

Prevz. škof ljubljanski, dr. Gregorij Rožman praznuje 70-letnico rojstva

CLEVELAND, O. — V ponedeljek 9. marca praznuje ljubljanski škof dr. Gregorij Rožman, ki živi in deluje že več let med nami katoliškimi Slovenci v Ameriki, odkar je zapustil Ljubljano, ko so se komunisti polastili oblasti v naši ljubljani stari domovini 70-letnico svojega rojstva.

Slovenski katoličani v Ameriki smo sklenili, da ta dan posebej proslavimo in izkažemo slovenskemu cerkvenemu knezu vso svojo ljubezen in spoštovanje.

Prevzvišeni bo imel dopolne ob desetih v cerkvi sv. Vida slovesno pontifikalno sv. mašo, pri kateri bo pridigal Msgr. J. J. Oman, župnik fare sv. Lovrenca.

Popoldne ob 3.30 bo v Slovenskem narodnem domu na St. Clair Ave., slavnostna akademija z lepim in bogatim sporedom.

Zberimo se polnoštevilno okoli teko preizkušene ljubljanskega škofa, dajmo mu priznanje za odločno in jasno stališče ter pogum, ki ga je pokazal v času preizkušnje našega naroda v domovini. Bil je učenik in vodnik, ki se ni strašil nobenih žrtev, kadar je šlo za resnico.

BORBA ZA NASLEDSTVO BO TRPKA IN OBUPNA

Diktatorstvo ni dedno in nihče ne more postati diktator preko noči. — Stalinove diktature, do katere je priplezal po gori lobanj, je za vselej konec.

Ura Stalinove smrti ni zdaj več velikega pomena. Kar je zdaj važno, je to, da je najbolj krvavi in najbolj brezobzirni diktator modernih časov prenehal vladati nad 800-milijonskim ljudstvom v trenutku, ko je moskovski radio naznanil, da je mrtvouden in nezavesten in da so vladne vajeti v rokah koncilja ministrov ter centralnega komiteja komun. partije.

Ta trenutek bo morda znamenovan kot eden najusodnejših trenutkov v zgodovini, ker utegne prizadeti bodočnost vsega sveta.

Vprašanje, čigar odgovor svet nestrno pričakuje, je, če je bilo Stalinu mogoče poskrbeti za nasledstvo v diktaturi, do katere se je on vzpel preko trupel svojih pomorjenih bivših tovarišev in prijateljev.

Po truplih najzvestejših

Po Leninovi smrti si je Stalin utrl pot do supremne moči in oblasti s pomočjo skupine moč, ki so prav tako kakor on sovražili Trockega, ki je bil smatran za Leninevega naslednika. Ti močje so bili: Leon Kamenjev, Grigorij Zinovjev, Aleksij Rikov, Nikolaj Buharin in Mihajl Tomski.

Vsi ti močje so bili pozneje usmrčeni, razen Tomskega, ki je izveržil samomor.

Ali je torej v Sovjetiji še kak človek, ki bi mogel zgrabiti in obdržati žezlo oblasti, ki si jo je Stalin tako brezobzirno in kruto priboril? Ali se bodo morda kremeljski gangsterji zdaj med seboj spopadli?

Nasledstvo ni dedno

Sovjetski režim mora dobiti zdaj naslednika na oblasti, ki je bila doslej osredotočena v rokah Stalina. Toda v Sovjetiji ni načela o legitimnem nasledstvu. Nihče ne more podedovati Stalinove oblasti. Nihče ne more biti izvoljen za njegovega naslednika, ker v Sovjetiji ni tozadevnih volitev — sploh ni volitev!

Ali bo njegov naslednik Malenkov? Borba, tekoma katere se je Stalin uveljavil kot Leninov naslednik, je trajala polnih deset let.

Take oblasti, kakršno je izvajal Stalin, ni mogoče transferirati neokrnjene. To je oblast, ki jo mora zgrabiti novi pretendant ter si jo osvojiti s svojimi lastnimi akcijami. Kajti Stalinova oblast ni bila vsebovana v uradu ali položaju, ki ima svoje prerogative in zajamčene moči. Ne smemo namreč prezreti, da je bil Stalin že dolgo vrsto let absolutni diktator, ko ni imel še nobenega uradnega čina ali položaja.

Na čem je temeljila Stalinova oblast

Stalinova oblast je temeljila na dejstvu, da je v dolgotrajni borbi s svojimi tekmeci — s pomočjo poviševanja in poniževanja, s čistkami in likvidacijami — uspel spraviti na vse najvažnejše, ključne položaje svoje ljudi, ki so bili voljno in uporabljivo orodje njegove volje. Prava Stalinova oblast ni bila v njegovih naslovih in položajih, temveč v politični mašini, ki jo je ustvaril.

Problem Stalinovega nasledstva je problem njegovega stro-

Strah ali previdnost?

Med "progresivnimi" rojaki se šušlja, da je nekdo izmed njihovega vodstva v službi FBI, kot je bil svoj čas znani Matt Cvetič. V zvezi s to govorico smo čuli omenjati "Pavlihove" "tri Pepce".

To šušljanje je povzročilo med "progresivnimi" rojaki precej zmede in seveda nezaupanja.

Sodimo, da jim je lahko v tolažbo vsaj to, da jim bo tisti ali tista — če je na tem šušljanju kaj resnice — lahko preskrbel toli zaželjene vize za pevce — tam "enkrat na jesen" namreč.

EISENHOWER RUSKEMU LJUDSTVU

Predsednik je izrazil želje za mir in srečo ruskega ljudstva, toda ni omenil njegove vlade.

WASHINGTON. — Predsednik Eisenhower je podal izjavo, ki je po vsej priliki naslovljena na rusko ljudstvo. V tej izjavi pravi

"V tem zgodovinskem trenutku, ko so ruske množice zaskrbljene nad boleznijo sovjetskega vladarja, poletajo misli ameriškega ljudstva k ljudstvu Sovjetske zveze — k možem in ženam, mladencem in mladenkam po ruskih mestih in vaseh, po kmetijah in tovarnah.

"Oni (Rusi) so otroci istega Boga, ki je oče vseh ljudstev sveta. Kakor vsa ostala ljudstva, tako deli tudi rusko ljudstvo naše želje po prijateljstvu in miru na svetu.

"Neglede na vladne osebnosti, bodo Amerikanci molili in prosili Boga, da bi čuval nad ljudstvom velike ruske dežele in mu v svoji modrosti podelil možnost in priliko, da zaživi svoje lastno življenje v svetu, kjer žive vsi ljudje — možje in žene in otroci v miru in prijateljstvu."

Kakor vidimo, ni Eisenhower nikjer omenil sovjetske vlade in ji ni izrekel nikakega sočutja.

Upajmo, da bo ta borba tako besna in intenzivna, da se bo sovjetski imperij tekom tega procesa razkrojil, da bodo sate-litske države zahtevale in dobile svobodo in da bo rusko ljudstvo samo odrglo s svojih ramen jarem diktature komunistične partije. To so seveda optimistične želje in nade, ki so skoraj prelepe, da bi se uresničile. Zato mora svobodni svet računati tudi z možnostjo, da bo novi sovjetski diktator sklenil, da je najboljši način za konsolidacijo in utrditve svoje oblasti v tem, če razplamti tretjo svetovno vojno.

Svet mora ostati buden in čuječ

Zato svobodni svet ne sme pusti v svoji čuječnosti. Svobodni svet mora skrbno paziti ne samo na sovjetske priprave za vojno, temveč tudi na vse prilike in priložnosti, da obodri in pomaga vsem revolucionarnim gibanjem, ki se utegnejo pojaviti na ozemjih, ki jih zdaj dominira Kremelj.

V zgodovini so bili še drugi tirani, ki so bili morda še brezobzirnejši in krvoločnejši od Stalina. Toda on ima to distinkcijo, da je spravljen v največjo nesrečo in uboštvo več ljudi kot kateri koli diktator pred njim, — vključno Hitler.

Pred letom je bil še med nami

Eno leto je preteklo, odkar se je za vedno poslovil od nas lastnik in urednik "Ameriške Domovine," Jaka Debevec. Po enem letu še nismo preboleli te težke izgube javnega slovenskega delavca in prijatelja. Ob vsaki priliki se ponovno pokazuje, kako zelo ga pogreša slovenska in katoliška javnost v Združenih državah.

Koncem devetnajstega in pričetkom dvajsetega stoletja so prihajale velike množice predvsem kmečkega ljudstva iz Slovenije v Združene države. Skoro vsako leto se je pred prvo svetovno vojno priselilo sem nad 10,000 — reci in piši: deset tisoč Slovencev. Socialne razmere so bile tedaj v stari domovini naravnost bedne, dežela preobljudena, zasluška doma ni bilo in tako so se iseljevali tisoči delavnih rok preko morja. Največjega tragika pri vsem tem je bila, da se je s to množico priselilo sem premalo slovenske duhovščine in še manj katoliško misleče inteligence.

Slovenski narod v bivši Avstro-ogrski ni imel svoje lastne narodne države. Razbiti smo bili na več dežel, ali takozvanih kronovin tako, da smo imeli Slovenci le na bivšem Kranjskem in na Goriškem večino, povsod drugod smo tvorili v deželi narodno manjšino, ki je bila vedno v vsakem oziru zatirana. Pa tudi na Kranjskem je do leta 1906 vladal nemški fevdalizem s pomočjo slovenskih meščanskih slojev, ki niso imeli nobenega smisla za slovenske izseljence. Ti so bili tako čisto sami sebi prepuščeni. Šele, ko je na Kranjskem dobilo slovensko ljudstvo v roke oblast, se je pričela tudi organizirana in od dežele podpirana skrb za slovensko emigracijo. Med tem časom pa je socializem znal pridobiti v svoje roke dosti nezavednih in nepoučenih slovenskih izseljencev in jih zvalil v marksistične vrste pod krinko "naprednosti." Pod to masko je socializem pričel naravnost grdo borbo proti katoliški veri s svojim časopisjem in je radi pomanjkanja slovenskih duhovnikov žalibog zastupil mnogo slovenskih duš.

Med redkimi izobraženci katoliškega in narodnega prepričanja, ki so se preselili v Ameriko, je bil pokojni Debevec, ki je kmalu po svojem prihodu v Cleveland prijel za pero in se začel udejstvovati na časnikarskem polju. Postal je najmarkantnejša osebnost med slovenskimi časnikarji v Ameriki.

Dve strani sta posebno odlikovali pokojnega Debeveca, načelna jasnost, združena z značajno kremenitostjo in pa od narave mu dana ljudskopisateljska sposobnost.

Pokojnik je bil načelno jasnega katoliškega prepričanja in odločen ter zaveden Slovenec. Pristen Notranjec, trden, odločen in neizprosni v borbi za načela, ki jih je smatral za pravilna. Tu ni odnehal, čeprav je imel od tega tudi gmotno škodo.

Ob velikanski svetovni zmešnjavi, ki jo je povzročila druga svetovna vojna in demonska komunistična propaganda, ki je slikala katoliško in narodno zavedni del Slovencev kot izdajalce, kolaboratorje za okupatorjem, je večina ameriške slovenske javnosti nasleda komunističnim lažem in obsojala vse protikomuniste v domovini. Amerikanski Slovenci so takrat zbirali denar, da so pomagali usuniti slovenski narod. Le pokojni J. Debevec z nekoliko somišljeniki se ni dal premotiti. Verjel je v iskrenost slovenske nacionalne zavesti med katoliškimi krogi, poznal je socializem in komunizem in tako ni mogel verjeti komunistični laži-propagandi, da je večina slovenskega naroda izdala sama sebe. Od vseh strani so pritiskali na njega, njegov list je izgubljal naročnike, toda Jaka ni odnehal od svoje protikomunistične in narodno slovenske smeri in tako končno postal edini zagovornik protikomunističnega slovenskega naroda. Njegov list je postal nekako glasilo protikomunističnih in nacionalno zavernih Slovencev. Ko bo kdaj zopet v stari domovini zasijala svoboda in bo uničeno nasilje komunizma, takrat se bo spominjal slovenski narod še posebno Jaka Debeveca, ki se v najtežjih časih ni iznevaril svojemu narodu, ki se je boril za nacionalno in versko svobodo proti mednarodnemu in nasilnemu komunizmu.

Jaka Debevec je bil časnikar in slovenski ljudski pisatelj prav po milosti božji. Ves slovenski narod tako doma kot v tujini danes nima takoljudnega ljudskega pisatelja, kot je bil pokojni Jaka. On je znal napisati iz čisto preprostega dogodka nad vse zanimivo in napeto zgodbo, pri tem pa tako saljivo, da si se moral ob branju iz srca nasmejati. Kar iz rokava je stresal šale, ljudske primere, dovipne zgodbe, slike iz ljudskega izražanja, da so bili njegovi spisi prava zakladnica narodnega blaga (folklore).

Casnikarsko delo človeka ubija. Ti stalni napori in vedna duševna napetost je tudi J. Debevcu izčrpala moči, da je legel v prezgodnji grob. Ko bi se bil pokojnik posvetil le pisateljevanju, bi bil s svojim naravnim talentom dosegel lepo mesto v slovenskem ljudskem slovstvu.

Mnogi čitatelji "Ameriške Domovine" ga še vedno pogrešajo in si žele nazaj njegove kolone, "Micke" in njegovih člankov, ki so bili zaslojeni s pristno narodno segavostjo. Toda, žal, Debeveca ni več, tudi kakega drugega Debeveca ne, ker danes ne premoremo takega ljudskega pisatelja, ki bi znal kramljati, kot je znal pokojnik.

Že eno leto ga pogreša slovenska narodna skupnost v Združenih državah, ga pogreša "Ameriška Domovina" in ga pogrešajo njeni čitatelji, on pa spi večno spanje na Kalvariji. M.

Nekaj me skrbi. Angleški man. Prične se z mašo ob 9. misijon bomo imeli. Če bo tu- di misijon tako slabo obiskan, kot je angleški križev pot in angleške pridige, bo misijonar dobil slab vtis. Pa ni mi prav za prav nič na tem, kakšen vtis bo misijonar dobil. Skrbi je naravnost čudovito, če po- me, ker je taka brezbriznost, kot se kaže, pogubljiva. Pre- več imamo "nedeljskih katoli- čanov". Vprašate, kdo so ti? To so ljudje, ki mislijo, da so že zadosti storili, če ob nede- ljah k maši pridejo. Nekaj jih pa niti tega ne stori in vendar trdijo, da so katoličani. Bog se nas usmili.

Dvojne vrste ljudi so na svetu. Tisti, ki se ponajajo s svojim razumom in ga mesto Boga častijo, in oni, ki svoj razum rabijo.

Nekdo vprašuje: "Star sem preko 60 let. Ali smem na kvaterno sredo in soboto jesti meso več kot enkrat na dan?" Odgovor: "Nak. Ne smeš. Samo enkrat smeš. V postnem času, v ponedeljek, torek, četrtek in sredo ter soboto, ki ni- sta kvaterni, pa ga smeš več- krat, magari trikrat, če želiš. Vse to se tiče le oni, katerim si ni treba postiti radi starosti, ki še niso 21 ali pa so preko 59 let.

še eden: "Jaz se tako težko postim, da bi raje ne vem kaj storil." Odgovor: "Post za nobene- ga ni prijeten. Prav zato se pa šteje kot pokora. Vpra- šaj spovednika. Morda te tvo- je delo oprošča posta. Vedi pa to: pokore ni nič oproščen. Ako je ne delaš tukaj, delaj jo boš v vica, če boš sploh tako srečen, da prideš do tja. Je- zus je govoril o pokori kot o nečem neizogibnem. Marija je na svojih prikazovanjih več- krat povdarila: "Pokora! Po- kora!" Ne bodimo preveč us- miljeni s svojim telesom. Saj telo z nami ne bo.

Dolgoleten faran Peter Li- čan je podlegel težki bolezn- ter vzel slovo od nas. G. Ivan Zorman mu je ganljivo zapel za slovo "Jamica tiha kotiček miru." Počivaj v miru!

Danes imamo v naši fari pol- ducata raznih narodnosti. Imamo Slovence, Hrvate, Madžare, Nemce, Irce, Slovake, Čehe, Sirce in Poljake. Samo sv. Duha bi mogel vsem na enkrat govoriti, da bi ga razumeli.

John Janežič, ki je komaj pred tednom popeljal svojo nevesto Miss Terese Lau- sche pred oltar, se je moral vr- niti k vojakom in od tam čez morje na Korejo. Na Angleškem je število ka- toličanov lanske leto naraslo za 40,700. Tam je danes do ma- lega 3 milijone katoličanov. To je naravnost čudovito, če po- mislimo, da je bilo tam pred par sto leti preganjanje kato- ličanov tako, da so se morali skrivati tisti, ki so hoteli ohrani- ti pravo vero. Kdor je bil zasačen, da je bil pri maši, je plačal $500 in katoliški du- hovník se ni smel prikazati. Če so ga dobili, je bil ustrel- jen ali pa obesen. Enako bo prišlo nekoč tudi v Rusiji in drugod, kjer se morajo danes verni katoličani skrivati, ako si hočejo ohraniti življenje. Tu- di današnjih mučencev kri je seme novih vernih kristjanov.

Dečko iz farm na obisku pri stricu v mestu: "Ali pri vas nič ne molite pred jedjo?" Stric, ki je mislil, da bo im- poniral: "O mi ne molimo. Saj ni treba."

Dečko: "O vi koj začnete kakor naš pes."

Pripovedujte, naznanite, razglasite naš angleški misi- jon, ki se prične v nedeljo 22. marca in bo trajal skozi cel teden. Kdor razume angleško, naj pride na misijon. Zlasti pa oni, ki niso priajali k slo- venskemu misijonu tik pred Božičem. Pomisli, človek, da prihaja tudi zate čas, ko boš moral zapustiti ta svet. In ti- sti hip, ko zadnjikrat izdihneš, bo tvoja večnost zapečatena. Zbudi se! Ne bodi speči uče- nec!

Jim: "Kaj si tako zaspan, Joe? Zbudi se in poišči si do- bro dekle in se poroči. Ljube- zen svet vrta, kaj ne veš?" Joe zvrne kazarec "viske": "Saj ga tudi viska, če jo je preveč v glavi."

Pred nedavnem je bil po- svečen v mašnika oče 12 živih otrok in stari oče 69 vnukov. Ko mu je žena umrla pred več- vetimi leti, je šel v šolo in pri- vatno študiral bogoslovje. Spa- da v škofijo Dubuque, Iowa, kjer je že eden njegovih sinov nastavljen kot kaplan. Ali ni to čudno?

Gustelj pa njegov prijatelj Urban sta se veselila prihoda novega leta tako močno, da sta komaj še vedela, da sta na svetu. Po nesreči sta zašla na železniški tir: "Veš, Urban," je s težavo spravil iz sebe Gus- telj, "meni se zdi, da so te stopnice peket dolge. Kar ni jih konec."

"Gust, to mene ne briga. Ali kaj so mislili ti ljudje, da so ograjo tako hudimano nizo- ko pribili?"

Pri John Hudaku so sprejeli malo "DP", katera je prišla v Ameriko 21. februarja. Joseph in Mary Kenik sta jo pripelja- la prvič v cerkev, kjer je do- bila ime Mary, Marija, Mari- ca. Kakor obrnete to ime, je krasno tako, da poseka vse Lin- de, Minde in Sinde. Čestitamo!

Ali ni to čudno: 77 procen- tov ljudi v Združenih državah veruje, da so nebesa. Na dru- gi strani pa jih je samo 58 pro- centov, ki verujejo, da je kje kakšen pekel. In vendar ti- sti Bog, ki nam je razodel ne- besa, nam je tudi razodel pe- kel. Taka nedoslednost. Kaj nam pomaga tajiti pekel? S- tem ga ne bomo odpravili. Ali ni bolj pametno tako živeti, da se nam pekla ne bo treba bati? Bog hoče vse zveličati. Toda, dal je vsakemu prosto voljo, da si zasluži nebesa, ali pa pe- kel. Mi sami odločujemo. Je- zus je jokal za onimi, ki so se obrnili stran od nebes.

Nekdo pravi: "Otroci mor- da prevrnejo hišo, nikdar pa ne skvarijo doma. Statistika nam pove, da je dvakrat toli- ko divorsov med onimi, ki ni- majo otrok, kakor pa med on- mi, ki imajo več otrok."

Zadnjič me je zametlo, da nisem mogel naprej s svojo raj- lo skozi Washington. Imam sicer zapiske, nekaj dnevnik, ki sem ga pisal sproti. Pa ni- ti tega nisem imel časa pogle- dati. Danes pa moram na vsak način nadaljevati, da ne boste mislili, da sva z Father Edwi- nom prišla v zadrego in nisva mogla naprej. Pa ni tako. No. Še mau ne.

Ko je najin voznik nama po- kazal, kaj ne pustiva najino karo, sva se vsedla na taksi in začeli smo — zijala prodajati po Washingtonu.

Videla sva več krasnih par- kov. Peljal naju je tudi sko- zi tisti del mesta, v katerem stanujejo ambasadorji in raz- ni zastopniki tujih držav. Vse je izgledalo nekam resno. Ve- lika poslopja, večkrat z želez- nimi mrežami čez vhodna vrata, vse je uradno, vse nekam tiho in mučno. Pokazal na- ma je tudi ruskih boljševikov stan, kateremu bi bil najraje jezik pomolil in figo pokazal, pa sem se spomnil, da to ne bi dosti pomagalo, zato sem na- mero opustil in potihem rekel, naj jih koljka brne.

Po pol uri vožnji je najin prijazni voznik ustavil pred manjšo hišo in naju povabil, naj vstopiva za minuto v nje- gov dom. Take prijaznosti se nisva nadejala. Vstopili smo. On pa je predstavil svojo so-

Lep koncert v Collin- woodu

Cleveland, O. — Faranom fare Marije Vnebovzete je kolikor to- liko znano, da naš cerkveni pev- zbor "Ilirija" priredi nabozni koncert "Kalvarija." Naj mi bo dovoljeno, da s tem malim do- pisom seznanim tudi tiste, ki še ne vedo o tej naši prireditvi. Ta koncert bo 15. marca v naši cerk- vi na Holmes Ave. Začetek ob 7:30 zvečer.

Ta "Cantata" je bila prvotno v angleškem jeziku. Slovensko besedilo ali prestavo je priredil Rev. Milan Slaje, župnik v Lo- rainu, za kar se mu toplo zahva- lim v imenu zbora.

Res, da je veliko prireditvev, sedaj tu, sedaj tam. Po mojem skromnem mnenju je prireditvev, kot je sedem Jezusovih na križu, jako primerna za postni čas. Res je, da ima sedaj zbor veliko dela in vaj. Birma, koncert, Ve- lika noč. Torej ni več kot prav, da napolnite našo cerkev do vseh kotov in pok. Saj pevci ne dela- jo zase, ampak za našo farno. Ves dobiček je namenjen za cer- kev.

Jako težko je pisati. Počutim se kot, da sem nekakšen svoje vrste berač. Mislim, da tega ne bi bilo treba, ako bi se vsi zani- mali za svoj cerkveni zbor, ne samo pri nas ampak tudi pri drugih farah. Imamo nekaj do- brih žena, ki jako pridno proda- jajo vstopnice za prireditve, kar je res hvale vredno. Trudijo se ne samo za nas, ampak tudi za druge. Prav lepa hvala!

Torej dragi mi Slovenci, to naj- bo nekako vabilo za vse. Ne bo vam žal! Skušali bomo podati skladbo kolikor mogoče dobro. Na svidenje 15. marca ob 7:30 zvečer v cerkvi Marije Vnebo- vzete na Holmes Ave.

Pozdravljeni!

Martin Rakar.

Sveče

V noči je mesto podobno veli- ki razstavi električnih luči. Svet- le trepetajoče žarnice naprav- ljajo noč podobno dnevu. Žaro- meti avtomobilov preplavljajo cestni asfalt. Hoteli, bari, kine- matografi in vse trgovske hiše so polne žarečih luči, luči, ki sve- tijo v temo, v življenje!

Toda ta kričeca reklama, te luči služijo največ le denarju, prometu, vabijo ljudi v zabavi- šča, v lokale, na ples. Tudi jaz sem bila že tam. Neštete luči so svetile, modrovijoličaste, bele in rdeče. Preveč jih je bilo, pre- ostro so rezale v mojo dušo. Ne- hote sem se ob tej premočni svetlobi spomnila onega sveča- nega, tihega večera, ki sem ga nedavno preživela pri svoji znan- ki — pianistki. — Ko sem prišla je prizgala sveče, sveče iz me- denega voska in postregla s ča- jem. Šepetaje sva govorili. Na- to je zaigrala. Tihi zvoki klavir- ja so se prelivali v svetlobo sveč. Jaz pa sem zrla na prav majhno mizico, pognjeno z bro- katnim prtičem, na kateri so bi- le skodelice iz prav tankega por- celana. Dišal je vosek in dišal je čaj.

Sveč si hočem kupiti. Posta- vila jih bom v sobo na primeren prostor, jih včasih prižgala, da bodo priča mojih tihih misli. Svetile bodo, vosek se bo topil in stenj dogoreval. Sveče so kot cvetlice, ki nekaj ur cveto, zve- nejajo, preminejo; cvetlice onega, drugega sveta.

Otroške laži

Mali Janezek se je že zopet zlagal. Kot, da se je sonce dru- žinske sreče skrilo za oblake. Oče ga kaznuje, mati je vsa ob- upana, mali pa obljublja, da se bo popobiljšal. Toda ob prvi priliki laže znova. Kje je temu vzrok, saj vendar v družini nihče ne laže, nihče mu ne dalje slabega zgleda?

Mi odrasli smo skoraj vsi izgu- bili pravi odnos do svojevrstne- ga otroškega sveta. Majhni otro- ci v glavnem ne lažejo, imajo pa prav bujno domišljijo. Otrok zelo dolgo ne loči stvarnih dogod- kov od tega, kar si je sam zami- slil. Naivna laž je pri otrocih zelo pogosta. Vzroki zanjo so raz- lični: bujna domišljija, nespo- sobnost ločiti stvarni dogodek od izmišljenega ali pa tudi sla- bo zapajanje. Velikokrat so pa teh otroških laži krivi izgovori, pa tudi strah. Otroci prav do- bro vedo, da je včasih težko da- ti odkritosrčen odgovor. Zato se poslužijo laži v sili, katera pre- kine vsa neprijetna izpraševanja. Tudi otroci imajo svoje male skrivnosti, katerih nečejo izdati. Če le preveč silimo vanje reagi- rajo največkrat z lagodno lažjo. Če je majhen otrok zaposlen s svojo igraro, je igri ves predan. Pozabil je, kaj so mu starši na- ročili ali, da so ga klicali, pa se izgovarja "jaz nisem slišal." Tu- di mi odrasli večkrat kaj pcca- bimo, če smo le preveč zaposle- ni. Zelo nespametno je radi ta- kega izgovora otroka kaznovati.

Nastane vprašanje, kako naj ravnamo, če zapazimo, da otrok laže. Najboljše zdravilo je lju- bezen. Prava ljubezen do otro- ka bo vedno pripomogla do otro- kove odkritosrčnosti. Ne preti- gajmo povezanost nam bo tu v po- moč. Nikoli pa ne bodimo suro- vi. Če otroka zaradi naivne laži kaznujemo ali celo pretepamo, ga naravnost napeljujemo na to, da bo začel lagati v resnici. Pri- naivni laži moramo biti pozorni na to, kdaj prestopi otrok mejo med naivno in namerno lažjo. To mejo je včasih zelo težko za- deti, zakaj prav na prehodu se najpogostejše začne naivna laž prepletati z namerno in starši, ki tega ne zapazijo v vzgoji otro- ka k resnicoljubnosti, marsikaj zamudijo. Mati, ki nikoli ne po- zabi otroku ob naivni laži poka- zati, kako se je zmotil — nikoli ne recite, da se je zlagal — bo otroka počasi pripeljala do tega, da bo začel sam motriti svojo domišljija in zelo verjetno je, da njen otrok ne bo namerno la- gal.

Kanadčanki

Vsaki lasje so lepi, če so le zdravi. To naj bo v tolažbo Vam in vsem tistim ženam, ki morda s svojimi lasmi niso zadovoljne, bodisi radi barve, gostote ali iz kakšnega drugega vzroka. Vsa- ki lasje so lepi, vseeno kakšno barvo imajo, da so le pravilno negovani. Lepota obstoji v tem, da znamo s tistim, kar nam je narava dala, pravilno ravnati. Stara resnica je v tem, da so lepi lasje pravi kras vsake žene in da to na njej najprej opazimo.

Tudi sivi lasje so lepi, dajo ženi posebno očarljivost, na- pravljajo jo mlajšo, nežnejšo. Prve srebrne niti, ki ste jih v Vaših laseh zapazili, seveda lah- ko zakrijete z barvo. Morate pa biti zelo previdni, najboljšje je, da Vam to napravi strokovnjak. Sicer dobite v drogeriji takoi- novano "homemade" barvo in si lase lahko sami pobarvate, kar bi Vam pa odsvetovala. Če se boste odločili za barvanje, pazi- ti, da se bo ton prilagal Vaši pol- ti in barvi Vaših oči. Poskusite umivati lase s šamponom, ki je Vaši naravni barvi prikladen. "Rubinstein" ima veliko izbizo za svetle, kostonjeve, temne in sive lase. Morda bo ta barvni šampon zakril Vašo sivino.

Naj Vam Vaši sivi lasje kljub Vaši mladosti ne delajo preveč skrbi!

Dr. V. Meršol:

Zakaj nekatere ljudi peče jezik?

Poznamo v glavnem dve vrsti ljudi, o katerih velja, da jih pe- če jezik. Prvih pravzaprav je- zik ne boli. Navadno vedo kak- šno novico, pa niso mimni, dokler je ne povedo v družbi, da s tem pokažejo svojo vsevednost. Ali pa se v družbi govori o nenavzo- čnem sosedu. Večina ga hvali, da je priden in dober, eden iz- med prisotnih pa ve o njem kaj slabega, pa ga "peče jezik," do- kler ne pove prisotnim, da so- sed le ni tako dober kot drugi mislijo, da je napravil le in ono, kar se ne more smatrati za do- bro. Večinoma opiše dogodek v temnejših barvah kot se je res dogodil.

Nimam namena govoriti o taki vrsti pečenja jezika.

Je namreč več ljudi, katere jezik res peče, tako da čutijo precejšne bolečine, včasih na koncu jezika, včasih pa pri kore- nu. Mnogokrat so bolečine tako neprijetne in dolgotrajne, da mo- ra dotična oseba poiskati pomoč pri zdravniku.

V večini primerov zdravnik kmalu ugotovi, kaj je vzrok pe- čenja jezika.

Pri preiskavi jezika zdravnik lahko opazi, da je jezik otekel, bodisi ves ali pa samo deloma. Jezik je na enem mestu včasih tudi bolj rdeč kot na drugih me- stih. Večkrat je pečenju vzrok zob, ki je bodisi gnil in belan, ali pa je obložen z zobnim kam- nom, kar draži jezik. Tudi plom- birani zobje mnogokrat dražijo jezik, da oteče ali pa da se poja- vijo na jeziku mali mehurčki.

Cleveland, O., 6. marca 1953.

Dr. Ivan Ahčin:

Škof dr. Gregorij Rožman — naš veliki socialni škof

(Konec.)

Po desetih letih, ki nas ločijo od navedenih dogodkov, vsak krščansko misleč Slovenec v domovini ali v zamejstvu mirno lahko presodi, ali je škof dr.
Rožman ravnal pravilno ali ne, z njegovim imenom in njegovim vodstvom bo v zgodovini ostala označena ena največja častnejša borb, ki jih je slovenski katolicizem boril za vero svojih očetov. Ne on, ne tisti, ki so mu sledili, si niso nakopali očitka, da niso storili svoje dolžnosti.
Nikdar za nje ne bo veljalo, kar je moral ugotoviti mehiškanski škof Huehulta ob priliki zadnjega verskega preganjanja v Mehiki, ko je zapisal v pastirskem pismu 10. marca 1936: "Gospod predsednik republike je nedavno izjavil, da je preganjanje v Mehiki le ukrep proti vtičanju klera v politične zadeve dežele. Ta trditve pa ni točna. Ako smo si mehiškanski duhovniki naprtli kakšno krivdo, potem je ta, da se sploh nismo brigali za osnovno politiko. Ne mislim tu na navadno strankarsko politiko, temveč na načelno politiko, na tisto politiko, ki se peča z velikimi nprstvenimi resnicami, iz katere edine more vzkliti mir, sreča in blaginja naroda. Mi se za ta vprašanja nismo brigali in smo se brezbrizno držali ob strani. To je bila naša velika krivda. Zaradi tega bide sedaj po nas šiba božje previdnosti.
(Po Linger Quartalschrift, 1936, str. 520).

Tudi pri nas ni šlo za stran-karsko politiko (saj so se vse positivne stranke združile v odporu proti komunizmu) marveč za osnovno politiko, kako narodu ohraniti dom, vero in poštenje.

Spoznanje pravičnega postop-ka ob izvrševanju nadpastirske službe more našemu prevzvišenemu gospodu škofu močno olajšati breme križa, ki je padlo nanj z dnem, ko je s tisoči svojih rojakov nastopil pot v begunstvo. Zato tudi te poslednje dobe njegove škofovske službe ne moremo ocenjevati z zgolj tostranskimi merili.

Navidezno je njegovo delo do-živelo velik neuspeh. Bog ga je pritegnil v svojo bližino in mu dal okusiti, kakor le svojim ljubljencem, veliko skrivnost križa, trpljenja, ponižanja in navideznega neuspeha. Vse življenje je delil samo dobroto, a sprejel nehvaležnost, mržnjo, sovraštvo, klevetanje in natolcevanje. Ce-lo umorili bi ga lastni rojaki, če bi ga dobili v roke. Zgled naše-ga škofa dr. Rožmana je dokaz, da tudi največji ljubezen in žrtev more obbrezuspješiti zaslepljenost in trdovratna zakrknjenost.

Toda pomislimo: Ali se ni tako godilo tudi samemu božjemu Sinu, ki je pretakal solze nad trdovratnim Jeruzalemom. Kolikšen neuspeh vsega njegovega javnega dela! A vprav ta "neuspeh" božjega Sina je bil njegov največji uspeh. Desetletja javnega življenja in stotine go-vorov in čudežev ob odobravanju širokih množic nas ne bo odrešilo. Tri ure na križu — kar je pomenjal največji "neuspeh" Kristusovega dela, pa so bile vir in pričetek našega odrešenja.

Morda je v božjih načrtih, da bo begunstvo in trpljenje naše-ga škofa, kakor trpljenje in žr-tve tolikih slovenskih rojakov, — da bo naš veliki "neuspeh," ki smo ga doživeli v boju za krščanski red med nami, — se sč-soma sprevrgel v največji blagoslov za slovensko ljudstvo.
Očiščevalna moč trpljenja je polna nedoumnih skrivnosti. Go-vorica, ki jo govore sedanji oblastniki v domovini, je še vedno le izliv nepomirljivega sovra-štva. Mi jim ne odgovarjamo enako. Kajti ako naj sedanja stiska vodi v srečnejši čas, ki bo utešil hrepenenje tolikih src po boljšem, srečnejšem, mirnejšem življenju, potem morajo pasti zidovi sovraštva, ki nas ločijo, posušiti se mora potok bratomorne krvi in nastopiti mora iskren-na sprava med brati.

Ali bo to oni zaželeni sladki sad, ki se bo porodil iz sedanje stiske in skupne bolečine Slovencev? Ne vemo. Gotovo je le, da si ga vsi iz srca želimo.

Kar osebno tiče našega prevzvišenega jublanta, ga moramo zagotoviti, da njegov "neuspeh" rodi že bogate socialne sadove.

Beseda škofa, ki je zaradi božje pravice postal brezdomec in v vsem nam enak, je našla od-prta srca nas vseh. Sam tako bridko preizkušal in trpljenje, razume trpeča srca in jih zna tolaziti in bodriti kakor malokdo.
Čutili smo njegovo sočutno, ljubeče srce, ko nas je že dvakrat obiskal v Argentini in nas pokrepčal s svojo očetovsko besedjo. Njegova razumevalača ljubezen za trpeče rojake utripa v vseh člankih, ki jih piše v "Du-hovno življenje" in v vseh poslanicah, ki jih naslavlja svojim du-hovnikom. Kakor je bil v domo-vini v času najhujše preizkušnje Slovincem v največjo moralno oporo, tako je sedaj izseljencem

je. Kaj bi mogli izseljeni Slo-venci podariti svojemu izselje-nemu škofu za njegov sedemde-setletni življenjski jubilej? Go-tovo mu bo v veselje in tolažbo, če bo videl, da sledimo njegovim naukom in njegovemu zgle-du.

Slovenski izseljenci, s kateri-mi naš ljubljani škof deli skupno življenjsko usodo: storimo, da ga bomo vredni in da bomo z njim kakor med seboj vedno tesneje povezani z vezmi medsebojnega spoštovanja, krščanske dobrote in bratske ljubezni. Tako bomo tudi naš "neuspeh" spremenili v velik uspeh, ker bo-mo postali vredni kvas za boljše, srečnejšo domovino.

Molimo, bratje in sestre, za našega škofa Gregorija Rožmana: "Ohranjaj ga Gospod in po-življaj in osrečuj ga na zemlji in ne daj ga v roke njegovim so-vražnikom" (Ps 40, 2).

Pismo Vrhenskega Tineta

Waukegan, Ill. — Po naših mestih in vaseh v našem Lake okraju so letos mestne ali županske volitve. Za županske urade so marsikje prav vroče borbe. Gre pač za službe, nekaj za slavo in čast in še druge reči, ki so pri tem nekeje po sredi, bi rekli pri nas na Vrhniki. Nekateri se prav fanatično trudijo zase, ali pa za svoje prijatelje, ki kandidirajo. Ko prebiram včasih lokalne liste vidim, da ni so prav nič skromni v raznimi nečastnimi naslovi, ki jih mečejo na svoje politične nasprotnike. To delajo, kakor kaki ometati (frajharji), ki mečejo v stene in strope malto. Nekaj se prime, nekaj ne in politična borba ro-poče in rogovi naprej.

Mi Slovenci pravimo sami, da smo mi prepirljivi ljudje. Včasih naletim na kakega našega rojaka na kaki seji, včasih pa pri "jaslih" v kaki krčmi in se zgraža, češ, komaj peščica je nas Slovencev, pa se vedno ravšamo in kavsamo, kakor da drugega ne znamo. "Fant malo veš," si sam pri sebi mislim. Pač ne beresh mnogo in ne opazuješ drugih, kako se drugi "lajkajo" med seboj. Mi Slovenci smo v tem oziru še pravi jagenčki. Le poglejte kako se drugi ravšajo ob volitvah. Drug drugemu vest sprašujejo, iz mušic delajo slone in drug drugega tako obdelajo, da se človeku zdi, da bi take obdelane nasprotnike še rabelj ne maral za na gavge.

Brez ravsa in krega malo kje gre. Najmanj pa v politiki. Ne-ka legenda iz ribniške okolice pripoveduje, da se je ribniški kmet spravil tepst ženo. Loma-stil je po njej z grabljami in drugim raznim kmečkim orodjem, da se je reva kar zvijala. Sosed videč kaj neusmiljeni sosed počenja s svojo ženo, pohiti ženi na pomoč. Razjarjenega sosed a prime, ga potrese in reče:

"Kaj pa je s teboj Gašper, ali si ponorel? Saj boš ženo še ubil! Bodi človek! Tega ne smeš!"

Pa pravi legenda, da se je med tem žena pobrala od tal, pa je ona prekinila govorečega sosed a s krikom:

"Pusti mi moža pri miru. Njegov sem in lahko dela z menoj kar hoče!"

Sosed je debelo gledal ženo in moža, nato pa še dregnil vmes, kar nehote tjavendan:

"Pa zakaj jo vendar tepeš, saj je pridna, noč in dan dela?"

"Zato, ker jo imam rad — če češ vedeti!"

Tedaj se je sosed še bolj zmeden za glavo prijel in dejal:

"To je pa čudna politika! Take pa še nisem videl ne našel nikjer."

Prav tako je marsikje v politiki in drugih zadevah. Ljudje se ravšajo in pokavsajo, menda res le zato, da so potem še boljši prijatelji. Jaz sicer nisem ravno za tako politiko. Prijatelju je človek lahko dober prijatelj, ne da bi se bilo treba preje tepsti in mikastiti.

Na neko podobno filozofijo prijateljstva se dobro razumejo komunisti. Včasih se pri tem ogrejejo kar v plašč nekega "superkristjanstva." Prav te dni sem na deseti cesti v taverni dobil na mizi "Prosveto" in berem uredniški članek novega urednika Kristana, ki zdaj na Bledu vživa gostoljubje komunistična Tita. France, rojen činik, je v tistem članku zelo elastičen, to se pravi, nategniti se da sem in tja in če se ne motim (krivice mu ne želim delati), poslučuje se taktike, ki je kaj podobna taktikam komunistov. Pove, da Witkovič je zopet nazaj v njihovi sredi in da ni noben zločinec. Ampak, izognil se je pa povedati, če Witkovič ni več komunist! To je zanimivo! To naj bi Francelj razložil, če je za njihovo narodno jedrno, ki je tako "napredna" spredaj in zadaj in vse na okrog, da se od nje "naprednost" kar cedi, ugodno, če v njenem uredništvu sedi kak komunist? To pojasnilo bi zanimalo vse članstvo. In Francelj je spreten, to lahko pojasni. Torej!

Uredniku A. D. je pa dal Francelj tako lep nebeški nasvet: "Ljubi svojega bližnjega, kakor samega sebe!" — Vidite modro glavo! Javnost je po tem popraševala, namreč katera je najvišja zapoved, pa jo je Francelj nam razložil! Zanimiva taktika! Takega cinizma pa ni vsakdo sposoben. Kdor poseduje take sposobnosti, je pa že zrel za izpit tudi pred najvišjo rigorično kominformovsko komisijo za slepljenje in zavijanje. Pač talent!

Tako smo prejeli ubogi plebeji slovenskega poretka pojasnilo od inteligenčnega centra slovenskega socializma v Ameriki, ki zadnja leta raca in švedra kot privesek za komunistom Titom. Tito naj skrbi, da ne bodo njegovi sopotniki v Ameriki sedeli pri praznih frakeljnih, pa bo še zabave in smeha!

Obtrniki in trgovci, ki obratujejo svoje trgovine in obrti na deseti cesti so organizirani v takojmenovano "Tenth Street Business Men's Association." Pred nekaj tedni so imeli letno sejo, kateri je predsedoval predsednik te trgovske zveze Mr. Joseph J. Nemanich, naš znani slovenski pogrebnik na deseti cesti. Mr. Nemanich je zelo podjeten mož. Prijaha iz znane Nemanicheve družine v Jolietu, zato je v njem tudi precej voditeljskega duha, ki ga je Jože podedel po svojem tudi enako nadarjenemu očetu Antonu Nemanichu, st., ki je umrl menda leta 1931 v Jolietu. Njegov pokojni oče je bil dolgo vrsto let glavni predsednik K. S. K. Jednote, pri kateri se je navdušeno udeleževal. Iz te rodbine je torej naš Jože Nemanich, ki je s svojimi aktivnostmi že veliko koristil tukajšni naselbini. Mož rad sodeluje pri vsakem koristnem narodnem delu. Takih mož naselbina potrebuje, da dajejo ljudem pobudo in smernice pri delu za skupne narodne koristi. Predsednikovo poročilo kaže, da je trgovska zveza sijajno napredovala. Na zasedanju je bilo predloženih in osvojenih več koristnih predlogov za bodoče delovanje, ki ga bo zveza vodila. Pri volitvi v odbor pa je zopet bil soglasno izvoljen Mr. Jos. J.

Nemanich st. za predsednika, Mr. William C. Ivanetič pa za tajnika. V ostali odbor pa so bili izvoljeni poleg nekaterih tujerodnih članov tudi sledeči Slovenci: Viktor Gantar, Louis Košir, Andrej Velkoverh in Andrej Ogrin. Zborovanje se je vršilo v Slov. Nar. Domu na deseti cesti. Zvezi mnogo uspeha!

Včasih se v duhu postavim za kakih 49 let nazaj v preteklost in vidim tedanjo deseto cesto, tedanje stavbe, trgovske in stanovanjske in vidim veliko spremembo od tedaj pa do danes. Deseta cesta še ni bila tlakovana, kakor je danes. Kedaj smo tedaj upali, da bomo imeli tako odlično slovensko poslopje na deseti cesti, kakor danes ponosno stoji na vogalu Adams in desete ceste, ki je last naše slovenske hranilnice in posojilnice "The North Shore Savings and Loan Association." Malo v stran proti vzhodu krasno slovensko cerkev Matere Božje in veliko obsežno farno šolo in dvorano. Na vogalu MacAlister in desete ceste pa druga velika stavba Slovenski Nar. Dom. Koliko dela, žrtv in prispevkov je bilo treba od strani nas Slovencev, da smo prišli do vsega tega. Če kaj, kažejo te stavbe, da kjer je volja, tam se vse premaga in uspehe dosega. Vesel mora biti slovenski človek, ki je pri delih in akcijah sodeloval in pomagal. Naša deseta cesta je danes skoro kakor kak mali Wall Street, proti tisti skromnosti, ki je bila tu pred 50 leti. Pri tej veliki spremembi ima zasluge slovenska delavnost in slovenska pridnost. Razmahnili smo se, dasi se tega mnogi ne zavedamo. To ni nobena baharija, ampak je gola resnica. Zakaj bi ne dali slovenskemu delu priznanje, ki mu gre. Ameriška Vrhnika — Waukegan in North Chicago je kaj zgovorna priča, da slovenski človek je podjeten in koristen vsakemu kraju, kjer se naseli. Da bi le še dolgo slovenski duh tu živel in naj glasno govori Ameriki o slovenski dejavnosti in pridnosti! Najbolj zgovoren gospodarski spomenik slovenske dejavnosti pa je naša slovenska hranilnica in posojilnica "The North Shore Savings and Loan Association," katere premoženje je narastlo do konca leta 1952 na $3,367,691.00. Temu gospodarskemu napredku: čestitke!

Pa še prihodnjič kaj, če me veter kam ne odnese. Vsem waukeganskim in northchicaškim ter vse Slovincem po Ameriki in drugod lep pozdrav od

Vrhenskoga Tineta.

James Debevec

ki je nas za vedno zapustil dne 6. marca 1952.

Eno leto je minilo, odkar Te več med nami ni, žalostna so naša srca,
solze nam zalivajo oči.

Saj ne mine nikdar dan,
da ne bili bi v duhu tam, kjer zdaj počiva Tvoje truplo, kjer Tvoj dom je zdaj hladan.

Bil dober mož si, poštenjak, in ljubil Te od nas je vsak.
Lahko bi živel še kaj let,
dal marsikak nam dober svet.

Pa naglo Te je vzela smrt, odnesla Te na tih vrt.
Luč večno Bog Ti skoro daj, in večni mir in večni raj!

XXVI.

Smrekar je bil že blizu mesta došel svojo ženo, ki je peš hodila, in kakor so rdeče oči kazale, mej potjo jokala. Precej prošnje mu je bilo treba, predno je ježno ženo k sebi na voz spravil; potem je kobilu pognal, in bila sta kmalu v mestu.

Mati ide sama k znani ženi, kje je Franica nekaj, še mlađo dekle, učeč se stanovala, in jo najde bolno v postelji. Mater je v prvem hipu utolažilo in razveselilo uže samo to, ker je videla svojo hčer, katere, kakor se jej je zdelo, uže tako dolgo ni videla, zaradi katere je toliko bridke skrbi pretrpela. Misli je, da je samo malo bolelna, da bode precej spet dobro ter da pojde z njo z očetom domov. Materinska ljubezen se je pokazala v tem, da je ženica k hčerini postelji sela in uelico, za vročo roko jo držeč, s solznimi očmi začela karati, ker je s tem ravnanjem napravila toliko bolečine in skrbi. A ko je hčeri pogledala v obraz in videla, da je mlado lice v teh kratkih dnevih upadlo; ko je solzo ugledala v deklinem očesu in njen čuden, prošeč pogled brez odgovora; ko jej je roko na čelo položila in čutila, da je začela: bila je zopet samo mati, in prišla jo je druga velika skrb, kakeršno more mati imeti pred posteljo zelo bolnega edinega otroka.

Zunaj je slišala stopinje svojega moža, in gospodinja v hiši jej tudi pove, da gre Smrekar. Hitro gre ven in ustavi moža mej vrati.

"Jezus, sveti Kozma in Damijan, da ne bi umrla!" reče možu. Smrekarju se nagubano lice izpremeni in strahoma vpraša: "Kdo? Franica?"

Ne čakaje odgovora, odpre Smrekar duri in stopi v sobo pred hčer. Pozabljena je bila vsa pridiga, katero si je vso pot izmišljal, da jo bo deklici govoril.

XXVII.

V mestu sta ostala oče in mati. Hčerina bolezen je bila vedno hujša. Zdravnik je dejal, neče; rad bi bil deklico namestoval; in bil bi se zaletaval v nebesa, kakor Titani v stari pripovedki, bil bi prosil in silil in zahteval, njo oteiti!

XXVIII.

Bilo je po polnoci. V hiši, v sobi pri tleh so bili okrog bolnice zdravnik z očetom in materjo. Nocoj se je imela bolezen odločiti, in čakali so.

Na dvorišču je bilo več vozov. Na ednem je ležal precej velik mlad človek v slami, s komolcem glavo podpiral in nemirna se metal semtertja. Vselej je glavo vzdignil, kadar so kakva vrata zakričala ali se je kaj drugega genilo.

Iz konjskega hleva, s svetilnico v roki, pride domač hlapec, mane si zaspane oči in tava preko dvora. Prišedši do onega voza obstane, odstopi dva čevlja, in z robato kletvijo svetilnico vzdigne, da bi si posvetil, kdo tukaj leži.

"Kaj te vrag trese, kaj li, Stefan? Kaj mi slamo drobiš in Dragoletnikovem vozu ter se dolgopetiš po dolzem in širocem? Rajši pojdi v hlev; moja postelja je še gorka. Jaz ne bom več smel zatisniti očesa. Denes je tržni dan, pa je treba še ovsa dobiti ter napasti in napojiti one suhe kljuge Strženove, ki je rekel uže ob štirih napreči—da bi ga zlodej jemal! Saj groš ti prekleto izbira in izbira, predno ga človek vidi. — Spat, spat, Stefan!"

In gledaje na zvezde, reče mršavi hlapec, svetilnico povzdignivši, kakor bi si hotel po nebu posvetiti:

"Glej, gostosevci so uže za sedovo gredo, in svete Katarine tolesa ni uže več videti. Ura je dve po polu noči tako gotovo, kakor si ti pijanega Brašnjara sin, če se ne huduješ."

"Miruj in pojdi!" reče Stefan. "Kaj pak, kaj pak! — Povedaj mi ti rajši, ker se uže tako lepo poznavam od nekaj, s kom si se doma sprl ali stpel, da se zdaj uže tri dni tako tiho in na pol skrivaje poteplješ tod okoli ter si kakor Pavliha, ko je mislil, da ga je medved snel?"

"To tebi ni nič mari." "Vidiš ga! Kaj nisva prijatec-lja? Kaj nisem pri tvojem oč-tu služil, ko ti še hlači nisi znal obuvati?"

GIVE TO THE RED CROSS

The American Red Cross follows the American serviceman wherever he's sent. It follows war and disaster, too, wherever it happens and with it goes aid and comfort, distributed impartially, to relieve the suffering of humans.

On June 25, 1950 a North Korean army crossed the 38th parallel, advanced on Seoul and in no time at all American servicemen moved in with battle equipment. Behind them was the American Red Cross, with whole blood and blood plasma to save lives, with small creature comforts to make life more tolerable, and with funds to buy even more comforts.

For servicemen in Korea the American Red Cross and its co-operating blood banks collected and shipped 2,439,700 pints of blood.

In Pusan, it set up a club for United Nations fighting men. Later, in the Pusan area, it expanded the program and set into operation 23 clubmobile units so that club and recreation programs could be available to all servicemen. When the Red Cross completed its program, and turned the clubs over to Army Special Services on June 30, 1952 (this in agreement with the U.S. Army) the record showed that thru the permanent club in Pusan and five mobile clubs operating in South Korea, the program, at its peak, had served monthly, more than one million United Nations Servicemen!

In 1953, the Red Cross recreation program will be expanded in Korea and other foreign bases at a cost increase of $1,500,000 to the ARC National budget. Among the facilities planned will be a new dug-out type affair for dispensing donuts which will be more accessible to the GI fighting at the front.

CONDENSED NEWS FROM OUR HOME FRONT

Cleveland, Ohio

Ignatius Kusar, 20131 Goller Avenue, has returned home from the hospital. He wishes to thank all his friends for their visits and greetings, and will welcome visitors at home.

Sendings greetings from Lemont, Ill., to her friends is Mrs. Mary Hochevar of Miller Ave.

Joe Trobenter of 819 E. 154 St., celebrated his 80th birthday on Sunday, Feb. 22nd, with a dinner at Nelson's Restaurant on Addison Rd., attended by his relatives. Congratulations and happy birthday!

Home from the hospital is Mrs. Frances Tomsic of 15922 Whitcomb Rd., who wishes to thank everyone for their gifts, flowers and greetings. Visits at home are welcome.

On Feb. 26th, Mrs. Joseph Hocevar of 14805 Darwin Ave., celebrated her 72nd birthday. Congratulations and here's to many more of them!

Michael Telich, agent for Sun Life of Canada, and his wife, left for Florida. During his absence his son, John Telich, will sub for him at 2121 N.B.C. Bldg., tel. CH 1-7877.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Lucic, who returned recently from Florida, were happily surprised at their home, 13508 Lake Shore Blvd. on Feb. 24th, when friends and relatives gathered at their home to help celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary. Congratulations!

Pottsville, Pa. — Abram Zimmerman, 21 year old Lebanon County farmer, won a $10 bet by climbing a 1036 ft. television tower near here — the highest structure of its kind.

Memphis, Tenn.

Mrs. J. R. French and Mrs. Willie Robbins, who live 100 ft apart and have talked to each other over the telephone almost daily for five years, met face to face the other day for the first time.

Scarboro, Me. — A four-legged White Rock pullet was an oddity reported here by a poultryman, Jos. Cohen. What a drumstick feast!

San Francisco, Cal. — A stranger stabbed Lawrence Bridges in the neck, knocked him to the sidewalk, then said: "Pardon me, I thought you were Jerry."

Albany, N.Y. — Attorney John Ford, representing Ralph Lambert in a stolen car case, swore out a warrant for his client's arrest, charging that Lambert had stolen his lawyer's automobile.

Birmingham, Ala. — Frank J. Bradley found in his father's effects a copy of the Daily Citizen of Vicksburg, Miss., dated Thursday, July 2, 1863. The issue told of action in the Civil War. It was printed on wallpaper.

Rapid City, S. Dak. — John Spalla, who said he had just wanted to save on dentist bills, was charged with assault and battery after he tied his wife's hands behind her, pried open her mouth with a screwdriver, and tried to pull her teeth with a pair of pliers.

Lima, O. — When Andrew Moseley got out of his car to inspect the damage after a collision, a stranger slipped in behind the wheel, and drove away.

San Francisco, Calif. — Police had little difficulty picking up Wm. Gene Hoffman for attempted burglary when they found him with their picture and fingerprint on half of an identification card he had used trying to jimmy open an apartment door.

Memphis, Tenn. — Mrs. Ralph Dumas shook her sound asleep husband awake to tell him that a wild-running auto had just knocked their house off its foundation.

Albuquerque, N. M. — Judge Findlay Morrow, dismissing charges against a soldier, ruled that it was not disorderly conduct for him to stick his tongue out at a scolding policeman.

Columbus, Ohio. — The state wildlife division announced the hunting record for 1952: hunters shot 425 bucks; a t o m o b i l e s killed 547 bucks, does and fawns.

Oklahoma City, Okla. — As detective L. L. Filson took down the description of a fugitive on his home telephone, he glanced out the window and saw the fugitive walking by, stepped out the front door and arrested him.

Charlestown, Mass. — When a fire trapped Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCarthy in their 3rd floor bedroom, he pitched an alarm clock thru the bunkroom window of a firehouse 40 ft away to arouse firemen.

Wampsville, N. Y. — Attendance at the Presbyterian Church tripled after someone unknown to the church elders placed an ad in the Oneida Dispatch: "Wanted: men, women and children to sit in slightly used pews. Sunday mornings. Wampsville Presbyterian Church."

Wichita, Kans. — Officials declared a one-day moratorium on the usual traffic tickets which lead to fines, instead had policemen pass out tickets chiding errant motorists in bold red letters: "Shame on you!"

Taken to Charity Hospital, dangerously ill, was Mike Jalovec of 6424 Spilker Ave. We wish him a speedy recovery!

CELEBRATION OF 70th BIRTHDAY OF THE MOST REV. GREGORY ROZMAN

CAROLYN BUDAN

EDDY KENIK

JOSEPHINE PETROVIC

The 70th birthday of the Most Rev. Gregory Rozman, former bishop of Ljubljana, will be celebrated Sunday afternoon at 3:30 at the Slovenian National Home on St. Clair Ave., with a magnificent program.

Taking part in the celebration will be the dramatic clubs "Slov. Oder" and "Lilija" — the singing chorus "Korotan" and the well-known soloists: Miss Carolyn Budan, Mrs. Josephine Petrovic, Mr.

Eddy Kenik and Mr. Frank Goršek. Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, the celebrant will have a solemn high mass at St. Vitus Church, with a sermon by the Rt. Rev. John J. Oman.

St. Clair Savings Shows Progress

St. Clair Savings and Loan Co. is now included in a list of 67 Ohio Savings and Loan Associations with resources of $10,000,000 or more according to Don L. Tobin, executive secretary, Ohio Savings and Loan League. The list represents an increase of 10 companies above 1951. Metropolitan Cleveland led the state in the number of such savings and loans with 20, including 17 in Cleveland proper.

These associations' combined resources totaled $1,470,000,000 last January 31st, and their growth in 1952 was $180,000,000 or 14.7%, largest ever for companies of this size, he said.

The number of savings accounts in Ohio Savings and Loans was 22,000 greater on the last day of January according to reports received by the league. January's increase in number of savings accounts was 24% greater than the increase experienced in January 1952, Mr. Tobin said.

Mortgage loan repayments also ran ahead of January 1952, being 12% greater than last year.

It's Tulip Time In Cleveland

The tenth annual Cleveland Home and Flower Show at Cleveland Public Auditorium, February 28 through March 8, will feature more than 25,000 blooming Holland tulips and a typical Dutch scene including a wind mill, canals, bridges and a street of Netherlands stores.

Again the Main Arena of Public Hall will be transformed into a breath-taking floral garden spectacle by the Florists Association of Greater Cleveland.

Throughout the seven great halls of Public Auditorium will be the largest and most complete exposition of home and garden equipment, appliances and materials ever seen in one place. This year's Show will be considerably larger than any of the previous nine annual Home and Flower Shows.

Glasbena Matica Spring Concert

Glasbena Matica announces the sale of tickets for their spring performance, has commenced.

Attuned to the Lenten season, Rossini's oratorio "Stabat Mater" will be sung in its entirety on Sunday, March 22, 1953 at the Slovenian National Home, St. Clair Ave. Favorite classic and folk melodies will complete the program. Price of tickets is $2.00 and $1.50. The rise in price is due to the fact that the entire program will be accompanied by members of the Cleveland orchestra.

Tickets may be secured through members of Glasbena Matica, at Orazem Confectionery in the S. N. H. building, or by contacting the director Anton Schubel, telephone EXpress 1-8638.

New Phone Books Being Distributed

Distribution of the 1953 Cleveland Metropolitan Area telephone directory will begin Fri., Feb. 27. On that date a crew of 2,000 persons will start delivery of approximately 650,000 copies of the alphabetical and classified directories.

Reflecting the continuing telephone growth in the area, the new directories have increased to 1,100 pages in the alphabetical section and 944 pages in the Yellow Page book, as compared to 1,084 and 924 pages respectively in the last issue.

Featured on the front cover of the Yellow Page book is a picture of the Cleveland Art Museum. The Index pages have been re-designed for easy references and greater usefulness.

Three year calendars are on the inside back cover of both books. Old books will be picked up as the new directories are delivered. D. B. Wiles, division commercial manager of Ohio Bell, cautioned everyone to check thru their old books for anything of value that may be tucked between the pages, before giving them up.

Wiles also requested all subscribers to retain their copies of the blue personal telephone directories, containing frequently called local and out-of-town numbers. If present copies are worn a call to the Business office, MA 2-9900, will bring a replacement.

Group Discussion at Addison Rd. "Y"

A new approach to group discussion of national and world problems by young adults will be tested by the Young Men's Christian Association here, John C. Omelia, Executive Secretary of the Addison Rd. YMCA, announced today.

In the experiment, young men and women between the ages of 18 and 30 will study specially selected essays and motion pictures dealing with — World Affairs. Interest developed by the essays and motion pictures will be compared with these obtained by regular discussion methods, Omelia said.

The experiment is being carried out in cooperation with the Fund for Adult Education, an independent organization established by the Ford Foundation. The Fund has prepared the materials used and made a grant of $12,000 to provide supervision of the project in 15 cities.

The discussion series here will cover 10 weeks. The countries yet to be studied include Iran, Indonesia, Yugoslavia, Nigeria, Great Britain and a meeting on World Trade. The group meets each Thursday at 8:00 p.m. at the Addison Rd. YMCA, 1418 Addison Rd. It will be directed by Lawrence Glasco.

Gov. Lausche Opens Easter Seal Drive

Governor Frank J. Lausche receives the first sheet of Easter Seals from Georgie McCloy, thus officially opening the 1953 Easter Seal campaign in Ohio. Georgie and Eleanor Douglas, both of Columbus, Ohio, were the official ambassadors of The Ohio Society for Crippled Children, which is sponsoring, from Mar. 5 to Apr. 5, the 20th annual drive to raise funds for crippled children and adults in Ohio.

Eleanor and Georgie, each five years old, have been receiving therapy for the past two years at the Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center of the Franklin County Society for Crippled Children in Columbus, an affiliate of The Ohio Society for Crippled Children.

Eleanor is now able to sit and stand alone in braces, help feed and dress herself and has overcome her shyness thru kindergarten and playroom experience at the Center.

Georgie needed leg braces to improve his gait and training to improve the use of his left hand. He is now, even in braces, quick as a cricket, alert and curious as a kitten, and takes his handicap in his stride.

Holy Name Society News

COMMUNION SUNDAY

The monthly communion falls on Sun., Mar. 8th. It will be held as usual at the 8 a.m. Mass.

MEETING

On Tuesday, Mar. 10, the monthly meeting will be held at 8:30 p.m. in the Holy Name club room. All members are urged to attend; for it is only by each one's attendance that our organization can grow.

FINOCHLE TOURNAMENT

Following the meeting Tuesday evening, there will be a pinochle tournament. Anthony Sajovec will be chairman for the affair.

KROFE

There will be a doughnut (krofe) sale after 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, also after all Masses Sunday in the St. Vitus School. Proceeds to be used for new kitchenware that is badly needed in the school.

JUNIOR JOURNAL

As any priest can tell you: you can give up shows, candy, bowling and other delicacies and recreational interests for Lent, but if you fail to unite yourself with Christ, thru Holy Communion, you might as well say that you've "missed the boat."

So come on all you Holy Namers. Let's get on the ball and receive Communion, this Sunday, which is our regular monthly Communion Sunday, Mar. 8th, at the 8 Mass. Oh, and by the way you will also be fulfilling your Easter Duty.

MEETING

"Now hear this!" "Now hear this!" The Junior Holy Name Society will hold its monthly meeting, March 6, at 7 p.m. in the Holy Name room at St. Vitus School.

Introduction of a new set of By-Laws and the coming Variety Show will be the main topics for discussion at this meeting. So come on all you Junior Namers, let's make it a point to attend.

VARIETY SHOW

"Just around the corner." That's exactly what the JHN's annual Variety Show is. The tickets will be on sale soon, so there will be ample time for everyone to get them before opening night, April 12.

The show is just GREAT. And the reason why we feel this way is that this year there is going to be nothing but PURE, HONEST, GOODNESS, REAL, St. Vitus talent in the show. There will be no representatives from other parishes participating in the program. So you can plainly see why this is going to be THE Variety Show, and one you won't want to miss!

St. Vitus Dad's Club Bulletin

I have good news for you. The Senior B boys came thru and presented St. Vitus with Eastern division championship in basketball. Nice going boys and congratulations for your fine playing. The Dads' Club is proud of you. Now let's go after the city-wide championship.

The girls' team is also in the play-offs for their divisional championship. They had a little tough luck last week and lost to St. Francis 14 to 8. It was one of those days when everything went wrong. In the grade school basketball league Johnny Vovko was elected on the all stars in lightweight division and Ed Petkovic made the all star team in the heavyweight division. Their leagues are finished for 1952-1953 season.

I want to remind you of our next card party, which will be on Sun., Mar. 15th. This will be our last Card Party until the Fall season. Let's get together one and all and have an enjoyable evening among friends.

P.S.: Leave your worries and cares at home and relax for a couple of hours.

At this time I want to remind all you dads, mothers and children, that this is Lenten season and as such, you and I have certain obligations to fulfill to God. At St. Vitus we have many evening devotions, so let's take advantage of them and gain the many graces which come to you for attending such devotions. Above all don't forget your Easter Duty. Don't put off for tomorrow what you can do today.

St. Vitus Men's Bowling League

February 26, 1953

With the end of the season only 7 weeks away the leaders are pulling away, but the battle for second place continues — only 12 points separate 2nd and 11th places. A sustained drive by any team can advance them to a higher spot — so go to it keggers! Best team efforts of the night were by the Clover Dairy who hit 923-2681 — both tops in scores of the night. Paul Delic of Mezie Ins. snared individual honors with 222-577.

Clover Dairy won 3 points from Cimperman Mkt. Frank Pivlich 562 topped the milkmen.

HOME SHOW IN MILWAUKEE

The juvenile room of the Unit Structures home built on the Auditorium stage at the Home Show in Milwaukee, March 7-14, will be decorated in a circus motif. Blonde furniture contrasts with blue-green wallpaper and carpeting. Circus-patterned draperies, pictures and balloons painted on the wallpaper add to the room's charm. The ceiling is covered with circus tent striped wallpaper. Olson Realty Corp. sponsors the home exhibit, which is furnished by American Furniture Stores.

The Bells of St. Mary's

Lily Notes:

"They clothed him with purple and plaited a crown of thorns and put it on His head and began to salute Him — 'Hail, King of the Jews!'"

"Father, forgive them for they know not what they do!"

Thus opens the cantata "Calvary" which shall be presented by St. Mary's Church Choir on March 15th at 7:30 p.m. at St. Mary's Church.

Everyone was so pleased with our presentation at Christmas time, we are sure that this Lenten offering which is more dynamic and dramatic will elevate our listeners even more so.

Tickets are available from the singers, or at the parish house.

POSTLUDE:

The gals have been rising early these Sunday mornings—the mixed chorus has been singing at 8:00 a.m. Mass. Of course, some of us don't quite make it though —

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

How very disappointed and insulted would members of various organizations become if the singers did not attend and lend their talents to make their celebrations more festive. We should think these organizations would feel it their duty to reciprocate by urging members to attend and support the efforts of the church choir. — Our building program at the school has bogged down a bit this past week — but we all believe the Heavens are favoring Father Jager (and us, of course) by withholding their precipitation and enabling his program to progress so beautifully! — Our little parish bulletin invites all to attend the Saturday Holy Hour for Peace at 7:00 p.m. — After the very encouraging news published in the U.E. last week, we should re-new our efforts in praying for peace.

Excerpts from Autobiography of Rose Mocnik

Rose Mocnik, daughter of John and Rozalija Mocnik, was born in Yugoslavia. She graduated from high school in Brezice, Yugoslavia in 1940. She then registered at the College in Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia, a province of Yugoslavia. At the same time she took a Red Cross course in first aid. But soon the war changed her plans. In April the German army swept thru Yugoslavia. In November Rose was taken with her family to a German Political Prison Camp. Ninety people — men, women and children were herded together in one medium sized hall. People were beaten daily. Some were taken away and never heard from again.

After six months some of the families, among them the Mocniks, were taken to a huge farm. Every day before dawn a guard took Rose and other prisoners to work on the fields, in the woods or on the roads. Late in the evening they were brought back to the barracks. Days became weeks, weeks-months, and months lengthened into years, three and one half years behind a wire fence where one was forbidden even to weep loudly.

On Sept. 17, 1944 an air battle between the Americans and Germans took place above the fields where the prisoners were working. Seeing a wounded American flier Rose risked her life and bandaged him as best she could using a head scarf she was wearing. For this deed a gun was pointed at her by a German officer. Why he returned the gun to its holster without firing a shot will always remain a mystery to Rose.

But on Easter Sunday, 1945, liberation finally came. An American convoy rolled into the camp greeted by cheers, tears, and a great hope that the end of the war had arrived. Yet the joy was short lived. Rose volunteered to help in the hospital that was set up to care for returning prisoners, especially those from Buchenwald. Her family was moved to another camp. And then it happened. Over night the Red Army moved into the town and Rose was a prisoner again but only for three days. With the help of Americans she and a few other nurses made a dramatic escape into the American zone of occupation. There she lived in a D. P. Camp, and worked and studied in the camp hospital under once famous doctors, now refugees with no place to lay their heads.

After two years she finally received news that her family was alive in Yugoslavia. She also received this message from her mother, "Daughter, I love you, but go where there is freedom. Go to America."

In late August in 1948 "Marine Swallow" sailed from Bremenhaven on her deck was the happiest person alive — Rose Mocnik — on her way to her uncle Joe Mocnik in Cleveland. In October the same year she received her First Citizen Papers and studied American history and English.

Before she entered St. John College she worked at Cleveland Clinic as a nurse assistant. If you ask her how she does it she will give you a broad smile and say: "I love every minute of it."

Here is a message Rose would like to give to the young American people — Love, honor and guard your freedom for in it you are unique in today's world.

PROTECT YOUR HANDS!
Use Hand Cream — Wear Dust Mitts . . .

(photograph courtesy of Trushay)

Woman's work, they say, is never done; and most of it can be pretty rough on your hands. It can be, but it need not be if you protect them with a good hand cream or lotion before as well as after doing household chores. For instance, when you roll up your sleeves to tackle the cleaning, apply a non-sticky cream or lotion to the backs of your hands, massaging it well onto the backs, the fingers, and the wrists. This, say the makers of Trushay, will provide a good protection against dust and grime, and will help keep your hands smooth and lovely looking. Repeat this beauty routine when your work is finished. For convenience, keep an extra jar or bottle with your dusting and polishing supplies. . . . For even further protection, wear dust mitts. For free instructions for mitts which you can crochet quickly and inexpensively from a non-irritating rayon and cotton yarn, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Women's Editor of this paper.

The Prince of Peace

"The Prince of Peace", now playing at the Circle Theatre at 102 and Euclid, is a portrayal of the Life of Christ, shown in color on the screen, exactly as it is done in the famous yearly pageant at Lawton, Oklahoma.

Baseball Notes

Lopez and General Manager Hank Greenberg are very high on Herb Score, the 19-year-old Lake Worth, Fla. youngster, who is being taken to Tucson for a thorough trial. They are satisfied that he can throw hard enough to stay in the majors but must perfect his control to be a successful performer. He played in 12 games at Indianapolis last summer where he won 2 and lost 5. However, he allowed but 37 hits in 62 innings and fanned 61. He walked 62 men to account for all of his misfortunes.

Billy Joe Davidson, after a rocky first year start, seems on his way to justify the high regard Cleveland held for him when the club signed him to a bonus contract. He won 16 and lost 8 at Spartanburg last summer in his first full season of organized baseball.

Marion Murszewski of Batavia, New York, who was a teammate of Davidson's in 1952, established a Tri-State knockout mark at Spartanburg by fanning 239 men in 225 innings as he won 16 games. Altho Murszewski resembles comedian Max Patkin in appearance, he is a deadly serious youngster on the mound.

Other southpaw pitching hopefuls who have impressed Lopez at Daytona were Dick Tomanek of Avon Lake; Wilber Striker of Tiffin; Del Bastock of Lorain; Bud Daley, Henry Aguirre, Walter Seaward and Dick Wenger.

"I just got a job in a dry-cleaning factory."

"Do you find the work hard?"

"Just in spots."

Shag Rugs Stay Shaggy, All Clothes Dry Beautifully In Electric Dryer

A woman who owns a shaggy dog says her pup comes out of her electric clothes dryer all fluffy and fresh-smelling. It's strongly suspected that this is just another "shaggy dog" story.

Shaggy dog or not, you can be sure that shag rugs dry fluffy and nice when you use an electric clothes dryer. In fact, all your clothes will come out perfect and sweet-smelling.

Towels, sheets—all your whitest things—stay white when they're dried electrically. There's no mystery: the electric dryer uses clean electric heat.

And it takes so little time to dry clothes electrically. Three to four minutes in an electric dryer are equal to an hour on the clothesline. And think of the steps and work you save! No more carrying heavy baskets of wet clothes from washer to line, no more stretching on tip-toe to hang your clothes.

Tests made by the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station in Wooster show an electric dryer reduces your ironing time too—as much as three hours out of four! One big reason: many clothes dry so nicely in the electric dryer that you can just fold them and put them away.

Another nice thing about the electric dryer—you can set the dryer controls (damp-dry for ironing, bone-dry for right-away use) and walk away from it. While your electric dryer does the work, you can go shopping, share those precious growing years with your children, clean up around the house, or just plain relax. You needn't worry about the electric dryer while you're gone and it's on—it's always safe! Is it any wonder then that thousands of women are partial to their electric dryer—prefer it to any other work-saving appliance they own?

HAWAII—The 49th State, Hawaiian Statehood seems assured. Given strong impetus in the 1952 Republican Platform which favored "immediate Statehood for Hawaii," another push was given by President Eisenhower in his State of the Union address—"Statehood should be granted promptly, with the first election scheduled for 1954."

Hearings on five Statehood bills were held this week by the Subcommittee on Territories of the House Interior and Insular Affairs Committee. The Senate Committee will take up the question upon completing testimony on the "tidelands" bills.

There seems to be no doubt but that a new star will be put on our flag. And what a difficult job that will be for the designers! Try to figure it out some day when you have paper and pencil handy.

NEW STAMP COMMEMORATING THE NATIONAL GUARD On February 23rd, I had the pleasure as Ohio Regent of the Mount Vernon Ladies' Association of the Union to represent the Regent at Mount Vernon at the First Day of Issue Ceremony of the new stamp commemorating the National Guard—the citizen army of our Republic which George Washington called "the bulwark of our liberties."

The Postmaster General, the Secretary of Defense and other dignitaries sat under the portico in the brilliant sunshine of the most perfect of days. The colorful, dignified ceremony was one long to be remembered. Certainly no group of men down through the several centuries of our history have a better right to such recognition as those who have made up our militia.

PHILATELISTS, PLEASE NOTE. While I am on the subject of stamps, here is good news about Ohio's Sesquicentennial. Back in 1950 the Philatelic Society issued the first of a series of 8 cachets depicting events leading to Ohio Statehood. The seventh is to be released on March 2nd in connection with the release of the Ohio stamp; the eighth, which will show the adoption of the Ohio seal, will be released on March 25th. These covers are unique, all carved by hand from linoleum block and printed by hand.

If you place your orders now with the Chillicothe Philatelic Society, 359 West Fourth Street, Chillicothe, Ohio, the cachets (except No. 8) can be mailed as first day covers with the 3c Ohio stamp on March 2nd. The cost is 10c for each cover. Available also are souvenir sheets of labels (25c each) or five sheets in different colors for $1.00.

CAPITOL DIGEST

by Ted S. Alexander
Columbus, Ohio

Battle lines have been drawn in Ohio's 100th General Assembly. Over a dozen major proposals of Gov. Frank J. Lausche are pending in Legislature. Law-makers—now in 3rd month of sessions—are anxious to start serious work.

GOP majority is in tight spot due to overwhelming public support of Lausche in last election. Delay or junking of Lausche-program might result in repetition of 1951 when lobbyists captured control of session. Alternative is to approve recommendations and admit past mistakes.

Complaints have increased that GOP pre-session plans to gain initiative have not jelled. Few Republican policy measures have been introduced. Leaders' decision to develop specific programs as sessions progress may have backfired.

Legislature is due for slow start again this week. Monday session in Columbus will be followed by observance of Sesquicentennial by mock-legislative session Tuesday at Chillicothe. Introduction of proposed laws will occupy balance of week.

FLOOD GATES were opened for introduction of bills last week. Result! 257 bills in the House, 57 in the Senate. Some committees will hold first hearings on proposed laws this week. House set March 30 as deadline for introduction of bill.

One "agreed" measure of GOP leaders would create a new State Department of Highway Safety. Proposal would give director cabinet status with authority over motor vehicles registration, highway patrol organization, and motor responsibility law. New cabinet member would have sub-standard salary, $6,500 compared with existing $8,600 for cabinet members. Creation of new bureau was promise of Republican campaign in '52.

Approved by Legislature: 10-month extension of Un-American Activities Commission; appropriation of $213,000 to enforce motor vehicle safety responsibility law which became effective March 1 (Approved by House of Representatives only); a bill to allow county and city governments to spend public funds in sesquicentennial observance.

GOP is trying hard to side-step Lausche's proposed ton-mile tax on heavy trucks. Latest proposal introduced by a Republican house member calls for extension of truck license fees approved in '51 and three per cent gross receipts tax on trucking industry.

Major measures scheduled for hearings this week: In the Senate—$15-million emergency grant for big-city expressways, access roads to turnpike and atomic plant area roads (Pike County project). In the House of Representatives—$831-million two-year budget; Lausche-proposed increase in tax on pari-mutual betting.

75th Anniversary of the Milwaukee Public Library

The City of Milwaukee is celebrating this community event by observing March 11 as Library Day. March 11, seventy-five years ago, was the date of the first regular meeting of the library's board of trustees. The board had been established after the acceptance by the Common Council of 10,000 books donated by the Young Men's Association, a literary and debating society of the time. Since 1878 the library has added some one million books to its collection. About 6,000 of these 1,200,000 books are in foreign languages including volumes in Slovenian, Croatian and Serbian and Slovak (old and new).

Stores in shopping areas thruout the city will participate in the celebration by displaying special posters in their windows and City Hall will mark the occasion by spelling "Library Day" with the City Hall lights.

Special events of the day will also include an afternoon tea sponsored by the staff for present and past members of the Library's Board of Trustees. A carriage of 1878 vintage will bring a group depicting the first Board of Trustees to the afternoon affair. The carriage will be officially greeted at the central library's doors by Miss Librarian of 1878. A car of 1953 vintage will bring a group of the present Board of Trustees to the occasion. This car will be officially greeted by Miss Librarian of 1953. The names of both young ladies will be revealed on the day of the event.

Special radio and television shows are being planned to carry the birthday message thruout the community.

Other important dates on the anniversary calendar are:

March 22nd, open house at the central library.

April 7th, the date of the referendum on the issuance of bonds for an addition to the Library-Museum building, and July 8th, the date the Reading Room was opened to the public under the direction of the City of Milwaukee. It will be Neighborhood Library Day this year.

Prešeren's Poetical Work

By E. A. KOVACIC

Once was a hope, once was a fear,
I have them now no longer near;
my heart is empty, it's in vain to wish my hope and fear again.

Prešeren

The Romantic period of literature developed poetry to a height that has been reached never before in the literature of the Slavs. The poetry of Pushkin among the Russian, the poetry of Mickiewicz in the Polish and Macha's in the Czech literature developed in the same period of Romanticism as the poetry of Prešeren among the Slovenians.

France Prešeren started to write poetry as a student in Ljubljana and Vienna. After his return to the homeland in 1828, he devoted himself to poetry. As far as the poetical forms are concerned, he took them from foreign literatures and introduced in the Slovenian poetry the sonnets, terzians, stanzas, etc.

The Slovenian language which was until Prešeren's time used only by peasants and a small number of intellectuals, became in his poetry able to express the feeling of the heart. Prešeren himself told us that his poetry "did not come from a sunny country, but lacked zephyrs and suffered by storms in the cold homeland".

Prešeren's poetry was a poetry of a man who grew up in a small society, but had a mission and inspiration of a great poet. Prešeren described the character of a poet as a man carrying "hell and heaven" in his heart. A poet is for him a poor man who owns "a castle with no doorman in the sky". Disappointed in life and the influence of money in the society, Prešeren found his way to resignation, happiness or suffering made no difference for him any more.

Prešeren as a poet never forgot to express his love for Slovenia. Slovenia was for him the homeland he loved, altho he was sorry that the Slovenian history knew only "the bloody revolts of the peasants, the fight of Vitovec, and the Turkish attacks". The poet liked to awake all the Slavs. In his poetry, he saluted to all the nations "desiring to expect the day when struggle will cease and the whole world and all countrymen will be free."

The poet took an active part in the linguistic and orthographic controversy of his time. Together with his friend Matija Čop, he took a firm stand against the abandonment of Slovenian as a literary language. He rejected Kollar's idea of the four Slavic literary languages with satirical verses in which he said that the small Slavic nations refused to lick the Slavic dog's paw. Many Prešeren's satirical verses were directed to the reformers of orthography and to those who did not understand the need of Slovenian poetry, but tried to continue the spirit of rationalism of the era of Enlightenment. Prešeren devoted beautiful poems to his friend Matija Čop, who drowned by accident in the river Sava. In Slovenian and German, Prešeren wrote poems praising him as a man "who saved our boat" and "showed the way of knowledge to the country", as a man "to whom no stars of the sky of poetry have been unknown", calling him "a giant of knowledge."

The climax of Prešeren's poetry were "Sonetni venec" (Garland of Sonnets), and the poetical fiction "Krst pri Savici" (Baptism at the Savica Waterfall).

"Sonetni venec" was devoted to Julija Primic, the girl of his unforgettable never fulfilled love. His poetical love for Julija Primic could be compared to the love of the Italian poet Dante to Beatrice in his "Divine Comedy". Prešeren's unhappy love saved him as a poet of lyric poetry, but probably prevented his work in other fields of literature. In "Sonetni venec", published in 1834, Prešeren sang a solemn poem of love and love for the country.

In 1847, Prešeren published his book of poetry "Poezije", which became a cornerstone of the Slovenian literature. With his poetry, Prešeren laid the foundation of the Slovenian poetical language.

As a great poet and man with his own opinion, Prešeren was hardly understood by the Slovenians of his time. In the Slovenian literature, he became better known after 1866, when Josip Stritar published a new edition of his poetry. It is true that many Slovenian authors of the later period until the recent time tried to interpret Prešeren with their own ideas forgetting his individualism and originality. While Stritar interpreted him too much from the point of view of his pessimism, the most recent communistic school under the leadership of Boris Zihl interpreted Prešeren with the philosophy of marxism which can never give a true picture of the great individualistic poet of Romanticism.

For the Slovenians, Prešeren always will be a great poet and man, a prophet and spiritual leader and according to Cankar's words the expression of the great life leading to the future, chosen by the future as its form. The Slovenians will never forget Prešeren's words in the poetical fiction "Krst pri Savici":

"Less terrible is the night under the earth

CHIEF LOGAN

When Lord Dunmore glanced around the circle of Indians meeting with him at Camp Charlotte, near Circleville, on that bright fall day in 1774, one of the most influential was missing—Chief Logan.

The campaign which history calls Dunmore's War was over. The Indians were defeated. A new peace was to be made.

But peace could not be made without Logan. He was a great Ohioan—in the days before there was an Ohio.

Logan, born in Pennsylvania in 1725, had been a friend of the white man—named Logan in honor of Pennsylvania's Secretary. He came to Ohio and dealt with his white friends.

Then affection turned to hate. A party of Indians, including all of Logan's relatives, were at the mouth of Yellow Creek, near Steubenville. Roistering whites across the river sent an invitation to the Indians to join them. Men, women and children were wronly murdered.

Logan became an avenger. Other Indians joined him and Logan's Elm, 6 miles south of Circleville.

Dunmore's War blazed in bloody reality. And now peace was being made, and Logan was missing.

An emissary found Logan under a great elm—Logan's Elm, near Circleville. The Mingo chief spoke to the messenger in what Theodore Roosevelt declared to be, "perhaps the finest outburst of savage eloquence of which we have any authentic record."

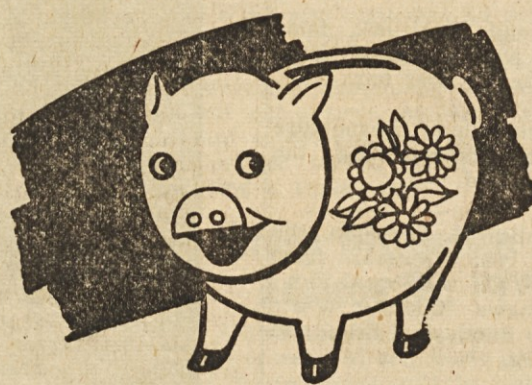

"I appeal to any white man," said Logan in part, "to say if ever he entered Logan's Cabin hungry and he gave him not meat; if ever he came cold and naked and he clothed him not . . . I had thought to have lived with you . . . Colonel Cresap, the last spring, in cold blood and unprovoked, murdered all the relatives of Logan, not even sparing my women and children. There runs not a drop of my blood in the veins of any living creature."

Peace was made. Logan's friends died. He wandered from village to village, dejected, solitary and broken.

He was murdered one evening in 1780 as he sat before a lonely camp fire.

Today, Logan's Elm still stands—a state monument to a heroic Ohioan, perhaps one of the oldest living things within the state.
