Smoke, Smoke, Smoke Yourself to Death

by JOSEPH ZELLE

Coming out of Al Somrak's place into the beautiful sunny day, there were a couple of nurses or receptionists standing idly, a cigarette dangling between the index and middle fingers. Something boiled up in me.

"What's a lovely girl like you doing here smoking?" I blurted out.

One of them was about to retort but changed her mind. Obviously both of them were taken by surprise being severely accosted by a total stranger.

"I used to smoke like a Turk... My name is Zelle. But I quit smoking 65 years ago. I was in college, and we were leaving for the Thanksgiving holidays. I reached into my left coat pocket and drew out shreds of tobacco threads between my thumb and index finger. I felt revolted. Drew out more filaments and went to the nearest trash bin in the hallway. I slowly emptied the remaining contents of the pocket and started for the tobacco stand. Then suddenly a violent feeling of revulsion seized me. 'No, I'd better not,' I thought. I walked out of the university grounds and never smoked again. Never had any craving for cigarettes or cigarette smoke since."

Sen. Voinovich Helps Open Fatima Family Center

On Monday, June 26, senior citizen facility to Cleveland's Hough neighborhood.

The project is the first recipient of Ohio EPA's "Urban Setting Designation," which is a part of Ohio's Voluntary Action Program to use urban brownfields sites for redevelopment.

Voinovich is a long-time member of Our Lady of Fatima Lodge No. 255, KSKJ.

The center will offer education and employment services, arts and cultural programming, daycare, emergency assistance and a

Both of my younger sisters smoked cigarettes. Sophie Ann made serious efforts to quit. She went in for treatments, read books, talked to doctors, even made novenas. All to no avail. Of course, she had it tough because she was secretary to the Port Director of Hopkins International Airport. It was her duty to welcome people, executives, politicians, from all over the world. And of course everyone smoked and so did she.

My little brother, Rudy, once counted 26 ashtrays in our house. There was a constant haze and smell of cigarettes. On Sundays my father would light up a Cinco (I still remember that name) as he was leaving for church. It smelled fine when I was a child and it made me very proud of my father on Sundays.

To the young smokers standing outside of the Euclid Medical Building I said, "Ladies, I've got news for you. Both of my sisters, brother, and father are dead and buried these 10 years. They had all contacted cancer."

The two never said a word during my sermon. I stroke off feeling very sorry for such lovely young ladies, and nurses, too.

Dr. David Turk, Surgeon, Becomes Assistant Professor at Case Western

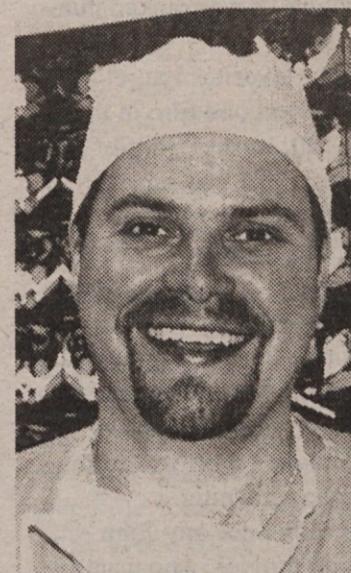

Not too many people realize what it takes to become a doctor. Even fewer realize how much time and effort it takes to become a surgeon. One who certainly knows is Dr. David Turk, who is completing specialized surgical training in the field of Urology and entering practice in the west side of Cleveland. Dr. Turk has also been appointed Assistant Professor of Urology with Case Western Reserve School of Medicine.

Dr. Turk is completing 14 years of education, including 4 years of college, 4 years of medical school, 2 years of general surgery residency, and 4 years of urologic surgery. Surgical training involves working 60-140 hours per week with occasional episodes of working 36-40 hours nonstop. In addition, there are many academic responsibilities, which includes reading the many urologic and surgical textbooks and writing and publishing papers.

His surgical training at University Hospitals of Cleveland included rotations at Rainbow Babies and Children's Hospital, Mt. Sinai Hospital, Metro Hospital, The Veterans Affairs Hospital, Southwest Hospital, and The Cleveland Clinic Foundation. Dr. Turk completed medical school at The Medical College of Ohio with research performed at Yale University School of Medicine. He also has a bachelor of arts degree in Sociology from the University of Cincinnati.

Over the past 6 years, he has performed over 2,500 surgeries, which includes surgeries such as radical prostatectomy, laparoscopic surgery, and kidney transplantation. He is now committed to the field of Urology, which focuses on management of diseases of the prostate, bladder, and kidney. In addition, Dr. Turk has a special interest in the management of urinary incontinence and managing prostate health.

Dr. Turk is joining Southwest Urology, Inc., a group located primarily at Parma hospital and Southwest hospital, with additional west side offices in Medina. He will also see patients at the new University Hospital Strongsville facility. He will maintain a teaching affiliation with University Hospitals of Cleveland and will be an Assistant Professor of Urology with Case Western Reserve University.

Dr. Turk is fluent in the Slovenian language. In addition, he welcomes anyone seeking a second opinion about their current health concerns.

Dr. Turk is the son of Ivan and Ivanka Turk of Richmond Heights, Ohio. He is married to Neja Turk and is the proud father of three children: Andrew, Matthew, and David Michael.

Congratulations Dr. Turk! The entire Slovenian community is very proud of your many accomplishments. May God grant you an abundance of His blessings.

Slovenian Folk Tales

The history of Ljubljana dates back to the Paleolithic age. There are traces of the Paleolithic man who lived in Slovenian territory thousands of years ago.

The Ljubljana territory was once a big lake.

In the Neolithic period (3000 to 2000 B.C.) the lake dwellers lived on the lake in houses built on poles set in the marshy lake bottom.

We know very little of the Bronze Age (1800 - 1000 B.C.), but we know that in the Iron Age (1000 - 350 B.C.) Slovenia was inhabited by the Illyrians. About 400 B.C. the Celts arrived.

A legend says that one day Jason and his Argonauts visited this territory.

The Ljubljana Dragon

Jason and his men from the ship called Argo, stole the golden fleece from the king of Colchis in Asia Minor. The ship Argo escaped its pursuers but entered the mouth of the Danube instead of sailing southwards into the Aegean Sea. There was no way back for the fugitives, so they continued on their way up the Danube, then the Sava and finally had to stop at the source of the river Ljubljanica. Then they carried their ship in pieces overland to the Adriatic Sea and continued on their way.

Near the source of the Ljubljanica they found a big lake with a marshy shore, where their leader Jason had to fight and kill a terrible moor monster. It looked like a dragon. This is the Ljubljana dragon that is seen today at the top of the castle tower in the Ljubljana coat of arms and on the bridges over the Ljubljanica River.

The Illyrians and Celts tried their best to defend the country against an invasion by the Romans. The Illyrians and Celts built a fortress Emona and many other fortifications all around Emona: on Rožnik, Golovec, Sisenski hrib, Smarna gora and other hills. However, they couldn't withstand the Roman invaders.

The Romans converted Emona into a military camp and built a strong wall around it.

In 452 A.D. the leader of the wild Huns, Atilla, destroyed Emona and it disappeared for the next 500 years. Even its name was lost. In old documents dating back to the year 1144 we find the name Luvigana that later was changed into the name Ljubljana.

Jim's Journal

By Jim Debevec

"Good humor makes all things tolerable" – Henry Ward Beecher.

What tickles your funny bone?

On Wednesday, June 14 the local paper printed a list of the 100 funniest American movies. The subtitle of the article reads, "Here's what has America laughing."

Well, for sure I didn't agree much with the American Film Institute's list of the 100 funniest films.

They picked "Some Like It Hot," as number one. Then they compound their nonsense by calling "Tootsie" as the second funniest film America has ever produced. Both movies are about guys who dress as women. This is funny?

"Duck Soup" with the Marx Brothers is rated number 5. I agree with that.

Some of the other choices that make sense are another Marx Brothers flick, "A Night at the Opera" ranked fairly high. "Young Frankenstein," was a scream and "Blazing Saddles," hit my funny bone.

But ranked No. 9 was "The Graduate." Was that funny?

What was humorous about the musical "Singin' in the Rain," with Fred Astaire?

"Raising Arizona," tickled my humor bone, but the next one (#32) "The Thin Man" I considered to be a mystery, not a rip-roaring comedy.

"It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World," was definitely hilarious, but, sadly, it didn't rank higher than 40th place. "Moonstruck" I considered to be a romance. "A Shot in the Dark," with Peter Sellers was a classic that surely deserved a higher spot than 48th place.

Thank you for your support.
We look forward to serving you

"Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein" was their only entry. It was one of their better movies but there were 56 films placed ahead of it.

A large number of people said "Mrs. Doubtfire" with Robin Williams was a great comedy, but unfortunately I fell asleep during all three times I tried to watch it.

"Private Benjamin" with Goldie Hawn wasn't funny to me, but rather sad.

"Auntie Mame," starring Rosalyn Russell was a classic stage hit and terrific film. But alas, it was ranked number 94.

My favorites Laurel and Hardy had one film in the top 100. It was "Sons of the Desert," but was ranked fourth from the bottom.

"Bull Durham," was a baseball story about a loser and Danny Kaye's "The Court Jester" was a musical. Then the frightening show "Fargo" came in number 93 yet I didn't even smile during the screening.

I didn't see any John Candy movies, who usually made me laugh, especially the one where he's trying to return a lost dog to its rich owner.

Another of my favorites which didn't make the top 100 list is Rodney Dangerfield's "Back to School." I can watch that movie 10 times and always laugh until I'm rolling on the floor, it's so funny.

Here's a serious thought for all you Glen Miller fans. What is the city mentioned in the song "Tuxedo Junction?"

We will draw one winner from all the correct entries and that person receives a one year extension of their American Home subscription. A fantastic prize worth $30. – See you in two weeks.

The Gravity of the situation

by RUDY FLIS

"Global Warming." I see it on television and read about it in the papers. If I paid attention to the gloom and doom predictions, I would be digging a fruit cellar on my property to protect me from the harmful rays from above. But alas, one day I must die; and if it be from global warming, so be it.

Now let's get to a real problem for us humans. It affects all, but takes aim at the old. I have experienced it and you have experienced it.

This problem I refer to is unique. If there is a solution, it, too, will be unique. I must tell you I am resigned to live with this problem all the days of my life because to change it would cause havoc.

As I age, I adjust. To read, I now need to use glasses. To stay healthy, I consume a multitude of pills. My vigorous exercise now consists of walking. And my diet is to eat in moderation.

As the years pass by, there is something I have not adjusted to. Now here is what I am referring to – "THE PROBLEM." Working in the yard, on my hands and knees I am doing well, until it is time for me to rise up. Snap, crackle and pop is all I can get out of my knees, which are drawn to the ground as metal to a magnet. Do you see the gravity of my situation? I scan the yard for assistance. A pole, a tomato stick, or anything to help me rise to an upright position (standing).

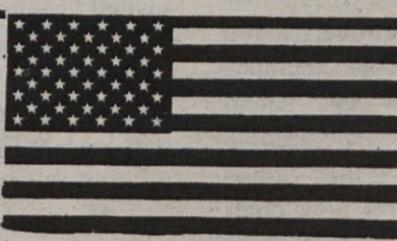

In the middle of the yard I'd hate to have the neighbors see me crawling to the fence to pull this old body up. Will this weed digger help, or will it cave under my weight? Darn that gravity; it can really pull one's spirit down.

What goes up, must come down what goes down – may need help getting up.

Darn that gravity. Quite a problem – wouldn't you say?

'Peparegz' (the Junkman)

by JOE GLINSEK

Part fun, part work, and a tinge of fraud; all of these combined to create a game we played with our itinerant junkman. Really more work than a game, some of the things we did to earn a few nickels were foolish, dangerous, even crooked. We christened the junkman "peparegz"; it was an imitation of his repetitious chant, "paper rags!" Really, a misnomer, since he seldom bought either; yet this was his cry on periodic travels through our neighborhood. Scrap metal, mainly brass or copper, were his favorite commodities.

He also bought rubber and broken glass, paying the princely sum of twenty cents for a bushel of glass. If this sounds like a good deal, think again. Glass had to be broken into flat shards and separated by color. When broken into fairly small pieces, he was assured that a bushel would be a certain weight. I don't know his standard, but it took two kids to carry any bushel he would buy. We collected clear or green glass from rubbish cans in alleys and it took weeks to gather enough to start the hard part of the job.

We burned trash in a large steel drum near the alley - no EPA in those days. After tipping out the ashes, we had our working container. Our only tool was a head-sized rock stored behind the garage. Starting with just enough bottles to cover the bottom of the drum, we repeatedly "bombed" them with this rock. It took several hits to get the desired small pieces, and the job would have been easier if we could have fastened a chain to the rock, but we had to tip the drum to roll out the rock after each drop. This tedious and dangerous technique continued until we had enough to fill a round bushel basket. It was a "two kid job," the drum had to be tipped and emptied many times. Just by hefting the bushel, the "peparegz" knew if we had tried to cheat him by hiding unbroken bottles under a thick layer of broken glass: we had learned that after just one try. It was a tiresome way for two kids to earn a dime apiece.

By our very early principles of "situation ethics," the junkman was considered fair game: he took advantage of us at every opportunity and we responded in kind. For scrap iron or steel he paid us a penny a pound, weighed on his scale. He would buy the paper and rags he sang about, but at his prices they were more valuable to recycle at home. The real prize was aluminum, brass or copper.

Aluminum was rarely seen except as cooking pots which were seldom discarded. Now and then we'd find something valuable at the dump. Copper wiring from demolished houses was the most common, though we had to burn off the insulation before he'd buy it. It was rare to find brass hardware left on doors or windows, because there were regular construction salvage yards that bought anything that could be resold, but sometimes we'd get lucky. We could identify solid brass from the cheap plated kind by scratching it with a nail.

We were paid four or five cents a pound for copper and brass, a steak for him but "big bucks" for us. Since the junkman didn't get much of this valuable stuff, he kept it all in a covered wooden box attached to the back of his wagon. After selling him something good, we ran through the yards to the next street and waited for him to pass. He was singing "peparegz," horse hooves were clopping, and the steel-rimmed wagon wheels were grinding along the red brick pavement. This noisy passage provided ample cover for our "heist." It was easy to run up behind the wagon, lift the box lid and grab anything, often the copper we had just sold.

My conscience should have bothered me, but we had heard the raggedy looking man returned to an expensive home in the suburbs at the end of the day. We subdued our guilt by reasoning that we were getting "even" for the times he had cheated us. We may be doing extra time in purgatory for our evil deeds.

Glinsek "Grew up Slovenian" in Collinwood, and now lives in Sarasota, Florida. This article is excerpted from a book he hopes to have published.

Deep, Dark Chocolate Cake

Why make a box cake when this one is nearly as easy? Everyone will exclaim, "You made this from scratch?" Marien says it mixes in 5 minutes.

Ingredients:

- 1 1/4 cups unsifted all-purpose flour
- 2 cups sugar
- 3/4 cups Hershey's Cocoa
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 2 teaspoons vanilla
- 1 cup boiling water

Directions:

Combine dry ingredients in large mixing bowl. Add remaining ingredients except boiling water; beat at medium speed 2 minutes. Remove from mixer; stir in boiling water (batter will be thin). Pour into two greased and floured 9" or three 8" layer pans or one 13 x 9" pan. Bake at 350° for 30-35 minutes for layers, 35-40 minutes for 13 x 9" pan, or until cake tester (inserted in center) comes out clean. Cool 10 minutes on rack. Remove from pans; cool completely. Top with your favorite frosting.

Slovenia's Robi Stopar Orchestra Makes U.S. Debut in July

Enjoy the sounds of Slovenia at SNPJ Farm. The Robi Stopar orchestra from Menges, Slovenia, makes its U.S. debut on Sunday, July 2. The five-piece ensemble is performing with a local quartet for a full-bodied, Alpine style of Slovenian polkas and waltzes in the tradition of the Avsenik Brothers and Lojze Slak.

The Robi Stopar Orchestra celebrates 15 years as one of Slovenia's most popular bands. Their debut album, "Vsak ne more biti muzikant" (Not Just Anyone Can Be a Musician), sold more than 50,000 copies in Slovenia and won "Song of the Year" for the title cut, as well as "Band of the Year."

The Stopars are promoting their eighth recording. Founder Robi Stopar plays lead accordion. Brother Franci Stopar performs on the trumpet and saxophone. Franci's wife Beti is the lead singer. They are joined by Tomaz Simko on the clarinet, Pavle Jerse on the guitar, Marko Savli on bass, and the legendary France Kompare on the trumpet. Spela Makus and Andrej Ropar round out the vocalists.

Admission for the concert and dance is only $4. Children under 16 are free. Gates open at noon. The Stopars play from 3:30 to 7:30. Traditional Slovenian sausage and roast beef dinners are served from 1 to 3, with sandwiches and refreshments available all day.

It's been years since a band from Slovenia has come to the Cleveland area. Come on down to the Farm and dance the day away with Slovenia's own Robi Stopar Orchestra.

SNPJ Farm is located on Heath Road in Kirtland, Ohio, off Chardon road (Route 6), three miles east of Route 306. For more information call (216) 481-6909.

Starting Over in America

AMERIŠKA DOMOVINA, JUNE 29, 2000

by ANTON ZAKELJ
translated and edited by

Tuesday, June 2, 1953

Frank Puc started work at the shop as my assistant.

I bought a nylon watering hose. Cilka likes to work in the garden we have behind the rear house. It's large enough so we will be able to grow all our own vegetables. The rest of the yard has enough room for about five fruit trees. The garden will be for Cilka, and the fruit trees will be for me.

To the west of our two houses is a similar house which Mrs. Faletič willed to her second son. People tell me that men used to play "balinca" in the yard between the three houses and Mrs. Faletič used to serve them with forbidden medicines which she kept in the basement. People also tell me that Mrs. Faletič used to hide money inside the hollow brick walls of our basement. I'm not going to spend my time looking for that - I'll leave it for the next owner. But people also say there were tens of thousands of silver coins found in the two houses down the street. Children found the coins in old garbage cans in the basement. The owner of those houses also sold alcohol.

Now there are about 5 taverns in the neighborhood, one just for truck drivers, and another featuring the famous musician Louis Trebar. The church, the school, the streetcar - everything except my job are close by.

Almost all the storekeepers speak Slovenian. And we're not far from the Slovenian National Home where we can go to concerts and where the Glasbena Matica (under the direction of Anton Subelj) produces concerts and plays - just as if we were in Ljubljana.

Mr. Rihtar put a new roof on the garage, which I've rented to Matvež Hočevan for $15 a month. He says he'll fix the interior himself, so I'll only charge him $10 a month for the first 6 months.

Wednesday, June 3, 1953

Frank Puc, my new assistant at the shop, was very tired. I asked foreman Sebold to give Frank some easier work, but Frank insisted on staying with me and Rudi Knez.

In the evening, Jerry Zupan drove to Kolenc's on the West Side and picked up a couch, chair, rug and other furnishings for us. While Jerry did that, I burned some large dry weeds in the back yard. Our neighbor, Mr. Modic, soon came over and protested that I was on his land. I invited him into the kitchen and he stayed until 12:15 a.m. Soon after he arrived, Tony Cizel came and gave the children each a "kvoder" (that's how Slovenian-Americans refer to a "quarter.") I think he had been drinking. He asked Modic why he didn't give the children anything. They started arguing and Mr. Modic grabbed him by the neck and started choking him. Finally, they worked things out, wished us well, and left. A strange welcome!

Mr. Modic owns 7 or 8 houses, and he wants to buy ours as well. He had hoped he could get our two houses cheap, if he waited long enough. Meanwhile, his wife died (last March) and apparently, he was not aware that we had made an offer. He missed his chance to match our offer.

Thursday, June 4, 1953

Karl Erznožnik bought a 1940 Mercury for $200. He doesn't have his driver's license yet, but that's what many of my friends are doing. First they buy a car and then they learn how to drive.

Friday, June 5, 1953

I paid the first $100 on the mortgage from K.S.K.J.

Our shop's owner, Mr. Risher, handed out notices indicating how much each employee will receive in paid vacation this July. A pleasant surprise - I will get 80 hours! I need a vacation.

Tuesday, June 9, 1953

Last night we had thunder and such large hail that I couldn't get to sleep until after midnight. I hear that a tornado destroyed 100 houses elsewhere in Cleveland, especially on the West Side, and 10 people died. In Flint, Michigan, 100 people died.

Sunday, June 14, 1953

This afternoon, son John and I took the bus to the Lourdes Shrine in Euclid. Bishop Rožman led the litanies in honor of those who suffered and died under communism.

In the evening, I helped Karl study for the driver's license test.

Saturday, June 20, 1953

It was so hot last night I only slept two hours. The temperature in the shop this morning was 98 degrees F.

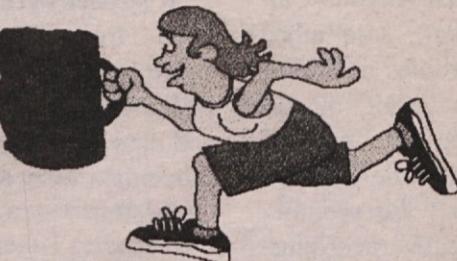

In the afternoon, Rudi Krmota helped paint the door and window trim in three rooms.

Sunday, June 21, 1953

This morning we went to Rev. Francis Rebol's first Mass.

This photo was taken in front of the St. Vitus Rectory in Cleveland, Ohio. The occasion was to present Mrs. Jeanette Polomsky, Principal of St. Vitus School, a donation totaling $6,000 towards the purchase of a new van for the school.

The proceeds were raised from a Chicken and Pork dinner held Sunday, April 16 in St. Vitus Auditorium. St. Mary Magdalene KSKJ Lodge #162, St. Vitus KSKJ Lodge #25, St. Vitus Altar Society, and St. Vitus Holy Name Society co-sponsored the dinner. The event was part of the American Slovenian Catholic Union, KSKJ, Matching Funds Program.

Included in the above figure is $2,000 from the KSKJ Matching Funds Program, $1,000 from each of the two KSKJ lodges that participated in organizing the dinner.

The committee thanks everyone for volunteering their services to make this dinner a huge success, and those who came to the dinner. A total of 580 meals were served. It was nice having the youth of the parish helping.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED AND FRATERNALLY WELCOMED TO JOIN!

All fraternal benefit societies have a "common bond," and the American Mutual Life Association was started back in 1910 as the Slovenska Dobrodelna Zveza by a group of proud and far-sighted immigrants from Slovenia desiring to perpetuate the common bonds of heritage and culture of the land of their birth. Our mission today is to ensure that what they established will remain a part of the United States of America forever!

We are located in the largest Slovenian-rooted community in the country. We know that our common bond extends to many in our area who are not members of our society or of any other fraternal benefit society.

Although our market area is not national, we do have great capacity to grow and prosper. AMLA now has assets of over 26 million dollars and a surplus of over 10 million dollars, while the combined independent treasuries of our local lodges total in excess of $250,000.

These assets and surplus are necessary to perpetuate our common bonds and existence; to ensure that our members' death and annuity benefits are well protected; to provide the fraternal benefits of membership; and to make donations for worthwhile causes.

While we may be considered small in size, with a limited market area, we have a very solid financial position with highly regarded stability and strength.

Lodge officers are committed—and required by law to hold regular monthly meetings. We realize that in today's world that every member cannot attend every meeting. However, members may find a way to attend lodge meetings bimonthly or quarterly, and to make sure that one of those meetings is the annual meeting each lodge holds to elect officers, plan fraternal events, and make donations on behalf of their membership.

In addition to a number of annual events sponsored by the Fraternal Affairs Committee during each year, there are other fraternal events as the lodges may entertain for the benefit of their members and/or all members of A.M.L.A.

A.M.L.A. supports, by way of donations, the Cleveland area Slovenian singing societies, Slovenian Homes, Slovene Home for the Aged, Slovenian parishes, Slovenian schools of St. Vitus and St. Mary's parishes, national and local charities.

Lodges have members from many walks of life, education and experience, who can bring progressive ideas to the meetings and expand on their own leadership and teamwork qualities for a better future.

As Dr. Frank J. Kern, our Medical Director in 1935, aptly and prophetically wrote in our 25th Anniversary booklet: "The organizations like our S.D.Z. were of great importance in widening the mental horizon of our immigrants. It seems to me the second and even the third generation of these immigrants will also derive immense benefits from taking active parts in our lodges. Here are present great opportunities for learning leadership, oratory and parliamentary law, all of which the younger people can use when they step out into the broader arena of American life."

Membership is available to those who desire to help perpetuate our common bond by enrolling with a minimum of $1,000 of life insurance. While we can insure individuals with large volumes of life insurance, small size certificates have served us well over the years. We do not encourage or pretend that AMLA be your only source of life insurance protection. We are committed to expanding our membership base and to maintain a viable presence in our community.

Enrollment as a member of AMLA begins with a life insurance application. In addition to our investment earnings, premium income is necessary to ensure our prosperity and continued strength.

We have made it very easy and reasonable for new members to join our society and for our current members to increase their present life insurance coverage.

We invite our Slovenian American community to increase or add their family's presence in our society and to be a part of our progress and quest for a perpetual future.

You may clip the lower portion of this ad and mail it to us at 19424 South Waterloo Road, Cleveland, Ohio 44119; or you can call or leave word at (216) 531-1900 Extension 11 or 21.

Thank you for your consideration.

Insurance Amount      Type of Plan

A.M.L.A. offers life insurance certificates as little as $1,000 on our 3 Pay, 5 Pay and 20 Pay annual payment plans. For additional savings, these plans are offered on a Discounted One-Time payment arrangement for a $1,000 or $2,000 certificate.

The best total cost savings is with our Single Premium one-time payment plan on which the minimum issue is $3,000.

We'd like to have the opportunity to show you just how easy and reasonable it is to increase your family's presence in the lodge of your choice and our Fraternal Benefit Society established as the "Slovenska Dobrodelna Zveza" back in 1910.

Our mission is to continue the work begun by a group of proud and far-sighted immigrants from Slovenia, so that the ideals, heritage and culture brought with them will remain a part of the United States of America forever.

We hope that you will give us the opportunity to respond to your desires in our endeavor to expand our membership base and maintain our excellent financial posture for the preservation of our common bonds and ancestral pride.

Zivijo, Zivijo, Zivijol

Membership is open to all persons of Slovenian descent or others who are in agreement with our principles

A.M.L.A. OFFERS THE FOLLOWING PLANS OF INSURANCE

For total cost purposes and peace of mind that comes when premiums are no longer required, the following plans are listed to show how this can be accomplished and which can best suit your budget. Our Whole Life plan is not discussed, since it may be less costly on an annual basis, but the premiums are payable for the lifetime of the insured. It is available upon request.

SINGLE PREMIUM WHOLE LIFE PLAN

The basic principle of the Single Premium Certificate is that the desired insurance benefit is purchased with ONE payment. No further premiums are required and the insured has a fully paid-up certificate for life. Minimum issue amount is $3,000.00. Issue ages are 0 through 75.

3 PAY WHOLE LIFE PLAN

An excellent alternative to the Single Premium or 20 Pay Plans. A specific payment period of only (3) three years. Premiums are payable annually or semi-annually. Minimum issue amount is $1,000.00. Issue ages are 0 through 65. A Discounted One Time Payment is available for $1,000 or $2,000 certificates. This reduces the total cost. For amounts of $3,000 and over, the Single Premium Plan is the best for total cost purposes. This plan and the 5 Pay and 20 Pay Plans are excellent alternatives to spread payments over more years for those with limited budgets.

5 PAY WHOLE LIFE PLAN

An excellent alternative to the Single Premium or 20 Pay Plans. A specific payment period of only (5) five years. Premiums are payable annually or semi-annually. Minimum issue amount is $1,000.00. Issue ages are 0 through 65.

20 PAYMENT WHOLE LIFE PLAN

Issue ages are 0 through 65. Minimum issue amount is $1,000.00. Specific payment period spread out over 20 years. Premiums are payable annually or semi-annually.

JUVENILE TERM TO AGE 25 - Single Premium only

An excellent supplement to go with a small permanent plan. Issue ages are 0 through 15. Term insurance in $5,000 or $10,000 units. At age 25, member can convert to permanent insurance at up to twice the original face amount. Conversion is guaranteed. No medical examination is required, only a new application must be submitted at age 25. Conversion credit at age 25 is based on $1.00 per thousand of coverage times the years in force to age 25.

Financial Stability

The financial condition of a Fraternal Benefit Society is an important element in public confidence. In this regard we believe the fundamental factors listed below are significant.

The following is a COMPARATIVE ANALYSIS of these basic factors, comparing

AMERICAN MUTUAL LIFE ASSOCIATION

with 10 of the largest U.S. Fraternal Benefit Societies. Since these 10 societies have an average of over 109 years of life insurance experience, and own a major portion of the invested assets and life insurance in force of all the societies, a favorable comparison of these factors can be indicative of financial stability.

BASIC SIGNIFICANT FACTORS —AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1999 DERIVED FROM THE ANNUAL STATEMENT
(The 10 Fraternal Benefit Societies listed below are 10 of the largest by the amount of INSURANCE IN FORCE).

Solvency A wide margin of Assets over Liabilities can be a significant safety factor. This indicates financial soundness and a Society's ability to meet all obligations as they become due.

Assets for each $100 of Liabilities as of Dec. 31, 1999.

SOCIETY IS RUN BY AND FOR ITS MEMBERS
The Society is composed exclusively of members who freely joined together for their mutual protection and benefit through the instruments of insurance.

Conclusion

Based on the financial results achieved in the year ended 1999, the analysis made of the above organization is favorable in comparison with the aggregate averages of 10 of the LARGEST FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES.

Surplus Funds

(Including Capital, if any)
Per $100 of Policy Reserves:
A high surplus ratio may indicate a company's ability to take emergencies in stride. It shows the proportion of surplus funds to the policy reserve liabilities.

AVERAGE 10 OF THE LARGEST FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES.....$14.96
AMERICAN MUTUAL LIFE .....$78.05

Liquid Assets

Assets in Bonds, Stocks
Cash and Short-Term Investments for each $100 of Liabilities: A high ratio may indicate a more liquid investment position to cover unforeseen emergency cash requirements that may arise.

AVERAGE 10 OF THE LARGEST FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETIES.....$78.37
AMERICAN MUTUAL LIFE .....$158.76

Additional Society Strength

The following ratios are Per $1000 of life insurance in force. They show further proof of financial strength and stability:

	This Society	Average 10 of the Largest Societies
Assets per $1000 .....	$955.44	$239.00
Reserves per $1000 .....	482.35	165.02
Surplus per $1000 .....	376.45	24.68

FINANCIAL STATEMENT SUMMARY AS OF DECEMBER 31, 1999

St. Vitus Slovenian School Honors Blessed Slomsek

Blessed Bishop Anton Martin Slomšek was instrumental in defining the role of a mother in her family among Slovenians. His efforts in the 19th century came during a tender time in the development of Slovenian culture. Recently, he was beatified by Pope John Paul II.

The dramatic religious, political, and societal changes of the 19th century in the western world were trickling down to the Slovenians. Blessed Slomšek saw these changes and, through the wisdom of the Holy Spirit, promoted the model of the Holy Family (Jesus, Mary, and Joseph) for Slovenian families. Moreover, he recognized how mothers were often taken for granted – not appreciated by husbands or children or society. Additionally, he noted that mothers were neither literate nor skilled home-makers.

The solution for a more devout Slovenian family was as clear as the problem. Knowing that a mother is the heart of the family, he implemented the teaching of practical homemaking skills as well as the promotional and encouragement of civility, decency, and politeness. Blessed Slomšek's work was always in the context of Jesus' sacrificial and redemptive love, only made possible through Mary's obedience.

Blessed Slomšek further influenced the Slovenian culture by composing many folk songs. The lyrics were intended to teach respect, appreciation, and honor of hard-working mothers.

It was, therefore, most appropriate to honor our mothers this Mother's Day by honoring Blessed Bishop Anton Martin Slomšek as their most dedicated patron.

10 Mlakar's Walk Down Memory Lane

by RAY MLAKAR

Hey, I'm back. Had to take time out to check with a couple of Nuns for some more jokes.

A Sunday School teacher asked her class about the meaning of Easter. A little boy raised his hand and said, "That's when we shoot off firecrackers and celebrate our freedom." A little girl said, "No, that's when Jesus comes out of the tomb, but if he sees his shadow he goes back in."

All right, one more. "Why was Jesus born in a stable?" Answer, "Mary and Joseph were enrolled in an HMO."

Before I start, is Rudy Flis in the audience? I am ready to start on the Picnic memories. Dad and I were both long-time members of the Maccabees which back in the early days was headed by Frank Makse. It goes without saying that it was the Makse's who really kept things going for the Maccabees. It had to be in the late 1930s when they held one of their picnics in the hot July weather at Zupon's Old Farm. For those who may have forgotten, Zupon's Farm was across the street from what is the Kirkwood Industries today. The Zupans had a big barn with cows, pigs and chickens for back in those days there were no restrictions on having farm animals in your yard.

Their farm property was deep and a few days before the picnic, some of the old timers went out there with their scythes and cut down all the high grass in the back "40." Come Sunday, they came from far and near and fortunately with the West Park area, highly populated with Slovenians, they were able to walk there and maybe that was a good idea, for after the sun came down, the old gents were in no shape to drive.

I admired Helen Makse because she thought up all kinds of races for some well-worth prizes. They had the Potato sack race, consisting of one man and one woman each putting one of their feet in the sack, one foot out, and trying to hold up the sack as they tried to race to the finish line with a lot of stumbling going on. Before long, most of them were down on all fours.

Then there was the Raw egg toss. All the girls took off their Hope Diamond rings for they felt their chances would be better catching the egg with no ring on. It goes without saying that before it was over, there were a lot of yokes and whites all over their dresses, slacks and trousers, but who cared, it was fun.

For the tots, they threw pennies in the air and everybody made a scramble for them.

Then they had one race in which they tied a marshmallow to a piece of light thread. The idea was to put a tiny piece of the thread in your mouth and without using your hands, only teeth and lips, bring more of the thread into your mouth until you got the marshmallow in your mouth.

The one contest my mother entered featured the idea to blow up a balloon. They were all long balloons and whoever blew the longest balloon before breaking, was the winner. There were pops going on all over, but yippee, Ma won. Yippee. She won an electric toaster, holy smoke, she didn't even get anything like that on her wedding. Now keep in mind, that was back in the 1930s and they did not have "Pop-up toasters" then. There were always arguments after we got it home to see who would toast the bread. The toaster had doors on each side; you opened the door and put in a piece of white bread, the same on the other side. There were no timers, red lights or soft music. One just had to sit there and stare at the toaster, every once in a while open the door and turn the bread around so the other side got toasted, too. More times than not, we were so engrossed in looking at the toaster that only after it started to smoke did we know it was toasted enough on one side and then you would hear the butter knife scraping off the burnt toast and you would always hear, "Ma, look - Ray burnt the toast again." It goes without saying that we had that toaster for a great number of years and in today's world, it would be classified as a "relic." But Ma won it, and we were proud of her.

But back to the picnic. The beer was flowing, tap beer at that, and it was flowing like it was going out of style for 5c a glass. Pop, and ice cream was a nickel and Mrs. Bisyak always made the roast beef in an electric roaster. They strung an electric extension all the way back to Zupon's farm house. The roast beef on rye bread was 25c. I swear I thought that I died and went to heaven.

It seemed that the more they drank beer, the better they sang in Slovenian. No one wanted to leave. They stayed until the barrel of beer was empty and perhaps if someone would have gone out and brought a fresh keg, we'd still be there.

In spite of the money paid out for the prizes, the lodge still made money. The Makses were the heart of it all because when they died, so did the picnics.

Gosh, if we could only bring back those days, bring back the old folks who put it all together. — Well, I could go on and on, but I have to get back to the toaster before the toast burns. There is nothing that wakes one up in the morning like the smell of burnt toast.

With that, those of us who can still walk, and know where we live, it is time to get going home.

In closing, may the Good Lord bless and watch over all of you. We can sleep lightly knowing that they are making a big picnic for us up above. So for now, all I can say is to toe the mark so you will be invited. My chances won't be all that good, for I can see Sister Bernadette talking to Saint Peter.

Death Notices

MARY DROBNICK

Mary Drobnick, 94, passed away on Friday, June 23, 2000 at the Slovene Home for the Aged in Cleveland.

Mrs. Drobnick was born April 4, 1906 in Ribnica, Slovenia. She had lived in Euclid, Ohio for 74 years. Prior to that she lived in Ely, MN and Cleveland.

Mary belonged to St. Christine Church Ladies Guild and Altar Society, Chrienseniors Pensioners, Euclid Pensioners, Napredok Lodge, St. Ann Lodge No. 4 AMLA, Slovenian Women's Union #32, and Blessed Sacrament Lodge.

She loved to bake poticas and strudels.

ANTHONY J. PERKO JR.

Anthony J. Perko Jr., Fell Lake Park manager and lover of polka music, died Tuesday, June 20, at Sagamore Hills Medical Center. He was 71.

He had been manager of the family-owned 60-acre park in Northfield since 1950. The private swim club includes camping, fishing, ice skating, volleyball and other outdoor activities.

He was born in Cleveland and graduated from Cathedral Latin School in 1946. Four years later, he graduated from St. Louis University, where he studied psychology, chemistry and dentistry, said his family.

He was such a fan of polka music that it was played at his calling hours on Friday, June 23. He even purchased a Bose radio for enhanced sound, said his daughter, Cathy Tonkin of Boston Heights.

"He was a fun-loving, good puppy dog," she said.

He enjoyed Cadillac convertibles and could be seen driving around the park.

Mr. Perko was a member of Moose Club Lodge 2156 and Slovenian lodge AMLA #24.

Other survivors include his wife of 43 years, Elaine; sons, Tony III of Bedford, and Danny of Peninsula; daughters, Nancy Strange of Sagamore Hills and Patty Kinch of Northfield; six grandchildren; four sisters; and a brothers.

Services were at 10 a.m. on Saturday, June 24, at St. Barnabas Catholic Church, 9451 Brandywine Rd., Northfield.

Arrangements by Ferfolia Funeral Home of Sagamore Hills.

CATHERINE P. (KAY) CLEMENTE

Catherine P. (Kay) Clemente (nee Jaksic), 66, of Broadview Heights, Ohio was the wife of Mike J.; mother of Michael (Linda) and Darren (Dianne); grandmother of Michael, Jr., Darren, Jr., John and Andrew; sister of Ann Rondaris (late Ricardo), Stanley Jaksic (Nora) and the late Joseph (late Eleanor), Edward (Betty Worsos), Josephine Hozian (late Joseph) and Louis; aunt, great-aunt; godmother and friends.

Friends may call at the Ferfolia Funeral Home, 356 W. Aurora Rd. (OH Rt. 82) Sagamore Hills. Thursday and Friday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m. Funeral Saturday, July 1 at 9 a.m., followed by services at Assumption Catholic Church, Broadview Hts., at 10 a.m. Interment All Saints Cemetery.

VICTOR KOSOGLAV

Victor Kosoglav, 87, passed away at his home on March 17, 2000.

Victor was born in Cleveland, the son of Anton and Mary (both deceased). He was the brother of Caroline (Anthony - deceased), Stefancic and Olga (Daniel) Perhay; and the following deceased: Anthony (Julia - deceased), Vera Sadler and Vida. He was uncle and great-uncle of many.

Victory was a US Army veteran of WWII. Mass of Christian burial was held at St. Paul Croatian Church. Burial in Calvary Cemetery.

The family suggests donations in his memory to St. Paul Croatian Church, 1369 E. 40th St., Cleveland 44103, or a charity of your choice.

— Vesti iz Slovenije —

Zorko Pelikan novi državni sekretar za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu – Mihaela Logar razrešena

Med številnimi kadrovskimi spremembami, ki potekajo zadnje tedne po potrditvi nove vlade dr. Andreja Bajuka, je med bolj prese netljivimi zamenjava državne sekretarke za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu Mihaele Logar, ki je vendar bila v prejšnji vladi imenovana na priporočilu takratne SLS, ta stranka pa je v obliki SLS+SKD Slovenska ljudska stranka tudi sestavni del dr. Bajukove vlade.

Poročilo o zamenjavi je v najnovejšem Novem glasu iz Trsta/Gorice, ki piše tako: "Nova slovenska vlada je za državnega sekretarja za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu imenovala Zorka Pelikana in razrešila dosedanje državno sekretarko Mihaelo Logar. Zorko Pelikan je star 46 let in je doma iz Mirna pri Gorici. Diplomiral je na biotehnični fakulteti in je pred kakimi desetimi leti stopil v službo v slovenskem zunanjem ministrstvu. Bil je tudi slovenski vicekonzul v Trstu in nato funkcionar v uradu za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu."

Ameriški senat sprejel resolucijo o Sloveniji, ki poudarja njeno sposobnost za članstvo v transatlantskih in evropskih ustanovah – Mišljeni sta NATO in EZ

Slovenska tiskovna agencija (STA) poroča včeraj takole: "Ameriški senat je sopročno sprejel resolucijo o Sloveniji, s katero ugotavlja, da bo sprejem Slovenije v polnopravno članstvo transatlantskih in evropskih ustanov pomemben korak k nerazdeljeni, celoviti in svobodni Evropi. Slovenija je z resolucijo dobila pohvalo zaradi partnerstva z ZDA in zvezo NATO, v nej pa je izraženo mnenje, da bo vključitev Slovenije v zvezo NATO prispevek k njegovi varnosti."

Resolucija je bila sprejeta v zveznem senatu, kjer je imela več senatorjev-sponzorjev, med njimi je bil tudi ohiski senator George V. Voinovich. Resolucijo so izrecno podprli med drugimi vodja republikancev v senatu Trent Lott iz Mississippija, Jesse Helms, načelnik odbora za zunanje zadeve in Joseph Biden, vodilni v tem odboru na demokratski strani. Biden je že leta znan kot zelo naklonjen Sloveniji, deloma baje zato, ker je v mlajših letih živel v kraju, v katerem je bilo naseljenih več slovenskih Amerikancev.

Sen. Voinovich je v izjavi, ki jo je posredovala njegova pisarna, izrazil zadovoljstvo. "Vesel sem, da moji kolegi v senatu soglašajo, da je sprejem Slovenije kot članice NATO pomembna ne le za ZDA, mar več za vse druge NATO države. Slovenija je uspešno izpolnila vseh pet predpogojev za članstvo v NATU in služi kot model, ki ji lahko sledijo druge države na tistem območju." Senator Voinovich je v izjavi dodal, da Slovenija ne le, da izpolnjuje predpogojev, mar več v nekaterih njih kar prekaša nekatere sedanje članice NATU.

Tečaj tolarja – Včeraj je tečajnica Banke Slovenije najavila, da prinese 1 ameriški dolar 218,12 SLT, kanadski pa 147,18. Tečaj se malce spreminja z vsakim dnevom.

Pred dobrima dvema tednoma sta se prvič uradno srečala novi slovenski predsednik vlade dr. Andrej Bajuk in predsednik Slovenije Milan Kučan. Bajuk je po pogovoru s Kučanom dejal: "Menim, da je bil sestanek s predsednikom Kučanom zelo pomemben, saj sva se lahko pogovorila o ključnih temah za državo. Predvsem kako bomo sodelovali v sklopu ustavnega reda in pristojnostih tako vladnih kot tudi njegovih. Na vsak način bomo poskušali, da bomo imeli v tej hiši (na Gregorčičevi) tesne stike, čeprav se zavedamo, da imamo različne poglede na konkretna vprašanja. Gospod predsednik države se je sicer zavzemal za drugačno rešitev politične krize, a sem prepričan in hkrati upam, da bo sodelovanja na nivoju ustave in demokratične države.

Pomladna vlada nujno potrebuje časopis

Enobarvnost slovenskih medijev je znana. Po pričakovanju se je še močneje pokazala ob enotnem nastopu pomladnih strank, ki so do bile svojo vlado. Enobarvnost pomeni, da se različna glasila sicer razlikujejo po obliki in načinu, slej ko prej pa so si enotna, da je dobro le tisto, kar prihaja z leve politične strani, in slabo tisto, kar nastane na pomladni strani. Tovrstna enobarvnost je eden od slabših rezultatov dosedanjega koalicijskega obdobja, v katerem so nasledniki povojne enopartijske politike večše zasegli večji del sredstev javnega obveščanja, medtem ko je morala pomladna stran kar dvakrat ukiniti edini dnevnik, ki ga je premogla. Dejstvo je, da en sam pogled na dogodke za nobeno družbo ni koristen, niti za Slovenijo ne. In sedaj, ko je nastala pomladna vlada, je nujno omogočiti vzpostavitev tudi tako imenovanega drugega pogleda na vse, kar se dogaja.

Še več, pomladna vlada bo brez dnevnega časopisa, ki bo izražal drug pogled na stvari, izjemno težko shajala. Preprosto ne bo mogla razviti primerne dnevne politike, ki pomeni vsakodnevno osvetljevanje dogodkov, obrazožitev namenov in dejanj, kakor tudi odgovarjanje na kritike, ki jih bo proizvajala opozicija. In sedanja nova opozicija ima tako rekoč v lasti vse dnevnike in dobršen del drugih glasil. Ne smemo tudi pozabiti, da bo odslej levica nastopala drugače kot v koalicijski dobi. Tedaj je bila po zaslugu pomladne razdeljenosti v odličnem položaju, s prijaznim nasmehom je razvila misel o vsespolnem dobrem razumevanju med vsemi Slovenci, pri čemer so bili tisti, ki so izvajali resnično opozicijo, obsojeni na nergače in prepirljivce, skratka za ljudi, ki se želijo škodljivo prepirati in delujejo proti interesom Slovenije. Zamisel takšne vsespolne slega je nazadnje prevladala do tolikšne mere, da je bilo že težko globlje osvetljevati ali celo kritizirati največjo levo stranko, njeno politično in življenjsko filozofijo.

Koalicijske idile zdaj ni več in na mah so postali prej izjemno prijazni privrženci slovenske politične levice mrki, ostri in zbadljivi. Podobna sprememba se utegne zgoditi tudi z mediji, ki so do nedavnega brez večjih težav razglašali svojo nadstrankarsko širino, odslej se to zaradi pomladne vlade ne bo več dogajalo. In v širšem smislu je prav tako, saj smo na tem mestu že večkrat izrazili prepričanje, da Slovenija potrebuje jasne identitete, levi naj bodo levi in pomladni naj bodo pomladni, leva stališča leva in pomladna stališča pomladna. Kakor naj se sicer volivec sploh odloča, če bo okrog njega prevladovalo eno samo stališče?

Pavle Borštnik – 75-letnik

SYRACUSE, NY – Pavle Borštnik je 15. junija dosegel svoj 75. rojstni dan. V soboto, 24. junija, pa sta njegovi hčerki in sin pripravili posebno slovesnost tako za širšo družino kakor tudi za lepo število Borštnikov priateljev in sodelavcev iz Clevelandja in okolice. Ob tej priliki je prejel mnogo pozdravov in voščil tudi od drugod po svetu od tistih, ki se tega praznovanja njegove 75-letnice niso utegnili osebno udeležiti.

Pavle Borštnikova življenjska pot, kot tisočev drugih, ni šla v smeri začetnih mladostnih upov. Tudi nemu med vojno ni bilo prizanešeno. Znašel se je v italijanskih zaporih v okupirani Ljubljani in le bolezen ga je rešila iz tega težkega okolja.

Kot član Notranjskega četniškega odreda se je proti koncu vojne priključil Jugoslovanski vojski v domovini. V zadnjih dneh vojne se je ta skupina pred premočjo Titovih partizanov umaknila v Furlanijo in tam predala angleškim vojaškim oblastem. Borštnik je nato živel in deloval v begunskih taboriščih, najprej v Italiji in pozneje v Nemčiji. Datum njegovega prihoda v ZDA je zabeležen za 6. novembra 1949. Naselil se je v Clevelandu, v državi Ohio.

Po vojni in v novi deželi je bilo treba začeti znova. Prav v tem pa se je Pavle vedno razlikoval od večine, saj je poleg skrbi za obstanek, za družino, in za novo življenje napravil še veliko več. Ni odstopil, spremenil, ostal je zvest svojim idealom in ciljem in je delal vsa leta prav do danes kot publicist, pesnik, pisatelj in še veliko več. Z besedo, peresom, in dejanji je ponovno potrdil in še potruje, da ima za dosego svojih ciljev jasno in določeno smer, ki ji je in ji bo sledil, upamo, še dolgo po letošnjem jubileju.

Borštnikovo ustvarjalno delo od prvih poskusov še na Klasični gimnaziji in na Trgovski akademiji v Ljubljani pa prav do današnjega dne bi v glavnem razvrstil v dve kategoriji: (1) v literarno delo, in (2) v poglede na sodobna, skoraj izključno slovenska politična in kulturna dogajanja in razvoj. Njegov opus je obširen tako v eni kot drugi kategoriji.

P. Borštnik je neumoren delavec, ki kljub vsem težkočam vojnih in povojnih let trdno in zvest sledi svojim ciljem. Mnografiji, The Orchard (1978), Pozabljena zgodba slovenske nacionalne ilegale (1998), in njegovi številni dopisi v periodičnih publikacijah kot Klic Triglava, Tabor, Ameriška domovina, in Zapiski, so le nekaj primerov Borštnikovega obsežnega, kulturnega, publicističnega in političnega delovanja.

Zelo koristno bi bilo pripraviti in izdati celotno Borštnikovo bibliografijo, da bi tako imeli lažji in pregleden dostop do idej, komentarjev, in mišljenju, kar je vse jasno predstavil v mnogih publikacijah.

Pavle Borštnik se je takom let izkazal tudi kot aktiven in odličen sodelavec pri raznih kulturnih društvih. Pred odhodom v Washington, D.C., kjer je dolga leta deloval pri Glasu Amerike kot napovedovalec, pripravljal intervjuje, in kjer je bil nekaj let direktor slovenskih oddaj, ga najdemo kot igralca pri Združenih igralcih v Clevelandu, pri Pevskem zboru Korotan kot solistu, pri mnogih slovenskih nastopih na radiju ali televiziji in kot sodelavca pri slovenskem radio programu "Pesmi in melodie iz lepe Slovenije".

S svojimi solo nastopi kot baritonist je vedno dokazal, kakšen dober smisel ima za interpretacijo tako pesnikovih verzov in besed kakor skladateljevih glasbenih motivov, izrazov in kompozicijske strukture.

Nikakor ni prezreti tudi njegovega doprinsa in dela v občutljivi vlogi prevajalca, saj je bil vedno klican na pomoč pred nastopi za angleško govorečo publiko, posebno v začetnih letih po drugi svetovni vojni.

Zašluženo priznanje za svoja dela, za delo pri

Gospodarska združenja Slovencev v zamejstvu in po svetu

Članek z zgornjim naslovom je izšel v najnovejši številki Rodne grude (Ljubljana, junij 2000), ki jo izdaja Slovenska izseljenska matica, napisal ga je Tomaž Štefe. Opisana so številna združenja po svetu, vendar sta za naše bralce najbolj aktualni dve, v ZDA in Kanadi. Teksta teh dveh sledita z naslovoma vred, to v slučaju, da bi se kdo, ki ni še z enim ali drugim združenjem povezan, to rad bil. Ur AD

Kanadsko-slovenska gospodarska zbornica

Zbornica je bila ustanovljena leta 1990 in vključuje preko 80 dejavnih članov. Zbornica pomaga slovenskim gospodarstvenikom pri prodoru na kanadski trg in v ta namen organizira različne razstave slovenskih izdelkov, pripravlja sprejeme predstavnikov iz Slovenije, pripravlja pa tudi imenik slovenskih gospodarstvenikov v Kanadi in telefonski imenik vseh Slovencev v Kanadi. Predsednik zbornice je Jože Kastelic.

tel.: 416-255-2085; fax: 416-271-5538

Slovensko-ameriška gospodarska zveza

Je številčno šibkejša od kanadske zbornice, saj vključuje le 27 članov. Med njimi je nekaj kar precej "močnih" podjetnikov, npr. dr. Krafta, ki se ukvarja s čistilnimi pravami in premore celo Institut za tehnologijo voda. Večji podjetniki z območja Clevelandja in Chicaga so še Martina in Ana Hozjan, bratje Zupančič, ki se ukvarjajo s strojogradnjo, podjetje Tomšič, Rudi Kolarč proizvaja dele za letala, Peter Osenar je ustanovitelj več podjetij in investitor. Med mladimi rojaki je veliko sposobnih in uveljavljenih arhitektov in finančnih strokovnjakov. Predsednik zveze je dr. Hilary Rolih.

In prav zaradi nujnosti sovplivanja dveh stališč mora pri pomladna vlada do dnevnega časopisa. V kolikor namreč v javnosti ne bo navzoč še drugi, pomladni pogled, se bo vlada znašla v težavah. Brez dnevnega časopisa, ki bi izhal iz njej sorodne miselnosti, bo njen glas zagotovo pretih ali celo narobe razumljen.

Ko se dnevna svetloba poslavljaj

CLEVELAND, O. – Prijeten sobotni sončni dan 17. junija je v popoldanskem času kmalu privabil ljudi na Slovensko pristavo. Vse od vhoda pa do Spominske kapelice je bilo ob cesti polno zastav. Ob znamenju pa je bil napis: 55. obletnica. Zastave so bile slovenske, ameriške, kanadska in argentinska. Vse to je napravilo vtis obiskovalcu, da se tu pripravlja ta čas nekaj, kar človek ne more pozabiti. Ob kapelici in Beli steni je bila slika generala Leona Rupnika, ob strani pa je stal kip v velikosti domobranca. Na vratih kapelice je bila obešena slika ljubljanskega škofa dr. Gregorija Rožmana. Ves prostor je bil lepo okinčan in tudi cvetlice so dale izraz svoje lepote. V notranjosti pa so bile prižgane lučke v spomin na padle in tiste, ki so se že tu poslovili. Kako čudovito je vse to! Človek gleda v svojo notranjost in začuti močno ukoreninjeno, da se to ne more pozabiti – le odpustiti je možno. Ob velikih kamnih, ki so ob cesti pri kapelici, je bilo pobarvano z belo barvo znamenje križ, postavljene so bile tudi zastavice ameriške in slovenske. Tudi Orlov vrh, kjer je napis, je bil v zastavah.

Prvi, ki so prišli na Slovensko pristavo, so bili iz Toronto, nato pa iz Milwaukeeja. Kako prijetno srečanje je to bilo. Toliko veselih obrazov, razgovorov in prijetnosti, da se človek čudi – to je duša slovenskega človeka tam izpod hribovja Karavank. Tudi tu iz Clevelandja in okolice so prišli ljudje. Posedli so pod iglastimi drevesi pri mizah in bili v razgovoru. Nekateri pa so se podali na drugo stran čez Škrbčev most in občudovali poletno bivališče naših ljudi. Sestali smo se tudi v Lobetovi dvorani na prijateljski razgovor. Kmalu je bila pripravljena večerja – seveda slovenskega izvora: kranjske klobase, zelje, krompir, jabolčni zavitek in kava.

Po večerji pa smo se počasno podali po strmi poti k Spominski kapelici. Kako človek čuti, ko vidi prihajanje ljudi in prižiganje luči v spomin. Ko so vsi prišli in je bilo tisto, nekateri v premisljevanju, drugi v molitvi. Oglasil se je predsednik Blaž Potočnik in rekel: "Zapojmo!" Seveda so vsi pomagali in tudi Mara Kolman je povzdignila glas. Po petju je Blaž Potočnik podal misli na preteklost izpred 55. leti spomina na naše padle, pogled na sedanjost in prihodnost. Omenil je, da se naše vrste krčijo – pridobimo mladino, da bo stopala po naših stopinjah, da ne gre to v pozabo slovenskemu narodu, in v opomin na bodočnost, da ne nasede več takemu zaslepljenju.

Po končanem govoru je predsednik Franjo Mejač molil rožnji venec v ta spomin. Vsi navzoči so molili, v notranjosti pa so bili pri naših padlih v Kočevskem Rogu, Teharjah in drugih skrivnih krajinah širom Slovenije. Po molitvi je bilo petje, kar je dalo še bolj skrivnosten pogled na vse to. Še nekaj časa so se ljudje zadržali pri kapelici, počasno so se pomikali po cesti, kjer je bil ob vznožju kapelice prižgan kres. Toda dračje je bilo mokro in se nikakor ni moglo vneti, pozneje je bil pogled veličasten.

Mnogi so odšli še na veselični prostor in bili v razgovoru. Nočilo se je že in je bilo potreba oditi iz tega kraja, kajti jutri, v nedeljo, se zopet vidimo – takšno je bilo geslo ljudi.

Obnovili smo spomin na naše padle – notranjost naša je bila ta čas z njimi v krajinah, kjer počivajo. Veselili so se, akoravno je bilo tam že tema in je le kak utrinek zvezde osvetil ta kraj.

Pozdrav Ivana Korošca...

Dragi soborci, prijatelji, draga mladina!

Prisrčen pozdrav vsakemu posebej in hvala vsem, da ste prišli, na ta praznik naše ponosne bolečine!

Mi v širnem svetu že desetletja proslavljamo mučenštva in grozne smrti naših pomorjenih junakov. Po zrušenju sramotnega berlinskega zidu, pa se nam vsako leto v večjem številu pridružuje naš narod v domovini in vsako leto je glasnejša zahteva po obsodbi komunistične morije in morilcev!

Ob vsej slovenski tragiki moremo šele prav doumeti, kolikšna je cena slovenske svobode. Naši mrtvi bratje so plačali to ceno na žrtveniku domovine. Ostani smo jim zvesti do konca, kot so bili oni zvesti. In ostani smo tudi SLOVENCI, kjer koli po svetu utripa naše srce, da bomo vredni bratje, sinovi in vnuki junakov ponosne in lepše SLOVENIJE!

Bog z Vami!

Ivan Korošec
predsednik
Tabora Argentina

Ta pozdrav je prebral predsednik Milan Zajec, ko je pozdravil vse navzoče po mašnem opravilu.

Govor inž. Jožeta Rusa ob 55. obletnici spomina na padle domobrance

Slovenska pristava – 18. junij 2000

Prijatelji!

Lepo vas pozdravim ob letošnjem spominskem dnevu. Iz vsega srca se vam zahvalim za povabilo, še prav posebej Tebi, dragi, dobri naš Milan, da morem letos, skupaj z vami doživeti ta praznik, to našo obletnico spomina na pomorjene domobrance, ki jo vi tako zvesto in spoštljivo praznujete leto za letom.

Pridem iz kraja, kjer domuje Kraljica Slovencev, Marija Pomagaj, in kjer počiva, nedaleč od Nje, največji apostol Brezmadežnega Srca Marijinega, prevzv. škof Gregorij Rožman.

Obiskal sem oba, pred prihodom k vam. Prinašam Njune tople pozdrave iz ameriških Brezij in vem, da bosta izprosila v nebesih obilen božji blagoslov današnjemu spominskemu dnevu.

Zdaj je tega že 55 let, odkar se v teh junijskih dneh spominjam vseh, ki so trpeli na slovenski zemlji, pod črnim, rjavim in pod najbolj krutim od vseh, pod rdečim nasiljem.

Se prav posebej pa imamo pred očmi razoroženo, vrnjeno, mučeno in pomorjeno domobransko vojsko.

Rog, Teharje in številna grobišča po vsej slovenski zemlji, kjer so slovenske matere doživljale Veliki petek svojih otrok, so še prav posebej središče naših misli, spominov in molitev.

Rog in Teharje morata postati naši božji poti, kamor bodo romali ljudje in se poglabljali v najbolj nenavadno zgodbo, ki se je dogodila temu narodu in ki ga bo, če jo bo prav razumel, varovala vsega hudega 1000 let.

So ljudje med nami, ki sprašujejo: "Le zakaj to obujanje spomina, ki je danes vse prej kot živ, če že ne pozabljajo pa večkrat hote prezrt?"

Obujamo ta spomin, da bi domobrantska podoba ne ostala samo po kapelah in cerkvah, po pristavah in kulturnih središčih, po dvoranah na vsakoletnih proslavah, ampak, da bi odšla z nami, v tihe naše domače kote in tam ostala in vžigala v nas hrepnenje po svetosti. Zakaj bolj kot učenjaki in umetniki, bolj kot znanstveniki in uspešni

Pavle Borštnik

(nadaljevanje s str. 14)

Glasu Amerike, in za dovršeno spremnost prevajalca iz slovenščine v angleščino in obratno pa je Pavle Borštnik prejel z imenovanjem za posebnega svetovalca in asistenta prvemu ameriškemu ambasadorju v Republiki Sloveniji, Allenu Wendtu.

Ob tem pomembnem jubileju želimo Pavetu Borštniku hitro in popolno okrejanje posledic nesrečnega padca pred dvema mesecema, posebno pa še mnoga ustvarjalna leta v krogu svoje družine in slovenske skupnosti v ZDA.

Metod M. Milač

poslovneži, so nam potrebni svetniki.

Pravijo, da ne moremo govoriti o mučencih brez dokazov in brez uradne, cerkvene razglasitve. To je res. Vendar, priče o trpljenju in smrti naših rojakov, zaradi vere, žive med nami in ne v Rimu. Tudi prvi kristjani so se priporočali svojim mučencem in niso čakali uradnega priznanja. Le kako naj vesoljna Cerkev upošteva slovenske mučence za svoje, če jih mi, slovenski kristjani ne cenimo in se ne zmenimo zanje?

Zato pa domobrancem za spomin, ne samo, da poravnamo dolg hvaležnosti, ko so nam s svojim življenjem odkupili svobodo, ki jo živimo mi in naši otroci in naših otrok otroci, že 55 let – kajti to preveč že vemo, ampak, ker so sveti bili.

Domobrancem za spomin, ne samo, da pogledamo resnici pošteno v obraz, kaj se je v Sloveniji med vojno in po njej v resnici zgodilo – kajti to preveč že vemo, ampak, ker so sveti bili.

Domobrancem za spomin, ne samo, da pretehtamo krivdo in nekrivdo in da povrnemo poštenjakom dobro ime – kajti to preveč že vemo, ampak, ker so sveti bili.

Domobrancem za spomin, ne samo, ker so v najtežjih časih ostali zvesti, jasni in odločni besedi škofa Gregorija in v življenju izpričali in z mučeniško smrtjo potrdili svojo zvestobo Križu in Slovenstvu – kajti to preveč že vemo, ampak, ker so sveti bili.

Domobrancem za spomin, ne samo, za njihovo hrabrost, ko niso poklekali pred nobenim vladarjem, ampak samo pred Kristusom Kraljem in pred Kraljico Slovencev, Marijo Pomagaj – kajti to preveč že vemo, ampak, ker so sveti bili.

Teh junakov se spominjam, junakov, ki spe, kot kralja Matjaža, v goro zakovani bataljon.

Kaj se je v Sloveniji med vojno in po njej v resnici zgodilo? To vprašanje se ponavlja v Sloveniji vedno pogosteje in vedno glasneje. In ko bo končno izgovorjena zadnja beseda in ko bo napisano navsezadnje poslednje poglavje, bo ostala samo preroška beseda škofa Antonia Bonaventure Jegliča in očetovska beseda škofa Gregorija Rožmana.

(dalje na str. 16)

Jože Rus: Govor na Spominski proslavi na Slovenski pristavi

(nadaljevanje s str. 15)

In prerokoval je škof Anton Bonaventura: "Naš čas je velik; velik je naš čas, ker dela mučenike. Toda imeli bomo še večje čase, morda bomo imeli še hujše čase. Satan ima svojo fronto, pa ima tudi Kristus svojo fronto. Za nas veljajo krstne oblube, zvesti bomo ostali pa naj pride karkoli, tudi, če bi morali postati mučenci. Veliki bomo dočakali velike čase."

In potem je udarilo čez nas. Na sam Veliki petek, kot, da vtišnil je v nas svoje rane s križa Kalvarije. Satan je zbiral fronto in rdeč prapor razvijal. Človek je nalomil križ in rdečo zvezdo ukral z neba in s stisnjeno pestjo udaril v obraz Boga. Čez Slovenijo razlila se je kri, odprta žila. Dies irae, dies illa. S hizopom jih pokropi, z vejico roženkavta in rožmarina, z blagoslovljeno vodo večnega spomina.

Oni dan sem srečal sredi slovenskega Chicaga moža; dolgo je, kar ga poznam. Spominjam se, ko je bil vzravnana korenjak; z ralom je odpiral zemlji srce, na pomlad; poleti je zbiral klasje in ga vezal v snope; na jesen je odbiral sadi in dihal z listi, ki so plesali v sivem vetru. In, ko je sneg pobelil polje in log in gmajno in gozd, je zbral okrog sebe svojo družino in je z njo hvalil Boga.

In potem je prišlo hudo. Strelji, ogenj, vojska... žalost, jok... smrt.

Pet sinov je imel. Krepkih in zornih, kot pomladno jutro; nasmejanih, kot poletno sonce; pojočih, kot nebeških pevcev kor. "Kako doma je dobro in lepo, vsi dnevi nosijo klobuk postrani...", je zapel France iz Kamnika.

Še jih vidi, še vedno jih sliši. Vsak dan znova jih sliši, od daleč. Osivela so mu leta, ramena teži devet križev in čez, oči mu zro v nevidno daljo; tako posluša svoje fante. Pojo ... njegovi fantje pojo ... Zdaj je tega že 55 let.

V Vetrinju jih je videl poslednjič. Odhajali so s pesmijo: "Zbogom, oče, jutri, pojutrišnjem se vidimo spet."

Jutri, pojutrišnjem, jih je Kajn odstrelil v kraška brezna in jame...

"Kako rad bi segel v globoko dno, kjer brez besed, so bratje obležali..."

S hipozom jih pokropi, z vejico roženkavta in rožmarina, z blagoslovljeno vodo, večnega spomina.

In spregovoril je škof Gregorij. Prisluhnimo njegovemu glasu, ki je danes bolj živ in bolj resnega premisleka vreden, kot kdaj koli poprej.

"Ukaz imam od Boga: pojdi in uči, kot apostoli. In ne straši se tistih, ki ti grozijo z mučenjem in smrto. Naj pride karkoli, do zadnjega bom opominjal in učil, da je brezboštvo največje zlo in najhujša nesreča za slovenski narod. Slovenci, ne pozabite idealov, zaradih katerih ste zapustili dom in zaradi katerih ste doma odklonili rdečo nevarnost. Če bi te izgubili, bi bila to popolna tragika naša in našega naroda."

In svojim fantom, domobrancem, je spregovoril 1955. leta, ob deseti obletnici Vetrinjske tragedije, tam pred lurško votlino, v Lemontu.

"Palme mučništva so zrasle tudi na naših tleh. Slovenska zemlja je orošena z mučeniško krvjo naših bratov in sestra, ki smo jih poznali, z njimi delali, z njimi v cerkev hodili, z njimi živeli. Zvesti in stanovitni so bili v veri, zato so morali dati svoje življenje, Bogu v slavo, sebi v odrešenje in poveličanje, mnogim v spreobrnjenje, nam vsem pa v svetel vzor in prekrasen zgled mučništva."

Kje ste junaki? Kje je vaš spomin? Kdo je še z vami? Komu ste še pri srču? - Pozabljam, vse preveč in vse prevečkrat. Le malo je danes idealov, zaradi katerih bi bili ljudje pripravljeni žrtvovati življenje, ali vsaj utrpeti majhno žrtvico. Naše boje bojujemo le z napol izvlečenimi meči in naše bitke bijemo le z eno pestjo. Zaradi naše brezbriznosti do resnice, smo izgubili gorečnost za resnico.

V svoji pesnitvi "Indifference", po naši bi rekli "Ravnodušnost" ali "Brezbriznost", je angleški pesnik G. Studdert Kennedy prikazal nasprotje med Jezusovim prihodom na Golgoto in med Njegovim prihodom dandanes, v moderno mesto Birmingham. Tole je, kar je napisal:

*Ko Jezus je prišel na Golgoto,
so rdeče in globoke rane
Mu zadali;
z bodečim trnjem Glavo
Mu ovili,
na dva tramova, so Kri-stua pribili.*

*Ko Jezus je prišel v Birmingham,
so Ga prezrli, ko šel je
mimo, skrivili niso Mu lasu na
glavi,*

*le naj umrje sam, mi
bomo roke si oprali.*

*Ljudje bolj nežni so postali,
oko krvi več ne prenese,
po ulici navzdol so Ga
pognali,
v ledem vetrju Bog sam
se trese.*

*Tako na dežju, ves premočen do kosti,
in, ko za brezčutno množico ni več glasu in ne sledi,
Jezus, na zid naslonjen, zavzdihne po Kalvariji...*

Jezus lažje prenese sovrašto in nasilje in muke in križanje na Kalvariji, kot današnjo brezčutno brezbriznost. Ali naj se čudimo, če bi domobranci danes obiskali Slovence doma ali pa nas Slovence, ki živimo po svetu in bi z Jezusom zavzdihnili po Rogu in po Teharjah?

Danes je čas, da se vzravnamo. Kot se je uresničila beseda pesnikova, ko nam je zaklical: "Nekoč bo lepo, nekoč bodo zagorele svečke, od Triglava do Kolpe, pa od Trsta gor do Šentilja. Doma že gorijo svečke po kočevskih gozdovih in po teharskih dobravah. Tako bo tudi slovenski katoliški upor zoper satanovo fronto zablestel v veliki svetlobi.

To bo takrat, ko se bodo ljudje, domači in tuji, zavedali, da smo se uprli brezbožnemu nasilju in to v času, ko je svet, domači in tuj, skupaj z zahodnimi

Ob spominih na Orlov vrh

WAUKEGAN, Ill. - Veliko se je spremenilo, odkar smo prvič poromali na Orlov vrh k spominski maši za domobrance in vse žrtve komunistične revolucije.

Smreke in borovci, ki so bili posajeni pred 50 leti, so zdaj mogočna drevesa. Postavljen je bil slavolok z napisom "Bog, narod, domovina", visok križ z napisom "Ki si za nas križan bil", in dodana je bila bela stena z imeni morišč.

Kapela je v tem času dobila novo sliko Brezjanske Marije in je bila na novo obvarovana pred dežjem in vetrovi. Znamenje na oviniku s sliko sv. Cirila in Metoda - kot doma: "na polju znamenje stoji"... In končno še domobranec v naravnvi velikosti. Med drevojem in cvetjem nešteto slovenskih zastav in zastavic, ob cesti pa 12 skal s križi - za 12 tisoč pomorjenih.

Kaj se je še spremenilo? Čas zahteva svoje in naše vrste se krčijo, in kako hitro! Nič več ni povorce iz mesta - 80, 50, 30 avtomobilov s slovenskimi zastavami. Nič več dolge vrste preživelih domobrancev, ne številnih narodnih noš, ki so ob domobranci godbi prikorakali pred kapelico.

Vendar nas je še vedno veliko, ki s spoštovanjem in globoko vero prihajamo leto za letom na "očetovski dan", da se poklonimo spominu naših pobitih domobrancev, ki so bili mučeni in so umrli za Boga, narod in domovino.

zavezniki, poklekal pred komunizmom.

To bo čas, ko si bomo iskreno segli v roke in spoštljivo pokopali naše rajne.

To bo čas, ko bo slovenski narod stopil na veliko cesto, v demokratično in krščansko prihodnost, ko se bodo ljudje živo zavedali, da so fantje in možje, dekleta in matere, skupaj s svojimi duhovniki in redovniki, ki se jih danes spominjamo, za to prihodnost, trpeli in umirali že pred 55 leti.

Bratje, mučenci! Vaša čast je šla čez smrt. Zato nam je misel topla v ta pomladni, junijski dan. Kako srečno in veselo je moral biti srečanje z vašim Stvarnikom. Namesto ostarelih in utrujenih teles, ki

(dalje na str. 20)

Tudi letos nas je bilo kar precej. Že v soboto zvečer smo pričeli svečke v kapelici, zmolili rožni venc, zapeli angelovo češčenje in seveda Oče, mati. Zagorel je tudi kres, vendar ne tako mogočno kot ponavadi - bilo je le preveč dežja.

Glavno slavje pa je bilo v nedeljo. Na žalost je bilo to drugič, odkar obhajamo ta spominski dan, da zaradi dežja ni bilo maše pri kapelici. Nekdo je rekel: "To so solze mater in deklet za našimi mučenci."

Velika dvorana je bila kar hitro spremenjena v okrašeno cerkev. G. župnik Kosem, ki je kot otrok tudi okusil Vetrinje, se je v pridigi spomnil vseh naših padlih, ki so dali svoje življenje, ker so odklanjali komunizem. Isto je povedal tudi mladim v angleščini, naj nikoli ne pozabijo, da so Slovenci, naj ostanejo dobrji kristjani in se priporočajo našim mučencem in Sv. Trojici, ki je sama ljubezen.

V prošnjah smo molili za škofa Rožmana, za generala Rupnika, pobite domobrance in dr. Meršola, ki je rešil civilne begunce. Spomnili smo se tudi vseh pokojnih članov Tabora in pa naše domovine Slovenije. Mašo je spremljalo ljudsko petje.

Po maši je Milan Zajec pozdravil vse navzoče in se zahvalil tistim, ki so omogočili to proslavo. Nato je predstavil glavnega govornika ing. Jožeta Rusa iz Chicaga. Govornik je zbral lepe in globoke misli prav na ta dan in jih res občuteno podal v veliko zadovoljstvo in odobravanje vseh. Govor je objavljen v celoti v tej številki AD.

Po ksilu je posijalo sonce in razvilo se je prav veselo srečanje med prijatelji in znanci.

Bog, narod, domovina!

KANADSKA DOMOVINA

"naš pogovor"

DRUŽINA, Ljubljana

"Še vedno sem del tega naroda"

Prijetno mehka govorica ga "izdaja", da prihaja iz Bele krajine, odličnost v vedenju priča, da nosi v sebi pristno svetovljanstvo, natančnost v dogovarjanju razodeva, da prihaja iz poslovnega sveta, izbranost besed pa daje slutiti, da ima v sebi nekaj diplomatskega. In vse to je v resnici – JOŽE SLOBODNIK, Slovenec v Kanadi (rojen leta 1940 v Bojanji vasi v Beli krajini), uspešen podjetnik (danes zaposluje 120 delavcev), častni konzul Republike Slovenije v Torontu, družinski oče, pobudnik in dobrotnik številnih dejavnosti kanadskih Slovencev ...

Letos bo minilo 40 let od vašega prihoda v Kanado, Kaj vas je iz rodne Slovenije pripeljalo v Severno Ameriko in po kakšni poti ste prišli prav v Kanado?

V šestdesetih letih so Slovenci na veliko odhajali v tujino, predvsem iz ekonomskih razlogov. Tudi meni je potegnilo v svet. Tako sem kot večina drugih ilegalno prekoračil mejo in junija 1960 pristal v avstrijskem begunkem taborišču. Tam sem ostal šest mesecev, dokler nisem dobil dokumentov za odhod v Kanado. Za to državo sem se odločil, ker sem imel tam starega očeta in starejšega brata. Z ladjo sem prišel do Kanade.

Začetek na tujih tleh ni bil lahek, saj sem še teže dobil prvo zaposlitev kot v Sloveniji, poleg tega je bilo treba premagati še veliko drugih ovir. Opravljal sem različna dela, dokler nisem dobil zaposlitve v poklicu, ki sem se ga v domovini izučil, obenem pa sem se privajal novemu okolju in jeziku.

Že dalj časa imate tesne stike s Slovenijo in tudi sicer vas zaznamuje velika zavzetost za slovenstvo. Zgolj zaradi nostalgičnih spominov na mladostna leta v Beli krajini ...?

Bolj kot nostalgični spomihi na mladostna leta v Beli krajini je na mojo navezanost na domovino vplivala razdvojenost naše družine. Od devetih otrok smo štirje odšli v Kanado, sestri sta odšli ena v Nemčijo, druga v Švico. Starši in trije bratje pa so ostali v domovini.

To je eden od poglavitih razlogov navezanosti na domovino. Zavzetost za slovenstvo pa izvira iz potrebe in želje, da bi ustvarili slovensko skupnost, v kateri bi naši izseljenci laže premagovali asimilacijo, ki ogroža naš narodni obstoј v tujini, ohranjali slovenske narodne vrednote in jih prenašali na mlajše robove.

Medsebojna pomoč je ena teh vrednot, ki me motivira, da poskušam vzpostavljati in ohranjevati stike s Slovenijo tudi na drugih ravneh, ne samo na osebni.

Ko se razmeroma pogosto vračate v Slovenijo – ali se v njej čutite tujca ali domaćina?

Človek, ki štirideset let živi v tujini, se v domovini ne more več počutiti domaćina. Življenje v domovini se spreminja, in čeprav dokaj vestno spremjam dogajanja na kulturnem, političnem in gospodarskem področju, na to gledam bolj kot opazovalec, iz zunega kota, ki mi ga je izoblikovalo življenje v tujini.

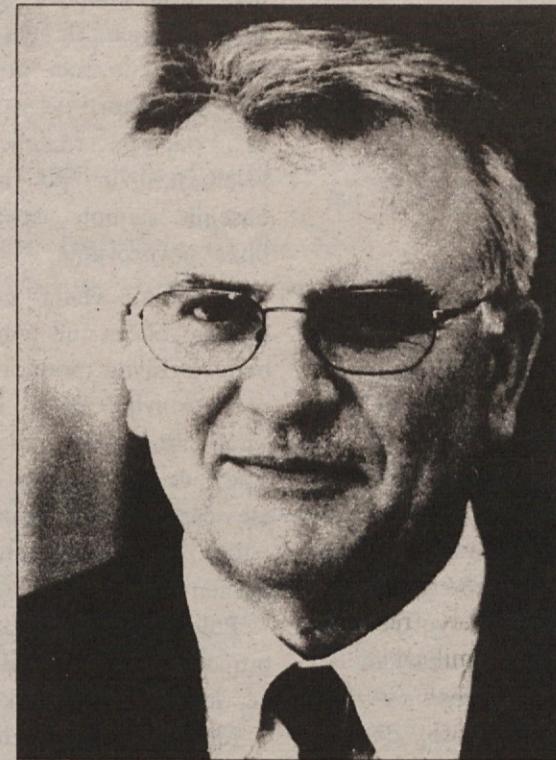

Ob svojih obiskih v Sloveniji sem navezel mnogo novih osebnih in poslovnih prijateljstev. V moji rojstni vasi, na primer, prevladujejo mlajši ljudje, ki jih ne poznam. Ne poznam utripa njihovega vsakdanjega življenja.

Po drugi strani pa se tudi tujca ne počutim: poznam slovenske kraje in ljudi, njihove običaje in navade, njihove vrednote in aspiracije. V Sloveniji so moje korenine, zato se počutim Slovenca in to tudi resno vzamem. Še vedno sem del tega naroda, čeprav živim v tujini.

V Kanadi si prizadevam, da se slovenstvo obdrži. Izseljenci smo posebna vrst ljudi, razpeti med dva sveta. Tudi na Kanado sem navezan. Tam sem pognal korenine, si ustvaril dom in družino. Ni rečeno, da dober Slovenec ne more biti tudi dober Kanadčan. Kot kanadski Slovenec lahko naredim nekaj koristnega tako za Slovenijo kot za Kanado.

Verjetno ste spremljali dogajanje v slovenskem državnem zboru ob imenovanju dr. Andreja Bajuka za mandatarja nove vlade. Nanj je pogosto letel očitek o tujstvu, zaradi česar naj bi bil neprimeren za opravljanje visokega političnega položaja v Sloveniji.

Po ustavi ima vsak slovenski državljan pravico kandidirati in biti izvoljen, tudi na visok politični po-ložaj. Koliko je to modro in koristno, naj razsojajo tisti, ki ga na ta položaj izvolijo, pa tudi prihodnost bo pokazala.

Za opravljanje tako odgovorne dolžnosti je poleg političnih sposobnosti pomembno še veliko drugih stvari, od tega, kako osebo v domovini in tujini sprejmejo, do temeljnega poznanja ljudi, ki jih zastopa, in države, ki jo predstavlja.

Človek na takem položaju mora imeti mrežo ljudi, na katere se bo opri. Vsekakor bi moral biti dialog na višji ravni, bolj strpen in brez žaljivk na račun dr. Bajuka.

Možnosti, kako lahko domovina najbolj koristno uporablja sposobne rojake po svetu, je veliko, ne samo v politiki, temveč tudi na drugih področjih. Majhen narod, kot je slovenski, bi moral uporabiti vse strokovnjake, ki so mu pravljeni pomagati, tudi iz izseljenskih vrst.

Kaj pravi statistika o navzočnosti Slovencev v Kanadi?

Kanadska statistika temelji na osnovi popisa prebivalstva, ki se izvaja vsaka štiri leta. Do zadnjega popisa prebivalstva Kanada ni imela primernega vprašanja, s katerim bi zajela narodnostno poreklo svojih prebivalcev.

Po razpadu komunističnih držav pa je vlada v vpraševalnik cenzusa uvedla vprašanje, ki se je nanašalo na jezik prednikov. V tem primeru so se vsi tisti, ki se zavedajo svojih slovenskih korenin, lahko prišeli za Slovence, v primeru mesnih zakonov pa obenem tudi za Italijane, Francoze itd.

Tako je uradno število Slovencev od leta 1992 do 1996 naraslo od 7.000 na okoli 27.000. To pa še ne pomeni, da so sem všetci Slovenci vseh generacij. Po neuradnih ocenah naj bi bilo v Kanadi 60 do 70 tisoč oseb slovenskega porekla. Navzočnost Slovencev pa se ne kaže samo v številkah, ampak tudi v njihovi dejavnosti. Naši ljudje so poznani kot pridni in delovni.

Ste častni konzul Republike Slovenije v Torontu. Kakšne so vaše naloge in pristojnosti?

Moja naloga je razvijati vsestransko vzajemno sodelovanje med Slovenijo in Kanado, posebno na vseh tistih področjih, kjer obstajajo interesi v obeh državah. Sprejemam obiske iz Slovenije, bodisi uradne ali zasebne. Poslujem v konzularnih prostorih v Torontu, ki je gospodarski in kulturni center Kanade in kjer živi največja slovenska skupnost.

Konzularna pisarna, kjer je večji prostor za sprejeme, katerih se pogosto udeležuje tudi slovenski veleposlanik- dr. Božo Cerar, povečuje navzočnost slovenske diplomacije v Kanadi.

Kot častni konzul opravljam tudi nekatere konzularne dejavnosti ter si prizadevam za povečano gospodarsko in kulturno sodelovanje med Kanado in Slovenijo. Ena od nalog

41. SLOVENSKI DAN – DAN SLOVENSKE MLADINE

TORONTO, Kanada – Ta dan se bo vršil v nedeljo, 9. julija, na Slovenskem letovišču pri Boltonu.

Ob 11. uri dopoldne bo torontski kardinal Alojzij Ambrožič daroval sv. mašo.

Po maši bo v Baragovem domu kosilo.

Ob 2. uri popoldne bo kulturni program. Glavni govornik bo č.g. Pavle Novak, lazarist, ravnatelj dijaškega doma na Taboru (Ljubljana):

Ohranjanje slovenske zavesti med mladino

častnega konzula je pospeševanje veče povezanosti med posameznimi slovenskimi skupinami v Kanadi, posebno pospeševati preraščanje razdeljnosti med nam.

Bližajo se državnozborske volitve v Sloveniji in verjetno se bo spet zastavilo vprašanje uresničevanja volilne pravice slovenskih državljanov po svetu. Ali je to področje trenutno ustrezno urejeno?

Področje glede volilne pravice ni urejeno tako, da bi izseljencem ustrezalo. Vsak slovenski državljan v tujini mora zaprositi v domačo volilno enoto, da ga uvrstijo na volilno listo, to pa se ne more urediti, preden so volitve razpisane.

V kratkem volilnem času se vse to po pošti marsikdaj ne da urediti in nazadnje so izseljenci razočarani, ker ne dobijo volilne pole pravočasno. Druge narodnosti, npr. Hrvati, mislim, da dobijo volilne liste vsaj štiri do šest tednov pred volitvami.

Kako sicer presojate sedanjost skrb slovenske države za rojake po svetu?

Poročila o gostovanjih raznih pevskih zborov in glasbenih skupin med izseljeniki dajejo rojakom v domovini napačen vtis, da naši ljudje po svetu potrebujejo zgolj to, v zameno pa izseljeni pevski zbori in folklorne skupine obiskujejo domovino.

Taki obiski nedvomno pospešujejo medsebojno prijateljstvo in sodelovanje, potrebna pa bi bila predvsem večja koordinacija takih gostovanj. Veseli me, da je Slovenija zadnje čase bolj pripravljena prisluhniti željam in potrebam izseljencev.

Upam, da bo tak skupni dialog izoblikoval način in program, ki bo za izseljence najbolj koristen. Pri tem je seveda treba upoštevati izseljenske razmere v posameznih državah, ki jih sami najbolj poznajo.

Muslim, da bi bila potrebna večja podpora izseljenškim medijem, ki so zadnje čase, ko Slovenci po svetu niso več zaprti v svoj "ge-to", pač pa razseljeni po velemestih in po manjših naseljih, najbolj uspešna oblika povezovanja.

Kanadska vlada za izseljenska občila ne daje nobene državne podpore, ker predpostavlja, da se morajo sama financirati z oglasi. Toda če st radijska oddaja ali časopis prenarepna z oglasi, zmanjka prostora za pomembnejše stvari.

Poleg tega je težko dobiti sponzorje in oglaševalce, kajti slovenska skupnost v tujini se mora sama vzdrževati in navadno je nekaj bolj podjetnih in radoarnih posameznikov, na katere se vsi obračajo s prošnjami za finančno podporo.

Z državno sekretarko in voditeljico urada za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu Mihaelo Logar sem se pogovarjal tudi glede ureditve izseljenskega arhiva. Pozdravil sem seminar, ki so ga lani organizirali za osebe, ki se v društvenih ukvarjajo z arhivi. Tudi na tem področju nas čas prehitela, in če ne bomo hitro ukrepali, se bo veliko pomembnega arhivskega gradiva izgubilo.

Pomoč potrebujejo tudi slovenske šole, katerih vloga med izseljeniki je neprecenljiva. Zelo pomembni se mi zdijo seminarji, ki jih letno organizirajo za izseljenske učitelje. Enako potrebbe večja podpora izseljenškim medijem, ki so zadnje čase, ko Slovenci po svetu niso več zaprti v svoj "ge-to", pač pa razseljeni po velemestih in po manjših naseljih, najbolj uspešna oblika povezovanja.

Največjo pomanjkljivost vidim v tem, da pri delu z izseljenci ni prave koordinacije med tistimi, ki se ukvarjajo s stiki z izseljeniki. Rešitev za to bi bila pisarna v Sloveniji, ki bi zbirala in dajala informacije.

V tujini, vsaj za Kanado lahko rečem, že imamo tak koordinacijski odbor, ki poskuša usklajevati prireditve različnih slovenskih društev. Pogosto pa se zgodi, da v take načrte posežejo nepričakovani obiski skupin iz domovine, ki pridejo v tej ali oni organizaciji in pričakujejo od izseljencev, da jih primerno sprejmejo.

Obisk parlamentarne komisije za Slovence v zamejstvu in po svetu je veliko pripomogel k oblikovanju odnosov Slovenije do izseljencev in na tej osnovi je treba graditi naprej. To sem povedal tudi ob svojem obisku v državnem zboru, kjer sem se srečal s to komisijo, ki ji predseduje poslanec Marjan Schifferer.

Čez nekaj dni bo minilo devet let od osmosvojitve Slovenije. V takratno dogajanje ste dejavno posegli z zbiranjem pomoći, organizacijo protestnih zborovanj

... Kakšen je današnji pogled na tiste burne dni?

Iz obdobja osamosvajanja Slovenije v letu 1991 mi je najbolj ostalo v spominu, kako enotno smo Slovenci tisti čas nastopili in kako zavzeto smo si prizadevali za priznanje Slovenije. Ko je bila domovina ogrožena, smo pozabili na medsebojne ideološke razlike in vsak je po svojih močeh pomagal.

V Torontu smo takrat ustanovili koordinacijski odbor, ki nas še danes povezuje. Med pomembnejšimi akcijami bi omenil tri protestne shode pred mestno hišo v Torontu in pred ontariskim parlamentom. Poleg tega je slovenska skupnost zbrala več kot 500.000 dolarjev. Pa Slovenski dan smo skupaj pripravili, kar nam ni uspelo nikoli prej, pa tudi pozneje ne.

Objava tega pogovora se umešča v čas, ki ga zaznamuje spravna slovesnost v Kočevskem rogu. Kakšen je vaš pogled na spravo v slovenskem narodu?

Kot številne druge družine smo doživljali med drugo svetovno vojno in po nej težke čase. Moj oče je bil v nemškem zaporu, stric Jože, ki je bil pri domobranilih, je bil ubit.

Menim, da je sprava za slovenski narod zelo pomembna in potrebna. Po mojem mnenju bi bili potrebni dodatni konkretni koraki, da se doseže. Razdori so globoki in slabo vplivajo na državo. Treba bi bilo nekaj narediti, da bi te razburkane duhove pomirili.

Pri ljudeh na obeh straneh primanjkuje strpnosti. Ljudem, ki so bili zaničevani, je treba vrniti dostojanstvo. Stvari so se zgodile, niso bile prijetne, a so se zgodile. Resnično spravo lahko prinese samo priznanje krivic s strani onih, ki so krivice povzročili, in resnično odpuščanje s strani tistih, ki so jim bile krivice storjene.

Sprava lahko pride le iz ljubezni, iz sovraštva pa raste še veče sovraštvo. Če je srce polno sovraštva, ni prostora za ljubezen.

Pred več kot tremi desetletji ste ustanovili podjetje, ki danes slovi po uspenosti. Včasih se zdi, da je v poslovnom svetu težko biti kristjan – konkurenčnost na trgu in solidarnostno čutenje se namreč za mnoge izključujeta. Kaj pa pravijo vaše izkušnje – ali sta uspešen podjetnik in dober kristjan res nezdružljiva pojma?

Moje podjetje Top Grade Molds ni zraslo čez noč. Začel sem sam v najetih prostorih in postopoma širil dejavnost, tako da danes zaposlujemo okoli 120 delavcev. Izdelujemo kalupe za produkcijo raznih plastičnih izdelkov, ki jih izvajamo po vsem svetu.

Tržna ekonomija podjetnika sili, da širi in povečuje svojo dejavnost – da zaposluje več delavcev, da lahko prevzame večja dela, da dokupuje večje in boljše stroje, da lahko več proizvaja, da reinvestira svoj zaslužek v povečanje proizvodnje ...

Za kruti kapitalizem, ozigosan s stigmo "izkorisčanje človeka po človeku", v

Intervju: Častni konzul Republike Slovenije v Torontu Jože Slobodnik

(nadaljevanje s str. 18)

civiliziranem svetu ni prostora, saj delavske pravice ščiti država, ponekod pa še sindikat. Če je podjetnik pošten in pravičen, ne čuti nasprotja med konkurenčnostjo in krščanskimi vrednotami. Krščanske vrednote predstavljajo univerzalno etiko, ki ima svoje mesto tudi v poslovnom svetu.

Uspešen podjetnik je odvisen od svojih delavcev na eni strani in od strank na drugi. Samo s korektnim odnosom in pravičnim plačilom lahko računa na njihovo lojalnost in dobro ter hitro opravljeno delo, to pa mu omogoča konkurenčnost.

Po drugi strani krščanske vrednote podjetnika vzbujajo pri strankah zaupanje in pospešujejo poslovne odnose.

Večja uspešnost krščanskemu podjetniku nalaga tudi večjo odgovornost za skupnost. Ko širi svoje podjetje, zaposluje več delavcev, ki bi morda sicer životarili od nizke državne podpore. Na podjetnika se obračajo tudi razne dobrodelne in neprofitne organizacije in krščanska vest mu narekuje, da pomaga soražmerno s svojimi zmožnostmi. Iz svoje izkušnje opazam, da v Torontu vedno isti podjetniki podpirajo slovensko skupnost.

V Kanadi živila še dva vaša brata, eden od njiju - Franc - je duhovnik v Hamiltonu. Že zaradi osebnih povezav vam torej lahko zastavim naslednje vprašanje: kakšno vlogo v življenju Slovencev po svetu ima pastoralna skrb Cerkve na Slovenskem?

Poleg brata Ivana, ki živi v Wellandu, in Francija, ki je župnik pri Sv. Gregoriju Velikemu v Hamiltonu, imam še brat Stanka, ki živi v ZDA. Vera je bila za našo družino, kakor tudi za družine drugih izseljencev, zelo pomembna. Lahko bi rekel, da je vera tako vtakna v slovensko narodno dušo, da je ne moremo razločevati od slovenske kulture, zato je tudi razumljivo, da je Cerkev glavna nosilka in pospeševalka slovenske kulture, ker predstavlja konstanto, okoli katere se gradi, oblikuje in ohraňuje slovenska skupnost.

Pastoralna oskrba v domačem jeziku pomeni za slovenske katoličane vez s starim načinom življenja, kar preprečuje kulturni šok ter zagotavlja izseljencem psihološko varnost. Cerkev na kulturnem področju organizira slovenske šole, pevske zbole in razne druge kulturne skupine.

Ste oče treh otrok. Kakšen je njihov odnos do Slovenije?

Z ženo Darjo, ki je rojena v Ribnici, sva ponosna na tri otroke (Stephanie, Jožko in Mateja), ki so sedaj že vsi odrasli in so zaposleni v našem družinskem podjetju. Zavedajo se, da je Slovenija dežela njihovih prednikov, dežela, kjer živijo njihovi sorodniki, in to jih na poseben način povezuje s Slovenijo. Vsi trije so obiskovali slovensko šolo in obvladajo slovenski jezik, ki ga s pridom uporabljajo ob svojih obiskih v Sloveniji in v pogovoru s sorodniki.

Slovenski državni vrh sprejel koroške Slovence

- Zastopniki NSKS (Narodni svet koroških Slovencev), ZSO (Zveza slovenskih organizacij) in EL (Enotna lista) bili pri predsedniku slovenske države Kučanu, predsedniku slovenske vlade dr. Bajuku in pri zunanjem ministru Peterletetu.
- Ves slovenskih državnih vrh je dal jasno razumeti, da je zanj delovanje Koordinacijskega odbora koroških Slovencev (KOKS) odločilnega pomena.
- Predsednik vlade dr. Bajuk je poudaril, da ga zamejski Slovenci še posebej zanimajo in da ima Slovenija moralno dolžnost, da jih tudi podpira.

Resnično je bil to "zgodovinski dogodek", kot je to poudaril predsednik NSKS Bernard Sadovnik. Na binkoštni ponedeljek je ves slovenski državni vrh sprejel v okviru nastopnega obiska novega predsednika NSKS obe osrednji politični organizaciji koroške slovenske narodne skupnosti v Avstriji.

Poleg predsednika Sadovnika je NSKS zastopal še 2. podpredsednik mag. Stefan Lesjak, v delegaciji pa je bil tudi predsednik EL Andrej Wakounig. S tem se je nazorno podkrepila vloga Enotne liste, ki je izvoljena v gremije, v katere obe osrednji organizaciji nista neposredno vključeni. ZSO sta zastopala predsednik nadzornega odbora dr. Valentin Sima in tajnik dr. Mirko Wakounig.

Medtem ko je bil obisk pri državnem predsedniku Kučanu že nekaj časa fiksiran, je do srečanja s predsednikom slovenske vlade dr. Bajukom prišlo kratkočrno. Dejansko so se zanj domenili v petek pred binkoštimi, ko sta bila predsednik NSKS Sadovnik in član predsedstva mag. Filip Warasch na nastopnem obisku pri zunanjem ministru Peterletetu.

S tem, da je novi predsednik slovenske vlade tako hitro sprejel zastopnike koroških Slovencev, je dal jasno razumeti, da so mu zamejski Slovenci zelo prisli.

Poudaril je, da Slovenija nima samo ustavne dolžnosti, temveč tudi moralno, da podpira zamejske Slovence. Usklajeno nastopanje manjšinskih organizacij oz. KOKS je zanj ključnega pomena:

"Razdvojenost v osnovnih vprašanjih slovenstva je stara slovenska bolezen. Če je ne bomo premagali, nas bo v globaliziranem svetu odpovedal veter." Tako predsednik slovenske vlade, ki je hkrati poudaril: "Gre za narodni obstoj v prihodnjih desetletjih. To, s čimer ste bili zamejski soočeni v preteklosti, bo morala Slovenija dati šele skoz."

Dr. Bajuk pa ni samo politik z izostenim čutom za vprašanja slovenskega naravnega interesa. Veliko afiniteto kaže tudi do gospodarstva, kar je bilo dobro opaziti, ko ste ga na pomen gospodarske krepitev dvojezičnega ozemlja opozorila tako Bernárd Sadovnik kakor Andrej Wakounig.

Seveda pa je bila v ospredju pogovora trenutna razprava o dvojezičnem šolstvu ter vprašanje državne pogodbe in novelizacije zakona o narodnih skupnostih. Predsednik NSKS je pozval Slovenijo, da aktivno podpira prizadevanja narodne skupnosti.

Sadovnik, Sima in Andrej Wakounig so poudarili, da sta osrednji organizaciji nastopali v teh vprašanjih doslej usklajeno in da je to nujno potrebno tudi v prihodnje. Tako Kučan kakor Bajuk in Peterle pa so dali razumeti, da hočejo "narodni skupnosti krepiti hrbitenico" (Sadovnik).

rogu. Mašo je daroval nadškof in metropolit dr. Franc Rode, na akademiji po njej pa je govoril prof. Justin Stanovnik.

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

1336. Iz Libanona se je oglasila misjonarka

s. Milena Zadravec in piše: "Frank Staniša: s svojim velikodušnim srcem in dobrodelnostjo, gotovo uživaš objem nebeškega Očeta, ki ti je stotisočkrat povrnil vse, kar si dajal v Očetovo 'banko usmislenja'."

Moje presenečenje je bilo veliko in radost, da še obstajajo ljudje, ki imajo božji sijaj ljubezni, me je takoj napotila v cerkev, kjer sem takoj za tega dobrotnika zmolila rožni venec in še s sestrami druge molitve. Gotovo bom tudi darovala za kako sv. mašo. Ne najdem takih besed, s katerimi bi se primerno zahvalila vam, predragi sodelavci, v Misijonski znamkarski akciji, in predvsem pokojnemu Franku. Zahvalno pesem so mu jo že itak prepevali v nebesih ob prihodu. Moja skromna molitev in daritev pa tudi naj mu pomaga, pa ne samo njemu, ampak vsej njegovi družini in vsem vam. Kako bom uporabila to darilo, vam bom še objavila. Dosti je potreb, zato ne vem za sedaj, katera ima prednost.

Za danes kar na kratko sporočilo, da sem prejela vaš denar in obljubljam molitve za gospoda Franka in vse vas.

Smo na koncu šolskega leta, zato malo utrujeni in malo okuženi z nekim virusom, ki se širi predvsem po sadju in v vodi. Tudi vlažna vročinā ima slabe posledice na nežnih pljučih. Veliko otrok kar onemaguje od to reakcijo.

Stvari na jugu se zavijajo in razvijajo; kak bo zaključek ne vemo, predvsem sedaj, ko bo začel z vlado mladi Bacha al-Assad, sirijski predsednik, dobro usmerjen, ampak v bližnji prihodnosti se bo videlo, če bo lahko uresničil svoje sanje. Bog mu naj pomaga in tudi nam.

Prisrčne pozdrave in doživete praznike za Sv. Trojico, Srce Jezusovo in Marijino... Tukaj so ljudje zelo pobožni do vsega, kar je nebeškega. Hvala.

Vaša misjonarka sr. Milena Zadravec."

Še vi, ki berete te vrstice, se veselite z menoj, ko je to pismo tako polno zahvale. Naj pokojni Frank Staniša uživa pri Bogu svoje plačilo!

Drugo nedeljo, 9. julija, po piknik Misijonske znamkarske akcije na Slovenski pristavi. Piknik se bo pričel s sv. mašo opoldne, katero bo daroval g. Franci Urbanija, ki pride ta teden v naše mesto k stricu na počitnice iz Argentine. G. Krajnik pa sem bo pridružil malo kasneje.

Po sv. maši bo na razpolago kosilo, druge jestvine pa malo kasneje. Popoldan boste lahko preživeli v smrekovi senci med znanci in prijatelji ali pa se boste podali v hladni bazen.

Okrog pete ure bodo litanije Matere božje pri kapeli, kar ste tudi povabljeni, da se jih udeležite.

Tudi to leto je Jarmova Štefka nakvačkala prav lep afghan, katerega bo možno dobiti. Ves dohodek tega lepega ročnega dela bo v pomoč misijonarju g. Petru Opeka, ki se zelo trudi, da pomaga ljudem v stiski. Tudi vsak dolar dodan k tej vsoti bo oddan misijonarju.

Spomnimo se, da vse, kar imamo, je božji dar. Če kaj darujemo, je to malo zahvale Bogu, ki nas vse zelo ljudi in nam želi le dobro. Zato ne zamudite prilike, ko lahko rečemo hvala in na svidenje na pikniku v nedeljo, 9. julija na Slovenski pristavi.

Pogledal je na vaše prebite in z žico v živo zarezane roke; ozrl se je na vaše ranjene in od dolgega križevega puta okrvavljeni noge; svoj pogled je uprl v vašo prestreljeno, odprtoto srčno stran, pripravljeno, da sprejme Njegovo božje Srce.

Kako srečni ste, bratje, ko ste prestali trpljenje, vsaj v malem podobno Njegovemu trpljenju na križu. Spoznal vas je po vaših rahnah in vas sprejel v svoje kraljestvo.

Trdno zaupamo v vašo mogočno priprošnjo pri Bogu, saj ste na robu brezna, svojim molitvam in vzklikom Jezusu in Mariji Pomagaj, dodali svoja življinja.

Prosite za nas v nebesih, da bomo tako živeli, da bodo ljudje ob nas začutili, da se mi z vami večkrat pogovarjamo. Prosite za nas, da ne bomo nikdar dopustili, da bi potihnil besede, ki ste jih izgovarjali v življenju in ob smrti:

Zemlja domača, ti zemlja predraga!

Marija Pomagaj, Kraljica mučencev!
Kristus Kralj!
