PREGLED NAJVAŽNEJŠIH DOGODKOV

George P. Shultz pripravljen srečati se z nikaragvejskim voditeljem Ortego danes v Urugvaju — Govorila naj bi o miru

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Danes se bo v Urugvaju mudil državni sekretar George P. Shultz. Udeležil se bo slovesnosti ob začrti novega urugvajskega predsednika Julia Sanguinettija. Navzoč med drugimi državniki bo tudi Daniel Ortega, predsednik Nigaragve. Preteklo sredo je Ortega dejal, da se zelo zanimiva za mirovna pogajanja z ZDA in da je Nikaragva pripravljena poslati domov kakih 100 kubanskih vojaških in drugih svetovalcev. Prav tako bi Nikaragva ne dobavljala več težkega orožja. V zameno naj bi ZDA pristale na neposredna mirovna pogajanja z Nikaragvo ter tudi opustili podporo protisandinističnemu gverilcem. Ortega je tudi izrazil željo, da bi Nikaragvo obiskala delegacija ameriškega Kongresa in se na mestu prepričala o resničnem položaju Nikaragve. V Kongresu pa zaenkrat ne kažejo posebnega zanimanja za Ortegovou pobudo.

Shultz in Ortega sta v istem hotelu v Montevideu, glavnem mestu Urugvaja, vendar najnovejša poročila še ni potrjujejo, da se bosta državnika srečala, čeprav sta oba že dejala, da sta pripravljena na osebno srečanje, na katerem bi se lotila spornih vprašanj, ki njuni državi ločijo.

V Beli hiši odkrito dvomijo v iskrenost Ortegovih najnovejših izjav. Tako je v nekem včerajšnjem govoru dejal podpredsednik George Bush, da gre za prevaro. Nič ne pomeni, da je Nikaragva pripravljena poslati domov sto Kubancev, ko je to le en odstotek Kubancev v Nikaragvi. O nikaragveškem oboroževanju je pa Bush rekel, da Nikaragve začasno ni zmožna sprejeti več težkega orožja, zato lahko govorji o ustaviti le-tega.

Reaganova administracija nadaljuje s prizadevanji, da bi zvezni kongres odobril podporo protisandinističnemu gverilcem, vendar kaže, da v tem ne bo uspela. Demokrati imajo večino v zboru poslancev in odločno protivijo taki podpori gverilcem.

V IRA napadih v Severni Irski padlo najmanj 10 policistov in vojakov

NEWRY, S. Irska — Včeraj so IRA teroristi napadli policijsko postajo v tem mestu z minometi. Tri granate so zadele jedilnico, v kateri je bilo več policistov. V napadu je padlo 9 policistov, enega pa reševalci še pogrešajo, ranjenih je najmanj 30 oseb, od teh nekaj civilistov. V drugem napadu so pa teroristi IRA eksplodirali bombo v bližini katoliške cerkve v mestecu Pomeroy, ko je mimo korakala patrulja angleških vojakov. Ubit je bil en vojak, dva sta bila težko ranjena. Po obeh napadih je IRA teroristom uspelo pobegniti.

Državljanska vojna v Severni Irski traja že dobrih 15 let. IRA teroristi trdijo, da želijo priključitev Severne Irske Irske republike, vendar je IRA oziroma njeno vodstvo marksistično usmerjeno. Veliko gmotno podporo dobiva IRA od irskih naselbin v ZDA. Doslej je v 15-letni vojni padlo najmanj 2428 ljudi, od teh 209 policistov.

Andrej Gromiko se srečal s papežom Janezom Pavlom II. — Izmenjava mnenj

RIM, It. — V Italijo je prišel na uradni obisk sovjetski zunanj minister Andrej A. Gromiko, član najožnjega vodstva ZSSR. Med obiskom se je srečal z italijanskimi državniki, v sredo ga je v Vatikanu sprejel tudi papež Janez Pavel II. Govorila sta o miru in drugih perečih vprašanjih. Gromiko je men-da pojasnil sovjetsko stališče do pogajanj z ZDA o omejevanju oborožitve.

Včeraj je Gromiko prispel v Španijo, kjer se je srečal s španskim premierom Gonzálezom in zunanjim ministrom Moranom.

ZDA pripravljeni igrati aktivnejšo vlogo na Srednjem vzhodu — Izrael in Egipt iščeta kompromisno rešitev glede pogajanj

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Včeraj je Reaganova administracija izrazila svojo pripravljenost, igrati aktivnejšo vlogo v prizadevanjih za miru na Srednjem vzhodu, vendar le na načinu, ki bo sprejemljiv tako Egiptu kot Izraelu. V zadnjih tednih je namreč egiptski predsednik Hosni Mubarak začel zagovarjati mirovna pogajanja, v katerih bi poleg Izraela sodelovali skupna jordansko-palestinska delegacija ter delegacije drugih arabskih drugih, ki bi se žeeli pogajanjem pridružiti. Izraelci so sprejeli Mubarakuovo pobudo, a pod pogojem, da bi v jordansko-palestinski delegaciji ne bilo nobenega predstavnika PLO. Tu se je pa zataknilo, ker Mubarak pravi, da bi lahko v omenjeno delegacijo prišli tudi člani PLO.

Ker Izrael tega ni pripravljen sprejeti, je Mubarak predlagal dvotirni proces. Najprvo naj bi se jordansko-palestinska delegacija sestala s predstavniki ameriške vlade in sicer v Washingtonu, temu srečanju bi sledilo drugo, v katerem bi sodelovali Izraelci in druge arabske države. Včeraj je pa izraelski zunanjji minister Šamir dejal, da bi bilo ločeno srečanje jordansko-palestinske delegacije z ameriško za Izrael povsem nesprejemljivo. Tako je stališče Reagane administracije, da se morata najprvo sporazumeti glede zadeve Izrael in Egipt, šele potem naj bi se mirovnemu procesu pridružile ZDA.

— Kratke vesti —

Washington, D.C. — Vsak dom zveznega kongresa je pripravljen odobriti zakonski osnutek, ki predvideva več podpore finančno prizadetim farmerjem, kot želi Reaganova administracija, ki trdi, da je pripravljena zakonski osnutek celo vetirati. Kongresni pa vztrajajo, ker je v njihovih državah in okrožjih menda več deset tisoč farmerjev, ki so na robu bankrota zaradi prezadolženosti. Stališče Bele hiše je, da je pripravljena odobriti nekaj podpore, ne pa toliko, kot želi kongresniki.

New Orleans, La. — Včeraj je bil obtožen prejemanje podkupnine guverner Louisiane Edwin Edwards. Guverner pravi, da je nedolžen, velika porota pa je v obtožnici trdila, da je Edwards prejel skoraj dva milijona dolarjev na nezakonit način.

San Salvador, El Sal. — V El Salvador je prispeala delegacija 5 ameriških škofov, ki je bila na obisku v Nikaragvi. Škofovi, med njimi je tudi chicaški nadškof kardinal Joseph Bernardin, se zanimajo za razmere tako v Nikaragvi kot El Salvadorju in bodo po vrtnitvi v ZDA poročali o svojih vtiših drugim ameriškim škofov.

Seoul, J. Ko. — Ameriški in južnokorejski obveščevalci so prepričani, da se je potopila severnokorejska podmornica, na kateri je bilo 54 mornarjev.

Beverley, Mass. — Umrl je Henry Cabot Lodge, v starosti 82 let. Lodge je bil nekaj let zvezni senator, poslanik ZDA v Združenih narodih in v Vietnamu v prvih letih vietnamske vojne, leta 1960 pa je bil republikski predsedniški kandidat, ko je Richard Nixon premagal John F. Kennedy.

40 let usodne razdelitve Evrope

Pred 40 leti, od 4. do 11. februarja 1945 je v obmorskem letoviščem kraju Jalta na polotoku Krimu ob Črnomorju potekala konferenca med Rooseveltom (ZDA), Churchillom (Vel. Britanija) in Stalinom (SZ). »Trije veliki« naj bi se pogovorili o usodi sveta, zlasti Evrope po porazu nacistične Nemčije, katere razpad se je bližal z naglimi koraki. Žal je ta konferenca prešla v zgodovino kot primer, kako neodgovorno se odloča na vrhovih svetovne politike o drugih, ne da bi se jih vprašalo za njih mnenje ali dobilo njih pristank.

Sedanji severnoameriški predsednik Reagan je, zvest svojim dosedanjim stališčem, v torek 5. februarja o jaltski konferenci dejal: »Sovjetska zveza je kršila takratne sklepe, kajti v Jalti so se dogovorili, da bodo v vseh evropskih državah svobodne volitve. ZDA še vedno stoje na tem, da je treba te sklepe spoštovati in izvesti. Ne zahtevajo tega z namenom, da dokažejo nad SZ vojaško premoč, ampak ker želijo, da se demokratični red obnovi v vsej Evropi.«

Reagan ne pravi, da je treba jalske dogovore preklicati, ampak da jih je treba tolmačiti v duhu kot so bili zamišljeni in podpisani. Po njegovem mnenju je Stalin prevaral tako Roosevelta kot Churchilla, a ne pri pogajalni mizi, temveč kasneje. Reagan nima namere uničiti sovjetskega imperija, ampak spremeniti ga. Zato podpira politiko ekonomske pomoči do posameznih držav sovjetskega bloka kot sta to npr. Romunija in Madžarska (Jugoslavija je primer zase).

Glavna osebnost na konferenci v Jalti je bil nedvomno Stalin: še mladosten, simpatičen, velik jedec in pivec. Hitro je spoznal, da je Roosevelt na kraju svojih moči (čez dober mesec je že umrl) in da mu ne gre za drugo kot da se vojna čimprej konča. Tudi Churchill ni bil več tako odziven kot v mladih letih in ni spregledal pasti, ki jih je Stalin obema nastavljal. Sovjetski diktator je tudi takoj odkril, da je Roosevelt zelo sprejemljiv za poklone. Zato mu je neprestano dvoril, tako da mu je uspelo postaviti Rooseveltu proti Churchillu. Karkoli je slednji predlagal, pa Stalinu ni bilo všeč, je ameriški predsednik zavrnil. Še več. Tako zelo mu je postal všeč, da ga je kar pred Churchillom začel klicati »stric Joe«. In stric Joe je to zaupanje v polni meri izkoristil za svoje načrte.

V Jalti je tekel pogovor predvsem o usodi premagane Nemčije in »osvobojene« Poljske. O sedanji razdelitvi Evrope tedaj še ni bilo govora. Ta je prišla kot posledica sovjetske osvajalnosti in anglo-ameriške naivnosti.

Leta 1945 je bilo poljsko ljudstvo še bolj antisovjetsko kot danes. V svežem spominu je bil še sovjetskonacistični pakt Ribbentrop (nemški zunanjji minister) – Stalin spomladi leta 1939, čemur je sledil nemški napad na Poljsko 1. septembra 1939 in temu sledenje delitev Poljske med Nemčijo in SZ, potem pokolj poljskih častnikov s strani sovjetske vojske leta 1942 v Katynu, dalje cinično ravnanje sovjetskih čet, ki so že stale leta 1944 pred Varšavo, pa so se Poljaki v mestu Nemcem uprli upajoč, da jih Sovjeti podpro, Sovjeti pa so mirno čakali, da so Nemci upor zadušili in je

Slovenski oder še živi – Lilija vabi na veseloigro »Stari grehi«

CLEVELAND, O. - Prenekti prireditev smo imeli priliko obiskat zadnje čase, tako, da smo na igre že kar pozabili. A vendar igre so bile včasih košček vaškega življenja. Z veseljem smo se odzivali vabilom igralskih skupin in z navdušenjem sledili njih nastopom na odru.

LILJA nam že dolgo vrsto let skuša od časa do časa pričarati nekaj teh lepih spominov. Tako so Lilijini igralci zopet na delu, ko nam v režiji Srečka Gaserja pripravljajo veseloigro »Stari grehi«, katera bo podana v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Ave. v nedejlo 10. marca popoldne ob 3.30. Režiser in igralci, katere smo že večkrat videli na odru, nam zagotavljajo veselo popoldne in zvrhan koš smeha in dobre volje.

Mnogokrat nekam s skrbjo gledamo v bodočnost in se sprašujemo, koliko časa se bo še ohranila slovenska beseda v Ameriki. Prijatelj dragi, tudi od mene in tebe je odvisno! Morda res nimava sposobnosti, da bi stopila na oder. Lahko pa podpreva tiste, ki se za to trudijo. Zato vsa slovenska srenja v nedeljo 10. marca na igro »Stari grehi«!

šele nato rdeča armada mesto zasedla.

Vsega tega Poljaki niso pozabili in ko so sovjetske čete že bile v njih deželi, so nadaljevali z atentati zoper nove okupatorje. Begunska vlada v Londonu je to aktivnost podpirala in kolikor je mogla, tudi finansirala. V odgovor je Stalin v Lublinu (kjer je katoliška univerza), ustanovil tako imenovan »Lublinski komite«, začasno poljsko vlado v domovini, sestavljeni iz samih komunistov ali njih simpatizerjev.

In se se zgodilo tisto usodno: Churchill in Roosevelt sta obrnila zakoniti poljski vladi v Londonu hrbet in priznala ta ljubljinske komite; pristala sta tudi na to, da pripadejo vzhodne pokrajine Poljske Sovjetski zvezi, ki si jih je Poljska priznala jeseni leta 1918. V zameno naj bi Poljska dobila z Nemci naseljena območja na zahodu do črte Odra-Nisa (Neisse), Nemci naj bi pa bili izgnani.

Rooseveltu je bila usoda Poljske malo mar. Stalinu je dejal: »Sit sem že tega govorjenja o Poljski; sto petdeset let že moramo prenašati njene nadležnosti.« In spet: »Natlačimo že to poljsko gos z nemškim kislom zeljem, da bo dala mir.« Seveda je Stalin take besede rad slišal. Zato je tudi brez nadaljnega pristala na zahtevo obeh zahodnih voditeljev, da bodo na Poljskem po končani vojni izvedene svobodne volitve. Vedel je, da do njih zaradi sovjetske navzočnosti ne bo nikdar prišlo. In tako je tudi bilo.

Kar se tiče poražene Nemčije, je bil spet Stalin tisti, ki je imel jasne ideje: nemško ozemlje naj bi se razdelilo na štiri zasedbene cone, eno naj bi dobila tudi Francija ali pa bi se ustanovil skupni nadzorstveni odbor, ki bi nadziral Nemčijo. Stalinu je ta zadnja rešitev bila bolj pri srcu, kajti Sovjetska zveza bi imela dostop do vse Nemčije. In bi do tega

Belokranjsko kosilo

CHICAGO, Ill. - Belokranjci nas vabijo, da pridemo na kosilo v nedeljo 10. marca 1985 v svetoštansko dvorano; po zadnji maši bodo radi postregli z okusnim kosilom po takih cenah, kakršne so tukaj v navadi.

In v kakšen namen? Dobili so prošnjo in z njo sporočilo, da v njih ljubi Beli krajini župna cerkev v Semiču potrebuje nujna popravila in torej denarno pomoč. Kaj, zopet popravilo in dolarska pomoč? Da, zato pet...

Pri tisti cerkvi so Belokranjci pustili polovico srca, ali naj odrečeo? Saj domačini pomagajo, kolikor pač zmorejo. Ti pa niso bogati ljudje. Potrditi moramo, da preprosto ljestvo v največji meri danes rešuje bogastvo slovenskih cerkv v in s »cerkvicami na gričih« vrača lepoto slovenski zemlji. In upajmo, da bo ugašajoča vera tudi zopet vzplamela.

Dobro vsi poznamo družine v naši skupnosti, ki so se združile v pripravi za to dobrodelno kosilo in ki stalno delajo pri vseh naših prireditvah in tudi kosilih. Naštejmo jih:

družina Antona in Pepce Gombač;

družina Danice Vlahovič;

družina Judnič in fantje;

družini obeh bratov Sever;

Mimica Stariha in hčerki, in še in še...

Vsi naštetí z ostalimi Belokranjci želijo, da pridemo na kosilo. Saj se, po pravici povedano, ne ločujemo po slovenskih grupah! Kakšno veselje prevladuje v svetoštanski dvorani, ko se rokuje s Slovenci od vzhoda, od zahoda, od severa in juga. Isto naj doživimo na Belokranjskem kosilu 10. marca!

Dramatsko društvo*LILIJA*Misijonska srečanja in pomenki*650. MISIJONSKO KOSILO V CLEVELANDU

je 24. februarja zelo lepo uspelo. MZA je v dvorani farne cerkve sv. Vida servirala 670 kosi. Skupno je prireditve rodila $3600.00 v pomoč vsem našim v misijonih iz teh postavk: za krofe je došlo $280, peciva so prodali za $180, rož je šlo za $67, a jih je nekaj ostalo, ker pozimi ljudje manj cvetje kupujejo. Maček v žaklu je nanesel $527 in razni darovi so znesli $525. Vsaka posamezna navedena nabirka okrepi glavnino pomoči, ki se zbere od prodaje kosi. Priprave in posprava ter celotna izvedba prireditve zavisi v celoti od velikodušnega sodelovanja članstva v odseku MZA v Clevelandu in od njene vodstva. Veliko je pri vsem tem skrbi, pa je tudi veliko vesela in hvaležnosti vseh, ki pomoč kasneje prejmejo, ko vidijo vedno znova, da nanje mnogi mislimo in da niso v svojem garanju na terenu nikoli sami.

Kar čez leto pride od koderkoli pomoči za posamezne misijonarje in misjonarke, je vedno upoštevano pri razdelitvi pomoči, čeprav ni morda to izrecno omenjeno. Nekateri vsako leto dobijo več pomoči tudi zato, ker je zanje kdo po-sebej nekaj med letom daroval. To se stalno dogaja tudi med letom, če kaka pomoč gre preje posamezniku, ker je znesek znaten in dobrotnik želi, da doseže prejemnika čimprej. Sicer misijonski garač pomoč vedno potrebuje in kadar pride, mu zelo prav pride. Le berimo pisma misijonarjev in misjonark, ko se za pomoč zahvaljujejo.

Naj božji Misijonar povrne vse žrtve vsakemu v clevelandski MZA in vsem misijonskim prijateljem, ki so kosi pripravili ali se ga udeležili. Predsednici ge. Marici Lavriševi in vsem v vodstvu MZA Cleveland moramo v celotni MZA iskreno čestitati.

Iz Vangaindrano,

se zahvaljuje za dar MZA usmiljenka s. Marija Pavlišič in želi »mir in srečo vse dni v tem letu vsem misijonskim dobrotnikom in prijateljem.

Hvala za Vaša božična voščila in novoletne želje z darilom za $400. Naj Vam bo Jezus sam plačnik in Vam stote-ro povrne. Vaša denarna pomoč je zelo dobrodošla, saj so potrebe velike.

Vse se draži, darovi pa se manjšajo. Tako smo lansko leto dvakrat več porabili, kot pa dobili. Sreča, da smo imeli od prejšnjega leta. Kako bo letos? Zaupamo v božjo Previndost in Vašo velikodušnost.

V naši družini nas je 8 sester, 6 domačink in dve Slovenki. Imamo osnovno šolo z 850 otroci in otroški vrtec; katereho in obiske po domovih; dispanzer za bolnike, kamor prihaja po 300 in še več bolnikov na dan. Reveži od jutra do večera trkajo na vrata. Morda bo ta ali oni rekel, da so pač tako navajeni. Zamislite, kako bi bilo enemu od nas, če ne bi res ničesar imeli? Koliko jih je, ki niti enkrat na dan ne jedo do sitega.

Mi imamo šolsko kantino, ki je kuhinja za revne otroke. Za večino je to tudi edini obrok. Koliko jih je, ki prosijo za skodelico riža, četudi brez soli ali začimbe. Živijo človeka nedostojno življenje. Nimajo niti osnovno potrebnih stvari, medtem ko se drugi v raznih deželah kopljajo v izobilju.

Skrb posebej so invalidi, posledica otroške paralize. Center zanje je v osrednjem delu, daleč od tukaj. Včasih je bil popust na vlaku in avtobusih. Sedaj moramo vse plačati. Izdatki so veliki. Za enega otroka enkratna vožnja okrog 15-20 tisoč Fmg, kar je enako vrednosti 225-300 Ffr (francoski frankovi). Tudi ortopedski čevlji stanejo najmanj 225 Ffr. V začetku marca bomo spet poslali 7 otrok: 3 gredo na kontrolo in 4 prvič. Nekateri ostanejo po več let v centru, drugi nekaj mesecov in se potem vračajo tja vsakih 6 mese-

O našem »Imeniku društva«

V današnji številki A.D. objavljamo »Imenik društva«, ki sicer običajno izhaja mesečno v torkovi številki našega lista. To pa pomeni, da dobra tretjina naših bračev tega imenika nikoli ne vidi, prav tako ne našega »Koledarja prireditev«.

Od vsega početka uredniškega dela, se nisem nikoli ukvarjal z »imenikom društva«; to so delali drugi, ki pa slovenskega jezika ne pozna. Radi tega so nastale tekom časa mnoge napake. Odločil sem se, da izboljšanja v imeniku ne bo, ako tega dela ne prevzamem sam. Kmalu bom začel s postavljanjem društvenega imenika, pri tem pa uporabljal pravilne kategorije (npr. vsa oltarna društva skupaj, vsi pevski zbori skupaj itd.).

Janez Kajzer: Obljubljeni kraj

Pred kakimi 5 leti se je mudil v Clevelandu novinar Janez Kajzer, takrat uslužbenec Slovenske izseljenske matice in nje ne revije Rodne grude. V uvodu pravi Kajzer, da se je prvič od blizu srečal z ameriškimi Slovenci, ko je spremljal po Sloveniji skupino pevcev in pevk clevelandskega zborna Jadran. Prvič je prišel v ZDA za krajski, 10-dnevni obisk. Hotel je vedeti več o življenju ameriških Slovencev in se je odločil, da bo prišel naravnost v Cleveland in jih obiskal. Prišel je in postal v tem mestu kakih 5 tednov. Med obiskom je skušal obiskati in se pogovoriti s Slovenci raznih poklicev in generacij, tako nadaljnih delavcev, poslovnežev, profesionalcev, upokojencev, mladincev, kot pripadnikov prve, druge in tretje generacije. V tem mu je do neke mere uspelo, njegovi stiki z našimi ameriškimi Slovenci so pa bili zelo ozki. Šel je od enega člena »naprednega« tabora do drugega. Sicer se v Sloveniji samo za take »Slovence« zanimajo, zato je njegovo ravnanje povsem razumljivo. Svoje vtise je zabeleževal vsak večer v Charterhouse motelu, kjer je bil ves čas nastanjen, končno pa jih spravil skupaj v knjigo »Obljubljeni kraj« (Založba Borec: Ljubljana, 1984). Knjiga vsebuje 197 strani, tiskanih je bilo 3000 izvodov, v Clevelandu se dobi — če zaloga že ni pošla — pri Tivoli Enterprises v SND na St. Clairju; cena $13.98.

Knjiga je namenjena predvsem bralcem v Sloveniji. Eden njegovih namenov pri pisanju knjige, pravi, naj bi bila želja dati Slovenskemu bralu doma resničnejšo sliko o življenju ameriških Slovencev, vpogled v njih vsakdanjik.

Kmalu po prihodu v Cleveland je Kajzer začel z obiskovanjem raznih vidnejših Slovencev, tistih, ki so aktivni v tistem delu naše skupnosti, ki se ima za »napreden«. Tako je dobil prvo mesto v seznamu Kajzerjevih srečanj sedaj že pok. Frank Česen st., takrat že devetdesetletnik, vnet pisec zgodovinskih in drugih članakov, ki bodo ostali bodočim zgodovinarjem bogat vir.

Kajzerjev pomemek s Česnom je bil značilen. Govorila sta o Česnovem življenju, delovanju na kulturnem polju, vtisih o Sloveniji itd. Od Česne kot od drugih starejših njegovih sobesednikov je Kajzer dobil dokaj črnogled vtiš o prihodnosti slovenstva v Ameriki, čeprav poudarja, da so mnogi pripadniki tretje, tu in tam tudi četrte generacije zavedni svojega slovenskega porekla, četudi ne znajo nič slovenščine.

Veliko časa je Kajzer prebil pri družini Betty Rotar, članica glavnega odbora SNPJ in silno aktivna društvena delavka, njenim sestram in materi, ge. Ivanka Kapel. Te so obširno opisane v knjigi, kot so drugi znani Slovenci, npr. Jack in Mary Tomsic, John Cech, Jacob Strekal, Joseph Birk, Louis Kaferle, Florence Unetich, Ann Opeka, Mary Ivanusch, Andrew in Josephine Turkman, med manj znanimi pa Larry Pugel, Rose Mary Prosen in Joe Kušar (seveda ne morem vseh imenovati). Kar je zanimivo pri tem, je, da jih je več že pokojnih: Strekal, Birk, Kaferle, Česen in Andrew Turkman.

Čeprav je Kajzer dovolj previden, da vse omenjene več ali manj hvali — naučili so se pri SIM po nekaterih neprijetnih izkušnjah radi zaničevalnega poročanja o ameriških Slovencih, kar je seveda »no-no« —, zna pa biti kritičen tako do posameznih trditev kot do načina ameriškega življenja samega.

Točna je bila njegova priča glede hvalisanja ZSSR, ki ga je slišal od Jacka in Mary Tomsic: »Razumljivo pa je tudi, da nista obremenjena z vednostjo o politiki Sovjetske zveze, kakor je obremenjena Evropa.« (str. 71) Ta stavek je še bolj točen, ko ga uporabljam v zvezi z vednostjo o SFRJ in njeni politiki od začetka revolucije do danes, ki ga kažejo pripadniki »naprednega« tabora.

Za mene je bila knjiga zanimiva, ker osebno poznam (od blizu ali od daleč) večino tistih, ki jih je Kajzer intervjuval. Tako sem se lahko prepričal, da je v opisovanju bil Kajzer kar precej bister opazovalec (lepo je ujel značaja npr. Jacoba Strekala in Louisa Kaferleta).

O političnih naseljencih, Slovencih, ki so morali Slovenijo zapustiti po II. svetovni vojni, ni v knjigi veliko. Tu in tam so mimogrede omenjeni kot »begunci« ali »emigranti«, edina izjema je brbranje Jacoba Strekala, ki se mu je tu pri-družil Kajzer:

»O novopriseljencih meni, da so enako pridni kot stari, in tudi enako pošteni, če izvzame kako deseterico. Za deseterico političnih emigrantov rabi označo: nevarni. Ne sprašujem ga po podrobnostih. A vem, da ima v mislih njihovo sovraščto do Jugoslavije, njihovo hujškaštvo, njihov onemogel bes, ki prihaja javno do izraza v njihovem tisku in kljub svoji prozorni lažnivosti vnaša dvo-me med veliko večino dobr-mislečih Slovencev vseh ro-dov.« (str. 136)

V knjigi je veliko slik, na katerih so predstavljeni mnogi, ki so v tekstu omenjeni, vrinila pa se je le slika St. Clair avenije, v kateri je videti poslopje Ameriške Domovine v ozadju, in slika, ki kaže Dramsko društvo Lilija na paradi (na St. Clairju, menda ob 50-letnici SND).

Knjiga je torej zanimivo branje za tiste, ki želijo več vedeti o raznih vodilnih staro-naseljencih naprednega tabora in njih pogledih.

40 let usodne razdelitve Evrope

(nadaljevanje z 2. str.)

tudi prišlo, saj je Roosevelt nameraval potegniti vse ameriške čete po zmagi takoj domov. Tako bi v zahodni Evropi ostale predvsem sovjetske čete...

Roosevelt in Churchill sta odšla iz Jalte prepričana, da sta položila v ozare bližnje bodočnosti seme miru, zagotovila svobodo Poljske in uredila položaj poražene Nemčije, pomirjena s Stalinovim zagotovilom, da si bo vsaka evropska dežela sama s svobodnimi volitvami izbrala svojo državno ureditev. Stalin pa se je dvignil od konferenčne mize trdno odločen, da se ne bo držal nobene dane obljube in si obdržal vse, kar mu bo prinesla rdeča armada ali mu oskrbelo komunistične stranke evropskih držav.

Delno je, kot sedaj vidimo, tudi uspel. A le delno. Kajti k sreči je naivni in bolni Roosevelt kmalu nato umrl. Nasledil ga je Truman, katerega prva odločitev je bila, da ameriške čete ostanejo v Evropi. In so še sedaj. A padel je tudi železni zastor od Baltika do Jadranja. Tudi ta še sedaj loči Vzhod od Zahoda. 40 let po konferenci v Jalti.

SVETOVNI POPOTNIK PRIPOVEDUJE

Par se je moderniziral z ozirom na hrano, ampak le deloma. Ona bi ne okusila praščega mesa, dasi ga je kuhalo zanj in sedela pri mizi, ko je jedel. On, že bolj smel, je začel jesti goveje meso, kar je za Indijca naglavni greh.

Odpor staršev nasproti paru je bil različen. Na njegovega očeta je vplival ded s svojimi širokimi evropskimi nazori, mati pa se ni nikoli utolažila in se je vedno pritoževala: »Zakaj mi bog Krišna ni dal drugačnega, pravega sina! Kaj sem zagrešila, da me je bog tako strašno kazoval!«

Kašmir in Asam

Z izjemo teh dveh pokrajin bi za počitniške izlete in oddih Indija ne bila priporočljiva. Njeni pravljični kraji s starodavnimi gradovi in samostani, ki so privlačni za obiskovalce z vsega sveta, so v preobljudenih nižinah, kjer suha vročina in za spremembo soparna vlača, gneča množic in siromaštvo s tisoči beračev po ulicah kvarijo prijetno življenje.

Kraje, kot je sveto mesto Benares, obiskujejo dnevno neštete množice Indijcev. V stotinah samostanov in svetišč molijo k različnim božanstvom in se kopljajo ob bregu, da bi se očistili telesnega in duševnega zla ali pa da jih vzamejo valovi mogočnega Gangesa, kar se neredko pripeti.

Bil sem na obisku pri sinovih v šoli, ko sem na primer čital, da je množica versko podivljala, drvela v valove, ki so požrli več sto vernikov.

Zahodni obiskovalci prihajajo v Benares, da si ogledajo to socioološko čudo, na oddih pa ne. Posvečeni kraji in druge znamenitosti Indije jih utrudijo.

Za oddih so gorske postojanke (hill stations), katere so razvili Angleži in dandanes služijo premožnim Indijcem. Missouri, kraj te vrste, sem omenil v opisu šole za sinova. Drugih nisem obiskal; šel pa sem na tedenski oddih prvič v Kašmir, drugič v Asam ter na krajši izlet v Darjeeling pod goro Everest.

Prijetno srečanje v tem visokem himalajskem letovišču je bilo tudi s Šerpo Sri Tenzingom, gorskim plezalcem in njegovo družino. Tenzing je bil prvi v angleški ekspediciji, ki je pripeljal do vrha gore Everest leta 1953.

Popeljal me je na svoj dom in me z Nado vred predstavil svoji materi in sestrami. Stene sprejemne sobe so mu krasili fotografiski posnetki slavnih plezalcev z opisi dosegov od postaje do postaje, vse do vrha gore Everest. Pokazal nama je tudi albume pisem od vseh strani sveta v priznanje in pohvalo. Tenzingova mati naju je prijateljsko pogostila, čeprav je bil razgovor z njo zaradi neznanja jezika nemogoč.

Kašmir, kolikor ga je v Indiji, je preko gora težko dostopen, v zimskem času sploh ne. Gorska pot preko prelazov, ki tvorijo le predgorje, ni brez nevarnosti zaradi plazov niti sredi poletja. Edino močna motorna vozila, kot je vojaški jeep, so sposobna za tako pot.

Indijska turistična reklama je neutrudno razglašala čudovitosti Kašmira, da bi privabila domače in tuje izletnike, molčala pa je o predpisanim dovoljenju varnostnih organov. Zato sem imel z Nado sijnosti v Delhiju, dokler se nisem zatekel naravnost k ministru Bonsalu, da je posredoval.

Nezaupnost glede turistov je bila umevna. Kašmir je bil namreč sporno ozemlje med Indijo in Pakistanom. Prebivalstvo je skoro stodstotno mohamedanske vere, pohlevno in ne bojevito; upiralo pa se je z zahtevo o samoodločevanju. Že iz verskega razloga so hoteli priključiti Pakistanu.

Zavest za narodno skupnost jim je zbudil Jinnah, ustanovitelj države, ki je skoval ime s tem, da je vključil začetnico K za Kašmir. Razlogi za spojitev s Pakistanom so bili verski, plemenski in gospodarski, čeprav med neukim prebivalstvom ni bilo narodne zavesti v evropskem smislu.

Mržnja do Indije se je razvila predvsem iz gospodarskih potreb, oziroma siromaštva. Kašmircem so se delale krivice: Indijci so jim odvzemali gospodarska podjetja, jih nadomeščali s svojim uradništvom, prepovedovali njih šole in v vsakem oziru zapostavljeni domačine ter dajali prednost svojim ljudem z juga.

Ubogi narod ni imel priloznosti za odpor, ker jim je bila politična organizacija prevedana, voditelji pa zaprti. Da bi pri tolikem zatiranju ne prišlo do izbruhot in vdora s pakistanske strani, v vlada v Delhiju natrpala deželico z vojaštvom, ki ga je bilo v mnogih sliščih več kot civilnega prebivalstva.

Obotavljanje varnostnih uradov pri izdajanju dovoljenja za obisk Kašmira je bilo torej umevno. Zakaj bi tujcem omogočili videti, kaj so počenjali. Ko so svetu govorili o svoji miroljubnosti in svobodi, bi ne smel pasti nanje madež o jarmu, v katerega so vpregli za odpor nesposobno tuje prebivalstvo.

Z dovoljenjem, za katerega sem se moral zahvaliti samo ministru Bonsalu, sva z Nado šla na letalo. Pristali smo na letališču poleg mesta Amricar, nedaleč od pakistanske meje, da izstopijo neki potniki.

Namesto deset ali petnajst minut smo čakali pod prikapejočim soncem, s temperaturo 110° Fahrenheita ure in ure. Letalo je bilo vroča peč. Izstopiti nas dolgo niso pustili, niso povedali vzroka, zakaj čakamo.

Nudili so buteljke oslanjenih hladnih pijač, a z Nado sva imela zalogo prekuhanje vode, ki je za zahodne želodce v krajih, kot je Amricar, neobhodno potrebna. Ko smo končno lahko splezali z letala, da bi se prezračili in se pod njegovimi krili umaknili z žgočega sonca, smo poslušali pričkanje moštva letala z uradništvom letališča.

Indijci se radi pričkajo med seboj. Postarna angleška potnica, ki se je vračala na svoj dom v Kašmiru, je suho pripomnila, da moramo zato čakati. Drugega vzroka res ni bilo opaziti.

Angležinja je med nadaljnjam poletom do glavnega kašmirskega mesta Srinagar imela mnogo povedati o doživljajih leta 1947, ko so oboržene tolpe s pakistanske strani po dolini reke Jellum (Dželum) vdrle v Srinagar, da bi priključili Kašmir svoji novo rojeni državi.

Razglasili so, da so osvobodili, obenem pa so ropali, požigali in uganjali strašna grozodejstva, zlasti nad priseljenimi Indijci. Njej, rojeni v Kašmiru, niso prizadeli hudega. Mučili pa so do smrti njega indijskega knjigovodja in izpraznili klet alkoholnih pijač. Mohamedanci ne pijoči, je rekla, ampak na vojnih pohodih jim je vse dovoljeno.

Zavzetje Srinagarja so slavili cel teden, pili in prepevali, medtem ko so redni indijski polki prekoračili prelaz in padli na neorganizirane, pijane tolpe in jih pobili. Indijska vlada je tedaj pristala, da bo držala Kašmir pod okupacijo do plebiscita, ko bi prebivalci glasovali, kateri državi bi rajši pripadali. Kaj takega pa v Delhiju niso nikdar dovolili, vzlci mednarodnim protestom, naj oblubo izpolnijo.

Na svojo pravico do Kašmira se je Indija uradno sklicevala z verskega in zgodovinskega stališča. V gorovju so se že stolletja vzdrževali sloviti samostani Indijcev, ki so se smatrali kot romarski kraji, posvečeni raznim bogovom, in zato potrebeni romarjem z juga.

V opravičevanje, da sporne dežele pripada Indiji, so proglasili navajali posamezne voditelje v Indiji, ki so izhajali iz Kašmira. Da se je narod sam stokrat izrekel proti indijskemu podložništvu; proglaši niso omenjali.

New Sign

The American Home Publishing Co. Inc. has purchased a new sign for $525.00 which was installed in the front of the building at 6117 St. Clair.

The sign was designed by August Pust with revisions by Madeline and James Debevec, and painted by Al Krnc. It was installed on Monday by Frank Kogovsek.

When you drive or walk by, give a glance at the sign which was designed in the masthead style of the Ameriška Domovina with black ink on a white background. To the left is the statue of liberty, and to the right is the American flag in red, white, and blue.

There is a legend on it, "Home of the Slovenian and English paper." It also announces we do printing work and are presently concentrating on printing tabloid newspapers.

Now there is no reason why everyone can't bring all their printing work and articles to the American Home. We have a new sign to show you the way.

Who or what is this? For answer see page 8.

Jadran marks 65th year with concerts

By Betty Rotar

1985 marks the 65th Anniversary of the Jadran Singing Society in Cleveland. We will be presenting two concert, dinner-dances. The "Spring Festival" will be on Saturday, April 13 with the Fred Kuhar Orchestra. The "big" 65th Anniversary celebration will be on Saturday, Nov. 9, complete with an appropriate program, dinner and dance with the Don Wojtila Orchestra.

As usual, 1984 was a busy year. We not only had our spring performance which depicted a "Slovenian Mardi Gras," we also repeated our show at both the Lake Shore and Slovene Home for the Aged Nursing Homes.

Jadran went "Western" for our Fall concert and delighted the audience with a square dance, with violin and flute accompaniment, some great western ballads and, of course, some Slovenian melodies. We again repeated our concert at the Slovene Home for the Aged and followed this performance with the singing of Christmas Carols at both the Slovene Home for the Aged and the Euclid Square Mall.

Jadran members, Florence Unetich, Angela Zabjek and Betty Resnik also performed at different area programs — the 50th Anniversary of the PSWA, Yugoslav Consul General Zofka Klemen-Krek's Farewell Party and MPZ Circle 3's 50th Anniversary Program in November and many Jadran members participated in the Grape Festival at the S.N.P.J. Farm.

Our annual bus trip to Wooster was a fun-filled evening as we stopped for dinner at "The Barn" preceding a colorful performance of "La Perichole" at the Friedlander Theatre.

Our larger donations throughout the year included $300 to the Slovene Workmen's Home, $200 to the Slovene Home for the Aged and $100 to the Vi-o-graph Machine Fund.

Jadran members supported full-force the appearance of the "Ljubljanski Octet" in Cleveland on October 19th (the proceeds of this event all went toward the Vi-o-graph Machine — both the PSWA and SNPJ are working toward the realization of raising some $55,000 toward the purchase of this much needed equipment for the Ljubljana Hospital).

On a sad note, we lost several of our Jadran members this past year. In the case of Frank Tolar, Fay Gorse, Josie Glazar, Martin Resnik, and Matt Kern. They were strong supporting members and we will miss them greatly. The passing of long-time member Frank Kristoff will leave a void in all of Jadran members' hearts, as Frank continued to sing and perform even after the doctor had repeatedly warned him to take caution. Frank was a member of the Music Committee, Stage Decorations Committee, and, as everyone knows, a creative artist whose talents around the SWH are ever present.

Our members delighted in picking up a sheet of music only to find that Frank must have had it in his possession because invariably, that sheet

Californians enjoy Slovenian Symphony Orchestra

By Madeline Debevec

The Sacramento California Community Concert Association presented the Slovenian Symphony orchestra of Yugoslavia in a concert in the Community Center Theater on Monday, Feb. 18.

Marko Munih chose a program consisting of three of the most familiar works in the symphonic repertory: Weber's Overture to "Der Freischütz," Tchaikovsky's Violin Concerto in D Major, and Beethoven's Fifth Symphony.

According to two reports from the area, Munih resolved to allow the music to speak for itself with no tricks or extra drama.

Also praised was Monika Skalar, 26, one of three violinists who rotates in the concertmaster's position in the orchestra. She was termed, "A superb violinist. She has no tricks to play, although she certainly has ideas and feelings about the music, which she made powerfully clear."

"Her strong, warm tone, with its occasionally big, human vibrato, might place her in what is usually called the Russian tradition of violin playing (Heifetz and Stern are its most famous exponents) which was, of course, all to the good when it came to the Slavic feelings and fiery brilliance of Tchaikovsky's concerto."

Thanks to Tony Pechaver for keeping us informed about the Slovenian activities in Sacramento.

Father Victor Tomec, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Cleveland cordially thanks EVERYONE who helped in any way towards making the Annual Venison Dinner on Feb. 17 an overwhelming success.

Because of the kind deeds of so many generous individuals, a profit of $5,000 will be donated to the Slovene Home for the Aged.

Oswalds Celebrate 60th Anniversary

Louis and Amelia Oswald celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with a Mass of Thanksgiving at noon, Sunday, Feb. 24 at St. Mary's Church with the Rev. Victor Tomec officiating.

The couple celebrated with family and friends at their Chardon Road residence following the service.

The Oswalds have two children, Wilma Smith of Rochester, N.Y., a secretary for Kodak, and Walter, health commissioner for Cleveland Heights; seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Oswald is president of Slovenian Women's Union Branch 41.

Son Walter comments, "My parents have always told my sister Wilma and I of how on their wedding day, in 1925, after the wedding guests had left their reception at the Slovenian Home on Holmes Avenue, my mother and her aunt had to wash and put away all of the dishes and cooking equipment while my father and his friends had to straighten out the place before they could leave the hall."

Congratulations to this wonderful couple.

Dr. Maria Grzetic Aunon stopped in to bid farewell to everyone at the American Home as she has concluded her work in psychiatric research in Cleveland and is returning home to Argentina.

While she was visiting here Anne Kosir and Mary Miklavcic were also attending to business at the A.H. so naturally I introduced them to Dr. Aunon. It's a small world after all as Mary's family in Argentina is mutual friends of Dr. Maria. Mrs. Miklavcic will leave next week for a month's visit with her parents in Argentina and will resume her friendship with Dr. Aunon.

Rev. Jože Sraka, S.D.B., and Reverend Janez Sraka, S.J. were visiting the Cleveland area the past few weeks. The Salesian and Jesuit priests who reside in Rome, Italy collaborated with their brother Alojz of Germany in writing a book, "Prekmurci in Prekmurje."

This book should be of special interest to all persons from the Prekmurje region of Slovenia. It is available at the Slovenian office (Slovenska Pisarna) located in Baragov Dom, 6304 St. Clair Ave.

Father John is an announcer with Radio Vatican and relates the news to Slovenia. Father Joseph is working on his Ph.D in Rome. While in Cleveland, besides visiting the A.D. they were extremely visible at various Slovenian functions. They resided at St. Mary's rectory and the parishioners there were delighted in having them assist their hard working pastor, Rev. Victor Tomec, with several of the services.

Dan's Diary*Siewiorek, Kern Honored by St. Vitus

By Dan J. Postotnik

At the Annual Appreciation Dinner for St. Vitus Parish workers, Friday, Feb. 15 two fine parishioners were chosen as the 1985 Woman and Man of the Year. They are Lena M. Siewiorek and Frank E. Kern.

"The purpose of the Woman and Man of the Year awards is to highlight the spirit of cooperation, generosity of time and talent, perseverance at tasks, and love of the parish," said Rev. Joseph Bozner, pastor, in making the presentation. "This year we have two honorees. Both are long time parishioners of St. Vitus. They have been persistent day to day in helping people in the parish and the neighborhood."

Father Bozner continued, "They share our respect, affection, and honor. They are active in many parish and community organizations. I am very proud to recognize these two deserving individuals."

Father Joseph Bozner also remarked, "If both Mrs. Siewiorek and Mr. Kern were to bill the parish for the number of steps taken on its behalf, for the number of hours spent at work for the parish, they would both be wealthy today."

Lena Siewiorek has done a great deal of work through the years for the Mothers Club, various parish events, and the Perry Home Association. She has also written a regular column for the Perry News on parish and community news for many years. She is also Chairwoman of St. Vitus Cafeteria workers, long time member of the 23rd and 13th Democratic Ward Clubs, and is the person to see when you need an Absentee Voter's

You were so right about the postal service. I, too, wondered, how come the paper came almost two weeks after the usual delivery.

It is strange that they earn such big money and the service is getting worse all the time. Also the rates are ever increasing. You are alert and cognizant of the problem. Thanks.

Raise Some Money, Win Some Friends

Organizations wishing to raise funds for their club need look no further than these pages of the American Home. Printing a "Special Edition" outlining your group's history, present activities and future hopes will serve two purposes. One, it lets your members and the readers of American Home know all about the work that was put into the club, who the officers are, and what has been accomplished. Two, it is automatically put on permanent record in six different institutions. Your organization's written and pictorial history will not be lost forever with the passing of time and key members.

Many past participants have decided to sell advertising space in their paper. By doing this, they have realized a handsome profit.

We can show you how to go about printing your own Special Edition of American Home. Call 431-0628 and ask for Jim.

You can win new friends and influence your members while enhancing your treasury.

Yugoslavia attracts two million a year

By PARKE ROUSE JR.

Of the many classical Roman relics I have seen, none is more impressive than the castle of Roman Emperor Diocletian that stands in the Yugoslavian city of Split on the shores of the Adriatic sea.

The emperor's high-walled pagan fortress was used through the Middle Ages as the core of a growing Christian town. I visited it recently as a part of a two-week tour of Yugoslavia and neighboring Hungary — both Iron Curtain countries, but anxious to attract tourists from the free world.

Diocletian built this big stone fort 295 years after the birth of Christ and moved in 10 years later. He had been born on the Dalmatian peninsula in 245 A.D. and became emperor of Rome in 284. The powerful Diocletian persecuted the early Christians, but they continued to Christianize and change the Roman Empire during his regime.

In the year 305 Diocletian abdicated and retired to his great waterside castle at Split. After he died in 313, his wife and daughter embraced the Christian faith.

The castle Diocletian built has become a big city block of modern Split. Most of its columns and walls still stand. Houses and shops added in medieval times punctuate the ancient castle walls. At its four corners stand remnants of the towers that once kept watch against enemies.

Along the great peristyle in the center of the square are Catholic churches made from Roman temples. An international music festival occurs there each summer against a backdrop of Christian and pagan symbols that Split (Salona in Roman times) grew up around.

Dubrovnik

The Dalmatian coast lies only a narrow sea away from the Italian peninsula, and it is packed with picturesque classical and medieval settlements. The most interesting is Dubrovnik, a walled city on the Adriatic coast that was largely built by Venetian traders in the Renaissance. Its sheer stone walls and towers, like those of nearby Split, speak of centuries of sea wars and piracy. Both cities have changed nationality over the years. Both have Muslim, Greek Orthodox and Roman Catholic adherents. Dalmatia was a melting pot.

Of all the sites I saw in Yugoslavia, Dubrovnik was the most appealing. No wonder it attracts over two million foreign tourists yearly, many coming by cruise ship. Its beaches and streets are thronged in summer. Fall is better.

Another former Roman site in Yugoslavia is Mostar, a one-time Muslim city near Dubrovnik with a bazaar like those of North Africa. It boasts an historic stone bridge, standing for centuries. A darling young man jumped from it to titillate tourists while my wife and I watched.

Being behind the Iron Curtain in Hungary and Yugoslavia is easier than it sounds. Prices of rooms and meals are moderate, and Americans are welcome. Except at the borders and at customs, there is little evidence of the police state. Museums and restaurants are abundant in major cities, though language is sometimes a problem. I saw many German and American tourists, plus a few Russians.

The charm of both Hungary and Yugoslavia is an earthy one, a little reminiscent of rural Italy. True, I missed the glamor of fine stores and restaurants, but the countries have historic and geographic attractions that make up for them.

If you like out-of-the-way places and want to escape the beaten path, I can recommend the friendly natives of Budapest, Split and Dubrovnik.

Polensek Seeks Stronger Marijuana Penalties

Cleveland Councilman Michael D. Polensek (Ward 11) introduced legislation on Monday, Jan. 28 to stiffen the penalties for possession of marijuana in the City of Cleveland.

The current ordinance classifies the possession of over 100 grams (about 3 1/2 ounces) of marijuana as a fourth degree misdemeanor (maximum 30 days in jail and $250 fine). Any possession of less than 100 grams is classified a minor misdemeanor (maximum $100 fine).

The proposed ordinance will reclassify the possession of over 30 grams (about an ounce) as a first degree misdemeanor (up to six months in jail and a $1,000 fine). Any possession of less than 30 grams will remain a minor misdemeanor.

Councilman Polensek sees the need to pass such legislation as crucial for combatting today's crime in Cleveland.

Suhadolnik Urges Firm Ohio Fireworks Laws

Ohio State Senator Gary C. Suhadolnik, R-Parma has proposed a comprehensive overhaul of Ohio's fireworks law.

His proposal would outlaw the sale of exploding fireworks in Ohio and give the state fire marshall board new powers to enforce laws governing fireworks. The legislation also sets new penalties for violating the fireworks law and establishes classifications for the licensing of fireworks manufacturers, wholesalers,

"There has been a significant increase in crime related to drug use, particularly by young adults, including auto theft, home burglaries and street muggings. By increasing the penalties for significant marijuana possession, it should help the police to better fight local crime," Polensek said.

The path was cleared for the passage of such legislation in July when the Ohio Supreme Court rules a municipality can vary the punishment that the State of Ohio prescribes for an offense. Previous to this decision, it was highly questionable whether a municipality had that right.

Councilman Polensek sees further stiffening of penalties in the future. "I will be looking at all the drug abuse ordinances toward increasing the penalties. We must decrease drug-related crime in Cleveland," Polensek said.

retailers, importers, and exhibitors.

"In sight of the frequency of fireworks accidents, it is obvious the present standards are either unenforceable or grossly inadequate," Suhadolnik said.

"If my proposal becomes law, the only persons who will be allowed to buy fireworks in Ohio will be a retailer who must in turn sell the fireworks to an exhibitor. All exhibitors will be required to get a permit from the local fire chief."

Governor Richard F. Celeste signed Senate Bill 249 into law on Jan. 3 thereby requiring common pleas courts to tax jury fees as costs in civil actions. Sponsored by State Senator Lee I. Fisher (D-Shaker Heights), the law becomes effective on April 4.

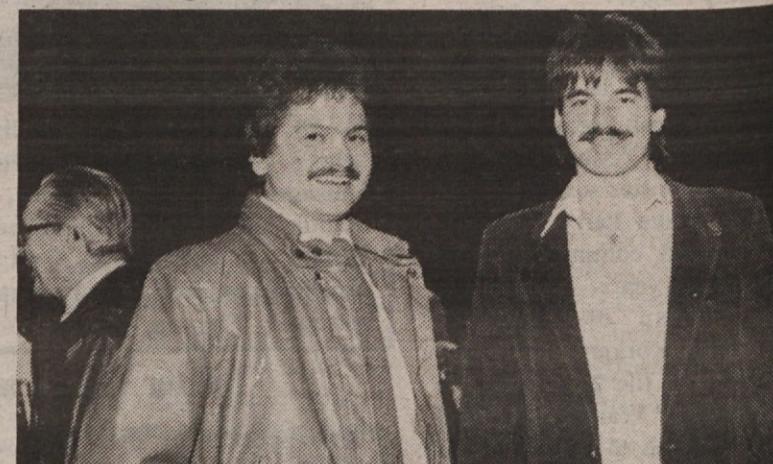

"The purpose of SB 249 is to permit common pleas courts to recover some of the costs that are now incurred by each county for jurors called to hear civil cases and to encourage counties to raise the pay of jurors."

The new law will take into consideration the potential hardship which can be placed upon a losing party when there is a lengthy trial. It sets a maximum limit of four days for which fees can be taxes as costs.

FARM HOUSE MOLASSES TAFFY

Taffy pulls were lots of fun back when there was no television to take time, and people liked simple things.

It wasn't just that the taffy tasted good but real fun came from the "pull" that turned the hot molasses mixture into a sticky confection. Try this taffy recipe someday when humidity is low and muscles feel strong.

Butter or margarine

1 1/3 cups sweetened condensed milk (14 or 15 ounce can)

1/2 cup light molasses

1/8 teaspoon salt

Butter large platter or marble surface or 8-inch square pan. In medium saucepan over medium heat, heat sweetened condensed milk, molasses and salt to boiling, stirring occasionally. Set candy thermometer in place and continue cooking, stirring constantly until temperature reaches 244 degrees or until a small amount of mixture dropped into very cold water forms a firm ball, about 20 minutes.

Remove from heat; pour onto platter or marble. Let mixture stand until cool enough to handle. With buttered fingers, pull mixture until shiny and light colored. Twist into rope about 3/4-inch thick. With kitchen scissors, cut into 1-inch pieces. Wrap each piece in plastic wrap. Makes 50 pieces.

SPECIAL CHAMPAGNE PUNCH

1 cup unsweetened pineapple juice
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup vodka
1/4 cup brandy
juice of 1/2 lemon
1 bottle (24 ounces) champagne, well chilled
fresh strawberries or orange slices

Combine pineapple juice, sugar, vodka, brandy and lemon juice in a glass bowl or jar, stirring to dissolve sugar. Cover and refrigerate several hours or overnight to mellow.

Just before serving, pour over ice cubes or an ice ring in a punch bowl. Add chilled champagne and stir gently. Garnish with fresh whole strawberries or orange slices. Makes 10 servings (4 ounces each).

FRESH APPLE AND SAUSAGE QUICHE

1/2 pound bulk sausage
1/2 cup chopped fresh onion
1/4 teaspoon dried leaf thyme
2 Red Delicious apples pared, cored and cut into 1/2-inch cubes (1 1/2 cups)
1 tablespoon fresh lemon juice
1 tablespoon sugar
1/2 cup (2 ounces) shredded Cheddar cheese

4 eggs, beaten
2 cups light cream or milk pastry for single-crust 9-inch Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In large skillet cook sausage, onion and thyme until sausage is browned and onion is tender, about 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Drain off excess fat.

In bowl toss apples with lemon juice and sugar. Add prepared sausage mixture, Cheddar cheese, eggs and cream. Mix well.

Line a 9-inch quiche dish or pie plate with pastry. Turn apple mixture into dish.

Bake in preheated oven 40 to 45 minutes, or until custard is set. Let stand 10 minutes before cutting to serve.

Makes 6 servings.

OLD-FASHIONED RAISIN BARS

1 c. raisins
1 c. water
1/2 c. oleo
1 c. sugar
1 slightly beaten egg
1 3/4 c. flour
1/4 t. salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 c. chopped nuts.

Combine raisins and water and bring to a boiling point. Remove from heat and cool. Then stir in the oleo, the sugar and egg. Sift together dry ingredients. Combine with the raisin mixture and the nuts. Pour into gresed 9 x 12 pan. Bake at 375° for about 20 minutes. When cool, cut in squares, and sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Dirty Dishes!

Thank God for dirty dishes. They have a story to tell, And by the stack we have, It seems we are living well.

While people in other countries are starving, We haven't the heart to fuss, For by this stack of evidence, God's very good to us.

A friend

1 cup cut-up celery
3/4 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons chopped onion
1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
1/2 cup sliced or shaved almonds

2 tablespoons butter, melted
1 cup special K cereal
Mix first 5 ingredients with undiluted soup. Turn into a buttered 8 x 12-inch or similar shallow casserole. Sauté almonds in butter until lightly browned. Mix with cereal and sprinkle over casserole contents. Bake at 325 degrees for 40 minutes.

SOUFFLE MUSHROOMS

1 cup grated Swiss cheese
1 cup soft bread crumbs
4 eggs, separated
1 cup milk
32 large mushrooms, of uniform size

4 tablespoons butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
pinch of pepper
Toss grated cheese with bread crumbs. Beat egg yolks and milk; pour over crumbs. Wipe mushrooms and remove stems. Chop enough stems to make 1 cup and sauté briefly in 2 tablespoons of the butter. Stir into bread crumbs along with the salt and pepper.

Beat egg whites until stiff; fold into mixture. Melt remaining butter and gently dip in mushroom caps. Pile filling into caps and arrange on a greased baking sheet. Bake in a preheated 400° oven 10 to 12 minutes or until filling is golden. Serve at once.

Makes 32 appetizers.

PHYLLO MEAT PIE

1 pound ground beef or lamb
2 tablespoons butter or olive oil
1 medium onion, minced
2 cloves garlic, minced
1/2 cup dry red wine
1 tablespoon tomato paste
1 teaspoon dried parsley flakes
1/2 teaspoon oregano
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/8 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
1/2 pound (10 to 12 sheets) phyllo dough
1 cup butter, melted

Cook ground meat in butter until lightly browned, breaking up meat with a fork as it cooks. With a slotted spoon, transfer meat to a bowl and discard all but 2 tablespoons fat from the skillet. Cook onion and garlic in remaining fat until onion is soft. Add wine, tomato paste and seasonings and stir to blend well, cooking 2 to 3 minutes longer. Add to meat mixture and mix well. Let cool for 10 minutes, then stir in cheese.

Carefully unroll phyllo dough and cut sheets in half to form 12x8-inch sheets. Place one sheet in bottom of greased 12x8x2-inch baking pan and brush with melted butter; lay another sheet on top and brush again. Continue until there are 10 to 12 sheets in the pan, each brushed with melted butter. Spread meat mixture evenly over phyllo dough. Continue to layer remaining sheets of dough over the meat, brushing each with melted butter.

Bake in a preheated 350° oven 1 hour or until top is crisp and golden. Cut into 2-inch squares, then cut each square into 2 triangles. Serve hot.

Makes 48 appetizers.

He's a Ghostbuster

Enjoys A.H.

Just a note to let you know how much we are enjoying our subscription to the American Home.

Included with our payment is an extra $10 to put toward the printing press fund.

New Mailing Labels

Dear readers:

The American Home this week completed putting all the names and addresses of subscribers receiving this paper through the mails on a computerized mailing system.

This should speed up the mail considerably, making it easier for the Post Office employees to read the labels and eliminating papers sticking together from the paste as has happened in the past.

Our old mailing system was done with hot lead from linotypes. With time the lead became smashed and was difficult to read. We were forced to either reset it all on the linotype which would have taken about a year, or do it with self-sticking labels from a computer which took about a month.

Please check to make sure the names and address on your label are correct and let us know if you desire a change.

We no longer will use the linotypes in any manner and will be selling them this spring. The American Home is now 100% offset and computerized to better serve our readers. We thank each of you for your support and will do everything in our power to give you a better looking and informative paper.

Hold St. Clair Festival

By Stane J. Kuhar

A rough draft has been proposed by this author to three of the major institutions in the St. Clair area: St. Vitus, Slovenian National Home Board of Directors, and St. Clair Businessmen's Assoc.

The purpose of this event would be to stimulate commerce for the St. Clair area while at the same time allow persons to view the area and possibly consider residing in the St. Clair area.

The draft calls for the creation of an Executive Committee from the three institutions (but not solely limited only to them) to organize and implement a two-to-three day event during the summer time.

The net proceeds of the event would be redistributed to the participants with a percentage to be established in a special account for the purpose of residential and commercial development.

Make no mistake, however, that this is not a nonprofit venture. It is a for profit event. Those who take the risks should be entitled to its benefits. Moreover, the entire community would benefit by receiving an economic shot in the arm. Therefore, the ball is in the corner of the leaders in the St. Clair community.

The draft is not final: other ideas should be considered. Other groups could participate. An all-star baseball game and soccer event could also occur at the same time. The St. Clair area needs to have such a community event so the community could start to unite together with a common goal: revitalizing a good neighborhood in Cleveland, Ohio.

94 Years Young and Still Reading A.D.

Editor:

I am sending a check for another year of your paper for Anna Kosuta.

Anna will be 94 years old on July 5 and has been subscribing to the Ameriška Domovina for over 30 years. She says it was a different format then, but the same publisher.

Just thought you might find this of some interest. Some people do stay loyal.

Jadran marks 65th

of music had a watercolor scene of Slovenia painted on it. We truly miss you, Frank, with your kindness, generous nature and smiling face. You were a tremendous asset to Jadran.

Also, this month we lost yet another staunch Jadran supporter. Louis Kaferle, well known in SNPJ circles for his many years as a leader both locally and nationally, contributed much to Jadran. He was always willing to help us in many ways: as stage director, make-up artist, historian, Master of Ceremonies, etc. Louis Kaferle was Jadran's liaison with Slovenska Izselenjenska Matica on our first Slovenian Tour in 1973 and was an Honorary Member of Jadran. Louis Kaferle, too, will be missed immensely.

At our annual meeting the following officers were elected for 1985: Florence Unetich, Pres.; Dor Gorjup, First Vice-Pres.; Frank Bittenc, Secretary-Treasurer; Betty Rotar, Recording and Corresponding Secretary; Steve Shimits, Clarence Rupar and Joida Mann, Auditors. Our Librarian is Josephine Tom-sic; Reginald Resnik is our Music Director, and Alice Cech our Piano Accompanist.

We thank our supporting members for their help at our concerts and to Tony Petkovsek, Ed Bucar and Milan Pavlovic for their radio advertising of our events. To the newspaper media, Ameriška Domovina, SDZ Glas, Euclid News Journal and Scoop, and Prosvera for printing our articles. A great big "thank you" to George Kanus for his $100 donation, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kaferle, $20.00, Mrs. Milka Perko, $10.00 and an anonymous donation of $200.

Of course, without you, our audience, we couldn't possibly continue to carry on our cultural heritage, so we say "thank you" to each and every one of you who support us with your attendance at our concerts.

Remember 1985 is Jadran's big year. Come join us on Saturday, April 13 as we breeze into spring with a colorful program of singing and dancing. Tickets are $12.00 and are available from any Jadran member, Tony's Polka Village and the SWH Clubroom bar.

So. Fla. Slovenes Set Bahamas trip

The American Slovene Club of South Florida held its February meeting with a nice attendance.

Guests were Edward Srebot, John Madey of Cleveland. We also had Eleanor Dolinar Herbert as a guest. A number of our members returned to the fold after a long absence, namely Joe Grimsic, John Taucher of Pittsburgh who incidentally donated $100 to our club. We all thank you, John. Bill and Mary Pene and Ann Gaus showed. Steve Smygelski returned after by-pass surgery. He is looking fine.

Our regular guest Paul Goldberg was remembered in a moment of silence. He passed away after a heart attack. He will be missed. He was ever ready with a helping hand.

A number of members are ill: Mary Nagode at home, Andrew Jartz in the hospital, Frances Vogrich at home, Anne Susec in the hospital, Victor Chase and Olga Ribic both at their homes recuperating. Please remember them with get well cards. It helps their recovery.

Resnik at the piano.

Doors open at 6 p.m. with a cocktail hour. Serving begins at 7 p.m. with a delicious full course family style dinner followed by the musical concert.

The Jeff Pecon Orchestra will accompany some of the singing, and play for dancing.
