesa odplulo 39 ameriških vojnih ladij proti Havaju. Za njimi je poletelo v isti smeri 80 vojnih letal. Vse to je namenjeno ojačenju ameriške patrulje na Pacifiku. Atlantska stran ameriškega obrežja je dobro patruljirana po vojnih ladjah in letalih. Istočasno skrbi vlada Zedinjenih držav za varnost na zapadni strani ameriškega kontinenta.

MIR SE ZAČNE DOMA
 Predsednik Roosevelt je pretekli teden poslal posebno poslanico konvenciji American Federation of Labor, vsebujočo poziv, da naj omenjena unijska organizacija sprejme začetne pogajanje za sodelovanje z drugo veliko unijsko skupino, Congress of Industrial Organizations. Predsednik je poudaril, da je v teh nemirnih časih potrebno, da se začne z delom za mir doma in da naj obe veliki delavski organizaciji položita na stran pretirani ponos in sebičnost ter naj prenehata z medsebojnimi bojem. Ameriško ljudstvo potrebuje in zahteva v teh časih kar največjo složnost doma in pri tem morajo sodelovati tudi unije organiziranega delavstva.

AMERIŠKA ZRAČNA SILA
 Zedinjene države imajo sedaj samo okrog štiri tisoč vojnih letal, to je znatno manj kot jih imajo Anglija, Nemčija, Rusija ali Italija posamezno. Toda ta dežela ima nad deset tisoč potniških in tovarnih letal, mnogo izvežbanega letalskega osebja in skoro neizčrpne zaloge olja, kar omogoča vezbanje desetstoseč letalcev. Poleg tega se številno ameriških vojnih letal množi z vsakim mesecem.

PROZOREN TRIK
 Ameriškega mornarškega atašeeja v Berlinu je dne 5. oktobra pozval k sebi nemški admiral Erich Raeder in mu povedal, da ima iz zanesljivih irskih virov poročilo, da bo ameriški potniški parnik Iroquois blizu ameriške obale potopljen po Angležih. Na krovu Iroquoisa je okrog 500 Američanov, ki se vračajo iz Evrope domov. Ataše je to vest takoj sporočil predsedniku Rooseveltu, ki je takoj odredil, da odpluje oddelek ameriških vojnih ladij Iroquoisu naproti in ga spremlja proti domu. Poročilo nemškega admirala je seveda prozoren trik, da zvrne krivdo na Angleže, če bi nemška podmornica omenjeni ameriški potniški parnik potopila.

PROBLEMI PRISELJENCA

Vprašanje: Prišel sem nezakonito v Združene države meseca februarja 1923. Ze mnogo let čakam na priliko, da bi uredil svoje bivanje in postal ameriški državljan. Ali je res, da mi je sedaj dana prilika to stvar urediti?

Odgovor: Res je. Kongres je končno sprejel dodatek k zakonu, ki je dajal inozemcem, ki so prišli pred 3. junijem 1921, pravico takozvane registracije. Ta pravica je bila sedaj raztegnjena na vse one, ki so prišli pred 1. julijem 1924, pa ni nikakega zapisa o njihovem zakonitem prihodu v svrhu stalnega bivanja. Predsednik je podpisal novi zakon dne 7. avgusta in je zakon takoj stopil v veljavo. — Da se stvar uredi, mora inozemec ali inozemka dokazati sledeče: 1) Da je prišel v Združene države pred dnem 1. julija 1924; 2) da je po svojem prihodu neprenehoma stalnoval v Združenih državah; 3) da je oseba dobrega moralnega značaja; 4) da ni podvržen deportaciji. — Za prošnje služi tiskovina Form 659. Treba ti skovino izpolniti v dopisu in jo poslati najbližji priseljeniški postaji z Money Ordrom za $10 in dvema fotografijama.

Vprašanje: Prišel sem leta 1925 v Združene države skupaj s svojo ženo, sicer zakonito, ali le začasno na obisk. Radi zmedenih razmer v Evropi pa sem ostal tukaj. Dobro zaslužim in nisem bil nikdar na relifu. Nekje sem čital, da je bil v kongresu zakonski predlog, ki bi dovolil inozemcem, ki so tukaj vsaj 10 let, da uredijo svoje bivanje, tako da morejo postati ameriški državljan. Ali je bil ta predlog sprejet?

Odgovor: Tak predlog je bil stavljen v prejšnjem zasedanju kongresa, ne pa v enakomirnem. Kakor zakon danes stoji, vi in vaša žena sta podvržena deportaciji. Edini način za ureditev stanja je ta, da se podate v inozemstvo in zaprosite ameriškega konzula za priseljeniško vizo. Druga stvar bi bila, če bi bili prišli pred 1. julijem 1924, kajti ravnokar je sprejet zakon, ki omogoča legaliziranje onim, ki so prišli pred tem dnem.

Vprašanje: Ali je res, da je bil sprejet zakon, ki določa registracijo vseh inozemcev v Združenih državah?

Odgovor: Bil je tak predlog v kongresu, ali kongres ni nič ukrenil v tem pogledu. Enaki predlogi so bili stavljeni v raznih državnih legislaturah. V državi Pennsylvaniji je bila registracija inozemcev vzakonomna in se sedaj tam uveljavlja. Vprašanje: Naselil sem se v tej deželi leta 1911, oženil se in tukaj v vzgojil svoje otroke, zaprosil pa nisem nikoli za ameriško državljanstvo. Končno sem se odločil vložiti naturalizacijsko prošnjo. Nekdo pa mi je rekel, da federalna sodišča odklanjajo prošnje onih, ki so dolgo leta tukaj stanovali. Kaj je res na tem?

Odgovor: Res je, da v nekaterih okrajih sodniki odklanjajo prošnje za naturalizacijo, ako je inozemec stalnoval tukaj dolgo leta, ne da se bil pobrigal za naturalizacijo. Nekateri sodniki so namreč izrazili mnenje, da taki prosilci vsled dolge zamude ne pokazujejo, da so preveč udani ameriški konstituciji in da bržkone niso dobro gradili (Dalje na 4. strani)

NAPOLÉON IN HITLER

Mnogi ljudje dandanes primerjajo nemškega kancelarja Hitlerja s francoskim cesarjem Napoleonom, ki je pred dobrim stoletjem podjarmil skoro vso Evropo. Po podatkih v neki ameriški reviji sta si Hitler in Napoleon slična v sledečih ozirih:

Hitler, ki danes vlada veliko Nemčijo, je po rojstvu Avstrijec; Napoleon, ki je postal cesar Francije, ni bil Francoz, ampak je bil rojen na otoku Korsiki. Hitler je sin nižjega carinskega uradnika; Napoleon je bil sin malo pomembnega odvetnika. Hitler je bolj male postave, zaljubljen in kredastega obraza; Napoleon je bil majhen, čokot in grd. Hitler nima intimnih prijateljev; Napoleon ni zaupal nikomur v svoji družbi. Hitler je v svojih akcijah nagel, predrezen, brezobziren in ima instinktiven dar za politiko moči; Napoleon je bil v svojih akcijah hiter, pogumen in nagel orientacije ter je imel instinktiven dar za vojne akcije. Hitler prezira vse vlade, razen svoje; Napoleon je preziral vladarje in ljudstva drugih dežel.

Hitler in Napoleon pa se razlikujeta v mnogih drugih ozirih. Hitler ima le majhno izobrazbo in se ponaša, da se od svojega dvajsetega leta naprej ni ničesar več naučil; Napoleon je bil izobražen, naravno inteligen ten ter je mnogo čital in študiral. Hitler ni v javnosti ničesar pomenil do svojega 40. leta; Napoleon je bil velika moč v Franciji že s svojim tridesetim letom. Hitler je politični reakcionar vse svoje življenje; Napoleon je bil v svoji mladosti radikalec, toda je postal konservativec, ko je prišel do moči. Hitler je len in zaspan, razen kadar je čustveno razburjen; Napoleon je bil zakrknjeno dinamičen delavec. V zadevah organizacije in administracije je Hitler skoro popolnoma odvisen od drugih; Napoleon je bil ekspert ne samo v vojaških zadevah, ampak tudi v civilni administraciji. Hitler se postavlja kot božje orodje za ustvaritev velike Nemčije; Napoleon je bil egoist, ki je rabil Francijo za dosego svojih ciljev in tega ni nikdar tajil. Hitler je slabovoljen mističen asket, ki se izogiba žensk; Napoleon je bil zdrave in močne narave, je ljubil zabave in tudi ženske.

ODKRITJE AMERIKE

Dne 12. oktobra 1939 bo poteklo 447 let, odkar je bila odkrita Amerika po Kristofu Kolumbu. Veliki pomorščak, katerega rodbinsko ime je bilo Colombo, je bil italijanskega pokolenja, rojen leta 1451 v mestu Genoa. Njegov oče je bil tkalec in tudi sin je nekaj časa sledil očetovemu poklicu. Pozneje je postal pomorščak. Kot tak je v službi španije in s finančno pomočjo španske kraljeve rodbine mogel opremiti tri male jadralnice, s katerimi je odplul proti zapadu iskat nove poti v Indijo. On ni vedel, da med Evropo in Azijo leži ogromni ameriški kontinent. Po treh mesecih vožnje se je dne 12. oktobra 1492 s svojimi pomorščaki izkrcal na otoku Guanahani, kateremu je Kolumb dal ime San Salvador. Kateri izmed številnih otokov je bil, danes ni natančno znano, vsekakor je bil nekje v bližini Cube in Haitija, katera otoka je Kolumb kmalu nato odkril. Zanimivo je, da Kolumb ni nikdar vedel, da je odkril novi kontinent, ampak je bil do svojega (Dalje na 4. strani)

NASVETI K SEZONI

Mesec oktober se v slovenščini imenuje vinotok, kar znači, da se v tem času dela novo vino. Znači tudi, da je Slovenija v velikem delu vinorodna dežela. Tudi slovenski priseljenci v tej deželi cenijo vinsko kapljo. Od kar je ukinjena prehranila, se naši tukajšnji rojaki ne ukvarjajo več toliko z izdelovanjem vina, toda mnoge družine se še vedno vsako jesen založijo z grozdni sokom. Za tiste, ki se s tem bavijo, je na mestu par preprostih nasvetov.

Za napravo dobrega vina sta potrebna dva glavna pogoja, namreč zrelo in zdravo grozdje in pravilno ravnanje z grozdni sokom. Gnijo ali plesnivo grozdje ne bo dalo dobrega soka in plesniv, kisel ali smrdeč sod pokvari najboljše vino. Sod, ki diši po kislini, ki je plesniv, ali sod, v katerem se je kdaj prej skisalo ali pokvarilo vino, ni za rabo. Dandanes je mogoče po nizki ceni kupiti dobre vinske sode; posebno priporočljivi so sodi, v katerih je bilo prej žganje.

Kleti naj se v gorkih jesenskih dneh dobro očistijo in prezračijo. Priporočljivo je tudi pobeliti jih z apnom, ker to uniči mnogo glivic plesnobe in gnilobe. Klet dostikrat služi v pozni jeseni in pozimi za nekako delavnico in za shrambo različnih pridelkov in drugih predmetov, torej naj bi bila zdrava in snazhen prostor. Kadar v kleti kipi ali vre novo vino, naj se ista vsaj nekoliko zrači. Plini, ki izhajajo iz kipečega novega vina, so strupeni, in marsikdo je že plačal z življenjem, ko se je brezskrbno podal v zaprto klet, kjer so kipele večje količine novega vina. To si je vredno zapomniti.

Drevesno listje, ki v tem času odpada z dreveja, se da imenitno porabiti za napravo kompostne ali listne zemlje, ki je velike vrednosti za vrt in trato. V to svrhu naj se v kakem vrtnem kotu izkoplje primerno globoko jama, v katero se nasiplje drevesno listje. Med to listje je dobro namešati nekoliko vrtno zemljo, da hitreje gnije. Če je suho, naj se ga zmoeči. Ako se na listje potrosi nekoliko živčega apna, tudi koristi. V letu ali dveh listje zgine in da najfijnejšo listno zemljo za gojitev zelenjave, cvetlic in vrtno trate. Mnogokje vidimo, da z dreves odpadlo listje sežigajo, kar je velika potrata. Tudi če listja ne rabimo za napravo listne zemlje, ga lahko porabimo za zimsko kritje vrtnic ali pa tudi za pokrivanje znane solate enodivije, ki pokrita z listjem, v par dneh postane rumena in porabna za kuhinjo.

Cvetlice-lončarice, ki so tekom leta rastle na prostem, je treba brez odlašanja presaditi v lončke, ako jih nameravamo imeti v hiši čez zimo. Presajene cvetlice naj se dobro zalivajo in postavijo v kakšno zavetje, kjer ni premočnega sonca in kjer jih ne more doseči slana. Na vsak način jih je treba spraviti pod streho, predno začne padati slana.

Gomljaste cvetlice, kot so dalije ali georgine, kane, gladiole, kaladium in slične, smejo ostati na prostem, dokler jim slana listja ne opari. Gomalje pa je treba izkopati in spraviti v suho in hladno klet, predno začne zemlja zmrzovati.

Zdaj je čas, da se od trgovin s semeni naroči ali kupi čebulice cvetlic za cvetje v zgodnji po (Dalje na 4. strani)

ODMEVI IZ RODNIH KRAJEV

ZAKASNELI LISTI

Ljubljani listi, ki so izšli zadnje dni avgusta in prve dni septembra, so bili uredništvu Nove Dobe dostavljeni šele 3. oktobra. Običajno dospejo starokrajski listi v manj ko dveh tednih v Ameriko. Omenjene izdaje listov je pač na en ali drugi način zadržala na poti vojna napetost oziroma pričetek evropske vojne. Kasnejše izdaje listov prihajajo dokaj redno in z malimi zamudami.

DOBRA VINSKA LETINA

Dolenjska se letos ponaša z dobro vinsko letino. Pridelek je obilen, tako na tej strani Gorjancev kot v Beli Krajini, in grozdje se je pri ugodnem vremenu lepo razvilo in dozorelo. Vino bo dobro kot že ni bilo od leta 1928.

IZ SAVINJSKE DOLENE

Glavni pridelek lepe Savinjske doline je hmelj, ki spada med najboljše v Evropi. Hmelj je letos povoljno obrodil, toda povpraševanje po istem so za nekaj časa skoro popolnoma ustavili mednarodni dogodki. Zadnje čase se je kupčija s hmeljem vendar pričela spet nekoliko razvijati. Povprečna cena za kilogram je 38 dinarjev.

NAVIGIRANJE CEN

V začetku evropske vojne so tudi po nekaterih krajih Jugoslavije začeli ljudje grmaditi živila in brezvestni trgovci so pričeli navijati cene. Mestne uprave v Zagrebu, Splitu, Šibeniku in drugod so opozorile prebivalstvo, da je vseh važnih živil v Jugoslaviji dovolj in da ni nobenega vzroka za odvečno nakupovanje ali za navijanje cen. Nekateri izkoriščevalci so bili ovađeni sodišču.

POŽARNA NESREČA

V Nevljah pri Kamniku je v nedavni noči pogorelo gospodarsko poslopje posestnika Milana Kirna. Poleg velike škode, ki jo je požar prizadejal gospodarju, je družino zadela še hujska nesreča. Štirinajstletnega domačega sina so hudo opečenelega komaj rešili iz požara. Pozneje je nesrečni deček v bolnišnici podlegel opeklinam.

IZ ŽENSKÉ MOŠKI

V Beogradu se je nedavno preobrazila iz ženske v moškega strojepiska in pisateljica podlistkov v beograjskih in pokrajinskih listih, gospodična Ada Lelasova-Veseličeva. Deklica že od mladega ni bila popolnoma pravilno razvita, pa so zdravniki sodili, da se bo tisto samo uredilo z nastopom pubertete. To se ni zgodilo in po dolgem odlašanju se je gospodična odločila za operacijo. Operacija je bila uspešna in Ada je odšla iz klinike kot Adam v moški obleki. Slični primeri so sicer redki, vendar se od časa do časa pojavljajo tu in tam.

ILIRSKA GROBIŠČA

Nedavno so začeli izkopavati temelje za novo cesto iz Kranja v Naklo. Pod Prešernovo kavarno so odkrili ilirsko grobišče ter več žar in okrasov. V tej okoliščini so že pred leti našli grobišča Ilirov, katerih naselbina je bila v tistem kraju nekako v sedmem stoletju pred Kristom. Muzejsko društvo v Ljubljani je poslalo eksperta, da vodi izkopavanje. (Dalje na 4. strani)

VSAK PO SVOJE

Svet postaja z vsakim dnem večja zagonetka. Ruska vlada je baje vzela v najem švedske tovarne ladje, da bo mogla še nadalje zalagati Anglijo z raznim blagom. In Anglija je v vojni z Nemčijo, s katero je Rusija v prijateljski zvezi. Mussolini, ki je zadnja leta na vsa usta kričal za vojno, zdaj na vse kraje moleduje za mir. Bolgarski kralj se skuša prikupiti ruski diktatorju Stalinu s tem, da mu je poslal zavoj najboljših balkanskih cigarete. In jutri bomo morda čitali, da je jugoslovanski regent Pavle poslal Stalinu zelenko najboljših srbske slivovce, obenem z rešto pravih kranskih klobas. Vse je mogoče.

Argentina je ustavila izvažanje papirja ali papagajev v Zedinjene države. Podpora! Tu imamo že itak dovolj papagajev in mamagajev, ki so preleni, da bi sami mislili, ampak le kima jo in ponavljajo za drugimi.

Zveza ameriških izdelovalcev raznih lepotic pričakuje, da bodo ameriške ženske v tem letu potrošile 200 milijonov dolarjev za razne praške, barvila, parfume, mazila in druga lepoticna sredstva. Tisti denar bo čisto proč vržen. Iz grde ženske ne more napraviti lepotic niti za 200 milijonov dolarjev lepotic; po naravi lepa ženska pa ne potrebuje lepoticenja.

V listih čitamo, da so ameriški papirarji sobe te čase jako zaposleni. Vsekakor niso tako zaposleni kot je zaposlen bivši papirar Hitler v Evropi.

Včasih so žganje starali v lesenih sodih po več let, da je postalo mehko in okusno. Dandanes pa baje starajo žganje s tem, da ga izpostavijo ostrim zvokom. Če je res, kar pravijo, se pri tem glasbenem tršču mlado žganje v sedmih urah bolj postara kot v štirih letih počenjanja v sodih. Iz tega bi se dalo sklepati, da se žganje najhitreje postara v salunih, kjer pijanci najbolj zadirčno prepevajo. Z žganjem vred pa se morda postarajo tudi salunarji in bartenderji.

Nemci so zelo hudi na našega predsednika Roosevelta. To je dobro znamenje, ki dokazuje, da je mož na svojem mestu. Če ga bodo kdaj začeli nemški naciji hvaliti, bo nekaj narobe z njim.

V mestu Tulsa, Oklahoma, sta bila dva črna obtožena, da sta se brez kopalne obleke kopala v jezeru nekake javnega parka. Pred sodnikom pa sta obtožena navedla v svoj zagovor sledeča temna dejstva: Kopalna sta se ob pol desetih zvečer, ko luna ni svetila, in oblečena sta bila v črni kopalni obleki; kako naj policist v temni noči vidi črna v črni obleki!

Pismo Harleja Wells, ki z uradnim avtomobilom po šest dni na teden razvaža pošto v okolici Leroya, Ill., in ki vsak dan prevozi 44 milj, je svoje letošnje počitnice porabil s tem, da se je z avtomobilom odpeljal na zapad in prevozil skoraj 9 tisoč milj. Kje neki se za tega moža konča delo in začne počitek!

DEAR EDITOR:
This is the second and final installment of my story, "Shouldn't tell a lie." "Don't get scared, Fred. This is just the doctor. He has some pills for you," said his wife.
"I won't take any medicine, I'm too sick," said Fred.
"What! You are too sick to take medicine?" inquired his wife. "Don't be foolish!"

"We will take him to the hospital tomorrow morning at 6 a. m. for an examination," Dr. Hot said before leaving the house.

Fred did not hear what was going on. Then Mrs. Fair came to Fred and said, "We will take you to the hospital in the morning. You will be better."

Fred screamed and kicked. "Fred, do not lose your temper so quickly," his wife chided him.

"What is the matter with me?" asked Fred.

"You told me your nerves were bad," said his wife.

"Oh, no! I didn't. I told you I was all right," said Fred.

"On my, I thought you said to call me. You told me that your nerves were bad, and I called Dr. Hot and told him it was a mistake."

DEAR EDITOR:
Been picking time is just about over and boy, what a relief. Now school has started and this means that all of us are to get our brains a-working. It's wonderful sight to see all of the children walking to school. First the little ones with their newest dress proudly walking to school and with a happy smile on their faces and then the little ones with rather sad looks on their faces picking up each thing on the street and walking along slowly to school. Some of the children are carrying a basket of interest to them. (My father's hobby was collecting junk once upon a time, so I guess I was no better.)

Then the high school pupils are walking along wondering if they ever finish going.

September is here and you sure can tell it for the days are getting shorter and colder and the wind is always blowing. This month is also a busy month, housewives busy canning and farmers busy getting ready for winter. This is also a busy month for me. I'll be signing off till next month.

DEAR EDITOR:
I would like to thank you for the article I received for my presentation. Now to start out my article about the convention.

Again I would like to greet all my friends and members.

At last here writing this article, it reminds me of Ely, Minn., when I was a member of the SSCU. I wish the convention could have lasted longer, but all things must come to an end.

It is right. The end of a glorious year. Now we are on our way back to school.

I would like to thank Mrs. Hubbard for being so kind to the four delegates from Denver. I was sorry to leave my home at night in Ely, and at the time when I was staying.

When we arrived in Omaha we were greeted by Charles Broderick's uncle. He took us to his home where we were all having a fine lunch. We were all hungry and glad to get there when we left Ely. I hope to go again. I would like to thank Mrs. Broderick for being so kind to us.

I hope success to all the delegates, and members of the SSCU.

DEAR EDITOR:
Do you recall in my last letter that I had been made happy? Well, I have been made very happy recently.

There is my little kitten? Oh where, oh where can she be. With her black silky fur and white spotted face, oh where, oh where can she be?

I found my kitten, Lorraine Erickson, and a very good friend.

When I saw the kitten in a yard about two blocks away. I was there and sure enough my kitty was there. The kitten was gone a while. I hope she never gets lost again and she is very friendly and likes to cuddle.

I wrote my first letter to the Nova Doba in December, 1938. I never missed a month since. This is my eleventh consecutive letter. My friend, Florence Dorothy, wrote her first letter to the Nova Doba in February, 1939, and from February 1938 on she has never missed writing to the Nova Doba once a month, which is about 21 consecutive months. She wrote other letters for the regular English page.

I like to play newspaper reporter with my sister. We have an office, with a typewriter and typewriter. Florence likes to be a reporter and she is a very good one. I like to play making papers with extra-extra news. I think this is lots of fun. I learn to write and spell this way, a lot. I need very much. Florence has two scrapbooks full of published material, and is now starting on her third. One is just her SSCU scrapbook, which is already filled up. I started my scrapbook last Christmas, but it is a miscellaneous one. I do not read very much, and for that reason my scrapbook has many pictures.

I just started to take xylophone lessons from Mr. Di Nino. I will rent the school xylophone. I like it very much. Piano lessons given me by Florence helped me a lot in note reading. Florence still gives me piano lessons every day. She is teaching me "Home on the Range." I just love this song.

DEAR EDITOR:
It is a long time since I last contributed a letter to the Nova Doba, and it is about time for me to write. I never miss reading the letters written by the juveniles.

I always like to read Elsie D., Anne P., Bob J., and Florence Dorothy S., letters first because they are so interesting. I wonder where Elsie gets all her words she uses. Before I end my letter I will submit a story that I made up.

REVENGE IS SWEET—SOMETIMES
Feeling sort of happy, one night, Mae decided to go to sleep before brother Francis because she planned to give him a little scare.

About nine o'clock Mae heard him ascending the stairs. She stood prepared for her work. The minute he entered the bedroom she shoved a bright flashlight into his eyes. This being very powerful, he shut his eyes. As he was standing on the carpet, Mae gave the carpet a jerk and down her brother went. He gave a yell, and fled downstairs into the kitchen.

Something gave Mae a hint that Francis would get square with her. The next morning about six o'clock Mae put a long string across her bedroom. On the string were attached two cans of water, bells, rattles, etc.

Sure enough he came into her room with some things in his hands. She held her breath and shut her eyes, but in a moment she heard a crash and saw Francis lying on the floor, (and if she remembered correctly) wet as ever, and the bells were ringing. Mae laughed so hard that her mother heard her downstairs and she came up. Seeing the water on the floor, she commanded, "Since you have planned to wash the floor, tomorrow, you will scrub it."

The next day while she was scrubbing, Francis stood there, laughing. All he said was, "Revenge is sweet-sometimes, but not with you."

Soudan, Minn.

DEAR EDITOR:
It seems to me that some of our readers should be puzzled, for sometimes I head my article with Soudan, Minn., then again, the next time with Tower, Minn. I am really from Soudan—I was born there and lived there until I went to high school. (Incidentally we call high school from the ninth through the twelfth grades.) Then, since there were no high schools in Soudan, I went to the one in Tower. The school in Tower is called the Tower-Soudan High School because we have students of both localities attending it. I have been staying at my grandma's ever since I began high school so I address my letters at Tower where I receive all my mail. In spite of the above situation, I belong to St. Barbara, SSCU lodge of Soudan, so it is no more than proper that I head my article Soudan, Minn.

School commenced here on Sept. 11 and it surely was some fun. Our new schools are not as yet entirely finished so some divisions have churches for classrooms. The schools are expected to be ready by this coming March—and I'm sure any number of pupils are very happy about it. I am a sophisticated senior this year and am taking four subjects—Chemistry, Higher Algebra, English and Economics.

Right now the football season is in full swing. We (Tower-Soudan) played Ely on Sept. 16th and lost by a score of 20 to 7. This score was quite contrary to the prediction of 21 to 0. On Sept. 23rd, we played Biwabik and this score of 7 to 0 in favor of Biwabik, was also contrary to the prediction of 21 to 7. Our high school has a fine team and the boys can surely fight. After the first half of the later game, the score was still 0 to 0. It was only toward the end of the game that Biwabik finally scored.

Autumn or Indian Summer is here and the trees are "tres beau" with their many colored leaves. Jack Frost surely has admirable power with his paints. Everything seems so calm and peaceful. The time is here "when the frost is on the pumpkin" and the potato harvesting has begun. Most families in Soudan have small farms for gardening at the end of the town. It surely is fine picking pumpkins, squashes, and cabbages, especially when one finds the largest one.

On Sept. 2nd, I had the good fortune of answering an invitation presented to me by Frances Koritnik, an athletic delegate from Gilbert. She invited me to her home at Gilbert. The "Zenske" had a little conference on this day and a dance was held at Gilbert's new Community Center at night. Gilbert has a marvelous Community Center. Bill Rupp and his orchestra from Chisholm played for this dance. I had the good fortune to meet many of the delegates from the range towns again. It was something like old times. I was only sorry I couldn't stay for the picnic, which was the very next day. Fannie, her mother, and dad and sister were just wonderful to me. I could not express my thanks to them in words for their generosity. Fannie has a new bicycle and I guess I would never tire riding it.

With homecoming in view and also many more football games, I think we can all look forward to having some more exciting times. We are having the next game with Mt. Iron and this time we are going to win. I hope to tell you all about it.

DEAR EDITOR AND JUVENILES:
School has been going on for three weeks now. I've joined two clubs this year in school, a Journalism club which meets on Mondays and the G. A. A. (Girls Athletic Association) which meets on Friday. Everyone in the high school must belong to at least one club. There was a long list of clubs to choose from, Glee Clubs, Writing Clubs, Chess Clubs, Radio Club, etc.

Choir practice has started again and we girls all like her. Recently she gave a talk to the mothers of the Washington School P.T.A. on girl scouting. It was very instructive as she explained every little detail of scouting very thoroughly. She is a marvelous talker. I'm certain that I will enjoy scouting this year.

My school chum, Angela Vertnik, has started to take clarinet lessons. She says she likes to play the clarinet very much. At the next conventions you might see Angela playing in the school band. I introduced Angela to many of the delegates. We had a swell time during the convention, didn't we, Angela.

Elsie Desmond, I want to thank you for the lovely write-up about me. Your articles on the convention are wonderful. Many parts of your articles bring back delightful memories of the convention to me. Keep it up Elsie.

Anne Prosen, I also want to congratulate you on your splendid articles. I always read everything written by you in the Nova Doba. I hope some day, Miss Prosen, to be as good a reporter as you.

Amelia Korosek, a delegate to the 3rd Juvenile convention, was the guest of the Thursday Evening Musical Club, which held its first meeting of the season on Sept. 21st. She sang several Slovene folk songs. She has a lovely voice. Amelia and I have our piano lessons on the same day.

Joseph Mantel Jr., son of the first supreme vice president of the SSCU, and Miss Kathryn Loushin of Chisholm were married on September 23rd. John Golobich, my cousin, was best man.

My cousin, Lieutenant Lawrence Golobich and his wife surprised Lawrence's parents by coming (home) here on a visit. They came with Lawrence's new car. They visited in Ely for several days. They also spent some time with his wife's parents at Soudan, Minn.

My two aunts, Mrs. John Golobich and Mrs. Joseph Grahek, went to Duluth Sept. 26th where they both underwent an operation at St. Mary's Hospital the following day. It is rather unusual for the two sisters to be operated in one morning. I wish them both a speedy recovery.

On Sunday, September 24th, the regular meeting of the Minnesota SNPJ Federation was held at Chisholm, Minn. in the Recreation Building there. My mother was a representative for her lodge. On the same day, in the same town, and in the same building, the Minnesota SSCU Federation also held its meeting.

I've just found out that Margaret Mikar works at the SSCU office. I'm very glad that she has the job and I hope, Miss Mikar, that you will continue your work there for a long time.

I'm submitting the following poem which I have composed.

SIGNS OF AUTUMN
Autumn leaves are falling down
Making the woodlands yellow, scarlet and brown.

Empty nests are swinging
Where once the singing
Of the birds was heard.

The harvests are being gathered,
Everything is colored brown.
The trees in the orchards
With fruit are bending down.
Squirrels are scattering all about,
The air is crisp and clear
Chestnut burrs are everywhere,
Now that autumn is here.

I will submit another poem next month.

CLEVELAND, O.

DEAR EDITOR:
I wish to express my thanks for the dollar award extended to me for my last article. The money certainly came in handy for school is on again. On October 30th we are going to have a Halloween party with masquerade costumes as features.

Imagine my surprise when my father told the family to come down into the cellar one morning. A little bird made its presence. How? We do not know, for all the windows were closed. Evidently he came through the chimney. My father opened the windows, so the bird could fly out, and waiting for the bird outside was a cat.

This month a Friday falls on the thirteenth. Some people think this an ill omen. Here is a story for the readers; James is Superstitious.

James was a boy of 12. Very superstitious, you can imagine how he felt on Friday, the thirteenth. This made him very nervous, and while he went into the bathroom his elbow broke a mirror. This meant seven years of bad luck for him. That evening, there were 13 plates prepared for the supper, to accommodate outside visitors. All went well until James spilled the salt. He forgot to throw it over his left shoulder.

Some more bad luck. His mother told him to sit in the front room and rest before playing ball. Other things happened to make James nervous, such as a picture falling off the wall. All these signs indicated bad luck. That evening a big letter came for James from his uncle. Thinking that it might be some more bad luck, imagine James' happiness in finding out he was to receive a $300.00 check from his uncle. He could now buy a bicycle. No longer did James believe in superstitions, for all he got out of them were worries.

DEAR EDITOR:
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Once again it's Fall and the time of the year when lusty voices ring out heartily through the crisp, autumn air, cheering their teams on to victory. Yes, I mean in that grand and vigorous game of football. Capacity-filled grandstands, flying pennants, present a panorama of color wherever a game of football is being played. The players don't seem to mind the clashes with the dusty grounds when they are trying to make a touchdown for their Alma Mater.

Once again, too, Fall is the time of the year when Halloween makes its welcome bow on the stage of time. Masquerade parties await anxiously the moment when they are to unmask and reveal to others who they really are. Gay-faced jack-o'-lanterns twinkle at windows throughout the evenings. Fence-gates seem to become mysteriously unhitched while peals of youngsters' laughter die away with the retreating mischief makers. Windows, which were once spotless, are now mercilessly "soaped," causing annoyance to their owners and pleasure to the funsters. All these are characteristic of Halloween and its celebration.

Then again, too, this is the time of the year when Nature is at its peak of beauty. Scattering leaves of many hues fall from trees, creating a natural carpet over which many enjoy walking or running. The woods at this time excel in beauty of color. Once-green trees are now magically changing to reddish brown, yellow and many other pretty colors.

In concluding this article, I am submitting an original poem for publication.

HERE IN MY CHAIR
I like very much
To sit in my chair,
Away from the touch
Of worry and care.

Gaze through the windows
At people scurrying by.
There goes a lady,
So little and old
N' so far as I can see
She's timid, not bold.

The shawl 'round her head
Is some sort of red;
The parasol she carries
Thumps 'gainst her knees.
Her face seems to shine
As she scurries along.

You'd think something very fine
Just mended some wrong.
Soon she becomes
A thing of the past,
'Cause here comes a lad
And he seems very fast.

His tie is a-flying
Along in the breeze,
'N you can see he's trying,
A little dog, to tease.
A yell, then a scream
As they race down the street,
The dog yelping loudly
At all whom they meet.

Then round the corner
They soon disappear
Where to, you don't know.
But here come some schoolgirls
And I might say,
They're telling each other
The tales of the day.

So, all through the day
The people go 'long
While I sit
Here in my chair!

GOWANDA, N. Y.

DEAR EDITOR:
Leaves are turning different colors, all of the kids walking and playing in the leaves, and I sure can remember the fun I use to have playing in the leaves. Many people hiking through the woods, plenty of football games going on. What does this remind us of? Oh! Yes! Fall has come once again. It won't be long when we'll be cuddled around the stove.

Little Stan or Elsie Desmond, do you know of John Somrack, Ely's photographer, (the one you spoke of in your letter, Elsie) is the same person who stayed in Gowanda for a while? One of the juveniles, where he and his wife stayed, asked me to write and see if you two knew. He is well known by quite a number of Slovenes of Gowanda and if the same person, formerly lived in Girard, Ohio.

On October 12, we celebrate Columbus Day. If you read your history you can remember way back in 1492, while Columbus was seeking a new route to India, he found this great unknown world.

I'm also including a short story entitled: Halloween.

A group of boys and girls were talking over the things that they would do on Halloween night. The next day after school they told the other gang about their plans and they just laughed at them and told them they would get into trouble, but they didn't listen to what they said.

Halloween came and with plenty of wax they headed for school. They did a good job of waxing and then as they were going home, they forgot about the burdocks near the school and they walked right into them.

The next day the principal came in to the room and seeing the boy with still some of the burdocks on his sweater began asking him questions; after a long deliberation the boy admitted that he had waxed some of the windows and told the rest of those that were with him.

Then after school for about a week they had a job of washing windows and a job it was getting the wax off. The whole school was laughing at them and they were very angry for the rest had a good time after school and they had to wash windows. They said they would leave school windows alone from now on.

DEAR EDITOR:
In my first paragraph I wish to take the opportunity to thank the supreme board very much for the $3.00 check I received on October 2. Thank you very much.

You have been reading articles sent in by the juveniles on reports of the convention and other subjects. I think that we should take this means of thanking all the juveniles who are so wonderfully supporting their Union, and also being so loyal to their fine paper. But one thought remains. You juveniles must keep on writing because if you won't keep up the juvenile page, who will? So you see try and write every month, even if your article is short just so you have an article in at least once a month.

This looks as if it is another busy month for Little Stan, so I guess I'll take over his Magic Carpet. Yes, this carpet just wants to fly by itself today. Just as my typewriter does. Let's go to Pennsylvania first and drop in to see Theresa Macek who gives us a short review of her trip to Ely. Wishes to thank Mr. and Mrs. Mantel for their kindness while she was staying at their home. . . . On to Strabane we find our very active juvenile writer, Veronica Barbic sending in a very long and wonderful article of her trip to Ely. That was swell, Veronica. Hoping to see another of your articles in soon. . . . From Falls Creek we have Mary M. Kozal sending in a short poem, entitled "My Brother". . . . From Pa. we travel down to Colorado, our first stop is at Cokedale where the Magic Carpet finds Clara Frian, delegate to the convention. She tells us in her own words how much she enjoyed the trip to Ely and wishes to thank Mr. Okoren, Mr. Zbasnik, Little Stan and Mr. and Mrs. Pierch for the fine things they did for her. . . . Leaving Colorado with one thought in mind and that is that your reporter believes that there should be more articles in the paper from the delegates and other juvenile members of Colorado. . . . Stopping at Omaha, Neb., we find Charles Broderick still wondering about those good old days in Ely. Wonders if Emil "ride-em-cowboy" remembers that night in Stan's office? We wonder too. . . . To Butte, Montana the Magic Carpet flies hurriedly to find my other correspondent, Dorothy Predovich thanking the wonderful people in Ely for her fine time there. Yes, Dorothy we agree with you that the governor is rather handsome. . . . Leaving Montana we go to Minnesota at Eveleth first and find Anne Laurich thanking all the folks for giving her a wonderful time while she was in Ely. . . . To Chisholm we find another beauty and she is none other than Dorothy Kotchevar. Just can't express the fine time she had in Ely. . . . To Ely, the Playground of a Nation, we find my dear correspondent, Florence D. Startz writing a fine article on almost everything. Thanks for the compliments, Florence. . . . Her sister, Margaret tells us that she received her first permanent wave. . . . that she went back to school on Sept. 5 and likes it. . . . Are you behaving like a good girl, Margaret? . . . Back to Cleveland we find Florence Prosen writing two well composed poems. . . . Sally Hrvatin, herself has in a good article and my good friend, Ann Winkler, a proud new member, has a very wonderful interesting letter, at least as a beginner. . . . Yours truly signing off of the Magic Carpet until next month when again I shall report on the articles written by the juveniles.

School started on September 11. You can just imagine 5028 pupils going to school that morning. Some walking, some by street cars and some using the bus as means of transportation. I used the latter. This term I have the following subjects: Latin, History, Biology, English, Gym, Glee Club, a reporter's job, and helping a teacher. I start school at 8:10 and get out at 2:00. The name of the school I attend is Collinwood High.

Seems that the only very important article you see in the paper now are about the war. Only those three little letters and they mean so much to the people living there and the people living here. Many of the people who are living here at the present time have mothers, fathers or brothers and sisters living in Europe. Do you think we like the war? I should say not, but the people have said back a few years already that this is what we might have expected in '39 and so we have it. . . . war. Just because there will always be some one person in the world who will try and conquer the world. . . . himself. But in many cases it doesn't work out that way. You can see (gradually) for yourself. Yes, most parents are thinking back in the years of '14-'18. Probably you were just a tot then. You didn't know what was going on, but your parents did. They had to protect you. . . . they knew the meaning of the word "war." You cried then. But now you are grown up. You understand. You know what your parents have gone through by only reading the papers. Yes, you understand now. You must

REŠEVANJE PROBLEMOV

Vsi skupaj in vsaki zase imamo probleme, ki zahtevajo kar najbolj ugodne rešitve. Problem vsakega posameznika se tiče zdravlja in eksistence. Tisti, ki imajo na skrbi družine, se morajo ukvarjati že s številnejšimi in obširnejšimi problemi. Od tu se krog razširja na večje skupine, kot na podporne in kulturne organizacije, na upravo mest in držav, na osrednjo vladno deželo in končno na človeško družbo v splošnem.

Moči in zmognosti vsakega posameznika, pa tudi vsake posamezne skupne so omejene, zato je potrebno, da jih rabijo tam, kjer morejo kaj zaleči in koristiti. Pravilno je torej, da se najbolj intenzivno ukvarjamo s tem, kar nam je najbližje. Slab gospodar je tisti, ki se bolj briga za probleme sosedov kot za svojo lastno družino in svoje lastno gospodarstvo.

Dobri člani J. S. K. Jednote se v prvi vrsti brigajo za svoje društvo in svojo Jednoto, zavedajoči se, da imajo druge slične organizacije dovolj zmognosti in skrbnih članov, ki se bodo brigali za njihove probleme. Priporočljivo je sicer, da kolikor toliko zasledujemo tudi poslovanja drugih organizacij, da se morda od njih kaj dobrega naučimo ali pa, da se izognemo napak, ki jih morda delajo druge. Vsaka kritika pa pripada lastnim članom organizacije in nikomur drugemu. Mi želimo dobro vsaki drugi podporni organizaciji, toda v njihove notranje probleme se ne vtikamo. Tako ostajamo dobri sosedji in gentlemeni. Koristnega dela, če smo navdušeni zanj, pa imamo vedno doma dovolj.

Na uprave mest, držav in dežele, kjer živimo, moramo vplivati le posredno, to je potom izvoljenih zastopnikov. To izvedemo na ta način, da ob volitvah glasujemo za tiste kandidate, o katerih mislimo, da so najbolj zmogni in voljni delati za blagor splošnosti. Včasih je morda umestno, da izvoljene zastopnike tudi kdaj pozneje opomnimo na probleme, ki se nam zdijo važni. Pri tem pa nam seveda ne bo prišlo na um, da bi kritizirali upravo mesta Chicaga, če imamo, na primer, volilno pravico v Clevelandu, niti ne bomo kritizirali legislaturo države Montane, če živimo in volimo v Pennsylvaniji.

Kot državljani Zedinjenih držav imamo za sosedo na jugu Mehikane. Želimo jim dobro in upamo, da ostanemo z njimi v dobrih sosedskih odnosih, v notranje razmere njihove dežele pa se ne moremo in ne maramo vtikati. Le če bi naši južni sosedji povzročali krivice državljanom Zedinjenih držav, bi imeli vzrok, da se razburjamo. Morebitne korake za popravilo takih krivic pa bi mogla logično in uspešno storiti le naša zvezna vlada.

Istotako se kot ameriški državljani ne moremo vtikati v notranje razmere Jugoslavije niti ne moremo vplivati na njene mednarodne odnose. Res je, da nam je njena usoda bolj pri srcu kot usoda katere koli druge inozemske dežele, česar nam ne more nihče zameriti, toda dejansko moremo zanj storiti le malo ali nič. Notranje razmere Jugoslavije si bo po okusu in zmognosti uredilo ljudstvo, ki biva ter plačuje krvne in denarne davke tam. Za odnose z drugimi državami pa je odgovorna jugoslovska vlada, ki je za uspehe ali neuspehe odgovorna svojim državljanom. Če bi se od strani inozemstva skušala Jugoslaviji delati krivice, ima slednja kot samostojna država z zastopstvom v vseh glavnih mestih inozemstva prilike in sredstva, da se glede krivic pritoži pred vsem svetom. Peščice nas, ki smo tukaj, ne bi noben činitelj, ki kaj šteje v mednarodnem koncertu, niti slišal niti upošteval, če bi se tako kričali. Čehi, na primer, so v drugačnem položaju; zanje govorijo njihovi rojaki v inozemstvu, ker so jim doma usta zavezana.

Mi ameriški Slovenci kot taki tudi ne moremo najmanj vplivati na razvoj evropske situacije. Za enkrat ni videti niti, da bi zamogla velika republika Zedinjenih držav s svojimi 130 milijoni prebivalcev kaj dosti vplivati na skrajno zapletene evropske razmere. Amerika želi z ozirom na evropski konflikt ostati nevtralna, ker taka je zahteva ogromne večine ameriškega ljudstva. Morda bo Amerika kot neprizadeta in močna velesila mogla v dogledni bodočnosti nastopiti kot pomirjevalka in posredovalka v evropskem sporu. Ko bo čas za to, bo morda prijateljska beseda Amerike pomagala ustaviti bojno viro in sestaviti načrt za trajni mir v Evropi. Upajmo, da se to zgodi in da tisti čas ni več daleč.

Za enkrat pa je najpametnejše za nas, da se ne razburjamo in ne debatiramo preveč zaradi evropskih problemov. Zaufajmo v republiko Zedinjenih držav, da bo storila najboljšo za našo korist in za korist človeštva v splošnem. Udeležujemo se kot dobri ameriški državljani za blagostanje te dežele in prispevamo po svojih skromnih močeh, da bo baklja svobode in demokracije jasno like. Torej, glejmo, da ga bomo pili po pravi meri!

V Lancstru, Pa., je bil priveden pred sodnika 80-letni Joe Buzzard, ki je vsega skupaj preživel 34 let v raznih ječah. Obtožen je bil, da je ukradel knjiga, kar je mož brez obotavljanja vprašal, če je konja ukradel z namenom, da bi spet prišel v ječo. "Seveda," je odvrnil vprašani. "V zaporu sem preživel toliko let, da me je prišlo domotožje po znanih prostorih in sem si zaželel nazaj." Sodnik je njegovi želji ustregel. Res, domovina mili kraj!

Pred leti so evropski državni ki letali v Rim, potem so letali v Monakovo in Berlin, zdaj pa letajo v Moskvo. Čudna so pota državljanov.

Na svetovni razstavi v New Yorku imajo skupino importiranih subincev iz Iraka, ki rado vednežem kažejo umetnost izdelovanja srebrnih okraskov. Subinci so verska sekta, katerim vera predpisuje, da se morajo vsak dan kopati v tekoči vodi. V New Yorku subinci zadostijo tem predpisom s tem, da vsak dan vzamejo pršno kopelj. Amerika se jim silno dopade. Po njihovem mnenju ta dežela najbolj sliči paradizu. Ne morejo se načuditi, da je tu toliko izobraženih ljudi in da so skoro vse ženske lepe. V koliko imajo naivni subinci prav in v koliko se motijo, ostane odprto vprašanje.

Angleški zgodovinar Robert Cushing je izračunal, da v zadnjih 3500 letih, ki jih zapisana zgodovina precej točno pokriva, je bilo samo 268 let, ko je na svetu vladal mir, kar prav nikjer ni bilo vojskovanja. Zato je mir tako dragocen, ko ga je tako malo na svetu.

Znanstveniki so pronašli, da tista ura spanja zjutraj, predno je treba vstati, je telesnemu sistemu najbolj koristna in prijetna. Presneto dolgo je vzelo znanstvenike, da so pronašli tisto, kar mi vemo že od otroških let.

Dandanes, ko se po svetu go- de tako čudne reči, da jih lahko primerjamo s pravimi čudeži, se bo morda zgodil tudi čudež, da se bodo začeli naši društveni tajniki pritoževati, da člani v prevelikem številu prihajajo na društvene seje in veselice in da s prevelikim navdušenjem in pregodaj plačujejo svoje asse- mente. Prav za prav bi bili taki čudeži kar all right!

RAZNO IZ AMERIKE IN INOZEMSTVA

do 3. oktobra v Panami, so bile sprejete nevtralnostne določbe, ki bodo upoštevane od vseh ame- riških republik, in določena je bila varnostna pomorska zona ob obalah vseh republik. Ta zo- na bo mnogo bolj široka kot je bila dosedanja teritorialna zo- na. V Washingtonu bo za čas evropske vojne stalni odbor za- stopnikov vseh ameriških repub- lik, katerega posel bo paziti na vse probleme, ki jih na tej stra- ni Atlantika utegne povzročiti evropski konflikt. Ameriške re- publike še niso nikdar v zgodo- vini pokazale toliko volje za tes- no medsebojno sodelovanje kot tekom sedanje evropske vojne.

BERGDOLL OBSOJEN

Grover C. Bergdoll, ki se je tekom zadnje svetovne vojne iz- ognil službi v ameriški armadi in je pobegnil v Nemčijo, je bil pretekli teden pred vojaškim so- diščem v New Yorku obsojen na tri leta zapora pri težkem delu. Bergdoll je bil rojen in vzgo- jen v Philadelphiji kot sin bo- gate nemške pivovarniške dru- žine.

INDIJANSKO POLETJE

Zadnje dni preteklega in za- četne dni tekočega tedna je po- večini našega srednjega zapada vladalo tipično indijansko po- letje, ki se je glede gorkote la- hko merilo s pravim poletjem. V Clevelandu in nekaterih dru- gih mestih države Ohio, je v ne- deljo 8. oktobra živo srebro v toplomerih doseglo 88 stopinj.

BALKANSKI BLOK

Iz Beograda in iz Bukarešte se poroča, da je prišlo do pomir-jenja med Rumunijo in Mad- žarsko na eni strani ter med Madžarsko in Jugoslavijo na drugi strani. Posebno napete so bile razmere med Rumunijo in Madžarsko, pa tudi Jugoslavija in Madžarska si medsebojno ni- sta dosti zaupali. V vseh treh državah je bilo na mejah kon- centriranega mnogo vojaštva. Zadnja poročila javljajo, da so vse tri države odpoklicale večji del vojaštva od medsebojnih mej in da so izvedle delno demo- bilizacijo. Ustanovljena je bila med njimi nekaka prijateljska zveza, ki se morda po potrebi razvije celo v vojaško zvezo. Pri- čakuje se, da se bosta temu bal- kanskemu bloku pridružili tudi Bolgarija in Grčija in morda celo Turčija. Italija snovanje tega balkanskega bloka pospe- šuje. Mussoliniju se najbrž zdi, da edino na Balkanu more še vloga Italija kaj pomeniti. Mo- čan blok balkanskih držav s pri- druženo Italijo morda reši ju- govzhodno Evropo vojnega po- žara.

VOJNA AKTIVNOST

Na francosko-nemški fronti je razen sporadičnega obstre- ljevanja in prask med patru- ljami zelo malo aktivnosti. Na obeh straneh pa so milijonske armade v pripravljenosti. Isto- tako so v vojni pripravljenosti Švica, Belgija in Nizozemska, da ohranijo svojo nevtralnost. Pomorska blokada Nemčije od strani angleške in francoske vojske mornarice postaja vedno bolj intenzivna. Nemške pod-mornice in mine še tu in tam zahtevajo kakšno žrtev, toda zdi se, da so dosti manj učinkovite kot od začetka.

HITLER ZA MIR

Nemški kancelar Hitler je dne 6. oktobra v svojem dolgo pri- čakovanem govoru izjavil, da je pripravljen skleniti mir, seveda pod nemškimi pogoji. Ti pogoji naj bi vsebovali delno razoroži- tev, rešitev židovskega proble- ma, morebitno upostavljenje poljske države, ki bi vsebovala samo Poljake, pod nemško in rusko nadvlado, in povrnitev bivših nemških kolonij. Dejal je, da zdaj, ko je Poljska pod- jarmljena, Anglija in Francija nimata vzroka za nadaljno vojno. Nemčija da je priprav-ljena spoštovati neodvisnost Danske, Belgije, Jugoslavije in drugih sosednih držav. Pouda- ril je, da je Nemčija nepremag- ljiva, kar da bosta izkusili An- glija in Francija, če se bosta še nadalje bojevali.

Anglija in Francija smatra- ta, da je Hitlerja strah pred po- sledicami vojne z omenjenima velesilama, zato bi želel vojno za enkrat končati. Toda nihče v Franciji in Angliji ne veruje Hitlerjevemu objubam. Nemčija je zasedla Posaarje, anektirala Avstrijo in nato sudetski del Češkoslovaške, potem je pod- jarmila še ostali del Češke in končno zavojevala še Poljsko, dasi je Hitler po vsaki prej- šnjih aneksij svečano izjavljal, da ne mara nadaljnega ozemlja v Evropi.

RUSIJA NA BALTIKU

Sedanja Rusija se dotika Bal- tiškega morja prav na severnem koncu, kjer je morje najmanj štiri mesece v letu zamrznjeno. Do ostalega dela Baltičkega morja, ki ima ledu proste luke, ji branijo tri male baltičske re- publike: Estonija, Latvija in Litvinska. Te države so bile pred zadnjo svetovno vojno del Ru- sije. V interesu Anglije in Ne- mčije je bilo, da se Rusiji zabrani dostop do Baltičkega morja. Danes, ko sta Nemčija in An- glija zapleteni v vojno, je Rusi- ja izrabila ugodno priliko in si z gospodarsko in "obrambno" pogodbo izsilila dohod do ledu prostega Baltičkega morja pre- ko Estonije. Znamenja kažejo tudi, da bo dobila tako pot tudi preko Latvije in Litvinske. Ome- njene republike bodo sicer osta- le navidezno samostojne, toda v resnici bodo pod kontrolo Rusi- je. Zdi se, da je Rusija dosedaj od evropske vojne še največ profitirala.

AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

MORE THAN A SPORT

About this time of the year the cool evenings in the north make indoor sports and social gatherings very popular. Picnics, baseball teams, and outings are laid on the rack for the summer of 1940, while bowling, dances, basketball, and the like are placed on the preferential list.

Several SSCU lodges already have made plans for the 1939-1940 indoor sports program, and leading the list is bowling. Many of our lodge bowling teams have entered bowling leagues.

In Cleveland, O., John P. Lunka, fourth supreme vice president, again called together various lodge representatives interested in tenpins, to continue the Cleveland SSCU Bowling League this season. The league was first organized in 1935.

The Cleveland SSCU Bowling League meets every Sunday, at 1 p.m. at the Waterloo Recreation on Waterloo Rd. The first session took place on October 1st.

In Pennsylvania, where duckpins are preferred over tenpins, the SSCU lodge teams again are expected to go into action. In other years, there have been organized and maintained SSCU duckpin leagues in Pennsylvania. In Center, Pa. the two lodges, 33 and 221, had several teams entered in their own league.

Several years ago, Chicago, Ill. produced a bowling league of its own. Unfortunately, the sports movement in the windy city has quieted down for no apparent reason, but may be resumed at any time.

In the principal SSCU city of Minnesota, Ely, the seat of our Organization, came to life with tenpins last year, when four new alleys were constructed. For several years, Ely has been without bowling alleys, and for that reason our SSCU lodges' interest in tenpins dwindled accordingly. Last year, several SSCU teams were entered in the local league, and the ladies team from Arrowhead lodge, 184, traveled a thousand miles to participate in the SSCU's annual tenpin tournament in Cleveland. Little Stan Pechaver, director of publicity in the juvenile division, accompanied the team.

Bowling truly can be classified as a sport for fraternal lodges. For many, bowling once a week is almost as much fun as attending a lodge meeting once a month. The same people are present every week at the bowling alleys, while at the lodge meetings the observer will note that the same group of active members make it their business to attend lodge meetings once a month. Small wonder, then, that some lodge legislative action is discussed on the bowling alleys.

Perhaps the greatest compliment that can be given bowling as a fraternal sport is the unity it effects between the senior and English-speaking members. Let the younger generation follow its "fandangled" ideas, and let the senior generation entertain itself with memories of the good old days. But, when it comes to bowling, with the senior and the junior element throwing the ball side by side, the gap of years disappears, and both are on equal footing. They are pals, rooting and kidding each other good naturedly.

Both the Slovene-speaking and English-speaking members of our Union agree that bowling, whether tenpins or duckpins, has created a better understanding between them. Where in other years each has been flying through a cloud of his own, today, in bowling, the two clouds form an eclipse, with both groups only too anxious to become better acquainted.

Center Ramblers

Center, Pa. — Saturday, October 28 in Center. Mark these few words in a very conspicuous place, because I assure you, it is a date and a place you don't want to forget about. You guessed it. It is the annual Hallowe'en Dance of the Center Ramblers.

This year the affair which we always make the biggest event of the year will be held in the Slovene Home in Center. Here in this town we always make each succeeding dance bigger and better, so look forward to a super-super event on this night in Center.

Did you ever attend a party or dance in costume? Don't you have loads of fun? Why not masquerade on October 28 at our dance? You will not only have fun, but you have a chance of walking away with one of those swell prizes that we will offer. It is impossible to lose by making an appearance at our Hallowe'en Dance, the date you reserved to spend with us years ago when we decided to make this an annual affair.

The selection of an orchestra is a part of the planning which usually requires much concentration. This time, however, we decided we would please everybody, so we hired the Center Rhythm Boys. After telling you that, I am sure you have decided to come. You have shown us that this orchestra is also your choice by appearing in such large numbers at our past affairs when they played. Dance again to this distinctive style of music at our Hallowe'en Dance.

I think I have told you just about enough to induce you to be in Center on the last Saturday in October. Yes, it is going to be a grand affair, and we will expect you to be there — that includes all of you who usually attend our dances, and everybody else.

In your book of dates to be remembered, enter on the most important page these words: Hallowe'en Dance, Saturday, October 28 in Center.

Betsy Ross News

Cleveland, O. — On Saturday evening, Oct. 21, the Betsy Ross lodge, 186, SSCU is sponsoring its annual anniversary, the twelfth, with a dance at the Slovene Workmen's Home, on 15335 Waterloo Rd. In the previous years, our annual dances turned to be extraordinary successes, and this one, we hope, will be no exception.

A cordial invitation is extended to all members and friends of the SSCU in the community and neighboring vicinity. We can say this about our previous dances: Our guests have had an evening of real entertainment, and we know that on Saturday evening, Oct. 21, they shall not be disappointed. Leave it to the committee in charge to make sure that all details incidental to the dance will be taken care of.

Frank Jankovich and his orchestra will please the most exacting dancers at our dance on Oct. 21. Their melodious tunes are catching. If you want to find out the secret of their melodies, come to our dance.

Admission shall be only 35 cents a person. Now this is not a great deal of money for an evening of entertainment. Dance will start at 8 p. m. and continue until the wee hours in the morning. Yes, plenty of refreshments for the thirsty, and a light lunch for the hungry. And who doesn't get hungry and thirsty at a real dance?

Cupid shot a couple of arrows at two Betsy Ross members. Result: Matrimony. Bro. Joe Kovitch and Sis. Stella Rozar were united in matrimony on Saturday, Oct. 8th. Congratulations to the couple, and may the future hold only happiness for them. Both are members of Betsy Ross lodge.

With the Cardinals

Struthers, O. — Cardinals lodge, 229, SSCU will hold a dance on Saturday, October 21, at the Croatian hall at 199 Lowellville Rd. Music will be played by Jack Burns and his orchestra. Dancing for young and old. We invite all neighboring lodges to help us celebrate this gala affair.

The regular monthly meeting has been changed to Thursday, October 12, instead of Friday. We want to see a 100 per cent attendance. We want all of our team which won the Ohio SSCU softball crown to attend. Meeting will begin at 7:00 p. m. sharp. A light lunch and refreshments will follow the meeting, which is to take place at the home of John Pogacnik, 32 Grace St.

We want to thank all those responsible for our good time in Cleveland. Especially Phil Sirca, chairman of the Cleveland SSCU softball league, who accommodated the team with a place to change into uniforms, and soap, water and towels after the game.

Congratulations to Tony and Mary Brncic, who became the proud parents of a brand new baby boy. "Swede Wampun" Jacson says hereafter he will take lessons on public speaking. Phil Sirca is figuring on a SSCU bachelor club, with yours truly as honorary member. Champ Adams found a real friend in Cleveland in the person of "Peepers."

Thank You

Strabane, Pa. — I want to thank everyone who helped make our picnic on September 17, a successful one. Frank Mekina of Barberton, O., arrived on Saturday night, so he would not miss a thing. I got to see him even before Stan Progar because the latter wasn't home at the time of Frank's arrival. Francis Sneler, Bobby Jurgel and his mother and father came Sunday. Thank you, folks, for coming to our picnic.

Frank and his trio provided excellent music for the dance, while "Teeny" was singing the popular numbers. Songs were dedicated to Frances Sneler, Bob Jurgel, his mother and father, and Frank Mekina. A number was also played for Matt Vertin of Ely and Eleanor Lange. The jitterbugs all went to town, even Stan Progar helped a bit. Once again I want to thank everyone who helped to make our day a success, and I wish the visitors from Pittsburgh and Barberton would come again.

Safety Note

Wet weather and leaves on the pavement form a major hazard for the motorists. It is hard enough to bring a car to a safe stop when the road is wet and even harder when the road is covered with wet leaves. Each year skidding causes many serious accidents. Play safe and reduce your speed.

Bureau of Public Relations,
Cleveland Police Department.

Judge Gruff — Speeding, eh? How many times have you been before me?

Speedmore — Never, your honor. I've tried a number of times to pass you on the avenue but my old car won't go over 50 miles an hour and your new limousine does 80.

Indian Summer Romanceland

By Little Stan

Little Stan

Ely, Minn. — Typical of this famous Arrowhead country of North-eastern Minnesota is the season of the harvest moon. For it is during this time that Mother Nature weaves her magic spell of romance which makes you wish the weather would remain throughout the year.

It kinda gets you in many ways. You may feel disconsolate when things aren't going right. You might be in the throes of discontent, enveloped in the blues, perhaps hoping and wishing everything would end, and thusly put you out of your misery. For in this world there is so much suffering and want.

Perhaps you may be in this frame of mind. But if you are, a trip to this Indian summerland would take every little kink out of you, send you back whistling a tune of happiness with every care stuffed somewhere way back where you couldn't reach it.

For right now a warm autumn sun helps Mother Nature in her work. Foliage, on trees, brush, and plant life is undergoing its annual change. Like the work of some mysterious artist, beautiful colors blend into the scenery. Driving or walking, the scene in front of you cannot be unnoticed. You drink in every color, every corner and you gaze over a landscape that makes your imagination and spirit swirl, causes your chest to expand as you drink hungrily of nature's handiwork.

The air lends a light touch of crispness, yet you are not cold for the sun is warm. The acrid smell of burning brush lends a tang which leaves a sweet taste in your nostrils, makes you feel grand to be a part of this. You know, something or somebody must have hit Little Stan with a tomahawk or something. It's been sometime since he swung on to a parody on nature. Perhaps he was just in the mood for that sort of thing and the beautiful October Indian summer weather did have a hand in it.

Lending to this mood perhaps was a misfortune which occurred last Thursday morning. Dad was preparing for the winter and was on the porch roof washing windows preparatory to putting on the storm windows. It was raining, and the roof was slippery. Dad slipped and fell to the ground. Rushed to the hospital it was found he suffered a broken wrist and two fractured vertebrae. This will keep him indisposed for at least six or eight months. But here, too, is where our own SSCU steps in. Dad is treasurer of Lodge No. 2 in Ely, and immediate assistance from genuine and true fraternal brothers and sisters was forthcoming. Thanks to the lodge, to the SSCU, the hardship will be eased considerably.

Down in Kemmerer, Wyoming way there's a fellow by name of Emil Zebre who must think Little Stan is an awful chump. For sometime ago, Bro. Zebre, who was a delegate to the second athletic conference, sent Little Stan a lovely letter (Indian Summer Romance? Ahh) and with it two souvenirs, one a crated sample of Wyoming fishing, the other a memorandum pad, which Little Stan really appreciated. Will be writing Emil a letter very soon now, and Little Stan hopes that Zebre won't think him a nincompoop! Heh Heh.

Columns of Nova Doba are still filled with fine accounts of the grand convention in Ely, Ann Gornik of Lodge No. 190, Butte, is a grand sport. Too bad she couldn't make that convention trip, but it is very evident that she drank in every word in our paper in addition to getting vivid verbal accounts from her pals who were here. Bouquets to you, Anna!

See also that our correspondent Anne Prosen of Cleveland's famous Ilirska Vila lodge No. 173, is attending Kent State college. Lots of luck, Anne! And Elsie Desmond of No. 173, has just finished a fine account of the convention. Don't forget, gals, the wheels of publicity must turn on. You've been doing a grand job in keeping them turning.

For it is getting near the end of the year, and it means that our Nova Doba staff of correspondents, including every juvenile member who attended the convention will have to get ready to swing into action with the first of the year to take assignments from the staff leaders and write articles each month. You remember? It was a resolution passed at the convention wherein everyone is a member of a great nation-wide publicity committee. A reporter in every delegate. These reporters will also encourage others to write in, and just fill every space.

Remember next year is also convention year in Waukegan, Illinois, and we want to do everything possible to insure future juvenile conventions and athletic conferences. By working now, fathers and mothers who will be elected by their lodges as delegates will know that it will not only benefit the juveniles of the SSCU, but in the end will prove to be the big step forward for our SSCU!

So think seriously about this now.

In a week or so it will be Hallowe'en, the holiday of the spooks and goblins. Little Stan will have to blend a little witchcraft with the October moon, and get the Magic Carpet ready to take another trip across the skies under the light of the glow from the captivating moon. Be ready for it, and perhaps we can all get together afterwards and eat some delicious punkin — I mean pumpkin pie!

Thanksgiving, Yuletide season and the New Year. They'll come fast and soon we'll be all set for another year.

Right now, Little Stan is chasing about covering the football games, cracking camera slant shots of action scenes. Was in Tower yesterday to cover the International Falls-Tower high school game, got some good pictures. Tower lost 7 to 0, but it was a hard battle, and was featured by a beautiful goal line stand on the part of the Vermilion Rangers.

Coach Barney Banks junior college 11 plays Itasca this afternoon, and we're all hoping for the third straight win. First year in the Northern Minnesota Junior college conference, and

Life In a C. C. Camp

By Frank Mekina
In Collaboration With Big Stan

This is the second in the series of articles on life in the Three C's based on actual experience and dedicated to Frank E. Vranichar and the many others that expressed a desire to know of the various camp activities of C. C. boys.

As the trucks pulled into the camp grounds, we alighted from the trucks and were told to stand at attention. The captain greeted us, welcomed us into camp and stressed good behavior as the main asset. Then he assigned us to our barracks and told us to turn in and get the much needed rest that we looked forward to.

The following day we again underwent another examination and were placed under a two weeks' quarantine. This was as an inter-state preventive measure and all of us received shots and were ordered to not leave camp or to receive visitors into our barracks. During the two-week period we would not be required to do any work at all and could enjoy ourselves as we saw fit, providing that we stayed within the camp limits and did not visit the other barracks. Most of us read various publications, played cards or any other form of indoor game that we could obtain and often took hikes just up the hills around the camps. Out on the camp ball field were many that needed action to satisfy their desires and in this manner, we spent our first two weeks in camp.

During the quarantine, we had oodles of time and the first few days were spent in getting acquainted and viewing our new homes. The camp in itself was rather attractive and very well laid out. Every building and the camp yard was proof in itself that care and patience was executed to keep the camp in as neat a shape as possible. The low, long barracks built like the army barracks were laid out in a long line to form a T square. Each barrack was painted neatly and off to one side was the Mess hall and another large neat building that proved to be recreation center used for dances, movies and stage presentations. Directly opposite and a little away from the camp was a large clearing and there the boys made a ball park. In the center of the camp was the administration building, very neatly cared for and kept. The roads leading to the camp and to the various buildings were well built and on each side was a nice lawn and beds of flowers. Directly in the center of the camp and in front of the officers' building is the flag pole where Old Glory flies in all its glory.

After our quarantine was lifted, we were assigned to our different crews and work. One crew was made up of about twenty to twenty-five men and each crew had their tasks to perform. At work, the crew was under the direction of one of the C. C. boys who had the title of senior leader. Then in turn, each crew had a junior leader. At work, the responsibility of the crew rested with the leaders and they had to account for the boys work and behavior at the end of each day's work to the camp commander in charge of production. The work of the crews varied. Some had the care and maintenance of all roads as their daily tasks. This covered the roads around the camp and the roads leading into the timber lands so as to have direct routes to the timbers in case of a forest fire. Others cleared the grounds of all dried brush to prevent fire hazards and others cut down and hauled away the dead trees that threatened the forests and the trees that had to be moved for the winding roads into the forests. Then, some of the boys worked in the various parks made in the Bay Region for the tourists. The boys with trades such as cooks, barbers, machinists and office work, filled in the duties of the camp. The meals were all prepared and served by the boys as was the haircutting and the duties of bookkeeping and stenography, all accomplished by boys enrolled.

On very few occasions, we would be called out to battle a forest fire but since the installation of the CCCs, fires have been reduced almost fifty per cent. The well cleared forests and constant patrol does not allow the fires any headway if they do start.

The camp was in direct charge of a seasoned Army Lieutenant or Captain and each camp had an Army doctor to care for the sick or injuries that would occur occasionally. Each camp had an emergency hospital but severe cases were taken quickly to hospitals after first-aid treatments. The officers were very strict and demanded discipline of the first order from the boys. The usual punishment for disobedience was a small fine of about three dollars and curtailment of privileges to visit Berkeley, Oakland or San Francisco. But inasmuch as the officers were strict, they too were very considerate and helped the boys in any manner that they were capable of. They emphasized personal care and camp cleanliness and as a result, our camp Wildcat had the record of being the cleanest and best cared-for camp in the Sacramento valley for four out of six months. Not only the camp. The boys as well for they were encouraged to keep well shaved and have their clothes always spic and span. Instead of fighting one another, they were taught to reason and to be considerate of each other. Drinks were not allowed into camp and on leave, the boys were asked to abstain from all drinks and to be perfect gentlemen at all times.

The day in camp started at six each morning. At the stroke of six, we were to be up and dressed and had half an hour to place our barracks in ship shape. Beds to be made, all clothes out of sight and in place and the floor swept clean. Then it was out to the yard for the flag raising and homage to Old Glory. This was a regular morning feature and only those that were bed ridden were exempted. After the flag raising ceremony it was the mess hall where breakfast was served. After a good, sound, hearty breakfast, we were allowed forty-five minutes rest before we started our daily grind. In this period, one was free to do as he pleased as long as he was on call for work when the call sounded. Then the day's work would begin and the boys would separate to their crews and go to their jobs. For dinner, chuck wagons would come from camp and the boys would huddle about and receive their rations. Sometimes the meals would be hot with hot soup and sandwiches with tea, coffee or milk. But the healthy appetites of the boys were always satisfied for the camps one requisite was a good appetite and plenty to satisfy it.

After the noon day lunch, work is again resumed until about four o'clock. Then it's back to camp and care for ones personal toilet before the call to supper from the mess hall. The "come and get it" call is usually heard between five and six o'clock each evening and immediately after supper, the boys are again called to stand at attention as the flag is lowered for the day. This, too, is a daily service with exemption for only the unable.

The evenings in camp are spent in diversified entertainment. Some read, play cards,

Rambling Along

By Big Stan

Strabane, Pa. — For our first bit of news, let's travel spiritually, to the small town of Blawnox, just out of Pittsburgh. Here we stop at a one hundred per cent SSCU home and pay homage to His Highness, Little Frank J. Progar Jr., a lad that has just brought honor and distinction within the ranks of the SSCU. Yes, for Little Frank, the son of brother F. J., hard-working secretary of the Electrons, has now matriculated into royalty, his full title being, His Highness, Prince Frankie Progar, Prince of the North-East division of Pittsburgh.

This all came about with the termination of the health-beauty baby contest sponsored by the Moose organization in Pittsburgh. The Pittsburgh district and the surrounding area was subdivided into divisions as were the entries, all age classes taken separate. A beauty winner was picked from each class and from all the classes in one district, a prince was chosen for the district. And when the judges votes were tabulated, an SSCU juvenile was the proud winner on two counts; the most beautiful baby in his age class and the crown prince of his division.

With the honor of being the most beautiful baby in his class, Prince Frankie was awarded a beautiful silver loving cup, a symbol of beauty and health. And during the coronation of the king baby, a young lad of six summers, Prince Frankie wore a white satin robe and marched in the procession with other princes and princesses similarly attired.

To top these honors, prince Frankie attained a health score of ninety-nine and one half per cent, the highest score made by any of the entries. This alone is quite a distinction as it proved conclusively that prince Frankie was the healthiest baby in the contest. No one was able to score near to Frank and when we realize that only one-half per cent barred him from a perfect score—we must say, "Hail to thee your most royal highness—Prince Frankie." Only a mole on his back, cause of the half per cent deducted, stood between Prince Frankie and the "very hard to have" perfect health score.

Now do you wonder why I am a very proud Uncle? Besides prince Frankie, you should see brother Joe's little girl, Jenevive. Another one hundred per cent SSCU family and had the checkers or chess or visit the various barracks to visit friends or the more studious spent their spare time in studying their school lessons. Three evenings a week we are allowed to visit the cities of Berkeley, three miles from camp, Oakland, nine miles away or San Francisco, just across the bay from Oakland. To make this trip we employed the ferry. Whenever in the cities, the boys would take in theatres, dances or visited friends made on previous trips. The University of California is situated in Berkeley and some of the boys would visit the famed school.

We were allowed to visit the cities on Wednesdays, Saturdays and Sundays providing that our week's behavior merited the favor. That's why the boys took to heart the camp's motto, "It pays to look well" for not only did it give them the privilege to visit the city but also to make many interesting friends and spend many enjoyable hours while in the city.

And so goes life in the C. C. Camps. Next week the third and final article will enlighten you as to the school, sports, pranks and entertainment furnished the boys in the camps and more thrilling experiences.

youngest been enrolled also, there could be very little doubt about the prince and princess of the North-East division being of the Progar family. And this is not just family pride. It's true facts. See the "kids" and be convinced.

Another Mikec Operation

SSCU members of Strabane and friends were saddened to hear of the misfortune of Mrs. Mikec. She was forced to the Washington hospital to undergo an operation and while speeding back on the road to recovery, another crushing blow hit the Mikec family. This time, sad to relate, the victim was Henry Mikec, lovable and hard working vice-president of the newly organized Sentinels. Henry was committed to the Canonsburg Hospital where a successful operation was performed. Barring complications, Henry will soon be back home but in the meantime, drop Hen a card. Just address it to the Canonsburg Hospital. Hen will sure appreciate it.

The Sentinels, thru this department, send Hen every wish for a speedy recovery and the best of luck during his illness. The members eagerly await Hen's complete recovery for his services are valuable and his friendship is sincere in any gathering. Good luck Hen.

As this is being written, one eye follows the clicking keys and the other embraces the secretarial book, scanning the list of unpaid members. Somehow, the list grew larger than ever before and as with orders from the "boys" at the last regular meeting, I am sorry to relate that the "unpaiders" will just have to be suspended. You, who will be fined with the suspension, blame it on just your little self and not on me or the boys that attended the last meeting. You could have prevented this by just paying your dues or if that was impossible, all you had to do was to attend the meeting and ask for aid. You were warned repeatedly so you are at fault for having your name in the class below. And the class that cannot claim protection from the SSCU until their suspension is lifted are, Stan Frankovich, Bill Smith, John Verosko, Joe Verosko, Frank Klopach, Alex Laskosky, George Harper and Alex Nackoul.

I can't understand why you don't protect yourself. Yes, I mean every one of you that force a secretary to suspend you, be you members of the Sentinels or any other lodge. You've got to have protection and you've got to pay for it. Why make a secretary's job so difficult when it can be made so easy? Why not try and come around and explain your difficulties? That's why fraternalism was organized. We're not cold business men. Everybody has their ups and downs and any lodge is more than glad to aid a brother or sister member who is considerate enough to explain why the dues weren't paid. Try it some time and don't be surprised if the lodge brothers are human and understand. For they are. That's why they have a fraternal and hold meetings.

Convention Chatter

By Mac Fink

Conemaugh, Pa. — Although the convention is two months past, it seems that only yesterday I boarded the train for Ely, Minnesota. Now I shall try to describe the happenings which I had while traveling to and from Ely, Minnesota. If you shall board the train with me I shall try to tell you all about the trip by giving some of the enjoyable moments of the convention.

It all started on the foggy morning of August 2, when I started for Johnstown, Pa., to board the 5:23 a. m. train for Pittsburgh. When I arrived at the depot its doors were still closed because I was a full hour early. While I was standing around the depot I saw a boy and his parents coming towards me. This young fellow had a red ribbon on his shirt. When they were right up to me I noticed that it was Mr. and Mrs. Omer and that the young fellow was Louis Omer, juvenile delegate to our convention. Mr. Omer introduced Louis to me, for this was our first meeting, and I was very glad to have such a swell fellow as Louis traveling with me. But now it was time for the 5:23 train to pull into the station and it wasn't more than five minutes when the engine started puffing for Pittsburgh.

On our way to Pittsburgh Louis Omer and I were chatting about us being fortunate enough to be the lucky fellows from our district to be represented at the convention. As we looked out the windows we could not see anything because the fog was very thick in the valleys. By and by the train rolled in Pittsburgh at 7:25 a. m. but to our surprise it was a beautiful sunny morning here. As the conductor yelled Pittsburgh, Louis and I got our baggage ready and went to the depot to wait for the next train and other Pennsylvania delegation. Our next train wasn't leaving for Chicago until 8:40 a. m. so we were tired of sitting and no delegates to be seen at 7:30. Louis and I figured we might as well take a walk and see some of the large buildings in Pittsburgh. As we were leaving the depot to our surprise we met the first car load of delegates arriving from Strabane, Pa. In the group the only delegate which I knew was Stan Progar, whom I met a few months before in Strabane. It did not take long to get acquainted and Stan told Louis and I not to go too far away from the station because he did not want anyone to get lost or miss the next train. Here we kept on our journey to visit some large buildings in Pittsburgh. The time was coming nearer and nearer for us to depart to Chicago so we decided to go back to the depot. Here we came upon a large crowd of people with many baggage and I noticed Big Stan's hair down over his face. I asked him what was going on and he said that a few delegates were missing and that the train was about to pull out. It was none other than Francis Arch, so Big Stan phoned to Dr. Arch's residence and was amazed to hear that Francis left a day ahead of time through mixed instructions. We then boarded the train and put our baggage on the racks and seated ourselves. The train pulled out of Pittsburgh at 8:40 a. m. Here we had seventeen delegates in an air-conditioned car getting acquainted with each other. Some were playing cards, others singing, and Bob Jurgel was entertaining everyone with some of the jokes which he studied up the night before. Now it was about time to eat breakfast and almost everyone pulled out their bags and had something to eat. We were all enjoying the beautiful scenery which we could see while going through different states such as large buildings, rivers, boats and different bridges.

Little by little the mountainous areas would disappear and the level country could be seen far and wide. Once in a while we would go through rain areas and then pass them and continue with fine sunny weather. We were nearing Chicago closer and closer and as we were passing Comiskey Baseball Park we noticed the other train on the right of us taking the Cleveland delegation to the station. To the left of us everyone looked out the windows to see a huge bridge open up to let a large boat through. This was something that some of us never saw before. Now the conductor called "Next Stop Chicago" and everyone got their baggage ready as the train stopped at 5:00 p. m. We all got into the great Union Station. Here we were met by a representative of the railroad and he escorted us to the Pullman Transfer at the base of the Terminal. Here we were put into large twelve passenger cabs and taken to the Chicago and Northwestern Station. After we piled our baggage at the door of the depot we all separated in search for something to eat and drink. We all hurried back and left Chicago with the Ohio delegation and Joe Benich of Indianapolis and Joe Oblock of Chicago at 6:15 p. m.

Again it was time to get acquainted with the other group of delegates for evidently didn't pull hard enough. But judging from the looks of the Minnesota route of Arizona two weeks ago—62 to 0 was the score—it looks like our Gopher tide will be one of the teams to beat for national recognition.

And now, with no more prattle, except to tell you to keep your eyes on SSCU Gophers of Lodge No. 2, Little Stan will take the third strike over center and will go back to the bench until next week.

This was a long ride going into Duluth. It was not long when everyone got acquainted especially with Elsie Desmond's big smile and jolly laughter and Alton Jerelcic's clever jokes and remarks. Joe Oblock seemed to enjoy himself more with the glamorous females than the males. Babe Sneller was having a lot of fun with the darling of Penna. Jackie Schimmel who was to be 12 years old after the hands passed midnight. In the car smoker was Bub Kordell trying all kinds of keys to open his "suitcase" but could not accomplish the feat. But the next morning the conductor found the key and returned it to Bub. By now most of the delegates were asleep except in one corner, where Bob Jurgel, Al Jerelcic, Stan Progar, Ed Mikec, Anne Prosen, Elsie Desmond and myself were still awake. Here a couple of smoker chairs were brought to Stan Progar and Al Jerelcic and they were on the stand telling jokes and laughing remarks. Then I heard somebody saying that we are to pick up another delegate soon and just then I saw Louis Kolar with his hat in his hand coming through the aisle. He told us that a beautiful girl from Milwaukee was on her way to join us. The train stopped and everyone ran down the steps and got some hot coffee at the restaurant. Here Eleanor Lange joined the tired and sleepy delegates but one delegate was not so sleepy, for Babe Sneller soon got acquainted with Eleanor and they kept company to Ely.

Stan Progar sang happy birthday greetings to darling Jackie Schimmel and a few other joined in the chorus. A few of the girls and boys were playing a game of hitting hands when the conductor came through the aisle and told the group that we were soon to pass Devil's Lake. It was supposed to be a beautiful tourists' outlook and camp ground. This was about 3:00 a. m. and most of us were awake. When we passed this lake we did not see much for the conductor told us we would see many hundreds cars, but all we could see were a few lights. Maybe he pulled a gag on us so we would be more awake. We were nearing Duluth, our next stop, but we still passed some beautiful lakes and long bridges. The moon was shining on the lakes and through the evergreens but slowly disappearing for it now was daybreak. Everyone washed up and refreshed to look their best upon arrival to Duluth for here is where Little Stan was waiting for the delegation. Here most of the delegates ate up whatever lunches they had and were preparing to get ready for departure to Duluth. The conductor yelled Duluth and we all got off at 7:30 a. m. There we were greeted by Little Stan and the Western Delegation. I suppose Little Stan had his arm in shape after all the hand-shaking. We all took our baggage to the depot and one of the fellows watched them all for we scattered in different places—some to restaurants and others to stores for greeting cards to be sent to our loved ones. Back to the depot. Western delegation was getting acquainted with the rest of the delegates and soon a merry laughter was heard as we were to board the "Ely Special" at 9:30 a. m. Here I met a fine intelligent supreme officer none other than Mr. Frank Okoren. We had a wonderful talk which lasted for about an hour. He surprised me when he told me of some of the folks that live in my district and which are known to him. Here I also met Marie (Giggles) Stinnac who made everyone laugh with her giggles.

There was a baseball game going on during our trip between Duluth and Ely. Little Stan, Big Stan, and Marie participated in this game. The score ended nothing to nothing in favor of the spectators. There was plenty of Slovene singing at this time and those western girls sure know many songs in Slovene. The girls from Montana brought along the Barnyard Hop and they wanted all of the delegates to learn it before they arrived in Ely. Was it good? Ask the victims Lou Kolar, Big Stan and Little Stan? Then after the dance the weight-lifting game was played. It sure fooled the victims by a few ounces. Now we were approaching Tower, a fine tourist town, with fine stores, schools, banks and resorts. Here we picked up another fine delegate who was Irene Pavlich, a very friendly girl from Soudan. She had many baggage and also greetings for Mr. Zbasnik. We had a gentleman in the crowd, Frank Mekina, who helped Irene with her baggage to and from the train. Now we were nearing Ely and Helen Okoren was appointed to carry a bouquet of flowers and Elsie Desmond was to greet Mr. Zbasnik. Everyone got out of their seats a half hour before time to look their best upon arrival at Ely at 1:10 p. m. and now the conductor called Ely, and we all lived up as the fine people of Ely greeted us with a merry cheer. The officers were directing the crowd as we were placing our baggage on the depot floor for the truck to haul them to the headquarters. We then went into a double line and marched to the tune of the fine Ely high school band. At the home office supreme secretary Zbasnik placed the delegates into different homes and the athletic delegates at the Forest Hotel. Here we were given room mate. I happened to be placed with a Pennsy buddy William Stavor. After getting all set up with the room we went for supper at a fine restaurant which is operated by Mr. Frank Vertin. By now we were pretty tired so my roommate and I started sawing Minnesota logs at ten o'clock that evening.

Yes, I believe I've had enough writing so I'll say goodbye to the readers until next week when I shall continue my impressions of the successful convention.

Impressions of a Delegate couragement to the juveniles by turning in on such large numbers. In all of the delegates were present. The supreme board is also present to give the affair that final touch of importance. Besides these, there are visitors and residents of Ely who were not delegates. Everyone turned out for this affair. Approximately two hundred persons were in attendance when this great third national juvenile convention got under way. Everything had been well planned and the juveniles were given pointers about convention procedures before hand so as to save time. A few words of advice and information came in handy at this session. It eliminated unnecessary directing and prompting. Every juvenile wore his smile, every heart beat eagerly for the great convention to get under way. Thus with all the preliminaries taken care of 56 worthy juvenile delegates were ready to undertake the responsibilities of a convention.

GREAT CONVENTION BEGINS

Mr. Anton Zbasnik, supreme secretary of the South Slavonic Catholic Union, acting as temporary chairman, opened the session of the Third National Juvenile Convention at 8:00 a. m. in the massive Washington School Auditorium in the city of Ely, Minnesota.

Mrs. F. J. Arch, wife of Dr. P. J. Arch of the supreme board, SSCU, mother of delegate Francis Arch, Pittsburgh, Pa., honored the juveniles by leading them in the singing of the national anthem of the United States. Her voice rang clear with the notes as she led this band of American people in the singing of the anthem. With the greatest of ease and beauty she reached the high notes in the song, them so difficult to be reached by many who sing the song.

With the greatest dignity Anton Zbasnik, Father of the Juveniles, greeted the delegates. "Dear Juveniles, Adult Delegates, Supreme Board, Friends, particularly Juvenile Friends, to the Third National Juvenile Convention. For the third time, the juveniles of the SSCU have come to the home, the building erected by the surplus of money collected in nine years from the nickles given by parents. This trip gave you a chance to travel and to see your Home Office organization. This is your home. You are the future leaders of the organization. This is your home. WELCOME to you. HOME means what it says. This home was built for you by your parents. It is a monument of the work they have done in the past forty-one years."

Anton Zbasnik continued his address by telling the delegates of the work accomplished in the forty-one years by our parents. "You are your organization, built for you by your parents, who worked for forty years to reach this goal. They made insurance for sickness, disability, death and gave the organization the power it has today. The strong will of power of your parents took care of the organization and kept it going through the depression, making it what it is today. During the course of forty-one years your parents set a goal and were proud of their work for this great organization. It is an organization you must be proud of. This building, home, the Home Office, is a monument of the work done and should be remembered throughout the remainder of your life. Remember your HOME built for you by your parents."

The Father of the Juvenile Convention encouraged strongly the spreading of the organization among the juveniles back home. "You should go out and get home and do all you can to help one another to spread the word about this organization. It should all try to tell your friends about the benefits of this organization and what it is doing today and did for you in the past forty-one years. You must do all you can to spread this word. You know all the benefits of the Union. You know all the benefits you are gained through it, go out and tell your friends about them."

Mr. Anton Zbasnik then reminded the juveniles that the board had arranged for fun as well as amusement for their program. "We tried to arrange as much pleasure as possible under present circumstances. Have a good time, take happy memories from when you go home. This is also a time to show how you appreciated the help your parents and friends gave in the campaign. Go home and tell them what a good time they had because they helped you."

Our secretary's last and very impressive thought remained with the delegates. "Stand up and show us what you can do what they, your parents, did in the past. Who knows but that some day, fifteen or twenty years from now, you will stand up here speaking these same words."

Upon concluding his address of welcome, Mr. Zbasnik introduced the members of the supreme board so the juveniles would know who the men were that made the convention and trip possible. The members of the board introduced were: Joseph Mantel, first president; Paul Oblock, second president; Frank Okoren, third president; assistant secretary, Dr. F. J. Arch, supreme medical officer; and the members of the board of trustees, John Kumsa, Janko Kolar, Frank Vranichar, Matt Anzelo, and Andrew Milavich.

RADIVOJ REHAR:

SEMISIRIS

ROMAN

"Vem. Preveč novo ti je to. In prav zaradi tega je potrebno čakanje, da doumeš. Kar sem domislila, hočem uresničiti. Zato vedi, da bom tvoja samo tedaj, če doumeš in si voljan sprejeti, kar terjam!"

"Ti se pogajaš?"

"Da."

"To je proti sklepu tvojega in mojega očeta."

"Morda, a je moja odločna terjatev."

"In če je ne sprejemem?"

"Ne bom tvoja."

"Prisilijo te lahko."

"Nikoli in nihče!"

"Motiš se."

"Ne, ne motim se. Oblast nad menoj imate le, dokler sem živa..."

"Ti bi bila pripravljena..."

"Na vse."

Abusiris se je zdržnil. Kri mu je nemirno zaplala po žilah in mu silila v možgane. Živo so mu trepetali. Le z največjim naporom je zatrl izbruh divje jeze in ostal navidez miren in vdan. Zavedal se je, da bi mogla vsaka nepremišljenost na mah prekrižati vse načrte, porušiti vse visokoleteče upe. S krotim, a vendar malo tresočim se glasom je dejal:

"Morda si in ljubim te. Oprosti mi, da sem se vznemiril. Tvoje besede so mi bile preveč nenavadne, preveč nove. Mimo tega me je pritrla do drhtljaja tudi bojazen, da bi se mi odtujilo tvoje srce, o lepa, najlepša! Najvišji namen življenja si mi, najvišja izpolnitev vročih ljubezenskih sanj."

"Razumem te," je odgovorila Ofirija hladno, "zato ne potrebujem obrazložitve in opravičila. Hotela sem ti le govoriti iz srca, tako kakor čutim. V svojem premišljevanju sem doumela velike, nove stvari, ki jih hočem uresničiti. Če me resnično ljubiš, ti ne bodo v oviro, sprejel jih boš in mi še sam pomagal, ustvariti tisto, po čemer sem zahrepenela."

"Ljubim te in uklanjam se tvoji volji, najdražja. Samo do dna moram prej doumeti."

"Zato je potreben odlog za najino združitev."

"Težko bo čakanje."

"A tem slajša bo izpolnitev."

"Poizkusil bom zatreči svojo nestrpnost."

"Samo kdor jo obvlada, najde pravo pot do sreče in postane mož."

"Za plačilo tvoje nagrade se uklanjam, o bistra!"

"Hvala ti!"

"Pozdravljen! Pojdi in premisli moje besede!"

"Pozdravljena, cvetka dehteče orhideje, biserna kaplja jutrnje rose, najlepša med najlepšimi! Tvoj suženj se klanja tvoji lepoti."

Abusiris se je naglo dvignil in izginil. Ofirija je ostala zopet sama, a prejšnja vedrina je izginila z njenih rožnih lic. Njene žive oči, ki so bile ves čas pogovora ostro uprte v Abusirisa, so opazile vse. Kakor na dlani je stala jasno pred njo vsa prava notranjost njenega snubca. Vedela je, da so bile vse njegove besede samo besede, hinavščina, ki naj zakrije brezobzirno, nago sebičnost, pred katero se je zdržnila njena čista duša. In če ji je bil prej Abusiris vedno tuj, ji je bil sedaj celo odvraten. Zamrzila ga je kakor gada, ki leži pohlevno in nedolžno na tleh, a čaka prav v tej svoji nedolžnosti s sirovim pohlepom na plen.

"Njegova? Ne!" je vzkliknila na glas, ko je izginil. "Sedaj še vse bolj živo čutim ogromni razloček med njim in Asarhadanom. Tu pohlepna strast, tam nežna in plemenita vdanost. Ljubim le tebe, moj dragi!"

Dvignila se je, izročila papiruse s pesmimi sužnji in poklicala komornico.

"Poišči mi mladega faraona iz dežele jutrnjih planjav!" ji je naročila. "Toda bodi previdna! Govoriti moraš z njim tako, da te nihče drugi ne bo slišal. Povej mu, da ga pričakujem v grmovju ob ribniku v parku."

"Zanesi se na mojo previdnost, gospodarica!" je odgovorila komornica in izginila.

Ofirija se je napotila v svoje sobane, se preoblekla in potem nestrpno čakala, da se komornica vrne. Zdelo se ji je, da potekajo v čakanju neskončno dolge ure. Ko se je služabnica vrnila, je skoraj planila k njej:

"Si ga našla?"

"Da, gospodarica. Bil je pri učeniku Amurabisu."

"Pride?"

"Takoj."

"Spremi me!"

Malomarno, kakor da gresta na nedolžen sprehod, sta zapustili Ofirija in komornica palačo ter krenili v prostrani dvorni park. Zunaj je bilo vse čudno mirno in tiho. Nikjer živo duše. Park je dremal v poznem popoldnevu, ki se je že rahlo nagibal k večeru, pretečemu z novo nevpoht. Listje je viselo po vejah mrtvo in negibno in še ptice se niso oglašale. Samo v ribniku so skakale ribe za mušicami nad gladino in čofotaje padale spet v vodo. Ofiriji je nemirno bilo srce, ko se je približala skrivališču, v katerem jo je čakal on, ki ga je ljubila z vsem ognjem svoje prve in edine dekliške ljubezni.

"Straži in sporoči mi vsako najmanjšo nevarnost!" je naročila komornici ter izginila v varni goščavi.

Skrit med najgostejšim zelenjem, je čakal Asarhadan, in ko je opazil, da se mu bliža, je ves vztrepetal od sladke sreče. Brez pozdrava, brez besed je razprostrl roke in ona se ga je skoraj obupno oklenila. Šele čez dolgo je odrglal svoje ustnice od njenih in vprašal boječe:

"Kaj se je zgodilo, najlepša?"

"Obiskal me je Abusiris in me silil k združitvi..."

"In ti?"

"Premotila sem ga z besedami in prisilila k čakanju."

"Se je vdal?"

Fran Milčinski:

Muhe

Kulturen sem človek in po kosilu rad legem. Počitek po kosilu pospešuje telesno lepoto in zraven čitam SHS-slovstvo iz zadnjega meseca. Kajti sem kulturen človek.

Najmlajše slovstvo sicer vobče ni v prid telesni lepoti, ker ima pregloboke misli in prenaporne. Duševni napor pa škoduje lepoti. In sploh se mi zdi, kjer je napor, tam se neha lepota.

Vendar se ne bojim, da mi bo slovstvo v kvar, ker kmalu zaspi, in zaspi hitreje s slovstvom v roki, nego brez njega. Fočitek brez misli pa resnično pospešuje telesno lepoto, to je dejstvo. Često čujem za seboj zavistne glasove: "Lep je, tri sto petelinov! Koliko mora počivati in kako malo misliti!" Pa tudi dame lahko to dejstvo opazujejo druga ob drugi.

Skratka, po kosilu rad legem in bi stvar bila tako daleč v redu.

Če bi ne bilo muh!

Ali je prišla jesen, prišla sta dež in hlad. In so prišle muhe. Zunaj jih je pregnal mraz — niso me vprašale, nisem jim dovolil, kar priselile so se mi v stanovanje.

Muhe so brez koristi za socialno skupnost. Ne delajo nič, za nobeno niso rabo, še za tarok niso. Le v nadlego so in mislim, če jih ne bi bilo, ne bi jih pogrešal.

Pa se mi vendar vedejo v stanovanju, kakor da nisem jaz tisti, ki plačuje bridko najemnino z gostaščino vred in dimnikarjem, nego da so najemnice muhe in da je stanovanje njihovo in da sploh ni na ljubem svetu nikogar poleg njih. In moj beli slannik, ki še visi na ključki, počena kranjska duša, in verno in vdano pričakuje, da se vrnejo prijazni solnčni dnevi, moj slannik, mislijo, da je ustvarila dobrotljiva narava edino le zato, da na njem dajejo duška svojim mračnim občutkom.

Nič ne bi rekel — vsi smo božji otroci, tudi muha mi je sestra v Bogu in stanovanje je dosti veliko, lahko bi v miru živeli drug poleg drugega, vsak po svoje, jaz po svoje, muhe po svoje, in bi hvalili Boga, skupnega očeta.

Nak! Ne zadošča jim stanu primerna, obzirna souporaba stanovanja. Ampak so si izbrale za torišče svojega dejanja in nehanja baš moje roke in moje lice.

Pripravljen sem ob primernih pogojih umreti junaško smrt, ako gre za očtnjavo. Ali takoj ali še rajši po prvem. Muh in njih terorja pa nisem kos trpeti. Prekril sem si zleknjen glavo z robcem, le toliko me gleda izpod robca, da za silo diham in da vidim dve vrsti slovstva. Nezaposleno roko, ono brez slovstva, sem vtaknil v žep.

Zastonj! Vse stanovanje jim je na razpolago, tla, stropi in stene, okna, vrata in pohištvo — ne! Ne vidijo dobre volje, ne upoštevajo dalekosežnih koncepcij, ki jih uživajo po moji popustljivosti, skratka — nočejo! Na vsem širnem svetu se jim hoče samo tistega malega končeka moje golote.

In te najde muha in ti sede na roko, sede na lice. Brusi si sprednji nogi, pogladi si glavo, pogladi si peroti, vse počasi in temeljito. Potem se požene, da šeta korzo po koži. Požene se dvakrat, trikrat, že spet postoj, da si brusi nogi in si gladi krili in glavo. Ne razumem, kakšen ji vse to nudi užitek. Morebiti je perverzna. In je ne moti, če stressem glavo ali roko, da bi jo pregnal. Mirna in neprizadeta počaka, da mine potres, potem nadaljuje korzo.

Stresati ne pomaga, zamahniti moraš po njej, potem zbeži.

Toliko zbeži, da se koj zopet vrne, točno na stari prostor, od koder si jo pravkar pregnal. Ne vem, ali so tako neumne ali so tako zlobne.

Berem in se otresam in maham in je čudovit užitek najmlajše slovstvo SHS, združeno z bojem zoper muhe.

Muham nemara ni prav, da se jih branim. Užaljene so in ogorčene, srdite in bojovite in psujejo me. Gotovo me psujejo. Ena mi je rekla: "Bati-naš!" Ena mi je "Macedonca" zabrusila v lice. Ena pa je strupeno siknila: "Bankokrat!" — ta je jadrno zbežala, bala se je, da bo ob glavo, če mi pride v pest.

Potrpežljiv sem človek in mirnoljuben. Prosil sem, prigovarjal in prepričeval: "Sestre v Bogu, ne tako! Bodite pravičnej! Če ljubite svobodo, dajte še meni, da diham svobodno in uživam slovstvo in počitek! Bodite kulturne!"

Ne! Zopet ena na roko, ena kraj očesa!

Zamahniti sem moral, da sta odleteli. Ali kako sta se repenčili razjarjeni, razlegalo se je tostran Sotle in onkraj, in še sta me šli tožiti svetilki in oknu, kakšen da je moj režim, in tudi ogledalu sta pustili svoji vizitki!

Te dve sta se tožarili, tačas so me pričele mrcvariti že tri druge.

Izprevidel sem, da je treba drugačnih mer, in sem vstal. Nebogljen mladostvo sem dal iz rok, brisačo sem vzel v roke. Muham sem proglasil boj — in sem v boju zmagal.

Tri je ubila brisača, med njimi ono, ki me je zmerjala "bankokrata." Tako plačuje Bog! Dve sem ujel živi in ju vrغل skozi okno; pa mi je skoro žal, da sta odnesli življenje, ker vem, da me bosta obirali po svetu.

Najbolj čudno pa je bilo to: mislil sem, da jih je legion, pa jih je bilo vseh vkupe le pet — teh pet je bilo nadležnih za legion!

In sedaj je mirna Bosna.

DOPISI

Nadaljevanje s 7. str.

pri tisti priliki Mrs. John Movern. Z družino Movern sem se pozdravila leta 1935, ko sem se vračala z mladinske konvencije. Takrat je Mr. John Movern še živel. Žal, da to pot smo mogle posetiti le Mrs. Movern in sina, ker John Movern že počiva v grobu. Nameravali vsa ostati na posetu le par ur, toda Mrs. Movern naji je zadržala čez noč. Drugi dan nam je razkazala mnogo mestnih znamenitosti. Mrs. Vogrich je odpotovala še v neki drugi kraj v Minnesoti, jaz pa sem se še vrnila k Mrs. Movern na dom. Poslovala sem se ob 10.30 zvečer, da dobim svoj vlak za povratek v Montano.

Iz Dulutha sem se odpeljala ob 11.40 zvečer in sem dospela v St. Paul okoli 7. ure zjutraj; po Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul železnici sem se ob 8.40 zjutraj odpeljala proti Montani. Drugi dan, to je bilo 12. avgusta ob 4.21 zjutraj, sem izstopila na postaji v Roundup. Vesela sem bila, ko sem dospela brez nezgod spet domov. Našla sem vse v redu.

Od tu sta se podali članici našega društva Miss Lillian Cebull in Miss Rose M. Banovet v kolegij. Vozili sta se skozi Butte, kjer sta morali nekaj ur čakati vlaka za v Dillon. Jaz sem bila o tem sporočila Mrs. Predovich in Butte in mladinske delegacije tamkajšnjega društva št. 190 JSKJ so naši članici počakale na postaji. Mrs. Predovich in Mrs. Petritz sta ju prijazno postregli. Hvala sosestram v Butte!

Tu se bliža zima. Slano smo imeli že 26. septembra. Od takrat imamo bolj spremenljivo vreme. Premogovi rovi so začeli nekoliko bolje obratovati. Upajmo, da bo to izboljšanje trajno. Sestrski pozdrav!

Ustanovljeno je, da naši izseljenci pošiljajo svojim rodbinam v Jugoslaviji v denarnih pisnih efektivne dinarje. To menda izvira iz tega, ker jim je še nepoznana gornja prepoved.

Poštni uradi v Jugoslaviji take denarne pošiljate v pisnih iz inostranstva zadrže in jih pošljejo Narodni banki, kjer se, po naredbi ministrstva financ od 10. marca t. l. No. 7492/VIII, stavlja na blokiranje račun na ime pošiljalca.

Iz pisarne generalnega konzulata kraljevine Jugoslavije v New Yorku.

VAŽNO ZA IZSELJENCE: Kako se mora postopati pri darilnih pošiljkah iz Amerike

Na osnovi novega rešenja ministrstva financ kraljevine Jugoslavije, oddelek carin, No. 11368/IV, od 25. maja 1939, pošiljalcem paketov z rabljenimi stvarmi, poslanimi iz Amerike siromašnim osebam, potrebno je, da se ravna po naslednjem:

1. Poštne pošiljke z rabljenimi stvarmi (oblačila, perilo, obutev), ki prihajajo iz Zedinjenih ameriških držav, se prepuščajo carine prosto, ne da bi bilo treba predložiti potrdilo o siromaštvu, in dokaz, da so poslani kot darilo, če ugotovijo carinski uslužbenci pri pregledu, da vsebujejo rabljene stvari. Če pa carinarnica zasumi, da je prejemnik dobrega imovinskega stanja, ali če dobi kdo zaporedoma več takih pošiljk, zahtevajo predložitev potrdila o siromaštvu in pošiljalčovo pismo, iz katerega se mora razbrati, da se pošiljajo te stvari kot darilo.

2. Če prihajajo pošiljke z rabljenimi stvarmi iz neklirinskih držav, (to so: Zedinjene ameriške države), a obsegajo tudi nove stvari, za katere je potreben predhodna uvozna dovoljenje Narodne banke, se ta ne zahteva, če pošiljka ne vsebuje več kot 5 kilogramov. To velja samo, kadar prihajajo pošiljke na siromašne osebe.

Za siromašne osebe se štejejo tisti, ki ne plačujejo več kot 400 dinarjev neposrednega davka na leto, brez dopolnilne in samoupravne doklade, kakor tudi tisti, katerih dohodek od nesamostojnega dela ne presega zneska 1800 dinarjev na mesec, če so samci, ali 2000 dinarjev na mesec, če so oženjeni.

Iz pisarne generalnega konzulata kraljevine Jugoslavije v New Yorku.

D. M. Stanojević, generalni konzul.

Tukajšnja tri društva, namreč št. 31 JSKJ, št. 300 SNPJ in 239 SSPZ, so torej sklenila prirediti veliko skupno plesno veselico z vinsko trgatvijo v soboto 21. oktobra. Prireditelj bo vršila v Litvinski dvorani 818 Washington Ave., v Braddocku in se bo pričela ob 8. zvečer.
