Nevarni časi

Nesreča nikdar ne počiva, to vsi vemo, toda ob gotovih časih so njene žrtve številnejše kakor običajno. Posebno slab kredit ima v tem jesenski čas. Statistike dokazujejo, da se v mesecih oktobru, novemburu in decembru v tej deželi prijeti znatno več avtomobilskih nesreč kakor v enakem razdobju ostalega leta. Zakaj je tako, ni točno znano. Morda je temu kriva neprivajenost voznikov na mokra in pomrzljena pota. Morda je temu vzrok slabješa svetloba oziroma manj iste. Megla je v jeseni bolj pogosta kakor poleti, poleg tega so pa dnevi krajsi in zgodnjiji jutranji ter pozni večerni avtomobilisti imajo na razpolago manj dnevne svetlobe.

Statistike dalje dokazujejo, da se tudi v domovih zgodi več nesreč v jeseni in pozimi kakor poleti. To se morda lahko razloga s tem, da v jeseni in pozimi preživijo ljudje več časa v svojih stanovanjih kakor poleti. Prezakurjene peči povzročijo pozimi marsikak požar, ki zahteva človeške žrtve. V zaprtih stanovanjih je tudi uhajajoči plin zdravju in življenu stanovalcev mnogo bolj nevaren kakor v časih, ko so stanovanja odprta in zračena.

Na da bi gledali statistike, vemo, da jesenska doba v splošnem ni kaj posebno zdrava. Izprememba vremena iz gorkega na hladno ne ugaja človeškemu sistemu in rada prineše kakšne bolehnosti. Mrzlo deževje in dušljiva megla tudi nista zdravju koristna. Pogostokrat se pojavljajo mali ali močni prehladi, ki se večkrat razvijejo v nevarne bolezni. Na zdravje je treba paziti vedno, v teh časih pa še posebno.

To naj nam bo v opomin, da privabimo v naši J. S. K. jednoto vse naše sorodnike in prijatelje, katerim želimo, da jih nesreča ali bolezen ne najde nepripravljene. To naj nam bo pa tudi v opomin, da smo skrbni in točni s plačevanjem naših asesmentov. Ali ne bi bilo žalostno in takoreč ne-odpustljivo, če bi nas bolezen ali nesreča zadela v času, ko smo zaradi neplačanega asesmenta suspendirani, in bi izgubili pravico do podpore? In ali ne bi bilo še mnogo bolj žalostno, če bi z asesmenti tako daleč zaostali, da bi avtomatično prenehali biti člani, nakar bi nas zadela bolezen ali poškodba? Ako bomo v časih sami sebe tako vprašali, se gorno ne bomo izpostavljali nevarnosti suspendacije ali črtanja.

Izmed naseljencev smo ameriški Slovenci, če ne na prvem mestu, vsaj v prvih vrstah, kar se tiče zavarovanja pri bratskih podpornih organizacijah. Priseljenih Slovencev, ki so zdravi in ne prestari, je dandanes zelo malo, ki bi ne spadali k eni ali drugi podporni organizaciji. Lepo število jih je, ki spadajo k dvema ali trem organizacijam. To dokazuje, da se zavedamo pomena podpornih organizacij in da znamo ceniti njihovo vrednost.

Toda, če ljubimo našo organizacijo, če smo ji lojalni, če vemo, da je dobra in potrebna za nas, ali ne izhaja iz tega, da je v njej logičen prostor tudi za naše otroke, male in odrasle? Prav gotovo je tako in, če ljubimo našo organizacijo in ljubimo naše otroke, bomo storili vse, kar je v naših močeh, da jih spravimo v organizacijo, kateri pripadamo mi. Gledate nedorasilih otrok je to lahka reč. Vpišemo jih v J. S. K., plačamo tistih 15 centov asesmenta na mesec, pa je opravljeno. Pomnimo, da nesreča tudi nanje preži prav tako kakor na odrasle ali pa še bolj.

Nekoliko težje je seveda z odraslimi otroci, ki bi spadali v odrasli oddelki. Asesmenti zanje so višji kakor za mladinske člane, plačujejo jih včasih lahko odrasli otroci sami, včasih pa jih morajo starši. Mladina se v splošnem ne zaveda vrednosti podpornih organizacij kakor se jih zavzemamo mi, ki imamo že trde izkušnje za seboj. Njim je življenje še praznik, poti življenga se jim zdijo z rožami posute. Poleg tega jih vabijo v svojo sredo druge organizacije.

Od nas je torej odvisno, da to doraščajočo mladino prepričamo, da pri naši J. S. K. Jednoti dobi vse, kar ji morejo nuditi velike ameriške organizacije, v marsikakem oziru pa še več. Prepričati moramo te mlade fante in dekleta, da je naša organizacija v vseh ozirih moderna, da ima zmožno in pošteno upravo, da je finančno trdna in poštena, poleg tega pa, da je naša in da bo njihova, ko se mi starejši umaknemo v ozadje ali k trajnemu počitku. Prepričati jih moramo da lje, da so oni prav tako izpostavljeni nevarnostim bolezni in nesreč kakor mi starejši, da je torej njim zavarovanje prav tako potrebno kakor nam.

Napredek naše J. S. K. Jednote je dandanes do 90 procentov odvisen od naše mladine. Ako njo pridobimo, da bo vstopila v našo organizacijo in da jo bo vzljubila kakor smo jo vzljubili mi, ji je zagotovljena lepa bodočnost še za nedogleden čas. In v tem oziru ravno starš lahko največ storijo. Agitacija v glasilu te mladine ne doseže v vseh slučajih, vedno pa jo doseže lepa in prepričevalna beseda njenih staršev.

VSAK PO SVOJE

(Nadaljevanje s 1. strani)

Za letošnji kredit in za letošnjo rast J. S. K. Jednote je še čas vpisati nove člane na decembarskih sejah.

Casopisje poroča o mladem možu, ki je do pičice upošteval vse zdravstvene predpise, upajajoč dočakati Metuzalemovo starost. Redno vsak dan si je umival zobe, vsakih šest mesecev je šel k zbozdravniku, vsako leto se je podvrgel nastančni zdravniški preiskavi, izrezati si je dal bezgavke in slepiča, izogibal se je dežja in snega, da ne bi dobil prehlada ali flu, ni hodil na prevročesonce, da se izogne sončarice, hranil se je s skrbno izbranimi živili, ki so vsebovala vse predpisane vitamine, vsako noč je spal osem ur ali več, ni polojnil pijač, ni kadil ali žvečil tobaka, ni igral kart in ni preklinjal.

Pa ga je vrag zmotil, da si je kupil nov avtomobil in se skušal z brzolikom na krizišču. Vlak je zmagal in mož je šel po gobe kljub blagoslovu vseh zdravstvenih predpisov.

Vsi zeti, svaki, strici in branci Mussolinija se baje bojijo za domovino na etiopski fronti. Mussolini že ve, kako se iznebiti nadležne žlahte!

Finska republika je edina dežela, ki točno odplačuje obroke svojega vojnega dolga Zedinjenim državam, in število ameriških turistov na Finškem se je zadnja leta podvojilo. To je lahko razumljivo, saj si pač marsikater turist želi ogledati to edinstveno čudo sveta — državo, ki je poštena!

S precej obširnim in simpatično pisanim poročilom prinaša "Press" tudi nekaj slik, tako slike dveh družin, sliko Antona Udvicija iz Planine, sliko nekega ljubljanskega trga in sliko Anice Adamič, najmlajše sestre ameriškega pisatelja Lojisa Adamiča.

da tudi jugoslovanski konzularji uradniki v Trstu ne delajo v tem oziru nikake izjeme.

Pri Planini je Mr. Andrica naletel na Antonia Udoviča, rojenega v Clevelandu, ki je prisel v Slovenijo kot otrok in tam postal.

V Ljubljani je poročevalc imel namen posetišči slikarja Božidarja Jakca, Rev. Zakrajščka in odlično slovensko zdravnično dr. Amelijo Šimec. Slikar Jakca ni dobil doma, ker se je istočasno mudil na Šušaku. V Ljubljani mu je bilo poveleno, koliko sitnosti je imel v Jugoslaviji, kamor se je bil podpal na obisk, mladi v Clevelandu rojeni Slovenec Rieglar. Tamkajšnje vojaške oblasti so ga vtaknile v vojaško službo, ker po jugoslovanskih postavah se smatrajo tudi v vseh, ki vozijo avtomobile. Novi vozniki bodo moralni prestati izkušnjo, predno bodo dobili licenco. Avtomobilom, ki vozijo že več let, se ne bo treba podvreči izkušnji. Nova postava bo stopila v veljavno 1. oktobra 1936. Vozniki iz drugih držav bodo smeli voziti avtomobil v državi Ohio 30 dni brez licence.

JOHN L. LEWIS, predsednik United Mine Workers of America, je dne 23. novembra resigniral od podpredsedništva Ameriške delavske federacije.

PET TISOČ oseb je zbolelo v provinci Murcia na Španskem vsled zastrupljenja s svincem. Svinec je bil primešan krušni moki.

NA ANGLEŠKEM je dne 20. novembra v starosti 73 let umrl admiral Earl Jellicoe, ki je bil poveljnik angleške vojne mornarice v pomorski bitki pri Jutlandu 31. maja 1916. Angleška mornarica je v tej bitki izgubila 14 ladij in 6274 mož, nemška pa 11 ladij in 2545 mož. Nemški admiral Scheer je kljub dobremu uspehu nemške mornarice sodil, da je angleška mornarica zanj premočna in se je tekom noči umaknil za močno utrieno otočje Heligoland. Po tej bitki se nemška mornarica ni upala več spopasti z angleškim brodovjem na odprttem morju in Anglija je obdržala odprto Severno morje.

NA VELIKEM javnem shodu, ki se je vršil 20. novembra na Dunaju, so monarhisti priznali zvestobo Habsburžanom in starji avstrijski cesarski zavesti. Demonstracija je prisostvoval tudi diktator princ Starhemberg, iz česar se da sklepata, da Avstriji zopet računajo s povrnitvijo Habsburžanov na avstrijski prestol.

PREMOGARJI v Angliji so z veliko večino odglasovali za generalni štrajk. Zahtevajo zvišanje plač in novo pogodbu za vso deželo.

VELIK DEL severne Kitajske je dne 24. novembra proklamiral svojo avtonomijo. Nominalno še ostane pod nadoblastjo osrednje kitajske vlade v Nankingu, toda notranje zadeve bo nova država sama upravljala. Puč je izvedel Jin Ju Keng, ki je v tesnih prijateljskih stikih z Japonsko. Iz tega je seveda vsemu svetu razvidno, da za celo zadevo stoji Japonska, ki je odločena polagoma popolnoma razkosati veliko Kitajsko in jo na en ali drug način spraviti pod svoj vpliv.

V Angliji se je neka ženska zastrupila z aspirinom. V spanju je vstala in povzila 87 tabl. aspirina, ne da bi bila kaj vedela o tem. Zdravniki so ji komaj rešili življjenje. V Springfieldu, Ill., je neka ženska v spanju popila steklenico nekega strupenega razkužila in PRVI VZOREC SNEGA v tej sezoni so vremenski bogovi poslali Clevelandu, O., in okoli dne 22. novembra. Sneg se ni mogel dolgo vzdržati, dasi je tudi temperatura padla pod zmrzlino, prvič v tej sezoni.

OGNJENIK Mauna Loa, drugi največji aktivni ognjenik na svetu, je pričel močno bruhati. Reka ognjene lave na pobočju ognjenika je pet milj široka. Posebne škode izbruh ognjenika za enkrat še ni napravil.

OBE ZBORNICI legislature države Ohio sta sprejeli postavo, ki bo zahtevala vozninske licence vseh, ki vozijo avtomobile. Novi vozniki bodo moralni prestati izkušnjo, predno bodo dobili licenco. AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

CURRENT THOUGHT

That Distant Future

How time does fly particularly after one has passed the twenties. Years go by like months, and when one looks ten years back, it seems like those incidents occurred but yesterday.

Boys and girls still in their "teens" always look forward to what they expect to do, such as following a professional career, go into business, work in the offices and factories, as something in the far distant future. Their vocation is intangible, and it is only five or ten years hence, that they find themselves doing what so many average people do. Work for a living, and the rather sudden realization that time and tide wait for no man.

That ambitious group of students who work after school hours! How they do sacrifice the good times which they would enjoy had they sufficient funds. And how insignificantly the wordly pleasures appear to them when they have but one goal to reach: To graduate from a high school and university.

Some students fail to complete their course, and after they have spent a year, two or three at college, decide to work for a time to earn enough money with which to carry them through the end of the training period. But, alas! Many actually return to the classroom? A good many never come back. Some fortunately land a job with a good future; others failing to save enough in one year, decide to work some more, and then through some queer turn of fate (sometimes it is salesmanship) spend their savings on material things, such as a new car. Still others fall in love, get married with the sincere hope of finishing their course in evening schools.

Those students who are fortunate enough to complete their course of study follow their chosen career. What high hopes they entertain when they enter the business world, open up their own office, or follow the technical work for which they are fitted! They are out to conquer the world with new ideas, and everything accomplished before them appears secondary to what they shall accomplish.

A year elapses. Two, three, five and ten years. Their spirit is somewhat lessened as they realize that "Rome was not built in one day," and that other college graduates have started at the same task for years with but mediocre results. Fastening our goals to a star is indeed complimentary when we have something high to shoot at, even though then the great majority fall short of their goal.

High school and college students are apt to overlook the labors of the average man. Their eyes are centered on exceptions in the world of science, medicine, law, and business both in production and sales. Seldom will you find a university graduate satisfied to rub elbows with his work companions permanently. He and she are continually on the alert to grasp opportunities to place them on a plane above the average.

Idealism is a good trait. During the period that elapses while we are trying to reach the elusive upper plane, the years go by swiftly, and before we are fully conscious of it, we find ourselves in the army of the great majority.

We cannot afford to let our plans wait until next week, for next week resolves itself into a month, a year, and we ourselves wanting during a period of years.

When the English-conducted lodges in our SSCU were organized, the general trend of thought was to give it time to develop, and results would take care of themselves.

Our English-speaking members perhaps are content to let the future take care of itself insofar as our Union is concerned, failing to realize that the time to do it is NOW.

The structure of our SSCU is well equipped to handle the American-born youth who is interested to become a part of our Union. Our by-laws and constitution are printed both in the English and English languages. Our home office has an assistant supreme secretary who was elected to that office our last convention with the expressed purpose of serving the English-speaking members. Other members of the English-speaking board are sufficiently versed in the English language to serve the needs of American-born youth. Our official organ has two pages devoted primarily to the English-speaking members. The English-conducted lodges are the tangible points with which American-born youth can carry on the local SSCU interest. Our Union even went so far as to provide a sports fund to lend financial assistance to such lodges as are active in organizing and maintaining athletic teams. To this fund the senior members contribute a substantial majority of the funds which the English-speaking members can utilize in promoting the SSCU spirit and membership drive in the community.

The annual meeting is the most important one of the year and hence it is essential that the entire membership attend. It would be nice to see also in attendance our younger members who would have a nice opportunity to become acquainted with the seniors. Both groups would then have a better understanding of the lodge efforts and both would be better able to co-operate with each other for the benefit of the lodge and the Union.

With all these advantages before us, we, the English-speaking members have no reason to tarry and wait for that distant future when, seemingly all the plans prepared for us suddenly materialize into a large E. S. representation. We must recognize the immediate need for action in gathering our efforts in the promotion of progress in our

Lodge No. 40

Claridge, Pa.—Regular monthly meetings of Lodge No. 40, SSCU, have been poorly attended during the past year; particularly by the senior members. Just what is holding back our members is not known, but we would like to see them all present at our annual meeting to take place Sunday, Dec. 8, starting at 10 a. m. A lot of important business will be executed on that day. So don't fail to be on hand.

John Regina.

Lodge No. 1

Ely, Minn.—All members of SS. Cyril and Methodius lodge, No. 1, SSCU are requested to attend the annual meeting scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 8, 7 p. m., at the Yugoslav National Home. Election of officers will take place, and all members who have any suggestions or ideas regarding changes in our present by-laws can make known their wishes. A large turnout is anticipated. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. Don't forget the attendance prize that will be awarded.

Frank Tomsich, Jr.,
Secretary.

Lodge No. 129

Ely, Minn.—Members of Lodge "Severna zvezda," No. 129, SSCU, are hereby notified of the coming meeting scheduled for Sunday, Dec. 1, in the Yugoslav National Home. I am requesting a full attendance as this meeting is the annual one, where shall be elected the board for the coming year and items shall be considered and passed upon of vital importance to our lodge for the year 1936. Meeting will begin at 1 p. m.

I suggest for this meeting that members bring along some new candidates for membership in the adult department, or secure members for the juvenile department of our lodge. In this way we can best round up the year 1935 for the benefit of the lodge and the Union.

Lodge No. 172

Johnstown, Pa.—The annual meeting of "Planinski raj" Lodge, No. 172, SSCU, will take place Sunday, Dec. 1, in the Slovene Home on Moxham.

Proceedings will begin promptly at 1 p. m. and will include a number of important items, chief of which is the election of the board for the coming year.

The decision of the lodge demands the presence of all members at this meeting. Absent members shall be fined 50 cents, such fines to go into the lodge treasury. Only those members who have reported themselves sick are excepted.

The annual meeting is the most important one of the year and hence it is essential that the entire membership attend. It would be nice to see also in attendance our younger members who would have a nice opportunity to become acquainted with the seniors. Both groups would then have a better understanding of the lodge efforts and both would be better able to co-operate with each other for the benefit of the lodge and the Union.

John Nahtigal, Sec'y.

What looked like small, harmless flower seeds turned out to be deadly poison to Adolph Srakar, age 21, of Cleveland, O., who died Sunday morning, Nov. 24, at Huron Road Hospital. On the day before his death Adolph nibbled on what the authorities believe to be seeds of datura stramonium, commonly known as Jimson weed, a very poisonous plant. Sixteen hours later the unfortunate youth died in agony. The family believed the seeds to be that of morning glory, a flower that closely resembles the poisonous weed.

The Ely Miner of Ely, Minn., in its Nov. 21 edition carried a picture of five people representing five generations. Included in the group were Mrs. Stephen J. Smrekar and her baby Elizabeth Ann, born on Nov. 4, 1935; Mrs. Louis Couture, great-great-grandmother to the baby; Mrs. Homer J. Dube, mother of Mrs. Smrekar, and Mrs. J. A. McDougall, mother of Mrs. Dube.

Mrs. Anna Župančič, mother of Oton Župančič, the greatest Slovene living poet, passed away on Nov. 8 at Ljubljana, Yugoslavia. She was 84 years of age.

Frank Zgornic, Slovene, is running for re-election as alderman in the city of Ely, Minn. Elections will take place Tuesday, Dec. 3.

Rolls 750. Tony Alich, bowling for the General Printers' team in the Linsz Home League, Cleveland, O., hit the maples for games of 257, 247 and 246. The team amassed a total of 3045 pins in its sweeping victory over the Erie Alleys.

Included on the mythical all-conference jaycee eleven selected by the coaches in Duluth, Minn., last week were the following: Ends: Jance, Evelleth, and John Devich, Virginia. Tackles: F. Lenich, Evelleth, and Klesurich, Hibbing. Center: Joe Terze, Ironwood. Halfback: Magovich, Virginia.

English-conducted SSCU lodges in Ohio are requested to elect representatives to the Ohio SSCU Federation at their annual meetings to be held during the month of December. The Ohio SSCU Federation will hold its next meeting on Sunday, Jan. 5, 1936, in one of the rooms of the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Ave. With the next regular quadrennial SSCU convention scheduled to take place in 1936, the federation is working on the proposed revisions of the present by-laws as submitted by the various SSCU lodges situated in the state of Ohio. Since the 1936 convention will take place in Cleveland, the matter of arranging programs to follow the sessions of each day has been left in the hands of the Federation.

He was as weak as a lamb, which probably explains why he was always getting stewed.

Cardinals No. 229

List of officers in charge of Cardinals lodge, No. 229, SSCU of Struthers, O., is corrected to read as follows: President, Joseph A. Zlogar, 46 Prospect St.; Secretary, Frank Maizel, 49 Prospect St.; Treasurer, Angeline Slabe, 22 John St.; Medical examiner, Dr. C. F. Yauman, Bridge St. The lodge meets the first Friday of each month at 7 p. m. Place of meeting designated at previous meeting.

Lodge No. 84

Trinidad, Colo.—Members of St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 84, SSCU, are urgently requested to keep in mind the coming annual meeting which will take place on Sunday, Dec. 8. We want to see all the members present when the meeting starts at 9 a. m. Important decisions concerning the welfare of our lodge for the year 1936 will be made at the annual meeting; officers in charge of the local will be elected. Hence with this program to be undertaken it is essential that our members attend and set aside other points of interest for that day.

Refreshments will follow the order of business.

Jacob Pruk, Sec'y.

Lodge No. 168

Helper, Utah.—Members of Carbon Miner Lodge, No. 168 SSCU, are invited to attend the annual meeting to be held Sunday, Dec. 8. Officers for the year 1936 will be elected and hence every member should be present to vote as he or she sees fit and avoid arguments and criticism afterward. Every member has an opportunity to be elected to some lodge office, and it is my belief that a member should hold but one office and not more. Other items of importance must be disposed of at the meeting, and whatever differences exist between members of our lodge should be ironed out at the meeting.

Since some of our members do not understand Slovene fully this article is also published in the English language, so that none can complain for lack of notice. Each member receives a weekly copy of Nova Doba and if the notification is not read either in the Slovene or English language there is little else that can be done about urging 100 per cent attendance.

Therefore, all members attend Dec. 8 meeting and decide according to your wishes as will benefit our lodge for the coming year. I hope to see the largest attendance seated at our meeting. In conclusion I wish to extend to all members of the SSCU a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

John Ogrinc, Sec'y.

Boulder Dam Reservoir

When the dam is completed the present surface of the Colorado river at Black Canyon will be raised 582 feet causing the water to back up for a distance of about 115 miles. An estimate by the Bureau of Reclamation says the lake formed behind the dam will take in an area of 145,000 acres and the reservoir will have a capacity of 30,500,000 acre-feet, i. e., enough water to cover 30,500,000 acres to an average depth of one foot.

Thanksgiving Day

By a "Lady of the SSCU"

Joliet, Ill.—Every year Thanksgiving Day brings many enjoyable thoughts to my mind. I think of large pumpkin pies, juicy turkeys, bright cranberries, golden brown sweet potatoes, and already smell the aroma of all these delicious eatables.

But then after giving a little more consideration to what Thanksgiving Day really means, I can't help but bring to my mind the many favors I have received during the preceding year.

And since Thanksgiving Day is an annual event, annually I bring happy thoughts to my mind. This year, likewise, I am thankful for the majority of favors I have received.

Education

I am thankful for the third year of education at St. Francis Academy which I received and which now enables me to be recognized a senior. I consider myself fortunate in this respect, for today one necessitates as much training as he can possibly acquire.

Family Work

One of the greatest bestowed favors during the year was the favor of work for the family. With much gratitude I wish to say that during the year the members of our family have had the great opportunity of finding work and being suitably employed.

Health

But after all, as the old saying goes, "What is Wealth without Health?" Although our family health grading for the year does not reach the "A"-plus standard, still we were given enough health to be able to enjoy many of the little pleasures of life.

Queen Contest

As I go down the line, thinking of the favors bestowed upon me, I come to the month of September, and with a happy heart and a joyous feeling I distinctly visualize the Labor Day coronation at which time I was proclaimed "Queen." That day without doubt was one of the happiest of my life. It was happy not only because I was proclaimed "Queen," but also because on that day it was proved to me that I had many Slovene friends, and what could make me more happy than to receive so great an honor? I can truthfully say that without the help of the generous Slovene people, both in Joliet and in our great neighboring town, Rockdale, which is a part of Joliet township, I could not have attained the much honored title—Queen!

Therefore, on this Thanksgiving Day, I am thankful to all my friends who had so generously aided me in my Labor Day Queen Campaign, and who had helped me obtain the honor of being crowned. And, at this time, I wish to promise faithfully to be, as much as I possibly can, a true Slovene Queen.

I am quite certain that this year I shall have witnessed my happiest Thanksgiving Day, and I sincerely hope that all brother and sister members of our SSCU shall have enjoyed this day immensely.

Jan. 18—Interodge League Day

Cleveland, O.—Interodge teams prior to the start of the League Day scheduled for Jan. 18, 1936, in the upper hall of the Slovene National Home, was the main topic of discussion at the meeting of the various lodges' representatives held Monday, Nov. 18, at the St. Clair Bathhouse.

Eight-minute quarters will remain in effect this season. Should a player become injured during I. L. games, the circuit will defray the expense of the first trip to the doctor, provided the expense does not exceed $5.00, and provided Dr. Markus, Municipal League doctor, is consulted.

Another important item of special interest to the lodges is the decision to compel all participating locals in basketball to insert the lodge name on the jerseys. This was deemed advisable in order to prevent the I. L. basketball league from becoming a commercial circuit with only the names of the interested merchants lettered on the jerseys.

Yes, What?

One day in the British Museum a guide was recounting to a little group of tourists the glories of a battered centaur, when a Chicago meat salesman interrupted with the question: "Excuse me, sir, but what would they feed a gink like that on—ham and eggs or hay?"

In order to eliminate the last minute changes of basketball

18 Painless Methods to Kill a Lodge

(Reprinted, by request, from the Oct. 23, 1935, edition of Nova Doba. Request was made by several members.)

1. Don't attend the meetings.
2. But if you do, come late.
3. If the weather doesn't suit you, don't come at all.
4. If you do attend a meeting, find fault with the officers and other members.
5. Never accept an office as it is easier to criticize than to do the work.

6. Nevertheless, get "sore" if you are not appointed on a committee. And if you are on the committee, do not attend the meetings.

7. If asked by the chairman to give an opinion regarding an important matter, tell him that you have nothing to say. After the meeting tell everyone just how the things should be done.

8. Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary, but when other members roll up their sleeves, and willingly and unselfishly do their part, howl that the lodge is run by a clique.

9. Hold back your dues as long as possible; or don't pay them at all.

10. Don't bother about getting new members. Let the secretary do it.

11. When a banquet is given, tell everybody that the money is being wasted.

12. When banquets are not held say that the lodge is dead.

13. Don't ask for a banquet ticket until all are sold.

14. Then "swear" that you have been cheated out of yours.

15. If you do get a ticket, don't pay for it.

16. If asked to sit at the speaker's table, modestly refuse.

17. If you are not asked, resign from the lodge.

18. If you don't receive a bill for your dues, don't pay.

A Sport Kickback

Ely, Minn.—I was sick and tired all during the 1934 football season, and for some time after, because of reading Brother Stan Progar's Sport Flashbacks in the Nova Doba. I endured it because it was just one of those things, namely, someone talking through his hat. All last season the writer of Flashbacks "beefed" about the great (?) Pitt Panther football team and sort of panned the Minnesota Gophers. He never did really give the Gophers credit for taking the Smoky City boys to the cleaners.

This season, Minnesota does not play Pittsburgh (and well it is for Pitt that they don't), but in the November 13 issue of Nova Doba, the Flashback column again hauls out the crying towels, and literally weeps all over an otherwise nice newspaper page with a tub full of tears about how lucky Notre Dame was to defeat Pitt when the two met on the gridiron this season.

Progar starts off with "Notre Dame must be given credit for its 9 to 6 victory over Pitt." So be it, but after that remark and without waiting to take another breath, he takes it all back and says, "By all the laws and rights of football the Panthers should have returned to Pittsburgh victorious, but were the victims of the 1935 upsets."

What laws and what rights, may I ask? The game was played according to the rules, wasn't it, and there are no laws and rights which count more in the final result than that the team that makes the most points is the winner.

"Whadaya mean?" upsets? There isn't any such thing. A team may be rated to win in the pre-game dope but still gets a one-sided licking. Why? Style counts. A few seasons back Minnesota rolled up 22 first downs to Michigan's one and made some 300 or more yards from scrimmage to Michigan's 64 or so, but Michigan won. Why? Style did it. In the final minutes of play a fumbled punt gave the Wolverines a touchdown to win 7 to 6.

Progar claims that Notre Dame received the breaks in their game with Pitt. Well, a good team usually makes its own breaks because of the style of ball it plays. The first break against Pitt was a missed try for extra point which happened to be the kicker's first miss of

I suppose Bro. Progar will rise up in arms over this epistle to be the kicker's first miss of

Lodge No. 43

East Helena, Mont.—Very poor attendances have marked our past meetings. Certainly our members of St. Aloysius Lodge, No. 43, SSCU, could exert a little more effort to be on hand for the monthly discussions which usually last about an hour.

Our annual meeting will take place Dec. 12, starting at 7 p.m. in John Smith's Hall. I appeal to all of our members to be present since in this way we can elect a better board for the coming year. At the last meeting, held Nov. 12, it was decided that each absentee from the Dec. 12 meeting shall be fined $1.00, the money to go into the lodge treasury. Excepted are only those on the sick list and those working at the time of the meeting.

I also wish to notify the members to use the back door of John Smith's Hall, since the front part of the hall is occupied with city clerks who are unable to use their regular quarters because of the damage caused by the recent earthquake.

Our lodge was effected by the earthquake. During the first tremor of Oct. 18 our Sister Helen Koich suffered an injury to her leg. Her mother also was injured when the two fled from the house and the wall of another building crashed down upon them. Our juvenile member, Edward J. Murgelj, age 13, suffered much fright because of the tremors, and on Oct. 26 passed away. He left behind a bereaved father, mother, two brothers and one sister.

Here everything seems to be topsy-turvy. Children do not attend school since the damage to the buildings makes it dangerous for habitation. We don't know when the schools will reopen. It is a sad sight to look upon the disheveled structures in Helena and East Helena.

We have three members on the sick list, Jennie Smith, Helen Koich and Helen Russ. The first one has undergone an operation for the removal of appendix. We wish all three a speedy recovery.

say in future issues of the Nova Doba. I, for one, would like to see his articles in Nova Doba, but not in the style he is using at present. Why try to discredit a team just because it has beaten your favorite? It's better to give them credit because it's a cinch that we're all short on cash.

For the sake of argument and curiosity I would like to ask the Springdale sports authority what his nomination is for the outstanding football team in the country. He can take three guesses as to my choice and all three will be correct.

$3.00 for each new member enrolled for a $1,000 death benefit.

$1.50 for each new member enrolled for a $500 death benefit.

$1.00 for each new member enrolled for a $250 death benefit.

50 cents for each new juvenile member.

Taste First Defeat

Cleveland, O.—GW, SSCU-Bukovnik Studio basketball team suffered its first defeat of the season Wednesday, Nov. 20, when they lost, 15 to 11 to the Serbians, last year's Interleague League champions.

Since the beginning of the season the George Washington

Lodge players have been brilliant on the floor both in victories and defeat. Wednesday, Nov. 20, the boys were a credit to the lodge and the participating outside backer, Bukovnik Studio, and although they were trailing through all but the first quarter displayed fine sportsmanship and played one of those "never give up" games.

"Lefty" Golobic had the crowd gasping when his shot, attempted at three-quarter length of the floor, hit the basket but merrily rolled out. During the game the entire squad of nine players had an opportunity to play. Inasmuch as this is the first year the fellows are playing together, the boys have not perfected their offensive weapon as much as they will

as the season goes along.

On Wednesday, Dec. 4, the GW, SSCU-Bukovnik Studio will play the St. Joseph's KSKJ quintet, the game starting at 7 p.m.

Use Discretion in Choosing New Lodge Officers

That season of the year is upon us when up-and-doing lodges are looking around for the right material to fill the various chairs. Only "live" lodges will be particularly concerned about qualifications of the incoming officers—that's why they are live. Competition has long been recognized as "the life of trade." Good-natured rivalry and keen competition helps a long way to keep a lodge up on its toes. The younger men should be placed in offices where their alertness and quick action can keep the proceedings, be it transaction of lodge business or the ritual, at a quick tempo.

No member cares to spend an evening bored stiff by a drowsing business session or listening to officers stumble andumble their way through the ritual. Once is usually quite sufficient.

We have spoken in these columns many times of the imperative need today of fraternal societies giving recognition to the younger members, those just graduated into the adult class, in their lodge proceedings.

They should have a place among the lesser officers in the lodge where there is an opportunity for them to show their lively interest in the work of the lodge and by their devotion to its success, have justly earned the honor of reelection.

In other lodges the chairs are filled by rotation, the outer guard, sentry, watchman —

whatever his title is—being the only new officer to enter the line each year. There is just one criticism of this procedure.

If the officer going up the line shows lack of interest or preparation for his work he should be dropped and another elected to succeed him.

After all, it isn't the plan of selecting officers that counts, but rather the fitness of the man designated for the office.

A man may be popular in his lodge, a first-rate good fellow from a social standpoint, but a perfect flop when he is confronted with the necessity of learning his part in the ritual or exercising any executive ability. Another, of the quiet, self-effacing type, may turn out to be a veritable wizard when it comes to hard work and ritualistic performance. These things should be considered before election.

Selection of the proper officers is important to the success of any lodge. It invariably means the difference between a live lodge and a dead one.

Choosing old men for active places among the officers is unfair to them and to the younger element. It irritates the former and slows up the latter. Older men should have their place on the adult classes, just ignore them—that's all. — Fraternal

Monitor.

Things We Would Like to Know

By Ernest C. Palcic, No. 222, SSCU, Gowanda, N.Y.

That the Pathfinders, No. holding back as he is a worker.

While the Gowanda was down in Pittsburgh at Arch's party, I overheard following conversation may be of interest to you.

That we wrote that "Hank" Zukew would urge Mr. A. J. Terbovec to come to Gowanda to help milk the cows on his farm. Mr. Terbovec does not believe that the cat which he won at bingo at our picnic now drinks milk. Yes, she drinks milk, and we expect kittens soon. However, our idea in having Mr. Terbovec come to Gowanda was to help strengthen his fingers so that he will be able to bowl on the Pathfinder team in 1936.

What has ever become of the gang back in Indianapolis, including Mr. and Mrs. Gus Powell; Joe, Rose and Ann Turk; Jill Madley; Mr. and Mrs. Allen Smith and Mary Steger. How about letting us know how the Indianapolis SSCU is coming along.

We used to hear so much about Louis Pulaski of Canonsburg, Pa. You should have a lot to tell the readers of Nova Doba. I believe Louis has been the other day, after a day's work of examining patients, I went to one of theaters around the corner. got there at 2 o'clock in afternoon, and as I didn't do anything else I through three performances. After each show the came down and looked at me. After the third performance the usher said to me, "Gosh mighty, are you still here? No matter in what it is, always the best, as you.

Jennie Anderson and Matekovich were the ticket sellers at our last on Nov. 2.

My old friend, G. J. Pore of Puyallup, Wash., hasn't us much about what has going up in that end of country. How about it, Mr. Renta? Let's hear from even if only about the weather.

There seems to be more less of a good-will tour among the different SSCU members and so we stop in to tell Little Stan that we were unable to anything of the "Shadow" or the "Weasel" on our tour. Little Stan, how about getting you to help pull them out of retirement? Perhaps they got married, too. While we are on that subject, do you think it will be a good idea to team up with Stan and Frank Progar? We, as the musketeers, could dig into our old faithful writers' archives to search out some new ideas and enthusiastic cooperation are essential.

Now is the time for every lodge to take stock of this new blood. Don't treat these young people as though they were something that had to be tolerated. Show them that their membership is highly valued and give them an opportunity to have a real, active part in the affairs of the lodge. When you give official recognition to one of these young people you are performing an act of far-reaching results.

You are appealing to the pride of youth and arousing in that young person's heart a desire to give his best but you are likewise arousing interest in lodge activities among his young friends and associates. It is but natural that they will have a greater incentive to attendance at lodge where one of their number is active than they would have where every officer and committee man is old enough to be their father or grandfather.

That's just plain human nature.

Societies are devoting much time and money to the enrollment of younger members. Those fraternals with vision are exerting equal effort to holding them after they get them. If you don't care about their graduating into and continuing in the adult classes, just ignore them—that's all. — Fraternal Monitor.

Whether you will keep mind that present plans for Pathfinders are to hold a drive in February to raise funds which to help defray some the expenses for our sport trips in 1936? We hope to the SSCU on top in 1936 in sport program.

If you are doing anything increase the membership your lodge?

Letna seja društva "Planinski raj," št. 172 JSKJ, se bo vršila v nedeljo 1. decembra v Slovenskem domu na Moxhamu. Seja se bo začela točno ob 1. uri popoldne. Na dnevnem redu seje bo več važnih točk, med njimi tudi volitev odbora za prihodnje leto.

Društveni sklep določa, da se morajo omenjene letne seje udeležiti vsi člani in članice.

Kdor se ne udeleži, plača 50 centov v društveno blagajno. Izvzeti so samo bolniki, ki so pravilno javljeni bolnim.

Letna seja je najbolj važna v letu, zato je potrebno, da se iste udeleži vse članstvo. Lepo bi bilo, da bi se te seje udeležili tudi mlajši člani, da se z namenitosti glede tega božičnega darila. Kdor pa ne bo prisel na sejo, se bo moral potem zagovarjati če bo hotel biti deležen božičnega darila v obliki plačanega asesmenta. Torej, da se na seji 8. decembra vidimo vse!

Seveda, člani in članice našega društva naj ne pozabijo, da imamo društvene seje vsak mesec.

Imeli smo jih v letu 1935 in imeli jih bomo v letu 1936.

Moja želja je, da bi nas bilo na sejah v prihodnjem letu večje število navzočih, kakor v tekem letu, posebno še zato, ker leta 1936 se bo vršila redna konvencija J. S. K. Jednote.

Da ne pozabim obvestiti članstvo, naša prihodnja mesečna in glavna letna seja se bo vršila v nedeljo 8. decembra pri sobrati Bucelnu in se bo pričela ob dveh popoldne. Bratski pozdrav in na svidenje! — Za društvo "Triglav," št. 144 JSKJ:

Joseph Arhar, tajnik.

Detroit, Mich.

Leto 1935 se bliža koncu in s tem bo tudi društvo "Triglav," št. 144 JSKJ, zaključilo svoje račune za to leto ter se bo pripravilo na poslovanje prihodnjega leta. V tem letu se bo vršila samo še ena seja našega društva, namreč v nedeljo 1. decembra in se bo pričela točno ob 1. uri popoldne. Na omenjene seje bo volitev društvenega odbora za leto 1936; član, ki se te seje ne udeleži, plača 25 centov v društveno blagajno. Torej, na svidenje v nedeljo 15. decembra! — Za društvo št. 35 JSKJ:

John Nahtigal, tajnik.

Ely, Minn.

Članice društva "Severna zvezda," št. 129 JSKJ, pozivam, da pridejo polnoštevilno na našo prihodnjo sejo, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 1. decembra v Jugoslovanskem narodnem domu.

To bo letna seja društva, na kateri se bo volil odbor za prihodnje leto, obenem pa se bodo delali razni drugi zaključki za društveno poslovanje v prihodnjem letu. Seja se bo pričela ob 1. uri popoldne.

Članicam priporočam, da za zaključek leta pripeljejo s seboj nekaj novih kandidatinj za odrasli oddelki ali da pridobjijo nekaj članov ali članic za mlađinski oddelki našega društva.

Tako bomo najlepše ter za društvo v Jednote najkoristnejše zaključile leto 1935. Na svidenje torej v nedeljo 1. decembra v sejni sestriški pozdrav! — Za društvo "Severna zvezda," št. 129 JSKJ:

Mary Zgornic, tajnica.

Gilbert, Minn.

Društvo sv. Ane, št. 133 J. S. K. J., je na redni seji 17. novembra sklenilo prirediti plesno veselico v korist društveni blagajni. Veselica se bo vršila 2. decembra, to je dan pred mestnimi volitvami, v dvorani Mary Kern; pričetek ob 7:30 zvečer. Vstopina za članice bo 10 centov, za moške 25 centov. Vsačka članica našega društva plača vstopino, če se veselice udeleži ali ne. Odbor bo preskrbel dobro godo in vsa potreba okreplila. Na veselico je vljudo vabljeno vse slovensko in slovansko občinstvo tega mesta in okolice. — Za društvo št. 133 JSKJ:

Frank Hostnik, predsednik.

Trinidad, Colo.

Članom in članicam društva sv. Andreja, št. 84 JSKJ, vljudo priporočam, da ne pozabijo na našo prihodnjo sejo, ki bo letna seja, in se je polnoštevilno udeležijo.

Vršila se bo v nedeljo 8. decembra in se bo pričela ob 9. uri dopoldne. Na tej seji bo treba sprejeti razne sklepe za poslovanje prihodnjega leta, obenem pa tudi izvoliti društveni odbor za leto 1936.

Seja bo torej zelo važna. Člani naj bi tudi upoštevali, da po pravilih se volijo društveni odborniki na društveni seji, ne pa po raznih javnih prostorih.

Za po seji bo pripravljeno nekaj okreplja, da se malo pozabavamo v prijateljsko razgovorno med seboj. Torej, na svidenje v nedeljo 8. decembra! — Za društvo sv. Andreja, št. 84 JSKJ:

Jacob Prunk, tajnik.

Kemmerer, Wyo.

Članom in članicam društva Marija Danica, št. 28 JSKJ, vljudo naznjam, da se bo naša glavna ali letna seja vršila v nedeljo 15. decembra. Vršila se bo v običajnih zborovalnih prostorih in se bo pričela ob 10. uri dopoldne.

Na tej seji bo treba izvoliti društveni odbor za leto 1936 in rešiti še več drugih za društvo važnih zadev.

Vsled tega je priporočljivo, da pridejo na to sejo vse člani in članice, katerim je le kolikaj mogoče. Po pravilih bi se moral vsak član udeležiti vsaj vsake tretje seje. Če leto je bil obisk naših sej bolj slab, včasih je bil komaj kvorum navzoč. Upam, da se naše članstvo na letni seji bolje izkaže.

Ako ima kateri članov ali članic v mislih kakšnega kandidata za društvo, je zdaj zadnji čas v tem letu, da ga pridobi in vpiše. Novi člani so dobrodošli za odrasli in za mlađinski oddelki.

V mesecu decembru vpiši sani člani se bodo društvo štel v kredit in napredek še za letošnje leto. — Pa se enkrat:

Michael Rovanšek.

McIntyre, Pa.

Tem potom prijazno vabim vse članice društva "Vilček," št. 207 JSKJ, da se v obližnjem času našem udeležijo prihodnje seje, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 8. decembra v prostorih sobrata F. Kocjana. Pričetek seje bo ob 10. uri dopoldne. Na dnevnem redu bodo volitev društvenega odbora za leto 1936. Člani in članice so prošeni, da se letne seje udeležijo kar mogoče polnoštevilno. Imamo par važnih točk za rešiti, med drugim tudi izvoliti za prihodnje leto društveni odbor, ki bo delal v korist društva in Jednote. — Za društvo št. 207 JSKJ:

Članom društva sv. Jožefa, št. 21 JSKJ, naznjam, da se bo naša prihodnja mesečna seja, ki bo obenem glavna ali letna seja, vršila v soboto 7. decembra in se bo pričela ob 7. uri zvečer.

Seja je bila prestavljena na soboto zvečer, da se je bodo lahko vsi člani udeležili. Letne seje so zelo važne in marsikata zadeva z ozirom na poslovanje prihodnjega leta se mora urediti, zato navadno nekoliko dalje časa trajajo kakor navadne mesečne seje. V soboto zvečer je vsak lahko nekoliko dalje časa pokonči, ker mu ni treba v nedeljo na delo in lahko zjutraj malo dalje žasa počiva. Iz teh vzrokov je bila seja prestavljena: mesto, da bi se vršila 12. decembra, se bo vršila 7. decembra. Prostor je bo isti kakor po navadi, to je na 4466 Washington St.

Vsakemu je znano, da se na letni seji voli društveni odbor za prihodnje leto in da se na tisti seji delajo razni važni sklepi, zato je važno, da pridejo na letno sejo vsi člani in članice, katerim je le mogoče.

Apeliram tudi na člane, da plačajo svoje asesmente o pravilih časa v prihodnjem letu seje, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 8. decembra in se bo pričela ob 7. uri zvečer. Seja se bo vršila v Jugoslovanskem narodnem domu. Na omenjene seje se bo vršila volitev društvenih odbornikov za prihodnje leto.

Člani, ki imajo kakšne ideje ali priporočila za izboljšanje sedanjih pravil, naj bi jih predložili na prihodnji seji. Pričakujem, da bo te seje prisotno več članov, kakor katerikoli drugi seji tekom leta.

Po seji bodo servirana okrepljava. In ne pozabite, da nekdo bo deležen nagrade za udeležbo. Na svidenje na seji 8. decembra v bratski pozdrav!

Na veselico je vljudo vabljeno vse slovensko in slovansko občinstvo tega mesta in okolice. — Za društvo št. 1 JSKJ:

Frank Tomsich Jr., tajnik.

Cle Elum, Wash.

Vsi člani in članice društva "Sloga ljubezni," št. 167 JSKJ, so vabljeni, da se polnoštevilno udeležijo prihodnje seje, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 8. decembra ob 7. uri zvečer v Pheasant Gas Station dvorani. Na društveni seji bo bilo sklenjeno, da člani in članice, kateri se ne udeležijo seje 21. decembra, morajo plačati po 25 centov v društveno blagajno; izvzeti so le bolniki in oddaljeni člani.

Bratje in sestre, letna seja je zelo važna, zato se je udeležite vsi, da bomo mogli za prihodnje leto izvoliti društveni odbor, ki bo članstvu po volji, da ne bo vzroka za kritiziranje.

Vsak član je tudi lahko izvoljen za kateregakoli društvenega odbornika. Po mojem mnenju pa je pravilno, da se enemu članu naloži le en urad in ne več. Saj je vendar prav, da bo en član več prihajjal na seje. Poleg volitev za novi odbor, bo na dnevnem redu prihodnje seje tudi več drugih zadev za rešiti. Nekaterim članom morda ni po volji to, drugim spet kaj drugega. Zato naj pridejo na glavno sejo vsi člani in članice, da se vse uredi tako, da bo večini v zadovoljstvu.

Ker nekateri člani ne znajo čitati slovensko, bo vsebina tega dopisa pričebena tudi v angleščini, da se noben član ne bo mogel izgovarjati, da ni čital. Vsak prejema naše uradno glasilo Novo Dobo, pa naj čita tam v slovenščini ali angleščini. Če pa kdo neče čitati niti enega niti drugega, ni za pomagati.

Na seji 8. decembra se bo volito tudi društveni odbor za leto 1936 in člani bodo imeli priliku, da si izberejo najboljše in najzmožnejše člane za odbornike. Čim boljši odbor bomo imeli, tem boljši bo napredek društva in tem lepša društveno poslovanje. Bratski pozdrav!

Za društvo št. 57 JSKJ:

August Stipetich, tajnik.

Trinidad, Colo.

Člane in članice društva sv. Andreja, št. 84 JSKJ, prosim, da se polnoštevilno udeležijo letne seje, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 8. decembra. To bo zadnja seja v tem letu in na tej seji bo treba izvoliti društveni odbor za leto 1936. Važno je, da pridejo na to sejo vsi člani in članice, da se vse uredi tako, da bo večini v zadovoljstvu.

Ker nekateri člani ne znajo čitati slovensko, bo vsebina tega dopisa pričebena tudi v angleščini, da se noben član ne bo mogel izgovarjati, da ni čital. Vsak prejema naše uradno glasilo Novo Dobo, pa naj čita tam v slovenščini ali angleščini. Če pa kdo neče čitati niti enega niti drugega, ni za pomagati.

Torej, pridej na letno sejo vsi člani in članice društva za leto 1936 in naši člani in članice, da se vse uredi tako, da bo večini v zadovoljstvu.

Ker nekateri člani ne znajo čitati

BLAGOSLOV ZEMLJE

(Prevedel Rudolf Kresal)

(Nadaljevanje)

Zdaj Inger nič več ne joke, pravtako nenadoma posluhne in ugiba. Ne, ti otrok ne boš oskrbovala, pravi. — Da jaz ne bi otrok oskrbovala? Ti se rogaš! — Tako. — Da, če imam za kako stvar srce, tedaj so to otroci. — Da, za svoje, ali kakšna boš možim? In če pomislim na to, da si mi poslala zajca, le da bi me uničila, tedaj si ti prav vsemu kriva. — Jaz? vpraša Oline. Ali misliš mene? — Da, tebe mislim, odgovori Inger z glasnim hitem. Ti si bila najgršča do mene in od tebe ne pričakujem nič dobrega. In razen tega bi nam le vso volno pokradla, če bi prišla. In hleb za hlebom sira bi dobivali tvoji ljudje in ne moji. — Ti si živina, pravi Oline.

Inger joka, briše si oči in spregovori tu pa tam nekaj besed. Oline deje, da se prav gotovo ne mara vsiljevati, saj da je lahko pri svojem sinu Nilsu, kjer je že itak zmerom bivala. Če pa torej Inger pride v ječo, bi bil Izak z nedolžnimi otročiči povsem zapuščen, tedaj bi lahko šemkaj prišla in bi pazila na nje. Naslkal je to kar se da zapeljivo, da prav zares ne bi bilo slabo. Zdaj lahko premisliš, pravi.

Ingru je upadel srec; joka in maje z glavo in gleda v tla. Kako mesečica gre v shrambo za jedi in pripravi živeža za gosta. — Ne, ne daj se oškodovati, pravi Oline. — In ti ne pojdeš čez hribe brez hrane, odvrne Inger.

Ko je Oline odsla, se splazi Inger ven, pogleda krog sebe, prisluškuje. Iz kamelenoma ni slišati najmanjšega glasu! Blíže gre in zasišči otroke; igrajo se z grúščem. Izak je sedel; lopato drži med koleni in se nanjo opira kakor na palico. Tam sedi on.

Inger se splazi na rob gozda; v zemljo je bila vtaknila majhen križ; križ leži na tleh, ali tam, kjer je stal, je zelenia ruša odtrvana in zemlja razkopana. Inger sede in z rokami zgrebbe zemljo spet na kup. In tu sedi ona.

Prišla je iz radovednosti, da bi videla, kako globoko je bila Oline izkopala v mali grob, in je obsedela, ker se živina še ni bila vrnila. Jokala je in majala z glavo in gledala v tla.

Dnevi minevajo.

Vreme je za polje izvrstno, solnce in naliniv, sadeži rasto, da je veselje. Naseljenici so s košnjo že skoro pri kraju, nakosili so velikansko množino sena; vsega skoro da ni mogoče spraviti pod streho, tlačijo ga pod previse, v hlev, pod hišo, izpraznili so kaščo in tudi ta je počna do slemenja. Inger dela od ranega jutra do pozneve večera, za Izaka neutrpljiva pomoč in opora. Kadarska dež, izrabi Izak vsak trenutek, da bi spravil skedenj pod streho in da bi južno stran na vsak način popolnoma dovršil, potem bi lahko spravil teliko sena, kolikor ga le je. Delo gre imenitno od rok, bo že vse prav.

Veliki, žalostni dogodek je s svojo skrbjo že prišel, dejanje je bilo storjeno in posledice ne bodo izostale. Dobro izgine pogosto brez sledu, zlo pa vedno kaj zapusti. Izak je takoj od vsega početka sprejel stvar kot razumen mož in ni rekel ženi nič drugega kakor: Le kako si mogla kaj takega storiti? — Inger ni na to nihče odgovorila. In če nekaj časa je Izak spet spregovoril: Ali si ga zadavila? — Da, je odgovorila Inger. — Tega bi ne smela storiti. — Ne, je odgovorila ona. — In jaz ne razumem, kako da si to mogla storiti. — Prav taka je bila kakor jaz, je dejala Inger. — Kako? — Na ustih. — Izak je dolgo premisljeval, potem je dejal: Da, da.

Več o tem zdaj ni bilo govora, in ko so potekali dnevi prav tako mirno kakor poprep in je bilo treba razen tega spraviti mnogo sena in opraviti zlasti veliko poljskih del, sta na zločin vse manj mislila. Ali ves čas je visel nad ljudmi in nad vso naselbino, Zakanca nista mogla upati, da bi Oline molčala, na to se ni bilo zaneseti. In če bi tudi molčala Oline, ali ne bi mogli dobiti jezikov neme priče, zidovi hiše ali drevesa v gozdu okrog malega groba? Os-Anders lahko tu ali tam kaj namigne, Inger sama se lahko budna ali speča izda. Bila sta pripravljena na najhujše.

Kaj naj je Izak storil drugega, kakor da je na vso stvar mislil kakor človek? Zdaj je razumel, zakaj je Inger pri vsem porodu hotela biti sama, da se je sama spuščala v nevarnost. Trikrat je to ponovila. Izak je zmajal z glavo. Bil je poln usmiljenja, zradi njene nesreče, uboga Inger. To ju je privdedlo do velike medsebojne ljubezni, blazne ljubezni, privila sta se drug k drugemu v nevarnosti, ona je bila polna samorodne miline do njega in on je postal divji in neutezen v svoji poželjivosti po njem, duh iz mlina, čok. Za obutve je rabila samo laponske čevlje, toda v njej ni bilo niti trchice laponske nature, ni bila majhna, temveč kraljica velika. Zdaj, ko je bilo poletje, je hodila bosa in spodrecana, golih meč in Izak se kar ni mogel nagledati teh meč.

Vse poletje je pela odломke cerkevne pesmi in učila Elizeja moliti. Toda vse Laponce je sovražila vprav nekrščansko, in jesti, ki so hodili mimo, svoje mnenje povedala kar v obraz. Da jih je prav lahko kdo zopet poslal, da imajo spet kakega zajca v svoji kožnati vreči, da naj le gredo naprej! Zajca? Kakšnega zajca? — Ne. — To ti lahko sama povem. Prišel je z zajecem, ko sem bila v blagoslovjenem stanu. — Ali je mogoče? Ali si bila kaj na škodi pri tem? — To te nič ne briga, zdaj le pojdi! Tu imaš za pod zon in petem glej, da se odpraviš! — Koščka usnjata nimaš, da bi si čevlje popravil? — Ne, palico ti dam pokusi, če takoj ne greš.

Laponec prosi ponjivo, toda če ne dobi ničesar, postane maščeval in grozi. Mimo naselbine je prišla dvojica Laponcev z dvema otrokoma; otroka sta šla v hišo, da bi beračila, vrnila sta se in javila, da ni nikogar doma. Družina je nekaj časa stala in se menila med sabo po laponsku. Potem je mož stopil v hišo, da bi sam pogledal. Pa se ni vrnil. Nato je žena šla za njim in potem še otroci. Stali so v izbi in šepetalni v laponskem jeziku. Mož je pokukal v čumnato, tam tudi ni bilo nikogar. Zdaj je začela biti ura, družina je začudeno poslušala in se ni genila.

Inger je najbrže slutila, da so prišli tudi ljudje. Hitro je stekla po bregu navzdol. Ko je videla, da so Laponci, in še Laponci, ki jih je pozna, je rekla kar naravnost: Kaj iščete tukaj? Ali niste videli, da ni nikogar doma? O, da, je dejal mož. — Glejte, da izgine! je dejala Inger.

Po 34. letih odsotnosti na obisku v starci domovini

Piše Mary Kershnik, Rock Springs, Wyo.

Bilo je mrzlega zimskega jutra v letu 1901, ko sem izstopila iz vlaka na postaji v Rock Springsu, Wyoming. Vso to dolgo dobo bivanja v tej deželi se mi ni nikdar obudilo posebno hrepenevanje po rodni domovini, katero sem bila zapustila v letu 1901. V zdognuti plomadi tekočega leta pa se je kar nenadoma oglasila v meni velika želja, da bi se enkrat videla svojo rodno domovino, da bi se enkrat videla kraje, kjer sem preživelova detinska leta.

Pa sem se obrnila na zastopnika Johna Wataha z naročilom, da mi preskrbi potrebne listine za potovanje. V nekaj tehnih je bilo vse to urejeno in dne 1. junija sem odpotovala proti Jugoslaviji v spremstvu moje priateljice Mrs. Galičič starejše. Vzela sem si čas in sem se hotela še medpotoma nekoliko ustaniti, saj je tudi v tej deželi mnogo zanimivosti, katere je vredno videti, če se človek vozi mimo. Pričakovala sem, da bom opazila marsikaj izpremembo po tako dolgem času, bedisi v tej deželi, bodisi v Jugoslaviji, zato sem takoj v začetku potovanja obrnila mojo pozornost na to. Preko dveh tretjin tega prostranega kontinenta potovati kakor krovček, ki ne vidi nič in ne sliši nič, bi bilo greh.

Ko sem sedela v razkošno opremljenem kupeju brzovlaka, ki je zaradi takratnih potovanj v nekaterih delih dežele precej previdno vozil, sem se domislila razlike med tem potovanjem in pa onim leta 1901, ko sem se prvič vozila iz New Yorka v Rock Springs. Domnila sem se, kako sem se takrat stiri dni in štiri noči utrjena pretegovala na neudobnih sedežih, brez pravega počitka in prave hrane ter vsa zamazana od dima in prahu. Takrat sem na tistem obljubovala, da nikdar več ne stopim na vlak, da le enkrat spet pride na trdnata. Toda dandanes so na vlahih vse drugačne komodite za potnika. Zvečer se zagrebeš v mehke blazine in zaspipi brezskrbno kakor doma. Za vsako malo željo je takoj stewart pri roki. Velika udobnost je dalje moderna umivalnica, kjer se je mogoče vsak čas umiti, kakor v najboljšem hotelu. Jedilni vozovi so snažni in okusno opremljeni in pri belo pogrenjeni mizah servirajo strežniki gostom z jedili in pičačo, ki jo zaželijo. Res je po strežbi v jedilnih vozovih nekaj dražja kakor v navadnih restavracijah, toda kvaliteta hrane je izborna in čistoča pravovrstna. Pri jedi pa lahko skozi okna opazuješ zanimive po krajine, ki hite mimo tebe.

Že davno sem gojila željo, da bi enkrat videla Washington, glavno mesto naše republike kjer živi predsednik in kjer kuje postave za to veliko deželo naš zvezni kongres. To pot sem je nudila ta prilika in sklenila sem jo izrabiti mimo grede. V Chicagu sem stopila na vlak Baltimore & Ohio železnic, ki me je pripeljal v začetljeno mesto. Tam sem se srečala s prijateljem Fredom Johnsonom in njegovo prijazo, Mr. Johnson je svoječasno bival v Rock Springsu, kjer je zavzemal mestno okrajnega pravdnika. Po zadnjih predsedniških volitvah se je preselil v Washington, kjer je vposlen kot zvezni zemljiški komisar.

Njegova soprga, Mrs. Johnson se je na vso moč potrudila, da je meni in moji prijateljici Mrs. Galičič razkazala vse znamenitosti našega glavnega mesta, katere je bilo sploh mogoče v kratko odmerjenem času videti. Obiskevale smo uradno odstranijo. Godba je zaigrala ameriško himno in pozdravljajoča množica na pomolu se je pričela oddaljevati od nas. Visoke newyorške stavbe so postajale manjše in manjše in končno so nam popolnoma izginile izpred oči. Kmalu nato smo bili že na odprtju morju.

PAPIR IZ KORUZNICE

Večina papirja je izdelana iz lesa, toda poskusi so dokazali, da je mogoče papir izdelovati tudi iz koruzne slame. Izdelovanje papirja iz koruznice pa je dražje, kakor izdelovanje iz lesa, in tudi papir je slabše kakovosti.

DOPISI

(Nadaljevanje s pete strani)

Dalje prosim člane, da naj po možnosti poravnajo vse svoje prispevke za društvo, da se morejo knjige spraviti v pravi red in v dobrém redu oddati novemu odboru.

Na naši redni seji dne 3. novembra je bilo sklenjeno, da bo poletni seji 8. decembra pripravljeno za člane nekajko pričinkov za en (1) "miles" v zvišanem davelu na acesiran vrednost nepremičnin. Dohodki pa se morejo v naš narod v Italiji pomenjati le konec najhujše mire, povzdolg iz nižav obupa in zarjo lepše bodočnosti.

Zato je prav in umestno, da e ravno letos posebno spominjam objetnice Rapalske potnoge. "Centralni odbor za zaščito Slovanov v Italiji" v New Yorku je na svojem shodu dne 1. novembra sklenil, da tem potom pozove razna naša društva in organizacije širom Združenih držav in Canade, da se ob težko plačati za svoje politične grehe in norosti. Polem fašizma pa more za naš narod v Italiji pomenjati le konec najhujše mire, povzdolg iz nižav obupa in zarjo lepše bodočnosti.
