Ob 25-letnici umora slovenskega bana

"Na smrt čakam", je bil odgovor dr. Marka Natlačenega sošolcu, ki je v tistih dneh, začetkom oktobra, šetal po Ciril Metodovi ulici v Ljubljani, prišel mimo Natlačenove vile, ga zagledal na vrtu in mu zaklical: "Dober dan Marko, kaj pa delaš."

Tiste dni je dr. Natlačen dobil "sodbo" revolucionarnega komunističnega sodišča, da je obsojen na smrt. Vedel je, da ga okupatorjeva policija ne bo branila, pa vendar je ostal tam, kjer je bil. Po svoji navadi ni niti popustil niti odstopil za las. Na smrt je čakal, sodbo je resno razumel, pa se ni niti premaknil. To je bil mož, ki bi mu premnogi predvojni komunisti morali biti hvaležni, da jim je rešil življenje, kajti predno je odšel z oblasti, je ukazal: Uničite povsod vse sezname komunistov, da jih okupator ne dobi!" in skrbel je, da se je to zgodilo. V zahvalo so ga obsodili na smrt.

Dne 13. oktobra 1942 je stopil v hišo duhovsko oblečen komunistični morivec, češ da ima izročiti g. banu važno pismo. Kot duhovniku mu je bilo omogočeno priti v Natlačenovo sobo, kjer je od blizu z revolverjem ustrelil bivšega bana v glavo, da se je mrtev zgrudil. Morivec je pobegnil skozi okno in s pripravljenim motornim vozilom izginil.

Tako je bil na najbolj podel način izvršen ukaz voditeljev komunizma v Sloveniji. Pasti je dr. Natlačen moral zato, ker je bil vodilen nasprotnik komunističnega načrta za prevzem oblasti nad slovenskim narodom. Kar se je takrat in pozneje pisalo v komunističnih publikacijah in govorilo na mitingih o razlogih za njegovo obsodbo in umor, je zgodovinska laž, da bi se prikrili pravi in resnični motivi za njegovo likvidacijo. Nobene obdolžitve komunisti niso mogli podpreti z neovrgljivimi, resničnimi dokazi glede nagiba za Natlačenove politične akcije v tisti dobi. Do današnjega dne so ostale te izkrivljene obdolžitve nedokazane, in vendar je zvesti slovenski rodoljub dr. Marko Natlačen že 25 let v grobu, ker je komunizem kot zlo odločno odklanjal.

Ni lahko zajemljivo pisati o oni strašni dobi, ko je zadel narod ena največjih katastrof. Ko je Hitler skupno s Mussolinijem napadel Jugoslavijo in se je po nekaj dneh vojaška obramba domovine pod silno premočjo sesula, je ostala Slovenija brez zaščite, sama, samcata, prepuščena svoji usodi. Od treh strani so vanjo prodirale sovražne armade, stik z ostalimi deli države je bil radi razmer na Hrvaškem hipoma pretrgan in slovenska zemlja je postala čez noč najbolj vojaško in politično zapuščena del jugoslovanske države. Na čelu tega stiskanega ozemlja se je znašel ban dr. Marko Natlačen naenkrat kot edina oblast, kot vojaški poveljnik, kot politični vodnik in kot suveren, na čigar ramah leži vsa velika odgovornost. Slovencem je grozila neposredno nevarnost, da jih ogromne sovražne sile stro in uničijo. Natlačen je iskal sveta in opore v demokratičnih političnih skupinah in drugih organizacijah in nekaj tega našel, a odgovornost je bila njegova, on je bil ban, on edini politični in upravni predstavnik naroda na terenu.

Ko gledamo nazaj iz daljave 25 let, smo prav tako, kot smo bili takrat doma, trdno prepričani, da je bilo v interesu naroda, kar je storil pokojni voditelj-mučenec — v obupni situaciji in popolni politični osamelosti. Njegovi ukrepi in koraki neposredno pred in med okupacijo so bili storjeni iz ljubezni in odgovora skrbi za trpeči narod. V tem je njegova veličina, ki jo je potrdil s svojo smrtjo, in mu jo pred narodom in zgodovino ne morejo omadeževati izkrivljene klevete morivcev, da bi oprali svoj zločin.

Marka Natlačenega sem osebno dobro poznal. Umestna je bila pripomba filozofa Franceta Vebra, da je bil še na mrtvaškem odru na Žalah 'gospod'. Bil je gospod v najboljšem pomenu besede: vedno dostojanstven, vendar takten in uslužen in zelo naklonjen vsakemu, posebno še marmu človeku. Prav dobro znana je njegova skrb za kmetško ljudstvo, iz katerega je sam izšel tam na vinorodnih pobočjih Vipavske doline. Spominjam se, kako je kot ban vedno našel čas, da se je udeleževal zaključnih slovesnosti na voditeljskih tečajih mladinske Kmečke zveze in kako navdušeno je govoril mlademu rodu o nalogah kmetijskega stanu. Imeli smo v njem najboljšega prijatelja in podpornika pri delu za izobrazbo in organizacijsko povezavo mladega kmetijskega rodu.

Nič manjša ni bila njegova skrb na čelu Slovenije za vse druge stanove in sloje, ker se je kot globoko veren, praktičen katoličan zavedal načela o pravičnosti in solidarnosti med posameznimi plastmi človeške družbe in zvesto v tem smislu ravnal. Dovolj je znana njegova ljubezen do umetnosti, ki jo je z vsemi močmi in sredstvi pospeševal. Rad bi bil veliko storil za svoj narod in je kolikor mu roke niso bile vezane z določbami centralistične šestojanuarske državne ustave, katera ni dovoljevala gospodarske in socialne samouprave in ne drugih samoupravnih kompetenc banovinom. Če bi bilo vsega tega vsaj toliko, kot je bilo po vidovdanski ustavi predvideno za oblastne samouprave, kjer je Natlačen kot predsednik ljubljanske samouprave v kratki dobi ustvaril pravi čudež, potem bi bilo v Sloveniji pred drugo vojno še marsikaj boljše, kot je bilo.

Ko se bo iz zadostno odmaknjene zgodovinske perspektive objektivno opisovala vloga bana dr. Marka Natlačenega, zlasti v času najvišje stiske naroda, bo resnicoljubni zgodovinar moral s poudarkom zapisati, da je bil Natlačen pristen in zvest Slovenec do zadnjega vlakenca svoje biti.

Marko Natlačen je padel v boju za svobodo svojega naroda v prvi bojni vrsti, in je svoje življenje dal za ideale, ki bodo nekoč to svobodo gotovo prinesli. Komunističnih oblastnikov se drži madež njegove krvi, ki ga oprati ne morejo. Ubili so ga, ker so se ga bali. Leta 1942 so komunisti pobijali pred vsem vodilne slovenske osebnosti, ki so se jih bali. Natlačen je bil med temi. Ne da bi jim kaj žalega grozilo od njega. Niti najmanj! Balo so se ga, ker je bil "gospod", vzor slovenskega možaka — poštenjaka, ki je zmagoval in osvajal s pravičnostjo in plemenitostjo.

Dr. Ludve Puš.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

JOLIET, III. — Pred par dnevi ko to le pišem sem v senci prebiral stare publikacije, katerih nekaj še imam in hranim kot nekak spomin na nekdanje čase naše Ameriške Slovenije, ki datira desetletja nazaj v preteklost. Še sem imel v mislih pisati nekaj o pripravah naših političnih strank za prihodnjo leto, pa mi je nekaj v duši reklo: slovenski sinko, o nekdanjih veselih časih med nami Slovenci v tej deželi kaj napiši. In ob tem opozorilo, ki ne vem od kod je prišlo, sem v spominskem gledanju na nekdanje čase res zagledal marsikaj, ki je vredno občudovanja in bi bilo greh, da se ne bi tega ob vsaki priliki spominjali. In te spomine mi je začela postavljati pred oči publikacija, ki o tem piše skoro pred 30 leti.

V spisu sem bral o ustanovitvi naše župniške slovenske cerkve sv. Jožefa. Tam pravi: "Kot ustanovitelj in prvi župnik fare sv. Jožefa je č.g. F. S. Šušteršič, ki je pastirsko na tej župniji od meseca maja 1891, pa do svojega odhoda v staro domovino do 6. julija 1910, kamor se je podal po nasvetu zdravnikov na oddih in v svrhu zdravljenja. Malo manj kakor 20 polnih let trudoplnega dela je vložil ta veliki požrtvovalen voditelj v dobro svojega ljubljenskega naroda v slovenski naselbini v Jolietu. Čez osem dobrih mesecev je sadi neodjenljive boleznj izdihnil svojo blago dušo v stari domovini. Z njim je legel v grob eden velikih slovenskih duhovnikov v Ameriki. Umrli je 24. marca 1911. Spomin nanj bo ostal med Slovenci v Jolietu, do tler bo tam kako slovensko srce."

Ko sem zgornje prebral, sem se pomaknil v mojih spominih za 60 let nazaj. Najprvo mi je nekaj dopovedalo kako hitro čas beži naprej, nekaj pa mi je očitalo, kaj vi točasni ljudje storite, da se ne bi častna zgodovina naših pionirjev pozabila. Tem opominom sem sam pri sebi ugovarjal in zatrjeval, da delamo kar moremo, da se to ne pozabi, ampak da ostane kot nekak časten spomenik v čast in priznanje vsega nam ameriškim Slovencem.

Koncem konca pa mi je druga misel dopovedovala, da čas hitreje vozi kakor vse naše domišljije in pričakovanja. Pred nami v prejšnjih stoletjih drugi narodi koliko so tu in tam prinesli za ohranjenje in rešitev kakih dobrih idej, načrtov in drugega. A je šlo večinoma v pozabnost, kaj ti pričakuješ, da bodo nam slavo peli na vse večne čase. Svet in ljudje smo taki, kakršni smo, danes taki, jutri taki.

V tem je nekaj resnice. Ampak na drugi strani kdor sam hvaležen ne zna biti, hvaležnosti in priznanja vredni ni. To je pa druga stran resnice, ki tudi ni brez podlage.

To bi jaz smatral, da velja vsem nam ameriškim Slovencem, na vseh koncih in krajih Amerike. Zdi se mi, da se o tem premalo izražamo in o tem premalo mislimo.

Takega njenja sem bil, ko sem čital tiste stare spomine, ki jih omenjam v začetku tega dopisa. Bom skušal prihodnjico o tem še kaj pisati.

* VEČJE IN VEČJE ODGOVORNOSTI so pred nami vse na okrog. Zanteve teh pritiskajo nas vse, posebno še na starše z družinami. Zvezni urad, ki se bavi s statistiko šolstva, je v Washingtonu pred kratkem objavil poročilo, v katerem pravi, da v naše ameriške šole vse od otročjih vrtcev pa do konca srednjih in višjih šol pohaja nad 50 milijonov mladev in mladenk. Vse te je treba hraniti, oblačiti, skrbeti za njihovo zdravje, plačevati šolnine, nabavljati knjige in še cela vrsta tistih: daj, ata in mama, za to in ono...

Ne dolgo tega sta se dve mladi sosedni hudovali, kaj vse dandanes otroci, kar zahtevajo. Prva je omenjala drugi, da ona je bila v njenih mladih letih zadovoljna, ko je šla v šolo, če ji je mati dala "nickel" — zdaj njeni otroci kar zahtevajo "allowance" po 25 in 50c na dan. Druga je trdila, da njej se prav tako godi. In kje so še vse druge davjave? Zraven vsega pa davka za šolstva vedno višji. Kje se bo to ustavilo in končalo?

Tako je, ljudje dandanes ne delajo več za "knofe", res pa je na drugi strani, da življenske in druge odgovornosti jim pa tudi vse sproti pobero. Po teh potih hodimo in vozimo naprej vsi dan. Zahtevamo več od drugih, drugi zahtevajo več od nas...

* REPUBLIKANCI MANJ VRIRAJO, kako bi prišli o kontrole v Illinoisu, obenem, a bi podprli in prispevali kar ni več mogoče tudi prizadevaja za zmago njihove stranke v predsedniških volitvah prihodnje leto.

Na čelu illinojskih republikancev vozita zdaj duhoviti senator Dirksen in mlajši senator Charles Percy. Oba se pogovarjata, Dirksen je poznan kot duhovit in spreten govornik, ki nastopati, kakor časi in razmere zahtevajo. Kadar nastopa kakor kak pobožen svetnik s svetniškim obrazom, ga pa kaj razpali, zna pa tudi mahitati, da tiste, ki se hite, kar v pete in bedra spet. Charles Percy je bolj resen, značaja. Z resnostjo govori in radi njegove resnosti mnogi po-rajta. Nekateri celo priporočajo, da naj bi ga republikanci nominirali za predsedniškega kandidata. Kaj si Dirksen pri tem misli, javno ne pove, misli si pa gotovo, kaj sem pa jaz naredil, da se me ne spominjajo s kakimi takimi željami, kakor tega le, ki je šele včeraj prišel v našo sredo.

V Cook okraju, kjer ima močan vpliv mlajši senator Percy, delajo republikanci močno propagando, da se nominira za državnega guvernerja, sedanega predsednika okrajnega odbora v Cook okraju, to je Ogelvie, ki je do lani bil okrajni šerif omenjenega okraja. Rpublikanci po ostalih okrajih države niso preveč navdušeni za Oquevilla. Smatrajo, da vodstva raznih položajev in uradov je treba razdeliti tudi drugim iz drugih delov države in ne le samo Cook okraju in Čikazanom. V tem bo od zdaj, pa do državne konvencije stranke še precej ribarij in borb.

Kake svoje kandidate bodo ilinojski republikanci zbrali, da jih bodo priporočali za svoje zastopnike na narodni republikanski konvenciji v Miami Beach, ki se bo vršila prihodnjega avgusta, še ni znano. Mnogi se silijo v ospredja. Glavno vlogo pri izbiranju bosta igrala senatorja Dirksen in Percy, o tem ni dvoma. Med nasveti, ki jih dajejo drug drugim, so tudi nasveti, da naj se stori vse kar mogoče, da bi v Miami prišla do nominacije na republikanski listi bivši podpredsednik Richard Nixon, kot kandidat predsednika in kandidat za podpredsednika Everett Dirksen. Mnogi so pa za Percyja za predsedniškega kandidata in za Ronald Reagana kot podpredsednika.

To so seveda glasovi od ilinojskih republikancev. Drugi, kot v Michiganu, New Yorku in drugod, razstavljajo javnosti na oglede svoje kandidate. Predsednik bi bil vsak rad. Ko sem o tem govoril z Nickom z Nicholson street je djal: "Veš Tone, politikarji so tiči. Kadar se branijo kakih časti ali položajev, to pomeni, da si jih želijo! Jih je treba poznati! Vsakemu diši Bela hiša v Washingtonu. Če bi jo meni kdo ponudil, bogme, je šaljivo povdaril, zraven pa še tudi jaz bi se je ne branil!" — dostavil: "A veš, nimam straha, da mi jo bo kdo ponujal."

Zdaj je se prezgodaj o vsem tem govoriti in razpravljati, bo še dosti časa in kake zaključke bomo delali o tem na našem hribu jaz, Nick in Jure, bom kaj povedal in poročal potem, ko bomo gotovi s stiskanjem in prešanjem ta sladkega. Takrat bomo bolj zgovorni in modri. Do tedaj pa vsi iskreno pozdravljeni!

Tone s hriba.

Vabilo na družabni večer

CLEVELAND, O. — Že zopet zabavni večer! — pogodnjajo včasih starejši ljudje, kadar naletijo v časopisu na vabilo na družabno prireditev. Mladi pa so takih vabil vesel, v ker vedo, da je na domačih družabnih prireditvah veliko sproščenejša veselja in poštene zabave.

Društvo SPB Cleveland že sedaj vabi za soboto, 28. oktobra, na zabavni večer s plesom v Baragovem domu. Igral bo znani Trio mladih mornarjev. Že od 7. ure naprej bodo servirali okusno telečjo pečenko s prikupami. Prispevek kot vstopnina je 1 dolar, večerja 2 dolarja.

Koledar društvenih prireditev je kar dobro ogledalo udeleževanja slovenskih organizacij. Še vedno — hvala Bogu — je za mesece naprej težko ujeti nezasedene sobote ali nedelje in dokler bo koledar slovenskih društvenih prireditev tako do-ženska v moderni družbi

Nacionalni inštitut za demografske študije v Parizu je ob sodelovanju generalnega planskega komisariata izdal zanimivo študijo o položaju ženske v moderni družbi, pri čemer je še posebej poudarjen pomen poklicnega dela. Študija temelji na preiskavah in statističnih podatkih, osnovne ugotovitve pa na splošno ne veljajo samo za Francijo, marveč tudi za druge dežele s podobnimi razmerami.

Razlogi, zaradi katerih je ženska spremenila in spreminja svoj družbeni in poklicni položaj, so dosti globlji, kot ljudje navadno mislijo. Gre za strukturalne razloge in ne le za preproste spremembe v navadah.

Prvi pomembni dejavnik je podaljšanje človeškega življenja: od tridesetih let v 18. stoletju na več kot sedemdeset let v današnjih časih. Medtem ko je v 18. stoletju komaj vsak drugi otrok doživel dvajseto leto, se pravi, da je polovica ljudi umrla pred to starostjo, jih danes tako bro izpolnjen, nas ni treba skrbeti, da bo slovensko društveno življenje med nami zamrlo.

Društvene družabne prireditve so stik organizacije s širšo javnostjo. Pravo delo in namen organizacije se odražajo le na članskih sestankih, sejah, predavanjih, razgovorih o tekočih problemih. Takega delovanja, ki se skozi celo leto vleče iz dneva v dan, skoraj vsak teden ali mesec, javnost ne opazi in deloma tudi ne upošteva. Zato je lepa udeležba na družabnih prireditvah priznanje javnosti za vso tiho delo organizacije kot celote, njenih funkcionarjev in članov, obenem pa učinkovit pripomoček k vzdrževanju organizacije.

Zato z veseljem pridite v soboto, 28. oktobra, v Baragov dom, na družabno prireditev Društva SPB, Cleveland.

"Naša zvezda" bo nastopila

EUCLID, O. — Dramatsko društvo "Naša zvezda" bo 5. novembra nastopilo na odru Slov. društvenega doma na Recher Avenue z veseligrig Tri sestre. Igra je v treh dejanjih in prikazuje značilno življenje nekdanje slovenske vasi.

Kmečki gospodar Orel in žena Helena imata tri odrasle hčere, od katerih ima vsaka svoj, popolnoma različen značaj. Majda je pretirano pobožna, Špela trmasta, Ančka silno domišljava. V takih okoliščinah pride velikokrat do prepira.

Igra je vseskozi živahna in napeta, zato se ne boste dolgočasili. Preprežena je s pristnim kmečkim humorjem, ki blagodejno vpliva na živce. Nastopili bodo preskušeni igralci: Frank Kokal, Lou Smrdel, Marion Bashel, Marija Skrbis, Stan Skrbis, Frances Modic, Jennie Primc, Joyce Plemel in Vinko Zgonik.

Sezite po vstopnicah, ko vam jih bodo igralci ali drugi člani društva ponudili. Rezervirajte si ta dan in pridite na igro. Veseli in zadovoljni boste, prijeten popoldan vam bo ostal dolgo v spominu.

Pozdravljeni in na svidenje! Frances Modic umre le pet odstotkov. Polovica žensk, ki se je omožila, je pomrla pred svojim petinpetdesetim letom, medtem ko jih danes polovica živi dlje kot sedemdeset let. V 18. stoletju je ženska, ki se je omožila pri trindvajsetih letih in ki je umrla pri petdesetih, imela povprečno sedem do osem otrok. Potemtakem je skoraj vse zakonsko življenje prebilo v pričakovanju otroka ali v negovanju novorojencev, ki so si kar sledili. Dandanes je število otrok v družinah dosti manjše, povprečje je komaj nekaj večje od treh. Mat, ki ima petintrideset do štirideset let, je danes že skoraj popolnoma vzgojila otroke, oziroma je za njo najtežji del vzgoje. Tako ima pred seboj povprečno še petintrideset let življenja, izmed katerih jih je najmanj petindvajset gospodarsko produktivnih.

Potemtakem se ženska, ki je bila nekoč na svetu samo zato, da je rodila in vzgajala otroke, spreminja v človeško bitje, ki po tistem, ko opravi svojo dolžnost nadaljevanja vrste, postane intelektualno in gospodarsko vključena v družbo, v kateri je enakovredna moškemu.

Drugi pomembni dejavnik v razvoju ženske je sprememba v proizvodni tehniki. Lahko bi rekli, da človeštvo vse do začetka 19. stoletja ni poznalo stroja kot nadomestila za moč mišic, ki je pri moških seveda večja kot pri ženskah. Zato je bil moški v prevladujočem položaju. Toda nenehni napredek in uporabi strojev in njih izpopolnjevanje ne zahtevata več toliko telesnih moči, marveč intelektualne in psihološke vrline. Tako je ženska tudi pri razlikovanju in specializaciji dela lahko vključila v proizvodni postopek in postala enaka moškemu. Dandanes veliko število gospodinskih aparatov omogoča celo tako imenovani "gospodinj", da ima več prostega časa in je njen položaj še bolj podoben moškemu. Dodatni je treba tudi ugotovitev, da bo pomanjkanje delovne sile še čedalje večje, če ženske ne bodo še intenzivneje zaposlene.

Tretji dejavnik, ki je povezan z današnjo potrebo po intelektualnih zmogljivostih, je šolska izobrazba. V Franciji so deklice začele hoditi v osnovno šolo leta 1850, v šolo druge stopnje pa leta 1880, medtem ko so enakost v šolskih programih za otroke obeh spolov uvedli šele leta 1924. Podobno je bilo tudi v drugih zahodnoevropskih deželah. Dandanes je ženska lahko prav tako izobrazena kot moški in potemtakem prav tako sposobna sodelovati v gospodarskem in družbenem življenju.

"Times" o špagetih

Londonski "Times" je silno odločno napadel predlog uvoznikov, da bi za Britance prodajali skrajšane v obliko prstana "zveržene" špagete. Takšne špagete bi bilo mogoče jesti z žlico. Toda z njimi bi človek pojedel manj omake in — "konec koncev res ni tako težko jesti špagetov z vilicami".

Reseni člankar nato navaja besede Italijana Marinettija: "Italijani pojedjo preveč testenin, zato pa so tako zaspani, in ne moški."

IZ NAŠIH VRST

CLEVELAND, O. — Cenjeno uredništvo! Priloženo Vam pošiljam ček v znesku $16.00 za celoletno naročnino Ameriške Domovine, katero zelo rada berem. Poleg svetovnih novic me posebno zanimajo domače vesti, da se tako seznanim z dogodki naših ljudi v domovini in iz ostalega sveta.

Zelim Vam mnogo uspeha v Vašem časnikarskem delu in Vas prav lepo pozdravljam! Karolina Kess

OTROŠKI KOTIČEK

Vreme se je kar na mah sprevrglo in po prijetni toploti je potegnila mrzlo sapa. Samo dobro sem pomolil iz šendice in že sem nabasal prehladek. Glava kot čeber, iz nosa teče in ves sem kilav, da se me Bog usmili. Saj pravim: starost je kakor mehka tepka.

Pisem imam kar čedno kopicico. Hudo ste bili pridni in zdaj jih prebiram in odbiram. Ker mi tudi iz oči lije, mi je prav nerodno. Dva robca imam na mizici: enega za nos in enega za oči. In oba sta kar naprej v rabi.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Prišla je jesen in šola. Letos v počitnicah sem dosti videl. Bil sem dvakrat v Chautogua v državi New York. Obiskali smo Mojco. Tam je zelo lepo. Sli smo še v Kanado. Pri stricu sem vozil traktor. Sli smo tudi h kanalu. Videli smo velike tovarne ladje, kako so jih spuščali skozi zatvornice. Bil sem tudi prvič na ladji. V kanalu je bil zasidron ameriški rušilec. Lahko smo šli na ladjo gledat topove, radar in helikopterje. Ali si bil Ti že kdaj na taki ladji? Dobro se imej in kupi drugega mucka. Lepe pozdrave

Nejči Slak

Dragi Nejče! Najprvo se močno lepo zahvalim za kartico, ki si mi jo poslal iz Kanade. In se zahvalim tudi vsem, ki ste bili na njej podpisani. Uh, ne veš, kako nazarensko sem bil veseli pozdravov. Starina pa še dobi pošto. Vse otroške kartice imam skrbno shranjene. Kadar ni nobene pošte, pa tiste kartice prebiram in se mi zdi, da je poštar ravno prišel. Veliko lepega si videl in še na ladji si bil. Jaz nisem bil nikoli. Ko sem bil v Tvojih letih, sem se včasih na ploho malo vozil po Tržiški Bistrici. To je bilo vse. Saj veš, ko sem bil jaz majhen, se je svet šele dobro sukati začel. Ni še bilo vsega in od Podbrezj do morja je bilo več kot teden dni hoda. Jaz pa v tistem času še do Dupelj nisem prišel. Ko sem malo zrasel, sem bil pri oranju za poganjčiča. Nad konjem sem runkal, če je narobe stopil. O traktorju se mi še sanjalo ni. Svet hudo napreduje. Mi svetuješ, da bi kupil drugega mucka. Saj se je pri tepla neka kanalja. Eno metlo sem že izbral zavoljo nje. Strašno neolikana živalica je, še senca ne morega starega prijatelja. Lepo Te pozdravljam, Nejči.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Počitnice so minile. Šolsko leto se je pričelo in kar rada sem šla nazaj v šolo. Tudi slovensko šolo rada obiskujem. Upam, da se bom tudi letos tako dobro učila kakor pretekla leta. Kako si kaj Ti, stric? Ali si bil kje za počitnice? Kako so kaj Tvoje stare kosti? Moje kosti za zdaj so še kar dobre. Želim Ti, da bi se dobro počutil in da nam boš delal veselje s svojim Kotičkom. Lepo Te pozdravlja Tvoja

Darinka Mauser

Draga Darinka! Šola je pametna stvar in sem vesel, da rada hodiš tudi v slovensko šolo. Za počitnice sem šel samo okrog bloka, to pa zavoljo tega, ker denarčka ni in moje stare kosti so tako razškatljane, da me ne drže dobro. Da so Tvoje trdne, verjamem. Saj so tako mlade, da so bolj hrustanc kot kosti. Le počakaj, kom prideš v moja leta. Še s parico se človek težko odganja. Tvojih želja sem vesel in vesel sem, da rada pogledaš otroški Kotiček. Tudi iz njega se boš naučila domače besede, če boš vsega prebrala vsak petek. Od kod je pa Tvoj ata doma? Se mi zdi, da sem to ime že nekoč slišal. Dobro se imej, punčka, in lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Spet je začela šola in moramo se učiti in delati naloge. Vsak petek se moramo pripraviti tudi za slovensko šolo. Šele potem se gremo igrati ali gledat televizijo. Kmalu bo zima in bomo čakali svetega Miklavža. Če bomo pridni, se bo oglasil, če ne, bo prinesel šibo. Dragi stric, jaz vam še nisem pisala, ker nisem vedela kam pisati. Mislija sem, da moram pisati v Chardon. Gospodična učiteljica mi je povedala kam naj pišem. Oprostite mi moji slabi pisavi, bo pa drugič boljše.

Lepo Vas pozdravlja
Lilijana Grizancič.

Draga Lilijana!

Hvala za pisemce. Predvsem moraš paziti na vejice in na nekatere besede, da jih ne boš pisala skupaj. Recimo: čebomo je treba pisati če bomo. S pisanjem se boš učila in tudi naučila. Mlad človek se vsega nauči. Pridno hodi v slovensko šolo. Do Miklavža je še daleč, punčka. Prišel pa bo in kar za gotovo vem, da Ti bo kaj prinesel. Po Tvojemu imenu bi sodil, da si prišla s Primorskega. Še nikoli nisem videl Tvojega imena v Kotičku in sem vesel, da si se oglasila. Pridno se uči in lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Zopet se je začela šola. Počitnice so prehitro minile. Bili smo v Kanadi pa se nismo veliko kopali in sončili, ker je vedno deževalo. Ko smo se vračali domov, smo se ustavili pri Niagarskih slapovih. Zelo je bilo lepo. Barve slapov ponoči so zelo lepe. Upam, dragi stric, da si tudi Ti videl to lepoto naše domovine Amerike.

Te lepo pozdravlja četrtošolček

Tomažek Gorenšek

Dragi Tomaž!

Vreme je bilo letos res goleno. Dež na dež. Ne za kmeta, ne za gospodo. Niagarske slapove sem res nekoč videl. Se me je nekdo usmili in me zavlekel tja gori. Na preklemsko veliko vode pade čez tiste skale. Strašno lepi so bili slapovi tudi doma. Ne bom rekel, da so bili veliki, toda slap Peričnik je bil prav čeden curek vode. Letos nisem kolovratil po svetu. Na starost, ko se človek začne razgledovati po pogrebnih zavodih, ga nič kam ne vleče. Nekoč sem bral, da je star človek zapisal: Človek se zvečer zdrav vleče, jutraj se pa mrtev zbudi. Pa ni tako neumno zapisano, kakor se sliši. Tako je. Zvečer še žgance z zaseko zabeljene lahko poješ, jutraj si pa trd kot klada. Življenje se včasih nekam na hitro odtrga. Kakor slaba nitka. Tako, Tomaž, priden mi ostani in dobro se mi uči. Prav lepe pozdrave. Pa smo spet pri koncu. Pridno pišite, tudi berite in pripravljajte se, da se bo vsak izmed vas toliko naučil, da mu domača beseda ne bo delala težave. In tako mora biti, če smo Slovenci. Materinski besedi čast in spoštovanje.

Lepo vas vse pozdravlja Vaš
Kotičkov stric.

Kamelji oddelek

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Ne koč je bil oddelek ameriških marinov izvežban za bojevanje na kamelah. Oddečki na kamelah so bili v preteklem stoletju reden sestavni del ameriških oboroženih sil.

Urugvaj zamenjal blagoslanje za obsedno slanje

MONTEVIDEO, Urug. — Urugvaj bi bil lahko vzor dobre republike v Latinski Ameriki. Nekdaj je že bil. Tam je cvetelo gospodarstvo, srednjim slojem se je godilo dobro, reveži pa niso ne gladovali ne prezebali. Dežela je namreč po prirodi bogata, obenem pa ni prenaseljena. Ima torej vse pogoje za srečno življenje.

Pa se je urugvajska politika prevzela. Začela je sanjati o socialni politiki, ki naj bi kar tekmovala z vsemi socialno naprednimi deželami. Socialna politika je spravila v državne službe tretjino odraslih, druga tretjina dobiva pokojnine, ostane pa le gleda, kako bi čim manj delal in čim več zaslužil.

Na političnem polju je Urugvaj hotel posnemati Švico in vpeljal kolektivno vodstvo na državnem vrhu. Urugvaj pa ni Švica, zato je vrhovno državno vodstvo, ki so bile v njem zastopane vse večje politične stranke, gledalo le na to, kako da ljudem čim več da in tem manj zahteva. Ljudje so se počasi navadili na stanje, ki v njem dobrote socialne politike daleč presegajo stroške zanje. Dežela je zagazila v primanjkljaje v državnih proračunih, kar je rodilo inflacijo. Inflacija je rodila draginjo, draginja je rodila večje državne izdatke in primanjkljaje in tako se je začarani krog vrtil do lanskega leta.

Dežela je morala takrat na hitro roko spremeniti sistem javne uprave, dobila je le enega predsednika namesto prejšnjega 9-članskega kolektivnega vodstva. Na mesto državnega predsednika je bil izvoljen general Gestido. Upal je, da bo lahko delal red z običajnimi sredstvi, ne pa s silo. Pa se mu ni posrečilo. Nezadovoljnost z gospodarskim stanjem je gnala delavce in dijakke na ulice, prišlo je do izredov in Gestido je moral, hočeš-nočeš, oklicati obsedno stanje in krotiti demonstrante s silo.

Gestidov režim se bo seveda moral pokoriti življenjski skušnjaji in najprvo spraviti v sklad pravice državljanov z dolžnostmi, izdatke z dohodki. Postopajci bodo morali iz državnih gnezd iti iskat delo v gospodarstvu, upokojenci bodo dobivali pokojnine, kot jih bo premogla državna blagajna, štrajki ne bodo več mogli pomeniti anarhije itd. Skratka Gestido bo moral po svoje ljudem dopovedati, da si morajo življenje sami zaslužiti, ne pa računati pri tem na državo. V gotovem oziru stoji pred isto nalogo kot Tito.

Ker pa v Urugvaju vlada svobodna demokracija, so seveda komunisti začeli takoj organizirati, delavce in dijakke in jih vežbati v demonstracijah, izgredih, štrajkih itd. Komunisti simpatizirajo zaenkrat z Moskvo, niso torej še tako nevarni, kot tovariši, ki gledajo v Peiping ali Havano. Lahko si pa še premislijo. Vsekakor grozi Urugvaju nevarnost burnih političnih časov. Zato se je Gestido odločil, da bo vzdrževal red tudi s silo, čeprav ni osebno za močno roko.

Brezposelnost večja v septembru: 4.1%!

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Urad za statistiko v delavskem tajništvu je objavil, da je brezposelnost v preteklem mesecu nepričakovano porasla od 3.3 na 4.1 odstotka, več kot kdajkoli v zadnjih petih letih. Dosegla je stanje od novembra 1965.

A. M. Ross, načelnik statističnega oddelka, je izjavil, da je treba nenaden porast pripisati v glavnem ženskam, ki so se v nenavadno velikem številu odločile poiskati zaposlitev v času, ko je po splošni sodbi dela in zaslužka povsod dovolj.

Porast brezposelnosti je običajno znamenje nastopajočega gospodarskega zastojaja, toda tokrat o čem takim ni mogoče govoriti. Vse statistike trdijo, da je narodno gospodarstvo z industrijami vseh vrst na čelu na potu k novi pospešitvi in rasti.

Ross je razkril, da je ženska delavna sila v preteklem mesecu porasla za skoraj en milijon, pol milijona preko običajnega števila. Zaradi tega je število nezaposlenih žensk, starih nad 19 let, naraslo za okoli 250,000 od 3.9 na 4.9%. Odraslih moških je brez posla le 2.3%, nekako isto število kot v avgustu, prav tako je nespremenjeno število brezposelnih mladoletnikov 13.8%.

Čangkajšek se ponuja Maovim nasprotnikom

TAJPEI, For. — Politični gospodar na Formozu maršal Čangkajšek misli, da je končno prišla njegova ura, kajti prišel je do zaključka, da je kitajski komunizem v razsulu. Zato se je začel ponujati znanemu kitajskemu komunistu Liu Šao Či-ju, ki ga Mao menda smatra za svojega glavnega nasprotnika. Maršal je sporočil Maovemu nasprotniku po radiju — morda pa tudi po drugih kanalih — da je treba strniti vse sile in strmo glavi čim prej Maov režim. Čangkajšek misli, da je treba ustvariti splošno akcijo vseh Maovih nasprotnikov in nič ne misliti, kako so se gledali v preteklosti.

Čangkajšek je svoj oglas namenoma objavil 10. oktobra. Ta dan je namreč kitajski narodni praznik tako za komuniste kot za "reakcionarje". Ta dan naj služi spominu na očeta moderne Kitajske Sunyatsena, ki ga častijo vsi Kitajci brez ozira na politično pripadnost.

V Komunistični partiji ZSSR je 5% prebivalstva

ZGODOVINSKA POVEST

Spisal Malograjski

V.

Na svetega Matevža dan, t.j. 21. kimavca, so imeli v Kranju tudi že v tistih časih nekaj semenj. Na takih shodih Huberja nikoli niso pogrešali. Tako je bil tudi v Kranj prignal par mršavih konj in jih je najbrž zoper vse pričakovanje dobro prodal; kajti pil ni samo tisti dan pozno v noč, ampak sedel je tudi še na večer drugega dneva v Kranju v neki gostilni nižje vrste ter popival.

Toda ta večer ni bil videti ravno dobre volje. Podpiral si je glavo zdaj z levim, zdaj z desnim komolcem, gledal čemerno pred se ter govoril v enomer na glas sam s seboj.

"Vraga, da so se morale tako izjaloviti moje nakane," je mrmral. "Gašperjeva gostilna bi bila kakor nalašč za to, za kar bi jo jaz rabil! Kako lepo sem si nameraval urediti; zdaj pa ni nič, čisto nič iz vsega tega! V nekaj letih bi bil bogat, če bi bilo šlo po mojem! Hm, tam se je ustavil marsikdo, ki je nosil denar s seboj! Toda nič in nič! Pa ko bi mogel vsaj tisto njegovo punco pozabiti! A vedi ga zlodej, kako je to! Odkar vem, da jo ima drugi, se prikazuje njena podoba še pogostejše mojim očem! Ha, če bi se mogel maščevati..., če bi se mogel znositi nad tistim Gašperjem in pa nad tistim Florijanom! A ne pride mi poštena misel!..."

Huber je bil že davno zadnji pivec in oštr je zeval na vse pretege, se praskal po zmrušeni glavi in godrnjal, da je Huber lahko slišal, rekoč:

"Človek še po noči nima miru!"

Ali Huber se je malo brigal za to. Bil je v svojem razmišljanju in se ni dal motiti. Ko pa ga oštr naravnost opozori, da naj gre spat, mu reče:

"Postavi semkaj vrč vina, pa pojdi spat, če se ti tako mudi! Saj te ne silim, da čuješ pri meni!"

S tem je bil videti oštr zadovoljen; hitro vstane, da bi šel vina natakati, a v tistem hipu potrka nekdo na okno. Oštr pogleda Huberja, kakor bi ga hotel vprašati, kaj naj stori. Temu pa se vzbudi radovednost, kdo sili tako pozno v gostilno, zato veli: "Odpirat pojdi, pa je! Imel bom vsaj družino!" Oštr si še nekoliko pomišlja, potem pa vendar uboga. Komaj pa se vrne s tujcem v sobo, skoči Huber po koncu in zavpije ves iz sebe: "Hej, Cviter, ti si tukaj?... O ti Miha, ti!... Kod te vendar nosi zlodej, da te nisem videl že tako dolgo?"

"Po svetu hodim, bratec, po svetu! S trebuhom za kruhom po svetu!" odgovori prišlec ter mu poda roko.

"Zdaj pa le brž vina gori!" vpije Huber ves izpremenjen. "Nocoj plačam vse jaz!"

Oštr odide in se kmalu vrne s polnim vrčem. Huber mu plača takoj vse, kar mu je bil dolžan, potem mu reče:

"Zdaj se pa le spravi spat, če hočeš! Opravila bova že tudi brez tebe! Če te bova potrebovala, te že pokličeva!"

Oštr si ne da veleti dvakrat. Ne da bi bil želel gostoma lahko noč, se zlekne ob peči na klop in ni trpelo dolgo, ko je glasno smrčanje pričalo, da trdno spi.

"Nikjer drugje ni bilo več luči," pripomni Cviter, ko je bil potegnil nekolikokrat krepko iz vrča, "in že sem mislil, da bom prenočeval zunaj, ko zapazim, da je tukaj še svetlo."

"Si li tako pozno prišel?"

"O ne!... Toda opraviti sem imel... Tudi sem bil že v par gostilnah, pa mi nikjer ni bilo prav všeč... Kolovratil sem nato tako dolgo okrog, da bi kmalu ne bil mogel nikamor več pod streho..."

"Glej, glej, kje se dobiva!" pripomni Huber, nekoliko raztresen. "Dolgo že nisva bila skupaj, ali ni res?" "Dolgo!" pripomni tudi Cviter. "Nekaj let bo že! Postarala sva se že oba od tistih dob!" "No, take sile ni!" odvrne Huber. "Golobrada res nisva več, toda kar se tiče mene, se še nikakor ne prištevam starim. Trideset let, to ni kdo ve kaj. In življenje me še nikdar ni tako mikalo nego sedaj. Pomisli, pred kratkim bi se bil kmalu oženil!"

"N — nak!"

Huberju je bilo skoro žal, da se je bil izdal tako daleč.

"Pa zakaj se nisi, zakaj?"

Draga, ljubljena mati.

zaklad spominov na Tebe draga, večkrat prisili tibe solze v oči.

na povesti!..."

"Hahaha, potem pa že vem, kako stoje stvari!"

Huber je hotel zasukati pogovor na druge stvari, zato vpraša:

"No, in ti?... Kako pa se godi tebi kaj?..."

"Meni?... O dobro! Nič se nimam pritoževati!"

"Kake opravke pa imaš, če smem vprašati?"

Cviter se ozre po spečem oštrju, a ko vidi, da lahko govori zastran njega, kar hoče, reče:

"Ne vem, če ti smem zaupati?"

"Kaj?... Meni, svojemu najboljšemu prijatelju, ne boš zaupal?"

"No, no, kar molči! Vse ti povem, saj se ne bojim nikogar!"

Cviter pije zopet, potem pa reče, ko je pomenljivo z očmi pomežiknil:

"Prijateljček, jaz sem zdaj velik gospod!"

Huber ga premeri z očmi od nog do glave, potem pa pripomni, smeje se:

"Videti baš ni!"

"Pa sem, vendar! Pomisli, nekaj dnij sem že — vojskovodja!"

"Oho!" vzklikne nekoliko osupel Huber. "Koliko pa jih imaš pod seboj? Dvanajst, ali več?"

"A, ti misliš, da sem kak hajduk, kaj ne? Ne, prijatelj, ne! Prav pravi vojskovodja sem in imam jih nekoliko tisoč za sabo!"

Huber ga začne gledati začudeno, kakor bi dvomil, je li pri zdravi pameti. Cviter, to opazivši, se zasmee na glas in reče:

"Čudna ta, kaj?... Ne boš je iztuhtal, če si ubijaš še tako glavo!"

"Potem pa govori človeški in ne jezi me!" zahteva Huber.

"Ko pa ne vem, kake vrste človek si! Laiko bi mi napravil kake sitnosti!..."

"Beži, beži!" odvrne nestrpno Huber. "Saj me poznaš vendar in veš, da sem pripravljen za vsako malopridnost!..."

"Baš radi tega ni, da bi ti človek zaupal!" pripomni Cviter, na vsa usta krohota se. Bilo mu je všeč, da se je bil Huber tako dobro označil. "Sicer pa, kaj mi moreš? Če bi mi hotel škodovati, ti zavijem vrat, predno prideš do tega, da storiš kaj zoper mene! Vedi torej, da vohim Turčine. Tam doli blizu Novega mesta sem se sešel z njimi in zdaj ne bo nikdar dolgo, ko jih bo vse polno tod okoli. Mene so poslali naprej, da si vse prej nekoliko ogledam in jih popeljem lahko tja, kjer se bo dalo z najmanjšo nevarnostjo dobiti največ."

"Kaj vraga!" se začudi Huber, privzdigne nekoliko glavo in strmi v tovariša. Preteklo je nekoliko minut, ko izpregovori zopet:

"No, primaruha, lep kristjan si! Kaj takega pa še ne!"

"No, in ti?... Kaj neki bi bil storil pa ti, če bi se ti bilo tako namerilo, kakor se je meni? Ti bi si bil dal nemara pa kar glavo odsekati, kaj?"

Cviter je bil prezrl, da se Huber norčuje, in govoril je te besede skoro jezno.

"Kaj pak da! Jaz bi bil z radostjo prelil kri... hahaha!" se zakrohota Huber, potem pa nadaljuje resno:

"Cviter, pasjo srečo imaš, veš! Da ti povem resnico, kaj takega bi tudi mene veselilo!... Ali dveh bi pa ne mogli rabiti, kaj?"

"Mogoče!"

"In kam jo mislite udariti od tod?"

"Med svoje koroške brate po-peljem enkrat te preljuje Turčine. Naj pošljejo tudi njih nekoliko v krtovo deželo! Zakaj bi samo Kranjci uživali to srečo!"

"In po kateri poti jo mislite mahiniti?"

Cereal Tops Potatoes Au Gratin

Quick, easy and good are Potatoes Au Gratin made this way. Leftover cooked potatoes or canned ones are folded into a nippy cheese and salad dressing cream sauce. A topping of whole wheat flakes tossed in melted butter gives crisp texture showing how cereals streamlined ease of preparation make them ideal convenience foods. Bake and serve the dish with ham or pork. Then call your meat and potatoes man to dinner assured of pleasing him.

Potatoes Au Gratin With Flaky Topping

3/4 cup thinly sliced onion	1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup butter or margarine	2 cans (1 pound each)
1/4 cup milk	white potatoes, drained
1/4 cup salad dressing	and sliced or 4 cups
2 cups shredded Cheddar cheese	sliced, cooked potatoes
	2 cups whole wheat flakes

Saute onion in 2 tablespoons butter or margarine until onion is soft. Add milk, salad dressing, cheese and salt; mix well. Add potatoes; mix carefully. Combine cereal flakes and remaining 2 tablespoons melted butter; toss to coat flakes. Sprinkle 1/2 of flakes over bottom of shallow 1 1/2 quart casserole. Add potato mixture. Top with remaining flakes. Bake in moderate oven (350°F.) until hot, about 30 minutes. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Baraga Boosler Ball Set For Oct. 21

Time's a flettin', and the big night of the "9th Annual Masquerade Ball" is but a week away. The date is Saturday, October 21st; the place is St. Vitus Auditorium; the time is 8:30 p.m.

This "Masquerade Ball" has become one of the real "Good Time" affairs of the Autumn calendar of events. Recollection of the "wonderful time had by those attending our previous dances, is an inspiring influence on the Club officers and members to sponsor yet another of these enjoyable evenings.

While on the subject, it may be apropos to name the current officers of the Baraga Court Booster Club. Bernard (Barney) Collingwood, President; Raymond Nesky, Vice President; John S. Pangonis, Secretary; Anthony J. Urbas, Treasurer; Edward J. Kovacic and Anthony Strojic, Trustees. Our President, Barney Collingwood, who indeed has done a wonderful job, is also Chairman of the "Masquerade Ball".

While 'name dropping', a warm welcome is extended to our newest members of the Boosters: Frank (Tino) Modic, former local 'Bistro Entrepreneur', and John Tratnik, Manager of Grdina Bowling Recreation.

A final reminder to get your costumes, for there will be prizes for best costumes in many and varied categories. There will be an attendance gift for some individual. Music by our own "Foresters Four" comprised of the Germ Brothers (Al and Max), Dave Telban and Al Koporec.

Goodwill Offers Christmas Card

Christmas, that very joyous season of goodwill toward men is an important time for the handicapped of the community. At that time, Goodwill's clients receive the blessing of being mentioned in holiday cards designed for their benefit.

Goodwill's 1967 card, now being offered to the public, bears the inscription, "This greeting benefits the handicapped of Goodwill Industries." This is the method by which your holiday greeting creates an awareness of Goodwill and its clients.

Goodwill cards do not carry a price tag, but a donation to the agency will enable friends to receive the number of cards required for holiday needs.

A sample card, matching blue envelope and order blank may be had by calling 431-8300 or writing Goodwill, 930 East 70th Street, Cleveland, Ohio 44103.

Astros Boast Best Home Mark in History: 46-35

Houston, Tex. — The Astros had the best home record in their history this year, despite the team's ninth-place finish.

The Astros won 46 games and lost 35 in the Dome, exceeding by one last year's mark. The Spacemen's big problem was playing baseball outdoors.

The team won only 23 and lost 57 on the road.

In 1963, the Astros had a 22-59 record on the road.

Houston's final home attendance was 1,348,303, about half a million down from the 1,872,108 figure of the previous season.

Twins Please Pleis, Sign Lefty as Pension Gesture

Twin Cities, Minn. — Who says baseball has no heart?

With two weeks remaining in their four-way battle for the pennant, the Twins brought back their former relief pitcher, Bill Pleis, for the 13 days necessary to qualify him for a five-year pension.

Pleis was with the Twins part of 1961 and 1962 and all of the next three seasons, then part of 1966 before he was traded to Washington.

Pleis was 1-3 with the Senators' Hawaii farm club this year when he was recalled by the Twins, who had to purchase his contract from the Washington system.

It wasn't easy to locate the "Bulldog," who has an unlisted telephone number in St. Louis. A telegram did the trick.

Add Computer to Tennessee Scout System

Knoxville, Tenn. — Tennessee football Coach Doug Dickey is adding the computer to his scouting system.

The electronic machine won't actually spy on opposing teams. But reports brought back by scouts themselves will be fed into the computer for its assessment.

Dickey thinks the computer will help in several ways.

"We can get our scouting report on Sunday night instead of on Tuesday," he says. "And we can have a more complete scouting report."

Louis R. Erste's 80th Birthday

An excellent display of 'Fraternalism' was exemplified by Baraga Court No. 1317 Catholic Order of Foresters at a recent meeting.

Coincidentally on this meeting date, one of Baraga Court's most active elder members, Louis R. Erste, celebrated his 80th birthday.

Mr. Erste joined the "Foresters" and "Baraga Court" in 1910. Since that time he has been an active Forester holding various offices in the Court. He has participated and generously given valuable time to the promotion of all fraternal activities, spiritual and/or social.

For many years now, he has held the office of Senior Conductor. In addition, he has been the Court's "Visitor of the Sick" for the past 16 years. In this capacity, he visits the members who are reported ill and handles the claims for sick benefit.

It was, therefore, most apropos when at the close of the meeting, over 40 members in attendance stood and sang "Happy Birthday" in his honor.

State Secretary of the C.O.F. Max Germ, participated with the officers of the Court in the presentation of the birthday cake to Louis R. Erste.

The officers included: Chief Ranger, Dave Telban; Recording Secretary, Al Germ; Financial Secretary, Tony Urbas; Treasurer, Rudy Germ.

and Trustee, Louis C. Erste (son of Louis R. Erste, who was happy and proud of his Dad).

Full Time Field Representative of Cleveland District C.O.F., Frank Prijatelj, was also present.

There were refreshments, and community singing accompanied on the accordion by Recording Secretary, Al Germ, and on the banjo by Martin Straus.

It was indeed a pleasure to see so many members in attendance, and the Recording Secretary stated he is willing to spend 3 hours of telephone work each month if the resulting attendance at future meetings will be comparable.

New York Central Competes In 'Golden Freight Car' Contest

Washington, D.C. — Import-export freight traffic is receiving a big boost through the use of special cargo containers that can be picked up by truck from inland manufacturers, moved to seaport by rail, carried overseas by ship, distributed abroad by rail and delivered to foreign customers by truck.

Citing its pioneering efforts in developing this international containerized service, the New York Central System has entered the 1967 "Golden Freight Car" Award contest sponsored by Railway Progress Institute — the national association of the railway equipment and supply industry.

The New York Central was a Golden Freight Car Award winner in 1965 and received an "Award of Merit" plaque as a runner-up in five other years.

Known in the transportation industry as Flexi-Van, the Central's container service reduces handling, cuts shipping time and practically eliminates the problems of pilferage and in-transit damage. The key element of this service is an all-metal container, resembling the van of a semi-trailer truck.

Mounted on removable wheels, the container can be driven to a shipper's loading dock. At the rail terminal, where the wheels are disengaged, the container slides onto a specially designed rail car and locked in place.

For sea travel, the wheelless containers stack neatly in the hold or on the deck of a ship. Locked against theft and sealed against weather, the containers give shipper's lower insurance rates, require less warehousing, reduce loss and damage claims and afford other cost-saving benefits.

International Promotion Started

The Central's Golden Freight Car entry tells how it promoted this extension of American transportation know-how to world-wide markets by initiating an energetic marketing plan to demonstrate the advantages of Flexi-Van to American exporters and foreign distributors, and to help alert steamship companies to the growing revolution in containerized freight.

The entry shows how numerous advertisements informed international shippers of Flexi-Van advantages in four languages and in seven countries — along with articles prepared for newspapers and magazines at home and abroad. A portable Flexi-Van display carried the idea to many major cities and production centers across the United States.

New York Central executives fanned out across Europe to promote Flexi-Van through speeches and press conferences, while foreign trade delegations were invited to visit and inspect American Flexi-Van facilities. Major delegations from seven countries were among the many visiting groups.

Cooperative Effort Brings Results

The entry explains how Central officials also worked with U.S. Customs and other government agencies, shippers, exporters, and ship lines to bring about amendments to tariff regulations, freight rates, container rental provisions and other formalities that slowed export container movements.

Through these efforts, international Flexi-Van traffic grew 383 percent in 1966, and brought new recognition to this major transportation advance by earning a Presidential "E" Award for the New York Central, the entry notes.

UNITED APPEAL OCT. 16-26

Giving is a way of life for the many health and welfare workers associated with United Appeal agencies. They give their time, energy, skill, and knowledge. They care, and they share with those who are in need.

But dedication and ability are not enough. Funds must be provided, if health and welfare work is to continue. This year the goal for the United Appeal campaign is $16,739,044. All of us, by giving as much as we can, will help the 152 Red Feather agencies and the Red Cross to reach thousands of people in the Greater Cleveland area who are blind, crippled, aged, underprivileged, or lonely.

Giving to United Appeal is a way of life for all of us who care about the health and welfare of our community. One gift works many wonders. Share what you have in order to have a share in a happier, healthier Greater Cleveland.

Golden Door Award

Bruno Gebhard, M.D., founder of the Cleveland Health Museum, and an associate in Health Education at Case Western Reserve University, Department of Preventive Medicine, has been chosen to receive the Golden Door Award, given by the Cleveland Nationalities Services Center to Americans of foreign birth who have made distinguished contributions to American life and culture. Last year's winner was Dr. George Szell, musical director and conductor of the world-famed Cleveland Orchestra.

Dr. Gebhard will receive his award at a civic dinner, Friday, Nov. 10th, in the Hotel Statler Ballroom at 6 p.m. The event is sponsored by the Nationalities Services Center, a Red Feather Agency of the United Appeal, 1001 Huron Road.

The Golden Door Award was established by the American Council for Nationalities Service, and, until last year, all previous awards were made in New York City. The Award receives its name from the inscription by Emma Lazarus on a plaque at the entrance into the Statue of Liberty — "I lift my lamp beside the golden door."

Dr. Gebhard's honor was announced by John G. Papandreas, president of the Board of Trustees of the Nationalities Services Center. Wendell A. Falsgraf, past president of the NSC, is in charge of the event.

Most Clevelanders know something of Dr. Gebhard's distinguished career. He was born in Germany in 1901; became a U.S. citizen in 1944. He studied medicine at Berlin, Munich and Rostock, and obtained his M.D. degree in 1924.

He has been curator of the German Hygiene Museum, Dresden; Executive Secretary, exhibition, "Mother and Child", Vienna, Austria; Executive Secretary, Child Health and School Hygiene, International Hygiene Exposition, Dresden; Scientific Director of Exposition office, City of Berlin; Exhibition, "The Women", 1933; Heredity and Eugenics, Pasadena, 1934; "Wonder of Life", 1935.

In 1940 he became director of the Cleveland Health Museum, which he founded and headed until 1965. The Cleveland Health Museum was the first of its kind in the Western World and flourished under Dr. Gebhard's directorship. At the present it is considered one of the best in the entire world.

In 1955 Dr. Gebhard spent ten weeks in Germany, lecturing on behalf of the State Department. He published two books: "Wonder of Life" (German) 1937 and "Life of Woman in Health and Disease" (German) 1940. Plus some 144 articles in national and international journals in the field of family life education, Geriatrics, Patient Education, Museum Planning and Management, History of Public Health and Museums.

He is affiliated with the International Council of Museums (Paris), American Medical Association, American Public Health Association, American Association for History of Medicine, Board Member of the Diabetes Association, Academy of Medicine, Chamber of Commerce, Health Council, Citizens' League.

His Honors: Order, II Class, Austrian Red Cross, 1930; Olympic Games, 1936; Special Citation, American Academy of Physical Education, 1947; Honorary Fellow, Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences, 1948.

Reservations for the dinner may be made by calling the Nationalities Services Center at 1001 Huron Rd., Superior 1-4560.

VIENNA SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA - OCT. 15

After a triumphant American debut tour during the Spring of 1964, the Vienna Symphony Orchestra is returning to the United States this fall under the baton of its permanent conductor, Wolfgang Sawallisch. The Cleveland Opera Association is sponsoring its appearance at the Music Hall on Sunday, October 15th at 3:00 p.m. The program will be Symphony No. 5 by Schubert, Ein Heldenleben, a tone poem by Strauss, and Concerto a Ballo by Alfred Uhl, a work commissioned specially for this tour and dedicated to the Vienna Symphony and its conductor.

Wolfgang Sawallisch is one of the Old World's most brilliant and rapidly rising young conductors, having earned a formidable reputation as a major musical figure before reaching the age of 40. His association with the Vienna Symphony began in 1957, and in 1960, at the age of 37, he was appointed chief conductor. He has been singled out by Harold Schonberg, chief critic of the New York Times, as "One of Europe's best conductors."

The Vienna Symphony Orchestra is Vienna's only exclusively concert orchestra, and is the official orchestra of the Vienna Festival. In its sixty-odd years of service to music and to the City of Music, the orchestra has won renown as one of Europe's major symphonic organizations.

The Cleveland Opera Association is also presenting Mantovani and His Orchestra on Saturday, October 14th at 8:30 p.m. in the Music Hall. Tickets for both of these outstanding orchestras are available through the Cleveland Opera Association, 2816 Euclid Avenue, Burrows at 419 Euclid Avenue, and through Higbee's Music Center where they may be charged by calling 579-3774.

Reporting from Washington

REPORTS BY P. D. BROWN • Washington, D.C. Staff, Oct. 13, 1967

Juvenile Delinquency Prevention and Control

Another bill passed by the House last week after two roll call votes was H.R. 12120, a $25 million program aimed at combating juvenile delinquency. Normally a non-controversial program, this year's debate lasted nearly six hours. The roll call votes were on amendments to give control of the program to the individual states and to prohibit any of the money authorized in the legislation from being channeled into programs funded by the Office of Economic Opportunity. The amendment banning any of the funds from going into O.E.O. programs was approved 241 to 132, and the amendment to provide grants to the states to carry out the program was approved 234 to 139. I voted in favor of both of these amendments as well as in favor of the bill on final passage, which was by a voice vote.

Of the $25 million authorized by the bill, 75 percent will be apportioned to the states on the basis of relative population, while the remaining 25 percent will be distributed on the basis of a formula to be devised by the Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare. Of the total, 80 percent must go to local communities, while the remainder will be used for state programs. Grants are authorized to cover the cost of projects or programs for diagnosing, treating and rehabilitating youths who are delinquent or in danger of becoming delinquent. It also provides funds to establish programs for special preventive services — including construction of facilities — for youths in danger of becoming delinquents.

The bill was debated against a background of sobering statistical data. For instance, the President's Crime Commission reported that one boy in every six is referred to the juvenile court. The House Committee on Education and Labor, which considered the bill, reported that while youths between the ages of 11 and 17 make up only 13 percent of the population, they were convicted of half the burglaries, larcenies and car thefts. This bill should prove helpful in meeting the crucial problem. With juvenile crime rising at an alarming rate, it is evident that we must do something to stem this tide.

RELIEF FOR INDUSTRIES AND WORKERS INJURED BY IMPORTS
The House has passed and sent to the Senate a bill (H.R. 478) to amend the Fair Labor Standards Act to establish procedures to relieve domestic industries and workers injured by increased imports from low-wage areas. I voted for this bill. Under H.R. 478, the Secretary of Labor would be given authority to investigate to determine if a particular product or group of products is being imported in such quantities that it is impairing or threatening to impair the well-being of any group of workers in the United States. The Secretary would undertake the investigation upon the request of the President, by resolution passed in either body of the Congress, upon application of employee representatives, or upon application of any interested party such as a town, county, etc. The Secretary would report on his investigation within four months after it was requested and then the President could take such steps as he deems appropriate to correct the situation — either through import quotas or other means.

Interest in the impact of foreign imports on the economic well-being of our Nation is not limited to one or another segment of our structure. It concerns all of us. The hearings on H.R. 478 repeatedly illustrated certain disadvantages faced by American labor when placed in competition with foreign labor's wage scales and lower standards of living. The dilemma is caused by the fact that American wage and hour protections obviously do not affect the policies of other governments.

The steel industry and its workers have been particularly affected by imports. It has been estimated that the total employment displaced by 1966 steel imports would approximate 83,000 people. One witness stated it most succinctly: steel imports mean job exports! H.R. 478 will not offer the complete solution to such grievances, but if it does nothing else, it will alert the Secretary of Labor and the American public to the needs and the problems in connection with certain imports. It is important for our Nation to be cognizant of these problems and to begin thinking about some of the solutions that we will have to undergo to make our whole system of imports more reasonable, fair and effective.

Cleveland's Senior Citizens

A dirty wooden bench in a downtown park, a three-day old newspaper from a cluttered trash can, a watered bowl of soup in some dingy restaurant, a bed in some cold one-room flat.

This is life for many thousands of Cleveland's senior citizens. You've seen them, on the mall or Public Square — the citizens of the street — wandering aimlessly through the back alleys of the city.

Every day, 1000 Americans reach their 65th birthday. Some of them have families, friends, and savings. Unfortunately, many of our senior citizens aren't that lucky. Their friends gone, their families in some other city, and their savings depleted by the years and the rising cost of living, they face the bleak prospect of loneliness and poverty. More than a decade ago, Greater Cleveland decided something had to be done to help the increasing number of older persons in our community. Thus, civic leaders carefully outlined a plan for a center for older persons, "located as centrally as possible to be available for all sections of the city."

Today, many of these plans have become a reality, thanks to the United Appeal. Cleveland now boasts three Golden Age Centers, providing older citizens with recreational activities, social gatherings, adult learning, and most importantly, a place to be with a friend — someone in their golden years too.

In addition to these centers, the United Appeal helps support eight homes for the aged, and the new Senior Information Center, a referral agency which helps older persons make the best possible use of all services available to them in the community.

All of these receive substantial dollar amounts from the United Appeal each year, helping them maintain their vital programs. Last year, for example, the Golden Age Centers received more than 70% of their operating budget — some $94,893 — from the United Appeal.

The first of the centers, the Lucia J. Bing Center at E. 39th and Central Avenue, opened its doors on August 1, 1955. Like the later centers, it is located in or adjacent to a Metropolitan Housing Authority building providing housing for the elderly.

Although the centers are closely related to these buildings, their programs and activities are not limited to residents of any one building or neighborhood. They are open to members from all sections of the city.

The programs differ for each center, but they all have the same goal: to provide senior citizens with companionship, recreation, and the chance to enjoy their golden years to the fullest extent.

A typical day at the centers might include classes in hobbies such as sewing, woodworking, or weaving, or perhaps lessons in English for the foreign-born members. Senior citizens have demonstrated a remarkable desire to learn new skills, and teaching them has become a major objective of the centers.

Each noon, the centers open their cafeterias, which provide senior citizens with high-quality food at a very low cost. A good lunch usually costs less than 60c. This is extremely helpful, because many of these people are living on fixed incomes.

Afternoons and evenings are always filled with activities such as social gatherings, club meetings, song fests, parties, or dances. In addition, there is always a great deal of spontaneous activity — card games, pocket billiards, and the like. It's a full-time program for the center.

And, if the center members ever need help from another health and welfare agency, the Senior Information Center stands ready to give them all the help and care they need, through counseling, health care, or rehabilitation.

Together, the Golden Age Centers, the homes for the aged, and the Senior Information Center provide Greater Cleveland's senior citizens with a full range of vital services — services all made possible by your one annual gift to the United Appeal.

This year's campaign is October 16-26, with a goal of $16,739,044. If the United Appeal is to continue helping all who need help, the goal must be met.

Immigration Act Marks Second Anniversary

Washington, D.C. — Dreams available.

Keep coming true for thousands of brothers and sisters and other relatives of United States citizens and permanent resident aliens.

On this second anniversary of President Lyndon B. Johnson's signing of the Immigration Act of October 3, 1965 at the Statue of Liberty, joyous family reunions are taking place in home after home across this nation of immigrants.

Relatives, often old and lonely, who had despaired of ever seeing their loved ones again, are together once and for all to share in the American dream.

On this happy anniversary, the humane new law is making reunions possible in greater numbers of persons from more countries from all over the world than ever before.

These happy family scenes are due to the legislation signed by President Johnson just two years ago on that golden October day in the shadow of the Majestic Statue in New York Harbor.

The legislation, which had been recommended by a Democratic president and then approved by a Democratic Congress, wiped out once and for all the injustices of the long-standing national origins quota system.

This system, which said persons born in some foreign countries were better than those born in others, produced the sorrow of broken homes and family separations. Families were kept apart because a husband or a wife or a child had been born in the wrong place.

But with a stroke of his pen on that bright October Sunday, President Johnson ended what he called a "very deep and painful flaw in the pattern of American justice."

In the future, the President promised, those wishing to come to America to live will be admitted on the basis of their skills and their close relationship to relatives already here.

Today immigrants from all over the globe — from areas of Europe, Asia and Africa which for so long had been the victims of harsh discrimination — are arriving in a steady stream to rejoin their families because of the Immigration Act of 1965 which became law during the administration of Johnson.

And while the homes of America are brightened today by these joyous family reunions, the nation's network of business and industry hums with the skills of immigrants who have benefitted from the 1965 law also.

Many of these new immigrants are people of skill and talent who were denied the blessings of this land of freedom and opportunity because of harsh quota restrictions. They come from southern or eastern Europe or from one of the developing continents of the world.

Today they are welcome, although admitted with due consideration for the American workingman, and before being admitted as immigrants the Labor Department is required by law to certify that qualified workers are not available in the United States for the jobs they seek.

And no matter where these new late-twentieth century pilgrims gather in the United States — whether around the family dining table or around their work bench — they find a hand of assistance to them everywhere as they adjust to their new homeland.

Nowhere is that helping hand more apparent than in the offices of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, where the "government with a heart" administration of Commissioner Raymond F. Farrell is always

At these busy, friendly offices, the new immigrants, often nervous and uncertain, can get the information which will lead them to the complete fulfillment of all their dreams — American citizenship through naturalization.

They will learn that as immigrants admitted to the United States for permanent residence, they will be eligible to petition for naturalization five years from the date they arrived here.

However, they will also learn that, should they marry American citizens, they will be able to petition for naturalization only three years from the date of their marriage.

Thus, on this second-anniversary occasion, these new immigrants who have come to rejoin their families or to contribute their skills to a more prosperous America, soon will be able to enjoy the full rights and responsibilities of American citizenship.

They will then be full partners in building "our beautiful America," of which President Johnson spoke so proudly just two years ago in wiping out discrimination in the immigration laws and at the same time making dreams of thousands and thousands of foreign-born come true.

THIRD FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION TO SELL FOOD STAMPS AT TWO NEAR WEST SIDE BRANCHES.

Federal food stamps will be sold at two convenient near West Side branches of the Third Federal Savings and Loan Association, the County Commissioners, William P. Day, Henry W. Speeth and Frank M. Gorman announced jointly with Ben F. Stefanski, president and founder of the important Cleveland financial institution.

The food stamps, which allow low income families to stretch the buying power of their food dollars, will be sold at the Lincoln Heights branch, 2247 Professor Avenue and the Lorain-Fulton branch, 3404 Lorain Avenue.

The two branches of the Third Federal Savings and Loan Association are open from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The offices are open on Friday evenings from 6 to 8 p.m. They are closed all day Wednesday.

Eugene F. Burns, director of the Cuyahoga County Welfare Department which administers the federal food stamp program for the United States Department of Agriculture, reported that today's announcement brings the total number of outlets to ten. The Cleveland Trust Company began to sell the stamps in six of their East Side branches in July and the County Welfare Department operates two centers, at Crawford and Hough on the East Side and at 2905 Franklin Blvd. on the West Side.

"When the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights held its historic hearings in Cleveland in April, 1966, one of the most serious complaints made by welfare clients was of the limited number of food stamp outlets," Burns recalled. "We at the welfare department seized the challenge put to us and Cleveland today can take pride in the civic responsibility of its financial institutions who have also seen the opportunity for service to the community."

Burns reported that another complaint voiced at the U.S. Commission on Civil Rights — the inability

Corn Bread Comes To Veal Buffet

Paprika-spiced Hungarian cooking inspires this easy, tasty buffet. Veal Paprika and Parsley Corn Bread is a delicious two-part entree your family will love. Alongside, serve a pepper, onion and lettuce salad with oil and vinegar dressing. Then top rich, black coffee with whipped cream to carry out the Hungarian motif.

Veal Paprika And Parsley Corn Bread

Makes 8 servings

Veal Paprika:

1/2 cup all-purpose flour
2 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon white pepper
2 lb. cubed veal (1/2 inch cubes)
3 tablespoons shortening
3 small onions, cut in sixths
1 1/2 cups water
4 teaspoons paprika
1 cup dairy sour cream

Corn Bread:

One 12-oz. pkg. Flako Corn Muffin Mix
1 egg
1/2 cup milk
3 tablespoons chopped parsley

For veal paprika, combine flour, salt and pepper. Dredge veal in flour mixture; brown in shortening over medium heat for 10 minutes; stir occasionally. Stir in onions; brown 5 minutes longer. Add water; stir in paprika. Cover; simmer 50 minutes or until tender; stir occasionally. Blend in sour cream; heat thoroughly, but do not boil.

For corn bread, empty contents of package into bowl. Add egg, milk and parsley. Blend only until dry ingredients are thoroughly moistened. (Batter should be slightly lumpy.) Pour into greased 8-inch square baking pan. Bake in preheated hot oven (400°F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

To serve, cut corn bread in 4 pieces; split horizontally and place on broiler rack. Broil until golden brown. Place each piece on a serving plate. Top with warm veal paprika; sprinkle with paprika.
