LODGES COMPETE FOR $2500 IN JUBILEE DRIVE

Florians Midwest Cage Meet Plans Set

TOURNEY GAINS NATIONAL FLAVOR; CLEVELAND, INDIANAPOLIS ENTERED

South Chicago, Ill.—Arrangements for the oncoming Kay Jay basketball tourney to be held in South Chicago on Feb. 11 and 12 were thrown into high gear last week when it was discovered that several new teams were coming to the meet. From now on we can consider the annual affair with national distinction, for it was established that the Cleveland St. Joes and the St. Aloysius' team of Indianapolis, Ind., have expressed a desire to compete in the classic. From every indication, we can expect as high as twenty entries in the various divisions.

HONORARY PREXY LEADERS HOLD FIRST IN STEVES' LOOP; TAVERNS WIN CLOSE SET

FRANK OPEKA
At the recent Supreme Board meeting Frank Opeka, retiring president of the KSKJ, was voted honorary president of the Union for life.

Chicago, Ill.—The closest match in the Steves' recent roll-offs was between Tomazin Tavern and Parkview Laundry, the latter losing three games. The winners won the first game by 11 pins, the second by 14 and the third by only one pin. The leaders lost no ground as the second-place Perko's Inn also lost three games. Helping the Tavern team take three were Wencel with his 215 game, "Butch" with 205, Tomazin's 192, Arbanas' 190, and, of course, there was "Mac" with a 489 series. Strupek's 530 and Anton Kremesec's 519 were top scores for the losers.
