Rededication of St. Cyril's Church in New York City

Walking through the east Village in lower Manhattan on Sunday, November 10, accidental travelers were surprised to see so many cars and people in front of a town house. A big party on Sunday at 11 o'clock in the morning! That would probably be too much even for New York, the city which proverbially never sleeps.

However, there was a party, actually a big party. The red town house was the Slovenian parish of St. Cyril and the parishioners had amongst them the Slovenian Metropolitan and Archbishop of Ljubljana, Dr. Franc Rode.

Little churches and chapels as well as big cathedrals always were for Slovenians places where they could find peace and home. Many Slovenians in Cleveland know that fact and seven Slovenian parishes which once existed in the Cleveland area confirmed that notion. A similar situation was in almost every place where Slovenians came "s trebuhom za kruhom."

In New York City in lower Manhattan, precisely in St. Mark's Place, Slovenians found a home for themselves and established a parish in the heart of Manhattan. There were so many parishioners that at one time up to three priests were necessary to take care of all the souls. As time passed, some parishioners died, some moved, and one priest was enough to take care of the parish needs.

The parish of St. Cyril had an important role during the War of Independence in Slovenia when it became the virtual Information Center of Slovenia. Recognizing that, and the need for Slovenians in New York to have modern facilities, the tireless and energetic pastor, Father Krizolog Cimerman, OFM, started a much-needed restoration of the house and the church. After Mass on Easter Sunday this year, the renovation of the church began with a special blessing invoking the guidance of St. Joseph.

At the beginning of the renovation of the chapel and the living quarters, together with a general "face lift" of the building, it looked like a generally simple task. When the work started, it was clear that just a "simple" restoration was out of the question. The old building needed a thorough restoration; new walls, floors, and ceilings were installed throughout the building, as well as new plumbing, electricity, and a new roof. New central heating and air conditioning units were installed. The church itself has a new ceiling, roof, lighting, altar and tabernacle. The original baptismal font has been restored and placed back into the church.

Local parishioners and associates contributed their time and talents to create the beautifully renovated church.

Fortunately, the Slovenian government donated over $300,000 for the project, so the major work was essentially completed and Archbishop Rode was invited to dedicate the renovated building.

The work that was completed under Fr. Krizolog's pastorate is tremendous. Whoever visited the building before restoration can hardly believe what they now see. As Archbishop Rode said in a television interview, "My first impression about the church is extremely positive. I have to praise Fr. Krizolog. Using his talents and enthusiasm he was able to renovate this church. Everybody likes the church. It is really something beautiful and Slovenians will use this spiritual and cultural center with joy and pride."

All the work in the building was done according to the plans designed by architect Edmondo Lacroze and Peter Rolih. The renowned Slovenian artist Bogdan Grom made the stations of the Cross, the statues of St. Francis of Assisi and St. Anthony of Padua and two chandeliers.

For the celebration, the Slovenian parish community prepared a program of festivities over the entire weekend.

On Saturday, the symposium of the American-Slovenian Congress was held at Columbia University with the participation of Silvester Lango, Tomaz Salamun, Hilarij Rolih, Bogdan Grom and Stephen Antalich.

Mass on the following Sunday, which started at 11:00 a.m., was the crown of the work and sacrifice of the entire Slovenian community in New York. The church choir joined with Vasovalci, a choir which had come from the parish of Ljubljana-Vic especially for this occasion.

After the solemn blessing of the church and new altar, Archbishop Rode, in his homily, emphasized: "The task of this house is to gather all the people of good will; for all Slovenians with pride and sensitivity in their roots, to live out our rich cultural heritage. It should be their home."

At the end of the Mass a special ritual was celebrated the blessing and crowning of a copy of the miraculous picture "Brezjanske Marije" which was donated by the Slovenian artist Jozef Vodan. The crowns which adorned the painting are the talented work and gift of Mr. Anton Babnik. Its impressive frame is a gift from the Franciscan convent of Brezje and was made by the famous Slovenian architect Jozef Plecnik for the original picture.

The frame is decorated with polished stones collected from various parts of Slovenia. This frame will again work for its original purpose, guarding the image of "Brezjanska Marija Pomagaj." And it symbolizes the presence of all Slovenians in the New York metropolitan area.

With the solemnity concluded in the church hall, everyone was invited to a catered buffet lunch with wonderful homemade pastries baked by the faithful ladies of the parish and washed down with good Slovenian wine. To Father Krizolog, we offer our heartiest congratulations and good wishes for the future.

During the hustle and bustle of the holidays how would you like to receive a message on your computer stating an earthquake has just occurred in the New Madrid Fault near Las Vegas, Nevada resulting in 2,775 fatalities, 14,918 minor trauma victims and 55,250 people are without shelter, all power lines are down, and it will take 24 hours before help can arrive? Shortly thereafter another message arrives indicating Marked Tree, Arkansas was also hit by an earthquake as well as Memphis, Tenn., with 1,875 fatalities. All power is knocked out.

Bob Mills, the knowledgeable person who handles MARS (Military Affiliate Radio Service) data system in Ohio, received just such a message last week. It was the scenario for an emergency exercise called "Rolling Thunder 97." All amateur radio operators who are part of the MARS network took part, relaying messages back and forth with HAMS in the effected area using only emergency power such as gasoline-driven generators, or mobile radios in automobiles.

The report they received said bridges were destroyed, airports knocked out, railroads wrecked, and ships unable to dock in ports. All sewage treatment plants were destroyed, fires raged, and displaced persons were in the tens of thousands.

This test was to provide emergency information from Washington, and coordinate rescue efforts, as well as provide communications between federal and local agencies. The exercise lasted from Dec. 3 until Sunday night, Dec. 7.

It is good to know that while most of us at this time of year are pondering our gift-giving probabilities, there are those vigilantly working to ensure the vulnerability of our nation is monitored, evaluated, and protected.

Especially now, it is often easy to forget that at all times there are people working around the clock in hospitals, keeping our roads clear, working in stores, old-age homes, air transportation services, police and firemen, military personnel who safeguard us from outside intrusion, natural disaster, and protect our health and safety.

As we think of our family's welfare, they are thinking of everyone in America's welfare. Thanks to our safety forces and service providers for always being there.

A couple of months ago I received a 4-page letter from the Harris Survey people asking about the service of the Post Office. There was not space for my name and address on the questionnaire, so I assumed it was sent at random. Shows, how little we know. I put the inquiry aside. Two weeks later I received a second letter from Harris asking why I hadn't responded. Anyhow, because we had good delivery of this paper for over 6 months in a row, I answered: "The Cleveland Post Office is greatly improved, but the mail going through the Chicago Post Office is terrible." I sent in the completed form.

Two weeks later there was a big story on the front page of the local newspaper saying a survey of the Cleveland Post Office shows their service is extremely enhanced, while improvement is needed in Illinois. So there you have it; shows how a simple input can in fact carry a lot of weight.

While shopping more often during this season I often end up with a large amount of pennies in my pockets which tend to weigh upon my trousers and bring them down a little bit more than is my custom level. The kids think I'm in their style league, but I'm not, it's just the pennies.

Question: Why do we still have pennies?

Answer: Taxes.

Pennies are useless. You have to collect a lot of them to amount to anything worthwhile. Then you have to wrap them, and again the wrapped pennies tend to pull the pants down. You go in a store and there is a little ashtray there with a sign, "Have a penny, put it in here. Need a penny, take one." So you can see, we don't want them. People even give them away.

If you buy something for a dollar. It's a dollar and seven cents with tax. You have a million pennies piled up at home but when going to the store, you don't take them because of their bulkiness. What happens? You don't have exactly $1.07. So you give two dollars, or maybe a $5 or $10, or $20 and cause everybody else in line behind you to start stomping their feet and throw you murderous stares while the clerk is fuming because she has to call the supervisor over to bring some rolls of pennies, which

WISHING FOR A REAL CHRISTMAS MIRACLE!

CHRISTMAS 1997

"JACK" is real. He is a street person who currently lives and sleeps out of a car, supporting himself by doing small, odd jobs. A few short years ago, life was different for Jack. Raised in a family that had a business and money, Jack systematically stole from them, resulting in being disowned by the family in lieu of being charged with a crime. He hit the bottle and begged for money and food for many years.

Five weeks ago, Jack visited a church for the first time in years. He continues to drink and is struggling to get on the straight and narrow path. Yours truly volunteered to talk to Jack's family and ask that Jack be given a chance to redeem himself. Jack is hoping for a miracle.

May the Miracle of Christmas be with Jack and with All of You !

causes further delays. When the pennies arrive, the clerks never simply open them. Oh no, sir. They bang them against the register drawer causing some to go flying in the air and landing all around the store, while creating further havoc.

And what do you do with the pennies in the change? They end up either at the counter ashtray, where they caused all the trouble in the first place, or else in the shoe box at home where they are never counted and taken to the bank which doesn't like to accept them anyhow because they make you put your name, address, account number, pin number, and social security number on each penny wrapper which discourages you from properly disposing of them. So they just sit there rotting and being of no use to civilized society.

And all this because the government wants your lousy two cents which you already paid taxes on when you got your paycheck. But do they really want your pennies? Yes and No. Yes they want the MONEY. But no, they don't want the pennies. If the store paid the government the 10,000 pennies they so grudgingly collected from disgruntled customers, the government would reject them. It has to be paid by check. No pennies allowed.

So there you are. Go figure. I just go along with the system because I know if I don't pay the penny, buzzers will sound, detectives will arrive and I'll be carted off to jail. And this being the season of good cheer.

So when you hear the song, "It's raining pennies from heaven," don't you believe it. The pennies are from the other place. And even if it did rain pennies, nobody would bother to pick them up anyhow. They'd simply clog our sewers causing further problems.

Last week, a wonderful customer brought us a box of flancate from Nosan's bakery. We all were delighted and began eating it. Pretty soon no matter what we were wearing, everyone was dressed in white spotted clothes. It was from the powder on the flancete.

The question was asked, "How can you eat the delicacy without getting the powder all over your clothes?" One person judiciously suggested eating it in the bathtub. Another said to wear a white shirt and white tie so you won't notice the confection. Another said to eat it outside during a snow-storm. Someone suggested using a bib.

Well, I have the solution. Grab a piece of flancate; delicately take a bite and simply ignore the crumbs.

* At this time I wish to thank the St. Vitus Slovenian School's St. Nicholas for the wonderful box of cookies he gave to Madeline, and the lovely stick he presented to me on Tuesday through his emissary Stane Kuhar. It's just what I have always wanted. Too bad there weren't some blueberries attached.

It is Christmas in the mansion, Yule-log fires and silken frocks;

It is Christmas in the cottage, Mother's filling little socks.

It is Christmas on the highway,

In the thronging, busy mart;

But the dearest, truest Christmas is the Christmas in the heart.

Take a Brief Vacation

By Patricia Coil
Euclid Travel

"Take a brief vacation" is the theme of the newest window display at Euclid Travel, 22078 Lake Shore Blvd., Euclid, Ohio. Recent studies by the travel industry indicate that more and more people like Marybeth and Keith Carroll are taking several short vacations each year, instead of one long one.

The Carrolls contacted Donna Lucas of Euclid Travel and asked her if she could plan a short vacation for them that would not be too expensive, would not start until Friday evening, and would have to be taken before Marybeth's chemotherapy treatments began in three weeks. Typically Euclid Travel was able to accomplish all these things.

Because they could not leave on a Thursday, a three day cruise was ruled out. Destinations across the country would have taken up too much of their weekend. Other destinations were discarded, because they would have been too expensive. Lucas researched Florida and GoGo Tours offered exactly what was needed for a "perfect brief vacation." The tour package included round-trip air to Orlando, three nights at the Holiday Inn Tikki Bird (outside Disney World), a rental car with unlimited mileage, and discount coupons for the Orlando area.

The Carrolls left Cleveland at 7:15 p.m. Friday and arrived in Orlando at 9:30 p.m. They had no problem picking up their rental car and were provided with a map of the area, which they used to find the Tikki Bird, which was a large resort hotel with 3 outdoor swimming pools, children's play area, full service restaurant, coffee shop, gift shop, and shuttle bus service to surrounding attractions. Their room was furnished with a small refrigerator, microwave oven and coffee maker.

They were surprised to discover that a disposable camera had been delivered to their room from the gift shop, a present from their family. It wasn't discovered until the Carrolls were on the plane that in all the excitement of leaving for Orlando, Keith had left the family camera behind. So arrangements were made over the phone for them to get a camera on their arrival.

Saturday morning they took the free shuttle to Epcot. The shuttle also went to the Magic Kingdom, MGM, and Universal Studios. "The plus part of the shuttle," said Keith, "was not getting lost and not paying the $5 parking fee." Marybeth said, "The minus part was the long walk from the shuttle to the main gate."

Since their time was limited, they decided that Epcot would be the most interesting place since they had both visited the Magic Kingdom in the past. It cost $39.00 apiece for a one-day ticket to Epcot.

The first thing they did was ride Starship Earth, which was located inside the Epcot signature silver ball. This attraction used animatronics and a huge movie screen to tell the history of communication from cave man's pictographs to computers. The ride took about 20 minutes.

Next stop for the Carrolls was Inventions, an attraction filled with computer games, virtual reality, and all types of hands-on exhibits. "People would help you if you had trouble working the equipment. Kids would love it, because they don't need direction to run these things," said Marybeth. Visitors who wanted to take a virtual reality trip through St. Peter's Basilica in Rome could pick up a virtual reality helmet at the Motorola booth.

"The advantage of going in the fall was that the lines were short, we never had to wait more than 20 minutes for any ride," said Marybeth.

Instead of taking the boat, they walked over to the World Showcase where they spent the rest of the day. Each country's exhibit was staffed with people from that country and name tags indicated exactly where they were from. Outside each country a menu was posted and people were there to take dinner reservations. All of the countries had some kind of video telling about that country and some even had rides. "This is also a great place for shopping and eating, but might be boring for younger children," said Marybeth.

"We started with Canada then went to Great Britain, where we sat in a little pub and had an opportunity to sample different kinds of English beer. The American showcase was the favorite of my husband, because you could have your picture taken with a Disney character. He had his taken with Minnie Mouse, mainly because the line was shorter than for Mickey Mouse or Goofy, or Chip-n-Dale. You bring your own camera, so there is no extra charge for this. Kids can get autographs of the Disney characters as well as having their pictures taken," said Marybeth.

"Mexico featured a great Aztec pyramid with a restaurant and street vendors inside. There were artifacts to look at and a ride-telling story of Mexico. China was filled with young Chinese acrobats, who performed balancing acts. Morocco had a Casbah, which looked exactly like the picture you see in travel books," said Marybeth.

In the German exhibit, Keith sampled the beer. They could have tried the German wines for $2.25 including the shot glass. The exhibit included a display of hand-blown glass Christmas ornaments. Visitors could have name or initials engraved on glasses. If you were staying on the grounds your purchases would be delivered to your hotel or the front gate for pick up later.

After looking at many menus they decided to have dinner in Norway. They both enjoyed hearing the Norwegian band and drinking the Norwegian beer. After dinner, they wandered around and finished the circuit around the lagoon. They looked at the outside of the new test track ride and wished it was open, because it looked like fun, said Marybeth. Then they went to the World of Energy and saw the Energy Show, which was a ride as well as a movie. The fireworks, laser show, and music started at 9 p.m. and lasted about 20 to 25 minutes. "It was spectacular. We were standing where we could look across the lagoon to the World Showcase and see all the buildings outlined in lights that would flash in sequence," said Keith.

Sunday morning they slept in and then drove to Daytona Beach, which was about an hour away. They stopped at the Daytona International Speedway, where for $12 they toured the track and Daytona USA (a museum about auto racing in Daytona) for two hours. At the attraction there was also the Ford 16 second Pit Stop Challenge, where people could actually be part of the pit crew. The Carrolls felt that they would have liked to have had more time there. Marybeth remarked after seeing the track that "from TV you just can't see how steeply banked those corners really are."

As far as Keith was concerned driving on Daytona Beach was the highlight of this vacation. It only cost $5 to drive the 10 mile stretch of beach, where they were able to park and enjoy the beach.

Monday morning they flew back to Cleveland after a whirlwind 3 day brief vacation. Marybeth said, "It was a wonderful and carefree vacation, all the planning was done for us, and all we had to do was enjoy it and we certainly did."

St. Nicholas: A Holiday Tradition in Slovenia

By Tom Celestina

AMERISKA DOMOVINA, DECEMBER 11, 1997

LJUBLJANA -- Two aspects of Christmas I find most enjoyable in Slovenia are the traditions and customs attributed to St. Nicholas Day, or Sveti Miklavž, and the nativity scene, or jaslice. Although both traditions are universally a part of the Christian practice of celebrating Christmas, how a particular culture celebrates these traditions can vary considerably depending on the customs that have developed over time.

Sveti Miklavž, for example, is more recognizable among children in Slovenia, while Santa Claus is more well-known in the United States.

My earliest recollection of celebrating Sveti Miklavž dates back to my school days at St. Mary's (Collinwood) Slovenian School. Each year we would perform a special program of song, dance and story-telling for our parents. At the end of the program, Sveti Miklavž would somehow magically appear bringing gifts of toys, chocolates, cookies and nuts.

Although I was not totally surprised to learn that this tradition is celebrated in Slovenia, I was, however, surprised by the immense popularity of Sveti Miklavž even among non-practicing Catholics. In every town or village, this holiday is celebrated in the same traditional fashion as I remember when I was a kid.

I had the opportunity to witness two such celebrations, one in Ljubljana and the other in Smartno, a small village in the outskirts of Ljubljana.

In Ljubljana, each year a large crowd gathers at Tromostovje (three bridges) in the center of town and along both sides of the banks of the Ljubljana river. Since it is evening, hundreds of lighted candles are placed on the river to slowly float down to the city center as a prelude to Sveti Miklavž's anticipated arrival. However, prior to his arrival, children are taught a symbolic lesson of good and evil and are introduced to the concept of the devil who parades among the parents while scaring the children.

At the appointed hour, Sveti Miklavž appears, standing on the decks of a decorative boat on the Ljubljana river accompanied by his angels. Once reaching Tromostovje, he disembarks from the boat and slowly makes his way through the crowd bestowing his blessings and goodwill. Eventually, Sveti Miklavž walks to the old part of the town underneath the Ljubljanska grad to distribute gifts to the children.

My second "sighting" of Sveti Miklavž was in Smartno, a small, closely-knit community near Ljubljana. Similar to the Sveti Miklavž program at St. Mary's, the locals gather in a small parish hall. The children sing Christmas songs that were taught by the pastor during their evening parochial classes. Then some of the younger adults performed a humorous skit which the parents thoroughly enjoy.

At the conclusion of the program, Sveti Miklavž appears bearing gifts for the children (but nothing like the BIG packages I remember seeing at St. Mary's).

Sveti Miklavž calls the children to the stage, and one-by-one, the children make their way onto the stage to receive their gift and a kind word or advice. Occasionally, some of the real young children are more wide-eyed and apprehensive, which often requires the guidance of a protecting parent. Others, however, managed to muster enough courage to quickly grab their gift and made a speedy retreat. Sound familiar?

Another holiday treat I find special to Slovenia is the particular care and attention given to the jaslice or nativity scene. In almost every house I visited, jaslice is proudly displayed like some priceless piece work of art that has been in the family for generations. Some of the jaslices were truly incredible with a large sort of carefully placed figurines, model-type buildings with working interior lights, and the use of real moss and pine branches. In many homes, the actual building and organizing of the jaslice is considered a family project which is clearly reflected in the masterpieces that are created.

Perhaps the most well-known jaslice is in Ljubljana at the Franciscan Church at Prešernova trgu. The immense size of this Bethlehem re-creation is a real Christmas treasure. This jaslice has rolling hills with pine trees, a mini mill-wheel waterfalls that empties into a small pool filled with live fish, large stone-like buildings with working interior lights, and, of course, the traditional kozolec (haystack).

Miklavž prihaja!

When viewing the entire jaslice in the silence of the church, one can genuinely appreciate the true essence of Christmas which we sometimes forget in the typical rush of the holiday season. Fortunately, traditions such as the jaslice and Sveti Miklavž have been passed down always enriching our Christmas spirit.

Chicago's Mysterious Santa

When it comes to Salvation Army donation kettles, somebody in Chicago sets the gold standard. But who?

Virtually every Christmas since 1982, an anonymous donor has dropped one or more gold coins in one of the 450 red kettles that dot the Windy City's street corners and malls. Last year the latest windfall was discovered in a kettle on the city's upscale Michigan Avenue. It was a U.S. gold coin with a face value of $50 and a market value of $350.

"I'd love to know who it is and shake their hand," says Robert Bonesteel, a Salvation Army spokesman in Chicago.

Salvation Army chapters elsewhere wouldn't mind a visit from the Chicago Santa Claus. In New York, the army's regional office can't recall a single such grand and anonymous gift going back decades. In California, army spokesman Bob Bearchell says, "We never get that lucky." One Christmas, he says, they did get some stray buttons.

The first mystery gift was five gold pieces wrapped together. Salvation Army officials think publicity about the donation inspired more; gold coins and jewelry started showing up in kettles around the city. Wedding rings began appearing, presumably from the recently divorced. "We hang on to them, but they usually go unclaimed," says Mr. Bonesteel.

In 1988 and 1989 no gold coins appeared. "We assumed something had happened to the donor."

Then the coins started turning up again.

Army officials in Chicago say they're offended at suggestions, aired on some local radio stations, that they invented the story expressly to invite copycats. Volunteers have learned other tricks to get people to give more: Playing music doubles the donations, officers say. Live music triples them. In Phoenix, volunteers wave signs that read, "Ding-dong" instead of ringing a bell, to avoid disturbing shoppers.

Nationally, the Salvation Army's 20,000 kettles raised $66 million last year. The chapter in Akron, Ohio this year is testing a new system that could give Chicago's gold coins some competition. It's a new, $3,000 kettle that takes credit cards.

Traditional Slovenian Christmas news

Right now in Slovenia we are immersed in Christmas preparations. I'd love to hear what others are doing for Christmas. I believe the Yuletide in the U.S. is modeled mostly from Britain, with smatterings of other countries thrown in.

In my family, potica is a big holiday item which is made especially at Easter and Christmas. My grandmother, however makes it all the time.

My wife's parents live in a small village and they are very traditional. They bake bread the traditional way. — In the house there is a stove in the living room which has an opening for making the fire which is brought in from the old kitchen peč (stove). Beechwood firewood leaves give a special taste to everything baked in the stove.

Advent wreaths can be seen on the doors of some houses and even some offices the last few years.

However, people are still a little bit confused about two "beings," Santa Claus and Dedek Mraz (Grandfather Cold), a Russian invention which became popular with the import of socialism.

A few days ago St. Nicholas brought some presents to people who are good, and a rod to the bad ones. Also given by tradition are a few tangerines, raisins and hazelnuts. But nowadays, children often get more expensive presents.

Internet News from Slovenia

A couple of weekends ago we had presidential elections in Slovenia. The old-new president of Slovenia is Milan Kucan who will serve for the next four years. In general, the president in Slovenia does not have the same powers as the president in the USA does. All important decisions are made by the Parliament.

Slovenian winter sports teams are active once again. Slovenian girls are very good in alpine skiing. They are practicing at Beaver Creek, Vail, etc., but will return to Slovenia before Christmas. The boys are worse than last year.

However, in ski jumping Primoz Peterka, who won the last World Ski Jumping Cup, is doing fine this year.

In the biathlon - if you follow the events in this sport (cross country skiing combined with shooting), Slovenian Andreja Grasic is very good.

The Slovenian basketball team won three games (against Greece, Germany, and Slovakia).

In Ljubljana we don't have any snow. You can find it in Gorenjska, northwest or in higher places.

Singing Tradition Continues

Along with the holidays come many traditions both old and new that add to the festivities of the season. One such tradition continues for the St. Vitus choir, performing our annual Christmas Concerts for the seventh year.

Over the years, our group has come together for the purpose of celebrating Christ's birth through song and sharing our gift with those who wish to listen. It is a time we all look forward to, enabling us to renew old acquaintances.

Most recently this seasonal group has grown in number, with ages ranging from 14 to 50-something. (Perhaps with the participation of our new high school members, we are trying to revitalize our old title of "The St. Vitus Youth Choir.)

And so, we invite everyone to join us in celebrating this season at one or more of our concerts. This year's schedule includes:

Sunday, Dec. 14 – at Sacred Heart Church in Barberton at 3 p.m.

Friday, Dec. 26 – at St. Mary Church in Collinwood at 7 p.m.

Sunday, Dec. 28 – St. Vitus Church, 3 p.m.

We hope you will come and be enlightened by our music. It is our intention to strive harder each year to bring something new to our concerts and keep our audiences captivated. So please keep these dates in mind and bring a friend. There are plenty of good seats available, and as always, admission is free.

Polka Hall of Fame Announces 1997 Winners

By Alice Kuhar,
Secretary

The coveted Crystal Awards from the Cleveland-Style Polka Hall of Fame were announced at their "Awards Show X" on Saturday, November 29 which took place at the Shore Cultural Center in Euclid, Ohio. A crowd of almost 1,000 enjoyed a spectacular production of nostalgic old-time and popular favorite tunes along with the music notables who made them popular.

Musician Jeff Pecon introduced Lifetime Achievement inductee Joey Miskulin into the Hall of Fame. Miskulin fondly recalled his many years in the music world and expressed appreciation to everyone who helped him along the way.

Second member enshrined as a Lifetime Achievement inductee into the Hall of Fame was Richie Vadnal who was introduced by his three children, Nancy Vadnal Douglas, Rick Vadnal and Susan Vadnal. Richie spoke of his musical family dynasty who formed his love of music and encouraged him along the way.

Six Trustee Honor Roll inductees accepting their awards were Steve Helvak, Polka Disc Jockey; Steve Popovich, Polka Producer and Promoter (who stated that we should hold a "Million Dollar Slovenian Man March in Washington, D.C.!"); Carl Rohwetter, Polka Publisher and Disc Jockey; Eddie Stampfli, Accordionist and Band Leader.

Accepting for the late Joe Toriskie, Accordionist, Band Leader and Promoter were his wife, Dolores, and two daughters. Accepting for the late Ivan Zorman, Sr., Music Director, Composer and Teacher, was his grandson Ivan Mihal.

Recipients of Annual Crystal Awards of achievement in various categories which were voted upon by members of the Polka Foundation, were:

Cultural/Heritage: Fantje Na Vasi

Support/Promotion: Val Pawlowski

Best Vocal Performance: Christine Hibbs

Button Box Group: Cleveland Lake Erie Button Box Club

Button Box Individual/Duet: Jake Zagger

Best New/Young Band: Frank Moravcik

Musician of the Year: Jeff Pecon

Sideman, Individual:
Denny Bucar, Pete Kuhar,
Ron Sluga

Recording of the Year:
"Frank Yankovic & Friends," Frank Yankovic
Band of the Year: Del
Sinchak

The first of the Greatest All-Time Cleveland-Style Polka Hits was "Old Timers" performed by Lou Trebar and Jeff Pecon who brought down the house as they reprised the old popular favorite skit of Lojze and Janez on their old button boxes. The second selection was "Top of the Hill" which was performed by the button box accordion duet of Ron Likovic and Fred Ziwich.

Entertainer from Slovenia, self-taught button box virtuoso Toni Sotošek performed a medley of his tunes which had everyone present just gasp with wonderment as his fingers flew masterfully over the pearl accordion buttons. Toni was introduced by Jože Prešeren, editor from Slovenska Izseljenska Matica (Slovene Emigrant Association) here to promote their English publication of "Slovenija" magazine.

A videotaped message from famous musician Eddie Blazonczyk congratulated winners of 1997 awards and also congratulated Joe Fedorchak on his recent induction into the International Polka Association Hall of Fame in Chicago.

Interspersed during the show was a Musical Salute to Past Lifetime Achievement winners. After the final segment, past lifetime achievement winners who were present came on stage for a bow. They are Eddie Habat, Norm Kobal, Al Markic, Tony Petkovsek, Al Tercek, Lou Trebar, Anna Vadnal, Johnny Vadnal, Paul Yanchar, Zarja Singing Society (represented by Jim Kozel), and Tony Vadnal who recently suffered a stroke, bravely stood up from his wheel chair amid thunderous applause, with wife Pearl by his side.

The Hall of Fame All Star Band for this year's show consisted of Bob Kravos, Jeff Pecon, Norm Kobal, Duke Marsic, Fred Ziwich, Eddie Klancnik, Denny Anderson, Ralph Delligatti, Jim Kozel, and Mark Habat.

Master of Ceremonies for the Awards show, Ray Somich, once again kept the show at a quick and entertaining pace. Others who helped make the show a tremendous success were Florence Unetich, Nominations/Awards Chairperson; John Zipay, Executive Director; Jim Kozel, Musical Director; Fred Ziwich, Musical Arrangements, Fred Kuhar, biographer, and

Following the Awards Show X, entertainment continued at the Marriott Hotel in downtown Cleveland with a "Meet the Winners Dance"

The Najevska Lipa, the Oldest Linden Tree in Slovenia

Below Mount Smrekovec, the youngest volcano in Slovenia – according to geologists, about twenty million years old – grows the Najevska Lipa, the oldest linden tree in Slovenia. It is mentioned in every serious Slovene botanical text, and a year ago Professor Viktor Petkovsek wrote that this was “the lipa of all lipas.”

The age of this lipa tree can only be guessed. The sides and center are so hollowed out that its age cannot be established by drilling, the usual procedure for healthy trees. The most probable estimate is supported by the date on a nearby shrine: 1222. According to this course, the Lipa is about 770 years old.

Standing about 90 feet high – not a particularly unusual height for this type of tree – its girth is astonishing: at chest height it is almost 40 feet in circumference, beating all Slovenian records.

The Najevska Lipa grows on Ludrinski vrh on the Najeviski farm, from which it gets its name. It grows at about 3400 feet above sea level. Below the edge of the forest where the tree stands is a mountain road, so getting to the tree is not difficult today. Before World War II, there was a bowling pitch under the crown of the tree where people from the Mežica Valley could sit and enjoy the shade of the tree.

Slovenian Cultural Center Lemont, Silvestrovjanje Party

An evening filled with fun, entertainment, good food and music is in store for all who want to welcome in the new year 1998 at the Slovenian Cultural Center in Lemont, Ill.

“We know everyone wants to be with family and friends on a night like this,” said Martin Hozjan, SCC President. So, the committee has been meeting and planning a really super evening with an excellent 3 course menu of home-cooking, a top Slovenian band from Toronto for dance music, entertainment by “Dimnikar” (Chimney-sweep), and fun-decorations including noisemakers and balloons. To top off the evening, the Cafuta Band from Toronto will help us count off the minutes until midnight.

Families with small children can avail themselves of the free baby-sitting service at the hall, and no charge for dinner for children up to age 14. Adults pay $35 and students $25 for the complete evening package. Doors open at 7 p.m. to accommodate those attending Mass at Marija Pomagaj at 6 p.m. For table reservations please call the Center at 630 243-0670.

“Even Slovenian champagne will be available,” said Hozjan, “so we hope everyone will join us to toast in the New Year!”

BEST WISHES

for the Holiday Season!

The Frances and Jane S. Lausche Foundation

Keep children occupied during the holidays

RADFORD, VA - At holiday time, children are off from school without the benefit of pools, picnics or other warm weather diversions. With little constructive activity, the chaos level seems to escalate. Kids' voices seem louder. Parents seem edgy. And those who aren't accustomed to dealing with children might find themselves wondering how to entertain and restrain the seemingly boundless energy of youth.

Spending time with children over the holidays can be easy or tough depending on your attitude and how prepared you are, says child psychologist and Radford University psychology professor Lois Kugler.

If you're wondering what activities to plan with children, Kugler has a few suggestions for how to make your shared holiday time pleasant and fun:

- One of the most important things is to provide a space large enough to accommodate a range of toys. Some suggested toys that almost all children love are Duplo blocks, Lincoln Logs, Nerf balls, puzzles, Play Doh (you can even make your own), or big boxes to make play houses.

- Art supplies are good for all ages, for example, washable markers, glitter, glue and magazines to cut up and make a collage (be prepared for a mess, though).

- If you have a lot of energy you might want to play large movement games or cooperate games where older children can help younger children. You might play cards, charades, hot potato, Dominoes or games that emphasize silence (to quiet things down).

- Activities might include making cookies together or making your own puppets.

- Have plenty of kids' videos on hand so that when you need a break you can sit the kids down for some quiet time with a video and popcorn.

- Kid friendly foods you might want to have on hand include hot dogs, pizza, sandwiches and ready-to-eat fruits and vegetables like bananas, apple slices or celery sticks with peanut butter.

- For daytime excursions you might be able to find kid-centered places like children's museums, but don't forget time-honored favorites such as city parks, zoos, libraries, the circus or puppet shows.

Your holiday time with children will be more pleasant if you're genuinely interested in what they say and do. Don't stress out and above all, enjoy your time together.

Car Output in Central Europe to soar

Boosted by foreign investment, the car industry in central and eastern Europe states is set to almost double in the next five years, said a study published on Monday.

The Economist Intelligence Unit (EIU) forecasts that car output in the region will rise from 1.89 million vehicles in 1996 to 2.12 million in 1997 million in 1997 and 3.67 million in the year 2001.

It said export production was to become increasingly important, with local demand expected to grow by just 40 percent in the same period.

Main countries included are Belarus, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland, Romania, Russia, Slovakia, Slovenia, Ukraine and Yugoslavia.

Dr. Rolih Helped Design First Nuclear-Powered Merchant Ship

AMERISKA DOMOVINA, DECEMBER 11, 1997

The construction of the nuclear ship (NS) Savannah, the world's first nuclear-powered merchant ship, was proposed on April 25, 1955 by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in a speech in New York. This announcement came at a time when, in people's mind, nuclear power was associated with the destructive force of atomic and hydrogen bombs and with the threat of total annihilation.

President Eisenhower's initiative was intended to prove that nuclear power could and should be directed toward peaceful purposes and for the well being of humanity. The project of installing a nuclear power plant aboard a merchant ship was of special importance because the ship could sail across the oceans and, thus, could be seen by millions of visitors in ports around the world.

After the original proposal was made public, the ship construction was authorized by Congress on July 30, 1956, and became a reality with the keel laying in May, 1958. The Savannah was launched on July 21, 1959, with Mrs. Eisenhower as sponsor. Construction was essentially completed in the Spring of 1961. She entered into service on August 2, 1962.

The ship was a joint project of the Atomic Energy Commission and the Maritime Administration. The design was completed by the naval architectural firm of George G. Sharp, Inc.; the pressurized water reactor was designed and built by The Babcock and Wilcox Company, and the ship was built by the New York Shipbuilding corporation in Camden, New Jersey.

Namesake of the NS Savannah is the steamship Savannah which, in 1819, was the first vessel to use steam in an ocean voyage. When she set out on her voyage, her holds and even much of the cabin space were full with wood needed to fire her simple boiler. The nuclear fuel on the new Savannah, on the other hand, was expected to last 3 1/2 years of normal operations corresponding to a capacity to take her 14 times around the world.

In a conventional steamship, the oil-fired boilers generate the steam which drives the propulsion turbine and, through a set of reduction gears, the propulsion shaft and propeller. In the Savannah, the heat source is a reactor where a controlled nuclear reaction takes place to create the needed steam.

The reactor is located in a huge steel containment vessel deep amidship and immediately forward of the bridge. Within the reactor there are 32 fuel element assemblies containing four bundles of 41 fuel rods 72 inches long. The fuel rods contain 682,000 thimble-sized pellets of enriched uranium oxide weighing a total of 17,000 pounds.

Boron stainless steel control rods inserted between the fuel assemblies are used to control the atomic chain reaction. On "shut down," all the 21 control rods are fully in place absorbing the neutrons released by the enriched uranium oxide, thus interrupting the chain reaction.

When the plant is "started up," these control rods are withdrawn to allow the neutrons to split the atoms in the uranium and to begin a controlled chain reaction. The amount of heat generated is governed by the distance the rods are withdrawn, which is adjusted by the reactor operator in the control room. Radioactive water under pressure (1735 lbs. per square inch) circulates in the Primary System and absorbs the reactor heat and transmits it at an average temperature of 508°F. to a heat exchanger where non-radioactive water produces steam in a Secondary System.

This steam is delivered to the power plant and drives the propulsion turbine. As in a conventional steam power plant, the steam exhausted from the turbine is condensed in a sea water cooled condenser and is returned to the heat exchanger.

The Primary and Secondary Systems are located with the reactor in the containment vessel, which is 50.5 feet long and 35 feet in diameter weighing 275 tons. The containment vessel is then shielded by 2000 tons of lead, polyethylene, concrete and timber.

Some of the most important statistics of the NS Savannah are:

Length, overall - 595'-6"
Beam - 78'-0"
Depth to Promenade Deck - 59'-0" Draft - 29'-6"
Full Load Displacement - 21'-6"
Full Load Displacement - 21,850 T.

Total Deadweight - 10,000 T.
Passengers - 60
Officers, Crew and Others - 124
Trial Speed at Normal Power - 21 knots
Normal Power - 20,000 SHP

Maximum Continuous Power - 22,000 SHP
Number of Propellers - 1
Propeller Speed at Normal Power 107 RPM
Turbine Inlet Pressure - 470 PSIA
Turbine Inlet Temperature 460 F
Main Condenser Pressure - 1.5 in HGA

The Savannah is fitted with six complete decks and ten main transverse watertight bulkheads. She is a passenger/cargo ship fitted with a teardrop-shaped superstructure, set sufficiently aft to enhance the shape of the ship's fore section, which tapers gracefully to its well-raked bow.

The construction of the Savannah was not intended as an economically viable enterprise, but as proof that the power of the atom can be used for peaceful applications. After the design of the Savannah, the firm of George G. Sharp, Inc. conducted a series of detailed studies for nuclear propulsion power plants aboard large container ships and tankers. Because the cost of the nuclear fuel is controlled and does not respond to free market forces and because of the large number of technicians required to be aboard a nuclear powered ship to meet the requirements of the Atomic Energy commission, none of the projects could be justified economically.

As it is well known, nuclear power plants continue to be installed on naval vessels, such as submarines and aircraft carriers, where the advantages of operating without the need for refueling and the capability of operating submerged for many weeks are of paramount importance.

After visiting many ports around the world, the NS Savannah was deactivated in 1970 and her uranium fuel removed. In 1981 she became part of the museum at Patriots Point, the world's largest naval and maritime museum in Charleston Harbor, South Carolina.

Finally, a personal note regarding my involvement with the design of the Savannah. I was hired as a naval architect and marine engineer by George G. Sharp, Inc. in March 1957. One of my tasks, shortly thereafter, was the preparation of the "Heat Balance" for the steam cycle of this ship.

The heat balance is the most important calculation to obtain the information necessary to prepare the specifications for all the equipment (heat exchangers, pumps, controls and piping, etc.) that are associated with the propulsion plant.

Also, this project offered me the opportunity to learn using the computer for my calculations. It is interesting to note that this computer was the first to be acquired by the naval architectural firm, and it was used mainly to calculate the radiation levels in the various locations aboard the ship.

In 1969, several naval architects and engineers of George G. Sharp, Inc. were awarded the Elmer A. Sperry Award for the development of the design of the NS Savannah. This award is given for distinguished engineering contributions to the art of transportation. I was among those so honored.

Keep Poinsettias Blooming

Poinsettias thrive on bright, natural daylight; at least six hours daily is recommended. A sunny window provides an ideal spot. However, in order to avoid fading the bright red bracts, you may have to pull a light shade or sheer curtain to diffuse light for an hour during periods of hot afternoon sun.

Plants prefer moist soil—not too wet, not to dry. When watering, watch for water to begin barely seeping through the pot's drain holes. Pour off any excess water to prevent root rot.

To enjoy the attractive foliage throughout the year, cut plants back to about eight inches in March or April. Plants may look bare; but by the end of May, new growth will appear. Keep near a sunny window.

By June 1, transplant to larger pots, two to four inches larger than the original. Re-pot using a soil mix incorporating organic matter such as peat moss, leaf mold, or redwood sawdust.

Temperatures should not exceed 70 degrees F. during daylight hours or 65 degrees at night.

Blooming poinsettias do not need fertilizer during the holiday season, but a balance all-purpose fertilizer could help maintain the green foliage and promote new growth later.

Do not place near a draft.

Starting October 1, plants must be kept in complete darkness 14 continuous hours each night. Put in a dark room or cover with a large box, in temperatures between 60 degrees to 70 degrees. During daylight, give your poinsettias six to eight hours of bright sunlight.

Your vigilance, perseverance, and patience should be rewarded with a brightly colored display to enhance your holiday decorations.

Where There's A Will

(NAPS)—Q. Is it true I don't need a will if I want everything to go to my family?

A. Not quite. While generally your assets will go to your spouse and children, should you wish to leave some specific item to one person in particular or to provide for him or her in some way other than provided by law, you need a will. Similarly, should you wish to dispose of some of your property to other family members or individuals, charities or the like, a will is necessary.

Where there's a will, there's a way to be sure your wishes are followed. A lawyer can help you draft one.

Estate planning with a lawyer or other professional can help ensure that the assets available to your heirs are maximized, for example, by structuring your estate so it's subjected to fewer taxes.

A simple will can be drafted by an attorney for a small fee. If you don't have a lawyer, you may find one by calling Lawyer Referral to help you with your will or any legal question.

Healthful Peanuts?

If you scrupulously avoid the peanuts at bars and cocktail parties, you may not be doing yourself a favor, says Timothy Sanders, a plant physiologist at the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

Sanders recently discovered that peanuts, long known to be rich in protein, fiber, and several vitamins and minerals, pack a significant load of resveratrol. That's one of the heart-saving chemicals called phenolics that have sent sales of red wine soaring.

Phenolics are powerful antioxidants, which sop up cell-damaging free radicals throughout the body. These compounds seem to limit the harm done by cholesterol to artery walls and are thought to battle cancer, too. It takes 11 handfuls of peanuts to deliver the resveratrol contained in one glass of red wine.

What is the key to a long healthy life?

One recommendation tops almost every expert's list: exercise.

The surgeon general cited regular activity as the best way to prevent diseases such as diabetes, high blood pressure, heart disease, and many types of cancer. It also enables people to age better.

The report concluded that even people who engage in light exercise — a regular walk, daily gardening, and twice-weekly tennis match — live longer than sedentary people.

Active individuals are happier, too.

Richman Brothers – A Company That Keeps Giving

Native Clevelanders recognize the name Richman Brothers as a fine chain of stores that sold men's clothing. Mention the name Richman Brothers in the Slovenian-American community and you will hear many delightful stories about a place where many of the women who immigrated to America went to work as seamstresses.

In addition to its large chain of retail stores, Richman Brothers operated a factory which manufactured all the clothing which it sold in its stores. A large percentage of the women who worked in the clothing factory were Slovenian-Americans. The stories they tell about working at Richman Brothers are full of warm and appreciative statements about how well they were treated by the company.

Many residents of the Slovene Home for the Aged who worked at Richman Brothers speak with great affection how the owner of the company greeted them at the door when they arrived for work in the morning and said good night to them every evening when they left work.

Currently there are women who live at the Slovene Home for the Aged who are former employees of Richman Brothers. The most remarkable thing is that, although the company closed all of its stores and the factory in 1990, it has not forgotten the Slovenian women who worked for them with such dedication.

Each year the Richman Brothers Foundation makes a very generous contribution of at least $2,000 to the home in honor of their former Slovenian employees. Members of the Richman Foundation Board of Trustees have also frequently visited our residents who worked for them.

The money which has been donated by the Richman Brothers Foundation has been used to purchase much needed equipment such as wheel chairs, geriatric ric chairs, over-the-bed tables, etc.

The most recent gift received was used to purchase a new computer system to produce and label the clothing possessions of our residents. This new piece of equipment has allowed us to label every item owned by our residents down to even their socks. As a result, the number of clothing items which have been misplaced in the laundry or throughout the facility has been greatly diminished.

It is nice to know that in this age of layoffs, downsizing and general instability in the work place, there is still a living symbol of a company with a sense of social responsibility and loyalty to its employees.

On behalf of the Residents of the Home, its Board of Trustees and Administration, we extend our sincere appreciation to the Richman Brothers Foundation and we hope they will serve as an example to others.

Holiday Hints

Quick Tips To Holiday Survival

(NAPS)—Did you ever think that Santa's job pales in comparison to the holiday frenzy that you endure each year? After all, he has dozens of elves doing all the cooking, gift making and decorating in plenty of time for the holiday season. Whatever the holiday you're celebrating this season, chances are, the idea of single-handedly preparing for the rush of visiting relatives and festive family meals seems like a daunting challenge. Fortunately, Lora Brody, author of The Corningware® Guide to Entertaining Survival, has some holiday survival tips for you. Give them a try, and you just might find that you don't need the elves after all:

Tip #1. Plan ahead so there's no last minute rush—Use your Corningware® to prepare one-dish meals that can be refrigerated or frozen and heated to serve at a moment's notice. When your friends stop by unexpectedly or shopping traffic keeps you from getting home on time, one-dish meals are a lifesaver. Because all Corningware can go straight from the microwave, oven or stovetop to the table trivet, you don't even need to fuss with fancy serving dishes to add a festive touch to your table.

Tip #2. Choose recipes that you can dress up when necessary—Versatile recipes like Lora Brody's delectable Chocolate Bread Pudding is an easy-to-make, luscious finale for a festive family dinner or drop-in guests. To dress it up for company, simply add a dollop of whipped cream to each scrumptious serving.

Tip #3. Ask an elf for help—To help you survive the holidays as stress-free as Santa, The Corningware® Guide to Entertaining Survival has come to the rescue. This free brochure is packed with useful cooking, shopping and entertaining advice and Lora Brody's recipes that you will use all year long. For your copy of the guide, send a self-addressed, stamped, business-size envelope to: The Corningware® Guide to Entertaining Survival, 79 Madison Avenue, 4th Floor, New York, New York 10016.

The most important thing about Christmas is the first six letters: ... a Savior has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord.

CHOCOLATE BREAD PUDDING

- 5 Tablespoons butter or margarine, melted and divided
- 2 packages (6 oz. each) frozen croissants cut into 1-inch cubes
- 4 oz. semi-sweet chocolate morsels
- 1 can (14 oz.) low-fat sweetened condensed milk
- 3 whole eggs and 3 egg whites, lightly beaten, or egg substitute equivalent to 5 eggs
- 1/2 cup 1% milk or 1/2 cup rum*
- 2 teaspoons vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon

Preheat oven to 350°F. Using 1 tablespoon melted butter or margarine, prepare a Corningware 2-1/2 quart oval dish. Place croissants and chocolate in the prepared dish and toss until well combined. In a medium bowl, stir remaining butter or margarine, condensed milk, egg and egg whites, milk, vanilla and cinnamon until well combined. Pour over croissant-chocolate mixture and let stand for 5 minutes. Bake for 25-35 minutes or until the top is lightly browned and the pudding is soft not firm. Remove from the oven and let stand for 10-15 minutes. Serve warm or at room temperature.

* If milk is used, add 2 teaspoons rum extract for rum flavor, if desired.

To Freeze: Cool finished dish. Cover lightly with plastic lid. Label and freeze for up to 4 months. To defrost, place the dish in the refrigerator to thaw or microwave on DEFROST for 8-10 minutes. To serve warm, reheat in the oven or microwave until heated through.

After all, Christmas is but a big love affair to remove the wrinkles of the year with kindly remembrances.
—John Wanamaker.

Cranberry-Oatmeal Cookies

- 1 cup butter or margarine
- 1 ½ cups sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon baking powder
- ¼ teaspoon baking soda
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 2 cups quick cooking rolled oats
- 1 cup raisins
- 1 cup cranberries, coarsely chopped
- 10 ounces vanilla-flavored pieces
- 1 tablespoon orange peel – finely shredded

Beat margarine or butter in a large mixing bowl for 30 seconds. Add sugar, eggs, and vanilla. Beat until combined. Stir together flour, baking powder, baking soda, and salt. Beat in half of the flour mixture. Stir in remaining flour mixture, oats, raisins, cranberries, vanilla-flavored pieces, and orange peel. (The dough will be very lumpy) Drop by rounded teaspoons onto a greased baking sheet. Bake in a 375 degree oven for 10 to 12 minutes or until edges are lightly browned. Makes about 72 cookies.

Florida Bishop Baraga Days

By John Matthews

The Annual Bishop Baraga Days in Florida will be held on Saturday, January 31, 1998.

At 12 noon, a Mass is scheduled in St. Bernard Catholic Church in Holmes Beach, Florida. Other activities include a lunch at the parish center after the mass followed by a program and meeting.

The Michigan-Florida Knights of Columbus will again join with the Baraga Backers.

Planning the Florida Baraga Days are the following co-chairmen:

Rev. Fr. Al Hribsek - Liturgy

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Paoli - Lunch

Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews - Program & Meeting.

Directions:

Follow I-75 to state road 64 (State road 64 goes through the north part of Bradenton), go west on 64 for 3 or 4 miles. When you cross the bridge you are in Holmes Beach. When you come to a fork in the road go right a few blocks; ahead is St. Bernard Catholic Church.

Please let us know if you plan to attend. Call (813) 972-2039.

Tips To Help You

Festive Holiday Cooking—On The Lighter Side

(NAPS)—Here's some good news. With all the flavorful, low-fat ingredients now available, you can prepare and enjoy many festive holiday foods, including dessert, and still keep track of your dietary goals.

Here are some tips to help:

- For appetizers, consider smoked lean trout, turkey or chicken. Serve dark rye cocktail bread instead of high-fat crackers or chips. Stock up on pre-cut vegetables, such as carrots to dip in a blend of plain yogurt flavored with soy sauce, curry powder and low-fat mayo, or make a dip of low-fat cottage cheese, drained chopped pimientos, black pepper, oregano and chopped parsley.

- If you do make gravies and cream sauces, use low-fat ingredients such as buttermilk instead of cream. Add fresh herbs for more intense flavor.

- Whenever possible, use low-fat dairy products, including cream cheese, cottage cheese, ricotta, yogurt, milk and evaporated skim milk to bake or in traditional side dishes.

- Use vegetable cooking spray to grease baking pans.

- A certain amount of fat is necessary for moist texture and flavor in baking, but you can look for specially formulated recipes that are low in fat and call for naturally sweet and moist fruits, such as bananas. Such recipes often call for vegetable oil instead of butter.

- When making pie crusts, remember that graham cracker crusts are lighter in fat than pastry crusts.

The following recipe for Black Forest Banana Cupcakes is a delicious example of a low-fat, high-flavor holiday treat. An extra-ripe banana gives the batter a mellow, moist quality.

BLACK FOREST BANANA CUPCAKES

Prep: 20 min. Bake: 30 min.

Makes: 2 dozen

1 package (8 oz.) light cream cheese, softened
1 1/4 cups sugar, divided
1 egg
1/2 cup candied cherries, chopped
1/4 cup miniature semisweet chocolate pieces
2 cups all-purpose flour
1/2 cup cocoa powder
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
2 large, ripe DOLE® Bananas, mashed (about 3/4 cup)
1/3 cup vegetable oil
3/4 cup water

- Beat cream cheese in small bowl until smooth. Add 1/4 cup sugar and egg; beat until blended. Stir in cherries and chocolate pieces; set aside.

- Combine flour, cocoa, baking powder and remaining 1 1/2 cups sugar in large bowl. Add bananas, oil and water; stir until well blended.

- Spoon chocolate mixture evenly into 24 muffin cups lined with paper cupcake cups. Spoon about 1 tablespoon cream cheese mixture into center of each cupcake.

- Bake at 350°F, 25 to 30 minutes or until toothpick inserted in center comes out clean. Remove from pan; let cool completely on wire rack.

Thanks for Contest

I thank the American Home newspaper for the opportunity to try my luck in coming up with the answer to the recent question, "What is bush tucker?" We find these "puzzles" not only interestingly thought-provoking, but also very informative when we at last find out the answers to those that we cannot solve. (I shall never forget what a sod poodle is.)

Never doubt the vast readership of your column. My husband, Dom, and I were truly amazed at the number of people who mentioned seeing my name in it as one of the winners of your contest. (I even received a congratulatory postal card from the Terceks from Hudson, Ohio.)

I meant to tell you that on my second trip to the "How Sweet It Is" ice cream shoppe, in Chester, Ohio I chose to sample their Cherry Amaretto flavor cone and was wholeheartedly satisfied with my choice — and this was a couple of weeks before you mentioned your affinity for this flavor in your column.

In answer to Nada Arnold's questions "What is billy tea" and "What is damper" — "Billy" is a can for boiling water for tea over an open fire, and damper is bush bread cooked on coals of an open fire.

VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE

Burna razprava ta teden v parlamentu o predlaganem lustracijskem zakonu

Ta teden najbolj razburja parlamentarce razprava o tkm. lustracijskem zakonu in resoluciji o protipravnem delovanju komunističnega totalitarnega režima. Predlagatelja sta SDS in SKD oziroma predsednika teh strank Janez Janša in Lojze Peterle. Nekateri nastopi poslancev so na precej nizki ravni, s številnimi podtikanji in osebnimi napadi. Kot kaže, parlament ne bo sprejel ne predloga lustracijskega zakona ne resolucije, zato je pričakovati, da bo zadeva šla na referendum. Med drugim so v vrstah predlagateljev obeh predlogov ogorčeni, ker slovenska televizija ne prenaša oziroma je prenehala prenašati neposredno parlamentarno razpravo o zadevi. Isto je storil slovenski radio. O tej odločitvi je danes zjutraj po faksu posredovala SDS pod podpisom Janeza Janše izjava poslanske skupine SDS, ki med drugim trdi, da je odločitev RTV kršitev ustavne pravice javnosti do obveščenosti:

»Pravica do obveščenosti o delu tistih, ki se jih voli, je človekova pravica in temeljna politična svoboščina. S prekinivijo neposrednega prenosa sredi razprave so kršene pravice do neposredne obveščenosti o delu zakonodajnega telesa, še posebej v primerhi, ko je izražen nedvoumen interes javnosti za obravnavano temo. Na sedež SDS in poslanske skupine dežujejo klici in protesti številnih državljanov, ki bi radi spremljali razpravo. V sami razpravi na seji DZ pa po prekinitvi prenosa nasprotniki sprejetja resolucije skoraj ne nastopajo več, argumentom pa se samo še smejijo in čakajo, da bo glasovalni stroj velike koalicije opravil svoje.«

V omenjeni domnevni »veliki koaliciji« naj bi se nahajala tudi SLS.

Nekaj dodatnih podatkov o udeležbi na predsedniških volitvah Slovencev v tujini

Po podatkih o predsedniških volitvah, posredovanih pretekli teden na podlagi poročil STA in Delofaksa, je Delo 3. decembra poročalo malce podrobnejše o udeležbi na teh volitvah slovenskih državljanov, živečih v tujini:

»Državna volilna komisija je sprejela tudi zapisnik, s katerim je ugotovila izid glasovanja za predsednika republike na diplomatsko-konzularnih predstavnštivih. Glasovalo je 2033 državljanov, ki začasno ali stalno bivajo v tujini, od tega 1591 po pošti in 442 na diplomatsko-konzularnih predstavnštivih. Neveljavnih je bilo 13 glasovnic. Voliti je bilo mogoče (osebno ali po pošti) na 31 DKP; v Celovcu in Tokiu ni denimo volil nihče, v Moskvi en volivec, najvišjo volilno udeležbo so imeli v Buenos Airesu, kjer je glasovalo 994 volivcev. Izid glasovanja na DKP je dal največ glasov dr. Jožefu Berniku, 1182 (v Buenos Airesu 903, v Clevelandu 86), Milan Kučan je dobil 553 glasov, Janez Podobnik 198, preostali kandidati pa od 7 do 31 glasov.«

Podjetje Goodyear sklenilo investicijsko pogodbo s kranjskim podjetjem Sava

Današnji clevelandski časnik Plain Dealer objavlja poročilo o sklenitvi skupnega investicijskega projekta med podjetjem Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co., ki domuje v Akronu, in slovenskim podjetjem Sava, ki domuje v Kranju. V Akronu je včeraj potekala skupna tiskovna konferenca, predsednik Savinega direktorija Janez Bohorič je preko neposrednega televizijskega prenosa sodeloval iz Kranja, na kateri so bili posredovani temeljni podatki. Vrednost tkm. »joint venture« je 120 milijonov dolarjev, pogajanja so trajala zelo dolgo, v projektu ima Goodyear 60-odstotni delež, 75-odstotkov pa v delu pogodbe, v katerem so poudarjeni tehnološko najbolj zahtevni izdelki.

V svoji izjavi je Janez Bohorič reklo med drugim, da se veseli tega, da bo njegovo podjetje oziroma Sava sodelovalo z ameriškim podjetjem v okolici, kjer živi do 100 tisoč Američanov slovenskega porekla. Goodyear vidi investicijo kot sestaven del svojega prodiranja na srednje- in vzhodnoevropski trg. Sava se bo moglo tehnološko posodobiti.

V zadnjih letih v Sloveniji začasno biva znatno večje število tujih državljanov, ki predstavljajo različna diplomatska in gospodarska predstavnštva. Ženske iz tega sveta vsako leto organizirajo poseben bazar, da se z njim oddolžijo za gostoljubje. Z denarjem, zbranim prejšnja leta, so kupile računalnik za slepe, pomagale beguncem in prizadetim otrokom. Letos so se na bazaru otroci prvič srečali s sv. Miklavžem oziroma »Božičkom«. Medtem ko fantek v naročju kar precej nezaupljivo gleda na zanj čudno oblečenega možkarja, so oči dekllice na levi strani posnetka hrepeneče upre v lutko, ki jo vidi v nogavici ob Božičniku.

Pravo božično praznovanje

SVETEGA večera in božičnih praznikov gotovo ne bomo mogli praznovati tako kot smo to delali v otroških letih, brez vsake skrbi, zavito v idilične sanje. Ne bomo mogli Božiča praznovati samo s tem, da se bomo predali lepim spominom in sentimentalnosti. Trezni in resni kot smo, vsakdanost z vsemi problemi, skrbmi, težavami in stiskami tudi na sam sveti večer ne bomo mogli enostavno pozabiti. Vprašati se moramo: Ali nam sploh kaj pomaga in koristi, če je Božič samo lep spomin na dogajanja v Betlehemu pred dva tisoč leti? Ti bi bilo očitno premalo.

Evangelij nam pove: To, kar se je takrat godilo, ni daleč proč od nas, nekje v temni zgodovini. Povelčani Gospod, ki je zrastel iz betlehemskega Deteta, nas ni zapustil, temveč nam je blizu, je med nami, nam je celo bliže kakor za časa svojega bivanja na zemlji. Zato beremo v božičnem evangeliju stavek: Hodie Filius natus est nobis - danes nam je rojen Sin! Danes se je rodil Rešenik sveta! Ne več kot nebogljeni dete, kot otrok v jaslicah, a vendor kot učlovečeni in k nam poslan BOG. Tudi DANES nam ponuja in podarja svoj mir. Vsem ljudem, ne samo pastirjem na betlehemskej poljanah. Tako Božič le ni zgolj praznik lepih spominov. TUKAJ in DANES je Odešenik med nami. Sedaj nam ponuja mir in veselje, ki ga svet ne more dati. Danes imamo edinstveno priložnost, da odpromo svoja srca oznanilu njegovega miru in veselju, da zaslišimo živo božjo besedo in da hvaležno odgovorimo na njegov klic ljubezni.

Ali zares danes in tukaj lahko občutimo veličino božje slave, njegovega odrešenja in miru? Vidimo in doživljamo, da je tudi današnji Božič prepoln najrazličnejšega trpljenja, ločitev, tug, stisk in nemira. V nas samih je vse polno razklanosti. Pogreznjeni smo v mnogotero zlo, obdajajo nas nemir, vojne in prepriki. Kdor trezno in brez iluzij ogleduje svet in samega sebe, si mora staviti ta vprašanja, posebno v ozadju božičnega evangelijskega oznanila. Božji odgovor na ta vprašanja nas utegne razočarati.

Znamenje, ki ga BOG daje pastirjem in nam, je otrok v jaslicah. Mi seveda zahtevamo več: Hočemo genialnega, močnega človeka, ki nas očara, ki s svojo močno roko urejuje svet in vsa dogajanja v svetu, ki bo končno naredil mir. Hočemo človeka, ki s svojo modrostjo prepriča ves svet, da je sleherno vojskovanje nesmiselno. Otrok nam ne zadostuje. Bogu pa ni bilo »premalo«, da je postal otrok. Bog hodi svoja pota, ki so dostikrat drugačna, kot si jih človek zamisli ali ki jih človek smatra za najpametnejša in najbolj smiselna.

Toda — ali je vse to vse, kar nam pove božično oznanilo? Če je ta otrok več kot otrok, če se za njegovo nebogljeni podobo skriva Odrešenik, Mesija, potem se je v svetu po njegovem rojstvu le nekaj spremenilo. Če je Bog sam prišel v našo bedo in stisko, potem vidimo izhod iz slepe ulice, potem smemo upati, saj nam Bog ponuja roko v pomoč. Teža človekovega bivanja na zemlji nam ni odvzeta — tudi vnaprej nas bodo živili problemi, toda dano nam je upanje, ker vemo, da ni nesmiselno TUKAJ in DANES vztrajati.

Ce nam ta novorojenček kaže dobrotljivost in ljudomilost Boga, njegovo ljubezen in usmiljenje, potem ne more biti nesmiselno ljubiti, razdajati ljubezen, četudi se ne »splača«. Ali je sploh možen mir brez ljubezni, ki se razdaja ne da bi vpraševala po »plačilu in odškodnini«? Vse to nam podaja za Božič Bog —

V A B I L O!

CLEVELAND, O. - Kot je postala skoraj tradicija, tudi letos prirede kulturna društva, pevska zborna Korotan in Fanfje na vasi, plesna skupina Kres in dramsko društvo Liliča, svojo božičnico. Letos bo ta 21. decembra ob petih pooldne v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Avenue.

Vsi člani in njih družine ter prijatelji so k tej božičnici prav lepo vabljeni. Prav posebej pa so lepo vabljeni Slovenski šoli pri Sv. Vidu in Mariji Vnebovzeti, da naši mladini pokažemo naše stare slovenske božične običaje. Poleg tega imamo priložnost, da se s prijatelji in znanci poglobimo v skrivnost Božiča brez materialnih vplivov, ki nam vsak dan hočejo dokazovati, da je duh Božiča le v kupu daril, katerih vsebino potrebujemo ali ne.

Treba je, da si naberemo daril, ki jih novorojeni Zveličar deli ravno v teh dneh tistim, ki vanj resnično verujejo. Zato pride, da skupaj počastimo Deteta, »v jasli položenega«.

Gospodinje so lepo naprošene za pecivo, kajti po kratkem programu bo čajanka in pomemek s prijatelji. Pridite!

Letošnji Zahvalni dan polka festival

CLEVELAND, O. - Na letošnjem praznovanju oz. na Zahvalni dan polka festivalu, smo imeli priložnost poslušati mladega slovenskega harmonikarja Tonija Sotoška, ki ga je bil povabil Tony Petkovšek z namanom, da bi g. Sotošek zabil goste na tej prireditvi. Tonijevo igranje je bilo na visoko profesionalni ravni, tako da so ga lokalni harmonikaši z zanimanjem poslušali. Za svoje igranje je Toni Sotošek prejel v Sloveniji že dvakrat nagrado za najboljšega diatoničnega harmonikarja.

Slovenska plesna skupina Kres je tudi nastopila na Zahvalni dan na prireditvi v hotelu Marriott ter žela navdušeno priznanje z dolgim aplavzom navzočih gostov, katerih je bilo veliko število iz raznih držav širok Amerike (tudi iz sedanje Kanade).

Slovenski ansambel Veseli godci je dobil povabilo od znanega »Hermit's Club«, da bo igral za člane tega društva v soboto, 17. januarja, ko bodo imeli koncert in obenem večer »Poskušanja vin«.

D.M.

zastonj! Smemo tukaj in danes živeti kot ljudje polni upanja! Veselje, ki nam ga oznanja angel, ni opojna pijača, ki nam zatemni pogled in ki po praznikih zopet izgine, temveč resna sproščenost, ki nas tudi tokrat ne zapusti, ko nas življenjska pot vodi skozi temo.

Vsa vsebina božičnega praznika je popolna suverenost Boga. Bog nam je zaupal skrivnost veselja, sreče in miru — zastonj, toda z naročilom, da jo razširimo še med druge. Samo z NJIM jo moremo razširjati. Kaj bi mogli misliti o pastirjih, ki bi — potem ko so slišali glas angela — zaspali ni bi se jim ne ljubilo iti na pot, da bi tudi drugim oznanili veselo novico. Božič nas pošilja na pot, na pot k bližnjemu in k Bogu. Radi najdemo kak izgovor ali hočemo narediti poceni kompromis, da se nam ni treba podati na pot. Rajši ostanemo doma v topli in zakurjeni hišici, kjer je prijetnejše, kakor da bi se napotili skozi zimo in mraz.

Upokojenci Slovenske pristave poročajo...

CLEVELAND, O. - Še par tednov in leta 1997 bo za nami. V sredo, 17. decembra, bomo imeli božičnico ob 1.30 pop. v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Avenue. Po dobrem kosilu bomo ob jaslicah zapeli nekaj naših lepih božičnih pesmi, poslušali božično misel našega duhovnega vodje č.g. Jožeta Božnarja, in ob dobrem pecivu, čaju in kuhanem vinu preživeli lep popoldan. Našim bolnikom bomo ponesli božične rože in pozdrave od vseh članov našega kluba. Upamo, da se bodo vsi pozdravili in se vrnili v našo družbo.

Naš klub ima zdaj že 165 članov, a na žalost je preteklo leto umrlo kar 8 članov. Bog jim daj večni mir in pokoj.

Celo leto smo bili aktivni. Na Slovenski pristavi smo skrbeli, da je bilo listje pogrableno, da je bilo pri dvorani vse v najlepšem cvetju, da je bil Orlon in kapelica Marije Pomagaj lepo oskrbovana v spomin na naše drage domobrance. Dobiček našega piknika, malo manj ko 3 tisoč dolarjev, smo darovali Slov. pristavi.

Za božič bomo lepo obdarovali Slovenski dom za ostarele na Neff Rd., obe slovenski šoli, fari sv. Vida in Marije Vnebovzete, Slovenski radijski oddaji, očete frančiškane v Lemontu, $100 darovali Misionski znamkarski akciji za sv. maše, ki se naj berejo za naše pokojne člane.

Spomladis smo šli na izlet v W. Virginijo v »gaming resort« Mountaineer, junija smo se udeležili Baragovih dni v Marquette, Mich., se ustavili v L'Ans in Frankenmuthu. V jeseni smo obiskali naše farmarje v državi New York. Še enkrat najlepša hvala Žaklovim, da so za ta izlet vse tako lepo organizirali.

Vsem bolnim članom in vsem tistim, ki ne bodo mogli priti na našo božičnico, želimo blagoslovjen Božič in srečno Novo leto. Naj božje Dete tudi nam da uživati ta praznik v krščanskem duhu prijateljstva, bratstva, družinske ubranosti in krščanske ljubezni. Na svidenje v sredo, 17. decembra!

Odbor

Slomškov krožek poroča...

CLEVELAND, O. - Sporočamo žalostno novico, da je pretekli teden v Celju umrl preč. g. Friderik Koljšek, celjski opat. Clevelandski romarji se ga še gotovo dobro spominjate, ko nam je na Teharjih pri Sv. Ani maševal in nam v prelepi pridigi govoril, kako je moral kot enajstletni deček z drugimi šolarji stati v špalirju vse od celjske postaje do taborišča v Teharjih in vpiti nad zvezanimi domobranci, da so izdajalci, ki so jih zvezne kot živino gonili po prašni cesti.

Na lastni oči je videl, kako so partizani na konjih onemogočile domobrance kar potepali in jih napol žive metali v obcestne jarke. Tudi njegovega očeta so umorili.

Opat Koljšek je bil velik častilec škofa Slomška, posebno še zato, ker je bil Slomšek tudi opat v Celju, preden je postal škof lavantinski.

V spomin na pokojnega opata Koljška lahko darujete v sklad za Slomškovo beatifikacijo. Spomnite se ga še posebno v molitvi. V Mariboru še vedno čakajo, »potrežljivo«, kdaj se bodo v Vatikanu odločili glede Slomškove beatifikacije.

Od zadnje objave darov v Slomškov sklad smo prejeli še $30 od neimenovane v spomin na Jožeta Šenka. Odbor Slomškovega krožka se vsem, ki ste kaj darovali v preteklem letu, prisrčno zahvaljuje in vsem skupaj želi blagoslovjen Božič in srečno novo leto.

Silvestrovanje v Slovenskem domu v Lemontu

Večer, poln veselja, zabave, dobre hrane in odlične glasbe čaka vse, ki bodo prišli pričakat Novo leto 1998 v Slovenski dom v Lemont.

»Gotovo, vsakdo želi ta večer preživeti s svojo družino in prijatelji,« pravi Martin Hozjan, predsednik Slovenskega kulturnega centra. Poseben odbor zato pripravlja čudovit večer s trojno glavno jedjo domače hrane, enim najboljših slovenskih ansamblov, ki bo igral za zabavo in ples, nastop dimnikarja in še veliko drobnih stvari in dogodkov, ki bodo naredili večer nepozaben. Posebnost večera bo gotovo prvovrstna glasba, za katero bodo poskrbeli člani Cafutovega ansambla iz Toronto in tako z nami odštevali ure in minute starega leta.

Prireditev na silvestrov večer se bo pričela po 7. uri (maša praznika naslednjega dne bo v cerkvi ob 6. uri). Družine z majhnimi otroki bodo gotovo vesele varstva za njihove malčke, ki ga bo brezplačno pripravil Center. Šolarji do 14. leta ne plačajo vstopnine, za študente bo vstopnica 25 dolarjev in za odrasle 35 dolarjev. Rezervirajte si mesto v naprej na tel. (630) 243-0670.

»Celo slovenski šampanjec bo na voljo, obljudlja Martin Hozjan, »zato upamo, da se bo vsakdo rad pridružil, da skupaj nazdravimo novemu letu.«

Lepo praznovanje obletnice Slovenskega doma — drugo od mnogih, ki bodo sledile

LEMONT, III. - Člani in prijatelji Slovenskega kulturnega centra v Lemontu smo v nedeljo, 16. novembra, praznovali 2. obletnico naše hiše kulture in narodne dediščine, ki ji pravimo Slovenski dom. Množica je napolnila našo veliko dvorano, ki smo jo za začetek praznovanja spremenili v cerkev. Na s cvetjem in zelenjem lepo okrašenem oltarju je daroval sv. mašo p. Blaž Chemazar, predstojnik slovenskih frančiškanov, za vse pokojne člane, prijatelje in dobrotnike Slovenskega doma.

Somaševal je p. David Šrumpf, voditelj Slovenskega verskega središča, ki je mašno slavje tudi pripravil, sodeloval pa je tudi naš diakon John Vidmar. Mašo so s petjem obogatili in oleplili člani fantovskega pevskega zbora Vasovalci iz Slovenije. Po maši je p. Blaž blagoslovil obnovitvena dela okrog Doma in samostana, ki so bila takrat v polnem teku!

Tokrat smo imeli med nami kot posebno gostjo, voditeljico evropsko-ameriške komisije v uradu za pastoralno etničnih skupnosti nadškofije Chicaga. Kristina Zambrzycki je slovenski skupnosti čestitala za tako čudovit Dom in podela z nami prepričanje in upanje, da bo imela slovenska skupnost v okolici Chicaga prav v Slovenskem domu in Slovenskem verskem središču še lepo in dolgo prihodnost.

Odličnemu in izdatnemu košilu je sledil kulturni program. Otroci Slomškove slovenske šole so nastopili s petjem in recitacijami, Vasovalci pa so dali popoldnevno posebno vzdusje s kratkim koncertom najlepših slovenskih narodnih pesmi.

Slovenska polka pa vedno privabi posebno pozornost. Tako je bilo tudi tokrat, ko je prišla na oder plesna skupina Veselje - trije odrasli plesni pari izmed članov našega Centra. Ploskanje in navdušenje jima je gotovo dalo poguma, da bodo tudi v prihodnje radi nastopili na naših kulturnih in zabavnih prireditvah.

Ob koncu programa sta ob nazdravljanju in zapeti napitnici Lavoievi dvojčici ugasnili dve sveči na torti, ki sta pomnili drugi rojstni dan našega Doma. Dan smo zaključili s prijateljskim druženjem, plesom in pesmijo in tako zakoračili v tretje leto našega delovanja v Slovenskem domu.

Slovenski kulturni center se zahvaljuje vsem gostom in sodelujočim, ki ste prišli in pri pomogli k temu, da je bil dan tako slovesen in lep. Na vas računamo tudi v prihodnje! Vsem rojakom in prijateljem želimo vesel božič in srečno in blagoslovljeno novo leto 1998 v upanju, da se čimvečkrat srečamo v Slovenskem domu!

Sesta obletnica smrti

MILAN DOLINAR ki je umrl 14. decembra 1991

Sest let Te zemlja krije, v temnem grobu mirno spiš;
Srce Tvoje več ne boje,
bolečin več ne trpiš;
Nam pa žalost srca trga,
solze rosijo nam oči;
Dom je prazen in otožen, odkar Te več med nami ni.

AVE MARIA (dec. 1997)

LEMONTSKI ODMEVI...

V decembru, grudnu, so nam od otroških let sem prirasli k srcu trije prazniki: Miklavžev (6. decembra), Brezmadežna (8. decembra), Božič (25. decembra) in god Nedolžnih otročičev (28. decembra).

Najbolj cenjeni dnevi so bili: Miklavžev in Božič in Nedolžni otroci. Miklavž s svojimi dobrotnami (včasih revnimi), pa morda tudi s palico. Božič, sveti večer, z jaslicami, z blagovom hiše in stanovanja, ko je med molitvijo rožnega venca in cel večer vsepovsod tako lepo dišalo po kadilu. Pa polnočnica! Kaj bi moglo biti lepšega! Pa še drugi sv. večer, starega leta dan. Medtem pa god Nedolžnih otrok, ko je bilo dovoljeno »tepežkanje«. Vse to nas še vedno vsako leto prevzame. Pa praznik Brezmadežne, ki nam je bil in je še dan kot zgled lepega in čistega življenja, čeprav zadnja leta, žal, vse to nekako izgublja.

Rojstni dan sobrata: p. Fortunat Zorman, 12. decembra 1914.

V decembru so umrli naslednji sobratje: p. Richard Rogan, 2. decembra 1994; p. Gabriel Estok, 4. decembra 1964; p. Tomaž Hoge, 7. decembra 1990; p. Hugo Bren, 8. decem-

SALEZIJANCI se zahvaljujejo

CLEVELAND, O. - Inšpektor salezijancev, č. g. Stanislav Hočevar, se prisrčno zahvaljuje za darove, ki jih je prejel v spomin pokojnega g. Ivana Matka. Gospoda Matka se mnogi s hvaležnostjo spominjajo iz Špitalskega taborišča, zlasti kot voditelja taboriščnih obrtnih delavnic. Po letu 1950 pa do svoje smrti, se je g. Matko vključil v pastoralno delo na Koroškem, najprej v Tinjah, nato pa v župniji Sele, kjer je skupno s farani zgradil lepo cerkev Marije Pomočnice.

Slediči so darovali v njegov spomin: Ferkul Frank in Rezka, Gorše Tone in Helena, Hauptman Ivan in Pavla, Hočevar Anica, Hren Frank in Mara, Jarc Jože, Jakomin Ivan, Knez Rudi in Anica, Križman Jože in Ani, Lamovec Viktor in Tončka, Lovšin Frank, Mohar Lojze in Marija, Stepec Ciril in Uršič, Stepec Tone in Martina, Slomec Vidko in Milena, Vogel Tone in Marija, Veider Edi in Marica, Zajec Karel in Ani, Zajec Milan, Žitnik Dušan. Darov se je nabralo 900 dolarjev. Neimenovani je še dodal 100 dolarjev za gimnazijo Želimlje.

G. inšpektor med drugim piše, da gradnja v Želimljem dobro napreduje. 22. novembra so blagoslovili in odprli telovadnico in nekaj prostorov za študente. Do oktobra 1998 pa upajo, da bo vse končano, kar še imajo v načrtu.

Vsem dobrotnikom želijo salezijanci veliko božjega blagoslova in Marijinega varstva in se jih stalno spominjajo v svojih molitvah. Rudi Knez bra 1953; br. Humil Šavelj, 23. decembra 1965. Naj počivajo v božjem miru in večni luči.

Za »Novembrske maše in molitve«, ki ste jih mnogi že poslali, se iskreno zahvaljujemo. Za te, ki ste nam jih priporočili, je, kakor oznanjeno, v novembру bila vsak dan sv. maša, spominjamo se jih tudi pri ostalih mašah in pri skupnih in osebnih molitvah.

Sv. maša za žive in rajne naročnike Ave Marije bo drugo nedeljo v mesecu, 14. decembra.

P. David je v oktobru dobil obisk iz Slovenije. Obiskat ga je prišla rodna sestra Ivanka in z njo nečakinja Lidija.

V večjih slovenskih naselbih po Ameriki in Kanadi je vsaj enkrat na teden slovenska radijska oddaja. V Chicagu je polurna slovenska radio oddaja vsako soboto ob pol petih popoldne na valovni dolžini 1490 kHz. Pri teh oddajah sodelujemo tudi lemontski frančiškani. Zaenkrat vsako drugo soboto s cerkveno glasbo, duhovno mislio nedelje, z napovedi godov in zanimivosti iz Cerkve.

Chicaški Radio-klub pod vodstvom predsednika Staneta Simrayha priredi vsako jesen »Slovenski dan«. Tudi letos, in sicer, zadnjo soboto v oktobru. Upamo, da bo Bog blagoslovil njihovo delo še vnaprej, da bi v kratkem prišlo do celourne oddaje, kjer bi bilo mogoče vsaki oddaji dodati duhovno misel in versko pesem.

Stopnice pred našo cerkvijo in samostanom so bile v oktobru dokončane. Manjka samo še ograja, kar pa upamo, da bo narejeno predno bo ta številka Ave Marije izšla. Zahvaljujemo se vsem dobrotnikom, kajti mnogi ste posebej svoj dar namenili »za stopnice«. Arhitekt Chris Lavoie je kot svoj dar naredil lep načrt za stopnice in parkirne prostore ob samostanu. Martin Hozjan pripravlja primerno ograjo za stopnice. Božjega blagoslova želimo vsem, ki so se na kakršenkoli način žrtvovali.

Vsako leto objavljamo na zadnji strani ovitka Ave Marije »Romanja in pobožnosti«. Med temi je tradicionalni spomin rajnih na Vernih duš dan ozioroma na prvo nedeljo v novembra. Vsako leto se zberemo na našem pokopališču sv. Frančiška. Ob grobovih sobratov, ki tam čakajo vstajenja, vključno škofa Rožmana, zanje pomolimo in obujamo spomine. Nato se v procesiji ob molitvi rožnega venca podamo v cerkev k sveti maši, ki se daruje za rajne sobrate, srodnike in dobrotnike.

Letos je bilo, žal, slabo vreme, zato smo imeli podobno kot na pokopališču, kratek obred in rožni venec, kar v cerkvi. Po maši, ki jo je daroval p. Bernardin, je bila v Kulturnem centru kratka komemoracija v spomin škofa Rožmana, ki je umrl 16. novembra 1959 v Clevelandu, pa je po svoji želji pokopan na frančiškanskem pokopališču v Lemontu.

Zupnija sv. Stefana v Chicago se na razne načine pripravlja na slavje stoletnico ustanovitve, ki bo uradno februarja 1998. Slovensko praznovanje stoletnice pa naj bi bilo meseca junija. Med drugimi pripravami je tudi pesem Angelovo češčenje dobila za to priliko posebno kitico.

Slovenci se iz leta v leto pri družujejo mednarodnim predstavam božičnih običajev in glasbe, tudi slovenska skupnost v Chicagu in okolici. Božično drevo okrasijo s slovenskimi motivi, s predstavo pa pokažejo slovenske svetonočne običaje in božične pesmi. Bog daj vse dobro tudi letos!

Pred leti sem v Ave Mariji opisoval orgle slovenskih cerkva v Ameriki. Dvoje orgel je izstopalo. Orgle v cerkvi Sv. Jožefa v Jolietu so bile velike in dobre, pa jih je z občasno pripomoglo tudi kosilo, ki so ga farani priredili v ta namen. Vsa čast župniku, faranom in prijateljem cerkve sv. Vida, za njihovo skrb.

Blagoslovljene božične praznike želimo slovenski frančiškani naročnikom Ave Marije, dobrotnikom, prijateljem in znancem. Naj bi vsa srca napolnili in osrečili mir in blagoslov svet noči.

PAVLE BORSTNIK

Obžalovanje resnice?

proti Hitlerjevi Nemčiji.

Z drugimi besedami, če je nek politični komisar kjerkoli na podeželju odločil, da je ta in ta družina »izdajalska«, ker je njen član - največkrat oče -, dal kritično izjavo o »narodno osvobodilnem boju«, je bila dolžnost te družine, da dovoli svojo fizično likvidacijo, da ne bi več zavirala »narodno osvobolne vojne«...

Samoobramba je ena glavnih zapovedi človeške družbe. Na Slovenskem bi zato ne bilo nobene »bele garde« in nobenega domobranstva, če ju ne bi priklical v življenje teror ljudi, ki so »osvobajali narod«. Danes je vendar potrjeno, da je bil ta teror od vsega začetka zasnovan z namenom, da izzove proti-akcijo, čeprav se tega njegovi izvrševalci takrat morda niso zavedali.

Zanimiva pa so bila stališča v vprašanju odnosov do nasprotnih, protikomunističnih strani. Dr. Čanžek, predstavnik »svobodnih partizanov«, je vztrajal, da je bil v Kočevskem Rogu in drugod zagrešen zločin, ki se ga on, tudi kot partizan, sramuje, ga obžaluje ter zanj prosi odpuščanja v imenu organizacije, ki jo zdaj vodi. Druga stran, ki jo je predstavljal nek Ljubljancan, je pravtako potrjevala, da je bil povojni pokol zločinskega značaja, ponavljala pa je tudi, da ga je že obžalovala tako nekdanja Komunistična partija, kot tudi Zveza (partizanskih) borcev in to ne enkrat, temveč nekajkrat.

To je vodilo do vprašanja, zakaj potem sprava še vedno ni možna. Predstavnik »pravih« partizanov je imel odgovor: zato, ker nasprotna, »domobraska« stran, svojih akcij ne obžaluje. Pri tem je navedel dve točki, ki bi morali biti po njegovem mnenju izpolnjeni, če naj bi se pričel proces resnične sprave: domobraska stran mora obžalovati kolaboracijo in - prisego. Kar te so padle.

Zahteva je nelogična: kako pa naj človek obžaluje kakršnokoli svojo akcijo, v katero je bil prisiljen? »Kolaboracija« ni bila neko samovoljno dejanje ljudi, ki se niso strinjali s teorijo »narodno osvobodilne vojne«, temveč samaposebi umetna obrambna funkcija ljudi, ki so bili proti svoji volji potisnjeni v položaj, iz katerega ni bilo drugega izhoda kot »kolaboracija«.

Teror partiske VOS v jeseni 1941 in spomladji 1942 je zavzel take dimenzijs, da je moral izzvati enak, se pravi nasilen odgovor svojih nameravanih žrtev. Se danes se namreč sliši skoraj idiotsko namigovanje, da se nekomunistična stran v letih 1941-45 ne bi smela z orozjem v roki upreti komunističnemu nasilju, češ da je bila »narodno osvobodilna vojna« »protinacistična« vojna, katero so vodili »veliki zaveznički«

Perry, Ohio

Dr. Dušan Pirjevec, eden najvidnejših partijskih predstavnikov, med vojno pa tudi eden najbolj krvoločnih partizanskih poveljnikov, je o tem izjavil: »Nastajanje bele garde je potrjevalo našo teorijo in je prinašalo državljanško vojno, se pravi razredni konflikt (povd. avt.) in s tem - našo revolucijo. (Nova revija 1986, st. 45, str. 34). Partija je torej potrebovala odpor, ker ji je bilo samo na ta način mogoče fizično odstraniti iz našega narodnega telesa vse, kar bi moglo nasprotovati njenim ciljem.

Kako torej naj katerikoli Slovenec, ki je med vojno stal na komunističnemu taboru nasproti strani, danes, po petdesetih letih obžaluje - »kolaboracijo«? Obžaluje lahko in gotovo samo, da je bil v to prisiljen.

S prisego je malo drugače. To dejanje brez dvoma predstavlja usoden mejnik na poti protikomunističnega tabora.

Njegovo ozadje pa še daleč ni razkrito, dejstva so še vedno nejasna. Nemški dokumenti o tem se še niso pojavili v tisku ne na eni, ne na drugi strani. So pa ključnega pomena za pravno razčiščenje vprašanja, zakaj in kako je priseglo Slovensko domobranstvo.

Drugo je moralna stran: po kapitulaciji Italije septembra 1943 in po neusmiljenem pokolu vseh, ki so padli v roke komunističnim partizanom, so bile vse poti »nazaj« dokončno zaprte. Kakršenkoli odgovor na »amnestije«, ki jih je takrat ponujalo partizansko vodstvo, bi bil - samomor. Preveč krvi je bilo prelite, zato so bile te ponudbe zgolj pesek v oči zahodnim zaveznikom, ki so se v tistem času že zavedli, da so svojim orožjem, v resnici samo podžgali državljanško vojno po vsem ozemlju stare Jugoslavije.

Če pa ni bilo več nobene poti »nazaj«, potem je bila ena sama pot »naprej«. Toda med moštvo ga ni bilo, ki bi to prisego jemal kot resno, zvezujočo odločitev. Brez ozira na to, ali so prisego zahtevali Nemci, ali pa so jo ponudili slovenski politični ali vojaški predstavniki, je bila ta prisega, v vprašanju moštva, izsledjena in zato moralno - nična. Res je, da v današnjem svetu z »moralnimi« argumenti človek ne pride daleč; za ljudi, ki so se komunističnemu vdoru v slovenski svet uprli tudi iz moralnih razlogov, pa so bila ta načela važnejša, kot vsa druga.

Kako torej naj preživel protikomunistična srenja danes, po petdesetih letih, »obžaluje« prisego, ki ji je bila vsiljena, pravtako, kot načelna odločitev za »kolaboracijo«?

Ostajajo pa tudi nekatera praktična vprašanja.

Komunistični partizani so med vojno in po njej pokonča-

4. ZIMSKA ŠOLA SLOVENSKEGA JEZIKA

1. februarja — 14. februarja 1998

Vabimo Vas, da pozimi obiščete Slovenijo. V Zimski šoli se boste učili slovenski jezik, spoznavali slovensko kulturo in kulturno dediščino, hkrati pa uživali v lepotah naše dežele.

PRIREDITELJ: Center za slovenščino kot drugi/tuji jezik, Filozofska fakulteta, Univerza v Ljubljani

JEZIKOVNI TEČAJI

Pred začetkom tečaja bomo preizkusili vaše znanje slovenskega jezika. Glede na rezultat boste razvrščeni v začetno, nadaljevalno ali izpopolnjevalno skupino. V skupini bo od 8 do 12 študentov. Tečaj obsega 20 šolskih ur na teden (4 ure na dan po 45 min). Pouk bo potekal dopoldne, od 9.00 do 12.30, učili pa vas bodo izkušeni lektorji z Univerze v Ljubljani.

SPREMLJEVALNI PROGRAM

V Zimski šoli poteka poleg jezikovnega tečaja tudi pester spremiševalni program, ki je sestavljen iz predavanj o slovenski kulturi, delavnic, športnih dejavnosti in ekskurzij. Teh dejavnosti se boste lahko udeleževali v pozopopoldanskem času in ob koncu tedna, plačilo zanje pa je vključeno v šolnino.

POTRDILA IN SPRIČEVALA

Ob koncu Zimske šole boste dobili potrdilo, da ste se udeležili tečaja slovenskega jezika. Študentje najvišje skupine bodo lahko opravljali izpit iz aktivnega znanja slovenskega jezika (ki je pogoj za vpis na Univerzo v Ljubljani in pogoj za pridobitev slovenskega državljanstva).

UDELEŽENCI

V Zimsko šolo ste vabljeni vsi, ki se želite naučiti slovenščine in spoznati lepote naše dežele. Udeleženci morajo biti stari najmanj 17 let.

NASTANITEV

Zimska šola bo potekala v Ljubljani. Udeleženci bodo nastanjeni v gostilni s prenočišči Pri Mraku v središču mesta. Seveda pa lahko za namestitev poskrbite tudi sami (pri sorodnikih, znancih, v hotelu, zasebnih sobah, ...).

CENA

- Šolnina: 330 USD
- Namestitev: 26 USD (1 x prenočišče z zajtrkom)
 - 32 USD (1 x polpenzion)
 - 36 USD (1 x polni penzion)

V ceno šolnine so všetki jezikovni tečaji, knjige, predavanja, delavnice, športne dejavnosti in ekskurzije. V ceno ni všetko opravljanje izpita iz aktivnega znanja slovenščine.

Cena namestitev vključuje bivanje v dvoposteljnih sobah s kopalmico.

V Zimsko šolo se lahko prijavite tudi samo za en teden.

PRIJAVE IN PLAČILO

Pošljite: - izpolnjeno prijavnico,

- 50 USD prijavnine,
- kratek življensjepis in
- fotokopijo potrdila o mednarodnem zdravstvenem zavarovanju na naslov Zimske šole slovenskega jezika do 10. januarja 1998.

Prijavnina je del šolnine in vam je v primeru odpovedi ne bomo vrnili, lahko pa jo prenesete na naslednje leto ali na katerega izmed drugih tečajev Centra za slovenščino kot drugi/tuji jezik. Če plačujete iz svoje države, denar nakažite na bančni račun Filozofske fakultete pri Novi Ljubljanski banki, Trg republike 2, Ljubljana, št. 50100-620-133-5065/2, tax. 55382657, s pripisom 'Zimska šola, 143003'. Če plačujete iz Slovenije, nakažite denar na žiro račun Filozofske fakultete pri Novi Ljubljanski banki št. 50100-603-40227, s pripisom 'Zimska šola, 143003, prijavnina'. Potrdilo o plačilu pošljite skupaj s prijavnico.

Ostanek šolnine (270 USD) lahko plačate pred prihodom v Slovenijo na isti račun ali po prihodu v šolo z gotovino. Čekov ne sprejemamo.

Nastanitev boste plačali po prihodu v gostilno Pri Mraku z gotovino.

Študentje, ki so že bili v Poletni, Celoletni ali Zimski šoli, imajo pri plačilu šolnine 10-odstotni popust.

Rev. Tone Zrnec: Zlati jubilej

TORONTO, Ont. - V četrtek, 27. novembra, na praznik Naše Gospe s čudodelno svetinjo, je v cerkvi Brezmadežne v New Toronu lazarist č.g. Tone Zrnec praznoval petdesetletnico svojega duhovniškega poklica. Verniki iz obeh slovenskih župnij so napolnili prostorno cerkev za večerno sv. mašo.

S svežim belim cvetjem okrašena, z zlatimi števkami »50 let« in bogastvom luči razsvetljena je Marijina cerkev slavnostno sprejela zlatomašnika in sobrate lazariste Tine-ta Batiča, Ivana Plazarja, Toneta Ovtarja, Jožeta Casla, Ivana Jana, Franca Sodjo in jezuita Jožeta Plevnika.

Mogočno petje združenih pevcev je pozdravljalo zlatomašnika, ko je stopil k oltarju. V svoji pridigi je zlatomašnik govoril o zgodovini Marijinega češčenja v prejšnjem in današnjem stoletju, o zgodovini bojev med dobrim in slabim, o ideologiji ljubezni in sovraštva, o Heglovi filozofiji, ki sta jo praktično izvedla Nietzsche in Marx. Marxov komunizem je v našem stoletju uničil milijone življenj po celi svetu. Iz teh zmotnih ideologij pa izhaja še liberalizem, ki oznanja uživanje in svobodo brez Boga in Njegovih zapovedi, obljudbla raj na zemlji in ne pozna ljubezni do bližnjega.

Po govornikovih besedah pa bo zmagalo Jezusovo in Mariino srce. Marija je Mati božja in ljubi vse ljudi kot svoje otroke. Na čudodelni svetinji je upodobljena, stoeča na zemeljski obli. Žarki milosti se vsipajo iz njenih razprostrtnih rok, okrog glave venec zvezd. Njena noge počiva na glavi kače, Satana, ki hoče imeti svet zase. Na drugi strani vidi Marijino srce z mečem bolečin preboden in Jezusovo srce s trnjem kronano pod veliko črko M in križem, znamenjem Jezusovega trpljenja in našega odrešenja.

Zlatomašnik je po maši blagoslovil te svetinjice, ki smo jih vsi navzoči prejeli ob odhodu iz cerkve.

Slovesnost smo nadaljevali v dvorani, kjer je cerkveni odbor skupno s Katoliško žensko ligijo pripravil prijateljsko srečanje z jubilantom. Ko smo ga s ploskanjem sprejemali, je v svoji skromnosti dejal: »Kaj bi bilo, če bi bil škof?«

V kratkem programu, ki ga je začel Ivan Plazar, sedanj župnik pri Brezmadežni, so se vrstile čestitke cerkvenih društev in prijateljev zlatomašnika: sedanji predstojnik lazaristov v Kanadi Tine Batič, predsednik župnijskega sveta Florjan Markun, predsednica KŽL Marija Steblaj, organist pevskega zabora Andrej Pahulje, predsednik igralske skupine Lojze Rigler, zastopnika slovenskih hranilnic Jože Serec in Mija Ferkulj. Program je vodil Ciril Pleško.

Njegov osebni prijatelj Zvone Hrastnik je na kratko opisal slavljenčev življenjsko pot in izredne darove, s katerimi je bogatil življenje njim, katerim je služil in z njimi delal kot duhovnik in slovenski izobraženec. Njegovo kulturno in glasbeno udejstvovanje v letih župnikovanja pri Mariji Pomagaj bo za vedno ohranjeno v zgodovini torontske slovenske skupnosti. Delo za Barago beatifikacijo, raziskovanje starih ameriških kultur, globoko poznanje in prepričljiva razlagava verskih resnic in svetega pisma, iskanje skritih naravnih lepot in božjega življenja v stvarstvu — torej neneštete odlike duhovnika, ki je pred petdesetimi leti kot begunc brez staršev in družine prvikrat daroval sv. mašo v rimski cerkvi sv. Andreja.

Sledil je pozdrav Matije Lebarja, s katerim je g. Zrnec ustvarjal mladinske koncerte pri Mariji Pomagaj. V šestdesetih in sedemdesetih letih je priredil 24 koncertov, 6 glasbenih festivalov in 3 spevoigre. V glasbi in petju so njegovi mladi umetniki izvajali dela znanih slovenskih in evropskih skladateljev, mladinskih dramatikov, prepevali pa štiriglasno v mnogih jezikih.

Iz tistih zlatih časov izhaja tudi dekliški pevski zbor. Dvanajst zvestih članic z voditeljico Silvijo Ovčjak Kolarič je ta večer pozdravilo svojega nekdanjega pevovodja. Vse so že mamice, ena je redovnica, vse izobražene, še vedno verne Slovenke. Po par njihovih pesmih je vsa dvorana skupno zapela Marija, pomagaj nam sleherni čas.

Bilo je čudovito srečanje, prisrčno in domače kakor malokdaj.

Gospodu zlatomašniku Tonetu Zrnecu, ki je po prvih desetih misijonskih letih v Južni Ameriki deloval kot kaplan in župnik pri Mariji Pomagaj dvajset let, in še osemnajst let pri Brezmadežni, želimo še mnogo zdravih, uspešnih in blagoslovljenih let!

V centru Slovenija je pestro

Ljubljana — Neke vrste trg ali parkirni prostor v kanadskem Torontu obkrožajo center Slovenija s cerkvijo, slovenska posojilnica oziroma banka, hiša sester in na drugi strani ceste poslovna stavba enega od uspešnih in zelo zavednih Slovencev podjetnika Ivana Kastelica ter prijeten lokal — slaščičarna, kjer imajo slovenski lastniki tudi »blejske kremne rezine«. Slovenci so upravičeno ponosni na ta svoj center. Za gradnjo se je leta 1958 odločilo 82 družin. Veliko prostovoljnega dela, darov od vsepovsod in center je bil kmalu pod streho.

Danes ima več poslanstev. V njem se združujejo narodno-stno, kulturno in versko delo, pojasnjuje pastor Ivan Plazar, lazarist, Hrastničan, ki je v Torontu že 28 let. Dvorana, ki so jo že razširili, je zasedena vsak dan: vrstijo se srečanja skavtov, plesnih in pevskih skupin, slovenske šole, dobrodelne prireditve, poroke in druge slovesnosti.

V dvorani so pripravili dobrodošlico športnikom, umetnikom in politikom, ki so se podali čez luž in obiskali kar močno slovensko postojanko, saj je v Torontu in okolici našlo drugi dom od 15.000 do 25.000 Slovencev. Pastor priponeduje, da je bilo še pred desetimi leti nekaterim neprijetno zaradi kipov štirih škofov: Jegliča, Slomška, Barage in Rožmana, ki zaznamujejo dvorano, a danes je že drugače.

Pri krstu vsako leto okoli 40 otrok

Slovenska šola ima štiri razrede in pouk poteka vsako soboto od 9. ure do 12.30. Ob nedeljah imajo kar štiri maše, kajti cerkev je premajhna, da bi hkrati sprejela vse, ki obiskujejo bogoslužje v slovensčini.

Stanko Šajnovič: sedemdesetletnik

in sta se odločila, da gresta v Kanado.

Nekaj let sta živela in delala v Torontu. Kmalu sta kupila posestvo (190 akrov) blizu Orillia, kakih 100 km severno od Toronto. Leta 1964 je Jožica začela tam z revo puranov. Stanko je nekaj let še naprej delal v Torontu in se vsak konec tedna vozil v Orillio. Cim jima je finančno stanje dovolilo, sta se oba posvetila reji puranov, kokoši in prašičev.

Danes imata veliko podjetje, ki letno proizvaja 100.000 puranov in kokoši. Hrano za purane kupujeta in samo ta jih stane letno $600.000. To nam precej zgovorno pove, kako veliko je njihovo podjetje.

Stanko in Jožica sta tudi zelo aktivna v slovenski skupnosti. Sta člana Slovensko Kanadskega Sveta, društva Planica, kjer imata svoje stanovanje, sta člana Slovenskega doma in še kaj. Pri vseh teh društvih je Stanko tudi odbornik. Dalje, Stanko in Jožica sta aktivna pri cerkvi Sv. Evharistije v Uptergrove, blizu Orillia.

Zakonca Šajnovič imata sina Stankota in hčerko Eriko. Stanko ml. je že na tem, da bo prevzel in vodil staršovo veliko podjetje. Za to delo je zelo dobro pripravljen: ima dolgoletno praks doma in še diplomo iz agronomije.

Stanko in Jožica nista samo aktivna v vseh slovenskih društvih, ampak sta tudi velika mescena. Že več let za vsak »Slovenski dan« darujeta nekaj puranov. Tudi druge slovenske prireditve često obdarita s purani.

Ko človek premišljuje o težki življenjski poti in istočasno izrednem uspehu Jožice in Stankota, se čuti ponosnega, da je Slovenec. Ljudje takega kova ustvarjajo lepši svet za vse človeštvo.

Slovenci iz vsega srca želimo Stankotu in Jožici še na mnoga leta!

Podatki in nove podrobnosti o umiku JLA iz Slovenije

TRST/GORICA, It. - 25. oktobra leta 1991 je iz koprskega pristanišča odplula še zadnja ladja natovorjena z opremo, oborožitvijo in osebnim imetjem pripadnikov Jugoslovenske ljudske armade, ki so morali zapustiti slovenska tla. Ob šesti obletnici umika sta ministra za obrambo in za notranje zadeve, Tit Turnšek in Mirko Bandelj, v veliki dvorani vladne palače v Ljubljani priredila sprejem za pripadnike Slovenske vojske in za ministrstvo za notranje zadeve.

Nekatere podrobnosti o umiku, ki so bile doslej večinoma neznane, je ob obletnici

Predsednik Bill Clinton o rešenih Američanah

Ljubljana — »Knjiga pobje-gi in povratek, ki ste mi jo poslali, je v mnogočem spomin na zgodovinske temelje, iz katerih izhajajo in se krepijo vezi med našima državama,« je za-pisal ameriški predsednik Bill Clinton v zahvalnem pismu nekdanjem slovenskemu ve-leposlaniku v ZDA dr. Ernestu Petriču.

Pristavl je še, da je z zanimanjem prebral »živahno pripoved o tem, kako so sloven-ski partizani med drugo svetovno vojno reševali ponesre-cene ameriške letalce, iz izkušnjo Johna Rucigaya pri tem v slovenskem Nadlesku.«

Johna Rucigaya, ki je po-rodu iz Domžal, so partizani rešili pred Nemci v Istri. Ker mu je odpovedalo letalo, je izskočil s padalom. Ko je bil ob 50. obletnici zmage nad fa-šizmom v Ljubljani, se je pove-zal s partizanskim veteranom fotoreporterjem Edijem Selhausom, ki je raziskoval in ra-ziskal mnoge usode rešenih ameriških letalcev v Sloveniji.
Objavil jih je v knjigah Stotina
sreče in Zbogom, Liberty Bell (soavtor Janez Žerovnik).

Rucigay je zgodbe iz obeh knjig strnil v angleško različico z naslovom Evasion and Repatriation, ki jo je izdala založba, specializirana za vo-jaške spomine. Slovenskemu veleposlaništvu v Washingtonu je predlagal, naj knjigo po-šlje Beli hiši. Tam je bila očitno sprejeta z zadovoljstvom.

John Rucigay in Aleš Orel iz
Radovljice sta knjigo Pobegi in povratek (s podnaslovom Slovenski partizani in rešeni ameriški letalci med drugo svetovno vojno) podarila tudi ameriški državnemu sekretarki
Madeleine Albright, nekdanju mu obrambnemu ministru Wi-lliamu Perryju in drugim vplivnim Američanom, imajo pa
jo tudi v knjižnici na letalonosilki

Američan dobavljal orožje Sloveniji

Washington — Ameriško
zvezno sodišče je obtožilo 46-letnega ameriškega državljanu Yuriju I. Montgomeryja iz zvezne države Washington, da je nezakonito dobavljal vojaško opremo Sloveniji in Makedoniji, s čemer je kršil ameriške zvezne zakone. Montgomery je ministrstvo za trgovino in notranje zadeve zaprosil za izvozno dovoljenje, a so ga za-vrnili s pojasnilom, da bi to »škodilo ameriški zunanjim politiki«, piše v obtožnici. S po-močjo ponarejenih dokumen-tov je poslal solzivec, strelivo, lisice in drugo opremo v Slove-nijo in Makedonijo, piše v obtožnici.

Božične pesmi Stanka Premrla prvič na CD

Ljubljana — Mednarodno uveljavljeni bas baritonist
Marko Fink je ob klavirski spremljavi Nataše Valant v Vili Podrožnik 8. decembra s krajšim koncertom predstavil svojo najnovejšo zgoščenko (tj. CD plošča) Božične skrivnosti, na kateri sta posnela 16 božičnih pesmi slovenskega skladatelja Stanka Premrla.

Samospevi za bariton in klavir na poezijo Božič Vitala Voduška iz leta 1928 so šele sedaj, kot je povedal dr. Edo Škulj, doble svojo prvo inter-pretacijo. Vodušek je kot župnik leta 1939 prevzel slovensko župnijo v San Franciscu in v Ameriki leta 1973 tudi umrl. Iz njegove zbirke Pesmi je Pre-mrl vzel besedila z božično vsebino za svoje samospeve.

Sledijo Dve božični pesmi Matije Tomca na tekste Mirjam Tozon, pesnice, pianistke ter organistke, Šest koroških ljudskih božičnih pesmi v priredbi skladatelja Sama Vremšaka in Štiri slovenske ljudske božične pesmi Valentina Štokerja, Luke Dolinarja, Gustava Ipavca in Gregorja Riharja, prav tako v Vremšakovem aranžmaju. Zadnja, devetindvajseta pesem pa je slavna Gruberjeva Sveta noč. Zgoščenko je izdala Založba kaset in plošč RTV Slovenija.

Večnamesko letališče

Cerkle ob Krki — V brežiški občini je imela JA mnoge objekte, največji pa je bilo vo-jaško letališče Cerkle ob Krki. Danes nekaj sto hektarov uporablja Slovenska vojska za svoj učni center, tu pa sta še območno poveljstvo ter oklepno-mehanizirani bataljon in brigada vojnega letalstva.

Nad cerkljanskem poljem in njegovo okolico zdaj letajo šolska letala in pristajajo domači helikopterji, čedalje jasnejša pa je tudi prihodnost cerkljanskega letališča. Kot je ob nedavnem obisku v brežiški občini povedal minister za obrambo Tit Turnšek, naj bi ga v prihodnje razen za vadbo vojaških pilotov namenili tudi za gospodarske in športne potrebe, nikakor pa ne bo postalo vojaško oporišče za Natove enote. Lahko bo le služilo za vmesno pristajanje njihovih letal, vendar bi ga bilo treba preurediti. V prihodnjih dveh letih naj bi dobilo naprave za pristajanje ponoči in ob slabši vidljivosti ter primerne rezervoarje za letalsko gorivo.

Ob hrvaško-slovenski meji se sprehaja medved

Catež ob Savi — Clani lov-skih družin na gojitvenem območju Žumberak-Gorjanci že dlje časa spremljajo velikega medveda, ki mu očitno ni dozimskega spanja. Morda pa celo napoveduje milo zimo. Kosmatinec, ki so ga zasledo-vali že hrvaški lovci, videli pa tudi kostanjeviški, se je zdaj prikazal na območju Cateža ob Savi. Pri Globočicah ga je pred dnevi s stojišča blizu vasi skoraj četrt ure opazoval izkušeni lovec Janez Zagode iz Brežic, ki ocenjuje, da je imel vsaj 150 kilogramov in da je

Pravo božično praznovanje

(nadaljevanje s str. 22)

Tudi v sosedu, v bližnjem, v materi, v očetu, v starki, v otroku, v brezbožnemu, v egoistu, v mogočnežu, v osamelem... se mora roditi Kristus. Nič nam ne koristi, če je Božič le spomin, da se je Kristus rodil pred dva tisoč leti, če se tukaj in danes nič ne rodi, nič ne spremeni. Nič nam ne koristi, če bi bil Bog pred dva tisoč leti govoril, tukaj in danes pa ne bi bilo nikogar, ki bi nam govoril v božjem imenu. Nič nam ne koristi, če bi Bog pred dva tisoč leti storil velika dela, da bi se pred dva tisoč leti izkazala in posebila božja ljubezen, če tukaj in danes nimamo nikogar, ki nenebično ljubi, misli in sočustvuje, in če se tukaj in danes ne ljubimo med seboj. Čudo svete noči, čudo božičnega praznika je v tem, da Bog med nami lahko bolj oživi, da Bog postane »up to date« in se med nami posebi. Bog potrebuje telo, da čuti, potrebuje roke, da ozdravlja, usta, da govori in tolaži, srce, da ljubi, potrebuje noge, da se napoti k bližnjemu, potrebuje oči, da vidi stisko... Skratka: potrebuje MENE, TEBE, NAS...

Ali se bo Bog rodil, posebil v sveti noči v meni, v tebi, v nas? Zares bi bilo škoda svete noči, če bi šla brez sledu mimo nas!

H.O. (Misli, december 1996)

bil star okrog 10 let. Tacal je naokoli, se oziral, malo brunodal in se nato napotil proti gozdu. V zadnjih dneh samotarja sicer ni videl nihče, vendar previdnost na Brežiški planinski poti nikakor ne bo odveč, poroča V.P. v Delu 10.12.

Smučarska sezona se po Sloveniji že začela

Ljubljana — Najbolj neučakani smučarji so že pretekli te-den začeli preskušati naprave in sveže steptane smučine, največ pa jih je bilo na pobeljenih bregovih. Snežna odeja je bila povsod tam, kjer je to za december običajno, spodbudno debela, marsikje so obnovili opremo in prostore. Obeta se dobra sezona.

Na Krvavcu so pvi v Slove-niji pognali žičnice že 26. no-vembra, ker so do tedaj nare-dili dovolj umetnega snega, da sta lahko obratovali dve žičnici. Vendar je bil prvi teden zaradi zelo slabega vremena bolj klavrn. Sredi tedna pa se je povsem spremenilo. Nasulo

jim je toliko snega, da so lahko odprli tudi smučišča z Njivic v Tihi dolino, nato pa pognali še žičnico na najvišjo točko, to je na Zvoh.

Ob koncu preteklega tedna so tudi 2200 metrov visoko ležča pobočja na Kaninu dobila poldruži meter debelo snežno odejo. Žičničarji kljub močnemu vetru, ki je vlekel čez kaninsko pogorje, utrdili smučarske proge. Kaninske žičnice, predvidevajo, bodo pognali to soboto, 13. decembra. Priprave na letošnjo smučarsko sezono so bile temeljite in obsežne. Največ dela je bilo z zamenjavo kar 12 kilometrov dolge jeklenice dostavne gondolske žičnice. Tudi drobnih del je bilo na 24 let starih napravah veliko. Na Bovškem so tamkajšnji hoteli za novoletno praznovanje že razprodani.

Preteklo soboto so prvič v tej sezoni zavrteli smučarske naprave na Pungartu, Sedlu, Mali in Veliki Kopi ter na Kaščniku, kjer je snežna odeja dosegla do 70 cm.

Avstrijci odkrili svoje rojake po Sloveniji

Gradec — Po avstrijski raziskavi je v šestih slovenskih mestih (Ljubljana, Maribor, Murska Sobota, Lendava, Celje, Ptuj) in njihovi okolici 1813 pripadnikov nemškogovoreče manjštine in še nekaj sto oseb, ki ji pripadajo. Ekipa dr. Stefana Karnerja z graške univerze je zbrala zvočne zapise 118 oseb. Dr. Karner trdi tudi, da nemško govoreča manjšina v Sloveniji obstaja, zdaj jo mora priznati še uradna politika. Več kot 900 nemškogovorečih prebivalcev baje izpoljuje tudi pogoj iz slovenske ustave o avtohtonosti narodne manjštine, saj na določenem območju živijo vsaj trije rodovi.

Vladna koalicija (LDS, SLS, DeSUS), ki je opozicijo (SDS, SKD, ZLSD) stisnila v kot in ji ni ugodila niti pri enem dopolnilu, je podaljšala proračunsko leto v januar, kar je prineslo dodatnih 17 milijard tolarjev prihodkov.

Predsednik Bill Clinton cestital Miljanu Kučanu

Ljubljana — »Užival sem v najinem srečanju septembra in se veselim najinega sodelovanja v prihodnje,« je v čestitki Miljanu Kučanu zapisal ameriški predsednik Bill Clinton. Boris Jelcinc je prepričan, da se bo po Kučanovi izvolitvi sodelovanje med Rusijo in Slovenijo še poglobilo in prispevalo k stabilnosti in miru v Evropi. Estonski predsednik Lennart Meri je ob voščilu izrazil tudi upanje, da bosta Slovenija in Estonija ta mesec na vrhu EU skupaj dobili zaupanje petnajsticerice.

Letošnja prodaja novih avtomobilov večja

Ljubljana — V enajstih mesecih tega leta je bilo v Sloveniji prodanih 58.523 novih avtomobilov, poldruži odstotek več kot v istem času lani. Prodajalci avtomobilov napovedujejo, da bo tudi letos prodanih magičnih 60.000 novih avtomobilov.

Božično drevo z 98 pojočimi »okraski«

Ljubljana — Slovenska prestolnica je že okrašena z raznobarnimi lučkami, lampički in božičnimi drevesci. Po svoji nenavadnosti zagotovo najbolj izstopa 14 metrov visoko »pojoče božično-novoletno drevo« na ploščadi pred velenblagovnico Maximarket. Postavili so posebno kovinsko konstrukcijo, odeto v zeleno tkanino in okrašeno z lučkami ter girlandami, na kateri bo od 16. do 28. decembra stalo kar 98 pevcev dveh pevskih zborov in prepevalo dvanajst najlepših božičnih in novoletnih pesmi.

Premieru pretekli petek zvezcer si je z velikim zanimanjem ogledalo na desetine Ljubljčanov, saj doslej najbrž še niso videli tako »živega« in hkrati še prepevajočega božičnega drevesa. Občani bodo lahko »pojočo jelko« poslušali še

Župnijski urad Bohinjska Bistrica je tudi ob pomoči občine obnovil cerkveno ostrešje in fasado, mrliske vežice, del novega pokopališča in kapelo. Koroška bo s Slovenijo in FJK kandidatka za Olimpijske igre 2006

Dunaj — Avstrijski olimpijski odbor je 2. decembra sklenil, da bo Koroška v sodelovanju s Slovenijo in Furlanijo-Julijsko krajino avstrijska kandidatka za pripravo zimskih olimpijskih iger leta 2006. Tako je Koroška »premagala« druga dva močna domača kandidata, Tirolsko in Salzburg. Ker je tudi v Italiji v trojtem konceptu kandidirala le Furlanija, je mednarodna zamisel vendarle korak bliže k uresničitvi.

Očitno je k odločitvi precej prispevalo tudi, da je kakih 80 odstotkov vseh naprav, potrebnih za izvedbo iger, že postavljenih in je torej Koroška ponudila med vsemi tremi najcenejšo različico. Koroški predstavniki so dokazali, da je bila njihova ponudba najbliže pogojem, ki jih postavlja mednarodni olimpijski odbor.

Z izbiro Koroške se je torej odbor prvič odločil za mednarodne »igre brez meja, kar jih s športnega prestavlja tudi na mednarodnopolitično področje.«

NOVI GROBOVI

(nadaljevanje s str. 21)

Amelia Mramor

Dne 5. decembra je v Lorainu, kjer se je bila pred 90 leti tudi rodila, umrla Amelia Mramor, vdova po l. 1990 umrlem Josephu, mati Arlene Grubic, Virginije Erdy, Mary Ellen Eaton in Josephu, 10-krat stara mati, 8-krat prastara mati, dolgoletna aktivna faranka pri župniji sv. Cirila in Metoda, v kateri je bila tudi pogrebna sv. maša 8. decembra.

Frank W. Suhadolnik

Dne 17. novembra je na Floridi nenadno umrl 70 let stari Frank W. Suhadolnik, brat Frances Weisbarth, stric Daniela, drugi sorodniki živijo v Sloveniji, veteran 2. svetovne vojne. Pogreb je bil na Floridi, prijatelji so se pa zbrali 6. decembra dop. ob 11h v cerkvi sv. Jeroma.

Frank Smrekar

Umrl je 87 let stari Frank Smrekar z Valley Viewom, O., mož Ane, roj. Petric, brat že pok. Johna, Marije Lavric in Toneta, svak Frances Suligoj in Louise Kranjcic. Pogreb je bil 6. decembra s sv. mašo v cerkvi St. Martin of Tours in pokopom na Vseh svetnikov pokopališču.

Umik JA iz Slovenije

(nadaljevanje s str. 25)

v nekem intervjuju pojasnil brigadir (nov visok čin v Slovenski vojski) Peter Zupan, ki vodi Oddelek za materialno oskrbo v Upravi za logistiko Ministrstva za obrambo. Bil je član mešane slovensko-jugoslovenske pogajalske skupine, ki je pod nadzorom mednarodnih opazovalcev usklajevala podrobnosti o umiku Jugoslovanske armade iz Slovenije.

Povedal je, »da je ob odhodu ostalo na železniških tirih okoli 460 do 490 vagonov, polnih opreme in orožja. Tam sta bila najrazličnejša oprema in material, od tankov do hrane, šotorov in druge opreme. To je bilo samo v vagonih, potem pa so bile še vojašnice in skladisci.

Jugoslovanska vojska je v začetku umika hotela vse odpeljati s seboj. Še vojaške brunarice so bile razstavljene in naložene na vagonih za transport. Ker niso imeli možnosti umika z vsem, kar je ostalo v Sloveniji, so omenjene potrebsčine ostale na svojih mestih. Potrebovali smo več kot eno leto, da smo sredstva popisali, uskladiščili in pregledali.

Ko smo recimo na Kodeljem v Ljubljani pregledali intendantsko opremo, smo našeli tudi trideset tisoč puloverjev, dvesto tisoč kosov spodnjega perila, srajce in uniform, ki so bile sicer nove, vendar za Slovenijo neuporabne. Zelena barva Jugoslovanske vojske namreč ni bila primerna za barve nove Slovenske vojske.

Imeli smo tudi velikanske zaloge hrane, ki jo je bilo treba uporabiti, da se ne bi počvarila.

Jugoslovanska vojska ni mogla odpeljati s seboj vsega, kar je nameravala. Težava je bila v tem, da niso imeli dovolj plovil za odvoz, druge možnosti za prevoz čez Hrvaško, Trst in Madžarsko pa so odpadle. Zamislili so si recimo, da bodo s seboj odpeljali šest sto vozil, lahko pa so jih je stopetdeset.

Armada je ob umiku iz Slovenije uničila veliko objektov in opreme, nekdanje vojašnice pa dobesedno opustošila. Orožje, ki je ostalo v Sloveniji, je zdaj že zastarelo in zato neuporabno.«

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1211. Samo dva tedna do božičnega praznika, ko izide ta članek v AD; letos pade božič prav na četrtek.

S posebnimi pozdravi se je oglasil naš redni dopisovalec za MZA in dobri priatelj pok. g. Wolbang Rev. Vladimir Kos in začenja s sledečimi vrsticami:

MZA NADALJUJE.

Najprej s hvaležnim spomnom nanj, ki jo je bil zamislil in skušal, v kar se da polni méri, uresničiti, pokojni in dragi preč.g. Wolbang CM. Smrt za nas katoličane ni konec, ampak nadaljevanje življenja. In v tem smislu sem zložil naslednjo pesem, ki sem ji zdaj v novembру - dal naslov »V mesecu mrtvih živih«:

*Spet eno zrno padlo je na grudo, da prst jo skrije v svojo zibelko, da v njej zorí za v vigredi življenje,
v podobo, polno blaženih resnic.*

*Zivljenje čudo je in smrt je čudo—pri Bogu mrtvih ni in ni grobov.
Do konca dni Gospodovo vstajenje želja nebeških nadaljuje klic.*

*Se zdaj je Tvoja želja, dragi Karel, da vso resnico svet, ves svet, spozna—
saj zanj postal je Bog ljubezni Človek.
In z Njim si želite steti src okove,
Zanj delal si, trpel do zadnjega.
Tvoj trud On nadaljuje, dragi Karel.*

Vsi poznamo Gospodovo realistično statistiko o sejalcih Božje besede - neuspeh je zajamčen! A enako zajamčen je uspeh na svetovni njivi tja do konca zgodovine. V luči te božje statistike lahko ugotovimo: tisto ogromno dobrega, ki ga je - po blagoslovjeni zamsli preč.g. Wolbunga - lahko MZA doslej uresničila z ozirom na širjenje Božjega kraljestva v svetu, nekje sodeluje s 30 odstotki usepha, nekje s 60 odstotki, in nekje s 100 odstotki. Le da moramo »nekje« in obliko »odstotkov« prepustiti Vsemogočnemu Sejalcu, na čigar večnem ekranu se preteklost, sedanjost in prihodnost oziroma bodočnost takorekoč zlivajo v eno samo veliko, dobrohotno Božje kraljestvo. »Gospod je kralj na veke«, poje psalmist Stare zaveze, npr. v psalmih 10 in 29.

(se bo nadaljevalo)

Tokrat vam želim predstaviti

Vsem dobrotnikom tisočera zahvala.

Prejela sem sledeče vrstice od g. Antona Slabeta, rektorja ljubljanskega semeniča:

Ljubljana, 21.11.1997. Danes so šli bogoslovci domov, da bodo v nedeljo volili. Hvaležen sem Vam za opozorilo, počasi spoznavam razmere in posamezne primere v semeniču. Hvala Vam za vse! Lepo pozdravljam vas in vaše MZA sodelavce, vdani Anton Slabe.

G. rektor nam je s tem dopisom poslal nekaj informacij o bogoslovcih in sicer iz koliko članske družine prihajajo in iz katerega kraja.

V prvem letnik se jih je letos vpisalo 6 in sicer eden iz zupnije Preska pri Medvodah, drugi iz Škofje Loke, 3. iz Kranja tj. prvi iz škofijske klasične gimnazije, 4. iz St. Vida nad Ljubljano, 5. iz Begunja na Gorjanskem, 6. iz zupnije Kolvrat. Za teh še nimamo dobrotnikov, ki bi jih prevzeli za vzdrževanje.

V drugem letniku jih je 10 in od teh dva imata dobrotnika, torej jih je še osem, ki bi bili zelo srečni, če bi dobili od koga pomoč. Od teh eden izhaja iz 8-članske družine, eden iz 5-članske, eden iz 4-članske, dva iz 3- in dva iz dvočlanske družine. So iz teh župnij: Predvor pri Kranju, Škofja Loka, Komenda, Šenčur pri Kranju, Ljubljana-St. Vid, Zlato polje-Kranj in iz Naklega pri Kranju. Priporočamo, da si sami izberete, če se boste pač odločili, da bi prevzeli koga iz župnije, v kateri ste vi nekoč živelii. Letna vzdrževalnina je še vedno $300. Vašo odločitev lahko sporočite meni, ali pa kateremu koli odborniku MZA, kjer živite.

V ljubljanskem semeniču pomagamo v 6. letniku sedem bogoslovcev. Ti bodo že drugo leto diakoni. V petem letniku pa 9, v četrtem 10, v tretjem 6 (sedmi je na odsluženju vojaškega roka). Kar lepo število je to. Hvala vam, dragi dobrotniki, v molitvah ne pozabite nanje, bodite jim dobrni duhovni starši. Pomoč za akademsko leto 1997/98 bodo v teh dneh prejeli.

Drugi boste izvedeli še za mariborsko in koprsko bogoslovje.

Nadaljevanje letne razdelitve misijonarjem: Na Madagaskarju še delujejo: s. Marjeta Mrhar v Farafangani dobi $700; s. Marija Zanjkovič v Ekar Namazary-Itashy, $500; Ivan Štanta $500, v Ihosyu. Tem trem odpošlje čeke Sonja Ferjan, kakor tudi misijonarjem v Ruando in Burundi: s. Bogdana Kavčič dobil skupni ček za sledeče in ga razdeli: s. Bogdana Kavčič sama dobi $700 (po $100 od Mary Ann Mlinar in Antonije Gregorin); s. Ana Burger $500; s. Vesna Hiti $500; s. Vida Gerkman $500.

V Burundiju delujejo sledeči misijonarji: Rev. August Horvat $500; Rev. Jože Mlinarič $500; Rev. Danilo Lisjak $500. Vsi so salezijanci in jim je darove MZA poslal Rudi Knez.

Na Novi Gvineji-Papua deluje br. Jože Kramar (80-letnik-čestitamo ter mu želimo še mnogo plodnih let!) $500. Njemu pomagata še dva laična misijonarja in sicer Franci Kurent in Zvonka Kopina, ki dobita vsak po $250. Vsem trem je skupen dar $1000 poslal Rudi Knez.

Zambija.

V Zambiji deluje osem slovenskih misijonarjev in štiri laične misijonarke. Poslali smo jim pomoč MZA v znesku $5300, ki ga bo razdelil br. Jože Rovtar takole med nje: rev. Jože Grošelj $500; rev. Janez Mlakar $500; Janez Mujdrica $500; rev. Lojze Podgrajšek $610 ($500 MZA, darova dobrotnikov $50 Marica Lavriša in $60 Jože Levstik); rev. Stanko Rozman $500 od MZA in $200 kot oseben dar g. Wolbunga, skupaj $700; rev. Radko Rudež $500; br. Jože Rovtar $500; po $250 laičnim misijonarjem: Marija Anžič, Katarina Ferjančič, Kristina Leskovec in Edvin Snobel. Rev. Lovro Tomazin $500 in še osebni dar $125 Mari Celestina, skupaj $625. Rev. Rozman dobi še $500 za sv. maše. Darove je poslala Mari Celestina.

Prejeli so še: V kraju Keimoes, Južna Afrika, delujejo s. Benigna Teresa Steh in rođna sestra Benigna Alojzija Steh, vsaka po $500; v Bocvani s. Zora Škerlj $500; v Tanzaniji rev. Emil Čuk $500, v Ugandi rev. Rafko Rupert $500. P. Pepi Lebreht od mnogih dobrotnikov: Jakoba Beznika $750, ga. Coffelt in ga. Matilda Simčič po $100, Valentina Škof $150, g. Mernik $70, ga. Wojtecki $300 ter dar MZA kot vsakemu.

Naj vsakemu posebej božji Misijonar stotero pomnoži, kajti, kjer je dobrota tam je ljubezen, in kjer je ljubezen, tam je božji blagoslov.

Z darovi še nismo zaključili in prihodnji nadaljujemo.

V molitev se priporočajo naše dolgoletne pionirke misijonskega dela pri MZA Anica Tushar, Mici Coffelt in Mimi Martinčič; vse tri so na zdravljenju, prav tako nekateri naši starejši dobrotniki, ki so moroda osamljeni. Ne pozabimo tudi na naše starejše, izčrpane misijonarje.

Obžalovanje resnice (nadaljevanje s str. 24) li vsaj 12.000 protikomunističnih borcev, ali okrog 90% protikomunistične vojske. Od ostalih 10% je v petih desetletjih pomrla vsaj polovica. Kdo torej naj danes obžaluje bodisi »kolaboracijo« bodisi »domobransko« prisego, če pa je večina »kolaborantov« že v grobu? Res je, da vsaj na papirju, še obstajata dve domobranci organizaciji v Južni in Severni Ameriki, vendar sta zradi nehnega izumiranja obe tako maloštevilni, da sta ob partijski Zvezi borcev, ki še danes šteje več tisoč članov, komajda reprezentativni.

Zato se zdi, da ostaja kot edini reprezentativni element nekdanjega protikomunističnega tabora v Sloveniji - Katoliška cerkev. Ta je bila namreč tista moralna avtoriteta, katero so priznavali vsi protikomunistični borce, oni, ki so padli, in tisti, ki so obstali.

Vprašanje pa je, če bi bila Cerkev pripravljena na tako »posredovanje«. Ne manjka namreč primerov iz življenja slovenske, domobranske, če hočete, emigracije, ko se je zdelo, da so posamezni duhovniki vse prej kot navdušeni nad kakršnokoli povezavo z »vojaškim« delom slovenske emigracije. Prav lahko pa se tudi zgodi, da bi preživeli domobranci borcev Cerkvi danes odrekli pravico, da v tej zadevi govori v njihovem imenu.

Zato živijo danes preostali, osiveli slovenski domobranci v nekem zgodovinskem somraku: v Kočevskem Rogu in Teharjih prelita krije očistila kakršnekoli krivde, zgodovina pa jih s pomočjo komunistične propagande še vedno zadržuje za zastorjem svojega dogajanja. Se vedno jim je odprta pot kvečemu v - »Palmanovo«.
