

ZGODBA INTEN- ZIVNEGA LOVA ZA ZLOČINCEM

Denar, ki je bil plačan kot odkupnina za Linberghova sinčka, je izdal zločinca.

NEW YORK, 21. sept. — Kot poroča policijski komisar John F. O'Ryan, je arretacija Bruno Hauptmanna kot ugrabitelja Linberghovega sina sad dve in pol leti trajajočega v skrajno intenzivnega preiskovanja od strani zveznih detektivov, državne policije v New Jersey in policije v New Yorku. Mnogokrat so možje, katerim je bila dana naloga, da razvajajo najbolj senzacijski zločin sedanjeva časa, že izgubili pogum, toda odnehalni niso. Ryan tozadevo pripoveduje:

Dva dni po plačitvi odkupnine se je odkrilo neki "zlat" bankovec za $20 na neki banki, toda ves trud, da se dožene, kdo ga je prinesel v banko, je bil zmanjšan. Potem dve leti ni bilo nobenega izmed takih bankovcev v prometu. Med tem pa je od zaznamovanega denarja prišlo v promet za $5000 bankovec po $5 in $10, ki so se pojavili v raznih trgovinah širokem mesta. Ker je promet s takimi bankovci zelo hiter, ni bilo možče nicesar izslediti, akoravno smo vsak slučaj posebej preiskovali.

Pred tremi tedni pa so se pojavili v mestu zopet bankovci po $20 in 10 ki so nosili serialne številke izplačane odkupnine. Prosili smo trgovce, posebno pa gasolinske postaje, da nam gredu na roko ter si kolikor mogoče zapomnijo vsako osebo, ki jim izroči kak zlat certifikat za $10 ali $20. Rečeno jim je bilo, da naj zaznamujemo naslov ali pa licencno številko avtomobila. V tej zvezi smo dognali, da je bil eden zlatih certifikatov za $20 oddan v neki trgovini s čevljem in trgovcem nam je opisan človeka, ki je z bankovcem platal. Neki tak certifikat smo odkrili tudi na neki banki, ki ga je dobila ob lastnika nekega garaža. Lastnik slednjega je dal opis moškega, od katerega je denar on dobil in ta opis se je čisto ujemal z onim, ki smo ga dobili v trgovini s čevljem. Lastnik garaže je tudi zaznamoval licencno številko avtomobila, in tako smo dobili ime in naslov Hauptmanna.

Skozi več dni se je dom osušljenceva opazovalo, ko pa se je zadnji terek Hauptman odpeljal z doma, so mu detektivi sledili v avtomobilu ter ga na nekem križišču ustavili. Ukažali so mu stopiti iz avta ter ga preiskali. In pri njem so našli še enega izmed bankovcev za $20, ki se je nahajal v odkupnini, katero je plačal Lindbergh. Petojalo se ga je na dom, kjer je priznal, da je on plačal z bankovci, kateri se je izsledilo že prej, toda je odločno tajil, da lej ve o zločinu. Ko pa smo hišo in okolico temeljito preiskali, smo našli skritih pod podom in za okvirom okna v garažu $13.500.

JUG. PRESTONONASLEDNIK POSLAN V ANGLIJO BLED, 21. sept. — Jugoslovenski prestolonaslednik Peter, ki je baš spolnil 11. leto, je bil odpeljan od tu v Anglijo, kjer bo hodil v šolo.

ZANIMIVE VESTI IZ ŽIVLJENJA NAŠIH LJUDI PO ŠIRNI AMERIKI

Pod naslovom "Kako nasproti zavijajo resnico" podaja F. A. Vider, gl. tajnik SNPJ v "Prosjeti" z dne 19. septembra naslednjo izjavo:

"Američka Domovina" z dne 10. sept. t. l. ima pod naslovom "Zanimive vesti iz življenja naših ljudi po ameriških naseljih" tudi sledečo, za uredništvo omenjenega lista "zelo zanimivo" vest:

"Mr. Fred A. Vider, glavni tajnik SNPJ, je poročal na polletnem zborovanju glavnega odbora, da imajo verske bratske podporne organizacije v Ameriki mnogo več uspeha kot pa S. N. P. Jednota, ki zastopa socijalistična načela."

Resnici na ljubo in ne uredniku "Američke Domovine", ki je namenoma zavil moje besede! — naj bo povedano, da nisem poročal gl. odboru tega, kar je gori citirano iz omenjenega lista, pač pa sem v teku razprave rekel tole: "Psihologije mladine pa ni mogoče nam samim sprememiti. Verske organizacije imajo pri mladini večji uspeh, ker je bila mladina vzgojena v konzervativnih solah."

Vsi, ki so pravilno čitali zapisnik zadnje seje gl. odbora, morajo potrditi, da je "vest" v "Američki Domovini" grdo zavijanje. Načela, ki jih zastopa SNPJ, so prava in v interesu delavstva, če pa večji del ameriške mladine danes se ne razume teh načel, ni s tem še rečeno, da so načela slaba in da jih mladina ne bo nikoli razumela. Prej ali slej bo mlada generacija spoznala, da so jo njeni voditelji potegnili in tedaj bodo naša načela vindicirana.

Pripomniti moram še to, da je MESTO NOME UNIČENO V POŽARU

NOME, Alaska, 21. sept. — Pretekli terek je izbruhnil v mestu Nome, ki je nekoč slovelo radi svojih zlatih rudnikov, silen požar, v katerem je bilo uničeno vse mesto. Ostalo je le nekaj hiš in radio postaja. Bliža se arktična zima, v kateri zamrzne morje, prebivalci, katerih je 1500, pa so brez strehe. Podvzelo se je korake, da se prebivalstvu pošlje pomoč iz Zed. držav. Leta 1900, ko je bil lov za zlatom v Alaski na višku, je место Nome štelo 12,488 prebivalcev.

Bil je član društva Katoličkih Borštjarjev št. 1640 in samostojnega društva "Srca Jezusovega". Pogreb se bo vršil v torek zjutraj ob 8:30 uri iz hiše žalosti, 21320 Westport Ave. ter v cerkev sv. Kristine in na Calvary pokopališče pod vodstvom zavoda August F. Svetek. Naj mu bo ohranjen blag spomin, prizadeti družini pa naše sožalje!

Jesen je tukaj Jutri 23. septembra opoldne, ko bosta dan in noč enako dolga bo nastopila uradna jesen.

Spor med Italijo in Jugoslavijo radi nacijskega novice

Italijanski listi dolže Jugoslavijo, da ničesar ne storiti, da bi preprečila nov puč, ki ga pripravljajo nacijski begunci.

RIM, Italija. — Zadnje dneve fašistični tisk — vsekakor po navodilu ministra propagande — spet silovito napada Jugoslavijo in opozarja na nevarnost, ki preti Avstriji od 2500 avstrijskih nacijskih, ki se nahajajo ob avstrijski meji. Ti nacijski begunci pripravljajo nov puč v Avstriji, Jugoslavija se pa ne zmeni, da bi ga preprečila.

Biro fašistične propagande je včeraj priobčil članek, ki obsegajo celo stran poluradnega "Il Giornale d'Italia" in podpisano je po Virginiju Gaydi, ki pojasnjuje, zakaj je Mussolini zadnji teden nanagloma zadržal doma italijanskega delegata, ki so imeli odpotovati na medparlamentarno konferenco, katera se vrši tedeni v Belgradu. Gayda piše, da je bil Mussolini iznenaden, ki so ga opozorili na članek v belgrajskem listu "Vreme," v katerem je članek zasmehoval "junoštvu italijanske armade pri Kobaridu." Srbski članek piše, kako so "Italijani (ko so Nemci predvsi soško fronto v jeseni leta 1916) maratonsko drveli domov od reke Talijent do reke Po." Gayda priznava, da je italijanski list v Zadru provociral ta članek, vendar besno pobija izvajanja belgrajskega lista in skuša dokazati, da se je italijanska armada dobro obnašala v svetovni vojni.

Ta srdita polemika med italijanskim in jugoslovanskim časopisjem ograža sporazum, ki ga pripravljajo francoski diplomati z Mussolinijem.

RIM, 20. sept. — Uradno se nanzanja, da je italijanska vlada včeraj poslala močan protest v Belgrad proti "strupeni" kampanji, ki jo vodi časopisje v Jugoslaviji proti Italiji zadnja dva meseca, odkar je bil potlačen nacijski puč v Avstriji. Tukajšnji fašistični krogi so mnenja, da napadi na Italijo v jugoslovanskem tisku imajo sankcije, ki jih jugoslovanske vlade, ki bi rada preprečila sporazum med Francijo in Italijo.

BELGRAD, 20. sept. — Jugoslovanska vlada bo najbrž odgovorila na protest Italije s protiprotetestom zoper razne provokacije s strani Italije. Neki višji vladni uradnik je sinoč dejal zastopniku Associated Pressa, da je bil nedavni obisk italijanskega generala Balba v Dalmaciji nič drugega kot provokacija. Jugoslovanske oblasti so storile posebne korake, da Balba zaščiti, toda Balbo si je dovolil javni govor v balkona konzularne hiše in s tem je izval srd hrvaškega prebivalstva v Splitu. Če bi bil takrat kdo v razgrestosti oddal en sam strelni blist vojna neizogibna.

"Italija in Avstrija že dolgo časa dopuščata hrvaškim emigrantom, da na njunih tleh dela komplot proti Jugoslaviji, ko pa so v zadnjem juliju avstrijski nacijski pribeli k nam, smo bili takoj internirani," je rekel omenjeni uradnik.

V bolnici

V Emergency bolnico je bil odpeljan Louise Mahne, iz 6101 St. Clair Ave. Želimo mu skorajšnjo okrevanje!

Bruna ni mogla več pozabiti.
Ko je razmerje do njega je po-

ORAZEM'S LUSTY DOUBLE, FLARE IN ORELS' 5th FRAME RALLY TO WIN

Bad Return From Outfield Ties Score and Puts Winning Run in Scoring Position. Greenwald Hurls Three Hit Ball; Orels One Game Away From Title

Exercising that same mythical charm which appears to be an integral part of the team each time that it opposes the Pioneers in title play, the Orels squeezed under the wire for a hairline 2 to 1 victory, in the opening game of the 1934 Inter-Lodge League indoor championship series, at Gordon Park, Sunday morning. It was the fifth consecutive triumph for the Orels over the Pioneers in the space of the last three series. In 1932 and 1933, the Orels were crowned champions each time by two consecutive triumphs. Today, one more victory is all that separates them from their third I. L. gonfalon.

The decisive runs were chalked up in the fifth frame when the Orels bunched a Pioneer miscue, their only genuine hard hit of the contest and a ground out play for two markers. Details: Ernie Zupancic opened with a bopper to third baseman Bajac whose throw to Bradie had the decision but Bradie in turn jugged and dropped the ball. Frank Brancelj, next up, struck out on a 2 and 1 count. Tony Orazem then doubled to right center, sending Zupancic to third and when the peg from the outfield went into the crowd, Zupancic scored and Orazem reached third. Orazem scored the second run of the inning as N. Habian was being retired Chojnowski to Bradie for the second out.

Stranic's double to center and Chojnowski's triple along the left field foul line produced the Pioneer score in the fourth. Iggy Jeraj disengaged himself from an eerie mess at this point. With only one man out he retired Bajac and Bradie, two dangerous batsmen, on infield pop-ups.

Nick Habian, Ernie Zupancic of the Orels and Stranic, Spretnak of the Pioneers were outstanding for their fielding display in the outfield. Habian's catches of two blasts coming from the bat of Tony Bradie were particularly brilliant.

Kenny Greenwald, in his first I. L. series performance, displayed his usual mastery of the Orel Batsmen letting them down with three nits, of which only one had the semblance of being hit right on the nose, and would have won 1 to 0 barring the Pioneer mistakes.

Iggy Jeraj, the Orel hill-top representative, pitched five hit ball, good enough to win majority of the games, and won his third consecutive I. L. series game starting where he left off in 1932 when he hurled the Orels to victory in both tussles. The game also marked his fourth series appearance.

Square Dancer

CHICAGO — Yankee farmers are experts of that rural social institution so prominent at barn dances—the square dance. When a "square dance" contest was held recently in the Lagoon Theatre as a conclusion to "Farm Week" at the World's Fair, there was no doubt that one of these would win.

But there was one lad that didn't believe facts. Farmers laughed when 18-year-old Martin Horvath registered for the contest. He was a Slovene and, furthermore, a Chicago boy—a city slicker!

But there was no joy in Lagoon that night—for mighty Horvath won first place!

Austrian Chancellor Has Slovene Blood

Suspicion That Dr. Schuschnigg Is Slovene Are Confirmed After Searching His Family Tree.

The present Austrian Chancellor, Dr. Schuschnigg is of Slovene parentage, it was disclosed this week from reports issued in Celovec. Suspicions about this fact were widespread from the beginning because his name seemed Slovene.

The official's family tree disclosed that his grandfather was a wealthy peasant living somewhere near the present Yugoslav-Austrian border. Thruout Corinthia his home was a real Slovene fortress, where the waves of Germanic nationalism couldn't break thru. He always signed himself Susek. He had six sons, all of whom had to have an education, according to the grandfather. Before this was accomplished the man spent all his money, sold his home and in his old age was forced to live poorly in Pliberk.

His sons turned out of German schools, luke-warm Slovenes, edging more towards Germanism and in later days forgot most of their Slovene and even Germanized their names. Schuschnigg's father reared his son in a complete Germanic atmosphere so that the Chancellor is a German today, although he can still speak broken Slovene.

Louis Adamic was also among the American authors who wrote a protest to the governor of California for tolerating the Vigilantes during the recent general strike in San Francisco. The Vigilantes wrecked Communist quarters and burned all radical books.

In a letter to the editor of this sheet last January he wrote:

"When I finally succeeded, after many years trying, to sell some stories of the mills, I could not help but put into the stories many of the fine Slavic characters I had known... Among friends was Karl Proskovet who was on the "Hrvatski List" up to the time of his death. He was a very dear friend, and when he passed on I lost a most valuable help in writing stories with South Slav color to them. He helped me by editing many of my stories and correcting many errors I made in regards to Slavic history, customs, characters, language and the like, Mr. Horvath of the "Zajednicar" in Pittsburgh was once a resident of Steelton, and he has been very kind in helping me with information I think needs checking."

"And so, though unfortunately, I do not speak the Croatian language, and have never had the pleasure of visiting Yugoslavia I have through study and through the kindness of Slavic friends, been able to make my stories not too much in error about Slavic things.

"I wish you personally, and Enakopravnost and the Croatian people of Cleveland the happiest kind of year.

Mnogo ljeta!"

Children's Concert Packs Slovene National Home As Parents Shower Director With Flowers

A packed auditorium greeted Louis Seme's children's chorus "Slavek" last Sunday at its first concert. It is estimated that over 1200 applauded as the children sang. The director was presented with a score of bouquets from grateful parents and admirers during the intermissions. Vera Milavec piano-accompanied the singers.

With over 200 children singing, the chorus, work and solos were well received by listeners. A children's orchestra made its first appearance and children recited Slovene poetry. Louis Seme and Ivan Zorman spoke before the program opened.

The second nudist colony at Split, although the people are tolerant of it.

Some of Split's young people organized a nudist group for collective bathing and sun-bathing. Older citizens protested to authorities and now the nudists will be separated from the public in a segregated bathing place.

The second nudist colony opened at Trstenik, and advocates claim that "the new movement will attract foreign tourists!"

Slapnik Florists New "Sea" Champions

Win Crown By Taking Two Straight From Kollander Agents; Lutch, Pitcher Star of Series

The Kollander Agents proved a poor opponent as the Slapniks rang up a 20 to 4 score, to take the second game of the "Sea" League championship finals and with it the title of "Champs," last Sunday afternoon at Gordon Park.

The Slapniks tallied runs in every inning but the seventh with a five run rally in the fifth the high scoring mark. In the meantime the Agents were held to three hits in the first eight innings. They scored their first run in the third inning on two walks and a succession of ground outs. The Kollanders scored three more in the ninth but only after pitcher Lutch of the winners had eased up.

Winning both games rather handily the Slapniks, brought out the fact more than ever, that the best team always wins the championship.

American Author Pens About Croats

"American Magazine" To Publish Short Story With Croat Background; Written By R. G. Kirk.

Croat characters will live in a short story soon to be published by "American Magazine" and written by R. G. Kirk, Los Angeles magazine writer. One of his stories "Volcano" appeared in the September number of the magazine and another "Forty" in the last issue of "Zajednicar."

Mr. Kirk has authored many short stories about Pennsylvania steel mills, with Croat immigrants as heroes. Among his "Croat" stories are: "Zdravo," "Derrick," "Transfer," "To Much Electric," and "Hrvatski Harlequin." His stories appear mostly in "Saturday Evening Post" and "Collier's." He is also noted for his stories about dogs.

Kirk gathered material for his Croat characters while working with them in steel mills where he was engineer, superintendent and contractor.

In a letter to the editor of this sheet last January he wrote:

"When I finally succeeded, after many years trying, to sell some stories of the mills, I could not help but put into the stories many of the fine Slavic characters I had known...
