AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

Current Thought. JUST AROUND THE CORNER

"It won't be long now."
Fourteenth regular convention of our SSCU is just around the corner. In less than a month 137 delegates representing all lodges will assemble in Indianapolis "to enact, amend or repeal the constitution and by-laws for governing the Union and its subordinate lodges."

Many delegates have their minds made up on important issues that will involve radical changes. Many lodges have already instructed their delegates on matters to be brought before the convention, so that he or she will reflect the opinion of constituent members.

However, each delegate will have to keep an "open mind" to many resolutions and motions that may, on the whole, benefit the Union. A strict cut and dry decision cannot always be made beforehand, because unforeseen difficulties will compel a change of mind.

One of the most important problems to confront delegates will concern youth. What effective measures should be enacted to harness the interest of youth 100 per cent in the work of our Union? If our SSCU is to continue its splendid work in the future, it must enlist boys and girls, young men and women, becoming staunch supporters.

Four years ago, at the 13th regular convention held at Ely, Minn., delegates foresaw the necessity of doing something for youth, which in most cases are English-speaking members.

By becoming a national figure in fraternal organizations, youth literally demanded a "place in the sun," if it was to be interested in the work of their parents. Realizing that youth must be dealt with on a par with other major issues, delegates agreed for the creation of a sport fund, which in its essential elements was to help lodges organize athletic teams.

SPORT FUND SERVED TWO PURPOSES
In creating a sport fund, which had the sanction of practically all members, our Union was looking forward to unprejudiced interest among youth in its fraternal work. Youth's response was satisfactory, although in some instances disappointing. Just at the point when the effects of the sport fund on the English-speaking members was to be given its acid test, an unfortunate economic reversal caused the fund to be turned over for a far more needy purpose—that of helping our brothers and sisters to meet Union's assessments.

We can safely assume that the sport fund in the past four years served its purpose for which it was created. Better results have been expected, although unemployment in the present high rating would have hampered its progress.

But what of the future? Is the sport fund to be continued? What about the many members unemployed who cannot pay assessments, are they to be expelled from the Union, while no money is given for the support of athletics?

The delegates will sponsor a wise move if they permit the sport fund to exist in its present state of affairs. Allow the sport fund to exist, with the provision that it be used to help assessments of needy members, but when conditions improve, reinstate the sport fund into the original status for which it was created.

INDEPENDENCE DAY
July the Fourth

Fourth of July! What a day of excitement it is for the children and elders. And why not, for it is the birthday of our nation? Independence Day is our greatest American holiday.

On July 4, 1776, 54 brave delegates adopted and signed the Declaration of Independence without hesitation, for at that time American colonists were at war with England, although they still belonged to the British Empire.

Should our country have been that way for independence? The 54 delegates would have been convicted of high treason if they had put to death.

On the day Congress was to decide whether or not to become an independent country, crowds of people waited outside the State House in Philadelphia for the news that was to make them a free people or rebels in their own country.

At the State House belfry an American flag was stationed to ring the bell, which we know as the Liberty Bell, signaling the signing of the Declaration of Independence. The man's grandson who was outside the State House made the decision and then ran as fast as he could to tell his grandfather to ring the tidings of the birth of a new nation, the United States of America, on July 4, 1776.

Salmon's Life in Ocean Shrouded in Mystery

The story of the salmon industry begins necessarily with the story of the salmon itself, but strange to relate, most of the chapters of the tale are missing. In the clear lake and the cold streams that flow from the snow-clad mountains of Alaska and the Pacific Northwest small, orange-colored globules lying along the shallow riffles hatch into tiny fish.

The parent salmon, their life's mission ended, vanish from the scene. Then begins the trip of the young ones from the sparkling fresh water downstream to the great ocean. Sometimes the trip takes a year, sometimes it is accomplished in the season of birth, but in any case the salmon live their lives in the salt sea, returning to the stream or lake of their birth only when it comes time for spawning. Even science is baffled in determining what becomes of the young salmon when they enter the deep sea.

It is on the return trip to fresh water that the "silver horde," fat and healthy, and full of life, is caught off the coast of Oregon, Washington, British Columbia and Alaska. When a salmon starts for the spawning ground it is at the full flush of maturity, so the nearer the beginning of the journey it is caught the better the quality.

Convention Announcement

Important Instructions to Delegates
We are pleased to announce that our application for special fare rates to our convention has been approved. Concession of one and one-half fare on the so-called "Certificate Plan" has been granted and will apply from all points of the territory from which delegates are expected to our convention.

It has been agreed that if there is an attendance at the convention of not less than 100 members of our organization, holding regularly issued certificates, from points from which the Certificate Plan reduction is authorized, showing the purchase of going tickets at regular one-way tariff fare, the certificate will be validated by a Special Agent of the carriers, thus making them good for purchase of return tickets at one-half fare of the regular one-way fares applying from Indianapolis, Ind., to original starting point via the same route traveled on the going trip as shown on the certificate.

In order that each and every delegate will be entitled to this special rate, the following directions are herewith submitted for their guidance:

1. Tickets at the regular one-way tariff fare for the going journey must be obtained only between July 21 to July 25, both inclusive, not earlier and not later. Be sure that, when purchasing going ticket, you request a "Certificate Plan CERTIFICATE" from the ticket agent. Do not make a mistake of asking for a "receipt."

2. Present yourself at the railroad station for ticket and certificate at least 30 minutes before departure of train on which you begin your journey.

3. Certificates are not kept at all stations. It is suggested that you inquire at your home station and ascertain a few days in advance whether or not agent can issue through ticket and certificate to Indianapolis. If not, the agent will inform you of the nearest station at which they can be obtained. In such case, you should purchase a local ticket to the station which has certificates in stock and from there buy a through ticket and at the same time ask for and secure a "certificate plan" certificate.

4. Immediately on your arrival at Indianapolis, Ind., you will present your certificate to the supreme secretary or the supreme president.

5. No refund of fare will be made by the carriers because of failure to obtain a proper certificate when purchasing going ticket, consequently every delegate and supreme officer must secure said certificate at the time of purchasing ticket for Indianapolis, otherwise he or she will be required to pay full fare for the return ticket.

6. Delegates are requested to read carefully and preserve the foregoing instructions and if necessary show them to the ticket agent at the time they are purchasing ticket to Indianapolis, Ind.

Fraternally,
Anton Zbašnik,
Supreme Secretary.

ASBESTOS

Where asbestos is near the surface, as in Quebec province, it is quarried; where it lies deep, as in Arizona, it is mined by driving down shafts.

BRIEFS

Increase in postal rates for first class mail from 2 to 3 cents takes effect July 6. Attention is called of contributors to the New Era who submit articles by mail to keep this change in mind, because letters bearing insufficient postage will be returned to the sender by U. S. postal clerks, causing unnecessary delay. Similar correspondence with no return address and short of postage stamps will necessarily have to be accepted and such shortages covered by Nova Doba.

Three members from Lorain, O., visited the Nova Doba office Monday of this week and are as follows: John Kumse, member Supreme Board of Trustees, SSCU, and his two daughters, Vida and Martha, both of whom have submitted original articles for New Era.

Two SSCU lodges will celebrate their 30th anniversary Sunday, July 3. Chisholm, Minn., the home of St. Joseph's Lodge, No. 30, will be the scene of the local branch picnic to be held on Sturgeon Lake Rd. in the direction of Balkan. The other, St. Aloysius' Lodge, No. 36, of Conemaugh, Pa., will also observe with an outdoor activity when it will hold a picnic in Bon Air. Singing Society Bled will round out the day with a program of music.

Members of George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, Cleveland, O., postponed the regular date of meeting in July from the first Monday (July 4) to the second Thursday, it falling on July 14. Place of the meeting is the St. Clair Bathhouse.

All correspondence intended for next week's issue of New Era must be in that office no later than Saturday, July 2. Ordinarily Monday of each week is the deadline for contributing articles to appear in the same week's issue; however, July 4 falls on Monday, and it being a holiday, no deliveries of mail are made on that day.

Combined picnic of United SSCU Lodges of Pittsburgh, SSPZ and SNPJ federations of Pennsylvania, held last Sunday, met with success at Sygan, Pa. Delightful and well directed band music contributed its share in the program that also included group singing. A number of delegates to attend the 14th regular SSCU convention were on hand.

PANAMA CANAL

The tolls collected by the American government from ships passing through the Panama Canal are used for the maintenance and operation of the canal. The canal was constructed by the government with money appropriated for the purpose by Congress.

Cleveland Playgrounds To Have Varied Programs During Summer Months

More than 35,000 children paraded throughout Cleveland last Thursday when they announced their own official opening of the 32 municipal playgrounds under Recreation Commissioner Dan Duffy.

Crowds of children, some in costumes and some with only masks, gathered at each of the playgrounds hours before the scheduled time for the parades. At the appointed time the children gathered into double file, marched around the playgrounds and then proceeded to cover the neighboring streets. As the children marched along, more and more youths joined the parades, most of which were doubled in size by the time they returned to their home grounds.

WGAR, the "Friendly Station," broadcasting from the Hotel Statler, has announced that it will again carry a Playground Hour as it did last year. The broadcast will be made each Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock, starting with June 29.

Talented children from the city's 32 playgrounds will join with youngsters from the Board of Education's 50 play spots in the weekly presentations. Much favorable comment was received last year from parents concerning these broadcasts, resulting in a similar program of this season. The broadcasts will be arranged by G. Kern, physical director of the Board of Education playgrounds, and Morris Skop, radio director of the city playgrounds.

Next week's schedule for the city playgrounds lists a Pirate Day Treasure Hunt for the major feature on Thursday night and Novel Track Meets during the entire week, and a nature study in the clay modeling classes. These classes, under Miss Vera Neff, a well-known artist, are now being fully organized. The purpose of these classes is to bring out the creative spirit in children of different nationalities, who are strongly urged to join in this play.

Joliet News

Joliet, Ill.—On July 4, our SS. Peter and Paul Lodge, No. 66, SSCU, bowlers, their families and friends will picnic at the Will County Forest Preserve in Troy Township.

Our delegates, President Jevitz and Trustee Uranichar are preparing themselves for the coming convention to be held in Indianapolis, Ind. I'm sure the entire local membership rests much confidence in these men.

St. Joseph's grade school won the baseball championship for the second consecutive time on June 16, 1932. The players are Slovene boys.

Feeding Minerals to Cows

Tests at the United States Dairy Experiment Station at Beltsville, Md., indicate that if cows are allowed free access to a palatable bone meal, they will tend to adjust their consumption to meet their needs. Good producing cows fed a ration estimated to be deficient in phosphorus, ate generous quantities of bone meal at the experimenter farm, while poor producers having a smaller demand for minerals ate very little.—Wallace's Farmer.

G. W.'s Nip Betsy Ross

Radel Gives Two Hits, Fans Nine; Betson Clouts Home Run in 12th

Cleveland, O.—Allowing only two hits and fanning nine men, "Freck" Radel hurled the Jos. Zele & Sons-George Washingtons to a 3 to 2 victory over their sister team, Betsy Ross. Just five of the Betsy Ross men reached first, the other three as a result of bases on balls. Brauer, playing the centerfield position for the Betsy Ross, walked twice, once in the second and again in the eighth. In the second frame Brauer crossed the plate on a scratch single to right short by Hoffer, and in the eighth frame he again crossed the plate, but this time on a wild throw. Kuhel was the other batter who singled to center in the 10th. Skufca, who replaced Wagner at short, reached first base on four balls.

Hoffer, the Betsy Ross hurler, allowed the George Washingtons six scattered hits, three singles, two doubles and a home run.

In the second frame, Fabian doubled to left and scored on Brauer's error, who dropped Bizil's fly to center. In the fourth inning, Bizil reached first on Mocilnikar's error and scored on Kostelic's line double to left. In the 12th inning, "Wieners" Kubilus came to bat and was called out on three strikes, "Jiggs" Betson followed.

When Betson stepped to the plate, the crowd roared and from all sides came the cry, "Come on, Jiggs, break up the game. Hit a home run!" Betson tightened his hold on the bat, got set and with a count of two balls and two strikes, it looked as if a 13th inning would be necessary. The crowd roared again, "Come on, Jiggs, break it up!" Betson, with a smile, moved around a bit and no sooner had Hoffer pitched the ball, Betson lifted it high in the air and out to left field for one of the cleanest home runs ever seen. Just as soon as Betson crossed the plate, he made one grand rush from the crowd that had gathered around him and vanished into the thin air. Betson's home run was the only run that was really earned throughout the entire game by both teams, the score should have been 1 to 0.

The tradition of "Pal comes through for another pal," proved itself when Betson came through in the 12th inning. He not only helped the Jos. Zele & Sons-George Washingtons to their first official league win, but also came through for his pal, "Freck" Radel, the George Washington hurler.

Bill Kubilus, manager of the Jos. Zele & Sons-George Washington team, certainly arranged a strong infield; the outfield has always been at its best. The infield clicked very nicely and for the first time this season the George Washingtons played errorless ball.

SCARLET FEVER SERUM

The National Health Institute at Washington has developed a new "toxoid" for scarlet fever. The new serum, still in the clinical test stage, is regarded as a great improvement over serums now used to produce immunity to this prevalent and often fatal disease of children.

There Is Magic in Fraternal Life Insurance

That the days of magic are not the days of the past, is the contention of the National Life Dynamo. We like the idea as it is editorially set forth, so we have reprinted the following excerpt:

You can take the real estate that your prospect bought for $5,000 and which today is worth only $2,500 and bring its estate value up to $5,000 by adding a supplemental life insurance estate of $2,500.

You can take the $10,000 of shrunken corporation stock upon which your prospect depended so much for the future comfort of his family and bring its estate value back to its highest peak by a supplemental insurance estate of the necessary amount.

You can take the farms that have fallen in value and bring them back to their pre-depression value by creating a supplemental life insurance estate in the amount the farms have depreciated.

You can take any security, any investment, any frozen savings bank account and once more restore its estate value to your prospect by showing him the wisdom of taking out life insurance to supplement his loss.

If being able to do that isn't magic, then we don't know what magic is.

Have you ever thought of soliciting members on that basis? Isn't it a pretty good line to follow, working among those whom you know have taken pretty severe losses in their investments and property holding?

And the new supplemental estate you will create will be better than the estate they lost. It will be liquid to the heirs to the last degree. It will be safe from bankruptcy claims, attachments and legal complications of all kinds. It will be guaranteed against future depression and can be created by an annual carrying charge of not more than three or four per cent. of the amount involved.

Let's sell the fraternal life insurance plan to our prospects as soon that will put back into their estates the money the depression has taken from them. Now is the time to do it.

Oil From Tung Tree

For centuries the Chinese have grown tung oil trees in a primitive way and manufactured oil from their fruit by the crudest methods. Yet this oil has been the chief paint oil of China and has become the basis for some of their finest lacquers, for waterproofing of their finest fabrics and the main vehicle for their paints. From the soot of tung oil has been made the finest "India" ink. The oil has been used for dressing leather, for waterproofing silk and for oiling and calking junks. The tung oil tree is a beautiful ornament. It has large leaves like the catalpa and a profusion of white blossoms in March. It grows rapidly, giving a pleasant shade while still young. The tree was introduced into the United States in 1905.

SPORT FUND

East Palestine, O.—Of late we have heard much talk against the sport fund. It is argued that there should be no such thing. We believe that present industrial conditions have much to do with bringing about such a conclusion in the minds of these people. Probably at present there should be a curtailment of endeavor in the field of athletics in order that money used in this department may be given to aid some serious situation. But we fail to see the advantages of a definite abandonment of sports.

Nothing will attract the young as quickly as an athletic program; nothing is more certain to hold their continued interest. The majority of young people appreciate what their parents are trying to do for them and they will co-operate.

Every time a team plays away from its home grounds, individuals on that team find new friends, and each new established relationship brings a clearer definition of true fraternalism to the minds of these youthful members.

Hooditch Beauty Parlor

By F. S. Tauchar

Two traveling men, Sneezer and Shyster, who, we admit, would not stand much chance in a beauty contest, and whom some of the girls may not call even handsome, passed by the Hooditch Beauty Parlor—and the following conversation was overheard by our news reporter:

Sneezer: "See that sign across the street?"

Shyster: "I will be darned! It says 'Hooditch way to beautify anything.' I have an idea."

Sneezer: "You're darned already. —What kind of an idea?"

Shyster: "I tried every other way, now I will go through Hooditch beautifiers' works, who, no doubt, can fix up my presentability."

Sneezer: "What do you mean? You're presentable now."

Shyster: "Yes, among sneezers. But I crave fair sex company."

Sneezer: "Why?"

Shyster: "I want to get married."

Sneezer: "O, o, o! Is that so?"

Shyster: "Yes. That's why I want to try this new Hooditch way of polishing up. Only I am a bit afraid they may fail."

Sneezer: "Don't worry. You can't get any worse."

Shyster: "Are you trying to be funny? We don't compare."

Sneezer: "I should say not!"

Shyster: "You won't recognize me when I will come out of Hooditch way."

Sneezer: "I believe that. I could hardly know you now when we are in the zoo. . . . Do you remember that time when I walked out of the zoo with a gorilla, and left you in there?"

Shyster: "If I wasn't so happy on account of Hooditch way beautifying I would punch your beeper long ago. What do you think this is—funny story telling?"

Sneezer: "Yes. That one about your marriage is."

Shyster: "Oh, no! I am serious."

Sneezer: "If you really want to get married, why not marry a rich woman?"

Shyster: "Now you're talking! That's just what I will do."

Sneezer: "But you will scare her to death. . . ."

Shyster: "It suits me—as in that case I would inherit her money."

Sneezer: "But after that nobody will care for you anymore."

Shyster: "That's where you show your ignorance. Comrade, when one has money, all young ladies are hanging around him."

Sneezer: "Is that so?"

Shyster: "Yes, this is so!"

Sneezer: "Then go and try that Hooditch way quick! If they will do a good job on you, I will try them myself."

Shyster: "Ha, ha, ha! There really isn't any hope for you. They may be able to do wonders, but not the impossible."

Sneezer (angry): "I bet your future inheritance that beautification will take better on me than on you!"

Shyster: "I dare you. The deal is closed. Now, let's go in for our treatments."

A few seconds later news reporter saw a dozen ladies rushing out of the shoppe.

What could be the reason? . . .

Grandma: Which one of you children ate the bowl of grapes I had in the cupboard? No use denying it—I saw the seeds and skins on the floor.

William: It wasn't me, Grandma, 'cause I ate skins, seeds and all.

What the Mail Man Brings Us

I wish to inform you that the present shattered condition of my bank account makes it impossible for me to send you my check in response to your request. My present financial condition is due to the effect of the federal laws, state laws, by-laws, brother-in-laws, and out-laws, that have been foisted upon an unsuspecting public. Through these various laws I have been held down, held up, sat on, walked on, flattened, squeezed and broke until I do not know what I am, where I am, or why I am.

These laws compel me to pay a merchant tax, capital tax, excess tax, incorporation tax, real estate tax, property tax, auto tax, gas tax, light tax, water tax, cigar tax, school tax, syntax, liquor tax and carpet tax.

In addition to these taxes I am requested and required to contribute to every society and organization that the inventive mind of man can invent and organize: To the Society of St. John the Baptist, the Woman's Relief, Navy League, the Children's Home, the Policemen's Benefit, the Dorcas Society, the Y. M. C. A., the Gold Diggers' Home, also to every hospital and charitable institution in town: The Red Cross, the Black Cross, the White Cross, the Purple Cross, the Flaming Cross and the Double Cross.

The government has so governed my business that I do not know who owns it. I am suspected, expected and disrespected, examined, re-examined, informed, required, commanded and compelled until all I know is that I am supposed to provide an inexhaustible supply of money for every known and unknown deed, desire or hope of the human race and because I refuse to donate to all and then go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away I am ousted, cussed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked about, lied about, held up, held down, and robbed until I am just about ruined.

The only reason that I am clinging to life at all is to see what the hell is coming next.

—The Ohio Motorist.

FLATIRONS

Housewives often complain that their flatirons get so they will not hold heat. A flatiron with a highly polished upper surface will lose considerably less heat by radiation than one having a blackened surface. If an iron, originally bright, were heated so as to tarnish this surface badly, it would lose its heat more rapidly than it did before. The difference, says the Bureau of Standards, is large enough to be easily measured and might possibly be noticeable in ordinary use.

Howe: You own about a dozen apartment houses and yet, you are now hunting some other apartment to rent for yourself.

Watt: Yes—my apartments are too expensive.

Teacher: Now, if a boy attempting to climb a mud bank 50 feet high goes forward a foot a second and slips back a foot for every two feet he goes forward, how long will it take him to get to the top?

Ronald: Aw, I think he's crazy to try it.

Customer: Can I depend on these buttons being sewed on tight?

Tailor: Can you? Say, my last customer had on one of these suits and when he sneezed the buttons held so fast that he ripped the coat right up the back.

ONE BY ONE

East Palestine, O. — A brick-mason places one brick beside another and one on top of another until he has completed his task. Each brick carries a heavy load. Each single brick is an important one.

Lodges become great through the cementing together of the relationships of single individuals. Each member must uphold his side of the situation. Each member is an important unit in the organization.

Every new member contributes to the upbuilding of the lodge; through him it becomes stronger. Some people say, "Just one more member doesn't mean anything." But it does, and very much, too. Great structures are completed through the process of adding one brick at a time.

POSTAL CARD

The postal card was first suggested in 1865 by Heinrich von Stephan, then director of the Royal Prussian post. His postal service, however, did not approve the idea and the first postal cards actually issued by a government appeared in Austria in 1869. Picture cards were first made and sent through the mails about 1890 by Heinrich Lange, a stationer at Goettingen, Germany.

Obbly: I'm a man of few words.

Garto: I didn't know you were married.
