Z izplačili 20-procentnih divisa svojim vložnikom je priredila reorganizirana banka North American Trust Co. v Clevelandu.

RAZNO IZ AMERIKE IN INOZEMSTVA

UPRavitelj NRA oziroma federalne organizacije za gospodarsko obnovo dežele, zgodovni general Hugh S. Johnson, je postal predsednik Rooseveltu resignacijo in predsednik jo je sprejel. Organizirano delavstvo se je vedno glasnejše pritoževalo, da se je Johnson ob vsaki važni priliki postavil na stran delodajalcev in proti delavcem. Ko je ob prilikl zadnje velike stavke tekstilnih delavcev general Johnson naravnost sovražno nastopil napram stavkarjem, je bila mera polna in organizirani delavci so odločno zahtevali njeno odslovitev.

PREDSEDNIK ROOSEVELT je dne 27. septembra naznani obsežno reorganizacijo NRA in je izročil kontrolo te organizacije najbolj liberalnim predstavnikom "New Deal." V to svrhu je imenoval odbor, sestavljen iz dveh skupin, katerih ena bo določala smernice, druga pa bo skrbela za izvajanje istih. Skupina za določanje smernic bo imela v svojem področju probleme relifa, javnih del, delavskih sporov in poljedelska vprašanja. Tej skupini bo načeloval Donald R. Richberg, dosezanji legalni svetovalec NRA. Uprava NRA v bodoče ne bo v rokah ene osebe, ampak gori omenjenega odbora, in na čelu reorganizirane NRA bo stal Richberg.

V ODBOR za ureditev sporov v tekstilni industriji je predsednik Roosevelt imenoval tri člane. Ta odbor tvorijo: Walter P. Stacy, sodnik; Henry A. Wiley, admiral, in James Mullenbach, znani posredovalec v delavskih sporih. Tekstilni delavci, ki so se vrnili na delo na poziv predsednika Roosevelta in na njegovo obljubo, da bo gori omenjeni odbor pravično upošteval njihove želje in pritožbe, upajo, da bodo dosedanje neznošne razmere v tekstilni industriji odpravljene. Nekateri delodajalci se branijo prejeti bivše štrajkarje zopet na delo in tu bo od predsednika imenovani odbor imel prvo priliko pokazati kaj more in hoče storiti za delavce.

POLJEDELSKI TAJNIK Henry Wallace je te dni v nemem magazinu objavil članek, v katerem trdi, da večina kongresnikov zastopa posebne interese in da je zato dolžnost administracije, da skrbi za korist naroda kot celote. Brezvestne industrijalce, financirje in špekulantne primerja vampirjev, ki se redijo na ljudski nesreči in revščini. Pretirano visoke tarifne ograje predstavljajo po menju poljedelskega tajnika legalizirano tatvino, ki ljudstvu Zedinjenih držav več škoduje kot vsi drugi ropi in tatvine skupaj.

EKSPORT ameriških avtomobilov je v prvih šestih mesecih tekočega leta znatno napredoval v primeri z eksportom lanskoga leta. Od prve polovice leta 1932 do sedaj se je eksport avtomobilov dvignil trikratno, eksport truckov in busov pa štirikratno. Od lani se je eksport dvignil za 22 procentov. Tako vsaj poroča ameriška trgovska zbornica.

V RADIO GOVORU je predsednik Roosevelt na večer 30. septembra omenjal uspehe in

Sovjetska Rusija je dne 18. septembra na lep način počastila 80. rojstni dan svojega odličnega sina Ivana Mičurina, ki je ruski Luther Burbank. Kot znano, je bil pred nekaj leti umrl Američan Luther Burbank eden svetovno slovnečih rastlinskih "čarovnikov." S križanjem, izbiranjem in negovanjem je vzgojil stotore nove in dovoljno pravico pri različnih narodih. Nekatere pijače so se držale le bolj domače grude, druge so se razširile od naroda do naroda. Drugi narodi so z novimi pijačami včasi tudi spreveli pravno ime, bodisi v čisti ali pokvarjeni obliki.

Vreden kolega našega Burbanka je Ivan Vladimir Mičurin, žveč v mestu Mičurin, ki se je prej imenoval Koslov, kakšnih 300 milj jugovzhodno od Moskve. Tudi njegovo delo, ki ga uspešno vrši že 60 let, je svetovno znano, kot je bilo in je že znano delo Burbanka. Kljub visoki starosti se vedno vrši svoje znanstveno delo na 20,000 akrov obsegajočem zemljišču. Sovjetska vlada mu da na razpolago vse najmodernejše primiče in dovoljno število izdelkov znamenjeni obliki.

Pivo so znali variti že stari Egipčani, toda angleška označba za to pijačo je primeroma mlada, ker izhaja iz staronemške besede "bier" in danske ter novonemške besede "bier."

Označba "whisky" za žganje izhaja baje iz celtske besede "unsqueathha," kar pomeni "vodo živiljenja." Označba "gin" za brinovec izhaja iz francoske besede "genivre" in od danske "juniver," ki obe poimenita brinje.

Označba "brandy" izhaja iz danske besede "brandewijn," ki pomeni toliko kot žgano ali distilirano vino. "Rum" je okrajšana označba iz staroangleške besede "rumbullion," ki je pomenjala vrvenje ali razsajanje; označba se je v glavnem nanašala na likerje angleškega otoka Barbados.

"Bootleg" (butleg) je tipična ameriška označba za opojne pijače, ki so izdelovane ali prodajane nepostavno. Izhaja iz časa, ko so možaki nosili še visoke škrornje iz kravij kož, v katere so skrivali steklenice prepovedanih pijač. Tekom prohibicije je "bootlegarstvo" dobrolo še bolj splošen pomen, ki je znan vsekemu izmed nas.

"Cocktail" je pijača, sestavljena iz ene ali druge vrste žganja, včasi tudi iz več vrst, kateri je dodano dišav in grenčice in ledu. Ta pijača, katere imenujemo v prestavi "petelinov rep," se je baje porodila okrog leta 1779 v gostilni Betsy Flanagan blizu New Yorka. To je bilo v času revolucionarne vojne in gostilno so posečali častniki ameriške in francoske armade. Gostilničarka jim je večkrat postregla s to pijačo, ki je bila njene izuma. Včasi je postregla goste tudi s perutno namerko, katero je "revirirala" na posetovu nekega Angleža, ki je bil nasproten ameriški osvoboditvi. Najlepše perje pokojnih petelinov je shranila in ob govorih priložnostih ga je nataknila v steklenice in okincala baro z njimi. Ko so častniki srkali "cocktail," ki takrat še ni imel imena, je nekdo predlagal naj se imenuje "cocktail" in pri tem je ostalo.

Avtomobilisti v Zedinjenih državah so v letu 1933 plačali v raznih davkih $1,170,000,000. To predstavlja okrog 11 procentov vseh davkov, ki so bili plačani iz vseh virov.

Ruska sovjetska vlada visoko cenila delo tega slovanskega Burbanka. Poleg tega, da mu po-

IMENA ZA PIJAČE

Vsaka stvar mora imeti svoje ime, sicer o njej ne moremo niti govoriti niti pisati. Ko se je človek naveličal piti samo vodo in je začel izdelovati razne pijače iz grozdja, sadja, žita ali gomoljik, jim je seveda dal imena, ki so se mu zdela prijerna. Razne pijače imajo dovoljno pravico pri različnih narodih. Nekatere pijače so se držale le bolj domače grude, druge so se razširile od naroda do naroda. Drugi narodi so z novimi pijačami včasi tudi spreveli pravno ime, bodisi v čisti ali pokvarjeni obliki.

Politične stranke v Zedinjenih državah se pripravljajo za volilno borbo, ki se vrši volilnega dne, 6. novembra. Te volitve bodo določale o mnogih vprašanjih velikanske važnosti za ves narod.

Voljeni bodo vsi člani poslanske zbornice (House of Representatives) in tretjina članov senata. Vsa dežela bo imela priliko soditi o politiki predsednika. Ako bo izvoljena večina demokratov in naprednjakov, ki podpirajo politiko "New Deal" predsednika Roosevelt, bo to pomenjalo ne le odobritev smernic predsednikove politike, marveč tudi njen nadaljevanje. Ako bi pa bila izvoljena večina nasprotnikov predsednikove politike—ali pa tudi tako se stevilo teh nasprotnikov znatno pojača v Kongresu, bi to pomenjalo neke vrste nezaupnico napram predsedniku.

Bržkone bi to dovedlo do skorajnega konca National Recovery Administration, ki je bila izvirno sprejeta le za dve leti, kakor tudi do sprememb ali konca ostalega programa narodne rekonstrukcije.

Linije politične borbe so že začrteane. Republikanski voditelji trdijo, da "New Deal" ovira naravni razvoj gospodarskih zakonov, da povečava narodni dolg in davke vselej velikih stroškov, da ustvarja novo birokracijo strokovnjakov v federalni službi in da zato bolj zadržuje, kot pospešuje zboljšanje gospodarskega položaja. Protivjo se temu, da se predsednik dajo oblasti, ki po ustavi spadajo v delokrog Kongresa, češ, da to izpodkuje same temelje ameriškega vladnega sistema. Oni sploh odrekajo, da so dosedanje mere predsednika doprinesle k dobrej in se sklicujejo na vedno veliko nezaposlenost, na številne stavke in na slab položaj posledjev.

Oni, ki v svojem volilnem programu podpirajo "New Deal," poudarjajo, da National Relief Administration je imela mnogo uspeha kot poskus za prenovitev ameriškega gospodarskega živiljenja in kot podlaga nove socialne pravice. Priravnava sedanje razmere z onimi, ki so obstajale za časa predsednikove inauguracije, ko so bile vse banke zaprte, vse gospodarsko živiljenje je bilo povsem disorganizirano in bankrot ter kaos je pretel deželi. V takih sili so bile potrebne izredne mere in zato—trdijo—je bilo upravičeno dati predsedniku večje oblasti. Zato je bilo potrebno potrošiti biljone, da se da delo nezaposlenem, odpomoč razburjenim farmerjem in da reši male hiše posestnike.

Prav tako je bilo potrebno dati predsedniku večje oblasti, da se da delo nezaposlenem, odpomoč razburjenim farmerjem in da reši male hiše posestnike.

Došli gasilci so sicer ogenj po daljšem naporu pogradi in s tem obvarovali pred požarem sosednja poslopja, toda od nesrečne starke so našli le zoglenele ostanke.

Komisija za preučevanje vodnih razmer na Notranjskem Banska uprava določi v kratkem posebno komisijo, ki bo preučila водne in jamske razmere na Notranjskem, in sicer od Vrhnik proti Logatcu, Planini, Raketu, Cerknici in Ložu v svrhu ureditve raznih potokov požiralnikov. V komisijo bodo pozvani strokovnjaci-inženjerji hidrotehničnega oddelka, pravniki banske uprave, zastopniki odbora za osuševanje Barja in zastopniki interesiranih.

Dne 9. septembra letos je poteklo sto let, kar se je rodil v Ljubljani slovenski prirodopisec in pisatelj Fran Erjavec. Največji Erjavec spis so "Domace in tuje živali v podobah," ki ga je izdala Mohorjeva družba. V isti izdaji so izšle tudi "Nase škodljive živali." Napisal je tudi mikavne prirodopisne eseje kot "Rastlinske svatbe," "Miravija," "Rak" in druge. Erjavec je služeval kot profesor dalje časa v Zagrebu, nato pa v Gorici, kjer je umrl 12. januarja 1887. Fran Erjavec sodi med slovenske klasiche 19. stoletja in bo zato trajno živel v duhovnem občestvu svojega naroda.

Na slovenskih realnih in klasičnih gimnazijah se je letos vpisalo 9332 dijakov in dijakinj. S pristetimi dijaki trgovskih šol in akademij, srednjih tehničnih šol in učiteljišč zraste število dijakov na približno 11.000. Število učencev in učenc na meščanskih šolah v Sloveniji je 8293, torej znaša skupno število dijakov in dijakinj na srednjih in meščanskih šolah o-krog 19.000.

V Hrastniku je nedavno praznovan svoj 75. rojstni dan posetnik in gostilničar Franc Eržen, upokojeni policijski nadzora

Izogibljimo se prepirov

Nobena organizacija, naj bo mala ali velika, ne more napredovati, če jo razjedajo notranji prepri. Prepri v družini nikdar ne prinesejo hišni blagostanja, ampak se mnogočas končajo v revščini in tragedijah. Vsaki organizirani skupini, pa naj bo trgovska, industrijska, delavska, kulturna itd., povzročajo notranji prepri škodo, ki večkrat vodi k propadu.

Redkokdaj se priperi, da bi bili vsi člani ene ali druge organizirane skupine popolnoma enakih nazorov. Različni nazorji vodijo do debat in včasi tudi do ostre kritike. To ni nič slabega, ampak je mnogokrat še koristno za skupino. Na ta način se izmenjavajo mnenja in se bistrijo pojmi. Važno je le, da pri tem ne pride do tolkega nasprotstva med člani, da bi škodilo skupni organizaciji.

V demokratičnih skupinah ali organizacijah odloča večina. Kadar je kakšna zadeva zaključena, se manjšina poda sklepnu večine, nakar tudi lojalni člani manjšine pomagajo pri izvršitvi istega. Vsi vemo, da so v zveznem kongresu, v državnih postavodajah, v mestnih zbornicah in na konvencijah raznih organizacij mnogokrat vroče debate, kako izpeljati to ali ono. To se ne more šteti za prepri, ampak za moško izmenjanje mnenj. Debata se ne more istovetiti s prepri.

Prepri nastajajo v različnih organizacijah največkrat zaradi osebnosti ali pa zaradi prevelike domišljavosti posameznikov. Čisto brez prepirov najbrž nikdar ne bo nobena organizacija, ker organizacije so sestavljene paž iz ljudi, in vsi ljudje imamo napake in slabosti. Važno pa je, da te prepri rešimo, poravnamo ali vsaj omilimo, predno bi mogli resno škodovati organizaciji. To se včasi doseže z lepo besedo in s poslušanjem zdrave pameti, včasi pa je treba "duhovo ločiti" ali izvršiti še kakšno bolj radikalno operacijo.

Tudi med odborniki podpornih organizacij so že bili in najbrž še bodo razni prepri. Istopako so že bili in najbrž še bodo prepri med odborniki krajevnih društev. Vzroki za to so mnogoteri, in vzrok, da smo pač ljudje, ni najmanjši med njimi. Človeške narave ne moremo preko noči izpremeniti. Zamoremo pa, če smo res dobri člani in voljni nekoliko potreti in se žrtvovati za organizacijo, te prepri po kratkem procesu prerešetati in odstraniti ali pa jih vsaj potisniti v meje, kjer ne morejo škodovati organizaciji.

V sedanjem glavnem odboru JSKJ ni notranjih sporov. Če je kje kakšna napetost, je potisnjena v prostor, kjer pod nobenim pogojem ne sme in ne more škodovati skupni organizaciji. Odborniki se zavedajo, da mora biti zanje kot takorist organizacije brezpogojno na prvem mestu.

Z vsem priznanjem je treba zabeležiti tudi dejstvo, da pri ogromni večini krajevnih društev JSKJ vladajo lep mir in red. Ako pride morda kdaj kje do kakega malega nesporazuma, ga znajo društva poravnati, da zunanjji svet ničesar ne izve o tem. Stoprocentni pa tudi mi nismo v tem oziru, kot niso nikjer drugje. Pisec tega članka je znan, da je par društev imelo oziroma še ima prepri in spore med društvenimi uradniki. Vidna posledica teh prepri je, da je uspeh naše sedanje kampanje za nove člane pri teh društvenih malenkosten ali sploh ničev, dočim so društva drugih organizacij dosegla baš tam lepe uspehe.

Bratje in sestre, tega ne bi smelo biti. Dolgorajen notranji prepri razje kot črv vsake organizacije, vsako društvo. Člani, ki ne marajo poslušati prepri, prenehajo zahajati na seje. Agitacija za nove člane obstane na mrtvi točki, ker v takih razmerah nihče nima veselja do nje. Novi člani nimajo veselja pristopati k društvu, glede katerega jim je znan, da je razdejano s prepri. Društvo in Jednota trpita na ugledu.

Če kje nastane prepri med društvenimi odborniki, ni treba, da bi se ga pokrilo s plaščem prizanesljivosti ali pozabljenja. Zadeva naj se preišče in naj se reši in sicer naj se reši na edino kompetentnem mestu, to je na društveni seji. Zunanjemu svetu ni treba vedeti za morebitne spore v društvu. Ako ne gre drugače, naj se kak uradnik žrtvuje in stopi v ozadje, da bo mir. Ko se bo v društvo zopet naselelio pravo bratstvo, bodo člani zopet dobili veselje prihajati na seje in agitirati za nove člane.

Kot dobrim članom JSKJ nam mora biti ugled in na predek društva in Jednote na prvem mestu. Nikoli se ne spozabimo toliko in ne dovolimo, da bi zaradi naših osebnih predsedkov trpel ugled našega društva in naše J. S. K. Jednote.

Nagrade, ki jih deli J. S. K. Jednota za pridobivanje novih članov, so že same na sebi vredne malega truda, ki ga nalaga agitacija. In kdo bi se v današnjih časih branil primeroma lahkega in poštenega zasluga!

VSAK PO SVOJE

su, v pečenih piškah, v vinu, v močnih cigaretah ali v božanskom californijskem podnebju.

V nekem ameriškem magazinu sem čital, da so skoro vsi veliki možje, kot Kopernik, Tycho Brahe, Kepler, Galileo, DesCartes in Newton, imeli dolge nosove. Jaz normalno ne spadam med tipične rilčarje, torej me zgodovina ne bo zapisala med duševne velikane. Včasi pa dobim začasno zelo dolg nos, pa nisem čisto nič ponosen nanj. Na primer zadnji teden, ko so me pri opravkih v tiskarni iznenadile tri dame in sem pri naglem pozdravljanju neko dobro poznano clevelandsko damo zamenjal za neko gospodično iz Wisconsina. Gosh, kakšen nos sem dobil! Skoro bi ga bilo treba zavihati predrame, ko sem po stopnjicah hitel nazaj v uređenstvo. Jaz tako majčken, nos pa tak! Tolaži me dejstvo, da jaz nisem niti prvi niti zadnji, ki je pri ženskah dobil dolg nos.

Ime morda nekaj pomeni, ko je prvič prilepljeno kaki ustavovi ali osebi, pozneje pa se mnogokrat ta pomen izgubi. Kljub temu se ime vsakega drži kot slepo črevo, katerega se je mogoče iznenediti le z radikalno operacijo. Z operacijo pa vsak odlasa do hude sile.

Novo mesto na Dolenjskem je bilo gotovo enkrat novo, zdaj pa že davno ni več. Če se kdo piše Zajec, s tem še ni rečeno, da je neumen, plah dolgovsek, Medved ni vselej močan kot medved, vsak Golob ne zna zanj ubljeleno gruliti, vsak Lisiak ne krade kokoši, vsak Slavec ni dober pevec, vsak Bogataj ni bogat, vsak Nemančič ni revez itd.

Odkod izhaja moje cenjeno ime, ne morem za gotovo reči, dasi pravi ustno izročilo, da prihaja od srbskih čigakov Torbovičev tam nekje iz idilične Like Krkave. Četudi je ta verzija resnična, ne bom vsled tega izgubil niti minute spanja.

Ime je vredno toliko, kolikor je vredna oseba ali ustavova, ki ga nosi. Končno je tudi najbolj neprikladno ime bojše od strelke. Kaznjenev in ječi, ki imajo strelko mesto imena, bidal vse na svetu, da dobi nazaj svoje ime, pa naj bo čisto brez pomembno ali nesmiselno do skrajnosti.

Ameriški Slovenci imamo med drugimi tudi to dobro lastnost, da se radi učimo sami med seboj, pa tudi od Američanov in drugorodcev. Tudi glede naših podpornih organizacij smo se učili in se včasi še učimo od drugih, ki so imeli take organizacije pred nami. Celo označbo "Jednota" smo vzelci od naših bratov Čehov in Slovakov in smo jo kar obdržali, dasi vemo, da bi bila pravilna slovenska označba Enota.

Slovenske podporne organizacije niso bile v tej deželi prve, ki so imele svoja lastna glasila. V tem, kot v mnogih drugih ozirih, so nam prednjačile starejše organizacije. Mi smo se od njih marsikaj naučili, kar nikakor ni sramotno, ampak se nam lahko zapiše v kredit. To kaže, da smo "odprte glave," kajkaj, vsak po svoje.

Prijatelj B. me opozarja, da naj bi bil hvaležen tistim, ki so prišli na idejo lastnih glasil za podporne organizacije. Saj sem jim hvaležen, samo ne vem, kdo in kje so bili vsi tisti dalekovidni možje. Istopako upam, da je tudi on hvaležen tistim, ki so vresničili idejo pocestne železnice na električni pogon, da mu ni treba po cesti preganjati kakih mršavih konj.

Seje društev JSKJ se vodijo v smislu naših pravil in po navodilih obrednika. Kdo hoče objektivno, brez zaviranja in to storili vi!"

tudi delne neuspehe ter reorganizacijo NRA. Zagovarjal je dosedanje korake administracije za odpravo depresije in poudarjal, da prava svoboda mora veljati za najširše plasti naroda, ne pa samo za peščico izvoljenec. Apeliral je tudi na podjetnike in delavce, da bi svoje spore po možnosti resili mirnim potom, da se s tem pospeši povratek prosperitet.

V CLEVELANDU, O., zboruje te dni National Safety Council, ki se bavi s problemi, kako zmanjšati izredno veliko število prometnih in drugih nesreč v deželi. Na konvenciji je okrog 8 tisoč delegatov in delegatinj iz vseh delov Zedinjenih držav.

AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

CURRENT THOUGHT

We, Too, Can be Proud

It is no longer "smart" for the American-born youth to drift away from his nationality group and disclaim all connections with his foreign-born parents.

The Slovene boy and girl of today has been taught to appreciate rather than frown upon his nationality background. He and she realize that the Slovenes are just as important in American life as are other nationalities.

When the Slovenes first began to migrate to the States in large numbers during the nineties they were confronted with the task of establishing themselves in new surroundings. They were compelled to accept the first job open to them. Unable to speak the English language fluently, these sturdy Slovene pioneers drifted to various parts of the country where labor was in demand.

The first generation of American-born Slovenes sensed the inferior complex assumed by their parents and became increasingly conscious of their station in life when that ignorant group of so-called 100 per cent Americans (who in reality are descendants of foreigners) ridiculed the "Kreiners."

And when some of the parents indulged in drinking excessive amounts of wine, whisky and beer their children were pointed out as coming from "no good stock," as though other nationalities, including the "genuine" Americans, never got intoxicated. The only difference was that these righteous individuals had good connections, were well established, and as such could never become a public nuisance, as they termed it.

In spite of the many obstacles many of our Slovene immigrants trained themselves for jobs requiring a high degree of skill. Many of them sent their sons and daughters through high schools and universities.

Today it is not uncommon to find American-born Slovenes holding important public offices. American-born Slovene doctors, dentists, attorneys, engineers, professors and others are no longer a novelty. After a span of some forty years Slovenes as nationality find themselves well established in American life. Some of the American-born Slovenes realize their position in American life. However, it took a native Slovene who emigrated to America at the age of 14, became naturalized, enlisted in the U. S. army, to tell the nation of the fine qualities of the Slovenes. That man is Louis Adamic, who in his "Native's Return" made many an American-born Slovene feel "cheap" for renouncing his cultural background and severing all connections with his people.

Comrades to Revive Active Spirit

Waukegan, Ill.—The once and sister members, watch our membership thermometer rise.

Comrades' membership thermometer is only about 8 above zero. Boy, that's cold. So watch our heat and smoke make it rise. Our last meeting was held on Sept. 28, at 7:30 p. m.

Reunion of Alumni

Cleveland, O.—Several hundred former students of St. Mary's School, Collinwood, are expected to attend the first annual reunion of St. Mary's alumni, which is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 7. The Alumni Council, recently organized and headed by Jack Vidmar, has planned quite a program for the returning graduates.

All graduates who have made reservations shall be served a buffet luncheon in the parochial school hall. Entertainment provided by former students shall constitute the afternoon program. Among the featured artists are Joseph Tercek, guitarist and vocalist; Mary Ostanek, vocalist; Josephine Trcek, pianist, and Joseph Nainiger, accordionist. Helen Kozar and Josephine Tercek, former juvenile radio singers, are also on the program.

Slovenec, No. 114

Ely, Minn.—All members are requested to attend the next regular meeting of Slovenec Lodge, No. 114, SSCU, at 1 p. m., on Oct. 21 for the purpose of electing a new secretary for the balance of this year.

I have resigned as secretary of this lodge, effective Oct. 1, because I am leaving the city to assume my new duties as clerk in the Federal Immigration Service at International Falls. In the meantime business will be carried on by your treasurer, Peter Skradin Sr., who lives at 127 W. Sheridan St.

"No," she retorted, "but considering what I got I was an early bird."

A Savings Account

To acquire the habit of systematic saving is inherent with most of us.

The man working in a factory, in a coal or iron ore mine; the white-collar man "pushing the pencil," the executive; the salesman, the truck driver, the mechanic, etc.—all strive to put a little money aside after each pay day.

Though all of us have good intentions to save something for a rainy day, unexpected expenses continue to bob up like cork immersed in water. Obligations not included in the budget must be met, and as small as such bills are, yet they are sufficient to absorb what little money there is left—and sometimes more.

The main problem with the average wage earner is how to eliminate that extra expense, which means the difference between saving a small amount and spending it.

It is so easy to succumb before attractive advertisements. It is so hard to pass up a good buy, especially when it involves the expenditure of but a few dollars—that little sum that was going to be set aside.

And when a withdrawal of savings is made it is most always with the conscientious intent to replace the few dollars. But alas! too often it is entirely forgotten, or replaced only after an elapse of a few pay days.

When bills come around the first of the month the natural reaction is to meet it before spending that money for other little things.

So it is with our members. Every month they set aside one, two or three dollars with which to pay their assessments. This small amount, although negligible, easily could be spent on trifles—still it spells protection for themselves and their dependents; it also spells a savings account. Small, perhaps, but nevertheless a systematic savings account with regular deposits.

For lodge insurance with our SSCU today commands a reserve and loan value. Death benefits whether they be taken out under Plan AA (ordinary life), Plan B (20-year payment life) or Plan C (20-year endowment), increase in value daily. In short, they are worth so much in cash that keeps increasing.

Our members are sure of saving a little each month. They are compelled to set aside a small amount—a few dollars that could not be accounted for at the end of the year, if he or she did not carry insurance with our SSCU.

Tell your friends and relatives of our easy plan to save a little each month, and still carry insurance against death.

To those interested in sick benefits, accident and indemnity benefits, and disability benefits, our Union offers such insurance for a nominal cost.

Last but not least, our SSCU offers attractive cash awards to its members for new enrollments. Just think of it, $4.00 for a $2,000 death benefit enrollment; $3.50 for $1,500, $3.00 for $1,000, $1.50 for $500 and $1.00 for $250.

For every juvenile member enrolled our Union offers a cash award of 50 cents.

And to top it all, lodges, too, may share in cash awards. For every new member enrolled, either in the adult or juvenile department, the lodge is eligible to receive 50 cents provided five or more are secured during this campaign.

Can you afford to pass up this attractive offer?

"I Can't Afford It"

If your wife were taken sick this afternoon with appendicitis—would you wait to figure out whether you could afford to send for the doctor, before calling one in?

If the soles of your shoes were completely gone—would you say, "I can't afford a new pair," and go barefoot?

If your clothes were completely worn out would you say, "I can't afford a new suit," and go naked?

I venture to say that 90 percent of the purchases you have made in life, you have never stopped to reason whether or not you could afford it—it all depended upon how badly you wanted it.

Smoking—traveling—theater picture shows—the whole field of your activities—how many times do you restrain yourself—and say—"I can't afford it"?

The difficulty with you is that you never have differentiated between life insurance being a luxury and life insurance as a necessity.

When you realize how necessary it will be for your wife and children to have this money, when you are gone—you won't say—"I can't afford it"—somehow you have always found a way to provide for the necessities of life—Life Insurance is a Necessity.—Fraternal Monitor.

A MINOR POINT

His Wife: So your client was acquitted of murder. On what grounds?

Lawyer: Insanity. We proved that his father had spent five years in an asylum.

His Wife: But he didn't, did he?

Lawyer: Yes. He was a doctor there, but we had not time to bring that fact out.

Stockholders

East Palestine, O.—Every member of the SSCU is a stockholder in a great organization. And this organization is maintained for the purpose of safeguarding the people who are its sponsors. Its dividends are shared by the thousands—and these same thousands are its sole owners. It is composed of a great mass of people working in harmony for the benefit of all concerned. These people have succeeded in establishing an institution which repays in full their every investment in it. One of the finest institutions of its type in America, its doors always remain open to welcome the many who may wish to work and share in its profit.

States Granting Old Age Pensions

There were 26 states with laws relating to old age pensions on July 1, 1933. There are but 15 states which have actually put these laws in operation, however. They are: California, Delaware, Colorado, Idaho, Maryland, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Utah, Wisconsin, Wyoming and one county in West Virginia became operative Jan. 1, 1933. Kentucky has never placed her law in force. Laws were enacted in nine additional states this year: Washington, North Dakota, Arizona, Indiana, Oregon, Maine, Nebraska and Michigan. The law enacted in Arkansas was declared unconstitutional by the State Supreme Court. Alaska also has an old age pension law. If any detailed information about these laws is desired write to your State Bureau of Pensions at the state capital.

Must There be Another One?

By Frank J. Progar, No. 203, SSCU, Springdale, Pa.

More than fifteen years have elapsed since the world culminated its sickening and atrocious slaughtering of human lives. That great battle—the school children are being taught—was fought to make the world safe for democracy, but with the advancement of time more and more astounding disclosures are greeting John Q. Public's eyes and ears; the latest, the Senate's munitions probe, contributing greatly to the full significance of "What generally precipitates wars." Innumerable causes have been laid at the doorsteps of the international banker and big business in general; the prime motive being their greedy lust for profits and proper settlement of all claims. The last "great show," written and presented, but not acted, by the above board of strategy, was brought to a successful fruition for its sponsors, while the actors (our soldiers) were rewarded with death, invalidism and heartaches, while the world in general was the recipient of the greatest economic upheaval in its history, an outgrowth of that great conflict.

Notwithstanding this past unwarranted ugly blot on the pages of our history, it is the general consensus of opinion among the students of international affairs that another splurge into the commitment of wholesale slaughtering of the best of our young manhood is inevitable. A few sore spots are causing pain and irritation in Europe, while, likewise, the Far East is none too healthy, we are told; but the world populace emphatically registers an unanimous vote against a repetition of the hectic days of 1914-18. Then how do we account for the international disputes and failures of disarmaments? Again the doorsteps of the above mentioned board of strategy beckons us. Trade wars and profit seekers disregarding humanity, prepare workable solutions in terms of dollars only. Among the latter we find the heartless, and often fiendish, munitions manufacturers. It is no secret that they have disseminated untruths in reporting one country's armaments to cause its enemy to increase its holdings; that they have bribed high government officials and instituted war scares, the whole to lead in a mad race for increased armaments, resulting in the possibility of another world-wide war and bloody dollar profits for the munition makers.

In last week's Current Thought column the work of the "deadly weapon" manufacturers was truthfully outlined. Not only are the nations at war but the organized crimes are directly attributed to the profit motive of these manufacturers. The National Fraternal Congress of America in its December, 1932, convention went on record as follows: That the private manufacture of armaments be discouraged and that the state take over all such activities. The present time, with the Senate revelations, is most opportune to renew these efforts. More disclosures are forthcoming with legislation in next Congress. The capital invested in the industries will know no limit to build a united front for opposition. We must do likewise. Another bloody strife means loss to members as well as to the organization as a whole. Therefore, I can safely say, I believe, that the entire membership of South Slavonic Catholic Union is unanimously opposed to the war tactics and each lodge should avail itself of this opportune moment to express itself. Let's start the ball rolling and get the entire N. F. C. of A. to redouble its efforts.

News and Statistics of Lodge No. 40 Mushball Team

Claridge, Pa.—Once again Claridge speaks. This time it brings forth some good news, some sad news, and last but not least, bitter news. Perhaps the reader will find the news a bit tardy, but it's better late than never.

In the month of August Bro. John Shula, age 23, passed away, and our mushball team lost one of its players.

Our picnic held on Aug. 25 was a success. A number of out-of-town folks were in attendance. I sincerely hope that those people from out Indiana enjoyed themselves at our picnic. I am sorry to say that I misplaced the list of names given to me. I think I'll blame my wife for that. At any rate, we all hope that you will express your thoughts through the Nova Doba. Come again and bring some of your friends. The same goes for the folks from Herminie.

A midnight dance will be sponsored by our St. Michael Lodge, No. 40, SSCU, on Wednesday, Nov. 28. Follow the Nova Doba for further particulars on this dance.

Well, sport fans of Nova Doba, our mushball season is over with the exception of the play-off between SNPJ No. 7, winners of the first half, and Bushy Run Indians, winners of the second half. I hope the SNPJ have the cup in their possession by the time this article goes to press.

Yes, sir, those pesky Indians sure took our scalp on the 11th and knocked us clear out of the second half. When our opponents held our scalps dangling from their belts, the score of the final game was 7 runs, 5 hits and no errors for B. R. Indians and no runs, no hits and 9 errors for SSCU. Earned runs for B. R. I. none. It would have been a better game if those redskins had not set fire to our powder wagon and blown us to—well, you know. But we took the bitter pill, and how we can take it.

Esler, star hurler for the SSCU, was on the mound and pitched fine ball, but in return was given very, very ragged support. Just the same, we had a lot of fun out of the game, enrolled some new members, gave the manager and a few others some gray hairs and saved Whity Turk fifty dollars.

Here are the batting averages of our players:

L. Beltz, first baseman, who led the league's hitting, averaged .467 with 25 hits out of 54 times at bat.

Joe Regina, manager and pinch hitter, .429 with 3 hits out of 7 times at bat.

M. Bratkovich, captain and league's best third baseman, garnered 22 hits out of 60 times at bat for .366.

W. Kratofil, shortstop, averaged .302 with 16 hits out of 53 trips to the plate.

Zubaty, league's best all-around player, collected 12 hits out of 50 times at bat for .240.

M. Regina, center fielder, .212, with 11 hits out of 52 trips to the plate.

H. Yerina, star short center, was at bat 60 times for 12 hits and .200 average.

J. Esler, star pitcher, made 8 hits out of 44 times at bat for .182.

Shultz, outfielder, collected 7 hits for .143.

Novak, right fielder, averaged .122; J. Vozel, catcher, .080; H. Kosaglov, .075; F. Vozel, second baseman, .038; J. Shula, deceased, came to bat but for times.

Total runs, hits, etc., for season are:

	AB	H	R	Ave.
SSCU.....	547	122	58	.223
Opp.	557	101	46	.181

The average is low and the game was tight for first year players.

Well, boys, we'll see whose dog barks the best next week as training season is on in Pennsylvania.

John Regina, Vice Pres.

A Pathfinder Meeting

Gowanda, N. Y.—By the time this article appears in the Nova Doba the dance that was sponsored by all of the different lodges will be over and many a person who attended it perhaps will not have recovered, referring to the stronger sex, of course. Since our particular assignment was to write upon our recent monthly meeting held on Sept. 18 at the Slovenski Dom, we are finding it rather difficult to begin as there are so many different things we might say; but how to express it is another matter.

Upon arriving at our meeting place, we found that many were already there, whereupon shortly the meeting was called to order except that our beloved president, Bro. Andolsek, had lost his "tom-tom" or hammer, as it is called in the English language; and after a rather frantic search it was found. Our meeting then proceeded upon its regular course and after long discussions upon interesting topics of the day (those pertaining to Pathfinders, of course), our meeting was adjourned.

As this was the first meeting of the winter season, when the members usually feel more enthusiastic to come to the meetings, the entertainment for after the meeting had not been fully completed owing to the fact that many of our weaker sex had made other plans for the evening. Prospective mothers need to drink from four to eight glasses of water every day. Other good liquid foods are cocoa and chocolate, soups and broths, buttermilk and sweet milk.

Sweet milk is especially valuable. Every effort should be made to cultivate a taste for it. There is no better preparation for maternal nursing. Those accustomed to tea and coffee need not stop using them altogether, but an effort should be made to reduce the amount taken. Alcoholic drinks are not necessary, nor are they desirable.

A new born child gains half of its weight in the last eight weeks before birth. At this time there will be an increased demand for foods that supply heat, energy, calcium and phosphorus. The addition of milk and green vegetables to the regular diet will help meet this demand.

It may be necessary to drink the milk between meals and at bedtime to avoid overloading the stomach at regular meal-times.

If milk is not acceptable, some other light food may be taken, such as cocoa, or broth or soup with biscuit. The doctor's advice should be followed.

The habit of eating thus lightly several times a day may do much to relieve the upset stomach which often accompanies the earlier weeks of pregnancy. The doctor can decide whether or not a mother's food is sufficiently nourishing and if it contains enough liquid to assist the necessary bodily functions.

The basis for good health of the mother and baby is proper food, plenty of fresh water, exercise in the fresh air and sunshine, rest and sleep.

o'clock she was in possession of all of our dough. There was nothing left to do but to go home and lament over our losses, so after bidding farewell to all our fellow members we departed for our "Home Sweet Homes."

We know that everyone had an enjoyable time, for the whole meeting crowd and more stayed until we were literally kicked out.

The entertainment after our next meeting is going to be in the form of a "Hard Time" party; so, Pathfinders, attention! Put on your raggies

Be a Good Mother

Editorial Note: This is the second of a series of articles prepared by the Cleveland Child Health Association, Room 506, 1800 Euclid Ave.

More than half of all infant deaths occur within the first month of life. Strong, healthy babies require strong, healthy mothers. Careful attention to the plain and simple rules of health will help the mother give her baby a better start in life.

Proper food is of first importance. If a doctor finds her diet has been properly selected in the past, the food of a prospective mother need not differ greatly from that to which she is accustomed. There is little truth in the common saying that "a mother must eat for two."

Nourishing, easily digestible foods are more desirable than large quantities of poorly chosen foods. An ideal diet includes relatively large proportions of liquids, small proportions of meats, and generous proportions of fresh fruits and vegetables.

Most doctors say meat should not be eaten more than once a day. Liquids help the bodily organs to get rid of waste products and reduce the chance of illness. Prospective mothers need to drink from four to eight glasses of water every day. Other good liquid foods are cocoa and chocolate, soups and broths, buttermilk and sweet milk.

Sweet milk is especially valuable. Every effort should be made to cultivate a taste for it. There is no better preparation for maternal nursing. Those accustomed to tea and coffee need not stop using them altogether, but an effort should be made to reduce the amount taken. Alcoholic drinks are not necessary, nor are they desirable.

Miss Hermina A. Zortz of Lorain, O., has been appointed a member of the Oberlin (O.) College administrative staff in the Department of Psychology by the Board of Trustees of Oberlin College. For the last three years Miss Zortz has been connected with the college as a student and as a research worker. In 1929 Miss Zortz graduated from Lorain High School as an honor student. In 1930 she graduated with the class of 1930 from Oberlin School of Commerce, where she received the distinction of having made the highest record for that year. Miss Zortz is a member of Lodge No. 6, SSCU, of Lorain.

When Detroit Tigers and St. Louis Cardinals meet for the world's championship this week they will present a lineup that will not be utterly devoid of Slovene color. Frank Doljack, Slovene, formerly with the Cleveland sandlotters, is certain to be used during the series as his timely hitting and good fielding contributed to the victories gained by the Detroit team in their quest for the American League championship. As all the eyes of the sport world will be focused on the world series so will all eyes of Slovene athletes be centered on Frank Doljack.

Cleveland Board of Education announces the opening of night school classes on Oct. 8, with exception of two high schools and classes in elementary English, which already began Sept. 17. Students interested in completing a high school course can take advantage of the extension courses that prepare them for a diploma and entrance for college. Others interested in technical training or commercial subjects may avail themselves of the opportunity to secure practical knowledge in their chosen field.

Dr. A. L. Garbas, member of George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, Cleveland, O., again will donate a trophy to the winner of the local Interlodge baseball champion. In the first game of the "little series" Pioneers took the long count of a 4 to 0 score over the Orels.

Mrs. James W. Mally will lecture on art at the Cleveland Club of Yugoslav Artists' program to be given in the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Ave., next Thursday, Oct. 4. This lecture is the first of a series of four sponsored by the art club on successive Thursdays. The public is invited to the lectures, which are free.

Cleveland Slovene National Home on St. Clair Ave. will build a $16,000 addition to the main auditorium, as decided by the directors. The improvement will include a separate hall for banquets and small affairs. Directors further decided to formulate plans for a radio program sponsored by S. N. Home on one of the local stations.

With the Pathfinders

Gowanda, N. Y.—Pathfinders baseball team closed its 1934 season at Brant Beach Sunday, Sept. 9, losing a 10-inning struggle to the strong Farnham aggregation. Our opponents have lost only one game during the entire season of playing. Final score was 5 to 4. Excellent pitching by both moundsmen was easily the feature of the game; Harold Galbraith for Farnham and Tony for the Pathfinders. Most of the runs were scored on errors. Pathfinders were trailing by a score of 4 to 1 for eight innings, when in the ninth fracas they sent across three runs to tie the score at 4-all. The Farnham team tallied one in the 10th to end the ball game.

During the season Pathfinders played 16 games, losing 11, winning 4 and one a tie. Lack of timely hitting, when hits were needed, lost most of the games. Five of the games were lost by but one run.

Now that the 1934 season is closed we wish to thank our manager, Rudy Klancer, for his splendid and untiring effort in trying to build a winning team—a team the Pathfinders should be proud of. Although they lost nearly all their games, the boys made a very good showing, always trying hard to win and never giving up till the last man was out.

Next spring we hope to see all the ball players out for the team again. We have very good material for a fine team, and there is no reason why the Pathfinders can't have an excellent aggregation.

Pathfinders Baseball Club, Thomas Sternisha, Captain.

APPRECIATION

We wish to thank the members of Pathfinders Lodge for the beautiful wedding gift.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sternisha.

"My Wife Will Marry Again." He May Be Wrong

According to The Insurance Salesman, "Someone has said that Americans are famous for knowing so many things which aren't so. Maybe that's libel, but it does seem as though a good many of our tire-honored beliefs have gone by the board recently. Take the fellow who tells you 'I don't want a lot of life insurance. My wife'll marry again if anything happens to me.'

Probably he believes it, but figures recently compiled by the National Council on Compensation Insurance should bring him to a full stop. For instance:

"Of widows between 21 and 25, only three out of 10 ever remarry; of those between 31 and 35, only two in 15 remarry, and between 36 and 40, the ratio drops to one in 15.

"Of course, we realize that the man who springs that objection—and really means it—isn't thinking along lines that make him an ideal prospect for life insurance. We're suggesting the National Council figures more as a means of winning an argument than of making a sale!"—Fraternal Monitor.

OR TRY HEAD CHEESE Yes, I know fish is brain food, but I don't care so much for fish. Hain't there some other brain food?"

"Well, there's noodle soup."

MOTHER'S HELPER "A fine little man. Do you help mother?"

"Yes, I am going to count the spoons when you have had tea."

Gophers Start Season

Ely, Minn.—Crisp, cool fall weather is here, and with it has returned the snappiness and pep of all Gophers—all rarin' to go! Plans are under way to start the 1934-35 season in full swing, and Little Stan, the Gopher correspondent, will be at the "mike" to tell you all about the doings, games, and everything else that comes out of our entertaining meetings. We also expect to have a number of new members present who will be initiated as full-fledged Gophers in the near future. Won't that be fun! Saturday night the Gophers are sponsoring a dance at the Win-ton Resort; of course, by the time you read this it will be

Mt. Shavano Responds

Salida, Colo.—The sun comes out early over the snow up in the mountains. A perfect day to call on some of our members that we didn't get to see the last time.

Stanley Glovan, a clerk in the local grocery store, is my first visitor, I said to him: "I want a gallon-can of oil, and step on it," for I was in a hurry.

To my consternation Stanley returns with a smashed can that looked like it fell under a roller.

"What's the idea of that?" I said to him.

"You told me to step on it," responded Stanley, with a big grin on his face.

That's Stanley for you.

Frank Botz is the next victim. He and I went on a little trip. Slowly the car winds up the mountain road, higher and higher. Where can he be going?

Oh, yes, he is heading for the top of the world, which is Leadville, Colo. Frank makes a number of such trips and so I asked him his reason.

"Since the altitude is so high up there the beer is so much cooler," he told me.

Victor Struna, our piano player, is the next one on the list. Every time I think of Victor he reminds me of the saying, "Two can live as cheap as one." Victor will try this noble experiment and he promises to have for his mate a Mt. Shavano member before long.

I see Johnny Shine, another member, coming along.

"Hello, Johnny, how are you feeling today?" I asked.

"With fingers, of course," replied Johnny.

My list included Frank Glovan and Adolph Loushia. But to tell you the truth, I have nothing on them. However, since both will be present at our next meeting I will get some information about them.

Members of Mt. Shavano Lodge, be sure to attend our next meeting which will be held Oct. 14, for we expect everyone to be present. A number of surprises await you.

To the Four Bachelors of Springdale, Pa., I offer this article as my answer to their plea to flood the Nova Doba and Bro. Kolar with news and comments.

Razsodbe gl. porotnega odbora J. S. K. J.

Priziv Paula Lukaniča, člana društva sv. Florijana, št. 64, v South Range, Michigan, vsled njemu odklonjene bolniške podpore, od dne 10. marca do dne 17. maja 1934. Podpora mu je bila odklonjena vseled poročila njegovega zdravnika, datiranega dne 17. maja 1934, v katerem je povedano, da je bil član v zgoraj omenjenem času njegove bolezni samo delno onemogel. Član trdi, da temu ni tako in da ni mogel opravljati nikakega dela. Član živi izven sedeža društva in poročila njegovega zdravnika, na reja na jednotnih formah, so zaprišenega pred javnim notarjem. Porotnemu odboru je bilo predloženo novo zdravniško spričevalo in tudi še posebno pojasnilo. Prvo datirano dne 18. julija in drugo dne 20. avgusta 1934. Porotni odbor je razsodil soglasno: 1.) Član ni upravičen do odklonjene bolniške podpore, ker Jednota ne plača iste, kadar je bolnik samo deloma onemogel. 2.) Po nejša poročila in pojasnila njegovega zdravnika se ne smatra za zadosten dokaz, da ni pravilno poročal o zdravstvenem stanju tega člana dne 17. maja 1934.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

POPRAVEK. — V mojem dopisu, ki je bil priobčen v Novi Dobi z dne 12. septembra, kjer sem se zahvaljeval članom različnih društev, ki so bili posetili naš piknik, sem pomotorno označil društvo št. 205. Pravilno bi se moral glasiti "društvo št. 203 JSKJ, Cheswick, Pa." Član omenjenega društva naj vzamejo ta popravek blagohtno na znanje. — Za društvo št. 26 JSKJ:

Joseph Pogačar, tajnik.

* Ely, Minn.

Vsi člani društva "Slovenec," št. 114 JSKJ so vabljeni, da se skutovo udeležijo prihodnjeg rednega seja, ki se bo vršila 21. oktobra in se bo pričela ob eni uri popoldne. Na omenjeni seji bo treba izvoliti novega društvenega tajnika za nepotečen termin tega leta. Podpisani sem z dnem 1. oktobra resigniral kot društveni tajnik iz vzroka, ker odidem iz mesta Ely v International Falls, da tam preuzamem službo klerka v federalni imigracijski službi. Do izvolitve novega tajnika bo vse tajniške posle vodil društveni blagajnik Peter Skradski Sr., ki biva na 137 W. Sheridan St. — Za bratskim pozdravom,

J. J. Boldin, bivši tajnik dr. št. 114 JSKJ.

Predmet dopisa: velika plesna veselica društva "Zvezda," št. 170 JSKJ.

Članice društva "Zvezda," št. 170 JSKJ smo sklenile, da predimo veliko jesensko veselico v soboto 13. oktobra zvečer v Polki Sokolski dvorani na 1921 W. Cermak Rd. (prej 22. St.) Kakor na vsaki prejšnji veselici našega društva, bo tudi sedaj naš odbor v najboljši meri prisrelbil za lačne, žeje in plesačljive. Na veselicu bomo tudi posebno (živo) dario. Kateremu bo sreča mila, bo lahko imel drugi dan doma fino pečenko.

Vljudno so vabljeni vse člani in članice bratskih in sestrskih društev v Chicagu in prijatelji "Zvezde" v tem okrožju, da nas posetijo na veselicu 13. oktobra. Članice našega društva so pa posebej prošene, da razpečajo vse vstopnice, katere so jim poslane, ter da ne pozabijo pripeljati na veselico svojih "boljših polovic" in svojih znancev, prijateljev in prijateljev. Ako vsaka članica stori svoje najboljše v tem oziru, bo gotovo uspeh dober. Kot je bilo že omenjeno, bo postrežba dobra in godba za ples bo prvorstna. Sploh bo dovolj zabave za stare in mlade. Torej, ne pozabite dana 13. oktobra ter pridite tisti večer vsi, katerim je le mogče, na v eselico chicaških Zvezd! — Za društvo Zvezda, št. 170 JSKJ:

Agnes Jurečič, tajnica.

East Helena, Mont.

Članom društva sv. Alojzija, št. 43 JSKJ naznanim, da sem podal ostavko kot društveni tajnik. To iz vzroka, ker za nekaj mesecov odidem iz East Helene. Društvo je ostavko vzelo na znanje in je za novega tajnika izvolilo sobrata Louisa Smitha, Box 371, East Helena, Mont. Vsi člani društva št. 43 JSKJ, posebno tisti, ki bivajo izven društvenega sedeža, so prošeni, da se v vseh zadevah, ki se tičejo društvenega tajništva, obračajo na novega tajnika, po naslovu, ki je naveden zgoraj. Novemu društvenemu tajniku želim prijetnega poslovanja, društvu pa veliko uspeha in napredka. — Z bratskim pozdravom, Frank Smith, bivši tajnik dr. št. 43 JSKJ.

Na seji Federacije JSKJ društva v državi Ohio, ki se je vršila v nedeljo 30. septembra, je bilo precej razprave o Money Ordu za $50.00, katerega je tajnik društva št. 108 JSKJ odstavljal, tajnik Federacije pa je izjavljal, da ga ni prejel. Sugestirano je bilo, da je tajnik Federacije dotični Money Order kam založil, in da naj bi se to pregledalo, predno se gre vpraviti na pošto. Tako po zaključenih sejih se je tajnik Federacije podal domov in je pogrešani Money Order res našel založen med papirji. Vrnili se je v zborovalne prostore, kjer je pogrešani Money Order pokazal včini udeležencev omenjene seje. Tisti zborovadci, ki so pred tem odšli na svoje domove, naj bodo pa tem potom obveščeni, da je zadeva pogrešanega Money Ordra zadovoljivo rešena. — Za Federacijo JSKJ društev v državi Ohio:

URADNA IZJAVA TAJNIKA DRUŠTVA SLOGA, ŠT. 174 JSKJ. — Seja glavnega odbora je sklenila opustiti ali suspendirati dva mesečna asesmenta za mladinski oddelki, in to za mesec september in oktober. Glavni tajnik je poročal o tem med uradnimi naznanimi v Novi Dobi, kakor je bilo priobčeno tudi v zapisniku polletnega zborovanja glavnega odbora. Ne vem, kako da sem isto prezrl. Ko sem prejel mesečno poročilo od glavnega tajnika, sem viden, da mladinski oddelki nič računan. Obrnil sem se na glavni urad za pojasnilo in sem 22. septembra prejel odgovor, da je mladinski asesment prost dva meseca. Ker pa je do danes že nad polovico asesmenta plačanega, ne morem povravljati knjig za pobiranje asesmenta, torej bom pobiral asesment do konca. Ko bomo pa poslali denar v glavni urad, bom pa mladinski asesment vsekemu posebej vrnil. Tistim, ki živijo v bližini, bom prinesel na dom, ostali bodo dobili nazaj pa na prihodnji seji. To pa vsled tega, ker ako bi zdaj pričel prepisavati asesment, bi morda nekateri zahtevali nazaj po dvakrat.

Prosim članstvo, da oprosti mojo površnost ali malomarnost. Krvida je moja, ker nisem prečital vseh uradnih naznanih v Novi Dobi. Glavni tajnik pa me ni pismeno obvestil, da je mladinski asesment ukinjen. Glavno tajništvo običajno to storiti potom uradnega pisma. Vse grehe prevzemam na svojo dušo. Raznih sitnežev pa reši me, o gospod!

Vročina, suša, pasji dnevi in pikniki, vse to je zopet za letos pri kraju. Jesen, ta predhodnica zime je zopet pri nas in z njo pridejo tudi razne društvene prireditve na naših Narodnih domovih in drugih dvoranah.

Prvo tako prireditev v Pittsburghu bo med nami priredil letos naš Slovenski dom na večer 12. oktobra. Prav za prav bo do delo domovih odsekov, namreč gospodinjskega, pevskega in dramatike. Prireditev se bo seveda vršila v domovih prostorih na 57. cesti.

Na programu omenjene prireditve je lepa igra "Pogoda," burka v dveh dejanjih, ki nuditi gledalcu mnogo smeha in drugega duševnega užitka. Igrici sledi petje mešanega zbora, potem pa ples. Za ples bo igral A. Moravec orkester in še en drugi, da bo tako ustrezeno mladim in starejšim. Nadalje bo na programu menda še več drugih reči, o katerih pa ne morem tutkaj poročati, ker naš gospodinjski klub ima tudi svoje tajnosti. Razumel sem, da bo isti imel dotični večer službo v kuhinji, kaj bo tam delal, je pa težko uganiti. Najbolje bo pa, kjer hočemo vedeti, kaj vse se bo dotični večer vršilo v Slovenskem domu, da pridevimo izkazovati dosedaj. Vsak član ima gotovo kakega prijatelja, vsaka članica gotovo kako prijateljico, ki bi se dala uridobiti za JSKJ. Saj je naša J. S. K. Jednota vendar ena najboljših slovenskih podpornih organizacij. Pri agitaciji za nove člane ni treba nikomur nič pretiravati, vsak naj samo resnico govoriti, pa bo imel dovolj lepega in hvalevrednega povedati o J. S. K. Jednoti. Kdo hoče resnico govoriti, ne more drugače kot pojavno govoriti o naši Jednoti.

Clanji in članice vseh tukajšnjih društiev in vsi posamezni rojaki in rojakinje so vabljeni, da se udeležijo te pristno domaže zavade, ker bo to v interesu nas vseh. Torej, na svidenje v Slovenskem domu v Pittsburghu na večer 12. oktobra! — Ivan Račič.

Na tudi domače zavade.

Kakor pri vsakem dalj časa obstoječem zboru, se je tudi pri "Liri" članstvo pologoma obnovilo. Zbor šteje zdaj 18 moči; izmed teh so bile samo naslednje tri osebe zraven še v začetku: Mrs. L. Nemanic, znana sopranistinja, Mr. John Weble, sedanji predsednik in svoj čas učitelj tamburaškega odseka, in Mr. Frank Kordesh.

"Liro" so poučevali naslednji pevovodje, ki so jih v marsikaterem oziru vtisnili pečat več kakor povprečne dovršenosti: Mr. Jacob Muha, Mr. Arnold Hess, Mr. Kindl, Mr. Kvederas, in sedanji vodja Mr. Gabriel Chrzanowski.

"Lira" je po številu razmeroma šibek zbor, ni pa šibka po svojem smislu in stremljenju za kolikor mogoče fino in dovršeno proizvajanje pesmi, kar je zboro

Na zadnji redni seji društva "Danica," št. 124 JSKJ smo razmotrivali glede pridobivanja novih članov in članic za JSKJ. Kampanja je še odprtia in lepe nagrade za novopridobljene člane so še vedno na razpolago. Ko bi se člani in članice malo bolj potrudili, bi mogli doseči boljši rezultat kot ga moremo izkazovati dosedaj. Vsak član ima gotovo kakega prijatelja, vsaka članica gotovo kako prijateljico, ki bi se dala uridobiti za JSKJ. Saj je naša J. S. K. Jednota vendar ena najboljših slovenskih podpornih organizacij. Clanji in članice društva "Danica," št. 124 JSKJ smo razmotrivali glede pridobivanja novih članov in članic za JSKJ. — Društvo je bilo ustanovljeno meseca januarja 1914, in sicer ravno na dan, ko je praktika kazala sv. Rojaki, ki so novo društvo ustanovili, še takrat niso vedeli, kako se bo nova naselbina imenovala, zato jih so označili, naj društvo spada pod Delmont.

Dvajsetletna društva bi se bila torej morala obhajati že letos v januarju, toda takrat je bilo na to nekaj počazljivo, da bo imel dovolj lepega in hvalevrednega povedati o J. S. K. Jednoti. Kdo hoče resnico govoriti, ne more drugače kot pojavno govoriti o naši Jednoti.

Saj naša JSKJ je prava bratska podporna organizacija, ki točno izvršuje svoje obveznosti v slučaju bolezni, poškodb ali smrti članov, poleg tega je pa tudi popolnoma nestrankarska organizacija. V organizaciji sami se ne razpravljajo o verskih ali političnih zadevah, izven organizacije, to je privatno, pa vsak član lahko pripada katoliški verski ali politični skupini, ali pa nikam. Nihče ni zaradi takih aktivnosti ali neaktivnosti protežiran ali zapostavljen.

Ustanovitelja našega društva sta bila John Korč in Matt Home, ki sta prej spadala k društvu št. 33 JSKJ in sta poleg vse prestope liste k društvu št. 116. Društvo sv. Alojzija, št. 36 JSKJ je na svoji seji dne 16. septembra sklenilo, da priredi veselico na večer 13. oktobra. Veselica se bo vršila v pokritje stroškov barvanja dvorane in sploh v korist društvene blagajne. Vstopnina v spodnje prostore bo prsta za vse, za plesno dvorano pa bo vstopnina 15 centov od osebe, da se po krijejo stroški za godbo. K našemu društву je prestopil od društva št. 17 v Aldridge, Mont. Rojen je bil v vasi Dobernič pri Trebnjem leta 1871, v Ameriko pa je prešel leta 1891; živel je potem včasih v državi Montani. Tu je zapuščal žalujočo soprogino in štiri otroke, ki so že vsi odrasli, namesto pa ena dva sina v dve hčeri; nekje pri Aldridge, Montana, pa živi njegov brat. FR. MILČINSKI:

"Tako, sodnijo?" je z visokim glasom dela gospa Ana. Ta vest jo je presenetila. Saj govorice so se čule, da si Muhoborci žele sodnijo. Pa kdo bo govoricam in željam pripisoval kaj važnosti? Zdaj ji ni bilo jasno, kako stališče naj zavzame nasproti neprizakovani novici. Vsekakso jo je dražilo že to, da se županja veseli. Zaletel se ji je zrak, pokašljala je in rekla: "Tako? Nisem še slišala!"

"Da," je rekla kar najsłajše županja, "stvar je takorekoč že dogdana. Luški sodniji vzemo pet občin, sodniji v Račjem in sodniji v Robu pa tudi vsaki eno; vse te občine pridejo pod novo sodnijo, pod našo sodnijo. Par uradnikov boste seveda izgubili tu v Lučah; vem, da boste veseli, ko imate samo škodo pri uradnikih." In vživala je sladki sad maščevanja in zraven srknila malo vina, da je s čašo prikrila škodoželjnost, ki ji je preočitno zaigrala po licu.

"O, zakaj pa ne!" je odgovorila gospa Ana in se še vedno ni mogla ujeti. "Zaradi mene! Jaz vam ne zavidam sodnije, jaz ne, jaz vsakemu vse dobro privočim. Seveda, mi smo prizidali dve stanovanji za uradnike, prizidali smo salon, tisti stroški se nam morajo povrniti; če jih drugi ne povrne, jih pa mora muhoborska soseska. Saj so doktorji na svetu!"

"Prav imaš," je pritrđila resno županja, "še je pravica na svetu. Škoda se vam mora povrniti. Ne vem, kdo je naročil, da zidate stanovanja in salon. Če so Muhoborci naročili, naj pa Muhoborci plačajo. Prav imaš!"

Stara okajena stenska ura je počasi in z naporom zabrenčala petkrat. Rezika je prišla luč prižigat.

Gospa županja je planila kvišku. "Oh, križana gora, pet je že in moj je rekel, da morava še pred nočjo biti doma. Preljuba moja Ana, kdaj nas prideš kaj obiskat?"

"Ostani še vendar, saj se ti nikam ne mudi, počakaj vsaj še večerje!"

"Pri vas tako hitro čas mine — kje je neki Julka? Bližnjo nedeljo vas gotovo pričakujemo."

Tako sta se prisukali v vežo. V kuhinji sta sedeli Julka in Ančka; Julka je pestovala veliko sivo mačko, Ančka pa je živahnopravila; ne ve se kaj, gotovo kaj takega, kar ni bilo prikladno za mamina ušesa, ker je zagledavši jo hipoma utihnila in se zmuznila vun. Mama se je zakregala za njo, naj reče hlapce vpreči.

Iskali so še "Zlatega volka" pa je spal in ga ni bilo vzbobnati.

Kolesclj je bil zaprezen, gospe in gospodčni so se poljubile, gospe z veliko ognjevitostjo, pa z žolcem v srcu, in odpeljali sta se gospa županja in Julka — trikrat navkreber, trikrat navzdol — v Muhobor.

Doma pa je bilo še malo poloma zaradi Podržajevega Janka.

ČETRTO POGLAVJE

Rodbinski posvet

Drugo jutro je bilo po sv. Treh kraljih.

Občinski tajnik in upokojeni nadučitelj Podržaj je stopal počasi po občinski pisarni, od peči, kjer se je malo pogrel, do okna in nazaj in premišljal, ali si bi nabasal pipo ali ne in ali bi vzel kako pisarjo v roke ali ne: nujnega ni bilo nič, v občinskih pisarnah ni sploh nič nujnega — za tisto, kar je nujno, za tisto so orožniki.

Pa vstopi župan: "Kaj novega, tajnik?" in gre po sobi gori in dol.

"Lacen sem in žejen," je odgovoril tajnik.

"In pa prismo, to si še pozabil povedati," je dostavil župan in glas mu je bil nasajan.

"Kaj pa vpraša, če sam boljše veš," se je odrezal tajnik.

To je bila uvertura. Potem se je župan ustavil in rekel: "Moja žena je bila včeraj v Lučah. Saj za čenčarije se ne brigam desti, ampak to me le jezi: v Lučah ves svet govori, da tvoj Janko — da moja Julka — kakor da se med njima plete ljuhezen. Tega kratkomalo ne trpm!"

"Prav imaš!" je odgovoril tajnik. "Ali jim naj to uradno pišem v Luče, da ne trpiš takega čenčanja?"

"Jaz ne trpm, da tvoj pobili za mojo zjalo," je jezno kričal župan.

Tajnik ga je začuden pogledal. "Čemu pa kričiš nad mano, man sem mu jaz ukazal? Glej ga, dedca!"

"Ukazal! Braniti mu moraš, prepovedati! Odtod ga poženi, lenuha! — Nikar se ne reži tako neumno! Drugače te spodim s tajniškega stolca!"

"Spodi me no, župan, spodi! Sem radoveden, kje dobis druga osla, ki ti bo delač za te groše: še za tobak ne zaležejo. — Kar pa imaš mojem fantu povedati, mu lahko poveš kar sam. Nemara se te zboji, če prav zakričiš nanj, pa jo kar popiha črez hrive in doline."

"Ti si vendar oče," je župan pričel mirnejše, "saj imaš vendar kaj oblasti črezeni!"

"Seveda sem oče, toda fant ni otrok, ima že svojih 24 let, pameten pa je bolj, kakor sva jaz pa ti vkupe. Gimnazijo ima in na Dunaju je bil, da se je vpisal v visoko šolo, lump pa tudi ni, kaj ga bo pestil star upokojen šomašter in sestradan občinski tajnik! — Pa ti strahuje svojo zjalo!"

"Saj jo!" je vzkliknil župan in se je vsedel, da se je omara ob steni zamajala. Sklenil je roki, gledal v tla in se spominjal, kako sta on in žena snoči sukal "zjalo." "Da te ni sram ljudi, da te zdaj nosijo po jezikih! Še pogledati ga ni treba! Če poždravi, slepa in mutasta bodi, se bo že odvadil. Tak lačen študent, nič nima, nič ni in nič ne bo, če bo tako naprej študiral tukaj po Muhoboru. Tak ni zate, na kaj se pa hočeta vzeti? — In na ta lepa očeta in materina svarila in poduke ni imela jokajoča se zjalo drugega odgovora nego: "Saj se nočeva vzeti, saj se imava samo rada." — Nezaslišano! Taki nazori! — Ali pa je vse vkupe le otročarija?

Tajnik je enakomerno hodil svojo pot od peči do okna in nazaj in niti ni prekinil svojega romanja, ko je župan zopet pospel besedo.

urad, preveč stanejo in da bi se morallo nekoliko varčevati pri izdatkih v glavnem uradu.

Po mnemu nekaterih zastopnikov izgleda glavni urad kot nekaka garaža, zato bi bilo priporočljivo, da bi se na strehi nad glavnim vhodom napravil nekak obrok (arch) z napisom JSKJ.

Razpravlja se, da li naj Zvezza še nadalje plačuje nagrade za novopriderobljene člane. Predlog, da se ne plača nobenih nagrad več, ni bil podpiran. Stavljhen, podpiran in v večino je bil sprejet predlog, da nagrade ostanejo v veljavni do glavnih Zvezine seje.

Eden zastopnik pove zanimivo in zabavno zgodbo o nekem članu naše Jednote, kateri je skušal dobiti od Jednote podporo, dasi po pravilih ni bil upravičen do nje. V to svrhu se je dal preiskati gotovemu zdravniku, pri kateri preiskavki je bila navzoča tudi soproga tega člana. Ko se je zdravnik z roko približal namislenemu bolnemu mestu, je žena tega člana zakričala: "Uh, gospod doktor, to boli!" Zdravnik, pa jo je pisano pogledal in jo vprašal, kako vendar more ona kričati, da boli, ko ne preiskuje nje, ampak njenega moža. Dogodbi je vzbudila mnogo smeha med zborovalci.

Za prihodnjo zvezino sejo so bila predlagana mesta: Presto, Pittsburgh, Claridge in Verona. Pri glasovanju dobi Pittsburgh največ glasov, torej se bo prihodnja seja Zvezve vršila dne 30. decembra v Pittsburghu, Pa.

Končno se zborovalci zahvaljajo naselbini Center, društvu št. 33 JSKJ in posebej še Mrs. A. Erzen ter njenim pomočnicam za obilo ter okusno pripravljeni kosilo, nakar je predsednik zaključil sejo ob 4.30 popoldne. — Za Zvezko JSKJ društvo v zpadni Pensylvaniji:

Euclid, O.

Člane in članice društva Na-predek, št. 132 JSKJ vabim, da se mnogoštevilno udeležijo seje, ki se bo vršila 14. oktobra.

Na tej seji se bo ukrepalo o veselici, ki jo priredimo 28. no-vembra v korist društveni blagajini. Važno je, da pridejo člani na sejo in se tam o vsem pogovorijo, da se potem nima

vzroka nihče pritoževati, da eno ali drugo ni bilo pravilno ureje-

no. Torej, vse na sejo, ki se bo vršila v nedeljo 14. oktobra in se bo pričela ob deseti uri dopoldne. — Za društvo Napredek,

št. 132 JSKJ:

Slovenska kri nikoli ne "sfali," tako pravi starci pregor.

Če se primeri, da "jih" enkrat dobi, se pa drugič boljše pripravi, da se prisvoji zmago in slavo, s katero se ponaša še v poznih letih. Nekaj sličnega je

Zveza slovenskih društev v Jo-lietu, ki se je bila pripravila za velik piknik dne 2. septembra.

Vremenski bogovi pa so se prav

tistikrat spomnili, da je naša mati zemlja žejna in so jo ra-dodarno napajali ves tisti dan.

Tako s piknikom Zvezze tistega

dne bi bilo nič.

Zato se pa ta Zvezza, ki se

stoji iz 15 slovenskih društev v

Jolietu, marljivo pripravlja na "

"harvest" ali jesenski piknik, ki se bo izvedel v nedeljo 7. oktobra.

Frank Pirc, tajnik.
