

TO REMEMBER HIM WITH COMMUNION DAY, OCT. 11, ST. VITUS HNS PLAN

Cleveland, Ohio.—

For centuries Slovenes have been known and respected for devotion to their country. Reluctantly speaking, the Slovenes as a group are a very recent addition to the culture of America, yet we dare say they are one of the most militantly loyal American Groups in our cosmopolitan city. Slovenes do not consider it a duty to serve their country; they deem it a privilege!

Traditionally too, the Slovenes are a religious people. True, they may not be very articulate and demonstrative in their religion; they nevertheless do possess a very deep-rooted religion. We do not for a moment doubt that if the need required it, most Slovenes would be ready to die for the Faith.

Sunday, Oct. 11th, at the 8:30 mass at St. Vitus, the Slovenes of Cleveland and particularly those of St. Vitus parish will have the opportunity to publicly demonstrate their patriotism and loyalty to God and Country by their attendance at the ceremonies.

In designating this Sunday as the "Remember Him with a Holy Communion Day," the St. Vitus Holy Name Society deserves commendation for their fine spirit and initiative. The Society's work is done. The real success of this day depends upon you fathers, brothers, ers, relatives and friends of service men. Will YOU be there? Resolve now to attend and make the day the success that it deserves to be.

Service Flag

Dedication and blessing of the large service flag honoring the service men of St. Vitus parish will take place on Sunday, Oct. 11th at the 8:30 mass. This flag is a large 6x10 foot banner of a deep blue felt, edged in white and centered by a large white star. Below this star will be posted the total number of our parishioners already in the service. The total will be changed from time to time as more and more fellows leave. This flag will be displayed conspicuously in the church and will remain displayed till the boys come back home.

Souvenir Cards

Commemorating the "Remember Him with a Holy Communion Day" the Holy Name Society will sell souvenir cards to those who desire them. The cards are made up as four page folders, printed in colors combining patriotic and religious themes. An appropriate verse is included. Since these cards are prepared with the idea of being mailed to someone in camp, spaces are provided for the recipient's name on the envelope as well as for the sender's on the card. Finally the cards are enclosed in an envelope ready for mailing.

LOOKS BACK TO CONVENTION

Eveleth, Minn. — Settling down to normal after a KSKJ convention is the hardest thing to do, especially when all kinds of memories, questions and explanations keep coming up.

For instance: "Is that 'Welcome to Eveleth!' sign still hanging in Tomazins?" "Who is this Louis Francis fellow who was supposed to be such a live wire at the Athletic Committee meetings?"

By the way, what has happened to the Pennsy-Pueblo romance since that Joliet Romeo stepped in?

How did Jake Glavan get back to Joliet after that Thursday night at the Fort Dearborn party? It was rumored that he took the bus back next morning and had to stand up all the way. Too bad about Jake, especially since he had come with his own car.

It was nice seeing some of the old Eveleth Convention delegates together again, such as Milwaukee's Rudy Maierle and Joliet's Buck Skul, John Gregorich, Frank Laurich, and of course, the above inimitable Jake.

That bottle of "Cases," which had such a terrible reputation, turned out to be an all-purpose alcohol. It sat on the table from Monday through Friday and there still was plenty left over for Mary Luko to take home to Bridgeport and use as an anti-freeze.

John Bevec made quite a hit distributing Strabane K. J. matches, especially when he threw a two-bit cigar to go along.

And then there's a recollection of Eddie Kompare and Stan Zupan asking for more—of Ann Simonich's lilting soprano renditions.

Steve Podlesnik of Wyoming and Eddie Urick of "God's Country" made a swell pair—both quiet and bashful till one got to know them.

Louis Intihar and "Babe," also of "God's Country" and Tony Kochevar of Joliet, had themselves a few pleasurable hours basking in the Chicago sunlight in Terselich's backyard. Jennie T. did her bit by providing blankets and pillows.

Anyone who was surprised or shocked by the sight of four men escorting one girl up to Lemont in a car decorated with "Just Married" signs, disregard it all. The signs were the remains of Minnesota's visit to the Verbisser Press in Matty's backyard.

Congratulations to Mary Kosmerl on her election to the Supreme Board. We "Iron Rangers" are proud of her.

Congratulations are also due to John Terselich and his committees who did such a splendid job of putting on the convention.

Just think, only three years and eleven months to wait—for Pueblo's Convention. That's the good thing about being a K. J. member—you always have something to look forward to.

In the meantime we'll be looking forward to hearing from you in "Our Page."

Minnesota Annie.

Gue$$ What He Asked For

An amusing story about an American soldier now stationed in Northern Ireland is making the rounds there. The soldier is said to have written home:

Dear Dad:

Gue$$ what I need most of all? That's right. $end it along. Be$$ wi$he$.

Your $on,

The father replied:

Dear Tom:

Yes; each Senator has an individual desk and chair. Democrats occupy the west side of the Chamber—on the right of the Vice President; Republicans, Progressives, and Independents sit to his left. Seats are assigned on request of individual Senators in order of their seniority.

Do the Members of the House have individual seats?

No. Formerly they did, but now any Member may sit where he chooses. Democrats occupy the east side of the Chamber—on the right of the Speaker; Republicans and other minority Members sit on the side to the Speaker's left.

ROAD TO VICTORY

by Margaret Scherf

I don't want to tell anyone else what to do with his money. This is a note to myself:

What do you mean,
Walking around in Nylons
without runs,
When MacArthur needs guns?

You've killed a lot of people,
Scherf,
But what have you done
To hustle Adolph under the turf?

Oh! you bought some 10-cent stamps?
Well, well.

Isn't going to reconstruct a griddle

You'd better fork over to your Uncle Sam,
Or you'll be sitting in the Nazi stables

Chicago, Ill. — The second night of bowling in the Steves KSKJ League found the colors still flying high.

It seems as though the boys are getting used to the alleys. The foul man had an easy night as only one foul was made. Mr. Kochevar is still on the sick list. It was swell to see so many of our fans at the alleys rooting for their favorites.

use of every shore leave while in training and he also mentioned that it was just like coming to the Slovenian Home in Brooklyn. Bill wishes to thank all the Slovenians in Chicago for being so swell to him and especially the little blonde; from the way Bill spoke, he certainly misses her but the girls in Brooklyn should not worry about the little blonde, because she is only five years old, at least that's what Bill says.

NOTICE: It will be greatly appreciated if the Slovenian folks in Greater New York and vicinity would let me know when their sons and friends are inducted into service and where they are stationed in order that I may be able to continue to write about our Slovenian boys from Brooklyn who are in service. Just drop me a few lines or a postal card. Anyone who wishes to have a picture in the Glasilo or Our Page should add $1.75 for the costs.

CLOSE GAMES MARK SECOND SESSION AS JOLIET KEGLERS TAKE ON STRIDE

Joliet, Ill. — Good and bad individual scores and close games featured the second weekly session of the Joliet K. S. K. J. Men's Bowling League. The outstanding feature of the night was the sensational bowling of Frank Ramuta who rolled games of 180, 201, and 256 for a 637 series. Frank started his 256 game with the big four split, and finished strong with a long series of strikes.

On alleys 1 and 2, the two powerhouse teams, Peerless Printers and White Front Liquors hooked up in a real battle. After splitting the first two games, the White Fronts beat the Peerless team by 15 pins in the deciding game by coming up with a garrison finish which was helped by George Karl's 235 game and Math Verbisser's 203 game. The White Fronts rolled games of 900, 783, and 925 for a 2608 series, while the Peerless team rolled games of 853, 825, and 910 for a 2588 series. Frank Ramuta's 637 series led the loser's scores, while George Karl's 562 and John Bluth's 547 scores topped the winner's scores.

On alleys 3 and 4 the Tezak Florists after dropping the first game came back and won the final two games from the Slovenic Coals. The three games were close and were decided by the following margins of pins: 21, 14 and 14. None of these games were decided until the last man had rolled. The winners were led by Gene Tezak's 551 series and the losers were led by Al Juricic's 551 score—both men are anchormen on their teams—I wonder which is the better one.

On alleys 5 and 6 The Eagle team clawed its way to a clean sweep, by taking three games from the Avsec's. The last game was won by 9 pins, and it was really bad luck bowling that beat the Avsec's. Andy Kludovich's 592 series featured the winners' pin-splurging, while Eddie Carpenter's 513 and Lou Fabian's 512 scores were high for the losers.

Stars and ???

There were quite a few 200 or better scores led by Frank Ramuta's 256 and 201 games, followed by Andy Kludovich's 217 and 203, George Karl 235, Matt Slana 232, Al Juricic 213, Chick Kuzma 205, Matt Verbisser 203, E. Tezak 201, and Louis Fabian 201. The Joliet KSKJ Men's League is losing one of its famous Damon and Pythias combinations in Goldie and Chick. Chick Kuzma bowled his last games as he will be in the army in a few days. The league bowlers surprised Chick with a nice fat cash donation. Chick asked me to thank the boys in this column for their splendid surprise gift... goodbye and good luck, "Chick," — also to two of last year's bowlers who are going into the army with Chick... the smiling Bill Koletto and happy-go-lucky Joe Kosmerl, who came up to say goodbye to the boys... Geo. Vertin, one of the Tezak Florist bowlers submitted to an operation and will be unable to bowl for a while... we wish and hope for a speedy recovery, George... it is a pleasure to watch how consistently the "old timers" make their spares; they are the envy of the younger and star-strike bowlers of the league... the automatic spare bowlers are Joe Zalar, Supreme Secretary, and Martin Gorsich, S... I wonder if Rev. Butala would prefer to bowl with only nine pins... it seems that he can make the nine pins consistently, but the ten pin is always there... maybe it was nailed down... better luck next time... Frank Ramuta really can show some fine bowling—in reverse... for the last frame of the second game and the start of the last game, he got — of all things — the "big four railroad"... next week's schedule is: The Eagle vs. Slovenic Coals; Avsec Printers vs. Peerless Printers; and, Tezak Florists vs. White Front Liquors... the league standings are as follows:

	W.	L.	Avg.
The Eagle	5	1	.833
Peerless Printers	3	3	.500
White Fronts	3	3	.500
Slovenic Coals	3	3	.500
Tezak Florists	3	3	.500
Avsec Printers	1	5	.167

ANN BOWLERETS LEAD LEAGUE IN FOUR BRANCHES

Cleveland, O. — Reporting for the first time this season, I am sorry to say we have only one St. Ann's team instead of the usual four. The team consists of Ann Russ, Ann Sray, Stephanie and Frances Miklavcic and Frances Globokar, who is our captain.

We bowl at the beautiful Trianon lanes every Thursday at 6:15 p. m. With our season five weeks under way, it's a pleasure to report that we are leading the league in four departments: the three game high with 2243; high single game, 832; Ann Russ holds first place in individual high three game with 513; Frances Globokar is leading in high single game with 204.

Not so bad, I would say, for it's only the beginning and we are hoping to better these nice scores.

Bowleret.
