V današnji izdaji Nove Dobe je priobčen zapisnik prvega zborovanja slovenske sekcije Jugoslovenskega pomožnega odbora, iz katerega je razvidno, kako si slovenske podporne organizacije v Ameriki zamišljajo zbiranje pomoći za naš zasužnjene brate v starem kraju. Preteklo, soboto se je vršil v Clevelandu sestanek hrvatskih in srbskih organizacij, katerega se je udeležil tudi zastopnik slovenske sekcije Jugoslovenskega pomožnega odbora. Prihodnji sestanek se bo vršil v Clevelandu 10. maja in udeležijo se ga oba vseh treh sekcij, to je slovenske, hrvatske in srbske. O vseh nadaljnjih akcijah Jugoslovenskega pomožnega odbora občinstvo sproti obveščano po naših listov.

RAZKROJ JUGOSLAVIJE

ZNAČILNE POSEBNOSTI

Jugoslavija je ali bo v kratkem raztrgana na kose. Mi vsi upamo, da bo to le začasno, toda da enkrat se moramo sprijaznit s trpkimi dejstvi. Pri tem nas seveda zanima in skrbi, kako bo raztrgana. Nič ne moremo pomagati, ne tako ne tako, vendar bi radi vedeli.

O notranjih razmerah v Jugoslaviji vemo zelo malo, in še tisto, kar izvemo, je po večini in nemških in italijanskih virov. Ni pa dvoma, da je bila vlada prisiljena pobegniti v inozemstvo in da je organiziran odpor jugoslovanske vojske strt. V Srbiji oziroma nekje v sredini dežele je baje že 300,000 do 400,000 jugoslovenskih vojakov, ki se še niso podali in ki bodo zavojevali povzročili še precej preglavje. Tako se vsaj poroča iz Vichya v Franciji. Poročilo je precej verjetno, ker Nemci poročajo, da so zajeli le okrog 200,000 jugoslovenskih vojakov, in če odračunamo ranjene in ubite in še hrvatske separatiste, manjka znaten del jugoslovenske vojske, za katero se ne ve, kje je. Seveda si ne smemo detaši iluzij, da bo tistih tri ali štiri stotisoč jugoslovenskih vojakov, ki se niso podali, kaj dosti izpremenilo situacijo. Odrezani od pomoči in dobave potrebuščin bodo mogli v najboljšem primeru voditi gverilsko bojevanje in povzročiti, da bodo sovražniki še nekajkrat dražje plačali zavojevanje Jugoslavije.

Dejstvo ostane, da je Jugoslavija razkosana ali bo v kratkem času. Kakšno bo to razkosanje, ne vemo, ker nimamo glede tega še nikakih točnih podatkov. Za enkrat se moremo naslanjati le na drobce različnih poročil in na ugibanja.

Nas Slovence pred vsem znamenita neposredna usoda Slovenije, toda ta del bivše Jugoslavije je tako majhen, da se v poročilih o usodi Jugoslavije le minimalno omenja, ali pa sploh ne. Po nekih poročilih bi vsa Slovenija pripadla Italiji, razen krajev, ki imajo nemško manjšino. Vprašanje nastane, kakšno število Nemcov ali ponemčencev se šteje za nemško manjšino.

Maribor je bil že po zaslugu bivše Avstrije močno ponemčen in je ta ponemčeni značaj obdržal tudi pod Jugoslavijo. Baje je Hitler 26. aprila dospel v Maribor, kjer ga je prebivalstvo navdušeno pozdravilo kot odrešenika. To je verjetno in je skoraj gotovo, da je Maribor že inkorporiran v nemški rajh. Nekej nemške oziroma nemškutarške manjšine je bilo vedno tudi po ostalem Spodnjem Štajerskem. Ali se bo vsled tega Nemčija direktno polastiла vsega slovenskega Štajerja do Save? In kam naj spada nemški jezikovni otok Kočevje? Dalje, kam bodo pripadli prekmurski Sloveni: Madžarski, Nemčiji ali Italiji? Na vsa ta vprašanja ne moremo odgovoriti. Za enkrat se zdi gotovo je, da so Ljubljana in večji del Slovenije zasedli Italijani.

KOMARJI NA POMOČ

Mornariški tajnik Zedinjenih držav, Frank Knox, je pretkel den nadzornih, da bo v kratkem oddan Angliji 20 ameriških malih torpedov, ki so del takozvane komarjeve flote (mosquito boats). Te torpedovke se odlikujejo z izredno brzino in so zelo porabne za spremstvo večjih ladij, vojnih in trgovskih.

KAJ SE VSE RAZISKUJE

Mesto Denver, razprostrto po planjavi v vzhodu snežnih Rocky Mountains, je lepo mesto, vsebujoče razne zanimivosti in posebnosti. Zanimiva posebnost je na primer federalna kovnica denarja, kajti v vseh Zedinjenih državah so samo štiri take kovnice. Zanimiv je državni kapitol s pozlačeno kupolo in izredno bogatim muzejem coloradskih rudnin. Dober včas napravijo na posetnika lepi parki, čistoča mesta, izletniški kraji v okolici, tipična zapadna prijaznost itd. Mnogi posetniki Denverja so najbrž vse to opazovali in občudovali ter pozneje pozabil.

Tisoči posetnikov pa se spo-minjajo restavracije Manhattan na 1635 Larimer St. Dotično restavracije je pred 45 leti ustanovil zdaj že pokojni Richard Pinhorn. S svojo ceno in izbornim postrežbo je restavracija kmalu zaslovela po vsem zapadu. Vsak, ki je bil enkrat gost dotične restavracije, je bil pri vsemi prilikl njen glasnik, koder koli je hodil. Pisec teh vrstic se je z restavracijo Manhattan v Denverju seznanil leta 1910. Dokler je bival na zapadu, jo je pri vsaki priliku posetil ter jo priporočal tudi svojim prijateljem. Na svojih potovanjih se je pogostokrat zapletel v pogovore s turisti in trgovinskimi potniki tisoče milj od Denverja, in vsak, ki je bil kdaj v Denverju, je vedel za restavracijo Manhattan. Čudovito je, kako daleč seže glas dobre restavracije.

Uredništvo revije Scientific American izrecno poudarja, da se ne misli niti od daleč vtikati

v različne vere, ampak se za-nima za zadevo izključno z zna-stvenega stališča. Izjavlja, da obstoj špiritizma dosedaj še ni

bil nikoli znanstveno dokazan, toda pušč prostot pot, da se ob-stoj istega dokaže, če je mogoče.

Iz omenjenega članka je razvidno, da želijo znanstveniki razpršiti različne vražje, h kate-rini se ljudje zatekajo posebno

v težkih in negotovih časih kot

so sedanj. Ljudje bi radi ponadnaravnih potih izvedeli, kaj je čaka v bodočnosti. Razumese, da taki časi nudijo bogato žetev raznim šarlantanom in sleparjem, ki na en ali drugi način prerokejo bodočnost, in se pustijo za to bogato placi.

Znanost ne priznava vraž in skrša v vseh ozirom natočiti jav-nosti čistega vina, kot pravimo.

Po mnenju znanstvenikov si člo-veščvo samo ustvarja svojo bo-dodočnost. Narod, pogrenjen v vraže ene ali druge vrste, po-staja za kaj takega nezmožen, ker se poda fatalizmu oziroma

usodi, ki mu je baje namenjena in kateri se ne more izogniti, pa naj stori, kar hoče. Tako razpoloženje je nevarno obstoju vsakega naroda.

Da se je te zadeve lotila tak

odlična znanstvena revija kot je

Scientific American, znači, da

se vprito razburkanih svetovnih razmer praznovanje razsirja.

Posebno se širi vera v špiritizem.

Znanstveniki obstoju delovanja špiritizma ne zanikajo, toda hočajo dokaze. In sicer take do-kaze, katerih ni mogoče naravn noviti ali razložiti. Za take do-kaze ponujajo javno bogato de-narno nagrado in obljudujejo, da bodo pri presojanju istih postopali nepristransko. Znanstveni ki zahtevajo resnico in dokazaje za isto. Ako špiritisti dokaz-

Znanost se zaveda, da je na

svetu marsikaj, cesar ne razu-

MLADINSKI ODDELEK -- JUVENILE DEPARTMENT

The Coward

Dean Roberts was the only child of a widow. When he and his mother moved to Rock Creek no one paid much attention to them. Mrs. Roberts in a quiet way soon won a place of dignity and respect among the townsfolk, and Dean was accepted by the crowd at school. Dean was a "queer Dick" to the notion of his school mates. He was a big strapping lad of thirteen, full of pep and go, but quiet and retiring in his general attitude to the other fellows.

After school instead of staying in the school yard and joining the other boys in their games, Dean usually sauntered home. The boys called him, "Mamma's Boy," and he usually walked down Bank Street with their taunts still ringing in his ears. He never got into a scrap with the other boys, in fact he never gave them the opportunity to pick a quarrel with him. Perhaps it was because he was big and strong and looked as though he could hold his own, with any of them that the boys just naturally kept their hands off of him and limited their attacks to verbal rallies which did not seem to excite Dean very much.

Of course, the boys at the Rock Creek school did not know that when Dean left them at their play he went home to relieve his mother of her more arduous tasks about the house. It was no wonder that Mrs. Roberts' eyes glowed with pride whenever she spoke of her boy. They were great chums these two.

Upon Mrs. Roberts had fallen the burden of Dean's upbringing since his father had died when Dean was three years old, and so ably and understandingly had the widow gone about this task that Dean grew up with sacred love and respect for his mother. Mrs. Roberts added to their meager income by making and crocheting infants garments for a shop in a nearby town, and once every week Dean delivered the finished garments. It was a good three-mile bike each way, and on the short winter afternoons most of the walk through the lonely country was made after dark. Mrs. Roberts used to wait for his return each time that he went to the town in silent dread, lest some danger befall him on the way, but if Dean felt any fear he nobly conquered it, and never mentioned it to his mother.

Now, it happened that in the middle of February, Mrs. Roberts had an attack of influenza, and was forced to stay in bed for almost a week, and during that time her work was neglected. As Dean rose from the breakfast-table one day his mother said: "Dean, after you went to bed last night I finished the last of my order of socks and caps. I'm a week behind with that order now. Will you hurry home from school, dear, and take it over to the store?"

After school that day the boys were in wait for him. As he turned to the gate Tom Strong, the village bully, buried a snowball at Dean, who dodged it at a warning from Bobby Stetl and was about to pass through the gate when he saw Tom turn upon Bobby for his interference. Now Bobby was only ten years old and a little boy for his age, and if there was one thing Dean could not stand it was an unfair fight. He stepped at the school gate and said in a calm voice: "I wouldn't do that if I were you, Tom. Why don't you pick on a fellow your own size?"

"Who asked you to butt in?" said Tom. "You're a swell one to talk. You're afraid to fight anyone!"

"I'd like to show you," said Dean, coming back into the yard. The boys gathered in a crowd to see the fun. They all knew what a bully Tom was and how rarely he ever stood up against anyone of his equals.

"Come on," said Tom, letting go of Bobby, "who wants to fight?"

Dean had his coat half off when he remembered his mother's request. "I can't stop now," he faltered.

Some Strange Tales

"Fraid cat, scare cat!" went up from the group of onlookers.

"Aw—he's a coward!" said Tom, regaining a little of his poise when he saw there was a little likelihood of a fight.

"Say that again!" cried Dean. "Coward!" sneered Tom.

Dean, choked with rage, "Coward am I? I'll show you! I can't stop now, but I'll show you. I'll fight this out any time you say, but now I have to do something for my mother, and I hold Charlotte and Frank were sitting before the big open fireplace. It was too early for dinner and not late enough for "lessons." It was just that time of an afternoon when it is oh, so hard to find some thing to do."

They had about made up their minds to be content with watching the logs crackle and sputter and the sparks dance up the chimney when Uncle Will entered the room.

"Well, well," he said, "you certainly look cheerful. Now I shall draw up my chair right beside you and we'll watch the fire."

"Tell us a story, Uncle Will?" said Charlotte presently.

Uncle Will smiled and pushed his chair a bit farther back from the fire, for it was hot. "I think I'll tell you a story of a few facts I learned today while reading—and perhaps you may think them quite wonderful. I know I was surprised."

The children settled back, content, to listen.

"Flowers are to see and smell, aren't they?" Uncle Will continued, an amused twinkle in his eye. "Well, some flowers are also good to eat. Oh, yes, quite appetizing! For instance in certain parts of Eastern Europe, the people make a mixture of roses, violets, limes and sweetmeats and then eat it over fruit of various sorts; and in Turkey they flavor candy with crushed lilies, carnations and with lavender.

"But how would you like to eat a floral sandwich? In Greece, or in Turkey, a friend might say to you, 'Won't you have another nasturtium sandwich.' There they also make sandwiches of finely ground peppermint which is spread over radishes, thinly sliced and the whole then placed two pieces of very thinly sliced and buttered bread. Dahlias, too, are eaten. And in Japan and China flowers are as much a part of the menu as are vegetables in our own land."

Uncle Will pushed his chair still farther back.

"Do you know," he went on, "that there are flowers under the sea? That is they aren't exactly flowers, for they are not plants; but many of them look so much like blossoms that often it is not easy to believe that they are really myriads of tiny animals: corals, for instance, in tropical waters, are brilliantly colored, with branches and graceful forms that look for all the world like flowers. But coral, you remember, is formed of the skeletons of many tiny, tiny animals. The sea anemone and the sea cucumber, both of them sea animals, also bloom almost as though they were plants.

"And now—for my third strange fact—what would you think if I told you that there are such things as jugs that whistle—yes, whistle quite distinctly and sweetly? Well, they used to make them in ancient Peru; and several are now on exhibition at the British museum. To give a jug of this sort its right name, you should call it a silvado, or silvio. One of them found in an old Peruvian burying ground, was formed of two vases, each joined to the other but with an opening, or hole, between them. Then the neck of one of these vases was closed except for a clay pipe which was inserted and which led to the real body of the whistle; the neck of the other vase was left open.

"When water, or some other liquid, was poured into the opening air in the other vase became compressed and in escaping through the narrow opening was forced into the whistle, the vibrations of course, making the sounds.

THE JUNIOR COOK

SANDWICHES FOR AN EASTER PARTY

With a very sharp knife cut a loaf of bread that is more than a day old into thin slices.

With a rabbit shaped cookie cutter cut each slice into the shape of a rabbit.

Make a paste of the yolks of two hard-boiled eggs and three tablespoonsfuls of boiled salad dressing.

Spread the paste on the rabbit shapes and put in two tiny candies for eyes.

Serve with these sandwiches made of plain bread and butter cut in triangles and sandwiches of minced ham, mixed with salad dressing and the whites of the hard-boiled eggs chopped fine. Cut these in oblong shapes.

The children settled back, content, to listen.

"Flowers are to see and smell, aren't they?" Uncle Will continued, an amused twinkle in his eye. "Well, some flowers are also good to eat. Oh, yes, quite appetizing! For instance in certain parts of Eastern Europe, the people make a mixture of roses, violets, limes and sweetmeats and then eat it over fruit of various sorts; and in Turkey they flavor candy with crushed lilies, carnations and with lavender.

Presence of Mind

To know how to act under all conditions requires great presence of mind. How many of you can on the instant meet any situation? How many of you think of the right thing to say at exactly the right moment? There is a story told about Rousseau, the French educator and writer. One day while at the king's court he found himself at a loss for the appropriate answer to one of the courtier's salutes. Crestfallen and humiliated he left the court only later to think of a witty and excellent retort.

But it was too late! Lack of ready wit and presence of mind had in a moment weakened his influence in the French court. Have you presence of mind? Can you think and act quickly when faced with danger?

The little daughter of a herdsman was sent one day by her father to round up the cattle under his charge. There were about eighty of them, and among them two bulls, one of which was occasionally in the habit of assaulting people. On the day in question the young girl unwarily approached this bull to closely and he immediately gave chase. On a level field, without dykes or bogs or any place of refuge to resort to what would you have done?—for to run home, a distance of three-quarters of a mile was out of the question. The girl with great presence of mind ran over to the other bull—a good natured animal and much stronger than her assailant. Standing close by his side and kindly tapping him on the back she drove him towards her father's house followed by the enraged bull, who kept roaring and fuming all the way—but near her protector turned around with a shake and toss of his head kept the assailant at bay. In this manner the girl arrived safely at home.

Clear thinking at all times, coolness in the face of danger—these are the first aids in time of trouble.

Now, my mother doesn't like work any more than I do, and she makes a point to get out of it every time she can, and when I tell you how she manages, you will agree with me, that it is rather a clever trick though a little hard on her bird neighbors.

Now, when nesting time comes in bird-dom, it means a lot of hard work searching from morning until night for just the right kind of grass, rootlets, twigs, feathers, and moss, and twisting and working them into the wonderful nests the birds build; and then comes twelve or fourteen days of steady sitting on the eggs until they hatch. But the hardest part of all is feeding the youngsters, for you know birds don't just have three meals a day like we do, but some kind of food must be stuffed down the yellow throats from daylight to dark, or they will get sick and die.

So with them breakfast lasts until supper; and by the time night comes the parents go to bed so worn out, that they don't even pull off their feathers.

Now my mother knows all about this,

from hearsay at least, and she tells my other parent, that just to think about

Meet Mrs. Cow-Bird

Queer name for a bird, and cow-bird has a funny sound, but it isn't half as funny as some of the things our folks do, although the other birds don't see anything funny about it. I hate to say it, but I guess I'm about the laziest thing that wears feathers, even when it comes to hunting food.

A long time ago our family found out that it was a lot easier to follow along behind a cow as she walked through the bushes, without making a bit of noise in it, and if Mr. and Mrs. Sparrow are not at home, she stops long enough to leave one of her own eggs in the nest and then goes quietly on about her business. And if she happens to meet Mr. Sparrow on her way home, she twitters, "Fine day, isn't it?" and acts as innocent as you please.

Then the next day she finds another nest, and if the coast is clear, she drops another egg in it, and keeps this up until all her eggs are disposed of. With this job off her mind, she doesn't have anything to bother about for a whole year, and can spend her time at the "Children's Betterment Society," or at the "Young Married Ladies' Club," or wherever her fancy calls her, with the satisfied feeling that her children are being well cared for.

When the sparrow mother gets back to her nest, she doesn't seem to notice the egg that is much bigger than her own, and covers them all with equal care until they hatch; and even doesn't notice that one baby is twice as big, and twice as strong as the others, and works herself to a frazzle bringing grubs and nice, soft worms to cramp down the hungry throats.

Now, the baby that hatched from the egg my mother left, is so much stronger than the others, that it elbows them out of the way, and standing right on top of them, reaches out and manages to get about nine out of every ten worms that come. Naturally, it grows so fast that before long it is almost as big as its sparrow foster-mother, and finds that the nest is getting too small for it, so it wiggles down, and gets one of the young sparrows on its back, and then straightening up suddenly manages to fling it over the rim of the nest to the grass below, where it is usually eaten by the first snake that happens along. That doesn't seem quite fair, as the sparrow baby, had a perfect right to the nest, in the nest that its own mother had built, but then, the young cow-bird had never been taught anything about right and wrong, and did not know any better.

It just knew it was crowded, and that was the only way it knew to make more room. Even after the young sparrows are fully feathered, and have left the nest, the young cow-bird stays on, and makes its foster-mother bring it food, talking to her something scandalous, if its meals are not on time. But then, mentioned before, we are a lazy set, and can never do a lick of work, as long as we can make some one else do it for us.

Why We Do It

How to Make One-Two Three-Four Jam

Take:

1 can grated pineapple (or one fresh pineapple).

2 lemons.

3 oranges.

4 apples.

Grate the rind of the oranges and lemons.

Peel the apples.

Put all four kinds of fruit through a coarse grinder.

Measure and take an equal amount cup for cup, of granulated sugar.

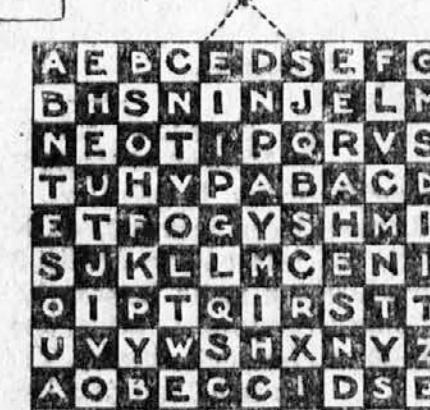

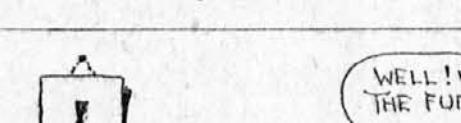

Stir the sugar through the grated fruit.

Put over a moderate fire and cook 20 minutes after the jam comes to a boil.

Put into glasses and cover with paraffin.

This recipe makes about 12 to 15 glassesful.

If apples are very small take double the number.

KAKO JE S KAMPANJO!

Vse naše kampanje so od početka nekako počasne, proti koncu pa se razvnamejo in v zaključnih dneh se spremeniijo v pravcato dirko. Zdi se, da se tudi naša sedanja kampanja novega imena razvija v takem tempu in da bo končno tako ali še bolj uspešna, kakor so bile prejšnje.

Vsekakor je umestno na tem mestu opozoriti vse naše dobre društvene delavce in posebno vse kandidate za redne in častne delegate 4. mladinske konvencije, da se je doba naše kampanje nagnila že čez polovico. Kampanja bo zaključena 30. junija, kar znači, da sta na razpolago samo še dva meseca, maj in junij.

V kampanji sodeluje že prav lepo število naših društev in istotako je prijavljeno prav lepo število kandidatov za delegatstvo. Prav za prav sodeluje v kampanji že odločna večina naših krajevnih društev, in ako do sežejo predpisane kvote vsi dosedaj prijavljeni kandidati za delegatstvo, bo kampanja zaključena z odličnim uspehom.

Toda mi pričakujemo, da prijavijo sodelovanje v kampanji še ostala društva in da se prijavijo še nadaljnji kandidati za delegatstvo. Kampanja bo trajala samo še dva meseca, toda še je čas za nadaljnje prijave. V dveh mesecih se da še mnogo doseči, če je resna volja.

Pogoji naše letosnjene kampanje so zelo ugodni. Za delegatstvo lahko kandidirajo člani mladinskega in odraslega oddelka; prvi za redne, drugi za častne delegate 4. mladinske konvencije, katera pomeni lep plačan poletni izlet na naš zeleni sever. Kandidatom se štejejo v kredit novi člani odraslega in mladinskega oddelka in tudi zvišanja zavarovalnin. Nobena naših prejšnjih kampanj ni nudila tolikemu številu naših članov takih prilik za delegatstvo kot jih nudi sedanja kampanja novega imena.

Kandidati in prospektivni kandidati za delegate na 4. mladinske konvencije, ki se bo vrnila sredi meseca avgusta v Ely, Minnesota, naj bi pomnili, da bo omenjena konvencija nagrada za njihovo dobro delo tekom kampanje. To nagrado lahko izrabijo združeno s svojimi poletnimi počitnicami oziroma jo naklonijo svojim otrokom, če se isti prijavijo kot kandidati.

Člani in članice Ameriske bratske zveze v splošnem pa naj bi upoštevali dejstvo, da mora vsaka bratska podpora organizacija neprestano pridobivati nove člane v svoje vrste, če neče nazadovati. Brez ozira, kako velika ali kako mala je kakšna organizacija, pri vsaki pomeni nazadovanje znižanje solventnosti in morebitno zvišanje asesmentov, če se ne skrbi za pridobitev novih članov, posebno mladih članov. Vsi vemo, da se po naravnih zakonih neprestano redčijo naše vrste in da moramo vedno pridobivati nove člane, če hočemo obdržati našo trdno finančno podlogo in zdravo življenjsko moč.

Naša Ameriska bratska zveza je zdrava in finančno trdna. Svojim članom nudi različnih vrst zavarovalnin, vse, kar nudijo življenjske zavarovalnice, po isti ali nižji ceni, v mnogih ozirom pa še dosti več. Naša organizacijo upravlja po članstvu izvoljeni zastopniki, kakor odloči večina. Plače naših uradnikov so skromne v primeri s plačami uradnikov zavarovalninskih družb.

Ameriska bratska zveza je danes na takem stališču in ima tak sistem, da je v njej prostor za vsako značajno osebo belega plemena v odgovarjajoči starosti. Verska ali politična pripadnost pri nas ne igra nikake vloge, ker vse tako se smatra za osebno zadovo vsakega posameznika. Vsak član, ki izpolnjuje svoje obveznosti napram društvu in Zvezzi, se smatra za dobrega in enakopravnega člana, brez ozira na njegovo prepričanje, dokler ni isto v nasprotju s postavami dežele.

Zavarovanje proti boleznim in poškodbam potrebujemo vsi. Bolezni, poškodbe in operacije stanejo denar. To vemo, ako ne iz lastnih izkušenj, pa iz izkušenj naših priateljev in znancev. Vsi vemo tudi, da nesreca nikdar ne počiva. Bolezen ali nesreča nas lahko zadene doma, na cesti, pri delu ali kjer koli.

V deželi je več dela in zasluzka, kar pomeni, da je lažje vzdrževati društvene prispevke. Obenem pa tudi pomeni, da je več prilik za poklicne bolezni ter za po-nesreče pri delu ali na cesti. Boleznim so bolj podvrgzene starejše osebe, toda tudi mladina ni varna pred njimi. Kar se pa ponesrečib pri delu ali v vedno živahnejšem prometu tice, so jim izpostavljeni tudi mladi ljudje od otroških let naprej.

Upoštevamo vse to in vpišimo v našo podporno organizacijo vse naše drage ter vse naše prijatelje in

PLAČEVANJE BOLNIŠKE PODPORO PO STARIH IN NOVIH PRAVILIH

V odsotnosti bolj specifičnih določb v novi ustawici in pravilih z ozirom na plačevanje bolniške in dobrodelne (prej onemoglosti) podpore tistim članom, ki so zboteli še pred 1. januarjem 1941 in ki so bili ob nastopu tega leta še vedno onemogli in nezmožni za vsako delo, je pododsek glavnega izvrševalnega odseka pri svoji seji dne 9. januarja 1941 naredil sledeče zaključke:

1. Članom, ki so zboteli pred 1. januarjem 1941, ko so še stara pravila bila v veljavi in ki so bili ob nastopu tega leta še vedno na bolniški listi, se plača bolniška podpora v smislu starih pravil in po prejšnji testvici. Ako se je onemoglost tako dolgo raztegnila, da so prejeli šest mesecev celotne in šest mesecev polovične bolniške podpore za eno in isto bolezni, potem se jim bolniška podpora za eno leto ustavi, dovoli se jim pa dobrodelno podpora, ki je določena v novih pravilih, za toliko časa, dokler ne postanejo zopet kvalificirani za bolniško podporo, toda ne več, kot je predpisano v pravilih in pod pogojem, da so v dobrodelnem skladu zavarovani.

2. Člani, stari nad 70 let, ki prejemajo redno bolniško podporo ali redno dobrodelno podporo, ne morejo istočasno zahtevati dobrodelne podpore v smislu točke 359-B zvezin pravil.

3. Porodne nagrade, izplačane članicam, ki so v bolniškem in odškodninskem skladu zavarovane, se ima smatrati za odškodnine in se jih ima odštetiti od maksimalne vsote, ki je določena za odškodnine.

Gornje zaključke je glavni odbor ABZ soglasno potrdil na letni seji meseca januarja 1941.

ANTON ZBĀNIK, glavni tajnik.

pad. Pred desetletji je bilo po smeje, kljub temu, da se zavestnišča zapada videti kupe belih bivolovih kosti, dandanes pa se na istih mestih dolgočasno "okostja" razbitih avtomobilov.

Naš vedno nasmejan Tony Drenik, bivši dleželjek društva št. 71 na 16. redni konvenciji ABZ, je pretekli teden prostovoljno odšel v armado. Je rekel, da hoče vsaj v enem oziru imeti on besedo: V armado gre, kadar sam hoče, ne pa, kadar bi se zljudilo vojaškim oblastem, da ga pokličejo.

Ko je Toneta Drenika vprašal prijatelj Cahej, če ga ni nič strah pred vojaško službo, se je zasmehal do ušes in izjavil kot tipični slovenski fant: "Kar si upa prestat podlrog milijon drugih Amerikanecov, si upam prestat tudi jaz!" Tako se govorovi!

Neki filozof je zapisal, da nihče ni revez, ki se more še semejati. Če to drži, potem v Ameriki še zdaleč nismo revez, čeravno nam ne gre vedno vse po žnori. Poznam rojaka, ki je bil operiran, in so mu morali zdravniki že kar drugi dan po operaciji prepovedali seme, da se bo rana celila. Smeh ali prijazen nasmej je sploh povsod prijetna zabela ameriške družbe in službe. Noben federalni, državni ali mestni uradnik ni takoj strogo uraden, da ne bi imel časa in volje za prijazen nasmej ali celo za šaljivo prispombo. Strežajke v restavracijah, bolničarke in celo prometni počitnici na cestnih križiščih ne varčujejo z nasmeji, kljub svinj napornim službam.

Service with a smile ni izmišljena fraza, ampak živ sončni žarek ameriškega življenja. Res, da je pri gotovih posloih nasmej tako rekoč zahtevan, toda mnogo več srečamo pravega naravnega nasmeja, ki pride sam od sebe, ko se ljudje po enih ali drugih opravkih srečujejo. Nasmej je v duši ameriškega ljudstva in njegov odsev izvabi vsak pošten, odkriti prijazen obraz.

Smej ali nasmej je tonika življenja, je mladost človeka in naroda. Ko se človek ali narod ne more več semejati, je star, betezen ali drugače v dno duše nesrečen ter vsled tega obžalovanja vreden. Amerika se še znanec, ki so zavarovaljive starosti, zdravi in dobrega značaja. Š tem bomo storili dobro delo za našo Amerisko bratsko zvezo, katere del smo vsi njeni člani, obenem pa bomo koristili vsem tistim, katere bomo vpisali, in morda tudi njihovim dragim. Tako delo je v resnicu delo bratstva, ki more samo koristiti na vse strani. Pomnimo, da še nikomur ni bilo žal, da je ali je bil član naše dobre podporne organizacije, toda marsikateremu je bilo že žal, ker ni bil.

in se je zatekel v Zedinjene države. Ker je ta dežela nominelno neutralna, begunca ni vrnila Canadi, ampak mu je dovolila, da ostane v tej deželi pod varščino 15 tisoč dolarjev. Varsčino mu je preskrbelo nemško poslaništvo in kmalu nato je letalec izginil, po vsej priliki upajoč se po kaki poti vrnil v Nemčijo. Z ozirom na to je zvezni državni pravnik izdal povelj, da naj se v bodoči vsakega izvornika, ki bi prestolil mejo Zedinjenih držav, vrne kanadskim oblastim.

POMORSKA PATRULJA

Administracija v Washingtonu namerava v kratkem razširiti ameriško pomorsko patruljo vse do Greenlanda. Patrulje vojnih ladij in letal bodo križarile v približno 200 milj širokem pasu med Zedinjenimi državami in Greenlandom, in, če bodo opazile kako nemško vojno ladjo ali podmornico, bodo to radijskim potom sporočile vsem trgovskim in drugim parnikom v prizadetem okrožju. Poročila ne bodo šifrirana, ampak v vsem razumljivi angleščini. Tako se bodo lahko tovorne ladje, vozeče potrebščine za Anglico, izognile sovražniku. Približno od Greenlanda naprej jih bodo spremljale angleške vojne ladje.

LINDBERGH RESIGNIRAL

Charles A. Lindbergh je poslal vojnemu tajniku svojo resignacijo kot polkovnik v rezervi armadnega letalskega korpusa Zedinjenih držav. Lindbergh je s svojimi govorji proti pomoči Angliji izrazil v ameriški javnosti mnogo ostre kritike.

BEG V JERUZALEM

Mladi jugoslovanski kralj Peter je z večino svojega kabineča z letalom pobegnil v Jeruzalem. Po vsej priliki se bo od tam podal v London, kjer bo v bodoči poslovala jugoslovanska vlada v pregnanstvu. Tam že zavestno poslujejo vlade Poljske, Češkoslovaške, Norveške, Hadske, Belgije in Luksemburške.

Indianapolis Posts Welcome Sign For AFU Bowlers; Big Ten-pin Tourney Will Attract Hundreds

Three Supreme Officers To Be Present

Only One More Week Remains

Indianapolis, Ind. — According to advance information, several hundred American Fraternal Union bowling enthusiasts and friends will attend the Seventh Annual National AFU Tenpin Tournament in Indianapolis, Ind., May 9, 10, and 11th.

A note from Louis Milharcic was to the effect that those teams still doubtful about entering this second big AFU affair on the calendar year of 1941, should send in their reservations anyway. And if it is impossible for them to show up—they could wire in cancellations.

You still have time to enter! And if you don't you'll be sorry! For these Indianapolis committees have arranged a program that will rank second to none!

In addition, three supreme officers of our American Fraternal Union will be present—mingling with you. They will be Bro. Janko N. Rogelj, Cleveland, O., our supreme president; Bro. Frank E. Vranichar, Joliet, Ill., our supreme trustee; and Bro. Anton Krapenc, Chicago, Ill., our fourth supreme vice-president.

Dezelan's excellent bowling alley emporium will be the scene of this great epoch-making event, and judging from what others tell us, they're just about tops in their class. Besides, they're air-conditioned, and even though the weather may be a little warm—it'll be cool rolling!

Indianapolis committees have spared nothing to make this one of the greatest tournaments in the history of our AFU. The response at the Duckpin tournament in Pittsburgh was terrific. But Indianapolis declares—"just watch our smoke and when you return to your homes judge for yourself!"

Secured to play for the big tenpin tournament dance is Tony Malavasic's Blue Jackets orchestra of Cleveland, Ohio, specialists in polka's, waltzes, and swingaroos!

Even the mayor of Indianapolis and their local newspapers have done everything possible, and promise cooperation all the way for every participant! No, sir, you can't miss!

Arrangements are being completed to have special train rates from Cleveland to Indianapolis. Seven trains coming to and from these two cities. You can arrange to take any train most convenient for you. Only drop a note to the Nova Doba office.

The rate for the round-trip is $8—and may possibly be scuttled down a few cents less. You can leave Saturday morning or noon—or even early Sunday morning—bowl—get your share of the fun—and prizes, if any—and take a night train back, and return in time for work. You can't lose! A printed time schedule of trains leaving Cleveland will be printed in the next issue.

Meantime—Pittsburgh or any other Pennsy or N. Y. teams planning to attend can come to Cleveland—and from here take a train to the Speedway city.

With cooperation hitting in high gear all the way, the only thing left for you to do is to shoot in your entry to Bro. Louis Milharcic, 716 N. Holmes Ave., Indianapolis—right now! You can pay before you bowl—we'll let the late-comers do it, and get set for one of the best tournaments you've ever participated in your lives!

Everything is so convenient—hotels, places for activities, the bowling alleys—you really can't miss!

Secured to play for the big tenpin tournament dance is Tony Malavasic's Blue Jackets orchestra of Cleveland, Ohio, specialists in polka's, waltzes, and swingaroos!

Denver, Colo.—Hello Everybody—The time is growing short for the great May dance which will be held by our lodge. The floor has been waxed, the orchestra is all tuned up, the drinks are all arranged for and all the members have been selected for his or her part.

There has been a great advance sales on tickets from what I hear, the leading ticket seller being Helen Rose with George Hranchak and Louis Pozelnik close behind. But the winning ticket-seller won't be known till after the dance. I wish to say good work Helen, George, Louis and Mr. Okoren, and I know the rest of you are doing your best.

Our Supreme Vice Pres. Frank Okoren is also doing his part in advertising our dance.

So all of you folks that want to spend Sat. night May 3, for a good time, drop in at the Home of Slovenian Societies, 4464 Washington St. and those of you that already purchased tickets and all the members of Colo. Sunshine and St. Joseph's Lodge No. 21 of Denver and around Denver. I'll be seeing you all Sat. May 3. Until then Keep Smiling with Colorado Sunshine, No. 201.

Tony Malavasic and his Blue Jackets presented a variety of musical treats—polkas, waltzes, and swing numbers, before, and during the banquet. And after the program was over, the Blue Jackets really swung into it for as fine a dance session that ever was presented in the Holmes avenue hall. These boys, keep in mind, will play at the Tenpin Tournament dance in Indianapolis, May 10—and you'll want to swing about to their melodious renditions.

This occasion must have been especially impressive to the eight ladies—charter members of Lodge No. 103—who occupied the seats of honor at the banquet table and on the stage. Little Stan could not help but

Members Urged To Attend Meeting

St. Michael, Pa.—At the last meeting of Lodge No. 185, AFU it was decided to invite all members to the next meeting on May 11. So that all will know, this notice was placed in Nova Doba, calling attention of the members to attend the meeting.

Most important matter will be to vote on the referendum that was recently released by the Supreme Board to the membership for ballot and which was recently printed in our official organ.

We will be seeing you at the next meeting on May 11.

Frank Hochevar, Secretary
Lodge No. 185, AFU.

Bill Kern of Lodge No. 192, Gilbert, Minn., visited the editors of Nova Doba on Friday. He plans to make his home here in Cleveland. Inter-lodge baseball teams ought to know that Kern has pitched several no-hit diamond ball games.

Cardinal's Dance

Saturday

Struthers, O.—Here we are once again to remind you of Cardinal's Dance on Saturday, May 3rd at Croatian Hall, on 199 Lowellville Road, Struthers, Ohio. That's this week-end, and we hope everybody turns out!

We would like to see all the Golden Eagles, Betsy Ross and Collinwood Boosters present. I know that a good time will be had by all. We will see to that.

There'll be plenty of refreshments and sandwiches for all that want to eat and drink. All tickets are to be in by May 2. You are to give your other tickets to Bro. Steve Babich.

All members are to buy or sell at least one ticket. That rule was passed at the last meeting. No members are excused.

All members who are not working and will have nothing of importance to do please attend the next meeting May 8th. It is very important to all.

A little birdie told me Little Stan is coming I hope you have a pleasant trip out here and also hope you enjoy your visit with us. I hope you are as nice as the other Minnesota people that I met before.

Mary Penich, secretary

Flash From Washington State

Enumclaw, Wash.—March on to victory! That was the slogan adopted at the regular monthly meeting of Lodge 162, on Monday, April 21st.

A record crowd was on hand to witness the initiation into the juvenile department of the AFU of 14 new members.

Lodge members were enthused at this splendid progress and all have joined hands to climax the closing weeks of the New Name campaign with an enrollment of new membership far exceeding that of any previous campaign. It may be a breach of etiquette to say, "I told you so," but nevertheless I'm saying it.

Members who were pessimistic of the possibilities of having representation at the juvenile convention in Ely, in August are now singing a different tune. With very little effort on the part of the members, 14 young folk have become a cog in the vast machinery of our AFU. Who knows but what these new youngsters, if surrounded by proper AFU environment may become important live wires for future AFU activities!

Fourteen new members. That is 1400 points folks! Also the candidacy for two adult memberships were announced and applications will be presented next month for approval.

That's an additional 800 points! Wonderful news? Oh, yes indeed! It all sums up to the fact that we have less than 4000 points to go. I'm telling you it can be done—it will be done!

Your reporter promises you there will be another handful of applications on deck next month for your approval. Yours truly may have some difficulty in doing the job single handed, so there's where your pledged cooperation will come in mighty

Mrs. Agatha Glavan

Elizabeth Toljan

Lodge Slovenec, No. 114, of wife of John Glavan, president Ely, Minn., is really doing more of Lodge No. 114. You'll see than its part in our New Name them at the Fourth Juvenile Campaign. Pictured are Mrs. Agatha Glavan, who has been qualified as the Third Honorary Delegate, and her little grand daughter, Miss Elizabeth Toljan, who is the Sixth Juvenile from Lodge No. 114 in the delegate. Mrs. Glavan is the campaign!

Minnesota Qualifies Two More Delegates!

Lodge No. 2 Brings Total To 12 For Home Office State; 2 Months Left!

Ely, Minn.—Home Office state of our American Fraternal Union—Minnesota—continues to maintain the astounding record-breaking pace in qualifying delegates to the Fourth Juvenile Convention!

From the Supreme Secretary, Bro. Anton Zbasnik, official word arrived today announcing that Lodge No. 2, had qualified Leonard Perushek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Perushek, former who is secretary of the lodge, as the ninth Juvenile Delegate; and Frank L. Shepel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shepel, who is employed at the Home Office of our AFU, as the fourth Honorary delegate!

Some of your best friends are still not members—and it would not take much talking after you mention our new name—the American Fraternal Union—to convince them to join.

IF YOU WOULD ONLY STOP TO CONSIDER A MOMENT WHAT A SPLENDID VACATION YOU HAVE IN STORE IN MINNESOTA—AN ALL-EXPENSE, PAID VACATION AT THAT—YOU COULD GO OUT AND QUALIFY AS DELEGATE IN NO TIME AT ALL!

How about giving it a try!

St. Joseph's Lodge No. 29, AFU, of Imperial, Pa., will sponsor a dance May 31, 1941 at the Imperial Slovene National Home. — John Virant, Secretary.

Lodge 71, AFU, of Cleveland, Ohio, will sponsor a picnic June 29th at Stusek farm.

RAMBLING CHATTER

By Big Stan Progar

Strabane, Pa. — For quite some time now, the Rambler has been trying in his humble manner to impress upon all of the AFU members just how important the present "NEW NAME CAMPAIGN" really is. This column has carried vivid feelings of many that experienced the past campaigns and their reward, a trip to the AFU vacation city. It's one mission was to awake in some, the desire to take that vacation and then go out and qualify for it by selling the Grand AFU protection. BUT TODAY, it will just tell you of how the 1939 GOLDEN MEMORIES were again re-kindled in the mind of the Rambler. And of the happiness it brought to him.

Yes, practically two years were turned back over the week end and again, the 1939 vacation daze was brought to life. Simply because Little Stan paid us a visit here in Strabane. It was just like being in Ely again for somehow, Little Stan reminds of Ely, regardless of where he may be. And t'was a fact that he was in Strabane a dull week-end was suddenly brought to a brilliant and happy time for all. Though it was a little late for some of the juvenile writers to meet him, it brought happiness to them also just to know that Little Stan thought enough of Strabane to pay us a visit. It was grand and once more the 1939 vacation trip to Ely began to live again, in others as well as the Rambler.

And as it was with us in 1939 as we bid farewell to Ely, it was just as difficult to depart from Pittsburgh. For it meant leaving all, Little Stan, Elsie, Brother Frank and our good Pittsburgh friends and again return to Strabane for the daily grind. But you can bet your best Sunday shirt that at the next opportunity, the Rambler will be Johnny-on-the-spot to again meet his AFU friends and again live happy memories.

But he did see this honored gentleman again. Yesiree. Later in the day found the Rambler at the scene of the tournament and picking up where he left off a few hours earlier. Here it seemed more like Ely, with a few exceptions, for more of his vacation friends were there to complete the picture. And he need not say that next to Little Stan, it was Elsie Desmond that continued his happiness. Yes, our sister scribe and very good friend of Cleveland, Elsie, was a sight for our aching eyes. It was good to see her again and discuss everything but the nice weather that we are having.

In St. Louis we have a Club of the Slovenian Hall, which was organized about fifteen years ago. This club is composed of stock holders. During these fifteen years the proper spirit was never attained. By proper spirit is meant spirit whereby the stock holders would go out of their way to do something for the club in order to promote more friendship among the Slovenian people.

For this reason we stockholders are holding a meeting for the purpose of reorganizing the club, Sunday, May 4, at 3:30 p. m. at the Slovenian Hall, 3331 S. 7th St.

All Slovenians or persons of Slovenian descent are urged to attend. The reason for reorganizing the club is to raise enough money to liquidate all debts now existing so that some day we Slovenians in St. Louis will proudly say we have a home of our own where we can all meet and enjoy ourselves, thereby becoming better acquainted with one another and also to get our children interested in it so that they will also be proud of it. For further details of this club don't forget Sunday, May 4, 3:00 p. m. at the Slovenian Hall. Come on Slovenians show your spirit.

The next meeting date of the Missouri Eagles Lodge is May 11th. So until then, I remain, Frank Kodelja, Pres. Lodge 87, AFU.

Lodge 138 of Export, Pa., will celebrate their 20th anniversary at a picnic to be held at Beechwood park July 4th. Anton Zbasnik, supreme secretary of our AFU will be guest speaker.

to attend another glorious commemoration 30 years hence! * * * Arriving early, first people Cleve Little Stan met were Mrs. Matilda Walter who was busy selling tickets; then indoors ran into Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Kapelj, who informed that Sophie was ready at home, and was company along nicely since her operation. Met Mr. and Mrs. Kapelj, sweet daughter and her chum (can't recall that first name) Then Patsy Krall, whose mother had a big part in this program. * * *

Bro. Rogelj came in, and so together for a wine appetizer with Mr. and Mrs. Kapelj. Somehow wandered back when Tony Malavasic's Blue Jackers were playing and right to Laurich girls, and Mayme Bokal, her future sister-in-law and her mother. Kidded about for a while—and whisk into bar to chat with more of the group. * * *

After eating and listening taking part in the program spent some time with the Gruber family—s'funny, everyone met Mr. Gruber shook hands and it seemed like Little Stan squeezed pretty hard for a smile guy! Heh Heh. Then Bro. Janko Tanko of Napredek introduced Little Stan to his whole group which included the new athlete supervisor, Frank Sesek. Late with got together with the group from Ilirska Vila—Steve Mejak, Mr. and Mrs. Prosenc, Mr. Hrvatin; Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Laurich of Colwood Boosters, Mr. and Mrs. Tony (Ham Laurich... always likes to get Little Stan to do a solo dance. And after some wine, these long legs finally unwrapped themselves for spell. * * *

Met Beans Rayer, her sister and in-law. Sat right next to each other at the banquet table, but didn't get acquainted until after the meal. Best acquaintances are always made at the bar. Heh Heh. Miss Rayer's mother was one of the honorary charter members of the lodge. Danced with Miss Dolenc, who is betrothed, Private Anton Bokal, Jr., is at Camp Shelby. Arranged to send Private Bokal his Nova Doba weekly—and he will be reading this on Friday, April 30. Private Bokal is

And so the evening passed on, and another chapter written in the progress of the American Fraternal Union—the chapter written by the members of Lodge 103, on their 30th anniversary. * * *

Somehow can't forget to mention Little Irene and Prema, haired Margaret Kovach—the two youngsters saw quite a bit of Little Stan all evening—and when they turned him down for a dance—they really turned him down! Heh Heh!

Then with Vickie Smuk and Frances Perushek, our passersbyers from Ely, Johnny Quinn, Mayme Bokal, Mr. and Mrs. Ham Laurich, visited at Four Points, a few minutes at the Laurich home, then home to bed—bye bye—now.

Attention Napredeks

Cleveland, O. — All ball players of Napredek Lodge No. 132 of Euclid who played last season, and all those prospective fellows who would like to play ball this season are asked to attend an organization meeting Friday, May 2, at 7:30 p. m. in Glen Park Cafe on East 185th street. Scribe Covers Feminine Side of Duckpin Tournament

By Elsie M. Desmond

Cleveland, O. — The Seventh Annual Duckpin Tournament held with a big success at the ran in max of the banquet held at the Slovenian Home in Pitts- wasburgh, Pa. It certainly brought s company AFU members and their r open ends together. It was a won- Kapelelful affair and all those who chummed will never be able to get the great time they had! It was not only the members of the AFU who attended the affair, which made it a suc- cess, but the committee of Pgh., headed by Mr. L. Boberg, along with several swell assist- ants. Then members of the su- bject were all present—Messrs. Paul Oblock, Joseph Sneler, Dr. J. Arch, Andrew Milavec, Jr., Frank Mi-

Due to family illness couldn't get to the affair until Sunday. Met by Bob Jergel at the spot; went to the Jergel home where Mrs. Jergel served a fine chicken dinner—especially for Dorothy again, Bob's matey, who is a candidate for the convention and has her 2000 points already. Went next door and met Marie Trebec, friend of yours truly; met her mother and friend (who reads this col- umn). After delicious dinner went with Bob to the bowling alleys where I had greetings with Mr. Zbasnik, supreme officers and little Stan. Seemed to be get- ting introduced to AFU'ers as soon as I set my foot into the Pitt National Home—really a fine hall—but just returned from having a shave at Johnny Furar's Home with Johnny and Mr. Sporoga. These guys were really Little Stan's right-hand men. And it was appreciated.

Then the final prizes—something which teams have been looking forward to for the past year. St. Stephen's No. 26 won first place in men's division and so received the trophy... For permanent possession of old trophy Claridge No. 40 won... Then prizes for doubles and singles, etc. Should also be mentioned to congratulate the team led by Bob Jergel—the Juvenile team which consisted of B. Jergel, M. Fabec, T. Vryatin, L. Ostraska and B. Maticich... So on the list came announcements of winners and applauses for them! It was just wonderful!

And must come—so it did for the announcement of prizes and then as proud Americans, led by Dr. Arch each and everyone pledged to the Flag of the United States and then all singing "God Bless America" led by Mrs. Arch, with her truly beautiful voice.

But this was not the end. After the singing many members enjoyed themselves at the club room in the lower hall to music, laughter and fun. It had been a wonderful affair—the first under the new name of the American Fraternal Union.

Still met more people downstairs and still was having a good time with the Jergel's, Progar, Johnnie Furar, Lucille Pugell and loads of other people.

Of course the goodbyes came too; many were sad to leave, but many had to work; they just had to leave. Do hope that all who were out of town did arrive home safely; probably some of you can write about it in the paper and let us know how you did make out.

As all good things must come to an end, so had my stay in Pittsburgh too. Said so-long to many of the people who were still at the hall and to Johnnie—who had tears in his eyes, don't ask me why though and went to the Jergel home to get the small "suit-koufer." Say, who invented that word anyhow when we attended the convention in '39?!

After a thanks to Mrs. Jergel for her hospitality and a so-long to Mr. Boberg and Mr. Jergel (I won't forget to pay my respects to Messrs. Rogelj and Terbovec either) we head-

Duckpin Highlights

By Little Stan

Pittsburgh, Pa. — The recent record-breaking National AFU Duckpin Tournament in Pittsburgh was really something to write home about. With over 30 teams converging on Pittsburgh, things literally hummed along.

Towards evening Bob Jergel took us to see Frank Progar's home—a group of us made the trip. Stopped to pick up Mrs. Progar and sister. The Progar's certainly have a big mansion in Aspinwall district. They invited me to stay at their home, anytime I want—I'll accept your invitation, folks!

Back to Bob Jergel's home to get ready for the banquet. Say, fellas what about an exchange on those pictures???

Dorothy and I were ready soon so we departed for the banquet. Arrived there at 8:30 and saw quite a big crowd seated already.

After the banquet servings, done by the pretty waitresses, the high point of the evening had arrived—yes, prizes. Dr. Arch was toastmaster of the evening. He introduced the supreme members; Little Stan, who gave a fine speech and even yours truly went up to the mike and in a nervous way said a few words.

Telegrams were read from brothers Mr. Janko N. Rogelj, supreme president; Mr. Anton Zbasnik, supreme secretary; and Mr. Anton Terbovec, editor.

Then the final prizes—something which teams have been looking forward to for the past year. St. Stephen's No. 26 won first place in men's division and so received the trophy... For permanent possession of old trophy Claridge No. 40 won... Then prizes for doubles and singles, etc. Should also be mentioned to congratulate the team led by Bob Jergel—the Juvenile team which consisted of B. Jergel, M. Fabec, T. Vryatin, L. Ostraska and B. Maticich... So on the list came announcements of winners and applauses for them! It was just wonderful!

It didn't surprise us to see the gang from Struthers—Stan Pogačnik, Ed Glavic, Kinulla, Steve Babich, Slabe, n' all. It seems these boys take in practically every AFU event in this territory. We could easily call them the "Travelling goodwill messengers of our AFU from Struthers!" They're all right!

In the Pitt National Home, the Claridge boys certainly showed they were proud of their National Home. They declared it was the best in Penn., and the only one with real modern steel-spring, soft cushioned furnishings! Little Stan figured it would be swell to visit the boys sometime soon!

Anyway, the boys from Claridge and Center were there, all having a lot of fun—with the nickelodeon. Sitting at a table to one side were Anton Rovansek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rovansek of Johnstown, Pa., Irma Yeager, Mary Milavec, and Peter Sjoberg—the latter a Swede from Baudette, Minn. Further North than Ely! Miss ed towards the bus depot.

Bob Jergel and Dorothy and Frank gave me a nice farewell, a so-long and best luck until we see each other again—

That's all—my wonderful day in Pittsburgh and with all the AFU members and friends was over with—I had had my fun and good time—another important event I'll continue to remember forever.

It was wonderful meeting all the people I did—I'll remember you forever, folks—you were just swell...

Well, I got home at 7:00 a.m. Monday morning and being awake for more than thirty hours I was very tired, but I still attended classes in school on that day. I also started to write a Nova Doba article, but unfortunately I fell into very deep slumbers.

Hoping to see all of you and many more at the tournament next year again; only hoping to see teams from Cleveland represented too for the future, what about it Cleveland folks?

Your American Fraternal Friend. — E. M. D.

Lodge 182 Celebrates 14th Anniversary

Yeager was treasurer of Lodge 36 in Conemaugh, Right?

You could just feel the competitive tension between the Claridge Lodge 49 and Pittsburgh's St. Stephen's No. 26, in their pre-match games prior to the big play-offs.

That match game the Supreme Officers had really was a honey. The scores were no record-breakers, to be sure, but it was a lot of fun, and drew a fine gallery.

At Lawrence Recreation ran into our friend, Lou Polaski and his boys from Canonsburg; into Joseph Yohman and his team mate from Cheswick. And really, Penn. scenery in the spring—in apple blossom time! Hmm!

Writing the adventures of Little Stan each week in the Nova Doba took on a new twist as a fellow was right in front that looked strangely familiar. He was Pete Batchen from Gowanda who drove eight hours to come to Pittsburgh for the event.

Little Stan really believes Mr. and Mrs. Batchen should have received a prize—for fans coming the longest distance.

From Claridge, Center, and all points of Western Pa., they came. Most of the people recognized Little Stan's face—but they couldn't place the body. Huh Huh...

Mixed in the cellar with a lot of the boys—and gee whiz, if a guy could remember all the names, he could certainly fill more than a couple of columns. They were all a real swell gang.

In the Pitt National Home—really a fine hall—had just returned from having a shave at Johnny Furar's Home with Johnny and Mr. Sporoga. These guys were really Little Stan's right-hand men. And it was appreciated.

It didn't surprise us to see the gang from Struthers—Stan Pogačnik, Ed Glavic, Kinulla, Steve Babich, Slabe, n' all. It seems these boys take in practically every AFU event in this territory. We could easily call them the "Travelling goodwill messengers of our AFU from Struthers!" They're all right!

Whoever thought of the grand finale to the banquet did a grand job of thinking. Seems L. F. Boberg decided it. Everybody read the Pledge of Allegiance from the patriotic pencil souvenirs—then everyone sang to "God Bless America."

That gang from Claridge really copped a lot of prizes, and you should have seen their cheering section after the banquet! They really went to town!

Anyway, the boys from Claridge and Center were there, all having a lot of fun—with the nickelodeon. Sitting at a table to one side were Anton Rovansek, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Rovansek of Johnstown, Pa., Irma Yeager, Mary Milavec, and Peter Sjoberg—the latter a Swede from Baudette, Minn. Detroit Brigadiers

Detroit, Mich. — As the old adage goes, "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." With almost a perfect attendance at the last meeting, following the S. O. S., we were very much disappointed by the absence of President Mary Stimac and Vice-President Katherine Dolence.

With Joyce Carol Bene, around seven weeks old, or thereabouts, making her debut in person and announcing that she wanted to become a Brigadier, I'm afraid Sister Stimac and Sister Dolence will have some apologizing to do. And, Joyce Carol says "don't blame it on the rain, I won't accept that as an excuse."

The next meeting date is May 18th at the S. N. D. on John R., 10 o'clock a.m. Come on—all of you be present because in a general discussion, while waiting for the officers to appear, some very interesting suggestions were made. These suggestions involve every one of you and it's nothing to pass up, because you will profit by them; so don't you think it will be wise to come to the next meeting and get the details?

ONWARD BETSY ROSS!

Dorothy Rossa

Cleveland, O. — Due to various and sundry threats, warnings, etcetera, as to what would happen if this column did not appear in print this week, the writer has decided to donate today's lunch hour to a worthy cause and put it all down in writing. So here goes.

First of all—we are very sorry we were unable to attend the National AFU Duckpin tournament in Pittsburgh recently. Because all the girls are getting to be such good bowlers. This year we had to topple 1,972 sticks to get that trophy while at the first tournament 1,492 sticks were good enough to take the prize. But it seems our girls are improving along with the others, because we were right in there again, and four victories out of seven starts is pretty good methinks.

This is the third consecutive year Lodge No. 182 came to the top, and so we are celebrating this third successive victory right along with our 14th anniversary, and we're going to make a big night of it (dancing until the wee hours)—May 7, 1941.

Everybody is welcome, the more the merrier. The small amount of 25-cents admits you to this gala affair. Dancing for young and old and once again—everybody is invited.

Even Pappy from Claridge is cordially invited altho a certain young lady is a little bit peeved because he left Pittsburgh tournament night without paying a bet he made. Remember, Pappy? Don't forget the date: May 7, School Hall, 57th street, 8:00 p.m. Admission 25 cents. Refreshments will be served.

handy. Let's make the next thirty days history making days for lodge 162. Let's reach our quota in time for our next regular lodge meeting on May 19.

LODGE SECRETARY PASSES

Members were shocked and deeply grieved to learn of the sudden passing of our lodge treasurer, Mrs. Louise Krane. Although she had been confined to a hospital for a few weeks it was expected that she would soon return to her home. A sudden change in her condition resulted in her death. Her passing will leave a deep void that will not be filled for a long time to come. Lodge 162 will sorely miss her and extends to her family their deepest sympathies. May you rest in peace, Mrs. Krane.

Mr. Louis Krane who was elected president of 162 in December but who because of illness and the recent tragedy has been unable to attend meetings, tendered the lodge with his resignation. So elections for two new officers were in order. Elected to fill the existing vacancies were Frank Richter president and Mrs. Mary Mihelich, treasurer.

Members are again requested to please keep in mind that the lodge physician is Dr. Leo De Merchant. Please patronize him when in need of medical attention.

And as my parting thought for the day I'd like to leave you with—

ARE YOU?

Are you an active member,

An AFU Pal;

Or are you just contented,

With the pin on your lapel?

Do you attend the meetings

And mingle with the flock,

Or do you always stay at home,

And criticize and knock?

Do you take an active part

To help the work along

Or are you satisfied to be

The kind that "just belong."

Do you help your fellow members

To draft things out and plan,

Or leave the work to just a few.

Who do the bit they can?

Attend the meetings often,

And help with hand and heart,

Don't be just a member,

But take an active part.

Just think this problem over:

You know the right from wrong,

Are you an active member,

Or do you just belong?

(From Co-op magazine. Author unknown.)

Deber dan, folks!

Plans are not quite complete as to the time of departure, etc. However, we do know that if at all possible as many of you as we can should plan to leave together. By the way, Tony Malavasic and his Blue Jackets who have been contracted to play at the tournament dance in Indianapolis, will make the trip on the train, too. And we needn't waste words to assure you that you're bound to have one rip-roaring time on board train that night.

Welcome to a new member,

Stan Zupon. Now that we've got one member of the family in our circle, how about making Sister Beanie a Betsy Ross, too? Welcome, also, to another new member, Walter Desmond. Walter,

OK, Ed, will this fill up the space you threatened to leave blank if the Betsy Ross column didn't appear in your office by 5:30 tonight?

Lodge 132, AFU of Euclid, O., will sponsor a picnic at Stu's farm June 16th.

Lodge 25, AFU of Eveleth, Minn., will hold a picnic August 17th, as a part of the Fourth Juvenile Convention celebration.
