A MOTHER'S PRAYER

Let him dream a little, God—
Dreaming makes the world go round;
But let his dreams be those that make
A city of a mound.

Let him play a little, God—
Playing tends to spice life's span;
But let his playing always find
The boy in the man.

Let him work a little, God—
Work bestows a steady mind;
But let him learn the joy of work
And never know the grind.

Let him weep a little, God—
Tolerance in tears is bred;
But keep his sorrows free from shame,
His tears in strength be shed.

These gifts I pray Thee grant;
Fill with these the brimming cup;
But ground his life in love, dear God;

Keep him looking up.
—Selected.
