DRUŽINSKA TRAGEDIJA

IZVOLJENI SLOVENSKI NARODNI POSLANCI

—Zelo zaposlene so te dni naše dobre žene in dekleta, ki so članice Community Welfare kluba. Z neumornim delom in prošnjami in z raznimi prireditvami so nabrale tekem leta večjo sveto denarja skupaj, in za ta denar so si nabavile mnogo živeža in potrebišč, kar bodo pred Zahvalnim dnevom razdelile siromašnim slovenskim družinam. Pod vodstvom plemenite delavke za naše revnike, Mrs. Makovec, se polnilo te dni kašarice z vsemi potrebimi stvarmi za prehrano. V resnici mora naselbina dati polno priznanje in čast tem našim ženam, ki so neumorno na delu v korist svojega bližnjega.

—Zadnji petek je sedem slovenskih farmarjev iz Madisona in Geneva pripeljalo z več težko obloženimi truki tisoče funkov poljskih pridelkov v Cleveland za slovenske brezposevine in siromake, in sicer sadja, zelja, krompirja, ajdove in koruzne moke. Slediči farmarji so pripeljali blago v Cleveland: Frank Grubar, Anton Fidel, Louis Kožar, Frank Keržič, Josip Gramc, John Pečjak in Frank Beretič. Poleg tega so farmarji Frank Lustik, Frank Kumelj, John Pintar, Erbskorn, Josip Zupančič in Josip Basi darovali še večje zaloge pridelkov. Mr. Josip Zupančič je pa daroval $5. Vse blago se je razdelilo v resnici potrebnim družinam, tako da je prišlo vse na pravo mesto in sicer na St. Clairju, v Collinwoodu in Newburgu. Vsi farmarji so pripeljali blago popolnoma brezplačno, tako so tudi stvari nabirali in spravljali skupaj. V imenu vseh Slovencev v naselbini naj bo izrečena globoka in iskrena zahvala tem dobrotnikom.

—Zadnjo soboto se je pripeljala v Collinwood nesreča, ki je zahtevala življenje slovenskega dekleta, Antonije Lazar, stare 19 let, bivajoče na 14713 Sylvia Ave. Antonija je šla pobirat perilo in je pri tem tako nesrečno padla čez stopnice na porcu, da si je zlomila vrat in je na potu v bolnico umrla. Tu zapušča očeta ter strica Walter Lazarja. Ranika je bila rojena na Bači, fara Knežak na Notranjskem, kjer zapušča mater. Tu je bivala štiri leta.

—Zadnji petek zvečer, dne 20. novembra je po petdnevni bolezni vsled pljučnic 'preminal' prvak ali najstarejši slovenski organist v tej deželi, Mr. George Malovrh v starosti 66 let. V nedeljo, 15. novembra je še orgljal pri deseti sv. maši hrvatske cerkve sv. Pavla na 40. cesti. Iсти dan ga je začelo mraziti, vsled česar se je moral vsled prehlada podati v posteljo, iz katere ni več vstal.

Zavarovanje proti brezposelnosti v Ohio

Columbus, O.—Guverner White je imenoval posebno komisijo 10 mož, ki naj preštudira v sestavi kak načrt zavarovanja proti brezposelnosti. V tem odboru so možje iz raznih stanov in poklicev; med temi sta tudi dva univerzitetna profesorja in en judovski rabinec.

ko in je bil štiri in pol leta za organista pri fari sv. Vida v Clevelandu, poldrugo leto v Columbu, Mich., deset let v Jolietu, Ill., in zadnjih 15 let pa na hrvatski fari sv. Pavla v Clevelandu. Zapusča soprogo in sinike Mike, Spadal je k društvu sv. Vida, št. 25 KSKJ.

Hrvatska fara sv. Pavla je imela pokojnega organista Malovrha zelo rada, ker je bil vedno mož na svojem mestu. Pokojnik je kot veččas prestavil ved naših slovenskih mašnih in Marijinih pesmi na hrvatski jezik, katere je pel njegov lepo izbrani cerkveni pevski zbor na koru. Bodu mu ohranjen blag spomin! Prizadetim naše iskreno sožalje.

IZ GLAVNEGA URADA K. S. K. JEDNOTE

Društvene seje meseca decembra so letne ali glavne seje. Pri teh sejah se mora smisloti pravil točka 7, stran 35, voleti društvene uradnike(ice) za prihodnje leto (1932).

Ker so torej seje meseca decembra zelo važne, zato se opazira vse članstvo, da se teh sej polnoštevno udeleži. Izvoli naj se v odbor agilne in delavne udadnike(ice). Društva, ki imajo sedaj delavne in pridne odbornike in odbornice, naj se jim skojejo hvalna s tem, da se jih ponovno izvoli.

Od društvenih uradnikov se danes zahteva veliko več kakor se je zahtevalo pred leti. Društveni posli so dandanes vezani z veliko večjimi težkočami in odgovornostjo, kakor je bilo to leta nazaj. Zato se priporoča, da društva izvolijo v odbor osebe, ki so zmožne opravljati društvene posle in ki se zanimajo za napredek društva in Jednote. Pri volitvah naj se ne gleda na prijateljstvo. Pred vsem naj se vpošteva zmožnost, pridnost in delavnost. Ce se bo pri volitvah to vpoštevalo, potem bodo društva imela agilne in delavne udadnike(ice), ki bodo v korist in ponos društva kakor tudi Jednoti.

Zelen največjega vespeha pri volitvah, sem
z bratiskimi pozdravi,

JOSIP ZALAR, glavni tajnik.

Ponesrečen rojak

Poroča se nam, da je bil dne 21. novembra nevarno poškodovan rojak Jakob Sabec iz Bartontona, O., član društva sv. Jožeta, št. 110 KSKJ. Bil je v družbi petcev društva "Favor," ki so imeli nastopiti na neki prireditvi v Akronu, O. Ko so izstopili iz poulične kare, je bil Sabec med prvimi. V istem hišu pa je pripovedeval Goodrich-Rubber Co., ki je Sabca s tako silo podrl na tla, da mu je odtrgal nogo in prizdal občutnejše poškodbe. Policijski rešilni voz ga je takoj odpeljal v bolnišnico.

Drugo jutro se je podala kapitalistova žena v ječo vsa skesa, da prosi moža oproščenja ker se je prenagliila, da ga je pustila arretirati. Dospevša do ječe, ji je bilo povedano, da se njen mož baš pred kratkim je ujel, da je vred vred v zapora.

Pokojnica je bila pridna, delavna in radodarna; ni se sicer mnogo udeleževala veselic, ker je skrbela le za svojo družino in trgovino (grocerijo in mesnico), katero vodila že več let v lastni hiši na 1134 Hickory St. Pri njenem društvu se je javila bolno dne 7. novembra, dne 11. je pa že za vedno zaspala v Gospodu.

Obe pokriva zdaj hladna gomila, toda njih dobra dela bodo ostala nam v trajnem spominu.

Prizadetim žaluječim izražam v imenu našega društva sv. Genovefe ter vseh članic iskreno sožalje, pokojnici pa naj sladko počiva v miru božjem.

USODNA PRETEKLOST

ROMAN

Francoski spisec Maurice Constantin-Weyer
Prevodil Silvester Škerl.

(Nadaljevanje)

Privezala sva konje na drog, vsako ceno saditi tod rž, tod po in potrkala na dveri. "Come in! . . ." se je oglasilo iz hripanega grla. Odpahnila sva duri in našla sva Davida pogreznega v gugalnem stolu; mož je napol dremal ob steklenici — popolnoma apatičen. Počasi je vzdignil svoje suho, s črnnimi, visičimi brki zakrito obliče. Nato je vzel svetliko v roko in nama posvetil v lica. Takoj nju je prepoznał in pozdravil s slalom besed.

"Strela! To sta Frenchy in Nap! Presneta fanta, to je pa izvrstno! Lep čas vaju ni bilo na spregled! Torej sta spet enkrat srečno odnesla pete iz pasjih severnih puščav! — Sta pripeljala kaj lepih konj s seboj?"

"Sinoči so nama ušli," je mnen Napoleon.

"Pri tem vetrus? To lahko natvej kanadskim carinskim oblastem, ne meni, ti baraba!" Pomežnikl je. "A jaz bom molčal kakor grob. Svojih prijateljev ne prodajam . . . Ali ne bosta sedia? Ali bosta za vse veke stala na svojih zadnjih tacah? . . . Gotovo mislita pognati korenine. Lepa reč. Na mestu vaju zalijem."

Pogledal je štiroglavo steklenco proti luči in zmajal z glavo.

Dobro dirljen je obmolknil, vzel svoj kozarec in ga izpraznil na dušek. Midva taksto. Napoleonu se jeagnila glava težko do prsi, meni se je zdelo, da sem se za nekaj let postaral. Nočna jeza — kje je že bila, pozabljena . . . proč . . . In David, ki ga drugačenega sploh nisem poznal kot glasnegoga in veselega, je čepeł, ždel in se cmeril.

"Kaj — kupčijo na klin?" sem se začudil.

David je bil v mojih očeh zmerom najvzornejši živinorejec! — Napoleonove ostroge so žvenketale na valovitem podu. Odšel je. Z brco je odpril David zaboj, ne da bi se zmenil za moje vprašanje. Potegnil je na avtito steklenico, enako že omenjeni, a še v papir zavito ter jo postavil na mizo. Skrbno je osnažil dva kozarca, nato je udaril z dlanjo ob dno steklenice, da je zamašek skočil ven. Smehlja se je sam s seboj zadovoljen. Tisti hip se je Napoleon vrnil.

"Da, da . . . to vam je sitna zadeva!", je vzkliknil David. Temi besedami name je napil. Tedaj je prišel odgovor na vprašanje, ki sem ga bil stavil pred petimi minutami in med tem že pozabil nanj. Njegov glas je zvenel bolestno.

"Zakaj se odrekam kupčiji? O, človek božji, kako dolgo te bi bilo tukaj?"

"Pet tednov. Konje sem kupoval v Montani in Wyomingu."

"Postoj! Prodal jih še nisi? Potem se požuri, ali pa kreni na zapad — saj je prostorna. A tu! Tu smo uboge pare že vse prodali. Vse razmetali!"

"Zakaj neki?"

"Vprašaj za to koloniste, priseljeniško pasjo tropo. Zdaj, ko je vzhod ves obdelan, pošljajo kmetovalce k nam. Yankeeje s parnimi stroji, Bretonce in podobno sodrgo! Menonite z vezenimi suknjami iz baršuna in ploščatimi klobukami, tukano soro Rusov, ki se imenujejo Dubohoreci, Kanadce, kot sem jaz, Francoze kot si ti, ti vrtoglavci. Angleži iz starih naselbin v dokolenkah; to so ti lepi videti! Skratka: ljudje z vseh vetrov. Ali je to pametno? THE MASTER'S THIRST

MARY EMMELINE SHEKAN

"Why stand you in the market place?"

The Master gently said,
"I need you in my Vineyard, for
The hungry must be fed."

"Why stand you idle all the day

Arrayed in costly things,
While thousands perish with the cold
In scanty coverings?"

"Why stand you listless, heading not

The cry of sick and lame;
A cup of water blessing brings,
If given in My Name."

"Will you not heed My cry, I
thirst,
Lo! I was crucified
On Calvary Mount, to save
men's souls;
For them I lived and died."

"The laborers are few; so few,
And work for all to do;
O heed My call, My children,
come;
My love will compass you."

"Children call from everywhere,
My work it must be done;
Ah! stifle not My pleading
Voice,
But answer, 'Lord, I come.'"

LAUDS WORK OF YOUNG PRIEST

William Ewarts Gladstone, prime minister of England during portions of the reign of Queen Victoria, found time in a busy life to read the dissertation presented by a young priest, a student at the Catholic University at Washington, for his degree and to write him a warm letter of approval on the subject of his study, agnosticism.

The Rt. Rev. Msgr. George J. Lucas of Scranton, Pa., who died last week, was the first candidate to receive the degree of Doctor of Sacred Theology at the Catholic University of America. He wrote a dissertation entitled, "Agnosticism and Religion, being an examination of Spencer's Religion of the Unknown preceded by a History of Agnosticism," which was published in 1895.

The study traced the rise of agnosticism, which is derived from the Greek word "agnostos," meaning unknown, literally, one who does not know, from the ancient Greek ideas through the, then, modern doctrines, the Spencer's work, and then proceeded to dissect the ideas of that philosopher.

WE THANK THEE

For flowers that bloom about our feet,
For tender grass, so fresh and sweet,
For song of bird and hum of bee,
For all things fair we hear or see—
Father in Heaven, we thank Thee!

For blue of stream and blue of sky,

For pleasant shade of branches high,

For fragrant air and cooling breeze,

For beauty of the blooming trees—
Father in Heaven, we thank Thee!

For mother-love and father-care,
For brothers strong and sisters fair,
For love at home and here each day,

For guidance, least we go astray—
Father in Heaven, we thank Thee!

For this new morning with its light,
For rest and shelter of the night,
For health and food, for love and friends,
For everything His goodness sends—
Father in Heaven, we thank Thee!

THANKSGIVING

By Clique Club

Originally set aside by the Pilgrim fathers in commemoration of their safe arrival in a land of freedom and opportunity, Thanksgiving Day has become a national institution observed by all races and creeds in the United States in recognition of the spiritual and material benefits received.

As a nation and as individuals we have abundant reasons for thanksgiving. With the memory of the World War still fresh in our minds, we are thankful for peace and security. We have a stable government which, with all its faults, is the best that any country has ever known.

Depression has gripped the nation and we cringe under its grim force. Let us not weaken. Remember our Pilgrim fathers; the trials and tribulations they had to bear. This would seem but a mere triviality. So let us be thankful.

Individually, there is no greater blessing than a steady job and the ability to work. Too often we fail to appreciate these benefits until illness or accident makes it impossible to pursue our daily work. When we contrast our lot with that of the thousands of cripples of war and industry, we have indeed cause for thanksgiving and for a renewed determination to work safely so that each Thanksgiving will be a day of rejoicing to ourselves and to our families.

When the day has ended and night is hurrying on, let us remember these words: "We thank Thee."

An Invitation

You are cordially invited to attend the big packing party at the Slovenia Hall, Joliet, Sunday, Nov. 29, at 3 p. m., sponsored by St. Mary's Sodality.

You, in Joliet and vicinity, who have not been touched by the present depression, come and help your suffering brothers. Make a resolution on Thanksgiving Day, the day on which you should thank God especially for all spiritual and temporal favors, that you will surely attend this party. The committee promises each and every one an enjoyable afternoon. A bundle of old or new clothing or a few stray pennies is all that is necessary. Come, and help the poor!

As you Chicago folks read this, crawl in your best duds, give yourself an extra dab of powder, and hustle down to the parish hall and get in on the banner social event of the year.

The St. Stephen's will run their annual event on this Thanksgiving Eve this year. Half the proceeds are to be turned over to a worthy charitable purpose.

Both halls will be in use. An eight-piece orchestra will furnish the music in the upper hall. As an added attraction, turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens will be given away as door prizes.

Members are hereby notified that no tickets have been mailed this year. However, all members are expected to be there, and by their presence make it another St. Stephen's success. Also bring your friends, as all are cordially invited.

SAY OTHERS:

In these days when we hear so much about taxation and are prone to wonder what it will eventually lead to, it might be well for us to look over the records of other countries at other times, and learn that taxation is certainly nothing new, and that it is not peculiar to our own country or our own times.

From an English magazine published in the early eighties we copy the following instructive paragraph: "Taxes upon every article which enters into the mouth or covers the back, or is placed under the foot; taxes upon everything that is pleasant to hear, see, feel, smell and taste; taxes upon warmth, light and locomotion; taxes on everything of earth or the waters under the earth, on everything that comes from abroad or is grown at home; taxes on the raw material; on every fresh value that is added to it by the industry of man; taxes on the sauce that pampers the rich man's appetite and the drug that restores him to health; on the ermine that decorates the judge and the rope that hangs the criminal; on the poor man's salt and the rich man's spice; on the brass nails of the coffin and the ribands of the bride; all these taxes we must pay. The schoolboy whips his taxed top, the beardless youth manages his taxed horse with a taxed bridle on a taxed road; the dying Englishman pouring his medicine, which has paid 7 per cent, into a spoon which has paid 15 per cent, flings himself back on his chintz bed which has paid 22 per cent, makes his will on an 8-pound stamp and expires in the arms of an apothecary who has paid a license of a hundred pounds for the privilege of putting him to death. His whole property is then taxed from 2 to 10 per cent. Large fees are demanded for burying him in the chancel, his virtues are handed down to posterity on taxed marble, and he is gathered to his fathers—to be taxed no more."—Ave Maria Weekly.

THANKSGIVING

By La Sallita

Thanksgiving is a holiday which is typically American in every aspect. It is a day set aside by proclamation of the president to be given over to God.

The story of the first Thanksgiving Day is a familiar one to all of us. We know that in the year 1621 the Pilgrim fathers of Plymouth colony, after their first corn crop had been harvested, were deeply grateful for the large yield which, after the preceding hard winter and summer of cruel privation, assured them a plentiful supply of food to last through the winter which was to come.

The Indian chief, Massasoit, and his men were invited to celebrate the feast with the colonists. A quantity of wild fruit, venison and turkey was prepared and the next three days were given over to feasting, preaching and games. From what has been said of the Pilgrims, it can be believed that the preaching took a prominent part in the proceedings of the celebration.

A good plan would be to sit down and spend some time on Thanksgiving Day and just meditate on what we as a nation and as an individual have to be thankful for. Human nature is strong within us all and we are likely to be dissatisfied with the way things are going, and at first glance see nothing for which we should be grateful. Upon later reflection, however, a number of things will undoubtedly be brought to mind, and we will have our reason for taking part in the celebration of this great national holiday. It will mean more to us—not just a day to cram ourselves with good things to eat, but a day of gratitude for all that we have and what the future may hold for us.

NOTICE OF MEETING

St. Mary Help of Christians Lodge No. 165, West Allis, Wis.

Our last meeting was quite a success, for we enrolled five new members. At our next meeting we hope we will do the same.

Of course, it is difficult to get new members since working conditions are pretty bad, although with a little help from everyone we still could do better.

Our next meeting will be the annual meeting of the lodge, and is scheduled for Dec. 6, at 1:30 p. m., in the church hall. According to the by-laws of our lodge, non-attendance will result in a fine.

So, sisters, let's make it a 100 per cent meeting. Remember that election of officers will be in order. I am sorry to say that there are some members who have not attended one meeting this year. Let's co-operate and each do her share!

Mary Petrich, Secretary.

Elect Officers

The Holy Name Seniors of St. Rock's Church, La Salle, Ill., held their regular meeting in the school hall on Nov. 15. The following were elected officers for the ensuing year: President, Frank Bruder Sr.; secretary, Anton Strukel; treasurer, John Pelko.

Plans were made to hold a regular old-time veselica on Thanksgiving Day in the lower school hall. This is to be the first social event sponsored by the Holy Name Seniors.

THANKSGIVING

By L. MITCHELL THORNTON

We're thanking Thee, God, for a heart of youth

And a soul that dares be free,

For a faith in right and a love of truth

And a trust that looks to Thee.

And whether the years of our life be few,

Or whether our locks be gray

For the blessings ours and the grace we knew

We would offer thanks today.

We're thanking Thee, God, for our woolens warm,
For our tattered garb, and poor,
Thou has sent the sun, Thou hast sent the storm,
But Thy love is always sure.
As our fathers knelt we would humbly kneel,
As our fathers prayed we pray,
And we praise Thy name with their holy zeal
As we keep Thanksgiving Day.

JUGOSLAVS ON RADIO PROGRAM

The Chicago Jugoslavs gave good looking. Each town is a picture and every girl a movie star."

Jugoslavia is a nation of nearly fourteen million homogeneous people, liberty and peace loving, whose greatest hopes and aspirations for centuries, were the union of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes.

Their statesmen, intellectual leaders and patriots have for generations dreamed of and planned that which has finally been realized, the creation of Jugoslavia.

This idea of Jugoslav union was not foreign, it is not new. It was born in the hearts of Jugoslavs whose memory shall never die. Among these great leaders have been Ivan Bleiweiss of the Slovenes, Bishop Strossmayer of the Croats, Bishop Raphael of the Serbs, and millions of heroic Serbs, Croats and Slovenes who have sacrificed their lives for the realization of this great national aspiration.

One of the historic landmarks, significant of their intellectual progress, is the Jugoslav Academy of Science, dedicated in 1867 at Zagreb, the cultural center of Jugoslavia.

Jugoslavia is mainly an agricultural country, rich in minerals, and prospering industries which they could proudly and profitably exhibit, and I am certain that they will accept this splendid opportunity and help us to present an exhibition and program worthy of our race.

THANKSGIVING DAY

By Win Dee

When our earliest settlers, after a year of trials and privation in the new world, and upon the gathering of their first harvest, set aside a day in which they might give thanks to the Almighty God for the graces bestowed upon them, they originated the idea of Thanksgiving Day. In observance of this the president of the United States issues a proclamation in which Thanksgiving Day is recognized as a national holiday to show our appreciation and thanks to God for the many graces either spiritually, materially or physically, bestowed upon us. This year, more than ever before, we must be thankful spiritually; for in this maelstrom of depression many of us have been hit by illness, unemployment, bank failures, and, those who are working, but salary cutting. To create a true Christian thanksgiving spirit those who are fortunate enough by being employed should do all in their power to alleviate the sufferings of the unfortunate about us.

Fred: Where are all those people going with those big bundles?

Ed: Gee, you're stupid! Why haven't you heard that the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary is sponsoring a packing party?

Fred: Packing party! What in the world is that?

Ed: Simply this—that the people who can bring clothes which they have outgrown or that are too good to be thrown away, do so. Then the sodalists are going to sort the clothes and distribute them among the needy of our parish, and what is left will be sent to the foreign missions. They need help, too.

Fred: Gee, that's a bright idea. Can anyone go to this party?

Ed: Sure thing.

Fred: But I haven't any old clothes.

Ed: That's nothing. How much change have you in your pocket?

Fred: Fifty cents for the show at the Rialto.

Ed: Nix on the show today. Come to the hall with me. You'll have double the amount of fun from your 50 cents and you'll be doing a good deed, too.

Fred: You bet I'm going. Come on, let's hurry and get in line so we can at least get inside the hall.

Ed: That is nice of you. I knew you had a good heart. Come along and let us help the poor.

YUGOSLAV RADIO PROGRAM

Some of the world's finest woodcraft designs are carved from the abundant Jugoslav forestry of oak, pine and birch. Rug making and the hand embroidery industry, typical of the different sections of Jugoslavia, is an exclusive art of these people and their exhibits would be most interesting.

The Jugoslav mining industry is one of the richest in Europe, excelling in the production of silver, copper, lead, zinc, sulphur, aluminum and many other precious metals that are worked into various finished products.

Ivan Mestrovic, the world renowned sculptor, whom we are proud and honored to claim as a Jugoslav, and whom Chicago knows as the sculptor of the equestrian Indian statues that grace the portals of Grant Park, will have many of his masterpieces with which to enrich the fair. Our Jugoslav American sculptor, John David Brčin, who has made his mark here in America and abroad, will contribute some of his outstanding works.

Surely the country that has given America two of the world's most eminent physicists and scientists, whose inventions will play an important part in the success of the exposition, Dr. Michael I. Pupin of Columbia University and Dr. Nicholas Tesla, both of whom were born in Jugoslavia, will not miss an opportunity to take part in this exposition.

Our eminent artist and choral societies, that number thousands of trained voices, will render noteworthy classical and national programs. The musical clubs and instrumental artists will play the symphonies of Jugoslav composers, while our gymnastic and sporting organizations lend color to the atmosphere.

The Jugoslav Americans are among the best type of our citizenry. They have brought with them art, culture, customs and traditions, which represent an interesting history and picturesque background. They will do their part so that the fair may surpass in science and beauty the wonders and splendor of the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition, in which I and many of my countrymen had the good fortune to take part.

Thanksgiving Day will be the closing day of the Mother of God Church bazaar. Credit for the success of the bazaar should be given to the Rev. Father Butala, who worked so earnestly to make it a success, and the church committee, with the help of the officers of the different lodges, was instrumental in helping Father Butala in his task.

PITT BOOSTER CLUB OPENS PIN LEAGUE

Duck pins went flying as the Pittsburgh KSKJ Booster Club swung into league play last week.

The league consists of four teams, three ladies and three gentlemen composing the roster of each team. The Notre Dame bowlers boast as its captain Frank Lokar; its cohorts Mrs. Frank Lokar, Stephanie Erjavec, Barbara Jesih, Francis Kompare and Joseph Fortun. The Duquesne outfit, captained by John Golob, lines up with Mary Modric, Frances Balkovec, Mary Radich, Catherine Krotec, John Veselich and John Balkovec. The extra young lady in the Duquesne lineup adds more pep to that team since the three highest scores are tabulated.

Andrew Coghe pilots the Villanova Wildcats. The roll call of the team includes Frances Lokar, Marie Turk, Mary Gorup, Francis O'Donnell and John Coghe.

Peter Balkovec, peer of the bowlers, leads his Mt. Carmelites, Rose Modric, Justine Lokar, Mary Bahorich, Frank Ferencik and Francis J. Sumic.

In the first encounter Villanova took three games from Notre Dame after the men slumped and the Villy girls came to the rescue with high scores. After losing the first game to Duquesne, Mt. Carmel fought valiantly and won the remaining two encounters.

Live, Love and Bowl

Live, love and bowl are the three cornerstones of the edifice of my existence. It used to be only two, but a building is hardly held by two stones and I have always felt a bit shaky, too. However, when I injected this third cornerstone and made a regular triangular affair of it, I began to feel 100 per cent more human.

Yes, bowl! And with whom? With the best crowd of sociable people in the world, the Boosters. Boy, oh, girl! What a riotous time we had at Kobe's, where our contingent bowled. After we piled up enough duck pins to choke a whale, we hied over to Golob's and found the other half of the league still poking away. And were they rooting and razzing!

After the scores were sifted Petek Balkovec was on top with a 153 average. Perhaps you folks in the West think that is not so good, but it is a duck pin score. The way we figure Pete's score is equal to a 200 register in ten pins.

Boosters, let's have a larger crowd at the next pairings. If you can't afford to bowl, come and watch us. Be right with the Boosters, as you are for them.

KNIGHT BASKETTEER START WITH WIN

By Brooklyn Knight

The Knights of Trinity basketball team had a great desire to test its ability on a court with a strange team for their first adventure. The result was they booked a game with the team of the Continental Bank of New York in rapid order.

The game was played in the Most Holy Trinity School auditorium, Brooklyn, Thursday night, Nov. 5.

Considering the fact that it was the Knights' first game, they certainly did shine, and they were rewarded handsomely for their endeavor by defeating the visitors to the tune of 30 to 14.

Two of the lads on the K. of T. team never held a basketball in their hands till they joined the organization. But they certainly gathered enough knowledge of the game to make their opponents realize that they were in a very tough game. Stanley Erhardt is one of them and Suplina is the other. Two Staudohar brothers, John and Joe, it seemed, were trying to imitate two streaks of lightning flashing around the floor.

They never ceased their offensive and were brilliant on the defensive. Fred Arko showed his ability with his speedy and accurate pass work, and when he guarded his man, you can take my word the man was well guarded. Freddy knows basketball from A to Z. Have we material? "Dunt esk," come around and see for yourself. Study the following summary very carefully and you will be so much the wiser to the results. All set? Let's go!

KSKJ Pin Team Ties Lead

Toppling over 670 pins in three games, Tony Grdina set up a new high individual mark and led his KSKJ pinsters in a two-game victory over the Sokols in the Cleveland Inter-lodge League last Sunday.

The Jays feel that they did well, as they played a team composed of high school stars, and then they were defeated by a margin of only two points.

The Jubileers won the JSKJ national basketball title last year, and the Jays feel confident, for they gave the titleholders a close fight.

The Jays travel to Soudan Nov. 25 and expect to turn out a close game.

Men who give advice always save the best they have for themselves.

SOUDAN ENTERS BASKET CIRCUIT

Soudan, Minn.—This is our initial appearance, but we came with important news. We have joined the Minnesota KSKJ Athletic Association and already have our games scheduled, the first of which we play in our local high school gymnasium with Chisholm on Nov. 25.

It is the first time in the history of our local lodge—SS. Cyril and Methodius, No. 4—that any sports are being sponsored; so naturally our enthusiasm is unlimited.

Out of 15 players who have come out for practice, the manager, George Nemanich Jr., is confident he can put out a squad of players to compare with any on the Range.

We wish to acknowledge our appreciation to Supt. W. E. Noyes and the members of the School Board for permitting us the use of the school gymnasium for practices and for the scheduled games.

Our team will be known as the Soudan KSKJ Bullets, and we are sure they will live up to that cognomen.

And now, all you members of SS. Cyril and Methodius Lodge—big and small, young and old—come and boost YOUR team in the opening game Nov. 25 at the high school gym.

Boost for the Soudan Bullets!

See you Wednesday night at the game.

DRAMATIC CLUB STAGES PLAY

Final rehearsals are being held for the comedy-drama, "Only Sally Ann," by Katherine Kavanaugh, to be given Dec. 3, at 8 p. m., at St. Roch's Hall by the St. Roch's Dramatic Club under the direction of Father Paschall.

"Only Sally Ann" is a comedy-drama of mystery in which there is an abundance of laughter and tears. The thrilling story is cleverly written and the interest of any audience is held from the beginning to the end by a series of dramatic situations rising from one climax to another until the final denouement at the close of the last act.

Slowly, bit by bit, the many mysteries of the play are solved, surprise follows surprise and the dramatic situations in this play fairly teem with life and sustaining interest.

A cordial invitation is extended to all, especially to the Chicago players and their followers, who are already personally acquainted with the Dramatic Club.

Willie was being measured for his first made-to-order suit of clothes.

"Do you want the shoulders padded, my little man?" inquired the tailor.

"Naw," said little Willie, significantly, "pad the pants."
