CLEVELAND, OHIO, SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 22nd, 1930.

LETO XXXII.—VOL. XXXII.

Slovenski radio program v nedeljo bo za vse jako zanimiv

Slovenska godba "Bled," pod vodstvom g. Ivanusha nam bo v nedeljo zaigrala na slovenskem radio programu prvi pot. Slišali smo jo že večkrat pri naših prireditvah, in vselej nam je ugažala. Na radio se bo pa slišala še toliko bolje. In godba ima pripravljen izvrstni program, ker je vodja, Mr. Ivanush, poznan, da vedno poda nekaj izvanrednega slovenskim radijskim poslušalcem. Poleg godbe "Bled" pa bomo imeli zopet priliko slišati Miss Marie Udovitch in Josephine Lausche-Welf, pod vodstvom dr. William J. Lausche. Kot se nam zatrjuje, bomo slišali v nedeljo od teh dveh priljubljenih pevk pesmice, katerih doslej še nismo slišali. Skupaj bosta zapeli dva dueta, potem pa vsaka eno solo, in sicer Josephine bo zapela "Zora vstaja, dan se dela," po napevu, ki ga je priredil dr. William J. Lausche. Pesem "Zora vstaja, dan se dela," se poje v narodni drami "Rokovnjači," toda v popolnoma drugem napevu. Kdor pozna originalni napev in kdor bo poslušal v nedeljo napev dr. Lausche, bo takoj poznal razliko. In "Rožmarin, o rožmarin," solo točka Miss Mary Udovicheve vas bo prav prijetno presenetila. Slovenska godba "Bled" in petje naših rekorderov mora na vsak način zadovoljiti radio poslušalce prihodnje nedelje.

V Chicago so začeli groziti z linčanjem

Chicago, 20. marca. Policijski načelnik v Chicagi je dobil pismo od jako upljivnega državljanca, v katerem slednji grozi, da če policija v Chicagi ne bo naredila konec gangežem in raketirjem, da bodo meščani sami vzeli postavbo v roke in bodo začeli sami linčati zločince. In prej ne bo konec zločinom v Chicagi.

Dohodninski davek bo upeljan v Ohio

Columbus, Ohio, 21. marca. Lastniki hiš, posestev in zemljišč v državi Ohio se pritožujejo, da morajo plačevati vedno večje davke. Državna postavodaja dobiva tisoče pritožb tozadevno, zato se je začelo misliti, da se upelje v državi Ohio davek na dohodnino, to je, na zaslužek, ki ga ima vsaka oseba v državi tekom leta. Tak davek je bil upeljan že v mnogih drugih državah. Dohodninski davek, ki bi znašal od pol procenta do treh procentov davka na leto, bi pri nesel državi okroglih $70,000,000 letno, in bi se davki na hiše lahko precej znižali. Prihodnje zasedanje postavodaje se bo pečalo s tem vprašanjem.

Tri osebe umrle v Ohio radi "gingerja"

Columbus, Ohio, 21. marca. Državni zdravstveni oddelek je danes upeljal preiskavo radi strašnih učinkov gotove vrste piščarice po imenu "ginger," ki je povzročil v zadnjih par dneh smrt treh oseb, dočim jih je nad 200 nevarno zbolelo. Iz ostalih krajev Zed. držav se sporoča, da je zbolelo nad 2000 oseb radi uživanja "gingerja." Ljudje, ki so uživali dotično piščarico, so dobili otrpnjene ude pod kolena in pod komolecem. Učinek uživanja te piščarice se pokaže šele po desetih dnevih. Tisoče galon te piščarice je bilo zaplenjeno v raznih krajih tekom zadnjih dni.

Vsaka država bi morala za sebe glasovati glede prohibicijske postave

Washington, 20. marca. V kongresu je bil vložen predlog, da se prohibicijska postava spremeni v toliko, da vsaka država sama za sebe skrbí, da se prohibicija spoľnuje, oziroma da se podeli posameznim mestom pravica, da skrbijo, da se prohibicija spoľnuje. Zvezna vlada bi samo gledala na to, da se ne importira opojna pijača iz drugih dežel, ali da se pijača ne prevaja iz ene države v drugo. Suhachi so prvotno zelo nasprotovali temu predlogu, toda so se sedaj izjavili, da se s predlogom strinjajo, kar pomeni, da se oprijemajo zadnje bilke, da rešijo prohibicijo, ker vidijo, da je javno mnenje vedno bolj in bolj naperjeno proti prohibiciji. Edino upanje, ki ga imajo suhachi, je to, da bodo letošnje kongresne volitve izpadle njim v prid. Suhachi imajo danes več kot dvetrinsko večino v kongresu, da odbijejo vse napade mokrih. V novembru mesecu pa, ko bo narod volil novo poslansko zbornico in eno tretino senatorjev, pričakujejo suhachi, da bodo poraženi. Ako mokri dobijo v zbornico poslancev vsaj 110 svojih pristašev, poleg sedanjih, ki jih imajo, in ako bo izvoljenih vsaj 14 mokrih senatorjev, tedaj se lahko pričakuje, da bo Volstead postavbo odpravljena in dobimo novo postavbo glede prohibicije. Mokri kot suhi zbirajo milijone, da bi prodrli pri prihodnjih volitvah.

Svarijo bogotajce, da se ne prenačijo

Moskva, 21. marca. Ruski ateisti ali bogotajci, ki zborujejo te dni, so dobili od svojih lastnih pristašev svarilo, naj se ne prenačijo, pač pa se spoľpriznajo z idejo, da vere ni mogoče preko noči odpraviti iz Rusije. Razbijanja in zločini, ki so jih povzročili bogotajci v Rusiji, so imeli doslej slabe posledice. Ljudje se zgražajo nad početjem bogotajcev in se toliko trdnjejo držijo svoje vere.

Glas iz Kanade

Mr. Walter Strebel nam piše iz Petersburg, Ontario, Kanada, da redno vsako nedeljo posluša slovenski radio program iz Clevelanda, in da ga silno veseli, ko sliši prijetno slovensko pesem iz tujine. Zlasti mu je ugažalo petje sestrice Baraga zadnjo nedeljo. Želi mnogo uspeha vsem trgovcem, ki so priredili ta radio program.

Uspeli koncert

G. Banovec, naš priljubljeni operni pevec, nam poroča iz Chicage, da je imel tam jako uspešen pevski koncert. Občinstva je bilo nad 300, ki je z največjo slastjo poslušalo lepe pesmice. Da, in kdo ne bi poslušal g. Banoveca!

Na električni stol

George Williams, 61 let star, je bil te dni v Clevelandu spoznan krivim umora prvega reda in obsojen na električni stol radi umora policista Shermana. Starec se je izjavil, da mu je vseeno kako umre. Jutri ali v ponedeljek bo obsojen tudi 21 letni Chas. Hanovich, spremljevalec Williamsa, ki je bil z njim ob enem postavljen na zatožni klop.

Hčerka umrla

Dne 19. jan. je umrla mati Mary Gostan, in sedaj je pa umrla tudi njena hčerka Mary, stara 11 mesecev. Družina stanuje na 1374 E. 27th St.

Indija se vzbuja in povzroča strah in trepet Angležem

Mestna vlada je znižala ceno elektriki svojim 44,000 odjemalcem

Direktor javnih potrebsčin v Clevelandu naznanja, da je mestna vlada sklenila znižati ceno elektriki vsem svojim 44,000 odjemalcem. Cene, po katerih bo mesto oddajalo elektriko, bodo še nižje kot pa znižane cene, katere je pred enim mesecem naznanila The Cleveland Electric Illuminating Co. Predno se znižajo cene mestni elektriki, je še potrebno, da mestna zbornica odobri nove cene, kar se bo zgodilo pri prihodnjem zasedanju mestne zbornice. Direktor javnih potrebsčin se je izjavil, da mesto znižuje cene elektriki, ker bi rado dobilo nove odjemalce za elektriko. Mestna elektrarna je dovolj obsežna, da lahko postreže še 25,000 novim odjemalcem. Mesto bo tudi nastavilo štiri zastopnike, ki bodo hodili od hiše do hiše in skušali nagovoriti ljudi, da dobivajo elektriko od mesta. Dosedaj je moral vsak, ki je imel mestno elektriko v hiši, plačati 30 centov na mesec za "service" ali postrežbo. V bodočnosti boste plačevali le 25 centov, pri čemur si prihranite 60 centov na leto. Poleg tega pa bodo znižane cene onim odjemalcem, ki porabijo več kot 200 kilovat ur na mesec za 4 procenče, in oni, ki porabijo elektrike med 20 in 200 kilovat ur na mesec, bodo dobili znižane račune za 10 procentov, in to se tiče večine naših ljudi. Mestna elektrarna pričakuje tisoče novih odjemalcev radi znižanih cen.

Zopet doma

Po prestani operaciji se je vrnila na dom svoje hčerke Mrs. Marta Koss, ki stanuje na 7002 Becker Ct. Prijateljice so prinesle, da jo obiščejo.

Peter Witt, ognjevit govornik, zaposlen pri veliki korporaciji

Eden najbolj znanih Clevelandčanov je gotovo Peter Witt, ki je bil svoje dni mestni pravni zastopnik, potem nadzornik cestne železnice, demokrat, radikal, councilman. Odkar so Van Sveringen bratje začeli graditi novo železniško postajo v Clevelandu, je bil Peter Witt med onimi, ki so najbolj nasprotovali temu podjetju. Peter Witt je imel v mestni zbornici mnogo bojevitihih govorov proti interesom Van Sveringen. Peter Witt je imel navado, da je najel mestni dvorano, kjer je nastopil kot govornik in je silovito udrihal proti "kapitalističnim interesom." Sedaj pa je naš Peter Witt sprejel ponudbo Van Sveringen interesov, da jih bo zastopal kot glavni svetovalec. Dobil bo precej lepo plačo za svoje delo. Witt je zmožen svojega dela, kompanija ga je prav vesela, in tudi ostali Cleveland dobro ve, da bo Witt pošten pri svojem delu. Ampak čuditi se je, kako se naredi iz sovražnika — prijatelja.

Bo rešen ječ?

Državna oblast za pomiloščanje bo najbrž spustila iz zaporov aprila meseca mladega Liston J. Schooley, ki je dobil za kazen zapor od enega do pet let, ker je pomagal slepariti svojem očetu, bivšemu councilmanu Schooleyu pri prodaji mestnih zemljišč. Mladi Schooley se je v zaporih dostojno obnašal, in bo prihodnji mesec najbrž izpuščen, dočim njegov oče ne more iz zaporov še najmanj štiri leta.

"Če verjamete ali ne," "Enakopravnost" je še vedno edini slovenski dnevnik med Chicago in New Yorkom.

Trije šolski otroci zgoreli, ko je začela goreti šola v Oklahomi

Tryon, Okla., 21. marca. Pleasant Valley okrajna šola je pogorela včeraj zjutraj. Trije otroci so umrli v požaru, dočim je bilo več otrok ranjenih. 80 otrok je pobegnilo še pravočasno iz šole. Ogenj je nastal, ko je oskrbnik šole hotel zapaliti ogenj v furnezu. Zdelo se mu je, da ogenj ponehava, pa je vzel kanto petroleja in vлил nevarno tekočino na ogenj. Nastala je eksplozija, radi katere je takoj zbruhnil ogenj. Trije dečki, starji 6, 7 in osem let, so se nahajali tedaj v neposredni bližini peči. Naenkrat so bili vsi v plamenu, in so umrli, predno jim je mogel kdo na pomoč. Otroci v šoli so slišali kričanje gorečih otrok, in so nemudoma planili ven iz šolskih prostorov, dočim so učiteljice čakale do zadnjega, predno so se podale iz gorečih prostorov. Otroci so kar pri oknih enonadstropne šole skakali skozi okna.

Dr. Jutranja Zvezda

Mrs. Mary Bradač nam sporoča, da je društvo Jutranja Zvezda, št. 137 J. S. K. Jednote sklenilo pri svoji seji, da daruje $5.00 za "Narodni vrt," katerega želi mestna vlada prirediti za Slovence. Ob enem nam Mrs. Bradach naznanja, da je društvo kupilo eno sliko na razstavi slovenskega umetnika g. Jakaca. Vsa čast temu slovenskemu društvu.

Cvetlična razstava

Miss Julia Vokach, lastnica slovenske cvetličarne na 6120 St. Clair Ave., nam naznanja, da dobite pri njej lahko vstopnice na cvetlično razstavo v mestnem avditoriju za 50 centov. Vstopni na sicer znaša 75 centov. Prihranite si kvoder.

V nedeljo nastopi slovenska mladina, v kateri imamo našo bodočnost

Mladina je naša bodočnost. Ona bo nadaljevala naše delo, širila in vzdrževala bo naše ideje in načela, ko bomo mi se postarali in šli v grobove. Zato se vse organizacije trudijo pridobiti mladino za svoje cilje in namerje. V mladini je bodočnost cerkve, naroda in države. Čujte! V nedeljo 23. marca ob 8. uri zvečer ima mladina fare sv. Vida svojo veliko prireditev, telovadno Akademijo. Pokazati hoče, kaj zna. In mladina se tudi hoče postaviti. In mladino veseli, če vidi, da se starejši za njo zanimajo. To ji da pogum, to jo navduši še z naprej. In naše mladine nikakor ne smemo razočarati. Pridimo, da ji damo priznanje za njen plemeniti trud skozi dolge zimske mesece! Dajmo naši mladini poguma in veselja, da se bo še bolj trudila, da bo še več dosegla! Mladini bo to v korist, nam samim pa v veselje!

Lansko leto je imela mladina "Orla" krasno prireditev. Dvorana S. N. Doma je bila napolnjena. Naredimo tako tudi leto. S svojim zanimanjem za njihovo delo jih bomo potrdili v njihovem prepričanju, da so na pravi poti, da je telovadba res nekaj lepega in za človeka, zlasti mladega, res nekaj zelo koristnega za telo, duha in voljo. Človek s krepko voljo doseže vse na svetu. In s telovadbo se volja zelo krepi. V sredi mladine, ob pogledu na naše mladine, se bomo še mi, ki smo v zreli dobi, poglabili sladke spomine naše mladosti. Omenimo naj še, da b igral odlični češki orkester, sami Čehi, bratje Slovani. Kako bi torej prezrli to lepo prireditev. Pridite, napolnite dvorano jutri, v nedeljo, 23. marca, dvorano S. N. Doma na St. Clair Ave., do zadnjega kotička, sebi in naši mladini v veselje!

Zvišana varščina

Trije komunisti so prišli pretekli dni v neki restavrant na Superior Ave., blizu Public Square. Zahtevali so jesti zastopni. Lastnik restavranta jim je namignil, da gredo v ozadje, kjer dobijo jesti. Toda to jim ni ugajalo. Hoteli so sedeti spredaj in začeli razsajati, dokler ni prišla policija, ki jih je aretirala. Prvotno so bili stavljeni pod varščino $500 vsak, toda varščina je bila sedaj zvišana na $2500, in ker je ne morejo položiti, so ostali v ječi do obravnave.

So vsi enaki

Policija v Clevelandu je včeraj udrila v stanovanje na 11109 Lake Ave., kjer se nahaja krasna rezidenca bivšega državnega pravnika Stanton. Policisti so dobili mnogo pive in žganja v lepi hiši. Aretiran je bil neki Thomas McDonnell, katerega so obtožili kršnjeja prohibicijske postave. Policija pravi, da je udrila v prostore, ker so se sosedi pritoževali radi pijančevanja.

Dan pogreba

Pogreb ranjke Josephine Sušteršič, o kateri smo včeraj poročali, da je umrla v bolnici, se vrši iz hiše žalosti 4847 W. 130th St., ob 8:30 zjutraj, v ponedeljek 24. marca.

Parniki plovejo

Parnik Detroit III je priplul včeraj v Cleveland iz Detroita, ki je prvi potniški parnik, ki je došel letos v Cleveland.

Mlada Mrs. Schroeder, mrlarka policista, je bila obsojena v smrt

New Castle, Pa., 21. marca. 21 let stara Mrs. Irene Schroeder je bila danes spoznana krivim umora prve vrste, ko je decembra meseca lanskega leta ubila državnega policista Brady Paul. Schroeder je bila obsojena v smrt na električnem stolu, ker jo porotniki niso priporočili milosti sodnika. Med porotniki je bilo 10 mož in dve ženski. Nočjo zvečer ob 9:27 so prišli porotniki v sodno dvorano, resnih obrazov in gledajoč v tla. Sodnik je enega za drugim vprašal, kaj so sklenili. Vsak je odgovoril: Kriva je umora prvega reda. Obsoдите jo v smrt! Mrs. Schroeder je prva ženska v državi Pennsylvanija, ki je bila obsojena v smrt na električnem stolu. Ko je zaslišala obsodbo, se ni dosti zmenila, pač pa se je obrnila proti svojim sestram in postaranemu očetu in jim rekla: "Nikar ne jokajte!" Potem je pa z zaničljivim nasmehom na ustnih odkorakala iz sodne dvorane. Mrs. Schroeder je decembra meseca oropala več grocerijskih trgovin. Državna policija jo je preganjala po javnih cestah. Blizu New Castle je naletel na njo državni policist Paul Brady, ki je ustavil njen avtomobil. Ko jo je hotel aretirati, je mlada ženska potegnila revolver in ustrelila policista. Bežala je potem z nekim ljubimcem in dospela v državo Arizono, kjer je bila od pomožnih šerifov prijeta. Po izreku obsodbe se je njen zagovornik izjavil, da bo zahteval novo obravnavo, in da je pripravljen iti s slučajem do najvišje zvezne sodnice.

Smrtna kosa

V petek popoldne je po dolgi bolezni umrl Louis Gornik, star 44 let, 1007 E. 72nd Place. Zapušča soprogo in tri hčerke, Ano, Louise in Alice, brata in sestro, omoženo Stražisar. Doma je bil iz vasi Kot pri Ribnici, kjer zapušča brata. V Clevelandu je bival 25 let. Bil je član društva Naprej št. 5 SNPJ. Pogreb se vrši v torek zjutraj pod vodstvom J. Zele in Sinovi. Prizadetim sorodnikom naše iskreno sožalje, ranjekmu pa naj bo ohranjen blag spomin!

Ne bo zlepa prost

Thomas A. Harrison, ki je obstrelil dva pasanta na Superior Ave., pretekli teden je bil obsojen na 20 let ječe. In ko pride iz zaporov, ga bodo pa čakali zvezni uradniki, ki ga bodo aretirali in ga obtožili, da je ukradel poštne nakaznice, zakar znaša največja kazen 45 let.

"Ginger."

Mestna zdravstvena oblast te dni preiskuje neke vrste pijačo, zvano "ginger," katero je policija zaplenila v raznih prostorih. Radi te pijače je tisoče ljudi obbolelo zadnje čase v Ameriki. V Clevelandu se doslej ni še pripetil noben tak slučaj.

Predsednik povabljen

24. marca se vrši v Clevelandu konferenca gradbenih podjetnikov, ki so povabili predsednika Hooverja, da bi jim naredil govor. Hoover še ni odgovoril na povabilo.

V cvetju mladosti

Umrla je v petek popoldne Marija Kobak, hrvatsko dekle, staro 18 let, stanujoča na 7602 Aberdeen Ave. Ranjka zapušča stariše in dva brata. O pogrebu poročamo pozneje.

MUKE NAŠEGA NARODA V PRIMORJU.

Ker na ta način naš narod v Primorju nima nobenega duševnega razvedrila — radio je Slovencem prepovedan, da ne bi slišali slovenske pesmi iz Ljubljane ali drugod, iščejo tolažbe v knjigah. Pa tudi tu je že nastopil fašistovski režim. Predvsem je import knjig, revij ali celo časopisov iz Jugoslavije absolutno prepovedan, ker v očeh fašistov pomeni vsaka slovenska beseda nevarnost za Italijo. Le slučajno zaide kaka tiskana slovenska beseda iz Jugoslavije v Primorsko. Slovenci so navezani na knjige, ki so tiskane v Italiji, pod strogim nadzorom fašistov. In te knjige so cenzurirane na vse mogoče načine.

Pa dasi tem knjigam ne more nasprotovati niti prefekt, niti vojaške oblasti niti policija, pa je prodaja slovenskih knjig otežkočena na vse mogoče načine. Knjige je prepovedano po pošti pošiljati. V ugodnem slučaju knjigo pridržijo na pošti in oni, ki jo je poslal, jo dobi vrnjeno, rekoč, da sprejemnik ne želi knjige. V največ slučajih pa mora iti prejemnik na orožniško postajo, kjer mora priseči, da on ni naročil dotične knjige. Ako ne naredi tega, tedaj mu vzamejo trgovsko licenco, ako je trgovec, ali mu odvzamejo pokojnino ali kaj enakega. In komur se vseeno posreči priti do slovenske knjige, tedaj plane v njegovo hišo krdelo orožnikov, ki preiščejo vso hišo. Učitelji imajo celo nalogo za bičevati otrokom, da pogledajo doma po hiši, če njih starši berejo kaj slovenskega na domu.

Nikjer v Julijski Benečiji ni dovoljeno imeti v izložbah kake slovenske ali slovenske knjige sploh, in oni redki trgovci, ki se drznejo imeti kako tako knjigo, jo pokažejo na posebno prošnjo z največjo tajnostjo. Naj navedemo tu en slučaj. V Tolminu živi Slavko Tuta. Ko so preiskovali njegovo hišo, kar se med Slovenci dnevno godi, so karabinjerji dobili par izvodov šolske knjige "Prvi koraki," katero rabijo otroci, ko se začnejo učiti spoznavanja črk, to je, v prvem razredu. Ta knjiga je bila tiskana dve leti prej z dovoljenjem primernih oblasti. Toda Tuta je bil kljub temu aretiran in obsojen v dva meseca ječe. Sodnik je svojo tožbo utemeljil sledeče: Tuta je obsojen, ker je razširjal slovenski jezik med mlado slovensko generacijo, kar je v škodo italijanskemu jeziku.

Ubogi siromak je moral presedeti dva meseca v ječi, poleg tega pa je moral plačati še kazen v znesku 2000 lir. Res je, da je apelatna sodnja potem, ko je že presedel v ječi dva meseca, preklcala obsodbo prvotne sodnje, toda to ni preprečilo provincialnemu komisarju, da je dal mladega moža znova prijeti, nakar so ga za tri leta internirali daleč proč na Liparskih otokih, kjer siromak še danes zdihuje, ko je ta članek pisan.

Tekom zadnjih par mesecev so fašisti in karabinjerji naredili splošen pogon na slovenske in hrvatske hiše zlasti v goriški okolici. Pri tem so dobili v posameznih hišah kakih 15,000 slovenskih knjig, katere so kmalu potem z največjo slastjo javno sežgali. In to so bile knjige, ki so bile tiskane z dovoljenjem laške vlade same. V Trstu so nedavno tega sežgali 3000 slovenskih knjig, in sicer pred spomenikom Verdi-ja! Učitelji v šolah z največjo slastjo prižigajo ogenj s slovenskimi knjigami, in slovenski otroci morajo to gledati.

Vsi ukrepi nove policijske postaje se napram slovenskemu prebivalstvu v Primorskem izvršujejo z največjo strogostjo in naravnost bešno brutalnostjo. Hiše so skoro dnevno preiskane, in če orožnik, fašist ali policist vidi Slovenca na ulici, ga začne preiskovati, rekoč, da se mu je zdel sumljiv. Po 30 ali 40 oseb naenkrat aretirajo radi najmanjše provokacije, katere bi v drugih državah sploh opazili ne bi. Te nedolžne ljudi peljejo na kvesturo, na orožniško postajo ali pa v tajništvo fašistov, kjer so izpostavljeni silnim siknam. Ko so jih držali v zaporu, popolnoma nedolžne, par tednov, tedaj jih izpustijo, ne da bi sploh prišli pred sodnika ali da bi oblasti navedle vzrok nasilnega pridržanja v zaporu. V mnogih slučajih pa, ako je le senca dokazov proti njim, pa gredo slučaji teh nesrečnikov pred posebno sodnijo v Rim, ki nikdar ne obsodi na manj kot na pet let ječe. Laške kazenske naselbine, kjer vladajo nečloveške razmere, so polne inteligentnih Slovencev.

D O P I S I

Clark, So. Dak.—Priloženo vam pošiljam letošnje naročnino za Ameriško Domovino, katero tako rad prebiram.

Tukaj nisimo imeli preveč hude zime in snega je bilo prav malo. Najhujeje je bilo zadnjega februarja in prvega marca. Praval mi je, da ne morem dobiti slovenskega radio programa iz Clevelanda. Menda je predaleč. Naznanili ste tudi, da se bo lahko dobilo radio program iz Chicago. Obračal sem aparat celo ne živil je pa tudi prav nizka.

Cutim se prav zadovoljnega na farmi in dobro se mi godi. Nikdar me ne prime želja, da bi šel zopet nazaj v velika mesta. Če bi šlo več naših ljudi na farme, bi imeli boljše življenje, kakor v mestu. Toda boje se dela na farmi, pa je vendar lažje delo kot v tovarni. Vse težje delo itak opravljajo konji. Toda v državi Ohio je težje obdelovati farme kot tukaj v S. Dakoti.

Pozdrav vsem Slovencem in Hrvatom.

Matt Tremac,
R. 5., Clark, S. Dakota

Cleveland, O.—V četrtek popoldne so imeli otroci šole sv. Vida zopet vesel in zabavni dan. Zora Ropasova jim je pela v S. N. Domu na St. Clair Ave., lepe slovenske pesmi. Na klavir jo je spremljala Miss Wahčić.

Otroci so veselo navdušeno aplavdirali izvajanju pesmi, katere je gđ. Ropasova izgovarjala zelo jasno in razločno, da jih je bilo lahko razumeti v lepi domači melodiji.

Med programom pesmi je gosposodična Wahčić izvajala še posebej vesele slovenskih narodnih pesmi na klavir. Miss Wahčić je zelo izvežbana pianistka, in jo je res veselje poslušati. Take priredbe za mladino je treba še večkrat prirediti, da se bo mladina navzela slovenskega duha.

Temu naj bi sledile še druge naselbine. Otroci naj bi se po šoli razveselili ob lepi domači pesmi. Naši umetniki in umetnice so nam na razpolago. Naši narodni domovi so vendar zgrajeni, da služijo narodnim svrham. Le malomarnost je kriva, če se ne poslužujemo tega, kar imamo na razpolago.

Kar ljubimo starejši, to bodo ljubili tudi naši mlajši, če jim bomo dali priliko, da se navzamejo našega duha. Če pa tega ne bomo storili, ne bomo smeli dolžiti otrok, pač pa sami sebe. Tako so imeli šolski otroci pod vodstvom Rev. B. Ponikvarja, župnika, in č. sester že dvakrat v enem tednu veselje z našimi lepimi pesmimi in našo umetnostjo. Kaj sličnega naj tudi drugod priredijo. G.

Cleveland, O.—Gospod urednik A. D.: Nad vse zanimiv in privlačen je bil pretečeni tork zvečer koncert, ki ga je priredilo priljubljeno newburško pevsko društvo Zvon pod vodstvom Mr. P. Kogojca, v dvorani javne knjižnice na Broadway in E. 55. ulici. Pevci so želi ogromen aplavz in priznanje za svoje nastope, tako da so morali ponovno nastopiti. kakor tudi Hojer Trio. Le škoda, da so bili Hojer bratje tako zaposleni ta večer in so se morali podati še drugam. Nekaj je bilo kar je kritike vredno, in sicer v polni meri, to je—da mi Slovenci se tako malo zanimamo za take prireditve. Po mojem mnenju bi bili morali te dvorane napolniti sami Slovenci, če iz dejstva, da bi imeli boljše ugled pri drugih narodih, obenem bi pa dali prirediteljem več poguma in veselja za njih trud. Ta večer so zasedli prostore v veliki večini naši bratje čehi, ki znajo ceniti enake prireditve bolj kakor pa mi Slovenci. V tem oziru se moramo pobojšati in kadar se nam nudi prilika, kakor pretečeni tork, isto tudi v polni meri izrabiti.

Kaj pa radio program zadnje nedelje? Po mojih mislih se nismo imeli boljše, in ko bi ne bili poprej vedeli, kdo nastopi, bi bil pri nastopu mladinske godbe iz Collinwooda vsakdo mislil, da igra najbolj izurjena prvovrstna ameriška godba. To so ga "kampeljni." Prav gotovo se morajo pred zaključkom slovenskega radio programa še enkrat odzvati. Njih čaka še velika bodočnost. Čast, komur čast! (Jaka naj pa tudi nekaj stori v tem slučaju, ako drugega ne, naj pa uro nazaj pomika, da ne bodo poslušalci vedno kicali, da je slovenska ura prekratka!)

Nekaj politike bi tudi ne škodovalo. Kakor sem čital v A. D. mislijo zamorci napraviti nekak protest prihodnje sobote ter še nekaj odgovornih služb strgati iz rok belih ljudi. Po tistem jih vprašam, imajo pa zamorci v svoji sredini sposobnejše kandidate za take službe, kakor jih sedaj opravljajo naši ljudje? Po mojih mislih ne, in to iz enostavnega vzroka—ker se niso politično dozoreli. Ako pa slučajno so, naj gredo nazaj na jug in naj pomagajo svojim zatiranim bratom iz njih suženjskih razmer, v katerih se nahajajo. Do sedaj smo napredovali brez njih, in upam, da imamo v svoji sredini še moške, ki imajo več možgan v svojih glavah, torej sposobnejše za vsak urad kakor so, pa oni Sploh pa naj malo pogledajo proti Columbusu, kjer se njih ne ravno čedna zgodovina piše.

Kar se pa dela tiče, pa ni vredno govoriti. Le to naj rečem, da tako slabih časov kakor so, ni bilo še v zadnjih 30 letih. Temu govore dejstva, da bi se pa kaj zboljšalo v tem oziru, ni po mojih mislih niti govora. Je sicer prosperiteta—ali žalibog vsakdo dobro ve kje, torej mi ni treba zapisati dotičnega kraja.

Naročnik.

Cleveland, O.—Dolžnost me veže, da se na tem mestu iskreno zahvalim mojim številnim dragim prijateljem in prijateljicam, ki so me v nedeljo 16. marca tako iznenadili s "surprise party." Popolnoma ni nisem slutil, da se kaj priprav-lja zame in sem šel prav pokorno s Tonetom Opekatom, ki me je izvil v nedeljo iz hiše. Ko pridem domov proti večeru, sem pa kar obstal, ko sem videl polno hišo ljudi, ki so me z glasnim vzklikom pozdravili: "surprise." Okrog bogato obložene mize je bilo zbranih vse polno prijateljev in prijateljic, ki so se veselili mojega preseñenja.

Na tem mestu se najiskrenejše zahvalim vsem spodaj označenim za tako krasne darove, ki so mi jih dali. Nisem vedel, da imam toliko prijateljev in znal bom ceniti njih prijateljstvo, dokler bom živel. Zahvalim se Mr. Tonetu Opeka, ki me je tako spretno izvil iz hiše. Lepa hvala Mr. John Zgoncu za lepo petje in krasno godbo, Mrs. Možek in Mrs. Strazišar za lepa hvala, ki sta pomagali moji ženi napraviti tako okusna jedila. Iskreno se zahvalim sledečim, ki so prispevali za tako krasne darove: Mr. in Mrs. Anton Opeka, Mr. John Zgonc, Mr. in Mrs. Louis Cimperman, Mr. in Mrs. Joseph Cimperman, Mr. Frank Longar, Mr. in Mrs. John Kováčič, Mr. in Mrs. Louis Zgonc, Mr. in Mrs. Louis Tomšič, Mr. in Mrs. John Zalar, Mr. in Mrs. Matevž Ogrinc, Mr. in Mrs. Zelle, Mr. in Mrs. Edward Možek, Mr. in Mrs. John Meše, Mr. in Mrs. John Strazišar, Mr. in Mrs. Anton Tavžel, Mr. in Mrs. John Intihar, Mr. Anton Klančar, Mr. in Mrs. Joseph Sterle, Mr. in Mrs. John Globokar.

Se enkrat: srčna hvala vsem skupaj! Jožef Zgonc.

Collinwoodske novice

Dramatika v naših slovenskih naselbinah je prava sirota Jerica. Nič se ne zmenj za njo, vse jo prezirljivo gleda od strani, češ, kaj pa je tebe treba bilo. Res, da so dramatična društva v naših naselbinah malce prebogata zastopana in da nekatera uganjajo pravo šušmarstvo, ko se niti ne potrudijo, da bi občinstvu nudila kaj dobrega in kolikor mogoče popolnega. V mnogih dramatičnih društvih je že veliko, ako igralci vedo na večer predstave za naslov igre, katero mislijo ravnokar uprizoriti; o vsebini igre in o pravem igranju ni seveda niti govora—to bi bilo preveč zahtevano. So pa tudi društva, ki se resno prizadevajo, da vsaj v glavnem zadovoljijo občinstvo. In taka društva bi morala imeti malo več privlačne sile in upoštevanja, kadarkoli naznanijo, da bodo priredila to ali ono igro. In z mirno vestjo lahko rečemo, ne da bi najmanj pretiravali, da je eno izmed teh resno se prizadevajočih dramatičnih organizacij Adria v Collinwoodu. Kdor je videl katero si bodi predstavo Adrije, je na koncu dejal: Dobro je bilo; zadovoljen sem in drugič še pojdem.

Da smo pa dosegli takšne uspehe pri občinstvu, je vzrok ta, ker smo se vedno držali načela: nikdar prirejati iger, za katere ni dovolj sposobnih igralcev; drugič pa: bolje manj iger, toda tiste dobre. Tako smo se v letošnji sezoni odločili samo za dve igri. Prva je bila v februarju, druga bo zadnja nedeljo v tem mesecu, torej: 30. marca. Naslov igre je "Mlini pod zemljo." Zve naslov sam nekako draži domišljijo. In res je ta drama prebogata na čudovitih, pretresljivih prizorih, vmes so pa pomešani tako komični nastopi, da se jim mora človek smejati od srca. "Mlini pod zemljo" bo za vas povsem nekaj novega, ker dosedaj se omenjena drama še ni predstavljala na slovenskih odrih. Dejanje igre, kakor sem vam že povedal v eni zadnjih številk Ameriške Domovine, se godi v Rimu, onem času, ko je krščanstvo bojevalo zadnji odločilni boj s poganstvom. Rimске noše, rimske navade in običaji, predvsem pa dovršeno igranje naših starih, preizkušnih igralcev—vse to bo za vas nekaj, čemur se ne boste mogli načuditi.

Torej: V nedeljo, dne 30. marca t. l. priredi dramatično društvo Adria v Collinwoodu igro "Mlini pod zemljo." Igra se bo predstavljala v Slovenskem Domu na Holmes Ave. Vstopnice dobite v predprodaji v trgovini Mr. F. Laurich-a na vogalu Holmes Ave. in E. 156th St. Upamo, da ne boste zamudili prilike, da si ogledate nekaj, česar dosedaj še niste videli.

Za naše gospodinje

ZA KUHNJO

Krompir s sirom. Skuhaj v običaj dva funta krompirja in ga olup in zreži na ploščice ter deni v kozo. V loncu pa zmešaj kvort mleka, dve jajci, malo sira (parmezana), ki si ga naribala na ribežnu, in malo še posoli. To mešanico zlij na krompir, na vrh pa nareži dve žlici sirovega masla in daj v pečico, da se lepo rumeno zapeče. Tak krompir je pripraven za večerjo s solato.

Kislo zelje s telečjo glavo. Na precej masti zarumeni eno na drobno zrezano čebulo, prideni poldrugi funt kislega zelja (če je zelje močno kislo, ga poprej preperi v mlačni vodi), osoli, prilij čašo belega vina, dve žlici paradiznikove meze in tako pokrito duši. Večkrat premešaj. Pol telečje glave pa skupaj v vodi kakor za juho, a brez zelenjave, samo malo osoli. Ko je kuhano, odcedi juho (to juho lahko porabiš drugi dan za zalivanje kake prikuhe) in zalij z ma-

Če verjamete, al' pa ne...

Pri neki hiši je prišla v vizite botra štoklja, ki je bila kaj gostoljubno sprejeta in je za to gostoljubnost pustila prisrčkano, majčkino punčko. Po par tednih je bilo treba misliti na krst in tako reče nekega dne srečnati svojemu možu: "Ti, jaz sem že izbrala ime naši hčerkici. Predvarjala sem na vse strani in najprimernejše in najlepše ime se mi zdi Katarinka."

Možu se ime ni posebno dopadlo, toda vsled veliko svoje diplomacije je previdno zamolčal, da se ne strinja s tem imenom, ampak je ves vesel vzkliknil:

"Pa res, luba ženka, lepšega imena naši hčerkici nikakor ne bi mogla izbrati. Katarinka je jako lepo ime in dekle, v katero sem bil jaz prvič zaljubljen, se je imenovala Katarinka."

Po teh moževih besedah je bilo nekaj časa vse tiho, potem se pa oglašila žena in na kratko reče: "Urška bo! Tako je bilo ime moji materi."

Nekdo je srečal prijatelja odvetnika na cesti in mu je ves srecen pripovedoval, da je kupil nov avtomobil. Vprašal je odvetnika, če je videl ta njegov nov avto in kako se mu dopade. Prijatelj odvetnik mu pove, da je avto videl in da se mu prav dopade. Po tem kratkem razgovoru se razideta. Kako se pa lastnik novega avtomobila začudi, ko dobi prihodnjega meseca od odvetnika račun za $10.00, za "mnenje" o novem avtomobilu.

"Zakaj pa zopet lasaš svojo sestro?" pokara mati svojega sinčka.

"Igrala sva se Adama in Eno. Ona bi me morala skušati zapejljati z jabolkom, pa je jabolko sama pojedla."

Hlapec: "Profesor Klobasa, ki sem ga davi peljal na koledvor, mi je pomotoma dvakrat plačal vožnjo. Ali naj mu preveč plačano povrnem?"

Gospodar: "Kaj še! Če je tako pozabljen, ga terjaj še enkrat."

Stražnik je moral gnati zanikarnega potepina baš po glavni cesti na stražnico. Ljudje so zijali v nju od vseh strani, zato je bilo stražnika silno sram, da mora iti v družbi s takim potepinom. Zaradi tega se je silno hudoval in jezo rentail potepinu v uho: "Prav sram me je, da moram med tolikimi ljudmi hoditi s takim capinom."

Potepin pa mu odgovori: "Kaj mislite, da mene ni s r a m, da moram iti z vami."

Janez pride pozno domov.

"Koliko je ura?" vpraša osorno žena.

"Šele deset, dragica," se laže Janez.

V tem trenutku bije ura eno. "Poglej, Janez, kako si se zlagar. Ali ne slišiš ure? Pravkar je bila eno."

"Saj mora samo enkrat udariti. Ničle vendar ne more zraven biti," se odreže Janez.

Neki čudak je zelo rad kupoval starino. Čimbolj je bila kakak stvar stara, več je plačal za njo. Nekeč je kupil omaro, ki je bila po zadržilu prodajalca stara najmanj petsto let. Kupcu se je pa zdelo, da je bila omara zadnje čase popravljena, zato je bil rad zvedel, kateri deli omare so stari in kateri novi. Na pomoč je poklical profesorja, ki se je razumel na starino in ga vprašal, naj preišče omaro in naj pove, kateri deli omare so novi in kateri stari. Profesor ogleduje omaro in končno reče: "Veste, na tej omari je vse novo, samo luknja pri ključavnici je stara."

Who Least Hunt For It.

Bits About Them

BEHAVING?

What ho? Cheerio! And all other expressions of Hello, Good Morning and what have you? Well, here we are with two weeks of Lent already gone into the dim and ancient past, with the result that your correspondent is down to a meager 222 pounds (or is it 3333? I can't remember just which it is, but it's one or the other at any rate.) And now that I've worn myself down to a mere shadow of my former self, with fasting and being on my very best good behavior, I ought to be able to get some good bits for this column, as I'm now thin enough to crawl through keyholes and cracks and nothing should escape me!

WHAT ARE YOU DRIVING, STAN?

And here's one that reached my enormous ear just the other day, though it happened several weeks ago. (My efficiency department is slipping.) Stan P. Zupan, editor, automobile man, basketball manager etc., took his KSKJ Flashes to Lorain for a game one Saturday night. Following the fracas the Loraines tendered a little party for their visitors. The next day, Stan came across one of his buddies who likewise made the big trip to South Lorain, and told him about the wonderful time he made coming back to Cleveland. "Why you know," says Stan, "I was in front of the Westlake at 11:30." Now the funny part of this, dear reader, is that the team didn't leave Lorain till after 12! And for which, this column makes the son of Mr. and Mrs. Zupan the undefeated, world's champion speed driver—barring none!

LUCKY BOY

Bowlers around this neck of the woods are just wondering whether or not they want Joe Demshar, competent hammer and saw man, on their teams anymore. Not that Joe does not roll a mean hook, for he has the individual high record in the St. Clair Merchant's and SDZ leagues with a game of 237, but despite this his team lost the game. Earlier in the year, Joe's team in the SDZ league, Slovenec, No. 1, won five straight in a match. In the sixth game Joe set the league high with a 255 and his team lost! Must be a jinx or something hovering around Joe and his high games.

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

Vera Kushian is That Way about a name named "Butch"? (Might be news.)

The Enpoint is well on his way to recovery and will soon be able to draw pictures for this column? (Bad news.)

Robert Kalish made his letter in football and basketball on the U. of D. Prep Coit teams? (News.)

That your correspondent has no sh? (Advt.)

That the Inquiring Reporter positively is not John Bukovnik? (???)

Miss Anna L. Dejak and her sister, Miss Angeline E. Dejak, are home from Ohio State University for their quarterly vacation. Miss Anna is enrolled in the College of Education at the State University, while her sister, a graduate nurse from St. Alexis Hospital, is receiving her education in the College of Medicine.

Sokols and Flashes Place Two on Team

ACCOUNT FOR FOUR OF FIVE SELECTIONS

ST. ANN'S PLACE ONE

Picking All-Inter-Frat Team Is No Easy Job, A. H. J. Writer Finds Out

By CONTEST EDITOR
F. "JOE" LAURICH, Flashes.
F. "MOLLY" KNAUS, Sokols.
C. "WHITEY" DOLJACK, St. Ann's.
G. "FRAN" MALOVRH, Flashes.
G. "ANN" GASPAREC, Sokols.

Well, there it is, folks! The American Home Junior All-Inter-Frat team of 1930. Here is a quintet that represents the league's maximum offensive and defensive strength; a truly powerful combination. CENTER TOUGH ONE TO PICK This correspondent, in making his selections, struck a snag at the very outset. We began with the center post and ran into a flock of grief. In looking for someone to fill the tip-off position, three individuals were outstanding: Doljack of St. Ann's, Malovrh of the Flashes and Knaus of the Sokols. Here were three young ladies who were the backbone of their respective team's play. Offensively, Knaus and Doljack had it on the Flashes' jumper. Defensively, Malovrh was the outstanding player in the league, as anyone pitted against her can testify. That evened matters up, so who was going to get the position? We finally decided in favor of the St. Ann's entry. She had a shade on the others when it came to handling the ball, dribbling and was a surer bet to get the tip-off. So "Whitey" got the key position. A GUARD AND FORWARD But what to do with Knaus and Malovrh? Surely they couldn't pos-

ON THE FARM With Farmerette

EDITOR'S NOTE: Western Farmerette, our correspondent from Minnesota, presents the first of her promised letters on incidents peculiar to life on a western farm.

One Pine Farm, Land O'Lake.

Dear Paggers:

Least, perchance, some of you should picture yours truly as a dashing rider on a spirited broncho. I tender this information: We do not live on a ranch. The average farm in this part of the country ranges from a quarter section to half a section and curs is less than that. Of late here, as elsewhere, the one-crop farms have given way to diversified farming and dairying or a "little of everything." As for riding horseback, well—Dad bought a horse at an auction once that was said to be a saddle pony as well as a work horse. Accordingly we "the younger generation," acquired a new hobby. We had no saddle, but brother Jack said that wasn't exactly necessary. Even I managed to get atop that pony (don't ask me how) and away we went. "Raggy" and I, at a gallop as sprightly as that of the nag that hauls the express wagon! I might have tried again after the stiffness resulting from that first jaunt wore off, if "Raggy" hadn't decided it was time for a showdown.

Jack, the most venturesome of us as well as the ablest rider used to trot to the village for the daily mail. "Raggy" seemed to enjoy it too and someone told Jack how thrilled the maids along the way were at sight of the equestrian. (He was seventeen then.) A dozen times or so, he made the trip and it must have been the thirteenth time that "Raggy," with little ado, threw Jack unceremoniously into the one and only mud puddle our main street afforded. Here's how Jack put it:

"There wasn't a soul around before, but before I could pick myself up, I guess the whole Young Ladies Sodality was there to take it in, and if that darn horse had the sense to run away or show a little spirit, but he stood right there as if he dared me to mount him again!"

Well, he did mount him again and horse and rider seemed on the best of terms until almost back home when "Raggy" repeated the trick. This time Dad was a witness and horse stunts of any and all descriptions were banned at "One Pine."

Since then we do our horseback riding at the county fair—on the merry-go-round.

Believe it or not,

Western Farmerette.

ORELS TO HOLD EXHIBITION AT NATIONAL HOME

215 Members to Participate in Gym Exhibition Tomorrow Night

The Orels' day of days has again rolled around! Every year that organization sponsors dances, plays, card parties, picnics and outings, but the affair for which every member works the hardest is the big annual gym exhibition staged every March, and tomorrow, March 23, is that day! The performance will get under way at 8 sharp at the Slovenian National Home, St. Clair Ave., and before the final curtain falls some 215 members will have displayed their wares.

John Sunisk is the captain with Joe Sterk, Joe Lusin, Fred Marinko and Frank Brancel helping him in the men and boys classes. Jean Glavich captains the girl teams with Jean Zakrajsek, Frances Kasunic and Julia Lusin assisting her.

For the feature performance the Orels will present a decided novelty, a drill with illuminated Indian clubs. This will be the first time that any such thing has been offered by any Slovenian organization, and should prove quite an attraction. Other features of note, scheduled for the performance, are the veil dances, the flag and apparatus drills and the tumblers.

Those still having unreserved seats are requested to exchange them immediately for reserved seats, for they are going fast and a complete sell-out is very probable. Tickets can be exchanged and bought at Kushian's Kandy Kitchen in the Slovenian National Home building.

Comrades Go Into Tie for Third

Climb as Collinwood Boosters Lose Three; Leaders Same

The Comrades kept up their last minute drive for a place in the first three in the Inter-Lodge Bowling League by taking three in a row from the George Washington quintet, while the Loyalties got on their muscle and pushed around the third place Collinwood Boosters for one, two, three. These matches moved the Comrades into a tie with the Boosters for the third rung in the league ladder.

That represents all the changing that was done during the week, and the two leaders, the Clairwoods and the Spartans still are battling it out with the tape just in the offing. The Clairwoods clung tenaciously to their meager one-game hold on the top rung by nosing out the Progressives in three tilts, while the Spartans were drubbing the Betsy Ross Flashes.

Tomorrow's matches at Del Young's alleys should be much more interesting and may bring about a change in the top positions. The Clairwoods will find the going much tougher than it was last week for they will be matching spares and strikes with the dangerous Loyalties. The Spartans are liable to run into trouble, too, for they have drawn the fighting Comrades for their opponents, and anything is liable to happen. The Boosters alone stand a chance of making up lost ground as they should have easy picking against the Progressives.

Overproduction Is Cause

Staff Question Man Steps Out of Sphere to Get Answers to Weekly Question

By O. I. MNOZY

Stepped out of our own sphere a little to get answers to this week's question, "What do you think is the cause of the present unemployment situation?" Here are some of the snappy replies:

John W. Love, editor business column, "The By-Product," Cleveland Plain Dealer: "A general depression throughout the entire country; lack of proper advertising. If the manufacturers would push their wares across more forcibly there would be a demand for them, with the result that industry would flourish."

Mr. John L. Mihelich, city councilman and attorney:

"Hoover prosperity!"

Mr. Fribley, president Cleveland Cap Screw Products:

"Economic depression; merely another cycle in industry. It is bound to swing back to normal in the near future."

Mr. Frank "Snitz" Schneider, after due deliberation:

"No work!"

Mr. Joseph R. Nutt, officer Union Trust:

"General depression. Getting back to normal in near future."

Dr. James M. Seliskar, president North American Trust Co.:

"I haven't much to say on this subject, you ought to get the opinion of men in industry who understand this subject more fully. I think the real cause is overproduction; manufacturers producing more than consumers can consume, with the result that the goods are not in demand."

Editorial from last week's Pittsburgh Press:

"Too many married women employed in our industries, tend to take the place of able bodied men. That we honestly believe is one of the causes of the present unemployment situation."

And by way of diversion, next week's question is going to be for the young ladies exclusively, "What is your ideal type of a man?" That should be a real one and we bet we get some swell replies. Be prepared to answer girls, for they may be the one stopped and asked—who knows? And if you're not asked, don't be bashful—just write in your answer.

LOCAL TEAM LEAVES FOR JOLIET

The Grdina Undertakers, the only Cleveland team entered in the Annual KSKJ Bowling Tournament now in progress at Joliet, will leave for the Illinois city by automobile Wednesday. The bowlers will drive direct to Oglesby where they will be the guests of the Pryatel family for a few days, the team not bowling until the last day of the tourney, Sunday, March 30.

The local entry is captained by Anthony J. Grdina. Louis Slapnik, Stanley Kromar, Frank Sepic and John Pike make up the quintet. Andrew Grdina accompanies the bowlers in the capacity of an alternate and will see action in the doubles and singles events if not in the team matches.

SOKOLS MEET FLASHES FOR CHAMP CROWN

First Game of Titular Series in Inter-Frat League Thursday Night

Thursday night will see the Sokols and the Flashes meet in the first game of the Inter-Fraternal League championship series at the St. Clair Bath House. The titular tilt will get under way with much attending ceremony at 9 sharp.

Dr. James W. Mally will start the teams off on their championship quest by tossing up the first ball. Johnny Gribbons, popular dance band leader and accordionist of merit, and the Five-Foot Harmony Four will entertain the spectators between periods and during the timeouts.

The Sokols by virtue of their two wins over the Flashes enter the series heavy favorites to cop the crown. However, both games were won by narrow margins and Coach Zalelet's lassies are hard at work preparing for the series. Coach Dehler's crew on the other hand are out for revenge and are figuring on staging a big upset.

The Sokols made it easy for the Flashes to enter the finals by calling a halt to the St. Ann's great, second half, win streak by copping an overtime tilt 12 to 11 in a great game Wednesday night. Had the St. Ann's finished ahead the Flashes would have been obliged to play the SDZ entrants in a playoff. This game, the last of the regular season was the best of the year, with both teams turning in creditable performances.

In the other league games the Comrades took the head of the second division by trimming the Spartans 14 to 5, while the Flashes registered a 26 to 3 victory over the George Washington team.

Skully Wins Golden Gloves Crown

Local Youth Stops McCarthy in Final Match

Billy Skully put his name alongside of the Slovenian fistic greats, Frankie and Eddie Simms, by beating Chuck McCarthy in three rounds in the finals of the Golden Gloves Tourney at the Cleveland Public Hall, Tuesday night. In winning the Golden Gloves 160-pound championship, Billy attained the goal of every state and local amateur.

The neighborhood mitt slinger encountered less trouble in chalking up the final win than what he did in the previous heats. Billy got off to a bad start when the O'Connell A. C. entrant dropped him for a one count at the very outset, but he came back later in the chapter to plant Chuck on the canvas for a total of nine with a mess of rights and lefts. The second round saw the portly Chuck repeating his elevator performance, going down for a pair of nines. These canvas trips likewise being inspired by messes of rights and lefts. Another right in the third and last stanza finished Mr. McCarthy's performance and gave the Slovenian the coveted crown.

Miss Ann Erbezink entertained a group of her friends with an informal party at her home, 875 E. 154th St., last Sunday evening. A very enjoyable time was had by all.

JAKAC PAINTS ACCORDING TO HIS FEELING

PICTURES EXPRESSIVE

States That Lack of Time and Money Suppresses Individuality in American Art

By CINDERELLA JANE

The fresh briny sea; the dashing and beating of virulent and foamy waves on weathered rocks; the dreamy ripple of a peaceful brook; vast areas of burning desert sands underneath the canopy of a carmine, indigo, violet and amber sky; stately swaying palm trees; an enchanting moonlight; an exhilarating sunset; mounds of virgin snow on peaked mountain tops; the charm of the dusky, narrow streets of Cairo; the captivating grandeur of Monterey; the heaven-bent sky-scrapers of the great metropolis or—Oh! what's the use. We poor writers can only paint the words. The artist paints the reality. In this case the artist is Bozidar Jakac.

An artist, indeed an artist is he, who lives his life in his pictures, and thru them, imparts to us the very happiness and sorrow of his heart.

If you met and spoke to Jakac you will understand how he enfolds his moods in to his creations.

Pictures Reflect Mood. Couldn't you see him happy and gay in his colorful sunsets and beautiful landscapes. And didn't you feel his gloom, maybe loneliness, in those still water scenes of the mighty green sea, or the placid lake. Did you not imagine that it was the artist himself, who was seated on that barren shore, looking over the serene water, instead of that young woman, in one of his pictures. She looked so sad, yes, you might say forsaken. Did the artist feel the same way at the time (Continued on page 4)

AT "COLOR BLIND" With Fran

The Comrades, in their first theatrical attempt at the Slovenian National Home Sunday, drew quite an encouraging audience.

The curtain rose at 8 and the crowd immediately took to (Maria) Mildred Tomasic, a maid, who lived the evening with her "free speech." If you took notice, you will remember her peculiar walk. It in itself was an art.

The gesticulating Mr. John Allich undoubtedly takes the honor for the most natural ability. Interior decorating was his occupation, but the task of harmonizing proved too much for him.

The couples, in their alternating moments of triumph and despair, were greeted by the audience's jovial recognition. And didn't Mr. Stritor remind you of the man that said, "What do we eat and why?"

THE NEIGHBORHOOD PAPERS WERE WELL REPRESENTED AT THE AFFAIR. THIS CORRESPONDENT COUNTING NO LESS THAN FOUR EDITORS PRESENT.

Many a girl's eye turned green with envy at the gorgeous evening gowns worn by the young ladies in the road house scene. What girl wouldn't give her fortune for that red outfit?

The majority of the American Home Junior staff was present, what with the editor, Inquiring Reporter, Cinderella Jane, O. I. Mnozy and myself on hand for the occasion. These others were there of their own free will and accord, while I was the one getting the assignment to "cover" the show. Sort of made me the "poor workin' gal."

Between the acts, the Sovereign orchestra with an occasional "Lena" kept the crowd in high spirits.

Due to unforeseen circumstances, there was no dancing as anticipated, but we were doubly repaid when we were permitted to see Mr. Jakac's art display by simply presenting the stub.

Free Speech By Noah Fentz

Hear ye! Hear ye! Hear ye all; country-bred exiles in noisy, sooty cities! Once again the season is at hand when thoughts return to the simplicities of earth, everlastingly sweet. To friendly woods where sap is flowing and giant limbs are relaxing from winter's tension with faint mysterious creakings. To the brooding fields, drying in white patches under the sun. To marshy meadows, exhaling a delicate odor of pale green shoots springing through a matted gray blanket now no longer needed.

For each one of us who have known the simple life there is a picture of the old homestead with all its familiar nooks and corners, its crudities softened by time, all of it enriched and endeared by memories of leisurely childhood days. It is still a true picture, essentially unchanged, preserved from the corrosion of the swift mad rush of the modern city. There is the farmhouse, old and comfortable and hospitable, with its plume of smoke curling lazily from its chimney—the clean, pungent blue smoke of wood fire. There are the big, friendly barns and in the yard the faithful work-horses dozing in the sun; a playful colt or two; new calves frisking foolishly about for pure joy of living. Chickens scratching happily for dormant grubs, singing the while in a curious monotone. On the sunny side of a dwindling straw-stack there is a litter of suckling pigs, piled in a row like buns, and a mother-pig all grunts and solidity.

We are accustomed to think of life in the cities as being far more alert, more exciting and more worth while because there is "something doing" all the time. Surrounded on all sides by an effect of motion and rapid progress, we feel the exhilaration of going somewhere at a tremendous rate of speed. A squirrel in its revolving cage is doubtless obsessed with the same delusion. We forget that the speed and bustle and hurry all about us is for the most part merely the restless milling around of the herd and the net achievement little more than a cloud of dust.

In the midst of the clatter of a million tongues, our over-tensed nerves twanging from the useless impact of a million sensations, we become confused and forget just where we wanted to go. So we go nowhere in particular in a great hurry in order to be there in time to start back again. We have not the time for a friendly word with the neighbor we meet on the way. He is in a hurry too. Probably started late or is trying to make two round trips.

Our lives have become extremely complicated, greatly due to the care and upkeep of the many conveniences we have invented and made for ourselves in order to make living easier and simpler.

The result of too much complexity, too many mechanical aids to living, too much standardization of environment is atrophy of the mind; atrophy caused by disuse. Your city-bred child is being guarded and marshaled on his way to school by a policeman while his country cousin absorbs by intimate contact the rich lore of field and wood and weather. The one is noisy in the midst of senseless clamor; the other is silent because he is permitted to think.

He who has heard the ecstatic song of a field sparrow on a misty morning in early spring will never (Continued on page 4)

LOOKS LIKE LENT IS HERE
Yes sirree, Lent's here and the young folks are staying home nights and have a little time for writing letters. At least it looks that way for American Home Junior's correspondence is on an upward swing. Space prevents us from printing all of the letters received, but here are a few of them.

March 17, 1930

Dear Editor:
I read an article in your paper a few weeks ago, which stated that members joining an S. D. Z. lodge after March 10th will not be allowed to play ball in the S. D. Z. league.

I wish that the originator of this idea would have counted to ten before putting it into print. By living up to this, lodges entering teams for the first time are at a big disadvantage against teams that have been organized for the last two or three years. Maybe something can be done about it, what do you think?

Very truly yours,

FRANK OBLAK
That's a little bit out of our line, Frank, but we called the matter to the attention of Mr. Frank M. Jaksic, SDZ sports commissioner, who says that enough time was given all the organizations to load up on players before March 10, and that this measure was introduced to prevent the last minute signing up of members for just the baseball season, and what's fair for one is fair for all. So apparently that settles that. Looks like you'll have to win the championship with just the material you've got, Frank.

MORE ABOUT ADS
To advertise or not to advertise, that is the question. (With apologies to Shakespeare). Here we have another letter from a young lady who announces her platform for bigger and better reading material and less ads.

Euclid, O., March 20, 1930.

Dear Editor:
After being silent for some time, it seems as if I am compelled to make myself heard again.

I wish to second Miss Emma Kresse in her motion to do away with the ads. I am sure that all our young Slovenians eagerly await the arrival of the page, with the hopes of finding something very interesting, but to their sad surprise, they find ads. Ray, couldn't we have an English page all to ourselves without any ads at all? I'll admit ads are alright but not on this page. Cinderella Jane is a great improvement to the page—very glad she is back.

I am asking Western Farmerette to make herself better known. As ever,

ALBINA GARBENVA
Well it looks as if our readers are up in arms against the advertisements. Personally we regard the ads as a stepping stone to two pages, which is our ultimate goal. What do the rest of you readers think about it? Let's make our slogan, "Two pages or no ads" and perhaps if we hear from enough readers we can get those up above to give us two sheets. LET'S HEAR FROM YOU!

Miss Mary Kasuta, Chataqua Ave., will be hostess to the Laft-O-Lot Club at her home Friday evening, March 21.

BOZIDAR JAKAC
of the painting? He must have, for he says, that he paints just as he feels.

And did you note that one scene in which a Mexican, in his sombrero and shawl, is reclining on a hillside, gazing at the cloistered walls of a monastery below him. It's a strange picture. It made you think so many things. But maybe that's just what the artist wanted you to do.

Romantic
Perhaps the most romantic of all the pictures on display at the exhibit, was that of a rocky beach on which two graceful, tropical, eucalyptus trees were bending over a silver lake, against the background of a clear, midnight blue, sky. Was the artist romantic? He must have been to paint that scene, but he wasn't conscious of it.

Jakac is a versatile painter. However, there is one thing that he does not paint and that is flowers. Upon questioning him in this respect, he replied, "Yes it is true I do not paint flowers, but, that's because I regard every woman as a flower. I don't know women! I never had much to do with them. When I learn more about them I shall paint flowers." The answer was somewhat bewildering, and you might say flattering.

Pleasing Personality
Some people invite a friendship and so does Jakac. He has a pleasing personality. He smiles easily, he laughs easily, he can even tell a joke easily. But he does, grow serious when he recounts some of the hardships he endured in his strife for art's sake. However, the artist thinks his life is very interesting, for he says, a knock here and a care and worry there, help to break the monotony of a continual happiness.

Travel A Teacher
Although the artist has received his schooling in the best educational centers of Yugoslavia and Germany, he says that his greatest teachers are the world and travel. Following his exhibit in Cleveland he will visit Washington where he will make a portrait of Congressman Mooney and perhaps President Hoover. From there he will proceed to Japan and then to the South Sea Islands.

In speaking of our native American art, Jakac stated that our artists lack the originality and impressiveness of the European artist. He says even though we have much better means, we don't take the time to develop individuality, because we are too interested in the making of the dollar sign. Well, maybe Jakac is right.

SDZ INDOOR LEAGUE

By F. M. JAKSIC

SDZ Sports Commissioner
Well, what's the news in our SDZ indoor proposition? That's being asked of me almost every day. Now then that's my question. An item appeared in the Feb. 15 edition of the American Home Junior (a part of our SDZ organ, Ameriška Domovina) regarding our expected activities. We requested at that time that societies expecting to place teams should report to me. And what a result! Nothing but questions! Boys, questions will not play ball; it takes regular boys to do that. The Indians and the rest of the big leagues are now in the south getting all set for the 1930 season. There is no reason why we don't get started.

If we wait too long I'll be getting worried about suitable play-grounds. You can lighten my burden by letting me know if you want an indoor SDZ league. If you do, don't wait for the other teams to report, but get busy and enter your own team and if you all do that I can proceed, get the grounds, call a meeting and get everything else out of the way so that we can get an early start for a successful league.

Now it's up to you. If I hear from you by April 10, I'll do my part. If I don't get enough teams in by then, well, we won't have a league that's all!

ALL-INTER-FRAT TEAM

sibly be left out of the picture. Their work all season was far too good and far too outstanding for them to be passed up. Knaus, the Sokol's leading point scorer could very easily be converted into a forward. She has a wonderful sense of team play, is fast and a good shot. So one of the forward jobs goes to the Sokol ace. As for Malovrh, her great defensive play makes her an unanimous choice for a guard position. What the Flash player lacks offensively, she more than makes up in her fast floor game and passing. Malovrh makes an excellent "feeder" and would be a perfect offense starter. An ideal guard if there ever was one.

OTHER FORWARD
With these three already placed, there remained but one forward and one guard post to be filled. For the forward position, three receive nomination, Laurich of the Flashes, Slaper of the Sokols and Klopek of St. Ann's. There was no trouble picking this one. Laurich lead the league in scoring and was by far the most feared player in the league. In most games, opposing teams sent two players out to cover the Flashes' luminary, but they failed to stop her. Laurich was a master in the art of losing her guard and this coupled with her shooting eye made her the league's outstanding player.

GASPARC IS OTHER GUARD
And now all we needed to round out the All-Inter-Frat team was another good guard. Trouble picking her? None at all. Ann Gasparec of the Sokols was heads and shoulders above the rest, and the only one who had anything of a look in was Klopek, who can be used as either a guard or a forward. However, Klopek thinks along offensive lines only and has a tendency to let her opponent get away for baskets and points.

Gasparec, on the other hand, is hard to beat when it comes to keeping anybody covered, witness the Sokol-Flashes game, in which she came the closest anyone ever did to stopping Laurich cold, holding the Flash sharp-shooter to six points. She does not receive her nomination on the strength of that game alone, but on her work all year, which was just about on a par with this one instance.

AND THERE YOU ARE
And roll them all together, and what have you got? One whale of a cage club! Think of that team going down the floor on the offense! Malovrh to Doljack, on a pivot play, to Knaus coming around, to Laurich, breaking for the basket, with Doljack, Knaus, Malovrh, three centers following in! Boy, what a combination! Powerful? And how!

Picture that five dropping back on the defense, Doljack and Malovrh stopping all off-center pivot plays. Gasparec taking charge of all "sleepers" with Knaus and Laurich breaking up the plays before they get under way and making their opponents shoot from the other side of the center. Not very tough to get around! No, not very—just more!

ALTERNATES
And now that we've got that first five all straightened out, we need at least two more players for alternates, and there is no trouble making those selections, the palm going to Slaper and Klopek. These two can be rushed into any breach that may occur and can be counted on to come through.

FREE SPEECH

live to enjoy sweeter music. And who can forget the thrill of watching a lark mounting heavenward with long surging sweeps as it pours out its heart, until from sheer exhaustion it drops with folded wings like a plummet out of the sky?

Perhaps the day will come when the means of communication and transportation shall have become so perfect that it will no longer be necessary for anyone to live in a large city, even if he has to work there. It is not an impossible dream. And thus through the complexity of our striving for ease we may arrive again at the simplicity of our first beginning.

TAJNOST LJUBOSUMNEGA VOJVODE

Spisal GABARIOU

za "Ameriško Domovino"
A. ŠABEC.

Bil je trin v očeh vojvode in vojvodinje, in zdi se mi, da sta se oba globoko oddahnila, ko je umrl vsled možganske kapi, kar je bilo posledica orgij in krokarije. Njegova roditelja, odnosno človeka, ki sta bila smatrana za njegov roditelja, to je vojvoda in vojvodinja, sta bila navzoča ob njegovi smrti postelji, kajti navadila sta se gledati skupno na nesrečo kot na kazen božjo. Šele po fantovi smrti je pričela vojvodjo peči vest, zato se je odločil, poiskati onega otroka, ki ga je dal odnesti v najdenišnico, zakaj Dijana sama mu je zagotovila, da je bil ta njegov pravi sin. Z veliko nado v srcu in opremljen z vsemi potrebnimi listinami, se je napotil v Vendome; toda tam ga je čakalo grozno presenečenje. Vodstvo zavoda je pregledalo knjige ter mu zagotovilo, da je bil tega in tega dne, ob tej in tej uri, kakor je povedal Norbert, prinesen v najdenišnico otrok, čigar obleka in vse se je strinjalo z Norbertovim opisom. Toda tega otroka ni bilo več v zavodu in za njim ni bilo tudi več nobenega sledu. V starosti dvanajstih let so ga dali v uk nekemu strojarju; od katerega pa je pobegnil, nakar se je izgubil vsak sled za njim.

Odvetnik Katenak je poslušal vsa ta razkrivanja z nevoljo v srcu, kajti videl je, da vedo njegovi tovariši že vse, kar jim je hotel on zaupati, da bi si pridobil spet njihovo zaupanje. Maskrin pa je nadaljeval svoje pripovedovanje:

"In to grozno razočaranje bo gotovo umorilo vojvodo de Šam-dusa. Vedno se je nadejal, da bo imel po svoji neveseli mladosti v starosti sina, ki mu bo delal družbo v njegovi osamelosti. Čim se je vrnil v Pariz, je vojvodinja takoj, kakor hitro je zagledala njegov obraz, vedela, da je bil v svojem iskanju brezuspešen. Toda čez par dni si je vojvoda opomogel od tega udarca in sklenil, da nikakor ne preneha z iskanjem za svojim sinom. Svet je velik in dečka brez prijateljev in brez imena je težko slediti; toda z denarjem se da marsikaj doseči, in vojvoda je bil pripravljen žrtvovati svoje imetje in svoje življenje, samo da spet najde svojega sina. Najelje najslavnejše detektive in na svojo zadožbo je pričel gledati kot na svojo sveto dolžnost, kateri se je bil namenil posvetiti vse ostale dni svojega življenja. Prisegel si je, da ne preneha prej z iskanjem, dokler ne dobi popolnih dokazov o absolutni eksistenci ali smrti svojega sina. Vsega tega pa ni zupal vojvodinji, ker se je bal, da bi jo vsako nadaljno razočaranje usmrtilo. Policija mu ni mogla ničesar pomagati. Na policiji so ga poslušali, kar jim je imel povedati, naredili so svoje beleške ter mu naročili, naj se po-rades organization was reflected in the attending crowd; members of every organization in the community being there. Was surprised to find so many people I knew there. Of course, there were one or two present whom I didn't recognize.

CARD PARTY
An individual table prize, an additional door prize, refreshments, genial friends, all this for a quarter. That is what the mysterious order of M. W.'s is offering you at its card party Thursday evening, March 27 at the Slovenian National Home, St. Clair Ave.

Guests will have their choice of playing bridge, sixty-six or buncio. Hostesses for the affair are the Misses Mary Climperman, Jane Kalsic, Theresa Maglicic, Mildred and Emma Mayave, Anne Tekavec, Mary Zorc and Pauline Vidervol.

Believe the show was a financial success. Artistically, the Comrades turned in a fairly creditable performance, considering this was their first theatrical attempt.

znejše spet oglasi, to je bilo pa tudi vse. Končno ga je pa nekdo njegovih znancev poslal k slavnemu detektivu Lekoku.

V Pavlovo največje začudenje je izzvalo imenovanje tega imena na dr. Hortebisa tak efekt, da je razburjen planil pokonci ter začel z grozo gledati po svojih tovariših.

"Stojte!" je zaklical. "Če bo ta človek, ta Lekok, vtaknil tu svoje prste vmes, jaz odstopim. V tem slučaju nočem imeti z vso to zadevo nobenega opravka več, ker vem vnaprej, da se nam bo vse izjalovilo."

Hortebise je bil tako prestrašen, da se je moral Katenak nasmejniti.

"Da, da," je dejal, "razumem vašo razburjenost, toda ne bojte se; Lekok nima z nami nobenega opravka."
