

Ustavodajna skupščina v Saigonu pritiska Kyja

Sklenila je, da bo v teku enega meseca skušala pripraviti vlado do opustitve pravice veta pri sestavljanju nove ustave.

SAIGON, J. Viet. — Ustavodajna skupščina, ki je bila izvoljena v preteklem septembru in je začela svoje zasedanje 27. septembra na temelju posebnega zakona, ki ga je v ta namen izdala vlada, se je sedaj začela ukvarjati s sestavljanjem nove ustave. Daje vladi pravico veta vsakega člana ustave, če jo pri tem podpira le 40 od 117 poslancev skupščine.

Nihče ne dvomi, da bi bila vlada sposobna za skoraj vsak svoj veto dobiti podporo tega števila poslancev, če bi se le hotela potruditi.

Eden od vidnih članov skupščine dr. Phan Quang Dan iz predmestja Saigona je pozval svoje tovariše, naj pritisnejo na vlado, da bo "nedemokratični" 20. člen zakona umaknila ali ga spremenila. Posrečilo se mu je pripraviti skupščino do tega, da je izglasovala "mesec borbe", v katerem bo skušala vlado pripraviti do sprejema svojega stališča.

Opazovalci dela ustavodajne skupščine sodijo, da ta "borba" ne bo dolga in trdovratna, ker bo vlada skušala doseči kompromis, da odvrne pozornost od spora in vrne skupščino na delo sestavljanja nove ustave. Vlada predsednika Kyja bi rada imela ustavo do spomladi gotovo, ker je napovedala za tedaj volitve v novo narodno skupščino, ki naj bi pomenila uvedbo ustavne vlade v Južnem Vietnamu namesto sedanje vojaške diktature.

Gvatemalskemu predsedniku Montenegro nagajata desnica in levica

GVATEMALA, Gv. — Letos poleti je svobodno izvoljeni predsednik Montenegro prevzel oblast in skušal izvajati svoj gospodarski in socialni program. V programu je obsežna tudi agrarna in davčna reforma. Z njo naravno niso zadovoljni gvatemalski bogataši in so menda napravili načrt, kako bi Montenegro s silo prekucnili. To je Montenegro zvedel in oklical obsedno stanje. S policijo hoče krotiti desničarske in levičarske zarotniške elemente. Desnica mu namreč očita, da je preveč popustljiv napram komunistom, kar pa ni res. Jih ravno tako preganja kot desničarske fanatike.

Desničarji so iskali pomoči tudi v sosedni republiki Salvador in republiki Honduras. Montenegro je to zvedel in dosegel pri obeh vladah obvezo, da se ne bosta mešali v gvatemalske notranje zadeve, čeprav bi jih morda mikalo, da podpreta gvatemalske desničarje.

Ameriška diplomacija je na strani predsednika Montenegro. To je in bo najbrže tudi vplivalo na Honduras in Salvador, da bosta pustila Gvatemalo pri miru.

Nixonova izjava je posebno važna tam, kjer omenja zunanjo politiko. Nixon pričakuje namreč upravičeno, da bodo komunisti, posebno v Hanoiu in Peipingu, smatrali izid volitev kot tako hud udarec po Johnsonovi politiki v Vietnamu, da bo sedanja

Barbados postane konec tega meseca neodvisen

BRIDGETOWN, Barbados. — Barbados spada med najmanjše angleške kolonije, zato je njegova zadeva v angleški vladi prišla tako pozno na vrsto. Dne 30. novembra bo postal samostojna republika z 250.000 prebivalci in zemljo, ki je 21 milj dolga in 14 milj široka. Najvišja točka je visoka 1,104 čevljev. Z nje je možno razgledati ves otok.

Prebivalci niso tako na slabem. Povprečni letni dohodek znaša $375; prosveta je dobro organizirana, saj znajo vsi brati in pisati. Otok je pa prenaseljen. Do sedaj je mnogo domačinov moralo iskati kruh v Angliji. Dežela živi od sladkorne industrije, vse drugo pa mora uvažati.

Za samostojno gospodarsko življenje je otok premajhen, zato bi Angleži radi združili Gvajano, Barbados in Antiguo v gospodarsko skupnost. Otok skuša živeti tudi od turizma. Nesreča je pa v tem, da dolgočasje prežene hitro vsakega turista v druge kraje.

Televizijske antene postale političen znak

BONN, Zah. Nem. — Kdor otonuje po Vzhodni Nemčiji, lahko opazi, kako televizijske antene postajajo višje in višje, čim bolj se pomikajo proti vzhodu. To se da kaj lahko razlagati. Čim bliže je televizijska oddajna postaja, tem nižja antena je potrebna za prenos, čim bolj je oddaljena, tem višja mora biti antena. Zato v Vzhodni Nemčiji lahko sodiš, kdo postaja, kdo posluša in gleda televizijske postaje svobodnega sveta.

To ve tudi komunistična policija v Vzhodni Nemčiji, zato je začela visoke antene preganjati s stavbnimi predpisi. V začetku je nanje poslala mlade nemške komuniste. Ti so se obnašali ravno tako divje kot sedanje kitajske rdeče garde, zato jih je policija morala hitro odstraniti od podiranja anten. Boj proti visokim antenam pa ni lahek. Njihovi lastniki so že prišli na najrazličnejše načine, kako lahko nagajajo rdeči policiji. V Vzhodni Nemčiji se bije torej boj za ino: svobodi na — televizijskih antenah!

Rdeča Kitajska pred državljansko vojno?

Nastopi Rdeče garde proti nekaterim v d n im predstavnikom "kulture revolucije" kažejo v to smer.

HONG KONG. — To je vprašanje, ki se trenutno pečajo z njim vsi poklicni in amaterski politiki v Hong Kongu. Znaki za nevarnost državljanske vojne se množijo, otipljivih dokazov pa nima nihče. Se pa znatno rdeče Kitajske dogaja vsak dan, kar ni razumljivo brez razlage o možnosti državljanske vojne.

Da je vojni minister Lin Piao odstranil iz Peipinga tovariša Peng Chena, ki je gospodaril v srednji Kitajski, je razumljivo. Da je tam postavil svojega zupnika Li Shue-fenga za naslednika v peipinškem strankinem vodstvu, je tudi razumljivo. Kako pa se da razlagati, da je pred kratkim pridvela mlada rdeča garda pred uradne prostore Li Shue-fenga, vdrila vanje in razdejala vse pohištvo, vse ostalo pa hotela požgati?

Ravno isti dan se je zgodilo, da so rdeče garde hotele napasti tudi ministrstvo za propagando, ki mu je Lin Piao pred kratkim postavil na čelo tovariša Tao Chua; napad je spodletel, kajti ministrstvo je bilo takoj obkroženo s tanki in rednimi vojaškimi četami. Kdo je poslal Tao Chau čete in tanke na pomoč?

Iz notranjosti dežele prihajajo zanesljiva poročila, da se lokalne komunistične oblasti zmeraj bolj upirajo divjanju rdeče garde. Da bo to res, se vidi po pisanju glavnih peipinških časopisov, ki svetujejo mladim rdečim gardistom, naj bodo proti svojim sovražnikom neumljeni in se naj ne bojijo krvoločnosti.

Je tudi nekaj znakov, da vojaški krogi niso vsi zadovoljni, vendar pa še niso stopili na plan.

Iz vsega tega sklepajo v Hong Kongu, da je rdeča Kitajska na pragu nevarnosti, da tam izbruhne državljanska vojna.

Spremembe v grški vladi

ATENE, Gr. — Predsednik vlade Stephanos Stephanopoulos je objavil, da bo svojo vlado delno spremenil. Brez dvoma vidi prilagoditev za povečanje svoje večine v parlamentu, ki začne

Poljaki nočejo v Hanoiu posredovati za premirje

VARSAVA, Polj. — V znani laoški komisiji, ki naj kontrolira premirje v Vietnamu, Laosu in Kambodži, je skupaj s kanadsko in indijsko delegacijo tudi poljska. Ta razlog je porabil kanadski zunanji minister Martin in šel v Varšavo, da bi pregovoril poljske diplomate, naj bi krepkeje posegli v poskuse za premirje v Vietnamu.

Poljska vlada je kanadskemu diplomatu rekla, da se tega posla ne more lotiti, ker misli, da je premirje možno edino tedaj, če Amerika sprejme komunistične pogoje. To je ponoven dokaz, da tudi rdeči diplomatje mislijo, da se s Hanoiem in Peipingom zaenkrat še ne da govoriti o miru v Vietnamu. Kanadski minister je odšel iz Varšave v Moskvo, kjer bo o istem vprašanju razpravljal z Gromikom.

Novo razmerje strank v Predslavniskem domu

WASHINGTON, D.C. — V 89. Kongresu so imeli demokrati v predslavniskem domu 295 kongresnikov proti 140 republikanskim, v novem, 90. Kongresu, ki se bo sestel v prihodnjem januarju, bo le 248 demokratov, proti 187 republikancem.

Demokratska večina bi bila dovolj šibka, če ne bi v Domu obstojala koalicija republikancev in južnih, konservativnih demokratov, ki je v preteklosti tolikokrat preprečila sprejem nujnih in koristnih zakonskih predlogov.

Demokrati so izgubili 47 kongresnikov, več kot so republikanci pred volitvami upali, da jih bodo mogli dobiti. Tudi demokratski niso računali s tolikšno izgubo. Predsednik Johnson je sicer govoril o taki možnosti, pa je pri tem na tihem nemara upal, da se bo lahko pobahal, da republikanska zmaga ni bila "tolikšna", če bi republikanci dejansko ne dosegli tako lepe zmage.

Jutri, v soboto, svoje jesensko zasedanje.

Vlada ima sedaj v parlamentu le en glas večine. Zadnji sporazum s pravoslavnimi škofi je o krepil njen položaj v javnosti in ga bo morda tudi v parlamentu,

SEN. MANSFIELD POZVAL VARNOSTNI SVET ZN, NAJ ZACNE POGAJANJA O MIRU

Vodnik demokratske večine v Senatu M. Mansfield je včeraj pozval Varnostni svet Združenih narodov, naj pripravi razpravo o vojni v Vietnamu in povabi nanjo tudi rdečo Kitajsko, Severni Vietnam, Južni Vietnam in Oslobojilno fronto Južnega Vietnama.

BALTIMORE, Ma. — V govoru na Johns Hopkins University je vodnik demokratske večine v Senatu sen. Mike Mansfield grajal Združene narode, ker ne store nič v vprašanju končanja vojne v Vietnamu, ki je dosegla že obseg, nevaren za obstoj civiliziranega sveta. Senator je pozval Varnostni svet Združenih narodov, naj pripravi razpravo, na katero naj povabi tudi Peiping, Hanoi, Saigon in Južnovietnamsko osvobodilno fronto. Razprava z "odprtimi kartami" bi morda našla manjkajoči člen v naporih za obnovo miru v Vietnamu.

Sen. Mike Mansfield je dejal, da bi taka razprava v Varnostnem svetu bila začetek merjenja razdalje med obema stranema namesto sedanjega uganjanja, ki ni privedlo nikamor. Priznal je, da bi komunistična stran utegnila njegov predlog zavrniti ali pa razpravo v Varnostnem svetu uporabiti le za propagando, toda po njegovem je to treba tvegati, kadar gre za tako važne stvari, kot v sedanji vojni v Vietnamu.

Sen. Mansfield je po svojem mišljenju in gledanju na vojskovanje v Vietnamu bližje onim, ki se zavzemajo za končanje vojne s popuščanjem in političnimi razgovori, kot onim, ki hočejo doseči polno vojaško zmago in prisiliti rdečo k predaji.

Pentagon ponuja Angliji še 40 bombnikov F-111

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Najmodernejši bombniki, kar jih imamo, so F-111. Proizvodnja teh letal še ni prišla popolnoma v tek, pa je Pentagon vendarle sklenil, da bo prodal Angliji 110 bombnikov s postopno dobavo. Prvih 50 je že prodano po $5.9 milijonov za komad. Drugih 40 bo pa prodanih te tedne in dobavljenih šele 1. 1968.

Naša narodna obramba misli, da je s tem dala Angliji veliko prednost. Takih letal sploh nikomur ne prodajamo, nimamo jih dosti niti za lastno potrebo, pa vendar nismo odklonili kupčije z Anglijo.

Nixon ponuja Johnsonu spravo v zunanji politiki

CLEVELAND, O. — Bivši podpredsednik Nixon se je gotovo največ trudil, da bi republikanci zmagali pri zadnjih volitvah. Tekom volivne kampanje je obletal kar 35 držav in govoril na shodih in sestankih. Ne vemo, koliko je njegovo pridno delo prispevalo k republikanskim uspehom, on sam je pa prepričan, da precej. Se je namreč oglašil takoj po volitvah in ponudil v imenu svoje stranke predsedniku Johnsonu spravo, kar seveda ne pomeni nobene koalicije med obema strankama. Nixon bi rad dosegel večjo in zaupnejšo izmenjavo mnenj, v zunanji politiki pa narodno in ne strankarsko politiko, kar se je v ameriški politični zgodovini že večkrat zgodilo.

Nixonova izjava je posebno važna tam, kjer omenja zunanjo politiko. Nixon pričakuje namreč upravičeno, da bodo komunisti, posebno v Hanoiu in Peipingu, smatrali izid volitev kot tako hud udarec po Johnsonovi politiki v Vietnamu, da bo sedanja administracija prisiljena, da sprejme komunistične predloge za premirje, kar bi pomenilo ameriško kapitulacijo. Da komunisti ne bi prišli na to zapeljivo, pa vendarle nevarno misel, jim je Nixon za republikance rekel tole: "Da ne bo prav nobenega napačnega razumevanja, naj bo vladam v Hanoiu in Peipingu čisto jasno, da bo novi predstavniški dom (v Kongresu) veliko odločnejši od njegovega prednika kot branik v podpiranju ameriške politike, ki ne pozna nobene nagrade za napadalnost."

Nixon je omejil svojo izjavo le na predstavniški dom, ni je raztegnil na senat, kar tudi ni potrebno. Tam je voditelj republikanskih senatorjev Dirksen že par let z dejanji dokazoval, da v vietnamski politiki ne pozna nobenega strankarstva. Nixon sicer ne sedi v predstavniškem domu, pa je vendar smatral za potrebno, da to svoje stališče poudari takoj po volitvah.

Mislimo, da je Nixonova taktika pravilna, akoravno bi ji kdo utegnil očitati, da se za njo skrivajo republikanski interesi. Morda se, toda to ni pomembno. Važno je, da republikanci hočejo "depolitizirati" vojskovanje v Vietnamu.

Upajmo, da bo Johnson to republikansko stališče pravilno razumel in ga tudi osvojil. Mu bo pa težko. Je navajen, da sam gospodar v politiki, saj je celo vodilne demokrate samo informiral, ni jim pa dal prilike, da bi v zunanji politiki soodločevali, kar je bilo seveda napačno. Ako bi bil v tem pogledu obzirnejši, ne bi na primer prišel v spor s senatorjem Fulbrightom, kar je senatorja pognalo v opozicijo, ki se tudi ni odlikovala z obzirnostjo.

Narodna politika v Vietnamu je tem bolj potrebna, ker je prišel čas, da bo dežela postavljena pred alternativo: ali naj se vojskovanje zaostri ali naj bo dežela pripravljena na dodatna politična popuščanja, ali naj se resno spustimo v izvajanje ideje o pacifikaciji, akoravno kažejo dosedanje skušnje, da tega posla ne obvladamo in da tudi saigonska vlada ni sposobna, da bi se ga z uspehom lotila; ali naj se umaknemo na obalo in čakamo, kdaj nam bo čas prišel na pomoč, itd. O vsem tem naj odločata obe stranki. Le tako bodo žrtve, ki jih bo ta ali oni sklep zahteval, javnosti razumljive.

Drugim kritikom, nasprotnikom, pa tudi prijateljem naše dežele, je pa Nixon namenil sledeče besede: "Strašno važno naj bo za naše prijatelje in nasprotnike po vsem svetu, da sedanje volitve pomenijo vedno večjo željo Amerikancev, da bi povečali naš vojaški, diplomatski in gospodarski pritisk, da bi se čim prej končala vojna v Vietnamu." Tudi ta izjava je potrebna, akoravno ne pove ničesar novega.

Nixon je dalje razlagal posledice volitev, seveda čisto v duhu republikanskega veselja nad ne pričakovano politično zmago.

Cerkev razmišlja o "urejanju rojstev"

Sv. oče Pavel VI. je sprejel udeležence 52. narodnega kongresa za babilštvo in ginekologijo. Priliko je izrabil, da je pojasnil stališče Cerkve "o zapletenem vprašanju urejanja rojstev". Navzočim je povedal, da zaenkrat še ne more dati dokončnega odgovora, ker papeška komisija, ki jo je on v ta namen ustanovil, kljub svojem temeljitemu in obširnemu tehtanju razlogov še ni prišla do končnih zaključkov in da veljajo zato slej ko prej smernice, ki sta jih dala papeža Pij XI. in Pij XII. V uvodnih besedah je izrekel tople besede o ženi in njenemu poslanstvu v družbi.

Za nas — je dejal sv. oče — je žena deviško čisto bitje, ki v srcih ustvarja najbolj plemenita čustva; je zvesta spremljevalka moškega v njegovi osamljenosti, ki ga osrečuje s predanostjo svoje ljubezni, s silno močjo svoje zvestobe in svoje dejavnosti, z raznoličnostjo svojega sodelovanja; za nas je mati — poklonimo se pred tem dostojanstvom! — skrivnostni vrecel človeškega življenja, kjer doživi narava vedno znova dotik božjega Duha, stvarnika neumrljive duše; za nas je žena bitje, vedno razpoložena, da se jo oblikuje in zato vedno dovzetna za razna kulturna in družbena poslanstva; za nas je, če je prevzeta od vernosti, najčistejši izraz človečnosti; zato naj moli ali poje ali joka ali hrepeni, vedno ona predstavlja tisto ženo, edinstveno, brezmadežno in trepče, ki je bila med vsemi najbolj blagoslovljena in najbolj poklicana, da ostvari lik žene v vsej polnosti — Devica Marija, Kristusova mati.

V zvezi z materinstvom je nato sv. oče izrekel svoje zadovoljstvo, da se more razgovarjati z ginekologi. Dialog med Cerkvijo in njimi bo gotovo pripomogel k razčiščenju problema o urejanju rojstev. Eno je gotovo: problem je zelo delikaten, obširen in ker zajema tudi versko in moralno področje, zadeva učeče Cerkve. Znano je, da ves svet od te Cerkve pričakuje izjasnjenja in dokončne besede.

"Ta beseda — je nadaljeval sv. oče — do sedaj ni bila izrečena in to zato, ker on sam, ki jo je obljubil in sebi pridržal, še ni mogel priti do končnih zaključkov. Cerkev o tej zadevi nima dvoma, le razmišljati hoče in pri tem upoštevati ugotovitve znanosti in vsakdanjih izkušenj ter silni porast človeštva, ostajajoč seveda pri tem vedno zvesta načelom vere in krščanske morale.

Govorec o posebni komisiji za študij teh vprašanj je sv. oče dejal, da je opravila ogromno delo, toda zaradi zapletenosti problemov, kjer pridejo do izraza razni vidiki, doktrinalni, pastoralni in socialni, ni bilo mogoče objaviti dokončnih odločitev.

Papež Pavel VI. je izrazil upanje, da bo naletel na razumevanje pri vseh, ki jim je za rešitev tega kočljivega vprašanja. Gre za odločitve, ki se ne tičejo samo papeške avtoritete, temveč tistega božjega zakona, ki štiti človeško življenje v vsej polnosti, ga ohranja v njegovem dostojanstvu, ga dela svetega in mu zagotavlja dosego večnega namena, blaženosti in Bogu.

Sv. oče je dejal, da je zadnji vesoljni cerkveni zbor doprinesel določene nove elemente za razsojo o vprašanju ljubezni, zakona, rojstev in družine. Ti vendar niso bili novi v pogledu osnov presoje in gledanj, kot v pogledu njihove razlage in razsvetlitve. Nato je poudaril, da se morajo vsi verniki držati dosedanjega nauka Cerkve v tem vprašanju.

Iz celotnega govora sv. očeta je bilo razvidno, da ni pričakovati kake bistvene spremembe v stališču Cerkve glede umetnega preprečevanja spočetij. Cerkveni nauk dovoljuje "urejanje rojstev" le naravnim putem, če za to obstoje dovoljni vzroki.

"Osservatore Romano", ki velja za nekako uradno glasilo Vatikana, je v začetku tega tedna prinesel o vprašanju "urejanja rojstev" in vprašanju prehrane naraščajočega števila ljudi obsežen članek, v katerem je zanikal trditve, da je človeški rod narastel že v taki meri, da je zanj na svetu premalo prostora in sredstev za njegovo prehrano.

Take trditve širijo razni "strokovnjaki" že nad sto let vedno znova. Po njihovem se človeški rod množi dosti hitreje, kot pa je mogoče povečavati pridelek hrane. Ko je v lanskem in letošnjem letu zaradi suše, poplav in drugih prirodnih nesreč pridelek hrane preje nazadoval, kot napredoval, se je oglašila ustanova Združenih narodov za poljedelstvo in prehrano z resnim svarilom, da človeštvu že v prihodnjem desetletju grozi prava lakota, če ne bo vse storjeno za izboljšanje poljedelstva in tako za večji pridelek hrane in če ne bo tudi poskrbljeno za "urejanje rojstev" v gospodarsko nerazvitih, pa gosto naseljenih deželah. Gre predvsem za južno in jugovzhodno Azijo, za nekatere predele Afrike in za Latinsko Ameriko, kjer že sedaj večina prebivalstva nima zadostne in primerne hrane.

Nasprotniki Katoliške cerkve se sklicujejo prav na taka poročila in trditve, ko napadajo njeno prepoved umetnega preprečevanja spočetij.

BESEDA IZ NARODA

"Prijavljam se za duhovne vaje"

CLEVELAND, O. — Sedaj je čas za prijave na duhovne vaje. Reklame smo napravili veliko: pismeno, ustmeno, po telefonu, po cerkvenih oznanilih in po "Ameriški Domovini". — Prijave pa kljub temu počasi prihajajo.

Pa se je oglašil pred dnevi prijatelj. Ko je vstopil, je kar glasno in naravnost povedal: "Prijavljam se na duhovne vaje!"

Malo sem se začudil, ker je pred tednom moje povabilo za duhovne vaje odklonil: "Saj si dejal, da ne pojdeš!", sem mu dejal.

"Ako imaš nekaj časa, Ti bom povedal, kaj me je sedaj prignalo na duhovne vaje.

"Kar sediva," sem dejal. "Dami na razpolago časa, kolikor hočeš."

"Prav," je dejal in začel pripovedovati.

"Prejšnji teden sem delal izpit za vožnjo avtomobila."

"Ali ima to kako zvezo z duhovnimi vajami?"

"Seveda jo ima. Ako bi ne delal izpita za vožnjo avtomobila, bi gotovo tudi na duhovne vaje ne šel. — Čudno, kajne? Ti si že delal izpit in veš, kako ta stvar gre. Ko sva prišla s policajem z vožnje nazaj, mi je pokazal z roko, da naj se zglašim pri njem v pisarni. Ponosno sem korčič za njim prepričan, da sem najboljši vozač v Ameriki. Policaj pa mi je dejal, da se vidiva zopet čez 14 dni. Debelo sem ga gledal. Ko sem prišel do sape, sem ga vprašal, če izpita nisem naredil. Policaj je pa dejal: "Ja, ljubček moj dragi, če hočeš dobiti dovoljenje, moraš pa malo drugače voziti."

"Kaj pa je bilo narobe, sem izdaval iz sebe?" Pokazal mi je dolg, ozek list, ki je na njem označeval napake, ki sem jih med vožnjo delal. Cela vrsta jih je bila. Nato je nadaljeval:

"Ko sem se s prijateljem, ki me je peljal k izpitu, vozil domov, nisem zinil niti ene besede. Sram me je bilo, zelo sram, pa ne pred prijateljem, ampak pred samim seboj! Mislim sem, da sem najboljši vozač. Sedaj pa taka polomija! — Pa ne samo to. Ob tem preceenjanju samega sebe, sem se domislil še nečesa drugega. Prepričan sem bil — doslej — da sem najboljši katoličan med Slovenci v Clevelandu. Dokler nisem šel delat izpita, sem mislil, da bom šel gorak v nebesa. Sedaj pa o tem nisem več prepričan."

Hotel sem nekaj ziniti, pa mi je pokazal s prstom na usta, naj počakam in molčim. On je pa nadaljeval:

"Pa to, kar sem sedaj povedal, še ni vse. Ko pridem od izpita domov, me je žena takoj pozdravila: "Izpita nisi naredil, kajne!" Pošteno sem se začudil. "Ja, kako pa ti to veš?" — "Vem," je dejala, "še predno si šel, sem vedela, da ga ne boš naredil!" — "Kako je pa to mogoče?" — "Čisto preprosto, zato, ker si tako slabo vozil!" — "Zakaj mi pa tega nikoli nisi povedala?" — "Zakaj, zato, ker si ti tako sam vase v svoje vrline zaljubljen, da bi bil takoj ogenj v stehi, če bi o tem kaj zinila. To sem raje pustila policaju. Njemu morda verjameš?" — "Babnice ste pa res od vraga!" — "Veš, s teboj je vedno težje, ker vedno misliš, da ti vse najbolje veš in vse najboljše narediš!"

"Tako sem spoznal, da tudi drugi vedo, kako malo vem in kako sem sam vase zagledan. Molčal sem in priznal sem pri sebi, da je res tako, kar sta dejala policaj in žena. Verjemi, prijatelj, da sem v tisti uri, ko sem šel delat izpit za vožnjo avtomobila, polovico duhovnih vaj že napravil: spoznal sem samega sebe."

Vstal je, razprostrl obe roki in dejal: "No, sedaj mi pa povej, če spadam kam drugam, kot na duhovne vaje. Pa brez zamere. Zbogom!" Vzel je klobuk in šel.

Športniki pozor!

Cleveland, O. — Da se ne bi kdo ustrašil gornjega naslova, je najbolje, da takoj povem, za kaj se gre. Leto dni bo že minilo, odkar je imel Slovenski športni klub svoj občni zbor in volitve odbora. Po enem letu je ta odbor že star in je čas, da si izvolimo novega.

Če pogledamo na minulo leto, lahko ugotovimo, kaj smo napravili dobrega in koristnega za naše društvo in za naše okolje.

Prejšnjo zimo smo se večkrat odpeljali na smučanje, drsanje, organizirali smo kegljaško tekmovalje, kjer se je izrazilo široko veliko zanimanje za tovrstni šport.

Poleti smo igrali odbojko, prirejali razna tekmovanja in zabave. Organizirali smo tudi hvalevredno prostovoljno darovanje krvi za ameriške vojake, ki se borijo v Vietnamu za našo svobodo.

Kakor lansko zimo bomo tudi to smučali. Že se pripravljamo na smučarski izlet, že tekmuje mo v kegljanju, ker je za ta šport veliko zanimanja in tudi dobre kegljače imamo.

Ker pa bi se radi malo pomenili in izvolili nov odbor, vabimo vse člane na letni občni zbor clevelandkega Slovenskega športnega kluba, ki bo v nedeljo, 13. novembra 1966, ob pol petih popoldne v Baragovem domu. Vabimo pa tudi vse tiste nečlane, ki se zanimajo za šport.

Če ne verjamete, da se imamo v našem športnem klubu lepo, pridite in prepričajte se sami! Na svidenje!

Slovenska pristava — ali puščava?

Cleveland, O. — Dragi Pristavi! Ker je bilo že toliko pohvalnega napisanega o vas, sem se odločil, da bom tudi jaz enih par povedal v korist Pristave. Ne smete zameriti, če bom malo grajal. Ko je bila ta farma kupljena, smo kmalu postali za njo zelo navdušeni. Razume se, da je bilo treba na več krajih očistiti grmovje, vendar sem že takrat videl, da smo preveč "udarili".

Na hribčku in pobočjih Orlovega vrha sem to posebno opazil. Vse dol! je bilo geslo. Toliko lepega drevja je tam raslo, večina mladega, in tudi nekaj posebnih vrst grmičevja, ki bi bilo lahko danes v okras, pa smo skoraj kar na gladko počistili. Pokojni mgr. M. Škerbec je enkrat opazoval tako "čistko" in rekel: "Lejte, lejte, tistega drevesca pa res ne smete posekati, pa tam orega tudi ne," pa se je le malokdo brigal za njegov nasvet. Eden pa le pravi: "Pa pustimo tista dva, da bo Škerbec tiho." Tisti mali topol, ki raste poleg ravnice, je ostal torej le po zaslugi pov. msgr. Škerbeca, in bi ga po pravici lahko imenovali "Škerbec topol". Kadar vidim to drevo, se spomnim na pokojnika.

Tako smo takrat preveč čistili, sedaj pa bregove Orlovega vrha znova zasajamo, sicer s smrekami in borovci, kar bo zelo lepo, ko bo zraslo, a mnogo bi pa lahko ohranili takrat, prva leta.

V zadnjih letih sem že več kot štirinjak pobiral in odvijal debele jeklene žice s smrekovih debel. Smrekov gozd je ena najlepših naravnih krasot, kar jih je na Pristavi, pa je najbolj izpostavljen uničenju. Kolikor sem že žebeljev populil iz debel, bi ž njimi že lahko zbil četrto mesto. Ko so gradili balinišče, je nek "kemik" pustil kar tam pri smrekah precej soli in vsaj dve sta se zato že posušili. Vsako leto se jih nekaj uniči samo po naši krivdi. Zakaj? Potem pa jamrajo: "Teh je bilo pa škoda!"

Novi most nas je povezal z ono stranjo Pristave. Kako prav pride! Bojim se le, da bomo začeli spomladati ali pa že prej z veliko novo "čistko", ki v resnici ne bo nobenemu pravi posebno koristila, naravni lepoti Pristave pa le škodovala. Naj bi pustili drugi breg Pristave čim bolj v naravnem stanju, kakršen je. Kdor ima rad očiščen prostor, naj gre tja na tisti veliki travnik ali kamorkoli, saj je že dovolj prazenega.

Tudi starši naj bi poučili svoje otroke, naj ne delajo škode in kvarijo drevja in grmičevja. "Starejši otroci" od 20. do 60. leta pa bi že sami morali vedeti, kaj je prav in kaj ni prav, ne pa delati večjo škodo kot mali otroci. Nekdo je na primer nad Grand River obelil debelo zdravo bukev za skoraj dva čevlja širok pas. Ali je sedaj lepša?

Ko sem bil 6. novembra t.l. pod smuško skakalnico, sem takoj opazil nove globoke jarke, ki jih je napravil naliv v prejšnjem tednu. Še nikdar prej ni noben naliv napravil tolikšne škode kot tokrat, za naprej bo pa še slabše, sedaj ko je za načeto, kajti ob velikem nalivu je skakalnica kot kot velikanski žleb, po katerem dere voda kot hudournik. Če bo šlo tako naprej, bo treba čez nekoliko let "prestaviti" skakalnico na drugi prostor, ker bo tu neuporabna. Upravni odbor naj bi z vso odločnostjo skušal omejiti škodo, ki jo povzročajo vremenske nepravilnosti in pa prehudi "udarniki". Odbor naj bi pooblastil določeno število članov, ki bi v sporazumu z oblastjo in Departmentom for Conservation and Preservation imeli pravico nastopiti proti takim kršilec in jih javiti, odnosno kaznovati, pa mirna Bosna! Nekateri bodo sicer kleli, pa nič zato, saj pri naših ljudeh, vsaj nekaterih, beseda ali svarilen napis itak nič ne zaležeta.

Pristava ni več navadna farma, katero farmer obdeluje in pazi. Na njej je skoraj šest mesecev v letu vsako soboto in nedeljo in tudi med tednom na stotine ljudi. Če bodo vsi ti delali, kar hočejo, in če ne bodo uvedena in izvajana kaka pametna pravila za ohranjanje naravnih lepot, bo lahko v desetih letih naša Pristava izmalničena ali celo opustošena in bo izgubila vso privlačnost, ki jo ima danes.

Nekaj bi tudi rad rekel proti "gladkemu parketnemu plesišču", ki ga Pristava čisto nič ne potrebuje. Le komu se bo lju bilo v poletni vročini po šestdnevnem težkem delu v tovarni in v okuženem zraku mesta iti sedmi dan na Pristavo plesat, pa naj bi bil še tako gladek parket! Na splošno pridejo ljudje tja, da se naučijo svežega zraka in odpočijejo, sicer pa imajo otroci in odrasli dovolj gibanja, telovadbe in zdravega veselja v bazenu.

Komur to ni všeč, bo pač moral iti žal plesat na nemško farmo. Sicer je malo daleč, a za dober "podn" se spleča.

Ko je pok. Hinko Lobe s prijatelji ogledoval in razmišljal o nakupu primerne farme, je pri tem zmeraj govoril o slovenskih otrocih, da potrebujejo prostora, kjer bi lahko taborili in preživljali počitniške mesece v lepi naravi, kjer bi bili kot na svojem pri domačih ljudeh, izven mestnega hrupa, prometa in smradu.

Najlepši spomenik pok. Hinku Lobetu bi bil "Lobetov počitniški dom" s primernim številom sob, postelj, lepo kuhinjo, privlačno opremljeno jedilnico, vzrajeno tako, da bi bilo uporabno tudi pozimi (kurjava), kjer bi lahko preživljalo počitnice večje število slovenskih otrok kot dosedaj in za daljšo dobo kot do sedaj. In s tem bi bila izpol-

Zapojmo, zapojmo — Slovenci New Yorka...

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Zakaj ne bi spet peli? Dve pevski vaji so naši možje in fantje že imeli. Obe vaji sta pokazali neko trdno osnovo za razvoj novega njujorškega moškega pevskega zbora. Pevovalja g. Franjo Delak se je pokazal kot dober učitelj, ki posreduje domače melodije z dušo. Zato ogreva! In vprav zato menda ni nihče pri drugi vaji manjkal, kdor je bil pri prvi. Samo en pevec več se je v zbor vključil.

Žal mi je za vse tiste štiri, eden od njih je obljubil še svojega prijatelja, da niso prišli že na to vajo. Korak naprej bi bil še bolj vzpodbuden. Če bi prišli, gotovo jim ne bi bilo žal in bi od slej ravnali kot prvi: komaj bi čakali naslednje vaje. Zato upamo, da jih pri prihodnji vaji v PETEK, 18. NOVEMBRA, zvečer vidimo v cerkveni dvorani.

Upamo pa, da poleg njih bodo še drugi prišli in prepričani smo, da ne bo nihče od naših pevcev, ki bo zvedel za nov zbor in ki mu je slovenska pesem pri srcu, ostal zanj malodušen ob priliki — toliko obetajoči za življenje naše narodne srenje. Bivši člani "Slovana", "Domovine" in "Bleda", vsi ste vabljeni! Pridite!

Vprav vsak izmed nas naj po svojih močeh vpliva in pomaga, da se na ta močan skelet, ki je bil pri dveh vajah ustvarjen, nabere in razvije zadosti zdravega mišičevja, ki bo ohranjalo dušo, ki je bilo z melodijo v zborovo telo vdihnjena, in da bo naše srce v tem telesu naše narodne skupnosti močno utripalo. Utripalo tako močno, da bo od nas

Najvažnejših je prvih sedem let V prvih sedmih letih življenja postane otrok tak, v kakšnega se bo razvil, ko odraste. V tej dobi se nabere v njem vse psihično bogastvo. Najnovejši psihopedagoške teorije še posebej potrjujejo dejstvo, da je človeška osebnost zakopana prav v prvih sedmih letih, ko starši položijo v otroka semena, iz katerih bodo kasneje vzklili plodovi. Zato tudi resnično velja geslo za starše: vzgajajte otroke tako, da vzgajate sami sebe!

Katere napake dandanes najpogosteje pripisujejo staršem pri vzgoji njihovih otrok? To so: nezmožnost ljubezni, tesnoba, zaskrbljenost, hiperprotekcionalizem, gledanje na otroka kot lastnino in nervoja. Razen tega pa še: nedoslednost, oportunističnost, pomanjkanje spoštovanja, intervencionizem in še slepota za vse naokrog sebe. Za otroka in njegov razvoj je pomanjkanje poštevanja "njemu" prav tako škodljivo, kot če bi v otroku namesto samostojnega bitja videli izključno lastnino.

Za otroka je nevarna tudi nervoja staršev v občevaranju z njim, kajti otroci so tako izredno občutljivi, da takoj začutijo pravo vzdušje in razpoloženje staršev. Moderno življenje zahteva od staršev tudi nov način vzgoje, ki se razlikuje od "tistega od nekoč". Za sodobno vzgojo je važno to, da starši študirajo svoje vzgojne probleme in vložijo vaje sebe in več spoštovanja do otroka. Študij vzgojnih problemov namreč ni nečastna stvar, niti ne ogroža osnov starševske avtoritete, ampak priča o inteligenci roditeljev.

OTROŠKI KOTIČEK

Prav nemarno vreme se je začelo. Otopilo se je in moj revmatizem je tak, da se komaj dvignem s pograda, če sedem. Vse kosti v križu so razmajane. Jehhata, vse to kaže, da bom tole zimo velik siromak. Težave in križi ležejo od vseh strani, jaz pa sam z muckom, ki mu ne morem nič dopovedati. Saj me gleda, hudo žalostno me gleda, pa vem, da se na življenjske težave ne razume. Še sam velikokrat na najdem prave niti, čeprav me svet že dolgo nosi. V tej revščini so mi vaša pisma v veliko veselje.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!
V počitnicah smo šli v Cook Forest. Tam smo hodili po gozdu. Videli smo srne in tudi male verice. Stanovali smo v leseni koči. V nedeljo smo šli v cerkev. Bila je zelo majhna. V soboto smo se šli kopat. V Cook Forest je velik park. V parku so velika, stara drevesa. Bila sem tudi na vrhu razglednega stolpa. Z vrha sem videla reko. Videla sem tudi dolino, drevesa in travo. Tam smo bili tri dni. Upam, da bomo še šli v Cook Forest. Ali ste vi kam šli na počitnice. Lepo Te pozdravlja

Lenka Strancar

Draga Lenka!
V Cook Forestu ste bili, mi pišete. Nisem bil še tam, mislim si pa, da mora biti približno tako, kakor je bilo v Gobovcih, ki so velika podbreška gmajna. Zajcev in veverice je bilo na pretek, pa tudi srne sem videl. Razglednega stolpa v Gobovcih res ni bilo, pa sem ga koj imel, če sem zlezel na drevo. V rogovili sem sedel, pa sem videl vse vasi tja do Brezij in venec gora okoli. Me vprašate, če sem bil jaz kje na počitnicah. Bil, punčka, in hudo lepo sem se imel. Če bi bil kakšno leto mlajši, bi se imel še lepše. Muštace bi si navalil in brado počesal. Toda pri tej starosti sem kar tak okrog moštacal. Lepo je bilo pa vseeno. Hudo sem bil vesel, da si mi pisala. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!
Počitnice so že minile in spet je šola. Preživela sem počitnice kar doma. Zjutraj sem ustala in pomagala sestri raznašati Ameriško Domovino. Doma sem pomagala mami. Tudi s prijateljicami sem se igrala. Vsako nedeljo smo se peljali na Slovensko pristavo. Tam sem se igrala in kovala. Zdaj spet hodim v šolo in mi več toliko časa za igranje. Lepo Te pozdravlja

Cilka Tominc

Draga Cilka!
Tudi doma so počitnice lepe, kajne? In najbolj poceni so, to tudi nekaj pomeni. Če greš takole po svetu, kar vidiš, kako so vse oči zapicene v tvojo denarnico. Zadnje beliče izpulijo iz človeka. Če si pa doma, vsak ve, da nič nimaš. Pomagala si raznašati Ameriško Domovino. Zelo lepo. In še mami pomagala. Kar pogledaj, koliko dobrega si napravila. Jaz sem malo igral pustolovca, pa še zdaj vekam za tistimi fiki. Tebi ni treba. Zdaj se šole drži in učenja. In pridna ostan. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!
Moje dolge počitnice so bile lepe. Večkrat smo se šli kopat. Velikokrat smo se igrali. Doma sem tudi mami pomagala. Varoval sem sestrico in se igral z njo. Šel sem tudi v trgovino za mamo. Preden se je začela šola, smo šli v Marquette. To je v Baragovi deželi. Father Martelanc je šel z nami in nam razlagal pot. Ko smo prišli domov, se je začela šola. Rad hodim v šolo. Za šolo se bodo spet začele počitnice.

Te lepo pozdravlja
Tinko Likozar

Dragi Tinko!
Pri teh letih si naredil kar čudno pot tja v Marquette. Sem tudi že bil tam in na Baragovem grobu odžebal nekaj molitvic. Lepa je tista pot. Veš, rad imam gmajno in jezera in vsega tega je po tistih krajih dovolj. Povrh vsega si pa človek lahko predstavlja, kako dolge poti je svetniški škof Baraga prehodil. Nam se danes že v avtom zdi vse daleč. Zdaj je spet šola in Ti misliš že spet na nove počitnice. Ni slabo. Tako se ohranjaš veselega. Dobro se imej in pridno se uči. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric!

Danes Vam prvič pišem z velikim veseljem. Zdaj hodim v četrtri razred Slovenske šole. Učim se igrati harmoniko. Kadar imam kaj več časa, pomagam mami pomiti posodo. Potem se grem lahko igrati. Med počitnicami sem se večkrat peljala z atom in mamico na Slovensko pristavo. Lepo Vas pozdravlja

Erika Kurboš

Draga Erika!
Ti si mi z veseljem pisala in jaz Ti z veseljem odgovarjam. Učiš se igrati harmoniko. Že zadnjič sem zapisal, da sem na harmoniko ves neumen. Vselej, ko jo zaslišim, pogledam na klub, kjer imam krivca. Da bi me Ti videla v tistih letih, ko sem bil še mlad. Raven, močan, glas sem imel kot trobenta. Stare mame so imele kar solzne oči, če sem jih pozdravil. Toda je tako, kakor pravi stara pesem:

*Kamen, še ta kamen
v vodi se obrne.
A mladost se moja
nikdar več ne vrne.*

Šla je in ko sem odprl oči, sem bil star. Stebale, kamižola, debela očala in brada — to so deleži moje starosti. In muc seveda. Zato sem tako vesel, če mi piše kakšno dekletce, ki na harmoniko igra. Za ples sicer nisem, pa bi se vseeno poskušal obracati, če bi še plesali stare plesse. Povšter tanc, žesal polko in take stvari. Pa mladi še za imena ne vedo, kaj šele za stare plesse. Nekakšno onegavo zvijanje, to so zdaj plesi. Pridno se uči v šoli in na harmoniki in če mi smrt še kaj dolgo prizanesa, mi nekoč eno zaigraš. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

Čisto sem spregledal, da mi je papir prav pri koncu. Seveda, velike krace delam. Ne pišem več lepo, ker se mi roka trese in črte ne držim. Pišite mi še, da bom na starost pozabil in na revmatizem. Do prihodnjega petka Vas vse lepo pozdravlja

Vaš Kotičkov stric

SAVA vabi na ples v Chicagu

CHICAGO, Ill. — "Glejte, že sonce zahaja..." Prihaja val jesenskega večera, kateri bo nas v kratkem času pokril z zimsko nočjo. Zdi se mi, da že sneži, a vendar niso snežni kristali, ampak ki potuje do svojega počitka na hladni zemlji. Ne slišim več veselega petja ptičkov, ki me je vzpodbujalo v hudem času, in kateri so prepevali pesmi ljubimcev in ljubiteljev. Na severu se prikažejo temni oblaki, nedavno snežno naloženi. V tem času je duša nekako potra in žalostna, zato imamo Slovenci lepo navado, da se zabavamo v jesenskem času na veselicah.

Da ne bomo mi v tujini pozabili na te stare navade, se je SAVA, Društvo slovenskih aka-demikov v Ameriki, zavzelo, da priredi plesno zabavo. Vršila se bo 26. novembra t.l. v veliki dvorani sv. Štefana v Chicagu. V okusno okrašeni dvorani bo preskrbljena hrana za lačne, pijača za žejne in glasba za vesele, oziroma za vse. Na razpolago bodo klobase z zeljem, pecivo in vsakovrstna pijača. Za ples bo igral "Kvintet Tivoli", kateri bo sicer septet, ker bosta nastopili tudi dve pevki. Vključno pri vstopnini bo nagrada in sicer prvovrstni fotoaparati.

Ker že itak manjka družabnih prireditev v Chicagu, vljudno vabim vse, bralce kakor tudi vaše prijatelje, na to zabavo. Savani se bodo potrudili in vem, kakor verjetno tudi vi od prejšnjih prireditev, da bo lepo izpeljano; Savani vas ne bodo razočarali. To je prilika, da se zberete s prijatelji, pokramljate malo in se okrepčate z dobro jedjo, okusno pijačo in veselo glasbo. Napolnite dvorano ob tej priliki, da se Slovenci združimo v tujini, kot se spodobi, ob zvokih vesele slovenske glasbe! Potem vam ne bo treba poslušati tožno "Glejte, že sonce zahaja...", ampak veselo "Moj očka ima kornjička dva..."

Še enkrat vas vse prav vljudno vabim na veselico SAVE, "Jesenski družabni večer" 26. nov. 1966 v veliko svetošestofansko dvorano na 1835 W. 22nd Place. Pričetek bo ob 8.30 zvečer. S slovenskim pozdravom: Na veselo svidenje!

Čeh pozival glavno skupščino ZN, naj nastopi za mir v Vietnamu

ZDRUŽENI NARODI, N.Y. — Namestnik češkoslovaškega zunanjega ministra Jan Busniak je pozval glavno skupščino, naj takoj konča vojno v Vietnamu in pozove Združene države, da se strogo drže ustanovne listine Združenih narodov.

Čehu je odgovoril zastopnik ZDA J. M. Nabrit, da je žal v ZN vse preveč takih, ki kažejo dobro voljo v besedah, vse premalo pa takih, ki bi bili za to, da ZN "dejansko nekaj store v tej

V Vatikanu mislijo na skupno Sv. pismo s protestanti

VATIKAN. — Ta ideja je padla na plodna tla že na zadnjem vatikanskem koncilu. Sedaj jo je spravil sv. oče na pravi tir. Naročil je namreč tajništvo za krščansko edinost, ki ga vodi znani kardinal Bea, naj napravi načrt za sodelovanje s protestantskimi društvi za biblijo z namenom, da bi v skupnem delu na novo prevedli besedilo na okroglo 1.000 jezikov in narečij. Dosedaj je katoliško besedilo prevedeno na približno 100 jezikov, protestantovsko pa na 875. Zaseben poskus na tem polju je že narejen. Že dalj časa se namreč sestajajo na lastno pobudo nekateri strokovnjaki za Sv. pismo, tako iz katoliških kot iz protestantskih krogov, in skušajo dognati tehniko prevajanja. Njihovo skupno delo obsega prevode na 27 glavnih jezikov. Tehnično vodstvo na skupnem delu je prevzel ameriški je-zuit dr. Abbott, ki se mudi te dni v naši deželi na posvetih s katoliškimi in protestantskimi strokovnjaki.

V republiku Peru bodo v nedeljo občinske volitve

LIMA, Peru. — V nedeljo bodo v republiku Peru občinske volitve. Čeprav bodo volitve za predsednika in Kongres šele leta 1969, se občinskim volitvam pripisuje velik pomen. Politiki pravijo namreč, da bodo občinske volitve pokazale, kdo ima volivce za seboj in kdo ne. V to verjame najbrže tudi sedanji predsednik Terry Bellaunde, ki je svoji stranki naročil, naj postavi kandidate v vseh občinah. Isto so seveda napravile tudi vse stranke, ki tvorijo kongresno opozicijo.

Najhujši je volivni boj v prestolici Limi. Kdor bo tam izvoljen, bo verjetno tudi kandidat za predsednika v l. 1969. Mislijo, da bo zmagal skupni kandidat stranke ljudske akcije Bedoya, ki ji pripada predsednik in krščansko-demokratske stranke.

Gosto naseljena dežela
LONDON, Vel. Brit. — Indijsko cesarstvo, predno je bilo razdeljeno v Indijo in Pakistan, je bilo po površini nekaj večje kot polovica Združenih držav. Na tem ozemlju živi sedaj preko 550 milijonov ljudi v primeri z niti 200 milijoni v naši deželi. Indija je torej naseljena petkrat gostejše od Amerike.

"Si zložila perilo? Ali si očistila tisti telovnik? Madeže je imel."

"Vse, vse je v redu!" se je vgriznila v ustnico in dalje zlagala perilo.

"Prav nič, nič — nič ni v redu!" je pela mučna misel sama od sebe v njenih ušesih. Drugi dan je tekala po trgu in pripravljala popotnjo, s katero se je mož kaj vneto ukvarjal, ko da

"Novi tovariši so naju povabili za nočoj. Saj greš, ne?" "Utrujena sem, pa naj bo", se je vdala.

"Saj se kmalu vrneva", je obljubil Miro. "Toliko le, da se spoznamo."

Prijateljski večer je bil nad vse prijeten. Vranu ni bilo nič žal za starim službenim mestom. Zadnji dan mu je Zala urečila stanovanje, mu dala kopico gospodarskih nasvetov in odpotovala.

"Piši mi, veš!" je slišala možev glas, ko se je vlak premaknil.

"Dobro, bom žel!" je obljubila ter mu pomahala v pozdrav.

Zala se je po nasilni ločitvi, zaradi katere so jo ljudje pomilovali, oddahnila. "Zasluzila sem oddih in dan mi je bil. Bog bodi zahvaljen!" Pomirila se je v književnem delu, ki je bilo izpopolnjeno s poklicnim. Tako od daleč ji mož ni bil več zopr in hudo breme. Pisala mu je pogosto in o vsem. Kadar jo je obiskal, je v njej zažarelo odpuščanje s toplo naklonjenostjo.

Ker so jo davile gospodarske težave in ni mogla računati na možovo pomoč, je delala v pisarni čez ure, da si čim več prisluži. Velikodušno je odpuščala lahkomišelnemu soprogu njegovo zmešano gospodarstvo. Kadar je je spet rotli, da mu pomaga iz zagate, se je sicer jezila, ali končno le plačala menico.

"Naj bo, to je davek za mojo prostost, moj mir in lepo samoto", se je tolažila, kadar jo je le preveč žulil jarem pomanjkanja.

Da zadosti svoji vesti in zahtevi moža je vložila prošnjo za premestitev. Prošnja je romala od enega službenega mesta do drugega dva meseca ter se vrnila s pripombo, da ji ni mogoče ustreči. "Naj prosilka počaka do jeseni", je bil dobrohotni svet. Takrat pa je bila šele pomlad.

"To pa je res nesramno, da vam ne ustrežejo", se je razburjela gospa Julija in celo starešina je mislil, da mora oprezno pogodrnjati nad onimi tam gori. "Tako je, kadar je človek državni uradnik!" je vzdihnila Zala, da bi skrila veselje, ki je zamenilo strah, da bi bila uslišana.

"Do jeseni, oho, še dobrega pol leta; potem pa bomo videli!" se je muzala Zala, ko je sporočila možu, da je njena prošnja za premestitev odklonjena. Potem ni več mislila na to; zaprla se je v svetove svojih sanj in književnih načrtov. Prva književna dela je ustvarila v tisti dobi. Čudila se je, zakaj ji je bilo tako težko odtrgati majhen delček od svojih svetov in ga zlititi na papir. Čim lepše in polnejše je bilo doživetje, tem težje ga je bilo iztrgati. Takrat je spoznala, da je umetnost velika in resna stvar, ki zahteva človeka. Vdano je pripognila glavo ter se vsa predala notranjemu klicu. Naprej po trnjevi in strmi poti! Zmeraj više, vse bliže luči in resnici.

Z njo, v vseh njenih mislih, v vsakem utripu njenega srca je bil prisoten on. Njegova podoba je stala pred njeno dušo tako živa, da se je včasih stegnila njena roka v praznino, da pobozna najljubši obraz. Z njim se je pogovarjala, posvetovala, veselila in trpela v svoji svetli samoti. Nič več si ni skrivala resnice, ki jo je vso prevzela. On je bil tisti, ki ga je slutilo njeno srce od začetka.

Njuna pisma pa so bila prav vsakdanje vsebine. Mojster je poučeval učenko, ki se mu je zdela nadarjena. Ona pa je izpraševala in poročala. Le tu pa tam se je utrnila iskra in zažarela nad vsakdanjostjo v čisti lepoti.

Tu pa tam jo je zmotil obraz moža, ki je s strašno naglico drevil v pogubo. Odkar je bil sam, je padla zadnja ovira strastem, ki so se v njem razgorele v poguben požar in ga vsega podjarmile.

Zala je slutila nesrečo in odvracala moža od pogubne poti. Njeni napori pa so bili jalovi. Rodila jih je le dolžnost. Sama dolžnost brez ljubezni pa je prešibka v boju s strastmi. Tako je mineval čas in prve jesenske megle so se oprijele hribovja. Z Dolenjskega je Zala prispela vest, da je Jožica umrla. — "Vse poletje je bilo zanjo eno samo mučno umiranje", je pisala Andrejeva mamka z drhtečo roko. "Molite za mojega nesrečnega otroka! Najrajši je imela vas in in skrbmi, ki jih je bilo čim dalje več. "Ti si se oprostila zemeljskih spon. Zdaj vse razumeš in veš."

Instant Sauce Sparks Vegetables

Vegetables are the Cinderellas of the menu world. Too often they are uninteresting and ignored when they can be a sparkling mealtime "scene-stealer."

It's easy to serve exciting vegetables with the appearance on the market of the new canned corn, peas and lima beans which have been pressure cooked in 93-score butter to give a deep buttery flavor to the vegetables. They are a treat simply heated and served as taken from the can. Or, the home economists from Libby's suggest that you take advantage of the flavorful buttery juices to make a "company's coming" instant sauce which will further glamorize these favorites. The small amount of liquid on the vegetables is the basis for the instant creamy sauce. Stir in powdered cream or dry milk solids and a favorite seasoning and heat through with the vegetables.

COMPANY CORN

- 1 can (12-1/2 ounces) Corn Seasoned with Butter
- 2 tablespoons powdered cream or non-fat dry milk solids
- 1/4 teaspoon chili powder
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento

Drain corn, pour the liquid from the corn into a saucepan. Stir in powdered cream and chili powder. Add corn and pimiento. Heat thoroughly. Makes 2 to 4 servings.

Goodwill - Boy Scout "Good Turn Day" On Dec. 3rd

The Greater Cleveland Council of Boy Scouts of America will sponsor its 34th Good Turn Day for benefit of the physically, mentally and socially handicapped men and women of Goodwill Industries on Saturday, December 3rd.

As in years past, thousands of uniformed Scouts will visit area homes gathering and transporting clothing and toys to over 100 collection centers made possible by the courtesy of area churches, fire stations and other community buildings. The annual event helps provide materials to keep Goodwill's clients at work during the winter months when donations of usable discards diminish because of bad weather.

Area residents are reminded that Scouts will be looking for a scarf or handkerchief tied to the front doorknob as an indication that they should stop for donations. One week prior to Good Turn, uniformed Scouts will deliver handy Goodwill Bags and fact sheets to residents which explain the purpose of Good Turn Day. On the day of collection, Scouts, in full uniform, will retrace their steps and the annual project begins.

Larger items such as furniture, tables etc. can be picked up by special Goodwill trucks if a call is made to the plant at 431-8300.

Goodwill, a non-profit organization, serves over 225 handicapped clients daily. The vocational rehabilitation agency provides on-the-job training as well as the services of professionally trained social workers, training-evaluation directors and vocational guidance counselors.

Some Of Our Dodgers Are Missing
Half a loaf may be better than none, but half a baseball club probably isn't. Not if the missing half includes names like these: Sandy Koufax, Don Drysdale, Wes Parker and Maury Wills.

If Japanese fans are disappointed at what they've seen of the Dodger entourage, nobody can blame them. They are paying fancy prices, by Japan's standards, to watch one of America's top big league clubs. They are not getting their money's worth because the Dodger's brightest stars are absent.

Major league junkies to Japan are supposed to produce good will along with first-class entertainment. The Dodgers may not be fabricating enough of either. This is the Dodgers' second trip to the Land of the Rising Sun, and Japanese fans have seen numerous other major league clubs. None performed in Japan with as many phantom stars as have the '66 Dodgers.

Bruin Whiz, Only 18, Big Gate Attraction

Boston, Mass. — A rookie breaking into the National Hockey League faces a purgatorial process, a trial by fire. He must prove first, in convincing fashion, that he's rugged enough to withstand the physical rigors of the game. Once he does this, the onlookers then try to evaluate his skills as a player.

Bobby Orr, 18, a much-publicized defenseman with the Boston Bruins, realizes this better than many newcomers, since he is one of the most heralded and publicized rookies ever to appear on the NHL scene.

The Bruins played their first two home games before turnaway, sold-out crowds of 13,909 at Boston Garden. Orr was the attraction. When Boston helped Montreal's Canadiens open the 1966-67 season at the Forum, a standing-room crowd of 15,400 was on hand.

"That was the largest opening-night crowd we've had in years," says Hector (Toe) Blake, the Montreal coach. "Usually we don't go over 15,000 until after Christmas. I guess a lot of them came to see the kid."

AFL Opinion on Bet Yarn: 'No Reason to Be Alarmed'
New York, N.Y. — American Football League officials have been investigating rumors of players betting on games, but have turned up no evidence to substantiate the reports, said President Milt Woodard, October 30.

"We see no reason to be alarmed at this point," he said. "Our investigators have looked into the games in question and have found nothing out of line." The Boston Globe, in a copy-righted story, reported the AFL was concerned about five games and that "one team was involved in three of these games and a second team in the two others."

"We are aware that certain games were taken off (the gambling line) and then put back on," Woodard said. "The gamblers are creating this. We were assured that this was not unusual."

President Establishes American Education Week

Washington, D.C. — President Johnson designated the period Nov. 6 through November 12 as American Education Week and called upon the people of the United States "to take an active part in the progress and improvement of American education."

"Better education must be the base on which we build all our other goals," he said.

The President pointed to "greatly strengthened" Federal, State, and local efforts to help the nation's 56 million students:

"For their sake and for the nation's sake,
— "We are making improved education available to thousands of poor children so that they need not be poor adults;

"We are increasing opportunities for vocational training to meet changing job needs in a technical age;

"We are helping physically and socially handicapped young people prepare for productive lives;

"We are cooperating with the States and with private institutions to improve higher education, and to make it more widely available to deserving young citizens.

Even these "massive" efforts are not enough, the President declared. "American Education Week should be a time for every American to commit himself anew to completing the unfinished business of American education — and to developing new and more helpful ways to enrich the minds of our citizens in years to come," he concluded.

Concert and Operetta Set For This Sunday

The Slovenian Junior Chorus of Circle No. 2 of SNPJ will present a concert and operetta on Sunday, November 13, at the Slovenian Society Home, Recher Avenue, Euclid, Ohio starting at 4 p.m.

The operetta "The Magic Nutcracker" is the music and story of Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite." It will be performed by a cast of 55 children in costume, and fully staged. The leading role will be sung by Joanne Urbancic. Almost everyone will recognize the "Waltz of the Flowers" and the "March of the Tin Soldiers."

The concert portion will feature Slovenian songs by the chorus, a duet by Joseph Valencic and Debbie Vudnal, and solo by Barbara Turkovich.

The entire program is under the direction of Cecilia Valencic with Josephine Tercek at the piano. After the program there will be a social and dance, with music by the John Grabnar Orchestra.

Tickets are available at the door, at the Slovenian Home or from members.

Survey of Registration, Voting by Census Bureau

A series of questions on registration and voting will be asked in this area during November as a part of the Census Bureau's monthly Current Population Survey, according to Robert A. Yerkey, Director of the Bureau's regional office in Detroit.

The voter survey is designed to learn only if a person was registered to vote and if he actually voted in the November general elections. No questions will be asked concerning candidates or parties. The questions will supplement the regular monthly employment inquiries conducted by the Bureau to furnish information for the Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics.

All information obtained will be kept absolutely confidential and will be used for statistical purposes only.

The information will be collected during the week beginning November 14 for sample households in this area and in other selected areas throughout the United States.

nors might mean that book-makers had concluded that abnormal influences were at work. Woodard suggested that the tight AFL race and the difficulties in accurately predicting point spreads were making the bookies nervous.

THE SOUND OF PROGRESS

A curious thing happened after the termination of last summer's strike of airline mechanics. A number of people remarked that it seemed good to hear the jets whistling overhead again with clocklike regularity. The big transports had become a permanent fixture among the sights and sounds of daily living, and apparently their grounding brought for many a nostalgic sense of loss. The empty, silent skies did not seem so friendly.

All of which proves again that the human animal is highly adaptable. It was not so long ago that people looked forward to the noise of the jet age with trepidation. In reality, it is not proving as noisy as many feared. The graceful giants appear to drift across the heavens with no more than a subdued whine, and instead of being a nuisance they now offer reassuring evidence that the affairs of men are going forward. Travel and commerce go hand in hand with peace and prosperity.

Especially is this true on the international scene. Not long ago, one of our major overseas airlines issued a press release describing two monster jet freighters it has on order. These freighters will produce over a million ton-miles of cargo a day. The big planes are designed with straight-in nose loading and will mark the true beginning of containerized freight air services. Highway size containers eight feet wide and ranging in length from 8 to 40 feet will be transported in these giant craft. Thus, through the medium of international air transport, this overseas American-flag airline will substantially advance the cause of peace and understanding among nations in the most practical way possible — through trade and travel. The sound of the jets is the sound of progress.

CONDENSED NEWS FROM OUR HOME FRONT

* Mrs. Frank J. Lausche was reported in satisfactory condition in Lakewood Hospital where she underwent surgery for a fractured hip. She also has a fractured left wrist. She was expected to remain in the hospital at least two weeks.

* Visiting our office last week were Ludwig Pahljce, well known hotel man and builder of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada, and Joseph Kastelic, well known builder of Toronto, Ont., Canada.

* An "emergency" call from Eureka Downtown airport last week brought seven fire trucks speeding through the morning rush-hour traffic. The "emergency" turned out to be the sudden illness of a man hanging at the Remmert-Werner hangar. A fire rescue squad took him to St. Vincent Charity hospital. The six other trucks returned to their stations. "It was a misunderstanding," said David Grant, an assistant chief. "Naturally we are very sensitive about emergency calls from downtown locations."

* From her apartment on Detroit Ave., Lakewood, Miss Helen Anonymus saw a stranger drive a friend's Corvette out of a parking lot the other night. She jumped into her own car and drove alongside the Corvette at a stop light. "That's a stolen car. You're not getting away with it," she told the driver. A mile farther on, she forced the Corvette to the curb. "Just give me the key and walk away," Miss Anonymous ordered — and the man did! Lakewood police vouch for this.

* Ely, Nev. — County Clerk Boyd Smith had his car struck by other vehicles six times in five years while parked in front of his home. So he moved it in front of a church down the block. Four years went by without incident so Smith, assuming his luck had changed, moved the car back in front of his house. It was hit by a truck and extensively damaged that same day.

* Kew Gardens, N.Y. — District Attorney Nat Hentel maintains a hot line for emergency calls by citizens in fighting crime. The phone rang the other evening. An Assistant DA answered the phone and heard a woman shriek, "Help me, help me, there's a mouse in my kitchen." When she was told to call the Health Department, she protested the lack of cooperation and hung up.

* Bradley Beach, N.J. — The Master Barber's local recently voted to raise the price of children's haircuts from $1.50 to $1.75, effective Nov. 14. All except barber Walter J. Nutt, who said the higher prices "are okay for a man who makes $150 a week, but for the man who works for hourly wages and has four or five dependents." Nutt said, all haircuts at his shop will cost $1 each.

* Marior, Ill. — A 73-year-old prospective bride blushed when she and her 74-year-old intended applied for a marriage license at the county clerk's office. Officials said the blush came when the bridegroom-to-be, upon being told the price of a license was $5, asked: "Do we get trading stamps with it? We save them."

* Titusville, Fla. — It's fore for eight when the Howard Miller family hits the links at the Royal Oak Golf and Country Club near here. Mr. and Mrs. Miller and all six of their children are taking golf lessons. "This seems to be about the only sport where we can be together," explained the father of this swinging family. "We all like to fish but if we go, a boat will hold just so many and some have to stay behind." Pro Bill Morgan is impressed by the rapid progress of the kids — Joseph, 17, Howard Jr., 16, Mike, 14, Debra 12, Monica, 9, and David, 5. "They all do real well," he reported. "Even the little ones can tee up the ball and give it a ride."

* Columbus, O. — The only ill effects of the Halloween candy scare in suburban Cahanna were felt by the 13-year-old boy whose joke touched it off. The boy was

SPENDING NEARS RECORD AMOUNT. A report from the Chairman of the House Appropriations Committee shows that during its Second Session the 89th Congress provided appropriations of $144 billion — consisting of $15.9 billion in supplemental requests for fiscal year 1966 (which ended last July 1); $114.4 billion in regular bills for fiscal 1967, and $13.8 billion in permanent appropriations which are approved automatically (this is mostly for interest on the national debt). This $144 billion staggers the imagination but, more importantly, except for one year during World War II, it is the largest amount ever appropriated in a single session.

Despite the huge amounts already voted, there is every indication that the Administration will submit a supplemental request in January for an additional $15 billion to finance the war in Vietnam and other programs not completely funded in this session. The Johnson's Administration's appropriation requests in this calendar year were 56% larger than those in 1960, the last year of President Eisenhower's administration. Appropriations for defense are up only 44% while those for non-defense purposes are up 64%.

It is the increased appropriations and spending for non-defense, when added to the essential increases for the war in Vietnam, that have caused the upward spiral in the costs of food, goods and services. And it will be that spending which no doubt will prompt the Administration to seek further tax increases next year.

VETERANS DAY — NOVEMBER 11th. Today we pause again to honor the men and women who have shaped our Nation's destiny. Veteran's Day, known as Armistice Day until a decade or so ago, should be a time for national rededication. It should focus our attention in those brief moments at 11 o'clock on the Christian ethic and the value of the individual life. It should recall man's struggle for God and Country, and dedicate anew a national obligation for those who, in defense of freedom, suffered lasting injury, for those who have become ill and broken, and for the widows and orphans of our deceased veterans. As we look about us, we are reminded that those first Armistice days were based too much in faith in past deeds. We had built up devotion to an idea that mankind had charged its nature and wars had ended. We soon learned in tragic fashion that men could not fight once and then forget about new challenges to peace and freedom. World War II, the Korean War, and now Vietnam have taught us that the struggle for freedom is a never ending process. And if we have matured over the years, we have learned that those who wish to live in free society must constantly exercise courage with the firmness of strength.

We should never minimize the eternal debt which our Nation owes to those who demonstrated their love for country and fought for it. Moreover, we must not forget that freedom comes only to those who want it, who work for it, and who are willing to defend it. Liberty never comes easy. There is no magical formula whereby men and women may attain and retain it. It is well to recall, too, that strong minds, great hearts, true faith and ready hands are the means whereby the lights of liberty will be kept burning.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK — NOVEMBER 6-12. Every November, during the week which includes Veterans Day, American Education Week is observed throughout the United States. The theme for this year's observance is "Education Adds Up" — to human dignity, to rational thinking, to a creative spirit, to self-reliance, to economic competence, to informed citizenship, and above all to lifelong opportunity. The purpose of American Education Week is to spotlight what the schools are doing and to remind citizens that good schools are their responsibility. Nationwide, over 30 million parents are expected to visit their schools during the week. Are you visiting yours? Do you really know what your children are being taught and how? This is your opportunity to see for yourself, and this is of the utmost importance.

HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND LOVE YOUR TEENAGER

If you've got one, you are not alone. With about thirty million teenagers in the country there are bound to be some other adults who have one too. But chances are, they feel just as isolated as you do.

Yes, being the parent of an adolescent is definitely a mixed blessing, alternately a joy and an affliction. What are these creatures who evolved from the children you thought you had? Why do they often make life so difficult?

Maybe you're aware of some of the answers. You may already know that adolescence presents more doubts and indecisions, more turmoil biologically, emotionally and socially than any other time of life. There are hormone changes, physical changes, even social strata changes that would affect the most tranquil person's equilibrium. And teens are far from tranquil.

But knowing the answers doesn't necessarily make life any easier. While your child's between the ages of ten and twenty, you're between the devil and the deep blue sea. While you've come to the end of your tether, he's still asking for more rope. Is there any way for both of you to survive with your senses and spirit intact? Yes, according to Dr. Bernice Sachs of Seattle, a psychosomatic internist (and mother of teenagers) who specializes in the field of "Ephibiatrics" — the problems of adolescence. Many people are already familiar with Dr. Sachs thru her radio and television appearances and at medical symposia sponsored by Lederle Laboratories across the country. She has helped countless parents like yourself with this simple advice: Enlist the aid of your family physician!

Medical science today knows that teens need a doctor's attention — both for actual physical care and for the treatment of psychological problems which may cause somatic illnesses, and even end in neuroses. Child-rearing methods will come and go; the pendulum swings from "permit" to "punish"; and let's be glad after all that parenthood is not a science — but the need for medical attention is now a definite, scientifically established fact, providing you with a solid rock on which to build your parental role. The family physician first of all will be able to distinguish between your teen's "normal instability" and any clinical problems he or she may have. No layman, even a parent, can possibly tell the difference between a teen's psychosomatic self-concern and the ordinary self-love that's to be expected from that age group. Yet, according to Dr. Sachs, many parents needlessly reproach themselves for that very inability, and thus compound the problem. Similarly a physician can detect hysterical symptoms, due to factors you might not suspect, long before they become overt and dangerous. For example, you may have had the experience of telling your daughter, for the umpteenth time, to "Stand up Straight!" and received a flood of tears in reply. You don't know why, and she won't tell you, but the doctor can find out. It may be something as simple as embarrassment over her too flat-chested, or too full-breasted, state. Or it may be something as serious as painful menses actually requiring medical correction.

Moreover, warns Dr. Sachs, teenagers have a habit of picking up old wives tales and hugging them to heart. They may develop permanent neuroses, psychosomatic illnesses or hysterical symptoms just from worrying about the effects of "secret sins." A teen-ager who believes that acne results from masturbation will suffer needlessly, and perhaps endlessly, over a few pimples. Again, an adolescent will take great pains to keep you in the dark, while a doctor can make short work of such an out-of-proportion problem.

In fact, there are all sorts of strange ideas stewing around in the brain of that youngster of yours. Dr. Sachs' advice is to let your family physician straighten them out before they lead to permanent neuroses, psychosomatic illnesses, or just plain faulty maturation.

But between doctor visits, what can you do to make life easier for you and your teen? In her symposium lectures Dr. Sachs offers some suggestions:

First, understand. No matter how physically or emotionally healthy, your teenager is involved in a necessary struggle for emancipation, a conflict involving the wish to be grown up and the chore of actually growing up. If he or she lashes out at you in the process, it's only because you're the safest person to do it to. Your love is guaranteed; it's fortunate for both of you that it is.

Second, don't be afraid to establish guidelines. Everybody needs them, you included, and most certainly young people have to have them. But not always as rules — as references. According to Dr. Sachs, the difference between discipline and punishment is that one teaches how to play the game of life, and the other imposes the penalty for playing badly. It's a good differentiation to remember.

And finally, accept this period for what it is — a critical time in your child's life, and one in which the outcome is not assured. Adolescents often require professional, medical attention. With that provided, they do not require your unlimited worry. In short, with a physician "in your family" you can be free to stop worrying and just love your teenager.

Met Opera National Co. Here

The Metropolitan Opera National Company comes to Cleveland for its second season, November 16 thru 19, in the Music Hall, presenting four evening performances of four newly-created productions, under the auspices of the Northern Ohio Opera Association.

The curtain-raiser on Wednesday, November 16, will be Mozart's "The Marriage of Figaro"; with Puccini's "La Boheme" on Thursday; Verdi's "La Traviata" Friday; and closing Saturday night with Britten's "The Rape of Lucretia".

Kirk Browning will direct "The Marriage of Figaro" in sets by Ming Cho Lee and costumes by Jane Greenwood. Yoshio Aoyama is the director for "La Traviata" designed by Rolf Gerard, and Guenther Rennert for "The Rape of Lucretia", with sets and costumes by Alfred Siercke. Jose Quintero will direct "La Boheme" with sets designed by David Hays and costumes by Jane Greenwood.

Mr. Quintero, Mr. Hays and Miss Greenwood all have many Broadway assignments to their credit. Mr. Quintero and Mr. Hays worked together on Eugene O'Neill's "Marco Millions" for the company's initial season. Mr. Hays also has designed settings and lighting for fifteen other Quintero-directed productions including "Long Day's Journey into Night", "Desire Under the Elms", "Strange Interlude", and the American premiere of O'Neill's "Hughie".

Kirk Browning's work is familiar to many opera lovers through NBC-TV opera which he directed for many years. Some of his works include the famous production of "Amahl and The Night Visitors", "War and Peace", "Don Giovanni", "Der Roserkavalier", and "Lucia Di Lammermoor". He has staged productions for the New York City Opera, and Baltimore Civic Opera.

Yoshio Aoyama returns to the National Company after his highly acclaimed production of "Madame Butterfly" last season. He will be producing his first non-orient influenced work in this country. Mr. Aoyama has been associated with Tokyo's famous Kabuki theater and directed "Tannhauser", "La Boheme" and "Werther" with European guest singers in Japan.

Guenther Rennert has an international reputation as director and will be remembered for his witty stylized production of Rossini's "Cinderella" in last season's repertoire.

The Company will perform "La Boheme" and "La Traviata" in Italian, with "The Marriage of Figaro" and "The Rape of Lucretia" performed in the English.

Tickets are now on sale at the Music Hall Box Office, St. Clair Avenue, at East 6th Street, 44114. Tickets are $6.50 to $2.50. There is no tax.

Peace Corps To Test On November 12

Cleveland area residents interested in putting their skills to use in developing nations around the world are invited to take the Peace Corps placement test at 9 a.m. on Saturday, November 12, at 4240 Main Post Office Bldg., W. 3rd and Prospect.

The Peace Corps uses the placement test to determine how an applicant can best be utilized overseas. The test measures general aptitude and the ability to learn a language, not education or achievement. (If test scores indicate a limited language-learning ability, for example, the Peace Corps tries to place the applicant in an English-speaking country.) The placement test requires no preparation and is non-competitive — an applicant can neither pass nor fail.

The application form, not the placement test, is the most important factor in the selection of Volunteers. Persons interested in serving in the Peace Corps must fill out an application, if they have not already done so, and present it to the tester before taking the test. Applications may be obtained from local post office or from the Peace Corps, Washington, D.C. 20525. The placement test takes about an hour and a half.

10th Mid-American Boat Show To Be Largest

Reflecting the continuous growth of pleasure boating, the 10th Anniversary Mid-American Boat Show in Cleveland Public Hall will be the largest such show ever staged by the Lake Erie Marine Trades Association.

Set for its 10-day cruise, Jan. 20-29, the 1967 edition will fill more than five acres of exhibit space, according to Irv Gray, general manager.

The tenth show will be more than 60 percent larger than the first one in 1958, Gray said. The exclusively marine exhibition has grown into one of the nation's largest boat shows, he added.

An estimated 400 boats, worth more than a million dollars, and related water sports equipment will be on display. Every type of boat imaginable — fishing boats, giant cruisers, sailboats, houseboats, pontoon boats — will be anchored for boarding.

Special emphasis will be placed on gadgets and accessories, Gray said. There will be literally thousands of nautical items included in the array.

Boating's growth is shown in figures released by the Ohio Division of Watercraft. Last year, 155,000 boat licenses were issued to Sunday sailors, up nine percent from 1964. Ohio is the nation's seventh boating state in license rankings.

Raffles - Lotteries

The Ohio constitution forbids lotteries. The statutes spell out the tests for determining a lottery — a consideration must be given (i.e. a ticket purchased), a prize is to be awarded, and the winning of the prize must be determined by chance.

State law also provides that no person "shall write, print, or publish an account of a lottery or scheme of chance, by whatever name, style, or title... or the price of a ticket, or showing where a ticket may be or has been obtained, or giving publicity to such lottery or scheme of chance."

Penalty for conviction is a fine of not more than $500, or up to six months in jail, or both. Violators can be prosecuted in each county where such publication is circulated.

Immigration Under New Law

An important change in U.S. immigration law was made in October 1965 when Congress declared that foreign workers could enter the United States only if they did not displace American workers and if they would not "adversely affect" the wages and working conditions of American workers similarly employed. As a result, the United States Department of Labor must issue a certificate in the case of each immigrant who comes to the United States and who does not have close relatives here, stating that his coming will not displace an American worker and will not adversely affect American labor.

During the first six months the new law has been in effect, these provisions operated to reduce immigration. To speed up the procedure, the Department of Labor has issued a list of jobs for which no individual certificate is necessary because it has been established that there is a shortage of persons in the United States in these job categories. On this list are persons with academic training in the sciences, architecture, engineers and other professionals; also persons who come to the United States to work for religious organizations and who themselves will do religious work. Another group, only very recently included, consists of highly skilled craftsmen as, for instance, bakers, cabinet makers, chefs, machinists, tool and die makers and a number of other categories known to be in short supply.

By far the largest single group of workers accepted by the United States Department of Labor for admission to this country since the new immigration law went into effect on December 1, 1965, has been live-in maids. These women constitute about 30 percent of the labor clearances approved. Mostly they have been cleared to come here for jobs offered them in the big cities of the East, Midwest and Far West. The South has indicated no special need for maids, with ample native workers available. A considerable number of skilled secretaries have also been cleared for admission by the Labor Department.

All these workers — except for the professionals — have had job offers and been assured that their wages would be no less than those of comparable Americans doing the same work. Employers requesting visas for potential employees have had to show they could not obtain local American workers because of labor scarcity. Since it is quite difficult for persons abroad to obtain job sponsors before they arrive, it is expected that the number of immigrants without relatives in the United States will decrease in the future. Visa Office statistics for the first several months that the law has been in operation show a decline in so-called nonpreference immigrants who also require a labor clearance. On the other hand, the new law has made it easier for immigrants who have close relatives in the United States to come here. Officials of the Labor Department have estimated that during the first year of the law's operation some 53,000 skilled immigrants will be cleared by it for admittance. None of these, they say, will supplant American workers. More than 2,000 State Employment Offices of the United States Employment Service are assigned to investigate and inform the Labor Department of the labor needs of their area. It is on the basis of these reports that the Department issues its approvals for immigration visas.
