Memo from Madeline...

by Madeline D. Debevec

Clarissa Mira Kos

Congratulations to Chris Mihelin Kos and her husband, Martin Kos who this year are the proud parents of a beautiful baby girl. Her name is Clarissa Mira Kos who is now 18 pounds.

Chris is the daughter of the well-known owners of Mihelin Travel Bureau on St. Clair. All relatives in Cleveland and Croatia and Slovenia are proud of the new addition to the well-known family and travel agents.

Congratulations to all!

Dean Robert Jurecic graduated on June 23 from Lenape High School at the age of 17. Besides receiving many awards and honors, he was the recipient of a scholarship to the School of International Studies at the American University in Washington, D.C.

Dean is the son of Robert and Beverly Jurecic of Mt. Laurel, NJ and the grandson of Louis and Mollie Jurecic of Lyndhurst, Ohio.

We wish Dean much happiness and success in the future.

Sandra Monica Jokic becomes MD and Mrs. On May 22 Sandra Monica Jokic graduated from Case Western Reserve University,

Sandra Monica Jokic and Joseph Paul Fakult

School of Medicine.

She formerly resided on East 60 St. in Cleveland with her parents Augustin and Tonka Jokic. The Jokics are now residents of Willoughby Hills, Ohio.

Sandra graduated from St. Vitus grade school and Villa Angela High School. She will be doing her residency in internal medicine at University Hospitals of Cleveland.

On June 4th Sandra Jokic was united in marriage to Joseph Paul Fakult at the Immaculate Conception Church in Willoughby. Bishop A. Edward Pevec officiated at the marriage ceremony. A reception was held at the LaVera Party Center.

Joseph received his M.B.A. in Mechanical Engineering from Case Western Reserve University. He is employed at Lincoln Electric.

The happy couple will live next door to Dr. Sandy's parents on Chardon Rd.

Many American Home readers will recognize Mr. Jokic as the owner of Jokic Fence Co.

Congratulations and may God bless you both.

Conrad Mejač objects to closing Slovenian V.O.A.

Editor:

As you are probably aware, the management of the Voice of America (VOA) is planning to consolidate its broadcasts with those of Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty in order to eliminate overlaps. However, it is not doing so sensibly and fairly.

Instead of logically cutting across the board, it is discriminatorily proposing to terminate outright the Slovene and Georgian Services only, while leaving the broadcasts in some languages and the administrative superstructure intact.

In the enclosed letter that I sent to the Director of VOA, Mr. Geoffrey Cowan, I tried to explain these inequities on the basis of my 37 1/2 years of experience in the VOA Slovene Section, 30 years of which I was in charge of that section.

I would appreciate it if you asked your staff to evaluate the validity of my comments and then call upon the management of VOA to find more equitable and less damaging alternative reductions without entirely terminating any language or sponsor a congressional resolution to that effect.

Sincerely yours,
Conrad P. Mejač
Washington, DC

Mr. Mejač's three page letter says, in part, "Even though Slovenia is and was in the forefront of the fight in the area for human and national rights and for political pluralism as well as for economic stability, it still has not fully realized a truly democratic system, which it is seeking to build, and is still faced with many problems similar to those of other newly independent states. In this area the VOA broadcasts are a very important tool for disseminating information."

"These broadcasts have a very strong symbolic significance and create a very special tie with the United States that by far transcends their mere news value. The fact that VOA speaks to its listeners in their native languages conveys to them a message that the United States values them, understands them, stands by them, and shares their hopes for the achievement of the democracy and world peace that — as they well know — only the strength of the United States has been able to preserve. No other radio program carries such an intrinsic message to the people of Slovenia."

Slovenia has an extremely important geopolitical position: it serves as the crossroad between West and East and North and South..."

Family reunion in Lemont

Summertime is a perfect time for family reunions and the Slovenian Cultural Center invites everyone to come to Lemont, Illinois on Sunday, August 14 with families and friends.

Everything will be there to assure a wonderful family reunion holiday. In the morning come for Mass at the grotto, have lunch outdoors on the hill and then enjoy games and music. The weather is always good on "the hill," with cool breezes and lots of shade!

The Slovenian Cultural Center is celebrating its fourth annual picnic and have planned some special highlights. First, is the gathering of all the people at the new construction site, as you enter the Slovenian Franciscan Father's grounds on Main Street in Lemont, Illinois, and from there we will proceed to the beautiful grotto with songs and prayers being led by our youngsters of Slovenian School in their native dress.

Mass will be dedicated to the Slovenian families of the USA. A special memorial tribute will be made to those in our families who have gone to their eternal rest but are remembered as our pioneers.

Cooks will be serving delicious barbequed pork and chicken from noon on... with many extra treats from the kitchen and bar.

The sounds of music and singing will come from the bandstand and happy shouts will be heard from the balina courts as the annual SCC Balina Tournament progresses with prizes for the top scorers. For the children there will be special games and sports that will earn them exciting prizes, too. All in all, the day is planned for family fun!

As a part of the fund-raising effort, the Slovenian Cultural Center will award two free tickets from Chicago (or another gateway city) to Ljubljana to some lucky winner. The tickets will be on Business Class, compliments of Austrian Airlines. Winners will be announced at the picnic. Wonderful array of cash and material prizes will also be given out including 5 prizes of $100 each.

Although this day is planned for summer fun, the Slovenian Cultural Center is not forgetting the reason for the fund-raiser, that is, the finalizing of construction on the Center that is now in its second phase of building. Everyone is invited to visit the Center, see it and hear more about completion plans and to participate in some of the financial projects such as the Lipa Tree Memorial.

Information and descriptive literature will be available at Lemont on August 14th and/or through the Slovenian Cultural Center at Box 634, Lemont, IL 60439.

representative from Ohio to place in a GuyRex national contest.

Contestants were scored in the categories of personal interview wherein questions were posed to the state delegates by English teachers, public speaking, active wear and evening wear.

Miss Dagg said, "The competition was tough, the friends I made - tremendous! It was an experience of a lifetime. The memories will last forever." She also said, "In beauty contests, there will always be someone prettier, a more perfect body, or a better personality, but no one will match my perseverance and determination to succeed in life." Miss Dagg's advice to teenagers today: "Recognize your responsibilities and accept them; realize your goals and strive to achieve them. Believe in yourself."

Miss Dagg will be making a special guest appearance at the Miss Mentor Pageant at Great Lakes Mall on Saturday, August 27. She will be speaking on "What it's like to compete in a National Pageant."

Miss Dagg is the 18-year-old daughter of Kenneth and Louise Dagg, and granddaughter of Mirko and Justina Vombergar, and niece of Dr. Mirko Vombergar of Euclid.

She is a recent honor-student graduate of Notre Dame Cathedral Latin High School, where she was very active in various activities and volunteer work.

She will be attending Bowling Green State University this fall.

Congratulations to a very talented and successful young lady. Best of luck in all your future endeavors.

METROPOLITAN SAVINGS BANK OF CLEVELAND

In last Sunday's Cleveland Plain Dealer there was a very interesting feature article beginning on the front page. It's about the shortage of priests in the Roman Catholic Church.

Of course, it mentions the reasons: celibacy, non-admission of females, etc. But what drew my attention was what the Cleveland bishop, Anthony M. Pilla said, "(I am a priest today)... because my mother and father taught me that it was a good thing to do with my life." Bishop Pilla and others believe the motivations that once nudged young men toward a life of service to God - encouragement from family and society's notion of the priesthood as a noble and desirable vocation — have declined in the late 20th century.

This is exactly what Father Bernardin Sušnik, a Franciscan priest in Lemont, Ill. talked about in his sermon when we were there for the Fourth of July weekend with the Bishop Slomšek Circle. Father Sušnik is the editor of the Slovenian religious magazine "Ave Maria," printed for the past 86 years in Lemont. He has a rare talent to make listeners really pay attention. The "down-home" style (prav po domače), expressions make it easy for everybody to understand. I thought it would also be interesting to the readers of this paper to dwell upon.

Don't stop. Continue reading. You won't be sorry.

I am translating from my tape recorder:

"Yesterday I was making the point, and I'm repeating it now, that there is such a shortage of priests and because of this shortage we feel that the Slovenian word will be extinguished while I'm still alive. Calls to the priesthood grow in the family, and only the family can nurture it. There is no sense to thinking that in hard times, somehow, there will be a rise in religious vocations. This is not so."

A priest can encourage a religious candidate, but it is the parent's obligation to nurture the call. That is to say they should not only prepare the child for the vocational career of the world, such as financial, scientific, or whatever, but also show him the ability and the greatness of the religious life, and I underscore the religious vocation because I am not only talking about priests and brothers, but also nuns and sisters which you all expect in the schools, but unfortunately, we don't have enough!

You know, a thought came to my mind, that we should do something if we want these pilgrimages like this to accomplish something. What good does it do if we go back home the same as we came? What if this pilgrimage would become an encouragement to us to start some activity. I think that the priesthood is a gift from God. He calls whomever he wants. Nonetheless it is the parents who should culture it, water it, so that it grows.

Then the child can be mature enough to make up his own mind. But to have that grace of the call and gift of maturity for the family to know how to culture and obtain it...

It came to my mind when I went through some old issues of Ave Maria, which Fr. Basilij took care of, maybe some 40 years ago, and I found articles of "living rosary," an action of which members obligated themselves to pray each day a decade of the rosary. This was organized through letters and so forth. I am not thinking of anything like that, but what if each one of us would promise to himself to pray a decade of the rosary each day, how long does this take? for the religious vocations and our families, so that they would know how to nurture them. We're celebrating the year of "the family."

Only one bus = 50 persons. Fifty decades, that's ten rosaries. I see two buses here.

That's one hundred decades each day. And if we add those who came with their own automobiles and those who came from local places, we could say that we can count about 30 rosaries a day. And if each one of us gets another person — just one person — = 60 rosaries. Do you think that Our Lady is deaf? That she won't hear us, that she won't pass on our petitions? We don't expect the religious calls to double up tomorrow or that a year from now there will be so many that we wouldn't know what to do with them. They grow slow, and they need a lot of watering and nurturing before they come to their goal. And when we think that it reached its goal, that's when the journey starts. Only then will this person start to show the fruits of our labor (prayers).

This is one of the ideas that is possible to do. Let us not go home and talk about how nice the pilgrimage was; that the weather was cooperating; we met some friends that we haven't seen for some time, and the mosquitoes bit us a little, and that we're going to see each other again next year. If this pilgrimage causes us to do something then it will be a success.

If you have a better idea, come out with it. I think that for a good idea, there won't be a problem to do it. Until I hear any other idea, I'll stick to mine, the way I explained it here. Let us be conscious of our collective obligations. Responsibility in not only for ourselves but also for those who will follow us.

Let me finish in the hope these words will bear some fruit. I wish you not only a pleasant stay here at Marija Pomagaj, but also a pleasant and a safe trip home, and especially action on the united effort to combat the current crisis in the religious vocation.

P.S. — It was nice to see after 32 years in Australia, the Franciscan Father Basilij. He was a dedicated editor of the monthly Ave Maria in the early 50s and has a lot of friends here in the USA, including myself. We traveled together on the same ship coming to America a few days before Christmas in 1949. "Father Basilij, hvala za lepe spomine."

GRANDMA'S TOMATO PUDDING
 15 medium-sized tomatoes (about 5 pounds), peeled and quartered
 1 cup packed dark brown sugar
 1 6-ounce can tomato paste
 1 teaspoon salt
 6 white-bread slices, cut into 1-inch cubes (about 3 cups)
 1 cup margarine or butter (2 sticks), melted

About 1-1/2 hours before serving:

1. In 3-quart saucepan over medium heat, heat tomatoes to boiling, stirring occasionally. Reduce heat to low; cover and simmer until tomatoes are soft, about 10 minutes. Uncover saucepan and cook 15 minutes longer, until tomatoes are slightly thickened, stirring often. Stir in brown sugar, tomato paste, and salt.

2. Preheat oven to 375°F. Arrange bread cubes in 3-quart casserole. Pour melted margarine or butter over bread cubes; top with tomato mixture. Bake 35 to 40 minutes until hot and bubbly. Serve hot. Makes 10 accompaniment servings.

What a grand day for our picnic on Wednesday, June 29 at the SNPJ grounds. Everyone enjoyed their dinner which was served with ample portions. Thanks to Sophie Mazi and her hard-working crew. I also heard a lot of comments as to how fast we served all the people. (We try).

Thanks to Ann Otonicar for selling the most tickets for our picnic to her group. Winners of the raffle were (are you ready for this?) George Knaus, Josephine Lokar and Al Bozic and Josephine Gabrenja.

Welcome to new members George Besle, Bill Friml and Mary Batic. A "hello" to John and Hermine Strancar who are now at the Rae-Ann Nursing Home in Geneva, and to John Eppich who is at the Aristocrat South in Parma Hts.

At our July meeting we had Laura Whitmeyer and Judy Foley-Sawranski from CEI speak to us.

Collinwood 'Homecoming' in Aug.

In conjunction with its "75th Anniversary" celebration, the Collinwood Slovenian Home will be having their annual "Homecoming" on Sunday, August 28.

This year they will be honoring Mike Wojtila as "Musician of the Year."

Starting at 2 p.m., various orchestras will be performing throughout the day and evening in both halls. Among them will be: Lenny Andexlers Rythmairies, The Tony Fortuna Orchestra, Frank Moravcik and the Royaltones, Zeke & Charlie, Bob Kravos Orchestra and the Mike Wojtila Orchestra.

Also, the various Button Box Orchestras will be providing music for your listening and dancing pleasure. Among these will be: The Fairport Button Box Club, Button Box Buddies, The Northern Ohio Button Box Club, and the Holmes Avenue Buttonaires.

Refreshments and roast beef and sausage sandwiches will be available. A bake sale will be held on the first floor.

After our July meeting a group of 93 went to "Albie's" for dinner. For the entertainment we would like to thank the following: Louis Prebevsek, Fred Scolaris and Joe Zgongc. You fellows made the afternoon very pleasant. Another thank you to Ann Otonicar for getting this party on the road.

At our August meeting on the 9th we will be celebrating the 50th wedding anniversary of Adolph and Jane Somrak. If you or someone you know are celebrating a 50th anniversary, contact Mitzi Yeray at 951-9926. Also at our August gathering we will have presenters from St. Vincent Charity Hospital speaking on Elder Care.

Call Dorothy Silc if you know of someone in the hospital or is sick, and she will send them a get-well card. Call her at 481-6071.

Want to become a member? Then join us. —H.V.

Admission is free and all are welcome. Please show your support for this annual event by your attendance. We hope to see you there.

Matt Kajfez
President

Thanks

The St. Vitus Slovenian Language School wishes to express its thanks for the successful summer picnic held on July 24 at Slovenska Pristava in Harpersfield, Ohio.

Approximately 260 dinners were served. Father Franci Petrič, diocese of Ljubljana (Slovenia), and the current editor of the diocesan newspaper "Družina" (Family), was the main celebrant due to Father Joseph Božnar's being called to Canada for the funeral of his uncle there.

We thank all parents and friends of the school for volunteering their time and talents to make this event a success.

The net proceeds of this summer picnic are used to defray the operating costs of the school.

St. Vitus Alumni honors 3

Stormy weather the beginning of the year caused the cancellation of our board meeting and delay of this article.

The Alumni officers' duty is to keep our members informed of our accomplishments.

The following generous donors gave a "lift" to four deserving students to enable them to continue their education and achieve their goal.

A $500 scholarship award from Helen Levstek in memory of her father went to Joie Kubek who entered St. Joseph's Academy.

A combined $500 scholarship from our 1993 Hall of Fame Honorees, Rev. Fathers Tomc and Cimperman in thanksgiving for 50 years in the priesthood went to Stephen Vucic who enrolled at St. Ignatius.

Two alumni scholarships of $500 each were awarded to St. Vitus students Shannon Fakadej who enrolled at St. Augustine's Academy and John Kotolac who entered Benedictine High.

In our days there were no awards, but tuition was not high.

By the Hall of Fame nominating committee of which Al Koporc is chairman the following were selected:

Dr. Anthony Spech, Mrs. Antoinette "Antoncic" McGrath, and posthumously Dr. John Dejak.

Catherine Dejak, widow of the good doctor was overwhelmed with emotion and graciously accepted the nomination in behalf of her husband.

Our loved and highly respected physician Dr. Spech who served our Slovenian community after Dr. Dejak for many years, also accepted.

Mrs. McGrath reluctantly accepted and stated in her humble way she wasn't deserving of so great an honor.

Hopefully this article brings you up to date, dear alumni members and keep in mind that Sunday, Oct. 30 is the great day these special people will be inducted into the St. Vitus Hall of Fame. Deserving of this honor? You bet!

Complete information on this coming special event will be mailed to you.

In closing may I remind you that stamps and stationery have to be purchased by our club, so if you have any extra 'moola' lying around, just slip it in the same envelope with your membership dues. That gesture will help our treasury and be sincerely appreciated.

Forgotten treasure?

I enjoyed reading Frank Cerar's article on the shortage of priests in the coming generations. But while dwelling on the future, it might be wise not to forget the present.

Nurturing and showing signs of appreciation for what we have is undoubtedly a good idea. Instead of being combative and critical of priests for their parish actions (that we might disagree with), it would be a wise idea to sit down and think about where their thoughts are coming from and the reasons behind their actions.

Sometimes we never realize how lucky we are until it is too late.

Priests are human and need support and understanding, too.

There has been negative publicity for a few of the "rotten tomatoes" on the vine, but you have to be careful not to throw away the good fruit with the bad, and disregard those doing a tremendous job.

We must vigorously support the good priests we have at present so as not to discourage them in the future. It is not an easy life. Everyone needs a pat on the back every once-in-a-while. Everyone likes to hear a compliment now and then.

While worrying about the future, let's not ignore the wonderful treasures we have.

—James V. Debevec

VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE

Slovenski parlament še vedno globoko razklan — Pretekli četrtek opozicija protestno zapustila sejo DZ

Pretekli četrtek so poslanci SLS, SDSS in SND ter samostojna poslanska skupina sejo državnega zbora zapustili. Vzrok temu dejanju s strani opozicijskih strank je bil od vlade predlagan zakon o agenciji RS za platični promet, nadziranje in informiranje. Ta agencija naj bi prevzela skupaj z računskim sodiščem naloge dosenanje Službe družbenega knjigovodstva. Opozicija nasprotuje od vlade predlaganemu dopolnilu, da bi moralna agencija o svojem delu redno obveščati vladne, in tudi dopolnilu, da naj bi bo tem zakonom novo imenovan nadzorni svet v roku 30 dnih odločal o potrditvi dosenanjih vodilnih delavcev SDK, torej tudi o generalni direktrici Romani Logar.

Opozicija je vladu očitala, da želi s tem zakonom prevzeti popolno oblast v državi, če ne kar diktature. Hkrati meni opozicija, kot poroča Slovenec pretekli petek, da želi vladu prevzeti nadzor nad javnimi finančami, s kadrovskimi spremembami v SDK pa želi prikriti divje lastnjenje in krajo družbenega premoženja. V vladni koaliciji sodelujejo LDS, SKD in ZL. Tudi na petkovi seji opozicija ni sodelovala pri obravnavanju tega zakona, je pa bila navzoča in udeležena ob obravnavanju drugih zadev.

Nekaj napredka v zvezi z Razkrižjem

Pretekli petek je zunanj minister Lojze Peterle obiskal Razkrižje. Med obiskom je Peterle Razkrižanom zagotovil, da postopek priključitve razkriške župnije pod mariborsko administraturo že poteka. Skliceval se je na informacije, ki jih je dobil na nedavnem obisku v Vatikanu. Zatrdil je, da Razkrižje ni nikoli ni bilo predmet trgovanja med Slovenijo in Hrvaško. Pojasnil je, da se v svetovni diplomaciji vsa vprašanja, tudi verska, rešijo po ratifikaciji državnih meja.

S Peterletovim pojasnilom mnogi Razkrižani niso bili zadovoljni. Zahtevali so, naj se vprašanje Razkrižja reši čim prej in naj ne čaka na sporazum o meji med Hrvaško in Slovenijo.

Skupina Razkrižanov se je pretekli petek v Ljubljani srečala z notranjim ministrom Andrejem Šterom. »Minister Šter je Razkrižanom zatrdil, da ta kraj ni bil nikoli predmet razprav ob določanju meje s Hrvaško, izpostavil vprašanje odgovornosti tistih, ki lahko opletajo s težkimi besedami, in izrazil prepričanje, da je Razkrižje slovensko že zato, ker tam živijo zavedni Slovenci.

Razkrižani so ogorčeni nad samovoljnim ravnanjem hrvaškega župnijskega upravitelja Stjepana Slavička, ki po 40 letih na Razkrižju še ne zna slovensko.

Posnetek na desni kaže skupino predsednikov vlad, katerih države so včlanjene v trik. Srednjeevropski pobud. Zbrali so se v Trstu 15. in 16. julija, v tem času sta se sestala slovenski premier dr. Janez Drnovšek (na desni na sliki) in italijanski predsednik vlade Silvio Berlusconi. Berlusconi je dejal, da Italija ne nasprotuje, da bi Slovenija postala članica Evropske zveze, zelo ultimativno do Slovenije pa je govoril visoki predstavnik italijanskega zunanjega ministrstva. Kratke vesti

Se eno vabilo papežu: Na seji 14. julija Slovenske škofovske konference, so slovenski škofovi ponovno vabili papeža Janeza Pavla II., naj pride na obisk v Slovenijo. Predlagali so, naj bi bil ta obisk čim prej, če mogoče leta 1995 ali 1996.

Pastoracija Slovencev po svetu: Na seji SŠK 14. julija je bila na dnevnem redu tudi pastoracija po svetu. Iz Družine 24. julija: »V prihodnjih mesecih bodo slovenski škofovi obiskali rojake po svetu...«

Lek bo izvozil zdravila v ZDA: Pred kratkim je bila končana inšpekcijska, ki jo je opravila Ameriška uprava za hrano in zdravila (Food and Drug Administration) v Lekovih proizvodnih obratih v Ljubljani. Inšpektorji so ugotovili, poroča Slovenec 18. julija, da so obrati, prozivodna ter dokumentacija v skladu z zahtevnimi standardi. To bo Leku omogočilo izvoz zdravil na ameriški trg že letos, s tem izvozom pa bodo ZDA že letos postale drugo najpomembnejše tržišče za Lek. Gre za prvo tovrstno inšpekcijsko, ki jo je opravila FDA v deželah, ki jih ZDA uvrščajo v vzhodno Evropo.

Vaclav Havel v Sloveniji: Češki predsednik Vaclav Havel je 17. julija z ženo prispeval na trideseti zasebni obisk v Slovenijo. Preživel bo letni oddih. V Slovenijo ga je povabil predsednik Milan Kučan, ki je z ženo Havlo pričkal na brniškem letališču.

Slovenija se poteguje za Davisov pokal: Slovenska teniška ekipa je premagala Finsko in tako napredovala v tretji krog tekme za letošnji slovenski Davisov pokal.

Nova univerzitetna knjižnica — Parlament razpravlja o gradnji nove univerzitetne knjižnice v Ljubljani. Po vladnem predlogu naj bi gradnja končala čez 4 leta, torej 1998. So pa še spori glede tega pomembnega objekta. Izgleda, da dela težave mariborska univerza, prav tako je sporen delež k projektu, ki ga naj prispeva mesto Ljubljana. Vsekakor pa postaja jasno, da nesporno potrebna knjižnica vendarle bo zgrajena.

Igor Bavčar vodi komisijo JBTZ — Pretekli petek je komisija za volitve in imenovanja pri državnem zboru imenovala Igorja Bavčarja, nekdanjega notranjega ministra, za predsednika komisije, ki bo vodila preiskavo o političnih odgovornosti posameznih takratnih nosilcev javnih funkcij pri aretaciji, odsodbi in izvršitvi odsodb proti Janezu Janši, Ivanu Borštnerju, Davidu Tasiću in Franciju Zavrlu. Bavčarjev namestnik bo Miroslav Geržina (SKD).

Slovenec svetovni prvak — Celjan Gregor Cerjak je na 5. svetovnem mladinskem prvenstvu na Portugalskem s 8,04 m dolgim skokom postal svetovni mladinski prvak.
