KSKJ Lodge 169 Presents American Home a $1,500 Grant

On Sunday, Aug. 20, St. Joseph Lodge #169 of the American Slovenian Catholic Union (KSKJ) presented the American Home newspaper with a grant in the amount of $1,500. It was given through their newly-formed foundation called "St. Joseph #169 KSKJ Foundation." The grant was presented by the lodge president, Eugene Kogovsek, at Slovenska Pristava picnic grounds in Harpersfield, Ohio, after the 12 noon Mass at the St. Mary's (Collinwood) annual summer picnic.

The presentation letter read, in part, "The (St. Joseph #169) Foundation trustees were in agreement that the American Home Publishing Company has been and continues to be a cornerstone of the Cleveland Community, providing information and a forum in which people can learn what is happening in their communities."

"It is our purpose to encourage you to maintain the outstanding tradition your paper has enjoyed for many decades."

Enclosed is a Foundation check for one thousand five hundred dollars to be used for the continuation of providing an important service to the community."

It was signed Eugene Kogovsek, Chairman, St. Joseph #169 Foundation. Other trustees are Anton Nemeć, Secretary; Gregory Clack, Treasurer, and Charles Erzen, Philip Hrvatin, Mary Okicki and Charles Pezdirtz (Trustees).

Also receiving a grant that Sunday at the same time was St. Mary's Church, Rev. John Kumse, pastor, in the amount of $10,000 for church painting and restoration.

The much-needed renovation project is now in progress with the parish having received only about one-third of the total cost. Further donations are needed.

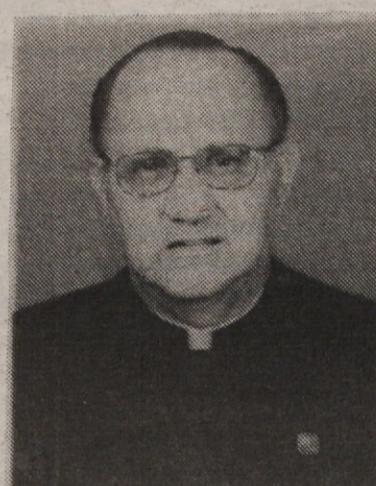

Rev. Ralph Roberts Celebrates 25 Years

On Sunday, Aug. 27, Fr. Ralph Roberts of the Blessed Sacrament community will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving at St. Mary Church (Holmes Ave.) in Cleveland at 2:30 p.m., in honor of his 25th Ordination Anniversary to the priesthood.

Fr. Roberts' parents were both immigrants from Slovenia and he was educated at St. Christine Parish from the 1st to 8th grades. Father Roberts was sent to Rome to complete his studies for the priesthood.

On June 29, 1975, Fr. Ralph Roberts was ordained to the priesthood in Rome by our Holy Father, Pope Paul VI.

He has recently returned from a five-year term as the Blessed Sacrament superior in Masaka, Uganda. This past week he was in residence, helping at St. Vitus Church.

Everyone is invited to attend the Anniversary Mass.

Slovenia sends large team to Olympics

Slovenia's Olympic Committee on Monday approved a 74-member team to go to the Sydney, Australia, Summer Olympics, the largest to be sent to an Olympics since the nation gained independence from former Yugoslavia in 1991.

A 37-strong squad won two Silver Medals at the 1996 Atlanta Games.

Rowers Iztok Cop and Luka Spik are the country's brightest hopes after winning the double sculls at a World Cup event in Switzerland last month.

Slovenians Are COOL

By Jim Debevec

Was at Slovenska Prstava picnic grounds last Sunday to help St. Mary's parish (Collinwood) celebrate their summer picnic.

I was in the company of my bride of 37 years, Madeline, and her mother Dorothy Urbancich, and her sister 91-years-young Alice Opalich.

St. Mary's pastor, Rev. John Kumse had returned this week from an exhilarating mountain climbing expedition to the top of Mt. Triglav and other mountains in Slovenia. The day began with a 12 noon Mass. During the sermon, Fr. Kumse mentioned that a lot of people are wearing jewelry with the initials "WWJD" on them. He asked if anyone knew what it stood for.

Sure enough, I proudly thought to myself, it must stand for "Wise and Wonderful Jim Debevec." But I was mildly disappointed to learn that it stands for "What Would Jesus Do."

However, my spirits were quickly buoyed after the Mass when Eugene Kogovsek, President of St. Joseph KSKJ Lodge No. 169's newly recognized foundation, presented the American Home Publishing Company with a marvelous grant in the amount of $1,500. We can surely use it to cover the cost of repairs to our processor which broke down last Wednesday.

It was a pleasant day and it was reported to be the largest crowd at Pristava this summer.

We had a great time renewing our friendship with most of the people there. The food, cooked to perfection by Julie Zalar and her friends, was excellent. The Veseli godci band did a super job, and the Kres Dancers entertained us with their amazing feat of Slovenian folk-dancing.

They also had a bake-sale inside the newly-installed windows and bright pavilion interior. I made a number of shopping trips to the bakery table.

It was also great seeing Jenny Kogovsek again. She is coming along nicely from her stroke earlier this year.

On the way home, we exited I-90 a little early and maneuvered our way to "How Sweet It Is," an honest-to-goodness old-fashioned ice cream parlor for some sundaes and black cherry ice cream to take home.

The delightful owners are still Joe and Kum Rigler who had moved from Chesterland to 9443 Mentor Avenue in Mentor, Ohio, one block east of Heisley Rd. They are in the shopping center where the bagel shop used to be, not too far from Ed Pike Lincoln Mercury Dealership.

Kum and Joe still have that delicious ice cream, and now offer other items such as a few bakery delicacies, hot dogs, stuffed cabbage, and sandwiches. We tried a box of Kum's home-baked raspberry horns which we rated as absolutely delicious. I know for the holidays we are going to order some of our pastry there. (Kum has even delved into baking poticas.)

In my time allotted so far on this earth I have discovered some of the things that make people smile. They are 1) the arrival of repairmen, 2) entering or leaving a bakery, 3) being in the company of friends, 4) having your hair done in a beauty parlor, and 5) enjoying a mild, sunny day. Sunday we had three-out-of-five which is a tremendous batting average in any league.

Don't expect anything original from an echo.

CLEVELAND PER 1926 DIRECTORY

Picked up an old Cleveland Directory which was a brute some 6" thick, more than the current Cleveland White and Yellow Pages combined. Paging through the Directory was a course in history of a great city that is making a comeback. Consider the following facts, as enumerated in the Directory:

- Cleveland ... the largest group of iron ore docks in the world
- 5th U.S. city in population.
- lead the world in percentage of homes owned by the workers.
-largest manufacturer of auto parts.
-lead in manufacture of iron castings.
-lead in the manufacture of "aeroplanes".
-has the largest indoor ice rink in the world.
-largest paint and varnish works.
-1st of the big U.S. cities to adopt the "daylight savings plan".
-Operates a natural stadium with 100,000 capacity (Does anyone know the location of this stadium?)
-most healthful city in the U.S.
-83 passenger trains arriving daily.
-had four four (4) people in 1796 and 1,104,20 in 1926.

Many Slovenian businesses were listed, including: American Home Publishing Co at their same location; Slovenian Auditorium on St.Clair Ave at E. 64th Street; Norwood Moving Picture Theater at 6212 St.Clair Ave; John Oblak Moving Vans on E. 61st Street; John Fleisman Saloon at 6400 St.Clair Ave as well as Frank Gorse Saloon at 1113 Norwood Rd. No Slovenian sausage manufacturers were listed.

Counting our Blessings

by RUDY FLIS

Last week I mentioned Therese renaming me "Moses," and that it shouldn't affect our wedding anniversary this month. It hasn't.

For starters, we went to Therese's favorite restaurant. I think she likes this restaurant because "sauerkraut" isn't on the menu. I enjoyed my meal which was introduced by a perfect glass of wine. Therese didn't need the wine to enjoy her meal.

During our meal we talked about our kids and about our future. As our future is getting shorter, we tend to crowd it with more plans and it is fun. Our future is rosy and I pray our blessings continue.

It doesn't bother us, but we clearly remember when couples married as many years as we have been were considered to be OLD PEOPLE! My, oh my, how times have changed.

Tomorrow, on our anniversary, all our children, all their spouses and all our grandchildren will visit us and enjoy grandma's spaghetti and meatballs with lots of garlic bread and many desserts.

When all our family is together I know what a blessed man I am. As we eat our meal of spaghetti, it gets tastier as conversation and kidding increase.

Meal finished, clean-up starts. Many little faces, hands and fingers must be wiped clean before they can escape the kitchen to play together. The girls' fingers must be clean so their aunt Monica can paint their nails.

When all have left our home, and Therese and I are sitting in our living room, a little tired, but able to smile at each other, we realize couples married as many years as we are, ARE OLD. So, we will try to age gracefully, while thanking God for all His blessings, some of which have helped us age.

Starting Over in America

by ANTON ZAKELJ

JOHN ZAKELJ

Saturday, Jan. 16, 1954

In the evening, I went to a meeting of the S.K.A.S. (the Slovenian Catholic Academic Elders). Karel Mauser spoke about Slovenian Catholic writers.

Monday, January 18, 1954

Bill laid off Paul Kaal, Joe Kristanc, Rudi Knez, Lipovsek, Lamernik and an American. There will be 4 - 6 more layoffs coming. Now there are 30 of us left; I am 12th or 13th in seniority.

The steel we are working on is poor quality and difficult to machine properly. It is easy to produce scrap. A worker can get fired for producing scrap.

Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1954

The laid off workers got their paychecks, and then were told they could come back next Monday. But some have already found work elsewhere. Joe Kristanc got a job at the Hill Co. on St. Clair and E. 23rd. Bozo Lorber got a job at "Jet Die-Development," where he works six 10-hour days per week at $2.35 an hour.

Thursday, Jan. 21, 1954

The future looks better at the shop - they say we'll have lots of work in February. I got my second paycheck - the income tax withholding is lower, but Social Security is higher.

Thursday, Jan. 28, 1954

In the evening, I helped Bozo Lorber with his income tax filing for last year.

Sunday, Jan. 31, 1954

In the afternoon, I took son John to the church auditorium, where Anton Grdina was showing movies from his world travels.

Monday, Feb. 1, 1954

Everyone in our family, including Cilka, has the flu.

Tuesday, Feb. 2, 1954

I bought a bottle of wine for Blaz Hace's 75th birthday. He has given us many toys for the children and furnishings for our house.

Friday, Feb. 5, 1954

Johnny Legan worked for 4 hours in Cerar's apartment to install copper pipes for a new kitchen sink. We bought the sink at Grdina hardware for $127. Mrs. Cerar loaned me $50 to help pay for it. I'll pay her back at $2 a month.

I had been worried about all the requests from the Cerar family for improvements in their apartment, but now I see that they are very reasonable. They understand that I don't have the money to do everything they want. If they really want something, they pay for it and then we work out something like we did for the sink, or we deduct it from the next rent.

Saturday, Feb. 6, 1954

At 1 a.m., water came running down into our kitchen from Cerar's apartment above us. The new pipes were not sealed. I turned off the water, but didn't get back to sleep until 5 a.m.

Sunday, Feb. 7, 1954

Johnny Legan and I worked for 5 hours to install the new sink. He asked for only $10 for 6 hours of work.

Friday, Feb. 12, 1954

Our son John received 21 Valentine's Day cards at school. He is happy.

Saturday, Feb. 13, 1954

I went to the new notary public, Anton Novak, at 6218 St. Clair, for help with my tax return. I'll get a refund of $108.47. He charged me $5, which is the amount by which he increased my refund.

Tuesday, Feb. 16, 1954

It's too hot - almost 70°F. I went to Mandel's Shoe Store to buy a pair of new shoes for myself for $13.30. They took back another pair I had just bought which were already falling apart.

Dr. Meršol came to see our son John this evening. John is coughing and has a temperature of 39°C. Dr.

Meršol said he has measles; Tony and Joe will probably get them, too, in 11 days.

Wednesday, Feb. 17, 1954

John is covered with red blotches. He sleeps a lot and talks loudly in his sleep.

Thursday, Feb. 18, 1954

At the shop, an oil can fell on my toe. The toe is black and it hurts.

Saturday, Feb. 20, 1954

I fixed the water leak damage in our kitchen ceiling and then worked on the locks in our apartment and Cerar's. Our refrigerator needs repair and the heater needs a thermostat. We've had lots of unexpected expenses this month.

In the evening I went to a meeting of the S.K.A.S. at St. Vitus school. Mr. Sodja made a presentation about the Christian philosophy of life. About 30 people attended. Mr. Sodja was the director of the regional health insurance fund in Ljubljana, so he also talked about that. He said the Ljubljana region (which included our home town) had one of the best programs.

I told him about the problems we had getting coverage for urgent medical needs in our town. When I had ulcers, I couldn't get the newer, more effective medication. When the doctor said I urgently needed dental work, the health insurance wouldn't pay for me, even though I knew they were paying for dental work for the doctor's friend. For most of us outside of Ljubljana, the prescription for all illnesses was powdered aspirin (they didn't have tablets then).

At the meeting, I also told them about three young men from our town who became very sick, but the health insurance refused to pay for their hospitalization. One of them was my wife's brother, Polde; his hospitalization was finally paid for by the fund for war orphans, since their father had died in World War I. Polde and the second man got much better, but the third one could not get the medical care he needed and he died. After I talked about this at the meeting today, Mr. Sodja said, "Why didn't you come see me back then? I would have taken care of this." If we had such good insurance, why would we need special intervention?

My brother Vlado sent me the first part of "The History of the People of Yugoslavia." Anton Košir visited us for the first time.

Thursday, Feb. 25, 1954

Last night, at 2 a.m., a car ran over Joe Slak and Viktor Potokar at E. 55th and Marquette. They were walking home from a bar.

Friday, Feb. 26, 1954

At the shop, I washed parts in a chemical solution all day. My hands hurt from the chemicals.

Saturday, Feb. 27, 1954

At 10 a.m., Mitvež Hocevar and I went to Mass and then to Calvary Cemetery for Slak and Potokar's funeral. There were about 50 cars in the procession, all belonging to D.P.'s (displaced persons).

In the evening, I went to a meeting of the S.L.S. (the Slovenian People's Party) in Knaus Hall. About 200 people listened to Dr. Krek talk about the political situation in Europe. He sees no prospects for change. We will probably never be able to return to our homes.

Sunday, Feb. 28, 1954

Our sons Tony and Joe have the measles.

Our renter, Mr. T., broke a step on the porch and demanded that I immediately make new steps.

Monday, March 1, 1954

We had about 8 inches of snow in the morning, and then 14 by evening. I made it to work on time. Some of the workers didn't get there until 9:30 and 4 didn't make it at all.

In the U.S. Congress, three Puerto Ricans fired about 25 shots and wounded five congressmen.

Tuesday, March 2, 1954

From 6 - 6:20 a.m., I helped Miro Erdani shovel snow, so he could get his car out on the street. My heart was beating hard. I've paid for half of the house. I still owe $5,700.

Growing Up in Collinwood

HOMEMADE WINE

by JOE GLINSEK

Making wine, was by far the most ambitious, time-consuming and laborious job of the year. Along with many other chores, it made autumn our busiest season. It required many steps, some of them enjoyable, others not. Before telling you more about the wine, a description of its "resting place" will give you an idea of the importance ascribed to this basic Slovenian beverage.

My grandfather had our house built to his specifications in 1920 and a most important feature was an ample storage cellar for barreled wine. Occupying the entire length of the west wall, it had a thick inner wall and door that separated it from the rest of the basement. A sewer grate in the floor allowed the walls, barrels and floor to be hosed down when required. Facing west was a large window, and the north end had a small steel casement window.

The large window was made like a pair of French doors about three feet high. A barrel could be rolled through this space, and the window was only opened during the wine-making season. the rest of the year it was bolted shut and protected with a sturdy wooden cover on the outside. A low rack made of heavy timber rested on the floor across the north end and most of the west wall. It was built to hold nine barrels of wine and one smaller barrel for vinegar.

Making wine was a big production and started with the selection of grapes. Grandpa joined a friend who had a car, and they visited other friends with vineyards out in the country around Madison and Geneva, Ohio. This was 30 to 40 miles east of Cleveland, a considerable drive before "freeways." When my uncle Mike bought his first car in 1941, Grandpa volunteered his son's services to return the favors.

After talking to his Slovenian cronies with vineyards east of town, Grandpa would strike a deal based upon the appearance and taste of the grapes about two weeks before harvest. Price and delivery of a truck load would be agreed upon with a handshake. Packed in bushel baskets and loaded on a flatbed truck, the dark blue Concord grapes would arrive on a Friday. Just a guess, but it must have been nearly a ton of grapes - enough to press about 10 barrels of juice.

The preparations started right after the handshake, and we would be ready for the load on the specified Friday afternoon. Barrels were rolled out through the special window for testing, washing and cleaning, and I got to do some of this work. The barrels that had been empty the longest might have dried and started to shrink and leak between the staves. This required keeping them full of water until they soaked and swelled the wood and then driving the hoops tight. You had to insure that the barrels would not leak before anything else was done. With the barrel on its side the bung was removed to drain about two-thirds of the water. Now much lighter, it was bunged and rolled around the backyard to slosh around and clear out any sediment. After several rollings, drainings and fillings, the water came out clean and clear - if you were lucky.

After being washed, the barrels went under "the nose" of my grandfather. Later, I also developed a good nose for detecting a barrel that was "off." It would have a faintly moldy smell hidden amongst the natural wet and slightly sour wood odors of a freshly rinsed oak barrel. Using a barrel with this moldy condition would guarantee bad wine.

I'd heard of burning sulfur sticks inside the barrel to kill the moldy odor, but never saw it done. When necessary, we used the 20-foot length of iron chain that we kept for this purpose. It was inserted through the side bunghole of a barrel that was a third full of water and laying on its side. The end links were knotted to prevent the entire chain from sliding into the barrel. We now began the hard work of rolling the barrel all around the backyard, tipping it at every possible angle so that the chain would scour the entire inside surface. This could take an hour or more, because the water was drained the refilled several times before pulling out the chain. Now it was ready for a thorough flush with running water before giving the barrel another "nose test." With 10 barrels to contend with, you can see why this work was started well in advance of the grape delivery.

Sometimes, not often, you might have to reinsert the chain and start over, but usually we could renew a barrel that had just started to go bad. On a few painful occasions, all this work went for naught and we'd have to buy a new one. This meant a trip to Emerich's Hardware for a "new" barrel, which in wine-making, was defined as a whiskey barrel that had been used only once. At $5 and up, it was a major purchase made only when unavoidable.

The wine press was the next thing to get ready. Its parts were stored in the attic of the double garage next door. It was a big job to assemble, disassemble, and haul all the parts up and down every year. Constructed of heavy timbers, it was almost four feet square when completed. With a three-inch-drive screw, it could press several bushels of grapes per load. After the hosing and cleaning, it was set up in the garage.

Everyone in the family had to pitch in. The base of the press was a heavy, shallow box and was lined with clean burlap and loaded with grapes. The burlap was folded over the grapes and topped with a heavy square of wooden lattice to insure that the screw exerted equal pressure over the entire mass of grapes. A handle through the drive screw was walked around the box, turning the screw and squeezing the juice through a spout at the base and into a small barrel. We had temporarily adapted the wheel barrow to transport this container to the window of the wine cellar.

There, the freshly pressed juice was siphoned into the clean barrels resting on the rack. It took many, many trips with the wheel barrow to fill all those barrels in the cellar. The grape juice, or "mošt," had a tantalizing aroma that was hard to resist, but too many samples of this nectar would have you spending half the night in the bathroom.

The Life and Times of Frances Baraga Chukayne

French soldiers and passengers immediately came to aid the Baraga family and placed Janez's body on one bench of the compartment. At the St. Lazare Station in Paris, four men with a stretcher awaited the arrival of the train and came to carry off the lifeless body of Janez Baraga.

The three children and Marija were taken to and housed in a building which turned out to be an insane asylum, part of a complex which also included a hospital, a church, and an administration building, surrounding a huge courtyard, in the center of which was a small chapel. All this was operated by the French Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Frances did not know where they were until Sunday morning when, in daylight, she could see their situation. During the nights, and days, a man in the room next to theirs screamed, shouted, and pounded the walls, leading to Frances' realization that they were being housed in a "crazy house."

On Sunday, following their return to Paris the day before, Frances' stepmother, with the three children, went from one to another of the numerous churches, looking in - and then on to the next one, without commenting on what she was seeking - apparently seeking her deceased husband's body, not knowing where he was lying in state.

On Monday morning, a line of people appeared at their room and gave to Marija black clothing to put on. Frances was given a new jacket and a "beautiful" hat; the two children, Anna and John, were washed and dressed in new clothing. Everyone was dressed in black for a funeral.

The Baraga's were taken down from their second-floor room to the front of the building at street level. Suddenly, pallbearers brought a coffin out of the chapel and rested it on a stand. Then a man approached, carrying father's neatly folded clothes and handed them to Frances' stepmother (much as the military does when they present a folded flag to the family of a deceased sailor or soldier).

Frances wondered, "Where is my father's body?" They had not seen him once. The coffin was moved then to the church where Frances and her brother John were given coins to place in the collection basket in the church.

Following the conclusion of the funeral Mass, a horse-drawn wagon outside the church awaited father's coffin to be placed upon it. Two-by-two, a long procession developed. The Baraga group was placed at the end of the line of about 50 French citizens. The men in the procession were dressed in long black capes and wore on their heads high, black top hats.

Everyone walked to a not-too-distant cemetery where the coffin was placed down at the prepared opening. One by one, the mourners made the sign of the cross over the coffin as they filed by and then left the cemetery.

Frances' stepmother wanted to stay at the grave to see him buried, but they were not permitted to do so. Instead, they were escorted back to an office of the complex where they had been housed. Behind the desk sat a priest, to whom the stepmother tried to offer money to pay for the funeral.

With his hands, because of Marija's inability to understand the French language, he indicated his refusal to accept any compensation. Instead, he indicated that she must sign some documents, which she did, and received copies of them for her records.

From there, the grieving family was escorted to the railroad station where they were met by a "big mob" of people to see them off. Newspaper stories of the Baraga's dilemma apparently drew people to the railroad station to see the family off to Slovenia.

As a last gesture, a gentleman, wearing his cape and high hat, presented Frances with some gold coins, indicating with gestures that she should give them to her stepmother for safekeeping because she might lose them. Frances did so - and never saw the coins again.

Slovenians "R" Us

† Mlakar's Walk Down Memory Lane

by RAY MLAKAR

Well, Memorial Day has come and gone as well as the Fourth of July with only one more big holiday ahead, Labor Day, a time when we should all take a break and rest. Before you rest, we still have a couple of jokes.

"We were driving home one evening on a dark and winding road in the country. All of a sudden a deer darted out in front of us. I was explaining to our three-year-old daughter, Alexandria, what happened when she simply asked, "Mom, did the deer look both ways?"

Okay, one more. During an early morning walk, I was delighted to see an armadillo cross the road with four babies behind it. I watched in wonder as they waddled into the woods. Back home I told our granddaughters, Amber and Lauren what I had seen and they asked whether it was a daddy or mommy armadillo. I told them it was probably a mom since it had all its babies in tow. Lauren piped up, "Of course it was a mom. Whoever saw a dad up that early in the morning?"

Well, back to the picnics. Recently Rudy Flis and I were talking. He said he remembered that at the picnics he was on the ground looking for some tickets that had not been ripped in half. Hey, what can I say, Rudy had a head on his shoulders way back then.

Our SNPJ lodge was headed by Frank Kanaflac and later by Frances Bolta (Micklich). We had one big picnic on Crossburn Avenue in an open field that went from Crossburn to Sprecher Avenues, right next to Papinna Bolts home. Frank, her boarder, insured that he cut the field down and the hay dried and all put in a pile. There is nothing like the smell of new mown hay.

Frances had ordered a big white top tent and they had the usual games for the kids, races, circus peanut toss. The kids had a field day. As usual they had the egg toss race and that was always fun to watch to see who would get egg yolk all over themselves. The potato sack race and all with worthwhile prizes.

With Papinna's house near by they were able to use extension cords for electric power, so we had lights well into the night. They had roasters going with roast beef, another for hot dogs and another for Slovenian sausages. Hmm, bet I am making Rudy Flis hungry about now.

Before long someone with an accordion and button box would show up and in no time you could hear the strains of good old-fashion Slovenian singing. The men with a few draft beers under their belt, would really sing (off key), but who cared, we were having the time of our lives. No one went home until all the food, ice cream, soft drinks and beer ran out. Fortunately, the members did not have to drive, they could walk home.

The last picnic our SNPJ lodge held was in the late 1960s I think, and it was only for lodge members since it was a free-bee. Frances Bolta was still the lodge secretary and the sausage and roast beef was furnished by the lodge which Frances prepared along with Anna Kosack. Since there were no more picnic groves available, everything built up, we had our last picnic at the Old Strekel Farm on W. 130th Street. They had a good size farm, huge barn and they raised chickens, too, along with some cows way back then.

Gosh, one looks back on those days. If Mrs. Strekel could see their place now, the home gone, the barn, chicken coop gone and a huge golden edifice of Islam Cathedral built on their site.

But back to the small picnic which we all enjoyed, for it felt like "Home Coming Days" with all lodge members whom we have known throughout the years. Those of us who had cars picked up those members who could not get there otherwise.

We had roast beef made the old-fashioned way with loads of onions and celery prepared by none other than Anna Kosack. (Arby's, eat your heart out). We had soft drinks and even one of the members brought his button box and we all sang the afternoon away.

It goes without saying that Frances Bolta (Micklich) and Tony Micklich really did their part to insure all had a good time. Good memories like that can never fade away.

Okay, Rudy Flis, you can pack up, the picnic memories are over and thanks for the memories as Bob Hope likes to say. With that, we will sign off only to wish all of God's blessings on all of you.

The Good Old Days

Remember the good old days when:

The worst embarrassment was being picked last for a team.

War was a card game.

Water balloons were the ultimate weapon.

Baseball cards in the spokes transformed any bike into a motorcycle.

Ice cream was considered a basic food group.

Older siblings were the worst tormentors, but also the fiercest protectors.

He conquers who endures.

Slovenian Swimmer Finishes Danube Protest Marathon

BUCHAREST, Aug. 21 — Slovenian Martin Strel has completed a 56-day marathon swim down the Danube river in protest of Yugoslavia's opposition to removing debris left in the river after last year's NATO bombing, Romanian radio said Monday.

The 46-year-old swimmer covered some 2,860 kilometers (1,773 miles) from the German town of Donaueschingen, arriving in the eastern Romanian town of Sulina on Sunday evening.

He said he would like to continue the marathon, swimming along the Black Sea coast and up the Danube-Black Sea canal to set a 3,000-kilometer record.

The Romanian foreign Minister Petre Roman joined 46-year-old Strel for a 40-minute swimming stunt on Aug. 14 to join the protest against the blockage of the river.

"Nobody has the right to hold up traffic on this river and there are signs that (the Yugoslav President Slobodan) Milosevic will soon give in," the Romanian minister said.

The Danube, Europe's second largest waterway after the Volga, has been blocked since mid-1999 by the debris from bridges in Yugoslavia destroyed by NATO bombers.

The European Union has put around EUR 20 million (USD 18.15 million) for a clean-up operation, but the Belgrade regime has not yet agreed to allow the operation to proceed. (Agence France Presse)

Ask the Travel Expert

by PATRICIA COIL
Euclid Travel

Question: I never know what to do about jet lag when I travel across many time zones.

Answer: Certain types of food can keep you awake or put you to sleep after a long flight. If you need to sleep earlier than usual when you arrive, choose foods high in carbohydrates such as breads, pasta, rice cakes or dried fruits. On the other hand, if you want to be alert, eat high protein foods such as meat, cheese, eggs, and nuts. In order to avoid dehydration when flying you need to drink 8 oz. of water for each hour you are in the air and avoid caffeine.

Question: I am planning a trip to Australia for the Olympics and want to know what the tipping customs are there.

Answer: In Australia you don't tip the waiter. The bartenders expect you to leave the change. For taxi drivers, just round out the fare to the next dollar. $1 is the usual tip for the hotel staff.

Question: How much food does the average cruise ship use every week?

Answer: Norwegian Cruise Line provided these facts for an average one week Caribbean cruise.

15,000 lbs. of fresh vegetables

12,000 lbs. of fresh fruit

12,000 lbs. of flour

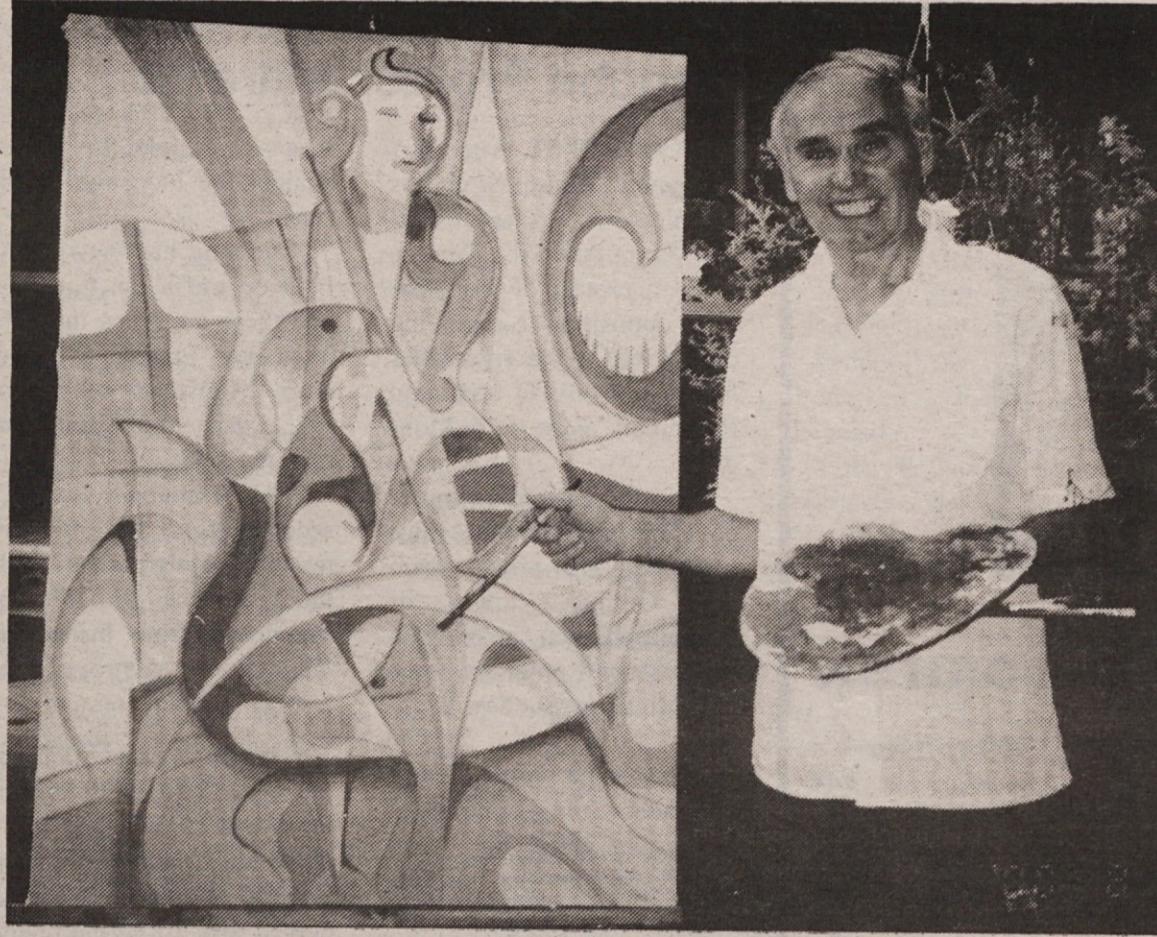

10,000 lbs. of beef
1,500 lbs. of veal
6,000 lbs. of poultry
3,000 lbs. of seafood
8,000 lbs. of potatoes
1,200 lbs. coffee
8,000 dozen eggs
7,000 gals. juice
8,500 gals. milk

Question: Is it true everyone gains at least 10 lbs. on a cruise vacation?

Answer: That may have been the case in the past, but it is not that way anymore. Cruise lines are aware that passengers are much more health conscious than in the past. (Some cruise lines, such as Crystal Cruises, have actually eliminated their midnight buffet and replaced it with a light snack buffet.) Salad bars are common on the luncheon buffets. Main dining room choices include vegetarian dishes, broiled fish and chicken, and other low fat items approved by the American Heart Association. In addition, fitness activities and spas are part of the modern cruise experience.

Miro Zupancic has Art Exhibition in Slovenia

by JAMES KINDALL

When Miro Zupancic was growing up in the Slovenian village of Rimske toplice, he climbed a mountain to see what was on the horizon. He saw another mountain. He climbed that. Then he saw another and another until one day he gazed upon the alps. Looking at the distant grandeur, he made up his mind. "I decided I wanted to see what was beyond that," he says.

That decision aptly describes the artistic philosophy and peripatetic lifestyle of the 63-year-old painter, sculptor, graphic illustrator, art restorer and stained glass specialist.

An exhibition featuring 60 of his works - half oil paintings and half water colors - will be held from Sept. 6 to Oct. 11 at the Galerija Krka in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

Although he has done paintings that range in style from the old masters to impressionism, these will be mostly abstract - blend of colors and composition to indirectly reveal meaning. Here, again, Miro's progress on canvas has been like climbing mountains, each phase reflecting a higher plateau of complexity.

"You look at it and you see something," he says. "Then you look at it later and you see something else."

Every day you notice something you didn't see before."

It has been a long journey filled with many artistic side roads that brought Miro from his studio home in Commack, New York back to his homeland. Along the way, he graduated with honors from the renowned Academy of Fine Arts in Linz, Austria, as well as the New York School of Visual Arts. Two of his paintings were purchased and are displayed at the Vatican Permanent Gallery.

Among numerous shows in New York, he has had exhibitions at the Lincoln Center and Galleries International. Viewers have gazed upon his works at Washington, D.C., Buenos Aires, Ontario, Mexico City and Paris. He is an accredited member of HTAL of Huntington, Long Island and the Contemporary Circle and Artists Equity in New York City. Two years ago, the Slovenian Cultural Center in Lemont, Illinois also exhibited his work. During the past two months, he exhibited three of his sculptures at the Mather Hospital gardens in Port Jefferson on Long Island.

Even as a child, Miro knew he wanted to be an artist. While growing up, he took every opportunity to draw on the walls and furniture in his home. "I was in trouble all the time."

A grammar school teacher noticed his talent and encouraged him to pursue it as a career. Later, he joined an art league, "Društvo Prešeren" in Celje, and another in Maribor where he won several first prizes. In 1957, he went to Austria to continue his studies. A priest Dr. Ferdinand Kolednik, noticed his work and asked him to illustrate some of his books. Later, he helped smooth the way for Miro's acceptance into the prestigious Linz Academy for Fine Arts where he studied for six years. This was a period when he also began doing restoration work at art museums. Among his projects was repairing the 11th century frescos at a church in Gmund, Austria, and a 16th century monument in Millstatt.

After his graduation from the Academy in 1963, he decided to come to the United States.

He arrived without knowing any English, helped by relatives in Cleveland. A job at a metal production factory placed his hands in constant danger, so he quit. But the city did expose him to other Slovenian artists. In 1964, along with his contemporaries, Miro conducted the largest Slovenian-American art exhibit ever held in the U.S. Another time, he was featured in a brief autobiography broadcast in Cleveland.

Eventually, he moved east to start a studio in Queens across the East River from New York City. From 1970-72 he was Art Director at the Daily Mirror, a job he remembers fondly because of the excitement of a daily newspaper and the closeness of the staff. Later, he moved into Manhattan doing freelance work and continuing to paint whenever he could. This was where he joined Studio Plus, a commercial artist's organization. In 1975, at a show by the Artists Equity Association of New York, the New York Times described his "Modri Dunaj" as "a colorful abstract with shadowy depths, overlapping forms and a compelling composition" and labeled it "Outstanding."

Art restoration and commercial work took up much of his late years, while he completed paintings on the side. During this period, he did illustrations for Timex, an international watch firm, and artwork for children's books at Playmore & Waldman in Manhattan. He also illustrated a cookbook, Junior Encyclopedia and a Medical Dictionary for the publishing firm of Barron's Education Series, Inc. Occasionally, he did assignments for Newsday, one of the nation's major newspapers.

He stopped to concentrate on his art in 1990 while continuing restoration work and stained glass projects. One of his most ambitious was a 2,000-piece stained glass window for the 70th anniversary of the St. Cyril church in New York City. The Tiffany-style window, which took over a year to complete, is six feet wide and 16-feet tall. The brilliantly colored scene fea-

Letošnja suša v Sloveniji bo imela enostavno katastrofalne posledice

Današnji Delo fax poroča o včerajnji tiskovni konferenci kmetijskega ministra Cirkila Smrkolja, v kateri je minister dejal, da je letošnja suša v zadnjem času dobila nove razsežnosti. Po podatkih ministrstva je najhuje v Beli krajini, Posavju, Podravju, Prekmurju, v Savinjski dolini in Slovenski Istri. Poročilo nadaljuje:

"Po najbolj svežih podatkih, s katerimi razpolagajo na ministrstvu, so zaradi suše prizadeta že tudi območja Gorenjske in severnejših delov osrednje Slovenije, kjer doslej ni bilo posebnih škod zaradi suše, vsaj večina občin na tem območju jih ni prijavljala. Zdaj pa tudi na Gorenjskem ocenjujejo, da jim je suša povzročila 15- do 20- odstotno škodo na koruzi, 20 do 30 odstotkov manjši bo pridelek sena oziroma mrve, škoda pa je tudi na višinskih pašnikih, s katerih se bo morala živila prej kot običajno vrneti s paše. To pa lahko pomeni tudi zgodnejšo prodajo živine."

Ko so ob koncu junija za 40 do 50 odstotkov izpada pridelka na najbolj prizadetih območjih, zdaj napovedujejo še vsaj 10- odstotno slabši pridelek. Ob nižjem pridelku koruze je dodatna skrb pojav bolezni - bulava snet -, zaradi katere bo pridelek neuporaben za krmo mlade in plemenske živine.

Danés bo seja vlade, na kateri bo razprava o stanju v kmetijstvu, prav tako o interventnem zakonu, ki so ga vložili poslanci v državni zbor.

Slovenska olimpijska ekipa izbrana

V torek je bila na Ljubljanskem gradu prireditev Športno popoldne, na kateri so se med zbrali letosnji slovenski olimpijeci. Navzoč je bil tudi predsednik države Milan Kučan, ki je izročil državno zastavo proslavljenemu veslaču Iztoku Čopu, ki je eden na kolajno. Čop bo namreč zastavonoš ob otvoriti letosnjih poletnih iger 15. septembra v avstralskem mestu Sydney. Igre bodo trajale do 1. oktobra.

Slovenska ekipa na igrach bo štela 74 članov, skupaj s trenerji, zdravniškim osebjem in vodstvom pa jih bo 120. Ekipa je najstevilčna doslej, v njej pa nista še zelo cenjena športnica Brigita Bukovec in Igor Primc, ta dva bosta vključena, če bosta do 11. septembra dosegla normo A mednarodne atletske zvez.

Razširjenost interneta v Sloveniji

Podatki, zbrani do konca junija, kažejo, da vsak peti Slovenec vsak mesec uporablja internet, približno tri četrtine aktivnih uporabnikov pa ima svoj elektronski naslov. V Sloveniji je aktivnih uporabnikov interneta približno 280.000. Po drugi strani pa z elektronsko pošto še ni seznanjenih 84 odstotkov neuporabnikov.

Manj brezposelnosti

Po podatkih državnega statističnega urada je bilo v Sloveniji junija 772.305 delovno aktivnih prebivalcev (od teh 86.552 samozaposlenih), brezposelnih 103.355, med slednjimi jih je 10,9 odstotka moških in 13,3 odstotka žensk. To pomeni 11,8 odstotno stopnjo registrirane brezposelnosti. Pred enim letom, junija lani, je bilo brezposelnih 120.000 ljudi.

P O T R E S

Slovenska država je v zadnjih tednih doživela hud politični potres. Dve stranki sta podpisali koalicijo, dve sta se združili, vzgrednila se je nova vlada, pravkar združena stranka se je razcepila, koalicija se je razbila, vstaja nova stranka. Kot po vsakem potresu je tudi po tem ostalo v zraku veliko prahu, ki še ne dopušča jasne presoje vse škode, ki je bila prizadeta. Ljudje si ogledujejo, kaj je porušeno, kaj še stoji, kje so še kake skrite razpoke, in nezaupno gledajo, če so preostali zidovi res varni. Nekateri pa poskušajo izrabiti zmedo v svojo korist. Tako vlogo je prevzel predsednik države, ki je sklical volitve za 15. oktober, nekako tako, kot bi župan porušenega mesta razglasil nov mestni načrt med tem, ko gasilci še preiskujejo ruševine.

Potres je velika nesreča, lahko pa je tudi začetek prenove. So mesta, ki so po potresih niso več opomogla, poznamo pa druga, ki so zrasla iz ruševin lepša in prenovljena. To seveda ni odvisno od sile potresnega sunca, mavec od notranje moći prebivalcev. Tudi posledice pravkar doživetega političnega pretresa bodo končno izraz ustvarjali sile prizadetih.

Eno prvih vprašanj, ki si ga ljudje stavijo po vsakem potresu, je, kako da ga ni nihče predvidel, kdaj je bilo opaziti prve znake globinskih napetosti in kaj je njih vzrok. Takoj natombot pa sledi vprašanje: kaj zdaj? Odgovori so navadno več ali manj utemeljena ugibanja. Tudi po političnem potresu ni drugače.

Kolikor je mogoče presoditi iz daljave, je bilo čutiti prvi potresni sunek po neki seji Bajukove vlade. Tej seji je predsedoval zaradi mandatarjeve odsotnosti obrambni minister, predsednik SDS, Janša. Na njej so sklenili, da bo vlada predstavila evropski komisiji v presojo vprašanje volilnega sistema. O tej odločitvi je bil obveščen mandatar Bajuk naknadno, predsednik druge koaličiske in takrat največje stranke v Sloveniji, Zagožen, pa ne. Ko je zvedel za to vladno odločitev po neuradni poti, je bil predsednik SLS+SKD upravičeno jezen, a je neupravičeno ostro reagiral.

Kot znano, je SDS izvedla pred časom referendum glede načina parlamentarnih volitev. Relativna večina glasovalcev se je odločila za večinski dvokrožni sistem. Ustavno sodišče se je izreklo, da je izid referenduma veljaven in zato obvezen. Krščanski demokrati, ki sicer niso bili pristaši večinskega sistema in so sami predlagali kombinacijo večinskega in proporcionalnega načina volitev, ki bi bil za

Obisk škofa dr. Franca Krambergerja v Clevelandu

CLEVELAND, O. – Pevci zbora Korotan in drugi slovenski rojaki, ki smo bili septembra lansko leto v Mariboru na posvetitvi škofa Antona Martina Slomška blaženim, še vedno obujamo spomine na to enkratno doživetje. Še posebno smo bili veseli, da nas je mariborski škof dr. Franc Kramberger, dan po posvetitvi, sprejel v stolnici, daroval sv. mašo za nas in vse dobrotnike, se po maši z nami slikal in nas povabil na dvorišče škofijskega dvorca, kjer so vsem postregli z dobrim vinčkom iz škofijskih vinogradov.

Škof Kramberger se je odzval povabilu zbora Korotan in Slomškovega krožka in bo prišel v Ameriko na pastoralni obisk, najprej v Lemont, v četrtek, 31. avgusta, bo pa prišel v Cleveland in ostal med nami do 5. septembra. Iz Lemonta ga bo č.g. župnik p. David Šrumpf odpeljal v Baragovo deželo in v četrtek, 31. avgusta, zvečer okoli 7. ure pripeljal v župnišče fare Marije Vnebovzete, kjer bo gost župnika č.g. Janeza Kumšeta. Ker bo gospod škof go tovo utrujen od dolge poti in se še na poti lahko zamudijo, ne načrtujemo tisti večjega sprejema.

Točen program za v petek bo še objavljen.

V soboto, 2. septembra, zjutraj bo škof za kratek čas po sv. maši gost članov Misijonske Znamkarske Akcije v šolski dvorani. Tisti večer bo škof gost Korotana na njihovi večerni veselici na Slovenski pristavi. Po večerji bo kratki kulturni program škofu Krambergerju na čast. V soboto čez dan bo škof obiskal Slovenski dom za ostarele na Neff Rd., kjer se nahaja tudi dolgoletni predsednik Slomškove zveze in krožka v Clevelandu g. John Petrič.

Višek škofovega obiska bo v nedeljo, 3. sept., ko bo daroval ob 2. uri pop. slovesno zahvalno sv. mašo v cerkvi sv. Vida. Po maši bo srečanje rojakov s škofom v avditoriju pri sv. Vidu. Škof bo vesel srečanja vseh rojakov, posebno še dobrotnikov Slomškove zveze.

V ponedeljek, 4. sept., bo škof obiskal grob pok. župnika č.g. Jožeta Varge na pokopališču Vernih duš, popoldne bo pa gost Št. Lenartskega rojaka g. Frančka Toplaka. V torek zjutraj bo škof v spremstvu Staneta Kuharja obiskal višjo šolo sv. Ignacija, ob dveh pop. bo pa odletel v Chicago in naprej v Evropo.

Slomškov krožek vabi vse častilce blaženega škofa Slomška, da se udeleže vseh prireditv v čim večjem številu, posebno sv. maše pri sv. Vidu v nedeljo, 3. sept., popoldan. Še posebno bodo dobrodošle narodne noše.

Slomškov krožek je prejel še nekaj darov in jih objavljamo: $100 od dr. Edija in ge. Milene Gobec; $50 od g. Jožeta in ge. Marije Leban; $40 od ge. Frančke Kristanc. Vsem najlepša hvala!

mlado državo bolj primeren, so se podredili sodnijski odločitvi. V koaličiski pogodbi, ki so jo podpisali s SDS, so se dogovorili, da se bodo tega sklepa držali. Po združitvi obeh krščansko usmerjenih strank v novo SLS+SKD, je to koaličisko pogodbo podpisal tudi predsednik nove stranke Franc Zagožen.

Sledili so manjši konflikti med poslanskimi bloki obeh pomladnih koaličiskih strank. Nastajajoč razpoko je hotel dr. Andrej Bajuk, kot predsednik vlade, pravočasno omejiti in premestiti. Predlagal je, naj se spor glede volilnega sistema reši tako, da sklicuje vlada, ki je za to poklicana, nov referendum. Ta referendum naj bi bil brez pomanjkljivosti, katere je imel prejšnji, in naj bi nedvoumno izkazal voljo ljudstva, predstavnikom pomladnih strank pa omogočil, da svoje mnenje prilagodijo brez izgube osebnega ugleda. Sklical je sejo s predstavniki obeh koaličiskih strank, s katere pa sta Franc Zagožen in Janez Podobnik kmalu užaljena odšla, ker ju je tam neki predstavnik SDS brez potrebe žalil. Predlog je propadel, razpoka se je razširila in poglobila.

Do dokončnega razkola pa je prišlo v parlamentu ob glasovanju spremembe volilnega sistema, ki je del ustave in potrebuje za izglasovanje dvotretjinsko večino. Predsednik SLS+SKD Zagožen je brez posveta s koaličiskim partnerjem dal poslancem svoje stranke navodilo, naj glasujejo skupaj s poslanci levičarskega bloka za proporcionalni volilni sistem. S tem je razbil pomladno koalicijo, ki je postala s proporcionalnim sistemom tako ali tako brezpred-

Izpod zvona sv. Marije Vnebovzete

CLEVELAND, O. – Obljubila sem, da se bom oglašila po počitnicah, a se že pred koncem oglašam, saj je kar veliko novic.

Naš č.g. župnik Janez Kumše se je srečno vrnil in vsi njegovi sopotniki, ki so si osvojili najvišjo slovensko goro Triglav. Vsi so polni veselja nad lepoto, ki so jo doživel v gorah, kar tudi vsi verjamemo.

Medtem se je naša cerkev napolnila do polovice s slikarskim odrom, da stropu dajejo umetniki novo lico. Zdaj so klopi pred oltarjem bolj polne vernikov, kar daje lep pogled po cerkvi.

Saj bo že skoro dva tedna, kar smo romali Oltarna društva in Slomškov krožek v Lemont. Letos je bila naša vrsta, da smo kronale Marijo v Rožvenski dolini. Ob kronanju pojemo sedem veselih dogodkov, ki jih je Marija doživila skupno z desetko Zdravih Marij. Med šesto in sedmo kitico pa članica krona Marijin kip, vmes pa pojemo, Marija v Lemontu stanuje, a v nebesih kraljuje. Po sedmi kitici in desetki še zmolimo po namenu sv. očeta Očenaš in Zdrava Marija ter Čast boodi, dodamo pa še Zdrava Mariji.

P. Vendelin Špendov nam je povedal, da je po legendi bila Marija ob smrti stara 72 let, tako je 7-krat po deset Zdravih Marij in še dodatni dve. Na vsakoletno kronanje imamo lepe spomine.

Preteklo nedeljo je bil naš farni piknik na Slovenski pristavi. Pričel se je s sv. mašo, nato je bilo razdeljeno kosilo, potem smo gledali plesalce Kresa, ko so se vrteli ob prijetni glasbi Veselih godcev, klepetali z znanci, saj je bil zares lep obisk tako naših faranov, kot tudi od Sv. Vida in drugih župnij. Bilo je sončno, a hladno v senči, tako, da si iskal sonce ali pa se zavijal v jopico.

To nedeljo bo v naši cerkvi lepa slovesnost, ko bo srebrnomašnik pristopil k oltarju ob drugi uri popoldne. To bo g. Rafko Rupert, iz reda Sv. Zakrama. Pred 25 leti je prejel mašniško posvečenje od sv. očeta Pavla VI. Bil je misijonar na Filipinih, na Češkem, v Sloveniji ter za-

Hvala za spomine

CLEVELAND, O. - Bil je lep, sončni dan, ki nam ga je dal Gospod. Ni bilo vroče, le toplo, prijetno popoldne, ko se je zbrala velika množica ljudi v nedeljo, 13. avgusta, na Slovenski pristavi, v pričakovanju, da poslušajo ansambl, ki jih niso slišali že več let.

Točno ob treh popoldne se je oglasil prvi ansambel, Veseli Slovenci, s pevkama Cvetko Rihtar in Blanko Tonkli. Ob spremljavi Edija Mejača na trobenti, Dušana Žitnika na bobnu, vodje ansambla Dušana Maršiča na klarinetu, na harmoniki Marjan Tonkli, na strunah kitare Emil Benegalija, v baritonu pa je pihal Tone Ovsenik, sta zapeli nekaj znanih melodij.

Hitro je minila pol urica in že je bil na odru Matija Grdadolnik s svojim Sonegom. Matiju so še pomagali Jože Gjerek z bas kitaro, Lojze Petelin je sedel za bobnim, z ritem kitaro je brenkal Tine Ribič. Tudi ti so navdušili navzoče.

Sledil jim je ansambel, ki se je rodil v šestdesetih letih, izhajajoč iz dobe Rudi Knezovih Mladih harmonikarjev, tj. ansambel Vandrovci. V tej zasedbi so nastopili harmonikar in svoj čas vodja ansambla, Peter Jančar, trobentač Frank Vidmar in klarinetist Tone Rus. Strune je lovil na kitari Ivan Zupan, spodnji glas z baritonom in basom je dajal Tone Ovsenik. Z ansamblom sta tudi nastopili, kakor pred leti, pevki Justi Ovsenik in Cvetka Gabrič.

Njim odrejene minute so hitro minule in spet je bila sprememba na odru. Priokrakali so že fantje in dekleti Alpskega sexteta. Živahnno so urezali prvo skladbo pod vodstvom harmonika Slavca Teskača. Zraven sta bila še Vic Tripodo s svojo trobento in Martin Maršič, ki je piskal v svoj klarinet. Na drugem koncu odru se je ukvarjal s svojim baritonom in basom Pavle Jurkovič, ki je dajal ritem pevkima Vidi Tripodo in Mimi Kozini. Pri petju je pomagal s svojimi vložki in obenem obiral strune na kitari še Miha Dolinar.

Po odmoru, ki je trajal pol ure, se je celoten program ponovil. Vsak ansambel je zopet v polurnem programu pokazal, kaj zna, in minilo je nedeljsko popoldne – vendar ne prej, ko so vsi fantje skupaj z veseljem in v prijateljskem vzdušju urezali par skladbic skupno. To je bil tudi višek srečanja, saj je bil namen preživeti lepo nedeljsko popoldne v pravi, skupni družbi in lepih spominih na mladost, to ob melodijah, ki so jih vsi člani teh ansamblov mnogokrat preigrali na raznih prireditvah. Glasbo in našo lepo slovensko pesem nosijo vsi v srcu, jo imajo vsi v krvi in to, kar je zasidrano v človeka, nihče ne izbriše. Pesem druži naš narod že vsa stoletja, v pesmi najlaže najdemo skupno pot.

Čeprav se v drugih pogledih lahko razlikujemo, pesem nas veže skupaj v eno samo družbo. V pesmi smo vsi enaki, smo vsi pravi bratje in sestre naše zemlje, čeprav na tleh tako oddaljeni od rodne domovine. Prav tu je gotovo vzrok za to ljubezen do naše prelepse pesmi in na spomine, ki jih nam pričara.

Vsem zgoraj navedenim, vsem članom nastopajočih ansamblov, najlepša in iz srca topla zahvala za odziv vabilu. Zahvala gre tudi "oštirjem", našim pridnim natakarjem s Frankom Lovšinom in predsednikom Pristave Metodom Ilcem na čelu, da so tako lepo skrbeli za postrežbo žejnim.

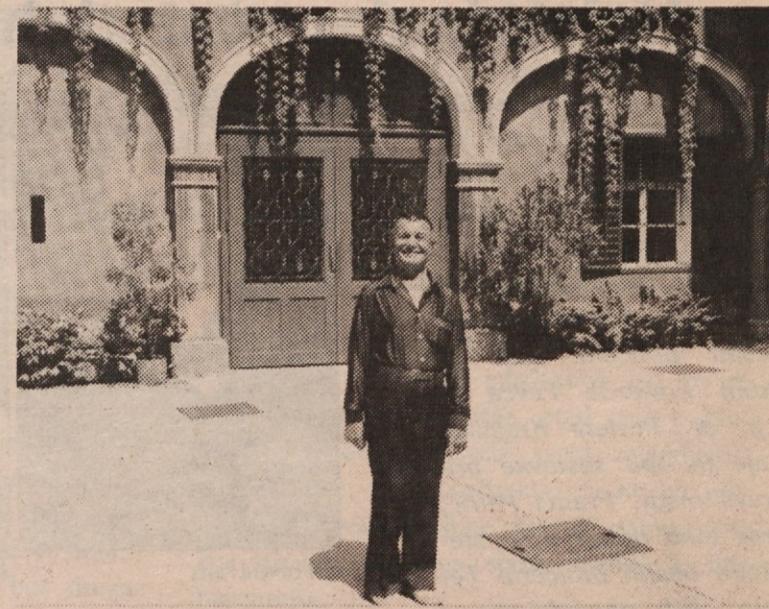

Seveda, če je človek lačen, mu tudi do zabave ni. Zato se je treba zahvaliti tudi vsem pridnim v kuhijni. MaryAnn Vogel je tu imela glavno vlogo. Najlepša ti hvala za ves tvoj trud, kakor tudi vsem twojim pomočnicam. Vem, težko je žrtvovati svoj čas in stati v vroči kuhinji ter skrbeti za dobro hrano. Zahvala gre tudi g. Kosmaču in njegovim pomočnikom za okusne čevapčice. Bog vam vsem poplačaj!

Če je glasba, je tudi potrebno ozvočenje. Brez tega, naj bo glasba še tako lepa, če je ljudje ne morejo slišati, je ves trud muzikantov zaman. Za ozvočenje se zahvaljujem članom ansambla Veseli godci in posebno Martinu Maršiču, da je to preskrbel in stvar postavil, da je programu lahko sledil sleherni. Tudi Sreču Gaserju najlepša hvala za povezavo in čuvanje ure, da je cela prireditev tekla naprej.

Casopis in radio sta edina povezava med nami, kjer ljudje lahko dobijo informacije, kaj se dogaja v naši skupnosti. Za obveščanje in vabilo ljudem na to srečanje na Slovenski pristavi, se je treba zahvaliti Ameriški Domovini, tako angleškemu in slovenskemu delu, oz. ang. uredniku g. Jamesu Debevcu in slovenskemu Rudolphu Sušlju.

Zahvala tudi Muši Cofelt in Ediju Mejaču za njuno oglašanje preko oddaje "Pesmi in melodije iz naše lepe Slovenije" na WCSB, in Tonyju Petkovšku za njegovo naklonjenost dnevno radiju WELW, ter še "Slovenki uri", ki oddaja preko radijske postaje WCPN 90.3 ob sobotah zvečer ob devetih.

Kaj je glasba in ples, če ni ljudi? Brez poslušalcev muzikantje ne morejo igrati, posebno vneto ne. Na tem mestu gre zahvala vam

Na fotografiji je naš sedaj že pokojni nekdanji dobletni dopisnik iz New Yorka g. Tone Osvnik. Foto je bil posnet med enim njegovih obiskov v Sloveniji. Posredovala sta nam fotografijo g. Karl in ga. Helena Klesin iz New Yorka, priložila pa $50 kot dar AD v spomin g. Osvnika. Hvala lepa za foto in dar!

vsem, ki ste v tako nepričakovano velikem številu prišli na Slovensko pristavo in bili prisotni na prvem srečanju ansamblov, ki so vas skozi zadnjih 37 leti zabavali, in to pretežno z glasbo našega največjega umetnika na narodnozabavnem polju, Slavka Avsenika. Bil bi ponosen, če bi bil priča tega dogodka.

V upanju, da to ni bilo zadnjič, vsem nastopajočim, vsem in vsakemu posebej, kdor je kaj doprinesel k uspehu tega dne, en velik "boglonaj". Enako velja vsem vam, ki ste se vabilu odzvali in prišli na ta enkraten dogodek na SP. Naj vas pozdravim z odlomkom pristavske pesmice Oaza v naravi: Od sreče mi srce zapoje, v naročje se vračam spet tvoje. Pristava me vabi Slovenska, so znanci tam, vse me pozna. Tu mir svoj boš našel in dobre ljudi. Pridi med nas kdaj še ti.

ko podpirajo bogoslovsko akcijo. Po maši bo prilika za pogovor v šolski dvorani. Pridite in pozdravite Slomškovega naslednika. Kdor lahko gre v nedeljo k Sv. Vidu, ste tudi dobrodošli.

Vidite, koliko življenja je še v naši naselbini? Hvala vsem za vse sodelovanje, še naprej se nam pridružite in z veseljem sodelujte!

Neizbrisni pečat duhovništva

V rubriki "Duhovniški jubileji" je ljubljanski tedenik DRUŽINA 13. avgusta objavila kratka življepisa dveh duhovnikov, letošnjih zlatomašnikov, ki sta dobro znana mnogim našim bralcem. Gre za škofa Edwarda Pevca in č.g. dr. Pavleta Krajnika. Baje je oba sestavka pripravil msgr. Franci Petrič, prav tako dobro znan številnim našim bralcem. Teksta obeh posredujemo v celoti.

Slovenci v Clevelandu, še vedno največjemu slovenskemu mestu zunaj domovine, so bili 13. aprila 1982 izjemno veseli, ko so izvedeli, da je papež Janez Pavel II. nekdanjega župnika pri sv. Vidu in rektorja škofij-skega malega semenišča imenoval za novega pomoznega škofa v obširni clevelandski škofiji. To je bilo simbolično priznanje za prispevek, ki ga slovenska skupnost v Clevelandu že desetletja daje tej škofiji in mestu.

Škof Edward Pevec je Slovenec druge generacije. Rodil se je namreč slovenskim priseljencem (starši izhajajo iz Šentruperta in Štenlovenca na Dolenjskem) 16. aprila 1925 v Clevelandu. V družini so bili štirje otroci, Edward je bil najstarejši.

Od mladosti so živel v mestni četrti okrog slovenske cerkve sv. Vida. Njegovi sosedje in sošolci se ga spominjajo kot izjemno pridnega učenca in vestnega ministranta.

Vsako nedeljo je že navsezgodaj ministiral pri prvi jutranji maši in sam pravi, da je ob oltarju ter požrtvovalnih duhovnikih Ponikvarju, Jagru, Sodji in Andrejcu začutil klic v duhovništvo.

Po osnovni šoli na East Madison in pri sv. Vidu je obiskoval srednjo šolo v Clevelandu (Cathedral Latin High School) in malo semenišče Presvetega Srca v Detroitu.

Bogoslovje je študiral v Clevelandu in bil 29. aprila leta 1950 po rokah škofa Hobana posvečen v clevelandski stolnici v mašnika. Takrat je skupaj s sošolci (bilo jih je 25, zdaj je živih še 13) napravil zaobljubo, da pet let ne bodo pili nobene alkoholne pičače. Sam se te zaobljube drži že petdeset let!

Škof je poznal njegove študijske sposobnosti, zato mu je dovolil, da je nadaljeval študij: leta 1956 je napravil magisterij na ugledni jezuitski univerzi John Carroll, leta 1964 pa je pridobil na univerzi Case Western Reserve še doktorski naslov. V tem času je služboval kot kaplan na župnijah sv. Marije v Elyriji pri Clevelandu in v slovenski župniji sv. Lovrenca. Med letoma 1953 in 1975 je opravljal profesorsko in vodstvene službe v malem in bogoslovnom semenišču. Leta 1975 je bil imenovan za župnika svoje rojstne župnije sv. Vida.

To delo je opravljalo do 1. 1979, ko je bil postavljen za rektorja Borromeo College Seminary (malega semenišča). 17. aprila 1982 ga je papež na predlog clevelandskega škofa Pilla imenoval za pomoznega škofa z naslovno škofijo Mercia. Isti mesec je postal škofov vikar za vzhodni del škofije. Stanuje v škofijskem pastoralnem izobraževalnem središču Borromeo na vzhodu Clevelandu, kjer živi tudi največ slovenskih naseljencev. Vsako leto pred božičem se tam naši rojaki srečajo z njim. Tudi sicer je velikokrat gost v slovenskih župnijah. Čeprav bolje govori angleško, rad poklepata tudi po slovensko, kot je govoril doma s starši.

Župnija sv. Vida je svojega župljana, pozneje župnika ter visokega rojaka pozdravila in počastila z metna, ker se v takem primeru sklepa koalicijo po volitvah z ozirom na število poslancev, ki jih dobi vsaka stranka. To odločitev je storil Zagožen brez posveta z IO ali s Svetom lastne stranke in proti volji njenih podpredsednikov Peterleta in Bajuka. Zavrgel pa je tudi sklep ustavnega sodišča in tako, skupaj z levicarskim blokom, oddalil Slovenijo od ideala pravne države.

Da je postal prepad po glasovanju v parlamentu ne-premostljiv, so dosegli tudi poslanci SLS+SKD. Čeprav so vedeli za ozadje Zagožnovih odločitev, so ga podprli vsi, brez izjeme, kar je oba podpredsednika stranke postavilo v nemogoč položaj. Ostala sta popolnoma osamljena. Ko bi vsaj nekaj poslancev glasovalo drugače, bi bilo mogoče prenesti razpravo o pravilnosti ali nepravilnosti Zagožnovih odločitev v okvir stranke. Tako pa je ostalo obema podpredsednikoma le to, da sta od funkcij v vodstvu stranke protestno odstopila. Zagožen je s svojimi poslanci dosegel, da se je otresel v vodstvu stranke dveh najvidnejših osebnosti, hkrati pa ohranil enotnost SLS+SKD. S tem pa je seveda oslabil njen ugled in jo porinil ob bok ne-spokorjenih političnih dedičev nekdanjega režima.

Dr. Andrej Bajuk je nekaj ur po glasovanju v parlamentu oznanil svojo odločitev, da izstopa iz SLS+SKD in da namerava ustanoviti novo stranko, ki se bo dosledno držala vrednot slovenske pomlad. Ko je Lojze Peterle kasneje uvidel, da so vrata do odločajočih organov SLS+SKD zaprta tudi njemu, in da proti Zagožnovim odločitvam ne bo mogel protestirati znotraj stranke, je prav tako iz nje izstopil. Del članstva je tako ostal brez odgovarjajočega, zanesljivega političnega predstavninstva. Nekaj dni po tem sta Bajuk in Peterle naznanila, da se oblikuje nova politična opcija "Nova Slovenija", katere smer je opredeljena s podnaslovom "Krščanska ljudska stranka". Ta je bila na podlagi 350 ustanovnih podpisov, več kot jih predpisuje zakon o strankah, končno ustanovljena na množičnem zborovanju v petek, 4. avgusta, v Ljubljani. Za predsednika stranke so izvolili dr. Andreja Bajuka, kateremu se je med tem posrečilo, da je kljub koalicijski krizi, ohraniti med ministri svoje vlade enotnost.

Nova stranka stoji pred hudim izzivom. Čez dobra dva meseca se mora predstaviti volilcem na volitvah za državni zbor. Do takrat mora v predvidenih rokah izdelati program in izbrati kandidate, predvsem pa urediti svoje lastno vodstvo in notranjo strukturo. Ker nova stranka, ki je idejna naslednica politične smeri nekdanje SKD, napoljuje izpraznjeni politični prostor, ki je nastal z Zagožnovim preusmeritvijo, ima vsekakor možnost rasti in razvoja. Vprašanje je, če bo to zmogla v omejenem času, ki ga ima, in ob popolnem pomanjkanju strankarskih struktur, denarnih sredstev in ob običajni medijski pristranosti. Mediji, katere obvladajo stare politične sile, so sedaj naklonjeni Zagožnu in njegovi stranki, ker gledajo v njej že potencialno zaveznicu, ki se je od pomladne smeri oddaljila. Seveda bodo šele prihodne volitve razčistile ozračje in pokazale pravost stanje slovenske demokracije.

In mi? Kje smo se znašli po potresu? Lahko rečemo, da prav tam, kjer smo vedno bili. Naš odnos do Slovenije se ni spremenil, pa tudi ne pogled na preteklost in ne na prihodnost. Spremembe so se zgodile v nekaterih strankah, ne v nas ali med nami. Drugi so spremenili smer, mi smo svoji zvesti že sto let. Kot vedno, hočemo tudi zdaj, da se popravijo krivice, ki jih je zakrivila v našem narodu komunistična revolucija s svojim režimom, zavzemamo se za resnično demokracijo v državi in v strankah, za pluralizem medijev, za socialno pravičnost, za krščanske vrednote, za slovensko samozavest v odnosih s sosedji in s svetom, za zdravo družinsko politiko, pa pričakujemo, da demokratična država obsodi totalitarno preteklost.

Vse kaže, da se je "Nova Slovenija" odločila za tako smer. V tem primeru se bomo znašli s podobno mislečimi rojaki na poti, ki jo čutimo kot pravo in smo prepričani, da je za naš narod tudi v teh razmerah najbolj primerna. Ko nam bo poznan program nove stranke, ko bomo seznanjeni z njenim statutom in celotnim vodstvom, ne le z zaupanja vrednimi potezami dr. Bajuka, prof. Peterleta, dr. Drobnica in prof. Stanovnika, ko se bo poleg potresni prah, bomo lahko jasno videli ne le, kaj se od nas oddaljuje, ampak tudi, kam naj gremo.

Poletje na Slovenskem letovišču

TORONTO, Ont. - Čas počitnic in oddiha v prosti naravi hitro mineva. Kljub muhastemu in nestalnemu vremenu je Slovensko letovišče pri Boltonu spet kraj mnogih srečanj in praznovanj.

25. junija je slabo jutranje vreme prispevalo k manjši udeležbi pri Telovi procesiji, kot prejšnja leta. Narodnih noš ni bilo videti in zelena dolina, pot procesije, je postalo jezero. Tradicijo evharističnega slavlja smo nadaljevali po zgornji ravnini letovišča.

Za 41. Slovenski dan 9. julija je bilo nebo spet prekrito z deževnimi oblaki. Združeni s č. lazaristi Jožetom Mejačem, Pavlom Novakom in Francem Ratajem na obisku iz Slovenije, Tinetom Batičem in novomašnikom Janezom Likozarjem smo srečno opravili nedeljsko mašo.

Letošnji Slovenski dan je bil posvečen mladini. V popoldanskem programu je Pavle Novak govoril o pomenu znanja jezika, kulture ter narodne zavesti za slovensko kanadsko mladino, ki prispeva k splošni izobrazbi in vzgoji mladega človeka za sposobnega člena današnje svetovne družbe.

V angleščini je podajal slične misli Bobby Ulčar, ki raste od otroških let v slovenskih organizacijah pri Brezmadežni in na Slovenskem letovišču. Petje združenih pevcev, folklora mlaadinske skupine Mladika (Nevenka Stajan), otroški pevski zbor Novi rod (Mojca Končan), deklamacije (Nada in Vesna Čemas), glasbeni duet (Andrej Pahulje in Matija Lebar), so sestavljali drugi del programa, ki ga je povezoval inž. Ciril Pleško.

Slovensko-kanadski svet in Slovensko letovišče sta bila letošnja organizatorja te prireditve, katere sta se udeležila slovenski veleposlanik dr. Božo Cerar in častni konzul republike Slovenije Jože Slobodnik.

Ob takih nedeljah na Slovenskem letovišču spo-min oživi in nas v duhu popelje na slovensko podeželje, kjer v hladnih uticah ob cvetočih vrtovih vasujejo domači in prijatelji iz sosedne vasi, kjer se ob večerih še sliši fantovske pesem, kjer dekleta še pletejo vence za žegnanje, nove maše, procesijo sv. R. Telesa ali za gasilsko veselico, in v mladostnih sanjah ustvarajo srečno družino z ljubljenim fantom... Nad pšeničnimi polji in pokošnimi travniksi se razpenja prelestno poletno nebo in odseva v skalnatih vrhovih Karavank in Julijskih Alp.

Slovenske nedelje in prazniki dajejo našemu narodu edinstveno podobo od davnih časov sv. Cirila in Metoda, od časov koroških vojvod in prvih romarskih poti k Gospe Sveti, na Sv. Goro in Sv. Višarje, k Mariji Pomočnici na Brezje, na Ptujsko goro... Iz tisočnih cerkevnih stolpov širok naše zemlje vabijo zvonovi k Angelskemu češčenju in pridni Slovenec sklene roke k molitvi kakor že dolgih tisoč let.

Letošnji in vsi Slovenski dnevi so tako zvonjenje, naročilo, da z lastnim zgledom storimo vse, da bo naša mladina spoznala in živila slovenstvo.

Za poletni večer 29. julija so letoviščarji in obiskovalci napolnili letoviško dvorano. Ga. Marija Soršak je svojimi pomočnicami pravila okusno večerjo. Zunaj na terasi po toplim poletnim nebom je za ples igral orkester Alpski glas.

Slovensko letovišče je v zadnjih julijskih sobotah in nedeljah kraj mlaadinskih športnih iger in tekmovanj, ki so se letos končala 12. in 13. avgusta z mlaadinskim Jaboreem. V teh igrach je letos sodelovalo do dvesto osnovno- in srednješolskih otrok, univerzitetnih študentov in mlaadih Slovencov ter celotne slovenske skupnosti okrog Toronto. Vsako leto se ponovno utrdijo prijateljski stiki z mlaadino iz Chicaga, ki včasih pripeljejo fanta in dekle v

Meta je odkimala in se skušala obrniti v steno.

"Poslušaj, mam, nekaj moraš jesti. Če že ne gosto hrano pa vsaj kako juho ali omako. Mogoče kakšen sadni sok, da boš ostala pri moči. Zdravnik je rekel, da te moramo pripraviti, da boš jedla, ker boš drugače v še večjih bolečinah. Ali razumeš?"

Bolečine? Telesne bolečine niso nič v primeru z duševnimi. Ali moreš ti, hčerka, to razumeti? Kaj mi pomaga, če se bom telesno bolje počutila, če rame in boki in pljuča ne bodoboleli, v prsih pa mi leži kamen?

"Ne misli, da ne razumem, kako si razočaran," je nadaljevala Stanka. "Franca nama je povedala, kako te je prizadelo. A zaradi tega ne bi smela obupati. Ti lahko še dolgo živiš. Če bi si le malo sama pomagala. Če boš jedla."

Oh, hčerka, zakaj bi še dolgo živila? Kaj bom s tem dosegla? Ali bom potem bolj vredna božjega prihoda? Ali misliš, da bo Jehova zaradi mene spremenil svoj načrt in skrajšal čas pričakovanja?

"Popoldne bom šla k zdravniku, da mi bo dal injekcije za bolečine. Rekel je, naj pridem, da ti jih lahko sama dajem."

"Ne," je rekla Meta.

"Zakaj ne? Lažje ti bo."

Meta je ostro pogledala hčer in ji z vsemi močmi prepovedala to zadnje ponižanje.

"Ne!"

Ne bom umirala napol nezavestna, gluha za glasove, slepa za lepoto dneva, poglobljena v nedoumljiv mrak, ujeta v nedostojnost nerazumevanja. Vzdignila je glavo in nepremično strmela v Stanko.

"Mama! Ne poskušaj me prisiliti, da ti ne bi pomagala!"

Meta je zaprla oči, jih hitro odprla in prikimala. Da, prisilila te bom, ker to je, kar hočem."

"Ne! Ne!" je ponovila.

Stanka jo je gledala, kot da lahko s pogledom razčleni materina čustva, razumejen beg pred realnostjo. Počasi je stegnila roko in jo pobožala po čelu in navzgor po laseh.

"Mama, kaj te muči? Kaj hočeš še dokazati?"

Ne dokazati, hčerka, samo dojeti, razumeti. Razumeti hočem, kaj sem storila v tem življenju. Kaj sem ljubila, kaj sem sovražila. Zakaj sem se s tako lahko predala tistem zavajalcu, ki vso zlo tolmači kot upravičeno, oholost kot posebno prednost, sovraštvo kot pravico. Kje v mojem bistvu je ležalo tisto zrno nezadovoljstva, ki je rodilo to neuravnovešeno jezo nad vsem, kar je naznačevalo nekdanja pravila, zakone. Kje sta se spočela jeza in srd nad nekdanjim redom, kje sem videla nepravice, zakaj sem verjela, da so moja stranpotna upravičena. Kaj mi je grenilo leta življenja.

Ne nad vero, moj Bog, nad vero nisem nikdar čutila razočaranje. Ali nisem vedno verovala v Te, Jehova? Tudi ko sem odklonila cerkev, sem verovala v Te.

Zrno razočaranja in grekobe je vendar ležalo nekje v njeni naravi, nekje v bistvu samem. Kje je imelo začetek? V tistih lehih na Rabu? Ne, še preje. V garanju v hribih, kamor je prispela nepripravljena? Še dalje nazaj. V zavisti mladostnih let, ko se je mlajša sestra poročila pred njo s fantom, v katerega je bila sama zaljubljena? Ali še preje, ko je spoznala, da ne bo nikdar podedovala majhne kmetije samo zato, ker ni bila moškega spola, četudi je bila najstarejša.

Med tem in onim se je odvrnila najprej od duhovnikov in pozneje od cerkve, potem ko se ji je kaplan posmehnil, nato pa, potem ko je spoznal kdo je, zasmehjal, ko mu je v spovednici povedala o svoji ljubezni. On pa jo je imenoval zavist. Navadno zavist. Ko je Stane prihajal v hišo, je mislila, da prihaja zaradi nje. Verjela je, da je ravno tako zaljubljen v njo, kot je bila ona v njega in je samo zato govoril s Tončko, ker je bil preboječ, da bi govoril z njo. Ko je spoznala svojo zmoto, je užaljena, zopet zapostavljena, odrinjena od središča življenja, v jezi očitala sestri: "Fanta si mi prevzela!" Tončka pa še odgovorila ni. Samo zasmehjala se je, prešerno in samozavestno. Neotesano je zavila oči in med hihtanjem odšla na sprehod s fantom. Čez pol leta sta se poročila. In ko je sestra ob porodu umrla, se Meta ni nikdar spovedala svoje škodoželnosti. Držala jo je v svojem srcu kot upravičeno last svojega izhodišča v samostojnost. Ko so po vojni umirali domobranci, je trdo verjela, da je njihova smrt pravična, maščevanje komunistov le upravičena kazen za njihovo in neno trpljenje, globla izdajalstva.

Zakaj je po vojni s takim veseljem ostala v Ljubljani, ko ji je mladi Štamcar ponudil, da bi delala za policijo? Ne samo, da je vedno hotela živeti v mestu. Mesto je bila tista obljudljena dežela privilegije, ki si jo je mlajša sestra s tako lahko pridobil, on, Meta, pa jo je morala plačati z leti dela v hribih, s požgano hišo, z razkrojem družine in trpljenjem na Rabu. Hotela je biti ne na robu, temveč v središču dogajanj. Želela je doprinesti k novemu redu svoje sile in sposobnosti. Verjela je, da njena prisotnost vsaj malo pomaga k urejanju novih poti. Zato ji ni bilo mar, da je bila v službi vpisana kot snažilka. "Saj veš, da ti ne moremo ponuditi službo uradnice, ko nimaš nobenih šol," ji je rekel Zoro, ko ji je razložil njen delo. V resnici je bila poluradna obveščevalka.

Kaj si hudega storila v tem življenju? Je vprašal angel pod stropom in zaplapal proti njenemu obrazu.

Nisem vedela! je zastokala in skušala z rokami zakriti obraz. Izvajala sem navodila. Delala sem, kar so mi ukazali.

Izvrševalka navodil, se je zasmehjal Satan v kotu.

Sveti angel varuh moj, je začela moliti kot nekoč. Bolečina ji je stisnila srce, oster zarez je presunil njene rame in roke. Želodec se ji je skrčil. Saj sem spoznala, četudi pozno, svojo zablodo! Ali se nisem odvrnila od tega dela, ko sem razumela to početje?

Dvajset let je dolga doba, je pomislila in prisluhnila, da bi ujela glasove, slišala odgovor. Soba je ostala tiha, zrak negiven.

mašo na belo nedeljo, 30. aprila, popoldne. Kasneje pa so ga povabile medse tudi druge skupnosti in župnije, s katerimi je bil povezan. Verniki clevelandske škofije cenijo škofa zaradi izjemno globokih, pristnih in prisrčnih pridig, s katerimi zna nagovoriti mlade in stare. Kljub 75 letom ostaja živahan, čil in vesel.

Mož velikega znanja

Č.g. dr. Pavel Krajnik

V Lorainu, mestcu severozahodno od Clevelandu, že od leta 1975 uspešno deluje na slovenski župniji svetih Cirila in Metoda dr. Pavel Krajnik, ki bo na letošnji sveti večer obhajal zlato mašo.

Njegova življenska pot kaže, kako Bog tudi po krivih črtah ravno piše.

Rodil se je v skromni, a močno verni družini z desetimi otroki 29. novembra leta 1922 v Godešču pri Retečah. Zaradi skromnih domačih razmer (živel so v pomanjkanju) si niso mogli privoščiti, da bi študiral na škofijski klasični gimnaziji v Šentvidu, zato je bil v konviku pri kapucinih v Škofji Loki, nato v Celju. Višjo gimnazijo je obiskoval v Kranju (tja je šel večkrat kar peš, s kolesom ali z vlakom od doma).

Pred Nemci se je moral ob začetku vojne umakniti, saj bi ga sicer zaprli. Zato je gimnazijo dokončal in maturiral v Novem mestu. Tam ga je zadela nesreča okupacije: Italijani so ga konfinirali. Skupaj z drugimi je bil junija leta 1942 poslan v koncentracijsko taborišče Monigo Treviso. Jeseni leta 1943 se je po italijanski kapitulaciji vrnil domov in za božič 1943 vstopil v bogoslovno semenišče v Ljubljani.

Vojne razmere in grozče povojno nasilje (komunisti so mu ubili brata) sta ga skupaj z vsemi drugimi sošolci ter tudi domačimi pahnili čez mejo. Študiral je v begunkem semenišču v Pragli in nato v Brixnu.

Ko je dobil vizo za Argentino, pa se je odločil, da bo raje doštudiral v Evropi. Podobno kot pred njim duhovnika Karel Kozina in Anton Ilc se je tudi sam navdušil za delo med Rusi in je leto za njima vstopil v papeški zavod Russicum v Rimu.

Na sveti večer 1950 je bil posvečen v duhovnika vzhodnega obreda in inkardiniran pod kongregacijo za vzhodne Cerkve. Naslednji dan, na božič, je ob dobrotnikih iz Južne Tirolske, ki so ga podpirali med študijem, daroval v Klaistrovih katakombah novo mašo.

Takrat na dom ni mogel misliti, mislil pa je na domače, ki so bili večinoma v Argentini.

Po novi maši je dve leti deloval na ruski misiji v Münchnu. Hodil je po okoliških taboriščih, se srečeval z ruskimi ujetniki in prebežniki ter jim oznanjal božjo besedo, ki so je bili zaradi preganjanja v domovini zelo lačni.

Obenem je na münchenski univerzi pripravljal doktorat. Žal, ga je rektor ruskega zavoda iz Rima poklical v večno mesto in je moral študij dokončati tam. Ubranil je doktorski tezo z naslovom: Svoboda mesa in svoboda duha.

Iz Rima je bil poslan na rusko misijo v Buenos Aires. Tam je ostal do leta 1962, ko se je odločil, da gre v Združene države. Živel je pri sestri v Milwaukee in obenem študiral na tamkajšnji jezuitski univerzi. Vmes je pomagal na okoliških župnijah.

Frančiškan p. Odilo ga je začel nagovarjati, naj gre pomagat slovenskim duhovnikom v Clevelandu. Prejšnji clevelandski škof Hobart namreč ni hotel sprejeti slovenskih begunskih duhovnikov, ki so v začetku petdesetih let prišli tja, takrat pa so se razmere spremene in na slovenskih župnijah so si že zeleli novih moči.

Na povabilo župnika Viktorja Tomca pri Mariji vnebovzeti v Collinwoodu v

Clevelandu je prišel tja za kaplana in pri njem ostal do leta 1975. V času tega službovanja je clevelandski škof Isenmann uredil, da je bil tudi formalno sprejet med duhovnike clevelandske škofije.

Leta 1975 je sprejel službo župnika na slovenski župniji svetih Cirila in Metoda v kraju Lorain. To je sicer stara slovenska župnija, kamor pa je po vojni prišlo le kakšnih dvajset slovenskih družin iz domovine, zato tam danes ni več slovenske maše, imajo pa še vedno domače petje ("tudi v spovednici je še nekaj spovedi po slovensko," povej dr. Krajnik).

Zupnija se je postarala in ima le še 146 družin (okrog tristo ljudi). Dr. Krajnik ji ostala po 25 letih zvest, saj ve, da po njegovem odhodu drugega duhovnika ne bodo dobili. Ljudje cenijo to njegovo predanost.

Dr. Pavel Krajnik je eden tistih duhovnikov, ki se bo zapisal tudi zaradi svoje ljubezni do domovine. Po časnikih in pismih je tesno povezan z njo, iz svojega skromnega zasluba vedno daruje velik del za potrebe Cerkve v domovini po načelu, naj ne ve tvoja levica, kaj dela tvoja desnica.

Tesna družinska vez ga povezuje s sestrami redovnicama, usmiljenko s. Tončko (čudežno ozdravljenko na Brezjah leta 1939) in salezijanko s. Rezko, ki deluje v Ljubljani.

Čeprav srce dr. Krajnika vleče nazaj domov v Slovenijo, ve, da bo po njegovem odhodu zazijala med našimi ljudmi praznina, zato vztraja.

V nedeljo, 6. avg. zv. pa so nas prav po domače zavabili z veselo igro Dva para se ženita ali gonja za srečo, katero so v torek ponovili pri Brezmadežni. Slov. letovišče, Društvo Simon Gregorčič, folklorna skupina Nagelj in igralska skupina Toronto so bili skupni sponzorji 16 mlađim Drežničanom, varuhom slovenske ljudske kulture na skrajnih zahodnih mejah naše domovine.

Sredi poletja, 15. julija, smo praznovali posebno slavnost, poroko našega prijeljbljenega in delavnega predsednika Johnnija z zavodno Slovenko Klavdijo Lorber, Miss Oktoberfest 1995 na Slovenski lovski farmi Alliston. V cerkvi Brezmadežne sta si obljubila zvestobo in zvečer v dvorani praznovala začetek novega življenja z mnogimi prijatelji, letoviščarji in srodniki iz Slovenije.

Mlademu paru želimo vso srečo in božji blagoslov in upamo, da tudi v novem življenjskem stanu naš predsednik John Kuri ohraňa tisto navezanost, ljubezen in skrb za Slovensko letovišče, ki ga postavlja za zgled vsem starim in mlađim članom letovišča.

ki je zaznamovala dobre dve stoletji tržaške zgodovine, poskuša Etnografski oddelki Narodne in študijske knjižnice skupaj s področnimi prosvetnimi društvami in drugimi organizacijami oteti pozabi in ohraniti spomin na nekdanjo podobo skoraj povsem izgubljenega slovenskega prostora.

Pred kratkim so v zdaj že dodobra poitaljančenem Škednju priredili razstavo o krušaricah, domačinkah, ki so v domačih pečeh pekle kruh in ga raznašale po mestu bogatejšim družinam. Postavili so jim tudi dvoježično lapidarno napisano tablo na pročelju ene značilnih škedenjskih hiš.

V začetku poprejnjega tedna pa so na Opčinah odprli razstavo o mlekaričah iz tržaške okolice. Tako škedenjska kot openska razstava imata značaj tehtnega pričevanja o življenju slovenskih ljudi na robu mesta in njihovi zakorenjenosti v okolje.

Nosilca postavitve openske razstave sta bila Aleksij Kalc (za njen zgodovinski del) in Živa Pahor (za etnografski del) s sodelavci.

Razstava zelo nazorno in dokumentirano predstavlja nekdanje trdo delo okolčank mesta, hkrati pa dobiva z oblačili, orodjem in vsem, kar sodi k trgovaju z mlekom (od molze do najrazličnejših vrčev, meric in prevoznih sredstev od doma do odjemalcev), pričih folklore.

Za ponazoritev pomembne gospodarske dejavnosti za obstoj slovenstva v okolici mesta naj omenimo podatek, da so leta 1900 nasteli v okolici mesta in povasih na obronkih Krasa kar 4866 glav goveda, seveda so prevladovale krave, leta 1982 pa jih je bilo le še 297.

Pred prvo svetovno vojno mlekarice iz okolice oskrbovale z mlekom morda tri četrte meščanov, toda med prvo in drugo svetovno vojno so bile poostrene kontrole in so se začele pojavljati mestne mlekarne.

Vendar se je tradicija ohranila tudi po zadnji vojni. Sanitarni urad mesta je za leto 1950 objavil podatke, da je Trst z okoli 200 tisoč prebivalci porabil na dan 47.000 litrov mleka. Od tegoso v glavnem slovenske mlekarice prinesle in prodale meščanom po 17.000 litrov.

OB 200-LETNICI ROJSTVA DR. FRANCETA PREŠERNA

V spomin pesnikovim staršem

*Prešernova mati Mina počiva v Šentrupertu v bližini Osojskega jezera nad Beljakom, oče Šimen pa v Vodicah
Letos in lani so jima odkrili spominski nagrobni plošči*

Besedilo in slike:

Tine Kristan

Na kapeli pokopališča v Vodicah nad Ljubljano so 8. februarja letos odkrili spomensko ploščo Prešernovemu očetu Simonu-Šimnu in stricu Francu Ksaverju Prešernu. Prešernov oče je zadnji del svojega življenja preživel pri bratu Francu, kaplanu v Skaručni. Oba sta pokopana na vodiškem pokopališču.

Ob 200-letnici pesnikovega rojstva so se na občini in v župniji Vodice odločili, da jima postavijo to obeležje. Pobuda za odkritje je prišla iz Koroške Bele od slikarja Branka Čušina, velikega ljubitelja našega pesnika Prešerna.

Z Brankom Čušinom, ki je vrsto let opozarjal na naš dolg do pesnikovih staršev, me je seznanil profesor Andrej Valič iz Kranja, prav tako občudovalc našega velikega pesnika. Pred dnevi smo se z njima odpravili po zadnji poti Prešernove materje.

Bilo je že več poskusov, da bi pesnikovi materi odkrili nagrobno spominsko ploščo. Že pred in po prvi svetovni vojni. Tudi med obema vojnoma in po koncu druge, vendar ni bilo prave možnosti niti volje ne na naši, še manj pa na oni strani Karavank.

No, lansko jesen sta se župnija Breznica in občina Žirovica dogovorili z Jozefom Paierjem, župnikom v Vajškri (Landskronu), kamor zdaj sodi podružnica Šentrupert. Goste iz Slovenije sta v prastari katoliški cerkvi Sv. Ruperta sprejela domači avstrijski župnik Josef Paier, ki jih je nagovoril v slovenskem jeziku, in Jože Kopeinig, na avstrijskem Koroškem in v Sloveniji znani duhovnik ter rektor Slovenskega doma v Tičnjah. Po odkritju spominske nagrobne plošče so koroške gospodinje pripravile gostom iz Slovenije njihove domače dobrote in kuhanino, saj je zunaj snežilo kot za stavo.

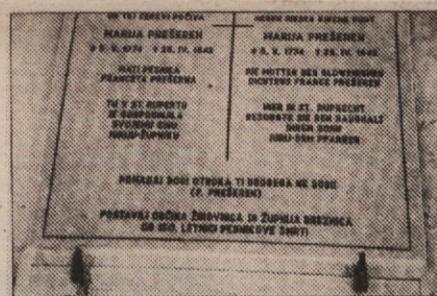

Marija, Mina Prešeren, rojena v Žirovici, po domače pri Muhovcu, je bila za tisti čas zelo izobražena žena. Vse svoje otroke, razen Franceta, ki je ž s edmimi leti odšel z doma, je od devetega do desetega leta starosti učila brati in pisati. Marija Prešeren je leta 1834 zapustila Vrbo in odšla v Šentrupert na Koroško, kjer je bil župnik sin Jurij. Jurij je pel novo mašo na Breznici avgusta 1832, prav tisto nedeljo, ko sta bila Prešeren in Čop pri Slapu Savica v Bohinju.

Jurij Prešeren je duhovniško službo opravljal 40 let. Prva je bila v St. Lorenzenu na Koroškem, umrl pa je v Ovčji vasi pod Višnjami, kjer ima spomenik.

Šentrupert je bil v tistem času prafara. Mati Mina se je vsako nedeljo, ko je odšla k maši, oblekla v slovensko narodno nošo, ki jo je na Koroško prinesla od doma.

Pretresljivo je njena slutnja, ko je na smrtni postelji sinu Juriju narekovala pismo za pesnika: "Ozdravila več ne bom. Bom umrla. Na mojo pot boste vsi prišli. In morebiti ti, France, prvi..."

"Ko je doktor to materialno pismo bral, so mu take solze doliše kot en grah," se spominja sestra Katra, ki je svojemu bratu pesniku gospodinjila v Ljubljani in Kranju.

In res je bil pesnik prvi, ki je umrl za materjo. Ko je bil Prešeren že hudo bolan, vodenica je bila v rodu, ga je decembra 1848 obiskala sestra Lenka, ki je po materini smrti ostala pri bratu Juriju, sredi zime je iz Šempetra peš prišla čez Karavanke v Kranj.

Najbrž je prišla čez Kočno nad Jesenicami, sta razmišljala prof. Valič in slikar Čušin, ko smo se vratali iz Šentruperta, kjer od

25. aprila 1842 počiva pesnikova mati Marija, Mina Prešeren.

Končno sta starša našega velikega pesnika po tolikih letih dobila primerni nagrobeni plošči, vredni spomina in ogleda.

Etnografska razstava...

(nadaljevanje s str. 14)

Razstavljeni predmeti kažejo na izjemno iznajdljivost mlekaric pri izbiri posod in prevoznih sredstev, da so čimborje izkoristile svoje poti v mesto, pa naj so se vozile z avtobusi, tramvajem z Opčin ali z vlakom ali pa z dvokolesi.

Mnogokrat so združevalce prodajanje mleka z opravljanjem različnih domačih del pri odjemalcih in tako ostajale od doma po ves dan. Od začetka prejšnjega stoletja je še mogoče opazovati, kako so oblasti zahvale vedno večjo higieno za opravljanje dejavnosti mlekaric. Že leta 1902 so veterinarji opravljali kemične analize njegove sestave, potem so si morale mlekarice zagotavljati posebna dovoljenja itd.

Pričevanje so avtorji razstave opremili z videoposnetki mlekaric, ki z ekra na pripovedujejo obiskovalcem o življenju in dejavnosti, ki je v začetku sedemdesetih let zamrla.

Spomniti velja, da je najstarejša še živa mlekarica Zora Bandi iz Boljuncu stara 102 leti, medtem ko jih je precej v osemdesetih letih življenja. Organizatorji razstave so oskrbeli tudi posebno publikacijo, ki prinaša vrsto sestavkov o sami dejavnosti kot tudi ilustracije orodja in drugih pripomočkov za pridobivanje in razpečevanje mleka.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1342. Srečanje misijonarjev v Stični.

Z velikim veseljem sem se udeležila tega srečanja. Navzočih je bilo 13 misijonarjev, misjonark in več laičnih misijonarjev. Predstavili so se trije novi laični misijonarji, ki odhajajo v Južno Ameriko in ena sestra, uršulinka Fani Žnidaršič, ki odhaja v Bocvano, kjer bo delala s s. Zoro Škerlj. Posebno zanimivo je bilo poslušati pričevanja ljudi, ki so v misijonskih deželah v neposrednem stiku s tamkajšnjimi prebivalci. Morda bosta iz sledenega seznama spoznali misijonarja, ki ga podpirate: Jože Grošelj, Lojze Podgrajšek, Jože Rovtar, Janez Mihelčič, Jože Kokalj, s. Marija Pavlišič, s. Goretti Pavlišič, s. Amanda Potočnik, s. Bogdana Kavčič, s. Vesni Hiti, s. Tadeja Mozetič, Pavel Bajec in drugi. Prav na kratko sem se srečala v misijonski pisarni s sledenimi: s. Marijo Sreš, s. Anico Starman, in z misijonarji lazarišti Tonetom Kerin, Jožetom Adamič, Janezom Puhanom in Tomažem Mavričem.

Zanimivo in hvale vredno je bilo, da sta se srečanja udeležila bogoslovca, ki sta odgovorna za misijonska krožka, ki delujeta v ljubljanskem in mariborskem semenišču. Na srečanju nas je obiskal tudi škof msgr. Alojz Uran. Prišel je tudi državni sekretar v ministrstvu za zunanje zadeve, direktor urada za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu. Misijonarji so imeli priložnost postavljati tako škofu Uranu kakor g. državnemu sekretarju vprašanja.

Zopet pozdrav od misijonarja Vladimirja Kosa iz Tokia, Japonska: "Še ena tokijska vinjeta"; pismo je datirano že 22. maja 2000. Tekst sledi:

"Skrajni čas je, da se opravičim: nisem še povedal, zakaj rabim besedo "vinjeta". Pravzaprav je to poganjek na trti. V prenesenem pomenu je to njegova slika ali ilustracija na začetku ali na koncu poglavja v knjigi. In še enkrat v prenesenem pomenu je vinjeta nekaj podobno lahkega ali nevsiljivega v svetu literature. V tem smislu izrežem vinjeno iz tokijskega življenja: ne sme biti ne dolga ne težka.

Z odličnim priporočilom običsem bogatega Japonca. Prosim ga za podporo za naše otroško zavetišče na robu Tokia. A nisem edini obiskovalec. Preden me posadi v udoben naslonjač, me predstavi svojemu prijatelju, enako ali pa še bolj bogatemu. Med srebanjem zelenorumenega čaja se zahvalim za dobrohoten sprejem. Statistiko, ki me spominja, da je verjetnost prejema daru med nič in eno, potlačim. Povem, da je najgloblji motiv našega socialnega dela krščanstvo. Človek v stiski je Kristusu posebej pri srcu. In prav posebej, če je človek še otrok. "Kristus!" zamahne prvi obiskovalec z roko, "mrtev je. Vsako vero podpiše smrt."

"Oprostite mi, če se z vami ne strinjam," odgovorim. "Zgodovinsko overovljeno je, da je Kristus vstal od mrtvih." Smehlja odvrne: "To verujete. Tega ne morete dokazati." "Oprostite, tudi v tej točki se ne morem z vami strinjati. Mi kristjani verujemo na podlagi zgodovinsko izpričanih dejstev." Gospod zanikalno odkima z glavo. Vsi spet srebamo čaj. Zazrem se vanj: "Lahko vam postrežem s temi dejstvi..." Prekine me: "Moram na sejo. Nimam časa. Sicer pa ničesar ne spremeni dejstva, da umremo kot živali." Zdaj odkimam jaz: "Ne, gospod! Kristusova vrnitev iz groba pomeni, da je za nas ljudi smrt le prehod. V tisto življenje, o katerem zmeraj sanjam." S kljubovalnim nasmeškom se njegove oči zapicijo v moje. In v moj spomin. Ali še živite? Ne vem. A tisti gospod, h kateremu sem imel priporočilno pismo, na koncu življenja ni hotel umreti kot pes. S kratkim imenom Pavel je vstopil v večno veselje.

Tukaj prehaja vinjeta v hvaležnost vsej MZA, ki nas misijonarje na terenu, nesobično, se pravi, krščansko podpira. Koliko mora žrtvovati, da vztraja v molitvi za misijone. Nobena teh molitev ni zaman. In če leži na nebeškem olтарju z zlatim P.S.: Za slovenske misijonarje je še enkrat bolj dragocena. In vplivna.

S.G. Ferjan! Le nadaljujte – ko se Vam nudi prilika – z duhovnimi pogledi, ki ležijo takorekoč pripravljeni v globini vere. Navadno ostanejo zakopani. Preliti v besede lahko marsikomu koristijo. Zmeraj pa koristijo osebi, ki jih prva spregovori. Iskren pozdrav. Vladimir Kos, S.J."

Pobinkoština, v nadaljevanju vinjet:

1. *Glej, polja ziblejo se zlato-zrela,
in če bi mogla, bi odšla na ples.
Čuj zadovoljno poje si čebela in ptički vriskajo v morje nebes.*
2. *Glej, polja zlato-bela misijonov in komaj, komaj nekaj delavcev ...
Čuj sum oblek in ustnic do poklonov bogovom, mrtvim bolj kot groba zev.*
3. *Ne čudi se! Po Njem, ki vstal je z groba, živiva v luči Svetega Duhá.
Prosiva Ga – Ljubezni je podoba, ki teče v žilah Vstalega Srcá.*

Misijonsko kosilo v Windsorju (letošnje že 27. leto) je organizirala poverjenica MZA ga. Marija Martinčič, za pomoč slovenskim misijonarjem ter za vzdrževanje bogoslovcv. Po poročilu poverjenice se kosila udeležijo prijatelji misijonov iz hrvaške fare sv. Franciška Asiškega iz Windsorja, nekateri pa pridejo iz Detroita. Zelo zavzete gospe organizirajo in pripravijo okusno kosilo, katero se proda, izkupiček pa gre za pomoč misijonarjem. G. Viktor Trojanšek je podaril 27 funtov kranjskih klobas, darovano je bilo tudi pecivo.

Čistega z osebnimi darovi dobrotnikov ter z odbitkom stroškov za kuhinjo in pisarniškimi izdatki je $2865. Od tega za vzdrževanje dveh bogoslovcv, ostalo za vse misijonarje ter za misijonarja Tomaža Mavriča $550.

Ga. Martinčič se vsem sodelujočim ter vsem, ki so se udeležili tega kosila, da so podprli slovenske misijonarje, prav lepo zahvaljuje.

Tiho je odšla s. Ivanka Pokovec, Frančišanka Marijina Misijonarjka k Očetu po večno plačilo. Skoraj 20 let je misijonarila v Malaziji in Vietnamu. Dolga leta je zbiral stare znamke in jih pošiljala g. Wolbangu za misijonarje. Zadnja leta je preživel v sestrski skupnosti v Leschah pri Bledu, kjer je tudi pokopana. Naj počiva v Gospodu. Spomnimo se je v molitvi.

Povezani v molitvi ter še vroč poletni pozdrav!

Slovenski misijonarji v številkah

Trenutno deluje v svetu skoraj sto slovenskih misijonarjev; točneje jih je 98. Med njimi so duhovniki, redovniki, redovnice ter laiki misijonarji in misijonarke. Ker ne gre samo za duhovnike, oporavlajo različne službe od zdravnikov in medicinskega osebja do učiteljev in vzgojiteljev.

Največ misijonarjev je v Afriki (58), v Srednji in Južni Ameriki jih je štirinajst, v Aziji in Oceaniji pa 24 (med te prištevamo tudi dva duhovnika v Sibiriji, čeprav ne gre za misijonarja v klasičnem pomenu). Prav tako najdemo dva slovenska misijonarja v Albaniji, saj je ta dežela po polstoletnem ateističnem režimu ostala skoraj brez svojih duhovnikov in redovnikov.

Koprsko škofija ima svoj misijon na Slonokoščeni obali. Tam delujejo štirje duhovniki: brata Ivan in Pavel Bajc s Cola, Janko Kosmač iz župnije Novaki in Aleksander Skapin iz župnije Vipava. Vzdrževanje teh misijonarjev in podpiranje njihovih projektov je ena prvih misijonskih nalog koprsko škofije.

Nekateri slovenski misijonarji so znani tudi v svetu. Eden najbolj znanih je Peter Opeka, misijonar na Madagaskarju, ki je zgradil celo mesto upanja za brezdomce in reveže. Zlasti na nemškem govornem področju pa je tudi znana slovenska sestra usmiljenka, zdravnica v Albaniji, Mirjam Praprotnik (tudi zaradi njenega pomoči kosovskim beguncem v Albaniji ob intervenciji NATA na ZR Jugoslavijo). Popotresna obnova

V Gornjem Posočju, ki ga je lani prizadel potres, so doslej obnovili nekaj manj kot 1000 poškodovanih objektov, največ stanovanjskih hiš in poslopij za živino. V maju so potekala dela na 154 objektih, čez poletje pa so začeli z deli še na 100 objektih. Največ dela jih še čaka na planinah, kot so Drežniške Ravne ter pri obnovi kulturne dediščine (spomeniki, farske, cerkve). Vlada je letos namenila za obnovo 3,3 milijarde tolarjev (14,4 milijona US dolarjev).
