

LABOR DAY

Praznik dela, praznik naših skrbi, naših trudov in ptnih srag za vsakdanji kruh! Ognji pod kotli ta dan ne gore, v delavnicah je slovesen mir, delovna Amerika praznuje. Praznujemo v veseli zahvali, da imamo delo, da Amerika spoštuje vsako pošteno delo. V skrivnost in blagodat dela v miru in delu v svobodi se zatopimo in sklenimo, da bomo vedno delavci za srečo naših družin, za napredek Amerike, za njeno veličino in povečanje slovenskega imena v njej. Praznujmo v prošnji, da bi se med nami rodilo vedno dovolj velikih umov, ki bodo znali iz naravnega bogastva Amerike ustvarjati nove prilikoosti dela za vedno večje blagostanje našega in novih rodov delovnih množic. Ameriška Domovina je glasilo delovnega ljudstva... Praznik dela je naš praznik. Bog daj vso srečo!

KONVENCIJA ZSZ JE IZVOLILA TA GL. ODBOR

Cleveland, O. — Konvencija ZSZ se je završila v lepem redu v sredo in delegacija je izvolila sledeči odbor:

Gl. predsednik George J. Miroslovich, prvi gl. podpredsednik Mike Popovich, druga gl. podpredsednica Mary Kogovšek, gl. tajnik Anthony Jeršin, gl. blagajnik Michael P. Horvat, preds. nadzornega odbora: Thos. J. Morrissey, Joseph Blatnik in Frank Tomšič, odbornika; porotni odbor: Martin Pecharich, Joseph Oblak, Frank Likar, Mary Lesar, Antonija Tomle.

Predsednik apelira na delavstvo in podjetja

Washington. — Predsednik Truman je apeliral na delavske unije in vodstva podjetij naj mirno rešijo svoj spore in urede delovno razmerje. Predsednik smatra, da je to ena najvažnejših zadev sedanjega social. življenja Amerike. Grozi nevarnost, da bo 3 milijone delavstva v velikih industrijah stopilo v stavko. S primerno razumevnostjo in popustljivostjo je lahko mogoče preprečiti vse izgube in neprijetnosti, ki jih nujno povzroči tak gospodarski zastoj.

Velika črna maša za pobite Slovence

Pazem nam slika napake in grehe, ki so izzvali strašno šibo revolucije. Na koncu ponižno poprosi:

Zavoljo smrti naših mučnikov, zavoljo kaznjencev in tabornikov, zavoljo trpečih onstran mejnikov ponudi nam svoje odvezujoče roke in — odpusti nam naše dolge.

Cena knjigi, ki jo boste z največjim pridom brali, kjerkoli jo odprete, je $2.75 s poštnino $3. Naročite jo lahko pri Ameriški Domovini. Ne odlašajte.

VESTI IZ SLOVENIJE

ZAPRTA. — V Ljubljani so slušajo posebno radi tudi tržaški lastnika trgovine Ciciban, Engelmana in bišega vele-trgovca Ivana Kneza. Zadnji čas komunistična policija zelo lovi ljudi radi kakih premoženjskih prestopkov, radi denarnih zadev, posebno radi nalaganja denarja v tujini in radi zvez s tujino sploh.

RADIO POSLUŠAJO. — Ljudje zelo poslušajo inozemske radijske postaje. Posebno Glas Amerike nikoli ne zamude. Po-

INOZEMSTVO NAJ VE. — Treba je vedno in vedno povdarjati v inozemstvu, da radi Titove gospodarske naslonitve na zapad notranji teror Titovega režima ni manjši. Tito hoče prav sedaj za vsako ceno in z vsemi sredstvi uničiti vsako opozicijo in zlasti edinega močnega nasprotnika med Slovenci, Katoliško Cerkev. Borba proti njej in krščanstvu sploh je vedno hujša.

"PARTIZANKA" ZGORELA. — Več poročil pravi, da je zgorela jugoslovanska ladja "Partizanka." O tem so poročali tudi nekateri časopisi. Pravijo, da je bila sabotaža. Nismo še mogli ugotoviti ali je vest povsem resnična ali ne.

TITOVCI V TRSTU. — Sicer ne pomenijo nič kot so pokazale zadnje volitve vendar so neodoljivi zdražbarji. Prav sedaj je OZNA zopet dala nova navodila kako naj komunisti delajo zdražbe med demokratičnimi Slovenci v Trstu. Sedaj, ko je Tito tako temeljito pogorel v Trstu, pravijo, da mu je lahko prodajati vse narodne interese, samo da omili nasprotovanje Italijanov, posebno italijanske komunistične stranke. Sedanji nesrečni položaj Trsta je itak

Od tam blizu, kjer je Lojze Adamič doma, nam piše nekdo, da so ljudje sprva govorili, da je prišel v domovino samo na obisk. Kmalu so pa začeli šušljati, da je bil izgnan iz Amerike, kot mnogo drugih, ki so za re-veže.

Zapadna Evropa predlaga svetovno gospodarsko konferenco

Strasbourg, Francija — Gospodarski odbor zapadno-evropskega parlamenta je sklenil resolucijo, ki apelira na vse demokratične države sveta naj se se-stanejo k svetovni gospodarski konferenci. Konferenca naj bi imela namen izdelati predlog za potrebne spremembe mednarodnih dogovorov in pogodb in olajšati mednarodno trgovino tako, da bi vsaka država čim lažje dobila vse blago in surovine. Predsednik Paul Reynaud je dejal, da bi se morale znižati tarife za vse blago iz Amerike za Evropo, če se hoče doseči čim preje obnova evropskega gospodarstva.

Koreja prosi za nujno vojaško pomoč

Washington. — Ambasador Koreje je izročil federalni vladi nujen apel za vojaško pomoč. Vlada Koreje pravi, da je napad Sovjetske Rusije na Korejo zelo verjeten in da ga pričakuje v kratkem času. Koreja je pripravljena braniti svojo neodvisnost, pa prosi, da bi dobila potrebno pomoč, ker je sovražnik vesela, ki je pripravila ogromno vojaško silo za podjarmljenje Daljnega Vzhoda.

Ameriška Legija je izročila Trumanu najvišje odlikovanje

Philadelphia. — Predsednik Truman je bil predmet veličastnih ovacij, ko je prišel v ponedeljek v Philadelphia, da sprejme najvišje odlikovanje Ameriške Legije. Vse mesto je bilo v sprejemu. Predsednikov avtomobil se je počasi peljal med množico, ki ga je z obeh strani posipala s cvetjem. Poročevalci trdijo, da je bilo pri sprejemu nad 100,000 ljudi. Tajnik za narodno brambo je izročil predsedniku odlikovanje. Predsednik je pri tej priliki govoril, da bodo Združene Države rade pomagale Veliki Britaniji v njeni finančni krizi. Poudaril je, da moramo organizirati stalno medsebojno pomoč med narodi, da moramo pospeševati stalno medsebojno pomoč med narodi, da moramo pospeševati stalno izmenjavanje blaga in dobrin in da moramo spoštovati samoupravo vsakega naroda v doma-čih notranjih stvarih. Združene Države tako delajo in bodo delale.

Posledice tajfuna

Tokio, Japonska. — V tajfunu, ki je divjal preko Japonske, je bilo po novih vesteh 68 oseb ubitih, 39 jih pogrešajo, 223 ranjenih in 150,000 jih je izgubilo stanovanja. Vihar je potopil 21 japonskih ladij, 10 jih je vr-gel na sipine, veliko jih je poškodovanih. Celotna gospodar-ska škoda se cení na 70 milijonov dolarjev.

Razne najnovejše svetovne vesti

WASHINGTON. — Ob desetletnici odkar je Hitler začel drugo svetovno vojno, je predsednik Truman izjavil časnikařem, da je bil silno srečen, ko je nehalo vojskovanje na bojiščih. Prišlo je hudo razočaranje z rusko mrzlo vojno, ki je takoj sledila. Rusija naj bi to vojno opustila čim prej v svoje lastno dobro in na korist vsega sveta. Sicer bodo pa v sedanjem bojevanju komunisti podlegli, je rekel predsednik in nastala bo doba resničnega miru z mednarodnimi jamstvi. Ta doba bo po vsej verjetnosti dolga in srečna.

MOSKVA. — Rusi ob deseti obletnici druge svetovne vojne ponavljajo laž, da so to vojno vojevali in zmagali popolnoma sami proti napadalcu Hitlerju. Takole piše New Times, list, ki ga izdajajo v Moskvi v angleškem jeziku: "Sovjetski narod so nosili vse breme vojevanja dokler ni postalo jasno, da je bila Sovjetska Unija sama zmožna doseči odločilen poraz Hitlerjeve Nemčije."

TOKIO, JAPONSKA. — General MacArthur je ob četrti obletnici, ko je Japonska priznala poraz in se uklonila zmagovalcem, izdal poročilo, v katerem pravi, da so Japonci zvesto in vestno izpolnjevali pogoje premirja in zaalžujijo, da so zopet svobodni in neodvisni. Treba je skleniti mir z Japonsko. Japonski narod se je preoblikoval in bo krepka opora miru, pravi general.

BERLIN, NEMČIJA. — Pred desetimi leti je Hitler napadel Poljsko. Po 2,074 dneh je bila Nemčija v ruševinah in z njo več kot pol Evrope. Kakih 22 milijonov ljudi je bilo pobitih. Hitler in Mussolini sta bila med mrličih, kakih 34 in pol milijona ranjenih. Za vojsko se je uporabilo 1117 milijard dolarjev in škoda je napravila vojna za kakih 230 milijard. Nemčija bo še desetletja nosila strašne posledice gospodarstva blaznega Hitlerja.

Nedeljsko pismo

Dragi prijatelj!

Kako dolgo še? ... tako se nama je iztrgalo iz srca ob zadnjem premišljevanju. In skušala sva najti odgovor, verjetno precej natančen. Vse nama je postalo jasno, vse je res tako: katoličani morajo stopiti na plan! Pa se pojavi takoj drugo vprašanje: zakaj pa se to ne zgodi? Temu je kriva strašna slepota narodov pa tudi slepota in zaslepljenost mnogih katoličanov in skoraj bi zapisal človek besedo: kogar Bog sovraži, ga udari s slepoto.

Resnično slepo je danes človeštvo, nič ne zna brati božjih znamenj, zapisanih v obličje zemlje, zapisanih v zgodovino človeškega roda.

Ne zna več brati znamenj božje moči, ki so tako vidno zapisana v vsej prirodi in vesoljstvu, zato Stvarnika taji in uradno se oznanja nauk o postanku človeka iz opice.

Človek ne zna več brati znamenj božje resnice, ki jo nespremenjeno čuva Cerkev 2.000 let, pa oznanja: laž, prevara, intriga vas bo osvobodila.

Ne znamo več brati znamenj božje svetosti, ki so zapisane v dušo vsakega kristjana, ampak so jo premnogi vrgli iz duš in svoje vesti.

Ne znamo več brati znamenj božje ljubezni in dobrote in prizanesljivosti, ki ne udari, ampak čaka in čaka in kliče k pokori in spreobrnjenju.

Ni znalo človeštvo čitati teh znamenj, zato je božja pravičnost z ognjem in mečem in pekelom in razvalinami in milijoni mrtvih zapisala v zgodovino človeštva svoje božje pravice. O, zdi se, da je vse, kar se je dogajalo in se še dogaja, kot strašna pešenična sredi, strašen Miserere, ki je sledil pustnemu norenju človeštva. Da, to so pisma, pisana za slepce tega sveta. In kolikokrat je Bog že napisal taka pisma.

Tako mlad je še bil človeški rod, pa si je postavil za cilj življenja: uživanje, nečistost, strast. Prišli so pridigarji pokore, pa so jih pobili med tempeljskimi vrati ... In kar čez noč je božja roka napisala strašno obsodbo tem slepcem: v valovih vesoljnega potopa so našli grob in nad njihovim grobom blesti strašen napis: "Zal mi je, da sem ustvaril tako človeštvo."

Nov rod je prišel, toda šel je na ista pota. Počasi so mliči božji mlini, toda drobno so zmelili, saj v božjih očeh so tisočletja kot en dan. Božja roka je zapisala usodo Sodomskim družinam z ognjem in žveplom in izžgani sta bili nečisti mesti z obličja zemlje. Mrtvo morje je spomenik božjih pravic za vse čase. In nato še strašna obsodba za današnje slepce: "Če bi se v Sodomi in Gomori godili čudeži kot med vami, bi v raševini in pepelu delali pokoro. Zato bo na sodnji dan lažje njim."

Izvoljeno ljudstvo, ki ga je Bog čuval kot punčico svojega očesa, tudi v obraz svojemu Odršeniku: "Na križ z njim! Razbojnika Barabo nam izpusti! Njemu slava in čast!" In 40 let nato je Jeruzalem uničen, izbrisan s sveta, Judje zavrženi, raztepeni po svetu do danes in do konca. Njegova kri je nadnje prišla in se masčevala!

Rimsko cesarstvo je na višku moči in slave. Ves znani svet obsega, milijoni se stekajo v rimske blagajne, umetnost cvete. Toda jedro naroda gnije: nečistost, razuzdanost, panem at circenses, žretja in zabav hčemo, otrok nočejo več v družine, ubijajo jih, socialni problem ni rešen, ena četrtina se valja v razkošju, drugi so sužnji in umirajo v svoji bedi. Pa je udaril nanje sovražnik od vzhoda in zapada in jih pomandal!

Voltaire, eden največjih Kristusovih sovražnikov je zapisal: "Danes čez 20 let bo Bog obhajal svoj poslovilni večer s sveta, čez 20 let ne bo nihče več vanj veroval." Za sekundo natančno čez 20 let je Voltaire v obupu in blaznosti jemal slovo od sveta, tudi on je moral z Julijanom Odpadnikom zaklicati: "Zmagal si Galilejec!"

Na razvalinah berlinskega mesta so L. 1947 priredili ogromno plesno prireditev pod geslom: Uživaj dokler je čas! Tisoči so prihajali v maskah na prireditve misleč, da bodo pod maskami skrili gnulobo svojih duš in nesramnost svojih početij, pa so v teh maskah zaplesali v večnost, v strašnih plamenih, ki so na mah objeli vso dvorano. Na grobovih mrtvih, ki so ležali pod razvalinami Berlina so zaplesali svoj smrtni ples tudi ti. Bog je zapisal še eno pismo, da življenje ni uživanje.

Mlada komunistka je bila na porodu v ljubljanskem Leonišču. Zahtevala je, da se odstrani iz sobe križ, ne pusti, da bi njen otrok videl kot prvo stvar, križ Gospodov. Odstranili so ga. Kmalu je bil rojen otrok — slep. V te slepe oči je Bog zapisal svoje pravice.

Samo nekaj zgledov sem ti našel, prijatelj, in ob vseh teh je znova treba ugotoviti, da človeštvo ne zna čitati te pisave, za slepce vseh dni pisane. Proč od Boga je bila parola in je še danes in nihče ne vpraša, kakšen bo pa božji odgovor, kako bo Bog vtisnil svoje pravice v obličje zemlje! Vse kaže, da človeštvo še ne razume teh božjih znamenj, ki so bila za vse čase zapisane v zadnji vojni, saj gre po stopinjah vseh onih, ki jih je meč božje jeze že udaril in strl. Prijatelj, midva bova šla drugo pot in morava jo iti. "Jaz sem vstajenje in življenje," nama je Kristus povedal in samo tam bova našla mir svojim dušam in mir svetu. S priskrnim pozdravom tvoj prijatelj.

STONE IN JURE EKSPERIMENTIRATA Z "ARCNJI" IN ZRAVEN POLITIZIRATA

Joliet, Ill. — Ko sem zadnje nedeljo prihajal od maše me na Broadway cesti dohiteli Juretova boljša polovica reko: "Kje pa gori, da se ti tako mudi?" "Imam precej opravkov doma, a dan je kratak," ji odgovorim.

"Moji stari že ves teden omenja, da bi te rad videl. Pridi malo pogledat gor k nam, saj ni tako daleč. Zadnji dopis v Ameriški Domovini ga je razveselil. Ves večer je hodil gor pa dol po kuhinji pa Fox De Luxe pivo srkal. Da si ga videl kako dobre volje je bil. Omenjal je, ha čakaj, Tone tu jih povem še več, samo da mrha mrhasta spet piše."

"Le povej Juretu, da pridem, morda še noč, samo če bo čas."

Po večerji sem jo mahnil gor proti Juretu. Doma sem se najedel zelene solate in dobre ga suhega mesa, kar da dobro podlago za par kozarcev dobrega piva. Jure me je zapazil, ko sem bil še pol bloka stran. Basal je tobak v svojo pipo in vmes tu pa tam pogladil svoje brke, s katerimi zgleda skoro kakor stari kralj Petar, ki se je po Balkanu vozil z balkanskim avtomobilom tistih časov, ki je obstojal s par srednje velikih volov. Kolesa se niso vrtila na takih "ball bearings", kakoršne so v kolesih sodobnih avtomobilov, pač pa so škripala in cvili, kakor ljudje v vica. Majaj za kolesa takrat na Balkanu tudi niso poznali drugih, kakor da so lovili polje in jih tlačili med akso in kolesno pokšo. To je bilo takrat. Zdaj seveda je drugače. Nažgal si je pipo in stopi izpred hiše na sidewalk. Pomiga mi z roko in reče: "Da te je vendar Bog poslal, te čakam že ves teden."

"Pa kaj je tako najnega, da bi me rad videl?"

"Najprvo ti hvala, da si se vendar enkrat spet oglašil in povedal svetu, da Belokrajci še malo brcamo na tem našem hribu. Veš deset let se mi zdi, da sem mlajši, odkar sem bral tisti najin pogovor. Tone, še bomo živeli, dokler bo nas Bog pustil na tej zemlji. Pa še kako tudi ugani. Pojdi greva doli v ta spodnji štuk; tam imam na ledu malo pira, ga malo potegnava in se pogovori-va kaj več tam."

Sledim mu okrog hiše in na drugi strani po kratkih stopnicah v prostore pod hišo. Jure pricita pol-galonavko in zraven v drugi roki malo flaško lepe rumene tekočine.

"A kaj imaš v tej mali flaški?"

"To so arcnije," me resno pogleda Jure. "Te je treba vzeti, predno se udari po tej pijaci v tej ta veliki flaši," modro izjavi Jure.

"Pa kak namen ima vse to?"

"Ta, ta rumena pijača požge vse grehe po grlu. Ta pijača iz te druge ta velike flaše pa lepo pohladi. Potem se obe združita v želodcu in dasta človeku novo življenje, nekak nov pogon, da se počutiš, kakor da si danes od soldatov prišel."

"Tak počutek bi pa tudi jaz rad imel še enkrat," odvrnem Juretu.

"Kar pomagaj si, pa ga boš imel."

Pa sva sunila vsek enega ta malega, s ta velikim glašem pa zmivala dol. Kar fletno je bilo. Ko sva tako le ene trikrat petkrat ponovila tisto suvanje ta malega in za njim vsakokrat udarila po ta velikem, sva se res kar vidno pomladila. Jure je začel premikati svoj kloбок po glavi in ga potiskal nazaj in vsakokrat mu je prišla iz ust druga misel na dan. Misli so se mu vrstile v glavi, kakor novi Fordi v Fordovi tovarni.

V takem veselju razpoloženju sva pozabila, da čas nikogar ne čaka, ampak da neprestano hiti naprej. Zunaj je bila že trda noč in že precej časa, ko so se vrata odprla in je nama prišla Juretova boljša polovica, da je čas, da se najina mitinga zaključijo.

"Koliko pa kaže ura stara?"

"Jutro bo kmalu, jutro, ako ne bosta kmalu zaključila."

Pogledam na moje čebulo in kažala je 25 minut in polnoči. Le kedaj se je čas, tako hitro izmuznil nama ta večer, to mi je bila uganka. In da ne bom predolgo kvasil še s tem mojim dopisom, naj o tem za danes neham, pa povem rajši prihodnjic o čem vse sva govorila z mojim prijateljem Juretom.

Na vsak način pa moram danes omeniti, da je Jure registriral pri meni tisti večer eno pri- toženo in sicer to, zakaj nisem povedal zadnjic, ko sem zapisal, da sem videl na našem hribu č. g. Petrica in da je sin Belokrajine, da je tudi Father Kuzma sin lepe Belokrajine, ki je pred kratkim odšel od nas za župnika v Wilton Center, ki je oddaljen nekako 18 milj od Jolietu. Kako se mi je to dogodilo res sam ne vem, saj sem, ko so se poslavljali Father Kuzma se sam nekaj solz potočil, ker Father Kuzma je bil res vnet in dober duhovnik, ki ga vsi pogrešamo. Želim mu vsi najboljše na novem mestu.

Naše stare korenine odhajajo bolj in bolj pogosto tja, odkjer ni povratka. Te dni je preminul naš znani pionir rojak Anton Kocjančič, v starosti nad 81 let. Doma je bil iz vasi Sela pri Šumberku. V Ameriki je bival malo manj kakor 60 let. Bil je vedno zaveden in odločen Slovenec. Njegovim sorodnikom naše globoke so- žalje, pokojniku pa naj sveti večna luč in naj počiva v miru.

Te dni smo pokopali tudi znano rojakinjo Mrs. Marijo Pasdertz, ki je bivala več zadnjih let v Milwaukee, a pred letom pa tu v Jolietu, kjer je njen soprog Mr. John N. Pasdertz vodil na našem hribu več let gročarijo in mesnico. Oba sta bila v naši naselbini dobro poznana. Vedno sta rada delovala na društvenih poljih. Mr. Pasdertz je bil večletni podpredsednik Družbe sv. Družine, pokojna soproga pa se je vneto udeleževala pri drugih društvih. Umrla je v Milwaukee, a prepeljana pa je bila v Joliet in tu pokopana na pokopališču sv. Jožefa. Naj bo tudi njej ohranjen časten spomin in naj počiva v miru!

Se je novic, pa ne smem vse na enkrat zmetati na papir, pa še prihodnjic kaj napiše Vaš, Tone s hriba.

Beseda zahvale ameriškim Slovincem in Hrvatom

Lemont, Ill. — Dolžnost me kliče nazaj v Rim, v večno mesto.

Preden pa odpotujem, se moram kar najlepše zahvaliti našim dobrim Slovincem in Hrvatom, ki so me povsod tako ljubeznivo sprejeli in presenetili ob priliki mojega zlatega jubileja.

Naj ljubi Bog stotero povrne vsem, prav vsem. Iskrena hvala preč. gospodom župnikom in raznim društvom župnij: Sv. Družine v Kansasu, Sv. Janeza istotam, hrvatska župnija: Sv. Cirila in Metoda v Sheboygan in Sv. Štefana v Chicago.

Prav rada bi obiskala še druge župnije, kjer delujejo naše sestre in katere so mi v najlepšem spominu od zadnje vizitacije: na žalost primanjkuje čas.

Lepi večeri, ki sem jih preživela med Vami, zgorej omejenimi, mi ostanejo v neizbrisnem spominu. Naj Vam dragi Bog tisočero poplača vse žrtve, vse stopinje, ki ste jih radi mene in v moj prid naredili. Iskrena hvala za Vaše darove, s katerimi ste meni in mojim sestram-begunkam v svoji krščanski ljubezni hoteli pomagati. V hvaležni molitvi se Vas bom spominjala ob grobu Sv. Petra v Rimu, da Bog izlije bogat blagoslov na Vas in Vaše družine.

Priporočam se tudi nadalnji Vaši blagoslavljenosti. Vas najiskrenejše pozdravljam, hvaležna

M. Terezija Hanželič, vrh. predst.

Oltarno društvo fare Marije Vnebovzete

Cleveland, O. — Prav prijazno ste vabljeni vse članice Oltarnega društva fare Marije Vnebovzete, da se polnoštevilno udeležite skupnega sv. obhajila v nedeljo 4. septembra pri maši ob osmih. Zbiramo se 15 minut pred osmo, da potem skupno odkorakamo v cerkev.

Popoldne ob dveh pa bo ura molitve in ste vse prošene, da se gotovo udeležite vse, ki vam je le mogoče. Le pridite, drage sestre, da skupno počastimo Jezusko milost zase in tudi za tiste, ki Ga ne priznavajo ali Ga nočejo priznati.

Po uri molitve bo kratek sestanek, kamor ste tudi vse vabljene, da s svojo navzočnostjo pomagate do boljšega napredka. Saj to gotovo že vsaka izmed vas ve, da kar boste storile za čast

ČE VERJAMETE AL PA NE

Ko sem stopil v hlev, so se konji ozrli nazaj od jasi. Kaj bi se ne, vas vprašam. Povedal sem jim, da sem jaz tisti, od katerega je odvisno, če bodo kaj jedli ali ne in da morajo radi tega izkazovati meni čast in spoštovanje. Imeti hočem dovolj prostora za svoje telo do jasi, zlasti zadnje preme naj bodo obrnjene od mene proč takrat, ko bom jaz stregel pri banketu.

Na ves glas sem govoril, da bi imele živali do mene obudovanje in respekt. Tri pare jih je bilo, pa takšnih, kot jih še nisem videl. Menda so samo oranje in druga težka dela prihiš. V Kranju smo obudovali Majdičeve, ki so vozili iz mlina moko na kolodvor in s kolodvoja žito v mlin. Most čez Savo se je zibal in tresel, kadar je stopala po njem ena taka vprega. Pa so bili ti v Kanadi še dosti večji. Zato sem jim tudi govoril, naj mi dajo dovolj prostora, da jim nesem v jasi. Križ božji, naj bi se primerilo, da bi mi mrha stopila na nogo, bi bil ob njo na licu mesta.

Bili so pa krotki kot vipaski oslički. Kmalu sem izgubil strah do njih in sem si dal opraviti okrog njih, med tem ko so trli krmo. Nisem bil tak kot Zalokarjev Jože, ki je bil potrjen k "trenu", pa se je jokaj; ko mu je bilo ukazano, da nese žrebcu malco. Je že res, da so bili taki, da so bruhali iz sebe dim in ogenj, pa jih ni bilo toliko v koži, kot je bilo tistih, katerim sem bil postavljen jaz za strežaja tisto opoldne. Saj nisem ravnopravni, pa vendar sem moral stegniti roko, da sem segel konju do grive. Ako je pa sunil z in lepšavo cerkve vam bo sto-krat poplačano že tukaj in prav gotovo pa v večnosti. Vas sestersko pozdravlja vaš podpredsednica, Louise Kosmerl.

Odmevi iz Titovine ali gorke iz "raja"

Titu se je nekoč sanjalo, da se potaplja v blejskem jezeru. "Pomagajte!" je v sanjah glasno zakričal. Prebudil se je služabnik in vprašal, kaj zahteva. — "Sanjalo se mi je, da se potapljam, pa sem se na srečo prebudil, preden sem se potopil. Povej mi, kaj bi ti napravil v takem primeru?" — "Nič drugega, kakor Ozno bi obvestil," je odvrnil služabnik.

Pastirjev vzdih na paši v Titovem raju: "O presrečne kravice, ki se najeste do sitega za vsakim grmom, jaz vas moram pa lačen gledati!"

glavo proti stropu, bi moral dobiti pa lestvo, da bi prišel do njega. Le kako jih okomatajo, če mrha noče skloniti glave v komat! Ali kadar je potiska-jo železje v gobec, pa če oteplje in otrasa z glavo. Jaz bi je nikdar ne nataknil.

Na vso moč so bili to lepi konji. Joj, če bi šel z njimi tje v naš Črni vrh po klade ali drva. To bi prhali gor v Gabrovski hrib! Lahko bi jim naložili kolikor bi držal voz. Za rep bi lahko vlekla pet krcel. Denemu bi nataknil svetle šajbce na komat, da bi se v njih poigravali sončni žarki. In do j komata bi viselo jermenje, vse odo to svetlimi gumbi. Okrog komata bi bila ovita jazbečeva koža. Kakor sem videl Basajeva desnega s Suhe, kadar je France prišel v Kranj po žito, ali pripeljal moko. Na Gorenjskem sem videl tako navado. Pri nas na Menišiji nismo bili tako bahati s konjskim "caj-hom".

Dosti sem si dal opraviti okrog konj tam v kanadskem hlevu. Saj bi bilo zadostovalo, če bi bil konjem navalil nekaj krme v jasi in odšel po svojem opravku. Ampak zadet sem se, da sem jaz za go-spodarja, ker sem bil edini možki pri hiši takrat. Neko staro krtaco sem našel na polici in sem začel živali snadžiti, kakor visoko sem jih pač dosegel. Menim, da se je mrham to dobro zdelo, ker otepal so z repi, potrkavali s kopiti ob tla in pr-hali v jasi, da jih je bilo ve-selje slišati in gledati.

Dolgo me je vzel, predno sem se spomnil, da bi ne bilo napačno, če bi šel malo pogledat, kako je z mojim kamenjem v ledini. Sredi popoldneva je bilo, ko sem računal, da so konji dobro nakrmljeni in napojeni. Moško sem se držal, ko sem korčil čez polje. Zavriškal bi, pa bi morda ne bilo prav še zdaj, ko sem šel prvi dan tukaj. Tudi ne vem, če bi me kdo slisal in če bi me, bi morda ne vedel prav, kaj naj pomeni moje vpitje. Morda bi kdo priletel in me vprašal, če me mar ne črviči, ko vpijem po tujah. Tudi če bi bilo ukanje v navadi, komu naj pa ukam, ko ni nikjer nobne vasi. Do prvega soseda me ne bi slišali, pa če bi se razpral. Aha, v starem kraju pa, tisto pa že, saj nese en tak srčen fantovski zdiš v de-vesto vas in spet nazaj, da okna zašepetajo in da prislunkejo dekleta v kamricah.

Na ledini sem zopet prijel težko rovnico v roke. Ogledoval sem si, kje naj jo zasadih, da prikladem kak kamenček iz zemlje. Kar se spomnim, da sem prav za prav potreben počitka. Saj sem že od štirih zjutraj pokonci in potem ves dan pri delu, več ali manj. Kaj pa mislijo, da jim bom delal 48 ur na dan, kali! Povsod se po kosilu nekoliko vsejdo in od-počijejo. Jaz sem pa letel po kosilu v hlev in opravil konje. Zdaj naj začnem pa lomiti ka-menje. Tako se nismo zmenili, vsaj jaz se ne spomnim, da bi se. Vsaka sodinja bi mi pri-sodila nekaj počitka popoldne.

In ker ni bilo nikogar, ki bi ga vprašal, ali imajo tukaj na-vado po kosilu počivati, ali ne, sem si kar sam dal tako dovo-ljenje. Spustil sem rovnico po tleh, da je veselo zazvenela po kamenju, stopil pod bližnji grm in se položil po tleh. Kakšne pol ure si ga bom vzel na rač-un, sem si rekel. Oči sem zapril in zaspal. Bilo je že proti večeru, ko sem se zbudil. Kdo bi mi zamrl, saj sem bil zmu-čen od dela, ki ga nisem bil vajen. Odpravil sem se proti domu, ker bo najbrže vsak čas večerja in tudi mrhe v hlevu bo treba nakrmiti. Kaj pa ka-menje, me je za hip zaskrbelo. Eh, saj ne bo ušlo in jutri je še en dan, sem si rekel in kar nekam okrepčan sem jo mahnil proti domu.

Prireditve naših bratskih organizacij čez praznike!

POSETITE TE PRIREDITVE!

Kako bo odgovoril Tito na sovjetski ultimati ali napad?

Sedanj razvoj položaja med Sovjetsko zvezo odnosi Kominformo in Jugoslavijo, je zelo važen za ves svet, tem važnejši za nas, Slovence in ostale Jugoslovane. Sledečo analizo tega položaja je poslal listu "The New York Times" njegov beograjski poročevalec M. S. Handler iz Beograda dne 13. avgusta. Zanimivo in značilno je dejstvo, da so jugoslov. oblasti, ki bi poročilo lahko cenzurirale, pustile isto v svet, kar pomeni, da se strinjajo z njim in da hočejo, da se svet seznani s tem položajem. Poročilo se glasi:

Ostra sovjetska vladna nota Jugoslaviji, v kateri označuje sovjetska vlada Titov režim za "sovražen," je ustvarila novo napetost med tema dvema državama.

Dogodki zadnjih tednov dokazujejo, da so Jugoslovani v posesti informacij, da je sovjetska vlada zdaj na tem, da potom Kominforme spravi na površje vprašanje jugoslovanske teritorialne integritete.

BRAT in SESTRE

Cleveland, O., 2. sept. 1949.

Jugoslovanske ugotovitve

Ti dokazi se delijo v tri dele:

1. Jugoslovani pravijo, da sta sovjetska vlada in Kominforma sklenili likvidirati grški upor;
2. jugoslovansko uverjenje, da bo grški upor nadomeščen z novim, po Kominformi inspiriranim gibanjem za ustanovitev nove makedonske države, v kateri bi bili inkorporirani deli jugoslovanske, bolgarske in grške Makedonije; in 3. govor maršala Tita generalom in drugim visokim častnikom v Skoplju, ki poveljujejo na južni meji, katere je svaril pred možnostjo invazije.

Kaj je pomenil Titov govor?

Titov govor je pomenil svarilo Moskvi, da utegne imeti vsak očiten ali maskiran napad na Jugoslavijo nepreračunljive posledice, zakaj jugoslov. armada je pripravljena na dolgotrajno in trpko vojno.

Tito je v svojem govoru izrazil temperament jugoslovanskega ljudstva. Povedal je generalom, da Jugoslovani nimajo strahu pred možnostjo, da bodo morali braniti svoje ozemlje pred napadom.

Smoter Titovega govora

Ker se jugoslov. ljudstvo v polni meri zaveda riskantnosti in nevarnosti sedanjega političnega konflikta z Moskvijo, kakšen smoter je torej mogel imeti Titov govor? Brez dvoma je, da je bil Titov govor naslovljen na Stalina. Tito je navedel dejstvo, da je imel prvo leto po zaključku vojne pod orožjem 500.000 mož in da ta njegova armada napreča sorazmerno z nevarnostjo napada; povedal je Stalinu, da se je jugoslovanska armada pomnožila, ker je sedanja situacija nevarnejša od one iz leta 1945.

Ko je rekel, da se Jugoslovani ne bodo bali prijeti za orožje v slučaju napada, je Tito prav za prav povedal: 1. Nikar ne mislite, da bomo položili orožje ako bi sovjetska ali katere koli armada prekorajila naše meje; 2. nikar si ne utvarjajte, da bi se mi samo navidezno postavili v bran, ker imamo veliko in izveščano armado gerilskih borcev; in, 3. nikar si ne domisljajte, da bi mi oklevali vreči se v borbo zato, ker bi bilo morada ime mapadalne armade — sovjetska ali rdeča armada katere koli Kominforminih držav.

Danes je samo ena možna analogija za državo v položaju Jugoslavije, in to je prisposoda Češkoslovaške v sept. 1. 1938. Toda tudi tu je kardinalna razlika med pozicijo pokojnega predsednika Beneša in maršala Tita. Beneš je imel sistem vojaških zvez s Francozi in Rusi, dočim je Tito danes izoliran in

Kaj bi Tito storil?

Kako bi Tito reagiral na dejstvo, če bi bil konfrontiran s sovjetskim ultimatom ali sovjetskim napadom?

Predvsem moramo vzeti v poštev, da so ogromne razlike v ozadju odnosno poreklu, kriterijah in psihologijah Beneša in Tita. Tito ni parlamentarni državnik ali politik. Tito ni mož, ki verjame v polit. kombinacije ali slednje prakticira, in sicer iz preprostega razloga, ker ni prišel na oblast s pomočjo takih kombinacij. Tito je v prvi vrsti mož akcije, ne mož govorniškega odra. On je bil vojni voditelj ter si je priboril s pomočjo orožja svojo pot do oblasti. Zato se lahko že jutri vrne v gore ter spet obnovi svoj boj.

Isto se lahko reče o njegovih somišljenikih. Možje takšnega političnega ozadja in temperamenta se ne bodo uklonili ultimatom ali završenim dejstvom na ljubo.

Titov sistem vojaških zvez, ki jih je imel izključno s Sovjetsko zvezo in njenimi satelitskimi, se je razsul. Danes nimamo niti ene pogodbe za medsebojno pomoč, na katero bi se lahko skliceval ali zanašal v slučaju napada.

Važnost jugoslov. ozemlja

Na drugi strani pa Tito danes gospodari na najvažnejšem kraju Evrope in že njegovo samo svarilo pred nevarnostjo invazije z vzhoda utegne sprazniti v pogon strašne sile. V tem slučaju bi njegov odpor v gorah in gozdovih ustvaril nevarno krizo v Evropi, in to iz sledečih razlogov:

1. Z umikom v gore, odkoder bi vodil gerilske operacije, bi se Tito umaknil z jugoslovanskih planjav, ki bi jih poplavlile armade Sovjetov in njihovih satelitov ter se razšle do tržaškega ozemlja. Približanje iz točnoevropskih armad Italiji pa bi nemudoma ustvarilo najresnejšo krizo.

2. Vzhodnoevropske armade bi prodrele tudi do južnih mej Avstrije, in nikomur ni treba biti državnik ali strateg, da ugotovi, kaj bi pomenilo, če pridejo te armade do italijanske in južne avstrijske meje.

V obrambi proti kominformski invaziji bi dobile jugoslovanske meje z Italijo in Avstrijo, in pozicija Jugoslavije ob Jadranu, bolj odločilen vpliv na položaj vsega ostalega sveta, kakor kakršna koli vojaška zveza.

Maskirane operacije proti Titu

Pri vseh teh ugibanjih tudi ne gre izpustiti iz oči možnosti skritih in maskiranih operacij proti Titu, to je "partizanskega" odpora proti njemu. To je stara in že napram drugim dejstvom zvez s Francozi in Rusi, dočim je Tito danes izoliran in izzvala tudi podaljšani odpor, katerega bi ne bilo mogoče naglo zadušiti, kar bi imelo za posledico, da bi se znašla Moskva konfrontirano z nevarno svetovno situacijo.

Titovi trumfi

Sicer pa Tito ni popolnoma brez trumfov v kominformskih državah, ki ga obdajajo. Nekaj dni pred svojim govorom v Skoplju je imel Tito drug govor, v katerem je rekel, da Jugoslovani niso na svetu osamljeni, ker je večina ljudstva v Kominforminih državah ob njihovi strani, in da bo kmalu na počin čas, ko bodo Bolgari in Albanci postali spet prijatelji Jugoslavije. Dejal je, da bodo pometli z ovirami, ki so na potu temu prijateljstvu, pri čemer jim bodo Jugoslovani pomagali.

Jugoslov. informacije o dogodkih v kominformskih državah so točne in natančne, zlasti o konfliktih v komunističnih partijah teh držav. Iz tega je razvidno, da imajo Jugoslovani v teh državah mnogo prijateljev.

Dasi je invazija Jugoslavije slejkoprej možna, pa polaga Sovjetska zveza veliko važnost tudi na ekonomsko sabotažo Jugoslavije in se poslužuje riskantnih metod v prizadevanju, da strmoglavi Tita. Toda Jugoslavija enako krepko odgovarja, kar je razvidno iz aretacije 31 sovjetskih državljanov, ki so jih v Jugoslaviji zaprli pod obtožbo špionaže in kontrarevolucionarstva in katerih jugoslovanske oblasti nočejo izpustiti kljub ponovnim zahtevam Moskve.

Poleg tega je začela Sovjetska zveza vrtati v jugoslov. trgovino ter ponuja in prodaja državam, ki imajo z Jugoslavijo trgovinske pogodbe, vse dobave mnogo ceneje ali celo pod lastno ceno. Ena izmed teh dobav je na primer les, ki ga izvažajo Sovjetska zveza v Anglijo in Egipt za ceno, ki je mnogo nižja od jugoslovanskih cen, da Jugoslavijo tudi ekonomsko uropasti.

Hvaležni smo!

Racine, Wis. — Preteklo je že dva meseca, odkar smo prišli v Ameriko. Zato je že čas, da se tudi mi iz tega mesta zahvalimo vsem, ki so nam pomagali do te sreče.

Zahvalimo se Dr. Miha Kreku za vse, kar je storil za nas begunce, ker brez njegove pomoči mi ne bi nikdar videli Amerike. Ista zahvala gre Ligi katoliških slovenskih Amerikancev, ki nam je bila vse skozi posredovalka in še kar naprej skrbi za ostale begunce, ki še čakajo po taboriščih dobrih src.

Zahvalimo se tudi Mr. in Mrs. Seljaku, ki sta nas spravila v stik z njihovo teto Mrs. Krumberger in sinovi.

Najlepšo zahvalo pa moramo izreči Mrs. Krumberger in sinovom, ki so se trudili vse povsod, da smo mogli čimprej priti na njihov dom. Iznemadili so nas s prelepimi sprejemom, obdarovali so nas z obleko in raznimi darili, kar rabi človek za pravo in dobro življenje. Uživamo isto udobnost in dobroto kot pri svoji lastni materi. Tako smo res našli pravi krščanski dom, ki nam nadomešča dom in domače ognjišče, katerega smo morali zapustiti pred štirimi leti. Zato kličemo: Bog Seljaku, ki sta nas spravila v stik z njihovo teto Mrs. Krumberger in sinovi.

Iskrena zahvala tudi Ameriški Domovini, ki je bila naša pravična zagovornica in tolažnica vsa begunska leta.

Iz našega novega doma pozdravljamo po vsem širnem svetu sobrate begunce v Avstriji, Ameriki, Argentini, Kanadi in Avstraliji. Še posebno pošiljamo lepe pozdrave Mr. in Mrs. Seljak in ter Mr. in Mrs. Anžiček v Girard, Ohio.

POLOM

POSLOVENIL VLAD, LEVSTIK

Takrat je tudi on sam splošleji. Vidite, vse, kar gledal gospo Combette, ženo le-date tam na trgu, je cesarje-karnarja, ki je imel svojo le-vo, to, da veste, je njegova pr-tkarno ob glavnem trgu. In ko ljaga."

Zares se je Maurice spomi-ročiti dobri gospe Desroches za njal teh kočij in tovornih voz prenočišče, ga je razburjeno potegnili s seboj.

"Ne, ne, pridite k nam. Da v Reimsu.

Ko sta dospela v lekarno, je li, kaj so vse navlekli s teh voz! zaprla vrata ter nadaljevala: Srebrno posodo, vinske stekle-

"Vi torej ne veste, deček moj dragi, da se je pri Desroches-ovih naselil cesar? Vso hi-se je vršilo dve dolgi uri brez šo so zavzeli zanj, a bogve kako prenehljaja. Vprašujem se le, niso veselje te visoke časti, tega kam morejo namestiti toliko vas zagotavljam. Če premisli- reči, saj hiša ni velika. Po-te, da so primorali ubogo staro glejte, pogledajte, kakšen ogenj mamico, ženo, ki šteje več ne-so napravili v kuhinji!"

On je gledal malo, belo, dva- ra pustiti svojo sobico ter spa-nadstropno hišo, ki je stala na ti pod streho v služabniški po-vogalu trga in vouzierške ceste, hiša mirne meščanske zuna-nosti, notranjščino katere si je mogel predstavljati tako na-tanko, kakor da je bil v nji še včeraj domač: spodaj veža, štiri sobe v vsakem nadstropju; zgoraj na vogalu je bilo okno v prvem nadstropju, ki se je odpiralo na trg, že razsvetleje-no, in lekarnarica mu je poja-snila, da je to cesarjeva soba. Tam pa, kjer se je — po njeni opazki — najbolj svetilo, je bi-la kuhinja v pritličju, ki je od-pirala svoja okna na vouzier-ško cesto. Nikoli prej se ni po-nujal cheneškim prebivalcem enak prizor; neprestano obnav-ljajoča se reka radovednežev je zapirala cesto in stala zijaje pred tem ognjiščem, kjer se je peklo in kuhalo cesarsko kosilo. Da dobe nekoliko zraka, so bili kuharji široko odprli okna. Troje jih je bilo; v snežnobelih jopičih so se sukali pred kura-mi, nataknenimi na ogromen razen; ter mešali polivke v ogromnih ponvah, ki so se sve-tile v svojem bakru kakor zla-te. Najstarejši ljudje se niso spominjali, da bi bili videli pri "Srebrnem medvedu" tako ve-lik ogenj na ognjišču in toliko nenkrat kuhanih jedil, niti ob največjih gostijah.

Lekarnar Combette, suh, gib-čen možček, se je vrnil domov, ter posetiti staro Desroches, ves razburjen, od reči, ki jih je bil pravkar gledal in poslu-senečen je bil, da ga ne ustavijo šal. Zdel se je znan z vsemi pri vratih, ki so bila vzlic gne-tajnostmi, ker je bil namest-či na trgu odprta in celo ne-nik župana. Ob polstirih je zastražena. Ludje — častniki Mac Mahon brzojavaj Bazaine- in služabništvo — so nepresta-u, da ga je prihod prestolona-no prihajali in odhajali; in slednika v Chalons primoral, zdelo se je tudi, da gneča v umakniti se proti severnim trd-plapolajoči kuhinji navdaja njavam. Druga brzojavka pa vso hišo s gibanjem. In vendar je bila pravkar odposlana voj-ni bilo na stopnicah niti ene nemu ministru, ki ga je tudi luči; tipaje je moral dospeti obveščala o umikanju, sklicuje kvišku. Zgoraj, na pragu slu-se na to, da preti vojski stra-žabniške sobe, kamor se je bila šna nevarnost odrezanja in morala zateči, se ga je stara go-uničenja. Brzojavka za Ba-spa Desroches prestrašila: ko zaine-a je mogla teči sama, če ga je pa spoznala, je dejala: je imela dobre noge, kajti vse "Ah, dete, v kakšnem stra-žnem trenutku se morava zopet videti. Gotovo bi bila rada dala cesarju svojo hišo, toda ljudje, ki jih ima pri sebi, so brez dobre vzgoje! Če bi videli, kako so jemali vse! In vse nam v Parizu razve, je po nas." bodo požgali, takšen ogenj de-Vsakdo je vedel, s kakšno za-lajo v kuhinji! On pa, ubo-gi mož, je takšen kakor mrlič, in tako žalosten je. . .

Nato, ko jo je mladi mož odha-jaje miril, ga je spremila ter se sklonila čez ograjo stopnic. "Pogledajte", je zamrjala, "od tod ga vidite. Ah, vsi smo bili mogoci! Pruski prestolo-menda izgubljeni! Zdravi osta-naslednik v Chalonsu? Ob kak-šne čete je trčil potemtakem 7. armadni zbor v argonskih so-teskah?"

"V generalnem štabu ne ve-do ničesar", je nadaljeval le-karnar, obupno iztezaje roke. "O, kakšna zmešnjava. . . To-da naposled pojde vse še do-bro, če bo armada jutri na po-vratku."

Nato pa, ker je bil pravza-na prav vrl človek, je dejal: stala molče dva adjutanta. V "Poslušajte, prijatelj mladi, bližini mize je stal dvorni hi-obvežem vam mnogo; vi poveče-šnik in čakal. Kozarec je bil jate z nami in ležete nato gori še poln, kruh še nedotaknjen, v sobici mojega učenca, ki mi je in kos bele kureline se je hla-dil na krožniku.

Toda Maurice, ki ga je muči-la potreba gledati in izvedeti, je hotel storiti na vsak način

MORNING NEWSPAPER

This and That from Washington

By Congressman Frances P. Bolton

It is my purpose while I am in Europe to write of some of the matters seldom if ever found in our home newspapers that you may have a little of the flavor of foreign opinion as expressed to me and in the foreign press.

It is difficult to paint the picture of England in a few words, even the little one can hear, see and feel in less than a week. However, I did talk at some length with Mr. MacNeil, Acting Foreign Secretary, and with several other government people—one in the Treasury, one who takes over British Information Service in the U.S.A. this fall, and "Molly" Hamilton, who is head of the American Division of British Information Service in London, as well as Marjorie Maxse, Vice Chairman of the Conservative Party, and various others not in government at all.

I have gained a deep sense that England's problems are far from over—in a way they have not even begun—and that we shall do well to insist that she face squarely up to them. To my mind this cannot be done noisily, and should not be done with any of the bitterness which has crept into our press and our too often expressed attitude. I thoroughly agree that England must face up to the cold fact that she is no longer mistress of the seas, no longer in control, no longer the center of world finance. But that is a tough business all together, don't you think? That she will do this I am quite certain.

I hope she will do it without having to go through too long a period of deep anguish and suffering; but if she cannot face reality without more agony than the great laws of Evolution will put her through the fire of purification.

But make no mistake about one thing. There are a great many people in England of all groups who do see and who are wishing those in authority could be made to recognize the cold fact that more realistic measures must be taken.

Some of these express their convictions somewhat vehemently. The suggestion often violently expressed that they would have been better had no dollars been made available may have solid reason and good judgment behind it, but it would have meant desperate days with unemployment and all its accompanying ills, and those who felt even that the better part of wisdom did not prevail.

Naturally, the government that came in on promises of shorter hours, higher pay, with a fantastic program of social security and physical care, cannot be expected to retreat in any large measure. But there is a lot of thinking going on in England—there is a deepening awareness of the battle between the true freedom and the communists which is being waged, and some time before too long, unless they face reality, this government will be out. It may not happen in this election, but it is most certainly on the cards.

Why? Because every individual and every nation the world over knows deep within his own soul that hard work and harder work and harder work still is the road. When the people of England see this quite clearly it will happen and the whole world will be the richer for their anguish, their grit and their vision.

LABOR DAY

All over the nation machines are at rest . . . motors and gears are quiet . . . thrill factory whistles are silent. This is Labor Day . . . a day of picnics and play and parades. And it also is a day of tribute . . . on which honor is paid to the men and women in the workshops of the nation . . . and fittingly also to those who furnish them with supplies and guidance . . . for our nation's unceasing efforts to make a bigger and better future for this land and its people.

Six Nuns Celebrate Long Service

An aggregate of 175 years of religious service in the Catholic Diocese of Cleveland was hailed last week by Bishop Edward F. Hoban when he presided at a jubilee mass for six Ursuline nuns, one an olden jubilarian and five who had each completed 25 years in religion.

The ceremonies in the 75-year-old convent chapel of 185 Ridge House at 17001 Lake Shore Blvd. were attended by Ursuline nuns from the parish convents of Greater Cleveland and also pastors in whose parishes Ursuline nuns serve as teachers.

Sister M. Rita, for the last 25 years art instructor at Sacred Heart Academy, was the golden jubilarian. The silver jubilarian was Sister Clement Marie, home economics instructor at Villa Angela Academy; Sister M. Natalie, librarian at Ursuline College; Sister Mary Patrick, principal of Beaumont School for Girls; Sister Mary Leonard, principal of St. Ann's School, and Sister M. Benigna, seventh grade instructor at St. Ann's.

Barn Dance

A Gala Barn Dance is to be sponsored by The Cleveland Graphite Bronze Girls' Club at the well known "Ranch" on 14300 Turney Road; Saturday, Sept. 10th. Dancing will be from 9 p. m. until 1:00 a. m. to the popular recording artist Frankie Mullican. Admission is 75 cents and refreshments to your heart's delight. Everybody is cordially invited.

Kastelic Named to Aid Bengals in Three Sports

Robert Kastelic was named the new assistant football, basketball and baseball coach today at Benedictine High School by the Rev. Father Placid O.S.B., the Bengal's athletic director. Kastelic is a product of Maple Hills High and John Carroll. The Navy veteran who has been teaching geometry the past year at Benedictine will be in charge of the freshman football squad, the junior varsity basketball team and the freshman baseball team. The vacancy in the coaching ranks was created by Joe Iofredo's resignation to accept the head coaching job at the Wheeling (W. Va.) Central Catholic High School.

It was the second addition to the Bengal staff this year, with Porowski having been named assistant football and head wrestling coach.

Wedding Bells

Wedding bells will chime out tomorrow morning for Miss Jean Debevec, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Debevec, of 1068 E. 174 St., and Mr. William Edukatis, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Edukatis, 1072 E. 174 St. The marriage ceremony will be performed at the 9:30 mass in St. Mary's Church. St. Vitus Church will be the scene of the marriage of Miss Florence Cernilogar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cernilogar and Mr. Richard Jakic, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jakic of 6111 St. Clair Ave. The wedding will take place tomorrow at 10 a. m. Married last Saturday in St. Thomas Church were Miss Florence Ponikvar, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ponikvar, 450 E. 118 St., and Mr. Donald Straub, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Straub of E. 85 St.

Peninsula Parish Invites Us to Their Annual Fall Festival

Father Andreys parishioners of Our Mother of Sorrows in Peninsula, Ohio, are inviting their friends to be with them at the Annual Fall Festival on Sunday, Sept. 8th. We all remember their last three affairs when we received such a marvelous feast. Just Dinner for only $1.00. This year we will be no exception. While you will be there, you can also attend their Lawn Fete and participate in the many awards.

Dinner will be served from 12 noon till 6:00 p. m. A special feature this year will be an award every hour on the hour to people having dinner tickets. This is besides the regular large awards which will be given at 6:00 p. m.

Masses that day will be at 8:00, 10:00 and 11:00 a. m. Let's all come out and give Father Andreys the glad hand.

Letters to the Editor

Mr. James Debevec, Editor American Home Publishing Co. 6117 St. Clair Ave. Cleveland 3, Ohio.

Dear Mr. Debevec: Thank you for your recent note saying that you are sponsoring a "Frank Day" at the Stadium on Wednesday evening, Aug. 24.

I honestly wish that we could cooperate with you to the extent of having Frank pitch an inning or so thru the evening, but I am sure that you will understand when I say that we do not feel that we should make any such request of Lou Boudreau at this time as he is doing everything possible to bring the pennant to Cleveland again this year.

I am glad to know that you are having other entertainment here and you may rest assured that we will have no objection to the performance. Thanking you for your continued interest in our organization, I am, with all good wishes,

Yours very truly

Bill Veeck

BIRTHS

A baby boy, their first child, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Brodnick of 6005 Carl Ave., who hope to have an assistant at their furniture store at 16013 Waterloo Rd., in about 20 years. Matjasic Photo Is Cited Third Time

"Summers Is Cold," a photographic study of American League Umpire Bill Summers in a resolute pose, snapped last year by Ray Matjasic, Plain Dealer staff photographer, has been awarded honorable mention by the National Press Photographers Ass'n., Inc., it was announced yesterday.

Judges of the association's national picture contest selected the photo as one of the nation's 100 "outstanding examples of press photography" for 1948.

Matjasic caught Summers' uncompromising cool as he resisted the arguments of the Joe McCarthy, Boston manager, in a game here Aug. 1, 1948. The citation is the third the picture has won for Matjasic. It had previously been chosen "picture of the year" for 1948 by the Cleveland Newspaper and Newsweek Camera-men's Ass'n and published as one of the 30 best sport photographs in "Best Sports Stories of 1948."

Bill Lobe Day at Stadium on Labor Day

A Bill Lobe Day is being held at the Cleveland Stadium on Labor Day, Sept. 5th. Bill was one time bat boy and now is batting practice catcher for the Cleveland Indians and has been with the Cleveland Ball Club 21 years. Having played on the local sandlots, many of his former teammates and his many friends wish to honor Bill Lobe for his faithful service to the Ball Club by giving him a BIG day at the Stadium.

Among the Committee members authorized to receive donations are the following: Mardi Deutsch, 4630 St. Clair Ave. care of Steve Urbany and also Norwood Men's Shop, Inc., 6217 St. Clair, care of John Kovacic. Chapter Seven . . .

Wrong Pew

Fertile, Wash. — The Boilermaker's Union was in the middle of a tense session when a speaker rose to demand: "Let's forget about the boiler-makers and get down to discussing the business of our union." Inspection of the speaker's membership book showed he was in the wrong meeting. He was a member of Local 300 Paper-hangers, Painters and Decorators meeting down the hall.

DOLLARS GO FARTHER—BUT

A short time ago, the New York Herald Tribune published a series of articles dealing with the drops in food prices that have occurred since last year. It took the prices charged by one of the large chain systems as its yardstick. It found that butter declined 21 per cent, meat 21 per cent, eggs 23 per cent, cheese 22 per cent, and so on down a list of staple commodities.

Prices in most other lines have also shown substantial declines. Clothes, appliances, drygoods—in almost every case they are well down from the highs that were reached after the war, when demand outran supply by a wide margin, and "easy money" was prevalent.

The factors that have caused the drops in prices are many. One of the most important is retail competition. The chain store system, which was the Herald Tribune's yardstick, has to compete for business with all the other chains and all the other independents operating in the area it serves. Price-conscious consumers soon learn where the best buys are to be had, and act accordingly.

This is true of every kind of store, dealing in every kind of consumer goods. Price reductions on the wholesale and manufacturing levels are soon translated into price reductions at the retail level. Greater efficiency and economy in store operation likewise lead to lower figures on the price tags. That is why our dollars, shrunken as they still are by prewar standards, are going farther now.

But such factors as competition and progressive retailing practices that bring prices down should not blind consumers to economy reality. Costs are high. Profit margins, especially in retailing, have been reduced to the vanishing point. And the inflationary danger of a rising government debt is returning. If wages and other costs again move upward in the path of inflation, retail prices will follow. That is inevitable.

LAST CALL FOR MENS RETREAT

Just a week remains before our closed retreat opens at the Diocesan Retreat House on Friday evening, Sept. 9. Reservations are still being received by Father Tomic. Make yours today, if possible, with a $5 deposit and the coupon below.

We are not saying that: You Must Go! No! We are asking you to make up your mind if you are willing to sacrifice a couple of days of your life to get closer to God. No one is getting any younger these days, and the day is fast approaching when we will be called on Judgment Day to give to God an answer for our good and bad deeds.

Mail your reservation soon and we will all meet at the Diocesan Retreat House at 185th Lake Shore Blvd. on Sept. 9th at 6:30 p. m.

Dear Father Tomic: I wish to register for the Retreat.

PICNIC

The Senior Sodality is planning an outdoor picnic Sunday, Sept. 18th at the Bedford Reservation. Any Sodality who intends to go must bring a Turk, EX-3766 to make her reservations. Your friends are also invited to come to this picnic. So don't forget the date, the 3rd Sunday in September. Rain or Shine we are going.

The Bells of St. Mary's

PTA CHATTER IS BACK WITH SOME CHATTER

St. Mary's PTA will hold its first meeting of the new school year Thursday, September 8, 1949, and every second Thursday of the month thereafter. The meeting will begin promptly at 8:00 p. m. in the Stud Club Room.

The newly elected officers are as follows: President: Mrs. August Petelin, 679 E. 137 St., UL-1-0688; Vice-President: Mrs. Herman Stupica, 15414 Muskoka Ave., KE-7435; Recording Secretary: Mrs. Lewis Maylin, 502 E. 140 St., LI-4508; Treasurer: Mrs. Anthony Opalek, 424 E. 160 St., KE-8176; Corresponding Secretary: Mrs. Louis Evancic, 15703 Saranac Rd., MU-3022; Auditor: Mrs. Stanley Kocetek, 683 E. 157 St., PO-1974; Historian: Mrs. Richard Mooney, 15242 Plato Ave., UL-1-2547; Membership Chairman: Mrs. Charles Lavrich, 722 E. 155 St., LI-4305; Sunshine Chairman: Mrs. Louis Novosel, 22701 Arms Ave., RE-6424; Home-Making Chairman: Mrs. August Lapuh, 15802 Holmes Ave., PO-0731; Safety and Juvenile Protection Chairman: Mrs. Fred Stronisa, 797 E. 156 St., MU-4519; Girls' Nursing and Red Cross Chairman: Mrs. Louis Opalek, 15409 Holmes Ave., GL-7211.

We suggest that the PTA members out this list out of the paper and keep it near the telephone, so that if you ever have to get in touch with one or another of these ladies, you have the names, addresses and phone numbers on hand.

Now that the new year is starting for the PTA we would like to urge all members to attend and bring a new member. If all the ladies that have not yet joined the PTA would only attend one meeting to find out what sort of work we do, I'm sure they would all join.

Many of you ladies will be wondering what our first meeting will be about.

Well, first of all, there's the drive for new members. We had wonderful results with that last year thanks to the ladies who did their part in bringing in new members. This year, we would like to do even better. For those of you who would like to join to be well informed, just call Mrs. Charles Lavrich, LI-4305. She will be hoping for many calls, we suit."

know, and she will be glad to explain anything you may want to know.

Also on the agenda for the first meeting will be the new program for the coming year. It really is a big program, too, with plenty of events coming up. Those of us who are members can truthfully say that we are glad of it, and we are sure our children are, too, since the PTA is solely for their benefit. P. S.: We have refreshments after every meeting.

That's all for this time, so I will close for now. There is just one reminder I want to pass on to you: Those of you who are interested in joining, please come to the meeting, or call Mrs. Lavrich. So long for now!

MRS. LOUIS EVANCIC
Your Correspond. Sec'y.

ED'S NOTE . . .

Set you are glad to see we are not dead, even if we did "retire" for the summer. But that was only temporary. However, Yed is retiring permanently, as of next week since by that time she will be out-of-town beginning her four years of college. She hopes . . . if she gets through, I must say, that though at times in these past four years of my editorial "career" I have been discouraged by the absence of news, still it has been fun, from the begging for news, to the last minute typing of articles that kept me up to the wee hours of Tuesday nights.

From henceforth, all communications with regards to this news-sheet, all threatening letters, atomic line bombs, etc., etc. may be addressed to Miss Bernadette Korosko, 690 E. 158 St. Threatening messages may also be delivered by phone, PO-1042. But please don't deliver news by phone. It has to be in writing, may I remind you, and it has to arrive by Tuesday morning's mail.

That's all. Good luck, Bernie, and I leave to you my gray hairs, which are all I have to my name.

So Long!

Friday, September 2, 1949

Visitors at our office last week were Mrs. Marion Grom, son Frankie, her brother, Ivan Buh with his son, both of whom were refugees. They came from Chicago to visit a sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Zdesar, in Mentor, O.

Accompanied by Mrs. Tomie, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Zale of Hibbing, Minn. stopped in to say hello to us. They were on their way home from Washington, D. C., where they visited a son and daughter. In Cleveland they stayed at home of a brother, John Zale at 452 E. 197 St.

Greetings from San Pedro, Cal., were sent by Antonia Gnidovec. She writes that it is lovely there but it is very dry.

Mrs. Mathias Skerbec arrived recently from Europe and is now staying at the home of his sister, Mrs. Jos. Turk, 1046 E. 69 St.

In the company of Mr. Lawrence Bandi, Mr. Jerry W. Koprivsek, organizer of Brooklyn, N. Y., visited our office last week. Mr. Koprivsek has been visiting in Canada in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Marko Stekar and their daughter and husband. Home again, after an operation, is Anton Champana of 1122 E. 63 St., where friends are welcome to visit him.

John Tanko Sr., of 19600 Arrowhead Ave., underwent an operation last week at St. Alexis Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery!

Mr. Joe Skuk was injured at work last week. He was taken to Charity Hospital.

Mrs. Gertrude Novak signed a contract with the builder Frank Strumby to have a house built on E. 61 St., between Milankar's and the Grecedine residences.

John Brodnick of 1324 Gladdings Rd., was operated on last week. We wish him a speedy recovery!

From Kelley Island came greetings from Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kocijan, Mr. and Mrs. John Kic Sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kic.

Mrs. Frank Stemberger of 8613 Rosewood Ave., had to undergo two dangerous operations. She is now recuperating at home. We wish her a speedy recovery!

Visiting the Perse family of 1160 Norwood Rd., last week was Mrs. Helen Turk of Strasburg, Pa. She also stopped in at our office to get acquainted.

Denver, Colo. — The management conscientiously posted "No Dogs Allowed" signs all around the new local dog track.

Michigan City, Ind. — Trustees Walter Gump and Leo Stumbaugh, who were stopped while walking out of the Indiana State Prison, admitted that they did it frequently and had used their time off to hold up a store for $4,145 and buy a Buick coupe, which they kept in the prison parking lot when it was not being used either for joyrides or for getaway purposes in other holdups.

Mobile, Ala. — Mrs. Mildred Rice read the fine print on her divorce decree and learned that she had been given custody of her ex-husband rather than her child.

Detroit, Mich. — Patrolman Edward F. Borchart, ace police retriever of stolen automobiles, was arrested for stealing an automobile. There is nothing like learning the tricks of the trade from experts.

South Houston, Texas. A stray yellow alley cat wandered into the local post office building and gave birth to four kittens under the Special Delivery window.

Rev. John Jerse, who has been pastor for many years in Tower, Minn., visited our office in the company of Joseph Neumanich, formerly one of his parishioners, now living in Cleveland.

Charleston, S. C. —

Mannie Griffin, suspected of theft, yielded up the evidence — a $20 bill and 2 dollar bills — when police made him drink a solution of warm water and soap.

Tucker, Ark. — It took 7 prison-farm waiters, instead of the usual two, to serve condemned murderer Harvey Rorie the traditional last meal: fried chicken, fried catfish, mayonnaise, coconut cake, coconut pie, lemon pie, one half-gallon French fried potatoes, potato salad, one-half gallon vanilla ice cream, hot biscuits, vegetable salad, half-pound of butter, 1 gallon of lemonade, one half-gallon of milk, one half-gallon of strong black coffee, two packs of cigarettes and five cigars.

Columbus, O. — President Howard Bervis of State University discovered that a chemical used by the entomology department to exterminate moths in his house, had eaten holes in all the rugs.

STRAIGHT FROM WASHINGTON

By STEPHEN M. YOUNG
Ohio
Congressman-at-Large

Washington. — The Administration's recently issued "white paper" on China policy caused a lot of comment. It is called a "white paper" because it is a document of clarification, according to one of our striped-pants diplomats. The British use a similar designation. The word "paper" is misleading. Actually, the document is a 1,054 page book — a big book at that weighing three pounds. Old-timers say that State Department officials intentionally make reports verbose and difficult to read so when someone criticizes the report State Department defenders can ask: "Have you read the whole report?" of course, few persons in Washington have that much spare time, and certainly not Congressmen. So criticism falls somewhat flat when they must admit they haven't read the entire "paper."

LETTER THAN IN FEBRUARY
Helen Cahagan Douglas, (D), California, is smart, also smart-looking and by all odds the best-looking Member of Congress. She was an actress and is the wife of Melvyn Douglas, the well-known actor. In the House of Representatives debate on the Democratic Platform pledge increasing the present minimum wage of forty cents an hour, or sixteen dollars per week, to seventy-five cents an hour, Mrs. Douglas spoke eloquently urging protection to employees of telephone companies having up to five hundred subscribers. The bill before the House proposed an exemption only for employees of companies serving seven hundred and fifty or more subscribers. Under that provision, small companies could pay the women operators a low hourly wage. "I am speaking for women," Mrs. Douglas said, "Unless you adopt my amendment ten thousand women will be uncovered." The House roared with laughter but Mrs. Douglas' amendment won.

LET'S GO
If the program of military aid to European nations is to accomplish any good whatever, it must be prosecuted promptly and vigorously. We are winning the cold war but we cannot afford to lose the momentum we have already gained. By our policies we have saved Italy, Greece and Turkey from being taken over by Communist Russia. Europe, with its great storehouse of skills and its heritage of free institutions, seemed about to break-up, piece by piece, under the sway of Communist totalitarian control. It was saved only by the exercise of the Truman doctrine, sometimes referred to as the Marshall Plan or ECA. This program to maintain peace has been extended by the North Atlantic Defense treaty and will be further strengthened by arms aid to our associate nations.

FOR THE GENERAL WELFARE
The best and most important news from your Congress during recent weeks is that the Committee on Ways and Means has recommended and the House will surely pass the Administration Social Security Program extending old age and survivors insurance coverage from the present thirty-five million persons now covered to approximately eleven million additional persons not now covered. We in the Committee on Ways and Means have been working in lengthy daily sessions for twenty-six weeks dealing exclusively with Social Security problems. This is the first extension and liberalization of the Social Security Act in ten years. Benefits for existing beneficiaries will be increased from fifty to one hundred and fifty percent. Minimum primary benefits have been increased one hundred and fifty percent. Minimum family benefits have been increased from eight-fifty to one hundred and fifty dollars per month. A good prediction is that the public generally will be pleased with the bill our Committee has prepared and that following its passage in the House of Representatives the Senate in response to public sentiment will act favorably on this legislation early next year. Federal contributions to the states have been increased one hundred and sixty million dollars yearly for the needy aged, the blind and for dependent children. This new Social Security proposal also provides that a worker drawing retirement benefits may now earn up to fifty dollars a month instead of the present limit of only fifteen dollars without losing retirement pay. A provision beneficial to veterans of World War II is that every veteran is given an arbitrary wage credit of one hundred and sixty dollars for each month of military service.

Yugoslav Slovene Club

The month of September brings an end of summer heat and vacations, and with it an eagerness to meet the club members again. On schedule for the first meeting will be a picnic supper at Urban's on Chardon Road, W. 14, Sept. 14, 1949.
Members will be notified by card to directions and time, so leave early date open for Wednesday, Sept. 14th.

The Misadventures Of Isabel

The drive from Washington to Annapolis took just a little over a half hour. We stopped first in the city of Annapolis, which has all the old world charm of any post card from Europe. The streets are (some of the older ones) still paved with cobblestones, and are very narrow, with tiny antique shops along both sides.

Out in the main section of the town, of course, the streets are just like those of any large city, well paved and wide.

We drove up one of these main streets to the Capitol of Maryland. It is a brick building of Georgian architecture, and there are two halls just off the main lobby where art pieces and colonial dishes, silver, dresses, etc. are on display. There are several women there who act as guides in the rooms, and they all wear colonial dresses.

We looked through that place, and then were told to go down Maryland Ave. at the side of the Capitol, and that we would find the naval Academy at the end of the street. So we walked down the street with the cobblestones and the antique shops.

At the end of the street was a gate that led to Annapolis... the Naval Academy!

The grounds, as we walked in, were all solid green grass, old gnarled trees, and green bushes. The place was all green with the fresh verdure of spring. Over to our left as we walked up the drive was the Museum. We spent a few minutes looking at the display of naval command ships, and swords of naval commanders, and guns and pictures of John Paul Jones and John Barry, and lots of other men. There were also two huge oil paintings... one of fire on the sea and one of the sunshine on the sea. The last one was truly a masterpiece! It showed only an expanse of sea with early morning sunlight on it. You couldn't see the sun, just the light as it hit the waves. The waves looked so real that you could almost hear them lapping at the shore, and almost smell the salty smell of the ocean.

After that, they herded us to the Chapel, which is undenominational. The Catholic boys at the Academy hear Mass early on Sunday morning, and then the Blessed Sacrament is taken back to the Church it came from, and the Protestant boys have their services.

The Chapel is very beautiful inside, with its stained glass windows, and ornate decorations. There is one huge window at the front of the Chapel, immediately over the altar, that is called "Christ Walking on the Water." It shows the young man Christ walking over the waves of Lake Gennesareth. He has His arms outstretched slightly as if all ready to rescue Peter from the waters.

After that, they took us down into crypt, where the remains of John Paul Jones lie in a marble coffin. There are columns of marble around the space where the enormous coffin is. The coffin is all closed up of course, so you don't see anything but a lot of beautiful black marble.

Then they let us loose, and told us that there were three ships anchored on the bay and we could explore those.

However, by the time we got to the ships it was four o'clock, and they don't allow any visitors on after four. We got onto one of them, and I just had one sailor explaining his anti-aircraft gun worked, when we were told we had to go.

We did go onto one of the other ships, that had a special display of landing craft below decks. I wanted to go down, but the way down led over a ramp that seemed to fall directly into the water, and even though it was roped off, Gloria refused to go. I grumbled for a while, then finally made the trip alone. There were tanks and "ducks" and other landing craft in the body of the great ship. I'm interested in how all those things worked, so I wanted to stay and listen to the explanations of the guides. However, I was worried that we'd get left behind, since most of our group were already above, so I went back up the narrow ramp to the main deck, where a helicopter was just landing.

We admired the pilot's "stop-on-a-dime-and-give-you - some - change" landing, and as soon as the propellers had stopped turning, so that we could get past, we joined our crowd on the other side of the deck.

As soon as we saw that we were all together, we began our precarious way down the gangplank, which was really just a narrow and rather weak appearing plank set at an angle against the side of the boat. It seemed as if it would never hold our weight, but it did and we got down safely.

Since we had been told to meet at Gate 5 at 5:00, we passed the tennis courts, we noticed a midshipman standing alone watching the boys who were playing.

"Where's gate 5?" we asked him.

He grinned at us, and told us, "Well, you can go down the beach till you come to the five acre parade field."

"Do we have to cross the five acre parade field?" I asked anxiously, for I was very tired from the afternoon of walking.

His grin got wider. "No, you just walk up along it, and you'll get to Gate 5 in no time at all."

"That's good," said one of the other girls. "We're sort of tired, you know."

"I suppose you are," he replied. "Another of the group put in, 'Isn't there a short way, up over the walk?'"

"I don't know if it's any shorter," said the midshipman, "in fact I think it's longer, but you can take it. Just go up these steps and take the drive to your right, and you will end up in front of the Museum. Then take the walk beside the Museum and you will get to Gate 5."

"The others are going that way," pointed out Gloria.

"Then let's suggested one of the girls.

We thanked the midshipman for guiding us, and began the walk up to the gate.

But here I am out of space again, so you will just have to wait till next week.

With Love,
ISABEL

CINDER LEAGUE

In last week's play in the Cinder League, the highlight took place on Sunday morning at the E. 61 St. Clair field in the game between the Copain Sports and Ambassadors of Sports. Manager "Blow" Drobnik's Ambassadors won a big victory over the powerful first place Copains. The score was 7 to 2 and it was one of the best league games of the season. Stars of the game were "Wash" Krivacic, who hurled for the winners, "Wash" also owns one of the few 3-hitters in the league, which he turned in recently.

Hank Ayon, Ambassador centerfielder, hit 2 for 2 and performed brilliantly in the field. Time and again, after smacking hard hit balls, Hank's fine throws to third baseman Al Intihar prevented opposing runners on 2nd base from advancing a base. Jack Kordic, catcher for the same team, hit the only homer of the game. It was a long drive over the steel wire fence in right field. As for the Copains they played steady ball as usual but couldn't get that hit or two when needed. "Heinie" Lauric, their shortstop, got a couple of hits, so did "Pinky" Prebil who was the losing pitcher.

The Ambassadors are the surprise team of the league. When the season started, the story was — one defeat after another. It seemed they would never win a game. But they got going and now have won 8 of their last 10 games. They are the most improved team in the league.

This week winds up the regular scheduled games, all will be played to-morrow, but there'll be plenty of ball games played yet in the eliminations starting next week.

"Ace" Krausz (Pauline's) and "Beany" Intihar (Ambassadors) will be trying to overtake or at least tie Joe Slogar (Pauline's) for the league home run crown. Joe is one ahead of them, with six. The others are tied for second right now with five each.

The other scores were:

Friday Evening:

Zak's 11 — Shore 7.

Norwood 6 — St. Clair 2.

Saturday Afternoon:

Norwood 10 — Zak's 6.

Ambassadors 7 — St. Clair 4.

Copain's 6 — Club 67 5.

Pauline's 13 — Lach's E. B. 1.

Sunday Morning:

Copain's 10 — Shore 4.

Lach's E. B. 9 — Shore 9.

Air Force Offers Career

Interviews will be given to young men and women from this area interested in a career in aviation as an officer in the U. S. Air Force.

Headquarters have been established at Room 109 Federal Building by 1st Lt. Roy Connor who will explain career opportunities, assist applicants in filling out application forms, and give qualifying examinations to those seeking Aviation Cadet training.

Three types of training are open to young men — the Aviation Cadet Pilot Program, the Aviation Cadet Navigator Program, and the Officer Candidate Program. The latter program, which prepares officers for nonflying junior executive duties in administrative and technical fields, is open to both men and women who are qualified.

The two Aviation Cadet Programs, either for pilot or for navigator training, are similar in requirements and methods of instruction. Graduates receive commissions as second lieutenants in the Air Force. After completing the one-year course which includes approximately 265 hours of flying, graduates of pilot training receive flying assignments as rated pilots on active duty with the Air Force. Graduates of the one-year navigator course, who spend 194 hours in the air in "flying classrooms," are assigned as rated navigators on long-range bombers of the Strategic Air Command or big transports of the world-wide Military Air Transport Service.

To be eligible for either pilot or navigator training, male citizens must be between the ages of 20 and 26½; either married or single; with at least 2 years of college or the ability to pass an equivalent examination; and with high physical and moral qualifications. Men and women applying for Air Force Officer Candidate School must be between the ages of 20½ and 26½; with at least 2 years of college or the ability to pass an equivalent examination; in good physical condition; and with high moral and personal qualifications.

The U. S. Air Force Interviewing Team will be in Cleveland only on 6, 7 and 8 Sept. 1949, between the hours of 8:30 a. m. and 5:00 p. m.

Judge Makes It Legal

Like Lure, N. C. — Superior Judge Charles Coggins pulled in a 20-inch rainbow trout weighing 2 1/4 pounds. To make sure his friends back home would believe his fish story, Judge Coggins had a notary public present while the catch was measured.

May Close Ballot to Anton Krchmarek

Anton Krchmarek, secretary of the Ohio Communist League, has no place on the November ballot in the opinion of Secretary of State Chas. F. Sweeney. Krchmarek is a candidate for the Cleveland School Board.

Sweeney, as Ohio's chief election officer, today ordered Ray C. Miller, Election Board Clerk, to investigate Krchmarek's activities and to seek a legal opinion from County Prosecutor Frank T. Cullitan as to his status.

Sweeney said Krchmarek has failed to file an affidavit either with him or the Election Board stating that he does not belong to a party which advocates the overthrow by force of the United States Government.

"I don't believe, since he is an avowed Communist, that he can qualify for a place on the ballot," Sweeney said.

Russia Puts Label Of 'Enemy' on Tito

London. — Russia called Marshall Tito's Yugoslav government an "enemy and foe of the Soviet Union."

It was the first time the Kremlin has hurled the term "enemy" against Tito, although it has bitterly denounced the Yugoslav regime for the last year.

Diplomatic observers were wondering whether the latest outbreak of name-calling signaled a sharper Soviet policy against the Tito government. Marshall Tito last week alerted his troops in Yugoslavia Macedonia, between Communist Bulgaria and Albania, and said his Soviet-dominated neighbors were spreading rumors of a possible Red army invasion there.
