150-LETNICA USTAVE ZDRUŽENIH DRŽAV

By Howard Chandler Christy

Ko se je leta 1776 tedanjih 13 kolonijalnih ameriških držav odcepilo od Anglije s proglasitvijo neodvisnosti, je bilo treba za to novo republiko narediti ustavo. Za doseg tega važnega dela so naši pionirji potrebovali celih 11 let.

Za 27. maja 1787 je bila v Philadelphiji, Pa. sklicana konvencija 65 delegatov ali zastopnikov tedanjih samostojnih držav da naredijo ustavo; zborovanje se je vršilo v Independence dvorani; (Slika iste se nahaja na Our Page); 10 delegatov se tega važnega zborovanja sploh ni udeležilo.

Ustava Zedinjenih držav je bila sprejeta dne 17. septembra 1787, torej ravno pred 150 leti. Isto je podpisalo 39 delegatov, 16 jih pa ni hotelo podpisati.

Ustava Zedinjenih držav, najdražja listina naše dežele vsebuje v angleščini 52 besed dolg predgovor in 7 členov. Predgovor se glasi po našem sledeče:

"Mi, ljudstvo Združenih držav s tem določamo in ustanavljamo to ustavo za Združene države ameriške z namenom, da bi se ustanovilo bolj popolno Unijo in pravico, da bi se zagotovilo domači mir, dalje v svrhu splošne obrambe, za pospeševanje splošnega blagostanja in da bi se zagotovilo blagoslove svobode za nas in naše potomce."

Ustavo je podpisal kot predsednik te konvencije George Washington, delegat iz Virginije, kot konvenčni tajnik pa William Jackson. Ustavo je nadalje podpisalo 39 sledečih delegatov, katere navajamo tukaj po državah in njih poklicih; istotako je tudi označen datum, kdaj je kaka država ustavo odobrila.

NAZLI V AMERIKI

Chicago, Ill., 9. septembra. — Tukajšnji dnevnik "Chicago Times" poroča danes o svoji tajni investigaciji glede delovanja in gibanja ameriških nazijev. Navedeni list je po šestmesečnem preiskovanju dognal da se nahaja v deželi že 20.000 mož močna skupina prištev Hitlerja, ki je pripravljena strmoglaviti vladu Združenih držav in isto v svoje roke prevzeti.

O gibanju nazijev v Ameriki je posebno dobro informiran senator Borah iz države Idaho; vsled tega je obljubil že na prihodnjem kongresnem zasedanju uvesti strogo preiskavo, da se gibanje nemške propagande zatne v deželi. Zadevo bo prevzel v svoje roke znani J. Edgar Hoover, načelnik zveznega detektivskega urada (G-men).

Navedeni list je imel tri svoje tajne poročevalce in zasledovalce, ki so v New Yorku in Chicagu kot navidezni Nemci in prijatelji hitlerizma pronajali vse delovanje istega v tej deželi. Dognali so, da se nemški fašizem vedno bolj in bolj širi med Američani in da propagatorji istega dobivajo denar iz Berlina. Dosedaj se nahaja po raznih večjih ameriških mestih že 60 nazijskih postojank, kjer se člani iste vežbajo kakor na Nemškem prav po Hitlerjevi metodi.

Ameriški naziji imajo že izdelan načrt za doseg svojih namenov. Ko bodo izstrelili žide iz dežele in zatrili komunizem, se bodo isti polastili vlade če treba tudi s silo. V glavnem nastopajo naziji vsled tega, da se za komunistične smrtni udarec. Ameriški naziji so mnenja, da ne bo več kak demokrat predsednik Združenih držav.

Glavni vodja tega gibanja, ali pa organizacije "Amerike-deutscher Volksbund" je Fritz Kuhn v New Yorku, bivši kemist Fordove bolnišnice v Detroitu, Mich.

Važna izjava preds. Roosevelta Hyde Park, N. Y., 13. sept.

Predsednika Roosevelta so večkrat vprašali razni časnikarji, kaj mišljajo glede zopetne preteče vojne v Evropi, nakar se je Roosevelt izjavil, da Združene države pod nobenim pogojem in v nobenem slučaju ne bodo zapletene v katerokoli vojno bodisi v Evropi, ali v Aziji. Predsednik se nahaja tukaj na oddihu v svojem rojstnem kraju, v Washington se vrne tekoč teden.

Vrhovni sodnik H. L. Black v škripcih

Washington, 14. septembra. Nedavno imenovani član vrhovnega zveznega sodišča Hugo L. Black iz Alabame, ki se nahaja na obisku v Londonu je obdolžen, da spada k tajni organizaciji Kukluksarjev. Ko se vrne nazaj, se bo moral vsled tega zagovarjati in bo najbrž zgubil svojo službo.

Dobro delo boste storili ako pridobite kakšnega novega člana (co) za našo Jednoto.

Število prebivalcev v Sloveniji znaša po podatkih, ki jih je dal na razpolago Higijenski zavod v Ljubljani, 1.209.660. Ta številka se nanaša na 31. decembra 1936. V primeri s prejšnjim letom se je število prebivalcev v Sloveniji pomnožilo za nekaj nad 10 in pol tisoč.

60 milijonov škode. Pod tem naslovom piše glede zadnje vremenske nesreče "Trg. list" tudi sledeče: "Za majhno Slovenijo pomeni 60 milijonska škoda pravo propast. Zakaj slovenski kmetovalci niso izgubili samo 60 milijonov din, kolikor so bili vredni od neviht uničeni pridelki, temveč bodo morali plačati še milijone in milijone za nabavo živil in krme, ki so jih nevihte uničile. Škoda je torej dvojna. Ta škoda pa je tem bolj občutna, ker je zadela slovenske kmetovalce baš v času, ko so cene kmetijskih pridelkov visoke. Že itak bi morala Slovenija letos plačati za svojo prehrano več ko druga leta, sedaj pa bo morala plačati še toliko več, kolikor znaša od neviht povzročena škoda. Sloveniji je treba nujno pomagati z velikimi javnimi deli."

Žužemberk. Naše polje se kar ne more in ne more po točki nič popraviti. Ne raste nobena reč, niti repa ne, pa ni čudno, ko je zemlja tako razbičana in poteptana. Več gospodarjev se je izrazilo: Najbolje, da bi zapadel sneg in zakril našo žalostno revščino. Žalostno je tudi, ko ne vidiš ptiček in ne čuješ nobenega (Dalje na 8. strani)

DRUŠTVENA NAZNAVILA

Tem potom naznanjam o naši proslavi, ki se bo vršila dne 31. oktobra t. l. v spomin 40 letnice obstoja našega društva. Ob enem so bila tudi vsa naša lokalna in sosedna društva v Greater New Yorku naprosena, da naj navedeni dan ne priredijo kake veselice, kar bo v dobrobit našega društva; za to naklonjenost se vsem že danes na tem mestu zahvaljujemo. Upamo tudi, da nam bo šlo cenjeno občinstvo pri tej proslavi rado na roke, posebno pa še članstvo naše KSKJ. Smrtna kosa

Tem potom sem zopet primoran poročati žalostno vest, da smo dne 31. avgusta za vedno izgubili našega člana in sobrata Joseph Česarka, kateri je umrl v Basset bolnišnici, v Cooperstown, N. Y.

Pokojni je bil član našega društva že 18 let in je umrl v najlepši starosti, star komaj 39 let.

Pogreb se je vršil po cerkvenem obredu in smo ga položili na katoliškem pokopališču sv. Trojice, kjer spava že mnogo naših sobratov in prijateljev. Vabilo na sejo

S tem prijazno vabim vse članice našega društva, da se udeležijo prihodnje seje v nedeljo dne 19. septembra ob dveh popoldne. Pridite v velikem številu ker imamo več važnih točk za rešiti posebno zaradi 40 letnice našega društva, kar bomo obhajale v sredo, dne 24. novembra t. l. v Slovenskem Domu na 57. cesti.

Dalje prosim in opozarjam vse one članice, ki dolgujete društvu več kakor tri mesece, da pridete na prihodnjo sejo in ondaj plačate zaostali dolg. Zatorej pričakujem velike udeležbe od strani članice tega društva na seji dne 19. sept.

S pozdravom,
Mrs. Katarina Rogina, tajn.

Društvo Marije Sedem Žalosti, št. 81, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Apel in prošnja

Naša bivša večletna predsednica in sedanja glavna odborica sestra Agnes Gorišek nam je naložila važno nalogo in delo, kar moramo izvršiti to leto; za to imamo samo še tri mesece in pol časa.

Mrs. Gorišek prosi vsako izmed naših članic za malo uslug in do te prošnje je navedenka povsem upravičena. Ona pričakuje od vsake članice, mlade ali stare, da ji boste šle v tej zadevi na roke in sicer s tem, da bi pomnožile do konca leta število članstva našega društva dokler se še vrši kampanja ženske enakopravnosti pri naši Jednoti.

Marsikaka bo pri tem morda rekla: "Kako naj to izvršim?" To velja osebno za one, ki lepo doma sedijo in se izgovarjajo: "Jaz ne morem dobiti nobene nove članice." Žal, da se mnogo naših sester na ta način izgovarja in res misli, da ni mogoče tega izvršiti. Taki izgovori so ničevni. Ovira je pri tem ta, ker se taka članica ne čuje zanimati za društvo. Po moji sodbi nimajo take članice prav nobene korajže; ker so preveč boječe, se tako izgovarjajo. Vsaka, morda še tako težka stvar se da izvršiti z dobro voljo in pogumnim delom, ne pa z lenobo. Seveda, je bolj prijetno lepo doma sedeti in se opirati na take izgovore.

Pri našem društvu imamo lepo število članic, ki so svoječasno že rade za društvo delovale; priporočale so društvo in Jednoto svojim sorodnikom, znancom in sosedom in zato je imelo društvo lep uspeh. Seveda nekaj teh članic se je že postaralo in ne morejo biti več tako agilne. Tem bi bilo svetovati, da naj molijo in prosijo Boga za uspeh pri našem društvu; zaeno naj pa ob priložnosti mlade članice navdušujejo za agitacijo, na ta način bo skupno delo obrodilo obilen sad.

Prihodnji mesec bo rožnenski mesec oktober. Pojdimo torej z božjo pomočjo in prošnjo Matere Božje na skupno delo, da bomo v oktobru pridobile največ novih članic. Nad 200 nas je pod društveno in Jednotino zastavo. Naj bi vsaj vsaka druga prihodnji mesec pridobila eno novo članico, pa jih bo 100 novih! S pridobivanjem novega članstva vršite sebi in drugim dobro delo in isto tudi ne bo zastoj, saj ste gotovo zopet v zadnjem Glasilu čitale kake lepe denarne nagrade plačuje Jednota v tej kampanji. Ako ne morete pridobiti kaj odraslih članic, pa agitirajte za mladinski oddelek.

Ponovno prosim torej vsako posamezno članico našega društva, da naj upoštevajo našo sozvestno Goslobo in tako bomo v društvu imeli močnejši uspeh. S sobratiskim pozdravom, Anna Solomon, sepi.

Zvečer ob 8. se je pričel v zgornjih prostorih doma ples; prišlo je toliko mladine, da so bili vsi prostori prenapolnjeni kar je razvidno, da imajo naši "boosterji" veliko prijateljev ples je trajal ob živahnem razpoloženju do polnoči.

Sprejmite vsi glavni odborniki in odborica tudi od poisanega vse priznanje; kakote se izrazili, da se vedno veseljem odzovete našemu vabilu; tako ves tudi mi vedno z veseljem in odprtimi rokami sprejememo. Bog Vas živi! Pričakujemo, da se boste udeležili tudi 25 letnice tega društva, katero bomo obhajali čez dve leti.

Sobratiskim pozdravom, Anton Tomšič, blaginjak.

Članstvu našega društva naznanjam, da bom pobirala assessment v četrtek 16. septembra ob 6. do 7. ure zvečer ter v ponedeljek 20. septembra ob 6. do 7. ure in pa v soboto 25. septembra ob 6. do 8. ure zvečer, vsakikrat v spodnjih prostorih stare šole sv. Vida.

Prosim vas sestre, bodite točne in poplačajte svoje assessment! Prilike imate dovolj. Če slučajno pridete na suspension dajsko listo, bo to po vaši lastni krivdi.

Sestre, zapomnite si tudi da kampanja je še v teku. Sedaj, ko je vročina ponehala, dajmo, pojdimo za novimi člani in članicami, ter tako zadostimo naši dolžnosti do Jednote ter tako dobimo še lepe nagrade, ki so razpisane.

Pozdrav, Marija Hočevar, tajnica.

Društvo sv. Mihaela, št. 163, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Sa ovime javim vsem, koji niste bili na predloji sjednici 12. sept. prvo je bilo zaključeno, da se članstvo ugrupa da bolji točno plaćaju svoje pristojbe, jer ovaj mesec se zaključuje 8. mesečni račun, i koji bu dužan već nego 3 mesece, da se ga suspendira, da se ne prati po knjigama, jer ako se da ne plati, neće ni posle kadar pridju mršavije leta, onda se bu verovalo samo onima, koji još nisu zaostali sa uplatima ni jednog dana u 3-4 godine, nego mesec za mesecem redovito plaćaju. Jen put bum sve označil, koji plaćaju redovito i one, koji ne plaćaju, jerbo reče stara prislovica: Kako prostreš, tako ćeš spavati. — Tako isto ako si sada u boljem času napraviš kredit, bu ti se verovalo i u slabem času.

Isto kako sam opomenil više puta, požurite se za novo članstvo; časi prohajaju; ne boj se, da buš prerano prestupili; čim prije, tem bolje! Uvijek pazi, da se osiguraš kod dobrega društva i organizacije, da znaš, da možeš dobiti u nesreći ili bolesti ovo, što ti pripada pošteno u takvom času.

Sa pozdravom, Matt Brozović, tajnik.

Vabilo na Card Party in ples

Poletna doba se bliža koncu. Ker so tudi pikniki pri kraju, se bomo sedaj zbirali in veselili v dvoranah.

Kot znano, se bliža čas naše prireditve, Card party in plesa, ki se vrši 26. septembra v dvorani stare šole cerkve Marije Vnebovzete na Holmes Ave. Na to prireditev ste iskreno vabljeni vse članice tega društva, tako tudi vsi naši prijatelji, posebno pa še društvo sv. Jožefa št. 163.

Pomislite, koliko bo dobrih stvari samo za 25c?! Prigrizek zastoni; lahko boste igrali karte ali pa plesali, poleg tega pa dobite še kak lep dobiček če boste med srečnimi. Še nekaj lepih prevlak za podglavje (Pillow cases) bo odanih; tiketi so samo po niklju in vsaka taka prevlaka za povšter je vredna do $7.00, ker je krasno ročno delo. Eder bo dobil pa "scarf." Zapomnite si torej zadnjo nedeljo v mesecu, 26. septembra.

Nadalje prosim naše članice da bi bolj točno assesment plačevale; Jednota ne čaka niti en dan; ko pride čas za odpisati assesment, pa mi še toliko manjka! Vzemite denar, kjer hočete! Žal, da so nekatere članice (ne vse) take, da imajo za vse drugo denar, samo za društvo pa ne. Vedno prosim in opominjam, pa vse skupaj ne izda nič. Dobro veste, da jaz iz društvene blaginje ne morem in tudi ne smem zakladati; jaz pa tudi nisem milijonarka da bi za vas plačevala; prišla sem že do skušnje in prepričanja, da dobrota je sirota.

Članice na bolniški listi so sedaj Helen Laurich, Ana Boldin in Josipina Pakec. Vsem želimo, da bi kmalu okrevale. Naj še omenim, da se je nedavno oglasila tetica štokljara pri naši predsednici Alice Grosel, vsled tega je Jednota pridobila enega novega člana. Čestitam!

Pitt KSKJ Boosters ZAHVALA

Pittsburgh, Pa. — Minuli Jednotin dan, ki se je vršil dne 5. septembra v Schuetzen parku je bil zelo povoljno obiskan, dasiravno je bilo vreme malo bolj slabo.

To priliko hočemo vzeti, da se zahvalimo članom različnih društev KSKJ. v naši metropoli za njih pomoč in sodelovani, brez katerega bi ne bila ta prireditev tako uspešna. Želimo se tudi zahvaliti vsem našim glavnim praidnikom in praidnici iz Pittsburgha, Pa., posebno pa glavnemu praidniku bratu Frank Opeki iz Waukegana, Ill. Njegova prisotnost kakor tudi prisotnost ostalih nam je bila v veliko čast in ponos.

Tudi godbo društva sv. Jožefa št. 163 iz Clevelanda in društvene kadetinje smo z veseljem sprejeli. Po sv. maši v naši slovenski cerkvi je bilo zanje in za druge naše zunanje goste pripravljeno kosilo, namreč za gl. predsednika br. Fr. Opeko, br. M. Pavlakovića, br. J. Dečmana, sestro A. Gorišek in br. Fr. Lokarja. Tudi znana navdušena Je notarica Miss Frances Jančar iz La Salle, Ill. je nas ta dan obiskala.

Godba društva sv. Jožefa je jako lepo nastopila s svojimi komadi in kadetinje tega društva so imenitno telovadile in vršile proste vaje. Zahvaljujemo se torej godbi označene društva in vsem kadetinjam za poset in sodelovanje. Upamo, da se bodo zopet odzvali kadar jih zopet povabimo semkaj v Pittsburgh.

S pozdravom, Frances Lokar.

NOVA MAŠA ČLANA NASE JEDNOTE

Pittsburgh, Pa. — Farani župnije Marije Vnebovzete se zopet vneto pripravljajo, da kar najbolj slovesno proslavijo prihodnjo nedeljo, dne 19. septembra, ko bo slovenski sin te župnije č. g. Rev. Herman Fr. Golobič iz reda karmeličanov stopil prvič pred oltar kot novomešanik.

V naši župniji smo imeli sedaj že štiri nove maše, ampak to bo sedaj prvi slučaj, da bo rojak, rojen v naši fari, kjer je bil krščen, prvi obhajal in birman, v isti cerkvi daroval tudi novo mašo in tudi prvi slučaj za društvo Marije Device št. 50 KSKJ., da bo njega član postal novomešanik.

Rev. Herman F. Golobič je sin Johna in Ane Golobič. Oče je bil rojen leta 1875 v Stopičah pri Novem mestu, mati pa leta 1883 v Mirni peči na Dolenjskem. Žal, da ni bilo dopuščeno materi tega srečnega in veselega dneva dočakati, ker je umrla že pred 10 leti (marca, 1927). Starejši brat novomešanika, John ml., je star 32 let in je oče treh otrok; sestra Ana, zdaj pod redovnim imenom Uršula je stara 27 let; zdaj se nahaja v Notre Dame samostanu v Baltimore, Md.

Farani naše župnije, kakor tudi člani in članice KSKJ. tem potom ponovno izražamo iskrene čestitke g. novomešaniku in mu želimo obilo uspeha in božjega blagoslova na vseh potih njegovega poklica. Novi mašnik bod' pozdravljen. Tako tudi čestitamo očetu novomešanika Mr. Golobiča in njegovi družini in vsem ožjim sorodnikom.

SREBRNA POROKA V SHEBOYGANU, WIS.

DRUŽINA MIHAEL IN JENNIE PROGAR

Sheboygan, Wis. — Dne 1. septembra je bil radosten dan za Progarjevo družino v naši naselbini. Minulo je ta dan ravno 25 let, odkar sta si Mr. Michael Progar in Mrs. Jennie Progar, rojena Urbas, obljubila zakonsko zvestobo do smrti. Poročil ju je v West Allis, Wis., pred 25 leti ta kratni župnik Rev. M. Pakiž. Letos 1. septembra ob 9. uri zjutraj je pa daroval v ravno isti cerkvi Matere Božje, v W. Allis, sedanjí župnik Rev. J. Cherne slovesno sv. mašo z asistenco in imel v srce segajoči govor. Č. g. župnik jima je tudi čestital za lepo vzorno katoliško življenje, da sta tako lepo vzgojila otroke, želel jima da jih dobri Bog blagoslovi tudi v bodoče.

Med sv. mašo je vsa Progarjeva družina pristopila k mizi Gospodovi in prejela sv. obhajilo. Sv. maše so se udeležile tudi mati, brata in sestre Mrs. Progar, ter številni prijatelji od blizu in daleč.

Po cerkvenih svečanostih se je z jubilantoma mala družba prijateljev zbrala v Louis Rozmanovi dvorani na skupni slavnostni večerji. V soboto zvečer 4. septembra se je pa družinska slavnost nadaljevala v Sheboyganu, in sicer v Calumet dvorani.

Progarjevi so prejeli za ta lepi dan mnogo čestitk od svojih številnih prijateljev. Tudi lepe darove sta prejela od svojih dobrih otrok, sorodnikov in prijateljev. Saj Progarjeve vsak spoštuje kdor jih pozna.

Največja sreča in ponos Progarjeve družine pa je osem zdravih ter pridnih otrok. Pet sinov in tri hčere. Vsi zdravi in zadovoljni. Starejša hčerka Jennie je v Fond du Lac, Wis. v šoli, kjer se uči za bolničarko ali "nurse." Sinovi Michael Anthony in Walter, vsi trije graduanti Sheboygan višje šole, so uslužbeni pri eni in isti tvrdki v Kohler, Wis., ostali še obiskujejo šolo.

Vsi Progarjevi spadajo h K.

Zatorej pridimo vsi tukajšnji člani in članice KSKJ. in farani, da izkažemo našemu sobratu in faranu domačino vso čast in priznanje na njegovi uspešni poti do oltarja.

Č. g. novomešanik je bil rojen dne 3. decembra leta 1912 v Pittsburghu, Pa. Osnovne nauke je dovršil v naši slovenski farni šoli leta 1926; tedaj se je odločil za višjo šolanje in odšel v Mt. Carmel College v Niagara Falls, Ont., Kanada. Tam je dovršil višjo šolo in novicijat v samostanu reda karmelitov; svoje bogoslovne študije je pa dokončal v Mt. Carmel semenišču v Chicagu, Ill. Dne 16. maja je bil v mašnika posvečen v tamošnji spominski kapelici Quigleyevega nadškofijskega semenišča.

Rev. Herman F. Golobič je sin Johna in Ane Golobič. Oče je bil rojen leta 1875 v Stopičah pri Novem mestu, mati pa leta 1883 v Mirni peči na Dolenjskem. Žal, da ni bilo dopuščeno materi tega srečnega in veselega dneva dočakati, ker je umrla že pred 10 leti (marca, 1927). Novi mašnik bod' pozdravljen. Tako tudi čestitamo očetu novomešanika Mr. Golobiča in njegovi družini in vsem ožjim sorodnikom.

primerno doto. Vzeli so fanta in šli spubit ono dekle. V največjih slučajih se nista nikoli poprej videla. No, to snubci ni prav nič oviralo pri pogajanju za doto. To je bila postranska stvar, ali se fant in dekle lepo gledata ali ne. Doto je prva in poglavitna stvar. Ojka je bil trd kot kamen in ni hotel ničesar pri- makniti. Mamca posreduje, kakor pravi pesem:

To vse premalo dote bo!

Pa mam'ca se oglašijo:

Še tisto njivo za vasjo.

Da pa že takrat ni šlo "starim" vse po žnori, nam priča sledeča: Fant vpraša:

Dekle, povej, povej,

al' me še ljubiš kej?

Dekle odgovori:

Ojka me kregajo,

mam'ca mi branijo.

Jaz pa ne maram nič, pojem kot ptič.

Da so že naše babice in prababice dajale prednost ljubemni, nam pove sledeča:

V kloster bi rada šla, da se prepomno je.

Zbranost imam ženina.

Povsod opažamo čutila naroda do bližnjega. Veselili so se z veselimi in jokali z žalujočimi. O izgubah dragih nam pove sledeča:

Smrt na duri potrkla:

Mlada hčerka, asi doma?

Mati so hudo zavpili, ker so srečno jo ljubili!

To je le en mali izčrpek bogate narodne simfonije. Da bi našo narodno pesem dovolj ocenil in jo predočil bogato, kakoršna je, bi bilo treba napisati celo knjigo.

Napisal sem le toliko, da vzbudim v bralcih, ki poslušajo petje, ono razumevanje do pesmi, ki bo njim, ki jo razmotirajo in akusajo doumeti, v veliko večje razvedrilo in užitek. Ter, da ne bomo narodno pesem podcenjevali, pač pa jo cenili nad drugimi.

Dežela brez Boga

(Za "Sunday at Home" napisal M. R. Brown)

Predstavljajmo si kako nedeljo v glavnem mestu Rusije Petrogradu še v predvojni dobi. Rusi ne trdijo danes, da je bila to svetovna vojna, ampak "imperialistična." Iz vseh cerkva se čuje lepo ubrano zvonenje, posebno pa iz katedrale sv. Izaka. Verno ljudstvo, namenjeno v cerkev se odkriva na marsikakem vogalu ob cesti postavljenu znamenju pred ikonon (sv. podobno), verne žene se pa križajo in na tihem molijo.

MAIN ASSET TO SUCCESS IS PERSEVERANCE

The difference between men is not that of geographical location, physical makeup, brain capacity, social or political pull.

All these things have their advantages, and all these things have their corresponding disadvantages.

The Standard Oil began with one well. This great opportunity was created out of a small beginning.

The transcontinental railroads of the country began with a small locomotive that was started by a pike pole.

The United States of America is an opportunity that was developed from an Indian range.

Every big thing that is permanent started in a small way.

One great trouble with the modern man is this: He is not willing to grow slowly. He wants to bound right into business, and expects to build a permanent success in a very short time. This cannot be done.

Patience and pluck are the parents of success.

Speculation and splash are the foolish folks who drop their children at the vestibule doors of charitable neighbors.

The trouble is, the average man is in too big a hurry. Most men get the load pretty well up the hill, and then they see someone else making some big success somewhere else, and they quit cold.

To them, other fields of opportunity look more promising, and they dash madly after what they think is a new and bigger opportunity.

The failures are the ever-changing crowd. The successes are the sticklers.

Initiative is a big individual asset, but if you lack staying qualities, initiative is a sky-rocket.

Ambition is a big factor, but without patience to win, your ambition is but fireworks.

Experience is a great teacher, but the changeable man who lacks determination has to go to so many schools.—Selected.

INGRATITUDE

One of the most painful experiences in life is the lack of appreciation from those we have benefited. This does not refer to failure to give gifts equal in value to those received; it means the failure to appreciate good works which spring from kindness of heart that can not be measured in value or repaid. The pathetic figure of Christ, our greatest benefactor, looms before our mind's eye, and silently points to the many benefits we have received from God without giving thanks. Be grateful for what the Church brings you in peace of soul.

The United States Constitution Sesquicentennial Celebration

Essential Features of the Nation-Wide Celebration

If the American people are to be made universally Constitution-conscious, which is a consummation devoutly to be wished, detailed knowledge of the formation of that immortal document must be carried into every home. This is a great and patriotic task, but its accomplishment can be made certain by the co-operation of all people, especially by educational institutions of the country.

through these important factors—schools, colleges and universities—the inculcation and spread of the knowledge which ought to be a major part of the education of every American citizen, can and will be achieved. Congress has shown its appreciation of this fact and of an appropriate commemoration of the momentous events in connection with the formation of the Constitution by creating the United States Constitution Sesquicentennial Commission.

Proclamation by the President of the United States of America

WHEREAS the Constitution of the United States was signed on September 17, 1787; and had by June 21, 1788, been ratified by the necessary number of States and,

WHEREAS George Washington was inaugurated as the first President of the United States on April 30, 1789,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Franklin D. Roosevelt, President of the United States of America, hereby designate the period from September 17, 1937, to April 30, 1939, as one of commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the signing and ratification of the Constitution and of the inauguration of the first President under that Constitution.

In commemorating this period we shall affirm our debt to those who ordained and established the Constitution "in Order to form a more perfect Union, establish Justice, insure domestic Tranquility, provide for common defence, promote the general Welfare, and secure the Blessings of Liberty to ourselves and our Posterity."

We shall recognize that the Constitution is an enduring instrument fit for the governing of a farflung population of more than one hundred and thirty million engaged in diverse and varied pursuits, even as it was fit for the governing of a small agrarian Nation of less than four million. It is therefore appropriate that in the period herein set apart we shall think afresh of the founding of our Government under the Constitution, how it has served us in the past and how in the days to come its principles will guide the Nation forward.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the city of Washington this fourth day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and thirty-seven and of the Independence of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-second.

By the President:

Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Cordell Hull,

Secretary of State.

Time of Celebration

The celebration will begin Sept. 17, 1937. It will continue through the anniversary of ratification, and the organization of the national government, to the anniversary of the inauguration of President Washington, April 30, 1939.

Purpose

The purpose of the celebration is to create a quickening of interest in the Constitution and its essential relation to the history of the nation. The historical background and origins of the Constitution will be studied, the struggle for ratification, the triumphant organization of the national government, and the constitutional phases of its later development.

Place

Every state, city, and town; every institution and organization; every home and individual

BIGOTRY

Bigotry has no head and cannot think, no heart and cannot feel. When she moves it is in wrath; when she pauses it is amid ruin. Her prayers are curses, her God is a demon, her communion is death, her vengeance is eternity, her decalogue written in the blood of her victims, and if she stops for a moment in her infernal flight it is upon a kindred rock to whet her vulture fang for a more sanguinary desolation.

Daniel O'Connell.

No one would discover that you had a temper if you did not exhibit it occasionally.

NEWBURGLASSIES
OPEN PIN PLAY

Cleveland (Newburg), O.—A flash with a crash! The St. Ann bowlerets are back again with a bang! On Monday, Sept. 13, the Ann girls made their 1937 debut on the alleys in an attempt to trim figures and fatten scores this winter season in preparation for the spring season.

The next two or three weeks will be spring training for the girls and a promising crop of new rookies will be given a try-out. After the averages are computed teams again will be formed into an independent league which will run along the same successful lines as last year, the girls hope.

Josie Godec, one of last year's better performers, has added a new fan to her cheering section, in the shape of a nice, brand-new husband, John F. Winter by name. Josie caught up with her man on Saturday, Sept. 4. The ceremony took place at St. Lawrence's Church. Mrs. Ferfolia, sister of the bride and also a bowleret, was matron of honor.

The bridesmaids included Angela Winter, sister of the groom, Josephine Mulh, Laura Sraj and Anna Winter, also a sister of the groom.

Ushers were Ralph Godec, Charles Winter, August Supan and Matt Lekan.

On Sunday the bride and groom, darning not to go against tradition, left for Niagara Falls on their honeymoon.

LIFE INSURANCE HISTORY

The first life assurance contract of which record is found, was written on the 18th day of June, 1583, by and between a few merchants of London on the life of one man. The payer of the premium would win if the insured died within a specified time, while the insurer would win if the insured survived the period. The contract was a bet or wager that would now be void in law—but it was the beginning of life insurance. Individuals in those days acted as insurers, but, in time, and the natural evolution of the business, the insurers shifted from individuals to regular life insurance companies, because an individual insurer might die before the insured, whereas, a life insurance company is presumed to live always. The beneficiaries also shifted from those who had only a financial interest in the insured's death, to those who had a financial interest in the insured's living. In other words, the beneficiary would then have an interest in the continuance of the life of the insured.

Of course, George Washington never told a lie; he married a widow.

FOR GOD, HOME AND COUNTRY

By FATHER KAPISTRAN

A fire truck just whines by on the next street. It makes me sorry for kiddies of today who will never know an honest-to-goodness fire horse.

When my father tried to decide which of two houses to buy (one was next door to an engine company), I pestered him till we were neighbors to the firemen.

I was anxious to visit the stables; but I made friends with the fire-eaters first.

There were fourteen men in the company, including the captain and lieutenant. Of this total, thirteen were Catholics.

The thirteenth was an East-er-bird, who was once told:

"Ed, you're a poor fireman. You put out everything but yourself." "What do you mean?" asked Ed. "You ought to try putting yourself out to go to Mass on Sundays."

Three years ago I received a letter from Ed, asking me to visit him because he felt he was answering his last box. He died in the Lord.

The fourteenth was married to a Catholic girl and all his children were raised in the mother's faith.

The captain died five years ago and his son, also a fireman, asked me to assist on the altar at his funeral Mass.

The lieutenant was the proud father of two nuns.

In justice to the squad, I must say they gave me every encouragement when they learned of my vocation.

The funny man was a German, who was also the engineer. Now, children, the engineer was the man who kept the steam piped to the fire engine, lit the engine pot on alarms, and tended the steamer pumps at the blaze. When the horses started out of the house, the intake and outlet valves slipped out of their floor sockets. It was ever so much more interesting than the red "gas wagons" we have now.

Well, this engineer had a way of saying everything his own way; whether purposely or not, I don't know.

The Firemen's Mutual Aid Society to him was "The Firemen's Mutilated Society."

A pontifical high Mass he pronounced "a Pontius Pilate Mass."

When he heard of plans to electrify the railroad, he insisted they were to "electrocute" it.

But back in the stables were Nip, Tuck, Jim and Joe. Jim and Joe hauled the big engine; Nip and Tuck were the hose-truck team. Feeding, currying, clipping, washing those intelligent animals was real fun. They claimed Joe was more than twenty years old. When Joe had to be shot after a collision with a fire fan's car, I remember I wasn't the only one who cried.

I could tell you, children, more stories, but my space is short. But first I must give you at least one lesson. It is kindness to animals. The fifth commandment forbids unnecessary torturing or killing of animals. This week I heard of a boy clubbing a puppy; in justice the boy lost part of his trousers in the pup's teeth. And that's the truth.

DAMIEN the Leper

By John Farrow

(The Catholic Digest)

(Continuation)

Late that night as the priest lay tossing in his bed, troubled with the difficulties of this new problem which was gradually diminishing and threatening to destroy his influence, the distant beat of drums suddenly intruded on his thoughts. He listened intently and then became conscious of a fresh sound; a faint scratching at the window. A woman was there, a timid frightened creature—he recognized her as one whom he had once befriended by giving medicine to her sick child. With haste that was so frantic it made her speech almost too incoherent, she whispered a few words; then, as though terrified at her own rashness, she fled back into the shadows before he could ask further questions. But she had said enough. Incantation rites, a conjuring of evil spirits against his life, were being held at that very moment in a burial cave not far away.

It did not take him long to don shoes and cassock. Seizing a thick sturdy stick, which he sometimes used on tramping expeditions, he opened his door, only to pause at the threshold where, after a moment's thought, he deposited the stick back in its accustomed place, reasoning that it would be just as well to be completely unarmed as to bring such a poor weapon into the gathering he expected to find. After an hour's journey he arrived at the entrance of the burial caves which were on rocky shelves that protruded from the side of a small hill. The long walk through the darkness of thickly clustered trees on such an errand must have tried even his indomitable courage but he kept steadily on.

Muffled drums were beating. From the cave mouth a glare, wavering and of a pale reddish hue, gave fitful illumination to the surrounding rocks. As he emerged from the tree shadows to the hillside he could hear, over the now loud savage beat of the drums, a wailing scream as though an animal was being tortured. Apparently the ritualists felt certain of being undisturbed or perhaps they were too absorbed in their gruesome functions; whatever the cause, there was no guard to prevent the priest clambering to the cave entrance and from there, in the shadow of a giant boulder, witnessing a weird scene.

Four tall, smoky, flaming torches were implanted in the center of the cavern floor. Their flickering light revealed a half circle of about thirty men of varying ages crouched, shoulder to shoulder, staring with fixed eyes at the shadowy end of the cave, where a ghoul-like figure was bent low, huddled at some task that Damien, in smoke-laden air, at first could not discern. From this individual came a muttered incantation. Flanking the cavern walls and squatting among human bones were the shadowy outlines of the drummers who were pounding at the shark-skin covered gourds in a rapid, unceasing tempo. On heaps of mouldering kapa cloth, bones, startlingly white in the gloom, lay scattered everywhere in a terrible confusion of separate feet, hands and skulls. The air was almost unbreathable and stank of death. The walls were wet with a moisture that in the changing light glittered like slime-covered coal.

The incantation rose higher and Damien, his eyes becoming more accustomed to the murk, recognized the speaker as being one Mauae who had a reputation throughout the region as a hermit and a soothsayer. Shrunken and black, toothless and incredibly old, he was an evil sight at any time and actually was not Hawaiian by birth or blood but a dubious mixture of negro and Portuguese, born in the West Indies where, at a tender age, he joined the crew of an American whaler, which he had promptly deserted on arriving at the Islands.

As Damien watched, this individual straightened up to reveal that the object over which he had been crouched was the limp form of a small dog. Its throat had been cut and Mauae, holding the head of the unfortunate animal in a rigid position, spouted the blood into a large open gourd. When it was filled he relinquished the corpse and devoted his entire attention to the gory vessel, staring into it and screaming a supplication, swaying backwards and forwards as though trying to work himself into a trance. The gibberish that he chanted was a language unknown to Damien, but the priest rightfully concluded that both it and the demonological ceremony belonged, not to this island, but to the country of Mauae's negro forbearers. He strained forward in an effort to distinguish the words but, with a disturbing abruptness, the conjuration ceased and the witch doctor held up his hand in a signal to the drummers who also stopped.

The sudden silence that followed, broken only by the sound of heavy breathing, seemed unnatural; it was a silence laden with the weight of expectancy. Another signal was given and three of the torches were extinguished, leaving only one wavering smoke-crested flame whose shifting shadows made uneasy movements among the watchers. But their eyes remained fixed, in a rigid gaze, fascinated by fear, upon the dim figure by the gourd who now reached back into the shadows beyond the corpse of the butchered dog and drew out another object; a crudely fashioned puppet whose wooden face had been smeared white and which wore a black cloth cassock-like gown. A tiny wooden cross was hung about the neck and a string of rosary beads that Damien had missed from his house some months before was fastened around the waist. There was no doubt but that the doll was supposed to be an effigy of the priest and the witch doctor gloated over it as he twisted back to the blood receptacle.

Damien did not hesitate any longer. Without uttering a word he plunged through the crowd which, stunned by his dramatic entrance, remained still for a moment of startled inactivity, then with a sudden uproar rushed at him, but he, in his rage, made perhaps what was a very wise move. Seizing the puppet from Mauae he sent that individual reeling back with a violent blow that made him stumble over the gourd so that it upset, the contents spreading in a dark stain. The crowd stopped before the spilt blood. The din died quickly as they watched Damien with angry scorn rip the doll to pieces. Expressions changed from rage to fear, then to perplexity. It was obvious they had expected an awful catastrophe to strike the white man as he mutilated his own image. Nothing more terrible happened than a whirling flow of curses from the cowering Mauae who, slinking in the background, was, despite his imprecations, plainly in fear of the priest.

Damien looked at the dark faces that surrounded him, shrewdly reading their thoughts. These men were the sons of men who before, under the urgings of their kahunas, had practiced the bloodiest of human sacrifices; there still were old men in the villages who boasted of having seen Cook's flesh burned on the altars; and, if they had any faith in the wretched celebrant of the recent unsavory rite as a kahuna, they would undoubtedly serve the same fate to him. Mauae must be thoroughly discredited. With a sudden, contemptuous gesture that made them step back in alarm the priest scattered the torn remnants of the doll over the floor. "Are you children that you are afraid of a doll and the blood of a dog?" he asked derisively. Then grinding his heel into the face of the puppet he illustrated undeniably that no harm could come to him no matter how much he insulted the Evil Spirits. Sullen faces became doubtful and sheepish, and nobody attempted to detain him when, after telling them that the air of this foul place was bad for honest men and that they should go home to their wives and children, he strode out of the cavern to walk the miles back to his own house, comfortable with victory.

(The End.)

THE TRUE CHRISTIAN

The Christian is one who knows what he is doing and where he is going in the midst of beings who are far worse than brutes and who no longer know the difference between good and evil, yes and no. Amid a generation of cripples and alcoholics, he stands out like a god, not through any merit of his own, but simply because he has put himself in harmony with the natural order by submitting where submission is due. He is a free man among slaves.—Paul Claudel.

PITT KSKJ DAY ANOTHER SUCCESS

Pittsburgh, Pa.—The KSKJ Day held in Schuetzen Park, Sunday, Sept. 5, was met with great success. The weather was very unsettled and cloudy, but as the afternoon progressed the crowd started to gather and made it a gala affair.

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all the members of the various lodges in the metropolitan area of Pittsburgh, whose help and co-operation made this day a success. Also, we thank the supreme officers of the KSKJ for their presence, and especially Mr. Frank Opeka, supreme president. We deem it a great honor to have had him as our guest and hope that we will have the pleasure of his company again.

The St. Joseph's Band and girls' drill team arrived in all their splendor, and after attending Mass were served dinner in the church hall.

The concert and band music was well received and sure was a treat to the folks. The KSKJ can be proud of the fact that they have a band composed of such grand men and women as are found in this band and drill team.

The girls performed very well and it certainly added color to the festivity to see their grand uniforms in gold and blue. We thank them all most sincerely and only hope that they enjoyed being here as much as we enjoyed having them, and we hope that some time in the future, when we have some such affair, they will again accept our invitation.

We had several other guests at the dinner, supreme officers of the KSKJ, namely, Frank Opeka, Matt Pavlakovic, John Decman, Agnes Gorisek, Frank Lokar. Miss Frances Jancer of La Salle, Ill., was a very welcome guest at our KSKJ Day celebration.

Frances Lokar.

Apple Pancakes

Two tablespoons shortening, 2 tablespoons sugar, 2 eggs, 2 tart apples, peeled, cored and finely chopped, 1½ cups flour, ¼ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1½ teaspoons baking powder, milk.

Cream together shortening and sugar, add beaten eggs, then apples, next flour, salt, cinnamon and baking powder sifted together, alternately with milk to make a pour batter—the exact quantity will depend a little on the juiciness of the apples, but about 2/3 of a cup is likely to be needed. Bake as any griddle cakes.

Pimiento Cheese Patties

One cup tomato soup, ½ cup water ½ cup dry cereal (oatmeal), ½ cup grated cheese, ½ teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon pepper, 2 minced canned pimientos, 1 beaten egg, bread crumbs and frying fat.

Combine soup and water, stir cereal in very gently and bring to boiling point over open fire, then cook in double boiler 15 to 20 minutes. Add cheese, salt, pepper and pimientos and turn into tall cylindrical molds (empty baking powder cans are good). Chill, unmold, cut into slices, dip in beaten egg, then in bread crumbs. Fry golden brown in deep hot fat or saute on both sides in a shallow frying pan. Serve four to six.

Quick Chili Con Carne

One pound ground beef, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 medium onion, chopped, 1 medium can red kidney beans, 1 small can tomato soup, dash of salt and pepper, ¼ teaspoon chili powder.

Brown beef in skillet with butter and chopped onions. Add kidney beans and stir until well blended. Pour over this the soup, and season with salt and pepper, and add chili powder. Cook slowly for ½ hour. Serves six.

Cook sugar and water until a small amount of syrup will form a soft ball in cold water, or spins a thread when dropped from the tip of a spoon. Pour syrup in fine stream over egg whites, beating constantly. Continue beating until mixture is cool. Fold in chocolate, cream and vanilla. Pour into mold, filling it to overflowing, cover with greased paper, press cover tightly down over paper, and pack in equal parts of ice and salt, if mechanical refrigerator is used, pour into freezing trays and let stand 3 to 4 hours.
