LETO XXXIII—VOL. XXXIII

Kršenje prohibicije v Ameriki je ena največjih naših industrij

Washington, 18. junija. Družba, ki se bori za odpravo prohibicije, pravkar izjavlja, da je kršenje prohibicije, to je prodaja in izdelava opojne pijače ena največjih današnjih industrij v Ameriki. Ugotovljeno je, da nosi kršenje prohibicije danes nad dva tisoč milijonov dolarjev na leto. Največje ameriške industrije so: avtomobilska, jelekarska in petrolejna. Natančnejši pregled uživanja opojne pijače v Zedinjenih državah kot trdi omenjena organizacija, dokazuje, da znaša račun za opojno pijačo, katero ameriški narod letno povzije, $2,848,000,000. In sicer potrošijo od te svote na leto $2,200,000,000 za žganje, $395,000,000 za pivo in $253,000,000 za vino. Trikrat toliko se danes plačuje za žganje kot pa pred prohibicijo. Dasi so zvezni prohibicijski agenti zelo aktivni, pa plačajo kršilci prohibicije na leto nekako $35,000,000, v kolikor agenti zaplenijo opojno pijačo, posestva, avtomobile ali pa plačajo kazni v denarju. Amerikanci povzijejo letno 225,000,000 galon žganja, torej pride na vsako osebo skoro dve galoni, nadalje se povzije letno 700,000,000 galon pive, deloma importirane, delane in izdelane na domovih ali v posebnih delavnicah. Obenem se povzije v Ameriki letno do 200,000,000 galon vina. Ak je to prohibicija, pravi poročilo, potem je solnce — mesec. Leta 1914, ko še ni bilo prohibicije je prišlo na vsako osebo na leto 1.44 galone žganja, danes, v prohibicijskih časih pa pride 1.60 galone. In dočim je vlada dobivala pred prohibicijo letno približno $400,000,000 davka od opojne pijače, ne dobiva danes nobenega davka, razven nekaj milijonov v globah.

Učitelji, policisti brez plač v Marionu

Marion, Ohio, 18. junija. V tem mestu, kjer so postavili spomenik ranjencu predsedniku Hardingu za $700,000, in kjer je predsednik Hoover še včeraj poveljeval spomin Hardinga, morajo biti učitelji, policisti in ognjegasci brez vsake plače, dokler ne pride pomoč od novih davkov. Za $700,000 bi bili vsi učitelji, policisti in ognjegasci plačani za dve leti.

Skupni piknik

Društvo Mir št. 142 in društvo "Loyalites" št. 590 SNPJ prirediti v nedeljo dne 21. junija skupni piknik na Pintarjevi farmi. V paradi, ki se bo vršila, vam bo čast videti župana s Spodnjega Krasa. Na pikniku bodo darila za najbolj debelega in najbolj suhega moškega. Dober prigrizek in kraški teran. Pridite!

Lepa proslava

V nedeljo 21. junija obhaja društvo sv. Jožefa št. 169 K. S. K. Jednote desetletnico svojega obstanka. Ob enajstih dopoldne se vrši skupna sv. maša, katere se udeležijo društva. Popoldne se pa vrši velikanski piknik na Močilnikarjevi farmi, in to z jako lepim programom in najboljšo postrežbo. Vsi ste prijazno vabljeni.

Za piknike

Ob času piknikov je potreben dober prigrizek. Frank Vesel na 185. cesti vam preskrbi vse potrebno in po najnižji ceni.

Silovit protest manjšine najvišje sodnije glede čarter volitev

Columbus, Ohio, 18. junija. Včeraj je najvišja sodnja države Ohio, kot je bilo že poročano s 6 glasovi proti dvema ovrгла čarter volitve v Clevelandu. Dva sodnika najvišje sodnije, ki sta glasovala za čarter volitve, sta podala svojo izjavo, ki je silovit napad na clerka mestne zbornice v Clevelandu, na Fred Thomasa. Sodnik Jones se je izjavil: "Poglejmo, kaj se je naredilo s podpisom, ki so zahtevali čarter volitve. Postava zapoveduje, da bi moralo biti nabranih 13,010 podpisov in volitve bi se morale vršiti. Toda v resnici so Dana-ceau in njegovi pristaši nabrali 36,000 podpisov. Mestna zbornica v Clevelandu je na to naročila clerku Thomasu, da pregleda podpise, če jih je dovolj pravih. In Thomas je to naredil na sledeči način: Vse skupaj je bilo 563 prošenj s podpisi. 67 izmed teh prošenj je imelo 4,531 podpisov. In na katerikoli listini je Thomas našel pet nepravilnih podpisov, je zavrgel celo listino. Na ta način je bilo vrženih proč 4,351 glasov, dočim jih je bilo med njimi 3,856 popolnoma veljavnih. In zopet: Na 139 listinah je bilo 8,414 podpisov. In ker je Thomas na vsaki našel dva nepravilna podpisa, je zavrgel vseh 8,414 podpisov. To je kapriciozna in skoro roparska oblast mestnega clerka! Na ta način ima ena sama oseba več sile in moči kot tisoče poštenih državljanov, na ta način se naravnost uničuje ona velika ljudska svobodščina: inicijativa in referendum. En sam nižji uradnik je zavrgel nad 25,000 pravih podpisov poštenih državljanov. Mi obsojamo postopanje clerka Thomasa kot nepravilno in protipostavno!" Toda ta protest dveh sodnikov ni obveljal. Šest jih je glasovalo drugače, in republikanci v Clevelandu so zopet zasolili zaušnico poštenim volivcem.

Nove kvodre bo izdal zakladniški urad

Washington, 18. junija. — Zvezni zakladniški oddelek je poslal povabila na vse odlične kibarje Zedinjenih držav, da naredijo model George Washingtona. (Ta model se bo rabil na eni strani novih kvodrov, katere namerava izdati zakladniški urad ob priliki 200-letnice rojstva Washingtona. Novi kvodri pridejo v promet 22. februarja, 1932, na Washingtonov rojstni dan.

Mr. Andrew Kobal

Včeraj nas je obiskal v uradu Mr. Andrew Kobal iz New Yorka, ki bo v prihodnjem semestru poučeval na Columbia univerzi v New Yorku slovensko literaturo in kulturo. Mr. Kobal je prijazen, inteligenčen Slovenec, kateremu želimo kar največ uspeha. Odpotoval je že v četrtek večer proti New Yorku.

Piknik v nedeljo

Društva sv. Janeza Krstnika, št. 71 JSKJ priredi v nedeljo, 21. junija, na Goriškovi farmi svoj piknik. Truk A. Barage bo vozil izpred Slovenskega doma na Holmes Ave., in se ustavil pred Slov. Del. Domom, da vas odpelje na določeno mesto. Pridite, bo izvrstna zabava!

V Tennessee ne smejo učiti opičje teorije

Socializem prvi cilj sovjetske vlade, potem šele pride trgovina

Paris, 18. junija. Sovjetski vladi je veliko bolj mar ako delavci v Rusiji dobro razumejo nauke Lenina in boljševizma sploh, kot pa je vladi mar, koliko ruski delavci pridelajo. Zato pa je v političnem oziru Rusija veliko več pridobila med domačini, kot pa v pridelih kljub vsem takozvanim "petletnim načrtom." Rusko blago se na zunaj itak prodaja za skrajno malo svoto, prvič ker je tega blaga dovolj in drugič ker mora konkurirati z drugimi državami. Toda končno bi bil eksport ruskega blaga sovjetski vseeno, njena glavna skrb je delavce učiti komunizma. Pri tem pa seveda vlada kolikor toliko zanemarija novo zgrajene tovarne, rudnike, delavnice, mašinerijo. Rusija je danes zmožna postavljati in graditi nove tovarne, električne centrale in enako, toda nima pa mož, ki bi te tovarne uspešno vodili, zato je pa ruski produkt mnogo slabši od vsakega produkta drugih dežel, zlasti pa od ameriškega.

Vreme

Signalna luč, ki vodi preko St. Clair Ave. in 62. ceste, je zelena samo 20 sekund. In toliko časa vzame našega Mr. Bobka, da pride preko St. Clair Ave. Sedaj ko bo St. Clair Ave. za 22 čevljev bolj široka, Tone ne bo mogel preko ulice v 20 sekundah. Naredila se je prošnja v City Hall, da bo zelena luč gorela 30 sekund.

Salomon-Zaletel

Jutri se vrši poroka Mr. Edie Salomona, sina dobro poznane slovenske družine Mr. in Mrs. Jožef Salomon, 1152 E. 63rd St., z Miss Edith Zaletel. Poročno slavlje se vrši v Grdinovi dvorani. Prijatelji so vljudno vabljeni.

Pri odhodu

Ob svojem odhodu iz Clevelanda se želim še enkrat zahvaliti predvsem Father Omanu, cerkvenemu odboru cerkve sv. Lovrenca, sedanjim in vsem prejšnjim faranom, prijateljem, znancem in dobrotnikom za vse, kar ste mi dobrega storili tekom mojega skoro šestletnega bivanja med vami! Posebna hvala za krasni poslovljni večer in nepričakovana in nezaslužena darila. Rad bi se vsakemu posebej zahvalil za vse, pa je nemogoče: zato naj ta zahvala velja vsem skupaj! Tisočkrat pozdravljeni in z Bogom! — Albin Gnidovec.

Zastraženi predsednik

Patrick Crawley, predsednik NYC železnice, je dobil več grozilnih pism, nekaj tudi iz Clevelanda. Grozijo mu, da mora plačati $25,000, sicer ga ubijejo. Predsednika so zastražili detektivi.

Vaša prilika

Razprodaja vseh ženskih in dekljskih oblek pri Jos. Stampfel, 6129 St. Clair Ave., se še vedno nadaljuje. Obleke $8.90 samo za $4.95. Prosimo, da čitate oglas!

Irate kaj za njega?

Starejši rojak, Anton Bukovnik, 995 E. 63rd St., ima prav dobro crodje, koso in srp iz starega kraja. Rad bi vam za malo ceno očistil vaše lote in vrtove. Sporočite mu, ako ga rabite.

Cvet in sad

Primož Kogoj nam poroča, da ima čudno hrusko na svojem vrtu. Po eni strani cvete, po drugi strani ima pa že precej obilen sad. Bomo pa dvakrat trgali, Primož!

Dveletnica

V spomin dveletnice smrti pokojne Mary Dolinar se bo v ponedeljek, 22. junija, ob 8. uri zjutraj brala sv. maša zadušnica v cerkvi sv. Kristine. Prijatelji ranjke so prošeni, da se udeležijo.

Cerkev moramo imeti, pravi Mussolini, toda politika—to sem jaz!

Paris, 18. junija. Benito Mussolini, laški diktator Italije, je včeraj v pogovoru z nekim francoskim časnikarjem se izjavil, da je cerkev neobhodno potrebna, ne samo za priprosto narod, pač pa tudi za elito in znanstvenike. Mussolini želi, da je mladina dobro poučena o verskih resnicah, da hodi ob nedeljah skupno k obhajilu in da se dobro nauči katekizma. Za to bi on pustil duhovnom delovati. To je religija. Vse drugo je pa politika, in politika — to sem jaz! Jaz nikdar ne bom dovolil, da se kdo drugi dotakne državnih stvari kot samo jaz. Moja formula je popolnoma jasna: vse v okvirju države, ničesar izven države, ničesar proti državi. Kakor hitro je otrok star dovolj, da se začne učiti, spada otrok v državno področje. Mogoče boste mislili, da je to špartanska disciplina, toda priznati morate, da je jasna. Cerkev si ne more lastiti otrok ali drugih ljudi, da jih uči v veri. Tam se neha njen delokrog, vse ostalo pa pripada državi. — No, tudi delokrog Mussolinija se bo v kratkem nehal.

Poroka poznane rojake

V soboto zjutraj se poroči Mr. Vinko Godina, 1312 E. 167. St., član direktorija S. D. Doma in aktiven društveni delavec, z Miss Černel, od poznane čerlene družine na 9335 Independence Rd. Po opravljeni poročni slavnosti se mlada poročena podasta na ženitovanjsko potovanje v razne kraje ameriških držav. Bilo srečno!

Znižane cene

V poznani, zanesljivi slovenski trgovini John Rožanc, 15721 Waterloo Rd. dobite dni zelo znižane cene na delovni in spodnji obleki. Prosimo, da prebete oglas.

Zanimive vesti iz življenja naših rojakov širom nasebin Amerike

Pogreb soproge jugoslovanskega generalnega konzula v Chicagi, Antinone Kolombato-vič, ki je tako nenadoma umrla, je bil naravnost sijajen. Osem avtomobilov je vozilo v sprevo do polno cvetja. Med nosilci krste so bili tudi Srb Mr. John Palandech, Hrvat Dr. A. Biankini in Slovenec Mr. Fr. Vidmar. Za pogrebom je šel tudi Mr. Vincent Cankar, glavni predsednik S. N. P. J. Pogreba so se udeležili vsi konzuli vseh držav, ki imajo svoje urade v Chicagi in vsa pravoslavna duhovščina.

V Butte, Montana, so Slovenci pred kratkim ustanovili "Jugoslovanski Kulturni Klub," v katerem naj bi se zbirali pevci, dramatičarji in godci. Celo v Ameriki rojena mladina se je za ta Klub začela resno zanimati. V kratkem času za skušnje že prav dobro igrajo slovenske melodije. Ustanovnik in voditelj Kluba je Mr. Anton Leskavar.

V Pueblo, Colorado, sta se poročila Mr. Louis Uršič in Miss Rose Goršič, hči dobro poznane trgovca. Ob poročni slavnosti je prav imenitno pel poznani pevec in igravec Mr. John Germ.

Na obisk v staro domovino so se podali Mr. John Germ, Mr. in Mrs. Prelesnik, ki gresta v Dobrepolje, Mr. in Mrs. Petkovšek z malo hčerko, namenjeni na Ločnik, fara Skočjan, Mrs. Ana Pirc pa gre v Žužemberk. Vsem želimo prav srečno potovanje in zdrav povratek. Odpeljejo se v družbi izletnikov K. S. K. Jednote.

Hudo je zbolel v Pueblo, Colorado, Mr. John Roitz, oče Rev. Anton Roitza. Istotam se je ponorečila 6 letna Helena Lesar. Bila je povožena in ima zlomljeno ramo.

Iz Californije je dospel na obisk v Pueblo, Colo., Mr. John Anzik k svojemu bratu Mr. Louis Anziku. Povedal je, da že 15 let ni videl snega. Prav lepo se mu je videlo, ko je v Pueblu začel 20. maja padati sneg.

Društvo Majnik št. 28 S. D. Zveze, Barberton, Ohio, priredi dne 28. junija svoj piknik v Hopcan Garden, kamor so člani prijazno vabljeni. V nedeljo, 21. junija, pa ima društvo Majnik svojo sejo, pri kateri se bo volil delegat za VII. konvencijo Slovenske Dobrodelne Zveze.

V Johnstown, Penna., se je organizirala politična organizacija Slovencev, ki so ameriški državljani. Doslej je pristopilo že 147 članov. Organizacija bo vodila tudi šolo za pouk o državljanstvu. 21. junija priredi člani te organizacije piknik nad Lorain Boro School.

Klub Slovenskega Doma v Kenmore, Ohio, priredi piknik v nedeljo 28. junija na farmi Jos. Lovka na Springfield Rd.

Večerna šola v Moon Run, Penna, se je te dni končala v lepem redu. Obiskovalce so večerni šoli največ Slovence, ki so blagoslovila 22. novembra pa je učitelj ob slovesu kupile lepo zapestno uro. Šola se bo zopet nadaljevala v prihodnji sezoni.

Na daljno pot

Danes zjutraj je odpotoval s svojim avtomobilom na daljno pot v Rock Springs, Wyo., pri ljubljani pomočnik pri fari sv. Lovrenca, Rev. Albin Gnidovec.

Nova iznajdba, ki bo ponovno zmanjšala praktično uporabo premoga

Hamburg, 18. junija. V tukajšnjih znanstvenih krogih so pravkar z uspehom preskusili uporabo novega materiala, ki se imenuje benzoil, in po katerem pripovedujejo, da bo izpodrinil paro kot gonilno sredstvo za stroje. Za pridobivanje pare so nad sto let doslej rabili vodo. Toda dočim se mora vodo razgreti do 100 stopinj Celzija, predno se začne kondenzirati ali zgoščevati in spreminjati v paro, pa se benzol zgosti že pri 69 stopinjah Celzija in spreminja v paro. Učinkovanje pare, ki se proizvaja po tej novi metodi je isti kot pare, ki se pridobiva iz vode. Benzol sam shlapi pri 80 stopinjah Celzija, toda če je pomešan z vodo, pa zadostuje 69 stopinj Celzija. In parni stroji, ki se sedaj rabijo, bi potrebovali le malo spremembo za rabo novega materiala. Računa se, da radi vporabe novega materiala, benzola, bo potreba toliko manj kurjave s premogom. Samo Nemčija bi si letno prihranila na premogu $625,000,000. Torej prihajajo slabi časi za premogarje.

Mnogo zlata pripravljene za Nemčijo

New York, 18. junija. V New Yorku kopičijo cele gore zlata, katerega nameravajo prepeljati v Nemčijo, da se dvigne nemški finančni kredit. Samo v New Yorku je pripravljenih $41,000,000 v zlatu. Tudi Francija je pripravljena pomagati, ker ve, da je položaj v Nemčiji resen. Kanceler Bruening je v Berlinu včeraj posvaril voditelje delavskih strank, češ, da bo on z ministri vred odstopil, ako zahtevajo, da se skliče izvanredno zasedanje nemškega parlamenta.

Nova podružnica

V sredo večer se je ustanovila nova podružnica S. Z. Zveze v Garfield Heights. Pristopilo je takoj 50 članic, kar je gotovo lepo število za tako malo naselbino. Mrs. Helen Tomažič in Mrs. Dolinar zaslužijo vse priznanje za organiziranje. Mrs. Albina Novak je sprejela nove članice in zapislega uradnice, ki so: predsednica Alojzija Zidanič, podpredsednica Mary Bates, tajnica Helen Tomažič, pomočna tajnica Jennie Pugel, blagajničarka Antonija Dolinar. Nadzornice: Ida Brožič, Frances Brice in Valentina Bizjak. Seje se vrše vsako drugo soto-to v mesecu v prostorih A. Zala, 8812 Vineyard Ave.

Delegatinje

Društvo sv. Ane št. 4 S. D. Z. je izvolilo sledeče sestre za delegatinje 7. konvencije S. D. Zveze: Mary Bradač, Genovefa Zupan, Frances Debeve, Ivana Gornik, Katarina Perme, Ana Erbežnik, Mary Skulj, Rose Konečnik, Frances Eršte. Namestnice so: Dorothy Sterniša, Mary Ausec, Ivana Krall. Za botrico nove društvene zastave, ki se bo blagoslovila 22. novembra pa je izvoljena petnajstletna predsednica društva in 6 letna podpredsednica Zveze, Mrs. Julija Brezovar. Iskrene čestitke!

Društvo Clairwood

Društvo Clairwood, št. 40 S. D. Z. je izvolilo sinoči za delegata 7. redne konvencije Jos. Kogoj, namestnik je Joseph Samsky.

Eno leto tarifa

Najprvo kratek uvod. Leta 1928, ko je Hoover kandidiral za predsednika Zedinjenih držav, je pred vsem drugim goreče povdarjal v svoji kampanji, da če bo on izvoljen, tedaj bo vsak ameriški delavec imel polno skledo leče in mesa vsak dan trikrat, kajti on bo upeljal visok tarif, ki je največja garancija prosperitete, katero nudi republikanska stranka v Ameriki.

Hoover je bil izvoljen, in v letu 1929 je nastopil svoj predsedniški urad. Takoj je republikanski kongres na prištok Hooverja začel delovati za visoki tarif, to je, da Amerika zahteva od vsega blaga, ki se uvaža iz tujih dežel v Ameriko, visoko colnino, misleč, da se tujezemsko blago ne bo uvažalo v Ameriko in bo v Ameriki toliko več dela, ker ne bomo kupovali tujezemskega blaga.

Skoro eno leto se je trudil predsednik Hoover s svojimi republikanskimi pomočniki v obeh zbornicah kongresa, da spravi visoko colnino pod streho. Posrečilo se je, da demokrati silovito protestirali, češ, da bo zavladala radi visokega tarifa strašna brezposelnost, ker se bodo radi tarifa selile ameriške industrije v druge države. Toda Hoover je prodril, republikanci so v kongresu zmagali.

Kljub silnemu protestu demokratov v kongresu smo dobili visoko colnino. In imamo jo, pa se je ne moremo znebiti. Medtem pa so zginili polni lonci leče in mesa, in po vseh širnih mestih Amerike srečujemo milijone — beračev, ki prosijo od drugih beračev zopet miloščine. Hoover je imel prav, ko je rekel, da če bo on izvoljen, bomo imeli vsi dovolj. Dovolj imamo vsi pomanjkanja in lakote, kot je ne pomni še ameriški narod v zgodovini.

Ravno 17. junija, 1930, je Hoover podpisal tarifno postavko, o kateri je rekel, da bo prinesla deželi boljše čase. Toda resnica je, da smo imeli lansko leto že slabe čase, resnica je pa tudi, da kakor hitro je bila podpisana nova tarifna postavka, da so se časi nemudoma poslabšali, in sicer baš iz vzroka, ker smo dobili Hooverjevo tarifno postavko. Gospodarska depresija je postala radi tarifa neznošna.

In predsednik Hoover je imel v svojem govoru v Indianapolisu toliko predrznosti, da je naznanil, da bo nadaljeval s svojo sedanjo politiko visokega tarifa. To je najbolj strašna novica, katero je mogel ameriški narod slišati ali moral poslušati. Pri taki izjavi predsednika Hooverja človek ne ve, ali mož absolutno ne pozna položaja in strašne krize, v kateri se Amerika nahaja, ali pa nalašč peha narod in deželo v pogubo. Najslabša novica, katero je slišal ameriški narod ta teden je gotova, da bo Hoover obstal pri visokem tarifu.

Vsak količnik upoštevan ekonomist ali gospodarski izvedenec, vsak trgovski voditelj, vsak boljši bankir vam bo takoj povedal, da gospodarska depresija ne bo zginila toliko časa, dokler se ne naredijo korenite izpremembe v republikanskem tarifu.

Sicer so pa Hooverja republikanski voditelji imenitno potegnili, s čimur je Hoover dokazal, da ni sposoben samostojno voditi ameriškega naroda, pač pa je podvržen slabim nasvetom upljivih republikancev, katerim je ljudski napredek in blagostanje ničla, privatni interesi pa vse. Hoover je tekom predsedniške kampanje v letu 1928 povdarjal, da je za revizijo tarifa, toda da bi podpisal tako nesramno visok tarif, kot je bil Hawley-Smoot tarif, povzročen od največjih kapitalistov republikanske stranke, tega niso niti njegovi nasprotniki pričakovali.

Hoover je s tem prekršil svojo dano besedo, požrl je obljube, ki jih je dajal tekom predsedniške kampanje. Skoro vse časopise je Hooverja prosilo naj ne podpiše visokega tarifa, dobil je milijone protestov, toda vse zaman. Hoover je na prizadevanje in prigovarjanje velekapitala podpisal visoki tarif in pogljal narod v največjo depresijo, kar jih pomnimo.

(Konec prihodnjic.)

DESETLETNICA DRUŠTVA SV. JOŽEFA ŠT. 169 K. S. K. J.

Poroča tajnik Paul Kogovšek

Prihodnjo nedeljo, 21. junija, da je vstrajal na takojšnjo praznujo desetletnico društva sv. Jožefa, ki je največje društvo v Collinwoodu, obenem pa tudi največje z obema oddelkoma pri K. S. K. Jednoti. Pred desetimi leti je naš tedanji župnik, Rev. Joseph Škur ustanovil to društvo, in da je iz malega postanka postalo društvo tako veliko, se moramo vsi skupaj zahvaliti vsem našim dosedanjim društvenim uradnikom.

Prvi predsednik je bil g. Alojzij Koželj, prva tajnica pa gospodična Mary Anžin, sedaj Mrs. Glinšek. Njej se ima društvo največ zahvaliti, da je takrat društvo sploh obstalo. Sploh ves prvi odbor zasluži pohvalo, da je vstrajal na takojšnjo praznujo desetletnico društva sv. Jožefa, ki je največje društvo v Collinwoodu, obenem pa tudi največje z obema oddelkoma pri K. S. K. Jednoti. Pred desetimi leti je naš tedanji župnik, Rev. Joseph Škur ustanovil to društvo, in da je iz malega postanka postalo društvo tako veliko, se moramo vsi skupaj zahvaliti vsem našim dosedanjim društvenim uradnikom.

Tretji predsednik je bil g. Karol Skebe, kateri je vzornovodil društvo skozi tri leta. Takratni tajnik je bil g. Ernest Trpin. Takrat je društvo stopilo en korak naprej. Bilo je leta 1925. ko je bil sklican Jednotin dan in takrat je naenkrat pristopilo par sto članov in članic pod zastavo KSKJ. To je bila katoliška manifestacija, ki je povzročila veliko društveno gibanje, iz katerega je izšlo društvo kot prerajeno.

je povzročila veliko društveno gibanje, iz katerega je izšlo društvo kot prerajeno.

Nadaljni tajnik je bil g. Fr. Matoh, kateri je uspešno vodil tajniške posle skozi dve leti.

Potem je prevzel predsedništvo g. Karol Krall, tajniške posle pa g. George Panchur. To sta vam bila dva agilna delavca na društvenem polju; oba sta storila, kar je bilo v njihovi moči in imela sta velik uspeh: vse delo sta vršila zgledno.

Niti eno društvo pri slovenskih jednotah sploh ne more pokazati takega napredka, kakor ga lahko pokaže naše društvo sv. Jožefa. S ponosom se lahko ozira nazaj na začetek in potem na vse ogromno delo, ki ga je vršilo. Že se nam sveti zarja, ki nam bo prinesla zlato klado.

Ta pomembna desetletnica se bo vršila po sledečem programu:

Dopolodne ob pol enajstih se zbiramo skupno z drugimi društvi pri Slovenskem domu na Holmes Ave. Potem odkorakamo k sv. maši, kjer se bo darovala sv. maša za vse žive in mrtve člane in članice našega društva. Prosi se hišne posestnike, da razobesijo zastave, kjer se bo vršila parada.

Po maši bo obed za zunanje goste v Slovenskem domu. Nadaljni program se bo po nadaljeval na Močilnikarjevi farmi, kjer bomo imeli piknik. Vse tiste, ki imate otroke pri društvu, se prosim, da jih gotovo pošljete k slavnosti popoldne, kjer bo vsak dobil znak brezplačno, da bomo tudi enkrat pokazali naše otroke, naš mladinski oddelek, ki je naše največje upanje. In tudi popoldne ne pustite otrok doma, ampak jih vzemite seboj na farme. Dajte jim malo veselja, katerega bodo imeli omenjeni dan v veliki meri. Vršile se bodo vsakovrstne tekme za otroke, zato pa vsi otroci na piknik, da se boste enkrat pošteno naskakali in ne boste tako hitro pozabili našega piknika. Vsem je zagotovljeno, da bodo imeli dovolj vsakovrstnih iger. Starši, dovolite vašim malim eno popoldne prostosti v senci košatih dreves. Kako smo bili mi veseli (seve) to je bilo v naši stari domovini, ko smo imeli dovolj prostora za vsakojake zabave. Naša mladina tukaj je pa takorekó privezana na ono ped zemlje, ki jo imamo okrog domov, zato se nima kje razvedriti. Ravno tako vsled tega vas poseben opominjamo, da jim privoščite vsaj eno popoldne prostega razvedrila, katerega se bodo gotovo poslužili v polni meri. Samo pustite jim, da se udeležijo našega piknika v nedeljo.

Poleg tega pa naj ne mislijo odrasli člani in članice, da ker bodo imeli otroci toliko zabave, da zanje ne bo ničesar. Le brez skrbi bodite — za vse bo dovolj proste zabave. V vseh ozirih bo vsega dovolj na razpolago. Za one, ki se radi zavrtijo, pa bo skrbel Turk orkester. Naš predsednik je bil že šel pokažati oni med, ki se cedi iz dreves in pravi, da je zelo dober in da bi najrajši vsega sam pospravil. Pa tega mi ne bomo pustili, vsi se zberimo tam gori, da ga bomo vsak nekaj deležni, ne pa samo on. In potice bodo pa menda tudi kar padale z dreves doli na nas. Ali bi ne bilo škoda, če bi kaj takega zamudili!

In to bi se bilo, če bi bili samo naši člani tam gori v senci hrastov. Ali veste, da pride iz Barbertopa kar celo društvo in več glavnih uradnikov? Potem nas bodo tudi obiskala naša sosednja društva, torej bo nekaj zelo zanimivega.

Mi vsa bratska društva iskreno vabimo, da se udeležijo te naše slavnosti. Zato se moramo pa tudi sami pokazati, da bodo tudi drugi videli, koliko nas je. Naše društvo šteje konec meseca v odraslem oddelku 715, v mladinskem pa 443 članov in članic. Za mesec junij jih je pa že sedaj 28 zdravniško preiskanih in kar dva para dvojčkov tako, da imamo danes že sedem parov dvojčkov. Katero drugo društvo se more ponášati z njimi! Da pa ne bodo druga društva rekla, da imamo člane in članice samo na papirju, zato se morate vsi udeležiti slavnosti dopoldne in popoldne pa piknika. V slučaju slabega vremena se bo vse vršilo v Slovenskem domu na Holmes Ave.

Busi bodo vozili na piknik in ker so slabi časi, bo vožnja tudi cenejša kot je bila to drugič.

Prav lepo in dostojno se je vršilo prvo sv. obhajilo otrok, kateri ne morejo priti v našo šolo, ampak morajo hoditi v javne šole, kjer ne slišijo o Bogu in ljubezni Zveličarjevi do malih ničesar. Učiti jih moramo radi tega najpotrebnejših naukov in resnic izven šole, kjer pa ni vselej lahko doseči to, da bi vsaj za silo spoznali božje resnice. Ni lahko, prvič zato, ker jih premalokrat moremo zbrati skupaj; drugič tudi zato, ker nekateri zelo neredno prihajajo celo tedaj, ko bi morali.

Vendar so ti otroci še lepo opravili prvo spoved in prešli sv. obhajilo primerno dostojno. Večina staršev je prišla z njimi, zakar jim bodi izrečena tudi iskrena zahvala. Celotno življenje se bodo otroci spominjali tega dne, kakor tudi dejstvo, "da sta me spremljala moj ata in mama prvokrat k mizi Gospodovi." Prav tako se bodo oni, katerih oče ali mati nista šla z njimi, zavedali celotno življenje žalostne resnice, da njih starši niso marali niti na ta dan približati se Jezusu v presvetem Rešnjem Telesu, da si jih On vabi: "Pridite k meni vsi, kateri se trudite in ste obteženi in jaz vas bom poživil!"

Dragi starši, prvoobhajancev! Pripeljite vaše male pogosto k Jezusu. Naj rastejo v Njegovem varstvu in ob Njegovem Telesu naj se njih nedolžno srce hrani in krepi, da ne zamori njih veselja in sreče greh. Le s pomočjo tega nebeskega kruha vam bo mogoče jih ohraniti dobre in poslušne in ubogljive. Pošiljajte jih redno h krščanskemu nauku, ki se zopet meseca septembra prične, da se bodo nadalje učili spoznavati Boga, to, kar so sedaj komaj pričeli.

Polna dvorana ljudi se je zbrala v nedeljo večer, da se posloviijo na dostojen način od Father Gnidovca, kateri odhaja po šestletnem bivanju pri sv. Lovrencu, danes proti državi Wyoming, kjer bo sprejel mesto župnika v slovenski župniji v Rock Springsu. Father Gnidovec se napoti na 1800 milj dolgo pot sam s svojim Fordom in upa v petih dneh dospeti na cilj. Nedeljska množica udeležencev pri poslovljenem večeru je pričala, da odhaja č. g. kaplan z najboljšimi voščili vseh faranov. Bog z Vami. Ko pa Vas bodo vodila pota na vzhod, ne pozabite, da so pri sv. Lovrencu srca in vrata vedno odprta za Vas.

Umestno pa je in zato mi bodi dovoljeno, izraziti iskreno zahvalo vsem sodelavcem na programu, zlasti našim vrlim pevskim društvom in njihovim pevovodjem. Bog plati!

Se eno zahvalo smo dolžni in to našim neutrudljivim č. šolskim sestram, ki istotako odhajajo za par mesecev ta teden. Učile so preteklo leto 645 otrok vsak dan in vse, kar je potrebno za dušo in telo. Poleg tega pa so poučevale ob nedeljah več sto otrok v krščanskem nauku, držale red med njimi in se zavzemale za njih splošni blagor. Bog bo za to vse plačnik enkrat. Če bi ne imele tega upanja, ne bi se žrtvovale za malo plačo, kakor se. Toda to je njih poklic, kateremu so posvetile svoje življenje in da bi mogele to sveto nalogo izvrševati tem bolje, odpovedale so se svetosti.

Upam, da se vse povrnejo čile, okrepane in z novimi živci, kajti ti trpijo največ pri delu, kakor je šola.

S sestrami v Adrian, Mich., odhaja Miss Mary Jakovčič, hčerka družine Jakovčič na 81. cestu. Mary je lansko leto graduirala iz 8. razreda v šoli sv. Lovrenca. Pohajala je eno leto v višjo šolo, nadalje pa se bo šolala pri sestrah v Adrian, kjer končno namerava tudi vstopiti v red sv. Dominika. Vsa leta v šoli sv. Lovrenca je bila Marica Jakovčič med najboljšimi učenkami. Vedno ubogljiva in krotka, si je pridobila vsestransko dobro voljo in naklonjenost učitelje, kot sorazrednikov. Marica je znala združiti vesel značaj s pametno pobožnostjo v najlepši meri. Zato vemo, da ji ne bo težko vztrajati v novih krogih in novem poklicu. Naj jo spremljata Mati Božja in njen angel varuh na celi poti življenja, da bo tudi zanaprej vedno vesela in srečna, kakor smo jo bili vajeni videti do sedaj. Staršem pa čestitamo na tem poklicu, ki ga je izbrala njih hčerka. Ali je mogoče bolj vzvišen poklic za deklice, kot je učiteljski in to iz ljubezni do Boga in neuhirjanih duš?

Smrt je krožila po fari. Vzela je najprej primeroma še mlado mater, še ne 40 let staro Mary Zabukovec v Maple Heights. Bila je bolna že več mesecev. Ko ni bilo pomoči doma, so jo odpeljali v bolnico. Pa komaj je dobro prišla tja, je zatislila trudne oči za vedno. Da je ta udarec hudo zadel družino, si lahko mislimo. Dasi ni ravno malih otrok, je izguba matere nenadomestljiva. Če verjamate al' pa ne.

Nekdo je bil obtožen umora in pripeljan pred sodnika. Sodnik ga vpraša:

"Kje imate svojega odvetnika?"

"Nimam nobenega, gospod sodnik, ker nimam denarja, da bi ga plačal."

(Ustava Zedinjenih držav govori, da plača tistemu, ki si ne more najeti odvetnika, država zagovornika in sodnik lahko v to imenuje kateregakoli odvetnika hoče.)

Zato se obrne sodnik do mladega odvetnika, ki je bil slučajno navzoč in mu reče:

"Gospod Zlobudra, pojdite z obtožencem v drugo sobo, izprašajte ga o vsej zadevi in mu dajte najboljši nasvet, ki ga morete dati."

Odvetnik se oddalji z obtožencem in pride čez pol ure nazaj — toda sam.

"Kje pa je jetnik?" vpraša sodnik.

"Well, gospod sodnik," počasi odgovori mladi odvetnik. "Obtoženec mi je razložil vso zadevo, radi katere ste ga prišli in jaz sem verno poslušal. Ko je bil gotov, sem jaz zbral skupaj svoje misli, potem sem mu dal pa najboljši nasvet, ki se mi je zdel v tem slučaju na mestu; rekel sem jetniku: 'Obtoženec, če bi bil jaz na tvojem mestu, bi jo jaz od tukaj popihal, kakor hitro bi mogel.' Obtoženec me je ubogal, je skočil skozi okno in sem ga ravnokar videl, kako jo je brisal čez bližnji hrib."

Neki hišni gospodar je nekoč doma pregledoval dežnike in je videl, da je vseh sedem pokvarjenih. Sklene, da jih prihodnje jutro ko bo šel na delo, vzame seboj in jih bo dal popraviti. To tudi stori in povedo mu, naj pride prihodnji dan ponje. Ko se torej drugo jutro vozi z ulično železnico na delo, se pri izstopu spozabi in zagradi za dežnik, ki ga je držala pred seboj postarana devica. Bil je namreč navajen, da je skoro vedno imel dežnik pri sebi in je tudi sedaj mislil, da je zgrabil svojega. Devica pa krčevito zgrabi za svoj dežnik in začne na glas vpiti, češ, da ji je hotel predrznež ukrasti dežnik. Komaj jo je ta potolažil z izgovorom, češ, da je mislil, da ima svoj dežnik pri sebi. S zaničljivim nasmehom: "Saj se poznamo!" se vsede lastnica dežnika nazaj na klopi, naš znanec pa izstopi.

Ko zapusti zvečer svoje delo, se oglasi za svojimi dežniki in res jih dobi vseh sedem. Krepko jih stisne pod pazduho in hiti na ulično železnico. Ko si išče prostor, pa zagleda svoje znanko od zjutraj, s katero sta se pulla za dežnik. Tudi ta ga zagleda in ko vidi toliko dežnikov pod njegovo pazduho, ga premeri od nog do glave, potem pa mu zbadljivo reče:

"Kakor se vidi, ste imeli danes dober plen!"

Pred sodnikom je stal nekdo, ki je bil obtožen, da je dvakrat ustrelil na nekega možaka. Napadeni je dobil neko pričo, ki je baje slišala streljanje. To pričo vpraša sodnik:

"Pravite, da ste slišali oba strela?"

"Oba, gospod sodnik."

"Kako daleč ste bili oddaljeni od prostora, kjer se je streljalo?"

"Ko je padel prvi strel, sem bil oddaljen kakih dvajset korakov."

"In ko je padel drugi strel?"

"Ko je padel drugi strel? Po pravici rečeno, gospod sodnik, da vam ne vem natančno povedati, koliko sem bil oddaljen pri drugem strelu — mislim pa da kake tri milje in pol."

EUCLID RIFLE and HUNTING CLUB.

L. H.

Naš klub se sedaj lahko postavi, ne samo s tem, da je bil prvi klub te vrste, ustanovljen v Ameriki in da je dobil večino zmag pri tekmah z drugimi strelskimi klubi, ampak tudi zato, ker ima sedaj naš klub prvaka v streljanju na leteče golobe. To se je zgodilo v nedeljo 14. junija na našem strelišču na Hribarjevem prostoru.

Naš prvak je Frank Turšič in je ustrelil s 25 strelji 25 golobov zaporedoma in se s tem pokazal, da je res pravi champion. Dobil bo za nagrado petak, katerega lahko naloži na banko na obresti, ali ga pa ob verni navzočnosti drugih jagrov daruje vinski bogovom. Dobil bo tudi krasen znak, katerega bo pa nosil samo toliko časa, dokler ga kdo drugi ne poseka v streljanju, to je, dokler kdo druge ne sklati 25 golobov.

Po streljanju se je zbrala okrog našega tabora gruča fantov in splošno se je zahtevalo, da se da našemu prvaku dostojna napitnica. Ko pa gre naš tajnik v ledenico, pa vidi, da so se vse steklenice posušile. Kdo jih je posušil, nihče ne ve. Nekateri so rekli, da je bil naš tajnik po potu napaden od roparjev, drugi so pa namigavali, da je bil Lojze tisti dan natreškan in je pripeljal na strelišče prazne steklenice mesto polnih. Pa naj bo tako ali tako, naš Brus je potem predlagal in je bilo tudi sprejeto, da se prihodnjo nedeljo za to posel najame aeroplan, da ne bo stvar tajnika motila.

Vabim in želim, da bi se prihodnjo nedeljo, 21. junija, udeležili člani v polnem številu streljanja in pripeljali seboj tudi svoje prijatelje in prijateljice.

Na raznjo bomo pekli dva mlada jagnjeta in da ne bodo v ledenici samo prazne steklenice, vam jamči Brus. Videli boste našega prvaka, kako se bo postavil s znakom, toda kakor se je bralo na Mlakarjevem obrazu, Francelj ne bo dolgo nosil tega znaka.

Zadnjo sredo na Močilnikarjevi farmi ni dosti manjkalo, pa bi bil Jim Šepic naš novi champion. Sklatil je 22 golobov zaporedoma, pri zadnjih treh je šla pa puška na štrajk. Nekaj se sumi, da mu je Mlakar podtaknil "blind patrone," ampak za gotovo se pa ne ve.

Frank Močilnikarju je pa puška zastrajkala pri 14. golobu, zraven tega ga je pa še brenila v roko, da je moral odnehati z nadaljnim streljanjem.

V nedeljo je bil izid streljanja sledeč:

Turšič	25
Mlakar	22
Gole	20
Hoffart	18
Dolenc J.	18
Bavetz	17
Prijatelj	16
Zabukovec	15
Bruss	14
Marn	13
Jerman	11
Klaus	9

V sredo smo pa streljali:

Mlakar	22
Šepic	22
Leonardi	20
Mandel	18
Jerič	18
Bruss	15
Rošel	15
Lausin	15
Zabukovec	15
Močilnikar	14
Marn	11

NARTE VELIKONJA

"Le poišči svojo pričo!"

Na vratih je srečal Blaž Tina.

"Oklice pišem, Blaž!" se mu je nasmehnil v hipni zadregi. Videlo se mu je, da ga je to srečanje neprijetno zadelo, kakor slabo znamenje. V njegovem srcu se je zbudila plaha slutnja. "Zmirom mi je na poti!" mu je šlo skozi misli. "To ne pomeni nič dobrega." Skušal se je narediti ravnodušnega in se je obvladal, da mu je drzno pogledal v oči: "Ali ne smem pisati oklicev?"

"Oklice? S Franco? Sin, zakaj pogubljaš mojo dušo!" se je pognal Blaž polglasno in skrivnostno. "K sodniku stopi. k sodniku stopi, še je čas!"

Tinetu se je zamajalo pred očmi. Njegov pogled je bil ujel ožek pramen, ki je svetil skozi špranjo iz kuhinje. "Tako bo enkrat nekaj šinilo na dan in bo posvetilo. In ne bom mogel utajiti. In ta človek bo sedel za menoj in mi bo pil moč!" mu je šlo skozi možgane.

"No, kaj pa je s tvojo pričo?" se je otrese, ko se je zavedel.

"Našel sem jo!" je zmagovalno potrdil Blaž, "in zdaj grem k njej. Obrni se, zdaj ta hip je še čas, da se obrneš! Ne boš srečno umrl. Ne boš v postelji umrl."

"Še nisem videl nebes odprtih!" se je smejal Tina. Toda njegov smeh je imel hladen zvok, kakor da ga zebe okoli srca.

"O, ne greši!" je kričnil Blaž ter se preplašeno ozrl.

Iz kuhinje je sijal ožek pramen v vežo.

Tine ga ni poslušal in stopil naprej.

Blaž pa je drugi dan pod večer šel po cesti iz Mačkovec proti Gornji Lendavi. Kmalu nad Otovci ga je ujela tema. Čudno tesno mu je bilo pri srcu med borovci ob cesti, noge so mu odpovedale. Šel je iz Murske Sobotice po velikem ovinku za Cankovo, da ga ne zalotijo orožniki. Na vrhu, kjer se mu je zasvetila luč iz vidonske državne šole, ga je obšla slabost, da je sedel.

"O, križani Bog, če tukaj umrem!" je vzdihnil ter omahnil na brežino, in se mu je zdelo, da pada, da pada v čudno temo.

In je stal pred sodnikom: "Nisem jaz kriv, Gospod! ... Jaz še nimam priče, da bi se izkazal."

In je stala ob strani ženska. "Pisala sem mu, naj pride," je rekla.

"Pisala mu je v mojem imenu," se je oglasil drugi glas, ki se mu je zdel čudno znan, kakor da ga je ravnokar že slišal.

"Pa ni prišel," je dejala ženska, zavita v rumeno haljo. "Nisem prišel!" je dejal Blaž skesan in skrušen v dušo.

"To je strašna priča!" je dejal Gospod.

"Obsodi me!" je padel Blaž na kolena pred silni blišč, ki je obdajal sodnika, "obsodi me, samo sina mi reši, ki sem ga še pred rojstvom, nerojenega, zapisal peklu, jaz oče nesrečni!"

In Blaž je vedel, da je pred božjim sodnikom.

Sodnik je odklonil z roko in so se s treskom zaprla nebeska vrata za njim.

Mrzel pot mu je stal na čelu, ko se je zbudil. Živo se še spominja, kako se je razklalo nebo in je sredi sija in blišča sedel sam Kristus z dvignjeno roko.

"Ne bom v postelji umrl!" se je zavedel, "videl sem nebesa odprta."

Školnik iz vidonske šole je stal ob njem ter mu svetil z lučjo v obraz. Zraven njega je stala obilna postavna ženska, podobna gostilničarkam in mesaricam.

"Kam pa, mož popotni? Slabo posteljo ste si izbrali?" je rekel školnik.

"Pokoro za pokoro!" je dahnil Blaž.

iz poljščine prevlel
DR. RUDOLF MOLE

(Nadaljevanje)

"Toda kaj naj storimo?" je vprašal kralj.

"Če ga pošljemo sedaj v Prusijo, se vzdigne za njim petdeset tisoč slahte in, še preden dospo do Pultavskega, ga razseka na drobne kose. . . Izvzemši, da mu damo celo armado za stražo, a tega ne moremo. . . Veličanstvo, ali slišite, kako tu-ljo tam. . . Resnično pravična je jeza proti njemu. Najprej je treba spraviti na varno njegovo osebo, a vse druge odposlati naprej, ko ugasne ta požar."

"Ni mogoče drugače!" je rekel kancler Koričinski.

"Toda kam naj ga spravimo na varno? Tu ga ne moremo držati, ker tu lahko, za vraga, izbruhne meščanska vojna," se je oglašil gospod vojvoda ruski.

Na to je pristopil gospod starosta kaluški Zamojski, napihnil počasi usta in rekel s svojo navadno mirnostjo:

"A! Kaj! Milostivi gospod! Dajte jih meni v Zamostje, naj posede tam do sklenjenega miru. Jaz jih že ubranim tam pred slahto. Naj mi jih le izkušajo iztrgati!"

"A po poti, kako jih ubrani vaša prevzišenost?" je vprašal kancler.

"Ha, naj se še brigam za dečke. Mar nimam pešcev in topov? Naj jih le poizkusijo iztrgati Zamojskemu, videli bomo!"

"Ni drugega izhoda," je rekel kancler.

"Tudi jaz ga ne vidim," je dodal gospod Lanckoronski.

"Torej vzemite jih, gospod starosta," je rekel Zamojskemu kralj.

Toda Wittemberg, ki je spoznal, da ne grozi nič več njegovemu življenju, je pričel ugovarjati:

"Ne, tega nismo pričakovali," je rekel.

Na to je pokazal gospod Potocki z roko v daljavo in dejal:

"Torej prosim, ne zadržujmo, pot je prosta!"

Wittemberg je umolknil.

V tem je razposlal kancler nekoliko oficirjev, da razglase razburjeni slahti, da Wittemberg ne odide svobodno, marveč ga pošljejo v Zamostje. Hrup se sicer ni takoj pomiril, vendar je novica delovala pomirljivo. Preden se je stemnilo, so se misli obrnile v drugo stran. Vojaki so začeli hoditi v mesto in pogled na dobljeno mesto je napolnil vse duše z radostjo zmagoslavja.

Veseli se je tudi kralj. Vendar ga ni malo mučila misel, da ni mogel dobesedno držati pogojev, a vznemirila ga je tudi večna nediscipliniranost črne vojske.

Čarnecki se ni mogel pomiriti od jeze.

"S tako vojsko ni mogoče nikoli biti porok za drugi dan," je rekel kralju. "Včasih se bi jejo slabo, včasih junaško, vse je odvisno od domišljije; če jih pa kdo naščuva, je vstaja gotova."

"Bog da, da se ne začno razhajati, zakaj še so potrebni," je rekel kralj.

"Povzročitelj tega nemira bi morali raztrgati s konji, ne oziraje se na njegove dosedanje zasluge!" je nadaljeval Čarnecki.

Nato je izšel strog ukaz, naj poiščejo gospoda Zaglobo, ker nikomur ni ostalo tajno, da je on dvignil vihar, toda gospod Zagloba je izginil kakor bi bil utonil v vodi. Iskali so ga v mestu, v šotorih, v taboru, še celo med Tatari, povsod zaman. Tizenhauz pa je pripovedoval, da je vedno dobri in milostivi kralj želel iz vse duše, da bi ga ne našli in da je radi tega še celo opravljal devetdnevno.

Čez teden dni po nekem obedu, ko je kralju zaigralo srce od veselja, so se slišale iz ust Jana Kazimirja sledeče besede:

"Razglasite povsod, naj se gospod Zagloba ne skriva več, ker mi je že dolgčas po njem in njegovih salah!"

Ko se je kijevski kaštelan temu upiral, je pripomnil kralj:

"Kdor bi imel v tej ljudovladi v svojem srcu samo pravico-ljubnost, a ne usmiljenja, ta bi moral nositi v svojih prsih kamen na mestu srca. Za krivdo je tu lažje nego kje drugje, toda tudi popoljšanje ne nastopi nikjer tako kmalu."

Pri teh besedah je imel še bolj v mislih Babiniča nego Zaglobo, a na Babiniča je mislil radi tega, ker je mladi junak baš prejšnjega večera pokleknil pred kralja s prošnjo, da bi mu ne bilo zabranjeno iti na Litvo. Pravil je, da hoče tam oživiti vojno in napadati Švede, kakor je svoj čas napadal Hovanskega. In ker je imel kralj itak namen poslati tja vojaka, izkušenega v napadalni vojni, je torej dovolil, ga blagoslovil in mu zašepetal še neko željo na uho; nato se je mladi vitez vrgel k negovim nogam, kakor je bil dolg.

Draga, nikdar pozabljena mamica! Že dve leti Te krije črna zemlja, a spomin na Te še vedno živi v naših srcih in nikdar ne bomo pozabili Tvoje blage materine roke, ki nas je vzgojila. Počivaj v miru, ljubljena mamica.

Potem je krenil brez obotavljanja takoj proti vzhodu. Supanhazi, ki si ga je pridobil z znatnim darilom, mu je dovolil, da je smel vzeti s seboj še petsto dobrih ordincev; z njim je torej jezdilo poldrug tisoč ljudi, dobrih, sila, s katero je vsaj mogel kaj početi. In junaška glava mu je gorela od hrepene-nja po bojih in vojnih činih, smejala se mu je nada po slavi: slišal je že, kako izgovarja vsa Litva s ponosom in občudovanjem njegovo ime. Slišal je zlasti, kako govorijo ena ljubljena usta, in duša je dobivala krila.

In tudi radi tega se mu je tako mudilo, da bi mogel, kamor bi prišel, prvi prinesiti novico, da je Šved pobit in Varšava vzeta. Kjer so zatopotala kopita njegovega konja, tam so vse okolice odmevale od teh besed, tam ga je narod pozdravljaj z jekom na cestah, tam so pozvanjali zvonovi po cerkvah. Če je jezdil po gozdih, so temne smreke, če je jezdil po poljih, so zlatni žitni klasi, od vetra valovani, ponavljali radostno in veselo šumljaje:

"Šved je pobit! Varšava je vzeta! Varšava je vzeta!"

XV.

Dasi je bil Ketling blizu osebe kneza Boguslava, vendar ni vedel vsega in ni mogel vsega povedati Kmiticu, kar se je godilo v Tavrogih, ker ga je slepilo, ko je bil sam zaljubljen v Bilevičevu.

Boguslav pa je imel tudi drugega zaupnika, namreč gospoda Sakoviča, ošmianskega starosta, in ta edini je vedel, kako globoko je zabredel knez v ljubezen do svoje hvaležne varovanke in kakšna sredstva je porabljal, da bi se polastil njene-ga srca in osebe.

Ta ljubezen pa je bila navadna pekoča strast, zakaj drugih čustev ni bilo zmožno Boguslavovo srce, a tako silna, da je ta v ljubezenskih zadevah izkušeni vitez izgubil glavo. In marsikdaj zvečer, ko sta sedela sama s Sakovičem, se je grabil Boguslav za lase in vzklikal:

ALL GRADUATES Invited to Reunion Banquet Sunday

Ray J. Grdina Says

A COMPLAINT
Well, we've been waiting for it—and we got it. And—no kidding—we are mighty glad that somebody has taken us to task for not publishing more news pertinent to our host of out-of-town readers and subscribers. However, until such time as someone in these outlying communities volunteered his services as contributing editor we were helpless to do anything about it, in as much as limited finances makes it impossible to establish staff reporters in these districts. There, too, unfamiliarity with the particular individuals would make a personal selection of a correspondent a hazardous and well nigh impossible task.

You can see, then, why we so heartily relished the complaint proffered by Joseph Rosa of Canton, O., for it not only called our attention to the matter, but will also be read by other out-of-towners who may take it upon themselves to see that doings in their particular city are recorded in this paper. As we explained before, it is only in this way that we can fully keep in touch with activities in Slovenian settlements other than Cleveland.

To date, only Miss Albina Gabrenya of Euclid, O., has been contributing regularly, and all the Euclid news items you see in this section are the result of her work. Now that the matter has been brought to public attention, we will make it a point to establish contributing editors in every possible locality, which will give us—and the readers—an unlimited source of news.

As soon as these connections have been made, the correspondent's name, address and telephone number will be published in the paper. It is hoped then, the people of the community will call in all their news items to this representative who will turn them into the paper. Undoubtedly, with such cooperation, the American Home Junior will become a bigger and better paper.

A Champion
Your scrivener is not the person to be impressed by personages whether the individual be president, king or pauper. But, Max Schmeling, heavyweight champion of the world, dented our journalistic armor and made a lasting impression, not as Max Schmeling, heavyweight champ, but as Max Schmeling, man.

Not only is the crown bearer a personage, he is a personality. There is something about his whole-hearted willingness to learn the English language and to make new friends, that captured our fancy. Then, too, he is exceptionally proud of his nationality and intimates an abhorrence of anyone who fails to acknowledge his ancestry. To use his own words, "If you are a Slovenian, say you are a Slovenian."

Vastly different is Schmeling from his entourage, who, evidently, are sick and tired of being cornered by curious newspaper scribes. Schmeling, on the other hand, offers them an open-arm welcome—at least he did us—and after shooting a poor round of golf, too!

HITHER AND THITHER
MEMORY TEST: or how old are you? . . . Remember the day you graduated from grade school? . . . and what a "big shot" you thought you were? . . . and how proudly you carried home that diploma? . . . which you would not give up for all the money in the world? . . . and the parading air with which you showed it to those "little sixth and seventh graders"? . . . and pitted the Junior High students because they didn't get to graduate?

We must be getting old, or maybe it was the weather. Anyhow, we splashed our way out to Mentor last Saturday to do a little tephosphore at the pop dance spot. The music was "hot," the floor smooth and the partners capable, but somehow, we failed to be impressed. Possibly the fact practically 90 per cent. of the dancers were in the ungainly teens had something to do it. Honestly, we never knew there was so much diploma material in the whole state! Giggling girls dangling on the arms of lads with faces virgin of razor traces encompassed, surrounded and—permit us—bored us. Ah, the inroads of Father Time!

JUNIORITIES: Ripley's "Believe It Or Not" . . . "She'll be Comin' Round The Mountain" . . . and "Steamboat Bill," revived and revamped tunes . . . Radio equipped autos . . . Arthur Roche, scrivener . . . Sherlock Holmes broadcasts.

And what has become of our vaunted sales resistance! At the writing, we have ordered a book which purports to answer any and all questions. We must tread more cautiously or some day we shall be coming home with a white elephant, or, like Jake, the Statue of Liberty!

By a way of getting a little mud bath, now that we have accustomed ourselves to Sunday rains, we journeyed east to Kokomo Grove, where we put in a most enjoyable afternoon, watching sheriff Frank Verbie struggling with a piece of linoleum. After considerable effort, much unsolicited advice (and little help) from numerous bystanders, and two or three misfires, he finally managed to make it come out right. Our advice to him is to stick to his sherrifing and let interior decorating to the spouse.

CANTON STUDENT WINS AWARD AT M'KINLEY HIGH

By JOE ROSA

CANTON, O.—Two Slovenian graduates of McKinley High school, this city, are Miss Agnes Dacar and Mr. Frank Odar. Frank has the distinction of carrying off the prize offered to the best industrial student by the Chamber of Commerce. It is quite an honor, considering the fact that approximately one-third of the 622 who graduated were eligible for the prize. Congratulations!

Stanley Odar, a student of Case School of Cleveland is now on "location" at Waynesburg with some of his fellow engineers. We are eagerly looking forward to his return when we hope to be regaled with tales of "kolitch" life.

Frank Dacar, erstwhile president of the McKinleyites, SNPJ, and young man about town, and yours truly are earnestly endeavoring to organize a local baseball team. So far its been Oh Yeah? and Poo! Bah!, but more anon.

S. O. S.

Save our shirt. All you people who live in and near Canton, O., step forward with your news of social affairs, jokes or pranks played on your friends—anything that might be of interest to the readers. Any and all help will be appreciated. Lets make the Canton column a success. Address all communications to Joseph Rosa, 1824 Vine Ave. S. W., Canton, O.

One of the young ladies of Canton's younger set recently received a pair of shoes. That's nothing. People get shoes almost every day. But, here's the rub. It is rumored that the shoes were a peace offering from her husband who had attended an all-night poker party the previous night. An idea for you, girls.

Andy Dacar of Holloway, O., and recently a visitor in Canton explains why they can't grow watermelons in Iowa. The vines grow so fast that they wear out the melloons dragging them over the ground, he says.

It was this way. Last Sunday, the Friends Club, composed of Canton and Middlebranch Slovenians, held a picnic at Middlebranch, O. The previous week, in anticipation of this great event, the entertainment committee, with some misgivings and at a great expense, contrived to get a few gallons of the waters of Lethe which they immediately buried in the innermost depths of the woods. Business of a few sunsets and sunrises. Came Sunday morning. With a blithesome song on their lips and a springy step the committee repaired to the woods. Ceremony of unearthing. Nothing. Thidg deeper. Still nothing. In consternation they realize that someone had been privy to their deep dark secret. Was the picnic ruined? But not by dear children. We have it on the best authority that the committee rose nobly to the occasion and the picnic was a success after all.

Johnny Gribbons Returns to His Birthplace in Minnesota
Johnny Gribbons, popular Slovenian musical maestro, is leaving Cleveland Sunday evening for Ely, Minn., his home town, where he expects to put in most enjoyable vacation. The duration of his visit is indefinite, he informs us.

Accompanying Johnny on the trip will be Mr. and Mrs. Jack Skrljanc, also of Ely. The party will make the long trip by automobile. The popular band leader has not been back to the old home town for over 13 years and is looking forward to the return. While there, he will make his home with relatives and will spend his time fishing, sleeping and playing any engagements he may come across.

Invitations for the wedding have also been sent to relatives and friends in Illinois, Kansas and Wisconsin. The family of the bridegroom-to-be is originally from Wenona, Ill.

Mr. Widmar is the assistant chief

SPARTANS PLAN BIG REVUE FOR MOONLIGHT RIDE

An elaborate bit of novel entertainment will be sponsored by the Spartans on Thursday evening, July 9 when they present the Spartan's Show Boat in conjunction with a moonlight ride.

It is the first time any local organization is sponsoring an elaborate revue in connection with a regular moonlight boat ride. The revue will not interfere with dancing to the regular ship's orchestra, as it will be held during the intermissions.

Appearing in this presentation are Ken and Dorothy Williams, Rhythm Boys, tap dancers; Turkovich sisters in harmony singing; John Menart, comedian, and Celeste and Rudy, popular Spartan songbirds.

Tickets are already on sale among the members of the club. Admission will be only 50 cents. Get yours now and watch for further details in the coming editions of this paper.

Students Speak at Commencement Exercises at School

EUCLID, O.—Last Sunday the first graduation exercises of St. Christine's school were held here with quite elaborate ceremonies. In the morning the graduates received communion in a body, following which breakfast was served them, their parents and friends.

Diplomas were presented in the evening by the Rev. A. L. Bombach, pastor, with a large audience attending. Besides the pastor, Dr. A. Skur, Mr. John Gabrenya and Mr. Charles Fox gave short addresses. Two of the graduates, Helen Fox and Mary Coprich, also made speeches. A playlet was presented by the school children.

The Euclid Troubadours furnished music between the acts and for the dancing which followed.

Mrs. Mihaljevic is the wife of Marjan Mihaljevic, of the Mihaljevic Bros. Steamship Agency.

UTOPIAN ROAST

Affair at Cugel's Farm, Geneva, O., Featured Dancing, Sports and Cards

Perhaps the Utopians are trying to make all those who did not attend their wiener roast at Geneva, O., Sunday, sorry and jealous.

They say that they had the best time in the history of the club, and they truly had an ample supply of wieners on this occasion.

The affair took place on Cugel's farm, with a divers program of dancing, music, sports and cards.

OLD-TIMERS GET TOGETHER AT GRDINA'S HALL SUNDAY NIGHT

Arcadian Melody Pilots to Play for Dancing Following Banquet Prepared by Mrs. Fabian; Committee Hopes to Have Former Teachers Present

Another milestone in the history of the St. Vitus' parish will be passed Sunday, when the combined graduating classes of the local school meet at a reunion banquet at Grdina's hall. This reunion, the first of its kind ever to be staged, will no doubt be the forerunner of a better mutual understanding between the parish and the younger folks.

All arrangements are set: Mrs. Fabian will be the cook for

THIRTEEN SCOUTS TO BE HONORED AT COURT OF AWARDS

Thirteen members of the Silver Fox tribe are to receive promotion to higher ranks tonight at the St. Clair Bathhouse at a court of awards.

The presiding judge at this court of awards will be Dr. James W. Mally, chairman of the tribe committee. Mr. F. M. Jaksic will serve as first-class rank awarding judge.

The principal address of the evening will be delivered by Mr. Malcolm C. Douglas of the Scout headquarters and the director of the Cleveland Boy Scout camp. An invocation will be pronounced by the Rev. A. Andrew, assistant pastor of St. Vitus' church.

Three members will also receive the scoutmasters award for leadership, advancement and all-round scouts. The names, however, are kept secret and will not be disclosed until tonight.

The new officers of the tribe also will be installed at this ceremony. The officers for the coming season are: Victor Anderson, tribe chief; Teddy Sulak, assistant tribe chief, and James Gornik, scribe.

Following these ceremonies, the scouts will present a short entertainment. All parents relatives and friends of the scouts are invited to attend these ceremonies. The program will begin at 8:30 p. m.

O. I. MNOZY LOOKS OVER GENEVA-ON-THE-LAKE

No doubt many of you will at some time or other this summer pay a visit to our neighboring summer resorts, and it is for the purpose of acquainting our readers with the various attractions offered at these places that we have sent our reporters to some of them. O. I. Mnozy this week gives his impressions of Geneva-on-the-Lake.

The Pier, the resort's largest dance hall . . . Cliff Smith's 25-piece orchestra . . . Hot music . . . Beach pajamas seem to be in vogue for dancing . . . Informal very, easy to pick out a partner . . . The sensation of having a blond bum you for a cigarette . . . "Oh those Wabash Blues" . . . No dance hall inspectors, dance any way you feel like . . . A large miniature golf course all lit up . . . The narrow road full of cars . . . Refreshment stands bordering the walks . . . Lover's lane, admission to couples only . . . The Casino, another dance hall, the music here is terrific . . . Shirt sleeves predominate . . . cooling breezes . . . A white sanded beach, still occupied . . . Girls and more girls . . . Any size, shape or shade, take your choice . . . Trim cottages all lit up . . . parties going on everywhere . . . Ukes, victrolas and radios . . . Blue shirts and plain white ties . . . In the crowd . . . Fast, snappy and young.

FIELD DAY SUCCESS

House Council Affair Provides Entertainment for Youngsters

The Field Day sponsored by the St. Clair Bathhouse Council last Saturday, turned out to be a complete success, both in the matter of attendance, and in the good time enjoyed by the promoters and participants.

Twenty prizes were distributed to the winners in the many events, that were part of the program. Enough peanuts, popcorn, candy and popcorn balls were distributed to feed a young army.

The following had charge of the program and contributed to its success: Messrs. John Richter, "Butch" Sulak, John Blalco, Joe Kubilus and "Heinie" Martin, and Miss Vera Kushlan.

Another Field Day will be held in the near future.

Honeymooning?
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Perusek are driving to Niagara Falls and will make a short tour of Canada for their vacation. The couple will be gone all of next week.

Mr. Perusek, a graduate of St. Vitus, is manager of the Stern Furniture Co.

Patron Saint Mass

The Rev. B. J. Ponikvar announces that a solemn high mass will be sung Sunday at 8 o'clock, in honor of the feast of St. Vitus, patron of the church.

This is the last time that the feast will be celebrated in the old church.

the chicken dinner which will start the affair off at 6:30; following the banquet, which will be marked by the brevity of its speeches, there will be dancing in the adjoining hall to the strains of the Arcadian Melody Pilots. Yes, everything is all set for one of the biggest times you've had since the teacher "interviewed" you in the cloakroom.

If at all possible, all sisters who taught eighth graders at the Glass Ave. institution will be present at the affair to renew acquaintances with their former wards.

Much time and effort has been put in the movement by various class committees headed by reunion officers Joe Jarc, Frances Zulch, John Speh and Mildred Milavec and it is hoped a large turnout of "old timers" crowns their efforts with success.

Bits About Them

West Park, we hear you calling! At any rate it is our distinct pleasure to present one of that community's leading citizens today. Here she is.

MISS MOLLY F. KOZELLY
You've not only heard of her, but have heard her. She's appeared on all the local squawk stations, on Slovenian Radio Star, Grdina Hour, as well as on the stages of the various Slovenian National Homes.

Was born early in December, the first to be precise, in the year of 1911 and she attends Cleveland college where she is continuing her studies in French and Italian.

Has a beautiful mezzo-soprano voice and has won prizes both for music and singing and is a graduate of West Tech and the West Side Musical College. Has studied music and voice under profs Philips, Kluga and Kreiselman.

Plays tennis remarkably well and drives her father's Ford—when she can get it. She gets it, too—when she beats her two sisters and three brothers to the garage!

Likes a little of plain expensive jewelry, apples, chicken and the scribbling works of Kathleen Norris and Rath, and psychology. Green is her favorite color.

Member of the Cleveland Grand Opera and the Stadium opera, formerly warbled for the Ohio Grand Opera, ambition is to make the Met Op grade and they call her the nightingale of West Park.

Won complete wardrobe for evening wear in music contest staged at the Cland pub library and she wears a diamond on her right finger, the mounting for which she designed, herself.

Has a weakness for souvenirs and appropriates anything from a toothpick to a Baby Grand when occasion presents itself and she has tantrums over the color blue in any shade.

Steady patron at show spots, frequenting them between classes and she enjoys formal affairs, banquet dinners and lectures. Ramon Novarro gives her heart palpitations and she is That Way about pop film frolics, Norm Shearer.

Hates blond men but likes the company of dark and red headed boys sings in church choir and corresponds regularly with one of the males at New Yawk University.

Has acquired an exceptional fondness for flowers lately, and only a certain florist can tell you why. Cooks and sew like a veteran and is always cast in the comic and "tough" roles in the Danica Dramatic Club's plays.

Hasn't been around much, but expects to get in her share of seeing America first before father time calls her out. Likes to go on extensive "window shopping" tours.

Prefers to wear sport clothes exclusively for day time, and has a evening gown of latest fashion for every day in the week. Uses Johnson's special individually blended powder and she attires herself plainly and attractively.

Jet black naturally wavy hair, piercing black eyes and tiny cupid bow lips and is a most welcome guest at all social affairs. Always assists the hostess with serving and dishwashing.

Never has to be coaxed to entertain and amuse the other guests with vocal and piano numbers and recently registered for a gym course at Mrs. Sach's female edition of the famous Sach's health emporiums.</

Voice From the Stands

By EDDIE KOVACIC
Junior Sports Editor

FROM ALL appearances, it seems the Voice has been one-half right in harping about a local natural bout, supporting the Herr Maxie Schmeling-Willie Stribling Jr. affair on the eve of the famous Fourth. This natural, of course, to my humble mind, saw Frankie Simms and Johnny Risko tangling for the city and state title.

But with the repugnant attitude of Danny Dunn, leading voter of the Risko combine, such a bout is just a myth. Danny realizes his baker boy is still in for some heavy dough, and to shoot him in against the sporty Simms' right, might be suddenly detrimental to the earnings of his meal ticket. All in all, Danny had too much respect for Frankie's hitting potentialities to be jeopardizing the Rubber Man who has been knocked out only once, and that a technical by the present holder of the heavy-weight crown, Herr Maxie, himself.

Instead of meeting the home town boy, Frankie is scheduled to go to war against the highly touted New Jerseyite, Stan Poreda. So you see we are half right, when we suggested a Simms-Risko go some time before, as Frankie will at least see action on the big night.

And half a loaf is better than none at all, Adolph!

MAYBE YOU DIDN'T KNOW
(and what if you did!)

That Stanley P. Zupan is the proud owner of a miniature golf course on E. 165th St. off the Lake Shore Boulevard, and issued passes to head boss Ray Jay and yours truly, for a round of tee-hee.

That Stevie Bernardie, Western Reserve football and basketball star and junior class president, is an instructor at East Madison playground for the coming summer.

That 400 seats are being reserved for "Doljack Day."

That despite rumors the Farah Sports, major indoor team, was to break up, the squad is well on its feet again and looms as a contender for the 1931 title.

That "Smiling" Pat Marsh, Perry League prexy, is accepting new candidates in his loop daily, so much so that he is now considering closing the roster.

That the coming card at the new lake front stadium will be comprised completely of heavyweights, with Schmeling and Stribling, of course, you zilches—heading the list.

That the American Home Junior is the only foreign paper, besides a local German paper, to be placed on the publicity list of Mr. Hall of the Madison Square Gardens corporation. Said list includes about 1,000 newspapers throughout the United States.

That about 500 people appeared at the new stadium in hope of securing an usher's job for the championship fight and that about one-half of these will be hired.

FRANKIE SIMMS FIGHTS NAP JACK DORVAL

EDDIE YERSE WINS PLACE IN HALL OF FAME DURING WEEK

Comrade Twirler Hurls No-Hit Ball in Downing Progressives, 9 to 0

MANY UPSETS RECORDED

Choppers Stop Young Men; Orels Upset Loyalties; Seven Games Played

It happened just as we predicted last week regarding the George Washingtons and Orels in their game against the SYMC and the Loyalties. The former two clubs fought tooth and nail and overcame both the favorites. Washingtons, beating the Young Men 7 to 2, while the Loyalties lost 3 to 1. Eddie Yerse followed in Bill Simms' footsteps by being the second inter-Lodge hurler to enter the select circle by holding the Progressives hitless as the Comrades won, 9 to 0. The Boosters easily downed Betsy Ross as did the Pioneers the Clairwoods in their regular scheduled games.

George Washingtons 7, SYMC 2. Last Wednesday at Gordon Park, the SYMC took the worst drubbing in many a moon when the Washingtons registered seven times, while the losers could only score twice off Tony Kubilus' slants. Aided by the fact that only nine men were on the field at the start of the game the Washingtons jumped on Frank Yerse for four runs in the initial frame and never relinquished this lead.

The Young Men tallied both their runs in the eighth. Herbie Scheller with three singles led both sides in hitting, while Kubilus permitted the losers only five scattered hits.

Orels 3, Loyalties 1. In a well played contest last Tuesday, the Orels gave the Loyalties their third defeat of the year, although the losers outthit their opponents nine to five with the only extra base hits going to Gaski, both doubles. Max Sodja received his first setback of the current season when the Orels scored once in the second and twice in the fifth, while the Loyalties could cross home plate only once, being held down by Frank Zabukovec's stellar mound performance. Gaski with three hits and Max Sodja with two, were the only hitmits to garner more than one hit.

MEETING

An important meeting of the Inter-Lodge League is to be held Friday night, June 16 at the St. Clair Bathhouse, according to President "Heinie" Martini. All ten managers are requested to be there at 6:15 sharp.

Comrades 9, Progressives 0. Riding high on a crest of a wave, Eddie Yerse sailed right into a no-hit victory, by striking out 16 of the Progressives and forcing the rest to send out weak pop flys and grounders, as the Comrades were getting nine runs for 9 to 0 victory, to remain among the topnotch teams in the leagues standing.

Besides pitching shut-out ball, Eddie was the only batter to get more than one hit, getting two hits in the collection of eight blows produced by the winners. The melee was also featured by the fact that the only hits of the game were all singles.

Pioneers 5, Clairwoods 1. Although the Pioneers were held to three hits, they made these hits count for five runs and thereby defeated the Clairwoods, 5 to 1 in a Sabbath day skirmish. In the meantime the Clairwoods were collecting four hits, but only one man was able to dent home plate, that in the fourth inning, J. Zupancic, Clairwoods' keystone ace, garnered two of his team's hits, while Pitcher Metz, along with hurling consistently, got one of his team's three safeties.

Boosters 8, Betsy Ross 4. By beating the Betsy Ross flag-makers to the tune of 8 to 4, the Boosters broke into the winning column after five futile attempts, showing the flagmakers deeper into the cellar position, as they have to win a game yet.

Leadoffman Karish paced both attacks by smashing out three sizzling singles, while his teammate Koren came through with two hits, so between them they got half of their teams 10 hits.

Pitching a fine brand of baseball, Gule permitted only four hits, while breezing 15 of the losers.

In postponed matches last Friday, the George Washingtons drubbed Betsy Ross, 12 to 3, and the Orels trounced the Progressives, 13 to 1.

Pate was the hitting luminary of the Washington-Betsy Ross affair as he cracked out three hits. Birchle Kromar patted one of Holwenko's fast ones for four bases.

Everybody was hitting on the Orel team as they pounded out 18 hits to drive S. Trebec of the mound forcing the Progressives to send in Petov, who was belted just as hard as his predecessor. Three moundsmen performed for the victors. Jerry starting, being relieved by Zabukovec who later gave way to Orazem.

Another one of the neighborhood's army of baseball greats or near greats will forsake the ranks to become a benedict. This time it's Eddie (Pecjak) Solomon who gained fame as a second-sacker for the Cleveland Yankees and the King's Jolly Pals, both championship teams. Eddie will do the middle aisle with Edith Zalelei tomorrow.

"If You Are a Slovenian, Say You Are a Slovenian—REPORTER INTERVIEWS CHAMP and Be Proud of It!"—Max Schmeling, Titleholder

By JOHNNY KOVACIC

AN INTERVIEW with the champion! Picture of a scowling man, surrounded by an impenetrable barrage of newspaper men, camera men, and last, but not least, police flashed through our mind. So it was with some misgiving that we took the assignment.

Bundling a chauffeur, and a body guard (Stan Kromar) into a machine, we headed out east to the scene of training. No mishap and we arrived at Conneaut Lake Park, Pa., safe and sound—in body, if not in mind. Much questioning, more directions and we finally arrived at the champ's roped-off and policed cottage. Coming in the back way we missed the minion of the law. He spied us and called a halt, demanding credentials and our business—if any. Satisfied, he informed us Herr Maxie was not at home and that we might return in an hour, which we did with the same result—no Maxie, no Jacobs, no nothing.

Out Golfing

THE OFFICER then advised a trip to the golf course. The search proved fruitful, and we came upon the champion in golf togs, teeing off at the tenth hole. However, the Teuton does not mix golf with interviews, we were notified, and we were obliged to wait till he finished. A strong finish, too. A beautiful recovery from the rough which laid the ball dead to the pin.

We cornered Machon, Schmeling's personal interpreter, as the group left the course and he invited us to the cottage where we made ourselves at home on the spacious porch overlooking the lake. After washing up Schmeling came out and gave us the once over. Tanned to the nth degree the defender looked in perfect physical condition and every inch a champ.

He proved to be a most genial host and put on a display of hospitality for which his people are noted. We told him we represented a Slovenian daily and he immediately blossomed out into a winning smile and asked: "Kak se imas?" Right, we answered in a chorus: "Dobro!"

Likes Training Site

SCHMELING expressed his pleasure with his training site and ventured a guess that it was better than Stribling's. Incidentally that was the only mention made of the challenger during the interview. We mentioned Risko and Max said he was a good man, but had seen his best days. Somehow or other, money entered into the discussion and from what he said we gathered that when the day comes that he hangs up his gloves, he'll have a tidy little sum laid aside. Smart boy, that.

We edged the conversation around to Frankie Simms. Schmeling said he had never heard of him, but asked one of the training staff, who informed him Frankie was a fair fighter who had a rather impressive string of knockouts to his credit.

Sandwina a German
THIS LEAD to Frankie's knockout of Ted Sandwina and the strong woman's son in particular. The Rhinelander informed us that Sandwina was born in Germany, but had moved to America, and refused to admit he was foreign born. Sandwina was a very good prospect, Schmeling said, but has met with plenty of reverses lately and he (Schmeling) believed that fate was against his fellow countryman because Ted won't admit his European heritage. Schmeling said: "If you are a Slovenian, say you are a Slovenian—and be proud of it!"

As we mentioned before, the champ is in perfect condition and seems not a bit worried about his coming encounter with Double Yell Stribling. His sparring partners are experiencing difficulty standing up under his barrage of fists, we were informed, and it is evident that next week will see openings for some nice, young, energetic men, who like their punishments in large doses.

Come Again

THE INTERVIEW as the whole was one of the most pleasant informal visits we've ever spent, Schmeling impressing us as likeable fellow, who is conscientious about his work and tries to perform all his tasks to the best of his ability. It really was with deep regret that we said good night, although his invitation to come back again and bring copies of the paper with us (he wanted to send them to a friend of his in Europe) wound things up just right.

Who's going to win the fight? Who cares? Win or lose, Schmeling is a champion!

LEADERS FAVORED IN WEEK'S INTER-LODGE PAIRINGS

With the first round of the Inter-Lodge schedule drawing nearer to its completion, it is no easier to pick the probable champion now than it was prior to the opening day as every aggregation in the loop has dropped at least one decision while a few of the pre-season favorites have lost two.

The race ought to be somewhat unscrumbled after the Comrades and Pioneers get through with their battle at Gordon No. 7, Wednesday evening. The rest of the teams hovering around the top in the percentages, namely the Loyalties, George Washingtons, Orels and S. Y. M. C. ought to come through with victories. Although the Young Men are faced with the task of doing away with the fighting Clairwoods, who already caused an upset in giving the strong Comrades a 4 to 2 trimming.

The league, as it is, is much more interesting and likewise more complicated than ever before, as six teams out of the ten are potential champions.

The complete card for next week:

Sunday, June 21

Orels vs. Betsy Ross, Gordon No. 6, at 9 a. m.

Loyalties vs. Progressives, Gordon No. 6, at 10:30 a. m.

Monday, June 22

Boosters vs. George Washingtons, White City, at 6:30 p. m.

Tuesday, June 23

SYMC vs. Clairwoods, Gordon No. 6, at 6:30 p. m.

Wednesday, June 24

Pioneers vs. Comrades, Gordon No. 7, 6:30 p. m.

SLOVENIAN SLUGGER RECEIVES CONFIRMATION OF FIGHT WITH BOSTONIAN ON TITULAR CARD

Fight Will Be Five-Rounder, Each Chapter Lasting Only Two Minutes Instead of Customary Three; Frankie Simms Promises to Be in First-Class Condition

Although no official contracts have been signed, Charlie O'Connell, manager of Frankie Simms, neighborhood sock artist, informs us he has conversed via wire with Madison Square Gardens and matched the Slovenian sluggers with Jack Dorval, sensational Boston heavyweight, for one of the preliminaries on the Schmeling-Stribling heavyweight championship scrap, slated for our own stadium on the night of July 3.

TICKETS FOR DOLJACK DAY NOW ON SALE

Exchange tickets are now in circulation for "Doljack Day" Sunday, Aug. 9 at either League Park or the new lake front stadium, depending upon where the Indians are playing.

These tickets can be turned in for reserved seats at either of the following places: Gornik's Haberdashery, 6217 St. Clair Ave. (John Gornik); Mandel Drug Store, 15720 Waterloo Rd. (Lindy Lokar); Johnny Ajnich, 10502 Way Ave., Newburg; St. Clair Bathhouse (Heinie Martin).

As the entire third base section will be reserved for the Doljack fans, the tickets must be secured from one of the above mentioned places. Tickets will sell for the usual reserved seat price of $1.40.

The opening day for the obtaining of reserved seats is set for July 5 and the closing day, Aug. 1. Positively no reserve seats will be sold at any time other than specified above.

On the evening of the ninth, a reception will be held at the roof garden of Frank Mervar's hall. One of the first Slovenian ballplayers in Cleveland, Frank is ardently supporting "Doljack Day," and is offering the use of his gardens gratis.

The evening's affair will be invitational to those attending the afternoon's ball game. A committee composed of Frank Mervar, chairman; Johnny Alich, Anne Erste, Jennie Frusnick and Eddie Kovacic will select the evening's entertainment, which will include dancing.

Local baseball fans will miss "Fat" Marsh's stellar hitting next Sunday. That gentleman informs us he will hit the trail for Altoona, Pa., racing's home town, where he will wield the bludgeon for the Pennsy Railroaders. But never fear, folks, "Fat"—we are sorry to say—will come back!

The purpose of the meeting is to form a Playground League, comprised of the above mentioned teams and such others of the same caliber, who may be interested. Playground instructor Eddie Kovacic is at the head of the movement and plans having the members of the winning team presented with sweaters.

The schedule will be so arranged that there will be no conflict whatsoever with any other indoor league, particularly the Inter-Lodge. Not only will the loop prove of interest due to intense competition, but will serve as ideal practice sessions for the teams also entered and playing in other leagues.

At Madison, O.

Vince and Stan Zupan and Albert Kausek, golf impresarios and writers, took off Wednesday afternoon and journeyed out to Madison where they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Mally.

Alright, ump, take off the mask—we know you. You're the guy who put the business in baseball. What's that?

PLAY BALL

The Crucible Steels gained a 4 to 4 tie with the powerful St. Andrews in one of the Sabbath's best encounters. Strauss and Franc hit doubles for the Steels.

FOUL STRIKE ONE

Mike Kunza's twirling featured the Schneider Sports, 5 to 4 upset of the Abel Undertakers. Komar led the Sports with the stick, lacing out a triple and two singles.

STRIKE TWO

Despite Kaznik's one-hit pitching performance, the Imke Barbers were downed by the Merle Owens Funeral Homes, 2 to 1.

BALL ONE

Five costly errors proved to be the cause of the Ideal Merchants' 5 to 3 downfall at the hands of the Boulevard Merchants. "Suggy" Zupancic got a triple and Herb Knafel a double for the losers.

BALL TWO

St. Joseph's, KSKJ, were allowed only four hits by Pitcher Raggetts of the Gibson Sports in dropping a 6 to 3 game to the Sports. Cander's and Kovacic's hitting stood out for the Gibsons.

BALL THREE

Laurich's and Golob's work with the stick conspired Manager Joe Kogoy somewhat as his Slovenian Merchants were swamped, 12 to 2, by the Lakewood Merchants.

BALL FOUR

The Kelly A. C. staged a mild surprise in walking off with a 9 to 4 verdict over the Sherb's Billiards. E. Heccevar got two blows for the Kellys.

STRIKE ONE

Zuris Confections tallied 16 times on 12 hits to smother the Dodgers who could account for only one lone marker. Freddy Strnisha, Greenwald, Rogers and Smith paced the Confectioners' batting attack.

STRIKE TWO

Verhovee included a homer in his three hits as the E. 156th Merchants walloped the St. Martins, 22 to 3.

STRIKE THREE

Tolar had a perfect day at bat in the Waterloo Merchants' 11 to 3 win over the Morris Shoes. Mervar whiffed 12 Shoemen to share in the limelight.

STRIKE ONE

Tommy Gribbons' Brazis Bros. smashed out a total of 17 hits to submerge the St. Joseph's, 14 to 1. Billy Lobe and Tony Koren were the Brazis batting stars, each had accounted for three timely hits.

STRIKE TWO

Emmett Walsh for Council, indoor nine, received a surprising 13 to 4 pasting administered by the 23d Ward Democrats in a friendly neighborhood tussle. Johnny Kostelec, Betson and Maggie Medves slashed out eight hits between them for the Dems. Teddy Miljenovic was the only Walsh player to get more than one hit.

FIGHTS IN AKRON

EDDIE SIMMS

And while Brother Frankie is getting ready to make a national showing, Eddie Simms is going to display his wares before the Akron folks, Saturday, June 27, against Pat Smith in a six-round-er.
