Električni predmeti so dražji

Washington. — OPA je včeraj zopet dovolila višje cene nekaterim predmetom. To zvišanje, sodijo ekonomisti, bo stalo ameriški narod vse do $150,000,000 na leto. OPA je včeraj dovolila višje cene na radijskih aparatih, pečeh, pralnih strojih, električnih čistilec, toasterjih in likalnikih in drugem.

OPA pravi, da je dovolila te višje cene glasom postave, ki ne dovoli, da bi se dobitek tovarnarjev zmanjšal pod onim 31. mar. 1946. Tovarnarji imajo zdaj večje stroške s povečano mezzo delavcem in dražemu materialu, zato je bilo potrebno, pravi OPA, da se tudi izdelki draže prodajajo. OPA naznana, da se je cena goriv navednim predmetom zvišala od 3% do 12%. To zvišanje bo stopilo takoj v veljavno, čim prodajalc obvešča o novih cenah temu ali onemu predmetu.

Kakor poroča urad OPA se bodo cene zvišale takole: za letos.

UNRRA V JUGOSLAVIJI. — blaga je hrana. JUGOSLAVIJA JE VEČINO je pomoč velike mednarodne organizacije UNRRA, za katero plačuje Amerika 72% vsega. Ta organizacija je doslej pripeljala ogromne količine blaga. Po nekaj lastnih podatkih je do 1. junija poslala v Jugoslavijo 1,616,045 ton različnega blaga, do 1. julija se je ta številka pomnožila že na 1,959,255 ton. Od tega je hranje 1,025,417 ton, obleke in čevljev 64,462 ton, zdravil 6,221 ton, kmetijskih potrebskih 86,081 ton, potrebskih za industrijo 362,334. Med drugim je tudi 17,800 voznih živali in 2,500 krav.

Od te ogromne množine je prešlo, preko Trsta 935,283 ton. Vrednost tega blaga se ceni na 275,800,000 dolarjev.

KONVENCIJA KSKJ BO ENA NAJVEČJIH V ZGODOVINI

Konvencija KSKJ, ki prične zborovati v pondeljek 19. avg. v Pueblo, Colo. bo gotovo ena največjih, če ne največja. Ne mora po številu delegacij, ampak po številu oseb, ki so še ob tej prilikai v Pueblo. Skoraj vsak delegat je vzel s seboj svojo ženo, ali kakega drugega sorodnika. Pripravljalni odbor za konvencijo je gotovo imel dosti dela, da je za vse preskrbel stanovanje.

V svojem članku v reviji Collier's pravi Mr. Eden, da vztraja Rusija na tem, da si ustvari naklonjene vlade v sosednjih državah in da je tudi v nekomunističnih državah znala postaviti na vodilna mesta komuniste.

To, pravi Eden, mora prinesti do ločitve med komunisti na eni ter svobodnimi demokracijami na drugi strani. Rusija s takimi potezami ne bo mogla najti varnosti, ker v takih državah vlada komunistična manjšina samo za to, ker stoji za njo Sovjetska Unija in bo na oblasti samo toliko časa, dokler bo imela ta manjšina za seboj Sovjetsko Unijo.

Nova perioda za žganje prične v pondeljek

Columbus, O. — V državi Ohio bo od pondeljka naprej nova perioda za nakup žganja v državnih prodajalnah. Ta perioda bo trajala do 14. sept. Vsak, ki ima kartu dobi v tej periodi isto koliko žganje, kot doslej.

Deževje je pomagalo letini na noge

Washington. — Vremenski urad poroča, da je zadnje deževje rešilo letino v državah New Jersey, Kansas in v večini Missouri.

Pozdrav 21. konvenciji KSKJ.

V pondeljek 19. avgusta se zbere k zasedanju 21. redna konvencija Kranjsko Slovenske Katoliške Jednote v lepem coloradskem mestu Pueblo. Ta najstarejša slovenska bratska organizacija v Ameriki bo po svojih vrlih zastopnikih in zastopnicah gotovo storila vse mogoče za dobrobit članstva, sedajnega in bodočega.

Sedanji, zares zaslužni gl. odbor, je pripravil vse potreben, da bo delegacija lahko zborovala veste, temeljito, pa brez nepotrebnega zavlačevanja. Na konvencijah KSKJ vlada vedno vzoren red, niti ena minuta dragocenega časa ni zamujena. Tako je prav!

Naš urednik je že dolgo let član te naše edine katoliške bratske organizacije v Ameriki in je ponosen na to. Prepri-čan je, da bo ostała naša dična KSKJ tudi v bodoče voditeljica slovenskega katoličanstva v Ameriki. To naj bo njen geslo in tem pravcu naj se naprej vrši svoje vzorno delo med ameriškimi Slovenci. Še posebno je KSKJ poklicana k temu v teh razburkanih časih, ko je na pohodu po vsem svetu zmota. Delegacija na 21. konvenciji KSKJ naj izrazito pokaže, da je še vedno in bo ostała to, kar je bila vse od njenega početka, ko so ji postavili te kremenite temelje njeni prvi pionirji.

Byrnes je zavrnil Molotova, da U. S. niso zabogatele v vojni

Kar hočejo Zed. države od zmage je demokracijo po vsem svetu

Pariz. — Ameriški državni tajnik Byrnes je zavrnil trditev ruske delegacije, kateri na čelu stoji komesar Molotov, da so govorite države zabogatele z zadnjim vojno.

"Rad bi vedel, katera države so zabogatele z vojno?" je vprašal Byrnes. "Jaz ne poznam nobene in upam, da sovjetski govornik ni v tej izjavi misil Zed. držav."

Byrnes je pred konferenco izjavil, da je stala vojna Zed. države vse do 400 milijonov dolarjev, ki jih je posolid ameriški narod. "Amerika ni vprašala za nobeno drugo odškodnino za svojo pomoč v vojni, kot za svobodo vsemu človeštvu, kar se je borila. Amerika ne išče nobenih teritorijev, niti kake denarne odškodnine," je izjavil Byrnes.

Ruski komesar Molotov je pa zato sledil besedam ameriškega delegata ogromne svote, s katerimi lahko vzdržuje svoj komunistični aparat. Teh 140 milijonov dolarjev znesе sedem bilijonov v dinarjih. Ves jugoslovanski predvojni proračun je

Za delavca in za delodajalca

Poroča U. S. Employment Office

Za moške so odprta sledeča dela, za katera naj se zglašijo v gornjem uradu: blokerji za klobuke, popravljaci bržinskih metrov, poliserji za mramor, mehanični za fonografe, mizarji, livarji, jeklarski delavci, strežniki za bolnišnice, težaki za livarne in kladivarne, izkušeni omivalci oken.

Za ženske so odprta sledeča dela: v lepotilnih salonih, v knjižnicih, pri elektro strojih. Za ženske v starosti od 21 do 40 let so odprta razna začetniška dela v tovarnah; te delajo en teden podnevu, en teden ponoči.

Anglija in Amerika sta zato, da se mirovne pogodbe hitro sklenejo

Pariz. — A. V. Alexander, vodja angleške delegacije na mirovni konferenci, je včeraj povedal zbornici, naj hitro spravi v red svoj program ter naj brez vsakega nadaljnega odlašanja odobri mirovne pogodbe z bivšimi sovražnici.

Za ženske so odprta sledeča dela: v lepotilnih salonih, v knjižnicih, pri elektro strojih. Za ženske v starosti od 21 do 40 let so odprta razna začetniška dela v tovarnah; te delajo en teden podnevu, en teden ponoči.

Angleški delegat je s tem podprt ameriškega državnega tajnika Byrnesa, ki je včeraj pobral točko izvajanje ruskega komisarja Molotova, ki je v zadnjih debatah očital zapadnega zavezniškega diktatorstva in samovoljo.

Angleška delegacija je dozajmolčala in Alexander je včeraj izjavil, da se tega molča ne sme napačno razumeti. Glede zahtevne Bolgarije po grškem ozemljju je izjavil Alexander, da bi bilo napačno, če bi se dovolilo Bolgariji prednesti svoje zahteve napram Grčiji, ki je toliko trpeča avto in tisti, ki ga nimata, bodite točno opoldne pri SDD na Recher Ave. Za zabavo in posrežbo je vse dobro preskrbljeno.

BESEDA IZ NARODANa domičih tleh v Coloradi

Cleveland, O. — Danes v Clevelandu, drugi dan pa že v Pueblo, Colorado, — razdalje 1500 milij. Lep skok, kaj ne? Naj v nekaj besedah opisem moj obisk pri dragem očetu v mojem rojstnem mestu, Pueblo, ki mi je vedno tako draga pri srcu. Saj veste, saj se še ptiček rad povrne v gnezdece, kjer se je izvalil.

Potniku, ki se v vlaku bliža mestu Denverju, se že od daleč odpre prekrasna panorama, na črne smrekove gozdove in na visoke gore, ki se dvigajo visoko proti nebnu. V gorski verigi sedi častitljiva gora "Pikes Peak", 14,000 čevljov nad morsko gladino. Pravijo, da je to najbolj obiskana gora na svetu. Lepa, dovolj široka cesta je vsekana do vrha, da se pelješ lahko kar v avtu na vrh. Kdor se pa noče peljati z avtom, si lahko najame potrežljivo živalico, ki te poneše na vrh, oslička.

Ne, zato, ker sem ravno od tam doma, bom trdila, da je tukaj najboljši ribolov na svetu, ampak je fakt, da ni menda nikjer tako okusnih postri, kot se dobre ravno v coloradskih potokih. Torej ribiči, kar tja na počitnice, če hočete imeti zabavo.

Lepo mesto Denver je prestolnica države Colorado. Je tudi največje mesto v Coloradi. V tem mestu je dokaj velika slovenska naselbina, rojaki imajo tam svojo cerkev in tudi narodni dom. V tem Domu boš videl sliko ohijskega guvernerja Lauscheta. Naši zapadni rojaki so zelo ponosni, ker si je demokracija v državi Ohio izbrala sina slovenskega naroda za guvernerja.

V Denverju je bila ustanovljena po prvih slovenskih pionirjih Zapadna slovenska zveza, ki ima tukaj svoj lasten dom in glavni sedež v središču slovenske neselbine. Devetdeset milj od Denverja leži pa "naše" mesto Pueblo. Tukaj so se Slovenci nasečili pred kakimi 60 leti. Moj oče in mati, Josip in Johanna Smerke so prišli tje že pred 50 leti in sicer iz Calumet, Mich. Tukaj je bil potem naš stalni dom, katerega sem zapustila leta 1918. Takrat sem zapustila hišico očetovo in pa "ledig" stan ter se preselila v Cleveland k soprogu Frank Mervarju. Od tedaj sem, seveda, zvesta Clevelandčanka. Toda v mojem srcu je še vedno kotiček, kjer je še vedno slika iz otroških let, slika očeta, mojih številnih prijateljev, in draga hišica očetova. Zato sem se odločila, da po dolgih letih obiščem za nekaj dni svoj rojstni kraj.

V Denverju sem se preselila na drug vlak, ki me je odpeljal v Pueblo. Prijazno so me sprejeli Anthony Jeršin in soprona Frances Mr. Jeršin je gl. tajnik ZSZ. V njih spremstvu sem obiskala še druge uradnike te zvezne in sicer gl. predsednika George Miroslavica in gl. nadzornika Mike Popovicha. Pa tudi nekdanje Pueblo: družino Helen Perko, Antona Zalarja in Ano Papesh. Pri Jeršinovih smo imeli fino kosilo v njih modernem domu, v družbi njih vrlih sinov, ki so pripravovali o svojih doživljajih tekom vojne na stran morja. Vse to je bilo prehitro, da se godi pri našem sosedu. In morda so Rusi na pravem potu za dosegom svojih ciljev. V Ameriki se vedno manj kaže volja za žrtve v dosegu svetovnega mira. Vedno bolj se sliši glasove po manjši armadi in pa glasovi, naj prepustimo Rusiji proste roke v Evropi.

TO IN ONO

Zed države so dale Jugoslaviji po vojni UNRRA že nad $275,000,000 vrednosti raznega blaga. Vse to je bilo Jugoslaviji podarjeno. Vzprisko tega Amerikanci ne morejo zapasti, kako da morejo Jugoslovani streljati na ameriško transportno letalo, ki je v slabem vremenu zašlo v zrak nad Jugoslavijo. Ameriško letalo ni bilo oboroženo, niti ni nameravalo pristati na jugoslovenskih tleh. Napravilo je samo mal ovinek na potu iz Dunaja v Neapelj. Jugoslavija venuomer gleda, kako bi iz prijateljev napravila sovražnike, kar se ji bo še otepal, če kaj vemo. Amerikanci si mislijo, da bi za $275,000,000 vrednosti blaga pač smeli vsaj za par minut dihati "svobodni" zrak nad Jugoslavijo, ki je vendar tako poceni.

vesele kramljanju izročili pozdrave vsem svojim številnim prijateljem v Clevelandu.

V torek smo se pa zabavali v parku blizu naše hiše. Tam so pogrnili mize, okrog katerih so se zbrali številni prijatelji moji in naše družine: Louis in Frances Raspet, Mary Spritzel, Joe in Mary Gorsich iz Leadville, Colo. in tudi naš očka Helen. Lahko si mislite, kako je bilo to veselo smidenje, zlasti za našega starega očeta, ki so vedno tako sami. Naša mama je namreč umrla leta 1931, njih hči oziroma moja sestra Mary Wuksinich pa letošnjega februarja, bratova žena pa leta 1944. Prav po dolensko smo potem zborovali v naši hiši; jaz pa stregla kar trem domaćim vodcem. Če bi bil še naš Jaka tukaj, bi jih bilo pa ravno za en pod in sami najlepši vdovci skupaj.

Napravili so tudi posebno slavnostno košilo ob tej priliki in povabljeni smo bili od dobletnih prijateljev naše družine, Mr. in Mrs. Martin Fear in njih odrasle družine. Miza je bila obložena z vsemi dobrotami, kakršne znajo pripraviti samo naše slovenske matice. Dragi prijatelji, iskreno smo vam hvaležni za vašo prijateljsko naklonjenost. Urič, ki sem jih preživel v vaši prijetni družbi, mi bodo v trajen spomin.

Brat in njegova hčerka sta moralna po nekaj dneh oditi znotoljubno v posrežbo. Vsak trenutek, ki sem ga preživel med njimi mi bo postal v prijetnem spominu. Mojemu dragemu očetu, ki bodo na 20. avgusta praznovali svoj 84. rojstni dan, pa klicemo "njih otroci" iz Clevelandu: "Bog Vas živi še mnogo let zdrave in zadovoljne!" Bodite iskreno pozdravljeni vsi skupaj in na svidenju.

znašal komaj nekaj nad deset bilijonov v dinarjih. Jugoslovanska vlada pravi, da je od tega porabil 46 milijonov dolarjev za obnovu v državi. V načrtu ima vladna baje, da porabi še letos spet 128 milijonov za obnovu. Koliko se bo res porabilo za obnovbo ne bo mogel nihče kontrolirati, ker te kontrole UNRRA nima.

Naj pripomnim, da drugi cenejo dohodek Titove vlade od prodaje UNRRA blaga na 180 milijonov dolarjev.

VELIKA POMOČ KOMUNIZMU. — Ker je tako imela vladna vso besedo pri tem, kdo dobije blago, je očvidno, da je komunistični režim imel veliko pomoč do ameriške dobrodelnosti. Pri zadnjem tržaškem štrajku so tudi tržaški komunisti dobivali iz Jugoslavije različno blago, da so mogli v svojem političnem štrajku proti zavezniški upravi vzdržati. Zavezniška uprava je zaplenila precej tega blaga, ki je prišlo po UNRRA v Jugoslavijo in bilo zopet poslano v Trst komunistom v pomoč. Aii ni to zloraba dobrote?

ODKOD BLAGO UNRRA? — V mnogih slučajih so partizani tudi zatajevali, da bi prišlo blago UNRRA iz Amerike. Govorili so, da je iz Rusije. Pravijo, da je celo v neki belgrajski šoli učitelj pripravoval otrokom, da je UNRRA neka pokrajina v Rusiji, daleč nekje za uralskim pogorjem. Tam da imajo, ker so dobri komunisti, vsega dovolj, pa so poslali malo od tega sedaj tudi Jugoslovom.

SABOTAŽE. — Poročal sem, da je bila v začetku junija v Kragujevcu velika eksplozija. Nesrečno pripisujejo vladni listi tistim opozicionalcem, ki ne marajo Titovega režima. Poročajo pa, da je bilo v Srbiji še več takih sabotažnih dejanj. Ta-so se sežgale in dvakrat so osojene, fižol pa neslan! Ja, kaj se pa prav za prav to pravi, a?"

"Ata, kaj ne veš, kaj je danes?" naglo pritegne ta mal, ki bo nekoč doma imel.

"Kaj je danes? Petek je, ali ni?" bi jaz rad vedel.

"Aha, petek, petek, pa kaj ne veš, da bo šla nocoj naša Jean na ples? Saj si ji sam dovolil in si ji. Zato pa je taka večerja."

"Šerap!" je zavpila nanj gubernatorka, potem pa pogleda s svojimi plavimi očmi mene, enčes, če bo zdaj kakšna huda ura. Tok tako, na ples gre nocoj, od tod taka košta na naši mizo. Jaz sem pa zbral skupaj ves svoj očetovski pogum in ji zažagal:

"To ti pa rečem, da kadar se boš še pripravljala na ples, bomo šli k Šornu večerjat!"

"Oh, boy!" je vzkliknila, "pa ne bo treba črepinj pomivat!"

Vidite, take so naše dečeve, kadar so v tistih nerodnih letih. Kaj č'mo.

Ogenj je zaprasketal in vzplapolal in osvetjeval temne ciprese; iskre so letale čez mestno zidovje, ribič na morju pa je z začudnjem zapazil, kako so se valovi rdeče svetli.

Jone je stala ločena od drugih ljudi, pokrila s iz rokami obraz in ni videla plamenov, ne slišala žalostink ne godbe. Pretresalo jo je eno samo čustvo — zapuščenosti; kajti ona še ni poznala tolažbe, ki pravi, da nismo sami, marveč da so mrtvi z nami.

Veter je pospeševal učinek goriva v grmadi. Polagoma pa so začeli plameni pojemanji, le tu pa tam so se še sijale iskre. Kjer je bilo še malo prej ne-mirno in živo, je ležal zdaj le še mrtev pepel.

Zadnje iskre so pogasili sužnji in zbrali vroči pepel. Ostanki sežganega trupla so namocili z najbolj redkim vinom in z najdragocenejšimi diš-cestro? Ha, kaj bledeš? Tvoja vest te izdaja! Ti trepečeš pred strelo božje osvete? Poberi se od mene in pusti me samo v moji žalosti!"

Cleveland, O. 16. avg. 1946.

"Nesreča ti je zmešala pamet Jone," je dejal Arbac, ki si je zaman prizadeval, ohraniti svoj mirni glas. "Toda odpušcam ti. V meni najdeš zdaj in vselej svojega najbožjega prijatelja. Ali cesta ni primerno mesto, da se sporazumeva. Semkaj, sužnji! Pridi, majo sladka varovanka, stopi v nosilnico!"

Vam in napolnili srebrno žaro, ki so jo položili na neki spomenik ob cesti. Položili so vanjo tudi še majhno stekleničico s solzami in majhen čenar, kar je bilo namenjeno godrnjavemu Karonu. Nagrobeni spomenik je bil okrašen s svetjem in z venci, na žrtveniku pa se je žgalo dišavo kadilo, a krog in krog je gorelo mnogo svetlik.

Drugi dan pa, ko je hotel svečenik zanemnjeni s vedečevtvice okrog spomenika, je opazil, da je neka neznana roka položila med te poganske spomenike — palmovo vejico. Pustil jo je tam, ker ni slutil, da je bilo to pogrebno znamenje kristjanov.

DEVETO POGLAVJE.

Nekateri udeleženci so ostati, da se udeleže s svečeniki pogrebne pojedine, Jone pa je šla v družbi suženj naravnost domov.

Šele zdaj, ko je opravila zadnje dolžnosti napram bratu, se je vzdržala iz svojih turobnih sanj in začela misliti na svojega ženina in na strašno obtožbo proti njemu. Karker smo že omenili, ni niti za trenutek verovala tej neravnini obdožitvi, pač pa je gojila temno slutnjo proti Arbacu. Zato je čutila dolžnost ne le do svojega ženina, marveč tudi do umrlega brata, da mora iti k pretorju in mu razodeti, kar je ona smatrala za popolnoma gotovo, dasi ni imela nikakega dokaza za to. Njene služabnice ji doslej niso níčesar povedale o stanju Glavka, da bi ji še ne povečale njene bolesti, in trpljenja. Od njih je prej izvedela, da je biludo bolan, da je zdaj v Salustovem hiši in da je že določen dan, ko bo založen.

"O, bogovi!" je vzkliknila, "kako sem mogla tako dolgo pozabiti nanj?" — O, moram mu dokazati, da ga ne smaram krim! Takoj, takoj! Ako mi ne bodo verjeli, a ne bodo soglašali z mojim globokim prepričanjem, ako ga obsojijo v prognanstvo ali smrti, tedaj hočem deliti usodo z njim!"

Nehote je pospešila korak, ali ni prav vedela, kam naj bi najpöprej šla, ali k pretorju ali h Glavku. Bila je že na ulici. Hiša so bile večinoma že odprte, toda videti je bilo še malo ljudi. Ko je zavila okoli nekega ogla, je zagledala več mož, ki so stali okoli pokritke nosilnice. Iz nosilnice je stopila krepka moška postava, in Jone je prestrašena zakričala, ko je spoznala Arbac.

"Krasna Jone," je spregovoril prijazno, "moja varovanka, moja rejenka! Odpusti, ake te motim v tvoji pobožnih dolžnostih, toda pretor je v skrbeh za tvojo čast in želi, da se ne bi prenaglieno vmešavala v bližajočo se preiskavo. On pozna čudno zapletenost tvojega položaja, ki te sili, da iščeš pravico za umorjenega brata, pa se bojš obenem za kazeno svojega ljubimca. — Pretor te je izročil očetovskemu nadzorstvu tvojega zakonitega varuhu, ker smatra za umestno, da ne ostaneš brez moškega sveta in pomoči. Glej tu pisanie, ki te izroča mojemu varstvu!"

"Poberi se od mene, ostudiš Egipčan," je zaklicala Jone in ponosno stopila korak nazaj. Mojega brata si umoril ti! Torej tvojemu varstvu, v tvoje še s krvjo omadeževane roke hočeo izročiti njegovo ljubavne pijače in bi torej moga nastopiti za pričo v tem, na kakšen način je Glavk izgubil pamet, vsled česar bi se pokazal njegov zločin v docela drugačni luči, — koliko bolj se moral bati njenega pričetja prej, ko je izvedel, da je Nidija sama dala Grku ono priča! Slutil je tudi, da bo skušala celo na škodne lastne srežljivosti svoj zagresek praviti in rešiti svojega ljubljence? Pa kako nečastno bi bilo za Arbabcev stan insloves, a ko bi bil razkrinkan zvodnik Julijine strasti in dober znanec čarovnice z Vezuva!

Nidija v svoji slepoti pač marsičesa v vsakdanjem življenju ni poznala. Kot sužnja in tukta tudi ni poznala rimske zakonov, zato pa je toliko vrne misila na Glavkovo bolezzen in na njegovo blažnost, kateri na podtkani mu zločin in na nevarnosti, ki bi utegnile slediti po bližajoči se preiskavi. Kaj pa je mogla vedeti uboga nesrečna o senatu in sodbi — o divnosti ljudstva — o areni in levjem žrelu? Bila je navajena misli, da je v Glavku združeno vse, kar je vzbujeno v Glavkovo bolezzen in na njegovo blažnost, kateri na podtkani mu zločin in na nevarnosti, ki bi utegnile slediti po bližajoči se preiskavi. CONDENSED NEWS FROM OUR HOME FRONT

Cleveland, Ohio

Friday, August 16, 1946

Greater Cleveland now has 571,000 employed persons and 46,000 unemployed, half of whom are war veterans. Employment in this country is only 12% less than in the best year, which was 1943.

Two pilotless B-17 planes made a trip from Hawaii to Muroc, Calif. This 2,400-mile trip was the longest in aviation history. Each B-17 was radio-controlled by another plane.

The Administration of Civilian Production has ordered that all new houses to be available to veterans for 60 days instead of the present 30 days. Only in the case that no veterans apply for them, can the contractors sell them to anyone else.

Federal approval has been given for a lake-front airport between E. 12th and E. 30th Sts. The cost will be $3,500,000. Plans are being made to fill the land with the dredgings from the Cuyahoga River, which is being made deeper to allow larger vessels to dock here.

The presidents of six Ohio universities advised Governor Lausche to use Camp Perry, O., as a university for former servicemen, since the housing problem is very acute in the vicinity of any university. The Governor promised to look into this suggestion.

Admiral Cooke declared that American Marines will stay in China and that they will also shoot if attacked. There are about 23,000 Marines in China.

The strike of 200 workers of the Imperial Electric Co., which lasted 141 days, has been settled. The Union accepted the company's offer of the hourly increase of 18½ cents.

The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., which announced an increase in price on Chesterfields, Fatmias and Piedmonts beginning August 1, has now rescinded the increase because other tobacco companies did not follow this lead.

British Field Marshall Lord Wilson declared that Allied miscalculations were the causes for the enormous losses suffered in Italy at Anzio and Cassino.

The U. S. under-secretary of State William Clayton told UNRRA council that U. S. was through contributing to UNRRA and that the nations of Europe must begin looking toward the restoration of world trade instead of relief.

At its yearly banquet, the Builders' Union speaker, Jack F. Burns, stated that the union's 30,000 members will back solidly Thomas Herbert, the Republican candidate for governor of Ohio. But this is not the first time that organized labor had declared itself against Lausche. Two years ago, when the unions supported James Stewart in this county, Lausche won with a majority of 192,156 votes, — 365,226 votes for Lausche and 173,070 for Stewart.

Pope Pius received Myron Taylor, the personal representative of President Truman, in a private audience last week.

Visiting our office last week were the Misses Julia, Dorothy and Agnes Debevec of Madison, O. They looked over our printing shop and later attended the Geneva picnic held at Euclid Beach Park.

Ohio will not get a chance to vote for or against prohibition at the fall elections, because the Drys did not get enough signatures to present his question to voters. They produced only 20,000 signatures, but they should have at least 30,000.

In Berlin, Lt. Colonel A. E. Link, 37, of Philadelphia, committed suicide rather than face black market charges before military court. He sold American cigarettes and candy, making enormous profits.

The world's largest bombing plane B-36 made its first flight for 36 minutes at Fort Worth, Texas. It can carry a 30-ton bomb and has six motors, each 3,000 horsepower. It is so large that the B-29 can hide under its one wing.

The SNJ Convention began Monday at Eveleth, Minn. On August 19, KSKJ begins its convention at Pueblo, Colorado.

Governor Lausche called a special session of the Ohio Legislature for August 20th, at which they will be asked to consider: increased benefits to old age pensioners and blind persons; creation of commissions to study possible upward revision of state employees' salaries; to study the state's tax structure with a view towards more equitable distribution of revenues.

Admiral Cooke declared that American Marines will stay in China and that they will also shoot if attacked. There are about 23,000 Marines in China.

The new Ford auto which was given away by St. Mary's parish, is now owned by Mrs. Frank Klun of 15934 Whitcomb Ave.

Admiral Blandy announced at Bikini Island that the next atomic bomb experiment will take place 3,000 feet under the sea on April 1st. Over the spot, 20 vessels will await destruction, if any.

Cleveland suburbs, that is, Richmond Heights and Highland Heights, assisted by Euclid, are protesting the purchase, by the county, of the Richmond Heights airport, which was completed in 1932. The government, at that time, forbade the use of it, because it was too near dwellings.

The Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., which announced an increase in price on Chesterfields, Fatmias and Piedmonts beginning August 1, has now rescinded the increase because other tobacco companies did not follow this lead.

Mayor Thomas A. Burke underwent an operation at Charity Hospital. His condition is much improved.

Mrs. Agnes Modic, wife of Tino Modic of 6030 St. Clair Ave. left for Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where she will stay three weeks with their children, Marie and Shirley.

Mrs. Mary Brodnick of 1196 E. 176 St., is recuperating at Lakeside Hospital. Visits are allowed.

Ralph Betz, 26, Wilioughby, O., found that life was much better in Germany, where he served as a soldier, than in America. He decided to go back there as a civilian, entering the American occupied zone, where he was arrested for traveling without a visa. He was very much disillusioned as he said that refugees of all nationalities have been received there and taken care of.

Now that OPA has authorized a 30% higher price on leather, we may expect higher prices on shoes. The OPA will decide the prices after investigating how much profit the manufacturers make.

John Kennedy, son of the former American ambassador to England, Joseph Kennedy, presented a check for $600,000 to Archbishop Cushing of Boston for an orphanage to be conducted by the Franciscan Fathers. This was in memory of the second anniversary of the death of his son Lt. Joseph, killed in 1944.

Mrs. Alice Keck of 1133 Addison Rd., in the company of her daughter Frances, and sister-in-law, Mrs. Rose Kausek, left by plane for Chicago. They will also visit in LaSalle, Ill., for one week, at the home of Mrs. Kausek's sister, who is ill.

During July, employment in U. S. reached 58,130,000, which is higher than any month during the war. During July 1945, there were 4 million more people unemployed than in July of this year.

Brodnick Hero Fund Campaign to Close Aug. 20

After an intensive drive for several months, the Joe Brodnick Disabled Hero Fund will come to a close Tuesday, August 20th. The event will be marked by an informal dinner of the immediate families and friends, during which the fund presentation will be made to ex-sergeant Joseph Brodnick of 1198 E. 177th St.

Contributions still continue to pour in from individuals as well as organizations. The patrons of the Louis Ryctz Cafe, for example, passed the hat around to the tune of $53,000, for which the Fund Committee expresses its thanks. The Yugoslav Slovene Club likewise presented a check for $200.00 for which the committee is grateful. The Grdina Recreation helped their bit by donating the tickets for the Brodnick dance held in the Slovenian National Home on St. Clair Ave., last May.

A gift that should have many followers is the one sent in by the girls in the Thinwall Final Inspection Department 821 of the Cleveland Graphite Bronze Co. Thanks a lot for your thoughtfulness.

Additional lodges contributing include KSKJ No. 150 St. Anne's, SDZ No. 33 Dr. Državljan, SDZ No. 26, and SDZ No. 10. Other lodges can still send their donations.

All donations that have been received were promptly acknowledged in the Slovenian section of the American Home. The list of contributors will be inscribed in a book which will then be presented to ex-sergeant Brodnick. At the same time, he will be given a beautiful golden wrist-watch, engraved appropriately for the occasion, to commemorate this event.

The treasurer of the Brodnick Fund, Mr. Anthony Brodnik, 1324 Giddings Rd., stated that he will continue to accept donations for the war hero. So send along that belated gift to a deserving G. I.!

SPORTS

It was an unforgettable night for Traylor Max (Lefty) Weisman and should have been a celebration for Bob Feller, also, but Paul (Not so Dizzy) Trout chose to revise the script and 65,765 sorrowing spectators trudged out of the stadium.

The background against which this great racing program will be staged is an all out demonstration of military might. The Army Air Forces, the Navy and Marine Corps have simply opened the books for the 1946 renewal.

In addition to the large representation of their amazing new jet planes, the daily schedule of the Army's participation stretches over a full 90 minutes. Included are mass flights of Superforts, a squadron of 27 P-51 Mustangs, mass parachute jumps, group of the newest helicopters, combat thrills, glider snatch demonstrations and daily flight exhibitions of their newest, fastest and biggest airplanes.

The Navy's program includes ground-controlled drone plane flights, 24 plane squadron of their terrifically fast FGPs, the Navy newest fighter, and exhibitions of the Ryan Fireball, featuring a combination of jet and conventional powering.

The Marine Corps will also man FBFs for sensational group and individual stunting and acrobatics and their incomparable precision flying.

The service participation will be ceremonious as well as sensational as Cleveland will see more "braces", more high ranking service officers than ever before have visited the city.

The informers are directed by the Yugoslav Communist Youth Organization (SKOJ), which Tito has put in charge of all youth activities.

Unlike other Tito enterprises, the youth group calls itself frankly "Communist," and makes no attempt to hide behind words like "patriotism" and "liberation."

SKOJ, it was learned by Center of Information Pro Deo news service, has a spy committee in each high school class, consisting usually of three members.

Representatives of each committee belong to SKOJ school committees. In cities where there is more than one high school, the school committees are united in Local Committees.

The spies keep detailed files on all students reporting their political background, their attitude toward the Tito regime, whether they go to church and whether they attend Communist meetings regularly.

Many students already have been expelled from various schools for not measuring up to the "standards" of Communist behavior set by the spy committee.

The family of Andrew and Mildred Slogar of 1108 E. 63 St. announces the birth of a baby boy. Both mother and baby are doing well at Glenville Hospital. The proud grandparents are Andrew and Julia Slogar, as well as Mrs. Antonia Kokonjanc of Bridgeport, O.

The whole business, according to CIP's informants, is beginning to take off.

Most Yugoslav students, it was said, hate the regimentation which Tito's hooligans are imposing upon them and loathe the student-informers.

Young people escaping from Yugoslavia to Rome report that 85% of the nation's high school students are opposed to Tito.

DEADLINE FOR ALL COPY IS WEDNESDAY NOON

FUND MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Brodnick Fund Committee this evening at 8:30 P. M. in St. Vitus School.

SOCIAL

The monthly Social night in the Holy Name Club Room will be held this coming Tuesday evening after 8:00 P. M. providing that the room will be ready by then. Members have been working on the room almost every day this week and all day last Saturday. We are taking this opportunity of thanking everyone for helping out. At the same time, we extend an invitation to all interested to come down again tomorrow from 10:00 o'clock in the morning and until the job will be done. The more help, the less work for the individuals.

Bring along your own brush, please!

FINAL BOWLING MEETING

Tuesday evening in the School hall at 7:30 P. M. there will be an important meeting of the St. Vitus Parish Bowling League. Captains are asked to bring in the full rosters.

Baraga Glee Club

HAPPY BIRTHDAY MISS KAY

The glee club members, our moderator Father Baraga, and the countless number of her friends, extend Birthday greetings and best wishes to our director, HAPPY BIRTHDAY EL. AND MAY YOU HAVE MANY MORE.

ARE YOU READY???

Come what may, rain or shine, plans for our excursion have not, and will not be broken. There's nothing like it.

an early start, so to begin the day with a sunny disposition, we will wake at 5:00 A. M. (Early enough?) in order to attend 5:30 Mass, as our departure from Cleveland is scheduled for 7:30 A. M. (DEFINITELY!).

Pack your lunches, cameras, swimsuits, etc. and don't forget your smiles. (How could we???) From the aforementioned it is understood that we will wear sports clothes.

The bus which will take us to our destination, the lovely and scenic PRESQUE ISLE, in Pennsylvania, will be waiting for its occupants in front of Clipperton's store. The trip in itself should take three and a half hours, with a stop for breakfast, in the town of Astabula.

Our drivers, are included in the excursion also, as well as Matt and Suezy. Seating capacity in the bus is limited, therefore the first thirty-eight reservations, will be accepted, with a round-trip fee of three dollars.

Haven't you often thought of the day, when you would travel in this manner?

Reservations should be made by 9:00 o'clock tonight, with Jean Per, Ann Clipperton, or Anny Fernach. Information in this regard may also be obtained from the aforementioned.

REMINDER

All ticket returns are DEFINITELY TO BE MADE THIS COMING TUESDAY NITE to our president, Anny Fernach. ALL MUST ATTEND REHEARSALS as many important issues are to be discussed with bowling included. The time is 7:00 P. M. in the school hall.

I hope we remembered that yesterday was the feast day of our Church. St. Mary's official title is Saint Mary of the Assumption, or Marija Vrbovzeta". It is a beautiful name for Mary.

THE CATHOLIC ATTITUDE

Toward the Workingman and the Poor Hardly a Pope but has cautioned, challenged, cried out against the tendencies of human nature to cause injustice to working people and the poor. Championing the rights of the underprivileged, the less powerful in things of the world, has been a tradition.

The purest virgins of the Young Church were chosen to prepare her for burial. When they came to dress and embalm her body, it was so bright with Heavenly light that they could not even see it.

All Apostles and disciples were present, except Thomas, who was away on a missionary journey. Word had been sent him, but he arrived too late for the burial. When Thomas came, he asked to see the place where Dizzy broke off a third called strike on Lou Boudreau and it was all over.

Thus, another one-run game entered the Cleveland records and the score now reads 19-19. Eight of the duels have occurred since the first of the month.

Although he bowed to the Tigers for the second time, having lost to them in the stadium on April 21 in 10 innings, 3 to 2, Feller, who retired for a pinch hitter after the eighth, had the satisfaction of surpassing his own strike-out record.

Bob fanned seven of the Tigers, reaching 262, and topped by one his feat of 1940.

In his last 54 and one-third innings he has allowed only 17 hits and two runs. He granted three singles last night. Bob Lemon giving the eighth in the ninth.

With runners on first and second, Dizzy broke off a third called strike on Lou Boudreau and it was all over.

A sailor was explaining the inner workings of the Navy to a dinner companion.

"A guy is hep, he won't give his right trade when he joins up."

The gal wanted to know why.

"Well, he explained, "if you tell them you are a mechanic, they make you a medical corpsman. If you've been a cook, they are sure to give you yeoman rating; and if you happen to know something about bookkeeping they are sure to make you a mess cook."

"But," inquired the sweet young thing, "suppose you tell them you don't know anything?"

"Oh, that's the worst of all. If you do that, they hand you a commission."

Under the watchful eye of the traffic cop on the corner, a bleary-eyed, disheveled individual stumbled out of the saloon, wobbled his way to the curb, and fell heavily into the back seat of his car. He was fumbling about on the floor of the conveyance and muttering profane imprecations against some unseen personage, when the policeman stuck his head through the door and demanded, "Come out of there, you! I'm going to run you in for drunkenness!"

"You're just like all the rest," the intoxicated man accused, "always pickin' on a poor defenseless sick man. Why don't you leave me alone and go find the blasted thief who stole my steering wheel!"

ST. MARY'S NEWS

dition, long ago established at Vaticano Hill.

In our day we have seen the effect of the Papal Encyclicals of Leo XIII, Pius XI, and Pius XII on the thoughts and actions of men. Long before the Supreme Court of the United States got around to the neglected task of declaring the legal right of workers to organize into unions of their own choosing, Leo XIII had boldly proclaimed that right as inherent in the very heart of man. Long before other governments granted certain concessions to the toilers in the field and the factory, Papal Proclamations had been echoing around the world in defense of fundamental justice elemental charity.

The Church's primary function among men is to teach the truth. Her Hierarchy and her clergy are neither union organizers nor business enterprisers. They have been ordained to be instruments of salvation for the human race. When the harvester are few and the time is short, very often the paramount necessity is that day or age must be selected, concentrated upon and emphasized. In practically any age, when pioneer ventures are undertaken, the very endeavor that must be attended to is the founding and the building up of the organization of the Church itself in the various countries into which the missionaries penetrate.

Now and again, the isolated voice of some "old timer" protests the lack of a specific interest in trade union problems by the Catholic Attitude in times past. Is the accusation true? If it means that priests in the past have been most hesitant to mix into labor politics, no doubt it is. If it means that there have been individual priests, who, rightly or wrongly, failed to understand the meaning of trade unionism, that too must be admitted as factual. But has the Catholic Attitude toward the workingmen and the poor failed them? Hardly. The simplest proof of a close and intimate relationship between the working-classes and the Church lies in the very make-up of the Hierarchy, the clergy and the members of Religious Orders. The working-classes have been the backbone of American Catholicism, materially and spiritually. From the ranks of the poor and the wage-earners for the most part have come the vast army of priests, Brothers and nuns, the teachers and instructors of youth, of rich and poor. Could those edifices of our that stretch from one end of the land to the other have been manned by these volunteer apostles, the children of the workers, unless there had been established a mutual respect, confidence and devotion one with the other? Who but the Church has ward off from the unsuspecting people the onslaughts of Socialism in its various phases? Who has grown the moral fibre of the American Catholic working people by the constant preaching of the Commandments, the dispensing of the Sacraments and the thousand and one charitable agencies, organized and parochial — who but the Catholic Church manifesting the Catholic Attitude toward the workingman and the poor.

At this late date, we see the rise of Labor Boards, Commissions on Mediation and Arbitration, enactments of various kinds for the social betterment of many. No living society has so prepared the ground, urged, advocated and championed all these concepts as has the international Catholic Church. We must not lay the blame at the door of Christ's Church if great numbers of the human race, the weak as well as the powerful, have refused to listen to her.

unchanging, ever-insisting Voice.

Other accusations may be leveled against individuals in her ranks, who through lack of perspective, or inexperience, have not intimately and personally associated themselves with the labor movements in one form or another. But never can the unjustified claim of a lack of interest in the workers be sustained against the Catholic Attitude. Specific means of assistance and effective technique to cope with changing conditions may not always have kept pace with the onrush of events. The fundamental Attitude, nevertheless, of charity and sympathy and a defense of justice for the poor and the wage-earner has always been and will be the attentive object of the Catholic Attitude.

Along the Ohio

Steamboat on Ohio
MARIETTA
THE STANDARD OIL CO. (OHIO) NO. 4

The Ohio River has been called the Rhine of America because its scenic splendors rival those of the historic European river which has been so much in the news in recent times.

Along the winding and twisting shores of this great east-to-west water highway are roads from which the full beauty of this placid, broad stream can be enjoyed.

Of particular interest is that section between Marietta and Gallipolis. The road is flanked on one side by the beautiful Ohio and on the other by the mounting forest-covered hills that are the start of the "Switzerland of Ohio." Picturesque villages which once depended for their communication on river boats dot the drive along the shore. They bear such unusual names as Kanuga, Long Bottom, Antiquity, Belpre and Plants.

With the increasing traffic on the river itself, there are excellent possibilities of seeing powerful towboats pushing barges laden with coal, petroleum products and other bulk cargoes.

At Marietta, Ohio's oldest permanent white settlement, are relics of the early days in the Buckeye State. Here is the state's oldest building, the Land Office—and Campus Martius, state memorial museum, with its nationally famous River Room and its reconstructed pioneer home of General Putnam.

In Marietta, too, is Mound Cemetery, famous throughout the world for the work of the mound builders—Ohio inhabitants of a prehistoric day.

West of Marietta is Blennerhassett Island, a long narrow strip of land, on which Aaron Burr, third vice-president of the United States, conspired with Harmon Blennerhassett to establish a Mexican empire.

At the western end of the drive is Gallipolis—early home of a group of French settlers. Still retaining its Gaelic atmosphere, the town itself is one of the most interesting in the state. "Our House," an old inn now transformed into a museum, sheltered Lafayette.

The Ohio River scenery between Marietta and Gallipolis is beautiful at any season of the year, whether early spring with its blossoming flowers and verduring trees, placid midsummer or fall with its brilliant color.
