ŠTIRIDESETLETNICA MASNIŠTVA

Joliet, Ill. — Rev. John Plevnik, župnik fari sv. Jožefa, Joliet, Ill. in duhovni vodja K. S. K. Jedinote bo v nedeljo 20. junija obhajal štiridesetletnico mašništva.

Po izrecni želji slavljenca se bo ta jubilej obhajal na tihem. Tisti dan ne bo druge slavnosti kakor cerkvena. V nedeljo ob šesti uri bo slovenska petra sv. maša, katero bo daroval slavljenec ob asistenci domačih kaplanov. Članice Bratovščine sv. Rožnega Venca, Dekliške Marijine Družbe in Dekliške

Družbe sv. Neže, in člani moškega, mladeničkega in deškega društva Presv. Imena bodo prejeli sv. obhajilo pri šesti sv. maši, in ga darovali v časni in večni blagor svojega dobrega župnika.

Naslednjo nedeljo, dne 27. junija bodo farani cerkve sv. Jožefa priedili v počast Farnemu Plevniku javen program v Rivals parku, kjer se bo isti dan začela farna veselica ali "karnival," v korist cerkve sv. Jožefa. Program se bo vrnil v nedeljo popoldne. Nastopili bodo: cerkveni pevski zbor cerkve sv. Jožefa, slovenska šolska godba, in par drugih organizacij, ki bodo s svojo umetnostjo počastili slavljenca in razveselili navzoče občinstvo.

Rev. John Plevnik je bil rojen 28. avgusta 1873 na Dobrovi pri Ljubljani. V Ameriko je došel še kot mlad študent. Modroslovne in bogoslovne šole je izdelal z odliko v St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, Md. V mašniku ga je posvetil prevz. kardinal Gibbons dne 17. junija 1897. Prvo sv. daritev je opravil v cerkvi sv. Jožefa, Joliet, Ill., dne 20. junija 1897.

V prvi dobi svojega delovanja kot duhovnik si je pridobil velike zasluge s tem, da je ustanovil župnijo sv. Stefana v Chicagu in župnijo Matere Božje v Waukegan, Ill. Ob enem je pomagal Slovencem v So. Chicagu, da so si ustanovili svojo faro. V tej dobi je tudi redno obiskoval druge Slovenske raztresene po državi Illinois, Iowa in Wisconsin.

Zadnjih 22 let pa stalno deluje kot župnik na fari sv. Jožefa, Joliet, Ill. Prav je, da se farani cerkev sv. Jožefa ob tej priliki spomnijo v svojih molitvah svojega gorečega dušnega pastirja in dobrega fara gospodarja. Njegova dva duhovna pomočnika, farani in

KATOLIČANI V AMERIKI

New York, N. Y. — Število katoličanov v Zedinjenih državah se letno pomnožuje. Dočim ostale verske sekte nazajajo nazadovanje v članstvu, pa se lahko katoliška cerkev ponaša z velikim napredkom.

Skupno število katoličanov v Zedinjenih državah je znašalo do 1. januarja, 1937, lepo število 20,959,134. V enem letu se je število katoliškega prebivalstva v Zedinjenih državah pomnožilo za 436,081.

Nobena druga verska sekta v Ameriki ne more označiti tako velikega napredka. Protestantovski čascopisi priznavajo, da ima katoliška cerkev posebno privlačno silo, da ne nazaduje, pač pa napreduje.

Od leta 1926 se je število katoličanov v Zedinjenih državah pomnožilo za 2,080,412, in pomniti je potreba, da je bilo tedaj naseljevanje že ustavljeno in da so novi naseljenici prihajali v Ameriko zlasti iz katoliških dežel.

V letu 1936 je prestopilo v katoliško cerkev nič manj kot 62,671 protestantov, dočim jih je v letu 1935 prestopilo samo 1,755. Nasprotno se poroča, da so protestantovske sekte dobile iz katoliških krogov le 76 odpadencov.

V Ameriki imamo danes štiri kardinale, 14 nadškofov, 107 škofov in 31,649 katoliških duhovnov. Vseh katoliških cerkv v Zedinjenih državah je 18,526. Poleg tega vzdržujejo katoličani v Zedinjenih državah 199 kolegiiev, višjih šol 688, ljudskih šol pa 3,127.

Poleg tega pa vzdržujejo katoličani na svoje lastne stroške nič manj 327 sirotišnic za otroke, ki nimajo očeta ne matere, vzdržujejo 298 bolnišnic, kjer dobjivo revni bolniki zastonj postrežbo in vzdržujejo 177 domov za stare ljudi, kjer siromakom ni treba ničesar plačevati.

Vse te stroške za vzdrževanje šol, sirotišnic, ubožnic, univerz in drugih enakih zavodov bi morala vzdrževati vlada, toda katoličani so usmiljeni dovolj, da znajo preskrbeti za svoje ljudi. Računa se, da katoličani zadržka, na ta način se bomo na veselčenem prostoru lahko bolj dolgo zamudili, si podali roke in se kaj pogovorili.

Na članstvo našega društva pa apeliram, da vsak, kateri pride na veselico, naj se zglaši pri tajniku ali pri njegovih pomočnikih, da boli vsak pravočasno pri tikete. Sklep zadnje letne seje je bil, da vsak član(ka), spadajoč v bolniški oddelki, mora vzet za $1.00 tiketov, in oni, ki niso zavarovani za bolniško podporo pa za 50c. Ti tiketi veljajo na veselicu kot gotov denar. Kateri se pa ne bodo udeležili te veselice, bodo morali vseeno omenjeno sveto platičati v društveno blagajno; le svatovščina, delavci na veselicu in bolniki bodo proti telega. Upamo pa, da se vse članske brez izjemne udeležitev naše slavnosti, saj vendar zadnja štiri leta ni bilo nobene veselice v pred društvene blagajne in tudi ne centa posebne naklade za blagajno; vsled tega se vas pričakuje vse na veselici.

Naj pa še mimogrede omenim, da ako se vsi udeležitev, jih bo na veselicu 454 članov (ic), poleg tega pa še 265 članov našega mladinskega oddelka, torej vseh skupaj 719.

Končno nam je bo dovojeno povabiti vsa društva, ter vse naše prijatelje. Društvo sv. Lovrenca vas ne nadleguje pogostoma, toda kadar pa pri-

Naglo je torej prišel čas slavnosti 35-letnice obstanka našega društva in blagoslovitve nove zastave. Slavnost se vrši, kakor že večkrat omenjeno prihodnjo nedeljo, dne 20. junija. Spored bo sledete:

Dolžnost je naša in prav, da se v prvi vrsti zahvalimo Vsemogočnemu za vse prejete dobre, milosti in uspeh pri društvu in da se zamenimo tudi naših ranjkih spomnim v pobožni molitvi, naj jim vseumiljeni Bog podeli večni mir in pokoj. Ako bi imel vsak izmed vas pred seboj mrtvaško knjigo kot jo imam jaz, bi se jih vsak član(ka) rad spominjal pri sv. daritvi; saj imamo že veliko število onih naših sobratov in sester, ki so se že preselili v večnost.

Popoldne ob 12:30 se zbirajo društva pred Slov. Narodnim Domom na 80. cesti; nato odkorakamo v cerkev z godbo na celu kjer se vrši ob eni uru blagoslovitve zastave.

Tako zatem se pa odpeljemo na cerkvene vrte prostore v Maple Heights; ta prostor je gotovo vsem Clevelandčanom znan, zunanjosti ali udeleženci bodo pa tako šli z nami. Na teh prostorih se razvije na daljnji spored.

Prosil bi pa na tem mestu botre(ce) in tovarše (ce) ali svate zastave, da bi bili pravočasno pri sv. Lovrenca.

Tako pa je vse podalo.

Pokojnemu mladeniču in sobratu Johnu Severju Jr. v spomin

Chicago, Ill. — Lepge majniškega jutra je bilo, ko je šel nadežbeni dijak John Sever Jr. v cerkev k sv. maši, da tam počasti Boga. Ga sprejme v svoje srce pri sv. obhajilu. Bil Položen je bil k zadnjemu potom dobroj v potopu na pokopališču sv. Jožefa. Tam, v prezgodnjem grobu počiva mladenič, v katerega življenju je bil tak kristalen značaj. Koliko dobrega bi še lahko storil v teh časih za naš narod s svojim zgledom in delom! Pa je bil poklican pred svojega Stvarnika, da nad zvezdami viliha rajsko veselje.

Cerkveno pevsko društvo Adrija je prepealo "Blagor mu . . ." in "Nad zvezdami . . ." tako lepo, tako milo in vzbudljivo, da si moral vzlikniti v arcuru: Res, blagor mu, ki se je odprel v rajske višave še preden je okusil gorje tega sveta! Vsi pa tudi vemo, kako težko se je ločiti od dobrega zvestega prijatelja. Koliko težje se je počitki od ljubljenega sina! Naše iskrene sožalje Mr. in Mrs. Sever, staršem pokojnega.

Calumetski novice

Calumet, Mich. — Po dolgi, mirzli spomladni je nastopil zadnji petek v maju nenavadna vročina za ta čas. Nenavajen tako toplemu vremenu ob tem času, smo se naravnost potili zadnje dne. Drevje katero kar ni moglo poprej pognati, je naenkrat ozelenelo in črešnje, jabolka ter drugo sadje je skozi noč pognalo. Ker pa ni v navadi, da bi pri nas tako vreme dolgo časa trajalo, se je po pardnevni vročini zopet ohladilo in vzel bo govor več časa predno dobrino drug tako vroč val.

Zadnjo soboto in nedeljo v maju je dospelo na obisk na Calumet večje število bivalih Calumetčanov, kateri žive sedaj po raznih drugih mestih. Ker je bil v pondeljek, 31. maja, praznik kincanja grobov, je večinoma trgovin bil zaprtih, kar so ljudje porabili, da obiščajo svoj starši dom. Med drugimi so bili tukaj Mr. in Mrs. Lawrence Lucas iz Milwaukee, Albert Geshel, Rud. Zunich in Tony Grahek iz Detroit.

Na Hancock sta prišla dva unijska organizatorja, kateri sta poskušala organizirati delavce pri Bridgeman Russell tovarni, ki izdeluje automobile in surovo maslo. Toda nista imela mnogo uspeha, ker so ju čuvajali takoj pograbili in preprečili pred sodnika, oboljeli jih intimidacije. Ker se nista priznala krivim, je sodni obravnavo odložil do prihodnjega teden. To je prvi poskus tukaj gori, da se organizira delavce, odkar se je vrnila zadnja velika rudarska stavka leta 1918.

V pondeljek 31. maja se je mudil na Calumet marquetti škof Rt. Rev. Jos. Plagens. Podelil je birmo večjemu številu otrok v francoski cerkvi sv. Ane.

Iz tukajšnje katoliške višje šole Sacred Heart School je graduiralo 31 dijakov in dijakinj. Ker zahaja tam precej naših mladih študentov, je se včeraj med temi graduanti večje število naše mladine in sicer slediči: Robert Adam, Anna L. Brula, Margaret D. Grahek, Rose F. Jenich, Joseph P. Kovacich, Christine Kovacich, Anna Luketicz, Rita Schneller, Paulina Shultz, Mary Vertin, Carl Vertin. Cestitamo!

Osebno so prišli izraziti svoje sožalje tudi misijonar Rev. V. Vodusek in vsi častiti očetje franciškanici iz Lemonta. Dne 22. maja se je začel pomikati veliki sprevod, nad 50

sv. maša zadužnica se je darovala sanj v cerkvi sv. Stefana. Položen je bil k zadnjemu potom dobroj v potopu na pokopališču sv. Jožefa. Tam, v prezgodnjem grobu počiva mladenič, v katerega življenju je bil tak kristalen značaj. Koliko dobrega bi še lahko storil v teh časih za naš narod s svojim zgledom in delom! Pa je bil poklican pred svojega Stvarnika, da nad zvezdami viliha rajsko veselje.

Cerkvena proglašena John R. Sterbentza, bivšega glavnega predsednika in mnogoletnega potrotnega odbornika KSKJ. Zivilna sta že mnogo let pri svoji hčeri Mrs. Mary Musich na Rockland St. Ranjka je bila ena najstarejših calumetskih naseljenk. Rojena je bila v Belokrajini ter je prišla na Calumet leta 1896, kjer je od tedaj neprestano bivala. Bolehalo je že več let. Poleg sočna zapušča tudi šest otrok in sicer Mrs. Anna Mrle in Mrs. Frances Lustig. Slednja je bila mrtvoudušna skoraj dvanaest let. Junaska je prenašala tripljene, dokler je ni poklical Gosпод po plačilo. Oba naši rajenci sta nastopili pot v večnost pokrepčane s sv. zakramenti za umirajoče. Najobema sveti večna luč!

Za Materinski dan je naše agilno Društvo žena in mater predstavilo proslavo v čast našim materam. Igra "Izgubljeni raj," ki so jo ob tej priložnosti priredili, je izvabila mnogo prisrčnega smeha in tudi gromotno se je dobro obnesla. Najlepša hvala našim igralkam, ki so se veliko trudile z učenjem vlog in tako izvrstno svoje vlogo vloge igrake.

Kakor se poroča, se je stanejo rojaka Jakob Spreitzerja iz Mohawka, katerega je zadel pred nekaj tedni mrtvouduš, precej zboljšalo ter se nadela, da mu bo mogoče v kratek čas zapustiti posteljo, kar mu žele njegovi obilni prijatelji in znanci.

Poročajo, da se je tudi stanejo Mrs. Mary Stukel, sopronica Mr. John Stuklja iz 8. ceste, znatno zboljšalo. Poznani in priljubljeni rojakinji želimo skorajšnjega okrevanja.

Te dni so se mudili na Calumetu Mrs. Jos. Stefanetz, vodenca po pokojnem Jos. Stefanetu, in njegovi sinovec, Dr. John Stefanetz in Frank. Prišli so da položijo truplo pokojnega iz mrtvačnice v grob na Lake View pokopališče.

praktično v vsem svojem delu pokazali naseljeno počitovanje na jugoslovanskih bratih. Ni več manjše nobene zasedanja parlamenta, poseben večje politične manifestacije, da ne bi bili slovenski politiki povzeti o pravilih zahtevah, branili tlačane Bosne, Iadne, Dalmacije, ali da ne bi napadali avstrijske vlade radi preganjanja Slovencev. Slovenski politiki, posebno dr. Korošec, so cestno prepotovali vse južne jugoslovanske pokrajine in za vsak slučaj krvite, ki jih je redim napravil bratom, so imeli prizpravljen napad, tako, da so nemški dunajski listi ponovno zapisali, da Slovenci kot levi branijo vse jugoslovanske zahteve in koristi. La inrednemu pogumu, moči in uplivu osebnosti, ki so takrat vodile politično usodo Slovencev, je pripisati, da so po letu 1909 vsi poslanici na Dunaju napravili enotno parlamentarno skupino: Slovenska enota, v kateri so bili združeni vsi slovenški parlamentarci pod vodstvom voditelja slovenske ljudske stranke dr. Šušteriča.

Za to novo parlamentarno skupino so pričeli vsi Slovani razen Poljakov orjaško borbo za narodno osvobodenje vse slovenske živeli pod bivalo monarhijo.

Dasi so vse uradne izjave in tudi majniška deklaracija moralu imeti zakonito obliko, z državnim avstrijskim okvirom, vendar so razni slovenski zastopniki pod vodstvom dr. Korošca ponovno tudi ob svečanih prilikah povedali za danes težko razumljivo drznostjo, da vidijo odrešenje južnih Slovanov samo izven meja monarhije. Tako je poslanec slovenske ljudske stranke dr. Vrtošek 18. novembra 1912. leta izjavil, avstrijski vladni v brk: Avstrijska vladna politika nam je odprla oči, da smo začeli gledati daleč tja preko meja ob obalah Save. Slovence je ob času srbske zmage na Balkanu upal napisati: "Te zmage so tudi naše zmage." Dr. Korošec je 20. maja 1913. leta očrtal stališče svoje stranke z naslednjimi besedami: "Ko so balkanski Slovani znagoslavno osvobodili svoje brate, se teh zmag veseli vse. To je naša naravna pravica, čeprav vladam nam išče veleizdajalcev. A veleizdajalci so dejansko oni, ki se svobodno sprehabajo po Budimpešti. Tisto uro, ko so Srbi osvobodili svoje brate, so ti odprli za Hrvate in Srbe ječe, zakovali svobodo Srbov in Hrvatov, a na ta način nam pokazali pot za našo balkansko politiko." Se isto leta novembra meseca 1913 je dr. Korošec naravnost povedal, da smo "Slovenci uprili svoje moči na središče izven mej monarhije."

Strašna je bila vojna doba za vse avstrijske Slovane. Zlasti za južne Slovane. Dr. A. Korošec jo je takole opisal: "Globoke so rane našega naroda. Morje solza in krvi se zaliva po naši jugoslovanski domovini. Bosna in Hercegovina obupno kličeta na pomoč. Neprestana ponižanja spremljajo zgodovino Hrvatov. Dalmaciju gleda smrti v oči, od gladu in političnega preganjanja. Preko kršnih tal Istre stopa glad in smrt. Izgubili smo vero v upanje in sodstvo." Dejansko so bili južni Slovani v najstrašnejšem položaju. Kolikor mož in fantov ni bilo v strelnih jarkih, vseki so bili narodno zavedni so bili v zaporih ali konfinaciji. Slovenija je bila vojno ozemlje avstrijske armade. Sila avstrijskega generala je rezala pravico. Vsaka najmanjša narodnotna izjava se je smatrala za veleizdajstvo. Za vsak samostojen političen nastop so naši narodni voditelji tvegali svobodo in življenje. Vendar so slovenski možje z nepopisnim junaštvom in borbo nadaljevali organizacije in agitacije, prepričani, da bo iz krvi in trpljenja vznikla jugoslovanska svoboda. Neprestano so v svojih govorih to misel prenavljali. 12. junija 1917 je dr. Korošec na Dunaju v parlamentu izjavil: "Mi hočemo svobodo, če pa je to, kar mi hočemo veleizdaja, potem gospodje, vam povem, da nimate dovolj vešč, da bi mogli obesiti vse veleizdajalce, in da nimate dovolj pušč, da bi mogli pobiti vse Slovence, Hrvate in Srbe, ki zahtevajo skupno svobodo in v tem skupnem delu združiti svoje blagostanje." — Dr. Krek je ob isti priliki izjavil: "Nikdar ne bo umrla velika misel, da smo Slovenci, Hrvatje in Srbi eno, in da spadamo v eno državo in zato moramo priti do skupnosti."

Cim strašnejše je razsajal vojni režim po slovenski zemlji, tem odločnejši so bili naši politični preroki. V najžalostnejšem trenutku je dr. Korošec ob grobu prerano umrela dr. Kreka zaklical: "Dvignite glave, ker približuje se naše odrešenje." 22. januarja 1918 je v dunajskem parlamentu dejal glasno: "Jugoslovanskim narodom, jugoslovansko državo!" — Glejte, tako je rastel naš narod in državna misel, tako je nastala majnska deklaracija, ki nas je privedla v Jugoslavijo."

(Nadaljevanje s 2. strani)

bila to prva slovesna poroka v naši župniji. Ženin naše Wilme je od mladih nog imel za osebne prijatelje župnika svoje fare, in ker je tedaj bilo mogoče urediti, da prideva dobro poznana župnika Rev. Phelein in Rev. Smith na njegovo poročno slovesnost, smo jih bili zelo veseli. Upamo da bo večkrat mogoče slovesne poročne sv. maše imeti.

Ravno na tisti dan ko smo slovesno poslušali važne besede zakonskih oblijub Wilme in Toneta, je imel naš vrli John Springer svojo nevesto Mildred Fabac pri oltarju v sosednji cerkvi, kjer je nevesta doma. Vsem našim ženinom in nevestam iz dna srca želimo obilo blagoslova in veliko veselja v novem stanu.

Solo smo zaključili 6. junija, letos sicer ne trpimo vročine, a ker so se druge sole končale že pred enim tednom, smo moralni tudi mi odpreti šolska vrata na stežaj in pustiti mladino v zlato prostost. Gradantov je letos bilo 19. Pri prvi sv. maši so slovesno pristopili k sv. obhajilu. Vsi so bili v uniformah, ki so sedaj v modri po šolah. Dekleta so bila tudi sprejeta v Marijino družbo, dečki pa v društvo Najsvetjejšega Imena. Bog daj, da bi ostali zvesti in se pridno udeleževali sej in vsega kar pospešuje duhovno rast. Kaj pomaga če je kdo zapisan v to ali ono društvo, če pa ne izpoljuje dolžnosti, ki mu jih nalagajo pravila?! Pred vsemi pa želimo videti našo mladino pogosto pri sv. obhajilni mizi. To je prostor, kjer se stavijo temelji čistemu življenju, srečni večnosti.

Zvezcer je naša šolska mladina priredila zabavo staršem in prijateljem. Gradanti so igrali: "The Camouflage." — Boljše bi ne bili mogli izvesti svojih vlog. Na krasno razsvetljenem odrvu smo videli tudi "Botro Nero," ki je vso faro povabila na kranjske klobase — če dobi kje pujška! Naši mali so tudi graduirali — prav kot veliki — v igri. Otroci 5. in 6. razreda so pa nastopili v nežnem plesu z balončki in so nam zapeli nekaj narodnih pesmi z odobravanjem občinstva. Da, bilo je tudi nekaj govorov, je umljivo. Diplome so bile razdeljene, ko je bil otroški program izčrpan. NajMarija varuje našo mladino! Starši, pazite posebno v počitnicah na svoje otroke, da se ne pohujšajo!

POMEMBEN GOVOR OB DRUŠVENI SLAVNOSTI

Med poročilom o 30. letnici društva sv. Jožefa št. 110 Barberston, Ohio smo v predzadnjem številki obljudili kasnejšo priobčitev govora, katerega je imel dne 30. maja med sv. mašo Rev. Josip Medin, Ph. D. župnik cerkve Presv. Srve Jezusovega v Barberston, O.

Govor se je gglasil sledeče:

"Vi, člani društva Sv. Jožefa, kateri danes slavite tridesetletno obstanko in delovanja vašega društva, imate do cela vzrok, da slavite ta dan z veseljem. Ako je v svetovni zgodovini kaka tridesetletnica le malega pomena, kjer leta se štejejo na stoletja, je pa v zgodovini posamezne naselbine ali društva tridesetletje velikega pomena. In vaša mati, Kranjsko-Slovenska Katoliška Jednota ima dovolj vzroka, da praznuje ta dan z udeležbo nekoliko svojih glavnih uradnikov, ker ta Jednota ima v Barberstonu tri svoja društva, in po številu prebivalstva drugih slovenskih naselbin, sem prepričan da ima tu največ članstva.

K. S. K. jednota je ustanovljena za štiri glavne cilje ali namene. Ona je verska, ker je na verski podlagi. Ona je narodna, ker pod svoje okrilje zbirala Slovence, ter goji in čuva pri tem narodnost in jezik. Ona je finančna ustanova, ker skrbi za dobrobit svojih članov, bodisi v bolezni ali v smrti. Ona je tudi vstanovljena, da uči svoje članstvo izkazati se lojalno napram deželi, v kateri živi. Vaša Jednota se drži načela Kristusovega, "Daj Bogu kar je božjega, in cesarju (to pomeni svetni vlad) kar je cesarjevga."

Zalosten prizor nelojnosti so nedavno pokazali delegati neke slovenske Jednote, da ko je prišlo na red vprašanje, jeli se pošlje pozdrav predsedniku naše dežele ali ne, se je devedeset delegatov izreklo za, a štirinosemdeset zoper. Da jih je bilo samo štiri zoper, bi bilo preveč.

Vsaka oblast na zemlji pride od Boga, istotako je oblast predsednika od Boga, kadar je isti izvoljen z večino naroda. Onih štiri-in-osemdeset delegatov, kateri so volili proti, kot da niso videli vse ono dobro, kar je predsednik storil ta zadnja štira leta, a po največ za delavski narod. On je delavstvu dal pravice, da se organizira v lastne unije za svoje varstvo. On je dejelo, katera je bila ekonomski mrtva, prebudil k novemu življenju. Teh štirinosemdeset delegatov ni zastopalo čustev svojega članstva, še manj pa onih društev, od katerih so prejeli to čast, da jih zastopajo.

Vsakemu je znano, da pretežna večina tega članstva je lojalna, ter se ne strinja s takim odglasovanjem, niti z gongo proti veri, kakoršna se čestokrat bere v njih glasili. Biti svobodomislec, samo na sebi ni nič hudega, ako je dotični zmožen misliti. In biti liberalec samo na sebi ni nič hudega, ako je dotičnik v toliko obziren, da spoštuje mnenje in preprčanje drugega. Že samo ime "liberalizem" izhaja iz latinske besede "libertas" kar pomeni svoboda. Ako je ta Jednota nepolitična, zakaj mora biti nelojalna? Ako pa ni verska, zakaj mora biti protiverska, da tako žali versko čuvstvo pretežne večine svojega članstva. Ti zastopniki so napravili veliko sramoto slovenskemu narodu v Združenih državah. Oni so se izkazali, da ne verujejo v nikako oblast. Nekaj takega se nikdar ne bi moglo zgoditi na konvenciji K. S. K. Jednote, ker vaša Jednota je patriotična in lojalna.

Vaša Jednota je krščanska, in poskuša bodriti svoje članstvo v verskih zadevah ter ohraniti ono sveto vero, katero ste vi prejeli od svojih staršev v stari domovini. Božja previdnost vzame ljudska sredstva, da širi svoje kraljestvo na tej zemlji. Brez dvojeje, da je zbrala K. S. K. Jednoto, da bode pomočnica pri katoliških župnjah, ter tako branji in ohrani Kristusovo vero med slovenskim narodom. Ona je to delala uspešno od svojega začetka do danes. Vaša prva dolžnost je, da to sveto Jezusovo vero, katero ste prejeli od svojih mater, čisto in neskajeno posadite v srca svojih otrok. Od vas bo Bog zahteval račun za sedanje in bodoče življenje vaših otrok. Vera in narodnost je za Slovenka, kateri pozna zgodovino svojega naroda, nerazdeljiva stvar, ena je združena z drugo. Kristusovo vero je ta, nekdaj pašanski narod, sprejet v svoje krilo. Prve sole so bile katoliške šole, prve bolnišnice so bile katoliške, najlepša slovenska literatura je prežeta krščanskih načel, prva civilizacija je bila krščanska ali zapadna. Slovenski narod, dasravno ni velik po številu, se zamore vsporediti v vrsto dru-gih velikih narodov, gde svoje nabožnbe.

Vera danes živi v nevarnih časih. Ona se mora boriti sedaj proti brezverstvu, istotako kot se je morala boriti od svojega začetka. Najhujši protivarc so nam naši domači. Človek ne bo nikoli popolnoma razumel skrivnosti življenja. In dokler bodo te skrivnosti obdajale naš razum, točno tega bo vera obstajala. Naš pojem je jako majhen, in mi na tej zemlji smo v najzadnjem kotu vsemirja. Vsemirje je stvarstvo, torej mora biti stvarnik. Jaz imam več strpnosti z agnostikom, kateri vsled nevednosti ne veruje, torej ne more zanikati, kot pa z brezvercem, kateri lahkomisljeno zanika. Vera je v človeku nekaj pritojnjega. Ona je posledica odgoje poedinčna, in stoletne tradicije. V vojni in pregnanstvu se vera krepi. Zadnja zmaga bo njena. Zato imamo besede njenega Ustanovitelja, s katerimi nam zajamči, da bo On s svojo Cerkvio do konca sveta. In Njegove besede so resnica.

Cerkev danes, kot v povojnem času, kakor tudi po depresiji, se ima boriti zoper tri druge sovražnike. Prvi od teh je komunizem, kateri zahteva popolno enakopravnost v vseh stvareh. S tem ubija individualnost in iniciativno poedinčih. Človek, ki hoče delati in napredovati po svojih lastnih zmožnostih, danih mu od Boga, tega delati ne sme, ker v komunizmu so vsi enaki.

Drugi sovražnik je takozvan fašizem, kateri nekoliko dovoljuje privatno imetje in privatno iniciativo, toda prepoveduje vsako svobodo govora in tiska. Pod komunizmom kakor tudi pod fašizmom ni prostih ljudskih volitev. Eden kakor drugi ubija svobodo, a človek brez svobode je suženj. Naša vera pospešuje srednjo pot.

Tretji sovražnik je nepravični kapitalizem. Moderna industrija, ter izboljšani stroji mečejo vsak dan na tisoče delavstva z dela. Moderni stroj je postal gospodar delavca, namesto da bo delavec gospodar stroja. Naša vera obsoja nepravični kapitalizem, kateri nima duše ni srca, in kateri je vzrok današnjega komunizma. Z istega stališča obsoja tudi fašizem, kateri je beli brat rudečega komunizma. Oba ubijata naravno svobodo.

Vaša Jednota, kot vse druge Jednote, katere so delavke, imajo velik in širok delokrog, da delajo za dobrobit svojega članstva. Delavec je dandan obklojen z velikimi delavskimi problemi: In kako je brezmiselno širiti kakoršnoki versko ali politično intoleranco. Iz te moke ne bode kruha!

Kot dobri člani te katoliške Jednote, poskušajte sovražiti hudo, držite se dobrega, z bratovsko ljubezijo se med seboj ljubite, v spoštovanju drug drugemu pruvjite, v duhu budit goreči, služite Gospodu!

Želim društvo sv. Jožefa še boljšo bodočnost. Želim jim slogan in napredek. Kadar bodo "katoliška društva napredovala, tedaj bo tudi vaša fara napredovala."

ELI PETERLIC IN RARE FORM AS FLORIANS WIN MIDWEST OPENER*League Schedule Lags; Games Billed for Sunday, June 20

South Chicago, Ill.—The 10th annual baseball season of the Midwest KSKJ Baseball League got off to a one-footed start when only one game of the opening schedule was played. This contest was reeled off in South Chicago on May 30 when the St. Florian Boosters and the St. Aloysius' Sports crossed bats at Calumet Park. Though it turned out to be a one-sided affair, with the St. Florians trouncing the Als to the tune of 13 to 1, it was interesting from a standpoint of outstanding statistics.

The win for the Boosters was achieved by the dauntless efforts of one Eli Peterlic, Kay Jay pitcher par excellence. By almost individual supervision Peterlic controlled the batting proclivities of the Als. He forced 21 to go out via the strikeout route and held them to two scattered hits. Meanwhile he led his mates at bat by wielding the old bludgeon to connect for three healthy wallops. One home run, a triple, and a single to complete a perfect one-man act. In the meantime, the Florians compiled a miscellany of 15 hits off the hurling of Lou Kovacic.

Game Called

The St. Stephen-Waukegan St. Joe game, which was to be played in Chicago, was called off when the Waukeganers gave notice they couldn't appear. It seems that the Waukegan Kay Jays can't get organized this season. Whether it is internal friction or lack of funds we are at loss to say, but we do know that it would be a shame that such a strong KSKJ locality, whose representation in KSKJ sports has been consistent all these past years, should fold up just as athletics have gained a firm stand in the KSKJ Union. We trust that they may iron out their difficulties in due time.

FATHER'S DAY

Cleveland, O.—Keep Sunday night, June 20, open for one of the finest and most entertaining performances of the year.

In honor of the fathers of St. Vitus' Parish, the Baraga Choral Group, under the direction of Father Jager, will present a three-act musical comedy in the St. Vitus' School hall. In addition there will be singing by the Junior Choir.

The play begins at 8 p. m. and is entitled "Kovačev študent." Jackie Zorc's Orchestra will furnish dance rhythms. Admission is only 50 cents.

TO MY LITTLE BOY'S FATHER

There are little eyes upon you, and they're watching night and day;
There are little ears that quickly take in every word you say;
There are little hands all eager to do everything you do,
And a little boy who's dreaming of the day he'll be like you.

You're the little fellow's idol, you're the wisest of the wise;
In his little mind about you no suspicions ever rise;
He believes in you devoutly, holds that all you say and do,
He will say and do in your way when he's grown up just like you.

There's a wide-eyed fellow who believes you're always right,
And his ears are always open and he watches day and night.
You are setting an example every day in all you do
For my little boy who's waiting to grow up to be like you.

Steves vs. Florians

This coming Sunday, June 20, will see two old-time rivals clash for the league lead, when St. Florians and St. Stephens of Chicago face each other at Calumet Park in South Chicago. The meeting between these teams has always been a time-honored and intensely interesting series. Stellar baseball is always on tap and keen rivalry flares anew annually. Both teams have improved their line-ups and have had ample competition to date in their local leagues. If you want to see real action, see these teams play Sunday.

FOREST CITY BOWLERS SET FOR FULL SEASON

Forest City, Pa.—The local Jay Pin team announces that it has received a challenge from St. Joseph's Society, No. 57, of New York City, for a bowling match to be played early in the fall, and also a challenge from the bowling team of parishioners of Father Edward Gabrenja, O.F.M., of New York City. Both challenges have been accepted.

We have one great disadvantage in that many of our club members have had no work in many months, making it impossible for us to accept every challenge we receive, due to a lack of the financial means necessary for travel.

We have been working hard getting an athletic field in shape, and although it is not yet completed, we have already made an "eyesore" spot in the community a property of value and beauty.

The White Cricket of Harashima

By Elizabeth S. Noble

In Yokimo, "City of Many Palaces," there lived a beggar who was named Harashima. He wandered through the streets by day, begging for a handful of rice or a few bits of dried fish. Sometimes he would sit by the road, crying aloud, "Take pity on a miserable lowly one who is at the dust beneath your feet. Take pity, Honorable Masters, take pity!"

At night he would crawl into a rude hut to sleep. One morning Harashima rose from his bed of straw at cock's crow and went into the fields, looking for something to ease his hunger. Often he would gather twigs or roots of plants and boil them in a pot over a charcoal fire. As he wandered through the fields on this day, peering among the dry grasses, he spied a cricket. Quickly he grasped it up in great joy. To his surprise, the cricket shrieked, "Eat me not, O Harashima! Eat me not, and I will reward you."

Harashima was so filled with amazement that he almost dropped the strange insect. He stared at it and observed it was not like its brothers in the fields but was white, as white as the spring blossoms.

the cricket. "I have many wonderful things which I will share with you, if you do not eat me. Make a cage for me and hang me beside the door of your hut. Then the Goddess of Luck will wait upon you and grant you many a wish."

Speechless with wonder, the beggar hurried home. Here he fashioned a cage of the slenderest twigs and the greenest grasses. He hung it beside his door and in it placed the white cricket. Instantly a strange light filled the room. There before him stood a beautiful woman.

"O Divine Cricket, see, my robe scarcely cover my body. I venture ashamed into the sunlight. Give me a robe, a robe of silk, I beseech you!"

"You have but to ask, Honorable Master!" replied the cricket.

Instantly he was clothed in a robe of such richness and beauty that it outshone even the Emperor's festal one.

The lucky fellow was delighted and strutted about the streets, watching his neighbors' surprise with joy.

"See Harashima, the beggar!" they cried among themselves. "He has stolen the robe of our august Mikado. Let us take it from him and restore it to the Heaven-born One who will reward us." But when they grasped the robe, their fingers slid from it as do grains of rice from the chop-sticks. They were greatly amazed and drew back from him in fear and wonder.

Filled with pride, the one-time beggar now appeared every day in a new robe, richer than the one of the day before.

It soon became necessary for him to beg the cricket to provide him with a larger house with room enough to hold his wardrobe. Accordingly, one day at the hour of the cock's crow, the people of Yokimo saw, on the outskirts of the city, a palace of the finest stone, having doors of carved white jade and windows of gleaming crystal. Above the widest of the doors was cut the name of Harashima. Beside it, in a cage of ebony and jade, hung the white cricket.

The neighbors could not conceal their envy. They determined to find out the source of all this strange wealth. One of them, therefore, a fat rascal, named Tabuchai, slipped unseen into the palace and hid in the room where hung the white cricket.

Late at night, the master of the house returned from tea with the Emperor. Hastening to the ebony and jade cage, he cried, "O Exalted Cricket, I crave a wife as beautiful as the Lady Moon, as slender as a young bamboo, and as pure as the snow of Fujiyama. Grant me this desire, I beseech you!"

"You have but to ask, Honorable Master!" replied the cricket.

Tabuchai's eyes grew like

REV. JOHN PLEVNIK, JOLIET PASTOR, OBSERVES FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF PRIESTHOOD

Joliet, Ill.—The Rev. John

Plevnik, pastor of St. Joseph's

Church, and supreme spiritual director of the KSKJ, will mark his 40th year in the holy priesthood at a Solemn Jubilee Mass of thanksgiving at 6 o'clock

Sunday, June 20.

In keeping with his love for his people, the jubilarian's desire is to "be at home" with them on this day. To carry out this wish, all parish sodalities will receive Holy Communion at the Jubilee Mass. These are the Holy Rosary Sodality, Blessed Virgin Sodality, St. Agnes' Sodality, the Senior, Young Men's and Junior Holy Name Societies. Forty children of the first grade in St. Joseph's School, symbolizing the anniversary, will escort the pastor-jubilarian from the rectory to the church.

Father Plevnik was born in Dobrova near Ljubljana, in Slovenia, Aug. 28, 1873. He studied at St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, and was ordained priest by Cardinal Gibbons on June 17, 1897. His First Mass he sang June 20, 1897, in the same St. Joseph's Parish where he is now pastor. His first priestly work was also done in this same parish.

In 1898 Father Plevnik established St. Stephen's Parish at Lincoln St. and 22d Pl. in Chicago. At the same time he ministered to the Slovenians of South Chicago, who were without a church. These he encouraged to organize and prepare for a church of their own.

In 1903 Father Plevnik organized the Slovenians, Croatians and Slovaks of Waukegan and North Chicago into a parish, dedicated to the Mother of God, on Thanksgiving Day of that year.

In February, 1915, he was given charge of St. Joseph's Parish in Joliet, where he had acted during the illness of the pastor, Father John Kranjec. Since then Father Plevnik has been pastor of St. Joseph's Parish for 22 years. His people are principally of the working class whose third generation is now beginning to fill St. Joseph's School. Without burdening his people, Father Plevnik has sponsored many cultural and athletic activities in the parish. Chief among these are large sodalities, several choirs, study clubs, and a large and successful band.

REV. FR. MADIC, KSKJ MEMBER, CELEBRATES FIRST SOLEMN MASS

Chicago, Ill.—The Rev. Aloysius Madic, O.F.M., member of St. Stephen's Society, No. 1, celebrated his First Solemn High Mass Sunday, May 23, in his native parish, St. Stephen's. A large crowd came to pay tribute to its son and member.

The church was beautifully decorated, and in front of the church was a large wreath made of green shrouding, the American flag and lodge banners.

The procession, starting from the school hall, was led by the school band playing under the direction of Mr. Parker, and followed by the members of various lodges carrying their banners. Uniformed scouts, school children, altar boys, near relatives, friends, and his sisters and parents followed in order.

The bridal group, consisting of a bride, carrying the pillow and crown, preceded a little girl carrying a bouquet and a little boy carrying sheaves, wheat and grapes. Two children served as veil carriers, followed by altar boys, one his brother, the clergy, and the celebrant.

Assisting the celebrant were: Fra. Charles Madic, O.F.M., brother of the celebrant, as subdeacon; the Rev. Leonard Bogolin, O.F.M., of Lemont, Ill., also a member of St. Stephen's, as deacon; the Very Rev. Anselm Murn, O.F.M., pastor of St. George's, South Chicago, as archpriest, and Fra. Albert Oblak, O.F.M., also from Lemont, as master of ceremonies; the Rev. Fr. Raphael, O.S.B., assistant pastor of St. Augustine's Parish.

The sermon was delivered by the Rt. Rev. Canon John J. Oman of St. Lawrence's Parish, Cleveland, O. Following the Mass, Father Aloysius bestowed his blessings on the congregation.

After Mass a delicious dinner was served by the women and young ladies of the parish. Among the guests and speakers was Frank Opeka, supreme president of the KSKJ. Joseph Kobal opened the program and introduced the toastmaster, the Rev. Fr. Alexander, pastor of

FOR GOD, HOME AND COUNTRY.

By FATHER KAPISTRAN

DISEASE. In this age of the "movie" and "talkie" we are also afflicted with the "twistie."

TWISTIE. A twistie is a twisting of a fact, making important what is trivial, first what is second, and essential what is subordinate.

BABY TWISTIE. Cartoon shows two Park Ave. ladies carrying their "Pekes" in Central Park. One says: "I think every dog should have a child to play with."

NAZI TWISTIE. Cardinal Mundelein spent over 2,000 words to show that German children's souls are in danger. The world picked out only one word: "paperhanger," and forgot the thousands of other words which spelled "crepehanger." We missed the point that Hitler is a murderer of souls.

EDUCATION TWISTIE. An Our Page reporter not so long ago listed graduates in a Slovenian community. Despite endless articles in Glasilo, week after week, on the importance of Catholic education, he named the public school graduates first; the Catholic school graduates he names last and very inaccurately.

BANQUET TWISTIE. A secretary of a lodge sent cards to members saying: "Communion breakfast after Mass next Sunday." No mention of the Eucharistic banquet.

LABOR TWISTIE. When the Vatican newspaper Osservatore Romano mentioned some favorable aspects of the C. I. O., one newspaper ran the headline: "C. I. O. gets approval by Rome." This gives us the impression that the Pope has blessed it. He has NOT.

LITERARY TWISTIE. In a French translation of Shakespeare the passage, "Frailty, thy name is woman," is translated, "Mademoiselle Frailty is the name of the lady."

TWISTIE TWISTIE. "Why do you wear your stockings inside out?" "Because I have a hole on the other side."

POSSIBLE TWISTIE. When the secular press hears that the Holy Father sent his blessing to the convicts on their way from Paris to the French Guiana Penitentiary, will the headlines read: "Pope approves of crime"?

TONGUE-TWISTIE. In Louisville's National Championship Spelling Bee, Betty Grunstra got twisted on "plebeian." Fourteen-year-old Waneeta Beckley of Louisville's Holy Name School untwisted it, spelled "promiscuous" for good measure, and won the national trophy.

TWISTIE CURE. The way to cure twisties is to untwist them like the Paperhangers' Brotherhood did last week. Resolution: "That egotistical anti-labor dictator (Hitler) might have hung paper at one time, but that does not qualify him for the honorable title of 'paper-hanger'... The only thing Hitler has hung in the past ten years is the liberty of the German people."

Your society should play a part in making your community a better place to live in!

TAKE SOAPS, FOR INSTANCE

Take soaps, for instance, into something misty, enchanting, ethereal.

A cake of soap—just a colloidal complexity of sodium hydroxide and obscure acids—may have certain defined connotations. A whiff of Lux toilet soap, and I am back in the eucalyptus-shadowed garden by trailing jasmine, while the Mediterranean heaves dully under the brittle African stars. Fels-Naptha clothes on the line with wind blowing through them are of the essence of Venice in the early morning with melon rinds floating in the canals and black-shawled women shopping in the sun. The heady scent of Palmolive brings back mornings when, after a breakfast of honey and black bread with a glimpse of the glistening Doldenhorn from the window, we shouldered our rucksacks and set out through the fresh neatness of a Swiss village to search for dusty edelweiss and the rosy bells of alpenblumen.

Remember how you would come home, owing through the dusk, led on by a glowing assurance of fried potatoes with slender green onions and freshly baked bread. Before you could join the family, already sitting around the table in the warm intimate dining room, you had to go to the kitchen and remove the most obvious traces of a hilarious afternoon—a woe betide the roller towel!

Then comes adolescence when magazine ads make their appeal, and we fairly reek with hyacinth or violet or French orchid. I remember one birthday when I insisted that all the world could give was a mammoth sponge and two cakes of rose glycerine.

We affect these smooth, flattering soaps which promise to make us so irresistably alluring that our nondescript features and that pock-mark left from a puerile siege of chicken-pox back in '19 will be transmuted

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor:

Just met one of my greatest pals as I returned from Niagara University in New York for the summer vacation. Yes, none other than the June 2 edition of the KSKJ newspaper. I thought it was so good that I decided to tell you all about it.

Far be it from me to attempt on exhaustive disposition on your paper, Mr. Editor, but please bear with me if I appear a bit loud in my praise.

First of all, hats off to Miss Genevieve Gercar, the college lass, for her great article concerning Communism. It's rather difficult to infer whether Miss Gercar gathered most of her information from actual study and discussions on the subject in school or from dailies, but wherever the source, we know that Communism is threatening to make a great bid toward the destruction of our land. Doubtless, then, our greatest defense against this menace is the press and radio. Let us lose no time in applying pressure and opposition for the defense of our freedom and faith.

Congratulations to Mr. Milton Koren for his splendid article entitled, "A Reply to Some Weak Criticisms." You might also add that knowledge is power as well as complete understanding of life. Little do these thimble-minded fellows know of the wealth of knowledge and complete mental satisfaction contained between the covers of these books in the upper shelves.

Speaking of higher reading naturally brings us into the subject of higher education. In answer to the wiseacres and cardboard philosophers who maintain that an individual should seek employment as soon as he learns to read and write I have this to say: That about the only ignoramus who will denounce a higher education is a person who never had one. Still, too, we find that some people consider a student too old to go to college. But, nevertheless, college graduates are still streaming out with diplomas and a greater number of them on the better side of 24 and 25 years of age. These same mature men and women are making great strides toward success. We may conclude then that we never stop learning, nor shall ever be too old to learn.

Now before slipping back into my role as reader I wish again to congratulate the editor and his staff on the great job in bringing together these interesting articles and editorials.

I only hope that I shall be so fortunate as to receive a copy of the paper at the University in Niagara Falls next fall, as a medium of contact with the news, editorials and interesting articles.

WHITE CRICKET OF HARASHIMA

crescent moons to see a princess of wondrous beauty enter the room and bow her head upon the mat at the feet of Harashima. Trembling with eagerness, Tabuchi managed to creep unnoticed from the palace and hastened to his comrades.

"The secret of Harashima is known to me!" he panted. "He has a white cricket of great wisdom and power who grants him every wish." Being very fat, he could speak no more for lack of breath.

"A cricket! A wise cricket!" they shouted, filled with laughter. "What tale is this you bring?"

Puffing and panting, Tabuchi related the story of his experience in the palace. As the tale unfolded, his companions became silent and thoughtful.

"If this tale be untrue, we will beat you on the soles of your feet with rods of stout bamboo," they cried. "If it be true, we will steal the cricket from that beggar!"

Then they appointed three of their number to go to the palace to bring back the marvelous creature. Undiscovered, the three made their way into the room of the ebony and jade cage. But no sooner had they touched its bars, than the cricket sang shrilly, "Honorable Master! Honorable Master! Your enemies would steal me!" Twenty servants rushed into the room and beat the rascals soundly until they cried out for mercy. Then the servants flung them over the wall into the highway. From there, they crawled home, sore and sick, and full of pain.

As they could not acquire the insect possessed with the great power, they next resolved to search the fields for one like it. They crawled over the fields like huge ants, seeking a white cricket. Finding none, every one of them captured the biggest black cricket he could find. Running home, they all made cages and hung them beside their doors. Soon every home had a cricket, and the street became known as the "Street of Many Crickets." But though the insects sang, they spoke not, nor could they grant the wishes of their masters.

They did, however, make such cheerful music that the people, satisfied that Harashima's cricket was a gift of the gods and hence unlike any other, grew to enjoy the merry chirping of the caged insects.

Visitors from other cities, upon hearing the pleasant sound, wished to buy the creatures with the singing melodies. Eager to fill their money boxes with yen, the owners sold those they had and captured more until they became known far and wide as cricket sellers.

Now everywhere, before house-doors, crickets hung in cages of grass, wood, jade, crystal, or ebony. Their chirpings filled the air with music. But Harashima, and he only, had a white cricket who could grant him every wish. He thus was satisfied and lived happily in his palace, with his wife and three sons. Finally, when Harashima died, the white cricket disappeared and was seen no more.

COMMENCEMENT

School Life

In academic usage, the word "commencement" has a meaning which, while it connotes a beginning, implies an ending. It signifies the completion of the course of studies by the graduates and the inception of another course of studies or the beginning of a status or a career or a profession.

in secondary, collegiate and university schools, there are again divisions into classes and graduated stages after the bachelorship. So scholastically, too, the termination of one thing means the beginning of another. We have a series of finals and initials.

We can sum up the whole idea by recalling that school life from the kindergarten to the university involves a ceaseless preparation for that which is to come. This means a constant change of academic status.

The School of Life

Life itself is a school. Between its extreme termini, it has many beginnings and, by the same token, many endings.

As the Book of Job puts it: "Man . . . never continueth in the same state" (XIV, 2). The Bard of Avon has likened the life of man to seven ages. During all of it, there is this successive change. From the cradle to the grave man undergoes a varied experience. In the school of life experience is a great teacher. Whether we consider life in a secular or religious sense, the truth still holds.
