CURRENT THOUGHT

Indoor Activities

With the Fall season well under way our thoughts run along the line of indoor activities. In sports it is bowling and basketball, although foot-ball will entice many followers to go out on Saturday afternoons to brave the strong penetrating wind and see their favorite team go through its paces.

In the field of entertainment we hear and read about dances and socials sponsored by various local branches of our Union. Hardly a dull Saturday and Sunday elapses during the Fall and Winter season, what with featured orchestras attracting the lodge members and beckoning them to their melodious music.

Our elders, particularly the Slovene-speaking members, prefer to listen and dance to accordion music, which seems singularly adapted to render polkas and paltzes in a style all of its own creation. And on occasions where both father and son, mother and daughter, are present, the accordion together with a banjo, appear to be an ideal combination which can mix American popular numbers and Slovene "pieces" to the satisfaction of all in attendance.

Our lodge meetings are attended in larger numbers during the indoor season than during the spring and summer months when thoughts turn to the great outdoors. A certain air of congeniality envelops the lodge hall during the fall and winter seasons, much like the fireside at home that keeps a family indoors, where current topics come up for discussion.

The lodge meeting is the center of attraction for our members. Youth in our Union, represented by the English-speaking members, looks forward to after-meeting entertainment, be it in the form of a card game, a dance, or acts given by talented performers.

Therefore, it is the better part of wisdom to plan well advance bits of entertainment to follow the adjournment of the meeting. A dance and serving of refreshments offers opportunity to acquaint new members with the old ones, of which tends to build the local branch into a more solid group of friends. Such informal after-meeting gatherings break the ice of that strange feeling that exists until two people have had a chance to talk with each other.

Bowling as a lodge activity holds the present center of attraction in sports. To those who find pleasure in the art of bowling, regular weekly sessions of friendly competition among fellow lodge members answers their purpose, and we find a group of enthusiasts looking forward to the approaching day in the week when they will meet.

In Cleveland, O., the local SSCU Bowling League has embarked on its second consecutive season, meeting every third afternoon. In Ely, Minn. a report was made to the effect that a local SSCU Bowling League is under consideration. In the state of Pennsylvania, where duckpin bowling is popular, we can expect to read in the near future of local SSCU Duckpin Leagues preparing to meet once a week to go through the paces more familiar to our members situated in the keystone state.

Those SSCU Lodges interested in organizing and maintaining basketball teams undoubtedly are working on plans to enter their teams in local competition. It is a little early to predict the number of local branches who will enter basketball teams, but to all indications the 1935-36 season shall witness more SSCU quintets than the previous year.

Expense to be incurred in placing a lodge basketball team on the local school and city gymnasiums is the primary consideration of the lodge members. Where in bowling the expense is maintained by the individual participant, in basketball the money required to outfit a complete team must be shared by the lodge treasury.

However, wherever it is practical, either a bowling team or a basketball quintet, or both, will find the local branch with enthusiasm not only for the sake of the sport, but for the lodge as well.

The name of the local as well as its affiliated national SCL, derives much advertising, and with the proper active members to boost our Union, bowling and basketball should attract a number of outsiders to join.

Then, too, we have a large number of rooter-members who inwardly are proud of their team and go to great lengths to encourage the performers on to victory.

Lodge No. 166

Indianapolis, Ind.—To members of Lodge Sloga, No. 166, I wish to announce that we have moved and my new address is 763 N. Warman Ave., Indianapolis, Ind.

Through this medium I appeal to all members to come to regular monthly lodge meetings. It is a shame that for many members as this lodge we barely have a quorum to start our meetings. Unless

Our Friends Lodge Dance Oct. 26

On this day members of Our Friends Lodge, No. 227, SSCU, are going to hold their first dance, so please try to come. The admission will be only 25 cents and we will have good music. Everyone is invited.

I know that we will do our best to make everyone happy and enjoy them. Our date will take place at Zalar's Hall, Greensboro, Pa., at 8 p.m.

Collinwood Boosters

Cleveland, O.—Collinwood Boosters Lodge, No. 188, SSCU, held its card party Saturday night, Oct. 12, at St. Mary's ballroom.

Prize winners were Mr. Frank Velencic Sr., who received $5; Mr. Kozar, $2.50, and Mr. William Ferlin, $1. The door prize was awarded to Mr. John Tercek.

At this time I wish to thank the members of George Washington Lodge, No. 180, and Betsy Ross, No. 186, both of SSCU, for their attendance. I do not want to forget the wonderful gift of Bro. Joe Struna, a former co-partner of the "Ham and Eggs" column in the Nova Doba. I also want to thank Mrs. Pearl Mooney for preparing the delicious roast beef.

The Boosters hold their regular monthly meetings every third Monday of the month, and the next one is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 21. Come on, members, let's have a larger attendance than that enjoyed in the past, so that we can plan for more activities.

Tony Laurich, Pres.,
No. 188, SSCU.

Correction

Walsenburg, Colo.—In last week's edition of Nova Doba it was stated that congratulations were offered to Frank Fink, whereas it should have been Frank Just. I am very sorry, boys, that I got the names mixed up. So I offer the heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Just, and apologies to Frank Fink.

Everybody is going to be in Walsenburg on Saturday, Oct. 19, at the Pavilion. Will you be present? Tony Just and his orchestra together with the Young American Boosters will welcome you all.

No. 216, SSCU.

A Hot One

An irate enthusiast, who had watched his home team go down to defeat, stopped the umpire as he was leaving the field.

"Where's your dog?" he commanded.

"Dog?" ejaculated the umpire. "I have no dog."

"Well," said the grouchy one, "you're the first blind man I ever saw who didn't have a dog."

BRIEFS

Betsy Ross Lodge, No. 188, SSCU, Cleveland, O., will hold its first dance of the season next Saturday evening at the Slovene Workingmen's Home on Waterloo Rd. Frank Janikovich and his orchestra will furnish the music. A large crowd is anticipated, with an evening of excellent entertainment assured all guests in attendance. The committee on arrangements has planned the dance well in advance.

Vermilion Range News plant of Ely, Minn., suffered a $4,000 loss last week when a fire of unknown origin swept the Simonson Building. Dr. George Milavetz, who occupies the upper floor with his dental office, suffered damages by smoke and water. A week previous the Ely Miner plant, also of Ely, suffered a similar incendiary outbreak and investigations are now under way in an effort to discover the firebug who, according to reports, is responsible for the two fire losses.

Joseph Cizek, Yugoslav, a reporter for the New York Times, was awarded the Pulitzer prize of $1,500 for journalism. The prize winner is an immigrant from Yugoslavia, who was born in Trebinje and educated in Yugoslav commercial schools.

A pleasant surprise greeted the audience last Sunday at the Slovene National Home of Cleveland when Ivan Cankar Dramatic Club presented the play "Legionnaires" in Slovene. The cast consisted of only the English-speaking second generation children of American Slovenes, who startled many elders born across the pond with their perfect pronunciation and excellent acting. Mrs. Antoinette Simcic, formerly teacher of the Slovene School and long active with Cankar and Independent Singing Society Zarja, directed the play.

The annual Cleveland Inter-lodge Day will be held Jan. 18, 1936, at the Slovene National Home, according to the announcement made by H. Martin Antoncic, president.

Cardinals Lodge, No. 229, SSCU, of Struthers, O., will hold its first dance Saturday, Oct. 26. Joe Umeck's Orchestra will furnish the music. Cardinals Lodge is the latest acquisition to the ranks of SSCU English-conducted lodges.

Classes in English

Cleveland, O.—Mrs. Elizabeth Coe, who has been teaching English at the St. Clair-E. 55th St. Library for five years, has classes every day except Saturday from 1 to 3 p.m. Mrs. Coe is an employee of the Board of Education and a successful and popular teacher. Enroll now. It is free.

Mildly Interested

Office Boy: The boss is beginning to take an interest in me.

Head Clerk: Is he?

Office Boy: Yes; he asked me yesterday if I worked here.

Juveniles Active in Lodge No. 159

Lebanon, Pa.—At the regular September meeting of our lodge, No. 159, SSCU, an elaborate program was adopted whereby a juvenile meeting was held on Sept. 21 with great success.

Although all the active members shared the prediction of success toward this venture, none had foreseen the affect of its real existence.

Enthusiasm over this new ordeal ran high as all the children were talking about the SSCU. Prospects for new members seem to be mounting as boys and girls hate to be bystanders when pleasures, as is forwarded by the SSCU and our own local lodge activities, take place.

Forty out of forty-seven juveniles attended the meeting, which ran upon smooth lines and in an orderly manner. Helen Yaklovich was elected president, Frank Meze Jr. vice president, Rose Yaklich secretary, Margaret Chernik treasurer and Jennie Vranescic recording secretary.

Plenty of eats were on hand and singing was the center of attraction until the peanut scramble—which was a scramble.

The financial backing of this organization was made possible through the commissions received for the enrollment of new members. Earlier in the year it had been decided that all commissions for new members be turned over to the lodge.

I wish that all of the members would realize the worthiness of this organization and not have our meetings become extinct.

Josephine Meze,
No. 154, SSCU.

Lodge No. 25

Eveleth, Minn.—Lodge No. 25, SSCU will hold a dance Sunday, Oct. 27 at Oreskovic's hall. All members are invited to attend this dance and help make it a big success. Excellent music and tasty refreshments will be served. Admission price shall be a small amount. All in attendance can look forward to a good time.

Frank Urbina, Jr., Sec'y.

Autos Help Reduce T. B.

Despite the fact that the automobile is one of the two major causes of accidental death Dr. Lester A. Round, Rhode Island health director, believes it has helped materially in reducing deaths from tuberculosis and several other diseases. In combating diseases of this type fresh air and sunshine are essential. Millions of machines and thousands of miles of good roads offer people of today opportunities to get out into the open air and sunshine such as were undreamed of 20 or 30 years ago.

What He Wanted

"I want to be procrastinated at the nex' corner," said Uncle Rastus to the street car conductor.

"You want to be—what?"

"Look in de dictionary, sah! Procrastinate, to put off. Dat's what I mean."

With the Pathfinders

By Ernest Palic, No. 222, SSCU

Gowanda, N. Y.—On Saturday, Nov. 2, Pathfinders and St. Joseph Lodges, Nos. 222 and 89, respectively, will hold a dance at the Slovener Hall. All members are urged to be sure to be on hand, and we know that it will be a success.

Be a Good Mother

Editorial Note: This is the ninth of a series of articles prepared by the Cleveland Child Health Association.

It is the first duty of every mother to nurse her baby. Mother's milk is the one perfect baby food. No artificial food can be prepared that is as well suited to a young baby as its own mother's milk.

Rarely is a mother found who cannot nurse her baby if she is given proper care before and after the birth of the baby. Mother's milk is always ready and never sours. Mother's milk does not have to be prepared and measured.

Mother's milk makes the baby strong and healthy. It gives him good teeth and bones. It is free from germs and dirt. It protects the baby from many dangers and diseases. It contains proper nourishing elements in the right proportions.

Breast-fed babies seldom have bowel trouble, which is one of the most serious dangers that faces them.

From 48 to 60 hours elapse after the birth of a child before the mother's milk "comes in." During this period the baby needs no food. But the hospital nurse or visiting nurse will give it a few drops of slightly warmed water now and then and put it to the mother's breast every six hours. She will do this as soon as the mother recovers from the fatigue.

The financial backing of this organization was made possible through the commissions received for the enrollment of new members. Earlier in the year it had been decided that all commissions for new members be turned over to the lodge.

Mothers often wonder if the baby is getting enough food. This can be determined by weighing the baby at the end of every week or oftener. There will probably be a slight loss in weight at first. After that there should be a steady gain.

The mother should never give up the attempt to nurse her baby, unless under exceptional circumstances, and with the doctor's advice.

Diet of the nursing mother will ordinarily be the same as that which preceded the baby's birth. It must be nutritious, laxative and appetizing. However, if any food or drink disturbs the mother's digestion it may have an unfavorable effect on the milk.

Watch the diet closely and avoid all articles of food which show themselves unsuited to the mother. If a mother chews her food thoroughly, eats slowly, and above all, refrains from worry, there is no reason to suppose that mother's milk will not agree with the baby.

Remember, the mother must have pleasant exercise, cheerful company. She should be surrounded as far as possible with the things that interest her. She should get eight hours of sleep at night. She should have a cheerful room, plenty of fresh air and sunshine.

Lost in the Mails

Gowanda N. Y.—With this now hope that we may meet again. Returning to Export on Sunday, after a hilarious Saturday night, the Pathfinders were defeated by the Export Majestics baseball team. The Center Ramblers and St. Michaels of Claridge were on hand to cheer us on, and we claim that our side made the most noise even if we lost to a fine bunch of sports.

Soon after the game we decided to head for home—a long trip but worth it because of the good time we had. Leaving Bert Marcellio behind to take charge of the picnic we started for home, but decided to detour by way of Claridge, where Lodge No. 40, SSCU, is situated. Here Johnny Regina, Louis Beltz, John Turk, Martin Bratkovich, Rudy Perina, Joe Beltz and my old pals wally, James "Mugsy" Stepinick, with their families and other friends too numerous to mention, gave us the key to Claridge and the time of our lives. We were escorted about 30 miles out of Claridge following a longer stay than we had anticipated. At that point we stopped to exchange farewells and snappy jokes, before proceeding on our homeward journey.

We hope that our gang has the opportunity to repay the wonderful time enjoyed in Export, Pittsburgh and Claridge. There are many other friends such as Paul Oblock of the Center Ramblers, whom we met, and other incidents that happened, but inasmuch as this article apparently got lost in the mail we hope it will suffice. All we want to say is that we had a "peach" of a trip. Come up and see us sometime.

Electrons SPARKS 'N' FLASHES

By Stan Progar, No. 228

Springdale, Pa.—Life is real, life is earnest. Life is just a series of mad dashes hither and yon. One must remember just where one is supposed to be at the proper time. Time to get up, time to work, time to eat, time to sleep and last but not least, time to go places and do things. But the thing is just where can we go so as to get the best out of the happier side of life? There it is. That's half of life to be able to dope out this question. One must know to get along.

Thanks Travelers

As one looked in on the Electrons' dance he just couldn't help but see a large, happy crowd at the right place getting the best out of life. Shuffling feet kept time to the rhythmic strains of Johnny Lann's band, and hellos and back-slapping proved a fitting background as friends met friends after a long lapse in meeting. True, they knew just where to go.

The Electrons were well pleased over such a large turnout and wish to thank all that made the dance a huge success. The attendance at this dance was the largest that ever visited the Kriyan Hall in a single night. Due to the large crowd, only seven visiting lodges were spotted. By close observation, the eyes of the Electrons spied active members of the following SSCU lodges: The Pittsburghers of Pittsburgh, the ever rambling Ramblers of Center and the Majestics of Export. In the SNPJ group the eyes spied none other than the Pioneers of Strabane, Ramblers of Harmarville, Comets of Universal and the Lucky Stars of Imperial. Once again we say, thank you most sincerely and may we meet again soon.

Membership Talk

Just what are you doing as to increase our present membership? Are you living up to your promise and paying your dues on time? Can you truthfully say you are doing your utmost to better your lodge? Are you attending the majority of the meetings and taking an active part? Keep this in mind and try to score a perfect mark in answering.

Here's a record for some of you Electrons to shoot at. For the past five months Andy Kovac has been the first to pay his dues. Let's see if some of you last-minute payers can beat him next month. You can't this month, for he has already come across. Take a tip from Andy and pay early, for after all they just gotta be paid. One knows that what's gotta be just gotta be.

Wedding Bells

At the last meeting of the Bachelors' Club, the Judiciary Board presided over the case of Bachelors vs. F. J. Progar. It seems that he committed the unpardonable sin of falling in love. The crime was committed last Fourth of July and after months of deliberation the jury brought forth the verdict of love in the first degree. Sentence was passed and the condemned bachelor will walk the aisle Saturday, Oct. 19. His accomplice and agitator within the ranks of the bachelors is Miss Donnie Kern, formerly of New Mexico and at present residing in Cheswick, Pa. Being good losers, the bachelors offer hearty congratulations to the

YUGOSLAVS AND YUGOSLAVIA

Editor's Note: The following treatise on "Yugoslavs and Yugoslavia" was prepared by Richard J. Zavertnik, attorney at law, and president of Illini Stars Lodge, No. 211, SSCU of Chicago, Ill., and was delivered as a lecture at Flossmoor, Ill., last Spring. Installments of this series shall appear in subsequent issues of Nova Doba, space permitting.

Separate Southern Slav States and Downfall

After the breaking up of the First Southern Slav State in year 823 each branch of the Southern Slavs formed its own states. Carantania, Croatia, Bosnia, Serbia, Bulgaria, Herzegovina, Zela (Montenegro), Republic of Dubrovnik (Ragusa), Dalmatia, were Southern Slav states, each with its own ruler; based on the same economic unit, the Zadruga and Zupa with its communal lands; some existing for centuries, each with a glorious history of its own; but all are testimonials to the aspirations and the great struggle waged by the Yugoslavs for liberty and freedom.

The Croatian state under King Zvonimir in the year 1076 to 1089 became involved in the great European wars of the Normans against Byzantium and Venice and also in the struggle of Pope Gregory VII against the German Emperor Henry IV. These wars weakened and impoverished the state. The feudal knights were in open revolt against his heir.

The Magyar King Vladislav occupied Slavonia in year 1091. His successor Kolman in year 1102 imposed himself as king of Croatia. The Croatians then carried on a successful fight against the Magyar rule, to preserve their language, custom and traditions.

We may add that the Magyars invaded Pannonia in the ninth century. The Magyars were nomads and a warlike tribe which was forced northward by the Bulgarians. The Magyars adopted the old Slovene civilization and borrowed all court, military, agricultural, mining, professional terms from the Slovene language. In fact, the Magyar religious, political and social life is altogether based on the Slovene civilization which existed in Carantania.

Stephen Dušan, who ruled Serbia from years 1349 to 1355, created a highly developed organization for Serbia. Trials by jury was introduced into the Serbian tribunals during his administration.

The battle of the fields of Kossovo, near Pristina, which took place on June 15, 1389, when the combined armies from all the South Slavic nations, led by Tzar Lazar of Serbia, and numbering about one hundred and fifty thousand men, met the Turks under Sultan Murat, and whose army numbered about three hundred thousand men, and in which battle the South Slavs were defeated, sealed the doom for all independent South Slav States.

According to legends, the defeat is attributed to Vuk Brankovich, one of the great nobles, who at the critical momentary pair. Good luck, Donnie and Frankie.

Sport Slants

From all indications, the Electrons will be well prepared as the 1935 bowling season is ushered in by the cool breezes. May we warn you that the boys are out for blood and expect to bring home a few peels. From hearsay, the boys will avenge themselves by beating Center and Pittsburgh at least once this year. Look out, the Electrons might shock.

On a Tour With Dan Cupid

And Little Stan

Ely, Minn.—October, crisp, cool; streets in the city of Ely vacant except for a few stragglers. And mingling among them a tall figure in a dark overcoat is strolling along. This particular fellow doesn't seem to mind the coolness of the night, as he is right on time with Danny Cupid. You remember him, the fellow Little Stan travels around with.

Bulgaria succumbed silently in year 1393 to the Turkish invasion. Constantinople fell in year 1453. Smederevo was taken by the Turks in year 1459 and Serbia ceased to exist as a state. Bosnia was conquered in year 1463, Herzegovina in year 1476 and Zela (Montenegro) in year 1499. Part of Montenegro and the Republic of Dubrovnik were the only South Slav states that successfully withstood the Turkish invasion. In year 1552 the Turks succeeded in conquering the Banat of Temesvar and Slavonia. In year 1664 the Turks conquered all of Hungary.

In year 1683 the Turks besieged Vienna, when with the help of the Poles, the Southern Slavs, the Austrian army beat the Turks and Austria was saved.

Austria granted the Southern Slavs special rights and privileges with reference to their languages and custom only whenever their help was advantageous to defeat the Turks. In the 18th century Austria, with the help of the Yugoslavs, recaptured most of the northern Balkan peninsula. When the danger of the Turkish invasions receded Austria took away the grants given the Yugoslavs with reference to their languages and customs. Little Stan thinks that Cupid put it there. Knut Hamsun:

BLAGOSLOV ZEMLJE

(Prevedel Rudolf Kresal)

(Nadaljevanje)

Izak — Bog ve, kako mu je bilo pri duši. Zdeto se je, kakor bi ne bil prav nič nasprotoval, da se mu za naselbino in za njegovo velikansko delo določi visoka cena. Najbrže se mu ni zdelo nemogoče, da ščasoma odplača sto tolarjev, zato ni dejal nobene vež. Delal bo še lahko, kakor je delal doslej, obdeloval bo zemljo, in kar je prestarega gozda, ga bo posekal v drva. Izak ni bil eden tistih, ki preže, on ni stal na straži za srečnimi naključji, delal je.

Inger se je pristavu zahvalila in ga prosila, da pri državi zanje založi kako dobro besedo.

Seveda. Toda odločitev ni v mojih rokah, jaz povem samo svoje mnenje. Koliko pa je star, mali? — Dobrega pol leta. — Fant ali deklica? — Fant.

Pristav ni bil trd, temveč površen in ne pretenkovosten. Svojega zaupnika in cencila, sodnega sluge Brede Olsena ni poslušal, svoj važni posel je uredil kar na slepo in po svoji pameti. To veliko stvar, ki je bila odločilna iz Izaka in njegovoženo in odločilna morda tudi za njune potomce, je odločil na slepo srečo, zapisal je kar tako. Ali proti naseljencem je bil zelo prijazen, iz žepa je potegnil novec, ki se je ves leskefal, in ga malemu Sivertu stisnil v roko, potem je še prijazno pokimal in šel ven k sanem.

Nenadoma je vprašal: Kako pa se pravi kraju?

Pravi? — Kakšno ime nosi? Ime mu moramo dati.

Sellanraa? je dejal pristav. To ime si je pač izmisli, mogoče to sploh ni bilo nikakršno ime, ampak ponovil je: Sellanraa! potom in se odpeljal.

Vse kar na slepo, meja, cena, ime . . .

Nekaj tednov pozneje, ko je bil v vasi, je Izak šlišal, da so bile s pristavom nekakšne težave. Poizvedovali so po raznem denarju, o katerem ni mogel položiti računov in so ga zato ovdalili delžemu sodniku. Da, tako hudo lahko pride. Nekateri ljudje kar tako tavao skozi življenje, pa padejo ob onih, ki gredo s premišljennim korakom.

Nekega dne, ko je bil Izak z enim svojih zadnjih peljajev drv v vasi in se je vračal domov, se je zgodilo da je vozil pristava. Pristav je na vsem lepem s svojo aktovko stopil iz gozda in dejal: Daj, da prisredim!

Nekaj časa sta se peljala, nobeden od njiju ni izpregvoril besede. Zdaj pa zdaj je pristav potegnil steklenico in napravil požrek. Ponudil je tudi Izaku, ki pa se je zahvalil. Bojim se, da se mi želodec pokvari na tem potovanju, je dejal pisar.

Potem je govoril o zadevi Izakovega posestva in je dejal: Stvar sem takoj oddal in jo toplo priporočil. Sellanraa je lepo imel. Prav zaprav bi moral svet debiti zaston, toda če bi bil to zapisal, bi država postala nesramna in bi sama določila ceno. Zapisal sem petdeset tolarjev? — Ah tako, torej niste zapisali sto tolarjev? Pristav je nagubal čelo in premišljeval, potem je dejal: kolikor se morem spomniti, sem zapisal petdeset tolarjev.

Kam pa zdaj potujete? je vprašal Izak. — V tem letnem času? To je huda pot, priti tja čez. — O, že pojde. Ali bi me lahko kospoti spremil? — Pač. Sami ne smete iti.

Dospela sta na naselbino in pristav je prenočil v izbi. Zjutraj je spet napravil požrek iz svoje steklenice in dejal: Prav gotovo si želodec pokvarim na tej poti. Drugače pa je bil prav tak kakor ob prvem obisku; dobrohotno odločen, toda nekam nestrenpen in s svojo usodo le malo zaposljen. Mogoče pa niti ni bilo tako brezupno. Ko je Izak dejal, da ni še ves breg izkrčen, temveč samo majhen del, le nekaj polj, je dal pristav presenetljiv odgovor: To sem pač razumel, ko sem tedaj sedel tu in pisal. Moj voznik Brede pa o teh stvarih nič ne ve, to ti je osel. Ministrstvo ima nekako tabelo. In če se na takem velikem svetu pridelka tako malo sene in krompirja, potem pravi njihova tabela, to je ničvredna zemlja, cenem svet. Jaz sem bil na tvoji strani in svoje izveličanje stavim, da se ta zvijača posreči. Da, dva, tri tisoč mož, kakor si ti, bi morali imeti v delži. Pristav je pokimal in je govoril: Inger! Koliko je star najmlajši? — Zdaj je tri četrt leta star. — In je fant? — Da. —

Ti pa se moraš poprijeti in spraviti svojo zadevo s posestvom kar se da hitro v red, je pristav dejal Izaku. Še nekdo je, ki namrava kupiti približno na pol pota od tod pa do vasi, in potem bo vrednost tal narasla. Najprvo kupi, potem pa naj cena le raste. Tako boš imel vsaj nekaj od vsega svojega dela. Ti si začel ali.

Ljudje so mu bili hvaležni za nasvet in so ga vpraševali, ali ne bo sam uredil zadeve. Odgovoril je, da je on svoje pri tej stvari že storil, zdaj pa, da je vse odvisno od države. Zdaj potujem v Vesterboden in se semkaj več ne povrnem, je dejal kar naravnost.

Dal je Ingri novec, ali to je bilo v resnici preveč. Ne pozabi moji družini v vas primesti kako tele ali oveco za pod nož, moja žena ti bo plačala. Vzemi s seboj tu pa tam tudi par hlabov kozjeva sira; moji otroci ga tako radi jedo, je dejal.

Izak ga je spremjal čez hribe. Na vrhu je ležal trden sneg, tako da jima je bila hoja lahka. Izak je dobil cel tolar.

Tako je pristav Geissler odšel in se ni več vrnil v vas. Ljudje so dejali, da jim je vseeno. Imeli so ga za nezanesljivega človeka in pustolovca. Pa ne, da bi bil premalo vedel, bil je dobro poučen mož, ki se je mnogo učil, pa si je prav zaradi tega preveč dovoljil in porabil denar drugih ljudi. Razvedelo se je, da je pogebnili na neko ostro pisanje okrajnega načelnika Pleyma; toda njegov družini se ni zgodilo nič hudega. Razen žene so bili še trije otroci in so še nadalje ostali v občini. Sicer pa ni dolgo trajalo, da je prispeval iz Švedske denar za primanjkljaj; pristavovi niso bili nič več kot taci v vasi, temveč so ostali iz lastnega nagniba, ker so sami hoteli.

Za Izaka in Inger pa ta Geissler ni bil slab človek; nasprotno. Bog ve, kako neki se novi pristav zavzame za stvar; če ne bo na vse zadnje vse te zadeve s posestvom treba še enkrat urejati!

Okrajni načelnik je v občino poslal enega svojih pisarjev, to je bil novi pristav. Bil je presiromašen, da bi mogel študirati in poslati uradnik, toda sedel je v neki sodni pisarni in bil tam za pisarja petnajst let. Ker ni imel nikoli dovolj denarja, da bi se ozelenil, je ostal sam. Okrajni načelnik Pleym ga je bil prevzel od svojega prednika in mu je dal isto borno plačo, ki jo je imel prej. Heyerdahl je prejemal svojo plačo in pisal dalje.

nad $200 čistega dobička. To je bilo pred dvemi leti, ko se ni zlahka kaj takega napravilo v mali naselbini kakor je Center. Pri tej priliki se moram tudi nekoliko potegniti za čast Centra, namreč, da tista koza ni prislala nepostavno v našo naselbino, kakor se je bil menda nekoč izrazil sobrat Mikec. Koza nam je bila izročena v varstvo in primerno vzgojo čisto po paragrafih, pravilih, postavah in ustvarju, in to za nedolenočen čas. Da nam je bilo poverjeno rednino tiste slavne koze, si še danes štejemo v veliko čast.

Strabane je prijazna naselbina v slovenska dvorana tamkaj je lepo zidan poslopje, postavljeno na ravnnini in z lepimi, modernimi notranjimi prostori. Poleg dvorane teče potok, katerega voda pa je rijava, kakor lisica. Okoli poslopja so lepa senčna drevesa, urejen je le prostor za balincanje in druge udobnosti.

Ko smo prišli v dvorano je bilo tam že precej občinstva po raznih prostorih. Mi smo hoteli seveda vse naenkrat videti in pregledati. Sešli smo se tam s sobrti Mikcem, Žagarjem, Kokličem in številnimi drugimi.

Dvorana je precej obširna in precej moderno urejena, skoraj bolj kakor naša na Centru. Strabanske žene in devojke so dvoranu zelo lepo okincale. Ogledali smo si tudi prostor, kjer dela sobrat Žigman. Pomagala mu je pri delu neka deklica, katera smo vprašali, kako jo kaj plača, pa je rekla, da ne preveč. Pripravila je, da će ji ne bo kaj primaknil, bo zastražila ali celo kvitala. V spodnjih prostorijah je bila postrežba prve vrste. Sobratje Mikec, Koklič ter dosti drugih moških in ženskih strežajev je bilo zelo zaposlenih, kajti občinstvo je prihajalo vedno več. Veliki rojak je prišel iz Pittsburgha in mnogih drugih okoliških naselbin. Vsak je kaj zahteval in takem drenju ni bila igrača vsem postreži. Posebno drenji je bil okoli dveh studentov različnih dobrobit.

Sobrata Terbovca, ki po navadi rad pride v Pensylvanijo, pri tisti priliki nismo videli. Najbrž mu niso obljudili niti rdečih črešenj, niti sladke koruze ali česa drugačega.

On ne pride rad, če se mu v naprej prihaja vedno več. Pripravila je, da postopijo to našo pridelitev. Za dobro večerjo jamči odbor in seveda jamčijo zanjo tudi naše dobro poznanje kuharice. Na svidenje na vetr 23. oktobra! — Za društvo št. 182 JSKJ:

noč in srečo vožnjo nazaj na Center. Njegov pozdrav in vsočila smo vzeli z veseljem na znanje in smo se po dyanjsturni edostnosti srečno "prifurali" nazaj na Center, kjer smo se trudili, pa dobre volje, izročili v varstvo boginji spanja.

Eden srečnih udeležnikov dobi nagrado enega dolarja. Po seji bodo servirana okrepčila in se bo razvila zabava. Pridite vsi! — Pri tej priliki naj še omenim, da bo društvo svete Genoveze priredilo "card & bunco party" 17. oktobra.

Na zadnji seji društva Marije Vnebovzete, št. 182 JSKJ je bilo sklenjeno, da društvo prideri na večer 23. oktobra "chicken dinner" in plesno zabavo. Pridelitev se bo vršila v Slovenskem domu na 57. cesti.

Clanicam našega društva, ki niso bile na zadnji seji, se tem potom naznanja, da bo vsaka članica plačala za tiket, pa če se večerje udeleži ali ne. Člani in članice naših bratskih in sestrških društev v tem mestu so vabljeni, da posetijo to našo pridelitev. Za dobro večerjo jamči odbor in seveda jamčijo zanjo tudi naše dobro poznanje kuharice. Članstvu društva sv. Stefana, št. 26 JSKJ. — Moj zadnji apel na članstvo našega društva, ki je bil nedavno priobčen v Novi Dobi, je imel precej dober odmev. Upati in želeti je, da bi članstvo našega društva tudi v bodoče upoštevalo izredne razmere, v katerih se nahajamo vsled bolezni našega dolegnega tajnika Josepha Pogačarja. Društveni posli se bodo potom odbora in tajnikov družine opravljali kolikor mogoče točno. Seveda računamo na blagohotno sodelovanje in pompol vsega našega članstva.

Kmalu bo tu mesec decembra in z njim dan našega godovanja, kajti občinstvo, druge vrste, da je če delje manj zanimanja za seje. Radi tega bi mogli že spoznati, da se ne obnese več, ako kličemo skupaj na ta veliki bogen.

Poglejmo malo pridelitev podpornih društev, takozvane zavabne večere, ali so res vredni tega imena? Nikdar! Kar naj bo zavabno na teh pridelitevah, če zabavo zadušijo takoj pri vratih z vsemi mogočimi: tekmovalci, srečkami, vstopnicami že za prihodnje leto itd.? Pri tem pa oglasijo, da kako bo "fletno" in z vsem najboljšim postreženo. Marsikateri gost bi iz srca rad serviral tem pridelitevam pelinov komentar v tem ali onem časopisu, ampak ga neče, ker vsakega nekaj zadružuje. Enega prijateljstvo, družega business, tretjega politika itd. "Zabavni" večeri se pa vršijo kar naprej v petek in svetek, če je cenjenim gostom prav ali ne. In kakor znamenja kažejo ob zaključku vsebine ali "zabavnega večera," njih življenje visi na nitki, ker jim preti finančni mrtvoud; in čim prej se to zgoditi, tem bolje.

Člani, kateri niste navdušeni za "zavabne večere," pridite na sejo, ter povejte ostalim, da zato ne prihajate na seje, ker se preveč sklepata o zabavah na račun praznega žepa.

Kdor more, naj pride na sejo društva št. 71 JSKJ, v nedeljo 20. oktobra ob 9:30 dopoldne.

dosti udobnosti tako, da bo moral biti vsak zadovoljen.

Ob enem sporočam, da se bodo naše društvene seje od zdaj zanaprej vršile v že prej omenjeni dvorani, torej prihodnja seje 9. novembra t. l. se bo vršila v "HARMONY" dvorani ob navadnem času, to je, ob 7. uri večer. Da se ne pozabi, da se bo veselica pričela 19. oktobra ob 8. uri večer. Pri-

Dopisi v naših glasilih so bolj formalnega pomena, to je približno toliko, da zadostuje sklepnu društva, ako je bil tak sklep osvojen, da moraš namreč dopis v glasilo poslati, ne glede koliko uspeha bo imel. Posebno malo zadeže, če sploh kaj, kadar pozivljamo člane k veliki udeležbi na sejo zaradi kakšne "važne" zadeve itd.

V tem oziru smo si precejšno mero sami krivi, ker oznanjamamo v teh dopisih, da bo na prihodnji seji nekaj "silno važnega" za ukrepati, in če je kateri član vzel tiste "važnosti" resno, se je na seji prepričal, da nič važnega slišal, ampak "same old story," zakar je bil nekaj razočaran. Čutil se je na tihem malo potegnjenega, da posetijo to našo pridelitev. Za dobro večerjo jamči odbor in seveda jamčijo zanjo tudi naše dobro poznanje kuharice. Na svidenje na vetr 23. oktobra! — Za društvo št. 182 JSKJ:
