Reaganov obisk v Pittsburghu

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Preteklo sredo je predsednik Ronald Reagan obiskal to mesto, v katerem je 16 odstotkov vseh za delo sposobnih prebivalcev brez zaposlitve. Reagan je obiskal inštitut Control Data Corp., kjer usposablja za nove poklice 125 nekdanjih delavcev v jeklarski industriji.

Unija, ki predstavlja te delavce, je organizirala demonstracijo na ulici pred poslopjem, ki ga je bil obiskal Reagan. Vendar Reagan teh demonstrantov ni ne videl ne slišal. Policisti menijo, da se je demonstracije udeležilo do 3500 oseb.

Predsednik je imel krajski nagovor delavcem v Inštitutu ter njihovim učiteljem. Dejal je, da je prepričan, da bodo mogli po usposabljanju najti zaposlitev. Nekateri delavci pa so Reagana seznanili, s kakšnimi težavami se srečujejo pri iskanju zaposlitve.

Reagan je dejal, da mora zvezna vlada prispevati sredstva za usposabljanje delavcev za nove poklice. V jeklarski, avtomobilski in drugih industrijih so bila mnoga delovna mesta izgubljena za vedno, je dejal predsednik. Tega se moramo zavedati vsi ter povzeti ustrezne ukrepe.

Spopadi v Nikaragui se nadaljujejo

MANAGUA, Nik. — Spopadi v Nikaragui med gverilci, ki želijo strmoglaviti komunistično usmerjeno sandinistično vladu, in nikaragveško vojsko, se nadaljujejo. Gverilci so aktivni predvsem v obmejnih krajih in imajo oporišča v sosednjem Hondurasu. Kot kaže, te gverilce vsaj gmotno podpirajo ZDA.

V poročilih, ki jih objavlja Nikaragua, je poudarjeno, da so gverilci v brezupnem položaju, ker nimajo podpore od prebivalstva v krajih, kjer so aktivni. Po podatkih vlade, naj bi doslej padlo do 450 gverilcev in 72 pripadnikov vojske. Koliko je gverilcev aktivnih ni znano, menda pa jih je od 1200 do 5000.

Zaenkrat nič ne kaže, soglašajo opazovalci nikaragveških razmer, da bi bil resno ogrožen obstoj sandinističnega režima, ki ima veliko premoč tako v moštvu kot oružju.

Obrambni proračun v težavah

WASHINGTON, D.C. — V proračunu za fiskalno leto 1984, ki ga je predsednik Ronald Reagan predložil zveznemu kongresu, je Reagan predvideval kar 10-odstotno zvišanje izdatkov za obrambne namene. Predsednikov predlog je naletel na močno nasprotovanje v obeh domovih kongresa, tako pri republikancih kot demokratih.

Načelnik senatnega odbora za zvezni proračun, sen. Pete Domeniči (R-N.M.) je dejal, da ta odbor ne bo pristal na Reaganov predlog kljub temu, da imajo republikanci večino. Morda bi pristali na 7-odstotno zvišanje, je pripomnil Domeniči.

Težava za Reagana je v tem, da imajo demokrati večino v predstavnikiškem domu. Dobro poučeni analitiki menijo torej, da bo Reagan lahko računal končno le na 5-odstotno zvišanje obrambnega proračuna za 1. 1984.

V Beli hiši trdijo, da Reagan nima namer, odstopiti bistveno od svojega načrta, ker bi takšno odstopanje ogrozilo ameriško nacionalno varnost.

Sovjeti zopet imajo novo raketo

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Ameriške obveščevalne službe so prišle do zanesljivih podatkov, ki pričajo o razvoju nove sovjetske rakete, ki baje imata domet 1900 milij, torej daljši od še ne postavljene ameriške "cruise" rakete. Novo sovjetsko raketo imenujejo SSCX-4. Če bi Sovjeti postavili novo raketo v državah Varšavskega vojaškega pakta, pravijo ameriški analitiki, bi lahko dosegli skoraj vse pomembnejše cilje v Zahodni Evropi.

Sen. Henry A. Jackson (D.-Wash.), ki se zanima za vojaške zadeve, je dejal, da ima na razpolago podatke, kateri pričajo o razvoju nove sovjetske protiraketne rakete, ki jo v Pentagonu imenujejo SA-12. Ameriška vojska tudi razvija takšno raketo, ki jo imenuje Patriot.

V Moskvi je pa poveljnik sil Varšavskega pakta, maršal Viktor Kulikov, z ostrimi besedami napadel obrambno politiko predsednika Reagana. Po Kulikovu želi Reagan doseči vojaško premoč nad Sovjetsko zvezo, do takšne premoči pa ne bo nikoli prišlo. ZSSR bo podvzela vse potrebne ukrepe, da bo zagotovila varnost ne le ZSSR, marveč vseh socialističnih držav. V istem tonu govorijo in pišejo zadnje tedne tudi drugi visoki funkcionarji sovjetskega režima.

Francija izgnala 47 sovjetskih vojunov

PARIZ, Fra. — Francoska vlada je izgnala 47 sovjetskih državljanov, večinoma diplomatov in novinarjev, ker so bili vojuni v prid Sovjetski zvezi. Vojuni so se zanimali predvsem za visoko tehnologijo. Zbirali so podatke o računalnikih in drugih elektronskih napravah, tu posebno v zvezi z vojaško opremo.

Francoski predsednik Francois Mitterrand je osebno odredil, naj bodo Sovjeti izgnani. Privedlo ga je do tega umor 15. februarja tl. podpolkovnika Bernarda Nuta, člena francoske protiobveščevalne službe. Pretekli teden pa je bil aretiran 25-letni Patrick Guerrier, ki je vojunil za Sovjet. Sovjetska vlada je izročila ogorčen protest francoski vlasti zaradi izgonu svojih državljanov.

Pretekli teden je pa Anglia izgnala 3 sovjetske državljanje, pred dvema tednomi Španija pa enega. V Angliji menijo dobro poučeni krogi, da bo v kratkem prišlo do še več izgonov sovjetskih vojunov.

Revščina v Združenih državah

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Po podatkih, ki jih je zbral za 1. 1981 zvezni urad za ljudsko štetje, je živel v revščini več kot 30 milijonov Amerikancev. To je najvišje tovrstno število v zadnjih 15 letih. Zvezna vlada meni, da je živila v revščini v 1. 1981 tista 4-članska družina, katere letni dohodek je bil manjši od $9,287.

Polovici vseh družin, živečih v revščini, je načelovala ženska brez navzočnosti moža. Od vsega skupaj 31,8 milijona gospodarsko revnih Amerikancev, jih je bilo 21,1 milijona belega, 9,1 milijona črnškega in 3,7 milijona španskega rodu.

Vzrok temu naraščanju revnejših Amerikancev pripisujejo analitiki večletnemu gospodarskemu zastoju v ZDA.

Pretekli četrtek smo poročali o čudni izginivti našega dostavljalca pošte Dorseyja Browna. Že isti večer so pa policisti našli njegovo truplo v njegovem avtomobilu, ki sta ga vozila dva mlada črnca. Obdukcija je ugotovila, da je bil 44-letni Brown zadavljen. Oblečen je bil le v domači halji. Zakaj je prišlo do tega zločina, še ni pojasnjeno. Mnogi Slovenci v senklerski naselbini bodo pogrešali vedno prijaznega in nasmejanega Dorseyja. Bil je uslužbenec pošte 20 let in nadarjen amaterski umetnik.

Ob 75-letnici Ave Maria...

CLEVELAND, O.—Veliko je bilo že napisanega v Ameriški Domovini o kosi, ki ga pripravlja Zveza slovenskih oltarnih društev za prihodnjo nedeljo, 10. aprila, v avditoriju pri Sv. Vidu v pomoč mesečniku Ave Maria, zelo malo, ali raje skoraj nič, pa ni bila omenjena proslava, ki jo pripravlja prijatelji Ave Maria za v soboto, 9. aprila, ob pol 8h zvečer v cerkvi Sv. Vida.

Petinsedemdeset let je lepa doba za človeka, saj celo sv. pismo pravi, da je "let človekovga življenja sedemdeset . . .", še lepša pa je za etničen mesečnik v tujini. Naš prljubljeni mesečnik Ave Maria obhaja letos svoj 75. rojstni dan. Kot tak je najstarejši slovenski mesečnik na svetu. V tej dolgi dobi je zagledalo dan veliko mesečnikov, a so drug za drugim izginili. Ave Maria je izjema, čeprav tudi ona ni imela rožnatih časov, a je kljub temu ostala pri življenu.

Koliko dobrega je storila za naše ljudi, posebno v prvih letih, v času silne protiverske gonje, v času druge svetovne vojne in po njej... Še vedno čisti pojme, razpršuje dvome, gradi, dviga..., posebno pa povezuje naše ljudi v neko celoto, ki se bo mogla z njeno pomočjo ohranjati še in še.

Vse to in še marsikaj drugega nam bodo priklicali v spomin v soboto zvečer pevci, deklamatorji, recitatorji, govorniki... Zraven nas bodo vzpodbjali, naj ostanemo zvesti temu našemu mesečniku in mu pomagamo ohranjati pri življenu.

Slavnostni govornik bo sedanji dolgoletni urednik, p. Fortunat, OFM. Orisal bo zgodovino Ave Maria; njene začetke in namen, čase, skoz katere se je prebijala, težave, s katerimi se je borila, govoril bo o bivših uredni-kih, sodelavcih, naročnikih, o vas, dragi prijatelji . . ., o prihodnosti, ki se ne zdi preveč rožnata, kakor ni rožnata prihodnost nobenega etničnega lista.

Prihodnost je v naših rokah, zato pridite, da boste zvedeli, kje stojimo, in se zavedli dolžnosti, ki jo imamo do Ave Maria. Akademija bo lepa spodbuda za nas vse, naj ne zanemarimo svoje dolžnosti, ki jo imamo do tega našega mesečnika in do lemontskih očetov frančiškanov.

Ne pozabimo!

CLEVELAND, O.—Na Orlovem vrhu Slovenske pristeve v Genevi, Ohio so na skromnih deskah napisana imena komunističnih morišč v Sloveniji v letih komunistične revolucije (1941-1946).

Čas in narava naredita svoje in tako te lesene deske razpadajo. Z deskami razpadajo tudi imena teh krajev, kjer so bili pomorjeni najboljši sinovi in hčere slovenskega naroda. Imena teh mučencev so vredna, da bi jih napisali z zlatimi črkami. Morali so umreti mučeniško smrt le zato, ker so bili in ostali zvesti Bogu, narodu in domovini.

Danes se imena na razpadajočih deskah še nadomestijo, in se bodo, dokler bo še živel slovenski domobranec, ki bo izpolnjeval oporočno slovenskih protikomunističnih žrtv, pomorjenih na omenjenih moriščih, katera so za nas slovenske protikomuniste sveti kraji.

To so kraji, kjer je slovenska zemlja prepojena z mučenško krvjo, s katero je združena in oškropljena skoraj vsaka slovenska hiša in družina, katera je izgubila vsaj enega bližnjega ali dajnjega sorodnika. Zato je naša dolžnost, da ta imena ne gredo v pozabo, posebno ne imena morišč in tistih slovenskih domobrancev, ki so bili zajeti na Koroškem in vrnjeni komunističnim morilcem 1. 1945.

Kot je zgodovinsko dokazano, so bili vrnjeni domobranci brez sodnega postopka ali možnega zagovora pomorjeni po nepopisnem mučenju ter na pol žive, nage in zvezani pometani v kraške jame Kočevskega Roga in drugih krajev širom Slovenije. Bilo jih je do 15,000.

V doglednih letih, ne bo več živih nobenih slovenskih domobrancev, da bodo mogli skrbeti za imena na razpadajočih deskah Orlovskega vrha. Zaradi tega, je treba ta imena ohraniti s trajnejšim in v zgodovinskem oziru nerazpadajočim napisom.

Da ta cilj dosegamo, prosimo vse slovenske protikomunistične priče, da povедovska imena morišč, krajev, kjer so Titovi komunistični partizani vršili svoje zločine v času komunistične revolucije v Sloveniji. Imena namreč še manjkajo tako iz Dolenske, Notranjske, Primorske, Gorenjske, Štajerske, Bele Krajine in drugih delov Slovenije.

Vsa ta imena bodo zapisana v trajen in nerazpadajoč arhiv, ki bo za vselej pričal o tem krvavem, tragičnem obdobju slovenske narodne zgodovine, o grozotah, ki so jih izvajali Titovi komunistični partizani. Začel se bi že v prvih dneh okupatorjevega prihoda aprila 1941. leta in nadaljeval skozi vsa leta vojne in prvo povojsko obdobje, torej z nezaslišnim zločinom, pokolom do 15,000 vrnjenih in zajetih slovenskih domobrancev. Poudarjam, da se je ta zločin zgodil šele, ko je bila vojna v Evropi že končana!

Prosim vse bralce, ki bi lahko kaj pomagali, da upoštevajo ta poziv in pošljejo imena krajev morišč v najkrajšem času, ker je delo z napisi že začeto.

Slovenski dnevi v Clevelandu

"Prvič, odkar so obnovili Playhouse Square, bo večja etnična skupina nastopala v veličastnem Ohio Theater v središču Clevelandu v soboto, 30. aprila, ob 8. zvečer, in nedeljo, 1. maja, ob pol štirih popoldne."

Tako piše novinar William F. Miller v clevelandskem dnevniku Plain Dealer. Naj vam podam nekaj izvlečkov iz njegovega zelo obširnega in zanimivega dopisa:

"Slovenski folklorni inštitut bo uprizoril stari svet s slovenskimi plesi in glasbo v Ohio gledališču, kjer si je ustvaril svoj dom Great Lakes Shakespeare Festival."

"Ta skupina je že nastopala mnogokrat po celem mestu Clevelandu. Toda to je njihov prvi nastop v Ohio Theatre, kateri bi lahko v boode postal osrednje gledališče tudi za marsikatero družbo etnično skupino.

"Slovenski folklorni inštitut bo nastopal tukaj največ zaradi iznajdljive in energične ustanoviteljice in umetniške voditeljice ge. Ede Vovk Pušl, katere želja je, da bi tudi ves Cleveland imel možnost videti in občutiti lepoto slovenske kulture.

"Res je, da nastopanje v Ohio gledališču zahteva večjih stroškov kot pa v etničnih ali pa višješolskih dvoranah, toda Ohio in druga gledališča na Playhouse Square naj bi sestavljala naš clevelandski Broadway. Tu je središče mesta, katero naj bi pritegnilo ljudi iz vseh strani."

Naj pripomnem, da je bil Playhouse Square nekoč gledališko središče Clevelandu z vsem lesketom Times Square ali pa 5th Avenue Palace, State in Ohio gledališča so cvetela polna življeneja z operami, veseloigrami in slavnimi orkestri preko 40 let. Proti koncu sedmega desetletja pa so polagoma utihnila, žrtve bega prebivalstva v predmestja. Eden za drugim so zaprla vrata, dva sta bila namenjena porušenju, na njih mestih pa so bila zasnovana parkališča.

"Ohio in State gledališči sta bila obnovljena v večini z zveznimi, mestnimi in okrajinimi davki, in zato padajo nam vsem," pravi Bill Miller.

Prenovljeno Ohio gledališče je ponovno odprlo vrata 9. julija 1982. Bill Miller je eden izmed tistih, katerim ta gledališča pomenijo simbol celega središča Clevelandu. Zavedali so se, da će se dovoli, da ta gledališča umre, umre tudi življenska sila mesta Clevelandu. Otvoritev Ohio gledališča, kot prvo gledališče v Playhouse Square kompleksu, je zagotovljen pogled v bodočnost mesta Clevelandu, vitalnost, ki se bo končno prelila v celo okolico v dobrobitje vsem etničnim predelom mesta.

Bill Miller nadaljuje: "Plesalci nastopajo v pristnih narodnih kostumih, kateri predstavljajo skoro vse pokrajine Slovenije. Dežela se nahaja v severovzhodnem kotu Jugoslavije in je služila tekom ozemlje mnogim narodom od rimskih časov naprej. Prav zato slovenska folklora izraža vplive slovanske, germaniske, romanske in sredozemske kulture, kar doprinaša bogato pestrost in raznolikost programu."

Bill Miller je urednik za etnične kulturne zadeve pri Ohiskem največjem dnevniku Plain Dealer in vneto zasleduje uspehe Slovenskega folklornega inštituta že od samega začetka. Bil je prisoten na večih prireditvah in prizna Slovenski folklorni inštitut kot eno najboljše in najbolj delovno folklorno nastopajoče društvo.

"Nikoli ne bom pozabil najhujšega zimskega viharja pred dvemi leti, ko je bila velecestna Memorial Shoreway zaprta zaradi snežnih zametov. Tisti večer je nad 1200 oseb klubovalo vremenu, da so videli Slovenski folklorni inštitut v Slovenskem narodnem domu, na 6409 St. Clair Ave. Nezadovoljna z obiskom, je ga Pušl ponovila nastop čez dva tedna in napolnila dvorano z 2000 osebam." Tu se je g. Miller malo preveč razvnel s svojo navdušeno oceno števila, pa naj bo.

"Program podpira Ohio Arts Council. Playhouse Square Foundation, ki upravlja gledališče pa tudi izraža veliko naklonjenost in sodelovanje."

Potem pa spodbuja slovensko publiko: "Pričakovano je, da se bo slovensko-ameriška skupnost tudi odzvala v velikem številu na ta zgodovinski dogodek, ko Playhouse Square postane Slovenija."

Vstopnice se še dobijo pri gledališki blagajni; kličite 523-1755. Brezplačno lahko kličete 1-800-492-6048, izven Clevelandu, izven Ohio pa 1-800-492-9696. Dobijo se tudi pri Fridi Grčar, 943-0233, ali pa Tony's Polka Village, 481-7512. Vsi ste vladivo vabljeni.

Igrajo "Veseli Slovenci"Korotan pripravlja lep večer

CLEVELAND, O. — Bralcem Ameriške Domovine je že znano, da pripravljajo Korotanci v soboto, 16. aprila, večer v Slovenskem narodnem domu na St. Clair Ave. večerjo s kratkim programom ter da bo potem sledil ples z zabavo, za katero bo igral orkester Veseli Slovenci.

Kot slišim, je na voljo še nekaj vstopnic, ki stanejo odraslim $9, otrokom pa $5. Za tiste, ki bi želeli priti samo za program in ples, so na razpolago vstopnice za balkon in sicer po $4. Vstopnice imajo člani Korotana, ali pa lahko pokličete g. Lovšina na tel. 432-1312.

V kolikor mi je znano, bodo po dobri večerji, ki ga bo pripravila ga. Smolič, Korotanci zapeli kakih 10 pesmi, med njimi bo tudi nekaj novih. Ljubitelji slovenskega petja bi seveda raje prišli na celovečerni koncert, a letos, kot pravijo pri zboru, takšnega koncerta ni bilo mogoče pripraviti.

Slovensko petje ima med ameriškimi Slovenci močne korenine. Pojejo po slovensko danes, posebno med starejšimi generacijami, mnogi, ki ne obvladajo jezika, čutijo pa dolžnost, da nadaljujejo s to že stoletno tradicijo. Pri Korotancih znanje jezika ni še tako velik problem kot pri drugih clevelandskih slovenskih zborih, na koncertnih nastopih katerih je vedno več angleških točk.

Zelo veliko je odvisno seveda od pevovodje in vsaj manjše skupine pozrtvovalnih pevcev, pevk in drugih sodelancev, ki brez dvoma nosijo tako pri Korotanu kot drugih slovenskih organizacijah glavno breme. V zvezi s pevskim zborom Korotanom gre torej veliko priznanje g. Frančku Gorenšku za

ANDREJ KOBAL:

SVETOVNI POPOTNIK PRIPOVEDUJE

Dvakrat sem bil z njim v zadnjih štirinajstih letih, v Bridgeportu, Ohio, leta 1932 in v Clevelandu leta 1939. V rudniški nesreči leta 1925 je, kot sem omenil, izgubil desno roko. Istega leta je vzel mlado slovensko vdovo z majhnim premoženjem. Odprla sta pivnico in ker se v času prohibicije ni smela kupovati ali prodajati alkoholna pijača, je naskrivaj sam začel kuhati in naskrivaj točiti žganje.

St. Clair, glavni slovenski del, se mu je zdel grd in zanemarjen.

Zato je kupil že obstoječo gostilnico v bogatejšem zgodnjem delu mesta, jo prenovil in razširil. Med vojno je "grabil". "Vse, česar se dotaknem, se spremeni v dolar," mi je rekel. Fortuna Funeral Home Marks 25 Years of Service

On April 9, 1958, Joseph L. Fortuna, licensed Funeral Director and Embalmer, opened the Fortuna Funeral Home. Located at 5316 Fleet Ave., Cleveland, Ohio. The Fortuna Funeral Home has for 25 years provided sincere and dedicated service to friends and the surrounding community.

Over the years the hard work of Mr. Fortuna and his wife, Virginia, and the kindness and generosity of those whom they have served, have enabled the business to expand significantly, both in terms of facilities and personnel. The most recent expansion occurred in May, 1982, with the addition of a third parlor, lounge, breakfast area and parking.

Very much a family business, the funeral home staff consists of Mary Ann Fortuna Trzaska and John Fortuna, both licensed Funeral Directors, and James Trzaska, licensed Funeral Director and Embalmer.

Other members of the immediate family include Jane, a sophomore at Cleveland State University, Rev. Joseph Fortuna, Associate Pastor at St. Sebastian Church in Akron, and Roberta, wife of John Fortuna.

All would like to say they are very proud and awed by the hard work and dedication of their parents throughout the past 25 years, and would like to thank them and wish them many more years of continued success.

Joe (Sonny) and Virginia (Ginny) Fortuna are the godparents of Zachary A. Zak of Zak Funeral Home, 6016 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

Ginny is the sister of well-known Ann Marie Zak of St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, Ohio.

Scores from Cleveland Pro-Life Demonstrate in Washington

Aside from local Pro-Life demonstrations throughout the country on January 22, hundreds of persons from northern Ohio also traveled to the nation's capitol to demonstrate.

Scores of Holy Name members from the Cleveland area, including three from St. Vitus parish, participated in the demonstration. To us, it was inspiring to see so many young persons involved in the march.

At 9:00 a.m., about 300 from northern Ohio attended breakfast at the Hyatt Regency Washington Hotel. At the speakers table were Miss Nellie Gray, president of the March for Life, Dr. Willke, president of N.R.L., and three Protestant Clergymen from northern Ohio.

At about noon we assembled at the Ellipse near the White House to hear more distinguished Pro-Life speakers. All this time we had difficulty keeping together as a unit in such a mass of people.

The march began shortly after 1:00 p.m. and our group was fortunate to get near the head of the column. With our many signs and banners, we passed by the White House then proceeded up Constitution Ave., curb to curb, into Pennsylvania Ave. to the Capitol Building.

It took over an hour to reach the Capitol area and others were yet leaving the Ellipse. At the end of the march most of us had to locate our parked buses for the trip home--others stayed to lobby with members of Congress.

On this day, over 30,000 Pro-Life people from many states assembled in Washington, D.C. to protest the Supreme Court Decision which legalized the killing of the innocent and defenseless unborn. We were here because in 1973, contrary to scientific evidence, seven of the nine, supposedly wise men, denied the humanity of the unborn, thus denying them the right to life given by God. Legalizing abortion seemed to give it respectability and has resulted in over a million human lives being snuffed out in our nation each year.

The pro-abortionists want us to give up and fade away, but as long as the Abortion Holocaust goes on, there are millions of us who will continue to oppose the killing of innocent life and, just as the Dred Scott Decision of 1857 was reversed in 1865, so do we pray that the infamous act of 1973 by the Supreme Court will be rectified.

As a Catholic, I thank God we have a Pope who does not keep a low profile when it concerns abortion. Catholics should have no doubts as to what the Church teaches concerning abortion.

St. Vincent de Paul Society celebrates 150th

One of the largest and oldest international organizations that aids the poor is celebrating its 150th anniversary during April.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society, a worldwide network of neighborhood based volunteer groups, was founded in Paris, France on April 23, 1833 by a 20 year old college student, Frederic Ozanam, who wanted to serve the poor to show that lay Christians still cared and expressed their concern in action.

In the Cleveland area there are four St. Vincent de Paul groups at Slovenian parishes.

St. Christine, Euclid. Father Frances Paik is the spiritual advisor and Dan Dula is the president.

St. Mary, Collinwood. Father Victor Tomc is the spiritual advisor, and John Petric is the president. This group has been active since 1931.

Sacred Heart, Barberton. Father Joseph Ozimek is the spiritual advisor, and Larry Lauter is the president.

St. Vitus, Cleveland. Rev. Joseph Boznar is the spiritual advisor, and Michael Kolar, Sr. is the president.

The executive secretary for the Cleveland Diocese is Lawrence G. Lauter, a Slovenian from Barberton.

The St. Vincent de Paul Society in the Diocese of Cleveland has been serving people in northeast Ohio since 1865 and has never seen such need or served so many people before in its history.

Last year the society served 28,699 families. An additional 67,326 boxes of food were given to 219,926 individuals and 444,432 hot meals or sandwiches were served thru 44 St. Vincent de Paul Catholic Hunger Centers.

These figures represent an approximate 80 per cent increase over 1981. Director Lauter said, "The main reasons for these increases are the cuts in the federal budget, high unemployment, and the poor economy. He sees no immediate end in sight.

Another program of the St. Vincent de Paul Society that has shown tremendous increases in requests has been the SVDP Thrift Store operation located

SHA Honors 44 Volunteers

The Laurich Room in the new addition of the Slovene Home for the Aged was the scene of a delightful champagne brunch Sunday, March 13 at 1 p.m., honoring those volunteers who had contributed over 90 hours of time, effort, and service from September 1, 1981 through December 31, 1982.

Jean Krizman, who planned and supervised the menu, surprised the guests by serving each guest quiche, fresh fruit kabob, and a broiled tomato covered with a flavored herb. Delicious cinnamon rolls and cranberry cupcakes were served. She and Mary Kirchner had arranged the tables so that the center of the room contained the bowl of champagne punch and the tables were arranged in a staggered oval pattern making for a most pleasant seating arrangement.

Mrs. Helen Barbie, Assistant Nursing Supervisor, set the mood for the occasion by reading a poem which she had written.

Mrs. Marie Shaver, President of the Board of Trustees, explained the organizational set-up and thanked the volunteers, stating that in these difficult financial times it was even more important to have volunteers to Persons interested in assisting in this program can call 391-9655 Tuesday thru Saturday. In 1982 $204,155 worth of clothing and furniture was given away free to families referred by churches or agencies.

The culmination of the 150th anniversary celebration in the Diocese of Cleveland will be on Sunday, April 24. It will begin with a 12:00 noon Mass at St. John Cathedral, East 9th and Superior Ave., Cleveland with Bishop Anthony Pilla as the main celebrant.

The Diocesan Spiritual Director is Msgr. Casimir S. Ciolek, pastor of SS. Peter and Paul Church, Garfield Heights. The Diocesan President is Hon. Salvatore R. Calandra. Those who want more information on how they can help the St. Vincent de Paul Society help the poor can call 696-6525, ext. 315.

Mrs. Agnes Pace, Administrator, also thanked the volunteers and in turn introduced Mrs. Anna Knez, Medical Records Supervisor, Mrs. Lydia Murch, Laundry Supervisor, and Ms. Joy Karlin who will begin her duties as Activity Coordinator on March 21.

Volunteer appreciation certificates were distributed and the number of credit hours were recognized for each individual. Top honors again this year went to Ann Snyder with a total of 1,459½ hours; runners-up were: Valrie Fortuna, 1,169½ hours; Mary Champa, 899½ hours; and Mary Sell, 70½ hours. A plaque bearing their names will be hung in the Home. Additional plates for three more years has been allocated on the plaque and we hope that this will be an added incentive for the rest of the volunteers — although they are the first to say that service to the elderly is in their uppermost thoughts.

Mr. Paul Trental, as usual, was on hand to take those pictures which we treasure.

Special thanks go to Mamie Marin for her help in serving, to Helen Levstick for the name tags, and a great big THANKS to Gene Drobnić for the colorful favors and place tags which she made and which so enhanced the appearance of the tables.

There are a total of 250 volunteers; 44 were honored today. We look forward to another successful year and hope that a greater number can be recognized next year.

An Appeal to the Newest Generation

Thank you, mom. Thanks, dad.

Words are too vacuous and inadequate to express inner feelings of gratitude. I am thankful to my parents for all they've done for me. What have they done?

Twentieth century Slovenian immigrants came to America for political reasons and for opportunistic reasons among others. With them, they brought a culture, a language and a way of life. More importantly they brought a dream. A desire to succeed in the land of opportunity. And succeed they did. Despite the burden of a language barrier, the Slovenian immigrants, our parents, amazingly established themselves as a hard-working, highly successful group of individuals.

Look around and see how many Slovenians have become cornerstones of industry, trade and finance. It is self-evident that Slovenians are the hardest working individuals in the world.

These immigrants began expanding their families (that's where I came in). With families growing, problems of finance began creeping into the minds of these pioneer Slovenians. Through persistency and hard work, a meal was never missed, a mouth was never empty, a child never hungry.

The children grew older. Wanting their children to retain the culture and specifically the language and customs, they established Slovenian schools to educate the youngsters in the Slovenian language; they formed organizations to preserve the customs, and most importantly they raised their children in a loving environment centered around "Sloveniasm".

Although strict, our parents tried to bring us up the same way they were brought up.

Now, these children of immigrants are growing up. Many are married and starting their own families, or will soon begin to. It is to my generation that I make the appeal: Do not forget that you are Slovenian. LEARN the Slovenian language. Learn to speak Slovenian, to read Slovenian, to write Slovenian.

Learn the Slovenian songs that our parents brought with them from the homeland. Learn the customs that you were reared on. Go to Slovenian functions. Join Slovenian organizations. Attend the Slovenian Sunday Masses. Read the marvelous Slovenian publications that are put into print. Subscribe to the treasure chest of Slovenian knowledge -the Ameriška Domovina - and urge your friends to do the same.

Support Slovenian organizations and causes financially. We MUST NOT let the Slovenian culture in America die with our parents. We MUST strive to enrich ourselves with the same desire and hard work that our ancestors possessed. The tools of Slovenian enrichment do exist. We must only make an effort to attain them. WE MUST MAKE THE EFFORT.

That's why I say, "Thanks mom, thanks, dad, for raising me in the Slovenian culture and in the Slovenian way that you hold so dear in your hearts. Thank you for making me proud to say I'm a Slovenian, and thank you for making the Slovenian culture so dear to me, too."

'Ave Maria' Observes 75 Years

The United Altar Society in Cleveland is calling on you, dear friends, from near and far, to receive our members graciously with a kind and warm heart, who are approaching you with benefit dinner tickets for the 75th anniversary of "Ave Maria", which will be held on April 10 from 11 to 2 p.m. in St. Vitus Auditorium.

There will be plenty of good roast beef, or chicken dinners.

No one will go away hungry or disappointed.

Father Boznar is gracious enough to let us have the big hall and kitchen and plenty of parking space free.

Please try to make this 75th Anniversary of Ave Maria a day of appreciation and love for all that the magazine Ave Maria has done for our Slovenian people.

Let us also pay tribute to editor, Father Fortunat Zorman, and to his predecessors and helpers who have through the ages given us so much beautiful spiritual teachings, beneficial to body and soul.

Let's open our hearts and pocket-books and help Fathers to continue publishing "Ave Maria"-our Slovenian heritage.

Likewise, let Ameriška Domovina flourish, especially now that we have new machinery.

Human Drill Press

STAN RUS, left, and Joe Rus put pressure on a two by four board as they drill holes in one of the I-beams which cover the entire back area of the American Home Publishing Co. The beams were donated by John Dejak and are used to support the electric crane which will bring up newspaper rolls weighing over a half-ton and place the paper on the printing press. The hoist also came in handy this week for lifting up parts of the old printing press which has now been dismantled and carried away. Over 200 bolts were put into the beam facility.

Korotan Adds Dinner to Concert Program April 16

A few times this winter, it looked like it had arrived. Even the lilacs and daffodils were fooled. When it did officially arrive, it wore a cloak of lake-effect snow. We're almost afraid to admit that it has come because to utter the words only brings bone-chilling cold and slippery streets.

Yet we do have some indications that spring will really come to Cleveland to stay. We have celebrated Easter, a good sign. Teachers are starting to bring months of knowledge into their students' heads. Parents, too, are getting jittery because school is closing in. The IRS is participating and taxpayers are dreading the arrival of that date. The buzzards have returned to Hinckley. Lake Erie occasionally gives off its well-known aroma. College scholars have returned from their Florida sabbaticals. Ah, spring!

Another sure sign of spring's arrival in Cleveland is the annual concert of the Slovenian mixed chorus, Korotan. Like the fragrance of new flowers, Korotan's concert fills the air yearly with the sweetness of Slovenian song. Under the direction of Frank Gorensek, Korotan's program always lifts the human spirit out of its winter doldrums into the heights of enjoyment.

This year, Korotan offers the Slovenian community a change from its usual presentation. A dinner will precede the program. Tickets are $9 for the dinner and program for adults and $5 for children. There are also $4 tickets available if you wish to hear the program only. Either type of ticket can be obtained by calling Frank Lovsin (432-1312) or by contacting any member of Korotan.

Celebrate spring by enjoying the music of Korotan Saturday, April 16, at the Slovenian National Home, 6409 St. Clair Ave.

Dinner will be served at 7 p.m. The program will begin at 8:30. Afterward, continue the celebration with dancing to the music of Duke Marsic and the Happy Slovenians.

The evening promises to be memorable enough to keep spring in Cleveland.
