Na Eisenhowerja se vali vedno več dela

Predsednik mora zaradi odhoda preskušenih sodelavcev prevzemati vedno več poslov sam.

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Čim bolj se bliža konec Eisenhowerjevega vladanja, tem več dela se nabira na njegovi pisalni mizi. Zadnje mesece izgublja sodelave drugega za drugim; najpreje je moral iti Sherman Adams, sedaj je bolezen odgnala Dullesa, v kratkem bo šel tudi tajnik za narodno obrambo McElroy. Ker nima pri roki pravljivih naslednikov, mora vsaj začasno sam opravljati posle tistih, ki so demisjonirali. Tako je na primer zadnjič moral sam voditi konferenco zunanjih ministrov preko pomožnega tajnika Herterja.

Pomenozeno delo je vilo v predsednika več samozavesti. Loločil je republikanski strankarčev generalni direktor pri csebi senatorja Mortonja, ne da bi se bil preje posvetoval z volilnimi republikanci. Nagnal je tajništvo za narodno obrambo, naj za leto 1960-1961 računa z istimi postavkami kot letos, kar pomeni, da bo proračun za obrambo značil zoper samo okoli 41 bilijonov dol.

Med vrsticami se da iz tega sklepati, da naša administracija ne misli, da bi tekem prihodnjih par let prišlo do vojnih zapletljajev.

V Peipingu so nervozni radi dogodkov v Tibetu

HONG KONG. — V Peipingu so sicer sprejeli Pančen lamo, ki naj bo po komunističnih načrtih ed sedaj naprej rdeči budistični bog, z vsemi častmi in proslavami, toda za kulisami so voditelji kitajskega komunizma precej nervozni. Upor in odpor v Tibetu jih je presenetil. Tam divja brezobzirna državljanjska vojna, ki je zahtevala na obeh straneh že po 40,000 človeških življenj, vsaj tako trdijo rdeči diplomati v Berlinu.

Sam tovarš Mao je imel na seji glavnega odbora komunistične stranke dolgo poročilo o poteku dogodkov v Tibetu. Odkril je, da je dal rdečim četam na log, naj brez usmiljenja iztrebiti vse tibetansko prebivalstvo, samo, da bo upora čim preje konči in da svet nanj čim preje pozabi.

V Peipingu računajo tudi s tem, da bo Mao pozval Čankajška na mirovne pregovore in predajo otoka Formoze in zagrozil, da bo drugače obnovil vojne operacije proti nacionalnim Kitajcem. Prilika za tak poziv mu bo dal sedanji kongres kitajske komunistične stranke v Peipingu. Opazovalci sodijo, da so se v Peipingu zato odločili za takotaktiko, da odvrnejo pozornost domače in tuje javnosti od upora v Tibetu in nemirov v provinci Sinkiang.

Med tem je dobil Čankajšek namig od naše administracije, naj se ne meša v upor v Tibetu in naj ne trdi, da je on dal podobno protikomunističnim Kitajcem na azijski celini, naj se pričruijo tibetanskim upornikom. V Washingtonu bi radi videli, da bi Čankajšek ne dal povoda za bombardiranje otočij Queimoy in Matsu.

Če si brezobziren pri vožnji, ne pozabi, da se bo zaradi tega kesali!

Heinrich Felgemacher

Včeraj zjutraj je umrl v St. Luke's bolnišnici 50 let stari Heinrich Felgemacher, roj. v Bocholtu na Nemškem, z 4104 St. C'ar Ave. V Ameriko je prišel l. 1929 in vodil 22 let trgovino. Zapustil je ženo Olgo, roj. Trampush, hčeri Olgo in Elzo, sestri Mrs. Claro Wachter v Westfield, N. J., in Mrs. Helen Benning v Nemčiji, brata Johna v Nemčiji. Na mrtvaški oder bo položen nočjo po sedmi uri v Golubovem pogreb, zavodu na Superior Ave. Pogreb bo v ponedeljek v cerkev Marijinega Brezmadežnega Spočetja ob desetih dop. nato na pokopališče.

Mary Bastasic

Včeraj popoldne je nenadoma umrla v Euclid Glenovi le bolnišnici 65 let stara Mary Bastasic z 19102 Cherokee Ave., roj. v Zuriu na Hrvaskem, od koder je prišla leta 1920. Zapusča moža Peterja, sina Petra, hčere Mrs. Ana Moizek, Mrs. Mary Zivoder, Mrs. Martha Skok, Mrs. Helen Cameron, Mrs. Kay Matoh, Mrs. Caroline Dougherty, 17 let.

Pogled nazaj in naprej

Ko človek hodi v gore, vedno rad pogleda nazaj, na že prehodeno pot, pa tudi proti vrhu, kamor se je bil namenil. Nekam navajeni smo tako. Povezanost s preteklostjo nam budi te in one spomine, hrepenenje po vrhu, po dosegci cilja pa nas žene naprej.

Vsa naša kulturna društva, tu mislim vsa slovenska, brez razlike, stara in nova — so na tej poti. Gledajo nazaj, na preteklost, na delo, ki so ga opravila. Mislim, da sem reči, da ni kulturnega društva med nami, ki ni nekaj doprineslo v slovenski kulturni zaklad. Tudi tista, ki so danes že mrtvi, ker so prvi člani pomirili in ni bilo novega dotoka, so v sklopu še živilih kulturnih društev, ker opravljenega kulturnega dela ni mogoče odrezati od sedanosti. Opravljeni kulturno delo v preteklosti gre tudi v sedanost, je del skupnega napora za ohranitev slovenskega imena v Ameriki. Vsi staro slovenski pionirji, tudi če so danes že mrtvi ali se ne oglašajo več, so v hrepenenju, da bi doprinesli svoj dar v slovenski kulturni zaklad, še živi. Žive, ker so želeli storiti vse, kar je bilo v njihovih močeh, da bi slovenska kulturna dejavnost na tujem ne umrla. Prebiram stare ameriške, slovenske koledarje, revijo Čas, sporedi iger, ki so jih odigrala različna pionirska društva v Clevelandu. S posmoko mnogih ljudi sem rešil te stare ostaline, ta zrcala slovenske preteklosti in deli smo jih v arhiv, da bo nekoč zgodovinar ob teh ostankih mogel videti, koliko idealizma in dobre volje je bilo v ljudeh, ki so želeli ostati zvesti slovenski kulturni preteklosti.

Med množico društev je tudi Slovenski oder. Ko bo v nedeljo spet stopil pred nas z veseloigro "On in njegova sestra," bo spet pokazal, da nadaljuje pri starem, da se slovensko življenje še nadaljuje, da gre še naprej kakor človek proti vrhu. Z veseljem lahko gleda nazaj, na prehodeno pot. Niso to poklicni igralci, niso to ljudje, ki so plačani za svoje delo. Vrše po svojih močeh slovenski kulturni testament in vrše ga že leta dolgo. Slovenska sreča, ne samo igralci, je dolžna, da podpre vsako kulturno delo, da podpre napore ljudi, ki žele ohraniti slovensko besedo in da z igralci vred znova in znova pogleda nazaj v preteklost, v lastno in narodo, ker le na ta način je mogoče presoditi napore in žrtve posameznikov, ki se trudijo v dobro slovenskega imena.

Misel, da veliko ne moremo več napraviti, je zmotna. Jezero, ki ima vedno nov dotok sveže vode, ne prične gniti. Slovenc je še veliko in kakor iskreno pozdravljam, da skušajo oživeti še to in ono pionirska društvo, tako vsa slovenska sreča pozdravlja tiste, ki se ne branijo žrtvem in težav in so vedno pripravljeni sodelovati pri kulturnem delu. Pevska in dramatska društva, stara in nova, so naše najboljše trdnjave. V teh trdnjavah bo slovenska duša še dolgo ostala, če bo vsak, ki ima talent, skušal stopiti na njen okop in z njega braniti slovensko ime.

Vsak lahko živi, kdo živi hoče. Umrje samo tisti, ki se mu živeti ne ljubi več, ki mu je odveč, da bi še bral, ker mu je odveč, da bi še slovensko govoril, slovensko pel. Takemu seveda ni pomoči. Toda umrje zato, ker ga je po slovensko sram živeti, ne zato, ker ni mogel.

Bliža se čas, ko se bodo dvorane, po katerih je donela slovenska pesem in slovenska beseda, spet zaprle do jeseni. Ne bo več plakatov po izložbenih oknih, ki bi vabila na predstave. Pravšen čas, da mislimo na bodočnost, čas za načrte, za popravke, za zbiranje dobre volje, čas za trden sklep, da v jeseni vsi poprimemo. Bodočnosti nikdar ne glejmo s pokopalisci, glejmo jo do zibel. Kar je na pokopalisci je preteklost. Pred njo snemimo klobuk z glave. Njej se imamo zahvaliti, da je ameriška Slovenija še tako slovenska.

Glejmo bodočnost od zibel. Sicer tudi pri zibeljih že stoji pokopalisci, zakaj nihče telesno ne živi večno, dokler ne gre v zemljo in s telesom nekoč ne vstane. Toda neumno je ob zibeljih reči: Je, tak lep otrok pa bo umrl. Ob zibeljih govorimo o življenu, o delu, o veselju, o uspehih, o upih in načrtih.

Taka naj bi bila naša sreča. Z upanjem, s trdno voljo, z zagonom naj bi stačila za vsakim, ki skuša kulturno delovati, in s svojim obiskom pri kulturnih prireditvah krepila omahujočega duha pri tistih, ki misljijo bolj na pokopalisci kakor na zibeljih. Na ta način bomo zorali še dolgo brazdo in mogli vanjo vsejeti zrnje, ki bo dalo novo in bogato žetev.

V nedeljo, 19. aprila, imamo priliko. Slovenski oder nam bo igral za oddih, za dobro voljo. Mnogo mladih ljudi, mladih igralcev, med njimi starejšimi, ki so že nekajkrat stali na deskah pred nami. Vsi ti ljudje so izmed naših, z nami delajo in se z nami vred pehajo za vsakdanji kruh. Pa še najdejo čas in dobro voljo, da nosijo slovensko besedo na naše odre.

Pogledjmo nazaj in poglejmo naprej! Precenimo sebe v preteklosti in naredimo sklep za bodočnost. Naredimo sklep, da bomo za lastno besedo, za slovenski jezik storili vsaj svojo dolžnost, da bomo podprli stremljenja in napore tistih, ki naredi več od nas.

Karel Mauser.

NEWBURŠKE NOVICE

Father Slapšak je zopet doma. Pove nam marsikaj zanimivega. Obiskal je več svojih in naših prijateljev, kot so na primer Father Jeraša, Father Laurich, Father Gnidovec, Father Kapš, Father Blenkush in še drugi, katerih imena sem pozabil. Njih imena niso zapisana na tej poli. Tu so zapisana, da boste vedli, da so slovenski duhovniki po vseh Združenih državah raztreseni in opravljajo delo dušnega pastirstva in se trudijo za razne narodnosti, katerih jezik so se morali s težavo učiti.

Zopet smrt. To pot je posegla v mlado družino John Mikliča in iztrgala mater, oziroma soproga Bernice, katera je bila v najboljših letih. Morala je zapatiti soproga in tri nedorasle otroke. Naj ji bo Bog milostljiv, preostalem pa naj da srčnost, da bodo mogli prenašati Bogu vdano ta težek križ. R.I.P.

Dobil sem povabilo na igro "ON IN NJEGOVA SESTRA." Veste, to je zame čisto nekaj novega. Še nikoli nisem slišal te igre, zato pa ne vem, ali je to nekaj novega, ali je tako staro, da mi "mlajši" še nismo bili na svetu, ko se je ta burka priprejala. Dne 19. tega meseca ima ta burka, burkati v Slovenskem Domu na St. Clair. Če Bog da, bom prav gotovo tam pravčasno, da vidim in slišim, kaj nam vse predstavlja. Pravijo, da je ta igra meh za smehe. No, seme se vsak rajše, kot bi se kisal. Pridemo! Se reče, če ne pozabim vstopnice spet doma.

Skrivnostna so božja pota. Tako bo vzkliknil vsak, ki prebere zgodobico spreobrnjenja h katoliški veri in cerkvi dobrą poznane Irwin St. John Tuckera. Ta mož je bil protestantski pridigar 42 let. Bil je episkopske vere in dobro poznani kot minister episk. cerkve sv. Štefana v Chicago. Leta 1954 je prisostoval na neki velik praznik pri sv. maši, katera ga je tako prešinila, da je začel proučevati nauke katoliške Cerkve in postal je katolik. Saj ste slišali preteklo nedeljo: "Imam še druge ovce, katere niso iz tege hleva. Tudi te moram pripeljati . . ."

Clevelandski člani in članice Tretjega Reda so imeli važno sejo v nedeljo. Sicer vodi to skupino Father Julius Slapšak. Klub temu pride tu pa tam kak izreden obiskovalec, da pregleda ali pa vsaj poživi Red. To pot je bil Father Fortunat OFM iz Lemonta. Seja je bila primeroma dobro obiskana. Father Fortunat smo hvaljeni za ta obisk. Govoril je slovensko tudi pri sv. maši ob desetih.

Nekdo pravi: "Sitnež je človek, ki usta odpre na široko, potem pa svojo nogo vtakne vane." Ko me je prašal Smoleč Antonček, kje sem bil pretekli teden, da nisem maševal za šolarje, sem mu rekel, da sem bil na "retreat." Na duhovnih vajah.

"Kaj pa je to, retreat?" "Retreat pomeni duhovne vaje."

"Kaj pa delate na duhovnih vajah?"

"Molimo, pa primisljujemo božje resnice."

"Kaj pa so božje resnice?"

"Tisto, kar si se v šoli pri krščanskemu nauku učil. Da je Bog. Da smo ljudje božji otroci. Pomagajmo, kar se da! Naša pomoč nesrečnim poganskim narodom naj bo zahvala za dar sv. vere, ki smo ga prijeli po milosti in usmiljenju božjem. Zasluzili si tegu nismo. Zakaj je Bog poklical nas mesto sto milijonov drugih, ve-

"Kako pa moremo Bogu služiti? Bog je v nebesih, mi smo pa tle?"

"Bog ni samo v nebesih. Bog je povsod. On nas vidi in sliši vse povsod. Zato moramo spoljevati Njegove zapovedi vsak dan, ne samo ob nedeljah. Bog nas ima rad, nas ljubi. Tudi mi ga moramo ljubiti. To ljubezena skazemo, če spoljujemo Njegove zapovedi. Ali vidiš, zakaj se mora učiti deset božjih zapovedi? Zato da boš vedel, kako služiti Bogu in v nebesa priti. Kdor ne pride v nebesa, bo večno nesrečen."

Zdelo se mi je, da je nekoliko razumel. Rekel je pa samo "o."

Mrs. William Ponikvar (nekaj je bila Hrvatova Olgica, ko sem učil krščanski nauk na Maple Heights) me je povabila na koncert pevskega društva Planina. Pa se nisem mogel udeležiti. Ni pa s tem vse zgubljen, ker sem bral v listu OUR VOICE, da bo društvo pelo za naše društvo Mir SDZ. Se pa takrat vidimo in slišimo. Vse eno pa hvala za povabilo, Mrs. Ponikvar!

Dobil sem povabilo na igro "ON IN NJEGOVA SESTRA." Veste, to je zame čisto nekaj novega. Še nikoli nisem slišal te igre, zato pa ne vem, ali je to nekaj novega, ali je tako staro, da mi "mlajši" še nismo bili na svetu, ko se je ta burka priprejala. No, seme se vsak rajše, kot bi se kisal. Pridemo! Se reče, če ne pozabim vstopnice spet doma.

Mrs. Rose Tomšič je prva uganila, zakaj nekateri tiči frčijo v jeseni na jug. Pravi, da zato, ker je predaleč, da bi hodili. He, heh.

Tisti, ki ste smart, povejte, kaj se zgodi belemu kamnu, če ga vržeš v rdečo morje?

Kdo ne gre rad na božjo pot? Lepa prilika za žene, samo žene, ko bo posebni bus odpeljal.

1. maja in se vrnil 8. maja. Prostorov je samo 25 še. Ne pozabite, sprejetje bodo samo žene. Kdor bi hotel vediti več glede te poti, naj kliče Mrs. Josephine Mulh MI-1-5479. A ja. Ta božja pot bo k sv. Ani De Beaupre, Our Lady of the Cape in spomink sv. Jožefa v Montreal. Vse bo preskrbljeno, hoteli in družgo vse razen hrane stane $80.00.

Oni, ki ste teh romanj udeležili v preteklih letih, ste bili zadovoljni. Upam, da bodo zadowoljni tudi letoski romarji. Med vožnjo bomo molili, peli in se prav po domače zabavili.

Ker hoče imeti avtobusno podjetje plačano vozino v načrtu, opozarjam vse one, ki se imanja želite udeležiti, naj se zglase čim prej. Ko bodo v butu vse mesta zasedena, ne bomo prijav več sprejemali.

Za hrano in stanovanje bo tudi poskrbljeno. Ker časa ni veliko, se prosim, čim prej pričakujte.

Prijave sprejemata Jakob Resnik na 3599 E. 81. St., Cleveland 5, Ohio, in Anton Jelčić, 1057 E. 68. St., Cleveland 3, Ohio, HE 1-3084.

Vsi smo potrebni Marijine pomoči. Izročimo sebi in svoje družine Mariji Pomagaj, da nas varuje vsega hudega. Kako radi smo šli k svoji zemeljski mati, dokler smo jo imeli. Vsaj pozdrave smo ji vedno pošiljali.

Kar nas je starejših, nimamo več svojih zemeljskih mater, zato se prav posebej priporočimo svoji nebeski materi Mariji. Kdor se Mariji izroči, se ne pogubi!

Pozdravljeni!

"A kakšno veselje imate vendar, milostiva, da ga mučite s praznimi obeti in odlagate odlok od dne do dne."

"Kakor Penelopa. Kaj ne, govorit Vitovec?" se je smejala ona.

"Da, kakor Penelopa; dokler ni pogubila snubačev. A Penelopa je imela moža živega; komu pa hršnite Vi zvestobo?"

Ona se je smejala njegovim nestrpnosti in ga opominjala, da mora prej dokazati stanovitnost v ljubezni. Vitovcu pa se je zdelo tako govorjenje neizrečeno bedasto, in jel jo je nadlegovali, da naj vendar reče ne ali da in določi dan poroke, bodi že prej ali pozneje. Ona je menila, da preden ne mine leto, ni misliti na ženitev, in mu rahočitala brezobzirnost. A on se ni dal umiriti. Routil se je, da je ne ostavi, preden ne izreče odločilne besede. "Po Vašem odgovoru se hočem ravnat," je dejal živahno; "zakaj s cesarjem se lahko še pogodim vsako trenotno?"

"Ali se niste že pogodili?" je vprašala ona hudobno. "Jaz sem mislila, da se le jaz še pogajam."

"Vi me nočete razumeti, milostiva," je dejal oni osorno. "Da, zares, tudi Vi se lahko pogodite; a ostaviti boste morali Celje, odpovedati se kneštvu in na samotnem gradu preživeti neslavno starost. Ali Vam ugaša ta pogled v bodočnost?"

Kneginja je vzduhnila, Vitovcu pa ji je dokazoval, da bode prisiljena sprejeti kakršnokoli pogodbo, ako ji on odreče podporo ali celo prestopi na cesarjevo stran.

"In menite, da Vas bode cesar tudi postavljal za glavnega poveljnika?" je omenila ona.

"Neumna pesem", je zarenčal Ostrovhar, ki je bil že nekoli pil. Cesaru je bila všeč; Lambergarju pa so šinile grozne misli v glavo. Prebledel je, in tresa se mu je roka, ki je nesla požir vina k ustom. Bliskoma se je spomnil svarjeni svojega brata, spomnil, da je hotel pevec govoriti z njim, spoznal, zakaj da vedno upira vanj oči; tudi obraz in glas in vse se mu je zdelo tako znano, le domisli se ni mogel, kje da je videl tega človeka. Pevec pa je nadljeval:

Kak si namigavajo,
Stopajo oprezzo,
S kljuni pobrskavajo,
Kročejo si jezno:

"Bratje! sokola nočoj
V gnezdu si zvalbimo,
Ga prijažno med seboj
Do noči gostimo.

Ko zadremlje brez skribi,
Drzno ga obsujmo;
Da nas več ne preplaši,
Mu oči izkljumo!"

"Molči, prokleti pevec!" je zavpil Ostrovhar in mu hotel vreči težko kupo v glavo; a domislil se je o pravem času, pri kaki mizi da sedi. Cesarpa so tudi jele obhajati čudne služnje, in ko je odpel pevec kitico:

Čuj me, sivi sokol! Čuj
Nad svobodo zlato!
Razpni krila in odprij,
Pusti črno jato!

se je zgenil, v zavesti, da je prevarjen. Ohranil je vso svojo mirnost, ker je zaupal v Boga, vedel pa tudi, da mu strah ne more pomoci. Lambergar, ki je bil že zbral svoje misli, je skočil pokoncu, češ, da tudi njemu ne ugaja pesem, a da hoče vendar obdariti pevca, ki naj zapoje potem kako veseljšo. Poklical ga je v stransko sobico in med vrati že ga vprašal, kdo da je. Gregor mu je hitro razložil, od kog je prišel, in v kaki nevarnosti da je cesar. Lambergar mu je ukazal, da naj se vrne v dvo-

CONDENSED NEWS FROM OUR HOME FRONT

* A recent arrival from Europe for permanent residence is Mrs. Antoinette Vodopivec, who came to her husband, Frank, of 1008 E. 63 St. All necessary details were taken care of by Bled Travel Service. Welcome!

* On April 9th, Louis Eckart of 2193 Westport Ave., celebrated his 88th birthday. Congratulations and wishes for many more happy and healthy birthdays!

* John Craine of 36787 Concord Dr., Beechwood, underwent an operation at Charity Hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery!

* Workmen tearing down a house in the path of the Lakeland Freeway last week found a small buried treasure that surprised even its owner. A metal box was found in the rubble at 1266 E. 173 St. It were a .32 caliber revolver, personal papers and $400 in cash. The papers identified the owner as Frank Nahtigal, a former tenant City wrecking crews took the box to police, who quickly located Nah-tigal, 66, a widower.

* Mrs. Frances Novak of 793 E. 154 St., was taken to Polyclinic Hospital. We wish her a fast recovery.

* Mrs. Mary Zupancic of 686 E. 157 St., celebrated her 80th birthday on April 11th. Congratulations and wishes for many more happy and healthy birthdays.

* New York, N. Y.—Rosina Pagan, blonde Brazilian singer, had put her $7,000 diamond ring on the window sill of her New York hotel room and was polishing her finger nails when a pigeon swooped down and carried off the ring in its beak. "I'm going to sue the city—I'm going to sue somebody," cried the temperamental singer.

* Okemah, Okla.—A U. S. weather balloon that settled to earth in the pasture of farmer A. L. Starkey near here, looked like a tasty morsel to Starkey's cow. The cow munched on the equipment, got sick and died—and Starkey has now billed Uncle Sam for $210.

* Atlanta, Ga.—After John L. Jackson smashed his car into a wall in this city, police suggested he remove the sticker in the car's rear window. The sticker read "Help stamp out women drivers."

* Effingham, Ill.—Mayor Paul Taylor (salary: $800 a year) advised future office seekers to "start at the top and run for dog catcher" (1958 earnings: $1,200).

From the Indian Tepee

Friday night games at Cleveland Stadium, and there are 11 on the club's 1959 home schedule, will be particularly exciting for Indian fans this season.

A brand new 1959 Station Wagon — THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE - TRACK WHEELS — will be awarded one of the fans in attendance at each Friday night affair. The model to be presented is exactly the same as the Tribe's bullpen car used to transport relief pitchers to the mound.

Following is the Indians' Friday night schedule:

April 17, Kansas City
April 24, Chicago
May 1, New York
May 22, Detroit
June 5, New York
June 26, Boston
July 24, Washington
July 31, Baltimore
August 28, Chicago
September 25, Kansas City

Again during 1959, the Indians invite groups of youngsters to be their guests at any afternoon home game excluding Sunday. Any group of youngsters, and there is no limit on the size of the groups, is invited to spend a glorious afternoon at the Stadium. The club management asks that groups be properly chaperoned and suggests that one counselor to every 20 children is a good ratio. Counselors too are admitted free.

If interested in bringing a group of children to the Stadium, please write to:

CAPT. ARTHUR ROTH,
Bureau of Safety Education,
3481 Fulton Road,
Cleveland, Ohio

Gates at the Stadium open at 12:30 p.m. and youngsters attending the games are asked to report to Gate E between 12:30 and 2:00 p.m.

Fans in the range of Cleveland Radio Station WERE can keep abreast of game and ticket conditions each day when the Tribe is at home by tuning the station at 1300 on the dial two hours before game time and each half hour thereafter.

The mail order department of the Indians' ticket office at the Stadium is now accepting and filling orders for all 1959 home games. Tickets are also on sale for all games at the club's Richman Bros. ticket agency in Cleveland plus the usual out-of-town agencies.

Be Frank and Follow the Lane Leading to the Pennant!

The grandstand at Staid-Ho-Hum was all filled. All the nuts were out and became "bugs" when the umpire called "Play Ball." Cigar was in the box and had plenty of smoke. Laughter was catching. Horn was playing first base and Fiddle second. Molasses was sticking at third. Long was playing short and Spider, Corn and Grass were in the field. Apple started to umpire but was rotten. Axe came to bat and chopped a single past second. Song made a hit. Knife was put out for cutting first base. Dustard walked and filled the bags. Balloon went in to pitch but went up in the air. Cake walked. Beer had a good head and John Drew a pass. Boiler went in to pitch and had the steam. Hornet stung the ball, but Spider caught the fly.

Sun came up. Organ refused to play when Cook stole home. Corn was canned. Right now playing left. Wind came up and blew. Ghost began to knock. Ice kept cool until he was cracked with a pitched ball, and then Ice Cream-ed. Grass was covering a lot of ground. Meat hit a sizzling triple but was out at the plate. Everybody kicked when Light was put out. Bread went in to umpire but wasn't kneaded. PEANUT was roasted thru the whole game. Measles broke into the game in the 9th and the game was called when the trees began to leave. Door said that if he had pitched the whole game he would have shut them out. There was some betting on the game and Soap made a clean-up. Egg said, "Can you beat it?"

Satch Hopes to join

Ageless Satchel Paige, former Cleveland Indian, claims that the Miami Marlins of the International League owe him $1,300 in back salary and have refused to give him an unconditional release. He indicated that he had hopes of joining an American League club, saying: "And I'm not too old to pitch and win." Just how old Paige is remains one of the sports greatest mysteries. Consensus of opinion is that he is over 50.

Former Indianapolis Speedway

Winners Enter Race:

Former 500-mile winners were entered recently in the Indianapolis Speedway auto race which takes place May 30th. Among the seven drivers were: Johnnie Parsons, who won in 1950; Jim Rathman, second in 1952 and 1957; Johnny Boyd, third last year and Eddie Johnson of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, who finished ninth last year.

AAU Bars Use of New Drug:

A new drug which might help athletes break world records was frowned upon by a high official in amateur sports. Dan Ferris, honorary secretary - treasurer of the Amateur Athletic Union, said any athlete found using a drug would be ineligible for any competition under AAU rules. The new drug—known as T-H-A-M was discovered by two government scientists, who said physiologists believe it would enable athletes to establish new speed records in long distance running and swimming and other type competition. Its previous use was limited to making soaps and detergents.

Cards Shift to Soldier Field:

Chicago Cardinals of the National Football League this Fall will shift their home base from Comiskey Park to Soldier Field. The Cardinals had regularly played at Comiskey Park, home of the White Sox, since 1940. One of the reasons for the switch to Soldier Field was the frequent conflict between the end of the White Sox season and the beginning of the Cardinal season.

The Euclid Scene

By MICHAEL BOICH

The Euclid School Board met Monday and granted quite a few raises to administrative personnel and teachers.

The Recreation Director was raised from $9,125 to $11,000. Assistant superintendent of schools was raised from $12,950 to $13,850, and Senior High principal from $11,750 to $11,750.

New teachers salaries will start with $4,400, (Bachelors Degree) and the tops will be $7,400. For Masters degrees the salaries will be $4,700 to $8,000.

Mrs. Mary King asked the Boards' permission to allow C. Malone, the ETA president to speak, but no one on the Board moved to grant permission. Mrs. King was the only member to vote against the proposed pay raises for administrative personnel; according to her they were far out of line. She was also against the proposed raise for the Recreation Director.

game to get distorted. We have rules to keep these things in proper balance, otherwise courses would have to be bigger, more real estate, more taxes and more expense, etc."

"Why did I let him get me so upset?"

When your worries take the wheel, you're a potential killer!

It's a fact. When worries get you down, you just can't concentrate on driving. And that's when you can cause an accident! Last year, many of the nearly 37,000 who died in traffic accidents were killed by drivers whose minds were on their troubles, instead of on the road. So check yourself. Don't let anything distract you when you drive. You'll live longer—and so will others.

Where traffic laws are strictly enforced, deaths go DOWN!

THREE-PLY SOCK

As columnist Jay Hayden sees it: "The most significant domestic political fact for 1959 promises to be the three-ply sock — national, state and local — American taxpayers seem to be in for."

This gloomy anticipation should surprise no one. There's hardly a state that isn't scratching around looking for more revenue and new sources of revenue. Thousands of communities are in the same boat. As for the federal government, it's true that the President is going all-out in support of a balanced budget. However, in Mr. Hayden's words, he "faces the fight of his life" with a Congress where the big spenders are numerous.

One of the things that has happened is that we have lost sight of the distinction between what is necessary and what is merely desirable. Every family would like a mansion to live in, a staff of servants, custom-made cars and other such luxuries. But the intelligent family cuts its suit to fit its cloth. Unless government follows the same course, we're asking for financial troubles that will dwarf anything that has happened in the past.

Another significant trend is taking place.. On the state levels, particularly, there is much talk of "broadening the tax base." This is a euphemism for taking more tax money away from lower-income groups, and for reaching those who pay no direct taxes now. It simply reflects the fact we've reached the point of diminishing return when it comes to taxing the high-bracket incomes. It's going to be the many, not the few, who suffer most if the limitless spending philosophy prevails.

Reporting from Washington

FRANCES P. BOLTON • Congressman, 22nd District, Ohio
416 HOUSE OFFICE BUILDING, WASHINGTON 25, D.C.

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITIES. The House and Senate reconvened on April 7th after the Easter recess. Traditionally this marks the time for taking stock of the legislative accomplishments of the session. Unfortunately, the record thus far in the Democrat-controlled 86th Congress is not impressive. Only three major bills have been approved by the Congress and sent to the President. One is Hawaiian statehood. The second is the extension of the draft until July 1, 1953, and the third bill extended the Federal temporary unemployment compensation program for an additional three months until July 1, 1959. In addition, the House has passed three regular Departmental appropriation bills and one deficiency bill. To date the Senate has not acted on any appropriation bills. It is hoped that there will be prompt action in bringing to the House the pending measures dealing with mutual security, labor reform, defense appropriations, housing, railroad retirement, and others.

TEN YEARS OF NATO

It is both interesting and important for us to remember that in these ten years Communism has gained no ground in Europe. President Eisenhower last week at the anniversary meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization here in Washington spoke frankly from his vantage point of intimate knowledge of the European area of the cold fact that we must "live in a world in which tension and bickering by the Free Nations and the Soviet Union will be daily experience." He stressed unity as "freedom's greatest requirement . . . the very life blood of NATO." The stand taken by these fifteen nations upholding the position of the United States, Great Britain and France relative to Berlin presented a firm front to the Soviet Union. This will learn nursing "tricks" to conserve your energy at a time when you need it most. Also you will make back rests and other comfort items for your patient from articles already in the home.

Every family needs one member trained in home nursing. This training is offered free, but the class is limited to 20 students. Registration for the classes at the Health Center (1465 E. 55th St.) may be made in person, by mail or by phoning UTah 1-2000, exten. 11.

FREEDOM'S TIDE

All over the world people long under colonial rule are reaching out for freedom. Prepared or unprepared, their one great urge is to stand free. They are watching the methods of the Kremlin's state capitalism, of Mao's communism, of the West's "free wheeling," wondering which method might bring them the best results. Do they see the cruelties of Communist dictatorship? Do they realize that the individual is no more than a tool to be used ruthlessly? China has no industry as such, but she has people, six hundred million of them, to feed into the maw of quick progress. Only the West has a method based upon the principle of love, of caring, of sharing. Can we demonstrate this vividly enough to focus their attention on what is of top importance: the dignity of the individual, freedom under law?

That, friends, is one great reason for what we call Mutual Security.

Yes, we have done some of it badly. Yes, there has been waste. Yes, we have had and will have bitter disappointments. But do we really want to turn our eyes away from the cold realities of today's world happenings? Do we really want to close our ears and our hearts to such words as "He who loves his (own) life shall lose it?" I ask myself: Am I just a dreamer to continue to believe that my fellow Americans have a deep inner urge, a driving need to make the world a decent, free, wholesome, healthy place for people everywhere? For I still believe that, just as I believe that if we are true to ourselves and our belief, and trust in Almighty God, no power on earth can destroy us or those who stand with us as we with them.

Amen

The sermon had gone on and on. At last the pastor paused and said, "What more, my friends, can I say?"

From the back of the church came a voice: "Amen."

An Invitation to Amateur Music Makers

Do you play some instrument or do you enjoy singing? Do you get special pleasure out of playing or singing with other people?

A great many people who are not professional musicians find great pleasure in playing the piano, some string or wind instrument, or in singing, but many of them wish for an opportunity to enjoy and to share their musical enthusiasms with others.

The Friends of the Cleveland Public Library want to help amateur musicians to find each other so that small groups may come together all over the Cleveland area to make music together and to enjoy new and interesting friendships. This means playing music with and for other people. Musical people who have come from foreign lands are encouraged to participate and to share their rich natural backgrounds.

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE

Membership application forms for Amateur Music Makers are available in the Main and all Branch Libraries, Settlement Houses, and many music stores. These forms are to be mailed to the Cleveland Public Library after you have filled in certain information: what voice you sing and what instrument or instruments you play, and how do you rate yourself — beginner, average, or advanced. There will be no fees or dues to pay.

To start things off, the Friends of the Cleveland Public Library will have one large get-acquainted meeting in the recital hall of the Main Library, 325 Superior Ave. The date of this will be Friday, April 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Room 36. After this, the Branch Libraries will help to find places for musical activities. A file of names will be made available to help you find each other. For instance, if you would like to find a pianist, a tenor, a clarinetist, or someone who plays the recorder, the file will suggest many people whom you could invite to make music with you.

The great success of similar plans in other communities suggests a splendid opportunity for people here to enjoy the one language which is understood everywhere: — Music.

Free Classes in Home Nursing

Classes in home nursing will begin at the Newton D. Baker Health Center on April 29th and continue for seven weeks each Wednesday at 1:15 p.m. This American Red Cross Course is taught by a registered nurse to prepare you to take care of your patient and yourself in case of illness in your home. You will

All Roads Lead To Cleveland For Opera Week

LUCINE AMARA

Traveling over Ohio's broad highways, traffic to Cleveland for the Metropolitan Opera in Public Hall, April 20 thru 26, will be coming all week from more than 250 cities and towns throughout Ohio and neighboring states.

Again this year the vast majority of out-of-town patrons will come by automobile to see the Met's beautifully streamlined stage productions, boasting of as much glamour as a Broadway musical, as it presents nine of grand opera's greatest masterpieces.

Grand opera is grand fun in Cleveland.

The 34th annual festival, sponsored by the Northern Ohio Opera Ass'n., has a dazzling array of stars in each performance that makes "Cleveland's all request season" one of the most sparkling offered anywhere in the world. And the convenient parking in the hall's underground garage and the huge new lakefront parking lots makes it additionally enjoyable for out-of-town visitors.

Lucine Amara, one of the Met's brilliant new voices, will be heard in two operas. On Thursday evening, April 23, in Mozart's "Don Giovanni" she has the role of Dona Elvira and on Saturday evening, April 25. In Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci," half of the Saturday evening double bill, she has the lead of Nedda.

Other operas to be heard during the Cleveland season are: Monday evening, April 20, Puccini's "Tosca"; Bizet's "Carmen." Tuesday evening, April 21; Verdi's "Rigoletto," Wednesday evening, April 22; Puccini's "La Boheme," Friday evening, April 24; Strauss' "Fledermaus," Saturday matinee, April 26; the twin bill of Mascagni's "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Leoncavallo's "Pagliacci." Saturday evening, and Puccini's "Madama Butterfly," Sunday matinee, April 26.

Tickets and information on the operas are available at the Northern Ohio Opera Ass'n.'s box office in the Union Commerce Bank, E. 9th and Euclid Ave., Cleveland 14, Ohio. Seats are $2 to $12, no tax.

Census To Ask Migration Questions in April Survey

Special questions on migration will be asked in the April Current Population Survey, according to Supervisor John E. Tharaldson of the U.S. Census Bureau's regional field office at Detroit which will participate in the survey.

Similar migration questions asked in the Current Population Survey last year revealed that 33 million people, or 19.8 percent of the 168 million persons in the civilian population one year old and over, moved from one house to another between March 1957 and March 1958.

Two-thirds, or 22 million, of the movers in the 1957-58 period changed residences within the same county. One-third, or about half and half between intrastate and interstate movers.

The West continued to have the most mobile population, 26.7 percent having moved in the 1957-58 period. The mobility rate for the South was next highest with 22.8 percent, while the rate for the North Central Region was 18.2 percent and the northwest, 14.3 percent.

The migration questions will be in addition to the regular monthly Current Population Survey inquiries on employment and unemployment. Current Population Survey information will be collected locally during the week of April 20th by certified enumerators.

Naval Reserves To Conduct Weekend Drill

This coming Sat., April 18th, 114 Naval Reservists from all over Northern Ohio will board a Navy submarine in Cleveland and conduct a week-end drill. The vessel is the famous World War II submarine, USS GAR, which is moored at the U.S. Naval and Marine Corps Reserve Center, 1039 E. 9th St. The 114 Naval Reservists are members of Submarine Division 4-92.

Altho the GAR will not leave the dock, the Reservists will simulate an actual wartime patrol. The engines will be operated, diving and surfacing controls will be manned, and tactical problems will be worked with periscope and range finder. Despite all the activity below deck, the GAR will continue to float placidly at the dock, and targets will be Cleveland buildings such as the Terminal Tower.

Actually, training of this type has been going on ever since November 1947 when the GAR was towed up the Mississippi River and thru the Great Lakes to her present resting place. Until this year, however, drills were held weekly on Thursday evenings.

This made it difficult for suburban residents to participate. Beginning in 1959, the drill schedule has been shifted to the third weekend of each month. Hours are from 0800 to 1630 (that's 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in civilian parlance) and noon meal is served. Bunks are available for those who wish to stay aboard on Saturday night.

Reserve skipper of the unit is Lt. Cmdr. D. R. Harter, USNR, who lives at 1163 Ford Rd., Lyndhurst. Lt. Cmdr. Harter predicts that the new week-end drill schedule will make it possible for Reservists to participate from as far away as Erie, Columbus, and Toledo. Veterans and young men interested in the program may obtain more information by visiting the Training Center on April 18th or 19th. During weekdays, information may be had from the Officer in Charge of the GAR, Lt. George H. Dartus, USN. Phone number is SUperior 1-3643.

Tickets and information on the operas are available at the Northern Ohio Opera Ass'n.'s box office in the Union Commerce Bank, E. 9th and Euclid Ave., Cleveland 14, Ohio. Seats are $2 to $12, no tax.

Library Salutes Seaway Year

Cleveland Public Library salutes the Seaway Year — 1959 with a series of four Monday evening programs titled, "The World, the Seaway — Cleveland."

All four programs are open and free to the public and will be held in the Main Library Auditorium, 325 Superior Ave., at 7:30 p.m. on April 20, and 27, May 4, and 11th.

The opening program on April 20 is titled, "The Seaway — Between Two Worlds." Edwin Converse Higbee, Manager of the Cleveland Field Office of the U.S. Department of Commerce, will discuss the significance of the seaway for Cleveland. Music and folk dancing will symbolize the theme, "Between Two Worlds."

The Collinwood High School Wind Ensemble, conducted by Omar P. Blackman, will play the "St. Lawrence Seaway March" by Robert H. Rimer, Richard Rodgers' "Victory at Sea," and "Hurricane" by Paul Yoder.

A group of dances, "Petronella," "Pokio," and "Texas Whirl" will be performed by the eight members of the Olive Whitworth dance ensemble.

Miss Sigrid Jaeger, a 13-year-old soprano of Norwegian descent, wearing a Norwegian costume, will sing two Norwegian songs and a Swedish song.

On April 27, the program will be devoted to "Ships and Waterways of the Past." The featured speaker will be Dr. Robert Fletcher of Oberlin College, author of the new book, "The Eureka," the story of the voyage of the first ship from Cleveland to California, 110 years ago. Herbert W. Dosey of the Great Lakes Supply Company, will furnish commentary on the film strip, "Great Lakes Transportation."

Lake Chanties will be sung by a group at the April 27 program.

On May 4, a panel of Cleveland businessmen will discuss the effects of increased shipping on Cleveland at the program, "Cleveland, a New Center of World Trade."

The final program on May 11— "Cleveland, Meeting Place of the Nations," will feature songs and dances of the countries whose ships and people have come to Cleveland.

This series of programs is being presented by the Cleveland Public Library with the co-sponsorship of the Cleveland Seaway Commission, the Lake Carriers Association, the Chamber of Commerce, the World Trade Association, the Great Lakes Historical Society, the Cultural Gardens Association, and the Small Business Association of America.

Easy to Find
Asked where her husband might be found, his wife replied that he had gone fishing.

"Just walk down to the bridge," she suggested "and look around until you find a rod with a worm on each end."

Different Now

"Golly," said the stranger at a dance, "what a long and lanky girl over there."

"Hush," his host whispered. "She used to be long and lanky — now days she's tall and stately. She just inherited a million dollars."
