

G. W.'s Invite You To Their 20th Anniversary Dance

The George Washington Lodge No. 180, AFU will hold a 20th Anniversary dance on Saturday, May 17th at the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Avenue. Dancing will begin at 8 p. m. and last until ??? Pete Sokach and his orchestra will play.

Since this is the first dance in many years, held by this lodge, we would like to see a large crowd present. The admission will be 75 cents and tickets may be bought from the lodge members, or at the door on the night of the dance. The committee promises everyone a good time.

We hope to see young and old alike attend this dance. Remember it's May 17th for a good time at the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Avenue.

SNPJ NEWS AND COMMENTS

J. F. Fiftolt

Among the Comrades:—

Sick and ailing: Sis. Frances Mahne, who slipped and broke her hip. Ann Orenick improving a little each day, still no visitors allowed to see her. Jean Svete back from the hospital hobbling around on crutches. Sis. Mary Rossman back home after an operation.

Heine Martin Antoncic, radio announcer on the Slovene Hour still doing a good job of providing music and news that pleases the many listeners.

Ernie Urbas they tell me is a rabid collector of anything that looks like a horse. His collection numbers into the hundreds.

The reason we have not been seeing Mary Krizmancic around lately is because doc told her to take it easy for a while.

SNPJ National Tournament:—

One of the largest delegations from anywhere in the country left Cleveland to take in the National Bowling Tournament sponsored by the Pioneer lodge. It was a tired group that arrived back in Cleveland on Monday. With few exceptions an enjoyable time was had by all. The writer, Rudy Lisch, and Cam Zarnick represented Supreme Board members in the group. Alternate Carl Samminich also was kind enough to help one of the team out.

The group is looking forward to Detroit next year. Johnstown with limited facilities also bid but could not be accepted. With the National in Detroit next year, Cleveland having the Eastern Invitational this year, maybe it would be a good idea for Johnstown to sponsor the Eastern next season!

General:—

Concordians will hold one of the final dances of the season at the Home on St. Clair, Saturday May 24th.

Utopians have already issued invitations to attend their summer socials at the SNPJ Farm in July and August.

Frankie Ipavec from the Strugglers informing the group at the last Federation meeting, about their successful anniversary affair.

Circle No. 2 getting busier as time goes on. A mother's day program was presented at the Napredne Slovenke meeting. They are also planning and preparing for the SNPJ Day affair. Sis. Marion Adams, energetic Manager of the Circle has sent out letters to the various local lodge secretaries requesting moral and financial support. Let's be more than generous in seeing that the group gets a good start.

SNPJ Farm will open up the picnic season with an affair on Sunday June 1st. Start getting the old buggy in shape for the ride.

Attend Comrades' monthly meeting, Tuesday May 20th.

Onto Strabane was the battle cry last Saturday of Pauline Spik, Albina Vehar, Antoniette Skok and Frances Preseren. They didn't have time enough to answer the phone, so anxious were they to get going.

Bowling:—

Stopped in last Friday to witness the final night of bowling for the girls. The Concordians leading the league all season had a battle on hand from the fighting Strugglers. Left before the final outcome, I did find out however, that the Comrade girls tied for second place.

"Valley of Sun"

Making our home in the valley of the sun, is truly a most exciting experience. Where you in Cleveland insulate your homes against the cold and winter wind and snow, we here in Phoenix try to protect ourselves from the rays of the sun.

Arizona, with its historic past, romantic beauty and natural wonders has one phenomenal recourse that gives it a perennial and indisputed claim to the world greatness and that is her Egyptian sub-tropical climate. Because the sun shines 84% of its possible daylight sojourn throughout the heavens, the result is a dry warm climate. This is a most attractive feature to residents, tourists, and health seekers. The average relative humidity over a period of 40 years at Phoenix has been 25.1 degrees.

The "rheumatic," who was the joke of his friends in the humid east, because his pains served as a barometer for approaching inclement weather, remembers his aches as something of the past in the Arizona sunshine.

The average temperature for any one year has never fallen below 70 degrees since 1924 and it never fell lower than 68 degrees since weather bureau records were taken first in 1896.

There is no other section in the country that has as healthy a climate as Phoenix. It is some 10 degrees warmer on the average than the rest of Arizona. The highest recorded temperature is 129 degrees and the lowest 51 degrees.

Euclid Vet's Club News Bits

By Ivan P. Kotorac

At our last Euclid Vet's meeting quite a few things were discussed for our on-coming Festival on August 1, 2 and 3. Such as: The Rules for Miss Euclid. Who's gonna be Miss Euclid at our Festival? Well, gals, that's for you to decide. Are you gonna be the lucky gal? Why not just follow these simple rules to the contest and your curiosity won't be aroused. Here's all you have to do and heaven knows maybe you'll be the lucky gal.

First of all you must be a resident of Euclid, single, 18 years of age or over. You also must submit your name, address, telephone number, present occupation and a recent photograph to the Euclid Vet's Club Beauty Contest, Box 3051, Euclid 17, Ohio. The prettiest gals will then be picked by the judges and will be notified either through mail or telephone when to appear. Also all applications in the contest and photographs will be returned.

Miss Euclid, we can assure for being the prettiest girl in Euclid will be deeply awarded. So come on, gals, don't be bashful. If you think you have the beauty to enter the contest, please don't hesitate. We want to let entire Euclid know that we, too, have very pretty girls. So don't hesitate. Act today!

Prizes, street dancing, gaiety, laughter and concessions will be in store for all who attend. So make it a must to attend.

Memorial Day services were also discussed. The Euclid Vet's who are going to participate in the Memorial Day parade in Euclid are asked to come to Recher Hall Saturday, May 17th at 3 p. m. for practice drills. And on Memorial Day the Euclid Vet's will attend the services at St. Paul's Cemetery and the Euclid cemetery on Euclid Ave. So don't forget, fellows, you who wish to march in the Memorial Day Parade come to drill practice this Saturday.

One of our member's at the last meeting suggested that a

A. permit, with the help of the SNPJ G.I.'s and lodges. A few restrictions were overcome nicely, to make our old plans so much sounder. The building which will be all open, will consist of a kitchen, bar and spacious dance floor with fire place at one end, and will be erected as soon as possible.

For outside entertainment we will have a playground for the children, which will have a set of six swings, a sand box and teeter toters. There will be a baseball diamond, horse shoe

With this start at this time, and full cooperation from all SNPJ Lodges, let's keep the ball rolling and make a real picnic ground.

Don't forget the opening day — June 1st. This is the date of the SNPJ Farm Picnic, so let's all go out and make it a big day at the farm on Heath Rd., of Chardon.

series of socials be held monthly for all the members of the Euclid Vet's Club and their gals. Just so everyone can get better acquainted with one another. This was just a suggestion and a mighty good one, which we sure hope to carry out in the very near future.

Also, this year we're going to have two soft ball teams, Class A and Class B, which will be organized for our entertainment and yours. We will compete with the other teams in Euclid and sure will try our darnedest to stay at the top list. As for the uniforms nothing definite has been discussed, but we hope they will correspond with our Club colors which are red, gold and blue.

Well, folksies, I reckon I better throw this column in the mail if I hope to have it in this week's issue, so I'll bid you all a farewell until the next time when I sure hope to bring you more and more news about our oncoming festival and oncoming events. So, until the next time, I remain the Club's faithful reporter. Ahem!

staged scenes. Among the other major revelations of the film are the extent to which the Russian people have been dependent upon UNRRA shipments from the United States, the widespread teaching of English in Russian schools and the Soviet's program to care for the wounded, aged and orphans left desolate by the war.

History is made, as the Zionist side of the Holy Land problem is presented to the United Nations Political Committee. It's the first time a spokesman for a non-member group has taken part in a major United Nations debate, as Cleveland famous Rabbi Silver makes an eloquent appeal for an independent Jewish homeland.

WRESTLING NEWS

One of the roughest wrestling nights in Cleveland mat history is promised next Tuesday when the two top bad men of the squared circle—Bob "Strangler" Wagner and Sandy O'Donnell—clash in the main event of the professional show at Central Armory.

Promoter Jack Ganson, in announcing the match last night, said that only the "strangle hold" will be barred and the referee will be in the ring only to assure that it isn't used.

Wagner, who claims to have drawn more "boo's" and caused more riots than any wrestler in the game today, is one of Cleveland's biggest drawing cards. The 250-pound, Portland, Ore., "bad man" with the powerful arms and glowering glance knows all the illegal tricks of the trade.

Ganson is busy lining up four allstar supporting bouts for Wagner-O'Donnell battle—the match for which Cleveland fans have been clamoring.

Tickets are on sale at Richman Bros. ticket office, 736 Euclid Ave. and go on sale Tuesday night at 6 o'clock at the Central Armory box office. First bout is at 8:30 p. m.

Naznanilo in zahvala

S tužnim srcem naznanjam žalostno vest, da je dne 13. aprila preminil po kratki in mučni devet-dnevni bolezni na srcu moj soprog in oče

FRANK STUPAR

Pogreb se je vršil v četrtek dne 17. aprila in po opravljenih cerkvenih pogrebnih obredih v cerkvi sv. Vida je bil pokopan na Calvary pokopališču ob veliki udeležbi prijateljev.
