LJUBEZEN IN ZLOČIN

ROMAN

"Da," je odvrnila Tereza čudno mirno, "smo pač kakor naš Wallis. Ne moreš na prvi pogled spoznati, kaj tiči v nas. Še marmikateri vogal boš moral obresti, preden boš spoznal, kakšni smo."

Ko je napočila zima, je Jakob spet boljen. Zdaj je bil bolj previden in se je peljal v Bern, da bi ga preiskali. V njegovo žalost so ugotovili, da njegovo srce ne deluje pravilno in da ima povečana jetra. Odredili so mu zaradi tega strogo dijeto. Ko je prišla spomlad v deželo, so mu svetovali, naj gre na zdravljenje v Plombières. Pot v Plombières gre skozi Basel in zato je sklenil, da se bo ustavil za en dan v Basel in obiskal Gottfrieda Siksta.

Nekega lepega dne je prispel Terez v Basel in na postaji ga je pričakoval njegov sin, Sel je v bližnji hotel Schweizerhof in naročil dve sobi.

Proti poldnevu je prišel v hotel k skupnemu obedu Gottfried in Teodorjem Strauhom. Ko je vstopil v dvorano, je opazil svetega očeta, ki je sedel v pletenem stolu, neokretna kmečka postava, kakor jo je gotovo že podkroviš v prvorazrednem hotelu. Tereza je sedela na drugi strani dvorana in listala po ilustriranim časopisom. Če bi nje ne videl, bi se starci gotovo ne nastavili v Schweizerhofu. Bil je preveč očitno kmečki. Ostreje kaže kdaj poprej je opazil Gottfried neenakost v starosti svojega očeta in Terez. "Oče in hči stric in nečakinja!" je pomislil. "Toda mož in žena! Noben nekovek si tega ne bi mislil."

Predstavil je svojega prijatelja, Teo. "Po vseh teh letih ga kot morala predstaviti."

V teologa spreobrnjenemu kmečkemu sinu, ki je prišel z Gottfriedom, je zagodrnjal Anton Jakob par čemernih besed pozdrav; Tereza pa je spremeno povedala pogovor. "O да!" je skleka z globokim, pojčim glasom. "Se zelo dobro se spomjam gospoda Strauba! Zelo dobro! Da, da!" In kramljala je očesnih, daljnih časih na planini. Po konsilu sta ostala Gottfried in Teo še kratek čas v hotelu. Tereza je v kadiha cigare, ki je ponudil Anton Jakob. Tereza, ki jo je žgala želja, da bi negibno v srcu ji je prekipalo. Le tu pa tam ga je premenovalo. Tereza je vzbujušča v njej skoraj je povzročila, da bi bil zavadičega pogledoval Terez in ji pa tam kaj pripomnil, na kar Tereza čudno plahko odgovarjala. Nizkorashi, melanholični razbaljač debele glave in velikih očetov, je bil torej njen sovražnik! Tak pritlikavec! Kakor šolmoščerkel je bil poleg očetega ostrookega, romantičega Gottfrieda. Kakor bogabrošč je bil. Kako mu je le spelo, da je zmamil Gottfrieda!

ram opraviti, dokler to srce še opravlja svoje delo."

"Dobro bomo pazili na te, Tone," je zaskrbljeno zaklicala Tereza.

V soboto pred Teodorjevo ordinacijo sta se vrnila Anton Jakob in Tereza iz Plombiersa. Spet sta se nastanila v istem hotelu; ker pa nista vnaprej sporočila, nista dobila sosednjih sob. Med njunimi vrti je bil hodnik.

Zgodaj zvečer po prihodu sta obiskala Gottfrieda v njegovem malem stanovanju ob Renu in kasneje so skupaj večerjali v hotelu. Anton Jakobu je bilo slablo, bil je utrujen in je preklinal vse zdravilne kure, češ, da so delo nepotrebna, brkjarja. Nekaj mesecov bo potreboval, je dejal, da bo okreval od učinkov tega zdravljenja in sveto se je zaklinjal, da ne gre svoj živ dan več k nobenemu doktorju pa naj bi bila tudi vidva prisotna na njegov častni dan. Njegovi starši in sestre bodo prišli z deželi samo zaradi tega. Ali se ne bi vsi skupaj zbrali tisto nedeljo in bi jo slovesno praznovali?"

"Nikar ne pretiravaj te stvari, Gottfried," je rekel Teo. Toda oči so mu veselo svetile zaradi prijateljevega predloga.

"Ah, in četudi bi jo pretiral!" je zaklicala Tereza. "Tone, ali slišiš, kaj pravi Gottfried? Gospodu Straubu morava ustrelji." "Ah, beži," je zagodrnjal Anton Jakob. "Kdo ve, če bom takrat še živ? In četudi bom, bom moral porabiti svoj čas pač za Gam."

"Saj se bova vračala skozi Basel," je dejala Tereza. "Da, morava se vrnil semkaj Tone. Tone v nedeljo čez tri tedne? Doktor je dejal, da moraš ostati tri tedne v Plombieresu. To bi se približno ujemalo s časom."

"Lepo, lepo. Če bom še živ."

"Gospod upokojeni vladni svetnik," je rekel Teo. "tisti, ki govorijo o smrti, živijo vedno najdelj. Človek bi moral v vseh važnih trenutkih svojega življenja misliti na svoj bližnji konec. Ni pa potrebno, da bi bil zaradi tega pobit. Odročitev o tem, kdaj se bodo končali nasi dnevi, ni v naših rokah."

"Daj! Nagni se!" Gottfried je sklonil glavo in Anton Jakob se je dotaknil z ustnicami sinovega čela. Nato je čudno, skoraj samozadovoljno zagodrnjal.

"Potem tudi ti v tem primeru ne smeš godrnjati," je pristavila Tereza.

Smehljaje se je obrnila h Gottfriedu.

"Priveda! Gotovo priveda!" je zašepetal.

Teo je pogledal globoko v Gottfriedove oči in se nato ozrvstran.

"Ko sem že vedno bolj odvjen od vas mladih ljudi," je počasi dejal Anton Jakob, "storite torej z menoj kar hočete. Toda ne dajte, da bi hodil preveč navreber. Še cel kup stvari mo-

"Poklical jo bom," je dejal, tek obstal in si pridržal klobuk pred obrazom ter nekaj vanj zmrmljal. Nato je prav tako sedel.

Sredi rahlo pritajenega človeškega hruma, ki je polnil mogočno cerkev, se je izgubil Terezin duh v čudne meglene pajčolane. Na njen obraz je legal izraz vdatnosti v usodo, pogledi so ji tavali do človeških obrazov do kamnitih stebrov, sem in tja po gotskih obokih in so se za hip zmedeno ustavili na od sonca ožarjenih, barvitih oknih. Velika cerkev je jo tlačila.

"Misliš sem, da je Tone!" je dejala in se thitro skrila za našljalom naslonjača.

Gottfried je takoj zaprl vrata. Za trenutek je držal kljuko v roki in srce mu je burno utripalo. Nato se je obvladal, stopil do očetovih vrat, jih odpril in rekel: "Se ni povsem gotova. Grem dol in jo počakam."

"To sem ti vendar dejal," se je norčeval Anton Jakob. "Vedno potrebuje celo uro."

Malo kasneje je prišla Tereza po stopnicah. Znova si je moral Gottfried priznati, da koraka prav kakor čistokrvna zrebička. Kakor hitro je ujela njegov pogled, se mu je nasmejala.

"Pozdravljen!" je rekla s čistim bernškim naglasom. "Sama morava iti. Tvoj oče noče, da bi ga nadlegovali. Nisem ga mogla pregoroviti, da bi šel z nima."

"Pozdravljen, Tereza! Vem, povedal mi je."

Omamila ga je njena svežost in zdrav dih, ki ga je izzarevala.

"Mislim, da se bova moralna peljati s cestno železnico, če ne bova zamudila."

"Torej pojdi! Naprej!"

Zapustila sta hotel.

"Bog pomagaj!" je rekla, ko sta prišla do postojališčne hišice na postajnem trgu. "Poslušaj te številne zvонove! Jezus! Kakšno pobožno mesto je ta Basel! Ali gredo vti ti črno oblečeni ljudje v cerkev? Poslušaj veliki zvon! Prav tak zvon sem slišala v Bernu."

"To je veliki zvon v stolni cerkvi. V stolni cerkev greva."

Stopila sta na cestno železnicu in se peljala v notranji del mesta. Ko sta se pripeljala do trgovske banke, sta izstopila. Nato sta hodila par minut peš, pekoracila stolni trg in pred Terzini značenimi očmi se je dvigala rdeča zgradba iz peščenjakov z enakima gotskima stolpama, ki sta se dvigala visoko nad mestom. Vstopila sta skozi vzhodni portal in si poiskala prostor poleg enega izmed stebrov, ki so nosili večkrat zavite galerije. Tereza je takoj sedla. Opazila je, da je Gottfried za trenutno

LITHS LOSE CLOSE ONE TO ST. PAULS; SERBS WHIP SDZ FIVE

Spartans Ride Over Zumberaks For Seventh Straight Victory; Liths Drop Game by Two Points; Third Period Rally Rescues Serbians; Hocevar Tops Leaders' Scoring With 12 Markers.

St. Pauls 29—Liths 27

The Lithuanians, dormorts of the Inter-Lodge League, but one of the pluckiest quintets to fight it out on the basketball courts at the St. Clair Recreation Center, lost another game, their sixth loss of the current season, but only after giving the St. Paul Croatians a real scrap. It was the same scrappy bunch of Lith athletes that dragged the Spartans, I-L leaders, into an overtime period last week before weakening and losing in the final seconds of the play. Paced by their left forward, Joe Zebreis, who scored 12 points in the tilt, the Liths gave the Saints a sweet headache to the last whistle.

Spartans 39—Zumberaks

With only three more games to be played in the second and final round of play, this victory virtually assured the SSPZ Spartans of staying on the top rung of the Inter-Lodge standings. Not much is to be said about the game that the score does not indicate. The SSPZ men were much the superior in every department of the game and had no difficulty in soundly trouncing the Croatians 39-22. The score might have been much higher if the Spartans hadn't started taking it easy after the first half at which time they held a 20 to 8 lead. "Hockey" Hocevar and Johnny Korman with 12 and 10 points respectively, paced the Spartans.

I-L SCHEDULE

Jan. 3, 1940

7:15—Zumberaks vs Liths
8:00—Spartans vs Cleve. Work.
8:45—St. Pauls vs Serbians

Big Program Scheduled for Inter-Lodge League's "Greatest Carnival Night" Wednesday, January Third

Cage Games, Songs by Radio Personality, Dancing and Music by Pecon, Appear on Carnival Card.

The Inter-Lodge League will present its first big social function in some time next Wednesday night, January 3, 1940, at the St. Clair Recreational Center gymnasium when it presents to the public the "Greatest Carnival Night" program. It is expected that many old time Inter-Lodge basketball and baseball players, as well as, old fans will be there to hold a grand reunion.

On the card for that night will appear a set of three basketball games between the I-L teams, a number of songs, which will be rendered by Mona Kukich who won the Serbian Day beauty contest and has taken part in the Marshall radio hour program, and dancing to the music of Johnny Pecon, maestro of the accordion, after the games.

Besides these featured acts, the card will include the appearance of some well-known sports celebrities.

The Inter-Lodge games for the evening will be the best possible combinations of teams. The CFU Zumberaks meet the Lithuanian athletes in the opening mixup, which may decide which will be eliminated from the play-off series at the end of this round. Two Slovne quintets will battle it out for the Slovene title of the league when the SSPZ Spartans, league leaders, take on the SDZ Cleveland Workers in the featured scrap of the night. In conclusion for the cage program, the St. Lazar Serbians and the St. Paul Croatians, who are tied for second place position, will meet in what should be a wow of a battle.

Admission for this big evening of fun and entertainment will be only ten cents. Tickets may be gotten in advance from any of the Inter-Lodge managers or at the counter at the Center on Wednesday night.

All Star Boxing Card At Public Hall

The third in the series of popular priced fight programs to be staged in Public Hall by promoter Bob Brickman will follow Friday, Jan. 5 to be followed with fourth on Jan. 12.

Brickman today had Buddy Knox, Dayton heavyweight under contract for the top bout on Jan. 5 program which may also pair World Bantamweight Champion George Pace of Cleveland with Lou Transparant of Detroit in another ten rounder of double windup. If negotiations can be closed the card may feature a trio of ten round matches, the third of which would pair Marty Simms, the Saginaw, Mich. Buzzsaw, with Clevelander Jimmy Reeves, unbeaten in seven professional bouts. No opponent as yet has been signed for Knox, though matchmaker Dan Taylor is hot on the trail of Eddie Meder of New York or Henry Cooper of Newark, N. J. Efforts now are being made to bring the world championship bantamweight match between Pace and Johnny (K. O.) Morgan of Detroit here for the Jan. 12 date at the Hall.

May Be Opportunity

The Bata Shoe Co., Inc., of Belcamp, Md., announces that on or around February 1, 1940 they will open the first year of their Industrial and Business Academy for American-Yugoslavs between the ages 16 and 18. The apprentice students, both boys and girls, will be taught various trades such as shoe making, rubber goods manufacture and the like while employed. They will live in Bata dormitories and in their spare time they will be taught languages, theory, and participate in sports under capable tutors. The apprentice will earn enough money to pay his expenses. Those interested should write to: Dept. 1202-Education, Bata Shoe Company, Inc., Belcamp, Md.

THIS WEEK

The old year is on its way out and with it goes memories of its adventure. We didn't have to go anywhere to feel the impact of the brutal forces running rampant; nor search for some south sea island for pleasures. We found these things out right here amidst the smoke of the factories and the breeze of Erie. The friends that we made, our joys and common fears were rudely thrust in with the maelstrom of screaming and portentous headlines.

DIXON SUPPORTS BURTON! SOVIETS SIGN NON-AGGRESSION PACT WITH NAZIS!

What do these things mean? There is a rancor, bewilderment and derision on one side, cheers, agreement and certainty on the other. Somewhere there may be sense to these events, and we talk and talk about these things, and it was pleasant talking over these shifting scenes and world-shaking events with such as Vatro Grill and Milan Medvesek.

NEW DEAL MAKES GAINS! NEW DEAL LOSING GROUND!

But come or go, the Workmen's Home put up a new addition for recreational purposes, and the completed venture is operating above expectations. SNPJ lodges of Cleveland buy a farm out Chardon way for recreational purposes. Associated closely with this venture, in a sense, is our old pal Roy Hoyt. Not that he's an executive or such; but he does exhibit so much interest in the venture that the Comrade lodge made him a member of the farm board. One may think that Roy is uncomfortable at these affairs, since his knowledge of Slovene is limited to "schnapps, potica, ciga firar," but really he's as comfortable as a cat at a fire place.

CIO MAKES GAINS: WINS CHRYSLER STRIKE! FRITZ KUHN SENTENCED!

Frank Cesen is a grand old man, yet to put it paradoxically he's not old, but a sort of a young old man. Keenly alive to the sad affairs of the world, he still feels that the world will be righted and that the struggle towards these events is not in vain. Formerly of Detroit, he was welcomed by the local liberal fraternal groups as he is one who extends considerable efforts towards making affairs successful.

ROOSEVELT MOVES THANKSGIVING UP! BICKERING GOVERNORS DISAGREE WITH CHANGE!

The Socialist Zarja had one of its biggest successes on this revised Thanksgiving day. Can't help putting in a few words about the two old faithfuls of this singing body. There is John Krebel, out of work or working, we never feel sorry for him. He's one of those self-reliant fellows who is always ready to give a hand and a treat, yet never expects anything in return. But somehow we feel that he's a shrewd old fox, and he must know that those he helps feel beholden to him. And there's Louis Zorko—he's a socialist with whom we disagree at times. He's also manager of the Cankar's Herald. To drink a beer, and then maybe another and then have a "debata" or sing a song with Krebel and Zorko is as good a fun as one can have.

FRANCO MARCHES INTO MADRID! DIES COMMITTEE THINKS UP ANOTHER STINK! CHAMBERLAIN'S UMBRELLA DIPLOMACY FAILS! EUROPE AGAIN IN WORLD WAR!

But over at Harry Music's they have a little two year old daughter called "Charlie." She's the darlingest thing. She's as chubby as cupid and comically clumsy. She does the cutest things—and the eyes she makes just enrapture one.

Here And There

By Elsie M. Desmond

Yes, the Christmas holidays are over with. I do hope you all had a good time. Yours truly did. We had everything, but the snow. Yet Santa made his trip so everybody was happy. Sunday had Misses Josephine Buranak, Josephine Cukayne, Milly Poklar and Jean Prime over for the day . . . Wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Cigaj for the opening of their new beer parlor located on East 20th street and Arrowhead avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Svetek were the former owners . . . Families Mike Poklar, Anton Prime, Frank Segulin, Frank Iskra, Andy Poklar, Miss Tillie Maljavec were seen there . . . Misses Milly Poklar and Ann Winkler both thanking Santa for his lovely present to them, a typewriter . . . And Santa bringing Sally Hrvatin a very beautiful fur white jacket . . . Brought other beautiful gifts too, to other friends . . . Yes, I believe we all had a nice Christmas.

In this week's article I will tell you something about the club that is doing wonderful things for your "son" and all other young boys of Cleveland. You have probably heard of this club before. It is Boys Town. There are five or six Towns in our city. The one I will give you a report on is the one in our own community. Heard that Anne Dorrington, who ran for the council race in the 32nd Ward last term really organized the club. So we do have much to say to Anne for her help in organizing the Boys Town in our neighborhood. I've been giving the boys publicity in two local papers, namely: The Scoop and The Euclid News-Journal. Mr. Sallee is the director at the Town. He takes charge over the boys although they have their own council, Ernest Merritt being their mayor. Mr. John Chesnes takes charge of the arts, signs, and paintings. He is new down there at the present time, but the boys have taken a fancy to him already. The boys have their own basketball league. They practice every Thursday at Memorial school. Nottingham Boys Town also won the trophy for baseball this year, competing against other Towns. If parents worry about their boys getting hurt, they needn't be because Mr. Sallee is a first- aider and has been for quite a few years. Last Saturday the Juniors had a Christmas party. Wednesday the Seniors had their banquet and what a feast it was. A beautiful tree was arranged by the boys. Games, candy, other foods and gifts were given by donors. The boys also sent baskets to the needy of the neighborhood. The boys have beautiful paintings on the walls. On the outside of the building you can see the welcome sign to Boys Town. The boys also have boxing and are instructed by Mr. Sallee. There are other sports in line for boys, too. Every Wednesday evening there are movies shown to the boys. In all this Boys Town is just grand. And all boys are urged to join the club. You must be of school age to be a member. So if you are interested come down to Boys Town located on Nottingham road and see for yourself. You all are also invited to come to Boys Town and visit the building and see for yourself what this is doing for the boys of the community. Won't you come down and visit Boys Town?

Mustn't forget to mention Charlie Koman: he's one of those fellows whose presence at a social affair almost guarantees its success—and then Elsie Desmond who is a little dynamo at writing about all the affairs. A HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OF YOU AND THE VIALS OF WRATH TO ALL THE UGLY THINGS THAT HAPPENED AND WILL HAPPEN

We don't know what's coming for 1940 but there's one thing we do know. We had a pretty good old year. We didn't win any war, we didn't become wealthy; we didn't write a great poem, or a book; we didn't make the headlines; in fact we didn't do anything outstanding unless we say that we lived well with our fellow man. And by the gods! that's as precious a thing as one can strive for.

So factories get your steam up for that whistle! Churches inspect your bells! Entertainment committees be sure to have an adequate number of noise makers! Cynics and grouchies practice up on smiling and silly shouting and let's celebrate

With a cup of cheer
Or a mug of beer
At some hall near The Happy New Year.

Spartans Elect Officers

The Spartan executive board elected for 1940: President, Matthew Debevec; vice-president, Victor Fink; secretary-treasurer, Ann Opeka, 1127 E. 71 St., HE 7659; recording secretary, Dorothy Lucia; auditors: Anthony Bolka, Antonia Zagar and Stanley Zagar. Athletic manager, Anthony Bolka; representative to SNH stockholders meetings, Rudy Lisch; to Prosvetni klub, Ann Opeka; to SSPZ United Lodges: Matt Debevec, Lad Debevec, Antonia Zagar, Stanley Zagar, William Schlarb, Rudy Lisch, Vatro Grill and Ann Opeka.

Tomorrow night, Sunday, December 31, 1939, New Year's Eve is the big celebration. It is the gigantic, the big hit of the season, the—yes, it's the dance to be given by the singing club Jadran. Two well known orchestras will be on hand to play for you and celebrate with you the New Year, Kristoff's and Vadnal's orchestra. The date is Sunday, New Year's Eve. Be seeing you, helping you to celebrate the New Year. So bye until then.

Yours truly wishes all the folks of the Enako staff and readers a pleasant New Year—may this be a very happy and brighter one for you indeed.

Bye now, dear readers until the New Year, 1940 when again I shall be here with my column "News About Town."

GAY NEW YEAR CELEBRATIONS

AT MANY LOCAL SLOVENE HOMES

Slovene Auditorium To Give A Program and Dance To Yankovich's Orchestra; Workingmen's Home, West Side Slovne Home, Euclid Slovne Society Home All Promise To Cheer Celebrators.

This is one time of the year when all the Slovne Homes will be open and undoubtedly capacity crowds will visit to celebrate the birth of the new year.

Other halls sponsoring new year celebrations on this eve of the 31st are: The Slovne Home on Holmes Ave., Combined SN-PJ lodges of West Park will celebrate in their hall, Slovne National Home in Maple Hts., West Side Slovne Home, Slovne Society Home in Euclid and the remodeled Home on 10814 Prince avenue.

IT'S HERE

Yessirree, it's finally here! What? The pre-New Year's Eve dance given by the Red Jackets, of course. They're just as glad as you that the date is actually here because they've put loads and loads of time and work on it, and if they would have put any more work on it, they'd be positively exhausted. But they are wise—they "knocked off" and are now resting up for tonight, the big night.

And just wait until you see the favors they combed the town for. They're unique, to say the least. You'll want to keep yours for a long time.

As a reminder, Frankie Yankovich and his orchestra will play; it will be held at the Slovne National Home on St. Clair avenue; and the Maccabees' Red Jackets Drill Team is sponsoring the dance.

We'll be seeing you!

J. AND J. CLUB DANCE

The J. and J. Club, which has been organized for quite some time, has never yet held a social affair to advertise its name. When I recently approached my car, which was parked on St. Clair Ave., I noticed that I had received a pink ticket neatly tucked under the windshield wiper. Eager to know what traffic law I had violated I grabbed the ticket and was delighted at the information I read on this "pink slip."

It read, "You're Under Arrest!—Please report to Twilight Ballroom, 6025 St. Clair Ave. for trial at J. and J. Club Dance at 8 o'clock December 30, 1939—Your fine is 35 cents—Presiding Judge is Johnny Pecon's Orchestra."

I resolved then and there to get this ticket "fixed" and I'll have it fixed good and proper at this J. and J. Club Dance on December 30. With Johnny Pecon's Orchestra as the judge I think the sentence will be only too short and sweet.—A Victim.

Double Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Jennie Rutar recently announced the engagement of their daughters, Jennie to Johnny Arko, 6203 Carl avenue and Josephine to Frank Urbancic of 683 East 163 street.

Fier-Intihar

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fier of 14925 Cardinal avenue, recently announced the engagement of their daughter Frances to Victor Intohar of 21601 Ivan avenue, Euclid.

Gornik-Wohlgemuth

The engagement of Miss Bernice Gornik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gornik, 15310 Lucknow avenue to Mr. Harold Wohlgemuth, 1334 Penhurst road was announced on Christmas eve.

Statistics over a period of several years show that there is an alarming increase in the number of injuries and fatalities during the period at the end of the year.

According to the records, in the final two weeks before the end of the year, should the accident rate continue, there will be twenty-nine percent more fatalities than the average for any other two week period. The New Year holidays, which should be the happiest time of the year has a higher death record than the traffic toll during the holiday days of Decoration Day and the Fourth of July.

Cleveland's chances to win the national contest lives and spare people the suffering and misery caused by accident will be decided by the public's cooperation during the final days of the year. Remember to match the increased dangers on the streets with increased caution.
