PREGLED NAJVAŽNEJŠIH DOGODKOV

Predsedniška kampanja že v polnem teku – Reagan branil svojo politiko pred napadi Mondalea in Ferraro

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Tako na svoji televizirani tiskovni konferenci pretekli torek zvečer kot v kampanjskih nastopih v Teksasu ta teden je predsednik Reagan branil svojo politiko in zavrnil trditve demokratskih tekmecev Walterja Mondalea in Geraldine Ferraro, da je njegova politika škodovala revnejšim in starejšim slojem, pomagala pa predvsem bogatejšim. Nobenih podatkov ni, ki bi potrdile take očitke, je dejal Reagan. V Teksasu je vprašal poslušalce, ali se je njihov gmojni položaj izboljšal v času njegovega predsednikovanja. Odgovor je bil pritrdilen, kar je bilo seveda tudi pričakovati, vendar je Reagan govoril tudi za širšo javnost.

Reagan je tudi zanikal, da namerava predlagati povišitev zveznih davkov po novembrskih volitvah. Na demokratski konvenciji je bil Mondale dejal, da ima Reagan načrt za takšno povišitev, a se ne bo upal to povedati javno pred volitvami. Mondale je pa priznal, da bo on sam predlagal povišitev davkov, ker je ta korak edina rešitev za ogromen primanjkljaj v zveznem proračunu.

Demokrati gledajo v preteklost, je dejal Reagan v Teksasu, mi republikanci pa v bodočnost. Politični analitiki smatrajo, da je Teksas ena ključnih držav v predsedniški kampanji. Kot kaže, imajo republikanci prednost deloma zato, ker je podpredsednik George Bush iz te države.

CIENFUEGOS, Kuba – Včeraj so na Kubi praznovali 31. obletnico napada na neko vojaško oporišče, ki ga smatra Fidel Castro za začetek revolucije zoper takratnega samodržca Fulgencia Batiste. Na oblast na Kubi je Castro prišel l. 1959. Osrednja proslava je bila v mestu Cienfuegos. Slavnostno govornik je bil Castro, ki je govoril tri ure. Med drugim je izrazil pripravljenost na pogajanja z ZDA glede Srednje Amerike in tudi o vrnitvi domov tistih kubanskih beguncev-kriminalcev, ki jih je pred tremi leti poslal v ZDA skupaj z drugimi begunci.

Castro je sicer kritiziral politiko ZDA do Kube in Srednje in Latinske Amerike, ni pa osebno napadal predsednika Reagana. Pohvalno je kubanski samodržec govoril o obisku Jesseja Jacksona. Prav tako je Castro hvalil kubanski družbeni sistem ter obljubil, da Kuba ne bo nikoli opustila politike tesnega sodelovanja s Sovjetsko zvezo. Reaganova administracija je sicer pripravljena pristati na pogajanja s Kubo glede določenih zadev, vendar o kakem bistvenem izboljšanju odnosov ali sploh vzpostavitvi diplomatskih stikov ni govora.

Zvezni senat odobril povišitev Social Security pokojnin – Spodnji dom bo brez dvoma soglašal, za predlog je tudi Reagan

WASHINGTON, D.C. – Sinoči je zvezni senat z ogromno večino 86:3 odobril predlog, po katerem bodo Social Security pokojnine povišane začenši s 1. januarjem 1985. Nobenega dvoma ni, da bo tudi predstavniški dom predlog odobril, predsednik Reagan je pa rekel na svoji tiskovni konferenci pretekli torek, da podpira predlog.

Po veljavnem zveznem zakonu, so pokojnine Social Security povišane le pod pogojem, da znaša inflacijska stopnja najmanj

3 odstotke v letu. Ker bo ta stopnja letos po vsej verjetnosti manjša od 3%, bi ne prišlo do povišitve Social Security pokojnin v letu 1985. Tega pa politiki obeh strank niso hoteli in zato je prišlo do omenjenega zakonskega osnutka, ki bo imel lahek pot skozi kongres. Kot kaže, bo povišitev vseh Social Security pokojnin znašala okoli 3%, kar pomeni $3 več za vsakih sto dolarjev sedanje pokojnine.

Precej nejasnosti v Izraelu po volitvah – V teku pogajanja o koalicijski vladi – Prednost baje ima premier Jitžak Šamir JERUZALEM, Izr. – Politična slika v Izraelu po ponedeljkovih parlamentarnih volitvah je še vedno nejasna. Vladajoča Likud stranka je sicer v precejšnji meri obdržala položaj, napredovala pa je tudi vodilna opozicijska stranka, ki ji načeljuje Šimon Peres. Potrebna bo koalicijska vlada, a ni še znano, ali jo bodo sestavili likudovci pod premierom Jitžakom Šamirjem ali laburisti. Opazovalci političnih razmer dajejo trenutno prednost Šamirju, vendar poudarjajo, da bo vsaka vlada šibka, ker bo odvisna od glasov majhnih in ideološko sprtih strank. Zaradi tega, govorijo nekateri analitiki o možnosti novih volitvah v nekaj mesecih.

Laburistični vodja Peres je zmernejši v svoji politiki od Šamirja. V volivni kampanji je Peres dejal med drugim, da bi upočasnil postavljanje novih židovskih naselbin na arabskem ozemlju ter da bi v zunanji politiki iskal mirovno pogodbo z Jordanijo. V Beli hiši in State Departmentu so upali, da bo na volitvah zmagal Peres nad Šamirjem, ker je slednji ideološki naslednik Menahema Begina in Beginove politike.

Šibka vlada v Izraelu pomeni tudi, pripominjajo analitiki, da ne bo mogoče spoprijeti z gospodarskimi težavami v državi. Inflacijska stopnja je namreč dosegla 400% na leto. Kot kaže, bodo Izraelci iskali veliko več finančne pomoči od ZDA in jo po vsej verjetnosti, upoštevajoč razporeditev v kongresu in Beli hiši, tudi dobili.

Jutri začetek poletnih olimpijskih iger v Los Angelesu – Trajale bodo 16 dni – Jugoslovanska ekipa šteje 147 športnikov

LOS ANGELES, Kalif. – Jutri se začnejo letošnje olimpijske igre v tem mestu. Trajale bodo do 12. avgusta. Sovjetska zveza in velika večina komunističnih držav igre bojkotirajo, izjeme so Jugoslavija, Romunija in Kitajska. Jugoslovanska ekipa šteje 147 športnikov in športnic, vsega skupaj pa bo v okviru iger v Los Angelesu 210 oseb. Kot kaže, imajo atleti SFRJ možnosti za nekaj kolajn. V ekipi je tudi več Slovencev, med njimi znana plavalca Borut in Damjan Petrič in skakalka v višino Lidija Lapajne, ki je iz Nove Gorice.

V ameriški ekipi je med največjimi upi za zlato kolajno gimnast Peter Vidmar, ki je slovenskega rodu in trenutno eden najboljših na svetu.

Včeraj zopet nesreča Amtrak vlada, tokrat v Južni Karolini – Povzročitelj nesreče tovorni avto, ki je stal na železniškem tiru GOOSE CREEK, S.C. – Sinoči je zopet prišlo do nesreče Amtrak vlaka, že peti v tem mesecu. Sinočnja nesreča je povzročil tovorni avto, ki je bil na železniškem tiru, ko je vanj trčil vlak. Strojevodja vlaka nesreče ni mogel preprečiti. Ubita je bila ženska, potnica v tovornem avtu, njen mož pa je bil le lažje ranjen.

Pozdravljeni! –

Sinoči sta prispela v naše mesto koprski škof Janez Jenko in urednik Družine dr. Drago Klemenčič. Med nami bosta dobra dva tedna. Pretekli torek smo v AD objavili spored srečanj in drugih nastopov škofa Jenka in dr. Klemenčiča, angleški prevod je pa v današnjem angleškem delu. Pozdravljeni med nami!

Škof Jenko bo maševal –

Jutri popoldne, ob 3h bo škof Jenko maševal za stanovalce Slovenskega doma za ostarele na Neff Rd., to nedeljo dopoldne ob 10.30 pa pri Sv. Vidu. Po nedeljski maši bo sprejem v avditoriju. Vabljeni!

Rev. Philip Ferjan bolan –

Včeraj nas je po telefonu obvestil č.g. Karl Wolbang, da je Rev. Philip Feryan, OFM, prestal težko operacijo v Teksasu. Naprošeni ste, da se Rev. Feryana spominjate v molitvi. Operiran je bil v ponedeljek.

Velika razprodaja –

V ponedeljek, 30. julija, se bo začela velika razprodaja vsega blaga v Anzlovarjevi trgovini, 6214 St. Clair Ave. Nekateri popusti segajo kar do 50%. Več v oglasu v angleškem delu današnje AD.

Starokrajski festival –

V sredo, 1. avgusta, se bo začel že tradicionalni Starokrajski piknik, ki ga organizirajo trgovci na E. 185. cesti s radijskim napovedovalcem Tonyjem Petkovškom na čelu. Festival bo trajal vse do nedelje, 5. avgusta. Vsi vabljeni!

Goljufi nikoli ne počivajo –

Pretekli petek ste v angleškem delu A.D. gotovo brali o primeru, v katerem so goljufi dobili več kot $20,000 od neke Slovenke, ki živi v collinwoodski okolici. Večkrat smo v našem listu svetovali, naj ne zaupajte vam neznanih ljudi, predvsem ne, ko se zanimajo za vaš denar. Včerajšnji Cleveland Plain Dealer je poročal, da so policisti goljufe le aretirali, ako bo pa ogoljufana rojakinja dobila nazaj svojih izgubljenih $23,283 – ali vsaj del tega denarja – je odprto vprašanje. Naj bo ta žalosten primer svarilo za vse bralce našega lista!

VREME

Pretežno oblačno danes z možnostjo dežja. Najvišja temperatura okoli 70° F. Spremenljivo oblačno jutri, zopet z možnostjo dežja in najvišjo temperaturo okoli 73° F. V nedeljo deloma sončno z najvišjo temperaturo okoli 75° F. Isto vreme tudi v ponedeljek in torek. Najvišja temperatura oba dni v srednjih 70-ih.

Očetovo poslanstvo v družini

Zadnje čase se mnogo govori in piše v zvezi z družino. Družina je v krizi, stare vrednote ne veljajo več, novih pa še nimamo. V moderni družini je oče izgubil svojo veljavo, žena pa meša enakopravnost z enakostjo. Vedno več je družin, v katerih otroci doživljajo ozračje sovraštva, nezaupanja, razočaranja in zato uhajajo na slaba pota. To je samo nekaj primerov, ki jih lahko izsledimo po raznih revijah in ki govorijo o družini.

Vsekakor človeštvo bolj in bolj spoznava, kaj pomeni družina za vzgojo otrok, torej za našo bodočnost. Razumljivo je torej, da bomo čim večjo skrb in pažnjo posvečali prav našim družinam. Trudili se bomo, da bomo pri naših otrocih oblikovali prava čustva, dobro voljo in zdravo presojo. Vse drugo, kot pravi evangelij, bo navrženo.

Mnogi ugovarjajo, da je za tako delo potrebno ogromnega časa. Tega pa danes ni. Vsi smo zaposleni in trudni, ko se po napornem delu vračamo domov. Vendar tudi če posvečamo lastnim otrokom veliko ur na dan, to ne pomeni še biti dober vzgojitelj. Ni važno, koliko časa jim posvečamo, mnogo važnejše je, kdo smo. Če smo mi dobri in trdni, če smo srečni in veseli, bodo tudi naši otroci prejeli te darove. Bodimo torej mi starši prežeti s plemenitostjo, polni dobre volje in zdrave presoje. Naš prvi cilj naj ne bo vzgajanje naših otrok, ampak najprej in predvsem vzgoja nas samih. Edino s svojim zgledom bomo našim otrokom luč v temi.

Seveda pa je to mnogo lažje govoriti kot narediti. Goto-vo, ni lahko biti dober oče. Vendar kdor se je odločil, da bo postal oče, mora dati temu nazivu tudi ustrezno vsebino. Tradicionalno pojmovanje, da je vloga matere v družini in zlasti pri vzgoji pomembnejša kot očetova, ni le razbremenilo očeta in zmanjševalo njegovo udeležbo v večini družinskih opravil, temveč nam še sedaj zatira pogled in nam zamegljuje predstave o tem, kakšen pomen ima oče v današnji družini in kakšna je njegova vloga pri vzgoji otrok.

Kakšna je tradicionalna predstava o očetu? Oče je glava družine, nedostopen, vzvišen, vsi se ga bojijo, vsi se mu morajo klanjati, je nedosegljiv. Tak je bil nekoč oče in mogoče je še.

Vendar se je v sodobni družini vloga očeta spremenila. Prejšnji gospodovalni oče, egoist, prežet z občutkom večje vrednosti počasi izginja. Na njegovo mesto prihaja vedno pogostejše oče zaupnik in prijatelj, ne pa tiran. Nedvomno je to ena največjih pridobitev, ki jih je otroku prinesla današnja družba. Oče postaja spet človek. Naraven, dobrohoten, pripravljen pomagati, igrati se z otroki. Če je oče prijatelj, se otroku ni treba več bati, mu ni treba lagati, se skrivati pred njim, prikrivati mu svojih čustev veselja in igrive živahnosti. Kot človek in prijatelj se lahko oče povsem približa otroku. Lepo je gledati, kako otrok uživa, ko se lahko z očetom sproščeno igra. Zakaj bi oče otroku ne naredil tega veselja?

Tako pojmovano očetovstvo ni napor ali muka, temveč polno in bogato roditeljsko življenje, katerega sad je zdrav in zadovoljen otrok.

Še nekaj velja ob vsem tem povedati. Zavedati se moramo, da smo slovenska družina. V naših družinah naj se torej sliši slovenska beseda. Učimo svoje otroke lepe slovenske govorice, učimo jih, naj se je ne sramujejo, ker ni lepše stvari pod soncem kot melodija, ki smo jo prvič slišali iz ust naše matere. Slovenski jezik je najdražja dota, ki smo

Pred Baragovima dneva 1984

LEMONT, Ill. - Pred »Baragovima dneva 1984« smo doživeli dvoje, kar je vplivalo na pripravo na to vsakoletno obhajanje. S tem pa so postale naloge, ki izhajajo iz tega obhajanja, večje. Vse premalo se zavedamo, da vsak uspeh pri naša večje obveznosti.

Pred nekaj meseci smo dobili novo književno delo o Baragu: »Duhovni lik škofa Friderika Baraga«, napisal dr. Andrej Pirš. S tem delom je dosegel naslov doktorja teologije. Ta knjiga je pomembna, ker je v njej opisana duhovna podoba misijonarja in škofa Friderika Baraga. Njegovi nauki, ki so vodili njegovo misijonsko in dušnopastirsko delo, so imeli namen utrditi vernost katoličanov in jih usposobiti za odpor proti zunanjim sovražnikom Cerkve, ki so v imenu prosvetljenstva in napredka zavrgli možnost razodetja in vpliva vere na javno življenje. V tej knjigi je prikazano, da so Baragovi verski nauki skladni z nauki drugega vatikanskega koncila.

Drugi dogodek je bil izid Baragove poštne dopisnice, ki jo je izdal vrhovni urad »The United States Postal Service«. Da je prišlo do tega, je bilo treba prikazati Baragovo delo, ki je bilo popolnoma misijonskega značaja, pod takim vidikom, da je bilo dokazano, da je Baragovo delovanje koristilo prosvetnemu in družbenemu napredku Indijancev in drugih prebivalcev na področju njegovega misijona v deželah Velikih jezer. Z izidom Baragove dopisnice je bilo prvikrat od vrhovnega oddelka federalne vlade prikazano Baragovo delo, ki zasluži priznanje tudi v našem času. Namen javnega priznanja je, prikazati sedanjim državljanom ZDA zglede dejavnosti in žrtev ljudi, ki so gradili ZDA.

Izid Baragove dopisnice je bil združen s slovesnim programom v Marquettu, Michigan, ki je središče Baragovega delovanja in škofije, katere prvi škof je bil Friderik Baraga. Slovesnosti so se udeležili civilni in verski dostojanstveniki, razni zastopniki krajevnih in vrhovnih državnih oblasti, zastopniki Baragove zveze in domačini.

»Postmaster General« William F. Bolger, ki je določil, da se izda Baragova dopisnica v Marquettu na Baragovo rojstni dan 29. junija 1984, je poslal na to slovesnost svojega asistenta William-a T. Johnstone-a, ki je »Assistant Postmaster General«. On je imel tudi glavni govor, v katerem je osvetlil Baragove zasluge za kulturni in socialni napredek Indijancev na področju Velikih jezer. Program je vodil »Postmaster« v Marquettu James J. Holtz.

The Hon. Frank J. Lausche, bivši senator in guverner Ohia, je bil povabljen, a ni mogel priti, prebrano pa je bilo njegovo pismo. Goste je pozdravil David Swanda, City Manager, Marquette, Mich. Med zastopniki je bil krajevni katoliški škof Most Rev. Mark F. Schmitt in episkopalni škof škofije Northern Michigan Rt. Rev. Thomas K. Ray, ki je zaključil slovesnost z blagoslovom. Vojaki »K. J. OPATU V SPOMIN

(V angleščini napisal Stanley J. Frank; v slovenščino prestavil Dan J. Postotnik.)

CLEVELAND, O. - Sredi junija smo prejeli novico, da je po dolgi in mučni bolezni umrl dne 16. julija 1984 v Coloradu preč. g. opat Bonaventura Bandi, O.S.B., upokojeni škof opatijske sv. Križa v Canon City, Colorado.

Sv. maša zadušnica se bo brala v njegov spomin v cerkvi sv. Vida v petek, 3. avgusta 1984, ob 7. uri zvečer. Farani in njegovi prijatelji so lepo vabljeni, da se te sv. maše udeležijo.

Pokojnik se je rodil v mestu Brooklyn, New York, 26. aprila 1914. Starši so mu dali ime Lovrenc. Ko je bil še fantiček, se je družina preselila v Cleveland, Ohio, v svetovidsko naselbino. Obiskoval je farno šolo pri Sv. Vidu, nato pa šolanje nadaljeval na višji šoli Cathedral Latin in univerzi John Carroll.

Njegova starša, in posebno njegova mati, sta veliko pomagala pri farnih prireditvah, in kjerkoli je bila potrebna njuna pomoč.

Ko je mladi Lovrenc Bandi dosegel pravo starost, je postal mašni strežnik. Takrat župnik pri Sv. Vidu, č.g. Jernej Ponikvar, je hitro spoznal, da ima mladi Lovrenc tiste lastnosti, ki bi ga lahko vodile do duhoso ob začetku programa pred petjem državne himne prinesli zastavo ZDA in svojo zastavo in ju postavili na desno in levo stran odra, na katerem so bili častni gostje.

Predstavnike krajevnih društev Baragove zveze je predstavil direktor Baragove zveze Rev. Charles Strelick: dva zastopnika iz Clevelanda, iz Chicaga Antona Gabra ml., predsednika čikaške Baragove zveze in njegovo mamo Ano Gaber, Corinne Leskovar, zastopnica SZZ, P. Fortunata Zorman OFM, urednika Ave Maria in zastopnika slovenskih frančiškanov iz Lemonta in p. Tadej Trpina, župnika pri Sv. Jožefu v Jolietu.

Vsi navzoči smo dobili program, ki ga je izdal krajevni poštni urad. Na programu so bile opisane zasluge škofa Friderika Baraga in dodana je bila tudi Baragova poštna dopisnica z datumom 29. junij 1984, Marquette, Michigan.

vniškega stanu. Kakor je č.g. Ponikvar pomagal drugim, tako je tudi Lovrenc vzel pod svoje okrilje in mu usmeril pot do duhovniškega poklica.

Gospodarska kriza v tridesetih letih je bila zelo huda, in je dostim mladim prikrajšala pot do višje izobrazbe. Lovrenc Bandi pa je vztrajal in si pomagal sam, ker starši niso mogli plačati vse šolnine. Bil je najstarejši izmed petih otrok v družini.

Čeprav mu šolanje in delna zaposlitev ni dopustila dosti prostega časa, je bil Lovrenc Bandi aktiven v farni skupnosti. Bil je med organizatorji Društva Najsvetejšega Imena pri Sv. Vidu in njegov prvi tajnik. Ravno letos obhaja DNIJ svojo 50-letnico in je bil njegov namen, se te proslave to jesen udeležiti. Organiziral je tudi moški pevski zbor članov DNIJ, ki je pel pri društvenih mesečnih mašah. Uvidel je potrebo za objavo farnih novic in postal urednik prvega cerkvenega bulletina.

Čeprav obložen z delom, šolanjem in z obveznostmi pri fari in doma, Lovrenc Bandi ni nikdar pozabil, kaj je njegov pravi cilj: postati duhovnik v Gospodovem vinogradu. Junija 1936. leta nas je zapustil in se vpisal v benediktinsko semenišče v Canon City, Colorado. Po končanih študijah, ko je bil star 28 let, je bil Lovrenc Bandi posvečen v duhovnika, reda Benediktincev, dne 16. maja 1942. Daroval je svojo prvo slovesno sv. mašo v cerkvi sv. Vida dva tedna kasneje, 30. maja 1942.

Vrnil se je v Colorado in tam začel dolgo in odlično duhovniško kariero. Bil je načelnik in ravnatelj šole, direktor taborišča, podpredstojnik, poslovni upravitelj in, končno, predstojnik. Bil je tudi ustanovni član Narodne katoliške taboriščne družbe ter bil župnik (dalje na 4. str.)

jo dobili od staršev. Skrbno smo ga dolžni ohraniti, olepšati in zapustiti svojim otrokom. Škof Anton Martin Slomšek, ta izredna osebnost, da ga želimo celo povzdigniti na oltar, je napisal:

Oj ljubi, lepi in pošteni slovenski materni jezik, s katerim sem prvič svojo ljubeznivo mamo in dobrega ateja klical, v katerem so me moja mati učili Boga spoznati, v katerem sem prvič svojega Stvarnika častil. Tebe, materinski jezik, hočem kakor najdražji spomin svojih rajnih staršev hvaležno spoštovati in ohraniti in skrbeti, kolikor morem, za tvojo čast in lepoto.

V slovenskem jeziku hočem do svoje poslednje ure hvaliti Boga, v slovenskem jeziku učiti moje ljube brate in sestre.

Želim kot hvaležen sin svoje ljube matere: kakor je moja prva beseda slovenska bila, naj slovenska bo tudi moja poslednja beseda.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

je za nami. Vreme je bilo nadvse prijetno. Menda še noben piknik ni bil v tem pogledu tako blagoslovljen. Sonce nas je božalo in rahel vetrič je podil na obzorju rahle oblake, ki so se kasneje razblinili v meglice. Slovenska pristava je bila že ob 10. dopoldne v nedeljo, 8. julija, kot v pričakovanju vsega, kar se je na njej čez dan dogajalo.

Opoldne je bil Orlov vrh že obljuden in nad sto rojakov je prisostvovalo sv. maši za vse naše misijonarje, misijonske sodelavce MZA in za vse namene onih, ki so bili prisotni. G. Frank Kuhel in ga. Marica Lavriša sta čitela berili, ga. Mary Kokal je vodila petje in g. Lojze Petelin je pomagal z g. Kuhlom pripraviti oltar in pobrati nabirko pri sv. maši.

Duhovni vodja MZA g. Charles Wolbang je opravil sv. mašo in govoril o važnosti in lepoti misijonskega sodelovanja. Vključil je v Najsvetejšo Daritev vse, ki so nas že zapustili, med drugimi g. Albina Kladnika in s. Magdaleno Kajnič, kot gđ. Elko Pretnar in go. Mary Malovrh. Spomnili smo se vseh bolnih in trpečih v zapuščenosti, kot tudi potreb vseh sodelujočih družin in posameznikov. Mislili smo na vse naše misijonarje in misijonark, saj je to vsako leto dan, ko vsi na pikniku misijonsko sodelovanje doživljamo na svojški način.

Po sv. maši je večina prisotnih sedla h kosilu, saj so v kuhinji naše zveste kuharice že pridno pripravljale za lačne marsikaj, kar najraje ob piknikih postrežejo: roast beef, segedin golaž, solato, krompir, kruh in pecivo z dobro kavo in raznimi pijačami za take, ki radi izbirajo.

G. Tony Colnar je letos prinesel iz svojega vrta krasne drobne vrtnice in njegova mama ga. Frances Barman je razlagala njihova imena, ko je »magic carousel« obtičala na mojem suknjiču. G. Janez Prosen je prinesel lepe nageljne v lončkih, ki so jih ljudje hitro kupili.

Pecivo je bilo na izbiri

in so vsega kupili, kakor so ga dobre žene prinašale: Marija Goršek, Ivanka Tominec, Nežka Tominec, Mihaela Zakrajšek, Jelka Kuhel, Frances Kosem, Pepca Tominc, Marija Miklavčič, Marija Marolt, Mary Kokal, Mary Vrhovnik, Anica Nemec, Vida Švajger, Tončka Urankar, Mary Štrancar, Cilka Tominc, Stanka Grdadolnik, Margaret Rebol, Milena Gobetz, Hermina Balažič, Marija Žakelj, Ludmila Škerl, Helena Gorshe, Vida Jakomin, Maria Ribič, Angela Hribar, Mari Celestina, Marica Lavriša, Julka Zalar, Tončka Lamovec, Paula Sršen in več drugih, ki so prinesle pecivo kot so na piknik prihajale.

Letos je MZA prosila tudi za dovoljenje točiti alkoholne pijače: Frank Kuhel, Miro Celestina, Štefan Marolt, Vinko Rožman, Milan Goršek, Rudi Knez in Roman Švajger in več drugih je pomagalo točiti tudi mnogo lahkih pijač in prodajati sladoled, ki ga imajo odrasli ne odpovejo radi, kadar postane vroče. »Mladi harmonikarji« so letos plačali za to dovoljenje, ki je stalo lepih $63.00.

Pri prodaji listkov

za hrano in pijačo so se vrstili razni odborniki in odbornice Odseka celo popoldne do 9. ure zvečer, ko se je Pristava začela polagoma prazniti.

Ves čas je bila v akciji ga. Mary Miklavčič, ki je prodajala listke za žrebanje na Občnem zboru dva dni kasneje, pa tudi za sliko Martuljkove skupine, ki jo je daroval g. Janez Povirk, kot tudi za prt in lepo vazo za cvetlice.

Prvi dobitnik $150 je zadela Marija Zupančič; afgan mladi Jože Celestina, ki se bo v kratkem poročil; Mihael Lekan je zadel posebno posodo; Michelle Decere iz Harrison, N.Y. $50; Helena Gorshe »silverware«; Mary Grčar »Corningware«; Andrew Urbas 3 zvezke dr. Rožmanovega življenjepisa; Miha Vrenko je zadel Povirkovo sliko; Francka Hočevar prt in Poldi Bojc vazo.

Iz Toronta je bila na pikniku gđ. Julka Zarnik, ki je pomagala pri pecivu, z nekaterimi drugimi.

Mimo že omenjenih, ki so prinesle pecivo in mnogo pomagale potem v kuhinji ali drugod, smo opazili še Anico Knez, Mary Prosen, Veroniko Gerič, Anico Košir, Ivanko Povirk in Francko Merela.

Bernard Lavriša je pomagal, kjer je bilo potrebno, in Rudi Knez je pripravil petje za litanije Matere božje ob petih popoldne pri kapelici. Pristopili so še župnik Jože Božnar ter Roman Švajger, Tone Nemec, Jernej Slak, Frank Lovšin, Janez Povirk in Fr. Wolbang. Orlov vrh je bil precej poln in krasno petje Marijinih himn je donelo v dolino pod nami. Župnik g. Victor Tomc je prihitel med nas in Fr. Joseph Lekan. Zadržan je bil g. dr. Pavle Krajnik. Salezijanec g. Louis Tomc je povabljen dejal, da bi ga lahko »popikali komarji«. Pa je dobri Bog vedel, da želimo pomagati misijonarjem in so se pasli drugod.

Po litanijah je do 9. zvečer igral ansambel Triglav: John Nemec, Dominic in Emily Gorshe, Cathie Nemec in Marvin Špehar. Veseli smo bili njihovih naporov.

Med gosti smo opazili

družino Erika Kovačiča iz Washingtona, D.C., in gđ. Tončko Cigale iz istega mesta. Iz Girarda, Ohio, sta prihitela Stanko in Ivana Seljak. Advokat Albin Lipold je prišel med nas in omenil, da je finančno poslovanje MZA doseglo lanskono leto zavidljivo stanje in da so bile vse knjige in obračuni v odličnem redu pod blagajnikom Štefanom Maroltom, ob

Prevzv. škof Janez Jenko in dr. Drago Klemenčič!

Pozdravljeni med nami!

Slovensko-ameriški Primorski klub
v Clevelandu

sodelovanju Rudija Kneza.

Za spremembo letos ni bilo med nami nobenega misijonarja, čeprav je bil na kontinentu dober teden preje župnik g. Janez Grlic iz Venezuele, ki bi zelo rad na pikniku ostal, a ni imel več kot dva tedna časa za obiske med nami. Odfrčal je nazaj iz Chicaga.

Najstarejša misijonska sodelavka med nami je bila gđ. Jožefa Staniša, mlada 91 let.

Družina Franka in Pauline Pustotnik iz Geneve, ki je pred leti presenetila piknik z živim, mladim teličkom, je pripravljena nanovo storiti nekaj, kar še nismo doživeli. Ponudila je za drugo leto za piknik mladega kozlička, ki ga bodo vtaknili v »kajbico«, da bo otrokom v veselje. Odlična ideja, ki smo je bili zelo veseli.

je bil med nami ves popoldan in lahko je bilo z njim urediti, kar smo potrebovali. Zvečer je tudi g. blagajnik Pristave pomagal urediti račune, da smo lahko plačali dolgove še isti dan, predno smo se vrnili v mesto.

Več ljudi je omenilo, da bi raje videli, če bi zvočniki med piknikom mirovali, češ, da se je težko pogovarjati, če se močni glasovi križajo v zraku. Temu bo v bodoče lahko odpomoči. Res je bilo opaziti vseprek skupinice rojakov, ki so se mirno meseboj pogovarjali in duhovno ter misijonsko zbliževali.

Levji delež za vso pripravo na piknik je imel odbor MZA Cleveland in predsednica ga. Marica Lavriševa, ki mu predseduje že celih 10 let. Na Občnem zboru v torek, 10. julija, je bil dosednji odbor v celoti znova potrjen. Pogrešali smo tri odbornike. Prav je, dfa se na Občnem zboru, ki se je s sv. mašo začel in je doživel lepo udeležbo kakih 30 rojakov, vsi sodelujoči srečamo.

cerkve sv. Mihaela v Canon Cityju, cerkve Presvetega Srca v Boulder, Colo., in kaplan Penrose bolnišnice v Colorado Springsu.

Dalje, študiral je na Columbia in Catholic univerzah. Prejel je M.A. v ameriški literaturi od Seton Hall univerze l. 1949. Poučeval je angleščino, verouk, novinarstvo, tipkanje, poleg tega pa še dirigiral šolski pevski zbor.

Dne 3. maja 1976, ko je bil star 62 let, je bil č.g. Bonaventura Bandi ustoličen kot peti opat ali škof opatiije sv. Križa v Canon Cityju.

Ko je nastopil to visoko in odgovorno službo, je bil opat Bandi že bolan. Ko mu je bilo 58 let, je moral v bolnico in se podvreči nevarni operaciji. Imel je namreč rak. Zdravniki so mu takrat dali le 6 mesecev življenja. Z zdravljenjem in po več operacijah, se je teh 6 mesecev podaljšalo na 12 let. Toda ta kruta bolezen ga je polagoma priklenila tako, da ni mogel več izvrševati svojih duhovnih posli. Skozi vsa leta njegove bolezni je pokojni potrpežljivo prenašal svoje trpljenje z zaupanjem v Boga ter z besedo in zgledom dajal spodbudo drugim, ki so bolehal za isto kruto boleznijo.

Kljub temu, da je bilo njegovo duhovniško delo koncentrirano na ameriškem zahodu, mi v fari sv. Vida v Clevelandu moramo biti ponosni na tega energična sofarana, ki je zrastel v naši naselbini in je bil sin naše slovenske fare sv. Vida!

Predragi opat Bonaventura Bandi! Odslužil si svoje delo na zemlji. Bil si vedno zvest svojemu poklicu in pomagal z vzgojo neštetim študentom, ki se Te bodo spominjali sedaj in v poznejših letih s hvaležnostjo v njih srcih. Bog naj Ti obilo poplača za vsa Tvoja dobra dela in trpljenje tu na zemlji, in naj Ti podari večno veselje v nebesih!

V priznanje o. Bandijevega dela kot duhovnik in vzgojitelj benediktinskega reda, je bil ustanovljen štipendijski sklad v svrhu finančno pomoč potrebnim študentom. Prispevke lahko pošljete na sledeči naslov: Abbot Bonaventure Bandi Scholarship Fund, Holy Cross Abbey, Canon City, Colorado 81212.

Računalniki – novi sošolci

Podatki o tem, kako hitro se učilnice ameriških šol polnijo z računalniki, so naravnost presenetljivi. Število šolskih računalnikov raste iz dneva v dan, da ni mogoče zapisati točne številke, koliko jih je ta čas po šolah, v nekaterih šolah pride en računalnik že na devet učencev. Toda za temi podatki se skrivajo manj razveseljive stvari.

Študije, ki so jih o računalnikih v šolah opravili, kažejo, da samo število teh naprav še zdaleč ne pomeni, da se računalniki tudi enako učinkovito uporabljajo. Poprečni čas, ki ga učenci posvetijo delu z računalnikom, je zelo majhen in ne preseže ene šolske ure na teden, ponekod pa je še krajši.

Druga plat izrabe šolskih računalnikov pa je tudi neugodna. Primerjava kaže, da v ekonomsko premožnejših šolskih sistemih, kjer se šolajo otroci iz premožnejših slojev, tu gre večinoma za belce, uvažajo boljše in uporabnejše učne metode, medtem ko v revnejših šolskih sistemih, kjer je običajno veliko črnega prebivalstva, uvažajo skromnejši in manj perspektiven pouk računalništva.

Reagan Salutes World Struggle for Freedom

Remarks of President Reagan at signing ceremony for Captive Nations Week Proclamation on July 16, 1984:

THE PRESIDENT: I know I speak for Vice President Bush when I say that we're delighted to have you all here and delighted to welcome you. But I'm very much aware that in your case that word "delight" does not nearly suffice.

I look at you and I know I'm looking at people who have seen and suffered the full gamut of totalitarian terror. Some of you lost friends and loved ones in your struggles, and some of you risked your lives and all your earthly belongings. And you'll bear scars for the rest of your life.

You're men and women of courage, heroes who have devoted a lifetime to struggle for God's greatest gift — for freedom. And for that, I can only say I'm honored to be here with you today, and I'll be proud to stand by you always.

You understand that the struggle for freedom is the preeminent struggle of our time. One of the great tragedies of our age is that ugly, sinister walls continue to deny for the millions trapped behind them the most basic yearnings of the human spirit. And let us make it plain that we must and will condemn all tyrants who deny their citizens human rights, whether they be dictators of the left or the right.

I've often thought to myself — in fact, I've mentioned a few times — I don't think there is a left or right because if you follow that far enough either way, you suddenly find they've come together, and they all have the same characteristics. I think we ought to start talking about an up or down — up to the ultimate in individual freedom, consistent with an orderly society, or down through statism until you arrive at totalitarianism.

But for the sake of our security and for the sake of our freedom, let us understand the nature of the single greatest challenge to human rights in the world today: It's the challenge of one system that puts itself above God, that demands control over people's lives, and that defies its very existence by the relentless drive to conquer more and more lands. And that system is today communist totalitarianism.

Look at the lesson of history. Many nations today have been conquered by force — not by moral force, not by persuasion, and certainly not by the tides of history. No, they were seized by forces of violence. By tanks and guns in Poland, Hungary, and Czechoslovakia; by bombs, chemical poisons, and forces, starvation in Afghanistan, Vietnam, and Kampuchea. And everywhere, by the forces of persecution against innocent people — people whose only crime might have been a simple faith, a love of their God, a longing to worship as Moslems, Buddhists, Jews, or followers of Jesus Christ. They were taken captive by force and they remain captives by force.

The citizens of Nicaragua are the latest to join this unhappy lot. Victims of the campaign of persecution against liberty and faith that follows every communist takeover. The Archbishop of Managua, Miguel Obando y Bravo, and the members of his flock have recently been singled out as enemies by the Sandinista regime. Last week the Archbishop said, "We're in the presence of a Marxist-Leninist government that cannot accept an independent Church. The government's goal," he said, "is to eliminate the Church, to eliminate priests who are loyal to the Pope and to the Church hierarchy." And Pope John Paul II said, "I express my firm disapproval in my intimate participation in the suffering of the Church in Nicaragua."

And I know I speak for millions of Americans who join the Pope in saying we, too disapprove, and yes, people of Nicaragua, we, too, suffer with you.

Democracy is far from perfect. But democracy does not wage war on its neighbors; it doesn't build walls to keep its people in; and it doesn't organize armies or secret police to spy on them and keep them quiet. Democracy reflects all the mistakes, all the frailties, but also all the deepest hopes and dreams of the human spirit. And democracy rests upon a noble principle that has and always will make tyrants tremble — government derives its legitimacy from the consent of the governed.

And that is why people with their innate good sense have never chosen of their own free will to live as slaves. But millions have risked their lives to escape the darkness of oppression and to live in the sunlight of freedom. And that's why we can say here today with certain knowledge that our path is the right and good path, and that, yes, democracy is the way of the future.

To all those trapped in tyranny, wherever they may be, let us speak with one voice — not as Republicans or Democrats, but as Americans — saying you are not alone; your dreams are not in vain. Hold on to your dreams because the tide of the future is a freedom tide and totalitarianism cannot hold it back.

We're peaceful people. We occupy no countries. We seek no confrontation with any nation. As I've said repeatedly, there's nothing we want more, nothing we're trying harder to achieve than to bring about a more peaceful world. Peace is our highest aspiration. We're prepared for peace and prepared to persist for peace.

We will always summon our freedom to work another day to make this world a safer place. But as we go forward in this worthy endeavor, let us also remember who we are and what we stand for. We're a nation under God, and His divine spirit of truth and love must guide and always remain central to our existence. Yes, we stand for peace, but we stand for peace with freedom and for peace with dignity. And when we speak of the dignity of the individual, nothing could be more tragic than the fate of the Nobel Prize winner, Doctor Andrei Sakharov, and his wife, Yelena Bonner, who are currently suffering severe persecution and are cut off from the rest of humanity. The world demands to know the fate of these two good and courageous people. So to those who believe our policy must always be willful ignorance of ugly truths, must be silence in the face of Rudi Knez, center, director of Korotan singing group, smiles in appreciation after the chorus completed singing in the tent at the St. Vitus Summer Festival on Sunday evening, July 9. Korotan was one of many groups which sang in the tent which was erected on the parking lot on E. 62nd and St. Clair Ave. Co-Chairman, Stan Kuhar, said he has some expanded ideas for next year's popular and successful fund-raiser.

St. Vitus Says Thanks to All

The St. Vitus Festival Committee, on behalf of the entire parish community of St. Vitus, wishes to express its deepest heartfelt thanks to the many volunteers, parishioners, patrons, and sponsors who made the Summerfest '84 a huge success. The estimated crowd of 7 to 8 thousand persons gave many positive and favorable comments about this year's event.

A key ingredient toward making the Summerfest '84 a great event was the advertising provided by many sources such as American Home, Perry News, St. Clair Suburban News, Tony Petkovsek, Dr. Milan Pavlovic, William F. Miller (Plain Dealer), and Channel 3 (NBC).

Many persons from the western and southeastern areas of Greater Cleveland attended this event for the first time and were extremely pleased by the service received from the many volunteers.

The committee also appreciates the many man-hours and sacrifices by the volunteers. Only a united effort enabled a successful completion of this Slavic celebration in the heart of this near northeast side neighborhood in Cleveland that so many call home.

Again, thanks to everyone who came and experienced a unique weekend on the parish grounds of St. Vitus.

Stane J. Kuhar

Memo From Madeline

Tercek Family Stays Busy, Successful

By Madeline Debevec

The following letter arrived in the mail this week:
Dear Madeline:

This has been a very busy and exciting year and I thought I'd share it with you.

This spring Al and I and three of our sons — John, Tom and Charlie — visited our youngest son, Rob, a student at Heidelberg University in Germany. Rob has been there since last July and spent last summer in Berlin.

He served as our personal guide while we toured Germany and Austria. He arranged this part of our trip — trains, hotels (pensions), restaurants, museums — he sure does know the area and the language!. While that was great fun, the most exciting part of our trip was still to come.

In Vienna, we rented a van and drove to Slovenia and tried to locate and visit as many relatives as possible during a much too short stay. This visit was a real test of Al's ability to speak Slovenian, and a challenge driving on the snow-covered mountain roads. We also had an opportunity to visit Trieste and Venice. All in all (it was) a great experience; one we will remember for years to come.

Rob is currently an assistant art teacher at the TASSIS School, a private prep school in Thorpe, Surrey, near London, England. He plans to return to the good ol' USA in August to begin his senior year at Williams College in Massachusetts.

Charlie, who was graduated from Middlebury College in Vermont last June, also is teaching at the TASSIS School. Charlie is teaching a journalism course, and English language class, editing the daily newspaper and coaching the soccer team.

May also was quite exciting for us as Al was selected to speak to the national convention of the Forging Industry Assn. at Hilton Head. As an employee benefit consultant and president of Administrative Service Consultants Inc., his talk and the two workshops he conducted dealt with alternative funding and alternative plan design of employee medical benefit plans. While Al spoke and worked, I enjoyed the beach, sun and sightseeing in Savannah. Ah, that's the life!

June proved to be equally thrilling. Mark R. Tercek, our second eldest son, was graduated with honors from the Harvard Business School. He received a master's of business administration. Attending the graduation ceremonies in Cambridge, Mass., and sharing our excitement and pride was my mother, Frances Kosmerl. Grandma Trcek (Josephine), while not able to attend, was equally happy and pleased with Mark's achievement.

Mark currently is visiting friends and his brothers in Europe and will begin an investment banking career with Goldman Sachs in New York City. He will live with his brothers, John, also an investment banker and law student at Fordham University, and Tom, an industrial designer, in their loft in the Village.

Since we have no one at home at the present time, we were quite pleased when our daughter, Cindy Shimko, recently told us that she and her husband Jack plan to move back to Cleveland. Jack will pursue a degree at the Cleveland Podiatric School.

So as you can see, Madeline, we've been busy and having fun.

We always enjoy your Friday newspaper — it's interesting to read the news and happenings of your readers. When we hear the mailman's ring on Saturday, Al and I both rush to get the mail and fight over who will read the American Home first.

Keep up the good work.
Cordially,
Agnes Tercek

(Many thanks to Agnes for this interesting letter and sharing the latest news of her industrious family with our readers. We are all proud of their accomplishments.)

Korencics Celebrate Golden Anniversary
Sophie and Joe Korencic of Euclid, Ohio, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at a July 8 surprise party thrown by their daughter and son-in-law, Barbara and Jerry Meadows of Newbury.

Out-of-town guests who made the gala included Ann Haswell of Sun City, Ariz., Sally Andrews from New York, Betty and Roy Varty of Port Orange, Fla., and John Kaltenbach and son Doug of Madison Heights, Mich.

Joe has been employed at Central Petroleum for 54 years. The Korencics, married June 30, 1934 at St. Mary's Church in Lorain, have twin grandsons, Bret and Dwayne, who'll be attending the University of California at Berkeley on four-year scholarships.

New Births
Jenny and Nicholas Cipollo of Elkhart, Ind., announce the birth of a son, Mark Joseph, on May 22. He weighed 4 lbs. and is doing well.

Antonia Maria and Eric Snyder of Solon, Ohio, announce the June 29 birth of Carl Eric, weighing 7 lbs. and 8 ozs. Twenty-three-month-old Robert is happy with his new baby brother.

Frank and Antonia Segal of Willoughby Hills, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Snyder of Kentucky and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cipollo of Elkhart are the lucky and proud grandparents.

Our best wishes and congratulations to all.

People in the News
Mamie Kraly of Massapequa, N.Y., retired from Fairchild Weston Systems Inc. on June 15. She had been a supervisor with the company for 13 years.

Her brother, Bill Jansa, and his wife Jean of Euclid visited Mamie and husband Tony for a week and celebrated her retirement with a family dinner.

Louis Zorich is one of the featured performers in the latest Muppets movie, "Muppets Take Manhattan," a delightful film that's currently playing nationally.

Finally, get well wishes to Rose Novsak of E. 61 Street, who underwent surgery at St. Vincent Charity Hospital.

Euclid Slovenian Pensioners

The Slovenian Pensioners Club of Euclid had its July meeting on Tuesday, July 3 instead of Wed., July 4 because of the holiday. Guest speakers were J. Timothy McCormack, County Auditor and Ronald Suster, State Representative, who spoke to us about the Homestead Exemption Program and the Energy Program and changes that may be made in them because of our present day inflation.

Many of our members, including our president and his wife, Frank and Emma Cesen, were not with us as they are on tour with the Vadnal Orchestra in Slovenia. Very nice!

Our new Sunshine Lady is Marie Selan replacing Mary Zifko who resigned at her own request. Thank you, Mary, for a job well done while in office. On the agenda was our picnic July 25 at SNPJ Farm, and our participation in the Old World Festival parade on Aug. 5. Helping this month as funeral attendants are Mary and Harry Brule and Mary and Bob Koch.

Winners at the meeting were Vicki Svete and Stanley Laurich.

Refreshments will again be served every other month as before. We had none this month, but we did enjoy the accordion music by John Kersman which added to the enjoyment of the social hour after the meeting.

Bishop Janez Jenko of Slovenia to Visit Cleveland Slovenians

Bishop Janez Jenko of Koper, Slovenia, is visiting in the Cleveland area and will be pleased to meet with as many local Slovenians as his schedule permits. Travelling with Bishop Jenko, who has led the Koper diocese since its establishment in 1977, is Dr. Drago Klemencic, editor of the very influential religious weekly Družina (The Family), which is published in Ljubljana.

This afternoon at 1:30 p.m. Bishop Jenko and Dr. Klemencic will meet with Cleveland Bishop Anthony Pilla and at 3:00 p.m. they will travel to Borromeo Seminary for a meeting with Bishop Edward Pevec.

Highlights of the Bishop's and Dr. Klemencic's schedules are a Mass at 3:00 p.m. tomorrow afternoon for the residents of the Slovene Home for the Aged on Neff Rd. On Sunday, July 29, Bishop Jenko will have the 10:30 a.m. Mass at St. Vitus Church. There will be a brief reception following the Mass.

Plans are for Bishop Jenko to visit friends in the Pittsburgh, Pa. area on Monday, while on Tuesday he leaves for a three-day visit to northern Minnesota.

On Saturday, August 4, at 7:30 p.m. at Borromeo Seminary, Dr. Klemencic will speak on religion and religious life in Slovenia. The public is invited to attend. While Dr. Klemencic will speak in Slovenian, it is anticipated an English account of his remarks will be provided. After Dr. Klemencic's presentation, questions from the audience will be welcome.

On Sunday, August 5, at 12:00 noon, Bishop Jenko will have a Mass at the Slovenska Pristava. A lunch will be available at 1:00 p.m. and of course an opportunity for informal conversation with the Bishop and Dr. Klemencic. Of course, the public is welcome.

Monday, August 6, will be Bishop Jenko's and Dr. Klemencic's last day in the Cleveland area and Mayor George V. Voinovich will hold a reception for these distinguished guests from Slovenia in his office at City Hall.

Just a few weeks ago Bishop Jenko, who is 74, celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of his ordination as a priest.

Bishop Jenko was invited to visit Cleveland and the United States by the Slovenian American Primorski Club.

Starting Monday, July 30 the entire stock at

Anzlovar's Dept. Store

Soup Contest Added to E. 185th Street Festival

Ever sit down to a bowl of homemade broth and say to yourself, "This is so good I'll bet it could win a contest?" The seventh annual E. 185th Street Old World Festival is giving amateur chefs a chance to test their soup-making skills.

"Souparama" starts at 11 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 4 at the big tent on the St. Joseph High School grounds during the festival. Prizes go to cooks of top soups, in addition to publishing of the recipe and an interview on Alice Kuhar's "Carousel" on WELW-AM (1330).

Judging is based on appearance, taste and texture of ingredients in four categories:

Thin, clear soup — no thickening, but may contain dumplings or noodles;

Light soup — some thickening, such as cream, pureed vegetables or light roux;

Heavy, thick soup — heavy thickening; can include meat, poultry, vegetables, legumes or pasta; chowders.

Cold soup — fruit soups, vichyssoise or borscht.

Soups entered should be ethnic in origin, in compliance with the Old World festival theme. At least one quart must be submitted, fully prepared and cooked in advance. An area will be provided to reheat soups, with entrants required to bring a small pot or crock for reheating.

All soups must be made from scratch. No canned, frozen or dry mixes may be used as ingredients. All entries will be placed in a soup bar and sold.

Contestants can submit as many soups in as many categories as they wish, but each soup requires an entry blank. Forms are available from American Home or Tony's Polka Village. They must be completed and returned to the Polka Village, 971 E. 185 St., Cleveland 44119 no later than Friday, Aug. 3.

Slomšek Pilgrimage to Rožman's Grave in Ill.

During the weekend of June 29-July 1 a bus load of members of the Slomšek Society left Cleveland on its annual pilgrimage to the Franciscan Monastery, Mary Help of Christians, in Lemont, Ill.

On Saturday evening, a procession was held through the Way of the Cross, each pilgrim holding a candle, as they threaded their way past red flares marking the path, reciting the rosary. In the quiet hallowed grounds in darkness, it was a very impressive and inspirational sight.

On Sunday morning Mass was celebrated by the visiting Rev. Miha Vovk, a Franciscan priest from Slovenia. Rev. Vovk was in Lemont on an inspection tour for the Franciscan order, of which the Lemont monastery is part of the Slovenian province. Before the start of the holy sacrifice of the Mass, Mr. Jože Likozar spoke about the Bishop Dr. Gregory Rožman, who lies buried in the monastery grave. The speech in Slovenian was also printed in the Tuesday, July 10 edition of the Ameriška Domovina.

Services were concluded in the early afternoon with the singing of Slovenian litanies and benediction. The pilgrims, on the way home, stopped in Joliet, to visit the Slovenian church of St. Joseph.

The pilgrimage was satisfying spiritually and enjoyable under ideal weather of blue skies, sun, and cool air. Discussions are already in progress for next year's trip to Lemont.

Baraga Postcard Becomes Reality

Official introduction of the U.S. Bishop Baraga 13-cent postcard was held in a public ceremony on June 29, 1984 at Marquette, Michigan. It climaxed a number of years of concerted effort on the part of many interested individuals. Included among these was former Senator Frank J. Lausche, who was indisposed and was unable to attend the formal ceremonies.

Despite the fact Frederic Baraga was a Catholic missionary, there was much opposition to dedicating the postcard to the churchman. The event in Marquette was a public civic event. Many dignitaries as well as representatives of other religious convictions participated at St. Peter's Elementary School.

Postmaster James J. Holtz of Marquette presided. The Rev. Darryl J. Pepin sang our National Anthem to open the ceremonies. The Rev. J. William Robertson, vicar of the Holy Innocents Church in Little Lake, Michigan, said the invocation. Mr. David A. Svand, City Manager of Marquette, welcomed the guests.

Rev. Charles J. Strelick, executive director of the Bishop Baraga Association introduced distinguished guests as well as Slovenian visitors from Chicago, Milwaukee, Cleveland, and other Slovenian communities.

Remarks were then made by Ms. Agnes B. Rufus, director of promotion for the Bishop Baraga Association. She was followed by the Most Rev. Mark F. Schmitt, D.C., Bishop of Marquette.

There was also a musical presentation in which the Rev. Darryl J. Pepin, composer of the Baraga Hymn, performed and was enthusiastically applauded. He spoke in the Chippewa language, followed by a group of Chippewa Indian women who sang several songs in their native tongue.

In the absence of the postmaster general, Mr. William T. Johnstone, the assistant postmaster general, traced the activities of the missionary bishop in Michigan 150 years ago.

Rev. John S. Hascall, O.F.M., Cap., director of the Chippewa Indians in Northern Michigan, was an honored guest.

To close the ceremonies, the Right Rev. Thomas K. Ray, the episcopal bishop of the diocese of Northern Michigan, delivered the benediction.

The Frederic Baraga postal card is the newest 13-cent postcard issued by the U.S. Postal Service. The stamp in brown, blue, black and white, pictures the Apostle of the Chippewas sitting at the head of a bark canoe with an Indian guide paddling the canoe. The card is available at the philatelic desk of the main post office in Cleveland.

Collectors of special stamp issues and others can have the post card stamped for the First Day of Issue by sending the card to the local postmaster. Traditionally a period of 30 days is honored, so stamp collectors have until July 29 of this year to make their purchases.

Finally, there was extensive publicity for this event. The New York Times had a story in its philatelic column, the Plain Dealer in Cleveland also featured the commemorative postal card, and Linn's Stamps News had two articles, one on the dedication and another on Baraga as Michigan's snowshoe priest. Radio, TV and the news media were very much in evidence.

Captive Nations Speech

persecution, and appeasement or surrender to aggression, I say, no, that price is far too steep and we dare not and will never pay it.

If our observance of Captive Nations Week is to have meaning, then it must be observed in word and in deed. Today, I'm calling on people everywhere who enjoy the blessings of liberty to join with us in helping the freedom fighters in Afghanistan because they need our support, they want our support, and they deserve our support. The cause of peace is not served by a conquering force of more than 100,000 Soviet troops. The cause of peace will only be served when those troops are out and Afghanistan belongs again to the Afghan people. And today, I'm appealing to those who refuse to help the freedom fighters in Nicaragua. Refuse to assist their courageous struggle for democracy, for freedom of the press, and for freedom of assembly and worship in their homeland. I urge you to ponder long and hard to reflect on the fatal consequences of complacency and isolationism, and, above all, to understand that freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction.

I'm proud to tell you that we've begun an initiative that will bring words of truth and a message of hope to millions of imprisoned people throughout the world. The construction budget of the Voice of America was only $2.6 million in 1981. So our administration has developed a six year, $1 billion program to modernize the Voice of America. And I am pleased to report that the Congress has voted to provide nearly $100 million for 1985.

We are also committed to expanding significantly the ability of Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, to communicate with the peoples of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union. And we're pleased that the Congress has authorized the establishment of Radio Marti which will broadcast the truth to the people of Cuba.

There is cause for hope and promise. And so, I thank you for your faith, for your courage and I thank you for standing together. Because, with you by our side, we'll keep our sights on the farthest stars, we'll climb higher, we will be a shining city on a hill. Our time is now.

And, now, I'm going to sign the Captive Nations Week proclamation and thank you very much and God bless you all.

St. Vitus Mass Dedicated to Abbot Bandi Aug. 3rd

By Stanley Frank

"After a long illness, the Rt. Rev. Bonaventure Bandi O.S.B., retired Abbot of Holy Cross Abbey in Canon City, CO, died on Saturday, June 16."

This was the news that we received here in Cleveland. A Mass in his memory will be celebrated in St. Vitus Church on Friday evening, August 3, at 7:00 p.m. Parishioners and friends are invited to attend and participate in this service.

Born in Brooklyn, NY on April 26, 1914, the abbot was baptized, Lawrence. While still a very young lad, his family moved to Cleveland, OH and settled in the St. Vitus area. He received his basic education at St. Vitus School, then went on to Cathedral Latin High, and then to John Carroll University.

His parents and especially his mother, spent many hours helping at the parish functions, and wherever and whenever needed.

Lawrence, as soon as he was old enough, became a Mass server, and it became evident to his pastor, the then Father Ponikvar, that this young man was destined for the priesthood. As many others, he took him under his guidance, and helped steer him in that direction.

The Great Depression years of the 30's were lean years and it became necessary for many a young man or young lady to forsake a desire for further education, and seek work, however menial and low paying, to help make ends meet. Lawrence, the eldest of five children, managed to get part-time work, and summer work at times, in various establishments; a grocery store, meat market, and drug store. While attending John Carroll, he dropped out of school for a while and went to work in a manufacturing plant. Because he learned quickly, and because of his natural ability as a leader, he soon became a supervisor, and could have progressed further and made a career in that line. Nevertheless, he had set his goal, and the desire to become a man of the cloth, a priest to serve in God's work, never diminished.

It was also during these years, that he saw the need and was instrumental in the organization of a Holy Name Society at St. Vitus. This organization fast became a strong support of the parish and the right hand of its pastor. Lawrence was its first secretary. 1984 marks the 50th anniversary of this organization, and it was Abbot Bonaventure's hope to attend its celebration this fall.

Among other accomplishments of this vibrant and energetic young man was the organization of a Gregorian Chant Choir, which sang at the Holy Name Sunday Masses. He also saw the need for a church publication, and became the Editor of the first parish news bulletin, "The Holy Name News," which was a four page to eight page monthly publication.

Although occupied with schooling, helping his family, and ever active in the parish activities, he never lost sight of his true goal; the role of a priest in God's vineyard. In June of 1936, he left the St. Vitus area and headed for Canon City, CO to begin his long-desired career. He achieved his goal and was ordained on May 16, 1942 as a Benedictine priest, and offered his first Solemn Mass at St. Vitus on May 30, 1942.

He returned to Colorado to take up his duties there, and began a long and distinguished clerical career. He served as Prefect, headmaster of the school, Camp director, Sub-Prior, business manager, novice master, and Prior. He was a founding member of the National Catholic Camping Association. He served as pastor of St. Michael's Church in Boulder, CO, and Chaplain at Penrose Hospital in Colorado Springs.

His educational background consisted of studies at Columbia and Catholic Universities. He received the first Masters in American Literature from Seton Hall University in 1949. He also studied in Colorado University and Colorado College. His love for photography earned him membership in the National Press Photo Association.

He taught English, Religion, Typing, and Journalism and also directed the Abbey School Glee Club.

On May 3, 1976, at the age of sixty-two, he was elected the fifth Abbot of Holy Cross Abbey.

At age 58, he was hospitalized and underwent extensive surgery for cancer. The doctors gave him 6 months. With periodic treatments, more surgery, and medication, he stretched the 6 months to 12 years. Gradually the body broke down, but not the spirit. He accepted his pain and continued to carry on to the best of his ability. Throughout, by word and by example, he gave encouragement to others afflicted with this dreaded disease.

Although his work as a priest was concentrated in the West, we at St. Vitus parish, in Cleveland, should be proud of this young man who grew up in our area, a son of St. Vitus. Energetic and vibrant, he became a man of great stature in the eyes of many and I am sure in the eyes of God.
